SIXTH YEAR, NO. 10.

COLORADO, MITCHELL COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1910.

WHIPKEY PRINTING COMPANY.

Mitchell County Institute

The Mitchell county Institute met in regular session November 21. M. L. Hill was elected president and Miss Ma Hale, Secretary.

Judge Coe made an instructive and pointed address on Institute work after which the program was rendered.

Wednesday mornings exercises were opened by Rev. Broome, pastor of the First Baptist church. Bro. Broome extended to the Institute an invitation to attend the Thanksgiving services at the Methodist church.

Thursday morning, the teachers of the Colorado Independent District and supplementary subjects were added for Thursday's and Friday's work.

Dr. Phenix delivered an interesting and instructive lecture on Sanitary Instruction in the School Room.

Thursday evening, Prof. Hart and wife, threw wide open their doors to the visiting teachers and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Some fine quartets were sung by Prof. J. C. Helm and others.

Mr. Elliott, Mr. Blocker, Miss Cleo Ford and others treated us with readings.

At the business session Friday afternoon, Prof. J. C. Helm was unanimously recommended by the Institute for an appointment on the State Examination Board.

Prof. M. L. Hill was unanimously elected to represent Mitchell county in the Summer normal.

Prof. T. H. Holbert was also unanimously elected President of the Institute.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved that we extend our thanks to Judge A. J. Coe for his kind words of welcome and earnest efforts to make our institute both profitable and pleasant.

Resolved further that we extend to the Commissioner's Court, our appreciation for the free use of the Court House and fuel.

Resolved further, that we extend our thanks to Dr. Phenix for his excellent lecture on Sanitary Instruction in the School Room.

Resolved further, that we extend to the teachers of Colorado Independent District, for their presence and especially for the royal reception at the home of Prof. Hart, also to Brother Broome for his address to the Institute and for his cordial invitation to attend the Thanksgiving services at the Methodist church.

Resolved lastly that we extend our thanks to everyone, who has in the slightest degree contributed to our comfort and pleasure and especially do we wish to thank Mr. Hill and Miss Hale, who have both efficiently and untiringly served this Institute as its president and secretary.

R. B. HOOD,
MRS. ALONZO PHILLIPS
MISS VELARIE CASEY.
Com. on Resolutions.

The Institute adjourned to meet about a year later.

Do we appreciate the highest art in entertaining? Will such high class numbers as the BOSTON LYRICS be sufficiently patronized in Colorado to justify the coming of another of like character?

Annis Family Reunion

This week has been one of special pleasure and thanksgiving for Rev. and Mrs. J. T. L. Annis, as a result of the presence of their children who have all been together for the first time in about seven years. This is one of our oldest and most beloved couples, a pioneer family of this section. Rev. Annis is in his sixty-ninth year and his help mate, through a long and useful life, is but three years younger. Both were until recently in very bad health, but at the present are enjoying good health. Rev. Annis was in the Methodist ministry thirty-five years, has been a resident of Taylor county thirty years, four years of which have been spent here. They moved to Merkel from their ranch on Blue Mountain.

In the place of prescribed turkey, for Rev. Annis follows no defined orbit, other than that of his religious convictions and own ideas of life, a splendid porker was killed for the occasion and the reunion has been a feast in the broadest meaning of the word's several definitions.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. J. T. L. Annis; Rev. C. F. Annis and little son, Charlie, Lingsville, Texas; Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Annis and little daughter Dorris, Aspermont; Rev. and Mrs. O. B. Annis and baby daughter, Stamford; J. B. Annis and son Carlock, Colorado.

The Mail and their many friends wish this couple many years of life and happiness still, with more reunions here, and then when their allotted time on this earth has transpired, one more reunion, above.—Merkel Mail.

CHICKENS! CHICKENS!

Bring us all the chickens you have we will pay best market price for them. Central Market.—T. S. Henderson.

MARRIED.

Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cooper, their son, Robert, and Miss Lula B. Mitchell were quietly married by Rev. W. E. Lyon. The house had been prettily decorated with bowls and vases of beautiful chrysanthemums. There were present only the family of the bride and a few neighbors and the Cooper relations. The solemn words were more impressive by reason of the quiet that filled the room while they were being spoken. When the benediction was pronounced, all gathered around the newly wedded pair to express their love and good wishes, and these same good wishes were felt, though unexpressed, by all their friends. It is hoped that these two who so early in life have united their hearts and hands may have even more joy than comes to those whose paths are strewn with roses. May they have long life filled with good deeds and happiness unexpressed be theirs.

Manager Wallace is using every effort to secure a good house for the Boston Lyrics on Saturday night. He feels sure the house will be filled, as he has already sold a number of tickets, and has inquiries every day. He expects quite a number from Loraine and Big Springs, who have phoned in regard to the performance. Reserved seat tickets are only 75 cents, while many of you have paid $2.50 to $5.00 for an entertainment not nearly so good, as this promises to be.

DAILY HEALTH HINTS.

Try this prescription:—Take a hopeful, cheerful view of things. The bigger the dose the better. Don't worry over anything, whether you can help it or not. If you can help it, do it, but don't worry. Get out of the office if possible. Eat good food and plenty of it, including milk, cream and eggs. Sleep at least ten hours out of the twenty-four and in a room with the windows open. Take exercise every day out of doors, but not enough to make you tired. Buy your groceries from the Colorado Mercantile Company and avoid delays and overcharges.

For those who are "all run down" and in a fair way to get "good and sick," the above "prescription" will usually start them on the high road to health and happiness.

Phone No. 300 at 1 p. m. today and ask them what's up.

THE ALARMING INCREASE OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

"He died of Bright's Disease." Hardly a week passes that this statement is not made in reference to some prominent citizen.

