15 Tigers Earn All-District Recognition

By: J. J. Guidry

The Fightin' Tigers finished their 1990 season at 7-4 as district runner-ups and playoff qualifiers. "They played hard and showed a lot of courage all season long," complimented Coach Steve Kolb. Our local Brackettville athletes put forth a tremendous effort and it paid off as fifteen players earned all-district recognition. The coaches from around the district selected five Brackett athletes for the first team, two of which are only juniors.

When asked about the all-district selections, Kolb said "I thought we did real well. Nearly every player that saw a lot of action was recognized by the other coaches in the district and that's always great." Earning first team honors for Brackettville were runningbacks-Steve Clementz, senior and Michael Flores, junior, offensive lineman - Rogelio Herrera, senior, defensive lineman-Scott Sims, junior, and defensive back-Clay Hunt.

Herrera also earned second team honors as a defensive lineman. Joining him on the list of second teamers are Lesly Floyd, junior defensive back, offensive lineman Mark Dimery, senior, tight end Frank Rodriguez, senior, runningback Adrian Pena, junior, and defensive lineman Scott Broderick, junior.

Earning honorable mention were Arturo Falcon, senior runningback, Angel Jaso, junior lineman, Tevin Senne, junior wide receiver, Peter Perez, junior Offensive lineman, and Louis Gonzalez, junior linebacker.

As you can see, the Tigers have several outstanding players returning to next years ball club. What does Coach Kolb have in store for the fans of Brackettville during his second year as athletic director and head coach? "Next year our whole complexion will change. We have lost most of our size, but we have a lot of quick players returning. Our offensive attack will be different with quicker backs, wide receivers, and lineman," he concluded.

Tiger Basketball

BRACKETT - The Fightin' Tigers and new coach Ken Campbell won their season opener as they hosted Nueces Canyon Tuesday evening. Brackett was victorious by a 75-45 margin.

The Tigers only led 12-11 after the opening stanza. In the second period they rallied to outscore Nueces Canyon 21-8 in the second quarter for a 33-19 halftime lead. The Tigers played their best ball in the third period as the came with 27 points compared to only 9 from the Panthers.

Clay Hunt scored a career high 23 points as a varsity player. Lesly Floyd and Tevin Senne also scored in double-figures with 12 and 11 points. W. T. Hunt and Scott Sims both scored eight, while Arturo Falcon scored four, Lenny Wardlaw made three points, and Steve Clementz, Peter Perez, and J. J. Sandaval all added two. Lynn Floyd also saw action with the varsity Tigers.

The leading scorer for the Panthers was senior Joe Shipman with 16 points. Others scoring for the Panthers were Jason Horner, seven points; Paul Nevarez, five points; Billy Nevarez, four points; and Barry Cowen, Will Baker, Steve Haggerton, Ronnie Fielder, and Jerry Arredondo all scored two. Others seeing action for Nueces Canyon were Borchardt and Carabajal.

Tigers Enter Nueces Canyon Tourney

BARKS DALE - The Brackett Tigers will compete in the tenth annual Nueces Canyon High School Basketball Tournament this weekend. Last year the Fightin' Tigers took first place and are looking to take home the trophy again.

In the opening round, the Tigers will face the hometown Nueces Canyon Panthers. The Tigers defeated the Panthers with ease Tuesday evening at home in their season opener. "I was pleased with our first outing," said Tiger coach Ken Campbell. "Today we will open against Nueces Canyon and hopefully we'll end up on the championship side of the brackett, if we don't get overconfident," he concluded.

In the other first round matchup this morning, the Leakey Eagles will tangle with Utopia. The two winners and the two losers will go head-to-head later on this afternoon.

Teams in the bottom half of the brackett will begin action tomorrow morning. D'Hanis will play Knippa and St. Mary's Hall of San Antonio will go up against the Rocksprings Angoras.

The finals will begin on Saturday with the consolation game at 11am. Trophies will be awarded for first, second, third, and consolation. The coaches will also vote for an all-tournament team.

Tigerettes First Win Over Rocksprings

ROCKSPRINGS - The Brackettville Tigerettes picked up their first win of the 1990-91 season as they traveled to Rocksprings Tuesday evening. The girls fought hard for a 43-42 victory over the Lady Angoras.

