FOR OCTOBER.

The President's train
Ran a little bit faster,
And he got in at noon
And addressed the postmaster.

Then up and away,
To his subjects impartial,
At 2 he addressed
A United States marshal.

Still on and yet on,
As untiring as Hector,
He was speaking at 4
To a census director.

In the meantime he shaved,
But had scarce sheathed his razor
When he rushed out to talk
To a U. S. appraiser.

Then one more ovation
Upon his great journey,
And a speech from the rear
To U. S. attorney.

They feared he was spent,
But he proved a great stayer,
And the next stop he talked
To a custom surveyor.

They begged him desist,
But he answered them "Fudge,"
And at 6 was addressing
A Federal judge.

Refreshed by some tea
And a couple of crulls,
He addressed an inspector
Of boilers and hulls.

Then on and still on
The swift special ran,
And he piled out and spoke
To a revenue man.

Then ho! for the night,
Without station or steeple,
And he hit the hay saying,
"Hurrah for the people!"

October is for the Latin octo, meaning eight. That is, it is about eight times as pleasant as any other month in the year, and the Romans took this means of saying so. They were very fond of cracklings, and about hog-killing time Lucillus gave a crackling banquet at the Auditorium which made everybody's mouth water a month before it came off. Caesar said that cracklings made Rome the mistress of the world, and it was not until her soldiers began eating spaghetti and vermicelli that the Empire began to decay.

The hunting season will resume upon the rippling lake, and the hunter will get out his gun and hide him in the brake; the festive duck will fly about, and in the smoke and din a leaden pellet now then will penetrate his skin, until the quarry's gravity is overcome with shot, and the sportsman nearest when he falls will clap him in the pot.

The cider press will creak and wheeze and the sorghum pot will boil the wind will whistle through the trees, and the frog will bore for off; the haze of Fall will veil the sun, the days grow soft and short, the nimble colt will jump and run, the lambkin will cavort, the air will smell of smoking hams and applebutter butts, and the poor consumer will renew his strength with hazelnuts. The Cookite and the Pearyite

Will pull each others nose,
And both explorers will line up
Their trusty Esquimos.
The scientists will bite and scratch,
Deciding which was prior,
And we'll have to send for Roosevelt
To find out who's a liar.

It does seem terrible that he who always knows who's lying should be away in Africa when all of us are dying to know the truth. A word from him would quickly satisfy us which one of them perhaps deserves the brand of Ananias. A fig for all the specimens he is accumulating—he ought to be here on the job and duly separating the double-tongued ones from the rest and fomenting thunder as once he did lest we shall make a very stupid blunder.

However, let us all rejoice and give thanks in some manner that both men found the pole beneath our own immortal banner, and that deciding which one wins is wholly our own doing, with nothing international unfortunately brewing. It makes one shudder just to think if Peary, say, had found it and having marked it with the flag and done a dance around it, he should return in triumph here to banquet and review it, and some dang foreigner popped up and claimed he'd beat us to it!

We have to take it to the Hague,
And falling to agree,
We'd have to go in battleships
And litter up the sea
With one another's property,
And dye it with our blood
In mortal combat till the one
Or other's name was Mud.

But nothing of that sort impends, and meanwhile Mr. Taft will live upon a Pullman car and speak his pieces aft. He'll range the bold insurgents up for their unthinking deeds, and bat them with his reprimands away off in the weeds. He'll call the shy consumer up, recalling all the squibs and jocularly feel the fat upon that worthy's ribs. And having shown us at some pains about where we are at, he'll disappear around the bend, wig-wagging with his hat.

The football season will return, and the college men uplined will get their heads together with their heels kicked up behind. The valiant captain will exhort his grim and bloody crew, and the boys will butt until their brains are battered black and blue. The guard will bib, the center rush will ram and sink the luckless floating rib, the human demijohns of noise will rise and pull their stoppers, and the teams will fight and roll around like suffragettes and coppers.

The nuts will ripen, and the quail will whistle in the glen.
The prohibitionists will chase
The brewers round again;
The hunter's moon will sail the skies,
The days grow soft and tender,
And the farmer will make faces at
The cruel money lender.

