Surveying Right-of-Way.

J. H. Burroughs, S. B. Kemp, F. K. Popplewell and G. W. Payne were out Wednesday and Thursday surveying the route the railroad will take through town. The line already surveyed runs from the north border of the P. M. Ledbetter field northwest of town to a point north of the bridge across the river. Where the survey strikes the business part of town it runs between Tom Cross' residence and the jail. The other line intersects the first line south of the March gin. The surveyors will probably run several more lines through town before the route is selected. We understand Mr. Morrow has offered to donate 15 acres for terminal grounds in the south part of town.—Robert Lee Observer.

Committee Busy.

The railroad committee met Saturday afternoon. C. W. McCutcheon was nominated chairman. The railroad proposition and what had been done was discussed. On motion he appointed the following committees: Committee to pass on bonus notes—W. J. Adams, J. C. Cunningham, F. K. Popplewell. Committee to place value on land bonus—S. B. Kemp, F. K. Popplewell. Committee to get security on notes not already secured.—Chas. Escue, W. F. Jay, Chas. Roe. Committee on guarantee of bonus—W. P. Walling, C. W. McCutcheon, S. B. Kemp. Committee on right of way and terminals in Robert Lee—F. K. Popplewell, G. W. Payne, S. B. Kemp.

These committees are now hard at work and it is expected that the work will be closed up within the next few days and everything will be ready for Mr. Hammock when he returns, which will be in a few days. When Mr. Hammock and parties interested with him arrive if they are satisfied, the final arrangements will be made and they will sign the contract to build the road. Of course nothing is absolutely certain as yet, but if the committees above mentioned are successful as it is now thought they will be, as far as now thought they will be as far as Robert Lee and along the line is concerned, our people have done everything required of them. The most important work of the committees is in getting some fifteen names more of in-

Commercial Club Meeting

A ROUSING MASS MEETING HELD—CITIZENS ENDORSE THE CLUB IN ITS EXPENDITURES.

Endorse the West Texas Magazine—Discuss a Fourth of July Barbecue and Will Repair Court House.

NEW ENTERPRISES DISCUSSED

Pursuant to a call by the president, an enthusiastic number of the members of the commercial club met at the tabernacle Wednesday night to consider several matters of interest to both town and the county in general. The condition of the county court house was the most vital question before the meeting. Mr. Webb, after reciting the present condition of that building and pointing out that it would be utterly useless for the club to attempt any civic or county improvement as long as our county capitol stood as a speaking monument to our carelessness of the people's interests and property; it was a libel upon our pretensions of thrift and repellant of investments. Judge Coe, as county Judge, was called upon to make some remarks and define the attitude of the county commissions toward the court house and its condition, as well as their intentions for the future. He said the main reason the building was not kept in better repair and condition, was that he regarded it as not worth the expense; that the walls were cracked to such an extent that the improvements would not be worth the candle. A new building would be about as cheap and much safer for the archives of the county.

The suggestion was made by Mr. Adams that the court house park be turned over to the custody of the ladies' organizations of the town and that they be given carte-blanche authority to care for it as they saw fit; which is a guarantee, if they accept the commission, that it will become a place of beauty and a joy to the whole county.

A movement was also set afoot to rejuvenate the commercial club, by canvass for new members and more interest by the individual member. It was suggested that at some time in the near future a "get together" meeting be held, a lunch served and the club boosted and revived, all of which met with the hearty approval of those present.

The mass meeting then endorsed the action of the club in its attitude toward The West Texas Magazine. It was explained that the Whipkey Printing company and Jno. S. Brooks, of the Brooks Magazine company at St. Louis, had decided to establish and publish a first class magazine, devoted to the development and advancement of the towns and counties in west Texas, and that the club had endorsed the move and had guaranteed 200 yearly subscriptions, getting 500 copies of the May issue. This meeting believed it a good thing and more than $100 was raised for this purpose.

A Fourth of July barbecue and graffid Central West Texas picnic was suggested and discussed. The Record had begun early to urge the people to have a midsummer celebration and the meeting endorsed the idea with enthusiasm. It was decided to hold a big barbecue on or about the Fourth of July and J. A. Buchanan was appointed, with several others, as general manager and Mr. Buchanan has already gone to work to pull off the biggest picnic and barbecue ever held in west Texas.

All in all, the meeting blazed the way for much good and needed work. Colorado can not afford to neglect the work that can and should be done through a commercial club, while other towns around it are using this lever for the accomplishment of the greater part of their civic improvements. The club at work is more than worth all it may cost, both to the individual citizen and the collective community.

LORAINE LETTER

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will celebrate their 93rd anniversary Friday night the 29th. They have invited the neighboring lodges and a royal time is expected.

Mrs. Meyers of Wellington, Kansas, and Mrs. Hoffman of Kansas City, who have been visiting Mrs. Earl Erwin, left for their respective homes Monday morning. Mrs. Meyer is a sister of Mrs. Erwin and her two weeks stay was a great pleasure to both. Mrs. Hoffman is an old friend, and being called to San Angelo on business availed herself of the opportunity of coming by and spending a few days with her girlhood friend.

George Thompson, Uncle Sam's census enumerator, is around asking all sorts of questions, down to the number of eggs a hen lays and the yield of the sweet potato patch.

Quite a large number from Loraine attended the concert given by the pupils of Joe Jackson's school Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker attended the Smith-Ellis nuptials in Colorado Wednesday evening.

Vance Greenfield and Chester Thomas of Colorado spent Sunday in Loraine.

After a very successful term Joe Jackson's school at Silver closed last Friday, the patrons expressed themselves as being well pleased with his services and want him to teach for them another year. This speaks well for Joe, as this was his first experience as a pedagogue.

Mr. William Sullivan was a business visitor in Loraine Saturday; he spent the night with his old friend, T. J. Davis.

Being engaged in a protracted meeting at Roscoe, Bro. Erwin did not fill his regular appointment at the Methodist church last Sunday.

Mrs. C. M. Thompson and daughter, Mrs. T. R. Bennett, spent a very pleasant day with the family of W. F. Bennett Tuesday, and partook of a nice birthday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson visited in Loraine Tuesday.

Mrs. J. B. Blakely and children left Tuesday night for a visit to Willis Point her old home.

Dr. Shook and family are off on a visit to Robert Lee and San Angelo.

to the town as to the likelihood of finding oil. This is in line with a progressive people and our commercial club may be made to do good work for the substantial upbuilding of our town and country. As an encouragement for this line of work we will state that wells exist a few miles south that emit gas in sufficient quantities to burn, also that signs of oil have been discovered. As a further encouragement a prominent citizen of Colorado who has landed interests in said section, stated to the writer some time back that he had five hundred dollars to put in test well provided he could get company in the matter.

Miss Lettie Miller was a pleasant visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jim Johnson, Saturday and Sunday. Miss Lettie is quite a favorite among the younger set, and they always welcome her sunny presence.

Mrs. W. T. Pridgen and Mrs. Dr. Chambers were visitors in Colorado Wednesday.

Sydney Altman of the Loraine Mercantile company, is off this week to Hico, and will also visit points in Johnson county before returning home.

Miss Nell Stowers, on account of sickness, was unable to teach her art class in Loraine this week.