The Lady Angoras were up 42-41 with :09 seconds left in the game, when Tigerette point guard

Theresa Terrazas stole the ball and scored the winning points on a fast break layup and drew the foul. She missed the following free throw as Rocksprings grabbed the rebound. She took the ball down the court and put up a shot with :02 left, but the ball hit the rim and bounced out as the Brackett girls were victorious.

The Brackett girls led throughout most of the contest until the 2:13 mark in the final period, when Tessie Ellis hit a jumper to give Rocksprings a 42-41 lead. With the lead and the victory in their grasp, they tried to stall and run down the clock. Brackett coach Gregg Nowlin quickly called timeout to give Brackett the right incentive and tactics necessary. Terrazas guarded Rocksprings guard Brandy Sweeten throughout the second half and continued to do an excellent defensive job with her last minute steal and layup. Dorothy Ward was the only Tigerette to score in double-figures with 12 points, while Rene Ramirez and Brandy Sweeten led Rocksprings with 18 and 16 points.

Others contributing to Brackettville's scoring were Wendy McDaniel and Vivian Luna with 8 points apiece, while Terrazas scored 7, Tanya Frerich made 4, Michelle Brandt sank a three-pointer, and Dee Ann Frerich added a free throw.

Paige Grooms and Tessie Ellis both scored four for the Lady Angoras. Rocksprings point guard, Tyann Dunbar, put forth a great defensive effort to add to the teams play. The Rocksprings girls opened their season a week ago as they hosted Junction. They were defeated 45-63 and are now 0-2 for the year.

The Tigerettes are now 1-3 for the season. They will resume their non-district schedule next Tuesday as they play their first home game against Nueces Canyon. Brackett will begin district play on December 11, at home in "The Jungle" as they host Lytle.

Action Tuesday at The Jungle begins at 5pm with the Tigers J.V. going against Nueces Canyon Panther J.V. The two varsity girls teams will lock up at 6:30, with the mens varsities following at 8pm.

Tigerettes Win In Overtime Against Nueces Canyon

BRACKETT - The Brackettville Tigerettes are now 2-3 on the season after they defeating the Nueces Canyon girls 62-60 in overtime as they played their first home game in "The jungle."

After shooting 28% in the Big Mac Classic, who would have guessed they could defeat the Lady Panthers from Nueces Canyon in overtime from the free throw line? Well they did! Both teams took seven shots from the free throw line. Brackett sank four, while Nueces Canyon only made two.

It seemed that the Tigerettes were in control throughout the contest, but when everyone least expected it, the Nueces Canyon girls crept up from behind. The Panthers took a 56-54 lead with 1:01 left in the game with a pair of free throws. Dee Ann Frerich also went to the line for Brackett at the :44 mark, but was unsuccessful. Courtney Ewing grabbed the rebound for a Nueces Canyon possession. With just seven ticks remaining on the clock, Nueces Canyon was called for traveling and the ball went over to Gregg Nowlin's Tigerettes. D.D. Frerich scored on a jumper from the top of the key with two seconds remaining sending the game into overtime.

Nueces Canyon won the tip at the beginning of the three-minute overtime period, but Brackett's Dorothy Ward quickly stole the ball for a Lady Panther turnover. Nueces Canyon's Kristi Collins turned right around and stole the ball back and put Nueces Canyon up with 2:29 left as she scored on a fast break.

Brackett took the ball down the court and tied the score back up as Michelle Brandt found Dorothy Ward under the basket for two points. As Courtney Ewing was taking the ball down the court, she drew a Tigerettes foul. She sank one of two free throws putting NC up 59-58. Dorothy Ward grabbed the rebound after Ewing missed her second shot and also drew a foul. Ward sank both free throws giving Brackett a 60-59 lead.

Tanya Frerich went to the line twice with a little over a minute left in the overtime period. She sank two of four free throws increasing Brackett's lead to 62-59. Collins scored her last free throw with five seconds remaining making the final score 62-60.

Three girls scored in double figures to lead Brackett to their first victory at home. Theresa Terrazas scored 18 points, including three three-pointers. Dorothy Ward and Wendy McDaniel scored 15 and 13 points respectively.