The increasing prevalence of this disease makes the present time seem most opportune for discussion in the hope that some who are unconsciously afflicted with this dreaded disease may receive timely warning.

A prominent citizen residing in a nearby town informs us that he suffered for nearly a year from Bright's Disease, but that he recently affected a complete cure.

"What seemed to be the first indications of the trouble," was asked.

"They seemed hardly worth noticing. My digestion bothered me at times, my stomach seemed out of order, and I had occasional backaches, but I thought it was due to too much work."

"Did you take anything?" "I did not. Later, my strength failed me, I had severe pains in the back and noticed some irregularities of the urine, I couldn't sleep well at night. I then used some simple remedies, but without benefit."

"Did you realize that your trouble was Bright's Disease?"

"I never thought of such a thing. Finally, my condition became serious. My back ached all the time, I had shooting pains in my joints and a weak tired feeling at the knees, a little work played me out completely. I then began doctoring for kidney trouble but did not improve very much."

"Did you have any trouble with your heart?"

"Yes. I had spells of heart throbbing and a nervous faint feeling. I thought I had heart disease and treated awhile for that. Nothing seemed to help me. I had to give up trying to work."

"How did you affect a cure?"

"A friend of mine persuaded me to try Prickly Ash Bitters. I bought a bottle of my druggist. After taking it a week I began to feel some better, my urine became more natural and there was a gradual lessening of my misery. I kept on taking Prickly Ash Bitters for several weeks and I could feel my strength returning—slowly at first—but increasing daily. I am now entirely cured of my trouble and able to do a full day's work without the least fatigue. I consider Prickly Ash Bitters the grandest kidney medicine in the world."

Thousands of people attest in like manner to the wonderful benefit derived from Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a time tried and successful remedy for Bright's Disease or any disorder of the kidneys.

Prickly Ash Bitters is in every sense a system tonic and regulator. It possesses important properties for curing ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels in addition to its great power in the kidneys. It is a valuable article to keep at home, where a dose or two can be taken whenever needed. When used for any disorder in the kidneys, stomach, liver or bowels it is the right medicine in the right place.

FROM UNION

As I haven't seen anything from Union in about a week, I decided to write a scrip myself although I have not much news, for nearly everybody knows that we live in a high, dry and healthy country, consequently don't have much sickness. Hurrah for West Texas.

Cotton picking is still the order of the day when it is not too cold.

Thanksgiving day passed off quietly and now we are thankful for that too.

We haven't any school yet at Union. Time somebody is waking up.

Our new preacher is also behind time. Guess Mr. Editor you will have to come out and give us a rip rap.

Say Mr. Editor, wish you would see that man that manages the rural mail route business and let him know that we are still waiting patiently as we can under the circumstances.

If there is no changes we will have preaching next year twice a month, Sunday school every Sunday, which will be under the management of Mr. J. M. Dorn, one of Mitchell county's pioneer citizens.

Our Farmer's Union meets now on the first Thursday night in each month. Come, brother farmers to the Union and help push a grand and noble cause.

Wonder what has become of that wide plank in our commissioner's platform, concerning the public highways. We have some public highways in this section that needs attention very badly.

Guess the Commissioners had better see the overseers, and they see the hands and the hands do some work and not wait for the bond issue, for we farmers don't want any bond issue in our anyway.

Now in conclusion, let me say that we all are feeling the sting of a short crop and a hard pull, but let's all stand pat to each other of every class, name and order, for in so doing it is not too late for us to win many victories that lie in store for us West Texas people.

Success to the Record and its many readers. FARMER

WESTBROOK NEWS

B. E. Evans of Davilla, Texas, was prospecting here this week.

J. A. Sadler of Iatan called Tuesday and reports his section in good shape with grass and weeds growing fast.

The tide of immigration to West Texas is increasing and many of them are not new comers, but are "oldcomers," who say they have come back "for keeps" this time as West Texas suits them best of all.

Three of George Womack's sons, who have been living in the east, have returned home. It seems that there is no place like home to an old Mitchell county boy.

J. A. Summerhill, Miss Eliza Pritchett and Miss Emma McDonald attended the institute at Colorado this week.

J. G. Meachum of Fulton, Ky., was here this week looking after his land interests.

Guy May returned last week from an extended visit east and is looking much improved in health.

John Lindsey of Lamesa, who has been visiting his "Grandpa" Lindsey, returned home Wednesday. This was their first meeting in thirty-eight years.

Col. and Mrs. W. R. McEntire of Dallas arrived Wednesday and immediately accompanied their son George to their ranch, south of town.

Walter McKenney returned yesterday from a business trip in Delta county. He said that the people of that section were hauling water from 12 to 15 miles, and it was hard to get it at that distance.

We noticed a lot of fruit trees at the depot, consigned to W. H. Rogers, A. B. Hines, M. Wheeler and C. J. Smith. Now is a good time to plant orchards and we hope every farmer around here will see the necessity of planting one out this winter.

You are hereby commanded to summon W. K. Lewis, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District; to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mitchell county, Texas, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Colorado on the third Monday in December, A. D. 1910, the same being the 19th day of December, A. D. 1910, then and there to answer a petition filed in the said court on the 7th day of November, A. D. 1910, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court, No. 1269, wherein, Mary Lewis, plaintiff and W. K. Lewis, defendant; the nature of plaintiff's demand being as follows:

Suit for divorce and for the title and possession of lands and personal property. Plaintiff alleges that she and defendant were married in 1894. That defendant abandoned her about May 15th, 1902, to which time they had lived and co-habited together as husband and wife. That during the last eight or nine years of their married life, defendant was given to the use of intoxicating liquors and became very unkind and oppressive to plaintiff, and shortly prior to their separation, assault, plaintiff, beats, bruises and injures her. Plaintiff alleges that she owns the S. W. 1-4 of section 4, Block 28, T. S. I. N. Sec. 8, same block and township and the West 1-2 of section 9, same block and township in Mitchell county, Texas, surveyed by the T. & P. Ry. Co., and the town lots hereinafter mentioned. Also about 10 head of horses and mules, the horses branded U. T. connected on left shoulder, the mules same on left jaw. Ten head of cattle in same brand on right hip and M. L. with bar under it on right side.