Mr. Solomon Wood of this place was operated on for appendicitis at Abilene Monday.

Mr. Porter of a wholesale house of Weatherford is here to adjust the bankrupt stock of J. D. Norman.

Judge Looney of Colorado made Loraine a brief visit Tuesday. The judge's extensive interests lying within the trade territory of our little city naturally elicits from him all the good wishes in a natural way.

W. L. Edmondson went to Fort Worth and Cisco on business the first of this week.

L. W. Rhodes is having his residence remodeled in north Loraine.

Ney Sheridan spent Sunday and Monday in Snyder and Fluvanna.

J. F. Marshall of Calahan county, formerly of Loraine, is here visiting this week. Mr. Marshall is loud in praise of the Loraine country.

Mrs. George Pridgen, mother of W. T. Pridgen, is on the sick list this week.

We exceedingly regret to announce the serious illness of our old friend, J. W. Smiley, having first had measles, and now suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Smiley is also sick.

At a meeting of the school board on April 25, J. C. Helm was unanimously elected as superintendent of the Loraine school for another year.

We feel that we are justly proud of our school under the efficient management of Prof. Helm. He has already had charge of the school three years, and has won the entire confidence and respect of both pupils and patrons and Loraine is to be congratulated in being so fortunate as to secure his services for another school term.

W. C. Easterling has traded the Loraine News to J. L. Gregg and Walter Joiner for property in Loraine. Mr. Gregg and Mr. Joiner immediately traded the plant to R. O. Forster of Carlton. Mr. Forster comes well recommended, some of our citizens having known him from a boy in knee pants. He will assume editorial charge on the first of May and will become thoroughly identified with our every interest, as he expects to acquire a home among us. We wish for him unbounded success.

Mr. Easterling goes to broader fields, being at present located at Coahoma. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Helm, in company with a large crowd of young people, attended the commencement exercises at Colorado Tuesday night.

St. Elmo Production Coming.

St. Elmo has been a book for many thousands. It's romance is bewitching, it's religious spirit fervent. It's power to thrill grows as the story progresses until the most casual listener finds his attention enchained and himself wrapped in the lives of the folk who move in and out of its action. The perfect and copyrighted dramatization of this remarkable story will be seen at the opera house, for one night only, Monday, May 2. The play has aroused considerable interest, not only among the regular theatre goers, but equally so among those who may be inclined, through mistake but honest belief, to look askance at the stage. Do not miss this event of the season. Seats now on sale at the Colorado Drug Store.

FOXY GRANDPA.

He Does the Handsome Thing by the Newly Wedded.

They Come to Colorado and Fit Themselves Out For Housekeeping. Grandpa gives Them the Benefit of His Experience and Foots the Bills.

"Miss Summers—Polly— I-er-dare 17" But the speaker took a header over bashfulness, only to hear a sweet "Yes, Charley."

"Can I aspire to er—that is—"

Again a lapse into silence followed by an encouraging—

"Yes, Charley."

"Oh, if I might only hope to er—to—"

Another failure of language. It was seemingly a hopeless case and it might have been only for a demure:

"Charley! I have said yes twice if you mean it. I mean it too, and—"

And to this day that young man insists that he popped the question.

All this happened away down east. It wasn't long before there was a wedding, not much longer before there came a letter from Polly's Foxy Grandpa, out in Mitchell county, who wrote effusively of his delight at her exhibition of what he called grit, and proposed if the young couple would locate at Colorado he would start them in life as a wedding gift.

Of course they accepted and were soon bidding their friends adieu.

A few weeks subsequent to the above a travel-stained party arrived in Colorado. Our proud Foxy Grandpa was in charge and led their straight-way to the New Alamo Hotel.

"We will go there," said he, "because that's a popular place and strictly first class, in fact its the house that's making good and treating the traveling public just right. I have known J. K. Foster, proprietor, for a long time. He is endowed with that delightful intuition which makes a guest feel at home, comfortable, happy and in mighty good luck. The house is one of convenience, the apartments well furnished and as to the cuisine, well this hotel is noted for its excellent table. So we will engage rooms there until the new home is complete."

"After breakfast," remarked Foxy Grandpa, "we will go out and buy your outfit, and to expedite matters we will order a rig of A. R. Woods' Livery, Feed and Boarding stable." The carriage arrives and as Polly views the stylish turnout with fine horses and a neatly dressed driver at the reins, she expressed her delight. "This stable," said he, "is one of the best outfit-fitted in this vicinity, and it's three S's, Speedy, Safety, Style, are its slogan. If you ever want to run to an off-railroad town, or on pleasure bent, be sure and go to Wood's Livery Stable for a rig."

"The basis of a home," continued Foxy Grandpa, as they entered the carriage, "is a bit of mother earth, therefore we will lose no time in calling at Buchanan & Payne's Real Estate and Insurance office. They control city property that is very desirable, and always have excellent bargains on hand. It is worth your while to know them, for if you ever want to buy, or rent or sell property, they are the men to call on, as what they tell you can be set down as solid facts." The visit resulted in interesting Charles in some very desirable city property, and an engagement for a drive into the country to view some farms and ranch lands in which Buchanan & Payne offer some desirable bargains. And when the house is completed we will have them insure the whole in one of their first-class companies, as they are prompt in writing insurance and see to it that your policy does not lapse."

"The next thing to look after," said Grandpa, "is the lumber absolutely necessary in building the new house on that lot you bought, so come with me, I'll introduce you to A. J. Roe lumberman, who is the principal dealer in that line here. He carries the most complete line of builders' material in the county; everything from the sills for the foundation to the shingles for the roof, including lime, brick, cement, ash, doors, door and window screens, barb wire and woven wire fencing. He can also supply you with all kinds of interior decorations at the most reasonable figures."

"The necessary material being purchased," continued Grandpa, "we must look for a reliable contractor to build the house and Ven King is the man to figure with. Honest workmanship and material are assured in building you will find him using both and employing only first-class workmen, who know their business and exercise it. When he takes a contract he pushes it through to completion without delay, and will give you a turnkey job. You will be more than pleased with your new home when turned over to you from his hands."

"As I am a firm believer in the economy and safety of electricity in preference to all its so-called equals," said Grandpa, "we will lose no time in calling on Robert M. Webb, general manager of the Electric Light plant, and make arrangements to have the house wired, for this commodity, electricity, is the light," said he, "it is cleanly, artistic, a labor saver and best of all, costs less than the ordinary lights, and is always ready. You don't want to use your neighbor's phone, either, when you can get such equipment as that furnished by the Texas and Pacific Telephone Co., we will have Mr. Webb place one in the new home. Water is another important point and Mr. Webb will look after that too, see that you get the proper piping and connections. And take it all around these institutions are mighty handy ones in this community."

"While the house is in the course of construction," added Grandpa, "there will be tinning, roofing, guttering, bracket, skylight work, etc., to be done and G. E. Crawford is the man for the work. You will want a galvanized iron tank and cistern, well casing, tubing, etc., and he can supply you with the proper articles at the proper price. As no home is complete at this day and date without a modern bathroom, we will have him install one in the new home, with all appurtenances and strictly sanitary plumbing. He does all kinds of repairing, including windmill, and gasoline engine repairing, does everything right up to the handle and don't charge you a fortune for it either."

