PETER RADFORD'S PLEA FOR CHEAPER MONEY ENDORSED.

Head of Farmers' Union Wins Cooperation in His Advocacy of a Greater Volume of Currency and Lower Rate of Interest.

The letters of Peter Radford, President of the Texas Farmers' Union, in advocacy of lower rates of interest and a greater volume of money to meet the requirements of borrowers in this state, are attracting general attention as it is universally acknowledged that development of the resources of the state is being retarded through burdensome interest charges and lack of sufficient money.

In this connection the following letter has been addressed to Mr. Radford showing the writer's views as to be the best plan to bring cheaper money in plentiful supply to the state. Bishop, Tex., June 24, 1913.—Mr. Peter Radford, President Farmers' Union, Fort Worth, Texas.—Dear Sir: I note your articles in the papers of the state advocating cheaper money, the abolition of the crop mortgage and better marketing facilities to dispose of Texas' abundant crops. I enclose copies of three articles recently written by me and widely circulated through the press concerning the need of cheaper money in the state to promote more rapid and substantial development, to encourage home buying and home building under circumstances that will leave the man who buys land for a farm a margin for improvement of his land.

You say, and say correctly, that the volume of money in Texas is far too small for the demands of the growing farm and other industries of the state. You say it is a question for the bankers.

I say it is a question for the governor and the legislators to consider and take action for the people of the state to get money at a lower rate of interest. The articles enclosed show how this may be done without the least prejudice to or impairment of the investments made by Texas companies in the way of loans on farm or other lands.

Ernest Robertson insurance law drove Westola to state the great life insurance Sunday companies with their several Mrs. Co. of dollars of assets, just at a week when these companies, having awakened to a realization of the value of Texas land securities, had begun to lend money at five per cent on real estate securities here. A slight modification of the original Robertson statute was made, which it was contended would eliminate the drain of this feature and induce the big companies to return and do business in Texas. That modification was that the companies doing business in this state should invest at three-fourths of the reserve from their Texas policies in real estate securities in this state.

This has not proved an inducement to the great companies, the assets of three of which exceed a billion dollars, not because they object to lending liberally of the high class securities to be had in Texas, but because the compulsory feature of the law in all human probability would be followed by other states where rates of interest already are lower by far in Texas, and where, in many cases, the character of the securities is not of the high standard found in this state.

My contention is that if the compulsory feature of the present law is replaced by a tax graduated according to the amount of loans made in the land securities to be had in Texas, the amount of investments made by the companies now not doing any business in the state, will exceed the compulsory three-fourths of their Texas reserves, yes they will exceed 100 per cent, and go even to 500 per cent, for the reason that Texas offers the best field for investment and the companies referred to are ever eager to extend the scope of their investments.

Such a graduated tax, you will note, is described in the articles sent you. The amount of tax is fixed at five per cent upon companies which make no loans on Texas securities; four per cent if their loans amount to 25 per cent of their Texas reserves, three per cent of loans to amount of fifty per cent are so made; two per cent on loans of 75 per cent and one and one-half per cent of their Texas reserves.

Such a change in the present law would make the question of lending their money in Texas a voluntary one with the life companies and would not be an invitation to other states where securities may be less inviting to pass laws demanding a fixed per cent of investments from the reserves of the respective states.

It is believed that a graduated tax as described will result in the return of the largest and strongest of the life companies to the Texas field to write insurance and to seek safe investments. Interest rates will drop, the idle lands of the state will be developed and made productive, new towns will spring up, farms will be bought and riches will be added to the values of property of all classes. Population, likewise, will increase and Texas will make strides forward in agriculture, manufacturing and commerce such as have not been seen in her previous history.

This plan of opening a way for the return of this great volume of companies to Texas offers no menace to all investments made here by Texas or other investment concerns. It is in your communication not money enough in Texas to meet requirements. That is true, as every banker and money lender must and will admit. Being so, what stands in the way of Texas investors making all the loans they can furnish money for, and at even better rates than the outside companies make. The field for investment practically is unlimited and capital, whether from within or without, the state will easily find borrowers who are ready to pay reasonable interest and use the money for the improvement of the rich lands now lying idle because the price of money under present conditions imposes too heavy a burden upon those eager to aid the advancement of their state.

