THE COW.

The dairy cow, if able to express herself in a way which the human family would comprehend, might well lay claim to being man's best friend. She might establish such a claim by calling attention to the fact that from her product and from her carcass man manufactures more of the necessities of life than from any other similar source. She furnishes these necessities to him from infancy to such a time as temporal things are no longer associated with his existence, and she does it ungrudgingly and constantly.

In addition to contributing to man's necessity and his pleasure, the prosperity of an agricultural community is more closely identified with her than any other of the domestic animals. The horse is quite essential in tilling the soil, but where necessity requires it the sturdy son of the cow can take his place, as he has done in every agricultural section on earth. The horse can only furnish labor and can only return a profit to his owner when conditions are right for returning satisfactory grain crops. It is a well known fact that the dairy cow is the salvation of the farmer in times of poor crops as she is able to convert the rough crops which are never a total failure, into dairy products which always have a cash value.

In addition to this she furnishes skim milk and butter milk for the calves, pigs and poultry and fertility to the soil, without which a farm becomes less valuable each year and the whole country less prosperous. The elimination of the dairy cow would necessitate an almost revolutionary readjustment of man's tastes and requirements. It would mean untold suffering and hardship. Of course she will not be dispensed with but her value can perhaps best be appreciated by contemplating such a loss.

She will continue to be man's best friend as long as the human family exists and will keep on supplying him with his greatest needs just as she has done through all the ages.

ELECTION THOUGHTS.

Fort Worth, Texas, July 27.—The election has been a great victory for the people and I believe it has broken the backbone of the machine politics in Texas, said Colonel Paul Waples, of this city, who is a prominent official of the Texas Commercial Secretaries' Association. The governor has fought our organization from the beginning, as he was a good enough politician to know that the success of our movement meant the elimination of peanut politics from public affairs. The time was in Texas when a man hardly dared run for office unless he could dangle the scalp of a corporation, but Tuesday's election returns show that the candidates connected with the administration and those who dared defend its policies, were left at the post and the candidates who openly fought the Governor have lead the ticket. The fleet that is now navigating salt river will throw a scare into the radicals that will last for some time to come. There is no more convincing argument of danger to the professional politician than to see his comrades submerged in the briny fluid. Of course some good strong men have been defeated but where there were a number of candidates for the same office, this could not be avoided, but taken as a whole, the election was a great victory for the people and a death blow to the cheap politician.

Beaumont, Texas, July 27.—"I see there is talk of the Special Session of the Legislature calling a Constitutional Convention, for the purpose of giving the state a new constitution," said W. P. H. McFaddin, a prominent rice farmer of this section, to the Commercial Secretaries' Association. "I am not particularly interested in that proposition," continued Mr. McFaddin, "but if they will wipe out all our laws at the same time they wipe out that constitution, I will favor the convention. I would like to see all our laws repealed, and when few good laws we need, passed, and the legislative mill prohibited from grinding for the next ten years. A business man has to spend a good part of his time these days studying law in order to avoid committing a crime and the craze for regulating every form of investment has been so great that industrial development has been retarded, but it's a long lane that has no turning, and the election results show that Texas is now in the turning basin and we will soon have a business administration at the helm and when we get our laws trimmed down to a working basis, Texas will make marvelous strides in industrial progress.

Dallas, Texas, July 27.—"The high cost of legislation is keeping pace with the high cost of living," said E. W. Kirkpatrick, of McKinney, who is president of the Texas Farmers' Congress. "The Governor has assembled the Legislature to correct the mistakes of a previous session. We, of course, had to pay the Legislature while making the mistake and we are paying again while correcting it, and the farmer has nothing to show for his investment except a tax receipt and a business disturbance. Money invested in law is about the poorest investment that a farmer can make. It is worse than buying razorback hogs. The farmer is the first man to feel a business disturbance and the last man to recover from it and we can spend our tax money filling up mudholes to much better advantage than putting it in experimental legislation."

Austin, Texas, July 27.—"The result of Saturday's election will greatly encourage railroad investment in Texas," said a prominent banker to a representative of the Texas Commercial Secretaries' Association. "Take, for example, the race for railroad commissioner. One of the defeated candidates who, by the way, is a member of the administrative family, announced that, if elected, he would favor a reduction of the freight rate on cotton amounting in the aggregate to approximately one million dollars. This, of course, was a bid for the farmers' vote, and if this candidate had offered the farmers a million dollars of his own money instead of the railroad's money, he would have had trouble with the grand jury, but the farmers' resented his insinuation and smote him with a two-edged sword. Texas is rapidly developing statesmen who can create Prosperity instead of devising methods of transferring it from one line of industry to another at the expense of all the people. It is the farmer's vote that still counts in Texas and when he understands questions, he settles them right."

Fort Worth, Texas, July 27.—"I see the Legislature is at it again, and I presume they will swell the Fat Statute book considerably before they get through," said Captain B. B. Paddock, of this city who has a national reputation as an empire builder. "Personally, I do not think the state needs any new laws but there is one law I would like to see amended and I am suggesting that the Governor submit it for action by the present session of the Legislature. The 30th Legislature passed a law preventing Jack Asses from running at large and I would like to have that law amended so as to prevent these animals from running for the legislature. The foot prints of that clumsy beast are found all through the acts of the 30th and 31st Legislature. Of course we have a great many strong statesmen in the Legislature but this amendment would not affect them and I think the safety demands that the Legislature pass such a law and make it effective under the emergency clause."

THE PASSING OF "HOBO SMITH."

Mind well this tale of Hobo Smith—
A friend was he, of mine;
Of how he passed the Great Divide,
Nor left a trace behind.

This Hobo was a drinking man,
As fine as ever guzzled beer;
He drank for twenty hard-fought years,
And then another year.

It mattered not to Hobo Smith
The brand, the age or taste;
But held it was a crime to let
The meanest run to waste.

For twenty years he tried to get
So drunk he wouldn't know
The difference betwixt smiling May
And December's sleet and snow.

He tackled every "speret" that
Has frenzied human brains;
And came out first in every round,
Yet the potent fact remains

That his corpus was so saturate
With booze from bad to rot,
He narst not blow his breath agin
Anything that was not.

He sat beneath the shade one day
Of a lonesome mesquite tree
To rest himself, for he had walked Long miles—near twenty-three.

He sought solace of his faithful pipe
One of the rankest sort;
Which is the very reason why
This story is so short.

He filled his pipe and lit a match
He fetched a vicious puff!
Then blew that breath on the burning thing—
But that was quite enough!

His breath exploded with a noise
That shook the hills about;
The flame that lit that little pipe
Helped his little soul light out.

And thus he passed—this friend of mine—
With explosive combustion—
How will they gather his remains
In the final resurrection?

—A. H. Weston.

KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET.

