PLAN TO SHIP WEST TEXAS COTTON TO SELL IN GERMANY

At a recent meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce held in Stamford, plans were discussed looking to the disposition and sale of the low grades of cotton now being held throughout West Texas. Clifford B. Jones of Spur, was appointed chairman of a committee composed of O. P. Harlan of Stamford, and Henry James of Abilene, to study the cotton situation, evolve a plan and devise means whereby the lower grades of cotton now being refused by buyers may be sold and shipped through banking aid to Germany and other European countries.

At the meeting George Finburg, a West Texas cotton factor, submitted the following plan whereby the cotton now in West Texas without a market might be sold in foreign countries at a good profit:

"That a local bank get a list of cottons that are on hand and arrange with the holders to get it sampled correctly, using a tag system to identify each bale. These samples are to be submitted to me at Abilene, and we pass on each lot as to whether it is medium, low or very low grade and advise what numbers are to be handled altogether. If our recommendation is satisfactory to the owner they will then ship that cotton to a compress where it will be examined for damage and put in good order at expense of owner.

"That shipment will be made according to our ideas of where it can be used to best advantage, in other words we would want the power to ship it to the port we thought the best possible market is afforded. Our idea is that the cotton should be shipped to practically every European port and not to one country alone.

"That the cotton would be shipped from compress point to points in Europe on an export bill of lading, therefore avoiding confusion by having a number of banks to handle these documents, I recommend that one control bank handle it for all of West Texas. The method of handling it will be that the freight will have to be prepaid and insurance also paid by shippers, then a price would have to be agreed upon, and reimbursement made for same to New York in dollars for the amount due to sellers. If the price is not made in advance, then it will be our object to try to draw a price from Europe as to what they would pay and then submit the offer to the seller for approval."

Now, when the better grades of cotton are selling for only one-half the cost of production, and no sale whatever for the lower grades, it is time for systematic cooperation and organization on the part of cotton producers, to the end that the loss may not become too great and staple now on hand be disposed of to the best advantage. The time has also come when the farmer and producer to save himself, must diversify—produce his own living at home having cotton only as a surplus crop—then only will he be in position to set the price and secure a legitimate profit for his labor and products.

If the state department is correct in its estimate that it cost the farmers of Texas forty six cents a pound to produce this crop of cotton, and they can get only one-half the cost price in making a sale, how long can the farmers continue to grow cotton at such an enormous loss? The banker and merchant may be in a position to help relieve the situation for a time, but they can not do it continuously under existing conditions. The farmer must work out his own salvation through systematic business action and judgment. It is human nature for one man to take advantage of another. For instance, if a man buys a farm and can not meet his payments, the man who happens to have the money will take it over at the lowest possible figure without regard to what it cost the other fellow or its real worth and value. It is the same with cotton and other farm produce—if the producer has to sell it to live, the buyer will continue to take advantage of the situation and get it at a price under real value and cost.

The soil of West Texas will produce every variety of farm product requisite to good living. The farmer may have a few acres of wheat and corn from which to secure his bread supply; an acre or two for potatoes, peas, beans and other vegetable supplies; a small acreage of sugar cane to furnish molasses; and with several acres for rye, barley, maize and other feed stuff, and with a few hogs fattening in pens, a cow or two for milk and butter, and a few chickens and a sheep or two to consume waste and further supply the table, he will be in a position to live comfortably, take life easy and demand a fair margin of profit for any surplus produce which he may decide to sell to the multitude of non-producers. And when such a system of farming becomes generally adopted throughout West Texas, the custom will be reversed and you may see the bankers and merchants going to the farmers and producers for advice and assistance, the spinners and speculators will hunt him up and jaw and dicker with him on the price of a few surplus bales of cotton, and the whole world will look to the farmer for aid, assistance, advice and general directions for the conduct of affairs of moment.

The farmer and producer is the real back-bone of the nation and the world, and when he realizes and fully appreciates his position and assumes his proper responsibilities, he will become the head and brains of the world and the general supervisor of commercial affairs of the universe.

The plans evolved and suggested for the disposition of cotton now on hand, may help the situation temporarily at this time, but for permanent relief the producer must get on a solid foundation, make his own living at home, manage his own business and shake from his back the army of non-producing, non-essential riders.