There won't be any doubt about prosperity returning about the time the sassafras and the sumach get to burning upon the hills, and the farmer rolls between the fields of stubble, his brandnew automobile, his back against the leather seat, the goldenrod saluting, and now then the dulcet horn melodiously tooting.

And then November will return,
With Fall and Winter married,
And the luckless turkey will be slain
And decently cranberried.

Van Tuyl Ranch.

Christmas must be coming early this year as "Santa-Claus" has been seen in our community.

Prospectors passing through our crops are notified not to pluck any of the crops for samples as two heads of maize is one-third and one stalk of cotton is one-fourth and consequently the landlord and renter would be left in hard circumstances.

Mr. and Mrs. Langford have a very sick baby.

Elle Hale left the first of this week for Taylor county where he intends to assist in gathering his fathers crop.

Cotton gathering is almost a thing of the past in Hill county.

Centennial of Christian Church.

This is the centennial of the Christian church, and the occasion is being improved to give an impetus to all the enterprises fostered by that denomination, which now has more than 1,200,000 communicants—one of the most remarkable growths of any body in the history of Christendom.

"Its basic principle is to practice that simple, original form of christianity, exhibited upon the sacred pages without attempting to indicate anything of human authority of private opinion, or invention of men, as having any place in the constitution of faith, or worship of the Christian church; or anything as matter of christian faith or duty, for which there can not be found a "thus saith the Lord" by expressed terms or accepted precedent.

"On this declaration Thomas Campbell founded the church which he organized in Washington county, Pennsylvania, September 7th, 1809, and his followers have held true to this principle ever since. "Where the scriptures speak, we speak; where the scriptures are silent, we are silent," is today their favorite motto, and on this basis they have grown to the fifth denomination in the United States."

Union Items.

Wonder what has become of Citizen, dead I guess.

Things generally are moving along all right in our section of the country, looking at it from a higher standpoint than that of a human.

Crops are bound to be short on all lines, so let everybody commence at once to take care of what they have and by all means commence preparing for another crop while the weather is cool and the days short and their teams can plough on good wholesome roughness, thereby saving what little grain we have for a rainy day.

Our church privileges are good and Bro. Swenney our pastor, stands favorably with his people. Sunday school we think will average up very well.

Young men's prayermeeting every Wednesday night is moving along nicely.

Literary school good under the management of Prof. Hood.

Next quarterly meeting will embrace the 3rd Sunday in October, Bro. Shaw, our beloved Presiding Elder, is expected and will be here if not providentially hindered. Everybody come out and hear him, he will do you good.

I close by saying to Citizen to treat me right and come to the front next week. PLUNKET.

Lyceum Course.

The series of entertainments guaranteed by Messrs. Van'Tuyl, Adams and Webb, noted in last week's issue of the Record, has proven a great success, so far as the sale of tickets goes. About everybody in town has signed for tickets and we feel sure no one will be disappointed. The first entertainment will be given October 9th, by Luther Manship, at the opera house. Tickets will be mailed to all subscribers.

If you have not yet subscribed, you can do so by seeing Robert M. Webb. He has the list, and he says it seems like old times—going about asking the people to support a good course of entertainments, and that nearly all asked, have subscribed. About 200 tickets have to date been sold, and the opera house will contain the "Old Guard" at all the entertainments.

(This writer has known Mr. Manship for twenty years or more, and has heard him at every stage of his development as a platform lecturer, and unqualifiedly recommends him to the people of Colorado, not only as a first class attraction, but a cultivated christian gentleman as well. Colorado will not be disappointed in Luther Manship—Ed.)

Texas Visit Baltimore.

Judge William R. Smith, representative in Congress from Texas, and Judge Edward J. Hammer of Colorado, one of the leading lawyers of Western Texas, were here for a short time today. They have come East primarily to see Secretary of Agriculture, with a view to procuring a modification of drastic quarantine regulations that bear heavily on the cattle raisers of their section.

Congressman Smith in speaking of crops in Texas, said: "The crop failure was the only thing that kept Texas from being an Eldorado this year. The yield of cotton, instead of being 4,000,000 will hardly reach 2,000,000, a result due to the drought. Curiously enough, however, some planters have had banner crops, some getting the best results of their lives, although perhaps, their immediate neighbors did not make enough to pay for the gathering.

