Letter From State Health Officer

AUSTIN, TEXAS. — A dime store paint brush and a few ounces of chlordane are the only tools you need to run off those pesky cockroaches, State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox advises. But he says keeping them off is a bigger job.

Roaches are disease carriers from way back, the health officer pointed out. They've been found naturally infected with polio virus. And that alone, is reason enough to declare war against the filth ridden pests. Here's the way to do it:

First: Get a 2 per cent chlordane spray and a two-bit paint brush from the drug store. Then take all the pots, pans, and dishes from the kitchen cabinet and wash them in soapy water.

Now paint the chlordane into all the cracks where shelves join walls, and around the drain and water pipes. That's all — don't paint the whole cabinet. While the spray is drying in the cabinets, paint the corners of baseboards, behind the stove and the hot water heater where water and gas pipes enter the house.

Take off the motor panel of the refrigerator, and treat the floor and corners of the motor compartment. Paint the walls behind the refrigerator, because roaches will hide any place they can find protection. Be sure to paint around bathroom pipes, too.

In older houses it's possible that roaches will be hiding in cracks between the wall boards and door and window frames. So don't pass up a crack because it looks so small to harbor roaches. The young insects are mighty small.

After the spray in the cabinets has dried thoroughly, cover the shelves where dishes and food are stored with paper. You can get a can of caulking compound for just a few cents, which makes filling cracks permanently an inexpensive process. But run some of the spray into cracks before sealing them up. This will kill ants, too.

All this will help you get rid of roaches, Dr. Cox emphasizes. But if you leave food exposed, they'll soon be back at the same old stand.

Huge Catfish Taken In Nets

AUSTIN, July 24 — A crew supervised by Game Warden Bert Iverson of Throckmorton, seined 57 big catfish when Woodson Lake shrank from 320 acres to 20 acres because of dry weather.

The fish, all yellow cats, ranged in size from 21 to 105 pounds. A few channel cats, crappie and black bass also rescued were taken to the Possum Kingdom hatchery by Hatchery Superintendent Harmon Henderson. Since seining is legal in Throckmorton County and since the big fish were taken from private waters, they were distributed among the men who manned the boats and seines.

When the lake was created 28 years ago it was stocked with cats taken from the Clear Fork of the Brazos River. For many years it provides good fishing but dry weather reduced it to a shallow mudhole.

Then there was the guy who put his feet on a desk. Told that it was a synonym of laziness, he said it wasn't—that the medical profession and athletes always did it to help the flow of blood to the head and ideas, and to relax and renew spent energy. Now, we can't put up our feet in complete confidence it is not laziness.

Letter From Congressman Fisher

JUNCTION — A major achievement of the recent session of Congress was the trimming of $9 billion from President Truman's budget requests, Rep. O. C. Fisher told a crowd of more than 300 people at the county courthouse here Saturday.

"And there was a lot more fat that could and should have been removed," he added.

Fisher was the honored guest of the Kimble County Electric Coop. at its annual 5-county membership meeting. The Congressman is a native of Kimble County and still operates a stock farm here.

"One of the big jobs of this day," Fisher said, "is to eliminate waste, extravagance and non-essential spending on a State and National level. A strong nation must be a solvent nation."

Rep. Fisher pointed to several cuts he said should have been made. He was critical of the 22 billion foreign economic aid fund voted by Congress — in addition to military assistance.

"The war has been over seven years and we are still asked to build public works and bolster sagging finances of many foreign countries. I voted against this twenty-hundred-million-dollar economic aid because I was convinced it is not essential to our security. We simply cannot afford to finance an international WPA — in Arabia, Israel, and elsewhere — to be paid for, year after year, by hard-pressed American taxpayers," he cautioned.

Turning to the subject of Agriculture, Fisher in a radio address said the House amendment to the military appropriation bill, which requires preference for domestic wool in military procurement orders, should be of help to our growers.

Some foreign wools, he said, have been dumped and sold at abnormally low prices because of subsidies paid to exporters by the governments of certain exporting countries, in order to get American dollars. Thus, he explained, the American growers have been competing not only with the world market but also with foreign subsidies.