"The new home being completed," said Foxy Grandpa "we must now look to the furnishings for it. Hereupon Polly declared she had heard so much of J. H. Grene's Furniture Store that she desired to go there. The result was they were ushered into such a fine display that the girl was puzzled at first how to select, but she soon yielded to the seductions of a magnificent parlor suit; a bedroom suit, in bird's eye maple. To these she added brass, iron and folding beds, pictures and wall ornaments, rugs, matings, linoleums and art squares. She purchased a Germany refrigerator, a Conrads rocker, and a Free drophead sewing machine for herself and didn't forget an ornamental writing desk for hubby, coming to the conclusion that J. H. Grene's prices were below the very whisper of competition, especially the Roars Sawbuck and Montgomery Ward competitors."

"A pretty good start," said Grandpa, "and now we will visit Doss & Johnson's Hardware and Store where Polly's housewifely interests will have full sway in the marvels of kitchen apparatus. There's not a more comprehensive stock of cooking machinery in this section," said he, "every possible piece of kitchen furniture, from a tin dipper to a cooking range is here in all styles and variety, and Polly was not long in selecting a Quick Meal range for general use, followed by a Detroit oil stove for the hot water she added a complete line of granite enamel ware, tinware, queensware and Keen Kutter cutlery and insisted on Charles working up an appetite on an O. K. washing machine and "I Cut Keen lawn mower, which she purchased." All three declared they had been treated right by Doss & Johnson—just as they treat everybody."

"You know there are many pieces of property encumbered by a mortgage, but not canceled of record, clouding titles right here in Mitchell county," said Grandpa, "and if you want to feel satisfied that you will have no trouble in the future with the title to your property I'd advise you to call on G. B. Harness and have him make out a complete abstract of title to your property. He will do it, do it right and you will find the finished title without defects, as he has a complete set of abstract books of the county. You will want to insure your property too, and the other fellow carry the insurance—especially when you get it at such low rates as Mr. Harness quotes. We will have him insure the new home. He never had a dispute in the settlement of any claim and will place your risk in first-class companies."

At the grocery Foxy Grandpa waxed philosophical. "Never neglect your larder," said he, "that important adjunct of housekeeping controls masculine temper. To that end you must patronize a grocery on whom you can depend for honest goods. For some time I have found the Colorado Mercantile Co., perfectly reliable. You are sure to find careful dealers always well stocked with everything in staple and fancy groceries, fresh and first-class, including such well known articles as Chase & Sanborn's coffee, Home Rule Flour and a complete Beech-Nut line of baked beans, peanut butter, sliced breakfast bacon in glass, sliced sausage, etc. that's great. You will find no shelfworn goods at this store, in fact its the up-to-the-minute grocery, quick delivery and priced down to brass tacks. They also in another department handle vehicles, implements, etc."

"While we are in this important topic of gastronomies," continued Foxy Grandpa, "we must not forget meat. It goes hand in hand with bread, and by the way, the man I want you to call on handles the best kind on the market, fresh and first-class daily, and that's H. B. Broadbent, proprietor of the Colorado Cold Storage market. You can get fresh, pure and wholesome meat, home rendered lard, sausage, etc., here. He buys and sells the best of everything and keeps it fresh in cold storage, and his cold storage plant is a winner, as it keeps his meats just right. You will find packing house products here, such as hams and bacon, etc., and he will always treat you right. So to keep your hubby in good humor, Polly, trade at the Cold Storage Market every time."

"And say, Grandpa," exclaimed Polly, "where will I go for dry goods? This dress of mine is hardly suitable, I must admit." "Well, my girl, if you want to select from one of the finest stocks of first-class dry goods in this section I will direct you to Burns & Bell, who carry a line of dress goods, nobby belts, trimmings, white goods, linens, etc., that for variety and real value are seldom seen outside of large metropolitan cities. They carry all the late weaves in fashionable dress goods and a fine line of general dry goods and you are sure to be guided right in your selections. You will find this firm pleasant to deal with and the employees polite and expert, while as to price, s—well Burns & Bell are never undersold."

"Halt!" commanded Foxy Grandpa, as the party came in front of the Colorado Drug Co. "Walk right in." "Why Grandpa, we're not sick and—"

"I know that," laughed he, "but I suspect it won't be long before this young man begins to take an interest in matters of paragonic and—G-r-a-n-d-p-a."

"We'll go in anyway. Polly may find some toilet articles she wants. Sure enough, the girl was soon loaded down with combs, brushes, face powders and several bottles of fine perfume. Remember Tommy Griswold will give you any kind of a drink at the sanitary soda fountain and don't forget to come here for prescriptions, as you will find two registered pharmacists employed at Colorado Drug Co., using the best of drugs."

"If there is one thing above another that young folks are particular about it is, your footwear," said Grandpa, "and the place for particular people to have their wants anticipated is at Colorado Dry Goods Co.'s shoe department at the old A. J. Payne stand. They have the exclusive agency of Brown Shoe company's shoes, none better on the market at the price; they fit your feet, your fancy and your finances," said he, "and as to wear, well your Grandpa and I have tried 'em and we will guarantee their lasting qualities." Polly was not long in selecting a handsome walking boot and patent pumps of White Hawk brand; Charles a Foot Form last of President brand brand, and while Polly was casting shy glances at the Buster Brown Blue Ribbon line for the little tot Grandpa purchased a Star 5 Star boot for himself with rubbers for the crowd. No one needing footwear can resist the styles and prices at Colorado Dry Goods company."

"And where will I find the leading milliner, queried Polly of Grandpa. "Just a few doors," said he, "and we will visit Mrs. Jas. DeMoss, who, by the way, has on hand the smartest dress, pattern, street, picture hats and Parisian models to be found anywhere. Latest styles and lowest prices being her motto. She has, and employs milliners who have that experience which guarantees when you have once purchased here you have the proper thing at low cost." And a few minutes later there wasn't a happier lady than Polly in the proud possession of a tosy effect of Mrs. DeMoss' own creation.

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," said Grandpa "and it will make you so, Charley, if you stick to it," said he. "I'm broad in my views and like to see a young man enjoy himself, but I like to see him use judgment and pick his pleasure, as I would. Now, if you want to enjoy yourself for a few hours any old time, call at C. Evans' Pool and Billiard Parlors. He runs a gentleman's resort, insists on having things right and his tables are always clean and cushions live, in fact, his equipment is complete. So make Evans' place your headquarters and meet your friends there. He will treat you right."

"There's an old saying that the clothes don't make the man," said Grandpa. "They may not," said he, but they help and when they are swell togs, such as Jas. B. Coughran turns out, they help mightily. His clothes have that snap to 'em which makes a man who wears them feel that he is well dressed, and then too, he has a fine line of samples and piece goods to select from and is on the ground to back up any defect which might occur. He will guarantee a fit. He does all kinds of dyeing, cleaning, pressing, repairing, etc., and does it right, at right prices. "A swell Sunday suit for me at Jim Coughran's" said Charley, and he got it.