Plaintiff prays for divorce, and for judgment against the defendant for the title and possession of said real-estate and personal property, alleging that W. K. Lewis is setting up some kind of unlawful and illegal claim thereto. Plaintiff also sues for the title and possession of lot 5, block 16, and lot No. 12 in block 12 in the town of Westbrook in the said Mitchell county.

Herein, fail not, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, this Writ, with four return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness my hand and official seal, at my office in Colorado, Texas, this 7th day of November, A. D. 1910.

"Great is Mitchell County, and The Record is its Prophet!"

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2.

The brisk northern Sunday morning made us wonder where we had laid our thick nether clothing—we needed 'em on.

The track of the Santa Fe railroad was laid into Post City last week, amid the rejoicings of the people of that place. Now watch 'er grow.

It is a fair presumption that the recent Democratic majorities and the election in Colorado of four ladies to the legislature of that State, is a promise that the country will be reformed.

An improved public highway adds three times its cost to the value of adjoining property. Build good roads and add to your own prosperity as well as that of the whole community.

The beautiful fall days that we are having cannot be beat by any country on the face of the earth. A few days of it makes one forget all the ills of the country and want to live here all their life.

Louisiana has a law requiring all executions to take place within the walls of the penitentiary. We like this as it does away with the desire to gratify that morbid curiosity so many of us have regarding executions and death.

There are 141,356,000 acres of land in Texas that have never been touched by a plow, land that is fertile and highly susceptible to cultivation. This would provide homes for 3,000,000 farmers and would go a long way toward bringing Texas to the highest stage of development.

What the devil has gotten the matter with the Latin Americans? The microbe of revolution seems to be working on 'em all. Whenever a fellow down beyond the border gets licked for office, he gathers a handful of like malcontents around him, scrapes together a few butcher knives, takes to the brush and a full grown revolution is on.

Real estate values in Texas are increasing at the rate of one million dollars per day and the man who puts his money in Texas enterprises cannot fail to double his investment many times. Come to Texas, the place of Golden opportunities, the land of plenty and the poor man's Arcadia, where bank accounts grow like Janah's gourd.

Governor-elect Colquitt has the appointing of about thirty-six state officials, for which places, there are to date 3500 applicants. In the paraphrased language of the parable: They shall come from the east and from the west and shall sit at the pie counter and shall say unto the grand Caterer "in thy name and for thy election have we done many mighty and dirty works." Then shall he say unto them of the empty belly and fawning airs, "Depart hence; I never knew you."

It has ever been a mystery to us how the average woman kept from freezing to death in cold weather or dying of pneumonia. If the most robust and rugged man in west Texas should go about in cold, windy weather, with his feet in paper mache slippers and mere suspicion of socks, his legs incased in clico balloon trousers, and nothing warmer than a cheese cloth shirt on his back, the cemetery addition would soon be his permanent address.

At a recent meeting at Waco of the Texas Commercial Secretaries' Association. It was decided to hold a state celebration of the state's wonderful growth in population during the last ten years. The celebration will be held early in December when the complete returns of the census department will be in, and plans are being made for the carrying out of a state wide celebration in a manner befitting the most progressive state in the Union.

If you don't believe that irrigated gardens are a howling success in Mitchell county, just go over to south Colorado and see what J. G. Doby has accomplished in the line of truck gardening. The most pretentious turnip patch in old Van Zandt county would hide its face in the presence of such riot of greens and promise of pot licker, and confess its name "Ichabod."

Recent census figures show that the large increase in Texas population is due not only to the exodus from the cities and towns of other states, but that farmers from the Northern and Eastern states have moved within our borders by the thousands, which goes to prove beyond a doubt that Texas is an ideal farming state, possessing a soil not equalled in any other state in the Union, besides winters that are delightful and summers that are comfortable.

Sir Dwire Smith and B. Nussey, capitalists of Westfield Hkley, Yorks, England were in Fort Worth recently for the purpose of securing information and literature concerning Texas. Sir Dwire Smith talked enthusiastically of the opportunities and advantages of Texas and carried back with him to England, large quantities of literature on Texas supplied him. These men have recently made heavy investments in Texas and have great confidence in the future of the state.

A peripatetic exponent of the O. S. Fowler cult, yeleft Phrenology, was the center of interest and point of human gravity a few days last week. He felt a few heads at every performance, handed out a few well turned phrases, spat glibly out many excerpted gems of both philosophy and literary metaphysics, the while

"With words or learned strength and thundering sound
He paralyzed the gaping rustics ranging around;
And still they looked and still their wonder grew
That one small head could carry all he knew."

COME OUT, BOYS.

If it were not a breach of good breeding and brutal in its truthfulness we would indulge a few paragonical remarks about the horrible conditions that prevail in east Texas, on account of the prolonged, aye, habitual drought. Stock water is being hauled, so we are informed by several citizens of that delectable section from three to ten miles. There are a number of citizens of West Texas who have shipped mules to the eastern end of the State, and before going, inquired as to the pasture and water conditions. From one county only and that, good old Van Zandt, of course, came assurances of an abundance of both; but then Van Zandt is but a piece of West Texas set down in the midst of a howling Sahara. If the bad gets worse, and the worse gets worst, remember that West Texas offers an asylum for all who will come. Here the weeds are growing as in May; the meek-eyed and contented kine appropriate the succulent grass and maketh glad the cow man and mad the consumer. The mornings have become so damp and drippy that green things grow by absorption. In short the muddy condition of our public highways and prevalence of foggy weather have become the only draw back to Mitchell county. In the mean time we extend our dusty, executed friends, the enemy, in East Texas, a hearty invitation to come out to this damp climate and get the curl outen their harr and caudal appendages.

