ELECTION RETURNS.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY—WINNING THE LOWER HOUSE AND GAIN IN SENATE.

New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Others in Democratic Column.

House and Senate

It was definitely ascertained at midnight that the National House of Representatives had been carried by the Democrats, reversing the present Republican majority of forty-three.

The United States Senate will probably have a reduced Republican majority as a result of the legislative elections held in many states.

New York—In New York state John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for Governor is elected over Henry L. Stimson (Republican) by a plurality of about 55,000, reversing the Republican plurality of 70,000 in 1908 for Governor Hughes.

New Jersey—In New Jersey Woodrow Wilson, Democratic Candidate for Governor is elected over Vivian M. Lewis, Republican, by about 15,000 or 20,000 plurality, reversing the previous Republican plurality of 8000 for Governor Fort.

Massachusetts—Democrats won the state election in Massachusetts and placed Congressman Eugene N. Foss a former Republican in the chair occupied by Governor Draper for the past two years. In the third Congressional District, Congressman Charles Washburn, Republican, was defeated by John A. Thayer, Democrat.

Connecticut—Under the leadership of Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, the Democrats won a victory at the polls in Connecticut.

Ohio—In Ohio, Governor Judson Harmon, Democratic Candidate for reelection, appears to have carried the State by about 15,000 over Warren G. Harding, Republican.

Pennsylvania—The Democrats gained two Congressmen with three close districts to hear from. The Democrats and Independents made slight gains in the Legislature. One of the most notable victories of the Democrats was the capturing of the Fifth Congressional District in Philadelphia which two years ago gave W. W. Foulkerod, a majority of 13,268. The Socialists elected their first member of the Legislature.

Tennessee—In Tennessee, the Fusion candidate, B. W. Hooper, Republican is apparently elected by 15,000 plurality.

Missouri—Missouri returned in the Democratic fold by a good majority. Prohibition was overwhelmingly defeated.

South Carolina—The Democrats elected Bleasoe Governor and their entire ticket.

Nebraska—Seventy-five out of eighty-six precincts in Douglas county, (Omaha) give Dahlman, Democratic Candidate for Governor, 16,812; Aldrich, 8694. The Omaha Bee concedes the county to Dahlman by 8500 and gives about the same majority to Hitchcock, Democrat, over Burkett for United States Senator.

Florida—Local Optionists carry Florida by from 3000 to 5,000.

Iowa—In Iowa the Democrats claim the election of Claude R. Porter for Governor, but this is not yet conceded.

Virginia—First returns from Second Virginia District, coming from Virginia Beach, show: Holland (Democrat) 33, Ruble (Republican) 31; against all constitutional amendments 47, for amendments 0.

Wisconsin—In Wisconsin, the election of the Republican candidate for Governor, Francis E. McGovern, is claimed by a reduced majority and the return of Senator La Follette to the United States Senate is assured.

Idaho—Partial returns from Ada county indicate Democratic gains and that Hawley, Democrat, for Governor will carry the County by a small majority.

Texas—Texas elects the entire Democratic State and Congressional ticket.

Oklahoma—With incomplete returns the Democrats seem to have carried the State ticket in Oklahoma, but both sides claim victory.

Littleton Beats Roosevelt.

New York, Nov. 8.—Representative W. W. Cocks, who has been in Congress since 1905, was defeated by Martin W. Littleton, Democrat in the First Congressional District which takes in the Eastern part of Long Island.

Two years ago, Mr. Cocks received 29,459 votes as against 19,319 cast for

El Paso Presbytery

There was a called meeting of the El Paso Presbytery at this place on Friday of last week, the purpose of which was to receive two young ministers into the work of this Presbytery.

There were present on this occasion, Rev. Downing of Grand Falls, O. G. Jones of Midland and Rev. W. M. Elliott of Colorado. The ruling elders present were George Sparenberg of Big Springs and Dr. P. C. Coleman of Colorado. Being a special meeting, no other business was transacted except the examination and accrediting of the applicants for admission to the work of this Presbytery, who were L. O. Cunningham, called to the Big Springs church and T. B. Anderson, who takes charge at Midland.

Strayed.

DOTTINGS FROM UNION

This section of the country is not in the background and since our last quarterly meeting and another opportunity of hearing one of Bro. Shaw's rousing sermons we rather feel like we are nearing the front line in the battle. Long live Bro. Shaw to work for the Master and methinks the Union people would like to claim him another year. Bro. Ledger and wife were called by telephone to the bedside of her sick mother. The proceedings of this week's work in the annual conference will tell whether or not we will get Brother Ledger back again and if not we hope to get as good a man in his place.