FORMER TOWNSMAN MAKING CROD AS A PRACTICAL FARMER

Joe Gaines was in Spur Thursday of this week from his farm home up on the plains. Mr. Gaines told us that he would make this year about ten bales of cotton from fifty acres. However, his feed crops and wheat will more than make up for the loss on his cotton farming. He made enough money out of wheat to pay expenses and keep him going, and is now getting two tons of maize to the acre from his crop of several acres. He said that he had approximately ten acres of red kaffir corn which is turning out fully three tons to the acre. Next year, he says, he will devote the greater part of his acreage to wheat and have very little if any cotton. Evidently Joe Gaines is one of the former townsmen who is hitting it "lucky" on the farm.

POLL TAX PAYMENTS EXTENDED TO OCTOBER THE 22ND

At the recent special called session of the legislature a law was passed, for the special benefit of women, for the payment of poll taxes up to the 22nd day of October, in order to vote in the approaching general election. Those who have already paid a poll tax under the old law will not be affected. Those have not paid, both male and female, may do so up to October 22nd and vote in the general election.

MR. STEVENS PAINFULLY INJURED BY OIL EXPLOSION

Mr. Stevens, of the White Swar Cafe, was painfully, if not seriously, injured Monday by an explosion of oil. He was lighting a fire in a coos stove, using oil, when it exploded, flashing up in his face with the result that the entire face was burned. Oil, like the negro, is a very useful article in its place and if properly handled; but if not there is serious danger to result.

REASON CITED FOR VOTING THE REPUBLICAN TICKET

Women who neglected paying a poll tax last winter now have another chance, from the 6th to the 22nd of October. Don't neglect that important duty. Throw those story papers away and go to reading farts instead of fiction. Post yourselves on American interests and conditions and be ready to vote for Harding in November. He opposes the league of nations, and if you know what the league of nations is you will too. In Article X of the league, according to Wilson's own words we would be under an absolute moral obligation to go to war for the preservation of the territorial integrity of the 44 nations invited to become members. Loyd George said to a delegation of the friends of the league that nothing could be done to help Poland without an international force under the command of the league. It would be extremely difficult for us if the league has an international force for the preservation of the world's peace to refuse to send our boys at the command of the council of the league to help in foreign wars. I say, as does Harding, "America first." In 1876 our forefathers declared America free from Great Britain—that dominating nation. They fought, bled, and died that we might be free. Now let's cherish their memory and take none of Great Britain's yokes upon us. Cox has another fault as bad as favoring the league. He is a Unitarian, which is a cousin to Catholicism. His daughter was educated in a Catholic school, married a strong Catholic and was married by a Priest and, of course, he will favor Catholicism. And to be under political Romanism over the U. S. will be worse than the league of nations. Harding is a strong Baptist and you need not worry over a Baptist bowing to the Pope.

You cotton farmers who are worrying over seed prices and hoding meetings to devise some means of getting better prices had better hunt up the cause of this trouble and find that a little taric is needed. Vegetable oils are being shipped into this country free of duty, which takes the place of our home productions. There 19,000,000,000 pounds of soy bean oil shipped in from Japan this year in Japanese ships, and used as a substitute for cotton seed oil. Livestock from Argentine can be shipped to New York as dressed beef cheaper than we can send it from Texas to Saint Louis or Chicago. This is the result of the war and the upward trend of R. R. rates. And while R. R. rates are advancing, ocean rates are coming down—and this applies to cotton. The common labor used in growing cotton is about the same everywhere, and the U. S. wage scale is six times higher than other countries. Foreign raw materials are looking to the U. S. for a market for the money to buy them is here, and they come free of duty, and ocean freights are but little. When the tariff was taken off to make up the loss of revenue the income tax was levied. If the 1909 tariff schedule had been in force in 1920 we would have received more than $200,000,000 in revenue for our imports. We need men who look after American interests instead of foreign.

Now sisters, get some national papers that are not party bound—some that will tell what the little two-by-fours are doing that we have sent to Washington to manage our national affairs and lets see if we "sufferers" can improve affairs any. And add to your list of essential papers The New Menace. This paper should be in every American home. It is fighting an age-long enemy, one that stood against human liberty for centuries. The Catholics burned the old plant at Aurora, Mo., last December and they rebuilt at Branson, Mo. The price of the paper is $1.00 a year.—Mrs. Chambers.

