STREET LIGHTS FOR CITY OF COLORADO

CONTRACT CLOSED WITH LIGHT PLANT TO LIGHT CITY.

A Lamp Will Be Placed at Every Street Crossing in City Limits.

A contract between the Colorado Electric Light Co. and the city was closed yesterday by which the city will be splendidly lighted throughout. A light will be placed at each street crossing from the river as far east as the High School buildings and from the T. & P. railroad to Ninth street. Also in East and South Colorado. Manager Webb says this will involve an expenditure of about $2,000 on the part of the Light Company to install these lights but that they will all be placed inside of sixty days.

This is another big improvement for Colorado, and one badly needed and the Record congratulates the city in having a council which does things.

Colorado now has more concrete side walks and more miles of good streets than any town of twice its size in West Texas and when our lights are installed, houses numbered and streets marked, we will have the most up-to-date little city in this part of the world.

Manager Webb of the Light Company, says he is going to get busy and put up first class equipment for the city and give them the best service possible. Who said Colorado was dead? "Not on your life, she ain't."

City Council.

Mayor C. M. Adams, Aldermen F. M. Burns, C. H. Earnest, H. P. Wheeler and S. Cowan and Clerk Keathley were present.

Reports of Colorado Electric Light & Water Co. were filed.

Returns of the Election held April 4, were canvassed and the following officers declared elected: C. M. Adams, Mayor; F. M. Burns, C. H. Earnest, H. P. Wheeler, full term aldermen; W. H. Moser, to fill unexpired term of J. W. Bird; Ernest Keathley, secretary.

All the newly elected officers took the oath of office.

E. Keathley was appointed assessor and collector of taxes for two years, and his bond fixed at $5,000, as before.

W. P. Leslie was appointed city attorney for two years.

L. E. Ayers was appointed city marshal for two years at a salary of $50 per month, with a bond of $500. Secretary was instructed to get bids from the city banks for keeping the city money for two years, and to ask Recorder W. H. Smith to make his report at next meeting of council.

The following bills were allowed: W. M. Cooper, $299; J. R. Shepherd, $2; T. J. Payne, $2; J. B. Pond, $2; W. H. Smith, $2; J. H. Cooper, $7.45 and $6.45; Northwestern Stamp Works, $1.58; A. J. Roe $1.16; Geo. D. Barnard & Co., $4.00; J. S. Vaughan $22.85.

F. M. Burns was appointed mayor pro tem.

Street and alley committee: F. M. Burns, chairman, C. H. Earnest and S. Cowan.

Fire committee: W. H. Moser, chairman, H. P. Wheeler and S. Cowan.

A motion was carried to allow the fire boys 50 cents each for one practice a month, they to make the rules governing the practice and to furnish the city secretary with a list of those entitled to be paid.

Fire.

Fire again visited Colorado last Friday night, this time in the W. W. Porter wood yard. The fire was under good headway before discovered and its origin is of course unknown. Mr. Porter lost his engine room, engine, saw, splitter and elevator and about two thirds car of fine wood. The T. & P. Ry. Co. lost a box car which was burned while on the side track. The fire boys responded quickly and soon had it under control. Mr. Porter had no insurance and his loss of course is a total loss amounting to about $1,500.

Mr. Porter desires to express his thanks to the fire boys and others who helped in putting out the fire and says while his loss falls heavily he will at once rebuild better than before.

Fort Bend county has just issued $500,000 in bonds for road improvement and the work of constructing good roads in that county is to begin immediately.

Singing Convention Organized.

The west half of Mitchell county met at Cuthbert and organized the west half of the county into a singing convention of their own. Geo. Goodwin was made president, Prof. M. L. Hill, vice president and Miss Hattie Petty of Westbrook, secretary. At this meeting there was represented Fairview, Cuthbert, Rogers, Westbrook, Union, Itan and several other places. Dinner was spread on the ground and it was estimated that 300 people ate of the good things prepared. Singing was resumed in the evening after which a business meeting was held, at which it was decided to hold the next meeting the 1st Sunday in June and that each class bring its own dinner. A jolly good time was had and all enjoyed it very much.

Texas offers exceptional opportunities to every line of industry and new fields are constantly opening up that were formerly considered to belong strictly to other states and countries. The latest venture is a fur farm which is to be established in Southwest Texas by a company of eastern capitalists who recently visited the state for that purpose. The farm covers 3,000 acres of land which is the most suitable for growing fur bearing animals. Only two or three such ventures have been made in this country before, but have proven successful and there is every reason to believe that Texas will make good in the new industry.

A law passed by the recent legislature which takes effect June 10, 1911, is a complete revision of the certificate laws of Texas. Teachers certificates are second grade, first grade, permanent primary and permanent. Agriculture is added to the list of subjects in which teachers are required to be examined and school law is omitted. County second grade certificates may be issued one time to the same applicant; city certificates continue as under the present law. The holder of a certificate may build to one of higher grade by taking an examination in one or more of the additional branches at any one examination. Second grade and first grade certificates are valid for four or six years and always expire with the scholastic year. Unearned restrictions, life certificates from other states may be recognized. A second grade or a permanent primary certificate entitles the holder to teach in any public school in Texas. Certificates can not be issued to persons under 16 years of age. The regulations for the issuance of certificates are considerably simplified and are more uniform than they have been under existing laws.

Because of this change in the present law, that will require teachers to be examined in the subject of agriculture, the authorities of the Agricultural and Mechanical College are making special arrangements for the summer Normal School to be held at the College in June and July. As agriculture is the subject of greatest importance at the College, the institution is better equipped with teachers and laboratories than other schools in the state. F. M. Bralley, state superintendent of education has authorized a Summer Normal to be held at the College and arrangements are being made to accommodate a large number of teachers, because of the importance of the Subject of Agriculture.