Cattle receipts of 52,000 head last week, including 8,000 calves, were the largest of the season, and sufficient to enable buyers to enforce a decline of 10 to 25 cents. Corn fed natives and heavy Kansas grass steers lost least, and light weight grass steers the most including the quarantine steers. The trade in stockers and feeders picked up quite a bit, more than 200 car loads going to the country, and steers suitable for this trade sold almost steady all week. The run of 20,000 head here today is heavier than was expected, and contains some cattle driven in by dry weather, entailing lack of stock water and poor pasture. These drought cattle are not numerous today, but fears of trouble from this source are felt in a good many sections in the Osage country in Oklahoma, where shippers are getting ready to run a lot of cattle this week if it does not rain. The Northwest continues to report dry weather trouble, and a good share of the 28,000 cattle in Chicago today are from that territory. Killers were able to load up pretty heavy last week, and the tendency today is naturally downward. Conditions the next week or two will be governed by the rainfall over the country, and a spell of unbroken dry weather might force in a lot of cattle, and hurt the market a good deal. Prices are off 10 to 15 cents today, more in some cases, and buyers appear to be willing to wait awhile to get the decline wherever sellers are reluctant to concede it. Best Corn fed steers are worth $8, top pasture steers $7.15, medium and light steers down to $5; grass cows around $4, veals off 25 to 50 cents today, best at $3.25, stock steers, $3 to $5, feeders $4 to $5.50.

Anyhow, we carried enough counties to give us standing in court.

Record Sale of Ramblers.

Four hundred Rambler cars were sold by the P. J. Downes Company of Minneapolis to farmers in the states of Minnesota and the Dakotas during the first six months of 1910. The average price per car was $2,250. Because the sales of Ramblers in the cities have been exceptionally large and the average price is above two thousand dollars; this record sale in the agricultural districts is considered remarkable. It demonstrates that farmers are buying cars of better quality and are not confining themselves to those of low value. By way of comparison, the Thomas B. Jeffery Company have furnished information indicating that this record sale in Minnesota and the Dakotas compares most favorably with sales of Ramblers in the larger cities.

Oh, well, we can't all get the man in office we want, but think what an escape Texas had from Bascomb Thomasism. Had he been elected lieutenant governor, and the Governor had died, what a mess the great commonwealth of Texas might have fallen into. However, these doleful apprehensions are much like those of the girl who had waited long for her suitor to propose, but he made no move to declare himself. One night, as they sat by the fire, listening to the roar of the blast on the outside, she began to sob, and finally burst into a flood of tears. Of course, John became solicitous to learn the cause of her grief.

"I was just thinking," she sobbed, "what a terrible thing it would be if—-we were married and had a little fellow about two years old. (boo-hoo) and he should fall into the fire and be burned to death. What a terrible thing it would be. Oh, I just can't stand to think of it all!" Next day John bought the ring all right.

FOR AUGUST.

Last year,
Alack and alas!
Beverly, Mass.,
And Bill on the flat
Of his back in the grass
Sounding the depths
Of the opaline sky
And watching the clouds
Floating dreamily by.
Last year,
Alack and alas!
Beverly, Mass.

This year,
Sagamore Hill,
Strenuous still,
And no one complaining
For want of a thrill,
Shindy and sass
Just as certain as fate —
Beverly, Mass.,
Can dream early and late,
Snore as it pleases
And snooze as it will.
This year
Sagamore Hill.

Of August it may first be said,
Its name is from Augustus whom men
Have liked unto Ted, perhaps without Injustice. He made the world go Round about as many times a minute,
And the news was always dull without
The great Augustus in it.

He had his Aninas Club for liars
And for fakery, and he loved to sail
His little tub among the Roman breakers.
He counted peace a sort of plague,
And never did pursue it, but let it rally
At The Hague, and you couldn't beat him to it.

He preached about the same old things that Teddy has been preaching, and most of Rome's awakenings resulted from his teachings. He battled hotly for the right, and valiantly imbued it, and the stork could not attempt to alight but what he up and shooed it.

There was, however, one affair to tell which was to tattle, and that was where this Roman bear was coming in from battle. He had, of course, put everything opposing him to slumber, and Rome awaited him to sing some laudatory number.

But here the parallel desists. Augustus said them, No sir! and when he entered with his lists, it might have been the grocer for all the greeting that he got from the admiring chorus, the which desire, of course, was not a bit like Theodoros.

But, however, when he died, the month that loves to grill us, was being written far and wide the season of Sextilis. They wanted to commemorate the hot time he presented the nation with, at any rate, so August was invented.

The dog days will resume again,
And the man who voted water
With the weather down to eight or ten

Below will grow the hotter
With wishing that he had foreseen
The season hot and stewing,
And nothing but a choice between Pink lemonade and blueing.

It will not strike him, we're afraid, as when the cold was stinging, and up and down the wind-swept street the icicles were clinging. There's nothing like a dry parade, the shouts of Hallelullah, and the children skillfully arrayed for what you want to fool you.

It's very easy to forget there such a thing as Summer, or such a quantity as sweat, what time the busy drummer is a rub-dubbing up the street
a million bumps a minute, and the line sweeps with rhythmic feet and the little shavers in it.

It somehow makes it seem that booze is only fit for motors, and in the scuffle that ensues not very many voters bethink them a chance remains that milk won't give them gristle to last when August boils their brains and their ears begin to whistle.

A crafty temperance is that contriving its elections when Boreas is at the bat in these disputed sections.
There is a time for everything, to labor and to potter, and one to sit back and sing inaudibly for water.

At any rate the world will spin,
With very small pretension.
And the Fall elections will begin
To clamor for attention.

The next few weeks will fire the gun
Repeatedly and oftly,
And a lot of folks begin to run
For office very softly.

The bold insurgent will have polled the principal chautauquas, and will by that time have been sold how far discreet his balk was, or if to follow his attack with further demonstration, or quietly to tip-toe back upon the reservation.

The hopeful democrat will tool this way and that way training, and hope to have us as a rule have none of their explaining. He'll carefully trim up his wicks and get his pump pulsating, and pass the grand stand every six or seven seconds waiting.

There'll be some dust put up, it seems, when this event gets going, and some things starting at the seams that wanted proper sewing.
No wonder Roosevelt came back, and nowadays his gun is rusting in the shooting rack, when here is where the fun is.

The time of green and growing things will near its termination, and the song the thresher sweetly sings will come with moderation. We'll sort of think of autumn time, the hunter and the nutter, and the fishing hole will wear a slime as thick as apple butter.

And then September will return
In good autumnal fashion,
And the poet fall upon his sharp
In something of a passion.

EX-CONVICT MAKES CHARGES AGAINST "PEN" AUTHORITIES

Sheriff Farris of Waller county departed yesterday morning for Huntsville with Ed Murphy, former state convict, released last Thursday and who, after coming to Houston, was rearrested Saturday on a charge of assault to murder, which grew out of trouble he had a year ago with another convict while confined in prison at Huntsville. County authorities will try Murphy, although he declares the penitentiary authorities investigated the affair at the time and exonerated him.

