REAMES EARNEST DEAD.

Lost His Life in Hotel Fire at Forney, With Two Others.

A great deal of interest and anxiety were created last Thursday afternoon after the Record had gone to press, over a telegram from D. C. Earnest at Dallas, stating that it was reported that A. R. Earnest, his brother, had been burned to death in a fire at Forney. Judge C. H. Earnest was absent at the time, and Mrs. Earnest wired him, intercepting him at Dallas, where she later joined him. The daily papers contained the following account of the holocaust, the next day.

Forney, Tex., Feb. 24.—Three men were burned to death in a disastrous fire which swept the business section of this town at 3 o'clock this morning. The men who lost their lives were guests at the City hotel, which was destroyed. Eight other guests narrowly escaped death in the flames, a number jumping from windows in their night clothing. Two were injured in jumping.

The dead: A. R. EARNEST, aged 65, of Fort Worth, representing the West Texas Land Company. R. G. FARMER, of Forney. M. E. POWELL, of Kemp, Kaufman county.

Nothing but the melted form of the solid gold watch, which Mr. Earnest wore could be located, other than a part of his grip containing some literature advertising West Texas.

Mr. Earnest, with his family, has been in Fort Worth for over three years, coming here from Colorado, Texas, where he was engaged in the cattle business.

He is survived by his wife and one son, Walter, and a daughter, Miss Irene who reside at 1015 Lamar street.

Mr. Earnest was a representative of the West Texas Townsite Company, having been engaged in selling western lands.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Colorado, Texas, and the Masons at Forney were prominent in assisting in the search for his body.

The skull and a portion of the trunk of one of the victims was found, but it was thoroughly established that the charred bones were not those of Mr. Earnest, as they were entirely too small, he being a large man.

The deceased is survived by his wife, one daughter, Miss Irene, a son, Walter, his father, who lives at Austin; six brothers, Joe of San Marcos, Jim of Austin, Charley of Colorado, Dave of Dallas, Clay of San Antonio, Walter of Austin, and one sister, Mrs. Tennie Wright, also of Austin.

A. R. Earnest was well known in West Texas. He was a brother of C. H. Earnest of Dallas. He lived for several years in Colorado, where he had many friends to mourn his untimely and horrible death. He leaves a wife and family living in Fort Worth.

The grading of fifteen blocks on four of the streets running north and south, is now in progress. When these are completed, all the main streets, and those used most, will have been put in fine shape. This will probably finish the street work for this year, but next spring Fifth, Sixth and Seventh streets, running east and west from the river to Lone Wolf, will be graded and graveled. This work has certainly been of great benefit to the town, as it transforms the almost impassable sand-beds to smooth, hard and level streets. It also adds materially to the looks of the city. The city council and the street commission are all right, Shake.

SHEPARD-GATLIFF.

In the Rose House parlor, 109 W. Hickory Street, at about three o'clock, Feb. 12, in the presence of many friends, Miss Hughie Gatliff and Mr. T. L. Shepard were united in marriage by Rev. Andrews of the First Baptist church.

The bride, whose home is in Colorado, was a student in the North Texas State Normal College. She is a charming young lady with a most lovable character and was a favorite with all who knew her. Her record as a pupil stands unexcelled and her class and the clubs, of which she was a member, will feel her loss sadly.

The groom, who is from Cisco, is an ex-student of the Normal and is well known here. The high standard he maintained throughout his whole work here made him one of the most popular young men we have yet had with us. Because of his great amount of ambition and intellect, crowned by his devotion to christianity, we can not speak too highly of his future.

The young couple, it seems, have had quite a romantic courtship. They met some two or three years ago at an Institute for Teachers in Mitchell county, where they were both teaching. The friendship which immediately began, terminated in the happy event we have just recorded.

We only wish for them the happiness they so richly merit.

They left at once for Sunnydale, at which place the groom is principal of the schools.—Record and Chronical Denton, Texas.

Sunday night a very pretty service was held at the Methodist church when the Home Mission officers were installed by Mrs. Payne, the District Secretary. A paper upon Home Mission Work, and an address by Rev. Lyon upon the same subject, was delivered. Then the impressive ceremony was read by Mrs. Payne to the officers, who, dressed in white, were seated upon the front seat. Mrs. Lyon acted as escort and as each was presented, an emblem of their office was presented. The press reporter was especially honored by being given an elegant fountain pen from friends in the society. A call was made for members and a collection taken for the work. The ladies greatly appreciate the interest and aid of Mr. Lyon, who is always ready to help with all their work and give them a service.—Press Reporter.

A STEADY DRAIN.

Sick Kidneys Weaken the Whole Body. Make You Ill, Languid and Depressed.

Sick kidneys weaken the whole body through the continual drainage of life-giving albumen from the blood into the urine, and the substitution of poisonous uric acid that goes broadcast through the system, sowing the seeds of disease. Loss of albumen causes weakness, languor, depression, uric poisoning causes rheumatic pain, nervousness, nausea, cricks in the back, gravel and kidney stones. The proper treatment is a kidney treatment, and the best remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is good proof in the following testimonial:

J. L. Harris, of Merkel, Texas, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than any other remedy I ever used and I think they stand alone as a cure for kidney ailments. My back gave trouble for several years. At times the misery was in form of a dull throbbing ache then it would change to sharp shooting twinges. The kidney secretions also caused me a great deal of annoyance, being too frequent in passage. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills my general health has been improved and my kidneys have given me no trouble. I have recommended this remedy to several of my neighbors and deem it a pleasure to do so."

COMMISSIONERS' COURT.

At the last session of the Commissioners' Court they passed an order and decree that the clerk was not to let any of the county records leave his office, day or night, and he was so instructed, so parties interested will take notice.

H. B. SMOOT

ONE OF COLORADO'S PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN PASSES AWAY.

A Short Biographical Sketch of His Life and the Last Sad Rites.

The Passing of a Good Man and Honorable Citizen, Mourned by All Who Knew Him.

