C/C SPOTLIGHT REVIEW:

Webster's Dictionary gives a half dozen different definitions for the word "bank". Perhaps the most meaningful to many of us is this one: "an institution for lending, borrowing, exchanging, issuing, or safe-guarding money". Whose money? Yours and mine--and that is important to us, isn't it?

Brackettville and Kinney County is most fortunate to have a banking institution of long-standing stability and security for our dollars. The First State Bank was established in 1906, eighty-three years ago, and has provided reliable service without interruption since then. It has been around longer than most of us! It has withstood the tests of time and economic uncertainty. That is quite reassuring!

Depository services to safe-guard our money until needed, include the following: commercial and regular checking accounts of several kinds--the popular Banclub type, three interest bearing checking or savings accounts, and Certificates of Deposit. For more convenience to us, the bank provides A.T.M. cards that can be used at two locations in Del Rio and one in Sonora to withdraw funds from any account we have with FSB. Away from home service can be mighty helpful at times!

Under lending services, the bank provides: loans to purchase new or used automobiles or trucks, furniture or appliances, livestock and farm equipment, and for home improvements. For time away from home, vacation loans are available, commercial and residential real estate loans are big items. The business owner can obtain operating capital or special purpose financing, all types of business loans are available. If you need extra bucks, FSB is the place to go for help!

Other services include: safe deposit boxes of different sizes, cashiers checks, bank money orders, travelers checks, wire transfers, note collection, and fax machine service, as well as photocopies.

Retired folks, receiving monthly military or social security income, can benefit from the Direct Deposit Service provided by the bank. This safe-guard against loss of income payments is highly recommended. Employed persons on a government payroll may also use this service.

Those of us who have been customers of the bank for years can testify, with many pleasant memories, that the bank staff does a great job of attending to our needs. They are friendly folks who know how to make a person feel at home at the bank. Get to know them better--and appreciate their valuable services, as listed:

- Donald R. Ralston, President
- Paco Perez, Head Cashier
- Nancy Forbes, Loan Secretary
- Ellen Pastor, New Accounts, Clerk/Teller
- Elia Ward, Drive-In-Teller
- Neelia Hetu, Window Teller
- Julie Nowlin, Bookkeeper/Proof Operator

The Bank is housed in an attractive rock building at the intersection of Ann and Spring streets. The lobby is open Monday-Friday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Drive-In Window opens at 9 a.m. but closes at different times -- 5 p.m. on Monday and Friday, 2 p.m. Tuesday - Thursday. Call 563-2451 for information. You will enjoy the friendly and courteous assistance you will receive! Seasons greetings one and all!

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH MARY SCHERMERHORN

In an exclusive interview Tuesday, 19th of December, 1989, Mary Schermerhorn came to the Kinney Cavalryman to clarify her position in reference to an article written by Richard Smith in the Express News.

Mary stated that the WPC Company that she and her husband operate IS a legitimate business. They are a wholesale distributing Company. Members are charged $50.00 to join and in return can order products at a 40% discount. She also stated that the statement that the members were required to pay $150.00 was incorrect.

Mrs. Schermerhorn is very upset with the accusations because she has been in contact with officials in Austin from the very beginning of the forming of their company. She also has attorneys who assisted her with the legal aspects of her company.

Mrs. Schermerhorn stated that the reason she came to the Kinney Cavalryman to give an interview was, she felt that she would be quoted accurately.

In closing, Mrs. Schermerhorn stated that there are no illegal schemes connected with her company.

The highest water fall in Texas is Capote Falls, which is located about fifty or sixty miles northwest of Presidio, in Candleria, Texas. After obtaining permission from the owner of land, on which the falls is located, we drove from Marfa to Big Bend National Park and up river to Candleria, Texas. Here we turned onto the private road of the ranch. After passing through miles of petrified wood and lava flow, we arrived at the ranch headquarters.

The temperature at the time was 109 degrees in the shade, and our gracious hostess supplied us with a much appreciated, cool drink of water.

We then drove up the creek bed as far as our four-wheel drive would take us, because of the narrow canyon walls, and the immense boulders in the creek bed we were forced to go the rest of the way by "shanks mare".

We had walked, and scrambled up the creek, and over boulders for about three and one half miles when we finally heard the sound of the falls. After a little more wading we saw at last the allusive Capote Falls.

The falls are very beautiful, and drop from the top of the cliffs to the bottom of the canyon floor in two stages.

Since the heat of the summer day was so intense we decided to go for a dip just to cool off. At the bottom of the falls is a pool, which is formed by the overflow of the falls, from there the water then flows into a stream. The canyon walls are solid rock, with tops that look like drapes. The word "Capote" means "skirted" in Spanish which described the canyon walls perfectly.