E. D. Chambers and wife were in Spur Thursday from Afton.

CAPTAIN JACKSON RETURNS WITH NATIONAL GUARDS

Captain Oscar Jackson returned Saturday with his troop of National Guards, from Galveston where they have been stationed the past several weeks doing duty in connection with the longshoremen strike at the Galveston port.

While there the boys saw actual military service, doing guard and post duty, fighting fires as well as unruly men when the occasion presented, and other activities within the jurisdiction of martial law.

Captain Jackson has dismissed all members of the troop until further notice, with the exception of four or five of the boys who will be permanently stationed in Spur to care for the horses.

The situation in Galveston has been handed over to civil authorities, martial law suspended, since the strike is now practically ended.

Captain Jackson and the Spur National Guards are to be congratulated and commended for the effectual services rendered the state and the people in this crisis and time of need.

A NEW FORD CAR WAS STOLEN SATURDAY NIGHT IN SPUR

A new Ford car was stolen Saturday night from in front of the picture show. The car was owned by Mr. Goodson, brother of Frank Goodson, who is here on a visit from New Mexico. No clew was left by which to identify the thief or thieves. The car was filled with gas and oil and in good trim for a long drive.

Sheriff Barber immediately notified all surrounding towns to be on the look-out for the car, and the chances are slim for the thieves to avoid arrest and get out of the country.

This is the first automobile theft to occur in Spur, and every effort will be made by the sheriff's department to apprehend the thieves.

JOE INMAN RETURNED FROM OKLAHOMA FOR FORGERY

Sheriff Barber returned this week from Oklahoma where he had gone to get Joe Inman who is charged with forgery in Dickens county. The prisoner waived examining trial and is now being held in the Dickens jail in default of bond.

Joe Inman was arrested in Oklahoma on other charges, he having given bond in these cases, being turned over to the Dickens county sheriff to answer the charge of forgery in this county.

SMALL BOY SERIOUSLY INJURED IN FALLING FROM A CAR

Saturday afternoon the little six years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Burns, driller on the 24 Ranch test well for oil, was very seriously injured by they were crossing the bridge over Spade Draw just south of Spur. The little boy was sitting on a bucket between the front and back seats, leaning back against the door, and as the car was crossing the bridge the door came open, the boy falling out backwards and striking the back of his head on the end of a large bolt sticking up through the floor of the bridge. The end of the bolt crushed through the skull, and before the boy could be brought back to town he came near beeding to death. Dr. Grace gave the boy immediate attention, dressing the wound and reviving him, after removing him to the Spur Sanitarium where the broken parts of the skull were removed.

The boy is now doing nicely and will be out of the hospital within a few days.

CHAUTAUQUA COMING TO SPUR OCTOBER 21 FOR FOUR DAYS

The Redpath-Horner Chautauqua, one of the highest class chautauqua entertainers of the country, will be in Spur for a four days program, beginning October 21st. Two programs, one in the afternoon and one at night each day, will be had at the high school auditorium.

Citizens of Spur have bought, outright, the program for Spur, for a consideration of six hundred dollars, and after paying this purchase price the remainder of the proceeds will go to the Spur school library fund.

Aside from the entertaining feature of this chautauqua, which will be worth the price of admission, those who attend will be helping a worthy and beneficial cause—that of providing a school library for educational advantages to all pupils, and which will remain permanently in the school building. In view of the high-class entertainment to be given, in connection with the worthy educational cause to which the proceeds will be devoted, the chautauqua is expected to be one of the most generously patronized programs ever had in Spur.

The national campaign is warming up, a whole lot of mud is being slung and will continue to be until November 2nd when the loser will drop out of the public eye.

Mesdames Link and Pierce are in El Paso this week attending a state convention of the Eastern Star.

COTTON CLASSING AND MARKETING ASSOCIATION HERE

Having received a great many inquiries from farmers as to the benefits to be derived from a cotton classing and marketing association, I have taken the matter up with the extension department of A. & M. College, and the U. S. Bureau of Markets, with the result that I am promised the services of a specialist to assist me in organizing such an association for Dickens county. As soon as I am definitely informed as to when I may expect the services of a man from the bureau of markets, I will announce dates for get-together meetings in the various communities.

As to the success of such an organization, it is a proven proposition, and the results are easily seen in counties where an association is in operation. If we are to receive a maximum price for our 1921 cotton crop, we must begin now to formulate plans to improve the staple, arrange to market cooperatively, and above all things, keep our cotton out of the mud and water, which last must be accomplished through warehouse or cotton platform.

