Election Appeal Hearing Set For November 12

Friday, November 12 has been set as the date for hearing oral arguments in the appeal pending from the 35th Judicial Court judgement approving the bond election held in Santa Anna, February 26, 1965.

Appellants in the case, styled Leland Thompson, et al, versus W. Ford Barnes, et al, have filed their pleadings in the case. The City will now file an answer to the claims in the appellants' petitions, and the three judge 11th Court of Civil Appeals will hold the hearing November 12. The appeals court will then consider the information contained in the written filings, and the arguments presented orally by attorneys for the two sides, and will reach their decision.

Homer Smith, Court Clerk for the 11th Court of Civil Appeals, told The News in a telephone interview that four or five cases have been set for that same day. Smith said that the court session begins at 9:00 a.m., but the time of day at which the election contest suit appeal would be heard will depend on the order in which these cases are scheduled.

The appeals court could come up with one of three rulings in this case. It could find in favor of the City, denying the appeal; or it could reverse and remand the case, sending it back to 35th District Court for rehearing due to errors; or it could simply remand, finding in favor of the appellants and entering decision in their favor.

Appellants in the case, those persons who were the original complainants in the suit, include, in addition to Thompson, Homer Goodgion, Maggie Culver, Lela Campbell, and Dan Blake. Sureties for the appeal bond in this case were C. D. Bruce and L. A. Welch.

Defendants in the original suit, in whose favor the decision was rendered by 35th District Court, were W. Ford Barnes, as Mayor of Santa Anna, and the members of the City Council at the time of the election, including Calvin Campbell, A. O. Ethridge, L. M. Guthrie, Doug Moore, and Ben Yarborough.

City Gets Federal Grant To Help Pay For Sewer System

The United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare has approved a grant of $37,800 to the City of Santa Anna for the construction of a sewerage treatment and related structures, according to a telegram received Wednesday, September 22, from United States Senator Ralph Yarborough.

The purpose of having the bond election to provide funds for the construction of the sewer improvements at the time it was held was to allow Santa Anna to be eligible for these Federal funds. The program under which such grants are made to cities was being phased out for the year, and unless the Santa Anna application had been made at the time, these Federal funds would not have been available to the City. The funds involved are a grant, and do not need to be repaid. This reduces the total cost of the required sewer improvements by the amount of the grant, $37,800, which would otherwise have had to be paid by utility users or taxpayers in Santa Anna.

Text of the telegram follows: EDITOR, SANTA ANNA NEWS, SANTA ANNA, TEXAS:

AM NOTIFIED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE OF A GRANT OF $37,800 TO THE CITY OF SANTA ANNA FOR SEWERAGE TREATMENT PLANT, OUTFALL LINES, LIFT STATION, AND FORCE MAIN. TOTAL COST OF PROJECT $127,500.

RALPH W. YARBOROUGH UNITED STATES SENATOR, WASHINGTON, DC.

The following description of the lot of the smalltown weekly newspaper editor first appeared 135 years ago, but it is just as appropriate today as when it was first printed in 1830.

"A country editor is one who reads newspapers, selects miscellany, writes articles on all subjects, sets type, reads proof, works at the press, folds papers and sometimes carries them, prints jobs, runs on errands, cuts and saws wood, works in the garden, talks to all his patrons who call, patiently receives blame for a thousand things that never were and never can be done, gets little money, has scarce time or materials to satisfy his hunger or enjoy the quiet of 'nature's grand restorer,' and esteems himself particularly happy if he is not assaulted and battered by some unprincipled demagogue."

We don't know who wrote that little gem (it first appeared in the Cooperstown (New York) Freeman's Journal for May 10, 1830), but we can tell from what he says that he's been there.

The only addition we would make is to point out how lucky he was. He didn't have to worry about printing football programs.

POETRY DEPARTMENT: The following verse is offered to our readers in the cause of improving the cultural status of the Santa Anna area. Lady Bird is gung ho for culture nowadays, and we are always happy to do our part. The author is unknown.

One night in late October,
When I was far from sober,
And going home with many a slip and slide,
My feet began to shudder
So I lay down in the gutter,
And noticed that a pig lay at my side.