(By Pastor Holmes Nichols of the Baptist Church.)

The following words, which were spoken from house to house, and whispered by friend to friend, last Thursday morning, brought sadness and gloom to every heart and home in our city: "H. B. Smoot is dead!"

In writing a brief sketch of the life of this energetic business man, I shall not indulge in fulsome flattery, nor an eulogistic eulogy, but will speak of him, and write of him, in the light of the life which he lived among the people of this goodly town for almost three decades.

Though Mr. Smoot was quiet and reserved in his nature, it was not hard to understand him. He wore his life on his sleeve, and that unostentatious life was known and read of all men with whom he associated. Here in Colorado he lived and loved, wrought and worked, planned and prayed, hoped and acted for 27 years, hence when the spirit left its house of clay, on the morning of February 21st, 1910, neighbor whispered to neighbor: "A good man has gone home."

Family History.

He comes of old Virginia ancestry, the son of Joseph H. Smoot, a native of Richmond, Virginia, who removed from the Old Dominion to Mobile, Alabama, and became a prominent lawyer of that city. Joseph H. Smoot came to Texas in 1867, locating at Galveston, where he was eminently successful in his vocation up to the date of his death. His wife was Miss Martha Buckholts, a Mississippian by birth, to whom her noble son, Harry B. Smoot, was tenderly and affectionately devoted to the very last moment of his life, and who still lingers in the shadows of the garden, awaiting the Master's call: "Come up higher."

Harry B. Smoot was born in Mobile, Alabama, March the 14th, 1856, and is the last of his father's family to pass away, a sister having preceded him to the better land.

After a commercial course in Crawford's Commercial college of Galveston, he engaged in merchandising as an employe in Bryan, Texas. Soon after coming to Colorado, Texas, in 1883, Mr. Smoot was elected assistant cashier of the First National Bank, and was elected cashier the following year, which position he filled for ten years. Mr. Smoot was connected, in various ways, with the banking interests of Colorado, first and last, during his long residence in the thriving city of his choice. His busy strenuous life began with the beginning of Colorado, and continued until his health failed about one year before his death.

Mr. H. B. Smoot and Miss Annie Figg, a daughter of George M. Figg, of Montgomery, Alabama, were married September 15th, 1889. He is survived by his wife and only son, Joseph H. Smoot, and his aged mother.

Mr. Smoot was devoted to his little family, and did all within his power to make home happy. He loved Colorado, and every legitimate interest and agency which stood for her advancement.

He loved life—and who does not?—and, like the prophet of old, longed to remain with his family, and his town folk. But "Leaves have their time to fall, And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath. And stars to set—set all. Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O Death."

As we looked at his peaceful face, lighted with a smile, the morning after his home-going, and thought of the valiant fight he made for life, we could but say with another:

"Long he's struggled, but at last Has come a summons from on high, And his soul with angel escort Has sought its home beyond the sky."

Not only did he long to remain with his little family, and with his erstwhile friends of these passing years, but we also longed to see him, and to hear him say: "I am here."

worth and work. Yes, we all prayed that his useful life might be spared to us, awhile longer. But

"We leaned on hope that was all in vain. Till the terrible word, at last, Told our stricken hearts he was out of pain. And his beautiful life had passed."

Last Solemn Rites.

The funeral service was conducted in his home on the morning of the 25th of February, by the pastor of the Baptist church, of which Mr. Smoot had been a member for years. The service was a regular attendant at the church, during the last year or two of his life, on account of ill health, yet he stood nobly by his pastor in the work, showing him many acts of kindness, and helped with all the burdens incident to church life. Mr. Smoot was also a member of the Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of this city, and the Commandery and Hells Temple of the Mystic Shrine of Dallas.

After the service in the home by his pastor, his Masonic brethren took charge of the remains and he was interred with Masonic honors in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery beside his children, who had preceded him to the "Father's House where the 'many mansions' be."

The closing of all the stores in town, the many and beautiful floral offerings, the long funeral procession which slowly and solemnly wended its way yonder to the silent city of our dead, and the many, many expressions of sympathy, spoke to us of Colorado's love and esteem for this useful citizen.

H. B. Smoot is not dead, he sleeps. He shall continue to live in our affections, and in every charitable and helpful deed of his noble life. "He that liveth and believeth on me shall never die. Believeveth thou this? Yea, Lord, he believeveth, help, thou, our unbelief." For—

"There is no death, what seems so is transition:

This life of mortal breath Is but a suburb of the life elysian, Whose portals call death."

Thank God for the Christian's hope! Thank God for the twenty-seven strenuous years which our friend gave to Colorado, the beautiful little city of his choice. Thank God for his tireless energy, his clean, christian character; his purity of purpose, his self-control, his elevating example, and his masterful will to dare and to do. Let us emulate all that was good and pure and patriotic and clean in his life. Let us throw a mantle of charity over his every fault and foible. Thank God for H. B. Smoot who ready when the Master called, and death had no terrors for him, for his life was hidden with Christ in God. Hallowed be his memory, for never Fell the daylight's fading glimmer, On a face so wan and white. Brighter was his soul, while dimmer Grew the shadows of the night. And he died—and God was with him. Could I ask and could he give, Even now methinks I hear him Whisper, 'Live as I did live.'"

Mr. J. J. Dillard of Lubbock, a candidate for Representative from this 16th district, advocates in his platform that Commissioners' Courts be compelled to publish itemized statements of all bills paid by that court. In our opinion this is a splendid idea, for at each session of the Court thousands of dollars are paid out, and the public (tax payers) never know for what their money is paid.

What "Marion Harland" Thinks of "Nature's Gift From The Sunny South"

New York, December 15, 1906

The N. K. Fairbank Company,

Dear Sirs:

Many years ago I discontinued the use of lard in my kitchen and substituted for it as an experiment—COTTOLENE, then comparatively a new product.