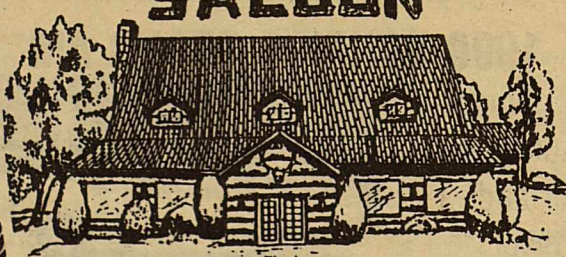

Others contributing in Brackett's scoring were Tanya Frerich, eight points; Myrna Gonzalez, five points; Dee Ann Frerich, two points; and Regina Rubino, one point.

Collins led Nueces Canyon with 20 points, while Sonia Hidalgo made 14, Shelley Hurt had 11 points, Mary Dalton made 8, Angie Whitley tallied up 4 Elsie Nevarez had 2, and Courtney Ewing sank a free throw.

During March 1916, right after the Pancho Villa raid on Columbus, New Mexico, the regiment was sent into Mexico near the area of Columbus, N.M., in pursuit of the raiders. In Mexico they remained, searching for the raiders, until February 1917, when they marched to Fort Bliss, Texas for station. October 3, 1921, the regiment was then stationed at Fort Clark.

The Commissioners court met on November 21st to pass a resolution setting a pay scale for additional construction workers on the West Prong Nueces low water crossings.

The salaries were set from $10.00 per hour to $6.00 per hour for the present employees. For any additional help, $7.00 per hour or less will be paid.

Since no other business was on the agenda, the meeting was adjourned.

How To Avoid TV Time Arguments

"I want to watch the movie!" "I want to watch the ballgame!" "Forget it—I'm going to watch that new comedy show!" Sound familiar? Every time a new TV season starts—when lots of good programs are on at the same time—there's bound to be family arguments over what to watch.

Using top quality V™ videocassette to tape TV programs ensures fine picture and audio quality.

Fortunately, there's an easy way to settle these disputes amicably and put the fun back into family evenings at home. Videotape your favorite shows and watch them later.

For the best results you're well advised to use a good quality videotape. That's why many families are using a new high-performance videotape from Sony called V™. It offers a higher level of picture and sound quality, plus the ability to be re-used numerous times without affecting the quality of audio and video performance.

Start the TV taping season this year with Sony's new V video tapes.

For all the Winter Texans who weren't here when this program started, we wish to invite you to save your tickets and give them to any Kinney County student or drop them in our gallon jug here in the Library or just drop them in our book drop. This is one way to show you appreciate all the fine weather and friendly folks you meet while here in Texas. The school system received three Apple Computers and several software systems as a result of this program last year.

While we are on the subject of Winter Texans, we wish to extend a hardy welcome to all of you and invite you to your Library away from home. Come get yourself a Library Card and get you some nice winter reading material.

We have received donated books from: Francis Brene, Richard Mount, Ben & Bonnie

Picnickin' Fried Chicken Goes Fancy

Fried Chicken tops everyone's comfort food list. That crispy coating and tender meat make it taste so good and ideal for a picnic.

Delicious fried chicken calls for fabulous side dishes—even on a picnic. To make your picnic lunch extraordinary, forgo the potato chips or mayonnaisy potato salad, and accompany Picnickin' Fried Chicken with crisp-tender vegetables like blanched broccoli florets, colorful bell pepper strips and cucumber tossed with a light vinaigrette or your favorite bottled Italian dressing. Complete the meal with ice-cold lemonade, fresh fruit and homemade biscuits.