I submit that the plan here outlined will open the way for capital to be had at reasonable rates for the upbuilding of the farming and other industries of Texas, and you are invited to give your views on the proposition for the benefit of the people of the entire state, especially for the edification of thousands of thrifty and industrious members of your organization, who will be the chief beneficiaries of cheaper money, and who will be the principal contributors to the prosperity and enhancement of land values that will follow its introduction into the state.

I and all loyal Texans will heartily co-operate with you in your efforts for the improvement of financial and industrial conditions and assure you of hearty support toward that splendid consummation.

Feeling certain of your favorable consideration and with personal good wishes I am,

Very truly yours,
JOHN R. LUNSFORD.

RUMORED T. & P. SHOPS BE MOVED TO BIG SPRINGS

Big Springs, Tex., July 7.—It is rumored here that the Texas & Pacific shops will be moved from Fort Worth to this place. Road officials refuse either to deny or confirm it, but the rumor is generally credited.

Officials Won't Say. Big Spring, July 7.—Texas & Pacific railroad officials here today refused to confirm or deny a report that the Fort Worth shops of that road would be moved to this city. Business men here generally said they thought the report true.

Everman Denies Report. Marshall, July 7.—J. W. Everman, general superintendent of the Texas & Pacific railway, emphatically denies reports that the Fort Worth shops will be moved to Big Springs.

It is much easier to understand where the money comes from to carry on the campaign against the senate joint resolution No. 38, than where it comes from to support the campaign for it. The alumni and friends of the A. & M. College do not hesitate to put up the money to save their alma mater. But we can not figure out any such disinterested friendship and loyalty on the other side. Somebody has something to gain by the adoption of this amendment. The opportunity and temptation for graft would be multiplied many times. The lobbyist and the corruptionist would ask nothing better than to give the legislature sole power to contract debts and issue bonds.

WILL NOT RENEW THE TREATY WITH MEXICO

Washington, July 1.—The special arbitration treaty between the United States and Mexico expired today, and no immediate steps will be taken toward renewing it. It had been Secretary Bryan's intention to propose renewal of all the twenty-odd such conventions as they expired, but this could not be done in the case of Mexico without recognition of the Huerta government. This, it was announced today the administration is not ready to grant.

OUR BALL TEAM STILL IN THE LEAD

WINS NINE OUT OF THIRTEEN GAMES PLAYED THIS SEASON

For An All-Local Team They Claim To Beat All Comers From West Texas.

The past week has been full of ball excitement for the fans.

On the Fourth the Clerks team of Colorado went to Big Springs and played the Clerks team at that place. Since their return we have not been able to get the boys to talk much about the game, but they gave us the impression that the Big Springs bunch wiped up the earth with them. They are sore—very sore—about it and are only waiting an opportunity to get the neighbor boys on their home diamond, where they say they will clean them a plenty.

On this same day the Colorado team answered an invitation from Loraine to come down and try them out. About fifty fans autoed down to see the game and root for the Colorado boys. The boys had a very good line up, with Preston Scott and Sam Wulfjen as the battery. Mr. Farrar acted as umpire. It looked like Loraine had the game going their way up to the fourth inning as they had 3 to 0. But after this the Colorado Hard Hitters batted their pitcher out of the box and made a race track. Loraine put in a new twirler but he couldn't twirl 'em by; while "Scotty" fanned them one-two-three. Loraine was shut out and the game closed with a score of 3-14 in favor of Colorado.

The fans of Colorado had been looking forward to the series of three games to be played with Merkel on the home diamond Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

On Monday the boys braced up, expecting a hard fought battle, Preston Scott and Wulfjen was the battery for Colorado, and Jacob, Mills and Smith for Merkel. Lee Jones umpired. The first inning Colorado hit them in fine shape. In the second the pitcher left the box for a better (?) one. But the home boys had gotten a good start and kept up the pace, rolling up a score of 15 against 6 for Merkel. "Scotty" did some fine work in the pitcher's box, as did Palmer as back stop. The Merkel boys were out of form they said, but would show them Tuesday what they could do.