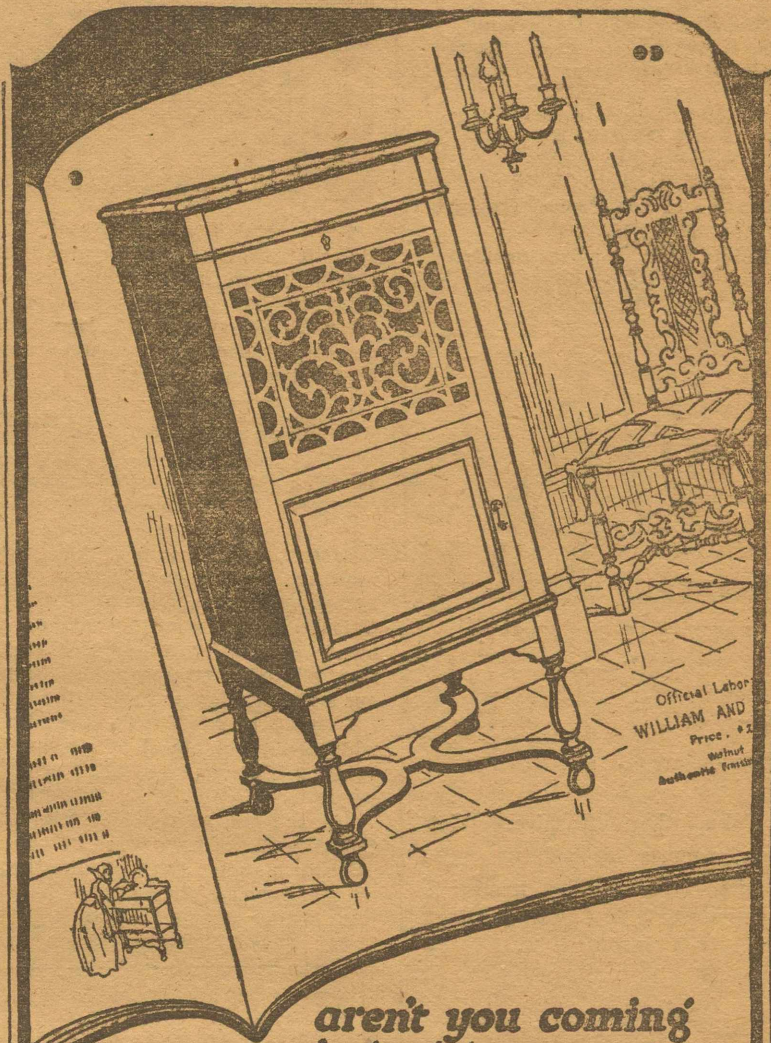

I can not too strongly urge the need for cooperation between farmers and business men in perfecting such an organization, and I wish to particularly emphasize the fact that the profits will accrue to all engaged in the either production or marketing of cotton.

For detailed information as to the working plan of the organization, write the Extension Department A. & M. College, or I shall be glad to furnish information on request.—R. B. Johnston, County Agent.

ONE MAN BEATS STRIKE

Traction Owner Operated Street Car When Workmen Walked Out.

After the employees of his electric road had walked out following a minor dispute, Col. Bion J. Arnold of Chicago, a millionaire engineer and owner of the Elgin-Belvidere electric line, piloted a two-car train through-out a 15-hour day and broke the strike. Dressed in a $90 suit, Col. Arnold whirled through the 75-mile round trip between Elgin and Belvidere after the employees had refused to work. "At the end of the last trip," said Col. Arnold, "a committee of strikers came to me and asked to take the job off my hands. They agreed to come back under the old conditions, and they returned to work the next day."

Salutes.
Some clever Englishman, commenting on French politeness, once remarked that when a Frenchman bows, two-thirds of the bow is to himself. That may be true, and we have to admit that even the other third is quite a fraction more than most Anglo-Saxons offer.

Saluting is the same proposition. A snappy salute pulled by a buck to the most second of second lieutenants draws heavy interest; and the colonel who jerks his hand a few centimeters from his still affixed cigar is only insulting himself and the army. If some privates were a little more polite to themselves, the saluting trap never would be sprung, and the joke would all be on the other side of the military fence.—Stars and Stripes.