Two ladies, passing by,
The pair of us did spy,
And as they passed, I heard one lady say:

"You can tell a man who boozes
By the company he chooses."
So the pig got up and sadly walked away.

News stories this week tell of the effect a new US tactic is having on the Viet Cong. Army helicopter crews are rigging powerful searchlights beneath the choppers and are going Cong hunting at night.

Apparently the Viet Cong don't care for their introduction to the fine old American custom of moonlighting.

We will probably receive a complaint from the guerrillas union demanding that the US military stick to the eight hour workday.

Speaking of such things, the military situation in Viet Nam, and the draft situation in the US, have encouraged enlistment in Reserve and National Guard units. The Coleman section of the Coleman County National Guard unit has only one vacancy remaining, and the Santa Anna section has only nine or 10 spots open.

We read the other day that Frank Sinatra has purchased an airline. Now when he sings "Come Fly With Me" he isn't kidding.

Jim Lovelady stopped by, and was telling us about a postcard received from his sister, Alta, who flew to New York recently. Took her all of two hours and 52 minutes to get from Dallas to New York City. In fact, it took longer to get from Brownwood to Dallas than it did to get from Dallas to New York. They cruised at 37,500 feet, which is about seven miles up.

Can you imagine trying to convince someone only 65 years ago that it would be possible to travel from Dallas to New York in less than three hours? You would have been locked up as a raving maniac. Makes you wonder what the world of the year 2000 will be like, and that's only 35 years away.

Which reminds us of two little old ladies who asked the pilot of the supersonic airliner they were boarding if he would please not fly faster than the speed of sound, since they wanted to talk to each other during the trip.

Then there is the story about the twin skunks, named Out and In. One day In was out, and Mama Skunk sent Out out to bring In in. Out was back in a very short time with In.

"How did you find your brother so quickly?" asked Mama Skunk.

"In-stink" was the reply.

"TEXAS, OUR TEXAS..." sing a group of dignitaries on the stage at Mountaineer Stadium, during ceremonies presenting a Freedom Shrine to Santa Anna schools. The Monday evening program was viewed by about 300 persons. The presentation featured (from left) Lee Ray Huggins, representing the Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department, which cooperated with the Coleman Exchange Club to make the presentation; Rev. Bobby Weathers, who gave the benediction; Rev. Raymond Gary, who presented the invocation; Santa Anna High School Principal Roy Mathews; State Representative Forrest Harding, who made the main address; Weldon Boldt, representing the Exchange Club; Lieutenant Colonel Pender, of Dyess Air Force Base; and Santa Anna Superintendent Cullen Perry, who accepted the presentation on behalf of the schools.

State Representative Forrest Harding Substitutes For Dorsey Hardeman At Presentation Ceremony Monday

More than 300 Santa Annans turned out Monday night, September 20, for the ceremonies marking the presentation of a Freedom Shrine to the Santa Anna schools.

Presented by the Coleman Exchange Club in cooperation with the Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department, the Freedom Shrine consists of 28 of the most important documents in American history, in facsimile reproduction, covered with clear plastic and mounted on large plaques.

The Freedom Shrine documents will be hung in the front hallway and the stairwells in Santa Anna High School, according to Superintendent Cullen Perry. Perry said that work would begin on hanging the material next week. When the arrangements are complete, local citizen will be invited to visit the building and view the display.

State Representative Forrest A. Harding, of San Angelo, pinch hit for scheduled speaker Dorsey Hardeman, at the ceremony. Hardeman, an attorney as well as state senator, was detained in Houston in regard to a court case there.

Harding, in his speech, recalled the traits of character exhibited by the men who had made the documents represented in the Freedom Shrine, while outlining the many problems and dangers facing the nation today. Pointing out that we live in a perilous time (he said that the recent rash of multiple births — twins, triplets, quadruplets, quintuplets — being reported in the newspapers recently prove that the world today is such a fearsome place that even babies are afraid to come into it alone), Harding called for a return to the faith and courage exhibited by the founders of the nation.