"As you are going to keep a horse you will want a harness," said Grandpa, "and the horsemilliner and mule-jeweler in this section is J. B. Annis. He is an expert workman and gives personal supervision to the minutest detail of manufacture. There isn't a thing in this line that cannot be had of him, heavy and light, single and double, plain and fancy work and buggy harness. He has 'em in stock and he makes anything to order. He makes and carries a complete stock of saddles, whips, flynets, dusters, lap-ropes, in fact, anything a farmer or a gentleman horseman could possibly desire and at right prices."

"I know you are particular about that mare Kitty," said Grandpa, "so I'd advise you to take her to J. H. Cooper and have her shod. He understands perfectly the anatomy of a horse's foot, just what kind of a shoe is needed and how to make and put it on. In fact, he is, and employs horse-shoeing specialists, treats all diseases of the feet, cures corns, quarters, toe cracks, well balance, gait, cures faulty action and avoid friction on most scientific and up-to-now principles. He has one of the best equipped shops for general repair west of Fort Worth, and also does painting and trimming, rubber tiring. He will shrink tires, both hot and cold and will fix any old thing, so remember J. H. Cooper for almost anything in wood or iron."

"It's about my lunch time," said Grandpa, "and as you young folks must be hungry too, we will lose no time in calling on the old reliable, Jake's restaurant. He has been in business through thick and thin, since 1884, and for a quick lunch, short orders or a regular meal with all delicacies in season, his place is headquarters. Cleanliness, prompt service, courteous treatment, with generous portions are by-words at the restaurant, so patronize Jake every time, and have your friends do the same. You will be one of his pleased customers and grow fat."

As the young folks were undecided as to what to go into to make a living, in Colorado City they were prevailed upon by Grandpa to go to farming. You will raise stock and must have feed, and I want you to get it of my friend J. S. Vaughn. He handles grain, hay, chops, bran, oats, cottonseed meal, etc., and sells at close figures. I want you to buy some of that German Millet seed he handles and plant it. It is a winner. He pays top prices and the cash for hides and gives you a square deal all round."

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age," said Grandpa, and when of ample character it places its possessor in the front ranks. The knowledge of the ice cream business possessed by Morrison & Shropshire of Colorado Ice Cream factory have enabled them to place a brand of cream on the market which defies competition. Its a home product, made from the purest of cream and it's purchased right here at home, in fact, there's nothing shipped in with them. It's all shipped out. They make cleanliness their watchword in the making of this product, and it's right up to pure food regulations. So in buying ice cream call for and insist on getting Colorado Ice Cream Factory product every time. You will be patronizing home industry and get the best ice cream."

"There is one institution I forgot in stories. No pain in the City Caf and Richardson of Floyd Beall of Pecos, Texas, and CHARLEY THOMAS, and the merchants show him, to see h.

construction," said Grandpa, "and that's Frank Williams, the sand man. You can call him that, as he has closed a contract for the Pressed Stone company's entire territory and has that to draw from in addition to his own. He ships a high grade article in any quantity from one to 100 or more cars anywhere, and gives careful attention to all orders. He has teams galore hauling to trains and prompt shipment is one of his long strong suits. So if it's sand or gravel you want for concrete or brick work, remember Frank Williams can deliver the goods."

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness," said Grandpa, "and with that motto in mind we will lose no more time in calling at Jones & Harris' barber shop, for a clean shave, artistic hair cut, shampoo or a bath. Their place is the place to go. I've tried them and I know" said Grandpa. "Clean towels, courteous treatment, with the best of soaps and tonics, are by words here, and the fact of the matter is, Jones & Harris are headquarters in this section. So for anything in the barber line, remember them everytime."

"Let's see; I promised you an auto as a wedding present when you came west, didn't I?" queried Grandpa of the young folks. "Well, I've been studying the matter and looking up the makes and I want you to come with me for a visit to A. J. Herrington the home of the Rambler Automobile and I'll acquit myself of my promise by presenting you with one of them, and I know you will be pleased. The Rambler is the mile exterminator, requires fewer parts and less repair than any machine I know of, and when you start anywhere you get there in it. He also handles the famous Brush run-about, and its a dandy. He runs a general garage and carries a complete line of supplies and if your auto bucks at anything take it to A. J. Herrington and he will fix it and will not charge you a fortune for it either, as he knows the auto fixing game."

Enroute home the gentlemen stopped at the Record office and left the wherewithal for a year's subscription. On rejoining Polly, she began to volubly express her thanks. "This is indeed a happy event, and one we can never forget. You have bought us everything," she exclaimed. "Except one thing," said Grandpa. "but I left the order on the sly with my friend J. H. Greene, for the best in Mitchell county, and you can get it whenever you want it."

"Why, what can it be," exclaimed Polly.

"A handsome rubber-tired, collapsible, Wagner go-cart" said Foxy Grandpa.—But Polly had fainted.

TO USE PERUNA.

MRS. J. G. DUKES.

Rev. J. G. Dukes, Pastor of the Unitarian Church of Pinetown, N. C., writes:

"My wife has been in a very bad state of health for several years, and nothing seemed to do her any good until she began to use Peruna one month ago. Since then the color has returned to her face, and she is gaining in flesh every day, and I believe she is a well woman to-day."

"My little boy, ten years old, was pale and had but little life. He began to use Peruna the day his mother began. To-day his face is rosy, and he is out in the yard running and jumping with the rest of the children."

Stomach Trouble Relieved.

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1910

About the Bond Issue.

There are a good many citizens and tax payers of Colorado who are of the opinion that the issue of $10,000 of bonds to rebuild the high school building, will of necessity raise their taxes.

As a rule this supposition would be sound and well founded, but such will not be the case. For the past two or three years the expenses of the public schools have been a little greater than the revenues for their support. In order to curtail the former, expenses have been retrenched, which together with the greater assessment of property within the independent school district, will put the city a revenue sufficient, not only to pay the running expenses, but the interest on the bonds and provide a sinking fund which in twenty years, the term of the bonds will easily liquidate the indebtedness. The interest and yearly accretions to the sinking fund will be provided for by taking that amount from the maintenance fund, which will require less money hereafter than has been necessary heretofore. Have no fear that the issue of $10,000 of bonds for the new high school building will raise your taxes one mill; you will pay no more than you are now paying.

Remember the date of the election, May 7th. It is the civic duty of every qualified voter in the independent school district to vote.

Teddy has met Europe and from all accounts its his'en.

Governor Patterson gives an additional reason for pardon of Cooper aside from the "fact" of his innocence, that the Coopers were the victims of a "political conspiracy."

When the papers in the case of the negro soldiers shooting up the town of Brownsville, were transferred from the war department, where a court of inquiry was held, to the senate chamber, it required a dray to carry them.

The blizzard of last week did damage to the amount of $30,000,000, the states of Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana being the worst sufferers.

The farmer who fastens himself to a piece of Mitchell county land and builds his home thereon, will be likened to the wise man who built his house upon a rock; and the storms came, the rain descended, but that house fell not, because it was founded upon a rock. The storms of adversity may come, but the man who owns Mitchell county land can smile at their impotent fury.

Colorado is all right. Although the town does not indulge in as much or as loud whistling in order to keep up its courage while passing that limbo of prosperity—drouths—its tread is as firm and its courage as staunch as many towns which depend more upon its whistling than upon its business. Yes sir, Colorado's all right.