Saved Venus de Milo From Huas.
M. Heron de Villefosse, the eminent French archeologist, whose death has just taken place, was for many years head of the Greek and Roman sculpture department of the Louvre. Twice in his career he had to superintend the removal of that priceless art treasure the Venus of Milo to a place of safety—in 1870, and again in 1914. In each case the same enemy was concerned. Heron de Villefosse was seventy-four years old.

Going to Look Him Up.
"That fellow Glipping called me 'Old Silenus,'" remarked Mr. Jagsby. "He seemed to think it a great joke."
"What are you going to do about it?"
"I haven't decided yet. I have forgotten about all I ever knew about Silenus, but I have an idea that he was neither a pillar in the church nor an ornament to society."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

NEW GERMAN CAPITAL SEEN

Berlin Worried Lest Seat of Government Be Shifted to the Rhine.

Berlin, Germany.—The Boersen Zeitung, one of the ablest German newspapers, says the fate of the city is in the balance and that it is, perhaps, too late to save it from becoming a city of the second class, with the removal of the capital and the activity in a business and political sense to some Rhineland city. It is a theory that has been gaining ground lately and is causing Berlin to lose sleep. Strikes have followed one another in an endless succession. The uncertainty of the economic situation almost led to a boycotting of Berlin as the chief work center of Germany. Despite the huge expense, one industry after another left Berlin for quieter, steadier fields. Merchants, politicians and industrial leaders have predicted that the transfer of the assembly or reichstag would inflict a severe blow on Berlin, especially if it should lead to the choice of another capital.

REPAIRING GERMAN CABLES

Britain Also Putting Lines to Belgium Into Pre-War Condition.
London, England.—Every possible effort is being made to restore to its pre-war basis the cable system of the world, it is announced. The five Anglo-German cables which were cut by the British fleet in the early days of the war are being repaired and so are the four cables connecting England with Belgium. Cable communication with Iceland, which was interrupted by the war, has just been restored. Messages now are being dispatched to Australia in as many hours as it required days in wartime. Communication with the European continent is steadily improving.

CATHEDRAL SUFFERS NO GREAT DAMAGE

Cardinal Lucon Says Reims Art Works Easily Can Be Restored.

After all, the Reims cathedral has not suffered from German bombardments and fire so much as was at first supposed, Cardinal Lucon has told a representative of the Paris Intransigeant. The cardinal announced that divine service would be resumed in the cathedral from November 1, but the holy office will be restricted to the altar of the Virgin and the ambulatory around it. These will accommodate only about 1,500 persons.

The interviewer describes how he met the cardinal at Reims in a simply furnished apartment of the archiepiscopal palace, with a shell hole in the wall. Cardinal Lucon, despite his seventy-seven years, still is hale and alert and he is an optimist.

"Destroyed, my cathedral? Why, no," he said. "The damage is much more easily repairable than is generally believed. A few ancient parts, it is true, cannot be replaced, but the beauty of the cathedral lay, first in its stained glass, secondly in its sculptures and third in its statuary.

"Of the stained glass, nine-tenths has been saved and brought to Paris. The remaining tenth can be restored by specialists, with the aid of much patience and a great number of colored photographs we have. As regards the sculptures, we shall use the numerous moldings we have of them. Many have had to be restored anyway in the course of centuries, such as for instance, the large piece representing the Assumption. That was restored in 1875.

"As for the statuary, we have moldings that it will be easy to reproduce the damaged parts. The pillars, with their ornamented capitals, have suffered little, only the two side doorways have been badly damaged by fire."

"Was there not some talk of leaving the cathedral as it was?" the reporter asked.

"If the evidences of Teutonic barbarity had to be preserved, let them be kept in a private museum," replied the cardinal gravely.

HAS BEEN RECEIVED BY CARTER-WHITE MOTOR COMPANY, THE DODGE BROTHERS DEALERS IN THIS CITY. A TELEGRAM FROM C. W. MATHESON, ACTING GENERAL SALES MANAGER TO THE LOCAL DEALER, READS:

"DODGE BROTHERS POLICY HAS EVER BEEN TO GIVE FULL VALE FOR THE PRICE ASKED. THERE WILL BE NO REDUCTION IN THE PRESENT PRICES OF DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CARS. NEWSPAPER REPORTS TO THE CONTRARY ARE UNTRUE."