Since my first trial of it I can truly say that it has given complete satisfaction, whether it is used alone, as "shortening", or in combination with butter in pastry, biscuits, etc., or in frying; it has never disappointed me.

I wish it were in my power to install this pure vegetable product in the esteem of my fellow housewives in place of the gross, and often diseased, animal fats.

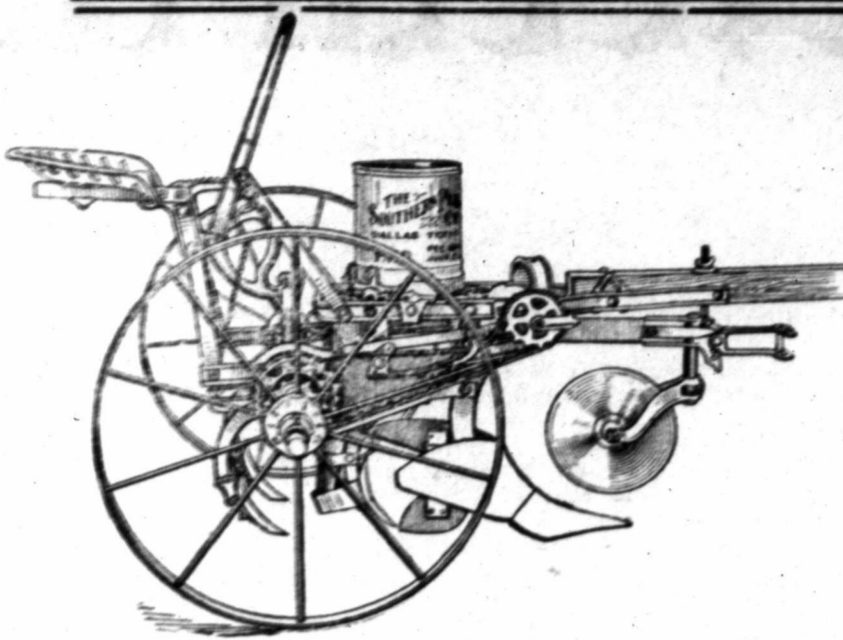

I rarely recommend any proprietary article in print, however good I may think it, but after many years use has proved to my household and myself the excellence of COTTOLENE, I feel justified in departing from the self-imposed rule. I honestly believe it to be the very best thing of its kind ever offered to the American housekeeper, and I am glad of the opportunity to make my conviction public.

Yours truly,

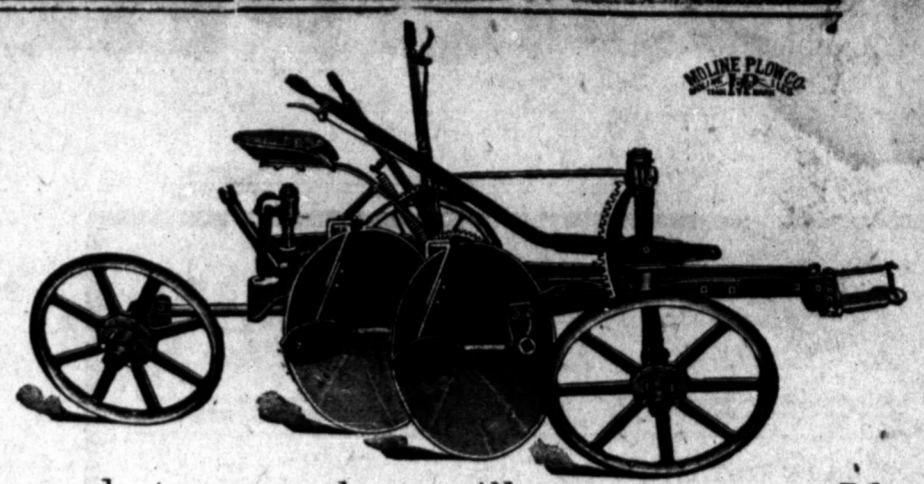

Marion Harland

NOTE—"MARION HARLAND" is well known as one of the foremost cooking experts in the United States. She is the author of the famous "Marion Harland Cook Book," and her articles on culinary subjects are widely read and highly prized. Her high standing and long experience, with COTTOLENE make this endorsement particularly strong and convincing, and it is doubly gratifying because of the fact that it came entirely unsolicited.

PLANTING AND IRRIGATING FRUIT TREES.

Paper No. 2.
In writing these articles we are prompted solely from a desire to benefit our fellow man and not from any hope of reward of money or fame.

The system of irrigation that is described below has never been installed on a large scale, so far as we know, but has been used on a small plot sufficiently to demonstrate the superiority over the common method of applying water. We will assume that the plot of ground has been thoroughly prepared, as in preceding articles. We will take one acre as a basis for operation, containing seventy yards square, and setting trees 25x25 giving sixty-four trees per acre.

The installation of plant will be as follows: One 2-inch galvanized pipe 175 feet long with tees put in every 25 feet, to receive 3/4 inch galvanized pipe. This two inch head pipe is connected to elevated tank with corresponding pipe with shut off valve. The 3/4 pipe is connected at the tees on the head pipe every 25 feet and carried down the line of trees to be irrigated, the ditches having been dug before the work of laying the pipe begins.

Now put in one 1/4 inch pipe one foot long, near connection of two inch head pipe, and so on down each lateral 3/4 pipe, every 25 feet. The connection of the 1/4 pipe in made by drilling holes and threading them with a blacksmith's drill. The stand pipes being threaded the connection is easily made, and greatly strengthened by soldering around the ingress. The stand pipes to be equipped with little faucets.

In laying the pipe care must be taken to have the holes straight up, and pipe deep enough not to interfere with cultivation.