About sundown we walked and scrambled back down the creek to our vehicle. We decided to camp there for the night. While we were eating our evening meal, I felt as if I was being watched closely by someone or something. I turned and saw there on a ledge of one of the many cliffs was an old billy goat watching us. He looked like a little old man with a long white beard. I suppose we were a curiosity to the old fellow also.

We broke camp the next day and drove down river to the Hot Springs. As we need to try and restore our tired and aching muscles.

Tony has been with the Soil Conservation Service at Brackettville since 1985. We would all like to thank Tony for the job he did helping farmers and ranchers around the county to apply conservation to their land. GOODBYE TONY, KAREN, HEATH & JACOB....we wish you the best!!!!

PROTECT YOUR PETS FROM COLD WEATHER

The cold weather we have been experiencing puts us in the mood for the Christmas holidays. We do not need, however, to forget our pets and special care, such as shelter and adequate nutrition, should be given to protect family pets from wintertime hazards during the extremely cold months.

Winter temperatures in this area are not at such extremes that animals accustomed to staying outdoors will be hurt. If your pet can seek shelter that keeps out chilling winds and covers frozen ground, it should be adequately protected.

Animals that are very young or very old should probably not be kept outdoors. Healthy animals can tolerate cold weather. More food may be needed because pets need more calories to produce body heat. The daily water supply should also be checked to make sure it is clean and does not stay frozen for long periods of time.

Along with cold weather care, pets should be checked for internal and blood parasites such as heartworms and vaccinations are up to date.

WINTERIZE YOUR LAWNMOWER

Now is also a good time to winterize your lawnmower. Here are some winter maintenance tips for lawnmowers that may lead to more efficient operation this spring.

- Operate the engine until it runs out of fuel or drain the fuel tank and carburetor. Gasoline left in the tank or engine, will evaporate and leave varnish and gum which may clog small carburetor openings and lines.
- Drain and replace crankcase oil while the engine is warm. Use fresh oil as recommended in the owner's manual.
- Remove, clean, regap and replace the spark plug.
- Clean the entire mower, including the engine cooling fins.
- Clean or replace the air filter.
- If you store the lawnmower outside, it would be a good idea to cover it with a waterproof sheet.

If you need more information, please come by the Kinney County extension office. Hope you and your family have a happy Holiday Season.

A Bountiful Christmas

"CARE PRAYER"

Almighty God, in giving us dominion over things on earth, you made us fellow workers in your creation: Give us wisdom and reverence so to use the resources of nature, that no one may suffer from our abuse of them, and that generations yet to come may continue to praise you for your bounty; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPA

United States Attorney Timothy D. Leonard and United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Regional Administrator Robert E. Layton Jr., announced today that a Federal Grand Jury in Oklahoma City returned a forty-eight count indictment charging two former city employees of Enid, Oklahoma with violations of the Clean Water Act and making false statements to the government.

Raymont T. Brittain, former Superintendent of Public Utilities, and Robert C. Coble, former Water Pollution Control Plant Supervisor, have been charged with thirty counts of violating the Federal Clean Water Act and eighteen counts of falsifying federal reporting forms. The indictment charges that the two men were responsible for the discharge of raw sewage from the Enid sewage treatment plant into Boggy Creek. Each count carries a possible prison sentence of up to one year and/or a fine of up to $25,000 per day of violation.

The indictment further charges that Brittain and Coble falsified the discharge monitoring reports which provided documentation to the EPA for determining the city's compliance with the limits set in the plant's waste water discharge permit. These violations are punishable by a sentence of up to five years and/or a fine of up to $10,000 per violation.

If convicted, the application of the alternative Fines Act can collectively increase the total fines to $7.5 million. In addition, each faces a total of 120 years in prison.

The indictment is the result of an investigation led by Special Agents of the Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Criminal Investigation and was jointly investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, with assistance from EPA Region 6 Water Management Division and Environmental Services Division, and attorneys from both the United States Attorney's Office and the EPA.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

The Brackettville Volunteer Fire Department had their Annual Christmas Party, Saturday, December 16, 1989 at the Ft. Clark Springs NCO Club. There were approximately 50 in attendance. The award of "Fireman of The Year" was given to Ruben Buantello for attending 25 fires in 1989, making all meetings, but one (which was an excused absence), participating in all major functions of the department, and attending all available training schools. Alfred Pena was officially retired after 20 years of faithful service. Certificates were given to cast members & production staff of the play, "The Curious Savage" for their contribution.