Picnickin' Fried Chicken
 2 cups Martha White All-Purpose Flour
 2 teaspoons salt
 1 teaspoon pepper
 1½ cups buttermilk
 1 broiler-fryer chicken (2½ to 3 pounds), cut up
 Vegetable oil or shortening for frying

Combine flour, salt and pepper in large plastic bag or paper sack. Pour buttermilk into a shallow bowl. Rinse chicken pieces; pat dry. Drop a few chicken pieces at a time into bag with seasoned flour. Shake until pieces are coated. Repeat this procedure until all pieces have been coated with flour. Dip all pieces in buttermilk. Return pieces to bag and shake in seasoned flour again. Remove chicken pieces from bag and place on waxed paper. Repeat this procedure until all pieces are coated. In large skillet, heat ½-inch deep oil over medium heat to 350°F. Fry chicken, uncovered, 25 to 30 minutes or until golden brown and crispy, turning pieces about every 10 minutes. Check for desired degree of doneness. Drain on paper towels. Makes about 6 servings.

Texas Agricultural Extension Service By Alan L. McWilliams

The warm, humid weather we've had lately has some landscapers wondering whether to stay green or go dormant. Dr. Jerry Parsons, extension horticulture specialist, predicts the first freeze on or around November 30. He is not far from the average freeze date which is about December 4, so bring the hanging baskets in.

Preparation for next year's fruit crop can begin right now by spraying fruit trees for diseases if you have not already done so. By spraying now, you can slow down the spread of bacterial spot, bacterial canker, peach leaf curl and some blights.

Bacterial canker is the most serious of these and is the most common cause of tree dieback and death. Canker also causes bleeding or gumming along the trunk and branches. In eight out of 10 cases, fruit tree gumming is caused by canker rather than borers, which is often blamed for the problem.

Canker gumming is evident in the fall. It is caused by a systemic bacteria that plugs the tree's vascular system. The only thing that will help trees seriously infected with canker is good care—adequate water, fertilizer and weed control.

Bacterial spot and coryneum blight commonly damage leaves and sometimes the fruit in the spring and summer. Physical signs of these diseases are leaves with small holes and in severe cases, trees defoliate. Spraying now will not eliminate the disease, but will reduce its incidence next spring and summer.

Another common disease is leaf curl, which causes extremely crinkled leaves in the spring. Leaf curl is caused by a fungus that quits once the temperatures begin to get warmer. The disease is worst following a cool, damp March, but spraying now is usually sufficient to prevent it from becoming bad enough to cause heavy defoliation next spring.

Spraying different mixtures of Kocide 101, Kocide 606 and Kocide. It can be used effectively to prevent these diseases. Kocide 101 is the only formulation available in small enough quantities to be practical for home garden use. Kocide contains copper, which will cause leaf burn on healthy green foliage, so wait until the leaves are beginning to drop and are easily brushed from the tree.

It is best to apply this spray while most of the leaves are still attached, but the spray is worthwhile, even if most of the leaves have already dropped.

Besides spraying, sanitation is important in reducing the carryover of diseases to next year's crop. Mummified and rotting apples, dead wood on the ground or in the tree, plus ragged stubs of broken branches harbor disease spores. These items should be pruned out, gathered and burned or tilled into the soil.

Fall is not a good time to prune fruit trees or other deciduous plants. Pruning stress, especially when coupled with other stresses including drought, poor nutrition and disease, can make the tree more vulnerable to winter injury.

The soil moisture levels across much of the area are adequate to carry fruit trees and vines as they enter dormancy. The roots of deciduous trees, vines and shrubs are active throughout the fall and winter and the soil should never be allowed to dry out. So do not shut off all water just because the cooler weather is here.

For more information call or come by the Kinney County office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service located in the Kinney County Courthouse.

Veterans aide

Fort Clark Springs Post #8360, VFW, is bringing the Department (state) Service Officer's Van to Kinney County. Personnel will be on hand to answer questions about the benefits due veterans from the Federal and State governments, and to assist in obtaining the aide. All veterans, as well as widows or orphans of veterans, are urged to visit the Van according to Post Commander Tom Faulkenberry.

The Van will be at the Kinney County Civic Center on Friday, November 30, 1990 at 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon.

Unsung Hero

There is a man who has been here most of his life and who has raised a family here. He is a quiet unassuming man and yet is quite friendly. Surely, Ernest Luna, Sr. is an "Unsung Hero".

The mid-1970's news accounts of American soldiers in West Germany facing court-martial rather than have their hair cut is just a replay of history.

Way back in 1801 the military published such a hair length edict. Not only did the enlisted rebel but a veteran infantry officer of Irish descent, Colonel Thomas Butler, Jr., began a one man mutiny over the edict.