Bro. W. C. Hart came in on a Sunday School crowd on last Sunday, which was a great surprise and we surely like such surprises. Come again Brother Hart to find the door latch on the outside.

The general health of this section is very good.

Cotton picking is the order of the day.

Glad to note the cotton crop, I think will be just a little better than expected and the price we are getting for it is somewhat encouraging. Many thanks be to the Farmers' Union for bringing about such a change. Great wonder to me that every farmer does not belong to the Farmers' Union. A good woman that won't quit a man for such a shameful neglect of duty certainly can stand the storms for many seasons yet to come.

Let me suggest to the Farmers to consider the question of sowing some grain for early feed. Something that most farmers stand in need of. This country will be short another year on beef strip and work teams, as both have been disposed of very closely.

Young Ladies Entertained.
 Thursday evening at six o'clock, Mr. Allan Smith and Mr. Reeves Coleman most delightfully entertained the members of the Young Ladies "42" Club at the home of Mrs. Jim Smith. Promptly at the hour appointed the young ladies arrived, dressed in their prettiest costumes. They were met at the door by the hosts who took their wraps and conducting them to the parlor. Plain white cards with the names of the hosts and the date were passed and soon the games began, there being five tables of players.

Twelve or fifteen games were played before a halt was called. At the finish, Miss Hooper had won the most games and Mrs. Arnett, the most lone hands. The tables were cleared of the dominoes, and the four course progressive luncheon began. Truly it was a feast fit for the Gods, but these dainty young ladies did full justice to it. The first course consisted of quail on toast, french fried potatoes, jelly and pickles; second, fruit salad sandwiches, crackers and olives; third gelatin with nuts, whipped cream and white cake; fourth, Cafe Noir.

The club colors, white and green were carried out on the score cards in the luncheon and the prizes were wrapped in white tied with green ribbons.

Miss Hooper received a beautiful silver shoe hook with "G. F. C." engraved on the handle, Mrs. Arnett, its mate in a shoe horn engraved with "G. F. C."

The hosts had their mothers, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Coleman, present, but they were not allowed any of the honors of entertaining.

A Mr. Simpson of New York, who was visiting, Miss Earnest was the only gentleman guest. He added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

As the crowning act of courtesy, the young ladies were safely delivered to their respective homes before six o'clock the next morning by their handsome, gallant and most hospitable hosts.

Bayview Cub Meets.

The Bayview Club met with Mrs. Jim Smith and enjoyed a delightful afternoon and a three course luncheon was prepared and served by Miss Isla and Mr. Allen Smith, while they made their mother act as a guest. Mrs. Eugene Payne, Fluvanna, and Mrs. R. O. Pearson of Sweetwater were guests.

The Methodist church was adorned with maps, charts, posters and pictures of missionaries this week, the ladies of the Missionary Societies observing their annual week of prayer. Mrs. Arnett and Mrs. Collier conducted the program Monday. Mrs. Shaw, with questions and drawings instructed her class. Mrs. Davis read a good paper upon the evangelization of the world in this generation. Mrs. Simmons had a fine one upon Achievements of the First Generation of Christians. Achievements of the Modern Church were given by Mrs. Annis. Recruiting and Training Agencies by Mrs. Payne. Facilities at Disposal of the Church. Mrs. Merritt. Tuesday Mrs. Lyons was leader and the members of the other Missionary Societies were invited to be present. There was a large number and Bible responses to Missionary questions were given by all. Mrs. Shaw conducted her class bringing out the number of unsaved people of different nationalities. She offered a prize for the one who could answer her puzzle questions.

This was done by Mrs. Carter, who was given a Japanese Bookmark. Mrs. Jackson read a paper on the Needs of the World, after which short articles as to how our missionary heroes were won, was given by a number of ladies. Then each person was asked how they become interested in missions. This was most inspiring, but was never finished as the sun went down and the meeting had to adjourn. Mrs. Jackson led Wednesday and her program was just as interesting as the others had been. Mrs. Carter led Friday's meeting. Ruth Hargrove Institute at Key West Fla., for which $20.00 had been asked this week was the main topic. Friday's program will close the week. This is a season of growth in grace and in knowledge for those who attend and cannot fail to inspire one with an interest and desire to help the heathen, both at home and abroad.

