A QUICK READ OF THE NEWS

'Samaritans' charged

The Good Samaritans who dropped off an injured young man at a Winnipeg, Manitoba, hospital have been charged with robbing him after he fell off the roof of their car.

The bizarre incident happened early Saturday morning, Constable Bob Johnson of the Winnipeg Police Service said Wednesday.

The 22-year-old, unconscious, minus his wallet and with head injuries, was dropped off at a south Winnipeg hospital by some young men who said they found him on the road.

They refused to give their names but hospital staff were able to supply a description of them and their car to police.

Johnson said the 22-year-old had been drinking in a bar not far from the hospital.

He encountered the four young men and asked for a ride home. When they told him there was no room in their car, he offered to ride on the roof.

While the vehicle was driving around at speeds of up to 60 kilometers per hour, the victim fell off.

The young men in the car relieved him of his wallet and then took him to the hospital.

One 17-year-old has been charged with criminal negligence causing harm and three 16-year-olds have been charged with theft under $5,000.

The victim was in critical condition and on life support Wednesday.

Golden Cranes stop Muleshoe 22-0

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal sportswriter

A swarming Crane defense and Mule injuries held Muleshoe to a season-low 162 yards of offense as the Golden Cranes amassed 303 yards and three TDs en route to a 22-0 victory in the second round of the playoffs. The defeat ended the Mule season at 10-2.

"If it didn't hurt so bad to lose, winning wouldn't be so much fun," Mule head coach David Wood said after the game.

Crane's 5-11, 200-pound running back, Harold Jeffery, rushed 34 times for 216 yards and scored all three Crane touchdowns. He scored in each of the first three quarters on the Cranes' version of the hammer, from 20, 21, and nine yards.

The Mules had struggled all season with injuries to key players and tonight was no different. D.J. Domínguez caught a pass over the middle for the Mules' first down of the night and took a shot to the right knee that sidelined him for the night.

On fourth-and-one with three minutes left in the third frame, A.J. Flores caught a pitch wide right for a first-and-goal on the Crane three-yard line, but as he made his cut toward the goal line his right knee gave way.

Lincoln Riley was knocked out of the game after being blasted on the Crane 25. He had gained 17 yards on an option keeper around right end on the first play of the fourth period.

Jeffery's first score came after Marcus Collins picked off a Riley pass intended for Kyle Atwood on the Crane 43. He returned it just inside Mule territory, and eight plays later bounced wide right for a 20-yard

City to buy vehicles for firefighters

JOURNAL STAFF REPORT

The Muleshoe City Council voted Tuesday to accept bids on a rescue truck and a crew-cab pickup to be used by the Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department.

City Manager David Brunson said the pickup will be shared with the state forestry department.

Of the three bids received on the pickup, the one by Gene Messer Ford ($27,400) was about $5,000 lower than the other two bids, Brunson said. The council took the low bid.

The rescue truck involves a lease-purchase agreement. Brunson called it "not a high-mileage truck, but a lot of the miles it gets will be tough ones."

What cold? What wind?

Some people didn't let Friday's cold, cloudy, windy weather interfere with their priorities, even if they could hardly bear to look. One of them was Marissa Nicole Martinez, 15 1/2-month-old daughter of Dennis Ringler of Muleshoe, who was playing at City Park under the supervision of her godfather, Dennis Wilson, and her 3-year-old brother, Sean Michael Martinez.

Symposium to spotlight boll weevils, Karnal bunt

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

AMARILLO — Texas Cooperative Extension will showcase many of the top issues facing farmers and ranchers during the 17th annual Farm and Ranch Symposium on Nov. 29 at the Amarillo Civic Center.

The event is held during the Amarillo Farm and Ranch Show, where more than 300 companies and 700 exhibits will be featured.

The three-day farm show attracts more than 30,000 participants each year, making it one of the nation's larger industry-based expositions.

Sunflower production, Karnal bunt disease's impact on wheat, boll-weevil eradication, biotechnology challenges, and groundwater protection will headline the event. Leon Church, Extension agricultural agent in Potter County, will be the moderator.