Weldon Boldt, of Coleman, represented the Exchange Club, and Lee Ray Huggins represented the Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department in the ceremony. Also on the program were Cullen Perry, who accepted the presentation; Santa Anna High School Principal Roy Mathews; and Lieutenant Colonel Pender, from Dyess Air Force Base.

The Santa Anna High School Band presented a brief concert before the ceremonies, and provided music during the program. Coleman County National Guardsmen served as honor guards.

Santa Anna Masons To Host Workshop

A workshop has been scheduled for officers and members of Masonic Lodges in this area at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, October 5. The meeting will be held in the Masonic Temple in Santa Anna. Officers of Coleman and Santa Anna Lodges are especially invited.

The workshop is part of a statewide, semiannual program authorized by the Grand Master of Masons in Texas, J. Carroll Hinsley, of Austin. The program is conducted for nearly 1,000 Texas Masonic Lodges with a membership of 250,000 men. The Masonic Order is the state's largest fraternal organization.

The purpose of the workshop is to enable Masons to study common problems of Masonic Lodges and their operations. The workshop will be conducted by M. V. Baker, of San Angelo, who is chairman of Masonic Workshop Area F-3.

Grand Master Hinsley stressed the importance of attendance by all Lodge officers and emphasized that other Masons are welcome.

Local Jaycees To Hold Barbecue Thursday

The Santa Anna Junior Chamber of Commerce will hold a barbecue for members and prospective members on Thursday, September 23, in the Santa Anna Lions Club Building. Festivities will begin at 7:30 p.m. All Jaycees are urged to attend, and any young men between the ages of 18 and 35 who are interested in the Jaycees, or would like to learn more about the organization, are invited to come, according to local Jaycee President Max Eubank.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allison have as guests this week her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Welch, former residents of this area, who now reside in the Twilight Nursing Home, in Bangs.

Mr. and Mrs. Welch recently celebrated their sixty-first wedding anniversary. They are the parents of four daughters, Mrs. W. B. Allison, of Santa Anna; Mrs. Willie Blair, of Coleman; Mrs. George Haynes, of Lovington, New Mexico; Mrs. Luther Carrilton, who passed away in 1936. They also have 12 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren.

Cecil Williams, owner and operator of The Steak House, congratulates Max Eubank while handing him first prize in the week's football contest. Max even gets a plug for the cable TV system by posing with the sign behind him.

Max Eubank Is Top Winner In First Full Week Of Local Football Contest

Max Eubank picked all five games correctly, and came within three points of the total score in the Santa Anna-Clyde game, to win last week's competition in the District 9A football predicting contest. Eubank, the only entrants to pick all five winners in games featuring District 9A teams last week, predicted a final score of 14 to 7 in the local game, missing the Clyde score by only two points, and the Santa Anna tally by one point. Eubank received a five dollar gift certificate from The Steak House, one of the sponsors of the weekly competition.

Tied for second and third in the contest last week were Freddie Blount and Korky Wise, each of whom picked four winners, and each of whom predicted a total score of 26 points in the Santa Anna-Clyde game. Duplicate prizes will be awarded to Blount and Wise. They can each pick up two free reserved seat tickets to the next Santa Anna home game, and a one year subscription to The Santa Anna News, by coming by The News office.

The competition is sponsored by three local businesses, Richard Horner Premier Station, Phillips Drug Store, and The Steak House. Entry forms are found in each week's issue of The Santa Anna News (look on page 7 of this issue). Filled out, the entry forms may be placed in the boxes provided in each of the sponsoring businesses.

There were more than 50 entries in last week's competition.

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT

This could be the title of these two photos. In the picture at right, Henry Sorrells holds a rattlesnake he killed Saturday. The rattler, which measured five feet three inches long, struck at the horse Sorrells was riding while roping goats. The snake was dispatched with a rock. Sorrells plans to skin the six pound snake and make a belt from its hide.

In the photo above, professional snakehunter Pierre Rowe poses with his latest trophy (its on the sheet of paper in front of Pierre, in case you can't see it). The huge rattler was making itself at home in the office of Santa Anna Cooperative Gin when it was discovered. Pierre wanted to bring it back alive, but brother Vernon put an end to it with a hoe. Pierre plans to skin his rattlesnake and make a garter out of it.