J. S. Barber, commissioner from precinct 3, was in this week and reports the grass as coming nicely.

How little we realize when we are doing well. If there were any crops up and growing, these cold mornings and howling winds would soon put them to the bad, and so it is that a great deal of unnecessary work has been saved. The Record has great faith that when the days get warm again, we will have a good rain. We don't fix the day until we can consult our friend, Mr. Killian.

The candidate who refuses to state his position on the saloon question, like the goat in the animal convention, where the vote was taken by raising the tail, has already voted. He may be like a goat in other respects, and it is certain that he favors saloons.—Ex.

Turn on More Light.

If the present disclosures of the corruption of public men and in officials shall result in a "cleaning of the temple," and the scourging of those who have "made it a den of thieves," then we say, God speed the agitation. Our marvellous material development and educational progress have been secured at the fearful expense of the highest aspect of citizenship. Usages and expedients, innocent in themselves at first have crept in and become so interwoven with tolerance, with politics and the machinery of our government, that the line of demarcation between the law and "usage" between right and wrong, between mine and thine, between that which belongs to Caesar and those belonging to God, is but dimly marked.

The doctrine that "to the victors belong the spoils," has been so amended as to include not only office, but official function as well. Against such irresponsibility of power the people have begun to revolt, and demand a thorough cleaning. Political parties are but incidental; the sins of all of them are measured by opportunity and tenure of office. The people rejoice at the exposure of republican, democrat, populist and prohibitionist with equal satisfaction.

An ethical awakening has begun which will result in people scourging from office men who have abused their trust and betrayed their confidence. To accomplish this, good citizens must do their sworn duty; must take an interest in all issues and vote in every election. The machinery of government is today in the hands of the professional office seeker and spoilsman, solely because the best citizens of the country refuse to take part in politics and see that only honest men are given official trust and responsibility. They refuse to perform the most patriotic aspect of good citizenship, and to that extent are responsible for the prostitution of office and corruption of our government. In the meantime, let the disclosures proceed, and every servant of the sovereign people found guilty of Punic faith, be pilloried to public gaze and contempt.

They Haven't Changed.

We came across a copy of the Colorado Spokesman this week of September 23, 1902. J. W. Dow, editor and proprietor. In it is an item taken from the old Colorado Clipper, which proves that cotton was raised somewhere near Colorado as far back as 1891. The item reads: "S. Lapowski & Bro. bought the first bale of cotton of the season Friday morning. This bale of cotton was raised in Mitchell county and weighed 568 pounds. It sold for 15 cents per pound. Mitchell county leads the west in the first bale of cotton" Mitchell county was a leader then and maintains that enviable distinction till this day.

We also notice that the same diseases prevailed then as afflict our people now; itch for office being at that time contagious. Some who were infected then have not yet recovered. Among the candidates we notice A. J. Coe, for county judge (same case he has now); Samuel Oustine, ditto; Earl Morrison and W. S. Stoneham were wrestling for the clerk's office; C. C. Blandford and J. W. Nunn were each trying to down C. D. Doggett for tax assessor; Andrew Cooksey and G. W. Waddell wanted to inspect the bides; Frank Johnson said he'd be satisfied with the sheriff's office; R. B. Terrell wanted to be county treasurer once more, while Sam'l Gustine and T. J. Matthews disputed his ability; and last but not least, Fred Meyer and W. H. Goodwin bankered to serve their county as commissioners of precinct 1 and 2 respectively. J. L. Shepherd, J. H. Beal and Ellis Douthit had a three-cornered, go-as-you-please race for the district woolstack, while two candidates from the back country scrambled for a seat in the capitol at Austin.

THE WEST TEXAS MAGAZINE.

It has been the conviction of the publishers of the Record for some time that there was a field in west Texas for a first class magazine, devoted to the upbuilding and development of this section; a publication of higher grade and better typographical appearance and general dress, than had yet been attempted. With this end in view The West Texas Magazine was conceived. It will be more than a mere advertising medium, and will seek to reflect not only the material development of the western part of the state, but the intellectual as well. To this end it solicits contributions from those who court the Muses and ride the bucking Pegasus. Short stories of nature or human interest, sketches, poems, etc., relating to west Texas are available. The West Texas Magazine solicits and will appreciate such stories and is aware that there are many people of ability who would gladly contribute, and to whom the metropolitan magazines are not open.

A company has been formed between Whipkey Bros. and Jno. S. Brooks and will be incorporated. Mr. Brooks represents the Brooks International Magazine company of St. Louis, being a member and owning stock in that concern. He is a man of ability and experience, which insures capital and solidity to the enterprise.

The magazine will contain about 128 pages, exclusive of the advertising pages; half of this will be filled with first-class articles fully illustrated by many of the best writers in the country. The other half of the publication will be devoted to the exploitation of west Texas, and full write-ups of countries, will be made by representatives thoroughly qualified, who will visit the different counties in the interest of the magazine. These local articles will also be fully illustrated, and no effort will be spared to make it a credit to this section. z z z

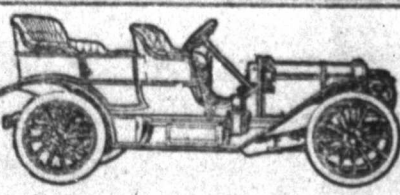

Arrangements have been made with the general passenger agents of the railroads covering this part of the state, to distribute this magazine along their lines and endorse its work. The Commercial Club of Colorado, after investigating the aims of the publication, took 500 copies of the first issue which will be used by the Club for advertising the town of Colorado and Mitchell county, and also took 200 yearly subscriptions. Aside from this endorsement of home folks, the matter has been thoroughly canvassed with other parties and towns, the unit of whose opinion is that it is a move in the right direction. Already there have been numerous applications for advertising space. It will contain a reliable real estate and legal directory, and bank directory, of every town visited in west Texas; also a complete list of West Texas Commercial Clubs, with their secretary's name and address. In short the publishers hope to make the magazine reflect the highest industrial and intellectual development of this great section. To do this they realize they must have the cooperation and sympathy of every factor that enters the upbuilding and advancement of the state. From the brethren of the press, they know the venture will receive all the assistance and kindness in their power. From others, they believe the publication will be given the opportunity to demonstrate its faith.

And With a Safety Razor, Too.

Standing before his dresser after coming home rather late from the club he picked up his hair brush when he reached for his hand mirror. He held it before his face for a moment and then said to himself: "Great Scott, old man, you need a shave."—Abilene Reporter.

In the opening speech of his campaign for governor, Davidson made a sensational break at Waco last week. His managers refused to allow Judge Geo. Clark to introduce him, after the citizens of Waco, whose guest Davidson was, had decided upon Clark to introduce the speaker. The people of Waco regard the act of Davidson's managers as the acts of Davidson, and characterize it as a gross violation of common politeness, cheap and most contemptible politics.

GRADUATING EXERCISES.

Large Audience Witnessed the Presentation of Diploma.

The opera house was the scene of a very festive gathering Tuesday evening when the Commencement exercises were held there. The stage had been beautifully decorated in pennants. The back curtain was covered by two large flags in gold, with 1910 in white on them. The sides of the stage were banked with ferns, palms and other growing palms, making a veritable bower of beauty for our bonny class. The exercises were begun with prayer, led by Rev. Elliott, then a piano solo by Mary Watson.

