The big flap in Texas this week has concerned the plans for making a state park out of the whole county in which Lyndon lives, or something like that. The state is trying to force the people who live on the other side of the road from the LBJ Ranch to sell their homes and farms to provide parking space. The total acreage is somewhere in the neighborhood of 800 acres, which should make one heck of a big parking lot.

Since the small landowners would sort of prefer not being turned out of house and home, and since Lyndon is the reason the park is planned in the first place, and since Lyndon has more land on his ranch than all of the "across the road" neighbors put together, we suggest that Lyndon donate a couple hundred acres on his side of the road for the park and parking lot and whatever. That would seem to be the fair and logical solution.

Want to bet it doesn't happen?

Of course, Lyndon might be agreeable, but since everything seems to be in her name, he would probably have to get Lady Bird's permission.

—0—

Shades of Davy Crockett and Jim Bowie! Texas is one of the leading states in the country in the number of draftees rejected for physical reasons.

The big activity in Washington these days seems to be dividing the members of the government into "hawks" or "doves" with the hawks being those who favor a tougher line in Viet Nam and the doves being the supporters of a soft line toward the Viet Cong.

We think most politicians will fit into a third bird category. Most of them can be classified as mockingsbirds, copying the line they think will be most popular with voters back home.

We liked Dick Nixon's answer when he was asked if he would classify himself as a hawk or a dove. Neither, Nixon said. He preferred to be compared to an eagle, pointing out that the eagle on our national seal holds arrows in one claw, symbolic of war, and an olive branch in the other, symbolizing peace.

We were sorry to have missed Judge Joe Dibrell when he stopped by the office the other day to comment on the editorial in this paper recently disagreeing with the Abilene paper on the philosophy of rehabilitation versus revenge in our system of justice. Judge Dibrell agrees with the stand we took in our editorial, we were told.

It is nice having someone who could certainly be classified as an expert on the subject agree with our position. We are fortunate to have an enlightened and responsible individual as Judge Dibrell on the bench in this district.

He didn't even accuse us of contempt of court when we published an item in this column about the Judge's boyhood hobby of collecting traffic signs, when it turned out that the hobbyist was not the Judge but his brother.

—0—

Coleman had an election the other day, to decide if the precinct should become officially wet, or stay unofficially damp. As you may have heard, the advocates of aqua pura (that means water, son) carried the day. Now the wet ones are planning to call another vote within a short time, this one to be on the question of on premises consumption in the city of Coleman.

At least the election judges don't have to worry about joining the ranks of the unemployed.

We would like to get such an election hereabouts. Wouldn't care how it went, we'd just like to share in some of that advertising that both the wet ones and the arid ones placed in the Coleman paper prior to the vote over there.

Then, if we didn't like the way the vote came out, we would at least have the money to be able to go somewhere else.

Both sides in the Coleman dispute seemed to operate on the "Don't confuse me with facts, I've already made up my mind" philosophy, to judge from the contents of some of the ads.

We wonder how many Colemanites went to Grosvenor to celebrate their victory following Saturday's election?

Officers Feel That Mobeetie Bank Burglars Good Santa Anna Suspects

Two men, considered possible suspects in the recent burglary of the Santa Anna National Bank, were arrested early Wednesday morning as they allegedly tried to burglarize a bank at Mobeetie, in Wheeler County.

Fire Demonstration Set At High School

Students of Santa Anna schools will have an opportunity to see for themselves how fire can be man's best friend or his worst enemy by observing a graphic fire demonstration to be presented at 1:30 p.m., on Monday, March 21, according to an announcement this week.

The demonstration, in seven parts, will be given under the direction of Joe Smetana, Safety Director of the Texas Farm Bureau.

A variety of demonstration equipment will be placed on long tables to illustrate seven basic points: (1) What fire is; (2) How to control fires; (3) The fact that nothing is fireproof; (4) Kitchen fires and their control; (5) Fuel vapors; (6) The power of petroleum products; and (7) Household wiring and overloaded electrical circuits.

Smetana will point out that fire is like a three legged stool—it cannot work with one of the legs missing. The "legs" a fire depends on are fuel, heat, and air. Yet, in American homes, these three come together in deadly and destructive combination every 57 seconds—an average of 1,500 home fires every day, according to Smetana.

