SANTA ANNA, COLEMAN COUNTY, TEXAS AUGUST 19, 1965

NUMBER 33

We were in El Paso last weekend, attending a convention of the West Texas Press Association. These meetings are held to help newspaper publishers do a better job by providing all sorts of educational seminars. For instance, we attended a scientific consultation to examine the relative velocity of canine locomotion. Some people call scientific consultations like this greyhound races, but these are the unscientific types.

We were also involved in a deep sociological study of nocturnal recreation patterns in Mexico, which the unscientific ones describe as going to a night club in Juarez. People like this are responsible for holding back the march of scientific progress. Between the serious scientific subjects mentioned above, we had periods of fun and games with titles like "New Second Class Postal Regulations". This particular talk was quite interesting. Up till then, we didn't understand the new Post Office requirements for mailing newspapers under the Zip Code system. After listening to the lecture, we don't understand it, but we feel better because we discovered that the Postal authorities don't understand it either.

We were quite puzzled when we got to the meeting hall Friday afternoon. According to our watch, we were a couple of minutes late for the opening session, but there was no one around. Then someone was kind enough to point out that El Paso is on Mountain Standard Time, and we were an hour early, since we were still going by good old Texas-type Central Standard Time.

One of the more puzzling aspects of our trip took place on the return drive Sunday. We were zooming along through the desert west of the Davis Mountain area, when we met a little red car with three surfboards tied on top.

We have wracked our brain (and that doesn't take much wracking), but we can't figure out what someone would be doing with one surfboard in the middle of the desert, let alone three of them.

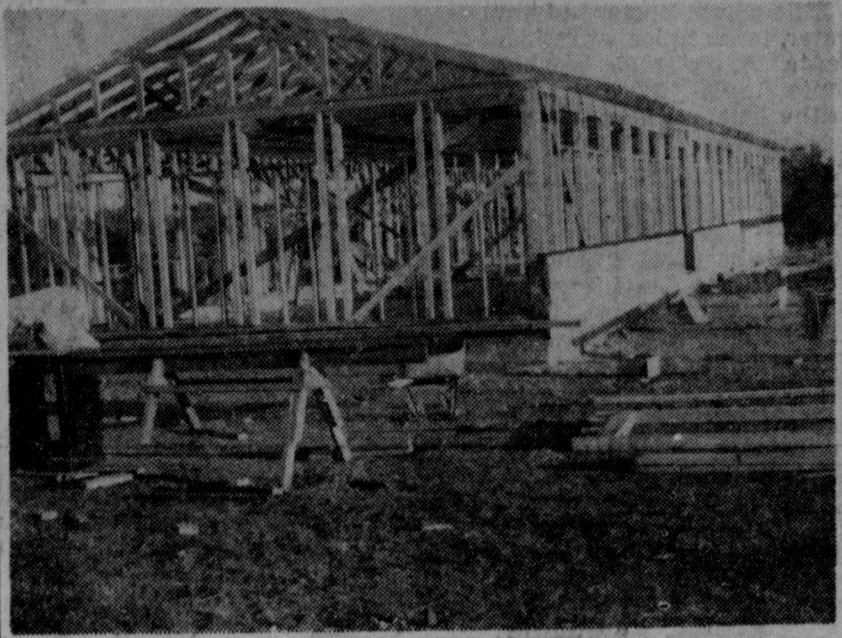

If many more tourists like us go to Mexico, they may close the border. We went to the greyhound races Friday night, as guests of the track in Juarez, which included a complimentary dinner and liquid-type refreshments. Just to be nice, we placed a few small wagers on the doggies (they looked so underfed, we felt they could use the money), and much to our surprise we ended up winning three dollars. We also spent 90 cents, so we came out $2.10 ahead for the night. Saturday afternoon we were taken on a tour of Juarez, spent $1.60 more, and that night the publishers were guests of a plush Juarez night club (the El Fiesta, might as well give them a plug), where we were entertained with a scrumptious steak dinner (and some more of the everpresent liquid refreshments), and we ended up spending all of $1.70 during that evening. So we enjoyed two nights and one afternoon of entertainment, two free meals, and other considerations, and we left $1.20 of our hardearned money behind in exchange. We don't think Mexico could afford many tourists like us.

We did make a discovery that will help LBJ bring the balance of payments problem into line. If he could stop US citizens from going over to Juarez and betting on the greyhounds, our balance of payments trouble would suddenly be solved. We did a little figuring, and we worked out that more than one thousand dollars was bet on each race the evening we were in attendance, and there were 11 races on the program. Figure it out for yourself.