Tuesday Cooper and Palmer were the battery for Colorado and Andrews and Brown for Merkel. Shropshire umpire. Cooper put 'em over so fast they couldn't see the ball—and how could they hit them? Palmer did some pretty pegging to second, stopping several steals by "out on second" from the umpire. This game was almost as bad as the first one, in the way of excitement for the fans. Colorado played a good smooth game, while Merkel seemed to be up in the air from the first. The score was, Colorado 12, Merkel 5.

Wednesday Merkel had imported a new Southpaw pitcher and he was a good one, Rose and Brown battery. Gage pitched for Colorado and Palmer was catcher, both of whom did fine work. This was one of the best games of the season. Both had a line of goose eggs up to the fifth inning, when Merkel walked in from third on a balk. In the seventh they scored again. In the eighth Colorado scored one, which left it in Merkel's favor by one score.

In the last half of the ninth Colorado went to the bat determined to do or die. Cooper got a safe hit to first, but went out in trying to steal second. Gage got a nice little hit and made the first bag. Lovelace got a clean hit over second, stopped on second and put Gage over the plate, which tied the score. Crawford struck out. Farrar picked up the willow and sent a good one over short putting Lovelace on third. Bodine got a clean hit to center which let Lovelace walk in home—making score 3-2 in favor of Colorado.

Both sides did pretty work in the last sides did some pretty work in the game. Gage did fine work with his slow curve which kept the batters guessing. We can mention no individual player as all worked hard and several made brilliant plays. This was the prettiest game of the season, except perhaps the third with Toyah, which was 1-2 in favor of Colorado, but in this game the winning score was made on a double error—an over throw to second and third; while in the Merkel game the scores were made by clean hits. We were unable to get the score cards, and hence can give no details of the games.

The following is the score by games for the season.

	No. games	Won	Lost
Loraine	2	2	0
Big Springs	2	1	1
Toyah	3	2	1
*Baird	2	0	2

*Third game called on account of rain.

The ball team, as well as the citizens who like this kind of sport were disappointed in the attendance on these three games. Only a very few came out to any of the games, and the boys came out considerably behind in expense money. The public ought to come out and patronize these games if they expect to keep up the team. The boys do not get a cent out of it. All they want is sufficient to pay the visitor's expenses, and they certainly deserve that for the sport they have given the public. They play for the fun of it and for your amusement, and unless they can get expense money at the gate, some one will have to dig up. Most of the players are working boys, busy in the store, shop or on the farm and they cannot visit other towns, hence they invite the teams here. Let us all go out to the next game they have and encourage them.

75000 ACRES TO BE IRRIGATED

Eight Test Wells Have Been Sunk to a Sufficient Depth and an Excellent Clay Foundation Found—Dam 60 Feet High.

E. G. Walton, of Bronte, is here making abstract of the land to be used as Dam Site and reservoir for the big Irrigation Company, that proposes to dam the Colorado river, which will furnish sufficient water to irrigate 75,000 acres of the richest lands of Coke and Rannels counties. All tests have been made by means of sinking eight wells along the dam site, and the best clay foundation has been found. This will be the biggest irrigation scheme in the state.

The dam is located at Brushy mountain on the Colorado river, about 12 miles east of Robert Lee, and two miles west of where the Orient bridge crosses the river. Col. C. M. Stanley, of Houston, one of the state's foremost irrigation men is at the head of the company. He states that the project is by far the best in the state. The dam will be built of reinforced concrete 60 feet high and about three-fourths of a mile in length from hill to hill. This dam will flood 9400 acres of land to a considerable depth. It is stated by the engineers that such a dam will raise the water in the river opposite the bridge at Robert Lee, to a depth of 10 feet. The main canal will reach from the dam to Ballinger, about 39 miles in length and the water so impounded will irrigate at least 75,000 acres of land. 15000 in Coke county and 60,000 acres in Rannels county. These people are spending their own means in the preliminary work that has been done and it looks reasonably certain that the great undertaking will be successfully accomplished. This will be of untold worth to Coke county. The lands in the Colorado valley are the most fertile in the state, and it only takes capital to make it the garden spot of the west. The undertaking is an immense one, but the parties behind it are able to carry it through. This means immense immigration to this fertile valley and we confidently expect in a few years to see every foot of irrigable land in the valley from Ballinger to Colorado City under a gigantic system of irrigation.

