It made us proud of our nation, and particularly proud of our city, when we would drive down Wallis Avenue last week and see all the flags flying in front of most of the businesses in town. And many local citizens flew their flags in front of their homes, also.

The people of Santa Anna are to be complimented for getting behind the observance of Constitution Week in such a universal manner. We were in Abilene, Brownwood, and Coleman during that week, and saw few flags flying in any of those cities.

The city government did a good job in promoting and encouraging the display of our nation's flag last week, and the many citizens who responded did a good job of proving that patriotism is not old fashioned or out of style—and least in Santa Anna.

Our nomination for a man in a quandry. State Senator George Parkhouse is a Democrat. He is also in the billboard advertising business. We wonder what he thinks about Lady Bird's campaign to do away with billboards? Senator Parkhouse is noted for saying what he thinks, and he tends to think in terms that would make a Marine drill instructor blush.

Have your ears been burning, Lady Bird?

Bob Griffis, the Jim Aubrey of Coleman, was in Bangs to do the play by play broadcast of that game last Saturday for station KSTA. Watching the awesome Dragons in the process of pulverizing the hapless Mountaineers, Griffis commented: "This Bangs team is good enough to beat Coleman."

He thought about that for a minute, and then he added: "Of course, Santa Anna is good enough to beat Coleman."

In a recent issue, Paul Crume, who writes the Big D column for the Dallas Morning News, one of the best such columns around today, tells of the Dallas first-grader who was being questioned by her father. "Are you doing alright in school?" was the inquiry. The little girl replied that she was doing okay in everything except in the class about eagles.

"The class about eagles?" asked her father. "What do you mean?"

"You know," was the reply, "One and one eagles two, two and two eagles four..."

All the publicity and hullabaloo about the new automobiles now appearing on showroom floors reminds us of one of our favorite auto stories.

It seems that an American schoolteacher, lady type, was taking a tour of Europe in a small foreign car she had purchased for that purpose. This was one of the type that has the motor in the rear, and everything was going along nicely until the car suddenly stopped out on the highway one day, and refused to start. The teacher lady had raised the hood on the front end of the car, and was standing there with a bewildered look on her face, when another American teacher, driving the same type of car, drove up. "What's the matter?" asks teacher number two. "It's terrible," replies the stranded teacher, "My car stopped and when I looked under the hood, I discovered that I've lost the motor!"

"Oh, that's alright," replied her rescuer, "I looked in the trunk of my car this morning, and I've got a spare motor in there!"

SANTA ANNA HIGH SCHOOL will be the location of the 14th annual Santa Anna Homecoming, on Saturday, October 2. The festivities will get underway at 9:00 a. m. with registration, and will continue all day ending with a dance in the Armory that night.

14th Homecoming Scheduled For Saturday, October 2 Here

The 14th annual Santa Anna High School Homecoming will take place this coming Saturday, October 2, with activities beginning at 9:00 a. m., with registration in the Santa Anna High School building.

Those graduating classes that finished in years with the digit 5 will be honored at Homecoming this year. Several of these classes, including those of 1915, 1945, and 1955, are planning special sessions during Homecoming.

Coffee and visiting will be the order of the day during the morning, with the coffee being served in the cafeteria in the Elementary School Building. At noon, homecomers will be free to make their own lunch plans, and several of the classes are planning special luncheons during that time.

The annual business meeting of the Santa Anna Ex-Students Association will take place in the high school auditorium, beginning at 3:00 p. m. An entertainment program will also be presented during the period from 3:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. Catered supper will be served in the cafeteria, beginning at 5:30 p. m., and continuing until 8:00 p. m., at which time the annual homecoming football game will get underway in Mountaineer Stadium.

This year's homecoming tilt will match the Mountaineers against an area team with an identical won-lost record, the Bronte Buffaloes. Both the Buffaloes and the Mountaineers enter the contest with one win and three losses so far this season.

Beginning at 10:00 p. m., the annual Homecoming dance will get underway in the Santa Anna National Guard Armory.

Coming Home Queen for the 1965 Santa Anna High School Homecoming will be Mrs. Billie Steward Porter, now of Utopia, Texas, who will be presented during halftime at the football game.

ACC Schedules High School Day For Fall

High School Day at Abilene Christian College, an annual event usually scheduled for April, will this year be held during the fall semester, on Saturday, October 16.

College officials changed the date of the event to accommodate high school seniors who must decide early in the school year what college they desire to attend. Due date for application for admission to ACC is March 1. Highlight of the day will be the 7:30 p. m. Southland Conference football game between the ACC Wildcats and the Lamar Tech Cardinals. Visitors may purchase game tickets early in the day for $1.00.

The day will begin with 8:00 a. m. registration on the ACC campus, followed by a reception for trip sponsors and parents. A special chapel directed by ACC students and featuring a program by the A Cappella Chorus will begin at 10:00 a. m.