We don't expect a real big medal from the President for solving this problem for him. Since we are modest, a small one will do quite well.

At least we discovered the best town in Texas on this trip. That's it, Best, Texas, about six souls, eight dogs, and a misdirected coyote, along the highway somewhere west of here. The coyote is the mayor.

Two girls were talking, according to the Texas Civil Defense Digest Magazine, discussing their problems. One said, "You shouldn't be discouraged. In this world, there is a girl for every man. You can't improve on an arrangement like that." "I don't want to improve on it," was the reply, "I just want to get in on it."

NEW SCHOOL IN SANTA ANNA is being built just off the Trickham highway, just south of Santa Anna. A parochial school being constructed by the Seventh Day Adventist Church, the school will offer classes up through the tenth grade, with plans for expansion to full 12 grades later.

Santa Anna Jaycees To Push Football Ticket Sales; Season Ducats On Sale

The Santa Anna Junior Chamber of Commerce is now selling season tickets for the home games of the Santa Anna Mountaineers. The reserved seat tickets will cost $7.00 this season, which averages out to a cost of $1.40 per game. Purchased at the gate, reserved seat tickets will cost $1.50 each, a saving of 50 cents for football fans who buy the season tickets.

The Santa Anna Jaycees are handling ticket sales as a public service project to help the Santa Anna Independent School District in its efforts to get the athletic fund into the black.

All seats unsold are now available on a first come first served basis. The period during which holders of season tickets for the 1964 season could reserve the same seats for the 1965 season ended Monday, August 16. Season tickets may be obtained from any member of the Santa Anna Junior Chamber of Commerce, in the office of Santa Anna Cable TV, and the office of The Santa Anna News.

When season tickets are purchased from a Jaycee, the buyer will be given a receipt listing the amount paid and the numbers of the seats purchased. Tickets will be delivered or mailed to the buyer within the next few days.

Max Eubank, president of the Santa Anna Junior Chamber of Commerce, said that Jaycees will try to call on all persons in the Santa Anna area, but in case they miss anyone, a call to himself, to the office of The News, or to the office of Santa Anna High School, will bring a Jaycee with tickets.

Eubank urged all area people to support the high school athletic program by purchasing season tickets. "We are going to have a better football team this year," he said, "and we all need to back the program as much as we can."

School Board Sets Budget Hearing

The Board of Trustees of the Santa Anna Independent School District will hold a meeting on Monday, August 23, for the purpose of examining the preliminary budget for the 1965-1966 school year.

The hearing, open to the public, will deal with such matters as tax rates, property valuations, expenditure plans for the 1965-1966 school year, and amendments to the 1964-1965 budget.

Meeting time will be 8:00 p.m. in the office of Santa Anna High School.

The Santa Anna News Places Second In Newspaper Community Service Race

The Santa Anna News was named to the runnerup position in the annual Distinguished Community Service Award sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The Santa Anna weekly was cited in the competition, one of the highest honors that may be received by a newspaper in the state, for outstanding leadership in helping to make its community a better place.

The News tied for the runnerup spot with the Ochiltree County Herald, of Perryton. First place in the competition was won by the Earth News-Sun.

This was the first time that the Santa Anna paper had competed in the award program. One veteran publisher stated that this was the first time in his memory that a newspaper had placed in this competition on its first try.

The News was commended for its editorial and news coverage of five local events: The election to allow sale of part of old Ranger Park for construction of the new medical center; the campaign to curb dog poisoning and construct a dog pound; the County labor survey; the efforts to organize an industrial foundation here; and the bond issue.

In commenting on the award, Editor/Publisher Bob Parker said: "We are proud of this award because it proves Santa Anna is a progressive community and that our efforts to help the city's progress have not been wasted."

County Plans New Road To Whon

A paved road connecting Whon with the Santa Anna-Brady highway south of Santa Anna has been approved by the Coleman County Commissioners Court this week.

The seven mile long stretch of road will cost an estimated $107,000. The route of the proposed road has been surveyed, and attorneys will begin work on obtaining right of ways shortly, according to County Commissioner Thomas Wristen, Jr.

No date has been set for issuance of bid invitations on the construction.

High School Registration Scheduled Here For Next Monday To Thursday

Enrollment for the 1965-1966 school year at Santa Anna High School will get underway on Monday, August 23, according to Principal Roy Mathews.

On Monday, August 23, all seniors will register; with juniors registering on Tuesday, August 24; sophomores on Wednesday, August 25; and freshmen on Thursday, August 26.