Murphy, a telegraph operator, a member of the Masonic and other noted orders, has a wife and children in San Antonio. He was convicted five years ago in Colorado county for alleged forgery, which charge was brought against him as a result of "wire-tapping." His release papers show that the penitentiary officials gave him eight months from his sentence on account of exceptionally good behavior.

The man, while confined in his cell
at the county jail Saturday evening following his arrest on the streets of Houston, declared it was merely an attempt to "gag" him. "Then can not attempt to 'gag' him. 'They can not back behind those prison walls at Huntsville, but I have a wife and some friends who will see to it that the world knows just how they do things up there. I was bookkeeping there, and I know a few things which the prison investigation last year did not reveal.
I will tell a few things about the death of some of those poor mortals which are attributed in the mortuary records, as consumption, 'malaria,' or some other disease. I've written it all out and is in safe hands now."

Murphy was scheduled to deliver an address at Turner Hall here Saturday on the conditions prevailing in the state pen. He says that his arrest was purely an attempt to keep him from 'telling.'

In an interview he said that when another convict tried to murder him with a club a year ago in the prison walls he protected himself with a knife without fatal injury to the other. He was exonerated of the charge by the penitentiary officials at the time he declared.—Houston Record.

To The Voters of Mitchell County.

I take this method of extending my thanks for the nomination as County Treasurer, and especially to those who remain steadfast supporters of mine, regardless of ill report. I know of no better way to show my appreciation than to make one and all an efficient officer for the next two years. The uniform kindness that I have received at the hands of the great common laity of Mitchell county leaves me more indebted than I will ever be able to repay, except now swearing to them and their children my eternal friendship, and re-assuring them in the future as I have done in the past, to stand by what I think is right regardless of popular sentiment, the hope of favor or political reward. Your humble servant,
J. J. PATTERSON,
County Treasurer.

PROCEEDINGS OF PRECINCT CON-VENTION.

Colorado, Texas, July 23, 1910.
The democratic convention of precinct No. 1, Mitchell county, Texas, was called to order by the Precinct Chairman, F. M. Burns, at 2 p. m. in the court house.

On motion of J. E. Hooper, C. W.
Simpson was elected secretary. Motion was then made by Ed Smith that G. D. Bynum, F. M. Burns, P. C. Coleman, C. H. Earnest, C. M. Adams, W.
B. Mangum, J. D. Wulfjen, W. L. Doss,
J. B. Story, A. J. Coe, J. A. Buchanan,
John C. Prude, R. H. Looney, J. M.
Thomas, L. C. Dupree, Y. D. McMurry, G. F. Galt, C. L. McDonald, and L. W. Sandusky be elected delegates to the county convention next Saturday, the 30th. For this motion Judge Looney offered a substitute that a committee composed of J. E. Hooper, Brooks Bell and Ed Smith be appointed to select delegates. This substitute was tabled. Judge Hooper then read a list of names and moved that his list as read by selected by the convention. His substitute motion was likewise tabled. The original motion was then adopted. By motion the names of Congressman W. R. Smith and J. E. Hooper were added to the delegation.

Mr. Smith then read the following resolution, which was seconded
by C. W. Simpson:

Resolved, by this convention that the absolute obedience of instruction by the people by those holding their offices is indispensable to the integrity of representative government.

We regard it as a wholesome text for civil instruction and as a touchstone by which to test the service of those we trust; and we declare that those who accept the peopoles' offices and refuse to obey their instructions are embezzlers of power.

After earnest addresses by Judge
Smith and Dr. P. C. Coleman the resolution was adopted.

By motion the convention then adjourned. F. M. BURNS, Chairman.

The proposed dam site on Lone Wolf creek, at the end of Fourth Street. A straight line between the two standing figures would mark the location of the dam. On either side is a solid rock bluff, more than equal to the reinforcement of a thirty-foot dam.

SURVEY OF DAM COMPLETED.

Assistant Chief Engineer of Texas & Pacific Railroad Makes Survey of the Proposed Site of the

LONE WOLF DAM.

Prospect of the Project's Early Completion is Encouraging.

On Thursday of last week, Mr. Reech, assistant engineer of the Texas & Pacific railway, arrived on Colorado and immediately proceeded to the site of the proposed dam across Lone Wolf Creek and began work on the survey. His attention was directed chiefly to the damsite proper and the various levels, together with the amount of land that would be submerged by the back water. The survey of this land, preparatory to its purchase, will be attended to later, either by Mr. Reech or the county surveyor. Just as soon as this preliminary work is completed and the various estimates are made, work will begin in the actual construction of the dam.

The continued drouth of the past two years, has demonstrated the utter inadequacy of the water supply along the line of the T. P. railway on the Rio Grande division. No railroad is any better than its permanent supply of good stemming water; it is a necessary as coal. At no place along the line in this section of the state is there to be found such opportunity for securing a never failing supply of water as at Colorado, by throwing a thirty foot dam across Lone Wolf Creek.

It is the purpose of Mr. W. W. Watson to secure the necessary land and erect such a dam, if the amount of water thus impounded, will meet the needs of the Texas & Pacific railroad. It is more than likely the latter will either participate in the work of construction, or arrange with the owner for a stated supply. In either case, the railroad will be interested in the project financially, directly with proprietary rights, or as a profitable con-

One of several pools formed by the numerous springs along the bed of Lone Wolf creek. Even during periods of the severest drouth, these springs will more than supply the amount of evaporation.

The thirsty creek bed now drinks up the running water. If they were discharged into a lake the water would be saved instead of lost in the sands.