Registration will start at 8 a.m., followed by a program slated to run from 9 a.m. to noon. All area farmers and ranchers are encouraged to participate.

Dr. Calvin Trostle, Extension agronomist at Lubbock, will conduct a session on sunflower production. His discussion will address the reasons behind the big push to sunflowers as an alternative crop this year.

Planting dates, population, fertility and irrigation issues will round out his presentation.

Dr. Greta Schuster, Extension integrated pest management specialist at West Texas A&M University at Canyon, will describe Karnal bunt disease and how it impacts wheat production.

She will advise what steps are necessary when wheat tests positive for the disease.

Dr. Charles Allen, program director with the Texas Boll Weevil Foundation from Abilene, will discuss the current status of eradication efforts in the High Plains region.

Dr. Andy Vestal, Extension specialist in agricultural education, will separate biotechnology fact from fiction and discuss opportunities and challenges for today's producer. Texas Department of Agriculture's Levon Harman will address proper procedures for capping abandoned irrigation wells to protect groundwater resources.

Continuing education units will be available for participants needing to maintain certifications, including pesticide applicators and crop advisers. The sessions are free.

More information is available by contacting Church at (806) 372-3829 or Patrick at (806) 359-5401.

The symposium is coordinated by Extension in cooperation with the Potter County agricultural program committee.

Three Way board to set election date Monday

JOURNAL STAFF REPORT

The Three Way School Board will meet at 8 a.m. Monday in the board room to set a date for an election on consolidating with the Sudan district.

The agenda also includes an open forum, in case any citizen wants to comment further on the consolidation.

The board recently met for a second time with the Sudan board to iron out final issues between the two districts.

Earlier, the Three Way Board also met with the Muleshoe and Morton boards, and officials from all four districts spoke at a public meeting held at Three Way.

A key issue in Sudan's favor was the fact that, while tax rates are comparable in the Muleshoe and Sudan school districts, a comparison of assessed valuations between the Lamb County and Bailey County appraisal districts showed that at least some Bailey County farmland is valued at nearly twice as much by Bailey County.

He carried for the two-point conversion to put the Cranes up 8-0 with seven seconds in the first period.

After the ensuing Crane kickoff, Riley was stripped of the ball on a quarterback sneak that would have given the Mules a first down on their own 27.

The Mule defense held the first three downs as Crane tried to take advantage of the Mule miscue. Jeffrey banged up the middle for only eight yards on three plays.

On fourth-and-two from the Mule 21, however, Jeffrey took the hammer outside to put Crane on top 15-0 less than four minutes after his first TD.

The Mules failed to move the ball as the second half got under way, and Riley's punt into the wind went out of bounds on the Mule 43. Jeffery carried six times to complete the night's scoring with 7:44 showing in the third period.

Atwood returned the ensuing kick to the Mule 30. Attempting to break free for more yards, he had the ball yanked from his grip but Jordan Dale recovered for the Mules.

Riley, on the option, moved the Mules to their 48 and then located Atwood open on the Crane 30. Atwood scrambled to the 25 for a 27-yard gain. Riley would keep on the option three plays in a row to give the Mules a third-and-one on the Crane four.

Flores' knee gave way picking up the first down on the Crane three. The Mules fumbled on the subsequent play and Crane recovered on its own 10.

Bradley Thomason, Stephan Shelburne, and Michael Durben made key stops to force Crane to punt out of bounds on the Mule 46 with eight seconds remaining in the third frame.

Riley picked up 12 yards on the last play of the period and was injured on the first play of the final period after going 17 more yards.

Daniel Campolla took Riley's place and from the shotgun ran the option around left end for a 22-yard gain.

Jesús Tovar appeared to reach the end zone, but was marked down on the one-yard line. The Mules could not punch the ball in, and Crane drove to the Mule 16 to erase the final eight minutes.

"The seniors passed the torch to the juniors in the locker room tonight after the game," Wood said. "The tradition will continue, as the underclassmen are ready to carry forward.