Special planning sessions will be held at 11:30 a. m. and 3:15 p. m. Information about scholarships, loans and work opportunities will be presented at the first session. Don Pritchard Wins Top Money In This Week's District 9A Football Contest

Last week was a bad one for contestants in the District 9A football contest—with 73 entries, and only three games on tap featuring 9A ballteams, not one contestant was able to pick all three games correctly.

Several entrants guessed right on one or two games. Don Pritchard took first place honors, coming closest to the correct score on the tie-breaker portion of the entry blank. Jim Keeney took second place, and Margie Martin finished third.

Pritchard received a $5.00 gift certificate from Richard Horner Premier Station, one of the sponsors of the contest, where he entered. Keeney wins two free reserved seat tickets to the next Santa Anna home game, and Miss Martin wins a one year subscription to The Santa Anna News.

The contest is open to all residents in the Santa Anna trade area. An entry form for next Ex-Student of the Year is to be Hayden Goodgion, who now resides in Dennison. Goodgion graduated from Santa Anna High School in 1934. Mrs. Porter, the Coming Home Queen, finished her schooling in Santa Anna in 1945.

Max Eubank is president of the Santa Anna Ex-Student Association; with Felton Martin as first vice president; James Eubank, second vice president; Lucille Fitzpatrick Wylie, secretary-treasurer; and Billy Campbell, Mrs. Leona Banister Bruce, and Mrs. Verna Kirkpatrick Newman, directors.

Districts To Hold Annual Meeting

Soil and water conservation districts of Texas will be celebrating their 25th Anniversary during their annual meeting in Corpus Christi, October 12, 13, and 14. The meeting will be in the Robert Driscoll Hotel.

There are 183 soil and water conservation districts in Texas, covering more than 99 percent of the land area, with more than 160,000 landowner cooperators. There are five supervisors on the governing body of each soil and water conservation district, totaling 915 Supervisors in Texas. Local Central Colorado Soil Conservation District board is composed of J. B. McCord, Chairman; Zeno Hemphill, Vice Chairman; Weldon Edwards, Secretary; J. H. Martin; and Lance Smith. These Soil and water conservation district supervisors are unpaid, elected officials, given many responsibilities under their enabling act. Responsibilities include control and prevention of erosion, thereby preserving natural resources; control of floods; prevention of impairment of dams and reservoirs; assistance in maintaining navigability of rivers and harbors; preservation of wildlife, protection of the tax base; protection of public lands; and protection and promotion of the health, safety and general welfare of the people of this state.

Five Appeal Cases Scheduled For Same Day As Hearing Of Santa Anna Election Appeal; Local Hearing Last Of Day

Five cases have been scheduled to be heard by the 11th Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland, on Friday, November 12. The appeal from the 35th District Court decision in the Santa Anna bond election contest suit is docketed as the fifth case to be heard that day.

Each appeal case is allowed one hour and fifteen minutes of the Court's time, according to Homer Smith, Clerk of the Court. The Appellants (those appealing the original decision) are allowed the first 30 minutes to present oral arguments. Then appellees (those who won the original suit) are allowed 30 minutes. Finally, the appellants are allowed 15 minutes for rebuttal.

According to Smith, the Santa Anna case will probably not be heard until late in the afternoon, but he said that due to unforeseen changes in the scheduling, such as the postponement of cases set to be heard earlier in the day, the election suit appeal may be heard earlier.

The case, assigned number 4024 in the appellate court, is styled "Leland F. Thompson, et al versus W. Ford Barnes, et al." Appellants are the five persons listed as plaintiffs in the original suit, who are, in addition to Thompson, Maggie Culver, Lela Campbell, Homer Goodgion, and Dan Blake. The Santa Anna city government is listed as defendants in the original action, and are appellees in the present appeal.

An appeal is based upon the possibility of error in the findings of fact in the original hearing.

Coleman County 4-H Club Members To Mark National 4-H Club Week Here

Texas' 87,000 4-H Club members will join other 4-H'ers throughout the nation in the observance of National 4-H Week, September 25, through October 2, reports R. L. Hunt, Jr., assistant state 4-H leader, Texas A&M University.

Hunt notes that some 2,250,000 boys and girls in the 50 states and Puerto Rico are 4-H Club members; that they range in age from 10 to 19 years of age; that they live in both rural and urban areas; and that each conducts one or more projects involving personal responsibilities and "learning to do by doing." Along with their project or demonstration work, 4-H training also emphasizes the development of leadership and citizenship talents.

Theme for the upcoming week will be "Learning for Living." The 4-H members will be joined in the observance by their junior and adult 4-H leaders, their friends and Extension workers. The "head-heart-hands-health" organization is supervised in the counties by the county Extension agents, or in the findings at law derived by the trial judge from those facts. If the appeal is not allowed, the decision of the lower court is allowed to stand. If the appeal court feels that such errors do exist, then the case may be reversed and remanded, sent back to the lower court for rehearing, or it may be remanded, reversed by action of the appeal court and decision rendered directly in favor of the appellants.