"The consolation remains that cotton will command a high price, and so even with a reduced yield there will be plenty of money in the hands of the people."

GREAT CORN DISPLAY.
Forty-Two Counties to Exhibit at Coming State Fair.
CORN DAY A FEATURE.
Boys' Club Will Be Organized—Dairy and Bee Exhibit—Exposition Begins October 16.
Visitors to the twenty-fourth annual meeting of the State Fair of Texas, which opens at Dallas Saturday, October 16, and continues sixteen days, will find a marked improvement in the agricultural department. When it is taken into consideration that Texas has 137,865,000 acres of land uncultivated, it is plainly seen that the management of the Fair has the proper incentive to make this department a paramount feature of each exposition. Forty-two counties have secured space for the exhibition of their farm, orchard and garden products. This is the largest number in the history of the Fair, and will exemplify in a way as never before, the rich agricultural resources of the state. Although the $2,000 in individual and county exhibits create a good humored, and spirited rivalry among the agriculturalists of the state, the benefit that the exhibitors receive from a display of their products at the Fair is incalculable. Great railroad systems have arranged to give stopover privileges at Dallas during the Fair to all home-seekers, for the purpose of furnishing a rare opportunity of coming in direct contact with the people of various portions of the state and there see and inspect the diversified products.
Until last year the farm, orchard and garden displays were in tents scattered about the main plaza of the grounds. The erection of the agricultural building, which covers an acre in extent, brought the Fair last year thirty-two county exhibits, which for artistic arrangement and varied display, could be equaled anywhere else in the United States. This year the display will be larger and superior in quality. West Texas, where thousands of immigrants are securing homes annually, will send every variety of grasses, corn, cotton, fruits, vegetables, sugar cane, etc. South Texas will send its rice, corn, cotton, citrus fruits, vegetables of every kind. East Texas, where associations have been formed for the purpose, has promised a wood-orchard and garden products section of the state. Central Texas has promised an exhibit eclipsing that of last year.
Much interest centers around the corn show and the Boys' Corn Club Day at the Fair. Cash prizes totalling $400 will be awarded in the corn division. This money is divided into prizes ranging from $1 to $50. Every farmer in Texas is urged to send ten ears of corn to the Fair, as there are over fifty of these prizes to be contested for and the chances of winning should create an unusual contest. "Boys' Corn Club Day" will, it is declared, cause great interest among the farmers and the sons of farmers of the state in the raising of this crop. It is the intention to organize a state boys' corn club at the Fair on this day.
The sweepstakes in the farm and mill department follow: For the best and most complete individual exhibition of corn, cotton, small grain and other products from Texas, $25 first and $10 second; best farm exhibit from any county or association in Texas, $100 first, $75 second, $50 third and $25 fourth; best and most complete individual exhibit of corn, cotton, small grain and other farm products from Mexico, $25 first and $10 second; best farm exhibit from any state or association in Mexico, $25 first and $18 second.
Visitors to the coming exposition will find Professor Louis Scholl of New Braunfels in a "den of live bees," situated in the agricultural building. In this department prizes totalling $250 will be awarded for exhibits of bees, honey-products and bees-wax. All the different phases of the industry will be demonstrated. Twelve different varieties of bees will be exhibited and compared. There will be displayed honey in combs, in liquids, in sugar, etc. And then the many table delicacies in which honey plays a large part. Mrs. Louis Scholl will be glad to impart to the women visitors some of the secrets connected with the art of cooking with honey.
In the dairy department will be found a splendid display of the dairy and creamery products of the state. Butter and cheese will be exhibited in a mammoth refrigerator, built especially for the purpose. All the latest devices for dairy and creamery machinery will be seen and butter for commercial purposes will be made each week during the Fair. There will be plans of model dairy and farm houses open for the inspection and education of visitors.
A purse of $70 will be awarded in the students' judging contest open to students of the Agricultural and Mechanical college. The contest will consist of judging two classes of dairy cattle and two classes of dairy products. In the students' butter making contest, gold and silver medals and diplomas will be awarded.
East Texas and West Texas are to meet in the agricultural building of the State of Texas, at the twenty-fourth annual meeting, which opens at Dallas Saturday, October 16, and continues sixteen days, and the diversified products of these two great sections of the state are to be compared. Both are rich in agricultural products and this rivalry will result in great good. County associations have been formed and for the past several months preparations have been under way for the Fair. Texas has 130,000,000 acres of uncultivated land and the Fair, through its competitive exhibits, is doing much to attract the best of the agricultural classes of the North and East to the Southwest.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA.
They Clog the Pores—Only a Liquid Can Reach the Inner Skin.
Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and can not penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.
This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the only standard liquid eczema cure, oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription. After ten years of cure after cure, the world's leading skin specialists have accepted this as the true eczema cure.
We ourselves do not hesitate to recommend D. D. D. Prescription at $1.00 a bottle, but for the benefit of those who have never tried the prescription, we arranged with the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special large trial bottle at 25 cents on a special offer now. This first bottle ought to convince every sufferer, and, at any rate, it will surely take away the itch at once.
W. L. DOSS.
A Coloradan in Kansas City.
J. W. Lovelady of Colorado, Texas, is perhaps one of the best known of all the old time cowmen of the early day class in the state. Mr. Lovelady is raising some of the highest grade cattle that can be found now on his ranch near that place which consists of over 13,000 acres. At the time he went to that country the Indians were numerous, so much so that settlers were often driven out and buffalo were very numerous. For several years he and others followed buffalo hunting through the fall and winter months. They sold the skins, the hind quarters and the tongues. "The greatest killing we ever made," he said, as he told of some of his experiences, was 6,000 buffalo. And the record for a single day that I made was that of killing 103 head. The tongues were salted and smoked, and we sold them for $3 per 100. The hams and meat we hung up and dried and sold it around wherever we could and at whatever we were offered for it. The hides were fairly ready sellers, but in those days it took 10 buffalo hides to pay for a sack of flour. And I want to say that those hind quarters when dried up and cured were fine eating. I do not recall the time since those days when I had any such good meat. Those were good old days, full of excitement and pleasure. When we would drive a long string of cattle up over the old Chrisholm trail to the nearest railroad point in Kansas, Wichita, or some other point, we generally remained in town a few days and sort of celebrated. Some of the boys were a little rough at times, and we occasionally had a killing, but we never killed anyone unless we were compelled to do so. While I like to look back and recall those good old days I have no desire whatever to live them over again. Some of the veterans who passed through those days occasionally long for their return, but I do not. The present times are good enough for me." Mr. Lovelady brought in a string of over 100 head of choice feeding steers.—Kansas City Daily.