Miss Loula Merrell, class salutatorian, delivered a beautiful address upon "Burns, the Ayreshire Plow Boy." The class critic, Or on McCreeless, in an address, "A Reformed Curriculum for the High School," clearly showed plainly the need of such reform and the good that would result when adopted. Miss Lela Whipkey gave a lovely piano solo.

The class historian, Mattie Shuford gave the school annals of three decades. This was both humorous and true. Olive Greenwood, class essayist, spoke most interestingly on "The Effect of Puritanism on New England Literature." Mary Risinger's piano solo was beautiful. The class humorist, Lillian Liles, with her Lightning Flashes and Luminous Foolishness, was certainly rich and racy. Anthony Van Tuyl, the class orator, took the class motto, "Let Nothing Be Despaired," as his subject and delivered an address that would have done credit to a university, instead of a high school graduate. The Choral club gave a beautiful chorus, "Brooks Shall Murder."

The class prophet, attired as a Gypsy, told "What fate has written" in a most interesting and amusing way. She proved to be Marguerite Cowan.

The valedictorian, Omeira Terry, said "Good Bye" in such a beautiful and impressive manner that all felt the sadness of the closing day. This talented girl led her class for four years, finishing this year with highest honors. Loula Merrell as class second.

Prof. Dawes gave one of his finished piano solos, after which Dr. Phenix, in a few personal words to each presented the diplomas. Then the flowers were brought in by Annie May Lupton and Brooks Bell, there were baskets and bouquets of every size and how beautiful they were. The dainty girls in their lovely white dresses and the handsome boys had looked beautiful before, but now banked as they were with blossoms, the effect was fascinating. That this commencement may be the continuation of a long life of happiness and usefulness was spoken by Rev. Lyons and the class of 1910 passed into memory as one of the brightest and brainiest classes we have ever had, with great honor, due our superintendent.

"Uncle Dan" McCunningham returned this week from a business trip to Kansas. He reports that when he left his side partner, Mr. F. M. Bouren, was deep in the enjoyment of the simple life, and would not return before fall.

A party consisting of A. J. Herrington, Harry Collins, Joe Smoot, went to Dallas this week. While there Mr. Herrington will purchase two more Rambler autos and the party will drive back in them. One of these machines has been purchased by Judge Earnest, so we are informed.

Important to Farmers.

A message from San Antonio to one of the largest packing houses in the country this week read as follows: "Extreme cold killed young cotton in all states except Texas. Mills being appealed to not to crush seed, but sell them to farmers for replanting. This means shortage and strong market."

Recent dispatches report snow at Atlanta, Ga., and ice in several Texas points. A peculiar anomaly occurs in the report from St. Johns, New Foundland, where the weather is usually freezing at this time, the thermometer registered 85 degrees. At Los Angeles, Calif., it has been very hot, as high as 98 in the shade. The blizzard seems to have been general over the southern states.

How often do you eat this food?

A short time ago there appeared in the columns of one of the prominent magazines an article on building brain and muscle by the proper selection of the foods you eat.

A good many people were surprised to find oatmeal placed at the top of the list of foods recommended; but if the article had appeared in an English or Scotch paper every reader would have expected to see first place given to good oatmeal.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Not in years have the politicians of Washington received such a shaking up as came with the authoritative announcement that Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island and Eugene Hale of Maine would retire from public life on the expiration of their present terms March 3, 1911.

Senators Aldrich and Hale when they retire next March will have served each his thirty years in the upper branch of Congress. Both entered the Senate in 1881, the Maine Senator a few months ahead of the Rhode Islander.

Speculation will at once arise in the upper branch of Congress over the question of leadership after Mr. Aldrich's term expires. There is no hard and fast rule that the chairman of the Finance Committee is the leader of the majority, in fact there was no "one man" leadership in the Senate prior to the last few years.

With the retirement of Aldrich and Hale the chairmanships of the two great committees of the Senate will swing from the far East to the West or middle West and after March 3, 1911, the power and the prestige which came to New England by reason of the strength and great ability of its representatives will pass from New England, thereby creating conditions wholly unexpected.

Senator Burrows of Michigan is the ranking republican member of the Committee on Finance of which Senator Aldrich is chairman. Senator Burrows is having the fight of his life for re-election. Those who follow next in rank to Senator Burrows and who would naturally follow in the order as they stand on the committee, are Boise Penrose of Pennsylvania, Shelby M. Cullom of Illinois, Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Porter J. McCumber of North Dakota and Reed Smoot of Utah.

Just what effect the retirement of Aldrich and Hale will have on the Taft administration is problematical. That it will have a very decided effect is generally conceded. What effect it will have on the legislation for which President Taft has pledged himself to put on the statute books rests wholly with the future.

The passage of the Rivers and Harbor bill carrying in round numbers $52,000,000, by the Senate, this week, marks the beginning of a systematic development of the waterways of the United States, for the Senate as well as the House has gone on record that there should be an annual River and Harbor bill for which the National Rivers and Harbors Congress has stood day in and day out ever since the formation of that great organization.

The objections of Senator Burton which were masterfully handled against certain items in the bill, which lacked the recommendations of the Board of Army Engineers, in nowise changed the well-defined policy of waterways betterment along broad and comprehensive lines. It was not against the bill itself that Senator Burton forcefully called attention, but against certain items which had either adverse reports upon the projects, or no recommendations whatsoever, Senator Newlands also took occasion to urge the creation of a commission which should act in conjunction with the Army Engineers and to have jurisdiction not only over the rivers, harbors and canals of the United States, looking to their permanent improvement, but a general conservation scheme embodying water power, drainage, reclamation, irrigation and other co-related subjects.

The River and Harbor bill, according to those most intimately associated with its preparation both in Senate and House, unanimously agree that it is the most scientifically prepared bill ever passed by Congress looking to the improvement of the waterways of continental United States.

In view of the fact that the word "Insurgent" has become most common in the public prints and is used in contradistinction to the term "Regular" the following definition of "Insurgent" was given recently by Senator Heyburn of Idaho:—

"An insurgent, politically speaking, is not a man who differs with a self-constituted leader or one ambitious to be a leader; that is not an insurgent; yet we find that there are men in public life today who seem to think that any differing from their opinions constitutes insurgency. I care not whether it be a man high in executive power or whether it be a committee or a person in this Senate, it makes no difference. A political party is composed of all of the men who profess that faith and act upon the majority opinion. It includes all who are willing to associate themselves politically with men and abide by the result of the majority in council. No man can be called an insurgent except after his party has caucused and he has been given an opportunity to participate in the caucus. The self-constituted leaders who issue a manifesto and say 'this is the Republican or Democratic party' overreach themselves. If they are leaders, let them prove it in the councils of the party. I am in favor of caucus rule within the party upon the basis of the majority, and I am in favor of the majority rule in the country."

SMITH HAS NO OPPOSITION.

Congressman from this District Will Make the Race Again.

Washington, April 22.—Congressman W. R. Smith, of the 16th Texas district, today forwarded to C. Martin, of Roby, Texas, chairman of the democratic executive committee of the 16th district, his application to have his name appear on the official ballot of the primary election to be held July 23, as a candidate for the democratic nomination for representative in congress. Smith was elected to the 58th congress and has remained continuously. It now appears that he will have no opposition for the nomination and that he will be elected to the 62nd congress with a large democratic majority.