The House passed a bill to clarify the law and require an import fee to be levied, above the present tariff, to protect our growers against this practice, but the Senate did not reach the bill before the recent recess.

Cafes, Services Must Post Prices

Changes have NOT been made by the Office of Price Administration in the ceiling price posting requirements of restaurant owners and sellers of services.

San Antonio district OPS officials said cafes and service sellers, such as service stations, laundries, cleaning and pressing firms, shoe repair shops, etc., are required under extended OPS pricing regulations to continue to post their ceiling prices so they may be easily seen by customers.

OPS said Congress extended the OPS program, with some changes in its application, to May 1, 1953.

Businessmen desiring information about pricing regulations are invited to contact the San Antonio district OPS, 229 West Nueva Street.

Veterans Questions And Their Answers

Q—I'm a World War II veteran, and I just got a job in France, where I expect to remain for a good many years. Could I get a GI loan to buy a home in France?

A—No. Property bought with the help of a GI loan must be located only in the United States, its territories or possessions, and not in any foreign country.

Q—I've just finished pre-medical training under the GI Bill, but I haven't yet been able to get admitted to a medical school. Does this mean I'll have to forfeit my remaining GI Bill entitlement?

A—No. You will be permitted to continue with your professional studies whenever you find a medical school that has room for you. You must, however, establish the fact that you have applied for admission regularly, after completing your pre-medical training. However your professional schooling can't go on beyond July 25, 1956.

Q—I'm receiving disability compensation checks each month from the VA. I've had to go pretty heavily into debt, and my creditors are demanding their money. Do they have the right to demand any part of my compensation checks?

A—No. Your compensation payments are exempt from seizure, levy or attachment.

Q—I'm a paralyzed veteran, eligible for a VA housing grant. Must I use the money to buy a new house only?

A—No. The grant may be used for that purpose, and also for the purpose of remodeling an existing house for your requirements or for paying off the indebtedness on a home you already have if it is suitable to your needs.

A student told us the other day that he found that turning down the radio low—to music that is—helps him concentrate to study. Wonder what you might call a neighbor of us who formerly turned his music box up so loud everyone jokingly referred to it as the community

A monkey fist is a complicated knot with or without weight enclosed, worked into the end of a heaving line.

Naval reservists recalled from the beginning of fighting in Korea to March 1, 1952 included 31,771 officers and 188,895 enlisted men.

MENTAL MEANDERINGS

Now that the side sows of politics — the Republican and the Democratic conventions and the Primaries — have gone past us, we are now getting ready for the big main event, the choosing of a president for the U.S. Although touted as strictly a choice of the people, and indirectly and in a roundabout way it might be said to be, we as ordinary citizens do not have too much choice in the one who is ultimately elected. It has been suggested, and one of these days it might come to be, that if the socialistic and otheristic ideas have not been beaten down by then, that we hold primaries on the voting for the president himself. That is to say, we vote in a primary for the man whom we would like for president, a choice out of candidates, for each party. That would to a great extent, be something like it.

August and more hot weather is coming soon. Not that we mind the month of August, but it has been quite a heat spell we have been suffering this summer. And the end has not appeared in sight. July was really a torrid month to the extent that it seemed the thermometer got stuck up there around the hundred degree mark for several days altogether. A wee spell o' rain would naturally boost the spirits of the lot of us, and liven up the old souls of such of us who can't take the heat too much anymore. In this we would reverse the plaintive plea of the old darkey, who on a cold wintry day said, when a strong biting north wind hit him: "Wind where were yo at last July?"

Brackettville, for all the words wasted on it, and plenty of effort too, still is a far way from being well cleaned up. There's plenty of brush, shrubbery of no value to anyone, and lots of stuff that needs cleaning up. Its a job we can't do by ourselves, but takes concerted effort. Have you done your part?