The following will be the teachers: John C. Burns, professor of animal husbandry will teach farm crops and Types and Breeding of farm animals. E. J. Kyle, professor of Horticulture will teach elements of Horticulture.

Dr. J. C. Blake, professor of Chemistry, will teach Agricultural Chemistry.

Texas extends to the homemaker a warm welcome. The laws of Texas protect the homestead from forced sale. They also afford complete protection to capital and all legitimate enterprises. The framers of our constitution looked after the interest of the farmer. All farm products in the hands of the producer are exempt from taxation. The constitution guarantees to the farmer the right to buy and sell whatever he pleases and no municipality or political division can levy a license against him that privilege, neither can an occupation tax be levied against the farmer.

The good roads movement has struck Hardin county and a bond issue of $35,000 has just been voted and the work of building roads will begin at once.

TO-NIGHT GOOD FRIDAY

Promptly at 8 o'clock in All Saints' (Episcopal) Church, the sacred cantata will be given. Sir John Stainer, the famous organist of St. Paul's Cathedral, is no more widely known than by this interpretation of the central theme of Christianity, the Crucifixion of our Saviour. And nothing shows the devotion of the Choral Society to the highest ideals of music art than the fidelity of their work in preparation for its rendering this day of sacred memory and love. The director and the Club deserve the highest praise for the musical events of which this is the third. And those who are on time to get seats in the church will be fortunate in the opportunity presented to them to hear music most excellent.

"The Crucifixion"

By the generosity of the Club and director there will be a FRFE WILL OFFERING taken. There is no charge.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—we know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—it cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—it enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.

Because—the records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.

Drop into our store today, just to talk over your case with us.

LORAINÉ LOCALS

Brief Mention of the Week's Happenings at Busy Town of Loraine.

Medical Association Meets.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Mitchell County Medical Association was held in Loraine last Monday. In the absence of Dr. P. C. Coleman, the chairman, the Association elected Dr. N. J. Phenix of Colorado to the temporary chairmanship. Those in attendance besides the local doctors were: Drs. N. J. Phenix, T. J. Ratliff, and T. S. Lindley of Colorado.

Dr. Theo. C. Merrell of Colorado, though unable to attend, sent a most interesting paper on a scientific subject which was read and most favorably commented upon. Dr. T. A. Martin of Loraine also read an interesting paper, which was well received and showed great care and study in its preparation.

Several chemical subjects were generally discussed by all present, and many pertinent and valuable ideas and treatments were disseminated. The meeting was a most successful one and all who attended declared themselves greatly benefitted by it.

The next meeting will be held in Loraine, Monday July 10th, at which time it is expected to have a night session many subjects of public interest will be discussed and the program will be interspersed with music and other features which will make it not only instructive but entertaining as well.

Tom Edmondson, from the plains country is visiting his nephew, W. L. Edmondson.

It is now "Mayor Summers," J. A. Summers having been sworn in as mayor of Loraine last Monday.

Two farmers who left here last January to try the east have returned bag and baggage to Loraine. They say Mitchell county is all right, but some have to leave it to find this out. They paid $320 to get possession of farm property near herd and they say rain or no rain they are here to stay.

R. C. Herm, the daddy of Hermleigh and for whom the town was named, was in Loraine last Monday on a business trip.

Will Wimpkin of Hermleigh was here on business Monday.

Mrs. H. Toler, Sr., who has been on the sick list for several days is reported much improved and her recovery is now assured.

Hubert Toler and wife and three sons left for Midland last Sunday to visit Mrs. Toler's mother. Hubert returned Monday morning. Mrs. Toler and the boys remaining for a few days.

W. F. Altman has been laid up with the Grippe, but his many friends are glad to know that he has recovered and is again at his post of duty.

Mrs. M. L. Yates of Amarillo is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. S. Dees.

Ginner Gary had the smokestack of his gin on the north side painted this week, and is making other improvements.

There is already talk of installing additional machinery in the gin here, the better to handle the fall cotton crop.

J. C. Vernon was in from the farm this week and he says he never saw the country looking in better shape at this time of the year before. Mr. Vernon is one of our optimistic farmers, he never looked at a long face in the mirror and the words hard times were torn out of his vocabulary.

A communication was received this week from a party in Pennsylvania submitting a proposition to build a cold storage, ice plant and steam laundry in Loraine.

J. S. Sloan and family of Wastella visited here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Waldon who was operated on a short time ago, is reported improving.

J. E. Stowe and family went to Midland Sunday night on a visit to Mrs. Stowe's mother.

J. N. McCaghren returned to his home in Odessa after a week's visit to his sister.

J. D. Wilson informed us that he was contemplating purchasing a hearse for Loraine. We are glad indeed to learn this, as our town should by all means have one. It is too inconvenient to have to send to Colorado when we need one and we hope to be able to report the arrival of the hearse at an early date. We hate to say it, but we are sure some of our people will be just dying to ride in it when it does come.

WOMAN'S WOES

A Certain Cure for Female Trouble and That Tired, Nervous, Depressed Feeling That Makes Household Work a Dreary Burden.

Work, work; Nothing but work; Tiresome drudgery!

Work used to be a pleasure, but now a few minutes effort leaves you weak, discouraged and irritable with a feeling that everything has gone wrong.

The liver and bowels are responsible for this.

The symptoms are, heart palpitation, faintness, suppressed, excessive or irregular periods, bad digestion, bearing down pains in the side and back, nervous weakness, poor appetite, costiveness.

Prickly Ash Bitters sweeps away these troubles like magic, because it strikes at the root of the disease—the stomach, liver and bowels.

Women who take medicine for female troubles that does not benefit these organs are wasting money and valuable time. The liver is diseased because the stomach is unhealthy, and both have produced a constipated habit. This stoppage of healthy action in the liver and bowels has filled the system with impurities which have brought on irregularity in the female organs; it follows therefore, that a medicine which will correct the liver, strengthen the stomach and promote healthy bowel operations is the remedy for menstrual difficulties.