The findings at law arrived at by 35th District Court Judge Joe Dibrell, based on facts brought out in the trial, include five points: (1) The election carried, with the removal of votes of unqualified voters; (2) All votes were proper, and there was no fraud in the election proceedings; (3) There was no fraud in the election or in the tallying of the votes; (4) No recount will be allowed, since no evidence of fraud was introduced—thus protecting the secrecy of the ballot; and (5) The election is valid, and was canvassed properly. Judge Dibrell also ruled that no qualified voter had been deprived of his right to vote by action of election officials or others.

The above rulings are the items that will be under attack in the appeal.

Documents filed with the 11th District Court of Civil Appeals show that the plaintiffs in the case have been charged with $395.55 in court costs to date. This does not include fees of attorneys in the case.

Attorneys for the appellants are the law firms of Yates and Yates, and Hooper and Perry, both firms from Abilene. David Hooper is the attorney handling the appeal. The City is represented by the law firm of Woodward and Johnson, of Coleman, with Hal Woodward handling the case for Santa Anna.

Chance For Peace Corps Test Coming Up

An opportunity for Santa Anna area residents to offer their abilities to the Peace Corps will come at 9 a. m., Saturday, October 9, at the Main Post Office, in Brownwood.

The opportunity is the Peace Corps Placement Test, which is not passed or failed and you can't study for it. It measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language. If, for example, test scores indicate limited language acquiring ability, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English speaking area. The test is used by the Peace Corps only as a tool in the matching of Volunteers and jobs. The Peace Corps application is the most important indicator of suitability for Peace Corps service. It must be filled out and brought to the exam unless previously submitted.

Applicants should plan on a about one and a half hours at the testing centers, unless they wish to take the Spanish or French language achievement test, which requires an additional hour.

Mrs. Lorene (Burr's) Monty of San Antonio, was visiting in Santa Anna with old friends, Wednesday. Mrs. Monty had to return home early, and is not going to be able to attend the homecoming, but states she will be here next year.

Santa Anna Utility Superintendent Wins State Honor

An official State Health Department citation for job proficiency has been awarded to Clifford W. Stephenson, Santa Anna Water Superintendent. The citation reflects the high esteem in which Stephenson is held by state water officials.

Signed by the state commissioner of health, and authorities of the Texas Water and Sewage Works Association, the certificate of competency is intended as visual evidence of skill in modern utility plant management and an understanding of the importance of this week to community health.

Before a plant operator is certified, he must show proof of actual work experience and a record of satisfactory attendance at special schools at which the principles of utility plant management are taught. The schools are held under auspices of the state health agency, Texas A&M University, and the Texas Water and Sewage Works Association.

Many operators attend the schools on their own time and at their own expense to prepare themselves to take a written examination which they must pass before they can be certified.

Picks of the Week

The Prophet Corps feels like crawling back into its crystal ball, after a rather disastrous week. The crew racked up a 417 percentage last week, bringing the season record to .603.

Last Week's Results Burnet loses to Round Rock, picked correctly by Horne. Marble Falls loses to Boerne, picked correctly by all four prophets, Santa Anna loses to Bangs, another perfect mark, this one all wrong.

Standings: Home and Minyard are tied with season averages of .646. The Old Prophet is in the middle with .588, and Guthrie trails with .529.

Five games are on tap this week:

Burnet at Del Valle: The Bulldogs are on a losing streak, Del Valle has had a fairly successful season so far. Del Valle.

Early at Rising Star: Cross Plains beat Early, Rising Star beat Cross Plains, and this is the Rising Star homecoming game. Rising Star.

Comanche at Goldthwaite: The Eagles are the number two ranked team in class A competition in the state. They will protect their rating with a win over Comanche.

Reicher (Waco) at Marble Falls: Reicher has been one of the top parochial school football powers in the state for several years. Easy win over the Mustangs.

Bronte at Santa Anna: Smarting from the drubbing they took at Bangs, Coach Cobern's crew should be thirsting for revenge against Class B Bronte. Both teams have 1-3 season records. We pick the Mountaineers by one touchdown, something like 12-6.

Words from other cauldrons:
Montie Guthrie: Burnet over Del Valle, Rising Star over Early, Goldthwaite over Comanche, Reicher over Marble Falls, Santa Anna over Bronte.

Roy Horne: Del Valle over Burnet, Rising Star over Early, Goldthwaite over Comanche, Reicher over Marble Falls, Santa Anna over Bronte.

Ken Minyard: Burnet over Del Valle, Rising Star over Early, Goldthwaite over Comanche, Reicher over Marble Falls, Santa Anna over Bronte.

