New Border Patrol Help Arrives

By Cindy Braesicke

Jeff Parsons, previously stationed in Calexico, Calif. is now the Assistant Patrol Agent in Charge at our Brackettville Border Patrol Station. Parsons duties as A.P.A.I.C. will include some field work but mostly administrative duties. Parsons started work October 22. Patrol Agent in Charge, Jim Runyan has been showing Parsons around the territory and introducing him to Agents and Ranchers. Parsons is very impressed with the Brackettville B.P. Station and its agents. He said he is going to enjoy living in Texas, the country is beautiful, the air is clean and the people are much friendlier here. Jeff's wife, Sandra and children, Bryan, age 10 and Coryne, Age 8 are also enjoying Texas. Parsons says he is happy to be here. He has noticed the community support and will do everything he can to see that the cooperation continues. His door is always open, if anyone has a problem or a question. Patrol Agent in Charge, Jim Runyan said, "Parsons qualifications are outstanding, he is a welcomed and needed addition to our station." Runyan will now be able to work out in the field with his men more.

2 - 2 Vehicle Collisions

Wednesday, October 24th, a two car collision occurred at 8:20 a.m., 16 miles E. on U.S. 90.

Vehicles involved were a 1984 Suburban, driven by Jesus Lopez, Jr. of Del Rio, and a 1984 Ford Bronco driven by John Berry

Kinney County Health Fair a Success!

Pictured at the right is Mr. Agapito Saenz who is only one of almost 500 people of this community that participated in the Kinney County Health Fair this year.

There were approximately 34 different health related businesses and entities that participated in the Health Fair this year.

The Lions Club and other citizens of the Community worked very hard to put together this Fair for the benefit of the Citizens of Kinney County.

Everyone involved are very pleased at the turnout and are hoping next year will be an even better and bigger County Health Fair.

Thanks to all that helped make this Health Fair the very best we have had!

IV of Jacksboro, Tx.

Both vehicles were traveling west on Hwy. 90. Berry slowed down at the Border Patrol checkpoint and Lopez hit him from behind.

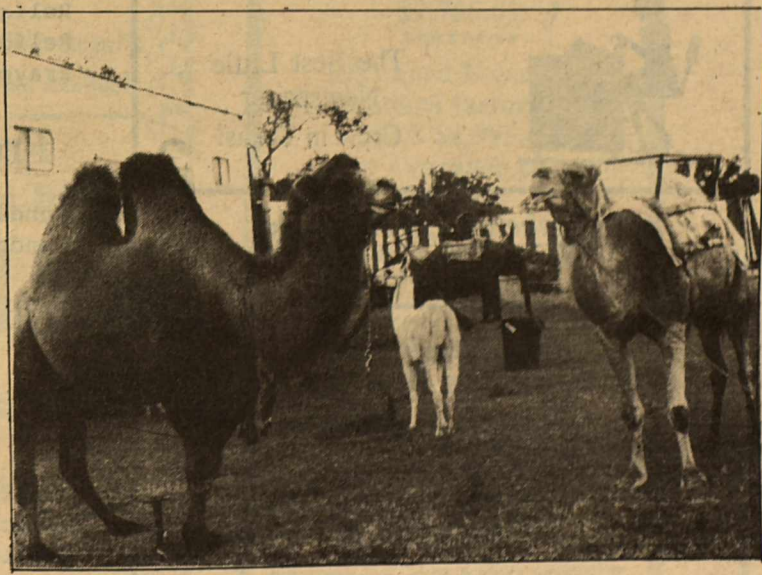

There were no injuries and only minor damage to the vehicles. Lopez was ticketed for failure to control speed.

Another two car collision occurred Friday, October 26, at 3:30 p.m. at the intersection of U.S. 90 and Ross Street.

Vehicles involved were 1975 GMC P.U., driven by Ismael Porro of Brackettville and a 1982 Dodge P.U. driven by Richard Eric Rudman of Brackettville.

Porro was stopped at the intersection of Ross & U.S. 90. He did not see Rudman coming on U.S. 90 and pulled out and struck the side of Rudman's vehicle.

There were no injuries and only minor damage done to the vehicles.

Camels?

No you are not seeing things - they are really camels! The Plunkett Bros. Circus came to town Monday, October 29, 1990.

There were many neat animals including some beautiful tigers, a black panther, leopard, elephants, llamas, and burros. The Volunteer Fire Dept. were responsible for bringing the Circus to town as a fund raiser. Many of the children (and adults) of the community enjoyed the show.

Tigers Corral Mustangs

BRACKETT - The Fightin' Tigers captured a playoff birth as they defeated the Natalia Mustangs 41-6 Friday evening at Tiger Stadium.

The victory upped Brackett's district record to 3-0, while the Mustangs fell to 1-2.

The Tigers won the toss and elected to receive. Lesly Floyd took the opening kickoff and ran 11 yards before the ball was knocked loose by a Mustang defender as Brackett fumbled giving Natalia possession.

Natalia ran two plays before fumbling the ball back over to Brackett. The Tigers took possession of the ball on their own 31 yardline. Brackett had no problem moving the ball down the field as they put the first points on the board when Adrian Pena ran for a 14 yard touchdown. The PAT kick was blocked as Brackett went up.

Natalia just couldn't hold onto the ball. Their next possession also ended in a turnover, this time Scott Broderick recovered a fumble for Brackett.

The Tigers increased their lead as Billy La Gioia scored on a reverse which covered 34 yards. Steve Clementz ran in the two-point conversion for a 14-0 Tiger lead.

Natalia took the Tigers kickoff and began their only successful drive from their 32 yardline. Their only six points came on a 7 yard pass from George Campos to Dean Cain. The Mustangs were penalized on the conversion attempt due to a delay of game. On their second attempt they were stopped by the powerful Tiger defense.

Brackett was able to score two more times before halftime.

At the 10:15 mark in the second period, Clay Hunt connected with Frank Rodriguez for a 64 TD pass. George Garcia booted the extra point for a 21-6 lead.