Entertainment Season Opens

Much credit is due Manager Wallace for the success that attended the opening of the entertainment season at the opera house last Friday and Saturday nights. The occasion was the appearance of that ever popular and talented comedian Albert Taylor and his clever company. On Friday night "A Gilded Fool" was presented to a full house, and on Saturday night, "A Ragged Prince" or Don Caesar of Bazan, to almost as large an audience. In as much as only a certain number of people in a town the size of Colorado patronize these entertainments, the audience is about the same in personnel at every performance. It has been proven inadvisable to play the general run of companies more than two nights at most. This will be the policy of Manager Wallace the present season, except in rare cases, where there may be a popular demand for longer engagements.

Manager Wallace will inaugurate other policies which will eliminate many of the features heretofore handicapping the successful running of an opera house. He is a manager of experience, discretion and above all knows what a drawing attraction should be.

The patrons of such entertainments look forward to many such evenings under his managerial direction.

Mr. Taylor visits our city each year and as an actor has a host of admirers her. He is better than ever this year and is supported by a specially well selected cast and those attending these performances were specially well pleased.

W. O. W. Unveiling

On last Sunday evening quite a large number of Mesquite Camp W. O. W. attended the Loraine unveiling of Sovereigns Hays and Smiley.

There was a large crowd of Sovereigns and friends in attendance. The dedication of the monuments was impressive, also the song and the poem by Miss Grace Baker.

Mr. Patterson made a fine speech on Woodcraft. There will be another unveiling at Roscoe, on next Sunday evening at 3 o'clock.

We enjoyed our trip immensely.

Miss Gladys Simmons entertained the W. F. G. Friday afternoon at four o'clock.

Mrs. Clayton and Miss Carrie Mae Mitchell sang a song.

After the rest of the program, which was very interesting, chicken salad with crackers and tea were served. Every one had a most enjoyable time. Miss Rowena Hester will entertain next week.—Press Reporter

Next Sunday.

Sunday at the Methodist church the ladies of the Missionary Societies will hold an open meeting. A live interesting program has been prepared. Some of the Baptist ladies have been asked to tell of their work for missions. Both churches will be without pastors Sunday and the members are urged to be present, while those from other churches are cordially invited.

Beautiful souvenirs will be given all who attend. Come and get one of these, if you do not care for the meeting.

The brethren are especially invited to be present. Come out and see how interestingly the ladies can conduct a meeting. Like Sally Ann, we have sat, stood and knelt all year through your prayers and talks, now it's our time. We may not have the rights of the laity, but we have the right to talk and best of all, we have something to talk about.

The meeting will interest, inform and enthrall you. Be present. Mrs. Shaw will entertain with some of her drawings. She has often been invited to do this, but heretofore has refused to draw for a large crowd. Those who attend will be sure of a treat. Mrs. Lyons will have some of the children assist, while a number of ladies are on for papers, talks and addresses.

Mrs. Looney Entertains.

Wednesday afternoon, the friends of Mrs. R. H. Looney enjoyed to the full, her bountiful, Southern hospitality. From four until six, her house was thronged with guests to meet Mrs. J. B. Gray of El Paso, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. F. M. Burns. On entering the guests were met by Mrs. Comas, Mrs. Prude, Mrs. Major and Mrs. Mojar and shown in to the parlor, where the hostess, Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Burns gave each a cordial greeting.

In the back parlor Mesdames Hooper, Pearson, Adams, Oderholz, Earnest and others of the house party, made the welcome more complete.

The visitors were shown into the library whose browns and greens were beautiful with branches and vases of autumn leaves in their vivid colors. From a table strewn with the most beautiful and gorgeous of these leaves a bevy of beautiful young ladies, served a delicious and refreshing punch. These were Misses Hooper, Van Tuyl, Terrell, Mojar, Earnest and Allen.

The dining room was the next place to which the guests were invited. It was indeed a bower of green. The walls were covered with green branches and leaves. The dining table was strewn thickly with varied colored leaves and a green vase rising from the center, filled with autumn tinted branches and red berries. The table stood on a mat of green. The sideboard buffet and plate rail were each adorned with leaves and branches and looked

SCHOOL NOTES

The public schools of Colorado are progressing splendidly. Never in their history have the pupils applied themselves as they are this year. Superintendent Hart and the faculty insist that the classes shall know their lessons and nothing is slurred or passed that is not understood by the pupils.

The system as well as the deportment is better than ever before and everything is moving along nicely. Superintendent Hart and Professor Hamilton received the first fruit show of this week. They were very much surprised as well as pleased with this attention from their pupils.