Consensus: Lots of agreement

this week. Burnet at Del Valle—two votes for each team. Early at Rising Star—four votes for Rising Star. Comanche at Goldthwaite — another unanimous choice, for Goldthwaite. Reicher at Marble Falls — four more unanimous votes, for Reicher of Waco. Bronte at Santa Anna—all votes cast for the Mountaineers.

Local National Guard Fires For Record

By SSgt Bob Turner

The past weekend, September 18 and 19, members of Company "A", 1st Battalion 142nd Infantry, local National Guard unit, spent a long weekend drill in range firing on the old Camp Bowie range, at Brownwood. They joined units from Brownwood, Ballinger and Brady at the range for this weekend drill.

The unit moved to the range by military convoy, where they spent the weekend firing for weapon qualification. Kitchens were set up on the range, troops bivouaced on the old Camp Bowie area, and a long weekend of military duty was performed by all.

Due to a huge recruiting drive being currently conducted, a large number of new men and fresh recruits were with the unit over the weekend. Recruit training was conducted at the

Austin Meeting Planned To Help Cities Cooperate In Tourist Luring Projects

A program designed to weld a closer, more productive bond between state and community tourist development efforts was disclosed by Governor John Connally.

Scheduled October 14, the day long Governor's Tourist Development Conference will capsule the full spectrum of state projects affording fruitful tie in possibilities for the community. The public meeting will be held at Austin's Terrace Motor Hotel.

"It has seemed to me that community leaders interested in winning their shares of the burgeoning state tourist market are not fully aware of the services offered by the state to help them reach their own goal," Governor Connally said. "Consequently, I have asked all state entities involved in any way in development of the Texas tourist industry to discuss their programs with interested Texas businessmen. Principal result, I hope, will be closer liaison between state and community with mutual benefit for both."

The Governor will keynote the conference at 9:30 a.m. He is expected to outline the present scope of the tourist industry in Texas. He will also examine its potential and discuss the several routes being taken to secure the state a maximum share of the $30 billion US vacation travel market.

Balance of the morning session will be devoted to a discussion of the Texas Tourist Development Agency's program and highlights of its accomplishments during its first two years of existence. Speakers will be John R. McCarty, of Dallas, chairman of the TTDA advisory board; Joe Belden, of Dallas, president of Belden Associates, Inc.; and Kern Tips, of Houston, vice president of McCann-Erickson, Inc., and executive for the TTDA advertising account.

Belden will review findings turned up in several research projects he undertook for TTDA into Texas' image as a vacationland. Tips' discussion will treat application of the Belden research to the state's travel advertising program. He will also distribute proofs of spring-summer ads and talk about the value of tie in advertising by other Texas travel advertisers.

The Texas Highway Department's new travelogue, "Texas: Land of Contrast," will be shown during lunch.

Addressing the afternoon session will be Tom H. Taylor, director of the Highway Department's Travel and Information Division; J. Weldon Watson, executive director of the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department; John Ben Shepperd, president of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee; and Don Epperson, executive director of the privately financed Texas Tourist Council.

Each will discuss those aspects of his program related to tourism with emphasis on particular projects of value to the community.

A question and answer period will conclude the conference.

"We realize that most communities do not have budgets that will permit their doing all they might like in developing their tourist industries," Governor Connally said. "But, by utilizing the state's budget to give leverage to theirs, the effectiveness of their efforts can be considerably magnified."

"The state cannot do the job alone. Nor can the community. Together, however, we can build the caliber tourist industry we all want for Texas."

and Rural Areas Development Committees to improve the natural beauty of the countryside through soil and water conservation practices.

Driving for pleasure is the number one outdoor leisure activity of most American families, according to studies by the Outdoor Recreation Resources Review Commission. The nation's roads provide pleasure to millions of Americans. Proper land use and conservation treatment along highways are especially important. Special emphasis will be given to conservation and beautification work along highways and areas such as strip pits, dumps, eroded and other disturbed areas.

Local leaders in urban and rural areas will be encouraged to work in projects that build up community pride and increase the natural beauty of our nation.

Soil Conservation Service To Work On Natural Beauty

Natural beauty of the countryside is recognized as a normal product of soil conservation districts across the land. The Secretary of Agriculture has recognized the significance of rural beautification and has made plans for action.

The United States Soil Conservation Service has been assigned the responsibility of providing technical assistance in improving the natural beauty of the countryside. The assignment was made in a memorandum from Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

This will be another part of the technical assistance rendered through local soil conservation districts, according to T. G. Rockenbaugh, SCS Work Unit Conservationist at Coleman.

The policy of the Department of Agriculture is to give greater emphasis to beautification of the rural landscape. The SCS will give emphasis on improving fish and wildlife areas, recreation areas, landscaping of farmsteads and parks, and other programs relating to natural beauty.

Conservation and beauty are closely related, Rockenbaugh said. Both are important to city as well as rural residents.

