Enthusiastic support is being given the local Community Chest Drive, according to a report by city chairman Bobby Weathers.

Weathers reports that $1,698.95 has been received, as of Tuesday noon, with several large contributions expected momentarily, which should push the total well above $2,000 in the city.

Reports from rural communities have not been received, but contributions from these areas are expected to oversubscribe the $3,000 goal set by Chest officials.

Chairman Weathers had high praise for his workers in the city, stating that "an enthusiastic spirit prevails among the whole group."

Newcomer Thrilled To Have Part In Community Chest

By now most of us have been contacted by someone soliciting for the "United Funds" drive in our community. All over this great land of ours people respond to these solicitations made by you and your neighbors where ever you happen to be. This is one of the things that has made our country one of the great nations of history.

Never before in history has one relatively small nation done so much so willingly for the underprivileged billions of earth. Yet, with all this display of compassion on a world-wide scope it would mean little if we did not take care of our own needy here at home. The Bible says charity (love) begins at home, and so it is in these United States of America that men and women of all races and creeds have banded together in "United Fund Drives" across our nation from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from Canada to Mexico, to make sure that the hand of mercy continues to reach out to those in need.

Santa Anna, little though she is among the cities of our land, has been given a goal and just like hundreds of other communities across our land she will bear her fair share. It was thrilling to have a part in this solicitation among the folk involved in the medical programs here in Santa Anna. Never have people rallied more unitedly than they did to this call to uphold the hands of mercy for another year. Those of us who are charged with leadership in these drives dream fondly of 100% participation and we yearn for the day when everyone does his fair share, then our jobs become a lot easier. This year among our medical family: Santa Anna Clinic, Santa Anna Hospital and Ranger Park Inn, we are happy to report our dreams have become reality.

100% participation in all three facilities, and the good news doesn't stop there. These good folks are looking ahead to next year and planning for it also to be another 100% year.

Over ninety per cent have endorsed the pay roll deduction plan and those who have not, have pledged their support in other ways.

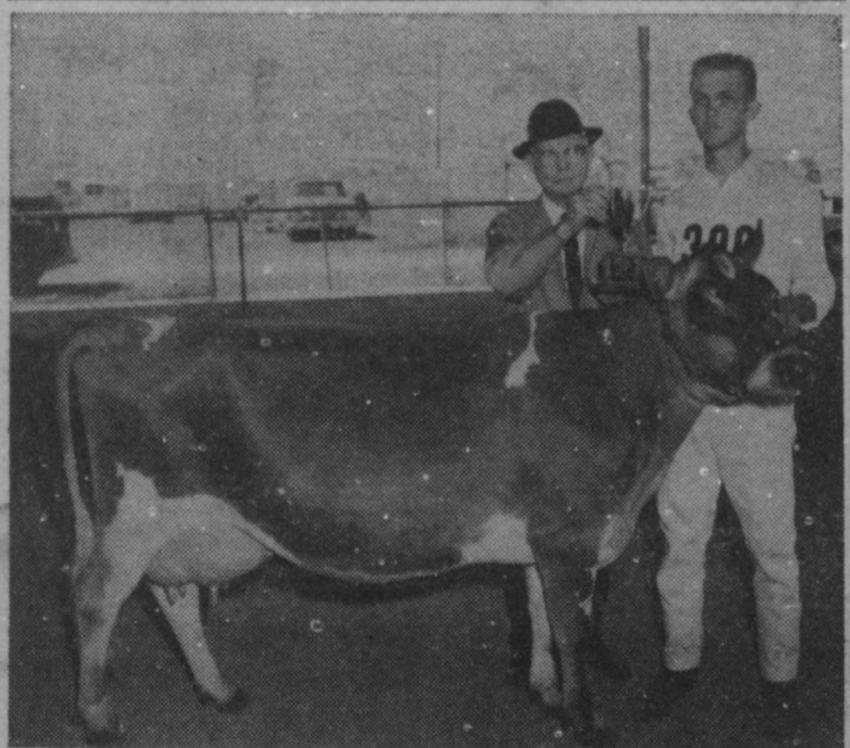

We are glad to work with all of you in this great humanitarian effort, united we can do our fair share!!! And keep America great!!!

CORRECTION

In a news item in last week's issue of The News it was stated that the Commissioners Court elected Mrs. Madora K. Gilmore as the party nominee for Justice of Peace Precinct No. 7 and her name placed on the November 8 general election ballot, replacing the name of the late Mr. W. Earl Irick Sr.

This was in error as the action was taken by the Coleman County Democratic Executive committee, and not the Commissioners Court as stated.

Our apologies for this error.

Although not an official visit, the chairman spoke briefly to members about the meaning of Lionism. He was accompanied by Walter Dickens and W. E. Horner, members of the Early Lions Club.

Trick-or-Treat For UNICEF Slated Saturday

The annual "Trick-or-Treat" UNICEF Drive will be held here Saturday, October 29, beginning at 3 p.m., according to announcement this week by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church who are sponsoring the drive.

According to a spokesman for the group, children from the Methodist Church as well as other churches in the city, will canvass the town in an effort to raise money for the project.

The children will be wearing arm bands, signifying that they are UNICEF workers and a donation in any amount will be greatly appreciated, it was stated.