"I told them in the locker room when it was over, 'This game hurts, but the hurt will pass. What will not pass are the relationships you have developed, the fun you had and the memories you carry with you.'"

This year's 10-2 record coupled with last year's 14-1 gives the Mules an enviable 24-3 two-year record.

HOROSCOPES

NOV. 25-DEC. 1 For entertainment purposes only

Aries — March 21/April 20
This week brings many invitations for adventure, but think about what you really want to do before you jump head-first into the plans. Are you thinking about taking a vacation? Something active will keep you interested — like skiing, snowboarding or downhill tubing. Romance could blossom on the slopes.

Taurus — April 21/May 21
If you've realized that there no longer seems room for advancement at your job, it could be time to look elsewhere. Don't worry about a sluggish economy, in your line of work the jobs are still plentiful. Take a breather on Wednesday to collect your thoughts and draft a plan of action. Good news arrives on Friday.

Gemini — May 22/June 21
Have you been a little moody lately, Gemini? Maybe you're not challenging yourself enough. Try signing up at the gym for an aerobics class like kickboxing or spinning. It really will keep your adrenaline pumping and your mind open for new ideas. Friends recognize your need for help and do.

Cancer — June 22/July 22
If your finances have got you down lately, Cancer, you're not alone. Everyone is feeling the crunch. Yet, you can't stop enjoying yourself in the meanwhile. Forget about practicality this week and treat yourself to something "naughty." Maybe a massage or a designer outfit could help turn your mood around.

Leo — July 23/August 23
Changes in your neighborhood have caused you to consider a change for yourself as well. Perhaps it's time to make a move to some place where there's less hustle and bustle. Don't worry about making friends — your outgoing personality will definitely get you noticed.

Virgo — Aug 24/Sept 22
If you're struggling at work, Virgo, you may want to seek the advice of your co-workers. You could find that you may have made a mistake in accepting this position. Aquarius looks to you for some personal advice on Tuesday and could need a place to stay for a few days. You could use a little company this week.

Libra — Sept 23/Oct 23
You can't always get your way, Libra, and with a new opportunity at work you'll really have to fight to get noticed. Reflecting on what you really want will help you choose a course of action. You probably won't have time for much romance this week.

Scorpio — Oct 24/Nov 22
Don't dwell on the past when it comes to a love interest. There's no use pondering what could have happened. Someone you interact with everyday could turn out to be the perfect match for you. Keep a tight grip on your money there may be some unexpected expenses Tuesday.

Sagittarius — Nov 23/Dec 21
Things at work have not slowed down since you started this new position. Have you felt your nerves getting frayed, Sagittarius? It's time to tell co-workers that they need to pull more weight to help you out. A pampering day off on Wednesday will help soothe your tired mind and body.

Capricorn — Dec 22/Jan 20
Does an old flame keep resurfacing, Capricorn? It could be fate trying to tell you something. While your current love interest seems like quite the catch, there's something being hidden from you. This time it may be wise the pursue the one that got away. Work and fun become difficult while your mind is engaged.

Aquarius — Jan 21/Feb 18
You've been spending too much time at work lately, Aquarius. It's time to shake off some responsibilities for a while and set off on a spur-of-the-moment trip. How about visiting a landmark that you've never seen. Niagara Falls, the Grand Canyon, and Mount Rushmore are just a short plane ride away. Take along a friend.

Pisces — Feb 19/March 20
Don't wait for change to come to you, Pisces — you have to be a go-getter this time. Work is tough this week and you're bound to see a few changes at the office. They may not be exactly what you hoped for. View them as stepping stones to success.

Lady Mules overcome Nazareth Swiftettes, 54-50

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal sports writer

The Lady Mules' confidence took a giant leap Tuesday night as they overcame a 22-8 first-quarter deficit to defeat the defending Class A state champion Nazareth Swiftettes 54-50 in front of rowdy Muleshoe crowd.

"That was real nice — unbelievable!" exclaimed Lady Mule coach Shanna Simms. "We had two goals tonight — to shoot the ball well and to crash the boards and rebound, and we did that."