Having the pipe laid, proceed to make under-ground irrigation trough: Take galvanized sheet iron and cut into strips six feet long and eight inches wide; drill 1/2 hole in center of strip to receive irrigation tube. Procure one 4x8 scumpling, 8 feet long and secure it with sharp edge up for a horse. Place strip of sheet iron the long way on the horse, having the center to rest on sharp edge of horse. Now prepare a trough of 2x6 stuff, six feet long, as crimp; place trough on strip and come down with all your might, hammering it if necessary. Now you have a V shaped trough, four inches deep and six feet long to place underground to make a cavern for the reception of water. The 1/2 inch galvanized tube, made of sheet iron, is introduced into aperture of trough, and made secure by soldering, being ten inches long it is brought right up under the opening of the faucet to receive the water, the trough being buried 4 inches. In placing under-ground trough, put small flat rocks under edges to prevent trough from washing into the earth and closing up. The plant must be equipped with drain cocks to drain pipe in cold weather. Trees should be 18 inches from hydrant and on lower side if ground is sloping.

The water is turned on and the faucets are opened to run a stream the size of a small pencil, and the water is received into the irrigating tube and carried directly to the underground cavern made by the cupped up trough. Here we have the science of irrigation in a nut shell.

We have roughly estimated the probable cost of an acre so equipped, counting cost of material, land, labor, interest on investment for five years to amount to $350.00, when orchard will pay from $300 to $500 per annum. No account is taken of windmill and tank as these are necessary for habitation.

Assuming that the pump is of small capacity, 3 gallons per minute, and working 12 hours per day, we have sufficient water to give each tree one barrel of 30 gallons per day, and have eight barrels left for domestic purposes. Again assuming that the plant only works one hundred and eighty days in a year, the orchard will receive enough water to amount to over twelve inches of rainfall, and counting one gallon applied under the surface is worth four on top of the ground, we have the amazing amount of sixty inches in effect, which being supplemented by the natural rainfall is sufficient to mature any crop.

The Meaning of Lent.

Here, simply stated, are the "ancient laws for Lent," to be observed by Episcopalians and Catholics.

To abstain from meat Wednesdays and Fridays and to eat meat only once or festivities of any kind.

To attend no places of amusement or to frequent the services of the church.

To pray daily against one's besetting sin.

To increase alms giving in some definite way.

To examine one's self daily as to the keeping of the laws.

Paine Accepted Devoe's Offer.

Good yarn: How Devoe got an agent at Delhi, N. Y. Gladstone & Paine were agents for Devoe; we mustn't tell names.

Devoe wanted 'em. Paine was painting his big Colonial house. Said it took 10 gallons of white for the trim.

Devoe sent him 10 gallons and said: if you get it all on, no pay; if you have any left, return it and pay for the rest. Agreed.

He returned four gallons and took the agency. Four or five years ago. He knows now that his old paint was and is adulterated; that's why it took ten gallons to equal six of Devoe.

Go by the name; there is but one name to go by: Devoe lead-and-zinc. W. L. Doss sells it.

LIQUID AIR EXPERIMENTS

Marvelous, sensational and bewildering experiments, many of which excel in wonder the feats of the magician. They are unique, instructive and entertaining. Liquid air, radium and wireless telegraphy will be fully shown, explained and experimented with by Prof. Patty at the opera house, next Saturday, Mar. 5th. You can't afford to miss it. Bring the children; they ought to see it.

A Nut for Someone to Crack.

Why do people who do not eat pork as meat continue to use it in the form of lard? Lard is just as indigestible as pork. In a recent article on cooking fats, Dr. Paige Emery, the eminent specialist, writes as follows:

"The healthful and economical solution of the cooking fat problem is the use of Cottolene. Cottolene is purely a vegetable product, is easily assimilated, and aids digestion. Dietetic experiments have shown conclusively that when a vegetable oil is used in cooking in preference to animal fat, it is more easily assimilated and yields far more nourishment to the body."

Cottolene is sold only in sealed pails of special design, which keep it sweet and fresh indefinitely.

The late disastrous flood of the valley of the Seine, in which the city of Paris and a large part of France, suffered so greatly, was due to the deforestation of the watershed of the river. The trees have been destroyed and the water is not absorbed by the living and dead vegetable growth, but is quickly precipitated into the streams.

PLAINVIEW POINTS.

Miss Anna Lee Boswell of Union spent the last two weeks with relatives of this community.

The party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lovelless, last Friday night, in spite of the wind and sand, was well attended and all report a fine time. Miss Cleo Franklin spent the night with her sister, Mrs. John Lovelless.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Costin, went to Lorraine Saturday, returning Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. John Lovelless visited her mother, Mrs. Franklin, Saturday and returned Sunday night.

Mrs. Myrtle Fritchett, of Union, spent a few days last week with relatives here. She will soon leave for Amarillo to join her husband, who is employed there.

Mrs. Bynum and children, visited her mother last week, at Coahoma in Howard county.

Our public school, under the management of Miss Nora Haley, as teacher, closed last Friday, which was a surprise to the patrons and pupils as well as the teacher, who received the notice a day or two before. There was money only for that time. She intended to have a program for the last day of school, and a few of the pupils that knew their parts recited Friday afternoon, with a few visitors present. Miss Haley has proved to be a good, faithful and smooth-tempered teacher, and all the pupils regret very much to have to give her up and all hope she will be back with them again. She made many friends while here, who hate to have her go. She will leave for her home at Buckholts, Texas.

Iva, the little four-year-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bynum, was quite sick last week with pneumonia, but is reported improving at this writing.

Mr. R. Pickens of Union Chapel spent Sunday in this community.

Two or three of Mr. Posey's little children are reported quite sick this week.

Ernest Shurtleff is working for Mr. Mangham now.

Miss Vera Costin spent Sunday with Mrs. Mangham.

Sunday school Sunday evening was well attended as was preaching at night. It was decided to discuss different subjects at the prayer meetings, and "Faith" was chosen as the subject for next Sunday night. We are certainly having a fine prayer meeting, and we hope it will do much good. Every one seems to take an interest in it.

Mrs. Gary entertained Monday night in honor of Oliver Shurtleff and Cleveland Mangham from Ovals, who came in Sunday night to spend a few days with relatives. All seemed to enjoy themselves, playing 42 etc. At the proper time refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Ewell Garey and Eva Bynum.