For High Standards.

The story is told, that during the flood tide of the real estate business in California, a tinhorn gambler was run out of Los Angeles and went to Frisco, where he met an old acquaintance, who hailed him:

"Hello, Bill, how's business?" "Rotten. I've been run out of Angeles and most every other place. There's no chance to turn any kind of trick. I'm going into the real estate business from now on; that's almost honest."

This, of course, is a libel on the realty business. There are thousands of as straight men in it as can be found in most any other activity; but it shows there has been in the past enough "smooth" work in the business, to make it the butt for innumerable jokes.

The realty men of San Angelo got together last week and had a banquet. The meeting was held, not only for social purposes but to give the realty dealers of the city a chance to learn the advantages that will accrue to their co-operation with one common object—that of raising the standard of their business to a higher plane, and thereby paving the way for the more rapid development of that section, and for bringing in home seekers who might locate elsewhere, and for inducing capital to invest in San Angelo.

The enthusiasm manifested throughout the meeting and the lusty round of applause whenever the speakers told of the possibilities of the Real Estate Exchange all went to show that the conclave was not fruitless by any means.

The banquet was served by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church. Jim Farr, president of the Real Estate Exchange, was master of ceremonies.

Still more business the past year for which I thank those who have spoken well of my work. Cooper, the watch specialist.

Trustees Glad They Paid More.

The Trustees of Fair Ground, Cobleskill, N. Y., were glad to pay 15 cents a gallon more for Devco; and no wonder. Two other paint agents said it would take 150 gallons of their paint to cover the buildings.

The Devco agent put it at 125 or less. It took 105.

Devco saved them 35 gallons of paint and painting (worth $4 to $5 a gallon, as the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint) less 15 a gallon on 105 gallons. Say $140.

That's how to count the cost of paint. The cost of painting it on is $5 or $4 a gallon. You see what it means. Go buy Devco. W. L. Doss.

Encampment Constituted at Loraine.

On Thursday night of last week a number of the members of the Colorado Encampment I. O. O. F., went down to Loraine and assisted in the constitution of an encampment at that place. Oddfellowship is in a flourishing condition in our eastern neighbor, and the members there want all the "light" there is to be had. The following members of Colorado Lodge No. 180, went down for the occasion: J. P. Majors, W. R. Morgan, J. D. Sherwin, R. C. Darr, L. A. Costin, O. C. Davis, Solon Cowan and W. G. Du-laney. Why Salves Fail to Cure Eczema.

Scientists are now agreed that the eczema germs are lodged not in the outer skin or epidermis, but in the inner skin. Hence, a penetrating liquid is required, not an outward salve that clogs the pores.

We recommend to all eczema patients the standard prescription, Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in liquid form known as D. D. D. Prescription. A trial bottle of this D. D. D. Prescription at only 25 cents, will instantly relieve the itch. We have sold and recommended this remedy for years, and know of wonderful cures from its use. We recommend it to our patrons. W. L. Doss.

Van King, and two other carpenters left this week for the new town of Burnham, where they will proceed to erect a hotel, storehouse, gin and other buildings. In this connection Mr. George Root alone, has sold about forty lots in Burnham the past three weeks, and other agents are reporting good sales. The Record hopes Messrs Persons and Lasseter will make a fortune out of their venture.

Don't forget the Mitchell county singing convention meets at the tabernacle Saturday and Sunday.

The people of Colorado will see that the convention and all visitors are royally entertained. Every rural community in which the convention has been held, kept open house to all who attended. Colorado cannot afford to do less; so, if the day is pleasant, there will be dinner Sunday in the court house park. Let every citizen attend the convention, on Sunday at least, and carry a basket filled with the wherewithal to sustain the inner man. Let's help the convention have the best meeting of its life. Colorado ought to take part in the program also. We have some good singers, and in the role of hosts, they should contribute their share to the general entertainment.

D. 1909 in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1212, wherein Hardie Caesar individually and as executor of the last will and testament of Maria Caesar, deceased, is plaintiff, and William Cheek, Samuel Cheek, Thomas Cheek and Mary Robb are defendants, and said petition alleging that plaintiff's testatrix was the owner, and plaintiff, as the executor of and sole beneficiary under her last will and testament is now the owner of an undivided one-half interest in and to a certain tract or parcel of land, lying and being situated in Mitchell county, Texas, known and described as all of lot No. ten (10) in block No. thirty-five (35) of the town of Colorado, the value of said whole tract being six hundred dollars ($600.) That the defendants, William Cheek, Samuel Cheek and Thomas Cheek, are the owners of an undivided interest in said property, which plaintiff believes and alleges to be an undivided one-eighth (1-8) each, and that the defendant, Mary Robb, plaintiff believes and alleges to be also the owner of an undivided one-eighth (1-8) interest therein, while plaintiff is the owner of an undivided one-half (1-2) interest therein. That said property was the community property of Richard Cheek and Maria Cheek, both deceased. That said Richard Cheek died intestate, leaving the following children: William Cheek, Samuel Cheek, Thomas Cheek and Sallie Garcia, wife of Martin Garcia, who thereby under the statute of descent and distribution each became the owners of an undivided one-eighth (1-8) interest in said property. D. 1910, the same being the 23rd day of May, 1910, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 15th day of September, A. D. 1909 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 1213, wherein C. M. Adams is plaintiff, and J. W. Durham and Mary Durham are defendants, and said petition alleging, that the residence of the defendants is unknown to plaintiff; that plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of lots three and four, block 18, in the City of Colorado, in Mitchell county, Texas, and was such on January 1st, 1909, and that on said day and date the defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom, and now unlawfully withhold from plaintiff the possession thereof to plaintiff's damage. Plaintiff's claim of title is regular from the sovereignty of the state down to J. W. Durham and Mary Durham, and is of common source with the claim of these defendants, if they have any claim, which plaintiff denies. That on the 26th day of September, 1903, said Mary Durham joined by her husband, J. W. Durham, executed a deed of conveyance to one J. J. Bromley, plaintiff's vendor, conveying the above described lots, the consideration therefor being in part two promissory notes, executed by the said J. J. Bromley of $250 each and secured by vendor's lien on said property. That said notes have long since been paid, but the lien against said property by virtue of said notes has never been discharged against said property by any instrument in writing and the part operates as a cloud upon plaintiff's title.

Witness, Jesse H. Bullock, Clerk of the District Court of Mitchell county.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at its office in Colorado this 29th day of March, A. D. 1910.

SEMMER NORMAL.

The merchant is ever ready to catch new ideas of business. The physician, the lawyer, and the mechanic are all on the alert for new and useful ideas. They must keep step with the age. It is the teacher's exception? We think not. Their annual expenses for professional training would convince any one that they are resolving to keep abreast of the tide.

That the teacher deserves more of material things, is painfully evident, but often, the salary is commensurate with her skill and effort put forth in the community. The teacher must not only be master of the subject taught, but must be cognizant of the best methods of all times—know what others have done and are doing. The ambitious teacher spends a portion of the vacation in raising her scholarship and in becoming skilled in the profession. More than one thousand teachers studied in the summer schools of 1909, expending more than one hundred thousand dollars.