With 1:59 left in the half, Steve Clementz crossed the goal line from two yards out for six points. He ran in the conversion on the fake PAT kick putting Brackett up 29-6 at halftime.

Geovani Wardlaw scored the only points in the second half with two TR4D runs. The first came at the 9:11 mark in the third quarter on a one yard run. His second touchdown came only thirty seconds into the final stanza, when he raced 30 yards rounding out the score to 41-6 for the Tiger victory.

Band News

The Brackett Fighting Tiger Bands winning spree continued as they received a II at U.I. L. Marching Contest October 27, in Hondo.

Ms Crane, Brackett Band Director, said the only thing the band was penalized for was being too small. Other than their size, the three judges had nothing negative to say.

This is the first year ever the band has received II,II,I marks from the judges at Marching Contest.

Needless to say Ms Crane and the Band members are very proud of their accomplishment. And we are proud of you too!

Regina Pena Attends Texas Energy Science Symposium

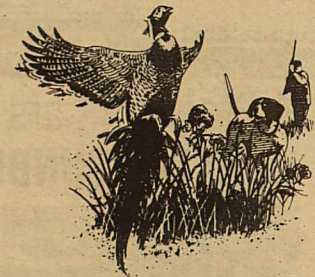

This summer Regina Pena, a Brackett High School Senior, attended the thirtieth annual Texas Energy Science Symposium for outstanding high school students at the University of Texas in Austin. The symposium is sponsored by the university and Central Power and Light Company. Miss Pena was accompanied by Science teacher Karen Crumley. The symposium lasted three days where Pena and Crumley attended several general sessions, presentations and lectures. They enjoyed campus tours, film festivals, a Physics and Chemistry Circus, and the use of campus facilities. Pena thoroughly enjoyed the recreational areas where she spent several hours meeting new friends and playing basketball and volleyball at Gregory Gym. Pena and Crumley rode a shuttle to Zilker Park where everyone attending the symposium enjoyed a picnic, playing volleyball and swimming. In the evening, students attended a University party where there was dancing, food and cokes. Pena stated, "It was the ultimate experience and I'm glad I could share it with Mrs. Crumley".

Bird Hunting in The Dark.

If your business firm, trade association or governmental agency is sending out news releases to Texas newspapers, but you don't have a clipping service to gauge their effectiveness, it's like going bird hunting in the dark. You know you fired a "shot," but whether you "bagged" a bird is anybody's guess.

The TPA Clipping Service carefully reads every issue of every one of Texas' more than 550 daily and weekly newspapers. And ours is the only clipping service that provides this total state-wide coverage.

For full particulars on this valuable, yet inexpensive service, write or call today. No obligation, of course.

Word Studies

By Ken Curry

"And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, 'From any tree of the garden you may eat freely; but from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat from it you shall surely die'" (Gen 2:16-17). In translating the Hebrew Old Testament into English, the work "surely" was added because the last clause contained two forms of the Hebrew word "die", thus "surely" was added for emphasis, much like the current television commercial that says the product will "kill roaches dead". Butter translation from the Hebrew would be, "in the day that you eat from it, dying, you will die," thus indicating two distinct deaths. In fact, the Bible clearly identifies seven different types of death.

A first type is Spiritual death, which involves spiritual separation from God in Time. In the moment when Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit, they died spiritually, which means their human spirits became dormant, or inoperative, so that their fellowship with God in time was broken. Their spiritual death brought on type two, physical death, wherein the human soul departs from the body (in the case of a believer, the human soul AND human spirit). Every person is born physically alive, but spiritually dead and is subject to physical death. If a person accepts by faith god's plan of salvation, that person's human spirit is regenerated, or made alive by the Holy Spirit (Titus 3:5) so that fellowship with God in time and understanding of Bible doctrine is now possible (I Cor. 2:14). A person who rejects God's plan will be subject to the Second death - eternal separation from God (Rev. 20:11-15).

A fourth type is Positional - Christians are identified with Christ in His death (Rom. 6:1-11, Col. 2:20). A fifth type is Operational - "...faith without works is dead (nonproductive)", (James 2:26). A sixth type is Temporal death. It only applies to a Christian who in a point of time is "carnal", i.e., controlled by his old sin nature, as opposed to being controlled by the Holy Spirit (Gal. 5:19-21 contrasted with 5:22-23; also Rom. 8:6). a seventh type is Sexual death - (Rom. 4:19 & Heb. 11:12) describe how Abraham and his wife Sarah were past childbearing age when they received the promise of a son.

Gardening Tips

By Archie Woodson

Fall is here and the treat of frost is near. It's time to start making plans to protect your tender patio plants.

Here are some steps to make the transition from bright light outdoors to low light indoors more successful. First, you need to slow down the growth of your plant by cutting back on feeding and watering. Second, start moving the plant gradually into areas of lower light. You may want to trim and reshape your plant at this time to accommodate less room indoors. Pick a place indoors with the best available light and keep this area above 45 degrees.

Don't forget to check for insects and disease before bringing your plants indoors as these problems can really multiply in warm, close quarters.

will go into the campus improvement plan and be an on-going development for school wide writing skills.

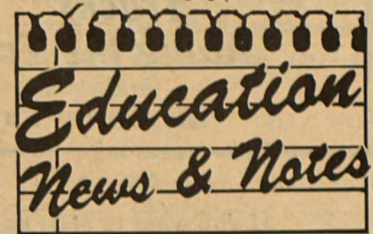

1. Each English class will spend 20 per cent of all English periods in teacher-directed writing. Writing assignments will cover the purposes and modes of the TASS with a special emphasis on elaboration.
2. Each English class will spend 10 per cent of all English time in library research. Each junior high grade will require library work each year. The high school classes will do library work each semester.

3. Each student will give a minimum of one book report each six weeks. This will include at least two hard back books and a variety of other books such as: fantasy, science fiction, non-fiction, historical, and biography. More capable students will do more.