"That's eight times the number of fires in factories and stores. Worse yet, four out of five of all fire deaths occur in homes, and for every death there are about 100 serious injuries," the Texas Farm Bureau Safety Director explained.

As part of a program for fire prevention, the Texas Farm Bureau Safety Department is presenting this demonstration before the schools of the state. The program is being brought to Santa Anna under the sponsorship of the Coleman County Farm Bureau. The public is invited to attend.

and theft of a motor vehicle were Clifford Henry Bowen, 34, and Benny R. Cowdry, 30, both from the Abilene area. They are being held under $10,000 bond each.

The men were arrested by Wheeler County Sheriff Bus Dorman, after a nightwatchman saw them in the bank, about 1:30 a.m. Wednesday morning.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents from Amarillo questioned the two men about a number of unsolved bank robberies in the West Texas area. In addition to the Santa Anna burglary, agents quizzed the pair about bank robberies in Moran, Paint Rock, Strawn, and Wingate.

The two accused bank burglars waived a preliminary hearing Wednesday morning, and refused to make a statement.

Sheriff Dorman reported that as many as three other men are thought to have taken part in the Mobeetie burglary attempt, apparently including the driver of a get away car, who fled when officers approached the bank, leaving Bowen and Cowdry on foot. They are charged with stealing a pickup truck belonging to a local rancher in their try to escape from law officers, but they were arrested about seven miles east of Mobeetie.

Bowen and Cowdry have a record of arrests in the Abilene area. In an early arrest, about two years ago, they gained notoriety by spitting at newsmen and slugging a television cameraman while under arrest.

The Santa Anna National Bank was burglarized Saturday night or early Sunday morning, February 5 and 6. Approximately $3,250 was taken by the bandits, who entered through an upstairs window, attempting to enter the vault by breaking a hole through the floor above, and finally got to the money by drilling through a wall.

Wheeler County is in the Texas Panhandle.

Name Order On Local Ballots Set; Absentee Voting Starts This Week

Drawings were held this week to determine the position on the ballots of candidates in the local school board and city council elections, both coming up early next month.

In the election to select two members of the Board of Trustees of the Santa Anna Independent School District, which will be held on Saturday, April 2, Mrs. Allyn Gill will be listed first on the ballot, followed by Jesse Williams and Floyd Gilbreath. There are no incumbents in the race.

Absentee voting in the school board contest opened on Monday, March 14.

In the election to pick three aldermen to sit on the City Council, three incumbents have drawn opposition from three challengers. The candidates will be listed on the ballot in the following order: O. A. Etheridge, Calvin F. Campbell, James Ford, Ben W. Yarborough, Kenneth M. Bowker, Jr., and Luther McCrary. Etheridge, Campbell, and Yarborough are the present officeholders.

Absentee voting begins in the City Council contest on Thursday, March 17. In both the city and the school district elections, absentee voting closes five days prior to the date of the election.

Absentee ballots in both elections may be obtained from, and returned to, the Santa Anna City Hall.

High School Honor Roll Shows 19 For Six Weeks

Nineteen students at Santa Anna High School got their names on the honor roll for the fourth six weeks, announced this week.

The senior class led the brain brigade, with 10 representatives on the honor list. Juniors were in second place, with four, followed by the freshmen, with three, and trailed by the sophomores, with two.

Freshmen on the honor roll for the six weeks just completed include Leta Pollock, Donna Strickland, and Eddie Paul Voss.

From the sophomores, Karen Dean and Carolyn Rowe made the honor roll.

Representing the junior class were Sonja Neff, Marguerite Horner, Leanna Pollock, and Jean Robinett.

Seniors on the special list include Warren Wallace, Lynda Brannon, Larry Avants, Anita Ellis, Ronnie McCarrell, Eugene Davenport, Sharon Mays, Stanley McSwane, Gary Rider, and Mary Haynes.

No Bidders For Local Armory

Contrary to reports published in area daily newspapers, the City of Santa Anna did not bid on a lease of the Santa Anna National Guard Armory. In fact, no bid at all has been made on the Armory, which has been put up for lease as a result of the deactivation of the Santa Anna National Guard unit, and its combination with the Coleman Guard unit, into a countywide organization.