Talking about useless things, one thing that usually gets most person's goat, and usually goes ours, is useless information. There is plenty of that floating around, and we seem to get more than our share. Among these we list a number of government information bulletins, political blah-blah and stuff we and our readers are not interested in.

The fall and winter catalogs of at least one large mail order store are out. It do seem a bit peculiar however for us to be trying to visualize ourselves in sweaters and over coats, and that cool north breezes are here. Especially when its one hundred plus outside, perspiration is pouring off you and not a breath of air is stirring.

Overheard a potential voter the other day inquiring why the donkey represented the Democratic party and the Elephant the Republican. The one being inquired at, opined that it was because Truman came from Missouri where the mules were said to be popular and the elephants were likened to the Republicans because they couldn't forget they were once the dominant party. Which, after all, is about as good a definition as we have heard.

Mosquitos bother you? Ditto the flies? Maybe its because we haven't all gone into that cleaning up business on a large scale yet. And don't forget that every fly and mosquito you kill or prevent is perhaps some polio case you are helping to prevent. Comforting thought, isn't it.

A friend told us that his wife egged him into buying a book on the stories on grand opera for what reason he didn't learn, as he seldom goes where these sung plays are presented and wouldn't understand one if he did hear it — and then found out that he couldn't very well understand what it was all about. We once got a foolish notion we would like to know the story of great operas, just for the sake of being deemed cultured, but then found out that we could only find about two or three of the great ones which really had plots. So we cancelled our order for the fish and soup and settled back to matching wits with the whudunnits on the radio. At least that wasn't so embarrassing.

Thought about going fishing the other day, until we got to getting ready for the big event. A friend tried out his worm joggler — a diving worm rod, just plug into the electric outlet or the car sparkplugs — and we watched the worms come to the surface in a hurry. Then he rustled a lot of fancy flies — why called we don't savvy — and fancy rods and reels. Then we got to where the fish were, or were supposed to have been, but all the inducements of the bait we had got us nowhere. Then we got home, after catching no fish, found out that it was all right — it wasn't Friday, anyway.

A valuable piece of advice we picked up the other day was that there are some three thousand useless words in the dictionary. Maybe, but we think there are times when even good words fail us.

That "get tough" policy in Korea is something new, we are told. It is also something that has been lacking for these past few months. If such action had been taken like this some time back, there wouldn't have been a whole year's delay in the truce talks and have given the Chinese troops and the communists a chance to build up their forces. Hindsight is ok, when you lack foresight, but that foresight would have saved lots of sorrow and suffering if our leaders had been more alert to opportunities and personal animosities.

We just can't forget that remark of an old-timer who opined that "this would be a fine old world if it weren't for the people in it."

We saw a guy the other day enjoying that summertime delicacy — cold watermelon. He was certainly enjoying the fruit of this wonderful feast, but spoiled the effect when he told us that the watermelon was also used for eliminating wrinkles from the face, whitening teeth, for kidney trouble and a lot of other things. When a guy can think of stuff like that when he is eating watermelon, you can't fool us — he isn't enjoying it.

July Rainfall

The month of July gave us a fairly good moisture supply, although it was not efficient in amount as ranchers would have liked. However, it kept most of the ranges and vegetation green.

The July rainfall as officially recorded was as follows:

July 9	0.02
July 11	.30
July 18	.50
July 19	.26
Total	1.08

The weather however continued hot and the thermometer has been constantly up in the nineties and low hundred degree marks.

Bridge Bids

The letting of bids by the state highway department July 15, at Austin assures Kinney County of a state highway 90 bridge structure widening.

Zachry & Company were awarded the contract and work is expected to begin in the very near future.

Erring Anglers Boost Arrests

AUSTIN, July 24—The major factor in the June arrest report concerning violations of the fishing code, according to the Director of Law Enforcement for the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

He said all but 76 of the 305 prosecutions for the month involved fishing law violations. One hundred and one persons were charged with lacking ordinary fishing licenses.

Forty two persons were arrested for selling fish without a license. Ten used illegal nets or seines.

The 305 cases reported resulted in fines and court costs of $6,571.45. This compares with 310 cases and $6,740.40 for May, and 214 cases and $5,539.15 for June, 1951.