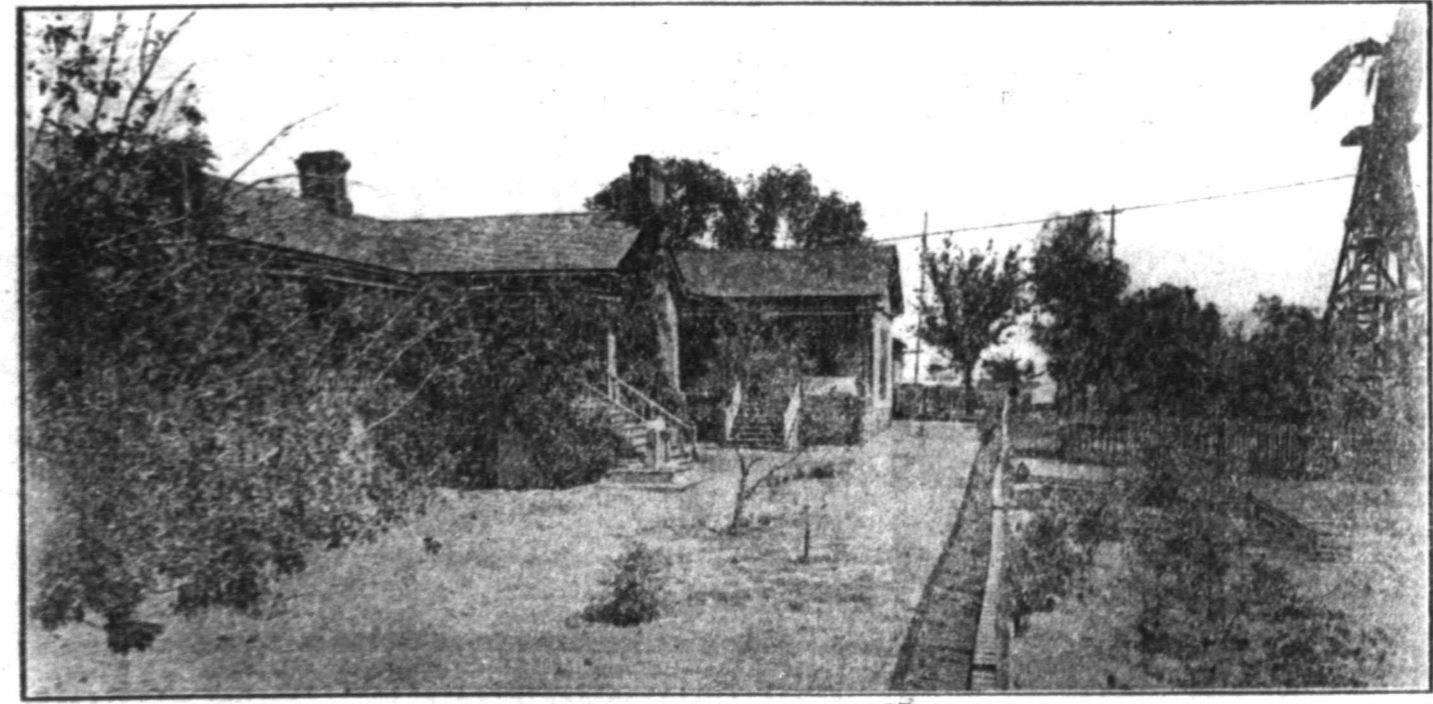

Aside from the lake furnishing an abundant supply of water, the promoters propose to make an attractive park and drive about and lay out an addition to the town of Colorado. The tendency of the growth of the town for the past six years has been in the direction of the site of the lake, and doubtless a more decided trend will set in when the above mentioned improvements are made. The site and surroundings here for an ideal residential addition are all that could be desired. It is the purpose of the promoters to construct a dam, park and addition site, and also provide a splendid drive for all manner of vehicles and speedway for automobiles. In addition to these economic advantages and improvements, the lake will ultimately be stocked with all kinds of game fish, boats, fishing wharfs, etc. A pavilion for entertainments is also projected, so that the population can repair thither on warm nights and to enjoy all the comforts and pleasant diversions afforded by the larger towns. And there is no reason why such an enterprise should not pay, and that handsomely. Clean entertainment and harmless pleasure are vitally necessary to the contentment of a community. If this kind is not provided, the less desirable will be sought elsewhere. From every point of view, no material improvement ever contemplated by the town of Colorado, would prove as abiding source of profit and pleasure as this proposed lake, park and drive. Mr. Watson deserves much credit and the support of every citizen of the town who feels an interest in the best interests of the community. The accompanying pictures faithfully illustrated the physical conditions that exist at the damsite, and in the neighborhood of the living springs along the bed of the creek.

Since the above was written, a corps of engineers arrived Tuesday night and are now at work locating the limits of the lake. The result of their work will be given next week.

Residence of W. W. Watson the promoter of the dam and lake project. Mr. Watson owns a section or more of land bordering on Lone Wolf creek but the site of the dam is not on his land.

AN ENJOYABLE HOP.

The social event of the season was the dance given in the club rooms Friday night by Mrs. Boren and daughter, Mary, in honor of Miss Marguerite Looney, who has just returned from school at Berkeley, Calif., and Miss Lily Allen. Mrs. Boren, gowned in a lovely costume of Wisteria Mousalme with yoke and undersleeves of lace, greeted each guest with a smile of welcome, while near her stood her daughter and the fair hostess, Miss Marguerite Looney wore a white lace gown over blue silk; Miss Lily Allen with embroidered lingerie over pink, and Miss Mary Boren yellow Lousine, draped with lace. The guests having arrived, the sweet strains of the string band announced the grand march, which was led by Miss Marguerite Looney and Mr. Leftwich Sheppard. The hand painted programs were soon filled and the dancing continued until the wee sma' hours. Misses Marguerite Beal, Mary Kirkpatrick, and Frances Smith presided at the punch bowl, and offered a drink that was fit for the gods! The moonlight in Eden could not have been fairer than that cast over the merry revellers, as they flitted by in its soft rays to the strains of the "Moonlight Waltz" so called because all artificial lights were extinguished while it was danced. All regretted that time was so fleeting and that they must leave so fair a scene, but sure that it will always be a bright spot in memory, and trusting they may again enjoy the unbounded Southern hospitality of Mrs. Boren and her charming daughter, Miss Mary.

The chaperones were Mesdames F. M. Burns, R. H. Looney, C. A. Arluthnot, Brooks Bell, A. A. Bailey, J. C. Prude, Mr. and Mrs. Singleton, Mr. and Mrs. Oderholz, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Allen.

The guests were Misses Annie Beal, Greenwood, Olive Greenwood, Marguerite Cowan, Lillian Liles, Mary Arluthnot, Jeanette Earnest, Lois Prude, Edna Majors, Eva Hamner, Coe, Mary Coe, Ophelia Arnett, Looney, Juliette Looney, Marguerite Looney, Lily Allen, Isla Smith, Eleanor Van Tuyl, Bernice Terrell and little Miss Dorothy Burns. Breedlove Smith, John Arnett, Wooten Jeffries, Reeves Coleman, Leftwich Sheppard, Walter Whipkey, Anthony Van Tuyl, Young Hamilton, Jim Coughran, Frank Anderson, Myrtle Vaughan, Hunter Looney, Robert McMurray, and Jim Lewis.

Out of town guests were: Miss Sarah Talty, of Dallas, Texas; Miss Cora Rountree, of Sonora, Texas; Miss Mabel George, Sweetwater, Texas; Mrs. T. A. Hubbard, Sweetwater, Texas; Mrs. Wasson, Dallas, Texas, and Messrs. Floyd Beal, Pecos, Texas, Cecil Wasson, Big Springs, Texas; Charlie Thomas Fort Worth, Texas; R. G. LEGISLATION.

Austin, Texas, July 27.—The bubble formed then burst. The Legislature met, and adjourned. The Third Call session of the 31st Legislature convened on the 19th and adjourned until the 25th, with full pay, but the taxpayer should cheer up; the Legislature might have done worse; they could have passed a law, but they didn't except to appropriate mileage and per diem.