"Nazareth's game plan is simple — shoot and get on the boards — so we knew we had to put a body on them and hold them to one shot. Tonight is a highlight in my coaching career, and I am so proud of these 11 girls. I told them after the game, 'You joined the elite tonight,'" she said.

Preseason polls had tagged the Lady Mules with a No. 8 state ranking in Class AAA, and they lived up to that billing in the second period as they allowed Nazareth only four points while tossing in 15 to trail 26-23 at intermission.

The final five minutes of the second period were all Lady Mules as they unreeling a 9-0 run. Tiffany Flores nailed a three-pointer as the first half expired.

Muleshoe's scoring run continued into the third period, as Mindy Locker was fouled driving the lane and sank both shots from the charity stripe.

Flores kissed the ball off the glass for her second three of the night before Nazareth notched its first point of the second half. Britni Gartin launched a three from the corner on an in-bounds play to continue the Lady Mule assault.

Muleshoe ran back on defense and Gartin got a hand on a Swiftette pass and tipped it to Flores. Flores gathered in the loose ball and sent a long pass to the Muleshoe end of the floor, giving Gartin an easy layup.

Nazareth would make a bucket with 4:15 left in the third frame and Muleshoe would add five unanswered points to outscore the Swiftettes 17-3 in the third frame. Sara Benham's quick hands and feet tipped the ball away from the Nazareth post five times in that four-minute span.

Shani Rasco blocked two shots in the paint, including a drive down the lane by Nazareth's premier point guard, Stephanie Thiel, to give the Lady Mules a 40-29 lead at the end of the third frame.

Nazareth put up a barrage of three-pointers in the final frame and sank five, but Gartin answered for the Lady Mules when she took an inside-out pass from Tori Barton and dropped in a three. Flores put the final nail in the Swiftettes' coffin as she buried a three with 1:15 left in the game.

The Lady Mule fans

knew the game was over and celebrated as the final minute ticked off the clock. Nazareth's Thiel hit from the top of the key for the final three points of the game, but could not overtake the Lady Mules.

Thiel and Wendy Black led all scoring with 15 each for Nazareth. Gartin had 14 for the Lady Mules with three three-pointers, Flores followed with 11, including three threes, and Jessica Carpenter added nine points and a three.

Locker made six-of-nine free throws, Rasco added six points, Kayla Glover had four and Benham and Barton added two each. The Lady Mules pulled down 28 rebounds with Rasco, Locker, and Carpenter grabbing four each.

The 2-1 Lady Mules will celebrate Thanksgiving and get back to work Nov. 27 when the Denver City Lady Mustangs come for a visit.

JV Lady Mules stand at 3-2

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal sports writer

The junior varisty Lady Mules have been busy since tipping off their basketball season Nov. 14 against the Frenship Lady Tigers.

They have played five games in seven days, and even though they dropped their first game 43-39, they took the lessons learned into Nov. 15-17 Nazareth tournament.

The Lady Mules evened their season record at 1-1 by sinking seven threes to blow away the Happy Cowgirls 47-21. Lindsey Wood and Tabatha Obenhaus led the scoring for Muleshoe with 15 and 11 points, respectively.

On Saturday morning, the Lady Mules hammered Lubbock Cooper's Lady Pirates 41-30. Muleshoe took control early in the game with a 14-4 first quarter and repeated that in the second period to own a 28-8 halftime advantage.

Before the morning was over, Wood had racked up 14 points, Jamie Carpenter added 12, Obenhaus and Amber Cowart dropped in six apiece and Megan Mason and Gradee Adrian added two points each. Dropping the Lady Pirates earned the Lady Mules the right to face Nazareth for the championship.

In the finals, Muleshoe struggled in the first and third periods and trailed the Swiftettes 39-22 going into the final frame. The Lady Mules picked up the scoring pace and outscored Nazareth 21-15 in the final quarter.

Wood led the Lady Mules with 17 points; Obenhaus had nine, Carpenter seven, Mason four and Cowart and Mitci Hawkins three each.

The 54-43 loss gave the Lady Mules the tournament's second-place trophy.