Blast Mutilates Fish Dynamiter

AUSTIN, July 24 — A Texas man paid a frightful penalty for trying to dynamite fish, according to a report to the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

The man was standing nude beside a creek. He held a stick of dynamite which had been lighted. He apparently thought the fuse was not ignited.

The blast blew off his left arm above the wrist, as well as his right thumb and forefinger, and damaged the remaining fingers. It tore a large wound in his left leg. Part of the charge perforated his abdomen and caused other severe injuries. No charge was filed.

State Amendments

With this issue the News-Mail begins the publication of the amendments to the state constitution. The amendments will be voted upon at the general election the first Tuesday in November.

The amendments are as follows:

1. HJR No. 20 provided for the authorization of cities, towns and villages of the state to provide for insurance for their employees.

2. HJR. No. 38 provides for the establishments of a state education board and a state medical education board and a state medical scholarship funds to aid students preparing for medical profession, providing the students agree to practice in rural areas.

Read these amendments over carefully so you will know how to vote in November.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 38 providing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of a new Section to be known as Section 66a, providing for the establishment of a State Medical Education Board and a State Medical Scholarship Fund from which grants, loans or scholarships may be made to students desiring to study medicine, providing that such students shall agree to practice in rural areas of the State; providing certain restrictions and limitations providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section to be known as Section 66a, which shall read as follows: "Sec. 66a. The Legislature shall create a State Medical Education Board to be composed of not more than six (6) members whose qualifications, duties and terms of office shall be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall also establish a State Medical Education Fund and make adequate appropriations therefor to be used by the State Medical Education Board to provide grants, loans or scholarships to students desiring to study medicine and agreeing to practice in the rural areas of this State, upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed by law. The term 'rural areas' as used in this Section shall be defined by law."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1952, at which all ballots shall have printed thereon (or in counties using voting machines the machines shall provide for) the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for the establishment of a State Medical Education Fund from which grants, loans or scholarships may be made to students desiring to study medicine."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing for the establishment of a State Medical Education Fund from which grants, loans or scholarships may be made to students desiring to study medicine."

H. J. R. No. 38

Section 2. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. The expense of publication and election for such amendment shall be paid out of proper appropriation made by law.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 20 providing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 61 to authorize cities, towns, and villages of the State to provide insurance for employees; providing for the submission of the proposed Amendment to the qualified electors and providing for proclamation and publication by the Governor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 61 to read as follows:

"Sec. 61. The Legislature shall have the power to enact laws to enable cities, towns, and villages of this State to provide Workmen's Compensation Insurance for employees; providing for the submission of the proposed Amendment to the qualified electors and providing for the administration of such insurance in the said municipalities and for payment of the costs, charges, and premiums on policies of insurance and the benefits to be paid thereunder."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at the General Election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1952, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon (or in counties using voting machines the machines shall provide for) the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for Workmen's Compensation Insurance for employees of cities, towns and villages."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for Workmen's Compensation Insurance for employees of cities, towns and villages."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Social - Personal

Joe Yruegas of Kerrville was a week end visitor in Brackettville.

Misses Rosie and Cordelia Derengowski were San Antonio visitors the past week end.

C. F. Briggs, of Mud Creek, was a county seat visitor Monday afternoon.

Hugh V. Atkinson, of Del Rio was a Brackettville visitor Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ogle was in San Antonio the first of the week undergoing medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Nease returned yesterday from a visit to San Antonio and Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Aciel Chapman and Mrs. Gladys Westphal were San Antonio visitors Monday.

Mrs. Charlotte Goleman was a San Antonio visitor one day last week to attend a district meeting CAC.

Myrtle Flores a former resident here, of Uvalde was a Brackettville visitor Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Carolina Aguilar of this city suffered a serious stroke last week and was taken to Del Rio for medical treatment.

George McCallom, who has been with the U. S. Forces in the far east has returned home having received his discharge.