The spirit of most of the hunting in this country is that of wanton murder, pure and simple. On taking a walk on Thanksgiving day, we encountered boys of all conditions, ranging in age from ten to sixty years, roaming the prairies, gun in hand and thirsting to shoot anything that wore hair or feathers. They would blaze away at anything across the public highways to the imminent danger of life and limb of any one who might be passing. At one place we found on the ground, three harmless doves, at another, two sparrow hawks. Take this bit of wisdom from the Old Man parents: When you encourage your boy to kill for the pure lust of taking life and inflicting pain; to destroy that which all the wealth and science of the world cannot give, by placing a gun in his hands and allowing him, unrebuked to go forth over the fields as a besom of evil and menace of death, you are only sowing the dragon's teeth, like Cadmus of old, whose tilth shall be an avenging army of overwhelming evils, for both him and yourselves.

A Word About the Record.

In the first place it is impossible to publish a paper to please all our subscribers. The town people very much object to the country letters and especially so at the amount of space we give to Lorraine. The Record is gratified at the large subscription list it has at Lorraine and it is growing each week, which gives us even more gratification for those good people have been readers of this paper for five years, growing in numbers with the passing of each year, until this date, practically every family in that section are among our readers, so says our correspondent and as our subscription lists will show. Such confidence and esteem is seldom enjoyed by any newspaper, at least not to this extent and to say that we are gratified at such conditions only mildly expresses our feelings.

The Record has a correspondent at Lorraine that writes of that section in an interesting manner, tells of the coming and going of homefolks and visitors, records the births and deaths, gives the religious news as well as the social doings of that important community. In a word, Miss Toier keeps abreast of all that might interest those in her section of the country. The country correspondent has much to do with the popularity of a newspaper enjoys in his or her particular section and we feel indebted to all the splendid ladies and gentlemen who write for the Record, for it is they, together with the fact that we print a readable paper, who contribute to the popularity of the Record.

While our town readers object to the country letters, the country readers very seriously object to the report of club meetings and society doings and yet this is an important feature and it is pleasing to our town readers. We try to print a variety of news each week and of a kind to please all. Read that which is pleasing and appeals to you and leave the balance for the other fellow. We believe the country correspondence is a strong feature in any weekly newspaper and we desire to have even more correspondents.

The Record studiously avoids politics, as we are trying to publish a county local paper and give the local news, first and all the time.

IT IS A MISTAKE

The long gray moss used in decorating the Cotton Palace at Waco was not scraped from the backs of the Waco mossbacks. It is a mistake. Yet the Cotton Palace has helped to perform that much needed duty.

Cottolene

Makes Healthful and Delicious Pastry

Food cooked with hog lards and compounds is so thickly coated with grease as to give the gastric juices little chance to assimilate and digest it. Cottolene contains no hog fat. It does not coat the food with grease, and food cooked with it is easily digested.

From the standpoint of health there is no comparison between food cooked with Cottolene and food cooked with lard. Lard is just hog fat—Cottolene is a vegetable product of Nature.

Cottolene makes food which any stomach can digest, and builds up the tissues of the body.

$75,000,000 Parade.

There is no better way of helping a farmer, than by building factories. The farmers of Texas are compelled in many instances to ship their products across the ocean in order to reach the factory. We are world factors in agriculture. Our cotton and wool clothe the human race; our meats supply the leader of nations and our cereals fill granaries of the world, but we are in the main dependent upon other states and countries to manufacture our raw materials.

The farmers of Texas ship on an average, $1,200,000 worth of raw material to the foreign factories per day. Load this products on wagons and they will form a procession 220 miles long and our annual production on its way to the factory will form a gigantic parade that will reach around the world three times and it will require eleven years to pass a given point. It is the greatest show on earth. Watch it. It is a golden stream of prosperity flowing out of the state and on its bosom floats factories, cities and millions of happy homes. It is laden with opportunities destined for the people of the whole world and it furnishes life giving substance to the withering veins of European nations. Watch it!

The parade costs $200,000 per day and $75,000,000 per annum and it paid for by the sweat of those who till the soil. Our public servants who desire to do something more than swim around undevoured in the waters of public life should watch the parade. Our raw material on its journey to the foreign factory forms one of the most colossal pageant in the history of the human race and is the commercial tragedy of the Twentieth century. Watch it! The members of the 32nd. Legislature are respectfully invited to review the parade.

Prof. E. B. Mersereau was with us again on last Sunday and his talk on B. Y. P. U. work was one which made us all want to get out and get to doing something at once. We greatly enjoyed having him with us and we hope to have him again soon.

Let each of those who are on the program for next Sunday have their part ready to render and let's see how interesting we can make these meetings.

J. E. MERSEREAU, Pres. W. H. OWENS, Sec.

Teachers Institute.

A visit to the institute Friday proved most pleasant and instructive. Physiology was being discussed, upon our entrance and the subject became so interesting that it was with difficulty that we restrained "from butting in" to the discussion. Then came an intermission, during which the strangers were met and it seemed that everyone was from Loraine, which really had seven teachers present. All were bright capable looking young men and women and seemed not abt afraid to discuss any subject. After the room was called to order a fine talk on arithmetic in the fifth, sixth, and seventh grades was given by Miss Hearne. This called forth a general discussion upon the merits of arithmetic now in use, as opposed to Sutton and Kimbrough's. Again we wanted to lift our voice in a good word for Ray of blessed memory, but feared the name was too ancient to be recalled by any present.