4. As teachers in all classes will require some complete sentence answers on all tests and will write paragraphs weekly. All teachers will mark grammatical and spelling errors on all papers.

Parent-Teacher Conference

You're going to school to meet with your child's teachers and you're a little nervous. Heed the advice of the National Education Association and the National PTA: relax.

The following tips are included in a brochure and video called "A Common Goal" the two groups are distributing this school year:

- Relax and enjoy the chance to talk about your child's progress and potential.
- Before the conference, jot down questions, including any concerns your child may have.
- Be prepared to discuss your child's reaction to school, health or emotional problems, hobbies or special interests, homework habits, and the type of discipline that works best at home.
- Afterwards, discuss the conference with your child, pointing out strengths first.
- Follow through immediately on any plans you and the teacher have discussed.
- Emphasize to your child that you and the teacher are working together in your child's best interest.

If you want to start an argument in the Three Forks Country of eastern Oklahoma that you can't win, just challenge some bit of folklore handed down in a family for generations.

One of the oldest superstitions is to put an axe or a knife under the bed to cut pain.

If a hoot owl starts hooting at your window don't cause a commotion just tie a knot in the left hand corner of your bed sheet and the hoot owl will go away.

The dowser or water finder uses a forked stick to find water. There is an Oklahoma Supreme Court decision in an oil well case out of Wagoner County that claims the oil well was located with a divining rod and not a geologist.

Herbs and plants used in Eastern Oklahoma by the Cherokees in Three Forks Country are:

Harehound tea to cure coughs;

Peppermint tea to settle the stomach;

White of an egg for burns;

White of egg and vinegar for acid burns;

Blackberry root for diarrhea;

Slice of cucumber on an infection will stop infection;

Poke root poultice for warts;

Wild rhubarb poultice for ringworm.

Mrs. Lueniz E. Colbert, an old, old Cherokee-Choctaw barn near Anthers, Oklahoma was taught by her Mother to make bean bread the following way:

Soak corn grits overnight in warm water. Drain, pound into a meal, sifting out the husks. Cook red pinto beans until done and add to the meal while boiling to scold the meal. Add salt and crumbled fried fat meat. Use about 1/2 meal and 1/2 bean mixture. The dough should be stiff. Form into buns about the size of a medium size potato and wrap in corn husks and tie. Cook in boiling water for 1/2 to 3/4 hour or until done. Serve hot! Ump, Ump, thats larrunpin good!!

The Bible Says

By: Joe Townsend

"Come unto me" are the words of Jesus. In no way will Jesus ever intrude uninvited into the life of any individual. In inviting us to come to Him he wants to forgive all our sins because of our faith in Him. He wants to pour out all kinds of blessings from God on us. He wants to give guidance, encouragement, and peace of mind. He wants us to be happy and truly enjoy a victorious life. This can truly be, but only in following Jesus Christ. So He says, "Come unto me."

to be cultivated today! We'll celebrate and find lasting pleasure in all we do in that glory-filled place. New talents may sprout forth from people which have been as dormant as a bear in an Alaska winter.

Heaven already glows and glitters with unity. No unharmonious notes then. No nit-picking. It sounds unreal to say God's people one day will lay aside all their jealousy, littleness, bitterness, strife and selfishness. And yet, internecine struggles will end.

An old couple rode together in their horse-pulled wagon from town late one day. As the animals pulled the loaded wagon up a steep, deep-rut hill, the wife said, "John, wouldn't it be wonderful if we could pull together like our horses do!"

The husband answered, "We could, Mary, if we only had 'one tongue' between us." We'll have just one tongue in "the land that is fairer than day."

We can all go to heaven. Jesus is the one mediator between God and man. He offers a passport to paradise to all who will accept it.

Fresh, unpeeled peaches supply 40 percent fewer calories than apples, almost twice as much vitamin C and more vitamin A.

Reflections

Rev. Preston Taylor
First Baptist Church

An old song has a few words that go something like this: "All the folks that talk about heaven ain't going there." And yet, God promises a fabulous future for the saved, redeemed people in the coming, eternal age.

Heaven is being prepared for the citizens of the future city. Jesus stated, "I go to prepare a place for you." Think about those words. The message tells us to get our vision on "the things that abide," rather than get bogged down in this world that's going to explode and burn one day.

Heaven has the promise of countless people from every tongue, tribe, and nation. Revelation 7 mentions "a great multitude that no one could number." Millions of angels "flap their wings" in the glory land, too!

Activity takes place in the life beyond. Idleness has been placed on the forbidden list in the coming kingdom. We will worship the Lord there -- and that's central, and it's a habit that needs

Jill and her husband, Border Patrol Agent, Jeff Duncan, have lived in Brackettville for over two years.

Mrs. Duncan is now busy conducting vision tests. When asked how working at the school compared with working at the hospital, Ms. Duncan said although it is a different atmosphere than the hospital, she enjoys working with the children.

Backtracks

Backtracks began a year ago because of the combined talents and energies of Marianne Kerr and Rosemary Casson of Del Rio. The business has a full line of screen printed and hand decorated t-shirts, sweatshirts and accessories.

The location of the shop is worth a trip to Del Rio to see. It is the recently restored Old Marine Barn constructed in 1906 with the original stucco and adobe walls showing. The barn had been used for a winery, vegetable market and a home.

A screen-print shop is located in an adjacent building where the owners do their own and custom screenprinting.

The business hours are from 9 - 3, Monday thru Friday and by appointment. Backtracks is located in Del Rio at 105 E. Nicholson, in the Barn behind the house (use side gate entrance). The telephone number is (512) 775-7842.

Community based care for the mentally ill —more money is not the only answer

Although 75 percent of Texans with severe mental illness are ignored in this state, additional funding is not the only solution to improving mental health services according to the statewide Commission on Community Care of the Mentally Ill.

In its report, Texans with Severe Mental Illness, the Commission found that approximately 15 percent of all Texans suffer from some form of mental illness, and only one in four who are seriously mentally ill receives any type of treatment.