CORNSTALK.

It is so if you saw it in the Record

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C.—Not in a generation has the Senate of the United States witnessed a scene such as occurred on the occasion of the remarkable address of Senator James Gordon of Mississippi, in taking leave of his colleagues. There have been farewell addresses without number. There have been "swan songs" that blistered and speeches that cut like a Damascus blade, but to the eldest Senator and the oldest newspaper man there never has been so dramatic a leave-taking. The speech, homely in style, simple in construction, breathed such a warmth of friendship and affection that the "grave and reverend" Senators, cynics many of them, could not find words laudatory enough to tell Senator Gordon what they thought about him.

It is expected that the Commerce Committee of the Senate will take weeks or a month more for the consideration of the Rivers and Harbors bill which recently passed the House. There are several projects which the Committee of the House failed to consider on account of lack of information, but which has been supplied by the Engineer Corps of the Army to the Senate Committee. Should these projects receive endorsement at the hands of the Committee the bill will probably be considerably increased over that carried in the House bill which amounted to $41,000,000. There are those who believe that the Senate will add from three to five millions to the bill.

The Senate Committee on Commerce has endorsed the policy as set forth by the House of making the Rivers and Harbors bill an annual appropriation measure just as other supply bills. This policy has been urged in season and out by the National Rivers and Harbors Congress and the growth of waterway sentiment is very largely due to its persistency in bringing before the people the pressing needs for improving the Nation's great arteries of trade and commerce.

Of the many museums and special exhibits at the Nation's Capital none has gained more in popularity than the museum of the postoffice department. Only a few years ago this museum consisted of a few curios and odds and ends, assembled in a small room on the second floor of the Department building. Month after month the collection has been enlarged until today it is one of the most interesting of all the numerous places for sight seers in Washington. A conservative estimate, after a several days tally, places the number of visitors annually at 75,000 to 100,000.

Since the revival of the interest of postage stamp collecting many people have been known to make the trip to Washington just to get a glimpse of the great collection on exhibition in this museum. The display here consists of a complete collection of postage stamps, postal cards and stamped envelopes issued by the United States government, and all stamp issuing countries of the world. The actual value of this stamp collection is probably more than $200,000, but if they were ever put on sale in the open market the price they would command would be many times that amount, as the premium on the majority of them has increased to an enormous figure since they were issued.

HERBERT HINTS.

The health of the community is not very good this week. Mr. Hammonds has a very sick boy.

Preaching Saturday and Sunday was well attended and also Sunday school, morning and evening.

Mr. C. P. Conaway and family and Misses Lane were pleasant visitors in our community Sunday.

R. B. Hood and Jeff Hood were with us Saturday and Sunday. They report their schools getting on nicely.

T. H. Halbert reports our school doing well with a nice attendance.

Mr. N. Browne was in our community Friday. He says he traded his place at Herbert for a portion of the Van Tuij ranch. He was over after some of his implements, and will move the remainder and his stock in a few days. We regret to see him leave, as he is one of our noblest young men, always ready to help in any good cause.

The farmers are about through breaking land in this community.

Mr. Lovelady was in our midst last week. He has recently bought the Charley May ranch.

The Ladies Aid met Saturday evening at J. J. Northcut's.

Visitors at at L. L. Welch's Saturday were Bro. Leach, N. P. Browne and wife J. D. Browne and wife.

The pleasant callers at R. A. Hood's Sunday were, J. D. Falkner and family, C. P. Conaway and family.

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAR. 4, 1910

Hon. Bascom Thomas, candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Texas, is accredited with saying that $25,000 would buy the State Senate. Are we to assume from this that Mr. Thomas fixes the price of the other members at his own valuation of himself? He magnifies his worth.

Just because we have had a few balmy days, Gentle Annie, is no sign that you can safely "take 'em off" yet. Remember the presaging of the venerable ground hog—what he said about it. Three weeks more winter to come. So just keep 'em on along with your chest protector, for a good month yet.

Col. J. Hamilton Lewis, he of the pink whiskers, has wrapped himself in a prophetic mantle, and predicts that the long-sought-for Democratic Party will be found when Theodore Roosevelt returns to this country from Africa. He thinks that Col. Roosevelt's ambition leads to making the phenomenal record of being twice elected to the Presidency and by opposing parties.—National Tribune.

Among the many things responsible for the increased cost of living, the failure of the farmer to respond to the demand at a fair price for hogs during the past four or five years, is not the least. The demand has steadily increased since the packeries were established in Texas, and Oklahoma has furnished much more than half the hogs consumed by them. The cry has been "more hogs" every year.

A number of the little-big newspapers over the state, principally among them the Dallas Times-Herald, are already training their heaviest political artillery on Hawkins' candidacy for lieutenant governor. The "little justice of the peace lawyer" will shake the devil out of them, when he gets ready to take notice of their feisty barkings.—Midland Reporter.

And in whose name, pray, is this modern Barjona casting out devils?

A Kansas City paper is quoted as giving the cause of hard times and high prices: "We throw away ashes and buy soap; we raise dogs and buy hogs; we grow weeds and buy vegetables and brooms; we catch fish with a $4 rod; we build school-houses and send our children to be educated away from home; and at last, we send our boys out with a $40 gun and a $10 dog to hunt 10-cent game."

John Barrett, director of the Bureau of American republics suggests that a monster celebration to mark the completion of the Panama canal, and that it be held at New Orleans. While not committing himself to an international exposition as proposed for that city, he suggested that if one were held it should have the participation of all the Central and South American republics made accessible by the canal. Mr. Barrett asserted that unless some plan is devised for developing the American merchandise, nine-tenths of the shipping passing through the canal would carry foreign flags, but he opposed discrimination against foreign vessels in canal tolls. This, he said, would work an unfair hardship on the republics of South America which are now purposely building up their own merchant marine for trade with the United States through the canal.