You Can Depend On Your Neighbors

By HOLLAND.

To whom do you appeal for help in time of trouble or sickness? On whom would you depend if dread misfortune laid its heavy hand on you? Your neighbors? Exactly.

Man is a gregarious animal, and he naturally cares for relatives, friends and acquaintances rather than strangers. Social affairs depend entirely on acquaintanceship, and business affairs are controlled to large extent by the same element. It would be better if business and friendship were still more closely linked.

If you would depend on your neighbors in time of adversity why not depend on them in prosperity? Isn't the man whose hand you would like to grasp the man to whom you ought to hand the dollar that you have to spend? Why send it away to a small order house which would be interested in a death in your family merely because it offered a possible chance to sell you a tombstone or a crape band for your hat?

You know your neighbors are reliable, that they can be depended on, that they would come to your aid with sympathy or material help should the occasion arise. Then why not show that you appreciate their good qualities by doing business with them regularly and as a matter of habit? They know you and are interested in you. The small order man is merely interested in getting your money, and that in advance. SPEND YOUR MONEY WHERE YOU MAKE IT.

DEATH OF MRS. HUSTON

After a lingering illness of some weeks, during which she bore her sufferings with christian fortitude and resignation, the gentle spirit of Mrs. Sarah Ann Huston was released from its earthly tabernacle and went to the mansions prepared for her by the Master, in God's eternal paradise. Last Friday night at 10 o'clock Mrs. Huston's life was devoted to deeds of kindness and charity. With but one child of her own, she gave to several who had been bereft of a mother's care, all the love and devotion which was lavished on her own and rearing them to noble manhood to take their place in the useful vocations of life. No greater, no nobler work than this, can be given one to do; "for inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these, ye have done it unto me".

Mr. and Mrs. Huston had long been residents of this community, and by their humble unobtrusive walk and deeds of kindly beneficence made friends of all who knew them. The gentle, guiding spirit of the home is gone, leaving a void that nothing on this earth can fill; but he who walked by her side for these many years has the sweet assurance that the companionship and communion will be renewed where there is no more separation, pain, or suffering; for God himself shall wipe all tears away.

The large crowd which followed this good woman's remains to their last resting place Sunday afternoon and paid the last tribute of esteem and love to her memory, attested the affection in which she was held by the entire community. And there she shall sleep till the resurrection trump shall sound and God shall call forth His redeemed to be forever united and with Him in the eternal habitations.

Besides a devoted husband, Mrs. Huston is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Frank Lupton of this place, and four nephews, Frank Charley, Bob and Walter Lupton, the last three of whom she raised, to all of whom the Record extends sympathy and condolence in the hour of their bereavement.

her daughter Mrs. Corinne Lupton and Mrs. Lupton's husband, Mr. F. V. Lupton, besides these to mourn her loss are her sister, Mrs. Will Thompson of San Antonio, Tex., and her brother, Dr. Ollie Blankenship, of Richmond, Va.

The end was sudden though not unexpected, Mrs. Thompson and Dr. Blankenship could not be reached by telegraph in time to be present before the interment. Chas. and Walter Lupton of Lubbock and Yoakum counties respectively were notified by telephone of their aunt's extreme illness, and they together with their wives reached Colorado while she yet lived. By these young men and their brother Robert Lupton of San Antonio, Texas the memory of the deceased is especially revered, she having raised them and taken the place of a mother to them since they lost their parents in early childhood. By this as well as numberless other good works, she proved her faith a living faith to those who believe that "Faith without good works is dead."