Texas currently ranks 49th in per capita dollars spent on mental health services. Since 1965, when state hospitals began releasing patients back into communities, inadequate funding levels have resulted in the lack of essential community services to assist these people.

Acknowledging that lack of funding is the primary reason that community services are not adequate, the report emphasizes that funding itself will not resolve the problems. "Also needed," it states, "is a concerted effort on the part of planners and service providers to use monies effectively to increase the availability and quality of services."

The Commission, sponsored by the Hogg Foundation for Mental Health, spent three years studying how best to meet the needs of Texans with severe and persistent mental illness. The panel sought to determine the most effective means of shifting responsibility of care and treatment from large institutions to individual communities.

The 15-member panel recognized that community based treatment must become more effective to meet the challenge of serving persons with severe mental illness. In designing better treatment options, special programs should be developed to assist minority populations, the homeless, the elderly, drug and alcohol abusers and members of the prison population, in addition to improvements within state institutions. Cost-effective resources must be developed or expanded to enable persons with mental illness to lead satisfying lives within the community.

Issues such as improved training for mental health care providers, expanded use of new technologies, and increased cooperation among human service agencies are addressed within the report. Specific recommendations also are included to assist individual communities in developing improved local programs.

The Commission on Community Care of the Mentally Ill is one of three commissions created by the Hogg Foundation to study how mental health services can be improved for all Texans in need. Commission members represent professionals in the public and private sectors, volunteers and family members of persons with severe mental illness. Copies of Texans with Severe Mental Illness are available from the Hogg Foundation for Mental Health, The University of Texas, Austin, Texas 78713-7998.

of farm accident victims were children ranging in age from 5 to 14 years. There are three factors today which may be aggravating the dangers for children: (1) Increased mechanization; (2) New safety hazards - 50% of the ATV accidents (900 deaths over five years) have involved children; and

(3) Stressful economic conditions. "We believe Farmers Home Administration in Texas can make a tremendous contribution to this organization in reaching thousands of children and young adults in rural areas that would have otherwise been missed," Persyn said.

FHA Supports Farm Safety For "Just Kids"

Uvalde, Texas - The Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), an agency of the United States Department of Agriculture, has selected the Farm Safety for "Just Kids" program as its public service project for 1990-91, through its Wellness Program's Public Safety Campaign, according to Edmund L. Persyn, Jr., FmHA County Supervisor for Uvalde, Edwards, Real, Kinney and Val Verde Counties.

Farm Safety for "Just Kids" is a non-profit organization dedicated to educating parents and children about farm injury prevention. This organization stresses raising awareness levels regarding on-farm hazards. Each year, farm accidents result in the death of 300 young people and 5,000 serious injuries. The primary age group effected is 5 to 14 years old.

Persyn stated, "FmHA's involvement in the program will enable Farm Safety for "Just Kids" to reach a national audience for the first time." Educational material including a film, safety fact sheet, warning decals and children's workbooks will be distributed by FmHA personnel throughout Texas. Over 13,000 FmHA employees, nationwide, will help spread the farm safety message to schools and the general public.

A Cornell University study reveals that children bear the brunt of farm accidents when the injury rate is adjusted to account for the time each worker is in the workplace. In 1988, 35.6 percent

Fantasy Faces About Town

The Kinney Cavalryman Crew had a nice Treat last nite when they were sung to by a very weird dressed gentleman by the name of Dan Shi.

Which Witch is which? Hector Luna would not tell us who his friend was.

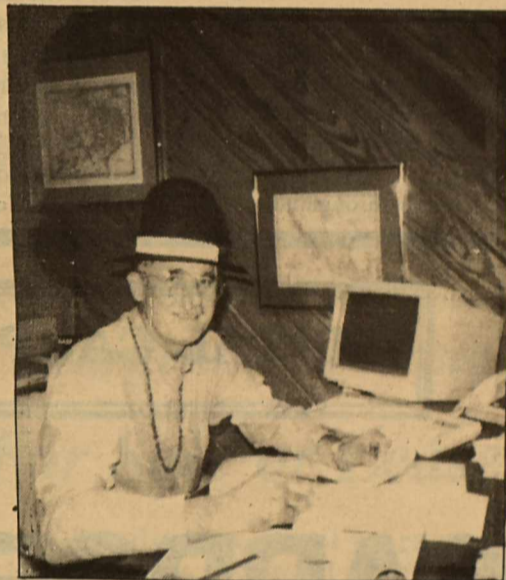

Dr. Luz is really trying to be serious, but to do so he cannot look at Mariea Broussard.

What a different looking group this is! The girls at Fort Clark Springs office have change their appearance.

Lydia Tipps a nurse at the Clinic brought smiles to the faces of the patients yesterday in her clown get-up.

Mr. Ralston, my how you have changed!

The girls at the Bank had a fun time not looking normal. We're all kids at heart, huh?

These girls at Human Services are really decked out!

Are these really our beautiful people at the Library?

4-H News
All county youth are reminded that although it is not too late to join the 4-H Club, deadlines for having animals on feed are fast approaching to be eligible to show at this county livestock show in January. Also, the foods and nutrition program is in full swing and you may not have an opportunity to participate if you wait any longer this year.

Feral Hogs
News from Overton, Texas is the new challenge to hunters in that area. When the Texas deer season begins for rifle hunters next month, more of them will be looking for first-time encounters with another game animal, the feral hog.

Billy Higginbotham, wildlife and fisheries specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service says feral hog numbers have increased tremendously throughout most of Texas during the past few years. The numbers, Higginbotham says, are high enough that some landowners are using the hogs as a bargaining point in hunting leases. Hunters should be able to combine feral hog hunts with their traditional deer hunts in most hog-inhabited areas, where both seasonal leases and day hunts are available.

Many experienced hunters have said they find a hog hunt challenging because the hogs are smarter and more elusive than deer. Hogs are basically a wet habitat animal, although they have adapted well to drier climates of south and south central Texas.

