When the Record's eyes are delighted by a neatly kept park around the county court house, the well kept building itself, and a bit of park at either end of the new passenger depot, we will rest in the consciousness of having aided in the accomplishment of a goodly object—the beautifying of the town and adding to the enjoyment of the people. Are there any ends more laudable?

ELECTION NOTICE.

Office of Mayor, City of Colorado, March 8th, 1910.

Pursuant to an order of the City Council of the City of Colorado, an election will be held at the County Court house in the City of Colorado, on Tuesday, the 5th day of April, A. D. 1910, for the purpose of electing for the City of Colorado, two aldermen, to supply the places now filled by Aldermen W. H. Mooser and T. J. Ratliff.

J. W. Bird is hereby appointed presiding officer to hold said election.

F. M. BURNS, Mayor Pro Tem
E. KEATHLEY, Secretary.

Go to the Palace Market and get a choice steak or roast from the beeves they are feeding in their pens. You know then what kind of meat you eat. They will treat you right.

The corporations are not only moving against whiskey but tobacco also. The Rock Island system recently issued a prohibition against employees smoking while on duty, in any department of work. We recently saw a letter from a big Texas milling company, in which the manager said: "We won't hire a man who drinks; recently fired three for getting drunk. Railroads and manufacturing concerns cannot afford to risk their machinery and the lives of others in the hands of drinkers. We go a step farther; we do not allow swearing by our men during work hours." Even soulless corporations are quick to learn that godliness and morality are valuable assets and a condition of safety.

Not only people, but all living moving things, like to be around where things are being done. No sooner had the first lick of work been done on the foundation of the Dulaney building, than the center of local interest shifted there. All of us like to see others work whether we are afflicted with the morbus microbus or not. If you have occasion to look for any man this summer, don't waste time walking about the streets, but go to the place of building, and you'll find him, if he's able to be out of bed.

A Hospital Needed.

There is a growing need in every town the size of Colorado, of a sanitarium and hospital. The success of modern surgery, and treatment of many complicated and specific diseases, depends more upon environment and trained care than upon the skill of the surgeon and physician. Such conditions and care cannot be had at the homes of but very few people. Every town should have an institution, where the sick of the community could receive the benefit of the most advanced treatment and nursing. There is scarcely a time when there are not one or more patients from this immediate section in the sanitarium at Dallas, Fort Worth and other cities, and there are thousands sent from this section of the state. It would save the time, fatigue and expense of a long trip if there were a well equipped sanitarium and hospital in this community, and as well at Colorado as elsewhere. Some of the most successful and widely known hospitals in the United States are located in comparatively small towns. The history of their establishment in Texas, whether under the direction and ownership of physicians or fostered by some society, has been one of uniform success.

Colorado needs such an institution; it would enlarge the scope of practice of every physician in the county, and multiply their power for eliminating suffering, besides placing within the reach of hundreds of sufferers in this and adjoining counties the means of relief and up-to-date treatment.

THE MASS MEETING.

Pursuant to a call by the president of the Commercial Club for a mass meeting at the tabernacle at 8 o'clock Monday night, a number of citizens were on hand, when the president announced that the object of the meeting was to determine whether the citizens of the town were in favor of building another high school house or a number of smaller houses in the different wards of the town.

It seemed to be the idea that in view of the fact that the district had already issued bonds to the limit of the taxable values assessed, it would be necessary to raise the valuation of property in order to allow the issue of further bonded indebtedness. The sense of the meeting was apparently against the erection of ward school houses. The suggestion was made that there be a special assessor created by the school board, for the purpose of making the assessment on the increased valuation of property in the district. Nothing definite, however, was done at this meeting, but the whole matter would be thoroughly considered by the school board and the best thing for all endeavored to be done. There were no new developments on the railroad matters given out at this meeting.

Are you frequently hoarse: Do you have that annoying tickling in your throat? Does your cough annoy you at night, and do you raise mucus in the morning? Do you want relief? If so, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you will be pleased. Sold by all druggists.

What About Base Ball?

Somehow the two have always been inseparable in the Record's mind, and so, when, on last Friday the boys were talking base ball, "Slats" Givens came into mind. Not ten minutes afterward we heard a voice cry out, as it came in, "Come out and see the ball game," and we knew Slats had arrived and with him the open season for ball.

And this suggests, What's Colorado going to do in the way of base ball this year? Some kind of amusement we must have and base ball is about the cheapest and most universally enjoyed of all popular amusements. The boys of Colorado maintained a good team last year and they want to do better this summer, but will require help from that part of the town who patronize the sport. Some of them will canvass the town in a few days for a subscription to help keep the team.

If you are a lover or patron of clean, healthful sport, you cannot spend a little money for any kind of amusement that will appeal to a larger part of the citizenship of Colorado. The boys will do all the work and the patronizing public will have just as much of the fun.

THE NEW RAILROAD.

Robert Lee Ready—General Offices Leased in Colorado.

Another letter from Mr. Hammock assures the people of Colorado that the Colorado & Concho road will be built, and that, just as soon as he gets matters a little better shaped up in New York, he and his associates, will come to Colorado and open up their offices and begin work at once. He especially urges our people to be patient and that the road will be built. We understand that the front offices in the new Dulaney brick have been contracted for by the railroad people as general offices.

Railroads are not financed nor built in a day, and it may be thirty days before Mr. Hammock gets ready to close up the contracts. The proposition made by Mr. Hammock specifically states that he requires until June 1st, to make his arrangements, before commencing work. But will do so earlier if possible.