WTU area development representatives are available to assist growth-conscious communities in planning economic development programs

Not long ago WTU published an ad about the $1,300,000 improvement program in the West Texas community of Stamford. As we stated then, it was done for the purpose of "improving the chances of continued economic growth and attraction of new industry." And . . . industry responded! Today a well-known maker of women's and girls' apparel and sportswear is thriving in Stamford, with an annual payroll approaching $300,000. Selling its products all over the Nation, Stamford's new industry has almost tripled its employment in 18 months. In actual fact, here is a PATTERN FOR PROGRESS . . . a picture of successful achievement. The Lines Are Forming

With the announcement, not wholly unexpected, that Governor John Connally will seek a third term in the Governor's Mansion in Austin, the lines are being drawn for the upcoming political battles that will take up much space in 1966 newspapers, and considerable time on television and radio.

Attorney General Waggoner Carr has announced that he will be a candidate for the nomination of the Democratic Party for the post of United States Senator, presently held by Senator John Tower, of Wichita Falls. Crawford Martin, of Waxahachie, who is currently serving as Secretary of State in Austin, has announced that he will be a candidate for nomination to Carr's office of attorney general. Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith will stand for reelection. About the only major Democratic politicians whose plans are not 100 percent firm right now are Congressman Jim Wright, of Fort Worth, who is entertaining ideas of opposing Carr for the Democratic nomination to oppose Senator Tower, and former State Senator Joe Kilgore, who would like to run for something.

As for the Republicans, they will be concentrating their efforts on keeping Senator Tower in Washington, and in electing some more state representatives to provide a little more company for State Representative Frank Cahoon, of Midland, the lone GOP representative in Austin.

All in all, it looks like an interesting year, politically. Much more so than is normal for an "off year", one in which a Presidential election does not take place.

Although the poll tax is under fire in Federal courts, and may be declared illegal in state elections as it has in national balloting, it is expected that this will not effect registration procedures for 1966. Be sure to pay your poll tax, so you will have a voice in how your state, and your nation, will be governed.

How To Work In Washington, Etc.

The following appeared in The Humble Way, a magazine published by the Humble Oil & Refining Company. It was written by David Botter, a professor of journalism, Washington correspondent, and assistant editor of Look Magazine. It is entitled "How To Work In Austin and Washington Without Ever Leaving Home."

- Do—Get to know those who represent you in government. Either in person, or by mail, take the opportunity after the election to wish them well. Let them know who you are, and what your interests are.
- Do—Write to them about matters on which you have some information and in which you are concerned.
- Do—Acknowledge things they do of which you approve. Let them know that you are aware of their work.
- Do—When you have an interest in a subject, inform your representatives while there is still time for them to take effective action.
- Do—Try to instruct your representatives on how to vote on every issue that comes up. And don't nag at them if their votes do not match your precise thinking every time.
- Do—Rely on pressure campaigns of petitions, mass mailings, mass telegrams on subjects that you don't know about personally. A thoughtful letter based on specifics has more meaning for your representatives.
- Do—Berate your representative or call him names, if he does not agree with you. You have a chance at the next election to vote against him if you object seriously to his service.
- Do—Pretend to represent more political influence than you have. Write or talk with your representative as an individual with personal concern about issues, but don't attempt to speak for your neighbors.
- Do—Rely blindly on "voting records" kept by pressure groups. . . . Base your judgements on the work your representatives do in committee, or in representing their district or state in the interests of the nation.

UNWILLING CRIMINAL

As you pause at a red traffic light, a stranger leaps into the back seat of your car, presses a gun against your head and snarls: "Get going!"

If you do get going, are you—aside from your other troubles—guilty of a traffic violation for going through a red light?

Obviously not. Although you went through the physical motions of breaking the law, you had no real choice in the matter. You were a toy of circumstance, acting under harsh and overwhelming coercion.

When is coercion an excuse for what would otherwise be a crime?

First, the law will consider how intense was the pressure to which you were subjected. It must be severe.

