Sheep, Goat Raisers Hear 'Experts' Speak

Approximately 40 sheep and goat raisers attended the 5th Annual Eastland County Sheep and Goat Field Day Friday at the Ranger Junior College cafeteria.

Jack Groff, a sheep and goat specialist with the agriculture Extension Service, of Texas A&M, speaking on the internal parasites of sheep and goats, pointed out that at this time we cannot eliminate the number one parasite, the stomach worm, so we will just have to learn to live with it. However, he added, we can control it with proper range programs and medicine. Groff recommended pasture rotation — leaving the pasture without sheep or goats for a period of at least 30 days and preferable 60 to 90 days. With proper pasture rotation and fencing as often as necessary the stomach worm can be controlled, he said.

How do you determine if your animals have parasites? According to Groff, you observe. If your range is good and the animals are not looking well, you suspect parasites. If the veins of the eyeball are white instead of red, you suspect parasites. In the advanced stages the animals jaw and stomach will swell up.

Speaking on improving kid production of Angora goats, Dr. Maurice Shelton, a geneticist with the Livestock and Forage Research Center, McGregor, observed that the larger the size of the doe, the more kids raised. He urged raisers to concentrate on getting heavier goats — up to at least 80 pounds.

Dr. Shelton pointed out 3 ways to improve the size of your herd. First, improve the management practices, which

FHA News

The Carbon FHA officers met Monday, Aug. 8, in the Heme Ec cottage for the purpose of planning the year-book for the coming year. Those attending were Kay Thackerson, Jo Ann Bean, Nancy Mills, Debbie Jackson, Marcia Webb, Beth Duncan, Judy Collins and the sponsor, Mrs. Alice Brooks.

The chapter has recipe books for sale at $3.01 each. They contain recipes for vegetables, salads, meats, desserts, and casseroles. If interested see any FHA member or Mrs. Brook.

includes stocking, parasite control and supplement feeding; second, feeding practices — high feed level per goat — don't overload your pasture and third, selection for size. The goat should reach maximum size at about 5 years of age.

"Lamb and sheep prices will remain at a favorable level rest of 1966," said John G. McHaney, Extension Service economist, College Station. And while we wouldn't commit a prediction about 1967 prices, he did point out several things which would lead one to believe they will be good — the number of sheep is decreasing, from 56 million head in 1942 to 26.4 million head in 1965; we are at war, this usually causes prices to rise; present supply in other countries is small and the general economy situation continues at a high level.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 79 proposing an amendment to Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding Section 1-d to provide that all land owned by natural persons designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding Section 1-d to read as follows:

"Section 1-d. (a) All land owned by natural persons which is designated for agricultural use in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use. 'Agricultural use' means the raising of livestock or growing of crops, fruit, flowers, and other products of the soil under natural conditions as a business venture for profit, which business is the primary occupation and source of income of the owner.

(b) For each assessment year the owner wishes to qualify his land under provisions of this Section as designated for agricultural use he shall file with the local tax assessor a sworn statement in writing describing the use to which the land is devoted.

(c) Upon receipt of the sworn statement in writing the local tax assessor shall determine whether or not such land qualifies for the designation as to agricultural use as defined herein and in the event it so qualifies he shall designate such land as being for agricultural use and assess the land accordingly.

(d) Such local tax assessor may inspect the land and require such evidence of use and source of income as may be necessary or useful in determining whether or not the agricultural use provision of this article applies.

(e) No land may qualify for the designation provided for in this Act unless for at least three (3) successive years immediately preceding the assessment date the land has been devoted exclusively for agricultural use, or unless the land has been continuously developed for agriculture during such time.

(f) Each year during which the land is designated for agricultural use, the local tax assessor shall note on his records the valuation which would have been made had the land not qualified for such designation under this Section. If designated land is subsequently diverted to a purpose other than that of agricultural use, or is sold, the land shall be subject to an additional tax. The additional tax shall equal the difference between taxes paid or payable, hereunder, and the amount of tax payable for the preceding three years had the land been otherwise assessed. Until paid, there shall be a lien for additional taxes and interest on land assessed under the provisions of this Section.

(g) The valuation and assessment of any minerals or subsurface rights to minerals shall not come within the provisions of this Section."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment to provide that all land owned by natural persons designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use.

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment to provide that all land owned by natural persons designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the constitution and laws of this state.