In regard to the railroad proposition, the Robert Lee Observer says:

A good number of property owners met Friday afternoon at the office of Merchant & Kemp to raise the additional land bonus wanted. It was stated that the amount in land wanted was to the value of about $4000. At the afternoon meeting about $700 was raised in property. On account of court being in session the meeting was adjourned and dodgers were printed and distributed, announcing that a mass meeting would be held at 7:30 o'clock at the court house.

A good crowd of enthusiastic ladies and gentlemen were present and about $3,300 were raised thus completing the bonus needed.

Vice President J. H. Burroughs called the meeting to order and stated what was wanted.

Judge L. H. Brightman addressed the audience setting forth the advantages of a railroad to Robert Lee. After the address donations were asked for and several donated liberally. Judge Timmons was present and was called on for an address. He responded with a few minutes address to the effect that Robert Lee could not afford to lose the road after which the balance of the bonus was subscribed.

Everything is now in readiness for Mr. Hammock as soon as he arrives to close up all details and take over the railroad corporation and sign up contract for the completion of the road. The committee and our citizens have done their part well.

We regret that we are not able to publish the entire list of bonus signers this week, the most of which we now have in type. The list as to amounts donated and signed up is yet incomplete and we think best not to publish the list until it can be given complete.

We believe the road will be built in time to haul off our next year's crop. We believe it is now an absolute certainty. Good news travels slowly and there are a great many details in securing a railroad which takes time to perfect. Rest assured though that the people who have given to the bonus have done all that Mr. Hammock and associates have asked for. It is now up to Mr. Hammock and his people. He is scheduled to arrive in Robert Lee with his associates in a few days but the exact time has not yet been announced.

SPRING and EASTER MILLINERY

The millinery salons have left their wintry chrysalis and burst into an exquisite bloom—a brilliant pageantry of Spring idyls in millinery, thoroughly representative of the unique, creative ability of the most celebrated foreign and New York designers; also the inimitable grace and originality of Hats that our own expert milliners have contrived.

EASTER HATS

This great assemblage of fine headwear with its great varieties of all the latest models as well as colors and trimmings, many of which are exclusive and not to be found elsewhere, will more than repay you for your visit.

What impresses one most is the variety of shape and flowery treatment Jeanne Lavin, Reboux, Talbot, Maison Lewis and other noted milliners of Paris give their great millinery salon ideas in large picture hats with maline wreaths, hemp and Milan with velvet facings, huge straight brim sailors with clusters of tiny blossoms, rolled brim hats with aigrettes placed high at side.

Howard County Remains Dry

Information from Big Springs is to the effect that the county was carried by the prohibitionists by a majority between 350 and 375. The returns have not been finally canvassed, but this is conceded by both sides to be the approximate result. Let us hope it will be a long time, if ever, before another prohibition campaign is forced upon the people of Howard or any other county of West Texas. The people have time and again indicated their choice at the polls, which ought to settle the question for good. The law providing that such an election must be ordered by the county commissioners whenever, after two years from the preceding election, 200 qualified electors of the county shall so petition, should be so amended as to read "upon the petition of a majority of the qualified electors of the county." We congratulate the good people of Big Springs and Howard County, upon their victory.

DIRT BROKE

A Large Force Now at Work on the New Business Block

Early on last Monday morning dirt was broken for the foundation of the new business house of Mr. James Dulaney. The building is to be 28x150 feet, two-stories, built of pressed brick with Pecos sand-stone trimmings, solid plate glass front, and modern in every respect.

Mr. O. D. Jones, a well known contractor of San Angelo, and who has several west Texas buildings that stand as monuments to his skill and ability, secured the contract. Mr. Jones followed his profession seven years in Fort Worth, and knows his business. He is a pleasant gentleman, and comes highly recommended as a contractor and skilled workman. He is ably assisted by Charley Johnson, his factotum, who will do anything from digging in the ditch to placing the flag on the cupola.

Mr. J. R. Bryant of Sweetwater is the architect, and will give the building his close personal attention, visiting Colorado twice a week for this purpose.

The building, when completed, is to be occupied by the H. L. Hutchinson Furniture and Undertaking Co. They will occupy the entire lower story and half of the upper story, having a large elevator in the rear. Mr. Hutchinson tells us that he intends to put in one of the largest and most complete stocks of high grade furniture ever carried by any firm west of Fort Worth. Their undertaking parlors will be up stairs. He also informs us that his company will still continue to occupy the two buildings in which they are now located.

The front part of the building up stairs, we are informed, has been spoken for by the railroad people, who will open up the general offices of the Colorado & Concho railroad. Dr. B. F. Dulaney's dental parlors will also be on the second floor, and will be furnished and equipped second to none in west Texas.

The building, when completed will be an ornament to the town.

Every lady in Mitchell county should see the beautiful display of pattern hats for Easter, at the Vogue, over Burns & Bell's.

NOTICE.

The last and by all means the BEST of the Entertainments of the Lyceum Course arranged by Messrs. Adams, Van Tuyl and Webb, will be given at the Opera House on next Wednesday March 16th.

THE FLOYDS (Magicians)

We do not hesitate to say that in having this attraction come to Colorado, we were fortunate, as it is by far the best of this class that we have ever known.

They are up to date, carry several trunks, have a most elaborate outfit, and have tricks and illusions, most artist c.