For example, a man who took part in a holdup was excused because he acted under a direct threat of being shot by his companion. But a man who delivered bootleg whiskey was not excused merely because he was afraid of losing his job.

Second, besides the intensity of the pressure, the law will consider how serious was the misconduct you were ordered to commit. Running a red light is not so horrendous a deed that the law cannot afford to overlook it.

But suppose you had been ordered not only to go through the red light but also to run down a luckless pedestrian who happened to be in the path of your car.

That would be a different story. In theory, a few states do accept coercion as an excuse even for homicide. But in fact, such an excuse is rarely accepted in court. At the very least, the law would expect you to take every reasonable chance to avoid the killing of an innocent person.

In one case, for instance, a man on trial for murder protested that he had been commanded to fire the fatal shot. But the court rejected this excuse, saying that instead of firing at the victim he should have turned the gun on his own threatener.

Said the judge: "He could not elect a course absolutely safe to himself, and slay an innocent man, rather than take some risk."

A public service feature of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas. Written by Will Bernard.

Have you driven up a street recently and had something flash past you, speeding downhill? It can give you quite a start to glance back and see a boy or girl on a skateboard.

As one man commented recently, "I'd feel a little more secure—even as a spectator—if these skateboards came equipped with crash helmets, seatbelts and brakes."

Skateboarding—like many sports and activities—can have its potential hazards. But, observance of safety precautions and rules can go a long way toward the protection of participants.

Here are some pointers you can pass on to any skateboarders—alms sidewalk surfers—you know. And be sure to remember them if you try skateboarding yourself.

Public streets, of course, should not be used for surfing. A possible exception is where cars and other traffic is blocked off during demonstrations or contests. Driveways that slope towards the street are tempting, but hazardous.

Skateboard use is best confined to designated areas such as playgrounds, noncongested sidewalks where not prohibited, and restricted portions of parking lots and shopping centers. As veterans of the board can testify, a paved surface free of large bumps and cracks is best.

Beginners are advised—before boarding this steerless, brakeless vehicle—to consider the speed potential and fall possibilities, and to confine maneuvers to their skill level. Shoes with non-slip soles appear to be some help to the skateboarder, new or experienced.

Whether you are a beginner or oldtimer, let skill and control be your aim, rather than speed. And, let "see" and "be seen" be your watchwords.

State Capitol NEWS

Texas' master water plan now is being developed.

It embodies concepts far more advanced than those of any other state, says Harvey O. Banks, San Francisco consulting engineer.

Banks, who sold California on kicking in $2,000,000,000 in state funds for a water supply for its mushrooming population growth, is a special advisor to the Texas Water Development Board.

Speaking to members of the Municipal Panel of the Texas Water Conservation Association, representing more than two thirds of the Texas population, Banks warned West Texas to develop new techniques by recognizing water is worth the price paid for it.

Banks was among several notable speakers informing city officials of the state's water planning efforts.

"Unless Texas is willing to put up a stack of cash, the state will not have any control over water policy decisions," he said.

Joe G. Moore, Jr., new executive director of the Water Development Board, and Frank Booth, new executive director of the Texas Water Rights Commission, said Texas' projects call for moving surplus water to areas where it is needed.

Moore's group will formulate plans for meeting water needs to the year 2020. Hearings will be held by the six member board next summer in all river basin areas.

HOSPITAL HEARINGS HELD

Applicants for an anticipated $14,000,000 or more in Federal Hill-Burton hospital building funds have completed their last formal pleas in special hearings before the State Board of Health.

Sixty-five applicants have been warned it will be impossible to get all the $38,000,000 in help they are seeking.

Funds have been appropriated. But due to a priority change, taking into consideration actual use to which existing hospital beds are being put in each community and other factors, state authorities will not allocate them for another month or six weeks.

SHORT SNORTS

Acree yield for Texas cotton, sorghum, rice, corn, and hay crops should reach a record high in 1965, according to Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Office of Civil Defense figures indicate there are adequate fallout shelter spaces for about 47 percent of the Texans, or more than 4,500,000 persons.

State Banking Board set hearings for September 24 on applications for Owentown State Bank, Citizens State Bank of Winona, and Lawndale State Bank of Amarillo; then served notice it will take action on application of Texas Bank of Commerce, Longview.

