FIRST SERMON IN COLORADO.

Preached by the Aged Minister "Parson" Rogers, Who Died Some Time Ago.

Some weeks ago, upon the death of an aged minister in this county, it was published in the Record that he had the distinction of preaching the first sermon delivered in the town of Colorado. This statement was doubted by some and disputed by others; hence, the following article from the columns of the El Paso Times, written by Haec McEachin, who for several years conducted the Stockman at this place, will throw more light on the question:

"The first dispensation of the gospel ever witnessed in the beautiful and thriving little city of Colorado, Texas, was handed out to a cowboy audience in a saloon, and the man of God who delivered the exhortation to his hearers to lead better and purer lives, was a Presbyterian 'parson,' who at that time was making his home in a dugout—a hole excavated in the side of a hill on the banks of historic Lone Wolf creek.

"Parson" Rogers, as he was called by not only the cowboys but all others who knew him in those early days—in the early eighties—was a rugged pioneer Presbyterian preacher whose call to duty kept him continually on the front. Absolutely fearless, nothing had any terrors for him when on a mission of dispensing the gospel, and as the gospel in those days did not command even the niggardly financial recognition attached in so many instances of the present day, "Parson" Rogers was compelled to labor with his hands at whatever he could find to do in order to provide for the little brood of Rogerses that adorned his humble dugout home.

Soon after his arrival in Colorado and while he was upon the main street of the embryo city in which there was not one single church building, he was approached by John Birdwell, proprietor of the leading saloon, and invited around to his place, which was at that time the most popular resort in the city.

"Come around, Parson, and get acquainted with the boys. You will find them all there," said Birdwell.

"I could have but one incentive to make such a visit," replied the "Parson," "and that would be to carry the message of God's holy word."

"Come on with your message," said Birdwell.

The result was that the invitation was instantly accepted, the preacher following the saloon proprietor around to the saloon, where explanations were soon made, the bar and its accessories were quickly covered with white wagon sheets, the proprietor announced that "Parson" Rogers had a message to deliver to all present, that during the delivery of this message there would be a total cessation of all business in that establishment and that the proprietors of the occasion demanded that every man should pay strict attention and conduct himself as a gentleman.

It was a stirring message that Parson Rogers delivered to that bunch of wild and woolly cowpunchers upon that memorable occasion. He pointed out to the young men present the dangers and temptations surrounding them in that new country, the fact that they were nearly always face to face with death and exhorted them to ever bear in vivid remembrance those principles that had been instilled in their hearts in their distant homes. He played upon the emotions of his hearers until in a short time the Birdwell saloon resembled an old-fashioned camp meeting, and when he brought his efforts to a close, those sturdy men of the cattle ranges pressed coisely about him, grasped his hand and thanked him for all he had said to them. The hat was passed around and a substantial sum presented to the "Parson" in further token of appreciation of the first sermon delivered in Colorado, and that is the way the gospel first came to the City of Colorado.

"Parson" Rogers, the man who thus delivered the first sermon ever heard in Colorado, Texas, was the father of T. H. Rogers, a well known business man of El Paso, and while this noble old pioneer preacher of West Texas has passed to his eternal reward, his memory is yet revered throughout the section of his operations for the good he accomplished in the Master's cause. The experience of "Parson" Rogers in West Texas is but a repetition of many similar events in the great southwest and serves to recall the story of how the gospel was brought to a portion of the present new state of New Mexico.

"Parson" Rodgers was the father of Mrs. Jas. W. Smith and Miss Claudia Rodgers, now living in Colorado, and was one of the first teachers the editor of the Record had at Oxford, Miss. He was more generally known as Professor than Parson at that time. He was indeed one of God's Noble-men.

BAD CASE OF GRIP

Caused Sore Throat and Tonsillitis. Restored by Peruna.

Mr. W. H. Housley, Greenville, Tennessee, writes:

"Five years ago I took a very severe cold—which resulted in la grippe. I never was so bad off. I was in bed several weeks, and when I did get up I had tonsillitis and sore throat.

"I tried to cure this for eighteen months, but it gradually got worse. A doctor advised me to have my tonsils cut out, but I did not like the idea. Another doctor examined me, and told me the same thing. I finally got a bottle of Peruna, and after I had taken one bottle my throat was better. I bought and used a dozen bottles, and saw I was going to get well, and I did."