He was a revolutionary war hero who had fought every major battle in the middle states. He had been personally thanked by General George Washington. He married at the close of the war and became a farmer.

He re-entered the service in 1791 and fought in Ohio and in the Whisky Rebellion. He settled an Indian problem in Tennessee. In 1801, Thomas Jefferson was elected President and directed the re-ribboned pig-tails of the military to be cut off, supposedly for sanitary reasons. The pig-tail had been worn by soldiers for more than a century.

The army, after much grumbling, obeyed the order, but not Colonel Thomas Butler. Because he was a war hero he was granted permission to keep his pony-tail.

Two years later Colonel Butler and General Wilkinson developed bad feelings for each other, and the permission was withdrawn and Butler was arrested.

President Jefferson refused his help saying Butler shouldn't receive special privileges more than other soldiers. Butler's friend, Andrew Jackson refused to help Butler, too. A trial was held in 1803 and Butler was ordered again to cut off his pig-tail.

Six months later, Butler was released, sent to New Orleans and was again ordered to cut off his pig tail. He refused and was suspended for one year without pay. But before the court order reached General Wilkinson Butler died of yellow fever. While he lay dying, Butler called friends around him and gave them the following orders; "Bore a hole through the bottom of my coffin and let my pig-tail hang down through it, so the d___ old rascal can see that, even when dead, I refuse to obey his orders."

The Bible Says

By Joe Townsend

"For all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God." "Your righteous is as filthy rags" in the eyes of God. If any person thinks he does not sin, the Bible says, "he is a liar and the truth is not in him." Since every person in the world is guilty of sin there is only one way to be redeemed; the shed blood of Christ. Any person who feels he has enough "good" in his life to outweigh the sin of his life is doomed to an eternal Hell. No amount of good can overcome a single sin. That first sin separates the soul from God. He will forever be separated from God unless he is "reconciled" to God by faith in Jesus Christ, who died to pay for sin.

Word Studies

By Ken Curry

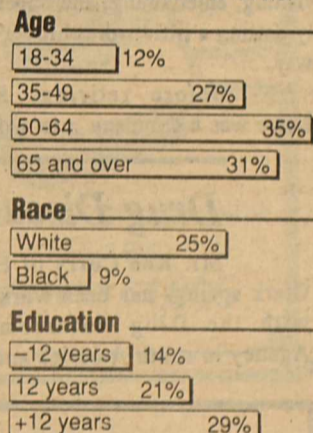

One of the most interesting dispensations was the Age of Israel. With the exception of the first 11 chapters of the book of Genesis, the entire Old Testament deals with Israel. Before entering the promised land, God told the Jews, "...if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be My possession among all the peoples, for all the earth is Mine; and you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation." Israel was charged with recording and preserving God's Word, bringing forth the messiah, and as a nation of priests, of evangelizing the Gentile nations. Israel was a theocracy; the Mosaic Law was a merit system governed by God. If the Jews kept God's commandments, they would receive certain blessings in time; if they did not keep the commandments, they would receive certain punishments in time. But at no time was the Mosaic Law a plan of salvation! The 11th chapter of Hebrews emphatically states that Old Testament Saints were saved by faith in God's Word, the same as they are today. The Apostle Paul wrote his epistle to the Galatians because some legalists had told the Galatians that they had to keep the Law of Moses in addition to believing in Christ, and he asks the,

"...did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing with faith?" (Gal. 3:2) Paul concludes the argument by saying, "...even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we may be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the Law; since by the works of the Law shall no flesh be justified" (Gal. 2:16).

Since we are now living in the Church Age, and not the Age of Israel, it is important that we formulate Christian Doctrine and the Christian way of life from the New Testament epistles. Any sin mentioned in the Old Testament that is still a sin is repeated in Romans through Jude. The study of the Old Testament is important because it provides many doctrinal examples for us, and it contains much unfulfilled prophecy concerning future dispensations. But what is right or wrong for us today must come from the New Testament.