We invite all our friends to come out Wednesday night, feeling sure you will be well repaid, and that you will have an evening of clean and healthful fun.

Every town of east Texas of any pretension, is discussing the question of building a creamery. Such an enterprise would find an inviting field in Colorado. There is a constant unsupplied demand for milk and butter which it would meet. It would also be an incentive to the improvement of the grade of cattle. Wherever established so far, they have proven profitable to the promoters and hailed with approval by the farmers who had no ready market for their milk.

Notice is hereby given that A. J. Payne of the County of Mitchell, and District aforesaid, did, on the 7th day of March, 1910, file in the Clerk's office of said Court, at Abilene, a petition setting up that he has been heretofore duly adjudged a bankrupt under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1897; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy, and praying for a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate in bankruptcy, save such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

On considering the above mentioned petition, it is ordered that any creditor who has proved his claim, and other parties in interest, if they desire to oppose the discharge prayed for in said petition, shall, on or before the 21st day of March, 1910, file with the Referee for the Abilene Division of said District, a notice in writing of their opposition to a discharge in the above entitled cause.

Many things are advertised and many promises are made, but it is not always that these promises are made in good faith, nor can they always be kept. With a laxative remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, it is different. This remedy will cure constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, flatulence, heartburn, sour stomach and all other diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels, in old or young. A rich company is behind every statement made. It is absolutely guaranteed to do what is claimed, and if you want to try it before buying, send your address for a free sample bottle to Pepsin Syrup Co., 119 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill. It is sold by all druggists at 50c and $1 a bottle.

OPERA HOUSE, MONDAY, MAR. 22

Sanford Dodge Company Scores Decided Success in Faust and Othello.

The Corona Independent says: Manager Foley of the Corona Opera house has been promising something good since he has taken the control of the local "show shop" and he certainly kept that promise when he succeeded in getting the Sanford Dodge company for their two nights' engagement, which closes this evening. Faust last evening was a decided success, much more so indeed than anything which has been seen in this city this season, and the company was rewarded with a well filled house.

The Sanford Dodge company have many things in their favor. In choosing a company Mr. Dodge has gathered a company of people who are professionals in the fullest sense of the word and thorough ladies and gentlemen. Even though handicapped by the insufficiencies of our local theatre, they were able by their own artistic ability to put on Faust in a way which demonstrates fully Mr. Dodge's idea that the actors themselves, not the stage, make the play. Faust is a play which requires marked ability to present the strong situations. It is simply a play of human life—a study of the wonderful mystery of the psychology of the human mind.

The play in all its intensity simply carried the audience with it last evening, and leaving the theatre after the play one heard nothing but praise for the actors and the performance.

Tonight Shakespeare's tragedy, Othello will be the offering, with Mr. Dodge in the title role, and Miss Adelle Nickerson in the character of Desdemona. Othello is a wonderful play, and after the demonstration of the ability of the Sanford Dodge company in last night's performance, it seems certain that the house will be packed this evening.

A card from our old friend, Wm. Lagow, down at Grapeland in Houston county, asks us to change his paper to the Bell County, and he also has rained out here since he for his benefit we will say it is now, while we write this, and the indications are that we will have a regular gully washer.

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAR. 11, 1910

A PERTINENT INQUIRY.

Editor Colorado Record:

In view of the several recent happenings in Colorado, the court of inquiry held last week, was timely, if not necessary. The burning of the $15,000 school house, the dynamiting of an out building on the public school grounds, the placing of a piratical flag on the top of the central school building, the threatening letters anonymously sent to the superintendent, and many other acts of defiance, both of the school and civil authorities, clearly indicate that something is radically wrong. Boys do not reach this degree of lawlessness at one offense, but it requires repeated acts to harden them to take the risk of arson and burglary. It is generally believed that the burning of the high school building was the act of an incendiary. This belief is borne out by an anonymous letter received by the superintendent last week, in which the threat was made to burn the other school building and do him bodily harm, as well. Granting these are idle threats, they still show the animus and methods of the hardened law breaker. Such a spirit in a community is potential of great mischief. If on some fancied provocation, one house is dynamited and another burned, why not any house in Colorado, for no greater reason? If some public place is broken into for the sake of a few dollars, how long will it be before any house in town is liable to a similar visit?

The efforts of the proper authorities to get at the bottom of these crimes, is to be commended and deserve the moral support, at least, of every law-abiding citizen of the town. Criticism of such efforts will only make the offenders bolder and fix their start in the downward track. Because one of the witnesses was committed to jail last week for refusing to answer certain questions, great indignation was expressed by many, who no doubt would have been only too glad to get at the bottom of the matter, had it been their property burned instead of the public's. Its same old difference of whose ox is gored and whose bull does it. If these crimes are committed by boys or men of Colorado, public safety demands that they be brought to justice. Unless this is done, the law will become a farce and the town might as well be turned over to this gang of Bill Sykes now, as later on. Instead of hampering the officers and encouraging the offenders, every law-abiding citizen, whether the drag net catches his own boy or not, should lend his aid and moral support to the authorities, and help break it up. If "your" boy is doing these things, better find it out now, than when he has gone from bad to worse and committed some greater crime. If "your" boy is implicated you should want to know it, and try to save him while there is hope. In another year it may be too late. These are serious offenses and every fair-minded man must agree that a stop should be put to them now. You know these acts have been committed, you will also agree they should be stopped. The way to stop them is to apprehend the perpetrators. This the authorities are trying to do, and their efforts are to be commended by all good citizens, who believe in the security of life and property.