AMUSEMENTS. On Monday, March 11th, at the opera house, there will appear Pixley & Lauder's latest comedy song success "A Wife Wanted." This excellent comedy in three acts, written for the purpose of laughter only. The situations are bright, witty and farcical in nature, yet refined. This play is a decided novelty; not a dull line, a howl from start to finish. It is a good comedy song gem without a flaw. The singing is one of the features with this classy company. Benj. B. Bernard as Uncle Porter, the well-known character comedian, in this part has been a scream, and one of the hits of the season. With the many funny mix-ups and love affairs he always keeps his audience in one continual round of laughter. Frank Vardell as Charlie Pointer, who has been receiving an allowance from his uncle, by writing him that he is married, when in fact he is a single man. Fun is fast and furious when his uncle calls unexpectedly. Temple Preston as Dr. Harry Merry, the friend of Charlie Pointer, who helps him to deceive his uncle by loaning him his wife, and introduces her to the uncle as Charlie's wife. The many funny situations and complications are so extremely funny that the audience is in a convulsion of laughter; yet the atmosphere in dress, language and business is void of anything that borders on loud or broad suggestions. Harry Davenport as Get Swift, the messenger boy, is known as the "Emperor of Mirth" and lives up to his reputation as the comical messenger boy. Miss Francis Ellen Nolan as Mrs. Dr. Merry, the borrowed wife, is seen at her best, and is good for a laugh a minute. Her comedy and dramatic situations are snappy, verile and full of acting qualities. Mignon Vardel as Amy, is a charming young soubrette and in this role she is in her element and certainly deserves all the applause she receives. Nona Irene Russell, as Tiny the maid has been a great hit. The above are the principals in this high class comedy of comedians. Remember they will appear in our city one night only and that is Monday, March 11th.

HIDES! HIDES! All kinds of hides wanted—will pay highest market price for all the hides you bring. J. S. VAUGHAN. The Situation in a Nutshell. In one of those admirably illuminative dispatches which a staff correspondent is sending to us from El Paso occurs this exceptionally suggestive paragraph: "Rebel chieftains now in camp here are not eager for the arrival of any more leaders, strife and dissensions have already developed among the jealous Generals, Majors and Colonels, and every time a new chief arrives with his little band he insists on receiving an important command, with a high-sounding military title. If he does not get what he wants he threatens to withdraw to the hills again and continue his depredations on an independent basis. The principal industry in this part of Mexico at this time is said to be that of going on the war path and levying contributions." Columns have been written which have not given the tenth so much shrewd diagnosis of the current revolution in Mexico as is contained in these sixty or seventy words. Far be it from us to lampoon that noble discontent which would overthrow a bad government and set up a good one in its place; but these revolutionary projects, if they are to enjoy the support of our sympathy, must be reasonably free of such jealousies as are here depicted and devoid of covetousness. The present revolution is conspicuously lacking in both the qualities that are indispensable if it is to enjoy the sympathy of the American people and the qualities that are equally indispensable to success. It must be pretty evident that the defect of the Madero Government is not patriotism, but a certain ruthless vigor to visit summary punishment on those who are merely bandits.—Dallas News.

Cold in Chest and Throat. I use Hunt's Lightning Oil for colds rubbing it on my chest and throat as a counter irritant, and am so enthusiastic concerning its virtue, I always keep a bottle of it in my house. Mrs. Ida B. Judd, W. 8th St. N.Y. All druggists sell and recommend Hunt's Lightning Oil. 25c and 50c bottles.

From now on this will be the most dramatic campaign since the Lincoln-Douglas campaign in 1860 or the Blaine-Harrison in 1892. It means that the republican party cannot get together and bridge over their differences and that whether there is a third party ticket in the field or not they can never get together sufficiently to elect their candidate next fall. This means that any good democrat with a clean record and who is sane and safe and decent, will be elected to the Presidency next November.

RANCHMEN NOTICE. I have several parties who want to buy large tracts, or ranch property, for colonization purposes. These parties are in the east and have the money. Come in and list your ranch with me, I can sell it. I am sending out lots of literature and advertising in the eastern papers. List your ranches with me and let me advertise them. If I don't sell them it will not cost you a cent. Write for listing blanks, giving full description.—F. S. Keiper, Colorado, Texas. Ads show which way the trade goes.—Watch them.