Mrs. Huston was born in Petersburg, Va., March 9, 1850. She was a Miss Sarah Ann Blankenship of the Virginia Blankenships, one of the oldest and most prominent families of Virginia, while yet a young girl she moved with her family to Richmond, Va., where other branches of the family were prominent, having been connected through marriage or blood relationship with the Rives, Shands, and other equally prominent families of Old Virginia. Here she met Mr. J. H. Huston to whom she was married August 27, 1887. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Huston moved to Comanche, Texas. Mrs. Huston brought with her to her frontier home all those gentle and refining influences, which always remained characteristic of her, and cast a gentle yet insistent influence over all the persons and places among which her life was cast. Mr. and Mrs. Huston moved from Comanche to Colorado, Texas in 1895 and have resided here since. To the beloved partner of her married life Mrs. Huston's loss is a severe affliction, leaving a grief that is too deep to find a relief in expression. To her daughter, Mrs. Corinne Lupton, who with deepest love and untiring devotion ministered to her mother through the long months of her illness, the loss is especially keen as it is also to her husband, Mr. F. V. Lupton.

The love and sympathy of their numerous friends in the hour of their affliction helped to soothe the aching void caused by the loss of their dear one.

Rev. Mr. Hennessy pastor of the Episcopal church in Colorado, as well as Mrs. Huston's relatives and a few near and dear friends were at her bedside during her last hours and all the spiritual and temporal aids that religion and love could bestow were hers at the last.

The beautiful Episcopal burial service was held at all Saints Episcopal church at 4 p. m. Sunday July 6. The numerous friends and acquaintances present as well as the magnificent floral offering, were a mute testimony of the love and veneration in which the deceased was held by all who had the honor to know her in life.

Card of Thanks.

To those dear friends and acquaintances who so kindly and lovingly ministered to our dear departed in her illness and death, and whose kindness and sympathy to us afforded us so much consolation in the hour of our bereavement, we express our heartfelt thanks.

That God in his infinite goodness may reward them tenfold both in this life and the life to come is our sincere wish and prayer.

J. H. Huston and family.

C. W. B. M.

Mrs. Eugene Pond was hostess for the C. W. B. M. last Thursday. The subject for the afternoon was Christian Education, with Mrs. Crowder as leader. Each one on the program responded in a manner showing they had given their subjects much thought. Mrs. Sam Majors had an interesting paper on "Mountain Schools", Mrs. C. T. Harness one on College of Missions and Mrs. Crowder one on "The Negro Schools". All of these told of work done on these subjects and their plans for the future in such an interesting way that all members present felt inspired to greater efforts in educational work. Mrs. Willis R. Smith led the Bible lesson it being on 1st Chronicles. The guests for the afternoon were: Miss Knox of Terrell who is visiting Mrs. P. C. Craig and Mrs. Kimbrough of Sweetwater who is a guest of Mrs. Sam Majors. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. D. F. S. Pond who was also a guest, served lemonade and cake at the social hour.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

Part of the officers of the Mitchell county Sunday school Association went to Loraine last Sunday morning to assist the Baptists in grading their school.

They were given a hearty welcome and allowed full charge of the school for an hour.

At no place in the county is there a better prospect for an up-to-date Sunday school. There is good live material for all departments. President, Dr. Coleman explained the object of the visit and Secretary Robert M. Webb his own good-natured style then took charge of the grading which was done in a most satisfactory way to school, Superintendent and pastor, Mr. J. P. Reeder, Supt. has under him a loyal band of workers with Miss Annie Norman as Secretary, Miss Ethel Gregg, Superintendent of the Cradle Roll department, Miss Myrtle Copeland Superintendent of the Home Department and Mrs. Jerry Walker, Mrs. Charles Reeder, Miss Emma Gandy, Mrs. W. H. Howell, Miss Annie Gregg, Mrs. John L. Johnson, Mrs. Pratt and Messrs John L. Johnson, Charles Reeder, W. H. Howell, H. M. Perry and Mr. McCaughran as teachers. We hope to keep in touch with this noble school for we expect to see a continual growth. As their pastor, Rev. Mr. Farris thinks so highly of Sunday school work that he gladly gave over the preaching hour and assisted in the grading, and now we hope the school will stand by him as nobly.

The officers were sorry not to stay and partake of the good things to eat to which they were invited, and thank Mr. Jackson for his invitation, Pres. Dr. Coleman fussed all the way home because he had to miss it. Next time all the others are going prepared to stay with him.

The Methodist school had their regular missionary program last Sunday morning. Subject: Roll Call of the Nations.

The children look forward to these programs and Supt. of Missions, Mrs. J. G. Merritt is doing a splendid work in educating the children on Missions.