CITIZENS OF COLORADO:

Brother Hardy of the Western Light was shown a specimen of gold-bearing rock found in Seccury county, and predicts that if the deposit can be located, the "Snyder country may prove richer in mineral wealth than Cripple Creek or the Black Hills." If you will come down, Brother Hardy, we can show you a gold mine near Colorado that has been in existence for twenty years. A pan of sand taken out of the Colorado river anywhere from here north, will show good color, but that's all—color.

If you have a friend you want to shove, just lend him a little money.

Doss' Kidney Pills—Guaranteed.

However much we all may differ on politics, religion, prohibition, or any other question, there is one thing on which we can agree—common ground on which all can meet and reap a common enjoyment, and that is, a belief that the fish are beginning to bite down on the creek.

It is to be hoped that the next legislature will harmonize the existing local option laws. As they stand today, it is well nigh impossible to convict some overt violations of that law. There seems to be a conflict of penalties in the laws passed at different times.

There will never come a time again when food for man or beast will not find a ready market and command a fair price. Transportation facilities have put a market practically at every farmer's door and his products may be consumed ultimately on the opposite side of the globe.

Cone Johnson persists in injecting senator Bailey into the campaign on the principle that he is stronger as a Bailey partisan than as a prohibition candidate.

We fear Brother Robinson of the Waco Times-Herald, between the navigation of the Brazos and Beaumont & Northern railroad, is falling in his duty toward the great "Red-to-Rio Grande" highway. The latter would be of greater benefit to the territory tributary to Waco and the state in general than half a dozen such steamship lines as can ever be put on the mighty Brazos.

In a message coming within the ten word limit, Congressman W. R. Smith sent the welcome news to El Paso last week that the "Senate has passed the bill authorizing an appropriation of $20,000,000 for irrigation projects." This brief message means much to Western Texas. It means the completion of all existing projects and assures the speedy building of the Elephant Butte dam above El Paso, by which 200,000 acres of the rich Rio Grande valley, in the United States and Mexico, will be put under cultivation. This also means the bringing under intense cultivation enough land to feed the population of the state of Texas, and which will pour a golden stream into the pockets of the farmers of that district. It means more for west Texas than any other piece of legislation ever enacted.

The Pecos Times outdid itself last week in its special edition. For several weeks it has mentioned something about a special it had in preparation, but we passed it up as promising no more than the ordinary run of country specials. But when it came to hand this week, we took another look about it. It is the best piece of letterpress printing we have ever seen in west Texas, (which is as good as any) while the illustrations show as well as if printed in a magazine. It is known as the "Missouri Edition" and well does it justify its name. It shows the most skepticism.

If you see two or more men standing apart, and one of them in the midst of earnest and gesticulatory declamation, they are not discussing the high price of living. Joe Bailey or state wide prohibition. Nothing of the sort. It is just one lone candidate for a county or precinct office trying to show the owner of a poll tax receipt how he should vote.

The windows of the drug stores are being cleared of cough drops, grip cure and chest protectors and in their room will soon be spread an alluring display of fishing tackle, assafoetida, ten cure and base ball paraphernalia. For, Gentle Annie, spring is peeping around the corner.

Gives Prompt Relief

William H. Douglas, Jr., of Washington, D.C., says: I take great pleasure in informing you I have used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and it gave me almost instant relief.

THE FRUITS.

The deplorable occurrence of last Friday night emphasizes the fact that Colorado is in need of a curfew law. If there had been a law forbidding boys being on the streets after night, there is great likelihood that the future prospects of two boys would not today be seriously marred and the hearts of two mothers and fathers not so bowed with regret and grief. If there is one place worse than the public streets for boys to congregate and loaf habitually, that place is a railroad depot. It has ever been the headquarters of loafers and the recruiting place of hoboism. The railroad companies have always had trouble with boys and idle men about their property and have tried every means to keep them away. Many men owe their downward start to associations and influences picked up around a depot.

No boy or man ever got into trouble staying at home at night. More boys would stay at home if more fathers would stay there before them. They see their elders go to town night after night for no other reason than to sit around and talk, and naturally think it the proper thing to do, and being glibly themselves, their elders cannot consistently convince the boys that night prowling is not best for them. The time to train boys to stay at home on Sunday and at night, is when their great grandfather is a boy. The heritage of generations cannot be changed in one lifetime. The time to improve the boys of the next several generations, is now, today.

The Ten-Dollar Hog.

Had some bold prophet four years ago predicted that hogs would at this time and year of grace be selling at $10 per hundred pounds, he had been laughed at as a pipe dreamer, or worse. But the ten-dollar hog has arrived, as well as the nine-dollar sheep and equally high beef steer.

The fact that cotton sold for 14 and 15 cents the present season is an indication that we will never have cheap cotton again and it is equally sure that the high priced hog, sheep and beef steer have also come for keeps. The immediate cause is the admitted scarcity of hogs all over the country. The primary cause of the gradual rise in the price of all kinds of feed products is the constant increase of consumers over producers—the cities are growing faster than the rural population. So long as this condition obtains, there is no likelihood of any material decline in prices of living.