According to Charles Caston, of the Texas State National Guard Armory Board, now that the legal requirements of advertising the Armory for bid has been met, without results, the Armory Board may now enter into a negotiated lease arrangement for rental of the building.

Caston pointed out that the local Armory is under mortgage by means of construction bonds, and any lease arrangement will have to provide enough revenue to meet the payments, or nearly so, on the bonds.

Caston expressed surprise that the building has not been leased for wool storage purposes. He said that several other armories in the sheep grazing regions have been leased for this use.

Home Demonstration Council Has Meeting

The Live-at-Home Club was hostess for the regular monthly meeting of the Coleman County Home Demonstration Council at the Hospitality Room, Thursday, March 10, with Mrs. Ivan Hill, chairman, presiding. The 10 clubs of Coleman County were all represented.

Mrs. Sanford Tune, Live-at-Home Club president, gave the thought for the day, and Mrs. Clyde Larrance directed the recitation.

Mrs. Fay Faries, secretary of the Coleman Extension Office, was presented a gift of appreciation. Mrs. Floyd Thompson was elected to attend a meeting sponsored by West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in San Angelo, Friday, March 18.

At the conclusion of the meeting, delegates were elected to attend the district meeting at Abilene, Wednesday, May 3. They are Mrs. A. S. Tisdale, Mrs. Ivan Hill, and Mrs. Clyde Larrance, alternates are Mrs. L. E. Jameson, Mrs. Fred Goss, and Mrs. George Cobb.

Due to conflicting meetings, the April Council meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 13.

As of Wednesday, March 16, 463 Coleman County citizens had registered to vote under the emergency registration program set up by the Texas Legislature as the result of a Federal court action eliminating the payment of poll tax as a requirement for voting in all elections.

Coleman County Tax Assessor-Collector John Skelton was in Santa Anna on Tuesday, March 15 to register potential voters, and added 31 to the list during that time. In addition, more Santa Anna and area residents have registered at the office of the Coleman County Tax Assessor-Collector, in Coleman, and others have mailed applications.

The 463 registered so far exceeds the 400 estimate made by Skelton at the beginning of the registration period. "And there will be more before we are through," Skelton said Wednesday.

Congressman Gives Art Book To School

Congressman Omar Burleson announced today that he is presenting to the Santa Anna High School library a copy of the beautifully bound volume, "Compilation of Works of Art and Other Objects in the United States Capitol."

It contains illustrations and descriptions of the accumulation of the works of art in the United States Capitol. More than 400 illustrations, executed with great skill and craftsmanship, make this volume a potential treasure for art lovers and historians alike.

The work was prepared by the Architect of the Capitol under the direction of Congressman Burleson, as Chairman of the Joint Committee on the Library of Congress and also Chairman of the House Administration Committee. In presenting the compilation, Burleson said, "This volume catalogs the works of art reposing in our best loved national shrine, the United States Capitol, and adds both luster and dimension to the rich heritage of America."

Copies of the impressive volume are available for public sale from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402, at $4.50 per copy.

Mrs. Frank Alexander, of Valera, visited her sister, the George Simmons.

Some members of the Santa Anna High School Mountaineer Band competed this past Saturday in Brownwood, in the State Interscholastic League Solo and Ensemble Contest. This is an annual event drawing many students from the area served by the Hospitality Room, Thursday, March 10, with Mrs. Ivan Hill, chairman, presiding. The 10 clubs of Coleman County were all represented.

Ensemble: Vicki Neff, Ann Martin, Pascal Hosh, and Jerry Horner, division 2, four brass. Class II soloists and ratings: Gary Williams, division 1, baritone solo; Carolyn Rowe, division 2, oboe solo; Dortha Carpenter, Geneva Pittard, Nolan Perry, and Larry Williams, division 3, sax quartet; Jean Robinett, Norma Eubank, Neta McClure, and Nancy Baugh, division 1, clarinet quartet.

The guest speaker for the evening was Homer H. Lockridge, speaking on the topic, "Morals and Manners Matter." The entire student body was invited to attend this meeting. There were approximately 40 persons in attendance.

Refreshments were served in the hall following the program. Chairman was Leanna Pollock, with Mary Jo Quinn, Leta Pollock, and Jean Robinett as cohostesses.

probably added to the number of registrations.