In wet years, they move out of bottomland and bogs into the upland sites. But, under heavy hunting pressure, they move deeper into remote areas and become nocturnal.

There is no regulated hunting season for feral hogs. Hunters should, however, inform local game wardens if they plan to hunt at night or use methods that may be mistaken for deer or other regulated hunting.

Dr. Dale Rollins, Wildlife Specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at San Angelo, reports that specialty groups such as bow hunters, black powder hunters and pistol clubs are interested in hog hunting and this has created a ready market for hogs in some areas and probably become more common.

Walter Carter, manager of the Broseco Ranch in Northeast Texas says they have thousands of feral hogs on the ranch. Their operation is beef cattle and they would like to completely rid the ranch of the hogs. The ranch provides ideal habitat for the hogs and the ranch's commercial hunts have included hogs for several years.

Carter says they have several hundred hog hunters each year. Bow hunters are particularly interested in hog hunts following deer season. This usually gives them several more months of hunting.

One Nacogdoches County ranch is selling hog hunts with a different approach. The ranch traps hogs on lands where they are a nuisance and move them to the ranch where they are fed year-round with automatic feeders. Bow hunters are the major market and they have been contacted by other hunters as well.

Higginbotham says that hog is excellent to eat and easy to prepare. The same sanitary practices should be taken when processing feral hogs as with venison. Sausage is one of the favorite dishes, but the meat can be prepared using any pork recipe.

Kinney County ranches who have an abundance of feral (wild) hogs should consider incorporating them into their commercial deer hunts.

Thank You

The Brackettville Lions Club would like to thank all the sponsors and participants of the Kinney County Health Fair. We would also like to thank the County for the use of the Civic Center; the Brackett News and the Kinney Cavalryman for the articles and advertisements that they printed; Mrs. Baird's Bakery for the loaves of bread; Fort Clark

Adding Fiber To Your Diet: It's Easy

A high-soluble fiber, low-fat diet has been shown to help control blood cholesterol levels. Many Americans do not eat enough soluble fiber every day, but adding more to your diet is easier than you think. Just start by substituting foods high in soluble fiber for foods that are low. Here are some ways you can increase the soluble fiber in your diet:

- Extend casseroles and soups by adding cooked legumes, like lentils and beans, or barley.
- Eat a cereal containing psyllium, such as KELLOGG'S® HEARTWISE™. Psyllium is a natural grain loaded with soluble fiber. In fact, it has eight times more soluble fiber than oat bran.
- Add dried fruits to desserts and salads.
- Add cooked barley to Three Bean Salad.
- Bake muffins with psyllium-based cereal.
- Grab an apple, or other fresh fruits, as a snack.

For a more information about psyllium and its role in a healthy diet, write for a free copy of Kellogg's Psyllium Brochure to: Food and Nutrition Communications, Dept. B-O, P.O. Box 3447, Battle Creek, MI 49016-3447.

Old Friends Meet Again

A friendship dating from 1945 was very happily continued when Mr. Gerd Justen of Cologne, Germany visited Don and Pat Parks at their home over the weekend. Mr. Justen was in the U. S. on an official visit in his capacity as Regierungsdirektor, Bundessprachenamt or Director of Foreign Language Training for West German Armed Forces. As NATO allies, German and U.S. military have long emphasized the need for language training to permit rapid and accurate communication between forces. During this recent tour Mr. Justen visited the Defense Language Training Institute at Monterey, Cal., and also language schools at Fort Bliss (El Paso) and Lackland AFB (San Antonio.)

Gerd Justen and Don and Pat Parks have enjoyed a friendship which began in the spring of 1945, at the end of European hostilities in WW II. Gerd was then a lad of 15 who was fluent in English, and Don was an infantry squad leader responsible for guarding a distillery in the area of the city where Gerd lived. Gerd performed in brilliant fashion as interpreter and as liaison with the German people. When American occupation troops were replaced by British units, Don wrote a letter of recommendation for Gerd, who then worked for the British military for several years. Since that time, the Justen and Parks families have corresponded and also have visited on occasion.

Gerd thoroughly enjoyed his too-short trip to Fort Clark Springs and Brackettville. His American trips have in the past been confined to major cities and military installations, and this was his first real opportunity to spend time in a small and rural location. He was impressed with the enormous vistas in South Texas, and with the fine and nearly empty roads, which are nothing like the congested German highways.

When can we say goodbye to smog on the highways? Maybe soon, say energy experts, thanks to new natural gas vehicles that don't emit black soot and other pollutants. Natural gas—considered our safest alternative fuel—is the only fossil fuel that burns cleanly enough that we routinely use it in our kitchens. Yet this same fuel can be used to power the massive bus behemoths that move millions of commuters through our cities daily.

The fuel tanks beneath a natural gas powered bus.

Currently, 30,000 cars, trucks and buses run on natural gas in the United States. Worldwide, a half million vehicles in 38 countries are fueled by natural gas. Natural gas-fueled vehicles achieve up to a 90 percent reduction in carbon monoxide emissions, up to a 20 percent reduction in nitrogen oxide emissions, and an 85 percent reduction in reactive hydrocarbons in comparison with those of gasoline and diesel vehicles.

Five percent of the total natural gas-powered fleet in the U.S.—some 1,500 vehicles—is operated by Consolidated Natural Gas Company, Pittsburgh. The company recently introduced a mass transit bus powered by clean-burning natural gas. The bus, manufactured by the Flexible Corporation of Delaware, Ohio—the largest manufacturer of transit buses in the U.S.—will be tested in 1990 in regular commuter service in Cleveland, Ohio and Altoona, Pennsylvania.

The conversion of eight million fleet vehicles—five percent of the nation's total transportation fuel market—to natural gas would require about a trillion cubic feet of gas. This would result in saving 500,000 barrels of oil imports a day, translating into a reduction of about $4 billion annually in foreign energy payments.