The farmers of Mitchell county cannot afford to neglect the opportunity that lies before them to increase their source of revenue from hog raising. Even at the prices of the past few years, hog raising has proven fairly profitable, but the future holds still greater rewards for the farmer who gives this industry his attention in the future. West Texas and alfalfa have proven themselves in every way equal to Iowa and corn in raising fine hogs, and with the incentive of the present prices, it seems to us that the Mitchell county farmer could give his attention to no other one specialty that would so handsomely remunerate him as hog raising.

The Record is more interested in Mitchell County than in the state at large. It is heartily in favor of banishing the saloons from the state, but is more concerned about keeping them out of Mitchell county. From the majorities local option has achieved in the past elections, we believe the anti spirit is hopelessly in the minority, and sincerely hope no effort will be made to force another prohibition campaign upon us. The county is doing better than ever before in its history; the town is doing better than it possibly could with saloons; the people don't want them and effort to stir up strife on the issue, is no evidence of good citizenship. The town is not in need of the blood money that saloons invariably pay. If Colorado must attain a little material gain at the price of its manhood, the tears of worse than widowed women, the want of children and the life of some good citizen, then let the town forever bring up the tail end of the procession. It has no ambition to be "one of the best towns in the state" at the expense of all that makes for truth, honor and human happiness.

The laxness of the law in the punishment of the crime of murder, the escape of red-handed murderers through technicalities, is in a large measure responsible for mob law today in cases of rape. Seeing how the law is defied in other capital offenses, the people rightly assume that the law against rape would be likewise set at naught, if its execution were left to the criminal lawyers and "technicalities," and for this they will not stand.

HERBERT HINTS.

The health of our community is better than this week.
Mr. Hammond's little son is getting on nicely. He has been sick for some time, and we are glad to report him as improving.
Mr. and Mrs. Hammond are the proud parents of a 11 pound boy, this week.
Mr. Hammond states that he is very grateful to the kind-hearted neighbors for their assistance during the illness of his little son.
Sunday school Sunday morning and evening was very well attended.
H. A. Browne made a flying trip to Kent last Wednesday.
Mr. Charley May and family have moved back to Mitchell county to live. We are glad to have them with us again.
Visitors at Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Browne's Saturday and Sunday, were: Charley May and family, J. S. Barber and family, J. B. Hartsfield and family, E. Enyart and family, A. P. Browne and family, Joe Northcut and family and Mr. Needham Browne.
Last week while Mr. J. S. Barber and Joe Northcut were walking across the latter's pasture they found a den of rattlesnakes. They went to the house and securing three guns went back and killed ten snakes. Their ammunition becoming exhausted they could kill no more, though five more were in sight. The next morning they were joined by Messrs A. M. Northcut, Alexander, Robertson, Ernest and Browne, and with plenty of guns and ammunition and a crowbar they killed the other five snakes, the smallest one of the five being four feet long. One year ago, about this time, Mr. Northcut killed sixteen snakes in the same place. Their den was completely destroyed this time and there will not likely be any more snakes there for some time.
Miss Lizzie Welch was in our community Sunday visiting relatives. She is teaching the McKenzie school this year, and reports it progressing nicely. Come again Miss Lizzie.
The Ladies Mission Society appointed a committee composed of Messdames Falkner, Hood and Barber, to purchase carpet for the church house, also a bible for the pulpit. The purchases were made at a cost of $14.00.

Are Drugs Necessary?
Do Drugs Cure Disease?
Can Nature be Assisted?

If people were born right and afterwards lived right, there would be no need for medicine. Every doctor knows this. So do other well-informed people. One thing more. When a person lives wrongly, or acquires bodily weakness by accident, medicine can do only very little. Medicine cannot cure him. Only charlatans claim that medicines will cure disease. Medicines may palliate symptoms. Medicines may urge the powers of Nature to resist disease. Medicines sometimes arouse the efforts of the human body to right itself against derangements. This is the most that medicine can do.
A man accidentally puts his finger in the fire. Instinctively he wets his finger in his mouth, then blows on it for the cooling effect. This is no cure. He knows it very well. But it makes it feel better for the time being.
People eat unwisely. This produces dyspepsia or indigestion. The only rational cure is to eat correctly. Yet if a palliative is at hand the pains of indigestion can be mitigated, the throes of dyspepsia assuaged. The medicine cannot be said to have cured. It simply palliates disagreeable symptoms. The cure must come through right living.
Take Peruna, for instance. No one claims Peruna is a cure for dyspepsia. But Peruna will stimulate the stomach to perform its function properly. Peruna will increase the flow of digestive fluids, without which digestion cannot be carried on at all. It will increase the relish of food, the appetite.