Final day for registering to vote is Thursday, March 17. All persons who would normally be able to vote—those with valid poll tax receipts, those entitled to exemptions, and those who registered without charge to vote in Federal elections—need not reregister. Skelton said his office will stay open as long as required Thursday to fill the demand.

Medicare Forms At Post Office Now

Postmaster John C. Gregg, of Santa Anna announced today that application blanks for supplemental Medicare benefits are available at all three windows of applications are also available at the Rockwood and Whon Post Offices.

The application blanks are being made available as the Social Security Administration seeks to contact 3.1 million senior citizens before a March 31 deadline imposed by the Medicare law.

President Johnson has proclaimed March as "National Medicare Enrollment Month." He urged all Federal agencies and all citizens to cooperate in enrolling senior citizens in the program.

Initially, some two and one-half million application blanks were distributed to nearly 34,000 main post offices throughout the 50 states. Additional forms are available as needed.

Through direct mailings and other means, the Social Security Administration has had contact with 16 million of the 19.1 million citizens who will be 65 or over on July 1. Of the 16 million who replied, less than one million said they did not want to sign up for the supplemental program.

The supplemental program costs $3.00 a month and provides doctor bill and other benefits. The state will pay the $3.00 for all persons on old age assistance payments. Everyone 65 and over is eligible for the basic hospital benefits under Medicare.

A copy of the application blank is displayed on the lobby bulletin board of the Santa Anna Post Office.

Senior citizens who reached 65 before 1966 face a two year delay if they do not sign up by March 31. The application forms are preaddressed to the Social Security Administration in Baltimore, Maryland.

Beyond the Blossoms

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When the buds burst into fragile flower, and their breath is everywhere, and a warming breeze caresses the cold, damp earth . . . this is more than Spring. This is the time of Promise.

For these same festive branches shall lift a precious burden of fruit when the red-gold mantle of harvest falls across the land.

When human souls awaken to the reveille of faith, and hymns and prayers fill the arches of heaven, and the warmth of an ageless hope reaches from heart to heart . . . this is more than Lent.

For the faith which blossoms today will bear its own precious fruit. Love! Joy! Peace! The harvest of souls like yours and mine is beginning anew to grow.

THE BIG INCH

The ruled box above is a one-inch ad. It measures one column wide by one inch deep. It costs advertisers 45 cents.

It looks kind of lonesome by itself.

But look at it this way:

What you get when you buy a one inch ad in The Santa Anna News is not just a single space in the paper, but one inch multiplied by more than 1,000 copies each week. And by more than 4,000 readers each week.

So you are really buying 1,000 inches, which (at 120 column inches per page) would be some eight and one-third pages of printed newsprint.

That is a mighty big chunk of space to cost 45 cents. Just imagine trying to reach all those Santa Anna News readers by postcard. It would amount to more than $160 just for the postage. But The News does it for just 45 cents.

So you can see that a little one inch ad is a big inch when it is advertising space in The Santa Anna News. And two inches will tell your story twice as well as one, and four will get your message across four times as well, and so on. It is the most effective and economical way possible to let people in this area know that you have wares and services they could use.

Call FI8-3545 and let our advertising representative show you how our big inches of advertising space can be a big salesman for you.

Amon Johnston Named To Lead County Easter Seal Campaign This Year

Amon Johnston, of Coleman, will serve as Easter Seal Representative and Treasurer for the 1966 annual Easter Appeal in Coleman County, it was announced by Robert W. Milam, MD, state campaign chairman for the Texas Society for Crippled Children and Adults, the State Easter Seal Society.

Residents of Coleman County will receive the annual appeal and familiar Easter Seals in their mail beginning March 1. The appeal, conducted yearly to provide disabled persons and their families treatment or assistance adapted to specific community needs or resources, will be concluded on Easter Sunday, April 10.

Johnston is one of 143 prominent professional men throughout Texas who are serving in this capacity. The cost of the statewide program is over $1,000,000 financed mainly by the annual Easter Seal mail appeal. Almost 90 percent of all funds raised by the appeal remain in Texas to support the growing needs of the disabled in the state.

Special emphasis is being given in the 1966 Easter Seal appeal to the disabled citizen or his family in Coleman County who may need assistance and not know where to obtain it. Any disabled citizen can contact Johnston at the First Coleman National Bank, in Coleman, who will notify the state Easter Seal office.