Tuesday night, the Swiftettes visited Muleshoe for a rematch of the tournament championship, with Muleshoe coming out on top 55-45.

With the loss fresh on the Lady Mules' minds, they jumped out to a 6-2 lead on back-to-back threes by Carpenter and Wood.

Muleshoe's guns then fell quiet, and Nazareth claimed a 14-10 first-period lead. The scoring picked up in the second period, and with two minutes left before intermission Adrian kicked the ball out to Wood on the arch for a three-pointer to put Muleshoe up 24-19.

The Swiftettes knotted the game at 24-24 with a three as the first half ended. The second half opened with Mason fueling a fast break with a pass to Cowart and she found Obenhaus open to complete the break. Wood and Obenhaus added two points each before Nazareth could get on the board.

The Lady Mules whipped the Swiftettes 22-8 in the third period to take a 46-32 advantage into the final period. With two minutes left in the game, the Lady Mules went to the four-corner offense and secured the win.

Wood had 15 points, Carpenter 15, Obenhaus nine, Mason added eight, and Cowart six. The 3-2 Lady Mules take a Thanksgiving break and then host the Denver City Lady Mustangs on Nov. 27.

WILDLIFE REFUGE NEWS

Excellent weather and strong visitor attendance highlighted the third annual Crane Fest Nov. 3 at the Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge.

Muleshoe organizers held related events in town, and an early-morning breakfast was held adjacent to the refuge, said refuge manager Don Clapp. Refuge personnel held an open house, keeping the office and visitor center open throughout the day.

Although lesser sandhill crane numbers were low compared to previous years, visitors who were present at sunrise and sunset were able to see hundreds of the spectacular birds leaving or arriving at Paul's Lake.

Prairie dogs in the adjacent prairie-dog town were also an attraction.

The event was considered a success by refuge staff, and they expressed hope that there will be enough interest (and cranes) to justify having the event next year. Presently, the cranes are having trouble finding roosting areas in lakes holding water.

Crane numbers in the area will continue to change daily until the migration period ends around mid-November to the first of December.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

FIRST BISHOP OF ROME!

LINUS WAS AN EARLY CHRISTIAN IN ROME, A FRIEND TO BOTH ST. PAUL AND TIMOTHY. HIS NAME IS MENTIONED BUT ONCE IN THE BIBLE, BY ST. PAUL IN HIS LETTER TO TIMOTHY (II TIM. 4:21). THAT THE FIRST BISHOP OF ROME, AFTER THE APOSTLES WAS NAMED LINUS IS ACCEPTED BY ALL THE ANCIENT HISTORIANS. THE ASSERTION BY IRENAEUS, AND CORROBORATED BOTH BY EUSEBIUS AND THEODORET IS SUFFICIENT PROOF THAT THE BISHOP AND ST. PAUL'S FRIEND WERE ONE AND THE SAME! THE DATE OF HIS APPOINTMENT AND THE LIMITS OF HIS AUTHORITY ARE POINTS THAT ARE OBTAINED BY TIME AND HISTORY, ALTHOUGH EUSEBIUS STATES THAT HE BECAME BISHOP OF ROME AFTER THE DEATH OF ST. PETER. THE DURATION OF HIS OFFICE IS GIVEN BY EUSEBIUS AS A.D. 68-80! IT IS PRESUMED THAT LINUS WAS BISHOP IN ROME ONLY OF THE CHRISTIANS OF GENTILE ORIGIN, WHILE AT THE SAME TIME ANOTHER BISHOP HAD AUTHORITY OVER OLDER JEWISH CHRISTIANS! NO LOFTY PRE-EMINENCE WAS ATTACHED TO THE OFFICE. IN THOSE DAYS, IN FACT, IT WAS DOWNRIGHT DANGEROUS AS ALL CHRISTIANS WERE LIABLE TO BEING HUNTED DOWN, PERSECUTED AND MARTYRED! AND IN FACT, THIS WAS THE WAY LINUS' LIFE DID END - AS IT DID FOR SO MANY OF THE EARLY CHRISTIANS!