"DODGE BROTHERS ANNOUNCEMENT WAS NO SURPRISE TO US," CARTER-WHITE MOTOR COMPANY SAID. "IN FACT IT IS A SUBSTANTIATION OF DODGE BROTHERS BUSINESS PRINCIPLES. AT NO TIME HAVE THEY DEMANDED AN EXCESS AMOUNT FOR THEIR PRODUCT. AS IN THE PAST, THEY WILL CONTINUE IN THE FUTURE TO DEMAND A FAIR RETURN FOR THEIR EFFORTS."

"THE MERE FACT THAT THE DEMAND FOR DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CARS IS STILL GREATER THAN THE SUPPLY, DESPITE THE GREAT EXPANSION PROGRAM AT THE FACTORY, HAS ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO DO WITH THE DECISION TO CONTINUE THE PRESENT PRICES. IN MARKETING THEIR CAR, DODGE BROTHERS HAVE NEVER MADE A POINT OF PRICE AND WILL NEVER SACRIFICE THE QUALITY OF THEIR PRODUCT TO ENTER PRICE COMPETITION."

Modern Radio Methods.
In these days of the radio compass and instant wireless communication, a ship at sea is in little danger of losing its way, says Popular Mechanics magazine. Recently the Louisville Bridge lost its bearings in a heavy fog off the coast of New Jersey, and was unable to find Ambrose channel into New York harbor. The operator called the navy yard, and within five minutes received the answer: "Your true bearing at 4:43 p. m. from Rockaway beach two-hundred-ten, Sandy Hook sixty-seven, Mantoloking fifteen." The auto tourist asking the best route to town could hope for no more definite information than that.

MUST WEAR DARK CLOTHES
Strict Rule for Employees in Factories Where Work is Done on Gold.

Clothes of a light color are not favorites where work is done on gold. In fact, in many such factories a dark suit of clothes is absolutely demanded, and even a light waistcoat may lose a man a job. The reason for this is that any stray grains of gold that may get on the clothing can easily be caught on a dark suit, while they might get away from the establishment if light clothes were worn.

That such a rule was enforced among gold workers one man learned recently when a Bohemian gold beater applied to him for a helping hand. The Bohemian said that he had not been in this country long, that he had had a chance to obtain a good job at his trade, but that the place had been refused him because he turned up with a light suit and waistcoat on, and they were the only clothes he had.

The man whom he approached was struck by the story and offered to help him out if it proved true. He went to a factory with him and found out that the man could have the job if he presented himself within an hour clad in the proper clothes. So a suit of desired kind was obtained for him and sure enough he got the job.

"You may think this is strange," said the foreman of the factory, "but it means quite a lot to us. Every man's clothing is carefully examined when he leaves the place at night and the gold is brushed off whenever we see any on his clothing. It is impossible to hide even tiny grains on a dark background, but in the case of a mixed or a light suit we might easily lose quite an amount of gold, and gold isn't anything you want to lose even in small quantities."

As to Alimony.
"Is there any way a man can avoid paying alimony?" asked the friend who was seeking free advice.
"Sure," replied the lawyer. "He can stay single or stay married."

Precious Stuff.
I heard Charles call to his dog: "Say, ain't yer goin' to come when I call yer?" and I said: "Why, Charlie, what was all this talk about using good English that I heard you telling about?"
"Oh, well," he replied, "I don't think teacher ever expected us to waste it on a dog."—Chicago Tribune.

ANYTHING IS GOOD ENOUGH UNTIL SOMETHING COMES ALONG THAT'S BETTER. A good imitation pearl gains admiration until compared with the genuine. Then the difference is readily seen. Likewise with phonographs. The market is flooded with many makes. Extravagance in claims of performance run riotous. By the expertly trained musical ear, however, quality is quickly detected. The average buyer only tells by comparison.

The Brunswick

Compare the Brunswick Phonograph with other makes, and its superiority is noted immediately. There are many good reasons underlying and responsible its world-wide success. Behind it is the house of Brunswick—established before the Civil War. Building it are a corps of expert craftsmen excelling in phonograph construction. Made in designs and woods that captivate artistic eyes, it enhances surroundings. It plays and makes records. There are no limitations as to selections. Also, there is the Brunswick Method of Reproduction that enriches tone.