There, every effort will be made to determine the extent and type of assistance needed and the most effective means of obtaining that assistance.

Dr. Milam says that funds received as a result of the annual Easter Seal appeal now aid more than 14,000 disabled Texans annually, but there are many more not currently being aided. These disabled citizens, and especially those in Coleman County who contact Johnston, can now be guided to the proper source of assistance. They or their families are urged to contact Johnston or the Texas Society for Crippled Children and Adults in Dallas, regardless of age, race, cause of disability, or financial status.

EDITORIAL

We Can Do It Here

Santa Anna is facing an election to fill three seats on the City Council. Anyone who is familiar with the political situation in the Mountain City knows that the race for these three seats is going to be hotly contested.

Almost weekly, we read about some struggling democracy in Africa or South America, in which some of the people cannot abide by the democratic process, and so use military power to impose their own will, and another try at democracy goes down the drain.

So let's study the facts, let us all campaign hard if we feel we should, but let's all remember we are all fellow citizens of the same small community, that we must all live with one another, and let's be mature in our opinions and actions.

Yesterday's News

FIVE YEARS AGO

Garb Hardware Store, a new business in Santa Anna, will open next week, according to the paper for March 17, 1961.

The Ballinger boys pleaded guilty in county court to stealing handbags from the car of Mrs. Earl Murray, in Santa Anna.

The engagement of Evelyn Kain, Poldack, of Santa Anna, and Nicky Poldack, of Coleman, was announced this week.

TEN YEARS AGO

Santa Anna should have been well revived this week in 1956, as revival services are underway at three local churches—First Baptist Church, First Methodist Church, and Northside Church of Christ, according to The News for March 16, 1956.

An item in the Nivok News, in this week's paper, says: "It is trying to rain. Here's hoping it will rain before it clears up," but's hope so. It is hard for it to rain after it clears up.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

J. M. House, of Santa Anna, was injured during a fishing trip when a rifle he was handling discharged, the bullet entering his body, reports the paper for March 16, 1946.

Mrs. and Mrs. Walter Newman were in Nivok last Friday.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. C. Biberidge are moving to their new home in the west part of town this week.

Eight candidates are running for the county commissioner job in precinct number 2. In addition to incumbent Carl E. Ashmore, candidates include J. W. Fulton, Henry W. Simmons, J. E. Martin, Dillard Ellis, Cabrin Shields, I. E. Glenn, and T. Homer Gooding.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

An item in the paper for March 14, 1941 says that teachers in Coleman County schools are cooperating in a red painting program. Doesn't say how many students were lost during this program. Oscar Cheney is the chief red killer in Santa Anna.

Willard L. Gobert, of Santa Anna, enlisted in the Army this week.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

A marker will be placed in Coleman County in the near future, giving information about Robert M. Coleman, for whom the county was named. Coleman, a signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence, was one of Sam Houston's chief assistants at the Battle of San Jacinto.

Among the stars in movies at the Queen Theatre this week are Jean Harlow, W. C. Fields, Richard Arden, and Ronald Colman, according to the advertisement in the paper for March 13, 1936.

FOURTY FIVE YEARS AGO

J. S. Gilmore resigned this week as county commissioner for precinct number 2, and W. T. Winslow was appointed to fill the vacancy. Gilmore resigned to become a cattle inspector, reports The News for March 13, 1921.

Phillips Drug Store advertises Columbia Gramophones, whatever that is. Sounds like it might be catching.

LETTERS

Editor:

Several months ago, I decided to write my first 'Letter to The Editor.' One question remained unanswered; which editor? Soon, you were unanimously selected to be the victim. Today I am composing my second. Once again, you are the winning recipient.

In the first letter I expressed appreciation for the improvements, additions, and so forth you had made to the paper. This letter too, brings my appreciation, especially for the addition of the letter writing contest. Regrettably, the first letter was not all praise in that I took exception with you on a previous editorial. Likewise, I again am compelled to voice disagreement on a recent editorial.

I cannot, in my widest imagination, conceive any reason to move over Senator Joseph McCarthy to make room on the stage for the Fullbright and Morse characters. The three Senators shared the same stage (the US Senate) but their acts were diametric.