Mrs. R. A. Moore who is attending the summer session at Sul Ross State College at Alpine spent the week here with home folks.

Rev. and Mrs. Olin W. Nail of Fairburris were in Brackettville for a few hours Tuesday. They were on a vacation through south west Texas. Rev. Nail served as pastor of the Methodist church here several years ago.

Judge C. K. McDowell of Del Rio, well known throughout the southwest and Kinney County, died in Del Rio Sunday. Judge McDowell was a prominent republican and rancher. Rites were held in Del Rio Tuesday.

Although the country area the main are still green and in vivid growth there is again beginning to be felt the need of rain. In a few areas there have been showers and ranges and their vegetation have kept up their strength. In a few places the need is beginning to be felt. However Kinney county ranges are beginning to experience the need for moisture though the numbers of live stock have been steadily increasing.

It is beginning to draw closer that September deadline for the inspections of cars as required by Texas law. In a recent count of automobiles on highway 90, it is learned showed that about one fifth of all autos on the road have not had an inspection. This inspection is necessary after September deadline, and those without them are subject to penalties. Last minute rushes to get cars tested are certain unless car owners hurry.

O. C. Fisher Wins

Congressman O. C. Fisher was re-elected as congressman of the 21st district in the primary election last Saturday. Kinney county gave Fisher a vote of 120 to 62, almost 2 to 1 over his opponent.

Mr. Fisher defeated Gallaway according to unofficial returns by a vote of 84,856 to 18,413. He won in every county with the exception of Brown county, where Fisher lost by 50 votes. Fisher even won Coleman county, Gallaway's home county.

State Officials Elected

In a really hot election Texas voters named the following group of officials for the State for the next two years. Those who have a clear cut majority include:

- Shivers, Governor
 - Ramsey, Lieut. Governor
 - Daniel, U. S. Senator
 - White, Agriculture Com.
 - Giles, Land Commissioner
 - Woodley, Criminal Appeals
 - Culberson, R. R. Commissioner
 - Shopperd, Attorney General
 - Dies, Congressman at Large
- At this time it is not yet clear whether Martin Dies, who leads for congressman at large has a clear cut majority. If it develops he does not have, there will be a run off primary.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to extend thanks to the many friends for their beautiful floral and kind expressions of sympathy in our hour of sorrow. We also thank the Masons and Heroines of Jericho of Del Rio, Uvalde and Brackettville for their participation in the services also Doran's Funeral Home for his excellent service.

Mrs. Rebecca Wilson and Daughters.

BEIDLER TEST HUNTS PIPE

The Leroy M. Josey No. 1 Augustus F. Beidler wildcat well in Kinney County which is being drilled on land about 15 miles west of Brackettville and between highway 90 and the S. P. Railroad, the past week end was fishing for a stuck drill pipe. The well was then at depth of 2,901 feet and in the Glen Rose formation.

This well is easily visible from highway 90 and from the first rise west of the Pinto bridge.

AND I LOSE A SECOND GAME

The Brackettville Angus and the San Felipe Indians Sunday, met in a hot contest at the Veterans Field in a fast and exciting game with the Angus suffering their second loss of the season.