Here's the Doctrine.
In almost every town you will find one or two business men who will not advertise, and who do not realize that they are actually "sponging" on the other business men for the trade they do get. In this age of hustle and push, no town can get people to come to it to trade unless the merchants use some form of advertising, and the merchant who fails to contribute his share of the advertising can be put in no other class than that of a parasite. Of course, the newspaper is recognized by modern business men as by far the best medium of advertising, but if a merchant happens to "have it in" for his editor, then in duty to his fellow merchants he should order from some foreign printer some form of advertising matter, thus doing his share in securing patronage for his town. Granger has competitors all around her and it is the duty of every single business man to do his share in advertising for patronage. If you don't want to patronize this office, don't, but for God's sake advertise and push your town.—Granger News.

Melons Fed From Bottle.
Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 19.—Some watermelon growers in the county of Carroll, the great melon district of the state, report excellent results from the feeding of melons from a bottle. The stem of the young melon is cut and put into a bottle of sweetened water. It absorbs rapidly, the melon quickly growing to enormous size, as large as eighty pounds in one instance, and a flavor that was truly delicious.

American Barn Dance.
The American Barn Dance, now one of the leading novelties of the London ball rooms, has been introduced in this country. Several society women startled the community with "S. R. Henry's Barn Dance," to which they danced the figures of the Virginia reel and the hoedown. Since then the band and orchestras have taken up the craze.
The method in which the dance is interpreted is that of six couples who swing their partners to a central point, then waltz back to an angle formed by the first retreating couple, who, in turn, exchange partners. The following strains indicate the musical theme to which this is done.
The dance proper occupies increased interest. It is wrought to a climax in which the couples sing a set of words called "Down at the Huskin' Bee" are invoked. The following bars of Mr. Henry's barn dance are utilized:
To this melody the text runs as follows:
"Come along and let's make merry down at the huskin' bee, Apple jack and good blackberry, we'll have a jubilee," etc.