The Legislators assembled at the Capitol Tuesday like patriots at the gate of Athens and that, too, when the thermometer was climbing the top rounds, but history tells us that the thoughts of men are broadened by the processes of the sun and a few more degrees of heat will, in all probability, cause no prostration among the members of the 31st Legislature.

It is reported that the Governor has been requested to submit over a hundred new subjects for legislation. These requests have in the main come from well meaning people who probably want more laws for the same reason that a dog barks at the moon. A great many legislators, through force of habit, are yearning for more laws and quite a number of them were seen around the Capitol building on Tuesday, looking into the Governor's office like a hungry pup at a pantry window, but they soon learned that "The Stag of the Eve Had Drunk his Fill" as the Governor was in no mood to embark in adventurous schemes of legislation at the close of his reign. In fact, it is requiring the combined strength of the administration forces to keep other laws from spewing up and no one knows better than the Governor that the present Legislature was called primarily to repeal a law and not to experiment with new legislation. However, ugly rumors continue to float through the Capitol building concerning the revival of the two cent fare proposition and that other matters will also be submitted, but the defenders of the administration promptly deny these charges and give assurance that the Governor will not use his good offices in playing politics nor in disturbing the industrial progress of the state. The politicians have heretofore depended upon the drowsiness of the public and put through radical legislation and the recent experience with the Fire Insurance muddle has caused them to sit up and take notice. The Governor developed his full strength on the two cent fare proposition during the last session of the Legislature and could not get the bill out of the committee room and if it is revived at this session, it will likely reach the cemetery via the same route.

The Governor's message was read at the opening of the session on the 19th, and after discussing the Fire Insurance situation he recommends legislation prohibiting moving picture shows from exhibiting scenes of prize fights and also recommends caring for the colored insane. These subjects are sufficient to keep the Legislature in session at least thirty days. The Governor seems intent upon securing some sort of a Fire Rating Insurance law, but a burnt child avoids the fire, with exceptions, of course, and the members are not inclined to take instructions from any one, except their constituents, in this matter.

SMILE A LITTLE.

While we deplore the extremes to which the advocates of the "new thought" have gone, there is, nevertheless, much truth in their philosophy. Solomon knew what he was talking about when he said: "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." The line of thought followed by a man evidently makes his character. The man who tries to look on the bright side of things and tries to make the best of everything is the happy man. Of course the dark side is there, but it doesn't help things to be looking at it all the time. It doesn't take long to get the habit of smiling, and it's better to whistle than whine. The world needs sunshine, so give it all you can, and your store will increase.—Ex.

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 29, 1910

The next burning question, fellow citizens, is RAIN; when is it coming? Not all at once, please.

The returns of Saturday emphasize the injunction, not to count your friends until the votes are counted.

The sober, conservative, law-respecting people of Texas are going to vote for home and fireside, for progress and prosperity and elect Bob Davidson Governor.—Waco Tribune.

Worror! Do ye mind the canny Scot? If only the sober, conservative, law respecting people of Texas voted for Davidson, what a multitude of hoodlums we have!

Now that the rag-chewing is over, the next ordeal is for us all to get back (if we can) to the steady habit of telling the truth. During the campaign we have been looking at our side through the magnifying end of the glass, and at the other side through the minifying end.

The Record did not bring every candidate it laid its good wishes on under the wire, in fact, the ratio to the good was only about two in ten, but, like the reformed gambler, when asked to pray, and who could frame no petition outside the verbiage of the "green cloth" besought the Lord to "make him a good loser," we can win without bragging and lose without whining. We hope that every man elected will justify the confidence the people have expressed in him. We wish them all well. Now, let's get down to business again.

There are a few who are becoming nervous about the crop prospect and are making preparations to go back to the never failing land of plenty. There is no denying the fact and no sense in trying to joke and laugh it away, that the outlook is discouraging. If there should be a good rain in the next two weeks, a wonderful change would be wrought like unto magic; but judging the coming month by the record of the past four weeks, the chances seem to be more than a gambler's against such expectation.

The country, as a whole, is afflicted with a mania of extravagance. All or nearly all the people are living beyond their means. The luxuries that a few enjoy all desire. The rational returns from farm life are not to be measured by dollars and cents, but in health and independence. The farmer's best ideal is simply plenty with a slowly growing surplus capital as a safeguard against age. He should produce on his acres as nearly as possible all that he and his family need. His profit is measured not so much by what he sells as by what he buys. The growing of high priced specialties is for specialists, who are also good business men. The sure foundation of agricultural wealth must be hereafter, as it has been heretofore, the general farm, producing grain, meats, forage, fruits, poultry, eggs, milk and cream—a variety of products each contributing its mite toward the total that makes the farm family independent.—Southwestern Farmer.

Advertising is the insurance which a merchant carries to prevent the disturbance of his business by the sudden appearance of a competitor in his field. By his advertising he had led the people to form the habit of buying at his store. Habits are not so easily broken up as some may imagine. By his advertising he has also expanded the volume of his business, so that the appearance of a competitor has less effect than it otherwise might have. A new competitor may be able to get a few of the merchants customers, but he cannot reach the great mass of them who have been his patrons through the years as a result of his wide advertising.—Springfield (Ill.) Register.

PERFECT LIBERTY.

The most abject and pitiful slaves in the world, are the slaves of their own evil selves. Ignorance is slavery, for it blinds our eyes and binds our hands and limits our powers, thus excluding us from a large and beautiful world of knowledge, service and enjoyment.

Prejudice also is slavery, and confines us in a narrow little world. Self-interest and selfishness have the same narrowing, dwarfing, blinding effect. Insofar as we try to invade the rights of others, we blight and wither our own capacity for growth and immerse ourselves deeper in the prison house of our own selfishness. We should strive to burst these barriers and get out into the blessed liberty of unselfish souls.

Deeper and higher yet, is the liberty of a pure heart. An evil disposition within us is the worst master whose chains we can ever wear. Impurity and falsity, pride and passion, envy and hatred—no fetter and lash of the Congo slave driver can bind and torture as these. Evil habits are bitter and degrading bondage, which remorse and tears cannot break, but an impure heart sinks the soul so deep in the murky waters of calumny that the grace of God alone can cleanse and give it perfect liberty. But a pure heart is perfect freedom. It moves along the track and in the groves of right and duty, and therefore has un molested liberty. "If the truth shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed."

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.

There is one feature of the present dry weather and consequent shortness of the crops that has a special significance to many West Texas farmers. We refer to the effect it will have upon those of our farmers who have bought and settled on school lands. If the present condition continues it will be an utter impossibility for them to meet their payments on the land to the state.

It strikes the record in that event, it would be the just, as well as the generous thing, to extend both the payments on the land and the taxes. Unless this is done, there is no doubt but that hundreds of good people will be forced to abandon their land and lose what they have already paid. Already many of these farmers are becoming nervous and very apprehensive of the result. An assurance now, that in the event of a total failure, their payments and taxes would be extended, would put heart in them enough to continue on their lands, and hope for better times next year.