Ice Factory Sold. Pursuant to legal notice published in the Record the past several weeks, the plant of the Colorado Ice and Creamery Company was sold "in front of the court house door to the highest and best bidder for cash" on last Tuesday afternoon. The indebtedness under which the plant was sold amounted to about $4,200 and was held by R. H. Looney. It was understood that the stockholders intended to see that the plant brought at least the amount of the indebtedness. Mr. F. M. Burns' bid of $5,500 being the highest and best for cash, the plant passed into his hands and ownership. Under the conditions now existing, there is no reason why it should not be made a paying industry, and the Record believes it will soon be put under the management of an experienced and competent man, who will have it in operation in time to supply the earliest demands for ice. Again: the creamery department of this enterprise has never had half a chance to be fairly tried out. Conditions since its establishment have been very adverse to its success. No creamery can survive where the dairy industry is not prosperous. Grass in this section the past two years has been very scarce, and few people have been able to keep cows only at an expense incommensurate with the profit. Milk has been exceedingly scarce, and those who had any amount for sale found it more profitable to sell directly to the consumer than take it to the creamery and get only what it was worth for the butter fat it contained. They did not regard the skimmed milk as worth taking back home and feeding to the hogs and poultry. These conditions militated greatly against the creamery. There are more cows in the community now than a year ago, and better cows, as well. The present conditions give promise of abundant grass which will solve the dairy question and give the creamery a chance to show what it is worth to the community. If every farmer would bring his milk to the creamery, if he has no separator of his own—have it separated, receive pay for the amount of fat it contains and take the skim milk home for his pigs and poultry, he would not only find that such a regular market for his milk paid better than an irregular one at fluctuating prices and demand, but would materially aid in building up a useful and important industry in the community.

"He died of Bright's Disease." Hardly a week passes that this statement is not made in reference to some prominent citizen. The increasing prevalence of this disease makes the present time seem most opportune for discussion in the hope that some who are unconsciously afflicted with this dreaded disease may receive timely warning. A prominent citizen residing in a nearby town informs us that he suffered for nearly a year from Bright's Disease, but that he recently affected a complete cure. "What seemed to be the first indications of the trouble," was asked. "They seemed hardly worth noticing. My digestion bothered me at times, my stomach seemed out of order, and I had occasional backaches, but I thought it was due to too much work." "Did you take anything?" "I did not. Later, my strength failed me, I had severe pains in the back and noticed some irregularities of the urine, I couldn't sleep well at night. I then used some simple remedies, but without benefit." "Did you realize that your trouble was Bright's Disease?" "I never thought of such a thing. Finally, my condition became serious. My back ached all the time, I had shooting pains in my joints and a weak tired feeling at the knees, a little work played me out completely. I then began doctoring for kidney trouble but did not improve very much." "Did you have any trouble with your heart?" "Yes. I had spells of heart throbbing and a nervous faint feeling. I thought I had heart disease and treated awhile for that. Nothing seemed to help me. I had to give up trying to work." "How did you affect a cure?" "A friend of mine persuaded me to try Prickly Ash Bitters. I bought a bottle of my druggist. After taking it a week I began to feel some better, my urine became more natural and there was a gradual lessening of my misery. I kept on taking Prickly Ash Bitters for several weeks and I could feel my strength returning—slowly at first—but increasing daily. I am now entirely cured of my trouble and able to do a full day's work without the least fatigue. I consider Prickly Ash Bitters the greatest kidney medicine in the world." Thousands of people attest in like manner to the wonderful benefit derived from Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a time tried and successful remedy for Bright's Disease or any disorder of the kidneys. Prickly Ash Bitters is in every sense a system tonic and regulator. It possesses important properties for curing ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels in addition to its great power in the kidneys. It is a valuable article to keep at home, where a dose or two can be taken whenever needed. When used for any disorder in the kidneys, stomach, liver or bowels it is the right medicine in the right place. Get the genuine with the figure "3" in red on front label. Sold by druggists. Price $1.00.

Editor W. T. Mullin received this week an appointment from Governor O. B. Colquitt to represent the State of Texas at the Southern Sociological Congress to be held at Nashville, Tenn., May 7th to 10th. He appreciates this honor, coming as it does unexpected and unsolicited.

Guy McBurnett of Roscoe spent last Sunday here the guest of Marvin and Floyd Thomas.

Allen H. Nelson and wife of the Champion community spent last Sunday here visiting relatives. Allen says he has a hot job pounding iron these days.

Miss Emma Gandy from Silver was here Saturday and Sunday visiting the home folks.

Miss Eva Terry visited home folks in Colorado last Saturday and Sunday.

Base Ball.

The first ball game of the season was played on the local diamond here between Lorainé school boys and the Colorado school boys. Despite the fact that a majority of the players were still of the knee pants age, there were many clever plays made by both sides, and considerable talent displayed, which needs only the proper development.