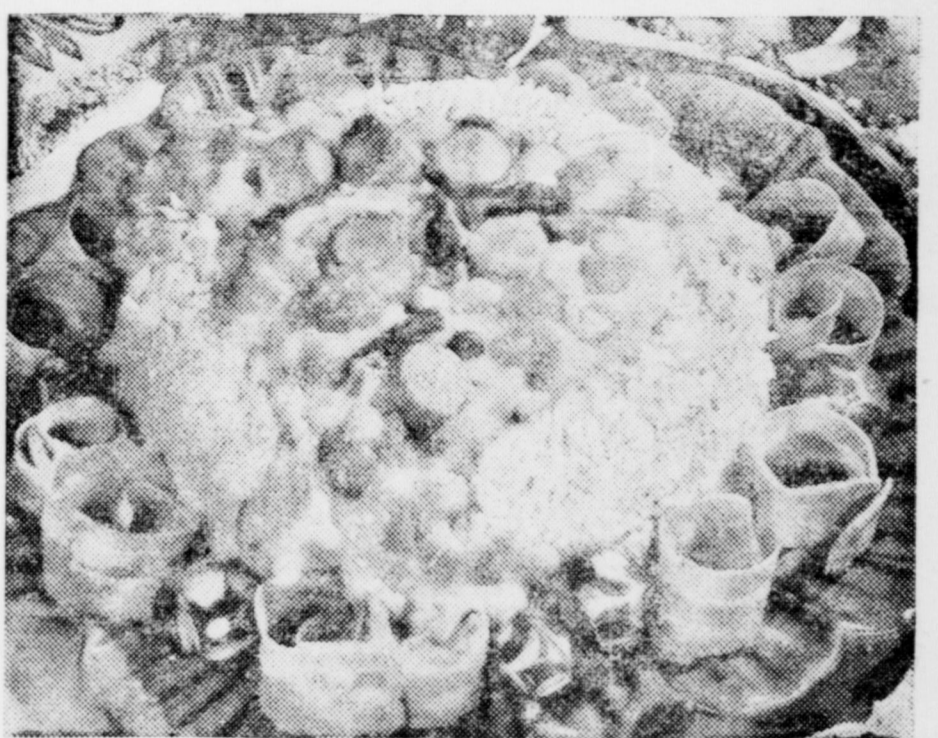

The Angus still lead the border league. It seemed to be an off day for the Angus who as a whole played rather well, but the Del Rio Indians appeared to have strengthened and played good ball.

To The Public

I wish to inform the public of Brackettville and Kinney County, and especially my many former patients and friends that I have returned to my residence in Brackettville and have re-opened my office at its usual place. I shall be glad to meet and attend to all your medical needs.

Dr. R. L. Futrell.

Flavor Supreme — Mary McMeekin's Thrifty Rice and Frankfurter Meal

A superbly delicious rice dish teams a perfect combination of seasonings to tempt appetites and lift spirits. Using that perennial favorite, the frank, this rice quickie is stirred together in a matter of minutes, and is so easy on the budget. But the flavor—the flavor of the dish fairly sings, and you will join in too, after a bite of this ESPECIALLY GOOD rice—frankfurter platter meal!

INGREDIENTS:
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 cup sliced green onion
4 tablespoons flour
2 1/2 cups milk
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 cups cooked mixed vegetables
1 pound frankfurters
3 cups cooked rice

PREPARING THE FLUFFY WHITE RICE: To make 3 liberal cups of fluffy rice, put 1 cup of uncooked rice, 2 cups of cold water and 1 teaspoon of salt into a two-quart saucepan and bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible.

Cover saucepan with lid and leave over this low heat for 14 minutes. Do not remove lid nor stir rice while it is cooking. Turn off the heat. It is then ready—perfectly cooked—with all the grains separate and fluffy. Leave the lid on until time to serve the rice. When ready to serve, remove lid, and use a fork to help transfer the rice into the serving dish.

It is never necessary to rinse packaged rice cooked by this method. Washing clean packaged rice either before or after it is cooked wastes valuable food nutrients as well as time.

Use exact measurements of uncooked rice and water. Time the cooking accurately.

METHOD: Melt butter or margarine in a skillet. Cook onions in the melted fat until lightly browned. Stir in the flour. Gradually add the milk stirring constantly until mixture thickens. (A small cooking fork is ideal to use for blending the milk and flour.) Add the Worcestershire sauce, mustard, salt, pepper and vegetables. Add the frankfurters which have been sliced in 1/2 inch crosswise pieces. Cook 10 minutes. Serve over hot rice or in a rice ring. This recipe makes six servings.

The members of the W. S. C. S. are planning a Runway Sale to be held early in the fall. They are collecting material they would like to donate to this project. Some contacts: Mrs. Tom Hurd, phone 114, Mrs. Edna Harwood, phone 113, or Mrs. A. B. Carlson Jr., phone 374. The committee will gladly pick-up the material and store it until sale. The committee is especially interested in collecting clothes hangers with other things. Please help how small your donations may be, it will be greatly appreciated.