Last week's issue of the Western Reporter, may have been a special edition—we don't know, but we do know it was a hummer from head line to foot slug. Anson, like Colorado, has been for the past few years lost in the fog, dust and trumpet blare of more pretentious rivals. But after the dust has settled, the fog cleared and the brazen-throated horn choked, both Anson and Colorado will be found on the map just about as near the front in permanent, honest achievement as the erstwhile "best towns in the world." The race is not always to the long-legged nor the persimmon to the crooked pole. Anson's all right; so is Colorado.

We've heard of dragnets, blanket policies, etc., but for all comprehensive completeness, we offer a postal card received this week from a candidate for one of the state offices. It was addressed to Hon. W. B. Smith, the Mayor, Marshal, Editor, Commissioner, Democratic Chairman, School Superintendent, Sheriff, Constable or Justice of the Peace, et al. Colorado, Texas. He adds in one corner: "My wife's people live in your section; some of you may know her father." In another corner he asks: "Please tack this up after showing it to all those addressed and as many others as possible." If this fellow is one-half as scattering and indefinite in all his methods as he is in campaigning, he would make a dandy state officer, now wouldn't he? If he will take our advice he can save a lot of postal cards.

Much Needed Law.

One of the most needed laws in this state, or any other state for that matter, is one that will equalize taxation, and the man who can solve this problem will write his name high on the scroll of fame. If everybody was perfectly honest, there would be no trouble in finding a solution for the question, but everybody is not honest and the tax dodger is to be found everywhere, among the high and the low, the rich and the poor. If every fellow gave in his property alike whether for full value or 50 per cent of its value, or 25 per cent of its worth, taxation could be reduced perhaps 50 per cent or more, and as much revenue be collected as is done now.

The first thing necessary is to get some basis for fixing the values of property, and then the next thing is to get some way to compel everybody to give in his property and all of his property that is taxable, to the assessor in accordance with this value. This is a difficult problem, and the man who can solve it will do a great service to the state.

Political economists universally regard tax dodging as one of the greatest offenses against the government, but the individual who seeks to evade paying the just part of the taxes does not seem to be impressed with the fact that his action is criminal in such a high degree.

It has reached the point that an honest man, who really wants to do right, hardly knows how to give in his personal property. There is such a small proportion of people who assess their holdings at actual value, that it is hardly expected of anyone, for the one who does give in his property as the law says it shall be done, carries much more than his part of the taxation.

One of the simplest ways suggested to force a tax payer to give in his property at full value is to enact a law such as is in effect in New Zealand, and which bids fair to solve the long practiced evil of men evading their just contribution to the expense of carrying on the government. The plan is this: The government calls upon the citizen to make oath to the value of his possessions, and reserves the right to take over at any time any property whatsoever at the valuation placed upon it by the owner. After a few great estates had been confiscated by the government, the wholesale practice of swearing to false values came to an end.—News Record.

CONSERVATIVE, NOT SLOW.

There is a mighty difference between being slow and being conservative. To be slow is to get habitually left; to be conservative more frequently than otherwise, means to get there like the tortoise. Colorado has passed through the fires of inflation, fictitious values, $50-millionaires and $10,000 town lots. The town bears some of the scars from that ordeal yet. Its citizens realize that the angle of reflection is exactly equal to the angle of incidence. That the reaction from forced growth and expansion, is just as far down, as the inflation was up, and that a reaction always comes. Knowing these things, the town has hastened slowly since it has found bed rock and begun to grow from natural causes. The town has sounded every foot of water into which it has ventured before taking a decisive step. As a result Colorado has not opened fully into the chase for the bubble of becoming "the best town in Texas," but has been content to pursue its even course of improvement, without a brass band and a press agent.

During the past six years, little less than three-quarters of a million dollars of permanent improvements have been added to the wealth of the town. A dozen smokestacks have gone up in that time, which daily pour out their soot into the gods of industry. More men were required to keep these stacks hot, which meant more mouths for the grocers to feed, more backs for others to clothe. Fully two hundred residences have been built and all of them are full of people. If during that time nothing but the new passenger depot had been added to the town, it has accomplished more than many towns which claim the earth.

Colorado is all right; if it accomplishes less than some of its rivals, it has much less to explain and apologize for.

Belvidere Brooks, the new general manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co. is a native of Navasota, Texas. He was messenger boy in the local office there, then operator. He worked for quite awhile at Waco, Houston, Galveston and El Paso, before going east. He is another Texas example of what a poor boy can do. No door is shut against industry and honesty; no position is beyond their attainment. But it requires ceaseless work, a price few men are willing to pay for success.

LUNG HEMORRHAGES

(I TOOK PE-RU-NA.)

MISS NINETTE PORTER.
Miss Ninette Porter, Braintree, Vermont, writes: "I have been cured by Peruna."

"I had several hemorrhages of the lungs. The doctors did not help me much and would never have cured me. I saw a testimonial in a Peruna almanac of a case similar to mine, and I commenced using it. I wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice. He kindly gave me free advice.

"I was not able to wait on myself when I began using it. I gained very slowly at first, but I could see that it was helping me.

"After I had taken it a while I commenced to raise up a stringy, sticky substance from my lungs. This grew less and less in quantity as I continued the treatment.

"I grew more fleshy than I had been for a long time, and now I call myself well."

A Bad Cough.

Mrs. Emma Martin, Odessa, Mo., writes: "I cannot thank you enough for curing me.

"For two years I doctored my cough, which cost me many dollars, but still I seemed to get worse. My cough was so bad I could not sleep.

"Finally I purchased a bottle of Peruna. After the use of six bottles I feel that I am cured."

People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets.

An Important Bill.