At the beginning of the eighth inning the Lorainé team led by a score of 13 to 3, but the Colorado team at this point took on new life and rolled up four more scores, holding the Lorainé boys down to one. The game closed 14 to 7 in favor of Lorainé.

Entertained.

Misses Ethel and Daphna Thomas entertained quite a number of their friends on last Sunday at the home of their parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas. Amid the shining silver and china a most delicious dinner was served, which was pleasing to anyone's appetite. Among the guests present were Mrs. McBurnett and Mrs. Florence Cannon of Roscoe. Mr. J. R. Wilson, Misses Mary and Maggie Wilson and Mr. Anton White of Dunn. Mr. Hooker of Colorado, John Land of Palestine, E. J. Callaway and Vera Thomas of Buford; Myrtle Hays, Cora Nelson and Andrew Smith. The merry company spent quite a pleasant afternoon on Lone Wolf mountain, kodaking.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.

E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20"---Two Cars that Have Both Power and Strength to Enter Any Contest at Any Time. TRY THEM. Put Us to Any Test. We Are Willing

It needs a real event to startle Phoenix, Ariz., but Phoenix was genuinely shaken up the other day when the Arizona Motor Car Company parade passed down the main-traveled highway. A Flanders "20" preceded, drawing a truck, on which stood two big draught horses, with five men to keep them quiet. To the rear of the truck was attached a wagon in which rode the thirty members of the U. S. Indian school band, discoursing sweetly.

All Phoenix stood and marveled.

The aggregate weight pulled by the automobile was eight and a half tons. Neither the strains of the pull nor those of the band appeared to affect in any way the quiet, business like fashion in which the car lugged the procession along—over cross-walks and through mudholes.

Among the "thrillers" which will be seen on the state fair circuit of 1912 will be at least two portable automobile motordromes on which motor cars will race at top speed in the attitude of files on the wall. Both promoters expect to use Flanders "20" cars for their acts which require the maximum combination of speed, lightness, easy handling and reliability.

HOG RAISING IN EAST TEXAS

What D. C. Earnest Did With Hogs As a Side Line.

The following interesting story illustrating the possibilities of hog raising in Texas, is taken from the Dallas Times Herald. It proves beyond question that hog raising in Texas will pay and pay big.

"The Times Herald has received during the past few days a number of volunteer testimonials of the productiveness of east Texas, following the victories of young and old farmers of that section in the Texas Industrial congress competition. One of them does not come from a farmer at all, but a Dallas business man, who gives us some remarkable and startling figures on hog raising.

Mr. D. C. Earnest, president of the Consumers' Lignite Company, has a large tract of land in the vicinity of his lignite mines around Alba and Hoyt. He decided that it would be good business policy to raise a few hogs on this land, a part of which was timbered and produced mast. Mr. Earnest bought $275 worth of hogs two years ago. The hogs followed the mine mules and picked up grain. They became fat and flourishing on the mast in the woods. The porkers were so contented that they settled down on Mr. Earnest's property and began raising families. What was the result of this investment in pork?

Last week the Dallas business man who started in the hog culture business "on the side" sold $629 worth of his stock. He will sell $1,000 worth more, and still have $1,000 worth of hogs left, and Mr. Earnest started with $275 two years ago!

What a Dallas business man did as a side issue can be emulated by thousands of farmers in east Texas. It is the section of Texas where hogs can be most successfully raised. Our east Texas farmers should heed the appeal of the great packing houses to raise more hogs. They should also remember the slogan of the east Texas association—"Back to the Smoke-House."

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Colorado People Know How to Save It.

Many Colorado people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has cured thousands of kidney sufferers.

The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

R. C. Murphy, farmer, Snyder, Texas, says:

"I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney trouble, as they cured me some years ago and since then I have had no cause for complaint. I had weak kidneys and was obliged to get up often at night. My back also ached. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I procured a box and they quickly and permanently cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no others.

The Same Old Way.