Rice Meal in a Dish

With fresh tomato time just around the corner we cannot pass the opportunity of combining this wonderful fruit with rice! For rice is delicious served in many tomato combinations. Indeed, so many rice dishes call for tomatoes that it is almost impossible to choose the best! Whole tomatoes baked in a bed of fluffy white rice seasoned with sharp cheese, onions and green peppers . . . and topped with sour cream makes a meal your family won't forget. A dish we call RICE MEAL IN A DISH . . . and it's just that. If you prepare the ingredients before you leave the house in the morning, it will take little time to bake it when you come home from the party or swim . . . and you are assured of a tasty, sturdy piece of resistance. We highly recommend Rice Meal in a Dish. It will even go on a picnic with careful handling and packing! It may be baked in one large casserole or in individual baking dishes . . . each small dish containing one tomato and lots of the delicious rice mixture.

 6 good sized fresh ripe tomatoes (peeled, stemmed and filled with cooked rice)
 4 medium sized onions, sliced thin
 1 green pepper, minced
 1 1/2 cups freshly cooked rice, slightly salted
 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
 1 1/2 cups grated cheese
 2 teaspoons brown sugar
 Salt and pepper
 1 cup sour cream
 2 eggs, well beaten
 Paprika (a little)

PREPARING THE FLUFFY WHITE RICE: Put 1 cup of uncooked rice, 2 cups of cold water and 1 teaspoon salt in a two-quart sauce pan and cover with a tight-fitting lid. Bring to a vigorous boil. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and steam for 14 minutes or until all the water is absorbed, leaving the separate rice grains with their full nutritional value. This makes very firm rice grains. (If you prefer more tender rice grains, add 1/4 cup more water and increase the slow cooking time 4 or 5 minutes). Remove the lid, permit the rice to steam dry to the desired consistency and the grains will be separate and fluffy. Never stir rice; lift gently with a fork. Keep left over rice in a covered bowl in the refrigerator. Makes approximately 3 cups fluffy rice.

METHOD: Cook onions and green pepper slowly in butter or margarine about 5 minutes or until soft. Butter a deep casserole. Place tomatoes on bottom. Add a layer of cooked rice, onions, then the cheese, around the tomatoes, dash with salt and pepper, sugar and paprika. Repeat until rice mixture and seasoning are in the dish, reserving 1/2 cup of rice and 1/4 cup cheese for top of dish. Whip the sour cream, add eggs, pour over top. Cover and bake at 350° F. 30 to 35 minutes. Remove cover and leave in oven until top is well browned. Note: If you have no sour cream available you can make your own sour cream by combining sweet cream with either 1 teaspoon vinegar or 2 teaspoons lemon juice. Serves 4 generously.

Veterans Questions And Their Answers

Q—I have a permanent GI insurance policy which lapsed and which the VA has been continuing in force as "extended term insurance." Is there any way I can reinstate my permanent policy; if so, is there any time limit?

A—Your permanent insurance may be reinstated at any time upon application. You will be required to pay all back premiums with interest. If you apply within five years from the time your extended insurance would expire, you won't need either a comparative health statement or a medical examination.

Q—I soon expect to finish high school under the GI Bill, and I have some entitlement left. Could I go to college, even though the July, 1951, cut-off date has passed?

A—Yes. VA considers that moving from high school to college is a "normal progression," and is allowed under its post-cut-off-date regulations.

Q—I applied at a lending institution for a GI home loan, and was turned down. What should I do?

A—See another lender. The fact that one lender is not interested in making the particular type of loan that you want does not preclude the possibility that another may be.

Q—I am a World War I veteran drawing Civil Service retirement pay. Must I include this money in figuring out whether my total yearly income is below the ceiling for getting a pension for a total nonservice-connected disability?

A—Civil Service retirement payments do not count as income until you have received the full amount you have contributed under the program. After that, the retirement payments are considered, in computing income for pension purposes.