As a result of the McCarthy investigations of communist subversion in the USA, scores of security risks were exposed. Countless others took the Fifth Amendment lest they perjure themselves. Murder, torture, and inhuman treatment of our soldiers in Korea was revealed by a McCarthy investigative agency. On and on goes the list according to the book, "Communist America, Must It Be?"

Senator McCarthy was an American doing an American job, yet he was smeared by the American press. Americans were literally brainwashed into believing that McCarthyism (a word coined by the Communist Party, USA) was as dangerous as fascism, Nazism, Communism, socialism, and so forth. I can not for an instant condone any of these "isms"; they should all be "wasms". But to put an "ism" on the patriotic endeavors of Senator McCarthy, is, I think unforgivable.

You said if each editorial drew just one letter, it would be considered an overwhelming success. I should hope that Move Over Senator McCarthy surpasses even the overwhelmingly successful stage as I hope you are flooded with letters defending the late Joe McCarthy.

Yes, we can do without the cluttering of the stage by the characters from Arkansas, but we need more patriots like Senator Joseph McCarthy.

Sincerely, Jasper W. McClellan Staff-Sergeant USAF Washington, DC

FS: Incidentally, I did not receive promotion after publication of my letter as did Lieutenant England. Perhaps the power of the press is not what it once was!!!

EDITOR'S NOTE: As a former Marine, the Editor can guarantee promotions only for Marines who have letters published. Perhaps Staff Sergeant McClellan could transfer over.

Editor:

In order to evaluate a town, one must, first, analyze how completely it functions as a community and the various services it offers to its citizens. To start my evaluation, I want to tell you of the services available to Santa Annans and the surrounding area.

Mail leaves Santa Anna twice daily and arrives twice daily by truck. Through the use of letters or postal cards, we can talk to the President, our congressmen and representatives, obtain free information from all over the world, visit distant relatives and friends, transact banking and business, and buy merchandise from city, state, national and international stores. We can go to school by mail or receive all the current news, literature, and recorded music. The new Zip Code, causing faster mail service, will quickly bring the world to our mailbox.

The monthly telephone fee of $4.11 permits local calls to talk to business houses, friends and relatives situated in Coleman county all the way from the north at Burket, south to Whom, Shield, Rockwood, and Uthman, southwest to Gouldsht, Nowell, Vavra, Voss, and Leasing, and northwest to Bowen and Glen Cove. An infinity of luck of a car no longer separates us from our loved ones. Business houses welcome calls about merchandise, prices, and availability. The telegraph service, doctors, dentists, ambulances, fire engines, the police, and rescue teams are at the other end of our telephone cable.

Mrs. Bob Pearce Santa Anna

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mrs. Pearce has written an excellent analysis of Santa Anna and the surrounding area. In order to present it all, we have asked her to put it in the form of a series of letters. This is the first of the series. Watch for subsequent letters in following issues of this newspaper.

MARK SHEFFIELD Mrs. R. W. Matthews Ann Martin, Tristram

Would you like for your name to be published on your birthday? Or do you know someone with an upcoming birthday? If so, please be sure to let us know about it. Next week, we will publish the names of those having birthdays between March 25 and March 31.

State Capitol NEWS

Texas school districts are receiving speedup orders on desegregation.

Integration of faculties, as well as student bodies, is the aim of Federal authorities in laying down new guidelines for compliance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Both the Texas Education Agency and the State Board of Education received the policy statements and promptly scheduled meetings over the state to post local school administrators as to the requirements.

Primarily concerned are 600 districts that submitted voluntary desegregation plans to the United States Office of Education for the 1965-1966 school year, to assure that they remained for Federal aid.

Districts already fully integrated, those whose assurances of compliance have been accepted and those operating under court desegregation orders are not immediately affected by the revised policies.

United States Commissioner of Education Harold Howe II estimates that revisions will result in doubling integration in 11 southern states.

Guidelines provide that "race, color or national origin may not be a factor in hiring or assignment of teachers and other professional staff." State Education Agency officials said evidence of compliance with this requirement is expected to be shown by next September.

Districts which have submitted desegregation plans, including those with geographical school attendance zones, must file by April 15 a form agreeing to observe the new guidelines. Office of Education will review spring reports and schools judged to have shown no reasonable progress will be ordered to take further steps before fall.

School systems also must eliminate segregation in such programs as transportation, athletics, extracurricular activities.