One of the most radical pieces of proposed legislation before the present congress and one which heretofore has not occupied any great amount of attention, is now being given serious consideration by the Judiciary committee of the house, and a hearing on it has been ordered. It is the bill introduced by Representative Sabbath (Dem) of Illinois, which would require all corporations "carrying on occupations and trades subject to the regulative power of congress," including railroads, express companies, and sleeping car companies, to pay compensation on fixed basis to injured employees. The legislation, if enacted, would overturn the present employers' liability law, and, in fact, revolutionize the existing system of indemnity for personal injuries. The bill defines the amount of compensation to be paid by employers to employees in cases of injury or death, basing it upon the amount of the previous earning power of the victim, and provides that it shall be paid in the form of an annuity. The bill is based upon the existing law of England and Germany. Such a law was favored in one of the messages of former President Roosevelt, and President Taft is also said to have commented favorably on it.

J. J. Dillard for Representative.

The Record announces this week the name of J. J. Dillard, an attorney of Lubbock, for Representative of this the 101st Representative District, composed of the following counties: Lubbock, Crosby, Garza, Kent, Lynn, Terry, Yoakum, Hockley, Cochran, Dawson, Gaines, Borden, Scurry, Fisher, Nolan, Mitchell, Howard, Martin, Andrews, Glascock, Midland, Ector, Upton, Crane, Ward, Winkler and Loving. Below we submit in brief a part of his platform.

(1) I shall favor an immediate remodeling of our penitentiary laws, and a discontinuance of the convict lease system.

(2) I favor submission, believing this to be the only and reasonable way to determine the sentiment of the people on this vitally important question.

(3) I believe that the time has arrived when no police power other than the State Militia and duly authorized peace officers of each county and precinct are necessary for the enforcement of all laws.

(4) I shall favor the further perfection of a State Bank Guarantee Law to its fullest capacity of usefulness, so that the savings of the people may be made as absolutely secure as human agency can provide.

(5) I am in favor of a liberal policy toward our higher educational institutions, believing in an amendment for a direct tax for the maintenance of the A. and M. College at Bryan instead of an appropriation.

(6) That a law be enacted compelling the County Commissioners' Courts to publish in the county newspapers an itemized statement of all items of expenditures allowed and approved by said Court, so that the voters and tax payers may know how the County's funds are being expended.

(7) I believe that the State should be moderately liberal in the establishment of agricultural colleges and experiment stations, doing everything that will tend to bring about the highest possible agricultural development, and educating and assisting the people, not only in the production but in the profitable marketing and utilization of all farm products, and to this end shall advocate the establishment of an Agricultural and Mechanical college in the 101st District.

Other matters of state legislation will receive my closest attention as they may arise, and especially those affecting the West Texas country. I shall be ever ready to aid the Democratic people of my district on all matters which they may deem of sufficient importance to request my special attention.

I have lived in Texas nearly all my life; was born in the state of Mississippi, coming to Texas in 1877; raised on a farm between two cotton rows, a fact of which I am not ashamed. Received a liberal education, and was a successful teacher in the public schools of Texas for a number of years. Located in Lubbock, Lubbock county, in 1886, and embarked in the real estate business. Was granted a license to practice law in 1898, and have practiced that profession with success ever since. I established the Lubbock Avalanche in May 1900, which paper I controlled and edited for eight years, during which time I advocated a number of reforms beneficial to West Texas, notably the abrogation of the lease law. I am a democrat and always have been, never voting any other ticket.
 J. J. DILLARD.

FAIRVIEW FACTS.

There has been quite a bit of complaining in our community on the account of colds.

Mr. Bus McGahey has been sick, but is recovering at this writing.

Mr. Geo. Goodwin was in bed a couple of days last week on account of cold.

Mr. Jess Strain is now at home. He has been gone for some time.

Quite a number of hands are at work on the new roads that have just been granted.

We are looking forward in joyful anticipation of the rural route.

Our farmers are most all done breaking land, and would be ready to plant corn if there was moisture enough. All would feel jubilant over a rain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dock visited friends and relatives in Snyder last week.

Last Saturday was gala day for Fairview. On account of one of the teachers being sick Arbor day exercises were postponed until Saturday. On this day a fine representation of our enthusiastic school patrons assembled. In the morning the trees were put out. The trees were china, locusts and cottonwood and if half of them live they will add much to the appearance of the community in a few years. After planting the trees and shrubs, a splendid dinner was spread, and all seemed to enjoy this feature very much. In the afternoon a short program was rendered, the leading feature being a paper by Mr. W. E. Berry, on "The Life and Work of the Father of our Country," and "Why we Observe Arbor Day." Prof. Hill, Cuthbert's efficient teacher, accompanied by a bevy of school children came down in the evening in response to an invitation to spell with Fairview pupils. Some very good spelling was done by both schools, but the champion was little Nellie Bozeman, age 9 or 10 years. At the close of the contest she was on the floor alone. Rubie Helton being second best. We all took off our caps and cheered for the baby spellers. The Rogers and Fairview boys played a game of Base ball, Fairview being victorious in this contest. We had quite a number of visitors from the neighboring communities, Canyon, Cuthbert, Rogers, Red Bluff, Cedar Bend and Harris Chapel being represented. Mr. and Mrs. Buckelaw gave the young folks a party as a closing feature of the day. Guy Casey and Miss Smith from Canyon were visitors in our community Saturday and Sunday.

The Kindergarten Association is trying to raise money to pay off an old debt, and for this purpose they have engaged Prof. Petty, who will give expert demonstrations with three of the most wonderful discoveries of the world—Liquid Air, Radium and Wireless Telegraph. These things are so new and so rare that few people know anything of them, except what they have read; but now we have an opportunity to see them demonstrated and hear them intelligently explained. Prof. Petty will be at the Colorado, opera house, Saturday night, Mar. 5th, and the ladies of the Association expect and deserve a large crowd. You will certainly get your money's worth and aid in a good cause at the same time.

A Good Example

"I am a good example," writes Mrs. R. L. Bell, of McAlester, Okla., "of what Cardui will do for suffering women."

"I suffered with my head and back, for over six years, and although I tried everything, I never could get anything to do me any good, until I began to take Cardui."