The technical assistance will be mostly in the form of consultative service. It will be available to landowners, operators, communities, and state and local governments. The SCS will also work with other Federal agencies

Until It Feels Good

The Community Chest campaign in Precinct 2 will get underway this week. This is an opportunity for each of us to express our gratitude for the blessings that we have received, by giving a little to help others less fortunate.

One of the characteristics of the Americans who conquered the frontier, the pioneers who built our state and our nation, was the fact that they went out of their way to help one another. "Looking out for their own" they called it.

Through this annual Community Chest campaign we can carry on this pioneer tradition. In the complex society in which we live today, the opportunity often does not present itself for us to help in a direct way. The Community Chest program provides the channel through which we can help.

Many Americans today complain because the Federal government seems to be taking more and more responsibility for the welfare of the citizen. But the Federal government can only move in and take over a function when local agencies fail to fill the needs. Thus, if we are opposed to the growing control and influence of the Federal government over the individual lives of the citizens of this country, it is up to each of us to help meet the local needs locally, so that the Federal government will have no excuse for moving in and taking over. It is said that nature abhors a vacuum, and just as air will rush to fill a vacuum, so will governmental agencies rush to fill the void left when local groups and individuals fail to meet the needs of the community in which they are located.

We are a Christian nation, and it is important for us to remember that all through the teachings of Jesus we find admonitions to charity. The parable of the Good Samaritan, for instance, or the statement, "As ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

With the Community Chest we have an opportunity to help many people, through many worthy causes. And we can do it with one gift, not many gifts to many drives.

When the Precinct 2 Community Chest representative contacts you, welcome him, let him tell you about the Community Chest and what it accomplishes, and then do your share to help. Don't "give until it hurts." Rather, "give until it feels good."

Welcome

Former students at Santa Anna High School will be reliving their days of glory this Saturday, at the annual homecoming here.

Homecoming at Santa Anna High School is always a big event, and it speaks well for the happy memories of the school and the town that so many people travel so far to return for one weekend.

The Santa Anna News and all the members of the staff join in welcoming each and every exstudent back for the 1965 homecoming.

Hesterday's News

FIVE YEARS AGO

A daughter was born this week, reports the paper for September 23, 1960, to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McArthur. The assistant football coach at Santa Anna High School had to miss the game against Rising Star to take Mrs. McArthur to the hospital.

Homecoming in Santa Anna is scheduled for October 7 and 8, this year.

TEN YEARS AGO

The Santa Anna Band Booster group plans to hold an organizational meeting Monday, according to Band Director James Malloy.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ralston, of Fort Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gassiot, of Gouldsburg, were weekend guests in the Alfred Cullins home, according to The News for September 30, 1955.

Band officers have been elected at Santa Anna High School, including Diane Williams, president, Carol McClellan, band captain; Jo Beth Cooper, vice president; Janice Donham, secretary-treasurer; and Ann Autrey, reporter.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

B. A. Parker announces an expansion of his farm supply store this week in the paper for September 28, 1945.

F. C. Williams purchased 50 head of Holstein dairy cows this week in Fort Worth.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS

An editorial in The News for September 27, 1940 discusses the appeasement of the aggressive demands being made by Hitler and his cohorts in Europe, predicting that such appeasement will not solve the problem, but will instead make even more inevitable a military confrontation between the forces of totalitarianism and those of democracy. Substitute Viet Nam for Europe, and the editorial would be as applicable today as it was 25 years ago. Things don't change too much.

The Santa Anna FFA Chapter elected officers this week, including Ray Hartman, president; Billie McCormick, vice president; G. T. England, secretary; Elmo Eubank, Jr., treasurer; Gay Arant, reporter; Carrol Holt, parliamentarian; Virgil Stewardson, historian; Floyd Shelton, song leader; and Rex Turney, farm watchdog.

Jimmie Gill, of Whon, was a visitor in Santa Anna Saturday.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

This must be a good week for coaches to add to their family. Santa Anna head coach Ross Prescott is the proud papa of a new son, according to the paper for September 27, 1935.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Neal Biggs announces the opening of Biggs Feed Store, in Santa Anna, in an advertisement in the paper for September 25, 1925.

Mrs. John Hensley returned this week from a trip to Fort Worth.

Your Social Security

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a series for our readers prepared by R. R. Tuley, Jr., District Manager for the Social Security Administration at Abilene, Texas.

The Health Insurance Benefits in the 1965 Amendments, popularly called "Medicare", set to go into effect as Hospital Insurance Benefits and as Medical Insurance Benefits, will become available to almost everyone who will reach age 65 before 1968.

Hospitalization provisions will mean that after the patient pays a $40 "deductible", the rest of his hospital costs during the first 60 days of that spell of sickness will be paid for him if he is in a participating hospital and the bill is based on reasonable costs. For the next 30 days, he must pay or arrange for $10 per day of the costs himself. After 90 days of hospitalization during one spell of sickness, no further such costs are payable for him. However, after at least 60 days of not being hospitalized or in an extended care facility, he is again eligible for such benefits, after again paying the $40 deductible.