The poor, tired, discouraged woman who has suffered silently and so long with the ailments of her sex soon feels the strengthening and exhilarating influence of Prickly Ash Bitters. It does its work thoroughly, beginning with the stomach and extending its purifying and stimulating influence to the liver and bowels. When the stomach, liver and bowels are active and working in harmony, there must be health and regularity in the female organs. As a result of this improved condition the patient takes a renewed interest in her household duties. Appetite and strength return, the eyes are brighter, the complexion clears, and before long she is transformed into a bright, happy woman with rosy cheeks and cheerful spirits.

"I suffered much from indigestion and constipation. I had a drowsy tired feeling and nervous headaches all the time. I began using Prickly Ash Bitters and it has helped me wonderfully. I now have a good appetite, sleep well and can do a greater amount of work than ever before."

A Drop of Blood

Or a little water from the human system when thoroughly tested by the chief chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., tells the story of impoverished blood—nervous exhaustion or some kidney trouble. Such examinations are made without cost and is only a small part of the work of the staff of physicians and surgeons under the direction of Dr. R. V. Pierce giving the best medical advice possible without cost to those who wish to write and make a full statement of symptoms. An imitation of nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous force is used when you take an alterative and glyceric extract of roots, without the use of alcohol, such as

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Which makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgment. Get what you ask for!

QUALITY IS ECONOMY

A Trip Around the World.

By W. E. BERRY.

In the year of 1876, "Centennial year," I was working in the lumber woods in Michigan. I and some of my companions went down to Philadelphia and took in the great show at the Worlds Fair. It was a great thing to us to see the wonders of the world. We made the best of our time in the three weeks we were there and then did not see it all as there were so many wonderful things to look at. It was the Australian exhibit that took my eye. I thought that a country that could raise such things must be a good country to live in. I returned home again to the Michigan lumber woods, and worked that winter. But the Australian exhibit was ever in my eye and mind and the following summer found me getting ready to see that for off country.

In August I left Michigan for Milwaukee, Wis., took the train there for New York City, then boarded a steamship of the "Cunard" line bound for London, England. I arrived there on time, boarded the London and South-western train for Taunton, Somersetshire, my old home, to see my kinfolks; stayed with them a few days. Left there and went to Plymouth, a sea port on the south coast of England. After seeing the city and sights of the town I engaged passage aboard the full rig ship "La Houge" of 2000 tons, bound for Sydney, New South Wales, Australia, with 800 passengers and a cargo of slate, railroad iron and dry goods for that country.

The day of departure came and the anchor was weighed. We sailed down the English Channel, passing the Eddystone lighthouse, then Lands End and then into the Atlantic Ocean, headed south. Here a gale of south wind struck us, which made it very uncomfortable for some of the passengers and many of them were feeding the little fishes in good style. Seasickness makes a fellow feel as though he was going to kick the bucket for a few days, but it is not a fatal disease and some soon get over it. It is fun for some to see others sick, especially when they ask you to "throw them overboard" thinking their time had come. The storm was soon over and we were on the Spanish Main, having passed the Bay of Biscay and Gibraltar, and soon were in the "gulf stream" as we had seen seaweed and other stuff floating by. The gulf stream is the most wonderful thing that nature has yet produced. It constitutes a grand river in the ocean, for in the severest drouths it never fails and in the mightiest floods it never overflows its banks; and its bottom is of the coldest water, while its currents are warm. The Gulf of Mexico is its fountain, and its mouth is in the Arctic sea. There is no other flow of water in the world like this. Its currents are more rapid than the Mississippi river, and its volume a thousand times greater. Some think that the gulf stream is the escaping of water that has been forced up into the Caribbean Sea by the trade winds and that it is the pressure of those winds upon the water which forces it up into this sea, a head reservoir of water for this great stream. Others think that the pressure of the trade winds may assist to give the great stream its great velocity, but this cause is not in itself the whole effect. I think that the other causes that assist in this wonderful movement of waters are the differences of temperature of various parts of the earth, and in the different degrees of saltiness in various parts of the ocean, altering the gravity of the water. The maximum temperature of the gulf stream is eighty-six degrees or about nine degrees above the ocean, according to the latitude. This great stream after running 3000 miles toward the north still preserves, even in winter, the heat of summer. With this temperature it crosses the 40th degree of north latitude and there overflowing its liquid banks and spreads itself out for thousands of square miles over the cold waters around, and covers the ocean with a mantle of warmth, that serves to soften the rigors of winter in Europe. Its waters as far as the Carolina coast, are of indigo blue. This is so distinctly marked that the common sea water can be traced with the human eye. Ofttimes one half of the vessel may be perceived floating in the gulf stream waters while the other half is in the common water of the sea, and it is strange but those waters do not like to mix and mingle with the common water. In addition to this there is another peculiar fact, it is this; that the fishermen on the coast of Norway are supplied with wood from the tropics by the gulf stream. Just think of this, the Arctic fishermen burning upon their hearths the palms of Hayti and mahogany of Honduras and precious woods from the Amazon river.

The deepest part of the ocean at this date (1878) was found in latitude 36 degrees, 49 minutes south, longitude 37 degrees, 6 minutes west, about 1150 miles due east of Cape San Antonio, South America, and the nearest land was the coast of Rio Grande, 900 miles northwest by west. An iron ball weighing 300 pounds was used as a sinker and touched the bottom at 7,706 fathoms. The line was nine hours running out. The ball sank as rapidly the last mile as the first. This is the greatest depth yet measured, being a little over eight and three-quarter miles.

We had fine weather after the storm and all hands seemed to enjoy the voyage. It was getting warmer as we went south, for we were nearing the tropics 23 degrees from the equator. Saw lots of flying birds and porpoise, also a fish called the Spanish Man O' War. This fish had a fin sail that he can use at will, and during a gale of wind he comes to the surface and by some means raises this sail out of the water and sails along at a great speed.