Examinations have been on this week in all the grades and the first question with the pupils is "Did you pass?" "Ain't they hard," etc.

The pupils of Miss Graham (primary grade) gave her a fruit shower this week, which she and the little ones enjoyed immensely.

Miss Riordan, with the second grade took her pupils down to the river Friday evening to get sand for a sand table, on which to demonstrate their lessons in Geography.

A boy in Des Moines has been named Halley's Comet, but at Kipling would say, that's another tale.

Good roads are moral developers as well as time savers and money makers to the farmer. The improvement of public highway decreases profanity in a community and enables a farmer to attend church regularly. Good roads help to save his soul and when he reaches the paved streets of the new Jerusalem, he will be "road broke" and will not shy at the splendid thoroughfares of that immortal city. Bad roads vex him in this life and torment his spirit in the world to come. Build roads and be good.

The Record acknowledges the receipt of the first number of the West Texas Poultry Journal, published by W. L. Long, at Loraine in this County. Mr. Long is not only a man of culture but possessing every essential attribute of one of nature's noblemen and the Record wishes for him unbounded success in his efforts to promote the poultry industry of the West. This first number is a very creditable publication consisting of 24 pages.

From New Orleans comes the report that the price of cabbage has soared to $25 a ton, which is an increase of more than $15 per ton in the last ten days. The increased demand for this popular vegetable is said to be due to the introduction of the Texas product on the Crescent city market. The flavor of the Texas cabbage was so far superior to that on the market, that the entire populace have pledged Texas cabbage on their bill of fare and now it is up to Texas to supply the demand. The cabbage belt of Texas is about as big as the cotton belt and $15 cabbage is as profitable to the farmer as 20 cent cotton and the boll weevil don't take toll of the crop. Texas has scarcely begun her commercial conquest, and in another decade, the Texas farmer will be levying tribute on the markets of the world.

Texas is a state of utility birds. The stork occupied the spot lights during the census enumeration and made the State famous with its remarkable achievements. Now comes the Texas Thanksgiving turkey, whose gobble is heard throughout the nation. Texas is preparing to ship 2,000,000 turkeys to the northern markets for Thanksgiving. When the nation arises to thank God, from whom all blessings flow, they should remember that Texas makes Thanksgiving feasts possible. Our cotton clothes the world. Our meat feeds the two hemispheres and our Turkeys banquet the nation. Texans have something to be thankful for besides long lives and perpetual sunshine.

The fact that Manly, the member of the National Guard, who in pure wanton murder, ran a bayonet through an inoffensive citizen, whose only crime was that he wanted to see the President of the United States and the further fact that he and Mrs. Minnie Lee Straight, who shot her husband while he was asleep, have received life time sentences in the penitentiary, is at least some evidence that the people are at least awakening to the terrible meaning of the lust for murder, that seems to obsess the country. These sentences are hopeful signs, and we hope to see the day come quickly when public sentiment will stand behind the crime of murder with as inflexible demand for its punishment, as it now stands behind the crime of rape. When public sentiment becomes the same bulwark for the protection of human life, that it is now for the protection of the sanctity of our women, our court dockets will not be engorged with farce indictments and the jurisprudence of our state will be purged of shame of red handed murderers going constantly unwhipped of justice. On with the reform.

"The war that has been waged on small order houses has had the effect of increasing retail trade in this city," said W. G. Burton, the merchant prince of Fort Worth. "and the Commercial Clubs of the state are entitled to the credit of working up a strong sentiment in favor of patronizing home industries. I attribute the marvelous growth of Fort Worth during the past decade to the patriotism and loyalty of our citizens to Fort Worth business institutions. We can not build up local communities with citizens who trade in Chicago and New York."

This is not only true with our cities, but it is likewise true with our state. When you analyze it from the standpoint of the merchant who buys his stock of merchandise from the manufacturer, we are a mail order state. For example, when I went to buy cotton goods, I must send to the eastern factory although Texas is the home of the fleecy staple; when I want to buy woolen goods, I must send to the eastern factory although the bleat of the Texas sheep is heard around the world, and when I want to buy boots and shoes, I must send to the eastern factory although Texas hides run the tanneries of New England.

A great many state legislatures in the south are making strenuous efforts to increase the number of their manufacturing plants by offering exemptions from taxation.