Miss Ellis answered a number of questions put to her by the teachers, upon her methods of teaching English. After this the discussions got off into such depths of grammar, we were left stranded high and dry and the next thing we knew all had adjourned for the noon hour. The afternoon session which was the last one with the visiting teachers was of an especially social nature. Two quartettes were rendered and an especially pleasant and jolly time was had by both teachers and visitors.

Saturday our own teachers continued their work at the school building. We are sorry that we could not attend every day and get the benefit of all the fine talks, papers and discussions. The one little visit made us want more and realize what we had been missing.

WHO ARE "THEY?"

(By a Staff Correspondent.) We all have a way of saying "they say" this or that or some person or some thing and accepting it ourselves as authentic when someone says "they say" to us.

But if we stop to inquire into the exact source of the information, either we would be unable to trace it back to anyone other than that elusive individual, "They say," or we will find back of it the unkind gossip of some enemy.

And just because "they say" fails to put the blame of a falsehood on any one person's shoulders it really is the most dangerous of statements and one of the hardest to refute.

So let us beware of believing "they say" stories. Let us treat lightly all gossip introduced by the words "they say," or if this gossip makes us suspicious of its object—and it is natural and human that it should at times—let us suspend judgment until we KNOW. In other words let us do the object of "they say" the justice to investigate until we find someone who is in position from actual knowledge and whom we can trust, to make a positive statement over his own name as to the truth or falsity of the "they say" story.

The writer has been led to pen this little lesson in practical fairness by reading a little book issued by the Coca-Cola Company of Atlanta, Ga. entitled "The Truth About Coca-Cola." That truly delicious and wholesome beverage has for so long been the subject of "they say" stories in which all manner of untrue and detrimental things about Coca-Cola have been circulated that the manufacturers have been forced to issue their book giving authentic information about this beverage. And the information therein contained does not rest its case on any "they say" statements, but bases its arguments on analyses and statements of chemists and scientists occupying the highest positions in America.

This is a most interesting book—a fine study in dignity in refuting falsehoods—and a book of information that all should read. You will find it well worth your while to write and ask the Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga., to send you a free copy.

BIG SPRINGS-EL PASO MEDICAL SOCIETY

Holds an Enthusiastic Meeting in This City Tuesday.

Sweetwater was honored Tuesday by having as her guests a large representation of the Medical fraternity, representing the principal towns and localities in West Texas.

The occasion was the meeting of the Big Springs-El Paso Medical Society. The physicians began to arrive on every train Monday afternoon and continued to come in on the morning trains Tuesday.

The local physicians and the town acting through our Progressive Club had made all necessary preparations to make the visit of the Doctors to our city a pleasant one.

Shortly after ten a. m. Tuesday, the Society convened in regular annual session in the District Court room and in the absence of the president, vice President, T. J. Ratliff, of Colorado, called the meeting to order in a few well chosen remarks.

Judge W. W. Beall had been selected to deliver the Welcome address on behalf of the city, but owing to legal business that called him away from the city he could not be present and that task fell to his brother, Judge J. H. Beall.

Judge Beall's address of welcome was short, but every sentence breathed with a hearty welcome and a spirit of appreciation for the visitors and all were made to realize that Sweetwater extended to them a most hearty welcome.

Dr. J. W. Overton whose duty it was to deliver an address of welcome on behalf of the County Medical Society, completely captured all with his eloquence and beautiful display of words and sentences. The doctor is as much at home when it comes to handling the English language as the average African is beside a big striped watermelon.

The response to the address of welcome was made by Dr. P. C. Coleman of Colorado. He said, knowing Sweetwater and her people as he did, he was willing to accept every statement made by the preceding speakers. He congratulated this place upon the many evidences of progress and prosperity so apparent upon all sides. He rejoiced to know that the town in the face of the unfavorable conditions that have prevailed for some time.

Dr. Coleman is one of the pioneer west Texas physicians, in fact 28 years ago when there was scarcely a practicing physician located on the T. & P. railroad between Weatherford and El Paso, he located at Colorado.

He reviewed some historical and interesting events connected with his profession and during the course of his remarks took occasion to pay a high tribute and respect to the memory of Dr. Moody, one of the pioneer physicians of this place.

Next the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The program as published before in this paper was ably carried out. Each subject was instructive and entertaining.

After the evening session, the visitors were taken in charge by a cinnimtee and were taken for an automobile ride over the city. A visit was made to the Santa Fe shops site and the big reservoir under course of construction north of the city. What they saw out there caused them to look wise, and it took no professional mind reader to see that each visitor was greatly surprised at what he observed.

A trip was next made to the McSweeney packing plant which was the occasion of another real surprise to them.

Not one of the visitors could restrain himself from becoming a real booster for Sweetwater.

Preceding the banquet given in honor of the Doctors, an extended account of which appears elsewhere in this paper, the following program was rendered:

Reading—Miss Duckworth, Sweetwater.

An address: Relation of Physician to Public Schools and Health—Sup't. M. B. Johnson.

Reading—Mrs. Severn.

Vocal Solo—Miss Cornie Harrie.

Public Health Legislation—Judge Wilkinson, Fort Worth, Texas.

Reading—Miss Grace Vinson.

The parts taken by our local talent completely captured the audience and all received hearty applause.

The following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year:

Dr. N. J. Phenix, Colorado, President.

Dr. John W. Overton, Sweetwater, Vice President.

Dr. G. T. Hall, Big Springs, Texas Secretary-Treasurer.

A resolution endorsing Dr. Carrich of Abilene as state health officer and Dr. Adkinson of Merkel on the state Board of Examiners was adopted.