Following the drive, the children will return to the Methodist Church where they will be served refreshments.

This Saturday the emphasis on UNICEF in the United States will be more official than ever before. The President of the United States will proclaim the day as UNICEF Day in accordance with a Joint Congressional Resolution.

The Resolution was prompted not only by a growing recognition of the importance of UNICEF's work for children but by appreciation of the fact that the 1965 Nobel Peace Prize had been awarded to UNICEF.

The Nobel Peace award focused world attention on the problems of the child, on the grim hopelessness, on the pitiful resources available to cope with even the most urgent needs. Editorials in various languages and idioms have extolled UNICEF's role and potential, and identified themselves with belief in the centrality of UNICEF's work in the struggle for peace, implying not merely the absence of conditions and policies compatible with human dignity and the pursuit of happiness.

Today's children are the central factor in the strategy for peace and survival, and UNICEF is immensely challenged.

UNICEF aids, from its beginning, has required a country to match in goods and services the international aid it receives. One could say that UNICEF has been a pioneer in its emphasis on self-help, of which the President so rightly approves.

Mountaineers Wallop Hico Tigers, 35-12; Host Rising Star Friday Night

Santa Anna's Mountaineers added another tiger paw to their skein last Friday night when they downed the Hico Tigers to the tune of 35-12.

The Tigers, a member of Class 17B, almost proved themselves experts instead of a mediocre eleven during first quarter action when they marched 75 yards in three plays for their first TD.

But the Mounties, realigning their defenses, threw up a wall that almost stymied the Tiger's potent offense of Barry Polk and Dwain Gray, the rest of the game. Both boys, all-district choices last season, displayed tremendous speed and power each time they carried the pigskin.

The Mountaineers got on the scoreboard first after Dale Herring returned the opening kickoff to his 40. It took only 11 plays to cover the 60 yards, with fullback Eddie Jones going up the middle for the final 6 yards, for his first of three TDs of the game.

Tommy Blanton, who was sidelined with a shoulder separation, kicked his first of five extra points of the night. Although not playing a down from scrimmage, he did a yeoman's job with perfect extra point attempts.

Five minutes deep in the second stanza halfback Butch Makuta tacked another six points on the board, for his first of two TDs, with a four-yard burst. The drive covered 52 yards in 5 plays.

After kicking off the Mounties held the Tigers, and on a 4th and 15 situation Larry Rutherford broke through to block the punt and the Mounties recovered on the Tiger 18. From that point it took only 4 plays to cross the double stripe with Jones again going up the middle for the final 6 yards, and the Mountaineers held a 14-6 lead as the half ended.

The Tigers came back strong in the third by recovering the kickoff. But alert back Larry Williams turned the tide by intercepting a Tiger aerial and was downed on the Mountie 23. The Mounties went to work

Host Rising Star Friday

The Mountaineers will be after their second conference win Friday night when they play host to the Rising Star Wildcats. The 'Cats have shown considerable improvement since beginning of the season, and could give the Mounties a run for the roses.

Game time is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

again, covering the distance in 13 plays, including a pass from Quarterback Roy Joe Harvey to Jones for 19 yards. Jones carried the final three yards, and Blanton booted his fourth PAT, giving the Mounties a 28-6 lead.

The Tigers got back into the scoring column again in the waning minutes of the third when halfback Howard Srader crossed the double stripe on a 5-yard run. The drive covered 47 yards in 6 plays. Try for extra point failed.

The Mounties' final tally followed the kickoff return by Herring to his own 43. Makuta scampered the final 21 yards but the TD was nullified by a 5-yard penalty against the Mounties. Makuta crossed into paydirt, six plays later, from the 7-yard stripe for the score. Blanton's kick was good and the Mounties left the playing field with a well-earned 35-12 victory.

The Mounties were playing with four regular starters on the bench: Steve Valdez, Korky Wise, Dickie Horner and Tommy Blanton.

But the Mounties, realigning their defenses, threw up a wall that almost stymied the Tiger's potent offense of Barry Polk and Dwain Gray, the rest of the game. Both boys, all-district choices last season, displayed tremendous speed and power each time they carried the pigskin.

The Mountaineers got on the scoreboard first after Dale Herring returned the opening kickoff to his 40. It took only 11 plays to cover the 60 yards, with full-back Eddie Jones going up the middle for the final 6 yards, for his first of three TDs of the game.

Tommy Blanton, who was sidelined with a shoulder separation, kicked his first of five extra points of the night. Although not playing a down from scrimmage, he did a yeoman's job with perfect extra point attempts.

Five minutes deep in the second stanza halfback Butch Makuta tacked another six points on the board, for his first of two TDs, with a four-yard burst. The drive covered 52 yards in 5 plays.

After kicking off the Mounties held the Tigers, and on a 4th and 15 situation Larry Rutherford broke through to block the punt and the Mounties recovered on the Tiger 18. From that point it took only 4 plays to cross the double stripe with Jones again going up the middle for the final 6 yards, and the Mountaineers held a 14-6 lead as the half ended.

The Tigers came back strong in the third by recovering the kickoff. But alert back Larry Williams turned the tide by intercepting a Tiger aerial and was downed on the Mountie 23. The Mounties went to work

Host Rising Star Friday

The Mountaineers will be after their second conference win Friday night when they play host to the Rising Star Wild-Cats. The 'Cats have shown considerable improvement since beginning of the season, and could give the Mounties a run for the roses.