The following from a speech of Judge Terrell, Republican candidate for governor of Texas, contains the germ for much serious thinking:

"Whose policies have hindered the development of Texas in the past? She has been democratic for more than forty years and if during that time anything wrong has been done, the Democratic party is responsible for it. If Texas has been injured, the Democratic party has inflicted the injury. If she is behind other states, the party that has reigned for forty years ought to be held accountable. God knows that in natural resources she is without a peer on the face of the earth. Other states can show a few important agricultural and mineral products. Texas can show them all. What other state produces cotton, wheat, corn, hay, oats, alfalfa, fruits, sugar, rice and truck gardening. Some states can produce one or two of them, but what state, other than Texas can show them all? Some states have granite quarries, some states have water power, some states have coal deposits, some states have iron ore, some states have oil—Texas has them all. What other state can equal her in the production of live stock, beef, mutton and wool? In natural resources, Texas is the garden of the Lord, and if in any respect she is behind her sister states in industrial development, it is the fault of her laws or of the demagogues who have executed them."

The Record is of and for Colorado and Mitchell County. Are you for the Record?

There can never be a realization of the dream of universal peace so long as people coax away each others cooks.

The keel of the Maine is almost as deep in the mud as some of the standpatters are in the mire.

Doss' Kidney Pills—Guaranteed.

The high cost of living is not troubling the Texas farmer. With 20 cent cotton and 15 cent hogs in sight and all other products in proportion, he is in a position of independence, and when committees appointed to inquire into the high cost of living investigate him, they will find him with a good bank account. The wise men in the east, who are racking their brains over this problem should come to Texas and buy a farm and get on the right side of the ledger. There is a farm and an easy living here for all of them.

Never was there a time when the public roads of Mitchell County and West Texas need putting in good condition worse than now. Development and prosperity of any town depends as much or more upon the condition of the public roads leading to it, than upon the arrival of a railroad.

F. M. Bralley, state superintendent of education has ruled that no one under the age of 16 years may take the examination for a State summer normal teachers' certificate. He has examined the records and finds that in the past certificates have been issued to many boys and girls who were only 12, 13, 14 and 15 years of age, and he does not believe that the children of this age should be allowed summer certificates. He thinks that they are too young to teach school. He made this ruling after a careful examination of the laws and found that he had the power to make such ruling. Prof. Bralley says that he believes the policy of allowing persons under 16 years of age to take these examinations is unwise and is contrary to the best interests of the schools.—Wood County Democrat

SHALL TEXAS BE CUT IN TWO.

In Texas the question has been raised again as to whether that state shall or shall not be divided into two Hudspeth, representing the extensive El Paso district has recently forwarded a number of arguments in favor of division, from which the country at large may conclude that the mere mention of the subject of division does not now, as formerly, create immediate illfeeling.

Senator Hudspeth's arguments are so plausible to those who do not take the pride of the native born Texans in the mere matter of magnitude that it seems quite probable that the Lone Star State will yet come in for the process of division as did the original white ago.

It is certain that no state in the Union and that none of the small nations of Europe is composed of elements, climatic conditions, customs and native characteristics so greatly diversified as the case in Texas. The Southwest is a cattle country and is one of the seats of irrigation in America. Northeast Texas is waxen soil, has cotton as its chief product and is in need of draining more than irrigation.

But more important still is the fact that Western Texas belongs to the West in America, while Southern Texas— belongs to the South in America.

It remains only with the people of the state in question whether the state shall be divided or not, as there would be slight chance of objection from other quarters.

And in view of the market gulf between sections of the state, the day of division would seem sooner or later to be inevitable.—St. Louis Times.

Notice to Laundry Patrons

The interest of Mr. Spain having been acquired by Obie Avery the firm name will from that date be Davis & Avery, neither of whom need any introduction and endorsement to the people of Colorado. Mr. Davis will have charge of the inside work, while Mr. Avery will continue as heretofore, to rustle the outside business and attend to the delivery and collecting. We are here to stay and every dollar made will be spent with home people.

Thanking the people of Colorado for the generous patronage accorded the business in the past, we solicit its continuance, promising, if possible, better service than ever before.

Respectfully,
DAVIS & AVERY, Props.

This September is less conspicuous for the oyster than for the man from Oyster Bay.