Where faculty members are displaced as a result of desegregation, staff vacancies later occurring must be filled by those ousted teachers if they qualify.

In other action, the State Board of Education directed local school districts to raise their contributions to the foundation school program by $6,100,000 next year. Local fund assignment for 1966-1967 is $132,000,000, compared with $132,500,000 for 1965-1966. Total cost of minimum foundation education program for the state this year is estimated officially at $649,328,890. Legislature set local school districts' contribution for 1966-1967 and thereafter at 20 percent of the total cost of the preceding year's program. State puts up the other 80 percent.

The Board also approved investment of about $7,000,000 from the State Permanent School Fund. Some $3,000,000 will be placed in common stocks, another $3,000,000 in corporate bonds and an estimated $1,000,000 in short-term Treasury bills.

Investment money will come from maturing Treasury bills, bonds, and the regular monthly deposit from school land, oil, and gas leases, says Paul Mathews, chairman of the investment committee.

BONDS SOLD

Texas Water Development Board has sold $25,000,000 worth of development bonds to the First National City Bank of New York City and associates, the low bidder.

Effective interest rate was 3.5 percent of the 25 year issue.

First National City Bank was one of five bidders for the bonds. This brings to $25,000,000 the amount sold by the Board from an authorized total of $200,000,000. Another $200,000,000 authorization in water development bonds will be voted upon by Texans in November.

Bond money has been used to finance reservoir projects by the purchase of water storage space, and in the purchase of outstanding development bonds of Texas cities and water districts.

VERNON CENTER LAUNDED

A model demonstration center for aged, to be located at Vernon, "will be finest of its kind in the nation," says Governor Connally.

According to the Governor, the center will include facilities for all phases of geriatric care. It will provide cottage-type units for ambulatory patients and a pre-admission unit to screen elderly persons considered for admission.

The center will place patients in community rest homes, nursing homes, and convalescent centers, in which they would receive proper care.

SADLER SPEAKS

Texas Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, in testimony before a Congressional committee, in Washington, urged the creation of Guadalupe Mountain National Park in Culberson and Hudspeth Counties.

However, he stated that while he is interested in the creation of the 71,650 acre park, he also is interested in the 45,171 acres of oil and gas rights which the state school fund owns in the proposed park.

According to Sadler, the mineral rights should be retained by the state for the benefit of the 3,000,000 school children aided by the Public Free School Fund, which is financed from mineral rights.

Sadler said the state and Federal government should work together as partners in the project. This would mean that Texas and the Federal government each would get half the benefits of the mineral deposits in the area.

APPOINTMENTS

Governor John Connally named John L. Hill as Secretary of State. He replaces Crawford G. Martin, of Hillsboro, who resigned last week to devote full time to his campaign for attorney general.

Hill is an outstandingly successful Houston civil trial attorney. He has tried cases in district courts in most areas of Texas during the past 19 years. His term will run until next January.

Connally named L. D. (Red) Webster and reappointed Al Badger, both of Dallas, to the Texas Commission on Alcoholism.

SHORT SNORTS

South Texas crops will be tested for pesticide residue during the next three to six months as the Texas Department of Agriculture moves its new mobile laboratory to Pharr.

Governor Connally announced approval of Community Action Programs in Beaumont ($21,364), Big Spring ($33,161), Houston ($33,955), Laredo ($60,550), San Antonio ($104,795), San Saba ($11,489), and Yorktown ($30,063).

Regional office of the Economic Opportunity grant Laredo will get a $2,000,000 grant as a demonstration city in the war on poverty.

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Read John 10:24-28

"Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow which was brought upon me." (Lamentations 1:22, RSV)

It is recorded in the Gospels that the Lord often visited the garden of Gethsemane with His disciples. But how different His last visit was from the others! What happened in that hour is a dark mystery. We think of it only with fear and trembling.

His disciples did not understand it. Even the most faithful fell asleep because of weariness and sorrow. Mark reported that Jesus "began to be greatly distressed and troubled." Luke wrote about the Lord's agony, how "his sweat became like great drops of blood." Body and soul, Jesus was burdened with the sins of mankind. He struggled with death, man's last enemy, and needed God's strength to be able to finish the immense task of our redemption.