Department of Public Safety announced it has jobs in uniformed services for more than 70 men. Services include highway patrol, license and weight, drivers licensing, and motor vehicle inspection.

EMPLOYMENT GROWING

As summer ends decreasing unemployment insurance claims reflect a growing economy.

August claims reported by the Texas Employment Commission totaled 197,142 compared with 218,942 for the same month a year ago—a 10 percent decrease.

TEC said the total amount paid dropped by $480,388.

Job placements (nonfarm) increased from 45,054 to 50,399 during the month. Job orders placed by employers increased from 55,109 in August of 1964 to 62,585 last month. Applications jumped from 56,182 to 64,337.

Farm job openings filled increased from 63,673 to 71,095 despite expanding mechanization of farm work. However, much of the increase was due to demands in other states.

OIL PRODUCTION UP

For the first time in 10 years the Texas Railroad Commission hiked the October oil production allowable over September.

Commission ordered October production at 28.8 percent of potential. That fixes allowable at 2,944,109 barrels a day.

September allowable was 2,864,660 barrels daily or 28 percent of potential formula.

Last year's formula for October was 27.9 percent.

ILLITERATE PROGRAM

Governor John Connally reports a total of 12,732 students enrolled in the state's adult education program for illiterates in 30 Texas communities.

Texas initiated its program before the Economic Opportunity Act was passed by Congress. But nearly 90 percent of funds now are provided by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Cost of the approved programs is $784,447. Of this sum $690,364 represents Federal money.

Texas has more functional illiterates than any state except one.

Adult education programs for grownups now are functioning in El Paso, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Vidor, Donna, Rio Hondo, Ben Bolt, Greenville, Gregory, Brownsville, Santa Rosa, Ysleta, Premont, McAllen, Alice, Eagle Pass, Edcouch, Huntsville, San Benito, Mercedes, Mission, Taft, Edinburg, Los Fresnos, La Feria, La Joya, Goliad, San Saba, and La Villa.

ILLITERATES ENROLLED

Classes in 30 Texas cities now are being held for 12,732 illiterates with the cost of the program totalling $784,447. Of this sum $690,364 are from Federal aid.

Programs were initiated to educate adults classified as functional illiterates. Texas has more illiterates over 25 than all other states but one.

YOUTH CORPS PROJECTS APPROVED

Governor Connally approved Neighborhood Youth Corps projects sponsored by the San Diego Independent School District, and Southwest Texas State College, in San Marcos.

San Diego projects covers 200 students at a cost of $109,990 in Federal funds and $28,660 in local support. It calls for $125 an hour pay.

Southwest Texas State College project calls for employment of 577 youths in 11 cities and towns of Blanco, Caldwell, Comal, Guadalupe, and Hays Counties. Youths will be paid $125 an hour. More than $319,000 in Federal funds goes into the SWTC

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room - THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read Psalm 103:1-13

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High. (Psalm 92:1)

Some years ago, during family worship week, our pastor's wife invited several families to her home for evening devotions. She encouraged the gathering to make thank offerings a part of our family worship.

At the close of the service, she called each member of her family to the family altar. Each one brought an offering in cash or kind, placed it in the plate, saying a few words of praise to God. One thanked God for passing the school examination, another for the recovery from illness, a third one for a birthday. The pastor thanked God for the manifold blessings he received during his ministry in the parish. His wife then handed over the offering to the parish treasurer who was present in the meeting.

We can all praise God for the salvation Christ offers and for Christian fellowship in the world. We can praise God for being called to serve Him in our daily life. For all these blessings each of us needs to say, "Thank you, my God."

PRAYER

Our heavenly Father, help us to praise You in our home, in our church, and in our hearts. Guide us to witness for You in our daily life and to serve You with gratefulness. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

I cannot but offer my thanksgiving to God whenever I reflect on His gift of redemptive love.

Lightning Strikes Late As Bulldogs Edge Mountaineers By 14-8 Tally Here

The Santa Anna Mountaineers forgot the odds Friday night for three quarters, as they battled the Clyde Bulldogs to a standoff, but the law of averages caught up with them in the fourth period, and they came out on the short end of a 14-8 score.