Rev. Nichols Goes to Ballinger

A card from Rev. Holmes Nichols informs us that he and his family are now at Ballinger, where he has assumed the pastorate of the First Baptist church and he assures us that he fully expects the wood, water and the work to agree with him famously. In as much as the Record, couldn't keep Brother Nichols in Colorado, the next best thing we can do is to rejoice that his lot has fallen among good, congenial and appreciative people. We confess a particular weakness for Bro. Holmes Nichols, and was selfish enough to want him to stay with the people of Colorado, but things seem to have been ordered otherwise. So the Record, hereby serves timely notice to the good people of Ballinger in general and the Saints of the Baptist church in particular to treat him well, attend his mid-week prayer meetings for that certainly pleases him, and pay him promptly thus they will deserve and receive the very best there is in him.

An Eye Opener.

What an East Texas County Can Do.

Smith county shipped this year 1916 cars of fruit and vegetables or 100 solid train loads. In addition to this it shipped by express 207,200 crates of fruit and vegetables, or over 230 solid cars.

Grew 29,500 bales of cotton in one season.

Twenty-three forage crops have proven a success in our soil.

Our mild climate enables us to produce these crops nine months of the year. Our grasses are unsurpassed and will sustain two head of cattle per acre.

A splendid water supply from running streams and springs, abundant supply of the various hardwood timbers. For health, the county ranks as one of the first in the state, and its altitude is higher than that of the city of Ft. Worth.

School facilities unsurpassed. Twenty-one modern school buildings erected during the past year. Eleven hundred ninety-five scholastic increase during the past year. Values of land vary from $5.00 per acre to $30 per acre, according to improvements and distance to local market.

Our farmers are in a prosperous condition as a result of being able to market money producing crops nine months in the year.

Our splendid bank deposits throughout the county are conclusive evidence of the prosperity existing among our people.

Fill in your name, address, and what you are interested in, mail to Commercial Club, Tyler, Texas and receive pointed facts and figures that will convince you of Smith County's wonderful possibilities.

Lorraine Mercantile Co.

LORRAINE, - TEXAS.

DAVIS WRITES FROM CALIFORNIA ABOUT HIS TRIP.

Editor Record: According to promise, we will give you a short account of our trip. Our tickets gave passage over the Santa Fe route from El Paso via Albuquerque, right up the Rio Grande Valley.

The land is rich and lies well for irrigation, but there is no water in the river, only at times, during the spring rise, which overflows a good deal of fine lands, the banks of the stream being about two and one half feet to five feet high.

Some doubt is entertained as to the Engle project being a success on account of the accumulation of sediment in the reservoir, and thereby eventually filling it up.

We noticed that the railroads had large pumping plants along the route. Our trip from Albuquerque to Arizona was made in the night. We traveled a whole day in Arizona, mostly over high table lands.

Our next stop was at Pasadena. On our way to this place we came through orchards and vineyards nearly all the way. Pasadena is a resident town of Capitalists.

It is a canyon, the walls of which are terraced and beautified. One million and a half dollars have been expended in beautifying the grounds and it said that every one who takes a glass of Mr. Busch's beer, has an interest in them.

Our next stop was at Los Angeles. Our heads were in a whirl. We were in about the same predicament the little boy was when he visited the city for the first time, "he could not see houses."

Our stay there, was one day and night and we pulled out for San Diego, in the extreme Southern part of the State. We noticed much good farming country on our route down here.

We landed at San Diego on the 23, of October. We found here, a town full of tourists. Every other house has its sign out for roomers and are pretty well filled.

There is a dampness here in the morning and it is sometimes cloudy. They had a rain here about a week before our arrival, the first of the season. We wear our coat all of the time, but have never had to have a fire yet.

There is a good deal of building going on. As to chances to make money we do not know. The acreage of smooth agricultural lands, adjacent to the city is very smooth and high in price.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will break up the worst cold and allay throat irritation. This remedy quickly cures coughs, colds, gripe and all throat and bronchial troubles.

We invite anyone who visits Colorado to call and inspect our large stock of furniture and hardware.

HERBERT HINTS

Health in this community is very good at the present. I am glad to state that Mr. J. C. Brown's little girl, and Mrs. A. B. Brown's little girl are able to be up again.

Prayer meeting Sunday night was well attended. The pound supper at Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Welch's Friday night was enjoyed by all who attended.

The farmers are about through gathering their cotton in this community.

ADDRESS OF T. H. ROE

At the Recent Sunday School Rally in Colorado.

The following address was made by Mr. T. H. Roe, who explained that it was largely taken from an address by J. B. Murray, before the twelfth triennial convention of the Sunday School Associations, but was eminently pertinent to the present time and occasion:

"What is the true measure of success of the Sunday School? Is it to teach the scholars about Christ or is it to lead them to accept Christ. There is but one answer: To lead them to accept Christ.