These registration sessions will be both for returning students and for students who will be new in the Santa Anna Independent School District this fall. Registration will be open from 9:00 a.m. until noon, and from 2:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m., each of the four days.

Students should report to room 205 in the Santa Anna High School building.

One teaching position still remains to be filled on the high school faculty, in the English department.

Recently hired by the Board of Trustees as teacher of business and English is Louise Elizabeth Farquhar, who will be moving to Santa Anna from Odessa. Mr. Farquhar is a consulting civil engineer who works with highway contractors, travelling all over the state, and will be in Santa Anna only on weekends as a rule. The new teacher will be in charge of all business courses, and will also teach freshman English. She is a graduate of the University of Texas, and attended Texas State College for Women, at Denton; Del Mar Junior College, in Corpus Christi; the graduate school of the United States Department of Agriculture; and the Berlitz School of Languages, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Farquhar has been employed by the US government, by the Extension and Maritime Academy departments of Texas A&M University, and in the Odessa school system. The Farquhars have one daughter, Ellyn, 16 years old.

The Board of Trustees is expected to elect a new English teacher Thursday, August 19, according to Superintendent Cullen Perry.

Perry also announced that there will be no general assembly of all students and teachers in the Santa Anna schools this year, as has been the case in the past. Elementary students will go directly to their assigned classrooms, he said. High school students will hold a short assembly before reporting to class. Perry emphasized the importance of all high school students having completed registration procedures prior to the first day of school.

Schoolwork starts, for students in the Santa Anna Independent School District, on Monday, August 30.

Santa Anna Junior Rodeo Planned

The Santa Anna City Library Board will again sponsor this year a Junior Rodeo on Labor Day, September 6. The matinee performance will be held at the Buddy Neff arena, four miles north of Santa Anna. Fourteen events are planned for all ages, and no entry fee is charged. Ribbons will be given in each event.

All area youngsters and riding clubs are invited to participate in the Junior Rodeo, which will begin at 1:30 p.m. Entry blanks will be available soon, and entries are requested by Saturday, September 4. Mrs. Elgean Harris is President of the Santa Anna City Library Board, and in charge of arrangements. Charlotte Moseley is chairman of the concessions committee, with local organizations assisting with the production. About 100 contestants participated in the Labor Day Junior Rodeo last year.

Local Suspicions Trap Trio In Ballinger Tuesday

The suspicions of some Santa Annans resulted in the arrest of three accused car thieves, and lots of excitement for the Ballinger Police Department Tuesday night.

A car carrying three passengers stopped at the Smith Humble Service Station, in Santa Anna, late Tuesday. One of the occupants aroused suspicions by attempting to sell a gun to Jimmy Walker, and by asking the shortest route to Mexico. These actions, along with the general nervousness of the trio, the fact that they left their car motor running during the stop, their desire to go to Mexico without having any particular spot in mind, and the appearance of the car (which had been sloppily painted with house paint, according to officers), resulted in a message to Deputy Sheriff Nick Buse, who passed the word along to area law enforcement officials. A short time later, the car was stopped and the trio arrested in Ballinger. While undergoing questioning, one of the suspects escaped while on his way to the restroom. A fullscale alert brought out officers from all over this part of the state, and the suspect was rearrested a few hours later, after having led lawmen a merry chase despite the fact that he was minus one shoe, lost early in the race. The trio are being held in jail in Ballinger on suspicion of auto theft.

Santa Annan Is Howard Payne Grad

Kenneth Weldon Haynes, of Santa, will be one of 67 graduating seniors to receive bachelors degrees in ceremonies at Howard Payne College Friday, August 20.

Two County Men On Crippled Child Panel

Two Coleman County men, Weldon Davis and W. R. Hickman, Jr., have been named to the committee for the annual Cattlemen's Roundup for Crippled Children.

The annual Roundup provides about one third of the funds for operating the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, which is dedicated to the treatment of crippled children. It serves approximately 1,500 patients, with 200 receiving treatment each day, mostly for handicaps caused by polio, strokes, injury, cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, Parkinson's disease, and other neurological and orthopedic disorders.

Through the Roundup, Texas cattlemen contribute livestock, which are sold to provide funds for the Center, which has more than doubled in size during the past three years. It has received no Federal or state aid, relying entirely on private sources for its operation.

Clarence Gilbert Takes Lead In Bass Division Of Fish Rodeo, Day Leads Too

A couple of big bass changed the complexion of that division of the 1965 Jaycee Fishing Rodeo. And both fish were in the same family. The same family of fishermen, that is, not of fish.