Around the country, natural gas is selling for the equivalent of about 40 to 80 cents a gallon, compared with gasoline prices of 95 cents to $1.15 per gallon. A natural gas car can be refueled in five minutes. A natural gas vehicle's top speed is the same as that of a gasoline-powered vehicle.

BACKGROUND ON BUSINESS

Medication In The Workplace

Surprising to many of our nation's hay fever sufferers, (there are about 41 million) is how the medication they often must take affects their performance in the workplace.

Many over-the-counter antihistamines can cause lack of concentration and diminished job performance.

Studies show that workers who use antihistamines for hay fever relief tend to suffer drowsiness, inattentiveness, lack of concentration and diminished performance on both physical and mental activities in many instances.

Now, many doctors prefer to prescribe a medication for workers and others with hay fever. It's Seldane, an antihistamine that doesn't cause drowsiness while it relieves hay fever symptoms.

Both employers and workers give this hay fever medication a high job performance rating.

Breakfast On The Run

If you talk a good game (but don't always deliver) when it comes to a nutritious, energy packed morning meal, join the club! Most of us know we should eat something sensible before dashing out the door to work, school, whatever—but all too often the reality is "not enough time" ... particularly if you're the one responsible for keeping the family—more or less—on schedule.

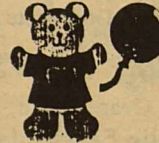

How to cope? Here's a tip from Scandinavia where they're just as busy as we are but, in general, a lot healthier. Try opening a package of Norwegian crispbreads—Kavli's classic Rye-Bran and newer, extra nutty/crunchy Muesli are especially delicious at breakfast. Both are loaded with beneficial fiber, to bring you up to speed fast, yet super low in calories, sodium and fat with absolutely no cholesterol.

Top with honey, low-fat cottage or semi-soft cheese, fruit—even peanut butter—there's no single "right" choice, after all. But if you're watching your diet and want a quick, tasty mini-meal, these crispbreads are a terrific place to start.

Signs of the Times

The cry of the 1990's for this world is Peace, at any cost! The whole world celebrated when several small Communist countries ousted their leaders and proclaimed a new democratic nation; then again, when the Berlin Wall gave way to cries of freedom and unification. In fact, for the last two or three decades, a great movement for peace and a One World Order has been taking shape. Organizations such as the United Nations, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission (of which George Bush was a member), and the World Federalists have been formed to unite all nations politically and economically. By the year 1992, the United States of Europe is expected to formally become one nation.

On a spiritual level, there is an equally rising tide of unity emerging under the name of the "New Age Movement." This movement seeks to unite all religions under one name. This "ecumenical" or "universal" organization seeks to merge all Christians, Catholics, Muslims, Hindus, etc. under one "universal mind" or "cosmic god." meetings of representatives of all faiths have already been held in Italy, California, and Costa Rica to discuss plans for this One World Religion.

What is the significance of this push towards world unification? For the bible-believing Christian, it is a fulfillment of last days prophecies! You see, the bible says that in the last days, a powerful ruler will emerge who will have power "--over all kindred, and tongues, and nations." (Rev. 13:7) By cunning craftiness he will merge all nations under one government and one religion. He will "--magnify himself above all" (Dan. 11:37) and "--honor the god of forces--" (vs. 38). This man is called the Antichrist, and he will deceive all the nations who honor him as a "world peacemaker." The bible says, "And through his Policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by Peace shall destroy many--" (Dan 8:24,25)

If you are a true Christian, you know all religions could never unite in a One World Church! The bible says, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?" (II Co. 6:14,15) Jesus said there is only one way to Heaven, through the blood of Jesus Christ. (John 14:6) If you try to enter heaven through any other way, "-- the same is a thief and a robber." (John 10:1)

Friends, peace and world harmony sound wonderful - we would all love that! But it will not come through man's efforts. It will come, but only when heaven opens up one day, and our Lord appears for the Final Battle!

"And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, King of Kings, and Lord of Lords." (Rev. 19:16)

A Servant in Christ,

There is a man who has been here all his life. He has always been well respected. For many years he has been a most efficient devotee to his professional responsibilities. he has been quite active in communities. He served ably on the School Board for years. He has been active in the Chamber of Commerce and has made many contributions to the area. He has a very fine wife and is warm hearted and friendly. Surely Henry Fuentes is an "Unsung Hero."

Mom's Kitchen

Oh Where Oh Where, Has Herman Gone? A few years ago the "Herman" craze, (nobody seems to know exactly how it got its name), swept the country like a chain letter. Frinds, who nurture it pass it on to there friends, usually accompanied by a coffee cake and the recipe. What is "Herman"? It is a dough "cultured" dough you add to new dough to give it distinctive flavor and texture it wouldn't otherwise have. But unlike other starters that require constant feeding, stirring and using, this one doesn't make a slave out of you. You replenish "Herman" only after you use it. And if that's longer than 14 days, put it in the freezer until you're ready.

"Herman"

2 cups flour
3 Tbl. sugar
1 envelope active dry yeast
1 tsp. salt
2 cups warm water (105-115 degrees)

In large bowl mix flour, sugar, yeast, and salt. Gradually stir in water; beat or whisk until smooth. Cover with towel; set in warm (80-85 degree) draft free place, the kitchen or other warm room in summer, or in cold weather on top of a well insulated heater. Stir 2 or 3 times a day for about 3 days or until starter is bubbly and produces a yeasty aroma. Transfer to a larger bowl, large jar or plastic container. Cover partially (tilt lid or punch holes in plastic cover); refrigerate. Makes about 1 1/2 to 2 cups starter, depending on thickness. It can be creamy or as thick as dough because of room conditions, the age of "Herman", and other variables.

Care and Feeding of "Herman"

The starter should be used within 14 days and replenished and fed immediately after each use. To feed "Herman" stir or whisk in 1 cup each flour and milk and 1/2 cup sugar; mixture need not be completely smooth. Wait at least 24 hrs. before using again. If you don't plan to use the starter within 14 days, cover tightly and freeze. Freezing slows the fermentation, so let stand at room temperature several hours or until thawed and bubbly before re-using.