If the true measure of success of our Sunday schools is to lead scholars to accept Christ, let us consider, how far have our Sunday Schools attained their true measure of success?

The report of the General Secretary of the International Sunday School Association shows that in 1908 there were 13,515,498 Sunday school scholars in the United States and Canada in the forty six associations reporting, or to allow for all others, say about 14,000,000 in all; and that there were converted during the last three years 903,028 of them (who have joined the church) in the forty six associations reporting, or to allow for all others perhaps as many as one million in all.

By collating the best authorities it appears that scholars begin to attend Sunday school at the average age of six years, and leave it on an average, at about fourteen, and thus have on an average, but about eight years of Sunday school life. (In the schools where the organized bible class has been introduced, this average is increasing. But as the statistics show over 170,000 Sunday schools and less than 1700, less than one per cent, organized adult classes it is evident that for the purpose of this computation, they do not greatly alter the result, except as a very important growing factor.)

If the same rate of conversions, two and thirty eight hundredths per cent (2.38) should continue during the eight years that these scholars will remain in the Sunday schools there would be converted about 2,667,000 (about nineteen per cent of them before they leave. Whether your school is above the average can be tested by counting the scholars between six and fourteen and see whether or not over nineteen per cent of them have joined the church.

After they leave the rate would, of course be less.

In 1902, when the rate of conversions in the Sunday school was one and sixty six hundredths, the rate after scholars left the Sunday schools for these years from fourteen to twenty, was estimated at about one per cent per year; and as there is nothing to indicate an advance in that rate, if that rate, be taken for these six years, six-percent more would be converted of these 14,000,000 scholars, that is about 780,000 making with the 2,667,000 converted before the age of fourteen a total of nearly 3,500,000 (or nearly twenty-five per cent) before they reach the age of twenty.

We see therefore that while nearly fifty five percent of all converts accept Christ before the age of twenty, that during all the years after twenty, the per centage is but forty-five.

These figures are believed to be very conservative, as a rising vote in Christian assemblies often shows about half or more are converted at or under the age of sixteen.

Now, with less than 3,500,000 Sunday school scholars converted before twenty, at the ratio of fifty-five to forty-five per cent, but about 2,886,861 (or about twenty and sixty two hundredths per cent) of them would be a total of less than 6,500,000 (less than forty six per cent) out of the whole 14,000,000 during the whole course of their lives.

But what about the souls of the remaining seven and a half millions (over fifty four per cent) of these fourteen million of our Sunday school scholars, who under present conditions, and if the present rates of conversions continue, are going down at the close of life to Christless graves and to face a 'Christless eternity'?

What a mighty host, what an awful spectacle.

Can Nothing be Done to Save These?

Let us examine the conditions of these scholars. If you have ever asked one of them, you will find that there is not one of them, but what expects to become a Christian at some time. All that stands between them and salvation is the difference between "sometime" and "now." If that "sometime" could be changed to "now" they would all be saved.

Next, let us consider what the church is doing. Outside the Sunday

A Total Eclipse of Lard Troubles

Cottolene LARD

Lard is the fore-runner of indigestion. The hog-fat soaks the pastry through and through, fills meats inside and out with a thick, unhealthy grease that the digestive juices cannot penetrate.

You can eat pies, cakes and all kinds of pastry if they are cooked with Cottolene, for it is a pure, healthful, vegetable-oil product that contains no trace of hog fat, and does not make food the least bit greasy.

From Cottonfield to Kitchen—human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made. The result is that when you buy Cottolene you get a cooking fat upon whose purity and cleanliness you can absolutely rely.

Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY

Schools in the outside world, she has evangelists for some and rescue missions and homes for others and is spending hundreds of thousands every year in their effort to reach here and there, perishing souls. And what is she doing for the scholars in the Sunday schools? Here we find she is making comparatively, almost no serious organized, persistent effort to win them to Christ.

Are not these Sunday School scholars, however, placed in her hands and under her guardianship and entrusted to her tutelage and care? Is it right for her to permit them to go into life and into an unequal fight with the devil, without having exhausted every effort to provide them with the only possible means of success, the only possible foundation of victory? If but a tithe of the effort, time and expense that the church is laying out upon the outside world, were spent in bringing her own children to Christ, they all might be won."

Continuing, Mr. Roe deplored the fact that the young people did not stay to hear the sermon after Sunday school, but could be seen in droves every Sabbath, on the streets on their way home. This condition was not wholly due to the attitude of the children themselves toward the church services, but much to the lack of the proper appreciation by parents of the importance of attending church.