The Professional Tramp

By Cindy Braesicke

Did you see it? Could you miss it?? Harold Lowe from "Everywhere, USA" and his traveling sign shop were in Brackettville, Tuesday, November 27, visiting, entertaining, and hopefully getting a little work thrown his way.

Before retiring, Mr. Lowe was a company man working his artistic miracles in seven different countries. Mr. Lowe is now a sign painter extraordinaire and in his own words "a professional Tramp". He goes where he wants and moves on when the spirit moves him.

I hope you had a chance to meet this unique man while he was in town.

Epiphany (a Greek word that means arrival) falls on January 6 and is the last of the 12 days of Christmas. This marks the day that the three Magi found the Christ Child in a stable in Bethlehem. As the Gospel of St. Matthew relates: "When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come unto the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshiped him; and when they had opened there treasurers, they presented unto him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh." Each present given at Christmas time today is an echo of those first most-precious gifts.

Reflecting on past Christmases, we are likely to recall exchanging gifts, sending greeting to friends, embellishing our homes with greenery, toasting marshmallows, and caroling in celebration of this international festival of faith and goodwill.

Christmas is a nostalgic time, and traditions are rich, lovely rituals in which we should indulge our selves and share with others. Besides there historical importance, these time honored ways give us a link to the past and the future...a belonging to something much larger than we are...by allowing us to be part of an experience that mankind has cherished and repeated for hundreds of years. And each time we celebrate our beliefs are passed to later generations. It is this mixture of custom, reverence, and charity that makes Christmas a masterpiece of imagination, beauty, and love.

The very nicest gifts are those we prepare ourselves. Such gifts are part of us...and through them we share a bit of ourselves with those we love.

Share a part of yourself this Christmas with gifts from your kitchen. For a nice touch, attach the recipe so that the recipient can duplicate the gift in there own kitchen.

Reflections

By Preston Taylor
First Baptist Church

The Christmas Season already knocks at our doors. What does this time of year mean? Many things to many people. The central message needs to be remembered. No one can rally have Christmas without Christ.

Who is Jesus? He is Emmanuel -- God with us. He is Jesus -- Saviour. Jesus is Prophet, Priest, and King. He is the eternal, infinite, sinless Son of God.

The New Testament clearly declares that Jesus is the full and final revelation of God. He exegetes God perfectly. Jesus said, "He who sees me sees the Father...I and the Father are one."

Hundreds of years before Christ was born, God's prophets wrote about Him. They told which tribe Jesus would come from, that He would be born of a virgin, and even the small town where He would be born.

The Bible foretold the dual nature of Jesus as both God and man. The facts are in the Bible about the perfect life of Jesus, His death on the cross, the glorious bodily resurrection, His ascension to heaven, and His heavenly intercession for us. Jesus is the only one who always prays for us (Hebrews 7:25). We can count on Him. Don't let any other substitute get in His way. There is only one mediator between God and man and the Bible calls Him Jesus.

The prophets also said, "Of the increase of His government there shall be no end." One day the kingdoms of this world will become the kingdoms of our Lord and His Christ and He shall reign/rule forever and ever.

Yes, the day of Jesus is coming again. Join those who sing, "Glory, glory, Hallelujah! His truth is marching on."

Child Care Initiatives

As Senate Bill 913 begins to affect more and more school districts and the move towards giving parents a choice as to where they can place their children for care, the Community Council of Southwest Texas, Inc. (CCSWT) leads the region in focusing attention on the need for quality accessible, and affordable child care in many Texas communities.

As a recipient of a Dependent Care Development Grant Program grant during 1989-90 the CCSWT has been the first agency in this region to comprehensively assess after-school child care service needs within a school district, measurably quantifying the number of unsupervised children in elementary grade levels. The significance of this survey should not be relegated to a file, but should be actively addressed by the people of this community.

The CCSWT continues its efforts in this area by once again applying for, and being awarded a Dependent Care Development Grant Program grant for the 1990-91 year. The funds from this grant will be used to make assessments in the Crystal City I.S.D. and the Del Rio/San Felipe I.S.D.; in which both school districts have expressed a strong desire for this issue to be addressed in their area. The remainder of the grant will be applied towards the pilot after-school child care program approved by the Uvalde C.I.S.D. board on September 18, 1990. A concerted effort is being made towards the development of a program that will reinforce the child's academic growth, but at the same time reinforcing parental involvement and individualism. The program will also focus on community involvement through the participation of local residents who have expressed a desire to make a difference in our children's lives.