There is ample precedent for such action, both in this and other states, where the federal government has not only extended payment, but issued rations also to the settlers. Now that the legislature is in session, the matter could be discussed, although no action could be taken without a special called session for that purpose. This question is fast becoming one of the utmost importance to the school land farmers of West Texas. They will certainly have to abandon their lands and probably leave this section unless they have relief. Otherwise, tided over this crisis by the generosity of the state, they would become permanent factors in the development of the great empire of West Texas.

THE BEST ASSET.

Christian moral purity and integrity are a man's best asset. Neither wealth of intellect nor worldly treasure can atone for moral perverseness of the individual or nation. No map is strong enough, or nation powerful enough, to withstand the ravages of voluntary moral corruption. A nation's standing army and swarming navy and defiant fortifications, might repel any foreign foe, but are not the slightest defense or protection against the processes of self-destruction through willful violation of principles fundamental to national greatness, power and permanency. No man can secretly violate his honor or persistently compromise his moral integrity and at the same time establish himself in righteousness and save his soul from death. No man can frequent the dens of social vice, and crime, as a patron, without bearing away with him the stench of the pit, though he appear in "evening dress" or pose as a teacher of morals and freely give of his substance for the uplift of humanity. Money and brains may shield for awhile, but "Whatever a man soweth that shall he also reap." No man has ever yet gathered "figs from thistles" nor "grapes from thorns." The individual or the nation that crucifies moral integrity must expect to pay the price of such wicked folly.—Evangelical Messenger.

RECOMPENSE OF REWARD.

A man is not good who strives to be good for the sake of reward. A man is not truthful who simply speaks truth because of some future advancement which he may enjoy. A student is no real student who studies in order that he may secure social promotion by and by, but who does not love knowledge for its own sake. A religious man is in no true sense religious who is religious for the sake of reward. "Virtue is its own reward." Can you imagine the Prodigal Son, after his return to the father's house, fixing his eyes on his father's acres or on his father's fatted calves, and regarding these things among the assets which he would like to inherit by and by, as a reward for his repentance and return to right living? No, but just to be home again; to be in father's embrace once more. Just to hear the word of forgiveness; to feel the current of new life pulsating in his veins—that was enough for him.

Manufacturing

The factory is the farmers' market house and he must travel until he reaches it and pay the freight all the way. Building factories in Texas to manufacture the raw material we produce, will increase the market value of farm products $150,000,000 per annum. The farms of Texas produce annually $27,905,000 of raw material for the factory and of this amount $75,905,000 is manufactured in the state and $432,000,000 is shipped to other countries. The cut shown below clearly exhibits the proportion of raw material manufactured and shipped out of the state.

"Texas Manufactures."

A few general rules governing manufacturing are of interest in this connection. As a rule the factory doubles the price of the raw material. A factory investment of $2,000 gives employment to one man. One factory laborer creates $1,300 of wealth annually. These are general averages and may not apply in every specific instance. We need a billion dollars invested in factories to manufacture the raw material we ship out of the state. The advantages of the factory may well be illustrated by the bale of cotton, and what we say of cotton applies with equal force to most all products. Texas produces a bale of cotton valued at $50. This cotton is shipped to England and manufactured into cotton goods and its value doubled or $50 added to it. The finished product is shipped back to Texas and at the port of entry the Federal Government levies a tariff of $50 per bale making a total value of $150 per bale instead of $50 as at present.

"Increased Value of Manufactured Bale of Cotton."

If Texas manufactured all her cotton, we would save the transportation expense, import duty and the manufacturing expense would remain at home. We would then get $150 per bale for cotton instead of $50 as at present multiplying our prosperity and commercial importance. We manufacture one bale out of every 70 bales produced in the state. Texas needs cotton factories. The cotton manufacturer employs cheap labor but so must the cotton farmer and if we are going to be a manufacturing country we must manufacture the things we produce, says the Texas Commercial Secretaries Association.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Probably the greatest disappointment over the result of the census enumeration of 1910, so far announced, falls to the lot of Adams County, Ill. It appears that the Illinois Legislature enacted a law to the effect that if Adams County could show a population of 70,000 under the Thirtieth Census it would be entitled to proceed and elect a probate county judge. Adams county was gleeful, cock-sure and well satisfied with the provision. There was probate judgeship timber in abundance and the job printers of the county reaped a harvest printing publicity stuff of the various candidates who announced themselves. The Twelfth Census officially gave Adams county a population of 69,000 in round numbers, and it appeared to everyone having an eye on the judgeship that it was a "cinch" the enumeration of the county in 1910 would show at least a gain of 3,000 if not very much more. But it did not, and oh, cruel, cruel world, officials of the Census Bureau announce that according to their figures only 64,588 people reside in Adams county in this year of Our Lord, 1910. Therefore, no probate judge for Adams County and the Adams Countyites are stunned. It's up to them to follow the Biblical instruction to "go forth and multiply" if they hope to win out on the judgeship proposition.

Uncle Sam is now annually pouring money into the lap of the rest of the world. In other words, the flow is no longer in the direction of the United States, from abroad. It is in the direction of the rest of the world, from the United States. The balance of the trade on the face of things is still in favor of the United States. That is, the statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor show that we are exporting more than we are importing. Figures recently given out by the Department of Commerce and Labor showed that the excess of exports over imports was $187,111,349. This however, was an extremely small excess, the lowest in recent years. But the small balance of trade in our favor, as shown by the figures, is much more than counterbalanced by the fact that large sums of money go out annually from America which are not included in the term of exports. These sums go mainly to Europe. They consist of the following: money expended by American tourists traveling abroad; money sent abroad to pay interest on American securities held there; money sent abroad by persons of foreign birth living in the United States who contribute to relatives; money paid to foreigners for transportation. Estimates as to totals of these items vary widely. But it is said from good authority that from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 is sent by those of foreign birth in this country who give to relatives and friends abroad.

The National Rivers and Harbors Congress which holds its sixth annual convention in this city, December 7, 8 and 9 will bring together a notable body of men and women who are interested in the development of waterways of the United States. Efficient means of transportation is a necessity of modern civilization. This is peculiarly the case in a nation of such magnificent distances as ours, and where an exchange of products is an absolute essential to the happiness, comfort and progress of the people. President Taft, who has shown the liveliest possible interest in making the rivers do their proportion of transporting the heavier and bulkier products of the farm, mine and factory, and who confidently looks to the time when the waterways of the United States will be carrying their share of commerce, will open the convention. It is expected that Ex-President Roosevelt will also deliver an address with special reference to the rivers of Europe which he had occasion to carefully investigate during his recent trip to Africa. A representative of King George of England will be present as will representatives from other European countries and South America.

means the arrival of Spring-lamb in all its delicious and appetizing lusciousness, and at no other place can it be had in greater perfection than at Colorado Cold Storage's meat market. OFFICIAL ELECTION RETURNS.