PE-RU-NA USED FOR KIDNEY CATARRH.

Gen. A. F. Hawley, of Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used Peruna and find it very beneficial for kidney trouble, and especially good for coughs, colds and catarrhal troubles."

Gen. A. F. Hawley.

William Bailey.

Kidney Trouble for Nearly Thirty Years.

William Bailey, Past Col. Enc. No. 68, Union Veteran Legion, and prominently identified with many of the great labor protective associations in Chicago and New York, and secretary of one of the largest associations in the former city, had for nearly thirty years been afflicted with kidney troubles.

Within a short period he has been persuaded to try Peruna, and his present healthy condition is attributed to his judicious use of that great remedy. Washington climate is notoriously bad for kidney and liver troubles, yet by a judicious use of the remedy he is now quite cured and in excellent physical condition.

This brief statement of facts, without exaggeration or hyperbole, appears to tell the whole story, which the Peruna Company is authorized to use, if it so chooses, believing, as I do, that by so doing it will be for the general good.

William Bailey, 381 St. N. E., Washington, D. C.

Kidneys Affected—Back Weak.

Mr. M. Broderick, Secretary and Treasurer Local Union No. 406, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, writes from 435 E. 46th St., Chicago, Ill., as follows:

"I have been suffering from a weak back and kidney trouble for some time, and have been able to find relief only through the use of Peruna.

"During the winter season I usually keep a bottle of your medicine in the house, and by taking a dose at night I am feeling fine the next morning.

"Some of my friends assure me that Peruna is equally as good for their various ailments as it is for my complaint; but I do know that for kidney trouble and suffering from a weak back it has no equal."

Cold Settled in Kidneys.

Mr. Joseph Klee, 215 East 4th St., Topeka, Kas., writes: "My wife took Peruna for liver trouble and a run-down condition incident to the same. A few bottles built up her health and strength.

"I took Peruna for a cold which settled in my kidneys, giving me much pain. In two weeks I was much better, and in a few months I was well."

For Liver and Kidneys.

Mr. W. H. Armistead, Cumberland, C. H., Va., writes:

"Your Peruna has cured me of chronic catarrh of long standing. I thank you so much for your advice. I think it is a great medicine. It will do all that you recommend it to do. Besides, I can recommend it to cure all liver and kidney troubles."

Chronic Kidney Trouble.

Judge C. J. Park, R. F. D. 1, Buckhead, Ga., writes:

"For a long time I was troubled with catarrh of the kidneys, and after taking Peruna I feel like a new man. I think it the greatest catarrh medicine of the age, and believe it will cure any case of catarrh on record."

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County—Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon Frank Huett and R. K. Huett by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Thirty-second Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mitchell County, Texas, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Colorado, on the 1st Monday in January, A. D. 1910, the same being the 3rd day of January A. D. 1910, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 18th day of September A. D. 1909, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1214, wherein Paul S. Frenn is Plaintiff and S. P. Jackson, Frank Huett and R. K. Huett are Defendants; the nature of plaintiff's demand being as follows:

To foreclose a Vendor's Lien to enforce the collection of six certain promissory notes aggregating the sum of $900, also the interest, principal, attorney's fees and damages, plaintiff alleging that on the 3rd day of January will amount to the sum of $1,500. Plaintiff alleges that by purchase he became the owner and holder on February 25, 1908, of said six certain promissory notes, described as follows, to-wit: Note No. 1 for the sum of $100; Note No. 2 for the sum of $100; Note No. 3 for $175; Note No. 4 for $175; Note No. 5 for $175; Note No. 6 for $175, said notes executed and delivered by R. K. Huett to S. P. Jackson at Lorraine, Texas, on the 14th day of November, 1907 and payable to the order of S. P. Jackson at Lorraine, Texas, on or before the 15th day of November, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912 and 1913 respectively, each bearing interest from date at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, interest payable annually as it accrues and providing for interest at the rate of 10 per cent after maturity and also for an additional 10 per cent as attorney's fees if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection or if collected by suit; each of said notes provides that in case of default in the payment of same or any installment of interest thereon when due shall at the election of the holder thereof, mature all of said notes. Plaintiff alleges that said notes are secured by a vendor's lien on a certain tract of land described in the deed of same date executed by S. P. Jackson, to said R. K. Huett. Plaintiff further alleges that