The other effort which will keep the CCSWT in the forefront of child care initiatives is the Child Care Management services (CCMS) grant, which will give the agency access to child care programs in (9) counties in the region. The agency will actively participate in the intake, assessment, and certification of applicants to the child care programs eligible for CCMS monies, provide technical assistance and training to the child care providers, and be responsible for the billing and monitoring of centers.

Through this effort the CCSWT will be able to affect participation and change in areas that require attention, while at the same time becoming active partners in the child care industry.

The CCSWT makes a commitment to devote its time and efforts to the continued focus on child care issues, and will be an advocate for better child care, education, and opportunities for all the children in its communities.

Between Us

By Joe Townsend

If I have a fetish, it is watching football. In late years, I've backed away from College ball but this year I've been watching some. Saturday, I watched two games and was so repulsed, I've again turned off watching

College football. Oklahoma always has an extraordinary team. Nebraska always ranks among the nations best. The traditional rivalry between these two schools always makes for a great game. Both schools have great quarterbacks, each of which is the backbone of the team. Nebraska's quarterback is small compared to most college players.

On the second play of the first Nebraska series, the quarterback made a dazzling run. The biggest man on the Oklahoma squad, who was "burned" on the play hit the Nebraska player with full force after he was off the field. The official promptly threw the flag. Oklahoma was penalized for unnecessary roughness. The Oklahoma quarterback was taken to the hospital. The ruffian had knocked him into the bench area where he sustained a very severe cut requiring hospitalization.

Without their quarterback, Nebraska seemed totally lost and Oklahoma went on to blow Nebraska out of the game. The media simply reported the quarterback "was hurt". The "tough" Oklahoma player had accomplished what he wanted. he stayed in the game and his team won. That seems to be the name of the game, "Win - no matter how - just Win."

I then turned to the Notre Dame vs USC game. The Trojan quarterback was recovering from a "separated shoulder". It was not on his throwing arm so he was leading Southern Cal in pushing Notre Dame around. Soon Notre Dame zeroed in on the quarterback's bad shoulder. Twice they tackled him so he fell on the shoulder. He was holding the bad arm almost limply when one of Notre Dames big bruisers (they don't have any other kind) zeroed in on the bad side of the quarterback and hit him full tilt on the bad shoulder. He could have hit him lower but it seemed he just wanted to hit the hurting shoulder. He accomplished his way - he forced the quarterback out of the game. Even with the second string quarterback, Notre Dame barely eked out a win. It has always been the philosophy of Notre Dame, "win at any cost." They have refused to be a part of any conference and this year broke with all Collegiate groups to sign a T.V. contract because of the money involved. Professional players are well paid for the risks of injury. Collegiate players stand to lose an entire career from injuries. I have no trouble seeing the difference. I don't know how it could be done but somehow, somehow, College Football needs to return to being a "sport" rather than a business. Since some coaches do not demand sportsmanship maybe if football at the College level were no longer a business it could infuse the "sport" back into the game and with it sportsmanship.

Rory's Video

A JOURNEY INTO FREEDOM AND FRIENDSHIP

Charlie Sheen (PLATOON, WALL STREET), Leslie Caron (GIGI) and Juliette Caton (THE LAST TEMPTATION OF CHRIST) star in the further adventures of Heidi, the Swiss heroine loved by generations.

Now a lovely teenager, Heidi (CATON) and four schoolmates are forced by the tumult of World War I into an Italian orphanage overseen by the evil Signor Bonelli. Together, the girls make a daring escape through the war-swept countryside and over the Swiss Alps - with the orphanage director just footsteps behind them. Captured at the summit, only Heidi's childhood friend, Peter (Sheen), can save them and lead them home. In some of the most spectacular ski scenes ever filmed, Peter races down an alpine glacier to rescue the girls, only to find himself facing death on the mountain's edge. With one false move, they could all plunge into the icy abyss! The story of their courage is an adventure for the entire family.