"Cardui has surely helped me and built me up and I am so thankful that I have found something that will do me good. I feel so much stronger and better than I have in a long time."

He stopped off at Fort Worth to see his brother who is attending school at Polytechnic; while there he obtained employment and will remain for some time.

W. C. Easterling is now at Big Springs as pencil pusher of the Big Springs Enterprise, while Hon. John McLendon is presiding over the destinies of the Loraine News.

J. R. Pickens has sold about $900 of boll cotton alone. Mr. Pickens had a late hail which greatly set his cotton back, and this amount would have been an entire loss but for the boll hulling machine. We tip our hat to the inventor of the boll huller, for by his inventive genius we are enabled to swell the number of our bales two or three hundred. This cotton is selling near the ten cent mark, and has replenished many a lean pocket book, and helped to increase the bank deposits and establish confidence in business circles, giving good cheer and contentment to many a home in this favored land in and around Loraine.

Our clever postmaster and his estimable wife have moved into their cozy little home on the hill and are enjoying the pleasures and worries of housekeeping.

THERE'S NO RISK

If This Medicine Does Not Benefit, You Pay Nothing.

A physician who made a specialty of stomach troubles, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistence and regularity for a short time brings about cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite, aid digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, price 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain them only at our store.—The Rexall Store, The Colorado Drug Co.

Rupert Womack had business in Colorado last Saturday.

We have received a beautiful postcard containing a photograph of an ex-official, a log cabin, coon skin, etc. showing how much money has been received from the Harvester trust and many others. But it appeared to us, at once, that a few items had been left out, but I contributed that to the carelessness of the artist. One was showing that before bursting the harvester trust a binder could not be bought for less than $135, or $130 cash, but after "busting" the harvester trust a binder can be bought now for $165 cash. Farmer who bought the coon skin?

Last Tuesday afternoon W. R. Womack, teacher at Womack, and pupils visited our school. The object was to promote the general welfare of both schools, stimulate interest, and give more enthusiasm to the pupils.

The program was as follows: Match spelling between the schools, Cuthbert school winning the match, having four pupils left standing. After this Mr. Womack's pupils rendered an interesting program, consisting of recitations, and dialogues. The next thing was play—a match between the schools of "base" or "red-line" in which Cuthbert school got very badly beaten. Rupert was the fastest runner on the ground. The afternoon was profitably spent and enjoyed by many. Come again.

Having received a challenge (invitation) from Fairview school Tuesday before for a spelling ma-

M. L. Hill with his pupils went down Saturday afternoon. It was a windy day, but teacher and pupils thought they ought to make good their promise. Miss Casey and pupils had an appropriate program to render before the spelling, which was good and well rendered. The spelling resulted in a victory for Cuthbert. Little Nellie Bozeman being the only pupil standing on either side at the close. Nellie is just ten years old and in third grade. She was greatly praised and received many congratulations, all of which she rightly deserved.

Miss Bertha Piercy is again at home after several month's stay in Colorado.

VAN TUYL RANCH.

The writer has received news that on or about the 17th ult. the largest snow for a number of years, fell in Hill and Ellis counties.

Several cases of severe colds and grip reported this week. We are glad of the fact that the work on the new railroad will begin soon.

N. E. Browne bought 320 acres of land, lately, from Mr. Van Tuyl. The place is four miles southeast of Seven Wells.

Mrs. L. T. and Lizzie York, Miss Ruth and Jim York visited at W. R. Powell's Saturday.

Joe A. Powell and wife, W. R. Powell and family visited H. C. Langford Sunday.

UNCLE ANDREW.

UNION UNITS.

Some sickness in the community, grip and colds principally.

Farming interests moving along nicely. Grass for stock coming slowly. A good warm shower would help mightily; people would soon get to planting.

We hear that the good roads proposition is dead for the present. Glad to say it is not the case in this section, for there has been an increasing interest in this section for the past three or four years, but we are delighted at the withdrawal of the bond issue question. A burnt child dreads the fire.

Yes, Bro. Editor, Citizen has considered the question of a good road for the rural mail route, and that isn't all, we expect to provide a good road for our route, which we expect to be in operation soon.

Of course we recollect the sandbeds and mud-holes, and we say good Lord bless both, for we need sand occasionally, and we look upon the mud-holes with delight, for they indicate a season in the ground.

Let not the people of Mitchell county forget to plant plenty of feed stuff to do their farms, and some to spare.

CITIZEN.

The Palace Meat Market is the best equipped market in west Texas, and handles the choicest of meat and other products that runs in their lines. A home enterprise and a market for the farmer.

The STORE of "QUALITY"

We extend a cordial invitation to every lady in Mitchell county to visit the store of quality and inspect our beautiful line of Spring Dress Fabrics in all the latest novelties in silk and cotton Foulards and Shantung; in fact every pattern and style that could be found in the largest city stores. Just received a large shipment of Ladies ready to wear dresses and suits and the most up-to-date line of laces and embroideries in the west. We have just added to our already up-to-date store a dress making department in charge of Mrs. Hooten, who is second to none in the art of dress making. Shoes are where we shine. Just arrived all styles in Lady's, Misses' and Childrens' oxfords, purps and sandals.

Better Than Bargains in Hosiery

WE are showing this week a full line of men's, women's and children's soft, comfortable, stylish hosiery which is guaranteed free from holes and darns for six months. Do you ever wonder what such hosiery is like? Do you know what you are missing by not trying them?

Holeproof Hosiery

FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN costs no more than unguaranteed hose, yet it has six times the value in wear and comfort. The makers pay an average of 73c per pound for their yarn. Others pay 35c, but such yarn is harsh and weak, so don't confuse "Holeproof" with other guaranteed hose. "Holeproof" is the original. It is so popular that 15,000 pairs are made each day. Before you replenish your hosiery, see "Holeproof." We have a full stock in all sizes and colors. See them today. Learn what you save and gain by wearing "Holeproof."

A full line of Edwin Clapp and Walkover oxfords for men.