Note No. 1, is long past due and unpaid, and though defendants have been often requested to pay same, they have refused so to do, and still fail and refuses to pay same, and as in said note provided he elects to mature all of said notes. Plaintiff alleges that defendant Frank Huett is setting up some kind of claim to said land the exact nature of which Plaintiff does not know. Premises considered Plaintiff prays that each of said defendants be cited to appear and answer this petition and that on final hearing hereof, he have judgment for the principal, interest, attorney's fees, cost of suit, with 10 per cent on the judgment until paid, and for a foreclosure of the Vendor's Lien on the land in said deed and notes described, which is 130 acres lying in Van Zandt County, Texas, out of the J. Jones and J. Stephenson Surveys described by notes and bounds in said deed above referred to and in plaintiff's original petition filed herein.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness my hand and official seal at my office in Colorado, Texas, this 20th day of September A. D. 1909.

M., on the first Tuesday in November A. D. 1909, it being the 2nd day of said month, at the Court House door of said Mitchell County, in the City of Colorado, proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which B. CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

THE STATE OF TEXAS.
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. W. Durham and Mary Durham, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Thirty-second Judicial District; to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mitchell County, Texas, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Colorado on the 1st Monday in January A. D. 1910, the same being the 3rd day of January A. D. 1910, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 15th day of September A. D. 1909, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 1213, wherein C. M. Adams is Plaintiff and J. W. Durham and Mary Durham are Defendants; the nature of plaintiff's demand being as follows: Plaintiff sues the defendants in trespass to try title for the recovery of the title and for removal of cloud from title, the property involved being lots numbered three and four (3 and 4) in Block 18, City of Colorado in Mitchell County, Texas, alleging title in fee-simple in himself, the said plaintiff. Plaintiff further sets up that on the 26th day of September 1903, these defendants conveyed said property unto J. J. Brumley, Plaintiff's vendor, for a consideration in part, two promissory notes of $250 each and payable January 1st, 1905 and January 1st 1906, secured by a vendor's lien on said property.

That said notes have long since been paid, but there has never been executed any written release or discharge of the lien as against said lots, which fact operates as a cloud upon plaintiff's title.

Plaintiff's title is of common source with that of these defendants if said defendants have any claim, which plaintiff denies.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term hereof, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness my hand and official seal at my office in Colorado, Texas, this 17th day of September, A. D. 1909.

to remove cloud from title, etc., the property involved, being lot numbered 9 in Block numbered 4 in the City of Colorado in Mitchell County, Texas, according to plat thereof recorded in Deed Records of said County, Volume "C", pages 16-17; plaintiff alleging title in fee-simple in himself to said property, and that defendants are setting up some sort of claim or title to said property, to plaintiff unknown.

The Record is in receipt of a letter from our former townsman, J. H. Woodard at Fort Worth, saying that he has closed out the Boracho townsite proposition in El Paso county, and fixed the date of opening for November 18th and 19th. He says further, that he will give precedence over all others to the Colorado Band, if it can take care of the music for that occasion. This is certainly an opportunity the band boys should not fail to improve, if possible for them to go. It would do them good and be quite a feather in the cap of Colorado in general. Judging from reports of their present progress, there seems no doubt of their ability to handle the music for that occasion.

Getting Together "Someway."

We are in receipt of an offer from a Kansas City whiskey house to "swap" booze for advertising space, and in the course of the bibulous letter, they say: "You want good whiskey. Ours is good and it looks like we might get together somehow, since we understand each other perfectly."

We have grave doubts about the Kansas City whiskey house understanding us, but we thoroughly understand the Kansas City whiskey house. Certainly we can get together "someway." That's simple. It only needs for us to accept their bribe, and drink their stuff, to land together in a drunkard's hell.