The Christian school had a Children's Day Program last Sunday following the Sunday school lesson. It was missionary throughout and was in memory of Rev. G. L. Wharton, a missionary from their church who gave his life for Foreign Missions in India. All the numbers on the program were fine and the song "If I were big like you" given by the little tots was perhaps the most touching of all. Mrs. Sam Majors told the children in an interesting way something of the life and works of the godly man whose name they are keeping in sacred memory.

The offering of the morning is to go to Foreign Missions and amounted to about fifteen dollars.

The Christian school had their first Star Sunday last Sunday and three classes reported stars.

Supt. of Missions, Mrs. J. G. Merritt is to talk to the Baptist school next Sunday morning on "How to Create a Missionary Spirit in the Sunday School."

The Christian school has adopted the envelope system for keeping their records.

We would appreciate it if the schools which have been visiting by the county officers would report their progress. If you are growing pass on the good news.

(Add to Sunday school notes)

News comes from Buford and Horn's Schools that every class got a Star last Sunday their first Star Sunday.

Plainview school has eight classes and seven classes got Stars last Sunday.

Miss Stonerod Entertains.

Misses Lucile Stonerod and Pauline Payne entertained with "500" and "42" Monday evening in honor of the Misses Beal, at the home of Mrs. Tom Stonerod.

Quite a merry evening, was spent in playing those popular games. The hostess had prepared three dainty prizes. Mrs. Floyd Beal' won the lady's prize, a dainty chafing dish apron. Mr. Beal the gentleman's, a pair of silk hose and the three honorees cut for the bunch of beautiful cranations. Miss Marguerite was the lucky one. The hostess assisted by Mrs. A. J. Payne served pink ice cream and cake. When the good nights were said all expressed a wish that Misses Lucile and Pauline would entertain again soon.

The Record received this week a letter from a Baptist preacher as follows "Yes am out of Texas, just got here $40,000 church, $20,000 debt, 400 members, lots of hard work. And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst.

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

Colorado Record $1.00 per year

WEST TEXAS PROSPERS THIS YEAR

Under the above caption the El Paso Times of the 8th instant reviews the conditions now obtaining in all sections of West Texas, and has the following to say regarding Colorado and Mitchell county:

"Around Abilene and on west to Colorado City the rain has been abundant and crops are unusually fine. At Colorado City the Colorado river was higher than it has been since F. M. Burns discovered the town—which was about the time that the salt was first deposited under that section of country. Thousands of bales of cotton will be produced in those sections this year, there is an abundance of feed already in sight, and the cities and towns of those sections are figuring on just about the greatest volume of business this fall and winter they have ever known.

Colorado Girl To Marry.

The following clipping is from the Clifton paper and is self explanatory and will be interesting to many Colorado friends: "Announcement is made of the marriage of Rev. James F. Hardie, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, to Miss M. Dixon Roe of Austin on Aug. 14. Miss Roe is a returned missionary on furlough from China."

Miss Dixon Roe, daughter of Mr. T. H. Roe was reared in our little city and went from here as a Missionary. She comes from one of the most cultured and refined families that Colorado has ever known and her many friends here all congratulate Mr. Hardie on winning the hand of so fair a young lady.

Junior League Picnic

Misses Sallie Herrington and Erl King who have charge of the Junior League gave the little folks a picnic Monday afternoon, over on the bluffs. Each little one was on hand at the appointed time with a lunch as that is the biggest part of any picnic for either big or little folks.

After games and stories the lunch was enjoyed by all and some left. These youngsters vote Miss Sallie and Miss Erl a success on picnic occasions. Mesdames Merritt and Lyons accompanied a crowd to see that no one tumbled from the bluffs.

Manager of a Railroad Cured of Eczema by Hunt's Cure.

At one time I had a very bad case of Eczema. It troubled me for seven or eight years, and, although I tried all kinds of medicine and several doctors, I got no relief until I used Hunt's Cure. I used several boxes, and it finally cured me, and I have always kept a box with me for fear it will come back. A. D. GOODENOUGH, General Manager Lida Valley Railway Co., Goldfield, Nev.

Mission Study Class.