His talk was enthusiastically received by the large audience.

WESTBROOK NEWS NOTES Mitchell County News: In passing through the agricultural displays at the Dallas fair we did not see Mitchell county represented. Let us not fail to have a display next year. And the time to get ready for it is right now.

Miss Hattie Petty was a visitor in Colorado yesterday. Many families moved east this summer expecting to find good crops and plenty of work; but some report east Texas so dry that drinking water is hard to get and the tide is turning to West Texas, where water for man and stock are plentiful.

While some farmers in this county made a flash on growing crops this year on account of lack of moisture, there are many who planted early and conserved the moisture that are reaping a great deal more than they expected, with the help of high prices paid for their products.

Misses Hattie Smith and Jewel Wheeler and Charlie Smith of Vliets, were visitors here on Tuesday.

Frank C. VanHorn, Jr., of Dallas spent Sunday with the "old folks."

Mrs. W. N. Hastings, who has been ill since Sunday is reported in a critical condition and there is small hope for her recovery.

Death. On Sunday morning last, Mrs. N. W. Hastings, mother of our J. R. Hastings died at Westbrook, aged 66 years. The remains were interred at Westbrook, on Sunday evening amidst sorrowing relatives and a host of friends. Mrs. Hastings was sick several weeks with pneumonia, from which she died.

Life will never be quite the same to those who knew her, while those who were nearest to her will long for her with unutterable longings—long for a mother's counsel and advice and a wife's gentle and loving sympathy. She was a woman of strong Christian character, patient, loving and self-sacrificing.

The dinner was prepared by Mrs. Field, assisted by Mrs. Green Dulaney and was a surprise to the old lady but was greatly enjoyed by her.

The Stove Contest
Some weeks ago the popular hardware and implement firm of Doss and Johnson offered a beautiful miniature, but serviceable Buck's range to the child giving the five best reasons why its parents should trade with Doss & Johnson.

The contest closed Saturday and the numerous contestants foregathered at the store to hear the decision. A committee consisting of J. C. Hooker, Jas. Sims and A. H. Weston, was selected by the firm and given all the papers submitted, their decision to be based on the neatness of the papers, variety of reasons and its suitability as an ad for the firm of Doss & Johnson. On this basis the stove was awarded to paper No. 2, which proved to have been submitted by Kate Lowder, who was accordingly given the little range.

The papers were all good and it is no discredit to any of them to say that the committee considered any of them second to that of the successful contestant. A nice box of candy was given to each of the contestants by this popular firm.

Nat Shick,

In sending out the catalogue they make the following announcement.
We are requested to announce that the First Annual Poultry Show of the West Texas Poultry Association will be held at Big Springs, Texas on November 23, 24, and 25, 1910. They are planning for a big show and no doubt will do lots of good for the poultry breeders in West Texas.

They have issued a catalogue and if you intend to go, write, I. E. Smith, President West Texas Poultry Association, Big Springs, Texas for a show catalogue. It will explain it all.

Turkeys Wanted.

The turkey season will soon be here and we want to buy all the turkeys in the surrounding territory.

We dress our poultry and ship in car lots to the eastern markets. This will enable us to give you the highest market price for your produce. If you have turkeys for sale, write or phone us for prices. Where we can get several bunches at one time, we will send a man to take them up at your railroad station.

A. B. PATTERSON,

Dr. W. T. Ballard, Veterinary Surgeon of Big Springs, Texas will be at Colorado, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 17, 18, and 19 to offer his professional services. Treats all animals, surgical operations and dentistry. All examinations free.

Failed in Health

"My mother died six years ago," writes Miss Ruth Ward, of Jerseyville, Ill., "and left me to care for six children. I had never been strong; and this, with the shock of her death, was too much for me.
"I failed in health. I was tired all the time and did not want to go anywhere, nor care for company. I had the headache all the time and such bearing-down pains.
"A very dear friend advised me to take Cardui, as it had done her so much good, so I commenced to use it and now I am in good health."

Take CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

Women's pains are relieved or prevented and women's strength is quickly restored, by Cardui, the woman's tonic. You yourself know best if you need it, or not. If you do need it, do not delay, but commence to use it at once. Every day of delay, only lets you slide further down the hill.
Don't wait, then, but begin to take Cardui today, for its use, no matter how prolonged, cannot harm you and will surely do you good.