Game time is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

again, covering the distance in 13 plays, including a pass from Quarterback Roy Joe Harvey to Jones for 19 yards. Jones carried the final three yards, and Blanton booted his fourth PAT, giving the Mounties a 28-6 lead.

The Tigers got back into the scoring column again in the waning minutes of the third when halfback Howard Strader crossed the double stripe on a 5-yard run. The drive covered 47 yards in 6 plays. Try for extra point failed.

The Mounties' final tally followed the kickoff return by Herring to his own 43. Makuta scampered the final 21 yards but the TD was nullified by a 5-yard penalty against the Mounties. Makuta crossed into paydirt, six plays later, from the 7-yard stripe for the score. Blanton's kick was good and the Mounties left the playing field with a well-earned 35-12 victory.

The Mounties were playing with four regular starters on the bench: Steve Valdez, Korky Wise, Dickie Horner and Tommy Blanton.

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Read Acts 1:8-14

Suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind. . . And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost. (Acts 2:4)

It was a brilliant day of vividly blue sky and sea. The white crest of the reef encircling the island of Viti Levu showed clearly. Many people had gathered at a point on the shore where several outrigger canoes lay, brought in from other islands of the group to engage in a race. Time passed as the canoes swayed to and fro on the lapping tide. It was growing late, and as murmurs swelling among the crowd, an announcement came: "There will be no race today because of the absence of the wind." Disappointed, the crowd slowly dispersed. Sails were lowered and the canoes were towed to the landing and made fast.

Often we plan a forward move in church work and missionary effort to help fulfill Christ's hope for all persons. Details are considered, and yet there are times of disappointment. No progress is made. It is then we need to wait, as the apostles did, for the activating power of the Holy Spirit.

PRAYER: O Lord, we pray for the winds of Thy spirit that we may launch our boats. We pray for confidence that Thou wilt sustain and guide us to the place of Thine appointment where we may best witness for Thee. In Thy name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

If we would know spiritual power, we must keep in touch with its source — our Lord himself.

EMERGENCY HAND WARMER

When you're out duck hunting your hands can get mighty cold. An empty shotgun shell provides a quick solution. Slice a spent shotgun shell lengthwise three or four times down toward the brass. Set the shell down and light. Coating on the shell will let it burn for at least 60 seconds, which is time enough to warm a couple of chilled hands.

Determine Payment Of Medicare Bills Specialist Suggests

Medicare's health insurance cards are "good as gold" for getting one admitted to a hospital or identifying him as eligible for physicians' services under the hospital insurance plan.

Miss Leota C. Lane, Texas A&M University family life education specialist points out, however, that an individual who seeks to receive assistance from the insurance plan should be aware of certain conditions which might affect payment of his medical expenses.

Hospitals and nursing homes must meet minimum care standards in order to receive payment for services under the Medicare program. In addition, under Medicare, patients' conditions will be reviewed every 20 days and certified as requiring additional hospitalization. If the doctor determines that hospitalization is not necessary at the time of review, the patient will be required to pay his own bills in full, if he remains in the hospital.

How much of a bargain the Medicare physicians' services covered prove to be may depend on how long your doctor handles reimbursement for his services. There are two options for his billing procedure.

He can bill Medicare for the portion allowed for his services and bill you for the rest. If he chooses this route, he must accept the payment which has been established by Medicare as appropriate for local medical costs.

The other alternative is that he can bill you directly for the entire amount. In this case, you must obtain from him a signed statement of what he treated you for and how much he charged for the treatment. You then submit this bill, attached to a form provided by Medicare for this purpose, and receive a refund for the part of the treatment covered by Medicare.

When arranging for medical care to be covered under Medicare, determine ahead of time which of the two plans your doctor intends to use. If he plans to bill you directly, find out what he plans to charge for his services. Then check with your local Social Security office to determine if these charges are in line with accepted Medicare payments for your city. If his charges are excessive, you could end up paying a great deal in addition to the Medicare payments.

Bull's Size Not Reflected In Calf Research Reveals

In a Texas A & M University test, large, medium and small bulls sired calves that performed equally well.

Every rancher has his own idea what size bull is best. Some won't have anything but large bull. . . others want a small one, and still others prefer a medium size bull. But the A & M test indicates it doesn't make much difference.

According to J. K. Riggs, professor in the Animal Science Department at A & M, three Brahman bulls were selected for a test. Purpose of the test was to see if size of the bull significantly affects weaning weight and feedlot performance of the calves.

One bull used in the test was a large, rugged type animal. The second was medium in conformation and size, the third was a short, compact animal with a thick body. . . the type usually most popular in livestock shows.

The bulls were bred to Brahman cows and to Hereford cows so that each sire produced both purebred and crossbred calves. At weaning time, there was no significant difference in weaning weights of the calves, whether sired by the large, medium or small bulls.

When the calves were put in the feedlot, again there was no important difference in performance. Dressing percentage and lean meat cut-out was approximately the same when the calves were slaughtered.

Riggs says this indicates the Brahman bulls most popular in livestock shows—the thick, compact animals with fairly short legs—do not necessarily sire any better calves than larger bulls.