Many ships were in sight going to all parts of the world. We had not spoken to any ship yet. We were now drawing close to the equator and it was still getting hotter. The condensed water we drank never got cold in that climate.

All the talk now was about old "King Neptune" coming aboard to collect his toll from all passengers that had never crossed the line. But as I had seen his royal highness once before on the banks of New Foundland, I knew something about him. While crossing those banks on my voyage to Labrador one cold morning, the captain ordered all hands below telling that there was a gale of wind coming. We went below for awhile. Then we heard the captain's voice again, "all hands on deck." We came up again and behold, what did we see? An old man or sea monster, as he was called, dressed in a seal skin dress, a white beard two feet long, all dripping with water, climbing over the bulwarks on the ship. I was awfully scared, like the rest for awhile. Most likely my hair raised my hat a few inches. Then this monster of the deep informed us who he was in English and French. He told us this was his domain and his duty was to collect toll from every one who passed this way. He said the toll was five shillings English money, and if we paid this toll we were free. If we refused his custom was to shave every "mother's son of us." Some were willing to pay and others were not. I paid and those that refused were all brought forward, a rope was stretched from mast to mast about two feet above their heads. Each one had his hands tied up to this rope; then the shaving match commenced. Old Neptune with his pall of tar and grease, commenced to shave. With a small mop for a brush, he lathered their faces and with a piece of hoop iron he shaved them, one by one, at the same time he asked them the question what they liked best, "light bread or hard tack." As soon as their mouth was open he would put the brush in their mouth. After all had been shaved, all hands were ordered below again, and old Neptune disappeared. It was done in this way: one of the sailors had dressed up in this disguise and had climbed down on the anchor chains, thus making us believe he had come out of the water from his old wreck.

Now we were about to cross the equator instead. The day before we crossed the line the boxon came up among the passengers and said he wanted some help to fill one of the small boats on deck with salt water. He said the sun was so hot he was afraid of the boat leaking. About thirty-five of us turned in and filled the boat with water drawn from the ocean with buckets. The next morning, sure enough, Old Neptune made his appearance after the same manner as he boarded us on the banks. He told us he was king of those domains, and wanted his toll of five shillings. I paid as before but a great many would not. The fine was that every one that did not pay the toll, was thrown in this boat full of water which we had been fool enough to fill the day before. But as the water was warm it was all right. Old Neptune again left us for parts unknown.

The weather was now 130 degrees in the shade, no sleep now. We were in a calm, no wind. One day we looked south at 12 o'clock and saw the sun. The next day we looked and saw the sun north of us. The north star had almost disappeared and the southern cross was in full view. We could see rain showers all around us. A downpour would have felt awful good about that time. A great many were complaining about the heat for it was terrible.

Two passengers had died and we put the remains in cotton sacks, put a lump of coal at the bottom and then put the dead body in, sewed it up and threw it overboard. This is the custom of burying at sea. It looks tough but we must get used to it.

We could stand in our shadow now and see no shade at 12 o'clock. The sun is straight over our heads. Two days a lot more had died and been buried. The only words spoken is, "who will be the next?"

The wind freshened and we began sailing some; commenced to feel the trade winds. These winds blow three months the same way. About 9 a. m. they get strong and at midnight they blow up. The farther south we go the more winds we get. The weather gradually got colder. Ten days later we were near the Cape of Good Hope, in latitude 34 south. We still ran south to 44, then we turned east and entered the Indian ocean. It got still colder but we had not seen any ice yet, nor land since we started. Some days we made 14 knots per hour or 300 miles in 24 hours. The captain and first mate took the sun every day at 12 o'clock to find out where we were and how far from land. You know when the sun rises in the morning it goes up till twelve o'clock, then it commences to drop down till sunset. The captain and mate does the work. You see then with their instruments from 11:30 to 12 watching the sun and when it drops (by the figures on their instrument) they figure it out and tell exactly where they are and how far from land, and how many miles they have travelled in the last 12 hours. The distance is gotten by the log line, an hour glass or time glass. A man asked me one day what did they heave the log overboard for, and what kind of wood it was, and how many logs did a ship carry? I told him that a log did not mean a saw log but a ship's log, for the measuring of time, and the distance on water. I told him a log was a small piece of board one-half inch in thickness and ten inches wide sharpened to three points, with a small hole in each point, and in two of these holes there was fastened a stout cord, in the other hole was a small wooden plug with a cord fastened to it. These cords are about three feet in length and are fastened together in bridle shape, to a main cord of 1,000 feet, which winds up on a reel like a fishing reel with two handles to it. The hour glass can be compared to a figure 8, large at each end and very small in the center. The glass is filled with black sand in one end and when this end is turned up the sand will run into the other end and as the middle is very small only one grain of sand can pass through at once. It takes so many seconds for this sand to pass through and this is considered the most correct time they can get. It beats all the time keepers in the world. Now for the time—when they get ready the log is thrown in the water and stays there; the glass is turned upon end, the sand drops through, the reel unwinds, the ship goes ahead, as soon as the sand has passed through the mate says, "stop," the line is stopped running out. Now they are ready to hold the line and begin. The line has little bits of colored marks on it. The first hundred feet will be blue, perhaps the next will be red and so on. If a ship sails 100 feet in one minute, they can tell how many miles she will sail in four hours. The line is drawn in and wound on the reel again ready for the next watch. When they commence to hoist the line they give the line a quick jerk which pulls the plug out of the hole and the line comes in easy. This is the way they tell how many miles a ship is making. They have a large black board on the ship, hung up and they mark on it the latitude and the longitude, and how many miles she has made in the last 24 hours. If a man has a small chart with him he can tell exactly where they are and how far from land. I have my small chart with me yet, also the picture of the ship "La Houge," that I made this trip around the world in.