The Holidays Have Rolled Around for One More Year

A fine old gentleman and member of the first church I served "solo" was pushing 80 years old pretty hard when he pointed his amazing mane of thick white hair my direction and intoned, "Curtis, at this point in my life, it seems like Christmases roll around about once a week." At 44, and with a head pretty full of gray hair (not white just yet), I'm beginning to see what he meant.

For a four-year-old, waiting a fourth of his life for Santa to come back seems like waiting for an eternity. For a 44-year-old, well, the holidays seem to roll around a lot more often, and I can well understand that, for an 80-year-old, they may seem to fly by like telephone poles past a car window.

Focus On Faith

But this 44-year-old still looks forward to them.

I like the holiday foods. I rarely get tired of turkey, and I almost never get tired of dressing loaded up with giblet gravy and cranberry sauce. (I love my wife's family, but you have to watch those folks. A day or two after Thanksgiving, they get tired of turkey you can chew, somebody cranks up the food processor, and what's left of the turkey-bird becomes turkey salad which no turkey would recognize as kin. That's okay, but I like turkey better before it hits the fan.) And Christmas foods? Ah, what's not to like? I cooked for most of the holiday one year and made a Christmas meal I think Charles Dickens would have approved of complete with a stuffed goose, a plum pudding, and loads of trimmings. (And cheesecake, too, which doesn't figure much into a Dickens Christmas, but always figures into mine.) Chase dinner with a good hot cup of Earl Grey tea, a nice fire, a comfortable chair, and a great old movie or a better old book, and, well, I love it!

It's great to be with family again for a few days—even if your family has grown, the house hasn't, and you're stacked at night like firewood. And speaking of wood, most family trees have a few nuts, but even us nuts like to be with folks from the same tree for awhile. It's even better on those occasions when just about everyone comes healthy and you have a fair chance of making it through the long weekend without the uncommonly prevalent common cold or a 24-hour stomach virus (that you'd swear lasts for a month) exploding through the family like a 3-alarm fire at a fireworks factory. (We've tried it that way. Healthy is much better.)

Our family clusters over jigsaw puzzles (nothing less than 1000 pieces, thanks) or spars over Scrabble (in a family filled with English majors, Scrabble opinions are deeply held and obscure words are precious, prized, and must be proven). Little kids romp and wrestle and drive their parents crazy. Teenagers sit around and watch movies and finally go stir-crazy.

But I'm thankful for families, for food, for fun, and for the Giver of all good gifts who has so graciously given these. Yes, the holidays seem to be rolling around more quickly than ever, but I'm glad they still come.

Mule linemen carry heavy load for varsity

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal sportswriter

"The big guys get it done for us," Mule running back A.J. Flores said after a Muleshoe victory earlier this year.

No one in the Muleshoe backfield would want to line up on a Friday night, even for one play, without the big guys that fill the center of the Mule offensive line. The line has been a very bright spot in the Mules' offense this year.

"Against Childress, the entire lineman graded out 85 percent or higher," coach David Wood said. "That is unheard of in a game like this. They stayed focused — in fact, they have been focused all year."

"As banged up as we have been and to stay as consistent as we have says a lot for these kids, because from one game to the next there have been a lot of different players up front. There have been opportunities for missed communication among the players, but they continue to work together as a unit."

"It's no wonder holes are opened for A.J. (Flores) and Lincoln (Riley) to run through — and the pass protection has been great," he said.

"We have Chance Turney at tackle, which at the first of the season we were not sure who would fill that spot, but Turney stepped up and said he wanted that spot and has been there all year."

"Skippy (Jeffre Skipworth) is a returning starter at quick tackle and is a solid force up front. He makes calls as they come to the line — he has lost some weight this year and that makes him more mobile, but he did not lose any strength. He grades out in the high 80s every game."

"Bradley (Thomason) is another returning starter from last year as the center, and he and Skippy run the front line. He has to know both the quick and strong side because he plays in the middle of the offensive line."