It is admitted that all this can be accomplished by right living, but there are so many people who either will not or do not know how to eat correctly that a tremendous amount of good can be done by the wise use of Peruna.
A stomach that has been frequently abused performs the function of digestion very lazily. Such a stomach allows the food to remain undigested for some time after it is swallowed. This leads to fermentation of the food. Sour stomach is the result. This goes on week after week, until the blood is poisoned with the products of fermentation. This condition is very apt to produce rheumatism.
It is not claimed that Peruna will cure rheumatism. Nothing will cure rheumatism but correct living. But it is claimed that Peruna will assist a badly abused stomach to perform its work.
If a person would correct his habits, persist in right eating and temperate ways, undoubtedly the stomach would right itself, the blood would rid itself of the poison, and everything would be right. But as said before there are a multitude of people who will not or cannot adopt right methods of living. To such people Peruna is a boon. A dose before meals will assist the stomach to do its work. This prevents fermentation of the food, brings about normal digestion, and all the train of ills that follow indigestion disappear.
In other words, Peruna is helpful to those who live badly, or those who have acquired some chronic weakness, Peruna does not cure, but it assists the powers of Nature to bring about a cure.
The whip does not increase the power of the horse to pull a load, but judiciously used it stimulates the horse to use his powers at the right time, without which he could not have pulled the load.
This illustrates the effect of Peruna, or any other good remedy upon the system. Taken at the right time, it calls forth the powers of the human system to meet the enforcements of disease, and thus ends, if not entirely ends, the chronic action.
No one should ever attempt to substitute medicine in the place of right living. In the end such an attempt will prove a disaster. But an occasional use of the right medicine at the right time is a godsend, and no reasonable person will undertake to deny it.
Those who know how to use Peruna find it of untold value. By and by the world will get wise enough so that through correct living no medicine at all will be needed. But that time has not arrived. In the meantime, while the world is approaching that perfection in which all medicine will be eliminated, Peruna is a handy remedy to have in the home.
Slight derangements of the stomach, slight catarrhal attacks of the liver, the throat, bronchial tubes, lungs or bowels; these attacks are sure to lead to grave diseases, and can be averted by the judicious use of Peruna.
Wouldn't you like to read a few unsolicited testimonials from people who have used Peruna, and who stand ready to confirm the above statements concerning it. If so, address the Peruna Drug Manufacturing Co., Columbus, Ohio, and we will send some prepaid.

Although it is almost worth its weight in gold to the man who wants information about Texas, yet, if possible, the present edition eclipses all previous ones. In addition to being a complete index to the resources and progress of the state and a reliable reference work as to the activities and achievements of its people, it is a complete political vade mecum, and will prove invaluable to the student of recent politics and the campaigner for office—in keeping the record straight. The Dallas News is to be congratulated in its successful efforts in furnishing an absolutely reliable reference book on the thousand and one facts about Texas and its history, concerning which discussions daily arise. THE ALARMING INCREASE OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

"He died of Bright's Disease." Hardly a week passes that this statement is not made in reference to some prominent citizen.

The increasing prevalence of this disease makes the present time seem most opportune for discussion in the hope that some who are unconsciously afflicted with this dreaded disease may receive timely warning.

A prominent citizen residing in a nearby town informs us that he suffered for nearly a year from Bright's Disease, but that he recently affected a complete cure.

"What seemed to be the first indications of the trouble," was asked.

"They seemed hardly worth noticing. My digestion bothered me at times, my stomach seemed out of order, and I had occasional backaches, but I thought it was due to too much work."

"Did you take anything?"

"I did not. Later, my strength failed me, I had severe pains in the back and noticed some irregularities of the urine, I couldn't sleep well at night. I then used some simple remedies, but without benefit."

"Did you realize that your trouble was Bright's Disease?"

"I never thought of such a thing. Finally, my condition became serious. My back ached all the time, I had shooting pains in my joints and a weak tired feeling at the knees, a little work played me out completely. I then began doctoring for kidney trouble but did not improve very much."

"Did you have any trouble with your heart?"

"Yes. I had spells of heart throbbing and a nervous faint feeling. I thought I had heart disease and treated awhile for that. Nothing seemed to help me. I had to give up trying to work."

"How did you affect a cure?"

"A friend of mine persuaded me to try Prickly Ash Bitters. I bought a bottle of my druggist. After taking it a week I began to feel some better, my urine became more natural and there was a gradual lessening of my misery. I kept on taking Prickly Ash Bitters for several weeks and I could feel my strength returning—slowly at first—but increasing daily. I am now entirely cured of my trouble and able to do a full day's work without the least fatigue. I consider Prickly Ash Bitters the grandest kidney medicine in the world."

Thousands of people attest in like manner to the wonderful benefit derived from Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a time tried and successful remedy for Bright's Disease or any disorder of the kidneys. Prickly Ash Bitters is in every sense a system tonic and regulator. It possesses important properties for curing ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels in addition to its great power in the kidneys. It is a valuable article to keep at home, where a dose or two can be taken whenever needed. When used for any disorder in the kidneys, stomach, liver or bowels it is the right medicine in the right place.

LORAIN LETTER

Mrs. W. L. Edmondson and Miss Georgia Menshaw came in Monday morning from Winters, where they had made a short visit to their brother.

Miss Lydia Jackson and little sister, Opal, left Friday morning for La Lande, N. M., to join their father who went there some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hagler visited the family of J. H. T. Johnson Sunday.

The Christian protracted meeting will begin the first Sunday in July and continue until the close of the third Sunday.

The Baptist meeting will begin July 17th.

The Methodist meeting will commence August 12th.

These dates are given only so that others wishing to hold meetings may arrange the dates so as not to conflict.

Judge Coe was among the good people of Loraine Friday.

Last Thursday evening about 4 o'clock the seed house of the Gary & Summer's gin was discovered to be on fire. It had made considerable headway but was soon suppressed by turning on a jet of steam from the boilers.

Origin of fire is unknown. Loss, house and quite a lot of seed; no insurance.

County Attorney Leslie was on our streets Monday, also the indefatigable talker, M. K. Jackson, the insurance man.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Blakeley were pleasant visitors at the home of Earl Jackson of Colorado, Thursday evening, and while there took in the opera. There were also a number of others attended the play, from here.