"Herman" Coffee Cake

1 cup flour
1/2 cup sugar
1 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp each soda & salt
1 cup "Herman"
1/3 cup oil
1 egg
1/2 cup raisins
1/4 cup chopped nuts

In large bowl mix flour, sugar, baking powder, soda & salt. Add "Herman", oil, eggs, raisins and nuts; stir to mix well. Spread in greased and floured 8 or 9 inch square pan, sprinkle with topping, (below). Bake in preheated 350 degree oven 30-35 minutes, until tests done. Cool slightly in pan on rack. Cut in squares. Best served warm. Serves 9.

Topping

In small bowl mix 1/2 cup packed brown sugar. Cut in 2 Tbl.

margarine at room temperature, until crumbly.

"Herman" Pancakes

1 cup "Herman"
1 cup flour
2 1/4 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp. each salt & soda
1 egg
2 tsp. oil
1/2 to 3/4 cup milk (depending on thickness desired)

Mix together all ingredients. Using scant 1/4 cup batter per pancake, bake on well greased, preheated griddle or skillet about 3 min. or until tops are bubbly and edges are brown. Turn; bake other side about 3 minutes or until golden. Makes about 10 large pancakes.

Old Army Days Wallace L. Morgan

Date - Soon after World War One. Trooper Mike Goulla, shown soon after enlisting into the U.S. Army, and having been assigned to the 5th Cavalry Regiment, at Fort Clark, Texas. He is shown wearing the issue winter mounted uniform for enlisted troops, of this era. Note the mounted leggings, which were canvas, similar to those issued during World War Two, except that they were lined with leather on the sides which would wear against the saddle. This of course was a government measure of economy, saving money by not issuing leather boots to enlisted mounted personnel.

This photograph is typical for military personnel whom have just entered military service. Contract photographers seem to always be on hand for these, and have been for years and years. In fact, they usually furnish the equipment for the photo, such as the rifle, bayonet, flag, ect. A person in another branch would have been furnished different equipment. For example, during World War Two, and the Korean campaign, if a person had entered the Air Corps, or Air Force, the furnished equipment would possibly have been a flight jacket and a service cap with a 50 mission crush. This is what was furnished to me in a photo similar to this in 1950.

YOUR HEALTH

Medicine For
The Layman:
High Blood Pressure

Everybody needs blood pressure. It's what pushes your blood through your arteries, capillaries and veins. Nobody needs high blood pressure. If the push is too great, your heart, brain, kidneys and eyes could suffer.

A normal blood pressure reading is one of 120/80 or lower. One of 140/90 is considered the upper limit of normal. Anything over that can be considered dangerously high blood pressure.

An estimated 35 million Americans have high blood pressure, also known as hypertension. Many don't even know they have it. Everyone over the age of three should have his or her blood pressure checked every year. Diagnosis is simple, painless and instant.

To The Voter of Precinct 4

Some things to consider in the Commissioner - Pct. 4 race:

McClure has been involved in four Commissioner races. Twice he was defeated - one is not decided yet. When you lose, there must be a reason, could some of the below be a part of the reason?

1) A one day a month Commissioner (if then?). Now days, it takes a lot more time.

2) Investigated by the Texas Rangers, at the request of the District Attorney's office, for malfeasance of office. He says there is a letter of apology - I haven't seen it, have you?

3) Experience in re-districting, yes he has, especially at cutting out voters in his precinct that he was afraid would run against him.

4) Turning his back on his voters when the going got tough.

5) No advancement in the County - Taxes raised - County deep in debt - No cash reserve. Just plain one day a month management.

The voters that were here at the time of his tenure of office remember this. You newer voters should ask around. If you do, you will write in Bill Bizzell.

Senior Countdown

Although it seems that school began just a few short weeks ago, the days are steadily ticking away for seniors at Brackett High. During November and December, Seniors must narrow their options for next year and begin making plans for their future. Whether the choice will be a four-year college, a two-year junior college, a vocational/technical school, or the world of work, all seniors need to take their final ACT or SAT test and make formal application to the college/ vocational school of their choice by January. Financial aid forms will be completed in January, and parents of seniors should plan to complete income tax forms early in 1991 as these will be needed to apply for financial aid.

Many scholarship opportunities are available in the counselor's office, and over half of the seniors are currently completing these forms. Military recruiters are available to visit with any senior and parents by making an appointment through Susan Harrison, Counselor. You may contact Mrs. Harrison at 563-2491. Depending on college choice, some seniors will be required to also take the TASP test before June, 1991.

Brackett High School is proud that an average of 75% of graduating seniors choose to pursue further education. Our goal is to help each individual make the best possible choice for his/her future.

In 1875, a group of German archaeologists discovered the ruins of the original Olympic stadium in Greece.

See "Caught" Sunday

The Billy Graham picture "Caught" is to be shown at 6:00 o'clock, Sunday night at the First Baptist Church of Brackettville.

Anyone who sees one of these productions, never forgets it. Invite and bring a friend along to see this classic, one hour movie, that shows God at work in human lives.

A Leader For Texas You Can Count On.

He'll make Texas great again.

Clayton Williams will create opportunities for all Texans. He's proved it:

- He is a businessman who created 26 companies and over 100,000 jobs for Texans.
- A family man, he has felt the pain of drugs in his own family. He has a 25 point plan to eliminate drugs from our schools and neighborhoods. Stiffer sentences for selling drugs - a death penalty for killing a child.
- He will improve education for all Texans. Better pay for teachers. Two years free tuition to a Texas college for students who stay drug-free, make their grades and need the help.
- He is a man of his word who will bring fresh ideas and sound leadership to state government. And you can count on that!

With your help, we've got our best hope for Texas - more jobs, better education, safer streets and neighborhoods and more efficient government for those who need it most.