Clarence Gilbert brought in a bass weighing six pounds 10 ounces on Wednesday, August 12. Work stopped on the printing of last week's paper, while the big bass was weighed. The following day, Mrs. Gilbert caught another large lunker, this one weighing in at an even five pounds. Thus the Gilberts took over first and second spot in the bass division, moving former leader Larry Avants back to third place. Avants has an entry weighing four pounds nine ounces.

Things have been quiet in the catfish division. The 10 pounder entered on July 29 by Bill Day holds the top spot, with John Hensley in second place with an eight pounder, and Don Pritchard in third with a five pound 14 ounce entry. Hensley's cat was caught on July 17, and Pritchard's on July 25.

Gilbert caught the first place bass on a trotline and the second place fish was taken on rod and reel, both from the City Lake.

The competition in the Jaycee Fishing Rodeo continues through the remainder of 1965.

WHAT CAN YOU INSURE?

Suppose you notice that a neighbor's children like to play with matches in their garage. If you are the dastardly type, a cunning idea might occur to you. Why not take out a fire insurance policy on that garage, wait for a fire, and then pocket the proceeds?

The catch is, you could not collect a cent on such a policy. For you have no "insurable interest" in the garage. Generally speaking, you cannot take out insurance on another person's property—or another person's life, either—unless you do have an insurable interest. The law says you must have something at stake, some motive for wanting that property—or that life—to be preserved.

That wasn't always so. In the early days of modern insurance, at Lloyd's famous coffee house in London, anyone could take out life insurance on anyone else. Lives of prominent persons became speculative free-for-alls. An inside tip about some dignitary's falling health could be turned into easy money.

But twin evils became apparent: the stimulus to gambling, and the incentive to murder. Such insurance, wrote Oliver Wendell Holmes, "is a pure wager that gives the insured a sinister interest in having the life come to an end." The law responded with the requirement of an insurable interest.

What constitutes an insurable interest? The usual test is financial—whether you would suffer financial harm if the insured property was damaged or the insured life lost.

Thus, if you had a mortgage on that neighbor's garage, you would have the necessary insurable interest. The destruction of the garage would destroy something of value to you.

Similarly, in life insurance, a man has an insurable interest in his wife because she owes him services. And a wife has an insurable interest in her husband because he owes her support.

Even when the financial interest is not so clear, a clear sentimental interest will sometimes satisfy the courts. For instance, they usually uphold an insurance policy that a girl, engaged to be married, takes out on the life of her fiancé. "The relation," explained one court, "naturally inclines her to the hope that his life may be prolonged."

Texas Manufacturers Association Name Coleman County Leader

W. W. (Bill) Cox, a native of Waco, has been officially named manager of the newly created Central Texas Region of Texas Manufacturers Association, according to Ed. C. Burris, executive vice president of the Association.

In his new capacity, Cox will be responsible for serving TMA membership in 38 central Texas counties that have been included into this new region. Mr. Burris said. Rapid growth and development of industry in this area has brought about an increase in TMA membership that has made it necessary to create this new region in order that the Association may render a greater service to the industrial community in this area.

The counties included in this new region are: Coleman, Tom Green, Runnels, Concho, Menard, McCulloch, Mason, Brown, San Saba, Llano, Comanche, Mills, Hamilton, Lampasas, Burnet, Somervell, Bosque, Coryell, Johnson, Hill, McLennan, Bell, Williamson, Travis, Ellis, Navarro, Freestone, Limestone, Falls, Robertson, Milam, Brazos, Burleson, Lee, Grimes, Waller, Washington, and Austin.

Mr. Cox has had extensive experience in this kind of work, having served for more than 10 years in chamber of commerce management positions. He has also had extensive experience in advertising and public relations activities in the central Texas area, Burris said.

Before joining TMA, Cox was serving as manager of the Chamber of Commerce at Alice. Prior to this, he was public relations director and area development manager for the Waco Chamber of Commerce. He has also served as manager of the Chambers of Commerce at Hillsboro and Crane and, prior to this, worked in the advertising department of the William Cameron & Company wholesale firm. A graduate of Waco High School, Cox earned his bachelor of arts degree in journalism from Baylor University in 1955, Waco.

He is a veteran of the Navy Air Corps in World War II.

He is a Mason, member of Waco Lodge 92; a member of the Baptist Church; also, a member of SDX, VFW, the Kiwanis Club, the Boy Scouts Advisory Council, and other associations.