A committee consisting of Drs. Hall, Davis and Coleman presented the following resolutions which were heartily endorsed:

As your committee appointed to draft resolutions expressing to Sweetwater and the local faculty, our appreciation of all courtesies shown us while in the city, desire to submit the following:

We are grateful for all courtesies shown our society while in your midst. We congratulate you upon the evidences on all hands of your prosperity and have enjoyed your unbounded hospitality to the fullest extent.

Suitable resolutions were adopted upon the death of Dr. J. H. Edwards, an honored member of the Society, which recently occurred as Westbrook, Texas.

Among the visiting Doctors were the following:

A PRODUCT OF NATURE.

Warmed into life by the sun shining on Southern cotton fields, nurtured by rain and dew, the cotton plant concentrates in its seed that life-giving and life-sustaining quality which is the basis of Cottonolene. From Cottonfield to kitchen, human hands never touch the oil from which Cottonolene is made. It is a product of Nature.

Lard comes from the fat of the Larder, often impure, always indigestible. Cottonolene, on the contrary is pure, and jelly made from the juice of choicest fruit is not more easily digested than this product of the oil extracted from the kernel of the cotton seed.

The Boston Lyrics at the Opera House Saturday night is one of the finest things that has ever been billed for this town. Every performer is a star. And it will be a great treat for Coloradans to hear these famous people, in their wonderful and interesting program.

Bird-Dees Wedding

On Thursday last, at six thirty o'clock p.m., the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Dees was the scene of a most charming wedding, when Miss Tricie Dees was given in marriage to Mr. James Robert Bird of Sweetwater. Promptly at six thirty o'clock, as Mrs. Dell King's fingers glided into that ever beautiful Mendelssohn wedding march, the four attendants, Misses Daisy Dees, Bettye Bird and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Gregg entered, followed by the bride and groom.

They grouped themselves about an improvised altar of smilax and white chrysanthemums, and roses, where Rev. Smith, in a beautiful and most impressive ceremony, spoke the words that made them husband and wife.

After congratulations were given and the many pretty gifts were viewed, while laughter and gay conversation held sway, refreshments were served in the dining room which was so prettily decorated for the occasion. Toasts to the bride and groom were delivered by Misses Gregg, Wallace and Toler.

The bride's dress was of dainty, blue messaline, with bandings of cream and gold. With her bouquet of bride's roses she looked her sweetest and best.

SWEET SIXTEEN

FAIR EXCHANGE

A New Back For an Old One. How It Can Be Done in Colorado.

The backache at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the regions of the kidneys and again the loins are so lame to stoop in agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to a back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one. Colorado residents would do well to profit by the following example:

S. P. Daffey, Big Springs, Texas, said: "About two years ago the contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me of a severe case of rheumatism. Last winter when I began to suffer from attacks of backache and a dull soreness across my kidneys, I at once thought of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply. After using them a short time the pain in my back disappeared and has not returned since. I have recommended Doan's Kidney pills to several of my neighbors and shall continue to do so."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES.

The Hesperian Club

The Hesperian Club held its Thanksgiving meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Doss. There were several visitors and a Company evening was enjoyed. It was decided in the business meeting to try and raise the money necessary for the Physical apparatus most needed in the school. Beautiful Thanksgiving quotations were given by all. Mrs. Majors gave a piano solo; Mrs. Merritt a paper upon Boston, the birthplace of the nation; Mrs. Hazzard, a song; and Mrs. Payne, a story. Mrs. Shaw drew some of her fine pictures and preached a sensible little sermon. Mr. Shaw was present, but he was not given the floor. An amusing contest of Author's names was next, then the most delicious mince and pumpkin pies with hot coffee and tea was served. The guests were Mrs. J. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Miss Ratliff and the Club's new associate member, Mrs. Hart.

Announcement Party.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. J. H. Greene and Mrs. Jim Johnson entertained a number of their friends, in honor of their sister, Miss Pearl Rudwick. The diversion was "42" eight games being played. The score cards were dear little girl heads, and delicious punch was served during the game. At its conclusion all were invited into the dining room, which was a marvel of beauty. The table was beautifully decorated as for a bride. In the center was a table mirror, surrounded by white chrysanthemums, all veiled in maline. Above this hung a wedding bell, white streamers of maline were caught at the sides of the white cloth.

Each guest was asked to give a current event about Colorado lovers. A great many secrets were disclosed before all had finished, then Mrs. Green gave hers, which was that Pearl Rudwick married on December 7th. This event was of course the one which the guests had come to hear and was greeted with applause and congratulations. The company now returned to the "42" tables and were served with delicious chicken salad and accompaniments.

Special Meeting R. A. Chapter

To the Faithful who are willing to go up through tribulation and trials from captivity to help rebuild the House of the Lord. Greeting: On Friday night at 7:30, three captives of the tribe of Judah, will begin their journey and set their faces toward the shores of Jordan, when the blind will be brought by a way they knew not, darkness made light before them and crooked things made straight. For two weeks the rambunctious goat has been fed on nitroglycerine and tacks, the furnaces have attained a welding heat, and the sulphurous fumes lay heavy and sickening in the pit. The sacrificial lambs have been provided, and all is in readiness for the revelry; so be sure to come. Sanbalat and his henchmen will be on hand to share in the tortures and refreshments.

Thanksgiving Day

The services Thanksgiving day were well attended, the Methodist church being filled with an attentive congregation, who had the pleasure of listening to a fine sermon by Brother Broome, from the text: "In everything Give Thanks."

The church had been appropriately decorated with grains, flowers and flags. Beautiful tubs of chrysanthemums filled the building with their fragrance and autumnal glory.