BORDER SHOOTOUT

Sheriff Danahar (Glenn Ford) is the law in the town of Randado. A tough old cowboy with a swift trigger-finger, many resent his authority, including Phil Sundeen (Jeff Kaake), son of a wealthy cattle rancher. When Danahar's deputy, Kirby Frye (Cody Glenn), arrests two rustlers on Sundeen land, he lights a powder trail of death and destruction that explodes in the face of the law. Little does Danahar suspect that Sundeen heads the rustlers' gang--and so long as he has the support of cool-killing attorney Clay Jordan (Russell Todd), no one can touch him. But when Sundeen's mistress (Charlene Tilton) seduces the sleek young gunslinger, his corrupt empire begins to crumble. Danahar and Frye uncover the truth about his illicit cattle business and Sundeen's gang flee to Mexico where the law can't touch them. It is up to the two lawmen to remove their badges and cross the border for a final bloody confrontation - the shootout at the border.

Historical Society

Visits

Alamo Village

The Fort Clark Historical Society again presented an outstanding program to the resident of our area with their visit to Alamo Village as guests of Happy Shahan on Saturday, November 24th.

The group departed the NCO Club in Fort Clark at 9:30 and all 60 were in their seats in the Cantina by 10:00 a.m. After a brief business meeting the group was entertained by Dan Shi with the first song he wrote after coming to our area and one of his latest hits. Happy Shahan then gave an interesting history of how Alamo Village came to be and how he and John Wayne worked together to build both the Alamo reproduction and the village.

After the program in the Cantina, Richard Curio, Village Manager, gave the group a very special tour through areas not normally seen by visitors. His complete knowledge of the village and his extensive knowledge of the Alamo and the facts and fiction of the struggle there were of great interest to the visitors.

Brackett ISD Receives Commendation

Brackett Independent School District received a commendation during the recent Texas Education Agency accreditation visit for having an outstanding technical plan. Brackett was commended for the plans for the new Integrated Learning Center, to be installed at the end of the semester. Computers are available to both teachers and students throughout the school. The high school typing room will soon have computers instead of typewriters. The school also has a well equipped computer lab in which computer classes are taught.

State to Reduce ISD Funds

The state is expected to begin reducing Available Fund payments to local school districts by about $109 million some time after the first of the year. The figure could go higher once student attendance figures are calculated statewide.

The Texas Education Agency staffers as late as last September had estimated that under the best conditions, school funding would only be reduced by about $15 million. The $109 million figure is still nearly $10 million more than the $100 million shortfall prediction given under the "worst-case scenario."

The state during the last school year ('89-90) prorated about $49 million in state aid - a situation that led many districts to institute severe budget-freezing measures as they struggled to pay for day-to-day operations. The situation worsened as the governor and legislature stalled over how to meet the mandate of the courts to produce an equitable school finance system. Lynn Moak, deputy Texas Education Agency commissioner for research, said that the need for proration during the current school year is a result of decreased local property values and higher tax efforts by school districts. (In brief, the currently unconstitutional part of the SB1 school finance legislation gave incentives to school districts to boost local tax rates in order to qualify for greater portions of state aid.)

Several other factors also contributed to the school funding deficit,, including an unexpected $15 million increase in the cost of textbooks. The state education board committee charged with school finance issues directed the Texas Education Agency staff to aidly publicize the $109 million predicted shortfall in education funding for the current school term so that ISD's would have time to make needed corrections in their budgets.

Board member Will Davis of Austin, who chairs the State Board of Education finance committee, put the blame for the problem on the legislature. "They (the legislature) gave us all this incentive to increase tax effort, but when the districts did that, there wasn't any money there. So we're going to show up $109 million short. That means your districts are going to cry, scream, and holler when you do that proration," Davis told his fellow board members.

The Texas Education Agency staff members are expected to produce printouts soon showing the exact effects of the anticipated funding cutbacks on individual districts. How districts will be affected will depend upon how they come out based on a complicated formula that weighs numerous district characteristics to determine how severe the reduction for the district will be.

Despite the anticipated proration, the total state funding for schools may actually increase by about $654 million during the current school term when compared to spending for '89-90 because of the effects of SB1, which remains in effect this year pending court review.