The increase of the vote of Mitchell county in the three last primary elections, may be of interest. Four years ago the total vote in the primary election was in round numbers 600; in the election two years ago, it had increased to 1201, while in the recent election, the total vote was 1134, but it is estimated that the Socialist voting strength, which is estimated at 150, did not participate in the election. The total number of poll taxes in the county is 1581, only 1469 of this number, however, are qualified voters, the others having paid after the time limit. Congressman Smith lead the vote in this county, receiving 1084 votes.

(Note:—Every voter is requested to cut out this table and preserve it for reference two years hence, when it will afford a reliable and accurate basis for estimates in the next election.)

LATEST ELECTION RETURNS.

Colquitt's Plurality Exceeds Sixty Thousand—Poindexter Slightly Leads Johnson in Estimate.

SUBMISSION LEADS BY 11,845.

Yesterday's last count on Saturday's primary returns gave a total vote for governor of 289,046.

It has become practically impossible to secure the official count in several hundred boxes and in several whole counties, because the judges sealed the returns without revealing them to newspaper correspondents. Many of them, no doubt, will be made known at the county conventions next Saturday.

Carefully reckoning the completed, the incomplete and the estimated returns from unreported counties, the Record offers the following final compilation in all contested races on the basis of a total vote of 366,195, which is less than the figures indicated yesterday, and with this compilation calculations will be suspended until the complete official returns can be obtained.

Submission.	Governor.	Comptroller.	Court Criminal Appeals.	Lieutenant Governor.	Twelfth District in Doubt.

LORAINE LETTER

Mr. Lee Walker and family and Mrs. J. M. Baker, accompanied by J. L. Johnson of the Summers Mercantile Company, left Tuesday for an overland trip to Spur, Wichita, and other points.

C. P. Gary and family came in Friday afternoon from their camping and fishing trip on the Concho. They report a delightful time.

Mr. Sequard Copeland left last week for San Angelo where he has obtained employment.

The drouth has had a very demoralizing effect on many of our citizens, many of them wanting to leave for a better land, losing sight of the fact that when times are hard it is very expensive to move, as nothing can be sold for its real value. People can generally live cheaper at home than they can abroad. The better plan is to stay at home, simplify our wants, curtail our expenses until the times are more prosperous.

Again, the drouth may be a blessing in disguise, by bringing about irrigation though on a limited scale. Would it not be a better plan to curtail the acreage and make things surer, than broad acres with uncertainties?

As an object lesson of what may be done with a little water, W. L. Edmonson has a vineyard that is a great success. The grapes are fine and abundant. This has been attained with a minimum amount of water.

J. W. Lightfoot of Toyah, was here election day. He came in to vote, but was ruled out.

Our election passed off very quietly—only one little fight.

A. L. Hudson of Sylvester, was a Loraine visitor the past week.

Miss Dora Thomas left for Stanton Tuesday.

S. E. Brown, president of the First State Bank, is serving as county juror this week.

The Brown Brothers shipped a car of cattle to Fort Worth this week.

At a call meeting last Saturday, the following were chosen as delegates to the county convention: Hubert Toler, J. H. T. Johnson, Sr., J. R. Hale, T. N. Duncan, Dr. T. A. Martin, and John Erwin. Alternates, W. A. Adams, S. E. Brown and J. A. Summers.

Dr. Henthorne left for Tyler on Wednesday night to attend the Mayors' convention. While the Doctor will be on the lookout for anything good toward furthering the interest of our town, he will also enjoy the privilege of mixing pleasure with business while in the land of appetizing Elbertas, and other fruits.

Mrs. Sidney Boykin, Mrs. J. E. Stowe and Mrs. Hubert Toler are enjoying a visit from their mother, Mrs. Hollingsworth, their brother, Marshall, and their sister, Miss Eula Rill of Kingsville.

Mrs. Standifer and children of Snyder, are visiting her sister, Mrs. M. B. Cranfill.

Mrs. W. T. Pridgen visited in Colorado Monday, the guest of Mrs. Wallace.

A. M. Jackson is the possessor of a new phaeton, also a new buggy—he expects to ride some.

Mrs. Maude Dixon and children of Midland are visiting the family of Sidney Altman.

Mrs. J. C. Rodgers and daughter, who have been visiting the Altman Brothers, are visiting in Snyder this week before returning to their home at Hico.

G. G. Rieder returned Tuesday from Dallas, where he was operated on for appendicitis.

Miss Georgia Cook of Abilene, is the guest of Miss Cora Thompson this week.

The Baptist revival meeting now in progress is growing in interest. Rev. W. B. Davis is doing most of the preaching, and we are expecting great results from this meeting.

Little Nettie Bonds is on the sick list.

Claude Hays is reported quite sick.

Mrs. A. J. Blume and little daughter Luella, spent a pleasant day at the Looney ranch at the pecan grove last Thursday.

Twenty-one couples of our young people repaired to the City Park last Thursday night. There, with joyous hearts, in the moonlight, whiled away the hours in social converse, the memory of which will linger long in the hearts of the participants. In behalf of the different candidates for gubernatorial honors, speeches were made by the different young gentlemen as follows: Willis Brown for Davidson; Joe Jackson for Cone Johnson; Wiley Thompson for Poindexter and Allen Hall for Colquitt. Allen carried off the honors, as his man has proven the winner. In the wee sma' hours of the night these young people wended their way homeward, glad in their hearts for this pleasant recreation. They enjoyed refreshments of ice cream and cake, before returning home.

We are informed that Mr. Ledbetter of Colorado has purchased the telephone system at this place, and will take possession of same the first of August.

Mrs. R. B. Platt and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jesse Pratt, returned home Sunday morning from a visit to Hico.

Mrs. T. J. Davis held the ticket containing the lucky number by which she received the nice rocker presented by the Loraine Mercantile Co., on Saturday evening. They will give another away next Saturday evening.

The sad intelligence reached here Tuesday morning that Dr. Hays passed away in a sanitarium at Abilene at 2 o'clock in the morning. The Doctor had had a surgical operation some ten days ago which necessitated the splitting of the flesh to the bone all the way in one of his legs. He was reported as doing well Monday and was planning to come home, but Monday night an artery began to bleed and death resulted. The Doctor's residence began here about eighteen months ago, and though short, he made many friends and his departure is regarded as a sore affliction upon our community. The remains were brought here Tuesday night and interred in the Loraine cemetery Wednesday morning, the Woodmen taking charge of the burial service. We sympathize with the bereaved family in their great loss.

Edwin, the little three-year-old son of E. P. Galloway, accidentally swallowed a small quantity of concentrated lye Monday evening. The little fellow's mouth and throat was considerably burned and swollen, but fortunately no serious results followed.

HERBERT HINTS.