Performance records are a much better guide to selection of a herd bull than common "eyeballing," he says.

It's another indication, he adds, that there should be more emphasis on good doing, meat-type animals and what's under the hide rather than on the looks of a bull.

Makehift pork rind strips for lures can be improvised by cutting white strips from the belly of the bass you caught and preserve them in a saline solution.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"All For Mother"

Feeling death near, a man took a sheet of paper and scrawled three words: "All for mother."

No doubt, in his own mind, this phrase covered everything—clearly and concisely. But there was one catch. The "mother" he meant was not his own mother at all, but his wife—the mother of his children.

The mixup was finally straightened out in court proceedings after the man's death. But the case illustrates how mercurial is meaning — how risky it is for a person to dash off a "simple," do-it-yourself will in serene confidence that, after he is gone, his words will be clear to everybody.

Of course, the law's main goal is to carry out the intentions of the deceased. But just what were his intentions? With alarming frequency, bickering relatives can read the same words and come up with different meanings.

Consider a few "simple" expressions that have led to courtroom battles:

"money" — Does this include funds in a bank account? (One court said yes, if it is a checking account; another court said no, if it is a savings account.)

"furniture" — Does this include everything useful in the house? (One court said it included linens; another court said it did not include books.)

"household effects" — Does this include more than furniture? Less? (One court said a stamp collection was covered; another court said jewelry and clothing were not.)

"contents" — Does this include everything physically within? (A court held that the "contents" of a house included the steel safe in the basement but not the stocks and bonds inside the safe.)

In each of these cases the court had to examine the surrounding circumstances, not just the bare words of the will, to clear up the ambiguity.

This procedure is not easy and not quick. It may breed bitterness in the family, cause legal complications, and — to everyone's chagrin — delay the distribution of the estate. All too often, wills composed in haste must be litigated at leisure.

COLOR THEME POPULAR

Plum, eggplant, camel, olive, red, gold and all shades of brown are strong colors for teen shoes this fall and winter. Black and white is still a kicky combination. Blue-green, black, winter pastels, plum, and dark brown are popular for dressy occasions.

FBI DIRECTOR UR PROFESSIONAL POLICE

THERE HAS BEEN much in some law enforcement elements in the criminal law, particularly confessions, interrogations, search and seizure, and various rights of the accused.

Historically, American courts has assumed the responsibility of assuring that governmental power is not misused to injure the rights of individual citizens. Our courts are now committed to exercising supervisory control over law enforcement through the exclusionary theory where evidence obtained in violation of certain rules cannot be used in a criminal trial.

Various courts have been roundly criticized for recent decisions which some reviewers say reflect an unjustified and unprecedented concern for the lawbreaker; for illogical, short-sighted judicial policies which in effect legislate new laws to the detriment of society. They have been charged with handcuffing law enforcement by requiring impossible procedures which, it is said will insure the release of the guilty while destroying the morale of the officer.

In reply, some critics of police declare that unless we have tight, restrictive control of law enforcement, police lawlessness will result. The extremes of both views tend to cloud the fact that the police and courts should have a common objective: to develop and maintain a system of administering criminal justice which is fair, impartial, and effective. All will agree that this is an exceedingly difficult and complex task.

There is little to be gained from just shouting protests and criticisms, but there is much to be gained from throwing our full resources and energies into training a professional law enforcement corps to be effective within the framework of current rules of law and evidence.

We, as citizens, expect the business and technical segments of our society to keep abreast of the latest developments in their respective areas and to conduct research to foster progress. Our profession, dedicated to the preservation of America's basic freedoms, certainly cannot exempt itself from a similar demand from other citizens. A continuing, comprehensive research and training program, with a conscientious application of the knowledge gained therefrom, is the key to properly discharging our responsibilities to the people and the Nation.

Increased professional police training is no longer a desirable goal, no longer a matter of choice for United States law enforcement. It is an absolute necessity.

J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director.

USING SPRAY STARCH

Here are four "rules of thumb" for using spray starch:

1. Shake the can each time before you use it.
2. Tilt the can slightly—not over a 45 degree angle while spraying. If the can is tilted too far, the pressure in the can is reduced and the starch has no way to come out.
3. Hold the nozzle of the can 6 to 12 inches away from the fabric, and press the button firmly to produce a fine, even spray.
4. Clean the soleplate of your iron often so the starch will not scorch on the iron.

Specialist Suggests

Q. What services in the extended care facility will be covered?

A. The services generally provided in such facilities, including: semi-private room and board; nursing care; and physical, occupational, and speech therapy. Also drugs ordinarily furnished to inpatients.

Q. How many home health care visits could be paid for under the basic hospital insurance part of medicare?

A. Up to 100 visits during each one-year period following discharge from a hospital or from an extended care facility. The home health care would have to be furnished under a plan established and periodically reviewed by a physician. The home health services would, for example, enable an elderly man who needs intermittent nursing services to get them in his home instead of keeping him in a hospital; or if someone was getting over a stroke, he would get speech and physical therapy at home to help get his speech back and get his legs moving again.