Medical provisions will mean that, if he has properly signed up for this and is paying, or having paid for him, the $3 per month charge, 80 percent of charges from a physician for his services at office, home, clinic or hospital can be paid each year, following his payment of the first $50 of such costs.

These two programs go into effect July 1, 1966.

All beneficiaries of Social Security or railroad retirement are automatically insured for the hospitalization and will receive a special mailing of information on both coverages in late September or early October. All others over age 65 should get in touch with a Social Security office (or state welfare office if receiving old age assistance only) soon after September 1.

The medical benefits must be applied for between September 1, 1965 and March 31, 1966, if age 65 is reached before January 1, 1966. As persons reach age 65 in the future, they must apply within three months before or after their 65th birthday. Leaflets giving more details are now available from the Social Security office.

COTTON REPORT

Desiccation (usually called defoliation), is it good or bad? "Either can be true," says B. B. Manly, Jr., in charge of the United States Department of Agriculture, in Abilene.

The Extension Service recommends that 90 percent of the bolls be open before defoliating. This should be especially true in the "low spots" and rank cotton. The last places to fully mature are likely to be in the best cotton.

Defoliation before cotton is mature can be disastrous. It can cause low micrometer, lower grades, poor turnouts at the gin, and low yields. If the crop is mature, proper defoliation can not damage it. An advantage of proper defoliation is the fact that the crop is harvested early with less chance of damage or loss from bad weather. It kills harmful insects and it gives an opportunity to rotate cropland.

Applied properly, defoliants into pasture or feed crops. A can be economical, but improper use can be costly and dangerous. An arsenic solution can kill people, cattle, pets, insects, or about anything that comes in contact with it. Care should be exercised to not allow wind to carry it away. It is absorbed by the plant. It can be dangerous.

Sometimes rain washes the defoliant off the plant before it absorbs enough to die. It pays to watch weather forecasts and weather trends. Then if it rains too soon or some spots are missed, the crop or spots at least should be treated again. All the bolls should be thoroughly dry before the plants are stripped. Green bolls or wet lint do not gin well, and this is evident in the cotton sample, usually resulting in a lower grade of lint.

Crop prospects are good this year. The Abilene Cotton Classing Office, one of 43 under the Consumer and Marketing Service, expects to class 400,000 samples this season, and 400,000 273,000 last season, and 400,000 two years ago. The big increase over last season will come from Coleman, Howard, Martin, Scurry, Mitchell, Tom Green, Runnels, and Fisher Counties. Due to a late planted crop and recent rains, harvesting has been slow. Total classed through September 24 to 3,193 compared to 15,000 a year ago and 24,000 in 1963.

The quality of this crop is better than average. For the classing area, last week eight percent was strict middling white, 33 percent middling white, 12 percent strict middling light spotted, and 41 percent middling light spotted.

Staple lengths were: five percent 29/32 and shorter; 51 percent 15/16; 18 percent 31/32; and the remainder one inch and longer.

Ninety-nine percent of the samples miked above 3.5. Ninety-four percent had a Pressley reading of 80,000 pounds per square inch or higher, and that is good.

The market was inactive. Most white cotton was held or went into Commodity Credit Corporation stocks. A small volume of light spotted sold at even loan value to about 50 points over the CCC loan value.

State Capitol NEWS

Battle lines are forming! In the political arena, that is.

Big gloves already have been laced on the champ votegetter—Governor John Connally. He's in the ring and squared away—ready to battle any challenger. Question now is—will he win by default? It's possible. He has a record few will challenge.

Very likely there will be a free for all in most other races. Texas' second highest state office could be an exception. There Preston Smith holds forth in rather firm command as lieutenant governor.

Popular young Waggoner Carr already has proclaimed his interest in becoming US Senator, and is agilely dancing around the ring readying for the first sign of Democratic opposition to Republican John Tower's post. This may come from Congressman Jim Wright, who is skipping rope to get in shape for something bigger. But so far he hasn't entered any ring.

Secretary of State Crawford Martin has set up his training camp for Carr's to-be vacated post as attorney general of Texas. Most likely he will have Connally's blessing, since he was the Governor's appointee as Secretary.

State Senator Franklin Spears, of San Antonio, is trying to decide whether he wants to take on Martin. Other possible candidates for attorney general are former State Senator Frank Owen, of El Paso; State Senator Galloway Calhoun, of Tyler; and Harris County District Attorney Frank Briscoe.

United States Senator John Tower told reporters in Austin that Texas Republicans will concentrate their statewide efforts on the Senate race in 1966, and will field no active candidate for governor. In reference to his own race and local legislative and Congressional contests, Senator Tower predicted a good year for the GOP.