The Mission Study Class of the Methodist church met at the church Monday afternoon. The lesson on "China's New Day" was led by Mrs. M. K. Jackson.

After the program the class was divided into two sides to see which side would report the best attendance best lessons and the most new members, the losing side is to treat the winners.

Mrs. M. K. Jackson was captain for one team and Miss Joe Dry for the other.

USE OF CALOMEL PRACTICALLY STOPPED

Dangerous Drug Giving Way for Safer More Reliable Remedy.

Hundreds of people in this vicinity alone have stopped the use of dangerous calomel when their liver is acting slowly, and take Dodson's Liver Tone instead.

Dodson's Liver Tone is always safe and has none of the bad after-effects which so often follow the use of calomel. It is a pleasant-tasting vegetable liquid that starts the liver gently and surely, and relieves constipation and biliousness and causes no restriction of habit or diet.

Many preparations have sprung up that imitate the claims made for Dodson's Liver Tone, but remember Dodson's Liver Tone is the tried and tested remedy that has proven such a good medicine and is so satisfactory to every user—is the reason these imitations are on the market. Dodson's Liver Tone cannot hurt here Sunday. Mrs. Coffey will give you money back with a smile.

The most effective, the most powerful and the most pleasant results. Once you try it you will always have it in your home. A five gallon jug for $1.25 and we give you fifty cents back for the empty jug. The Grogan Well mineral water is all kinds of stomach troubles. The Grogan Wells, Sweetwater, Texas.

BIG BANK'S COLLAPSE CAUSES DISASTER IN PITTSBURG FINANCE

WESTERN INDUSTRIAL VENTURES AFFECTED.

American Waterworks Company Controlled Public Utilities in Many Cities—McAdoo Blames Unsound Methods.

PITTSBURG, July 7.—The First-Second National bank of Pittsburg, the First National bank of McKeesport, a neighboring city; the American Waterworks & Guaranty company and the banking house of J. S. & W. S. Kuhn, Inc., of this city, were forced into the hands of receivers today through the failure of the first-named institution to open its doors this morning. The closing of the First-Second National bank was ordered by the deputy comptroller of the currency, T. P. Kane, after every effort had been made to meet the government requirements as to the legal reserve.

The Kuhn banking house has extensive interests in irrigation projects throughout the West and in mines and street traction systems throughout western Pennsylvania, besides being a dominant factor in the American Waterworks & Guaranty company.

MAY REFUSE PERMITS TO 200 TEXAS SALOONS

Austin, Tex., July 4.—Not less than 200 saloonkeepers in Texas, principally in several of the larger cities, will be forced to close their places of business for a period of a week to probably one month and in some instances for good, after July 11, according to information obtained by Comptroller Lane. He says his department has issued renewal of permits to every applicant whose record has proved clear. The above 200 or more are of saloonkeepers whose applications have been held up by the department for investigation. Complaints have been made against these dealers.

A MAGNIFICENT GIFT.

As a gift from the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe Railway Company, San Angelo is to have the best system of public parks and play grounds of any town in Texas with absolutely no exception.

Forty thousand dollars are being spent by the railroad company, through a committee of Angelo citizens, for the property that will embrace the park when they have been completed.

Of this amount between twenty and twenty-five thousand dollars are being spent in the purchase of the park sites, several thousand will be used at once in improving the property, and ten thousand dollars have been set aside as a permanent fund for maintenance purposes.

Mason county went dry Saturday last by a majority of thirty-two votes. The election passed off very quietly, there being no campaigning upon the part of either side, and from the first sentiment appeared to be in favor of the prohibition side. The town of Mason itself, which usually went wet by several hundred majority, gave the anti a majority of but eleven votes. Brady Standard.

PLAINVIEW POINTS.

Crop conditions are the best that we have had at this time of the year for five or six years and we feel sure of a 4th of a bale and have got good prospects of a bale to the acre.

The entertainment we had the night of the 4th of July was a big success just as everything that the ladies try to do succeeds. So this one was the best that we have had yet and we have had some good ones too, there was two short talks before the regular program, the first by the Superintendent of the Sunday school Mr. G. B. Copeland and then Bro. A. D. Leach made a two minute talk then the program was opened by Galen Costin.