The choir was greatly aided by the orchestra which rendered a medley of favorite religious songs at the beginning of the service. The Thanksgiving proclamation was read by Dr. Weston who spoke briefly upon the meaning of the day. The audience sang Holy, Holy, Holy. Mr. Elliott led in prayer, Mr. Porter, President of the Brotherhood read the Scripture lesson, the 103 Psalm. America was sung, after which an offering was taken for the poor. The speaker was now introduced by Brother Lyon and delivered his eloquent and inspiring message up on giving thanks in everything. Long before he had finished, manifold blessings were remembered that had been forgotten, in the general cry of hard times, and it was decided that things were not nearly as bad as they could be. At the conclusion of his address, Nearer, My God, to Thee was sung and the benediction pronounced by Mr. Elliott.

We hope that Brother Broome will allow his sermon to be printed, that those who heard him may preserve it and that those who did not, may thus get it.

Teachers and Board Entertain.

Thanksgiving evening our teachers most hospitably entertained the teachers who were here for the County Institute and the members of the school Board at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Hart. The house had been prettily decorated in autumn leaves, in their beautiful gold and browns, in honor of this occasion. The guests were met and greeted by the host and hostess, who introduced them to the rest of the house party and to each other, after which they were invited into the dining room, where from a daintily decorated table a most delicious punch was served. Hand painted score cards were now passed, the gentlemen receiving a roast, the ladies a live turkey. Places were found at the table and a lively "42" game begun. There were seven tables of players and the highest scores were made by Miss Beal of Odesa and Br. Munns of Union Chapel. In a cut, the prize was won by Mr. Munns. More punch was served and a period spent in social converse before good nights were said.

With the School Children

Wednesday at 2 o'clock the fond papas and mammas, accompanied by doting aunts and grandmothers and even smaller brothers and sisters, gathered at the little school building to see their bright boys and girls "show off" in the Thanksgiving exercises. The first and second grade teachers, Misses Graham and Riordan had taught each one of these primaries some verse or song, relating to Thanksgiving. Their children were all in one room and all the space was filled with visitors. The boys sang the turkey song and the girls the one about the mince pies, and jolly cooks they were in their caps and aprons. There were acrostics, stories of the dinner, a speech about twins by twins, a farmer and his wife who raised the products, not one item in the raising, gathering, preparing or enjoying the feast was omitted. The only big boy who spoke was Mr. Elliott, who told why we had this holiday. Each one did splendidly and the parents went home feeling more sure than ever that their children were in capable hands.

Friday the Bay View club met with Mrs. Blandford and held a very pleasant meeting. One of the attractions of the social hour was a big dish of Mrs. Shaw's beautiful ribbon candy, which tasted almost as good as it looked. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw were late visitors here, having been to Mrs. Doss' first. Mrs. Carter is hostess this week.

Monday evening at the Choral Club Mr. Dawes was surprised by the gift of a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums, which had been ordered in honor of his birthday by his pupils. Mr. Webb made the speech of presentation in his most statesmanship style. There were flights of eloquence and poetry that would be impossible to reduce to the written language, hence his speech is not printed. Mr. Dawes was so overwhelmed by all of this eloquence that his only response was, "I thank you." He is certainly worthy of this honor and deserves the praise accorded him by the club.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stoneroad chaperoned a party of young folks out to Van Tuij's pasture, where a genuine Thanksgiving dinner was spread on the grass, with the sun so hot that it seemed like mid-summer. In the crowd were Messrs. Boyce, Sorrenson and Beal of Sweetwater, Misses Coe, Hamner, Arnett and Nell Arnett.

A. & M. COLLEGE NEWS

Excellent Thanksgiving Dinner Saturday for the Cadets—Many Oysters are Used

It required over twelve thousand oysters to serve the Thanksgiving dinner to the corps of cadets of the A. & M. College of Texas.

Every year Bernard Sblsa, steward of the Mess Hall, serves a Thanksgiving dinner for the boys.

As Saturday is a half holiday and after dinner call blows at noon, there is no duty for the students, giving them as long to stuff the stuffing of the Turkey as they need. Saturday is selected as Thanksgiving day.

Mr. Sblsa has been steward of this college for more than thirty years. This year he has a thousand more mouths to feed—more than ever before. For the big dinner today he served the following menu:

Oyster stew, scalloped oysters, hot crackers, Waldorf salad, stuffed turkey, oyster dressing, cranberry jelly, baked chicken, country corn, mashed Irish potatoes, English plum pudding, rum sauce, hot mince pies, fruit cake, almond macaroons, coconut macaroons, lady fingers, kisses, assorted fruits and nuts, dates and figs.

To serve this mammoth dinner, it required six thousand oysters for the stew, six thousand for the scallops and five hundred for the dressing. It required one hundred turkeys and two hundred and fifty chickens; a barrel and a half of cranberries, five bags of potatoes, fifty pounds of butter, two hundred and fifty pounds of English plum pudding, two hundred and fifty pounds of fruit cake. A half barrel of mince meat was used in the pies and five hundred pounds of nuts were served. Four bakers worked all day Friday making up the desserts and assorted cakes.

It was a big feast. The thousand students sat down at the word from the cadet colonel, "take seats" and there was a merry rattle of silver and a hum of voices. Col. R. T. Milner, the president and Capt. Andrew Moses, the commandant, attended the dinner to see how it went off. It was a big feasting celebration and every boy enjoyed it.

John Arnett and Walter Whipkey ate a whole turkey. Lee Jones, since his wife has gone to spend the winter at home, is lonesome and has sent in the following poetry dedicated to the men of the town whose wives are away.

When a man has been left all alone in the world for two or three months, let us say, When he's picked up his rations wherever he could, while his wife and the kids were away, When he's had to take care of his laundry himself and at night had to aimlessly roam, Or sit in the gloom of a small rented room, he learns that there's no place like home.

When a man who has longed to be free from the cares that a husband and father must learn, When holes have appeared in the linen he wears and the first days of autumn return, When there's no one to scold if his spirits are low, or his stock of contentment is small, He knows, without any one telling him so that there's no place like home after all.