Announcements this early could mean one of two things: A burned out field by '63—or several battles of the century.

As opponents warm up, only time will tell.

From the Capitol dome and the focal point of all races—Austin—it looks interesting.

Meanwhile, better buy yourself a ticket while still available at the box office...er, poll tax headquarters.

DEATH PENALTY OUT?

Some attorneys contend that the new code of criminal procedure abolishes the death penalty for crimes in Texas.

They believe that absence of procedures for assessing punishment—where the state asks for execution of a criminal—makes it impossible for a death penalty to stand up in appellate court even if assessed by a jury.

A member of the state legislature, State Representative Bob Armstrong, of Austin, is asking Governor Connally to submit proposed revisions in the controversial code to a special session of the legislature. Complains Armstrong: The revision goes too far in requiring accused persons to be warned of their rights against giving statements to the police.

SEEK FEDERAL FUNDS

Twenty five Texas school districts filed early applications for a share of the $81,000,000 provided under a Federal act aimed mainly at helping underprivileged children. Aid will be dispersed at the rate of about $195 a pupil from those from families with incomes of less than $2,000 a year.

First districts applying were Houston, San Antonio, San Angelo, Poteet, Lipan, Fannindale, Paducah, Longview, Dimmit, Del Valle, Crystal City, Taft, Gonzales, Rochester County Line, Dickinson, St. Jo, East Lamar, Cunningham Rural High School, Depert, Laneville, Graham, Jasper, Bandera, Giddings, and Witharrall.

TOURIST CONFERENCE CALLED

Some 500 Texans are expected to attend a tourist development conference in Austin on October 14. Purpose is to insure better cooperation between state and community efforts to promote travel.

Governor Connally will keynote the sessions. Other speakers will include Jon McCarty, chairman of Texas Tourist Development Agency advisory board; pollster Joe Belden; Kern Tips, TTDA advertising account executive; Tom Taylor, State Highway Department travel and information division head; J. Weldon Watson, Parks and Wildlife Department director; John Ben Shepperd, president of Texas State Historical Survey Committee; and Don Epperson, Texas Tourist Council executive director.

Meetings are open to the public, says TTDA director Frank Hildebrand.

EDUCATION LEAP

A major characteristic of the Texas government budget this year is a leap forward in education.

Texas spent 40.8 percent of the state tax dollar on education during the last two years, but it will spend 44.5 percent for the next two year period.

Highway spending will drop from 27.8 percent to 23.5 percent.

Welfare and assistance will rise from 15.6 to 16.6 percent; health and hospitals will decline from 4.9 percent to 4.6 percent. Other state activities are expected to hold even.

Attorney General Carr and the Republicans still are swapping legal broadsides over Congressional redistricting.

Carr, in a new brief filed with the Houston Federal court, urged judges to give lawmakers another chance at reapportionment in 1967 if the 1965 redistricting act is invalidated. He repeated his earlier opinion that the law adopted this year meets the court's specifications, however, since population variance among the 23 districts is less than 15 percent.

SHORT SNORTS

Commissioner William M. King reports 10 applications for permits to sell $4,019,038 in securities in Texas have been filed with the State Securities Board, including one Texas company South Plains Associated Grocers, Inc., of Lubbock.

According to recent Texas Employment Commission figures, placements of handicapped workers stood at 28,615, as compared with 26,008 last year.

Construction index rose 48 percent in August after 17 percent drop in July, reports the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

An Austin group announced initial financial backers of proposed $3,500,000 "Six Flags Over Texas" type project which they hope to launch in the Capitol city in 1967.

Five hundred persons gathered here for the 15th Attorney General's Law Enforcement Conference.

Portrait of the late Sam Ealy Johnson, Jr., father of the President, was placed on temporary display in House of Representatives.

Read Matthew 25:14-23.

Fear none of these things which thou shalt suffer...ye shall have tribulation...: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. (Revelation 2:10)

The church at Smyrna was faithful in spite of her trials and tribulations. Polycarp, probably a disciple of the apostle John, later became bishop of the church in Smyrna. Until his martyrdom, he was the mainstay of Christianity in Asia Minor.

The church was evidently poor in silver and gold but rich in spiritual and eternal values. All these things the Lord took into account.

There are many splendid and magnificent churches all over the world. Some of them are rich in name, some in building and property, and some in money. The question is how rich are they in spiritual things? The silver and gold will some day perish; but the Word of God, the real riches of the church, will go on forever.

Is your church faithful? Is mine faithful? Let us not forget that the crown of life will be given only to those who remain faithful to Christ to the end.

PRAYER

Our Father, we thank You for the blessings You have bestowed upon us. We thank You for those who have remained faithful to the end for Your name's sake. Bless us in Jesus' name. Amen.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bangs Bangs Mountaineers By 42-0 Score Saturday

There were approximately 1,500 persons at the Bangs-Santa Anna game last Saturday night in Bangs, and the Mountaineer players must have felt at times that all 1,500 were playing against them, as they fell before the superior Dragon weight and experience by a score of 42-0.