"Great is Mitchell County, and The Record is its Prophet!"

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1911.

It rained again since our last issue, this time .28 of an inch, coming slow and gentle and makes the best season in the ground we have had for several years. Everybody is busy planting, the farmers are happy, the trees are green, a velvet carpet of green is spread over the prairie the birds are singing, the fish are biting, great is Mitchell county and the Record is its prophet.

Attention is called to the advertisement in this issue of the Adams Mercantile Co. at Lorraine. The Record has a good circulation at Lorraine and all south as far as Champion, also all over the Lonewolf valley as far east as Hermleigh and Wastella and the Adams Mer. Co., who are enterprising and pushing for this trade take a good space in the Record to tell the people what they have and extend a cordial invitation to trade with them. This is what some people in Colorado fail to do.

Too much praise cannot be given the school for engaging the Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette of Chicago to appear here on April 26th at the Opera House. This company is in its twentieth year of success, and is acknowledged everywhere to be the most up-to-date musical company traveling. Everybody likes music and everybody enjoys a hearty laugh. A delightful blending of pure fun and fine music is one reason why the above company has won its way to the top notch of public esteem. Don't forget that this company comes under the auspices of the Public Schools and that twenty-five per cent of the proceeds go to them.

The Record man and better half attended the closing exercises of Prof. Blocker's school out at Rogers last Friday. A fine dinner was spread and we ate and ate until all the world seemed to us pie and cake and in our dreams we saw chickens of all sizes jumping into fat pies. This is the country in which the Greens, Wittens, Hooks, Hastings, Handleys, Ponds and others live and they have a good school. Judge Coe and A. J. Payne went out also from Colorado and we were actually ashamed of them, the way they ate. This district No. 7 has recently been made an independent district and the patrons of the school had met to discuss the special school tax question. Some want a 35 cent tax while others contend that a 20 cent tax would be sufficient. County Judge Coe and Prof. Hooks had quite a discussion and it was decided to leave it to an election to decide the matter. Two new trustees were elected and these people are arranging for a good school next year. We had a very pleasant time and enjoyed the day and especially the dinner very much.

Keep the Record Straight.

Last week in setting the Winn and Payne at the printers made us say continuous treatment when it should have been courteous treatment, and also got it J. S. Payne when it should have been J. I. Payne. Just 17 persons called our attention to these errors all of which proves our con-ention that people read the ads. Winn and Payne have started out with a good business and they are making a specialty of windmills and plumbing goods.

Colorado Adopts City Plans.

Messrs. G. F. Judson and W. B. Walker representing the K. C. Directory Company are in the city and are now at work putting up street names and will number every house in Colorado.

This is city airs and will be of untold benefit to everybody. The streets will be named, making the division of the town, north and south using the railroad as the division line and making Elm street running north and south on which is located the fire station, the division line between west and East Colorado. The houses will be numbered with odd numbers on one side and even numbers on the other and numbered in such a way that anyone can tell the exact location of every house. This will be quite convenient when a fire alarm is turned in, for instance if it is 307 Elm street, you will know at once that it is seven blocks north on Elm street and on the right hand side of the street. All this will lead up to a free mail delivery which Colorado hopes to get soon. The United States Post office department is now working on and has recommended that free mail delivery be established in all towns of 2000 people and $5,000 post office receipts and by fall we hope to have it.

Messrs. Judson and Walker are gentlemen of good business judgment, honest and reliable and hope to treat the people in such a way as to make friends of all the people. As soon as the street names are put up and the houses numbered they expect to get out a city directory.

The work in which they are engaged is their business and they make all the towns of importance in the state and they are perfectly delighted with Colorado. They say we have the best water, and the best streets and more sidewalks than any town in Texas twice our size and was perfectly astonished at the number of shade trees, clean streets and substantial improvements on every hand. This is a nice compliment to Colorado, coming as it does from men who are in a position to know.

The fame of Colorado as a place to live is widely known and with a little more work and careful attention of resident and business houses it can be made a perfect beauty spot.

West Texas Meet at Colorado.

The state has been divided into ten districts. Each one of these districts is to hold an inter-scholastic meet to decide which school is the best in that division. The winning team will send six men on a free trip to A. & M. College on April the 21st.

Through the efforts of Prof. Hamilton, Colorado was selected by the executive committee as the place for the meeting of the West Texas division.

All of the schools from Abilene to Midland are in the division and have been invited to take part here next Saturday.

It will no doubt be the biggest thing of the kind ever pulled off in this part of the state. The fastest runners and the highest jumpers in West Texas will be here and it will be a contest worth seeing.

It is regretted that the race track is so far from town, but the admission has been fixed so that it will not be much after all.

From the interest already manifested there will be a record breaking crowd present on Saturday to see the West Texas Meet. Everybody should come out and encourage their men on to victory.

The exercises will begin at the race track about 12:30, and last all evening. Let Colorado turn out and give them a big crowd.

For prompt and efficient abstract work.—C. R. Earnest, over Colorado National Bank.

See the boys run and jump at the track meet Saturday.

New Ice Wagon.

The Colorado Creamery and Ice Co. have received their fine new delivery wagon and will put it on at once.

R. J. Ratliff, an entergetic and pleasing gentleman from Liano county has moved to Mitchell county and will farm this year on the N. P. Brown farm down on the river below Lorraine. Mr. Ratliff is a good farmer and one of the first good moves made in the county was to come in and subscribe for his county paper, the Record.

Announcement.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Ophelia Arnett to Warren Floyd Beal of Sweetwater at the Arnett home on Wednesday evening, April 26.

The Record had a good article written about the Colorado Steam Laundry, but failed to get it in this week but will do so next week.