Further, they say: "We have come to the conclusion the only way this can be done is to 'come after you.'" Sure! That's the secret of the life of the liquor business—to come after you. That's always been the policy of the devil. In the first record we have of strife between good and evil, fifteen hundred years before the Christian era, the sacred page informs us that "Satan came also."

Another inducement: "Our business is to supply wines and liquors direct to consumers, no middlemen's profit, but straight from us to you." Sure. That's an improvement on the methods of all the poisoners, from the Borgias down to the latest bungler. No disguise, mask or other pretense of decency. They want to know whom they slay.

Yes, we could get together "some way," but we won't.

Letter to S. M. Johnson.

Colorado, Texas.
Dear Sir: Paint goes by gallons. Useful paint is lead-zinc-and-oil with dryer and color; useless paint is whitening, china clay, ground stone, barytes, benzine and water.

This stuff is put in, because it is cheap, to stuff-out the paint, to make more gallons to sell; of course the buyer doesn't suspect, or he wouldn't buy it.

It costs as much to brush-on this useless stuff as lead-zinc-and-oil; but it looks like that and feels like that in the brush; the painter doesn't suspect it. Besides, if the owner is willing why should the painter object to painting two gallons for one? He is paid by the day; more gallons, more days, more money.

Average paint at full price is about one-third this useless stuff; and average paint at $1.25 or $1.50 or $1.75 a gallon is two-thirds trash. Fool paint is a proper name for all but pure disfigurements made to fool people with.

Another name is another good name; it is made, of course, by knaves. Sick paint is a name for an honest weak paint. They are all weak and all extravagant; too many gallons to buy and too many gallons to brush-on. Devoe is the standard. Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

Ode to Trinity.

Mistaking a well-to-do farmer near Goveton for a nescaped criminal, a sheriff's posse with two rangers, fired upon him and a 17 year old son, killing the father and fatally wounding the son. Trinity and Waller counties, Texas, are putting Breathitt county, Kentucky to the blush—these three but the worst of all is Trinity.

Man that is born in the pines of Trinity, is of feud days and full of wildcat booze.

He fisheth, fighteth and cusseth all the days of his uncertain life.

He passeth by water as a mad dog and soap as a rank pizen. His staple crop is hell, and when he hankers to raise the same, he planteth an officer of the law or a neighbor, and lo! he reapeth twenty fold.

He seeketh the sacp of his grandsire's enemy, and bringeth home in his own carcass, the buck-shot of his neighbor's wife's cousin, who avengeth the deed. His life is uncertain, for he knoweth not the day or night he may be yanked hence.

He goeth forth on a little journey to church, half shot, and cometh back on a shutter shot full of lead.

He riseth in the night to let the cat out or chase the festive mink and it taketh four doctors two days to pick the slugs from his neighbor's gun from his back.

He sallyeth forth in the dewy morn to feed his neighbor's hogs, a cyclone bloweth him into the bosom of his neighbor's wife, and his neighbor's wife's husband bloweth him into Abraham's bosom, ere he hath time to prove an alibi.

He empieth a quart of booze into his skin and a shot gun into his neighbor, and his neighbor's son lieth in wait for him on election day and the crowd ploweth up a forty acre field to bury the remnants of that citizen of Trinity.

Its a Mere Trifle.

Gasoline engines have sent more newspaper men to hell than have delinquent subscribers. They are both a source of trouble, but when a gasoline engine says it won't run you can't cuss a line or two and mark it off the books as the case of the delinquent. This week our engine went on a strike and we are getting out this week's paper on the press of the Texan.—Granger News.

We can't speak by the card as to the percentage of the Fourth Estate, but bear willing testimony as to the demoralizing effect of a shot gun, pinter pup, and fishing pole on the average run of men. Give the most truthful man in the community, either of the above and the chances are 7 to 3 that he will either prevaricate (lie) about the performances of his dog, the accuracy of his aim, or the size and number of fish he "like to caught." They are the devil's soft soap. They make a measly old gasoline engine and its obstanacies, appear as meek and bland as a dose of oil.