He is married to the former Adina Arnold, of Waco. They are the parents of three children: Billy, 16; Mike, 11; and Dee Ann, 3. They will make their home in Waco.

THE BIG INCH

The ruled box above is a one-inch ad. It measures one column wide by one inch deep. It costs advertisers 45 cents.

It looks kind of lonesome by itself.

But look at it this way:

What you get when you buy a one inch ad in The Santa Anna News is not just a single space in the paper, but one inch multiplied by more than 1,000 copies each week. And by more than 4,000 readers each week.

So you are really buying 1,000 inches, which (at 120 column inches per page) would be some eight and one-third pages of printed newsprint.

That is a mighty big chunk of space to cost 45 cents. Just imagine trying to reach all those Santa Anna News readers by postcard. It would amount to more than $160 just for the postage. But The News does it for just 45 cents.

So you can see that a little one inch ad is a big inch when it is advertising space in The Santa Anna News. And two inches will tell your story twice as well as one, and four will get your message across four times as well, and so on. It is the most effective and economical way possible to let people in this area know that you have wares and services they could use.

Call FI8-3545 and let our advertising representative show you how our big inches of advertising space can be a big salesman for you.

Guadalupe Mountain National Park

Hearings concluded in subcommittees in both the US House of Representatives and the Senate recently, concerning the establishment of the proposed Guadalupe Mountain National Park. That is a proposal that everyone in West Texas should support wholeheartedly.

A fact sheet on the proposed park describes the area like this:

"The southern extremity of the Guadalupe Range is a wedged mountain group in a limestone upland extending northward from Texas into New Mexico. The point of the wedge, in Texas, is El Capitan, a landmark visible for over 50 miles. El Capitan, a cliff 8,200 feet high, has an impressive sheer face. Directly north of El Capitan is Guadalupe Peak, 8,751 feet high, the highest point in Texas. Between the eastern and western sides of the wedge is a timber covered, rolling highland slashed by deep canyons. One of these is McKittrick Canyon."

McKittrick Canyon is the real reason for the proposed national park. It is a rugged, forested oasis in the middle of desert mountains. It contains unique attributes. For instance, it contains the only trout stream in Texas. It contains a herd of about 200 elk, the only such herd in Texas. It contains the only major stands of Douglass fir, ponderosa pine, and Canadian maple in the state. It also contains stands of madrone, a unique tree native to Mexico. Other wildlife include turkey, deer, antelope, and the smaller species.

The area is also unique archeologically. Traces of human existence in the Canyon date back more than 12,000 years. The Canyon has a rich historical heritage, and remains of the old Butterfield Stage Line station still stands in the proposed park area.

An area of 6,000 acres in the Canyon was donated to the US government for use as a park in 1961 by Wallace Pratt, a world-famous geologist. The remainder of the area is owned by J. C. Hunter, of Abilene, who has preserved it in its natural state. This area is also available for a national park.

If such a park is established in the Guadalupe Mountains, it will have several valuable aspects for the state of Texas as a whole, and for our part of the state in particular. For one thing, it will increase the number of national parks in Texas by one half, from two (Big Bend National Park, Padre Island National Seashore) to three.

It will help bring tourists into Texas in great numbers. It is estimated by the US Park Department that, if the proposed park is established, it will draw more than 575,000 tourists each year by 1970. That is more than one half million people travelling our roads, every year, patronizing our businesses, raising our economy.

It will provide a valuable recreation source for people of this area. The park will be about 400 miles from Santa Anna, one day's drive. One Park Department official, after inspecting the area, said that the only National Park that would be more spectacular is Yosemite, in California.

And the park will preserve a part of our heritage, a part of the primitive nation that faced our forefathers as they settled this country, will preserve it in a time when such areas are fast falling before the growing urban areas.

Tourists will visit this park from the west, coming through Carlsbad Caverns National Park (the limestone formation of El Capitan is the same limestone strata that forms Carlsbad Caverns, and McKittrick Canyon has been called a "Carlsbad Cavern without a top"). Then they will continue on to the Gulf Coast, or to Dallas, or to San Antonio, and many of them will pass through Santa Anna.

So it is only selfishness to support the approval of this proposed national park, selfishness and a desire to preserve something of the heritage of our country. Why don't you write to your Congressman (O. C. Fisher) and your US Senators (John Tower, Ralph Yarborough) and let them know you favor this proposed Guadalupe Mountain National Park.