Everyone in Mountaineer Stadium was seeing red during the first half, not in anger but due to the number of penalty flags being flung by officials. The first half saw a total of 140 yards stepped off against both teams for infractions, 60 of these against Santa Anna and 80 against Clyde. All in all, the Mountaineers drew seven penalties for a total of 65 yards, while the Bulldogs were penalized nine times for 95 yards.

First Quarter
The Mountaineers kicked off to start the festivities, and the Bulldogs responded by moving from their own 38 yard line down to the Santa Anna 44, before the Hillbillies held and forced the visitors to punt. It was a very short kick, going out of bounds on the Santa Anna 39. The Mountaineers then met with the first of a series of fumbles that cost them possession of the ball three times during the evening, bobbling it on the first play from scrimmage and losing it on their own 38. The Bulldogs got bulldogged by the rugged Mountaineer defense, which featured Ronnie McCarrell, Billy Don Cupps, Tommy Blanton, and Steve Valdez, and lost a couple of yards, and the ball on downs. Santa Anna picked up its first first down of the contest, but could move only to its own 48, being sidetracked by a 15 yard penalty. A punt carried in to the endzone, and Clyde took possession on its own 20. Three downs moved the ball only to the 26, and a blocked punt gave the Mountaineers possession at that point. On the first play, the red flags flew, and fifteen yards later, the Mounties found themselves on the visitors' 41. The next play drew a five yard penalty, and it was now first down and 30 yards to go on the Clyde 46. Two plays gained a total of one yard, and a pass attempt failed. Eugene Davenport, who did a good job in the punting slot all evening, boomed one into the endzone. Clyde took over on its own 20, and moved back to their 39 yard line as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter
On a fourth down and 11 yards to go situation, the Bulldogs tried a punt, but the pass from center was bobbled, and the Mountaineers took over on the Clyde 20 yard line. Santa Anna's glaring weakness so far this season has been its inability to capitalize on good breaks, and this was evident in this instance, as a stubborn Bulldog defense and a five yard penalty halted the Mountaineer efforts on the Clyde 18. Clyde took over and managed to rack up nine yards in reverse before punting to their own 45, from whence Butch Makuta ran the ball back to the enemy 30. On the first play, fumbleitis struck again, and Clyde recovered on their 30, again racking up good yardage backwards, finally punting from their own 15 yard line to the Santa Anna 46. The Mountaineers could move only eight yards in four downs, losing the ball on the Clyde 46. At this point, Clyde made its only real threat of the half, moving on six downs to the Santa Anna 22 yard line. Only seconds remained in the first half, and the Bulldogs went to the air, failing to connect on a pair of passes. An eight yard loss on the running play and a 15 yard penalty moved the Clyde contingent back to the Mountaineer 35 as the half ended, and the officials went in to rub liniment on their arms, badly strained from throwing red flags.

Third Quarter
Looking for advantage from the fresh breeze, the Mountaineers elected to kickoff to start the second half, with the wind at their backs. Clyde moved to the Santa Anna 39 before losing the ball on a fumble. In three plays, the Mounties got only four yards, so Davenport booted another boomer. Clyde took over on its own 20, moved to its 45, gaining a first down in the process, then kicked a rather short punt that ended up two yards beyond the line of scrimmage, on the Bulldog 47. A pass completion from quarterback Roy Joe Harvey to lineman Jimmy Walker, an ineligible receiver, netted a loss of six yards. The five yard penalty was naturally refused, and the Mounties lost six more yards and the ball on the next three downs. Clyde moved to the Santa Anna 29, but a fumble recovery by an alert Mountaineer halted the drive as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter
Taking over on their own 22 yard line, the Mountaineers moved two yards on two downs, and a completed pass on the third down added one more. A short punt carried to the Santa Anna 37. A 15 yard penalty moved the Bulldogs back across the midfield stripe to their own 48, but they regained Mountaineer territory on the next play, moving to the Santa Anna 45. Second down was a pass from quarterback Cecil Eager to half-back Connie Ramos, and Ramos toted the pigskin all the way for the first score of the evening. Fullback Jack Ralston ran over the conversion, and the Bulldogs led by an 8-0 score.