The bill recently introduced in the legislature to establish additional agricultural colleges throughout the state shows that the agricultural industry is coming into its own and that farming, the foundation of all real prosperity, is to be encouraged by our law makers at least. The establishment of additional agricultural colleges will mean much to the agricultural interests of Texas and will greatly aid in placing Texas far ahead in the list of agricultural producing states.

We must look to our Agricultural Department, A. & M. College, experimental stations and agricultural agents to build up our farms and instruct our farmers. These institutions ought to be encouraged and liberally supported by appropriations and co-operation in their work.

Peanuts are fast gaining in favor as a commercial product and the small expense and amount of trouble that the growing of this vegetable entails is causing it to gain favor with truck growers each year. It is estimated that for each $1,000 worth of nuts, there is at least $1,000 worth of hay, and one county alone in South Texas this year produced and shipped $35,000 worth of these nuts, which of course did not include the portion held out for seed, hay, etc.

The peanut is coming into its own. It is being ranked as an exceptionally profitable crop and the producers are taking their place among the most prosperous farmers of the South.

Senior Class Entertained.

Dainty invitations which read The Junior Class of the Colorado High School at home in honor of the Senior Class, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Person Saturday evening, April 8, 1911, 8:30 to 11:30.

This took the nature of a burlesque on the graduation exercises of the seniors. The house was tastefully decorated in green and white and lavender and white the colors of the two classes. The seniors upon arriving were presented with white carnations and the school board in grave manner arranged themselves for the exercises. Earl Calloway was Mr. Hart and it is feared he spent more time last week acquiring Mr. Hart's mannerisms than he did studying, so well did he imitate him. Milburn Doss was Mr. Jones and Frank Welch was Mr. Hamilton. Fannie Farmer as Miss Ellis was dressed like her and talked like her and even looked like her, so Miss Ellis may be sure she has made an impression upon one person. Bruce Aycock was Dr. Phenix and again the imitation was almost the real thing and Dr. Phenix surely wrote his speech. The programs were dainty pennant shaped booklets in white and lavender with C. H. S. on the outside and tied with lavender ribbon.

The program opened with an address by Supt. Worth W. Hart, otherwise Earl Calloway. He refused his speech for publication but we are sure it contained much that would have been valuable to the public.

Salutatory "Spring" Miss Ethel Pritchett; this was given by Jessie Person. Flora Simpson stated very plainly the importance of a freshman. Class poem, "An Ode" Robert Shepherd, was given by Homer Simpson and is also worthy a place in the paper but the authors were so modest they refuse to allow their articles to appear in print.

Essay, "Every Cloud has a Silver Lining" Nora Blandford, by Iala Tilley Music, "My Darling" Lela Whipkey by Eula Campbell. Essay, "Stonewall Jackson," Everett Lyon, by Lee Welch. Essay, Phillips, by Clinton Smith. Recitation, "Success," Ollie Pritchett, by Lala Farmer. Class Prophecy, "Ten years hence," Mable Smith, by Grace Williams; this was indeed rich. Valedictory, "The Milestones of Life," Miss Lena Key, by Annie Gardner.

As each finished their stunt a wreath of flowers was presented by the flower girl, Irene Whipkey. These wreaths might be called immortelles as they were all artificial flowers.

The diplomas were presented to each in a few well chosen words by Bruce Aycock alias Dr. Phenix. A chorus by the class closed the program and for once the seniors saw themselves as the juniors viewed them. This was one of the most original and entertaining affairs ever given by the school and the credit and success of it is due largely to Miss Ellis. All the high school teachers were present and really enjoyed the delineation of themselves. Yellow and white cake and cream was served, carrying out the school colors. The refreshments were quite as good as the program and all was excellent.

Gave a Luncheon.

Mrs. B. H. Dimmitt gave a luncheon at the Alceve last Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lil Dimmitt, following attendance at the moving picture show at the Dixie. The personnel of the party was as follows: Misses Mabel Taylor, Gladys Lockett, Gene Daugherty, Florrie Root, Louise Belford, Sommer Bunell of Taylor, Bess Carothers, Viva Dever, Gladys Snyder, Fay Tinnin, Velma Tisdale, Katie B. Stone and Mesdames Lil Dimmitt, Henry Price, W. T. Jones, L. J. Roundtree, C. L. Hart, Ryland Young of Austin and the hostess.

This is our Miss Lola Vaughan in her-home at Georgetown. Nearly all the personnel of the party is well known to the Record editor and they are the Elite of Georgetown.

Mrs. Gustine was hostess for the Bay View Club last Friday. She had as her guests for the social hour Mesdames Hutchinson, Lasseter, Pierce Shaw, Swan and A. L. Whipkey. Miss Swan and Mrs. Moar entertained the ladies by singing several old time Southern songs. Mrs. Gustine then served refreshments of pimento salad, wafers, pickles, coffee, jelly with whipped cream and cake in quite a hospitable old time Southern style. Everyone enjoyed the evening so much that the shadows were lengthening before the cares of home entered their minds.

The Baptist Ladies Aid has decided to feed the orphans at Buckner's Orphan Home on Sunday, June 25th, and in order to do this they will need the co-operation of every lady member of the church. Won't you who read this come in the name of your little children that God in his goodness has allowed you to be with and care for, come up and help feed them just one day. It will take one hundred dollars to feed the seven hundred there. Give what you can, let it be ever so little, to the treasurer before that time. We know times are hard but the children are asking for bread. Will we give them a stone?

The Hesperian Club enjoyed a profitable meeting Friday with Mrs. Ratliff. The lesson was conducted by Mrs. Broadus, papers being given by Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Doss, Mrs. Majors and Mrs. Merritt. The lessons of the play just finished were thoroughly discussed. An open Easter meeting will be held Friday at the home of Mrs. Hart, she, Mrs. Payne the Misses Dry and Mrs. Merritt being the hostesses. The program follows: Roll call, an Easter thought, Mothers' day, "God could not be everywhere so he made mothers." Song, Mothers' Hands, Mrs. Hazard. Aim of National Congress of Mothers, Mrs. Merritt. Duties and responsibilities of mothers in the home and school, Mrs. Brennan. Effects of Heredity on character, Mrs. Broadus. The influence of environment, Reading a word to men, Mrs. Elliott. Piano solo, Miss Stoneroad.