Jim Lovelady surprised two youths, 16 and 17 years of age, as they tried to steal Charlie Wristen's new car, according to The News for August 12, 1960. Lovelady scared the would-be car thieves off, and they left in the car in which they had arrived. Lovelady notified Deputy Sheriff Bud Simmons, who spotted the boys in the west edge of Santa Anna. They eluded the deputy and headed west, while Simmons alerted area law officials. Later, the pair came roaring back through Santa Anna, and Simmons set off in pursuit, at speeds up to 100 miles per hour. The pair stopped just west of Bangs. The car they were driving, a 1955 Buick, had been stolen in Winters earlier in the evening.

Early this fall more than 240,000 young Texans will be entering public schools for the first time.

Even though the opening of school is still some weeks away, parents are busy making preparations to insure that their child makes a smooth adjustment to his new environment.

The child's adjustment will be more rapid and satisfactory if he starts his school life in good, sound health.

Have your family physician or local clinic give your child a complete physical examination, including an eye check. His teeth should also be checked by the family dentist. If these examinations show there are ailments or defects that can and should be looked after, then follow the doctor's and dentist's advice and have them corrected, if possible, before you enroll him in school.

It's likely that your child has already been immunized against certain of the childhood diseases such as diphtheria, whooping cough, and smallpox. If not, have it done immediately, either by your doctor or by the local health clinic. If all immunizations have been done previously, make sure your child gets the necessary booster dose.

Insist on your child's getting regular and sufficient hours of sleep to help him enjoy school. He needs ten to twelve hours of sleep in a quiet, darkened room with an open window to build up his energy and offset his tiredness.

Proper nutrition is very important. When school starts, allow enough time for a wholesome breakfast. A good breakfast includes citrus fruit or juice, milk, whole grain cereal or bread, eggs or bacon or both.

Lunch and dinner should be a leisurely meal. The new adventure of school is a pretty fast pace, but mealtime offers an opportunity for the family to pause and relax together.

Also, nearly every school district in Texas requires proof of age for first year students in the form of a certificate of birth.

LETTERS

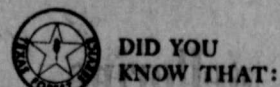

Editor:

My mother, Mrs. Richard D. Bass, sends me a copy of The Santa Anna News each week, and I would like you to know that I enjoy reading The News very much. Not only that, I enjoy very much what you write. Reference to your Point Rows dated 15 August 1965. Quote: "And yet there is that small minority, blinded by religious prejudice or personal bitterness, who would try to drive this institution out of town. In doing so, they would drive out jobs, a large part of our local economy, and would relegate Santa Anna to the status of a veritable ghost town."

Believe me, you really hit the nail right on the head. I left Santa Anna some 16 years plus ago, but I go home as much as I can when I can. And my service record still shows Santa Anna as my home of record. So to me it's still home. I, like a good many other hometown boys joined the service and found that it was not a bad way of life and stayed in. The many years that I have served with the US Army and the US Air Force have carried me to the far corners of the world. I have seen what religious prejudice and personal bitterness can do to a town, county, state, and, yes, even a country. I realize that Santa Anna is only a small town and that there is only a small minority that feel this way. But I say this to that small minority of people: The day of the five cent hamburger is gone. You cannot crawl into a shell and let the rest of the world go by. You are part of that world, like it or not, and should try to work with your fellowman as much as possible. I know of no finer thing than a good hospital and schools to build a fine community. And I think that if you could see how it really is, not to have such things as a hospital, schools, churches, and last but not least, jobs—and that is just exactly the way you are headed—you would think twice before saying one word against these fine people who are trying to help you.

Keep up the good work with the paper. It is time that someone woke up the people in that home town of mine.

Technical Sergeant James S. Bass

Each year, for the past 5 years, over 2,000 fires occurred annually in the pine-hardwood area of East Texas, burning 47,000 acres of valuable timberlands. In addition, improvements such as homes, barns, fencing, and improved pastures were destroyed. These fires were man caused, for the most part, and could have been prevented if someone had used care with firebrands out of doors. Your Texas Forest Service urges you to take every precaution when doing any outdoor burning.

State Capitol NEWS

Federal authorities have brought suit here to abolish the poll tax as a requirement for voting in Texas elections. Suit was filed under the new voting rights act.

If they are successful in getting an early hearing, a special session of the Legislature may be necessary to enact a valid voter registration statute.

Texas' poll tax is the only existing form of registration for state and local elections. However, there is a procedure for obtaining "free" poll taxes to vote in Federal elections.

Observers feel near chaos would result at the polls next year if a final ruling is handed down in favor of the Federal suit, without prior enactment of registration procedures.