The eighth session of the West Texas Summer Normal will be held in Snyder, beginning May 30, and closing July 8. In addition to the regularly elected faculty, Miss Williams of Dallas has been secured for primary instruction. She is considered one of the best primary teachers in the state. With the work of the other members of the faculty, you are well acquainted.

So at little cost, we have the opportunity of extending our certificates, raising our grades, and receiving the best of primary instruction.

We will sustain classes in all subjects included in second, first and permanent certificates.

J. C. HELM,
 Member of Faculty.

Beauty of Body.

A healthy body is a beautiful body, and beauty of body is to be preferred to beauty of face. It is easy enough for a woman to have a good complexion if her body is in good health. To insure good health it is necessary to keep the stomach active and the bowels open. This can best be done by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great stomach, liver and bowel regulator. It is absolutely guaranteed to do what we claim, and if you want to try it before buying, send your address for a free sample bottle to Pepsin Syrup Co., 115 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill. It is sold by all druggists at 50c and $1 a bottle.

Railroads

We have 13,000 miles of railroad operation. The average cost of transporting freight over the railroads last year was less than 1 cent per ton per mile.

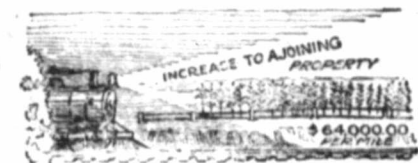

1 Cent Per Ton Per Mile.

Railroad transportation saves 42 cents per ton per mile as compared with public highways, and illustrates the economy of improved methods of transportation. As a producer the farmer who hauls a bushel of cotton twenty miles to the railroad gets the same price as the farmer who hauls one mile, and as a consumer the farmer who hauls his goods twenty miles from the railroad to the farm buys them at the same price as the farmer who hauls them one mile.

Distance levies a penalty of time and money against the long haul which the farmer must pay.

Bringing the railroad to the farm reduces the cost of transportation and adds perpetual value to future production, says the Texas Commercial Secretaries' Association. A new railroad makes a free and equitable distribution of values to adjoining property estimated at $34,000 per mile.

Interurbans have practically the same effect on property values as railroads. Texas has 405 miles of railroad for 100 square miles of territory, and Illinois has 238 miles per 100 square miles of territory.

The engines shown above represent the relative transportation facilities of the two States on basis of area. To equal Illinois in railroad mileage per square mile we would have to have 52,000 miles, and this increased mileage will provide facilities to expand the cost of transportation and develop the resources of the State.

A Busy Coloradoan.

D. S. Kirk, manager of the Colorado Construction Co. informs us that his company has a splendid line of cement walks, curbstones, foundations, etc., engaged to do for Sweetwater people. This firm has just completed a long stretch of curbing extending from S. R. Neblett's home to the Baptist church, also some beautiful steps and buttresses for Mr. Dulaney. Both these jobs are first class and have every appearance of being strictly high class work. Among the contracts they have to do at once are walks and other work for J. F. Newman and G. H. Bunton. These people only recently came to Sweetwater but their coming has put new life into cement walk building and they are doing much to add to the appearance of beautiful Sweetwater.—Sweetwater Reporter.

The World's Prayer.

Oh! Almighty Dollar, our acknowledged governor, preserver, benefactor, we desire to approach thee on this and every other occasion with that reverence which is due a superior excellence and with the regard which shall ever be cherished for exalted greatness.

Almighty Dollar, without thee in the world we can do nothing but with thee we can do all things. When sickness lays the paralyzing hands upon us. Thou canst provide for us the tenderest nurses and skilled physicians, and when the last struggle of mortality is over and we are borne to the resting place of the dead, Thou canst provide for us a band of music and a military escort to accompany us thither, and last but not least erect a magnificent monument over our grave with a living epitaph to perpetuate our memory.

And while here amidst the misfortunes and temptations of life we perhaps are accused of crime and brought before magistrates, Thou, Almighty Dollar, canst secure for us a feed lawyer, a bribed judge and a packed jury and go scot-free.

Almighty Dollar, we pray Thee in all Thy decimal parts, for Thou art lovely and chief among ten thousand.

The Donkey As an Artist

Somebody has been playing a joke on the "artistic independents" in Paris. One of the pictures in the exhibition recently inaugurated with great ceremony is entitled, "The Setting Sun," by J. R. Boronall. It is a lurid thing that most people would call a mere daub, but most anything goes with the independents, if the artist claims to have "put his soul into the work." The painter now has made a sworn statement, exposing the joke he has played upon his colleagues.

He tells in his affidavit how a square of canvas was placed on a chair, the brush was tied to the end of a donkey's tail, the brush was then smeared alternately with green, yellow, purple and red paint and the animal was backed up to the canvas. As the donkey wriggled around and switched his tail from side to side, the painting now known as "The Setting Sun" gradually evolved. When it was judged to be sufficiently hideous to pass the chairman of the independent artists, it was framed and signed.

It takes a primitive wit to devise such a plot, but monumental absurdities sometimes require elemental remedies.

Seven tables were provided for those who cared to play 42 while the others enjoyed a chat. The whole affair was most pleasant. Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. It is not until the cause is removed that relief can be obtained. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gustine a delightful "at home" was given in honor of Mrs. Hatch, who is soon to leave our city. The hostesses for this lovely affair were Mesdames Shropshire Person, Smith and Gustine. These ladies, together with the honoree, received their guests at the door and a lovely afternoon was spent by all, the only sadness to mar the occasion being the thought of giving up Mrs. Hatch, who Tuesday leaves for her new home in Virginia. She will be much missed in her church and as a neighbor, having lived here for years, and always been a loyal worker for her church and Aid. At a suitable hour the guests were invited into the dining room, where from a table beautiful and fragrant with spring blossoms dainty ice and cake were served by the young ladies of the hostesses' families—themselves as dainty and fresh as spring. Some fine piano music also added much to the affair.

Odd Fellows' Notice.
Business of much importance will come up before the lodge Friday (tonight) night. Every member is hereby requested to be present.

Commencement Sermon.
Sunday morning at the Tabernacle the baccalaureate sermon was delivered to our High School graduates and a large audience of interested relatives and friends by Rev. Holmes Nichols. The rostrum of the tabernacle had been beautifully decorated. The class colors yellow and gold were festooned in front most gracefully. The background was massed with ferns, toll palms standing on either side and pots of growing plants being artistically arranged. The Choral club provided the music which of course was excellent. Mr. Dawes and Mrs. Bell singing "O Perfect Love" most beautifully.

The eight graduates came out in autos, the six charming girls being daintier and more fairy like than ever sweet girl graduates usually are. All wore beautiful white frocks with white hats to match, being adorned of course with the class colors. The two boys made up in dignity and grace for their lack of numbers. All looked, as the class motto, "Let nothing be despaired of," had been lived up to and the victories won had left no scars.

The sermon was grand, earnest, thoughtful and impressive. Its truths will certainly remain with the graduates of '10 when other exciting events of the day are forgotten. This clearly proves that we need not import ministers for such occasions, when such sermons can be delivered by our own ministers.

Miss Ruth Graves left yesterday morning on an extended visit to friends in Dallas.

Mrs. S. M. Spain, mother of our A. B. Spain, came in this week from Dallas to spend the summer here with her son.