Q. What kind of treatments would be given during a home health care visit?

A. Part-time or intermittent nursing services, physical, occupational, and speech therapy, and other related home health services furnished by visiting nurse agencies, hospital-based home health programs, and similar agencies. The services might be provided by a registered nurse, a physical therapist, or a home health aide, who performs much the same services as a nurse's aide in a hospital, such as giving bed baths to ill and bedfast patients.

Q. Does a person have to be housebound to get the home health care visits?

A. Yes, except that he could be taken to the hospital or other facility for special treatments with equipment that could not be brought to his home — hydrotherapy baths, for example.

Q. Who will decide what home health care services an RANGER, 1919 — The colorful RANGER boom, which began with a 1917 discovery, produced some of the wildest boom town stories of them all; but this scene of an auto mired in its main street gives authenticity to reports of visitors paying to be "ferried" across muddy streets.

elderly person needs?

A. In almost every case, it should be his own physician. Under both the basic plan of hospital insurance and the supplementary health insurance plan, it is the person's doctor who decides when his patient needs care, the type of care he needs, and when he should go home or be transferred to an extended care facility. In the case of home health care visits, a physician would develop the plan for his home health care.

Q. Who decides what are reasonable charges for physician's services under medicare?

A. Intermediaries — Blue Shield organizations and private insurance carriers — who serve under contracts with the Federal Government to receive and pay medicare bills, determine what are "reasonable charges." They apply two criteria set out in the law: 1. The customary charges for similar services generally made by the physician, and 2. The prevailing charges in the locality for similar service. The reasonable charge by a specialist will naturally be higher than the charge for the same service by a doctor who is not a specialist. Also, the reasonable charge may be higher than the customary prevailing rate if there are special circumstances.

Q. How often do I have to pay the $50 deductible under the doctor bill insurance part of medicare?

A. Just once a calendar year. But if your medical expenses are less than $50 in some year, or if they do not go over $50 until the last three months of a year, the expenses in those last three months can count toward the next year's $50 deductible.

Q. I don't know whether my family doctor has signed up with the medicare program. How can I tell whether he can treat me under medicare? I don't like to ask him right out.

A. Medicare can pay toward the bills of any physician licensed to practice medicine in your state.

Q. Does the medicare insurance plan cover any home health care visits?

A. Yes, whether or not you have been in a hospital, a physician can prescribe a home health care plan under which you can get up to 100 health care visits a year. Under the basic hospital insurance plan, home health care visits are covered only if preceded by a hospital stay of at least 3 days, but if you are covered under the voluntary medical insurance plan, you are also eligible for up to 100 home health visits whether or not you have been in the hospital.

BIG GAME RIFLE CALIBER

That caliber of rifle slug to be used on big game largely is determined by experience. However, the 270, 243 are hard to beat when used for most big game.

When hand-loaded with 43 grains of No. 4350 powder, using No. 120 primers, and 100-grain partition soft pointed bullets, the 243 is ideal for such big game as polar bears, grizzlies, etc.

Delays In Filing Can Be Costly In Medicare Matters

If you will reach age 65 within the next three months you should visit your social security office, or a representative when he is in your area, to apply for hospital insurance and medical insurance, better known as medicare, according to R. R. Tuley, Jr., District Manager for the Social Security Administration in Abilene.

This advice applies to you even if you never worked under social security, or if you are now working and don't plan to retire. If you want the medical insurance (for payment of doctor's bills) to be effective with the month you become 65, you must file your application before that month.

When you visit the social security office you should bring the best available evidence of your age, he said. If you don't have any evidence, the social security office will be glad to help you obtain it.

Don Austin of the Abilene social security office will be at the Department of Public Welfare office in Coleman on every Tuesday in November and December at 10 o'clock, except on Dec. 20.

Fall and Winter Tips for Gardeners

The fall and winter season is the time to check and decide whether replacement plants are needed in the home landscape.

"Maybe a rose bush had died or failed to live up to expectation, or there is a gap in the shrub border where a new plant is needed, suggests Everett Janne, extension landscape horticulturist at Texas A&M University. Was shade adequate in the outdoor living area, he asks?"

Make a list of your landscape needs and be ready to take advantage of the selections offered early buyers by nursery and garden centers, advises Janne.

The natural inclination, he says, is to put off garden work until late spring when everything is greening up and the spring flowers are in bloom. Then suddenly comes the urge to plant trees and shrubs and a rush to the nursery or garden center for plants only to find picked-over stock remaining.

Permanent Press Fabric Furnishings Now Available

Fabrics with unflattering memories offer a new dimension in styling for the decorative fabrics field, says Mrs. Jane Berry, housing and home furnishings specialist at Texas A&M University.

Because of the application of permanent or durable press to the decorative fabric area, fabric furnishings are on the threshold of a revolution in design. Several decorative fabric firms currently experimenting with durable press in the home furnishings area anticipate that the process will open new and unexplored vistas for styling. The durable press process positively lives up to claims of absolutely no ironing after machine washing and drying.

Durable press makes its debut on the markets in the curtain and drape-y field. Ruffled curtains and bedspreads will be the primary targets in the durable press collection. A 50-50 blend of polyester and rayon will be featured in a broadcloth.

Consumer acceptance of durable press in the home furnishings field is expected to be positive, and immediate. Before the innovation of durable press, homemakers have not reacted favorably in accepting ruffled bedspreads and curtains because of the care factor involved.