J. C. Prude and family visited in Loraine Saturday.

J. E. Stowe is transacting business in Waco this week.

At the regular meeting of the Commercial Club Monday evening, a good deal of interest was manifested. While no business of importance has been transacted, there are some things of very material interest to the town under consideration and may be secured if our people can be induced to make united effort. A call meeting will be held at the office of Watlington & Hazlewood next Monday evening (the 14) at 4 o'clock. Everyone interested in a greater Loraine, come and bring your neighbor.

Eugene Butler and family of Eastland are residents of our town. Mr. Butler is employed as bookkeeper for the Cross Plains Mercantile Co.

Robert L. Meek, the insurance man made a business trip to Big Springs and Coahoma last week.

County Assessor Costin and his assistant, J. L. Hart, were among our people Tuesday.

Quite an improvement is going on in building telephone lines, one going south and another going to China Grove, independent of the lines already running north.

On Monday night the Young Peoples' Foreign Mission Society met at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Blume for their regular business meeting and election of officers. The following officers were elected: Mitchell Wallis, President; Albert Duncan, Vice-President; Miss Annie Blocker, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Susie Reynolds, Recording Secretary; Allee Goodgame, Treasurer. These young people have a live society and are doing good work under their efficient manager, Mrs. A. J. Blume.

Mrs. Jones who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Hall and family, returned to her home at Terrell last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Long and Miss Jessie Hall visited in Abilene the latter part of the week.

The vocal class taught by Prof. Wilson completed its course Monday night and a large crowd were out to enjoy the closing exercises.

Mr. Walter Petty and family of Hico are visiting Mrs. Petty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Toler.

Saturday was a busy day with our merchants. Quite a lot of cotton was upon our streets. Some exhibited fine horses and colts, which speaks well for our farmers. Egg trade is enormous. We would suggest to our farmers to grow a small patch of alfalfa for the chickens to graze on, or cut and feed to them. You will find it profitable.

Wiley Altman is back from the eastern markets where he purchased the large stock of dry goods for the Loraine Mercantile Co. Miss Libbie Lee who presides over the millinery department returned several days previous.

Our rustling postmaster is working to secure another rural route for Loraine. He and Mrs. Baker drove out Monday afternoon on an investigating tour and report the chances favorable for another route.

Mrs. J. G. Holmes was summoned to Whitesboro last week to attend the bedside of her father. A letter from her states that he is no better—still very low.

The reaper, Death, "with his sickle keen" has entered a number of homes in the surrounding country, removing from them loved ones, leaving many sad and sorrowing hearts. On Monday three deaths were reported, all occasioned from pneumonia. Mr. Herman Schutler, south of Loraine; Mrs. Mose Hart, north of Lone Wolf mountain, and Mrs. Pearl Hallman, daughter of J. W. Turner of Wastella, an old resident of Mitchell county. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved.

On Tuesday morning a couple of bales of cotton were discovered to be on fire in the cotton yard. The supposition is that the fire originated in the gin, while ginning the day before.

Rev. Bryant the Presbyterian pastor delivered a very helpful and inspiring sermon Sunday morning.

We are informed that W. C. Easterling our erstwhile editor, and Miss Clemmie Dodson were married at Big Springs last Sunday, the 6th. Mr. Easterling went to Big Springs ostensibly for the purpose of assisting Miss Dodson with her paper, the Big Springs Enterprise, but it turns out that he had another and more important enterprise in view: that of securing a prize for himself. We were a little suspicious when in a sort of confidential way, he was extolling the business ability of Miss Dodson, that Cupid was playing a hand; and sure enough 'twas true. We wish for him and his fair bride success and happiness in every "Enterprise" they may undertake through life, and may they have a long and smooth voyage on the sea of journalism. We will be glad to welcome them back to Loraine.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zellner attended church here Sunday.

MILLION OF LIVES LOST.

An Awful Toll Collected by Consumption. Many Unnecessary Deaths From This Disease.

If people could only understand that systematic catarrh is an internal disease that external applications cannot cure, they would not need to be warned so often about this malady, which, when neglected, paves the way oftentimes for consumption, at the cost of millions of lives every year. Yet catarrh may be cured, if the right treatment is employed.

Catarrh is caused by a general diseased state of the system which leads commonly to annoying and perhaps serious local conditions, which may prove a fertile breeding ground for germs of consumption. External remedies give but temporary ease.

The only way to successfully treat catarrh is by employing a medicine which is absorbed and carried by the blood to all parts of the system, so that the mucous membrane or internal lining of the body is toned up and made capable of resisting the infection of consumption and other diseases. We have a remedy prepared from the prescription of a physician who for thirty years studied and made catarrh a specialty, and whose record was a patient restored to health in every case where his treatment was followed as prescribed. That remedy is Rexall Mucic-Tone. We are positive that it will completely overcome catarrh in all its various forms, whether acute or chronic, that we promise to return every penny paid us for the medicine in every case where it fails or for any reason does not satisfy the user.

We want you to try Rexall Mucic-Tone on our recommendation and guarantee. We are right here where you live, and you do not contract any obligation or risk when you try Rexall Mucic-Tone on our guarantee. We have Rexall Mucic-Tone in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Very often the taking of one 50 cent bottle is sufficient to make a marked impression upon the case. Of course in chronic cases a longer treatment is necessary. The average in such cases is three $1.00 bottles. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Colorado only at our store—The Rexall Store—The Colorado Drug Co.

LETTERS BY TELEGRAPH

Western Union to Inaugurate a New Service Known as Night Letters at Nominal Rates.