"Daniel Johnson is a big guy and does not like for people to know how smart he really is at strong tackle. He makes a lot of calls to help Bradley and David Burciaga, a newcomer to the front line."

"We put the guys with experience in the middle to communicate to the others what needs to be done. It is a formula that has worked for us the last several years and it has worked well for these guys, too," Wood said.

"David has really come into his own late in the season; as big as he is, he can pull and lead on the quick pitch around the end. I would hate to be the cornerback that sees him coming. He has done a good job all year long."

"D.J. Domínguez is our tight end and is blocking 80 percent of the time. He has gotten pancake block after pancake block all year long. We were not sure last spring who would be the tight end and D.J. stepped forward and is now a two-way starter for us."

"We have others that come in a play for us. Brian Smith, Smoky Ramírez and Rey Martínez have filled in when we needed them. These guys are in the trenches for us every play and that is where our offense starts."

"Our running backs and Lincoln sure like having those guys up front, they know they will have a place to run on every play. The whole team knows where the root of our offense is, even if they do not get their names in the paper much," Wood added.

"Every time we run the hammer, it is open thanks to Daniel (Johnson), he blocks down and leaves a hole for me to go through to get the linebacker to make a big hole for A.J. Flores to run through," Skipworth said.

"On the GT, Daniel and David push down on the backside so we can push out the end, and Turney can go get the backer so we can get some yards."

"It is easy to for me in our offense," Turney said, "I just follow Skippy (Skipworth) and take whoever he leaves for me."

Rabies cases may set record

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

The number of confirmed rabies cases in Texas (including one early last summer in Bailey County) is continuing to increase, raising the possibility that the state may set a record this year for rabies cases.

By Oct. 6, the total number of confirmed rabies cases in Texas surpassed last year's total of 830 cases. Since then, the total has climbed to about 850 confirmed cases.

There have been 87 more rabid skunks than last year — a 16 percent increase — and more cases are expected; over the past five years, the last three months of the year account for at least 22 percent of the rabid skunk cases, on average.

The state also is experiencing an increase in the number of rabid bats. So far this year, 155 rabid bats have been confirmed, an increase of 26 percent from last year at this time.

The peak period for rabid bats runs from September to October, and about half of each year's total is diagnosed during the last four months of the year.

Following the trend, the Panhandle/South Plains region is experiencing an increase in rabid animals. There have been 39 cases of rabies confirmed in the region this year, compared to a total of 26 for last year.

Gray County has reported the most cases: 17 skunks, with all but one being in or near Pampa.

Other counties in the region that have reported animal rabies cases (and their totals) are: Deaf Smith (six skunks and one horse); Hale (two skunks); Lamb (one skunk); Lubbock (one skunk); Randall (four skunks and one bat); Sherman (one steer); Swisher (one cat); and Wheeler (two skunks and one raccoon).

People should continue to take steps to discourage skunks from approaching houses. Pet food and water should be moved indoors at night, and areas that could be used as a den should be eliminated.

If a skunk attacks a litter of puppies or kittens, the survivors should be euthanized to prevent human exposure a few weeks later.

All pets and livestock with frequent human contact or extraordinary value should be vaccinated to prevent rabies.

Bats that appear to be flying erratically during the day or which are grounded should be avoided since they have a high probability of being rabid. Students should not be allowed to take bats to school.

Anyone exposed to saliva of a possibly rabid animal through a bite or through contact with an open wound or the mucous membranes should seek medical attention.

The local animal control authority also should be contacted to obtain testing of the animal, if it is available.

Domestic animals that are exposed to rabies must either be euthanized or be vaccinated and then isolated for a 45- to 90-day period to ensure public safety.

Lactose intolerance can be managed easily with proper diet

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL COLLEGE STATION
— What do people do when eating a healthy diet makes them sick?

That's the question faced by the lactose intolerant — individuals whose bodies can't digest lactose, a substance found in milk.

For those people, a tall, cool, refreshing glass of milk can lead to pain and discomfort, said Janet Pollard, Texas Cooperative Extension health associate.

According to the National Dairy Council, the symptoms of lactose intolerance — nausea, abdominal pain or cramps, bloating, gas and diarrhea — are caused by low activity of the lactase enzyme.