Now ideas for the use of durable press are popping up everywhere. A few of the possibilities include ruffles or pleated ruffles on curtains; draperies with cartridge or knife pleats; folding doors using fabrics that hold their shape; bedspreads and dust ruffles; sheets with accordion pleated accents; and Roman shades, shower curtains, lamp shades, table cloths, slip covers and upholstery.

Permanent press fabric furnishings may cost slightly more, but they are anticipated to be worth the difference in easier maintenance and continued good looks.

Pearls are weighed by grains; diamonds by carats.

Homeowners Warned Of Carbon Monoxide Poison Dangers

With the heating season now upon us, the Texas Safety Association once again warns homeowners of the dangers of carbon monoxide poisoning.

"Odorless and colorless, carbon monoxide can render a person groggy or unconscious before he is aware anything is wrong," warns J. O. Musick, general manager of TSA.

Absorbed into the body faster than oxygen, carbon monoxide causes the brain to become oxygen-starved, with death following on the heels of unconsciousness," Musick explains.

"The symptoms are sleepiness, nausea, and headache. But these come on rapidly and by the time the victim begins to realize he has a problem, his mind is too foggy to function effectively," he warns.

The safety director lists several precautions which can help to prevent carbon monoxide poisoning:

- * Check chimneys and other devices where fumes are vented to make sure they have not become blocked by debris, such as bird nests.
- * Make sure gas furnaces and space heaters are properly vented and periodically maintained.
- * Always sleep with the bedroom window open at least a crack to circulate fresh air.
- * Never start your car in a closed garage for any reason.
- * "If you have any indication that you may be breathing carbon monoxide gas, get to fresh air immediately," Musick concluded.

Austin.—Texans will vote on 16 proposed amendments to the State Constitution on November 8.

Major interest has been attracted to two amendments:

- * No. 11 would double the Texas Water Development Fund from $200,000,000 to $400,000,000 and broaden its uses to include water filtration, treatment and transportation facilities.

- * No. 7 would repeal the poll tax (already nullified by federal court decision) and substitute annual voter registration.

Other amendments would:

- * Increase elected judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals from three to five (No. 9).

- * Exempt agricultural lands in urban areas from full-value taxation (No. 1).

- * Provide that taxes or bonds voted by school district will not be invalidated by changes in boundaries (No. 10).

- * Remove limitations on voting by armed services personnel (already invalidated by the federal court (No. 14)).

- * Set legislator's term beginning on opening day of regular lawmaking sessions (No. 16).

- * Remove Arlington State College from the permanent university fund (No. 5).

Authorize Legislature to pass laws to accomplish the following:

- * Create airport authorities (No. 2).

- * Set terms of conservation district directors up to six years (No. 4).

- * Provide a statewide retirement system for employees of counties and subdivisions (No. 5).

- * Permanent benefit payments to survivors of law officers, prison guards and firemen killed on duty (No. 6).

- * Ease voting restrictions for those who have recently moved (No. 8).

- * Provide for dissolving hospital districts (No. 12).

- * Permit major counties to consolidate some governmental functions and make contract with each other for services (No. 13).

- * Authorize acceptance of private or federal funds for aid to physically and mentally handicapped (No. 15).

OIL ALLOWABLE UP

Texas Railroad Commission hiked the statewide oil production allowable for November to 34.5 per cent of potential. It was the second monthly boost in a row and the highest level since June.

Factor permits production of 3,179,115 barrels a day, compared with 3,154,384 for October. Figure for November last year was 2,884,856 at 28.4 per cent. In taking the action, the Commission noted strong demands for gasoline and kerosene in declining crude oil stock.

SANTA RITA, 1923 — This well drilled on University of Texas land in West Texas opened up the Big Lake field, May 28, 1923, from a depth of 3,028 feet, and drew attention to the now famous Permian Basin oil province and put the first "oil money" in the University Permanent Fund, which now holds more than $447 million from royalties, rentals and bonuses.

COURT SPEAKS

Dallas County district attorney asked the Court of Criminal Appeals to reconsider its ruling that Jack Ruby, convicted slayer of presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, must get a new trial.

Supreme Court declined to reconsider its opinion that the City of Dallas could order a movie to be advertised as not suitable for youngsters.

Reversing the lower courts, the Supreme Court ordered a new trial of a Burnet County couple's suit concerning the method of computing interest on a loan from Fredericksburg loan association.

In a Seguin case, the high court agreed that a school district can reassess invalid values it places on property.

BOLLWORM DEADLINE EXTENDED

The Agriculture Commissioner John White extended until October 30 the cotton harvest and plow-up deadline for 17 Zone 4 counties under the pink bollworm control law.

Counties affected are Austin, Brazoria, Chambers, Colorado, Fayette, Fort Bend, Galveston, Gonzales, Harris, Jefferson, Lavaca, Liberty, Matagorda, Waller, Orange, Washington and Wharton.

INDUSTRIAL $$$

Texas is one of four states still without some type of statewide industrial financing.

Texas Industrial Commission is pushing hard for the Legislature to submit a Constitutional amendment to allow municipalities to issue revenue bonds to build facilities and lure industry. Bonds would be retired by rent from the industry.

The Commission decided to recommend the program largely because of the current tight money market.

HIGHWAY RECORDS SET

October contract letting will set two highway department records.