Although the US Attorney General maintains the tax is not used to raise revenue for the state, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert estimates over $5,000,000 income for the next biennium from that source. That's $5,000,000 the state treasury won't get if the poll tax is repealed. Reliable estimates so far see the biennium ending with government in the black by only $1,300,000 to $4,200,000 including income from all existing levies.

Attorney General Waggoner Carr has announced he will oppose the Federal suit to invalidate the poll tax and to enjoin state and local officials from enforcing its requirements for any general, special, or primary elections.

Suit seeks to direct Travis County Tax Collector Fritz Robinson and his employees to compile and certify local voter lists "without regard to payment of the poll tax or any other tax."

ENROLLMENTS TO SOAR

Texas Commission on Higher Education forecasts that college and university enrollments in Texas will zoom from 280,106 to nearly 400,000 by 1971.

Enrollments in the state supported institutions are due to increase from 168,000 to 240,000. Nearly all Texas schools report they are short on space for their present students. Predicted increases will affect every one of the existing state supported institutions, Commission believes.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

In recent official opinions, Attorney General Waggoner Carr has held that:

A valid surface lease on land being purchased under the state veterans' land program cannot be given in excess of 10 years.

First assistants and chief deputies in state departments are entitled to reimbursement for actual meals, lodging, and incidental expenses, while traveling on official business inside or outside the state.

Employees of the State Highway Department who drill or supervise drilling of an occasional water well on land owned by the state do not have to be registered as drillers under new act.

Unclaimed wages and personal property held in Texas by foreign corporations for persons whose last known address is unknown or outside Texas must be reported to the State Treasurer under escheat statutes.

Vouchers issued to colleges and universities providing teacher training under a plan approved by Central Education Agency and US government are valid.

No refunds may be made by the State Comptroller for unused cigarette tax stamps purchased prior to September 1, 1959.

DRAFT IN TEXAS

State Selective Service officials say Texas men born in 1946 and after are safe from the draft—with occasional exceptions—through October. But some of them may be called up for military service in November.

Married men who are not fathers are 1-A, but are in the fourth rank of selection. Most draftees come from the third rank.

Colonel M. S. Schwartz, head of the state office, says the state policy toward college students is "no college students."

However, the plight of persons deferred as students or because of their occupations is in the hands of local draft boards.

BOUNDARY DISPUTE AIRED

First meeting of negotiating committees from Texas and Louisiana reached no firm conclusions in their effort to settle a longstanding boundary dispute between the states.

Room was seen for arbitration of the dividing line in the Sabine River ship channel at the Gulf jetties. But the river boundary question seems likely to end up in Federal courts.

At stake in the dispute are valuable mineral rights along the river, as well as control of fishing and future barge traffic.

Texas contends the middle of the Sabine should be the boundary between the states. Louisiana claims the line was extended to the west bank of the river by the 1803 Louisiana Purchase.

Negotiators agreed to keep trying—perhaps to study possible extension of a Federal boundary running between jetties bordering the channel—and to exchange briefs in future meetings.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler presided at the initial conference. High state officials and legislators from both states were present.

Comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word. (II Thessalonians 2:17, RSV)

Going into St. Paul's Cathedral in London, one can see the tomb of Sir Christopher Wren, who designed the cathedral. The inscription on the tomb written in Latin by his son means, "If you would see his monument, look around."

This could also be said of those humble medieval craftsmen who built the great Gothic cathedrals. When they were carving underneath the seats of the choir stalls, they knew that very few would ever see their work; still they made their designs with infinite skill and patience. They were not working primarily for profit or reward but to the glory of God.

Brother Lawrence in the monastery kitchen was even able to say that his dishes could be cleaned to God's glory. It was because of this attitude that he could assert God was as near to him in the kitchen as at the blessed sacrament.

Whatever work we do can be well done or badly done. We honor God when we offer Him our work as our very best—in spirit as well as in the manner of doing it. We must pray each day that all our works may be begun, continued, and ended in God.

PRAYER

O God our Father, we pray for grace day by day to seek Thy glory and the good of our fellowmen. May we honor Thee in all we do. Through Christ our Lord we ask. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Work well done as unto God worship offered in His name.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER SIX ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 11 proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing loans to students at institutions of higher education; creating the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund and making provisions relating thereto.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding a new Section to read as follows:

"Section 50b. STUDENT LOANS. (a) The Legislature may provide that the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors, shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Eighty-five Million Dollars ($85,000,000). The bonds authorized herein shall be called 'Texas College Student Loan Bonds,' shall be executed in such form, denominations and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall not bear more than four per cent (4%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as the Board finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purposes of this Section.