The Auxillary of the C. W. B. M. met Thursday with Mrs. Broadus holding a very instructive meeting. The subject being a study of the Southern Negro. Mrs. Broadus had as her guests Mesdames Ratliff, Jack, Sprull Lasky and Sparks. Mrs. Majors gave a beautiful musical selection. Mrs. Jefferies suggested that the various aids and clubs of the city arrange a rest room for the mothers from the country. She offered to contribute liberally to this and in every way help to make it a success. This is a matter of great importance and we believe all the business men will gladly aid the ladies should they take up this work. Before the meeting adjourned, light refreshments were served by the hostess.

The U. D. C's met Monday with Mrs. Crockett with a large crowd in attendance. A great many letters and papers were read by the secretary. It was decided to donate the amount which has been given annually to the Confederate Woman's Home to a U. D. C. scholarship. It was also decided to observe Decoration Day and a committee composed of Mrs. Looney, Mrs. Snyder and Miss Dry appointed to arrange for it. Mrs. Gustine gave some very interesting reminiscences of war times. Both Miss Ella and Miss Jo Dry read pretty little poems. A discussion upon why we should teach our children the history of Dixie was thoroughly discussed. A paper upon the battle of Shiloh was read. During the social hour delicious croquettes, salad, coffee and crackers was served. Mrs. Arbutnot and Miss Swan were welcome visitors. The May meeting is with Mrs. W. L. Doss.

Shubert Symphony Club.

Through the efforts of Messrs. Hart and Jones of the Colorado Public Schools, negotiations are under way for a performance in our city on April 26th, by that pleasing musical organization, the Shubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette of Chicago. Many of our readers have heard this popular company and no doubt everyone knows of the high favor in which its eight years of success has placed it. The great variety of this company's program has endeared it to the hearts of American music lovers, until today it stands undoubtedly first in their affections. Their new program is said to be the best they have ever presented and their house will be large here if they are secured for an entertainment. This entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Colorado City Schools. Twenty-five per cent of the proceeds will go to them, and for the purpose of equipping the Department of Science.

The P. M. G. met with Miss Mary Lyons Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. The program being finished the minutes were read, the roll was called and each one answered by telling about one of Elijah or Elisha's miracles. Miss Vada Terry will entertain next time.

On Tuesday afternoon the Sewing Circle of the W. O. W. "showered" Mrs. John Vaughan most substantially not because she was a bride or going to be one but in honor of the new home which is so pretty and dainty. The ladies came in unexpectedly with all sorts of pretty things, an elegant rug being the nicest. There were pictures, linen, glass and china. The guests also brought any quantity of cake and made coffee and refreshments were speedily served. This was all very much enjoyed by each lady especially Mrs. Vaughan.

Judge and Mrs. J. L. Shepherd have received an invitation to the unveiling of the Sam Houston monument at Huntsville, April 21. Bryan is to make one of the speeches and will be entertained by Mrs. Shepherd's sister, Mrs. J. R. King. This will be one of the most beautiful monuments in Texas and was erected through the efforts of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas. The state gave $10,000 and the city of Houston $2,000, making the $12,000 which the monument cost. Huntsville was Sam Houston's old home and he is buried there. An interesting thing is the fact that Bryan is the grand-nephew of William Jennings, grandfather of Mrs. Shepherd, and it is certainly fitting that he should make the speech on San Jacinto day on one of Texas' greatest heroes at the home town of one of his own ancestors and be entertained by a relative.

Friday evening Mrs. Lyon entertained the Junior League with a party the victorious side in the red and blue contest being the blues, who were entertained by the defeated reds. Each Leaguer was allowed to invite a guest, so a large crowd was present and all enjoyed the evening very much. Games were played and at the close of the evening delicious ice cream and cake was served. This surely did taste good to the blues and was quite as good to the reds even if they did have to provide it. Mrs. Lyon has created quite a great interest in the League work and has gotten a large number of children interested.

T. J. Kelly Dead at Loraine.

Another sad death has caused a pall of sorrow to fall over our city. Last Saturday when it became known that T. J. Kelley was seriously sick, everyone was visibly affected by the sad news. Mr. Kelley had been feeling bad for several days, but thought little of it, until Saturday when it was announced that he had appendicitis. All that medical skill could do was done, all that loyal friends could do was graciously ministered. He was too weak to stand an operation and all other treatments proved inadequate. The end came at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning. While he suffered great pain the last two days of his illness, he was rational almost to the last.

The deceased was a native of Michigan. He moved to Texas about twenty years ago and was station agent for the Texas & Pacific Railway Co. at Thurber until about two years ago when he was transferred to this city to a similar position. He was sixty eight years old and remarkably well preserved for his age. He was a man who had that knack of making friends with all and it is the general sentiment that his place at the depot will be hard to fill. With the various and at times perplexing duties which the station agent daily encounters, few men would have at all times been as genial and accommodating as was the deceased.

Mr. Kelley leaves a wife, two sons and three daughters to mourn his death. Joe Kelley, the older boy lives in Merkel. Theo lives here. Mrs. Annie Burke of Fort Worth and Mrs. Isabelle Rhodes and Louise Kelley of this city.

The funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, and a large number of sorrowing friends followed the remains to their last resting place in the Loraine cemetery.

To the bereaved family, the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community goes forth in the extension of unfeigned condolence to them in this, the saddest hour in a home.

The funeral services were held from the Methodist church of which Mr. Kelley was a member. The services were in charge of the Masonic Lodge. Many Masons from Colorado were in attendance, among whom were: J. A. Buchanan, F. B. Whipkey, J. H. Houston, W. W. Porter, G. B. Coughran, J. R. Shepherd and C. K. Vaughn.