Clyde kicked off, Santa Anna fumbled, and Clyde had the ball on the Mountaineer 26. Ralston carried to the 22, and on the next play Eager hit Ralston with an aerial, and the big Bulldog back went in for the second tally of the game. The conversion attempt failed, and the score stood at 14 for Clyde, 0 for Santa Anna.

Taking the kickoff on their 33 yard line, the Mountaineers moved to their own 45. On first and 10 from this spot, halfback Eddie Jones broke into the clear on an off tackle slant and went all the way to put the Mountaineers on the scoreboard. Roger Beard carried the pigskin on the conversion attempt, and added two points to the score, making the scoreboard read 14-8 in favor of Clyde.

On an attempted pass play, following the kickoff, the Mountaineers recovered a Clyde fumble on the Santa Anna 47, and began their drive to take the lead. Moving on the running of Beard and Gary Rider, the Mountaineers picked up a pair of first downs, moving to the Bulldog 15. In four plays, however, the Mountaineers could move only four more yards, lost the ball on downs only 11 yards from paydirt. Clyde ran out the clock to cinch their win.

Statistics
Clyde had the best of most of the statistics, picking up a dozen first downs during the evening to four for Santa Anna. The Bulldogs rushed for 213 yards and passed for 84 more, while the Mountaineers were gaining 120 and seven respectively. Clyde took to the air seven times and the Mountaineers went the aerial route four times, each team completing three passes. Neither team had a pass intercepted. Santa Anna lost the ball three times on fumbles, while recovering two Clyde mis-gues. The Mountaineers punted five times for an average of 22 yards per kick, while the Bulldogs kicked four times, averaging 11 yards. Seven penalties cost the Mountaineers 65 yards, and the Bulldogs were fined 95 yards on nine penalties.

The Mountaineers, whose record now stands at one win and two losses will attempt to get back up to the 500 mark Saturday, September 25, against old rival Bangs. This will be the Bangs homecoming game, and the Mountaineers will be out to repay the Dragons, who spoiled the Santa Anna homecoming last year by winning the homecoming game here. Game time will be 8:00 p.m., in Dragon Stadium, in Bangs.

Picks of the Week

The Prophet Corps marked up an average of .688 last week, picking 11 correct out of 16. This brings the company percentage up to .643 from last week's .625.

Last Week's Results: Burnet beats San Saba, picked correctly by Minyard. Early loses to Bangs, picked correctly by the Old Prophet, Guthrie, and Horne. Goldthwaite beats Johnson City, picked correctly by everybody. Marble Falls ties Lometa, and since ties are not predicted, they are not computed in the final ratings; all four prophets picked Marble Falls, however. Santa Anna loses to Clyde, unanimously wrong.

Standings: Minyard still leads, with a .741 percentage; followed by the Old Prophet and Horne, with .643. Guthrie brings up the rear, with a .571 percentage.

This week's games are rather scant in District 9A, with only three contests on tap:

Round Rock at Burnet: has grown rapidly from a class B school eight years ago, to AA status today. Burnet is operating on the push from their upset over San Saba last week, and we pick Burnet in a close one.

Boerne at Marble Falls: Boerne-

Santa Anna at Bangs: In a mild upset, we pick Santa Anna. The Dragons spoiled the Santa Anna homecoming last year, and the Mountaineers will be out to prove that turn about is fair play in Bangs Saturday.

The other prophets say:
Montie Guthrie: Burnet over Round Rock, Boerne over Marble Falls, Santa Anna over Bangs.

Roy Horne: Round Rock over Burnet, Boerne over Marble Falls, Santa Anna over Bangs.

Ken Minyard: Burnet over Round Rock, Boerne over Marble Falls, Santa Anna over Bangs.

Concensus: Round Rock at Burnet—three to one for Burnet. Boerne at Marble Falls—four votes for Boerne. Santa Anna at Bangs—another unanimous choice, this one for Santa Anna.