There was little doubt about which team would win from shortly after the starting whistle. Santa Anna took the Dragon kickoff and was able to move only six yards, with five of those coming on a penalty against Bangs. The Dragons took the fourth down punt on their own 37 yard line, moved into Mountaineer territory with their first play from scrimmage, a double reverse followed by a pass, went to the Santa Anna one yard line on the next play, and scored on their third play from scrimmage. Bangs 6, Santa Anna 0.

The Mountaineers got off one play following the kickoff, a pass by halfback Eddie Jones, that was intercepted and run back to the Santa Anna 26. Three plays got the Dragons a first down on the visitors' six yard line, and they scored on the next play. Bangs 12, Santa Anna 0. The Mountaineers rose up to halt the conversion attempts on both of the first two touchdowns, both of which were two point tries on runs.

Second Quarter

Penalties and pass incomplections stalled the Mountaineer drive on the visitors' 16, and the punt carried to the midfield stripe, with the runback moving the ball back to the 28 yard line in Santa Anna territory. Five plays later, the Dragons scored again on a 19 yard pass from Travis Hallford to halfback Ronnie Horton. The attempt at running over the conversion failed again, and the tally stood at 18 for Bangs, 0 for Santa Anna.

The Mountaineers then made their most sustained drive of the first half, turning a bad break into a good one, as a Dragon defensive man intercepted a Lyndon Wells pass, but was then tackled so hard he fumbled, with Santa Anna recovering. The two teams traded punts, with the half ending with Bangs on its own 30 yard line.

Third Quarter

The Mountaineers got a good break on the first series of downs into the second half, as the Dragon attempt to punt on fourth and eight went awry, with Santa Anna taking over on their hosts' 30 yard line. However, the Bangs defense that foiled Mountaineer scoring hopes all evening, rose up and allowed only five yards in four downs. Taking over on their own 25, the Dragons were anything but draggin', as they used four pass completions in eight plays to move for the touchdown, with Brad Mullen going in from the four yard line. A pass attempt connected for the two point conversion, and Bangs led 26-0.

Santa Anna then mounted its best threat of the game, moving from its own 40, following the kickoff, down to the Bangs one yard line, picking up a pass interference ruling along the way. With first down on the Dragon nine yard line, the Mountaineers moved to the one on a pass from Harvey to Lin Wristen, but the Mountaineers could go no further, and the ball went over to Bangs as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter

Moving from their own one yard line, the Dragons moved 99 yards on the next series of plays, with Brad Mullen again doing he honors, scoring from one yard out. Another pass added two points: Bangs 34, Santa Anna 0.

Starting out following the kickoff, the Mountaineers fumbled, with Bangs recovering on the Santa Anna 19. On third down, however, Mountaineer Roger Beard grabbed off a Dragon pass to return the ball to Santa Anna. With the ball on its own 10 yard line, Santa Anna used four plays to lose one yard, with the ball going over to the Dragons on the Mountaineer nine yard line. It took four plays for the Bangs minions to score, picking up the points on a pass from Hallford to end Louis Thomas. Hallford threw to another end, Mark Anderson, for the conversion. Final score, Bangs 42, Santa Anna 0.

Bangs dominated the statistics as they dominated the scoreboard. First down totals showed 14 for Bangs, four for Santa Anna. The Dragons gained 235 yards on the ground, to 55 for Santa Anna. Bangs completed 11 out of 18 passes, for a total passing yardage of 165, compared with three completions out of 12 tries for 14 yards. Bangs intercepted two Santa Anna aerials, and the Mountaineers swiped one Dragon pass. The same figures apply for fumbles, with Bangs snaring two and Santa Anna one. The Mountaineers punted five times for an average of 32 yards per kick, and Bangs kicked twice, averaging 53 yards. Bangs drew 11 penalties totaling 91 yards, and the Mountaineers were fined 44 yards on eight penalties.

Hoping to have the same luck at their own homecoming as the Bangs footballers did at theirs last week, the Mountaineers will meet the class B Bronte Buffaloes Saturday, October 2, in Mountaineer Stadium. Both teams bring 1-3 season records into the encounter.

Coleman County will be due for brucellosis recertification on March 15, 1966. A minimum of 154 March 15, 1965. A minimum of 154 herds must be tested. This represents a good portion of the cattle producers in Coleman County.

Testing for recertification should be started now so there will be no danger of the County losing its modified certified status. Many factors may delay "last minute" testing, such as calving, weather conditions, field work, and so forth, so testing should be started soon to meet the March deadline, according to Ray Sims, County Agent.

Producers may set up a date with Dr. James B. Henderson, Coleman; Bill Brown, Burkett; or contact the County Agent's office.