When a house-broken man who has grumbled because he had to shut windows at night, Who has often complained in the fits of the blues, that the fates had him marked for their spite— When a man such as he has for two or three months found not a long hair in his comb, And been free from restraint, his sole solemn plaint is that there is no place like home.

DIED AT PLAINS, TEXAS.

Richard Ware Earnest, aged eighteen years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Earnest, former residents of Colorado. This noble and promising boy was a name-sake of Sheriff Dick Ware who was well known and loved by the people whom he served as sheriff for many years, and close friend of J. D. Earnest. The many friends of the family are grieved for the sorrow-stricken ones, and join in deepest sympathy. May the Lord's richest blessings rest upon the bereaved family, and inspire them to the pure and holy life, so they may all meet where the sea of life is calm and where pangs of death never enter. —AUNTIE.

Red Cross Has Sent Out 60,000,000—Warns Against Misuse of Stickers.

Announcement comes from the headquarters of the American National Red Cross and Christmas Seals are being printed at the rate of a million a day and already over 60,000,000 have been given out to agents in all parts of the United States. The demand for these holiday seals is greater than ever before.

At the same time the Red Cross issues a warning calling attention of all users of Christmas seals to the ruling of the Post Office department that these stickers must be placed on the backs of letters and packages. To avoid the possibility of misuse of holiday seals warning cards are being posted in every booth where Red Cross seals are sold, telling that the stickers are not good for postage and must be used only as seals.

Already several million seals have been sold to large manufacturing concerns and other business houses in all parts of the United States and others are coming in hourly. The outlook for selling one hundred million seals and thereby making good the slogan of the campaign, "A Million for Tuberculosis" are very bright.

Rural Schools and the University.

The University of Texas has long realized the importance of country schools in Texas. Under the leadership of Mr. A. S. Blankenship, a graduate of the University, and formerly County superintendent of Coryell Co. a campaign has been started for improved conditions in the rural schools. Mr. Blankenship travels practically all of his time, throughout the state delivering lectures on schools and school buildings, their proper heating, lighting and general hygienic conditions. His lectures are illustrated with stereoscopic pictures, and his services are given free to communities that wish to hear him talk. Applications for his lectures should be addressed to the Extension Department of the University, Austin, Texas.

School Bonds for Burnham

Last Saturday a special election was held at Burnham in school district No. 7 to determine whether bonds to the amount of $3000.00 should be issued for building a school house. This district carried by a majority of one and it is probable that the district will have one of the best rural school houses in this part of the State.

Shade Trees.

The tree planting season is near and we clip a few suggestions given in an excellent article written for the Farm and Ranch by F. T. Ramsey.

Every few days nurserymen hear some one lamenting because a neighbor's place sold for more than he asks for his and he has no offer. Years ago the neighbor planted a few shade trees and that makes the difference. But the enjoyment and comfort the family has gotten out of those shades and the refining influences they have exerted on the minds of the children of that family should be rated at a greater value than the difference in the selling price. Really I do not like to talk about selling a home.

Ash are growing in popularity. We find they do well in most any kind of soil.

I love to see the live oaks planted. They are easy to make live if the top and small twigs are cut off. On good soil, they will average nearly two feet of growth each year for many years and you can enjoy them from the day you plant them.

In the days when I dived off of a big leaning sycamore into my favorite swimming hole, I thought sycamores grew only on creeks. That was because none of them had been planted on dry land. They will stand intense drought after the first year.

I like cottonwoods and Carolina poplars, where large, stately trees are wanted. Under good treatment, or where water is near the surface, a cottonwood will make a shade as soon or sooner than an umbrella china, which is usually named as the tree that will make a good tree in the shortest time. But Chinas are beautiful and make a shade "while you wait."

Everybody loves an Elm. It combines dignity and beauty. It is the high toned shade and lives 500 years. You can plant them thick or far apart. They shed their leaves all at one time. Plant Elms everywhere and lots of them. No one has ever regretted having planted elms.

Hackberries are perhaps the trees for hard, poor locations, though, of course they respond to favors shown in the way of good locations and good treatment.

It is now tree planting time again. Have you arranged to plant the trees you need. If not, why put it off any longer? To put off tree planting a year means to lose a year's growth on the trees and that mean's a great deal. Suppose you had planted trees four years ago, or even three years ago, by this time they would have had a good start and in two or three years you would have had shade trees. To the average rational person it is not necessary to talk up the value of trees but the Fort Worth Record recently hit the spot squarely in an editorial on our duty in tree planting.

There is no excuse for barren yards and glaring sidewalks in Texas.

Homes, children, trees, fruit and flowers—these are the environments and the blessings of normal, healthy, dutiful and happy life, and he is a savage, an alien, an outlaw or a loafer who does not provide them in greater or less degree.

A farm without roads is worse off, a farm with bad water. It is hard to understand how a farmer, otherwise enterprising should be backward in building good roads. Travel through some of our rural districts and you will find farmers with blooded stock; land highly cultivated and premises well kept and with public highways that bog up an empty wagon six months in the year. Build roads and keep up with the procession.

The man with money is a prime factor in any business enterprise and we can no more eliminate him by legislative processes or force him by law to make investments than we can regulate the attraction of gravity," said J. E. Whiteselle of Corsicana. "The man with money passes final judgment on all investments and from his decision there is no appeal. He is the court of last resort. The law may prescribe conditions under which investments may be made but the power to reject them is the inalienable right of every investor and an industry without capital is like a steam engine without steam.

Our law givers should recognize the distinction between legislation and dictation. We can regulate investments but we cannot dictate to the investor and when we violate the rules of commerce we are as certain of the penalty as when we violate the laws of nature. Horse sense is as valuable in making laws as it is in running a business."

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," It is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.