(b) All moneys received from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created in the State Treasury to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund to be administered by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors to make loans to students who have been admitted to attend any institution of higher education within the State of Texas, public or private, including Junior Colleges, which are recognized or accredited under terms and conditions prescribed by the Legislature, and to pay interest and principal on such bonds and provide a sinking fund therefor under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe.

(c) While any of the bonds, or interest on said bonds authorized by this Section is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

(d) The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund, and the interest and sinking funds established for the payment of bonds issued by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors. Income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature.

(e) All bonds issued hereunder shall, after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under this Constitution.

(f) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such acts shall not be void because of their anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for loans to students at institutions of higher education to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan.

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for loans to students at institutions of higher education to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 24 proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas by amending Article VII, Section 17, providing a method of payment for the acquiring, constructing and equipping of buildings and other permanent improvements at certain state institutions of higher learning; providing for allocation of funds therefor; authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes and the pledging of allotted funds for the payment of same; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 17 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven Cents (7¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article III, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Ten Cents (2¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the continuing payment of Confederate pensions as provided under Section 51, Article III, and for the establishment and maintenance of the State Building Fund as provided in Section 51b, Article III, of the Constitution.

"Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Ten Cents (10¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning provided that none of the proceeds of this tax shall be used for auxiliary enterprises; and the governing board of each such institution of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in such amounts as may be determined by the governing boards of said respective institutions, shall bear interest not to exceed four per cent (4%) per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise in not more than ten (10) years; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty Cents (30¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

"The following state institutions then in existence shall be eligible to receive funds raised from said Ten Cent (10¢) tax levy for the twelve-year period beginning January 1, 1966, and for the succeeding ten-year period:

"Eighty-five per cent (85%) of such funds shall be allocated by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas on June 1, 1966, and fifteen per cent (15%) of such funds shall be allocated by said Comptroller on June 1, 1972, based on the following determinations:

(1) Ninety per cent (90%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966, shall be allocated to state institutions based on projected enrollment increases published by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System for fall 1966 to fall 1978.

(2) Ten per cent (10%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966 shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on the number of additional square feet needed in educational and general facilities by such eligible state institution to meet the average square feet per full time equivalent student of all state senior institutions (currently numbering twenty-two).

"Not later than June first of the beginning year of each succeeding ten-year period the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall reallocate eighty-five per cent (85%) of the funds to be derived from said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax for said ten-year period and not later than June first of the sixth year of each succeeding ten-year period said Comptroller shall reallocate fifteen per cent (15%) of such funds to the eligible state institutions then in existence based on determinations for the said ten-year period that are similar to the determinations used in allocating funds during the twelve-year period beginning January 1, 1966, except that enrollment projections for succeeding ten-year periods will be from the fall semester of the first year to the fall semester of the tenth year. All such designated institutions of higher learning shall not thereafter receive any general revenue funds for the acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements for which said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax is herein provided, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case an appropriation in an amount sufficient to replace the uninsured loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of any General Revenue Funds. The State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall draw all necessary and proper warrants upon the State Treasury in order to carry out the purpose of this Amendment, and the State Treasurer shall pay warrants so issued out of the special fund hereby created for said purpose. This Amendment shall be self-enacting. It shall become operative or effective upon its adoption so as to supersede and repeal the former provisions of this Section; provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed as impairing the obligation incurred by any outstanding notes or bonds heretofore issued by any state institution of higher learning under this Section prior to the adoption of this Amendment but such notes or bonds shall be paid, both as to principal and interest, from the fund as allocated to any such institution.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at the General Election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A.D. 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

DEFEAT

AND VICTORY

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

One hundred sixty-two feet high and one hundred forty-seven feet wide Napoleon built his arch of triumph. Proudly it rises above the Place de l'Etoile reminding the world of an Emperor's early victories—and later defeats.

On the road from Bethphage to Jerusalem centuries before there had been another arch of triumph. Nature had fashioned it of palm trees. Beneath their bowing branches the Prince of Peace rode into the city that was to crucify Him.

Jesus, unlike Napoleon, never had need of a gigantic monument to help the world remember Him. The doors of a million churches bespeak His victory. Men pass through them not to gaze upon the majesty of carved stone, but to worship and serve the Son of God.

Napoleon bought for himself a transient glory at the price of other men's blood.

Jesus bought for All Men eternal life—at the price of His Own Blood!