Fort Clark Residence, Mr. & Mrs. Buckles Returns Home

By: Cindy Braesicke

Ron and Lorene Buckles of Fort Clark Springs returned on October 26 from 10 days spent on a volunteer mission to repair homes damaged by Hurricane Hugo on the island of St. Croix, Virgin Islands.

The Buckles were part of a team of 16 persons who, under the auspices of the VIM (Volunteers in Mission) program of the United Methodist Church paid their own expenses for the trip and worked as volunteers during their stay.

Winds of up to 200 miles per hour and tornadoes stripped all leaves from the trees, roofs from most homes, and destroyed some homes down to their concrete slabs. Much repair has been accomplished but many homes still have their roofs covered with plastic tarps. The eight men of the work team replaced a corrugated tin roof on one such home while the eight women painted the inside of a three-bedroom home for a crippled lady and went on to assist another widow by installing and floating sheetrock in her home which a contractor had left unfinished.

The problems of the people were complicated by the fact that the island insurance companies were overwhelmed and declared bankruptcy, leaving people's claims unpaid.

Reconstruction work assignments for work teams are handled by an Interfaith Coalition of religions on the island, consisting of the Christian, Jewish, Moslem and Baha'i churches. This group also channels relief money and repair materials to the most needy.

The island, a U.S. possession, has a population of 20% White, 30% Puerto Rican, and 50% Black. All people suffered many hardships during and after the hurricane, but only three persons died in the hurricane.

The squid escapes from his enemies by shooting a cloud of black sepia into its enemy's face. Leaving his enemy in the dark, the squid makes his getaway.

The ancient Greeks awarded crowns made of laurel leaves to victorious athletes while The ancient Romans decorated their war heroes with crowns of oak leaves.

Both flies and frogs have been known to catch athlete's foot.

INVITATION FOR BIDS. KINNEY COUNTY, TEXAS
CONSTRUCTION OF SENIOR CITIZEN'S SERVICE CENTER
IN BRACKETTVILLE, TEXAS

The County of KINNEY will receive bids for the construction of a Senior Citizen's Service Center in Brackettville, Texas, until 4:30 P.M. on Friday November 9, 1990 at the office of the County Judge located within the Kinney County Courthouse in the City of Brackettville (mailing address - c/o the County Judge, P.O. Box 348 Brackettville, Texas 78832). The bids will be publicly opened and read aloud at 10:00 A. M. on Monday November 12, 1990 at the Commissioners Court Room within the Kinney County Courthouse in the City of Brackettville, Texas.

Bids are invited for the several items and quantities of work and under several different arrangements, as follows:

1. A bid on the entire job or project in which the contractor will furnish all materials and labor. The contractor shall provide a description of the type of roof to be constructed along with the cost thereof. The project plans do not include roof plans. This bid will require the contractor to provide a performance bond and payment bond as well as the required insurance.
2. A bid or bids on any one or combination of the following:
  - a. Construction of slab.
  - b. Painting.
  - c. Electrical.
  - d. Plumbing.
  - e. Carpentry.
  - f. Glazing.
  - g. Air conditioning and heating.
  - h. Ceiling.
  - i. Roof.
  - j. Masonry.

A performance bond and payment bond will be required of any contractor doing work on constructing the slab, installing the air conditioning and heating system and/or constructing the roof, except that if a contractor waives any and all interim payments and will accept one final and full payment after the job has passed final inspection, then a performance bond will be waived.

Other than work constructing the slab, roof or installing the air conditioning and heating system, if the contractor will not use any employees or paid helpers (doing all of the work by him or her self), no payment bond will be required. Also, no performance bond will be required if such contractor will waive interim payments and will accept one final and full payment after the job has passed final inspection. Regardless, all contractors will be required to have necessary insurance.

Any contractor bidding on carpentry work, painting, and/or masonry work may bid a lump sum for labor only with the proposed arrangement that the County will purchase and provide all necessary construction materials. If such a bid is proposed, the bidder shall provide a statement of the quantity of the construction materials necessary to complete the job.

Any bid on the roof shall include proposed plans and specifications for such roof as the project plans do not include a plan and specifications for a roof.

Bid/Contract Documents, including Drawings and Technical Specifications are on file at the office of the County Judge in the Kinney County Courthouse.

Copies of the Bid/Contract Documents may be obtained by depositing $25.00 with the County for each set of documents obtained. The deposit will be refunded if the documents and drawings are returned in good condition within 10 days following the bid opening.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the federally determined prevailing (Davis-Bacon) wage rate, as issued by the Texas Department of Commerce and contained in the contract documents must be paid on this project. In addition, the successful bidder must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex or national origin.

Attention is called to General Conditions 141 "Restrictions on Public Buildings and Public Works Projects". The Bidder certifies by the submission of its bid that it:

1. Is not a Contractor of a foreign country included in the USTR list.
2. Has not and will not enter into any subcontracts with a subcontractor of a foreign country included on the USTR list.
3. Will not provide any product of a foreign country included on the USTR list.

The County of Kinney reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in the bidding.

Bids may be held by the County of Kinney for a period not to exceed 30 days from the date of the bid opening for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigation the bidders qualifications prior to the contract award.

If there are questions concerning the above, call Commissioner Slubar 512/562-2311 or Charles Trost 512/775-5290.

"Piercing," "pounding," "drilling," "excruciating," these are words used by migraine sufferers who entered "Migraine Masterpieces," the first nationwide art competition for migraine sufferers. These words only begin to describe the pain of some 400 sufferers who were asked to depict the debilitating nature of their migraine artistically. "Migraine Masterpieces" was sponsored by the National Headache Foundation and Wyeth-Ayerst Laboratories, makers of Inderal LA, a preventive medication for migraines.

Each year, an estimated 45 million Americans suffer from headaches severe enough to seek the help of a physician and more than one-third suffer from migraines, the most debilitating. Migraine sufferers miss an average of 30 workdays a year due to the pain. However, today, thanks to the results of "Migraine Masterpieces," which is touring the country, the public is beginning to understand and recognize the symptoms of this malady.