Announcement is made by the Western Union Telegraph Company that it will shortly be prepared to handle long night messages at the rates customarily charged for ten-word day messages.

It appears that the Western Union has a large unemployed mileage of wire at night which is not earning anything. These wires must be maintained in any event to take care of the regular day business, and it is apparently the idea of the new interests in the telegraph company to let the public have the benefit of them. The announcement states that "a special Night Letter service will be established about March 15th. The charge for this service will be the standard day rate for ten words, for the transmission of fifty words or less, and one-fifth of such standard day rate will be charged for each additional ten words or less."

To be taken at these rates "Night Letters" must be written in plain English language, that is to say, code words or communications written in foreign languages will not be accepted. The messages will be taken at any hour up to midnight and transmitted at the company's convenience during the night for delivery the following morning. For the present the new service is confined to Western Union offices in the United States.

The tariffs charged for night letters are so low it is expected that the new service will be largely availed of by business concerns and others to quicken their correspondence by using the telegraph instead of the mails. A night letter sent by telegraph will reach its destination at the opening of business hours the following morning, thus saving as much as three to four days when long distances are involved.

Both Saved Gallons.

Devoe is worth $4 or $5 a gallon, put on; how much is another paint worth.

Depends on how many gallons you have got to put on, to be equal to one of Devoe.

Mr. J. J. Hall, Sheffield, Pa., painted two houses one coat, five years ago lead-and-ol, took 40 gallons.

Mr. N. Avery, Delhi, N. Y., owns two houses exactly alike; painted one with Devoe; took 6 gallons. The other with some other; took 12 gallons.

Miss Fox's Eligibility.

The question as to her eligibility being raised, Miss Zilpha Fox wrote to the Attorney General for his opinion in the premises and his reply was as follows:

Austin, Tex., Feb. 23, 1910. Miss Zilpha Fox, Colorado, Texas.

Dear Miss:—In reply to your favor of the 21st instant, you are respectfully advised that under the Constitution, statutes and decisions of this state, a single woman over the age of twenty-one years, is not disqualified by reason of her sex to hold the office of either county or district clerk.

See the following cases, namely: Steuhoff vs. State, 80 Texas. Harkreader vs. State, 35 Criminal Appeals.

Yours truly,

JOHN W. BRADY,

Assistant Attorney General.

Can You Afford To Use Hog Lard?

Lard is the fore-runner of indigestion. The hog fat soaks the pastry through and through, fills meats inside and out with a thick, unhealthy grease that the digestive juices cannot penetrate. The result is a call on the doctor whose advice is to go on a diet and avoid all rich food.

You can eat your fill of pies, cakes and all kinds of pastry if they are cooked with Cottolene—the perfect shortening—for it is a pure, healthful, vegetable-oil product that contains no trace of hog fat, and does not make food the least bit greasy.

From Cottonfield to Kitchen—human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made. The result is that when you buy Cottolene you get a cooking fat upon whose purity and cleanliness you can absolutely rely.

For all frying and shortening purposes, use Cottolene, and give your poor stomach a chance.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

High patent flour, made by the Majestic Milling Co., $3 per 100 pounds at Colorado Mercantile Co.

Mr. Shick, the express agent is an expert portrayer as well as dog fancier. He has the white Plymouth Rock breed of chickens and recently set two hens, each on 17 eggs. One of them hatched every egg and the other 16 of the 17. Eleven hens have averaged 10 eggs a day. This seems to us as something unusual in the laying and hatching line, but Mr. Shick tells us that care and selection have much to do with such results.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. W. Person entertained the 21 Club in honor of her sisters Mesdames Hart and McDonald of Missouri. A number of invited guests also enjoyed this pleasant occasion, there being seven tables of players with quite a number who only looked on. The afternoon was most enjoyable and at its close an elegant salad course was served. Mrs. Lasseter will be the next hostess. On Thursday Mrs. Person again entertained; this time the young ladies 42 club, in honor of her niece, Miss McDonald. This was also a most enjoyable affair and marks Mrs. Person and her guests as delightful hostesses. All left Sunday for a visit to Mr. Eugene Payne in Garza county.

Saratoga Chips (Anti-dyspeptic).

Most dishes requiring deep frying are denied the dyspeptic because they are usually fried in lard, and lard does not "agree." The following recipe will be welcomed by those of poor digestion: Peel the potatoes and slice thin into cold water. Drain well, and dry in a towel. Fry a few at a time in hot Cottonseed. Salt as you take them out, and lay them on coarse brown paper for a short time.

The above recipe can be followed without the least fear of disagreeable after effects. The chips will be crisp and dry—not greasy, as when fried in lard. Cottonseed contains no hog fat, but is made of purest cottonseed oil; it is recommended by physicians generally.

Our friend W. B. Wimberly at Lorraine announces this week for County Commissioner of this precinct (No. 1). A 25-cent bottle of a simple wash stops the itch and will surely convince any patient.

This wash is composed of mild and soothing oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol and glycerine, etc., and known as D. D. D. Prescription. We do not know how long the D. D. D. W. P. Leslie announces this week for re-election to the office of County Attorney. Mr. Leslie, so far as we know, has filled the office acceptably to the people and it is hardly likely that he will have opposition, as it would be almost useless for opposition to enter the race. A prosecuting attorney always makes enemies, but this only makes his friends the stronger, especially when he is conscious of having done his duty, and that well. (Advertisement.)