Our farming has not kept up with our manufacturing and merchandising. We still farm in Texas and in almost every other American State pretty much as our grandfathers did. We have better tools, but our ideas of fertilization, seed selection, experimentation, soil analysis, rotation, diversification and cultivation are not much advanced. We see foreigners coming to our shores every year without money and without knowledge of our language, without experience in growing our crops and without proper implements to work with, and who yet rapidly beat us at our own game. They quickly demonstrate their superiority as farmers, and soon they own choice farms, which they constantly make better instead of worse. While the German farmer is thriving on his sixty acres, constantly adding to his farm's fertility and to his bank account, the American farmer on the other side of the fence is more than apt to be going down hill and to be impoverishing his hundred or two hundred acres and inculcating in his children a hatred of farm life. It is these conditions that the National and State Agricultural Departments and the agricultural schools and the great public organizations like the Texas Industrial Congress are endeavoring to remedy. The press of Texas can engage in no worthier work than that of lending its aid to the promotion of agricultural progress. The hope of the Nation is in its farms, and if they fail everything else will fail. If they thrive, all other industries will thrive. —State Press, Dallas News.

You insure your Life—
Why not insure your Health by using Cottolene?

It isn't the quantity of food you eat, but that portion of it that digests that brings health and strength.

Lard-soaked food never has been, never can be digestible and nourishing, because of the hog fat it contains.

Cottolene is far more healthful than lard because Cottolene is a vegetable product, makes food rich without being greasy, and can easily be digested by the stomach of a child.

They say the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. People who have used and are using Cottolene for all shortening and frying purposes say that the way to health is through the use of Cottolene.

Cottolene is the most economical shortening, because it goes one-third farther than butter or lard.

Petty Vandallism.

Tearing down signs and candidate cards is a petty species of vandalism, that surely, no one but thoughtless boys will commit. It costs money to have signs painted and put up along the public highways and it costs just as good money to have candidate or any other kind of cards printed and distributed, and every citizen has the right to post such signs and cards fully confident they will not be molested. When you tear down these cards and signs, you are not only nullifying the work of some one, but setting a precedent for the destruction of something more valuable. There is a principle in this that affects the security of the property of every citizen of the community. This paragraph is suggested by the fact that the cards of some of the candidates tacked along the streets and highways, are being torn down almost as fast as they are tacked up. Stop it, boys; you may run for office some day yourself.

Texas Independence Day Tea.

The Baptist ladies planned a tea for Saturday with Mrs. Pierce, deciding to show their patriotism by observing Texas Independence Day. Saturday Mrs. Pierce was sick, so the tea was moved to Mrs. Justice's and everyone notified of the change. A large crowd gathered and while enjoying a pleasant social visit were served with delicious salad, sandwiches, crackers, pickles, hot coffee, and a pretty little hand painted Texas flag, most artistic and dainty. The coffee was donated by the Colorado Mercantile Co. and was the always delicious Chase and Sanborn. The flags were painted by Miss Irene Whipkey. Everyone enjoyed the social feature of the occasion and the delicious refreshments as well. All were invited to the Baptist ladies' week of prayer which is being held this week at the church. The tea was a success financially as well as a most pleasant affair.

THIS STORE WON'T GUARANTEE CALOMEL.

But We Have a Liver Medicine That We Do Guarantee With Money Back Offer.

The next time you think you need a dose of calomel, don't take it. Even if you have taken it often before, this might be the very dose that would salivate you. Its use is sometimes followed by dangerous after-effects. If you are constipated or bilious or if your liver has gotten lazy and inactive two or three doses of Dodson's Liver Tone, pleasant tasted vegetable liquid, will "make you feel like new."

We would not recommend Dodson's Liver-Tone in place of calomel if we were not willing to fully guarantee it. So anybody who buys a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone at Floyd Beall's drug store and does not find it a perfect substitute for calomel may come into the store any day and get his or her money back.

It has absolutely no bad after effects and is harmless for children as well as grown-ups.

We have for sale, Typewriter ribbons for all machines. Guaranteed to be the best at only 75 cents.

Texas Needs Great Men

XXIV. WEAKNESS

KING HEROD was so well pleased with the dancing of his daughter, Salome, that he offered her half his Kingdom and one of the saddest tragedies in Christendom followed, and his throne toppled and fell. The people of today are oftentimes so well pleased with the vaudeville performance of politicians and the Salome dances of party leaders that they give them the whole of their kingdom, and as a result industries crash, commerce crumbles and pandemonium reigns supreme and the land becomes flooded with "isms" and legislative cure-alls, when the trouble lies in weak leadership. No country can become stronger than its leaders and weak leaders are the pall bearers of prosperity.

SALOME DANCING BEFORE KING HEROD.

Let that people take heed whose leaders are under the grip of impulses and whose characters sicker like a wild flame, lest they become overpowered by the knockout drops of human weakness; their influence belt the State like a temptation, and their precedent stalk over the land like a pestilence. Texas Needs Great Men.