Let us remember that it was because of us, that the Lord of glory suffered. Offering our lives to Him in gratitude can be our only response.

PRAYER

Lord Jesus we worship You for our sinner's sake. Accept our hearts and lives as our meager gratitude for Your sufferings. Give us, grace to be wholly Yours in life and death, and to pray, as You have taught us, "Our Father which art in Heaven... Amen"

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: By the wounds of Jesus Christ, the man of sorrows, we are healed.

120 Yard High Hurdles: Dana Evans, sixth.

1 Mile Run: Larry Williams, fifth.

440 Yard Relay: Santa Anna, third (Tommy Blanton, Tom Horton, Dana Evans, Butch Makuta).

Meets Scheduled
Friday, March 18, Santa Anna will host a girls track meet, with approximately 20 schools participating, including several class AA and class A high schools. Preliminaries will get underway at 2:00 p.m., in Mountaineer Stadium, with the finals slated to begin at 7:00 p.m.

The following day, Saturday, March 19, the boys squad will travel to Lometa to participate in a meet there.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

A motorist, hurt in a collision with a freight train, sued the railroad for damages. But in court, the railroad retorted that the motorist himself was guilty of negligence.

"He crossed those tracks twice a day for months," noted the railroad. "Yet he admits he failed to look out for a train."

"On this particular occasion," explained the motorist, "I just happened to forget about the tracks. But that isn't negligence. Everyone has a lapse of memory once in a while."

However, the court ruled that his excuse was no excuse at all and that he was indeed guilty of negligence.

If you should ever seek damages for an injury, your own conduct is likely to come under careful scrutiny. Were you partly to blame for the accident? If you knew that danger lay ahead, is it an excuse to say "I forgot about it"?

The general rule is: no. On the contrary, forgetfulness itself is one of the commonest forms of negligence. Said one court:

"Though we may regard with amused tolerance the proverbial abstractions of middle age hunting for the thimble on its finger, and of old age troubled that it cannot find the glasses on its nose, absentmindedness is not a satisfactory standard of care in the modern world."

Nevertheless, the law does not expect you to have instant and total recall of everything you have ever known. Mitigating circumstances may make your forgetfulness forgivable.

One such circumstance is the mere passage of time. Thus:

A schoolteacher who stumbled in a hallway won damages from the school board, even though she had known the floor was defective. Because the defect was hard to see, and because three weeks had gone by since she noticed it, the court decided she bore no blame for the accident.

Another possible excuse for forgetting is that something suddenly and forcefully diverted your attention.

In one case an elderly woman, walking home alongside a lonely road, heard men's voices in the darkness ahead. Terrified, she crossed the road—momentarily forgetting, in her panic, that there was a sharp dip on that side.

She fell, suffered assorted injuries, and sued the county. And the court, in upholding her claim, found no negligence in her impulsive action.

"There is a clear distinction," a judge commented, "between forgetfulness which is one phase of negligence, and a sudden arising of conditions which throw one off his guard." A public feature of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas. Written by Will Bernard.

If the first part of your vehicle identification number is here, you might be a winner.

Here's how it works. Look at the first symbols (the prefix) on your vehicle identification slip. Then look at the symbols listed above. If you find yours on the list, you've taken the first step toward being a winner. Now go see your Buick dealer. He has a list of 72 winners posted in his showroom. If you see your entire vehicle identification number on the poster—the symbols plus the rest of the numbers—$2332 cash is yours. (If your prefix isn't listed in this ad, don't give up. Your numbers may have been posted during the past few weeks. And every week there are 72 new winners posted on the showroom wall. So watch for next week's list of new symbols in this newspaper.) No slogan to invent, no puzzles to solve. In fact, you don't even have to own a Buick to have a winning number. While you're in the showroom, get a good look at the Buick Special. The $2332.00* happens to be its price. *Manufacturer's suggested retail price for Special V-6, 2-dr. coupe. Price includes Federal Excise Tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge.

Contest Rules. Residents of Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska may, if they prefer, send in a postcard to R. L. Polk and Co., P.O. Box 1347, Detroit, Michigan 48231 and receive the weekly list of winning numbers by mail for comparison with their own vehicle identification number. An official entry form will be included. Sweepstakes limited to persons over 21 living in the continental U.S. Not valid in Florida or states where prohibited by law.