"If not digested in the small intestine, undigested lactose may enter the large intestine where naturally residing, gas-producing bacteria ferment it. This fermentation can lead to symptoms of lactose intolerance," the dairy council information stated.

As many as 50 million Americans — or close to 25 percent of the population — suffer some of these symptoms, say figures compiled by the American Dietetic Association and other organizations.

Whatever the cause, the result is pain, discomfort and a very upset stomach.

But dairy products, and especially milk, are prime sources of calcium, which is so necessary for strong bones and teeth, and so vital in preventing osteoporosis later in life.

Plus, dairy products in general — and milk specifically — also can be a source for protein; several B vitamins including B12, B6, riboflavin, thiamin and niacin; and vitamin A.

Pollard offered these suggestions for those who get sick from milk:

- Adjust the amount of lactose in the diet. "Individuals with lactose intolerance vary in the amount of lactose they can tolerate," she said. "Try consuming a small amount of milk — less than one cup — with food, and gradually increase the serving size ... until symptoms just begin to develop."

- Have something else along with the milk. "Don't drink milk on an empty stomach," Pollard said. "Other foods will slow digestion and allow what lactase enzyme you have to do its job."

- Be careful when selecting foods. "Some dairy foods are better tolerated than others," Pollard said. Try yogurt with "live active cultures"; aged hard cheeses such as Cheddar, Swiss, Colby and Parmesan; or small amounts of sweet acidophilus milk, yogurt milk or other fermented dairy products.

- Try lactose-reduced or lactose-free products, including some kinds of milk, cottage cheese, yogurt and ice cream. "These products and other products containing lactose-hydrolyzed milk contain all the same nutrients, including calcium, as their regular counterparts," she said.

- Use lactase enzyme tablets or lactase enzyme drops, both of which are available over the counter.

If other sources of dietary calcium are preferable, try broccoli, Chinese cabbage, kale and turnip greens, fish and seafood such as oysters, salmon with bones, sardines and shrimp, tofu and molasses, Pollard said.

However, she said, "It is also important to note that although these foods are somewhat calcium-rich, it is very difficult to get enough calcium through these sources."

For example, she said, a cup of milk contains 300 milligrams of calcium; to get the same amount of calcium, three cups of cooked broccoli or two cups of cooked collard greens would need to be consumed.

And remember to watch out for hidden lactose. "For instance," she said, "some products are labeled non-dairy, but include ingredients derived from milk, such as powdered coffee creamer or whipped topping. Likewise, though milk and foods made from milk are the only natural sources of lactose, it is often added to prepared foods."

If watching for hidden lactose, check the labels of such items as bread and other baked goods, processed breakfast cereals and breakfast drinks; instant potatoes, soups, margarine, non-kosher luncheon meats, salad dressings, candies and snacks, and powdered mixes for pancakes, biscuits and cookies.

Pollard also warned: "Lactose is also used as a base in more than 20 percent of prescription drugs and about 6 percent of over-the-counter medications. Many types of birth control pills, for example, contain lactose, as do some tablets for stomach acid and gas — an important piece of information for those trying to treat symptoms related to lactose intolerance."

Although it is not a life-threatening condition and can be easily controlled through wise dietary choices, lactose intolerance can have an enormous impact on individual health. That's why a medical professional is needed for diagnosis and care of the condition, she said.

"Lactose intolerance is quite common and manageable," said Dr. Carol A. Rice, Extension health specialist. "Total avoidance of lactose could produce tragic results such as osteoporosis and fractures."

Pollard added: "Once sure lactose intolerance is the problem, developing a plan to maintain an adequate intake of the nutrients once obtained in dairy products is essential."

"Closely monitoring symptoms, working with your doctor or dietitian, and using the tips for managing lactose tolerance ... can make a big difference in maintaining overall health."

More information on lactose intolerance is available in the Health Education Rural Outreach HealthHints newsletter for September. Visit the web site fcs.tamu.edu/health\_and\_safety.htm.