Notice by Publication of Final Account, The State of Texas.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County—Greeting:

Mrs. Louise A. Bailey, Guardian, of the Estate of A. A. Bailey, having filed in our County Court her Final Account of the condition of the Estate of said A. A. Bailey together with an application to be discharged from said Guardianship.

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, That by publication of this Writ for Twenty days successively in a Newspaper regularly published in the County of Mitchell you give due notice to all persons interested in the Account for Final Settlement of said Estate, to file their objections thereto, if any they have, on or before the April Term, 1911, of said County Court, commencing and to be holden at the Court House of said County, in the City of Colorado on the Third Monday in April A. D. 1911, when said Account and Application will be considered by said Court.

Witness Jesse H. Bullock, Clerk of the County Court of Mitchell County. Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at my office, in the City of Colorado, this 23rd day of March, A. D. 1911.

JESSE H. BULLOCK,
Clerk C. C. Mitchell Co.
A true copy. I certify:
G. B. COUGHRAN,
Sheriff Mitchell County.

Deputy Sheriff.

A Challenge.

I. C. Dupree is putting in 250 acres of cotton on his ranch. He challenges all Sterling county to put up a man who will harvest more cotton off of ten acres than he. Here is a chance for some man to get action on his wealth for Dupree means it. Who will call his hand? Irrigated land not challenged.

Mr. Dupree is also an enthusiast on watermelons. He can eat watermelons from sup-up to sun-down and quote poetry about the sweet, sweet things between slices, and to show his faith, he will devote ten acres to melons alone. Abe Gamble the coming cold storage man, has his weather eye on this melon patch.—Sterling City Record.

LARDLESS COOKERY.

Horseless carriages, wireless telegraphy, and now lardless cookery! Lard has one fatal objection—it is indigestible. Nine-tenths of the indigestion with which the American nation is afflicted is due to the use of pork and its by-product—lard.

Recognizing this, The N. K. Fairbank Company, has placed on the market Cottolene, which can be used for cooking purposes in every way that lard or butter can, and which makes delicious, digestible and nourishing food. It is recommended by physicians, even to invalids, and it is cheaper than lard, one-third less being required.

The Record had announced the Socialist speaking of Stanley J. Clark on Saturday April 15th but this week the following letter was received:

Hallettsville, Texas, April 4, 1911.
Mr. J. L. Cox, Colorado, Texas.

Dear Comrade:—Owing to a debate with Hamilton at Weatherford, Stanley J. Clark's date at Colorado is postponed until Saturday April 22. He will arrive at 9:45 a. m. Saturday. Sorry to inconvenience you but the change was unavoidable.

Yours fraternally,
E. R. Meltzen,
State Secretary, S. P.

THE PHILOSOPHER AND THE FROG

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Dr. Safford, for many years professor of chemistry in the Medical College of the University of Nashville, used to tell his students a fable—the moral of which was "prove it." Certain wise men were gathered together to ascertain the explanation of a statement that when two glasses of water of equal weight are balanced on the beams of a balance scale and a frog is then put in one of the vessels the balance remains the same, thus attempting to prove the assertion that a frog has no weight when immersed in water. Each wise man had his own explanation, and there was much heated argument and discussion. At length one of the wise men said: "But is your statement true? Let's prove it." Of course when it came to proving it, they couldn't.

So when you hear people say that Coca-Cola is injurious, just ask them to prove it. They can't. Nobody can, because it is not injurious. But on the other hand it can be proven that it is not injurious by chemical analysis. Or if you are not a chemist yourself, why not accept the verdict of every competent chemist who ever analyzed it? Eminent College and University Chemists, Commercial Chemists, Government, State and City Chemists—all have analyzed Coca-Cola and not one has ever been able to find anything injurious in it. The very next time you hear anyone say that Coca-Cola contains deleterious ingredients tell him to write the Coca-Cola Co., Atlanta, Ga., for a free copy of their booklet, "The Truth About Coca-Cola." In the meantime write for a copy for yourself—you will find it very interesting.

County Singing Convention.

The Mitchell County Singing Convention will meet in Colorado on the first Sunday in May it being the 7th of the month. Some two or three hundred people from all over the county will be here on that day and Colorado must get busy to entertain them and meet with them and make the convention a success. The tabernacle will be used and dinner spread on the round in the court house yard. Every family in Colorado who does not prepare dinner for the grounds should fix dinner at home and take one or two families home with them.

The Plan of Numbering.

As adopted by the city of Philadelphia system of 100 to each block with a number for each 25 feet of street frontage in the business district and a number for each 50 feet in the residential portion regardless of size or shape of lot. The even numbers will be found on the right and the odd numbers on the left from the base of the different streets. Elm street running north and south on which the fire station is located to be the base for all streets running east and west and the T. & P. Ry. right of way the dividing line for streets running north and south.

Property holders will understand that the price of the number is so small that we would be pleased to get a decisive answer in regard to same when we call.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It is for ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Residents of this vicinity are constantly testifying to permanent cures.

Cottolene

Brings the sunshine of the south to your home

Cottolene is a vegetable product—made from the choicest cotton oil. Its source is the cotton fields of the Sunny South. From Cottonfield to Kitchen human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made.

Compare the source of Cottolene with the source of lard—hog-fat—and you'll cease to wonder why lard-cooked food throws the stomach out of kilter and causes indigestion.

Cottolene is of absolutely pure origin and ancestry, and will make palatable, digestible, healthful food.

Use Cottolene fairly—note the beneficial effect of food on the family's digestion—and you'll have a pound of lard in your kitchen again.

Made only by the N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed

Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

"Nature's Gift from the South"

Never Sold in Bulk
Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top, to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

There is more catarrh of the nose of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a head disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They sell one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