Bids totaling some $50,000,000 will be the largest in the department's history. And the $12,000,000 Dallas Interstate Highway 635 project will be the largest single project, moneywise, let by the department.

SHORT SNORTS

Federal funds totaling $3,098,383 still are available through the Texas Education Agency to some 300 Texas school districts for the education of deprived children.

Workmen's Compensation premiums will decline an average of eight-tenths of one per cent, effective December 1, if staff recommendations are adopted by the State Board of Insurance. This represents a reduction of $1,225,000 in premiums to be paid by Texas employers.

A $329,090-grant has been made to the Texas Office of Economic Opportunity for technical aid to communities wanting to participate in the war on poverty.

State Health Department has found 11 public school employees with tuberculosis in a 459-district check.

The Texas Water Development Board reports streamflow high in the eastern half of the state and the Rio Grande area below Fort Quitman, but near average for the balance of the state except for the Panhandle where the flow is low.

Senate Public Works Committee approved a $3,760,000 watershed improvement program on Rush Creek, located in Comanche, Eastland and Brown counties.

Texas motorists will use 4,900,000,000 gallons of motor fuel this year, or 5.1 per cent over 1965, according to the Texas Highway Department.

Attorney General Waggoner Carr told the U. S. Supreme Court that 537 of Texas' toughest criminals would be set free if the state law providing longer sentences for those with prior convictions is struck down.

SALT WATER WEIGHTS

The size sinker to use when surf fishing is determined by the strength of the wind and what weight sinker the rod will cast.

Many fishermen prefer a 4-oz. weight for the usual size rod. But when the wind is high, nothing less than a 5-oz. lead is recommended.

A lot also depends on the action of your rod.

Carry weights from one to five ounces in your box to be on the safe side.

Deadline Nears On World War II Veterans Loans

World War II veterans have less than one year left to take advantage of GI guaranteed or insured loans, according to A. W. Stratton, Chief Benefits Director of the Veterans Administration.

July 25, 1967, is the deadline for World War II veterans' eligibility, he said.

Eligibility for World War II veterans is determined by a formula which adds ten years to the date of their last discharge plus one year for each 90 days of service.

Those eligible for many has already expired, but the July 25, 1967 date is the cutoff for all other World War II veterans.

Veterans who were discharged for a service-connected disability and the widows of such veterans will be eligible up to the July 25, 1967 deadline.

Those eligible may obtain a guaranteed or insured loan to purchase a home, farm or to buy or start a business.

For veterans of the Korean Conflict the formula for determining GI loan eligibility is the same as for veterans of World War II. However, the Korean Conflict entitlement did not begin to expire until January 31, 1965, and the final deadline is January 31, 1975.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE...

By OMAR BURLESON
M. C. 17th District

Washington, D. C.—This issue will conclude "As It Looks From Here" until the Congress returns in January to begin the first years of its 90th Session.

My thanks to those who have responded to these weekly comments and who have lent support and encouragement to it.

Shortly before the next session of the Congress opens individuals to whom this is sent and the newspapers which use it will be contacted to determine if you wish to continue to receive it.

As this Congress closes there will follow appraisals of its accomplishments by writers and news analysts. Evaluation will come from all quarters, and the mark given, as usual, will depend on the particular evaluator's point of view.

There is a tendency on the part of many to grade a Session of Congress on the quantity, rather than the quality, of legislation enacted. Too often the scoreboard uses the total number of Presidential proposals adopted, as compared with the number requested. On this scoreboard the Congressional session of 1966 does not rate as high as did the Sessions of either of the two immediately preceding years. One reason for this is that it is an election year, but not a Presidential one, which causes a more independent attitude by Members of Congress. Members know they must run on their own record, and it is going to be an interesting election year in many parts of the country to see how well the administration's programs fare. The election should determine if Members of Congress truly represent the people who elected them, rather than adhering to a line laid down by a party decree.

Incidentally, in appraising this or any other session, it seems to me that there should also be a score on what Congress failed to do, as well as that which it did. The last Session of the 89th Congress (1965) turned down few proposals of the administration, but a number have been rejected in the session just closed.

Many good and long overdue measures were finally adopted in 1966. Among them is legislation to preserve certain of our natural resources for future generations. The Veterans Readjustment Act to assist in educating ex-service men was highly constructive.

Some of the programs, such as automobile and highway safety, have their good intentions but, of course, are yet to be proved. The Interstate Highway Program was continued on an advanced level. Continued and expanded were programs to combat air and water pollution and to promote soil and water conservation.

The collective judgment of the Congress is more reflective of the national mood than any evaluation made by pollsters or the expert analyst. The 435 Members of the House of Representatives and 100 Senators speak for the people in deciding issues. Whether or not we, as individuals, agree with the majority of laws passed by it are in accord with Constitutional principles, we have nothing to complain about, but rather, to change it if we do not like it.

Our system of government is the best ever devised by man. It is often clumsy, cumbersome and often apparently inefficient, but it is our government and under it are the recipients of the greatest blessing ever known to man.

When the Congress is slow to act, it is usually because there is no clear view as to how the people of the nation feel. When opinion is divided Congress does not act hurriedly. When the people are obviously united behind a proposal, action comes quickly.