Health in our community is very good at present. Everything seems to be very quiet here since the primary election of last Saturday.

The Baptist meeting that began on last Friday night is progressing very nicely under the management of our pastor, Rev. A. D. Leech and Brother Hull, our missionary. We will give the results in the next issue. We have had visitors from Iatan and also from Westbrook. Come again, brethren and the Lord will bless you in your labors.

Charley Mays and family are in our community this week, visiting relatives and attending the meeting.

Mr. Venice's daughter are visiting relatives in our community this week.

Mr. Jesse Northcutt and wife came down from the Plains on a visit, and he states that they are dry up there, and that Mitchell county is ahead of the Plains Country for crops and grass.

Mr. Boss Northcutt returned home last week.

Mr. Arnett, the Spade ranch boss, passed through Herbert Sunday morning with about two thousand steers.

SWEET SIXTEEN.

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution Authorizing the Establishment of a Home for Wives and Widows of Confederate Soldiers and Sailors.

House Joint Resolution No. 7.

Joint Resolution to amend Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as amended in 1903, so as to authorize the grant of aid in the establishment and maintenance of a home for the disabled and dependent wives and widows of Confederate soldiers and sailors and such women as aided the Confederacy, and making an appropriation.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as amended in 1903, be so amended as to hereafter read as follows:

Article 3. Section 51. The Legislature shall have no power to make any grant or authorize the making of any grant of public money to any individual, associations of individuals, municipal or other corporations whatsoever; provided, however, the Legislature may grant aid to indigent and disabled Confederate soldiers and sailors who came to Texas prior to January 1, 1880, and who are either over sixty years of age or whose disability is the proximate result of actual service in the Confederate army for a period of at least three months, their widows in indigent circumstances who have never married and who have been bona fide residents of the State of Texas since March 1, 1880, and who were married to such soldiers or sailors anterior to March 1, 1880; provided, said aid shall not exceed eight dollars per month, and provided further, that no appropriations shall ever be made for the purpose hereinbefore specified in excess of five hundred thousand dollars for any one year. And also grant aid to the establishment and maintenance of a home for said soldiers and sailors, their wives and widows and women who aided in the Confederacy, under such regulations and limitations as may be provided by law; provided, the grant to aid said home shall not exceed one hundred and fifty thousand dollars for any one year, and no inmate of said homes shall be entitled to any other aid from the State; the Legislature may provide for husband and wife to remain together in the home; and provided further, that the provisions of this Section shall not be construed to prevent the grant of aid in case of public calamity.

Sec. 2. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for the submission of this amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at the regular election of State officers, in November, 1910.

The sum of $5,000.00 or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to pay the expenses of carrying out the provisions of this Resolution.

Some men run for office, others get office, but a select class have office thrust upon them. The fact that this better favored class fall by a small margin to connect with the honors, dignity and appertanences appertaining thereto, in no wise detracts from the intention of their friends, or is a reflection upon their loyalty. In such a class in Mr. Garner Hammoek. Without even a tolerance for political honors or official preferment, he had thrust upon him in last Saturday's election a decidedly complimentary vote for the responsible office of constable.

Rev. Quesenbury, representing the Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, spent two days here this week in the interest of that institution. The demands upon the school for well-equipped men has so far exceeded the capacity to supply, that a larger endowment is absolutely necessary to enlarge the output of the seminary. To this end Mr. Quesenbury is canvassing the state. The joint installation of the officers of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges last Friday night at the I. O. O. F. hall was an occasion long to be recalled by all who attended. The district deputy grand master of this district, J. E. Stowe, of Loraime, was present and installed the officers into their respective stations, with becoming dignity and impressiveness. The officers of the Rebekah lodge were installed by Miss Willie Smith, past noble grand. After the ceremonies, delightful refreshments of ice cream and confections were served each one present, after which a few remarks for the edification and good of the order were indulged in, when "home, sweet home" was suggested by some brother, (which proved to be Dr. Rattiff) and the crowd dispersed, with an acceptance already framed against an invitation to a like occasion.

The Record, in common with the entire citizenship of Colorado, regrets the departure of Rev. Gilmore Smith and his estimable family, for their new home in Brownwood. Rev. Smith took work in the Brownwood presbytery last May, but his wife and niece have remained here until now. Although his work is now in the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., his influence for good and his enthusiasm for the cause for which all evangelistic churches stand, will soon become apparent in his new field of work. The Record wishes for him and his every success and happiness that can come to those who deserve them.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A ride over the country laying immediately to the west of town, last Saturday, revealed a decidedly mixed condition of crop prospects. On many places the stand of cotton was scattering, and much of the plant small, but a good two or three-inch rain within the next two weeks would improve conditions fully fifty per cent. On some places the prospect was truly discouraging, particularly on new land, a good deal of which had not been properly put in cultivation. The feed crop looked more hopeful; the maize, however, needs rain, as also does the Kaffir corn, which latter is standing still, but a good rain would change the aspect of things wonderfully. It was noticeable everywhere that the crops which had received the most work and the land which had been stirred oftenest, made better showings than that which had not been so constantly cultivated. The plants were greener and looked more vigorous. Of course a full crop is utterly out of the question, and the future depends wholly upon an early rain.

AN EXPRESSION OF THANKS.

I take this method of returning my grateful thanks to the 203 voters in Mitchell county who so loyally supported me in the primary election just past for the nomination on the Democratic ticket for the office of Tax Assessor of Mitchell county. From the depth of my heart I shall humbly and gratefully remember them always as my friends indeed. I ran a good, clean race. I did my best. I received a good vote. I shall always be proud of it. Against all those who worked and voted for anyone of my five opponents, I have not the least unkind thought or unkind word. My opponents were all good men. The contest has been decided. The nomination fell to Jack Smith. I shall do all I can to secure his election next November at the general election, together with all others on the ticket from constable to governor of our great state. I am sure each and all of the rest of my opponents in this race will be equally loyal with myself in supporting the entire ticket. W. H. GARDNER.

THOUGHTS WORTH WHILE.

When you are criticised for not doing your best, do not become offended. Do better. Let the criticism spur you up to do better.

Many a time you feel like giving up when all you need is a pause. There are some men who are too busy in their business to properly attend to their business.

An ordinary mind with tremendous ambition and indomitable determination can accomplish far more than any mind of usual activity ten times its size.

To become successful and make your life worth while it is not necessary to have extraordinary ability to begin with. It is only necessary to use fully positively and constructively what ability you already possess.

When you think more of getting money than you do of doing good work, you will fail to get plenty of money. Plenty can come legitimately only to him who does good work; and to do good work we must give that aim our leading thought and attention.

The man who continues to do good work will surely gain his reward. Even though all may be darkness today, the tide will soon turn, and his ship will come in.

Every one has the right to live as long as nature will permit. If he can improve upon nature, which we all can, and live longer still, that is his privilege.—Progress Magazine.
