Carbon Bests Olden Thursday

The Carbon Wolverines dominated the first half of a six-man football game with the Olden Hornets in Carbon Thursday night — racking up a big, big lead, and setting the visitors back the second half.

In the first quarter, a 25-yard pass from Allison to Bryant netted the first score, with Allison adding more in a conversion kick.

In the second quarter, more scoring came on a 45-yard run by Hughes, with Allison again kicking. Hughes put together another 30-yard run for more paydirt, and repeated with a 25-yarder, followed by a pass from Allison to Casey.

Coach Elmore's Hornets put together 20 points in the second half, but the District-leading Wolverines had already sailed away the win.

The Wolverines now stand two conference wins and no losses. Their season standing under the coaching of Larry Allen is now six wins and one loss.

They play Moran there tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Browning of Donna visited her brother, Joe Barton, and wife this week.

Nov. 8 Election Ballot Is King-Sized Whopper

"Horse-blanket size" is the ballot for the Tuesday, Nov. 8 general election.

The official ballot measures 15 inches by 20 inches. The left side pertains to state, district, county, and in some instances, precinct races. The right side is devoted to the 16 proposed constitutional amendments.

Only contested race expected to cause much observation is that of United States Senator, which pits Democrat, former Attorney General Waggoner Carr and Republican Incumbent Sen. John Tower.

There are Democratic nominees from governor through county school superintendent, and in some precincts in Eastland County, county commissioners and justices of the peace.

Republican nominees are from governor down through state treasurer; and the Constitution Party lists nominees down through railroad commissioner. The Conservative party has only one candidate — for governor. (The Constitution Party is running one "Jesse Lee James" against Democratic Incumbent Jesse James for state treasurer.)

Wells Dalton's name will appear, unopposed, on the Eastland and Olden ballot for Justice of the Peace, as will M. D. Underwood's on the Ranger ballot.

Gorman, Carbon, Kokomo and Desdemona ballots will list Dick Foster as a candidate for County Commissioner from that precinct; and the Cisco - Scranton ballots will carry C. B. Dill's name as from that precinct. Mr. W. L. Lewis' name will also be on the Cisco - Scranton ballots, for JP.

Unopposed Democratic nominees on the district and county level are: Omar Burleson, congressman 17th district; Cecil C. Collings, associate justice, court of civil appeals; Frank Sparks, district judge, 91st district court; Tom Creighton, state senator, 22nd district; Burke Musgrove state representative 63rd district; Scott Bailey, county judge; John S. Smith, county clerk; Ellen Justice, county treasurer; Roy L. Lane, district clerk; and O. L. Stamey, county school superintendent.

Write in space is provided for each office in which there are listed nominees.

David Harbin, Long of County, Buried Friday

Funeral services for David Herschel Harbin, 84, were held Friday in the Arrington Hamner Funeral Home Chapel, with Rev. Bud May officiating. Masonic graveside rites were held. Masons served as pallbearers.

Mr. Harbin died in Ranger General Hospital, October 20. He was born February 26, 1882 in Georgia, and had lived at Route 1, Eastland for 82 years. He was a retired farmer, a member of the Masonic Lodge and Past Master of the lodge.

He was a member of Mangum Baptist Church. He married Etta Williams in June of 1915 in Eastland.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Elzo W. of Odessa and L. A. (Jeff) Harbin of Eastland; one daughter, Mrs. I. R. Nolen of Kermit; one brother, Wiley Harbin of Eastland; nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Baucum Is 2nd High FB Agent

Eastland County Farm Bureau Agent Gayle Baucum was the second highest agent in the state for September insurance volume, it was announced Monday in Austin where all FB agents were gathered.

The amount of business written by Baucum during the month set an all-time high record for this area, it was reported. An Anson native, he came to Eastland County early this year, and lives with his family near Cisco.

Remember when we used to get a premium with everything we bought—and another when we paid the bill? Nowadays the only premiums we hear about are the insurance kind.

County Joins West Texas Council of Governments

The Eastland County Commissioners Court voted unanimously Monday to join the West Central Texas Council of Governments and to pay $587.61 first annual dues for the county's membership.

The order noting the action follows:

"On this the 10th day of October, 1966, the Commissioners' Court of Eastland County, Texas, convened in regular session with all members present. Among other proceedings, the following order was passed:

"Whereas, there has been submitted for approval Articles of Agreement and By-laws creating a Regional Planning Commission called the West Central Texas Council of Governments; and

"Whereas, it is the opinion of the Commissioners' Court of Eastland County, Texas, that it is in the best interests of the County of Eastland to join such Regional Planning Commission in order to share in the benefits to be afforded thereby and to support the functions of such Planning Commission; it is therefore,

"Ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Commissioners' Court of Eastland County, Texas:

"Section 1: That the County of Eastland does hereby join and become a part of the West Central Texas Council of Governments.

"Section 2: That the Articles of Agreement and By-laws of the West Central Texas Council of Governments be and are hereby in all things approved and adopted.

"Section 3: That pursuant to Article VIII (A) of the By-laws of the West Central Texas Council of Governments there is hereby appropriated the sum of $587.61 to pay the first annual dues for the membership of the County of Eastland in such Regional Planning Commission.

"Section 4: That Scott Bailey, county judge, be and is hereby authorized to sign the Articles of Agreement of the West Central Texas Council of Governments for and on behalf of the County of Eastland.

"Section 5: That this Resolu-

Cattle Price Is Due to be Good For Coming Year

COLLEGE STATION, — Texas cattle prices will remain favorable for the remainder of 1966 and into 1967, especially for the efficient producer, a Texas A&M University agricultural economist predicted today.

John G. McHaney, Extension economist, said continued strength in the general economy would insure an increasing price trend for beef cattle beginning very late in 1966. All of 1967, he added, should be favorable if our economy continues to grow and range conditions remain good.

McHaney said feed lot operators at the present were more reluctant than usual to bid up feeder cattle prices. Their feed costs are rising and will be higher in the months ahead than in the first half of 1966 and fed cattle prices have declined to tion shall take effect immediately from and after its adoption by the Commissioners' Court of Eastland County.

"The above order was read and approved by a unanimous vote."

The order was signed by Judge Bailey and Commissioners Danny Woods, Glenn Justice, L. J. Collins and C. B. Dill. County Clerk Johnson Smith attested the order.

narrow their margins, he said. But, taking all factors into consideration, feeder prices are expected to remain near current levels which are much better than for the same period a year ago.

As for fed cattle prices, he said they should hold during the October-December period to average near the year-ago levels. Marketings of fed cattle are expected to continue large but the increase over a year ago probably will be less than that which took place in the summer of 1966.

Downward price pressure can develop if range conditions over the nation deteriorate; thus, forcing large movements of grass cattle to slaughter at a time when fed cattle marketings are already heavy. To, feeding to heavier weights could put continued pressure on fed cattle prices during the rest of the year.

Another factor influencing fed beef prices will be the increase in the pork supply for the remainder of the year. Pork production later in the year will be well above a year ago and poultry supplies are expected to continue above year-earlier levels, the economist said. Increased supplies of these two meat sources will tend to keep pressure on fed beef prices, concluded McHaney.