Thomas Jefferson said, "I think it a duty in those entrusted with the administration of their affairs to conform themselves to the decided choice of their constituents." In other words, Members of Congress are to be representatives of the people, not trustees acting in a "we know best" manner.

Ruth and I look forward to seeing our friends when we return home.

SAVINGS BOND QUIZ

SAVINGS BOND QUIZ - - - -
Q—I own Savings Bonds purchased between 1947 and 1954. Are these bonds still earning interest and when will this interest stop?

A—Any Series E Savings Bond ever purchased is still earning interest. Bonds purchased prior to May, 1949, have been granted two 10-year extensions. Bonds purchased since then have been granted one 10-year extension. Interest will continue until the bonds are cashed or reach absolute maturity.

Q—What are the new limitations on holdings of Savings Bonds?

A—Under new regulations, the limitations on holdings of bonds issued during any one calendar year are $20,000 (face value) for Series E Bonds and $30,000 for H Bonds.

Q—Is any time of the year more advantageous than another for cashing in Series E Bonds?

A—It should be on the anniversary date of the particular bond or at six-month intervals thereafter. E Bonds gain in value every six months. When held to maturity, they return a yield of 4.15 per cent, compounded semi-annually.

THERE ARE TWO Sides TO THIS STORY

This story is about newspaper advertising and how it serves TWO ways. It begins in the home where the lady-in-a-mood to buy starts her shopping by studying the ads in this newspaper to see where the best buys are.

The story continues in the advertiser's store where the lady comes to buy what she saw advertised.

Newspaper advertising helps the shopper to buy more wisely — helps the advertiser to sell more successfully. Yes, there are two sides to this story . . . and BOTH are good!

He will now undergo four weeks of individual combat training and four weeks of basic specialist training in his military job field before being assigned to a permanent unit.

Royal Treatment Due Grandson Of Local Woman

Tom Watson, grandson of Mrs. H. M. Smith of this city, will literally be "king for a day" during the upcoming Navy Day celebration in San Antonio. Tom, a four-year veteran of the Navy, will be given the red carpet treatment, beginning with a flag raising ceremony at the Alamo, guest of honor at a City Council luncheon, and dinner on a luxury barge on the San Antonio River. He will also speak at Harlandale school, which he attended, and a date arranged with "Miss San Antonio."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Watson of San Antonio, former local residents. A brother, Ronnie, is in the Air Corps and has orders to report to South Vietnam on December 1. The boys will spend a week visiting with their parents. This will be the first time they have seen each other in 4 years.

Mountaineer Band Preparing For UIL Marching Contest Nov. 15 At Brady

The SAHS Mountaineer band, under the direction of Charles H. Walker, is working hard these days in preparation for the UIL Marching Contest to be held at Brady on November 15.

In explaining what marching contest is all about, Walker stated that the contest performance must conform to the following requirements:

(1) Time spent on the field must be at least five minutes, and must not exceed eight minutes;

(2) Practically all movements must be executed while playing. UIL rules do not require that music be memorized, but Director Walker requires every student to memorize every note of every piece to be used while marching. "This is essential for all good bands, and allows the student more freedom in executing the marching drills," Walker said.

Also in regard to music on the field, Walker explained that "the most important factor in any band is sound. A band that doesn't sound good cannot win a first division rating, even if the marching is perfect."

Judges for this year's contest are: Dan Grubbs, band director at Monahans; Everett Maxwell, band director at Abernathy; and Merlin Jenkins, formerly of Cooper high school in Abilene and now assistant director of bands at T.C.U.

Ratings in each class will be given as follows: Division I: Superior; Division II: Excellent; Division III: Average; Division IV: below average; and Division V: Poor.

In Director Walker's opinion, the toughest competition for the Mountaineer band will come from Cross Plains, Albany, Eldorado and Dublin.

UIL twirling contest is held in conjunction with the marching contest and the following studdents will enter solos in twirling: Sonja Neff, Marguerite Horner, Sherry Thompson, Barbara Jones, Pam Gill, Billie Gay Rutherford, Sherry McIver, Linda Dean, Nancy Baugh and Janice Langford. Sonja, Marguerite and Sherry will also perform a twirling trio.

Motorists Alerted To Watch for "Ghosts On A Broomstick"

The Texas Safety Association today warned motorists to be on the alert for "trick-or-treaters" on Halloween night and advised parents to take special precautions to make the annual fun festival safe for children.

"Halloween night can be a happy time for children, or it can be tragic," J. O. Musick, TSA general manager, said. "Far too often a serious accident tags along on a broomstick."

The safety director pointed out that as youngsters gaily roam the streets, they get so wrapped-up in their activities that they often forget their safety rules.

"They fail to look both ways when crossing streets, often cross in the middle of a block and quite frequently dart in front of oncoming traffic," he said. "It's up to all motorists to be on the alert for such actions."

He suggested parents cooperate in the Halloween safety drive by dressing youngsters properly. Avoid face masks as they restrict the child's ability to see. Try cosmetics for facial decoration. Make sure youngsters carry flashlights when they are out after dark. They can see where they are going and motorists can see them. If it is necessary for a child to wear a dark costume, make sure it has plenty of reflective tape strips on it.

"The ghosts that haunt our streets on Halloween are very much alive," he concluded. "Let's see that they stay that way."