The Ladies Auxiliary presented their awards, recognizing the ladies who had contributed that something extra in 1989. An award was given to Johnny McClure for his special contributions. A potluck dinner was enjoyed by everyone.

The Firemen made their annual visit with Santa to Jones Elementary and Headstart at Carver School, December 21st. After setting on Santa's lap and expressing their wishes, the children received a gift of apples and oranges. Even the Official Grandma of the Fire Department set on Santa's knee and received her apple.

They are glad to report there have been no fires since November 5th.

Have a Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!!!

JOE LARA WHO PLAYS THE APACHE WARRIOR IN "GUNSMOKE II" AT ALAMO VILLAGE.

"GUNSMOKE II"

Modeling wasn't enough for actor, Joe Lara who plays Wolf in the upcoming television movie, "Gunsmoke II", which has been being filmed in the Brackettville area. "It wasn't fulfilling, I wasn't able to really use myself," said Lara.

Born in San Diego, California and growing up at Newport Beach, California, Lara then decided to pursue a modeling career in Europe. Realizing that modeling didn't provide the challenge he was wanting, Lara moved to Los Angeles, California.

"The best experience is my acting classes, it is important to stay in tune. Luck isn't everything, there is much work involved in making it," said Lara. I want to do good work, I want to have good substantial roles that make a difference.

What type of character is Wolf? "Wolf is a respected Apache warrior fighting for his culture, his homeland," said Lara. Wolf is Geronimo's top man. Lara said that he really didn't do anything differently to prepare for his role, although he did have to grow his hair longer than he really wanted. "I really can't wait to get it cut," said Lara.

Off camera, Lara is extremely down to earth and wants others to realize that he is on their level. He said, "It is easy to lose reality, I can't do that. It is most important to keep growing and never get sidetracked. I can't feel special, if it's not reality."

What is James Arness really like? "He is great! He is truly a legend in the western scheme of things. I've loved working with him and I really like working in Texas," said Lara.

This was Lara's first trip to Texas, but he claims that it won't be the last. "I love Texas. I really want to learn how to rope. At home all I have to rope is the fire hydrant," said Lara.

After Christmas, Lara will return to Los Angeles to continue acting classes and begin work on his new project.

"I regret often that I have spoken;

never that I have been silent."

REFLECTIONS

BY PRESTON TAYLOR
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

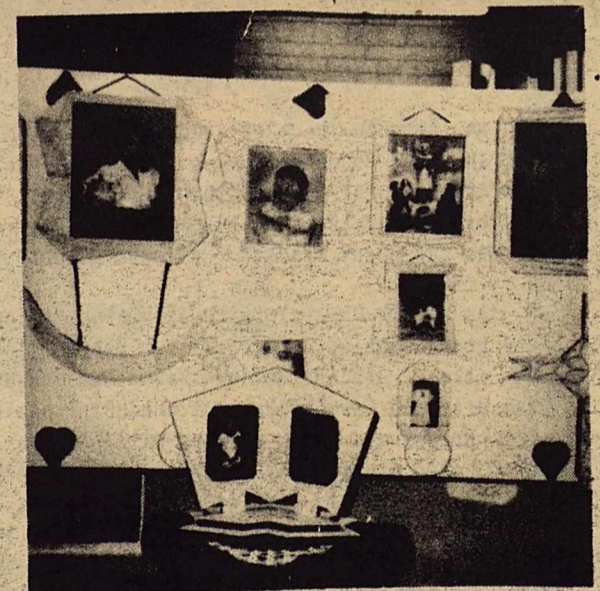

Do you like the Christmas story? Most people do. Gifts, decorations, music, tangy meals and even ugly sights and sounds are a part of this season. What does it really mean?

Christmas is a season of mystery. Who can understand the wonder of it all? The beauty, glory and awe of this event is beyond all of us. The Eternal God came in human flesh. without a human father, the Christ child was born of the Virgin Mary. A supernatural act of God was this. It is the great Christmas miracle.

Christmas is a season of music. When Jesus came into the world a number of angels announced in majestic tones: "Glory to God in the highest." Although the Bible never mentions their singing, music is a part of this celebration. It's a season of song.

Christmas is a season of the master. the Child who was born 2,000 years ago is the Lord of the universe. Kings and Kingdoms shall all pass away. Jesus is Eternal. Every knee one day will bow and every tongue (atheistic, agnostic and acknowledging and accepting tongue) will confess that Christ is Lord.

Real meaning in life may be found. Spew out the froth. Don't run for an escape hatch. Flee from your idols. Come to Jesus Christ. He's for real.