Miss Marjle Colb of Colorado was out to see the entertainment the 4th of July and stayed over night with the Misses Leach.

A good crowd of Unionites were over to the entertainment the 4th.

Mr. Roden Pickens announced Sunday that they would not practice this Saturday night as he would be on a visit to his home near Loraine, we have a very good class of singers and Mr. Pickens is trying to improve it by practicing every Saturday night.

Dr. P. C. Coleman, Miss Ealenor Coleman, Miss Mamie Riordan, Miss Exa McLure, of Colorado were out to Sunday school Sunday. Dr. Coleman made a good talk telling us that we were going to have some more workers out in a bit, and that there was to be a big Sunday school rally sometime this fall, and that he wanted us to be there, every one of us, we were delighted to have them and look for them back soon.

Last Sunday was Star Sunday and out of 8 classes 7 got stars that is a good record we got all the stars once this last quarter.

Mrs. Franklin and Mrs. King got back from a trip to Louisiana last week bringing their sister with them, they had a big time of course. We know Mrs. King had a big time, for she enjoys every minute as she goes through life, and wants every one else to enjoy it too. Every one is busy at work just now killing weeds.

PRINCE CHARMING

FAIRVIEW FANCIES

Brother Craig commenced his meeting here on the 21 and closed on the first of July after the rain everyone was busy with their crops, he will return later on and finish his meeting one conversion was added to the church.

Miss Davie Knox from Terrell was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Berry this week.

A three inch rain fell here on Sunday and Monday. The river was the highest ever seen at this place.

Crops are in fine condition. Feed stuff is about made, cotton is waist high and grass is fine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Berry gave the young folks a social party on the 19th a large crowd was there.

Poor old fourth of July was dead with us this year, our picnic and fish fry on the river was put off for some future time, on account of high water.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Womack were visiting at Mr. C. C. Berry this week.

A crew of the W. O. W. men and boys gave Mr. Dave Pace a days work on the fifth, they worked out 90 acres of cotton and chopped out 60 acres. Mr. Pace thanks the Lodge and friends for their favors.

The baby boy of Mr. Dave Pace is still on the sick list.

Yes sir, the fourth of July died in Colorado years ago, and its glory has departed never to return, and all that is left is a black eye and a bad smell. The glory is gone, but the memory lingers. Just look at the great American Eagle what it has come to. He used to be the finest bird that ever toted feathers, Proud just hush, I was once the emblem of glorious American Liberty, and used to hover over this nation like a hen over her chickens, and I loved to flap my terrible wings in the face of my enemies and show them my claws and see the Kings of the earth tremble with fear, my birthday, oh don't mention it the fourth of July is no more, those days are past and gone. Look at me now, tall feathers all yanked out by the roots, wings cropped till I look like old Nick before day yes, I did represent Freedom, but I don't now for I have been kicked out at the back door to live on the fat of what Colorado used to be.

TO THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS

A community of interest prevails between the roads and the people. Unless the people prosper the roads cannot hope to prosper. On the other hand unless the roads are permitted to earn sufficient money to give good service, the people cannot enjoy the full measure of prosperity.

Railroads are today operated under the strictest regulations. They cannot charge one cent for a service that is not authorized by officers chosen by the people. In law and good morals, these officers are the people who fix the charges that can be exacted by the railroads for services performed, and such charges high enough to pay all legitimate operating expenses, plus an amount that will pay a reasonable return upon the value of the railroad property devoted to the use of the public.

If the Legislature should pass a law taking from the pockets of the people a million dollars a year to pay the salaries of public officials not needed, nor whose services could be utilized in the interest of the public in any manner, would such a course approved by the people as a whole?

West.

The expenses of railroads affect the public such as the taxes they pay. In one instance are collected by public officials; in the instance the rates fixed by public officials are by the railroads.

It is impossible for the Legislature or the court to impose unjust burdens upon the railroads, at the same time placing the burden upon the shoulders of the producers and shippers, to create new public offices and expect the public to be relieved of meeting the expenses of the same.

Under the present system of levying taxes in Texas, the Tax Board takes into consideration the approval made by the Legislature and levies a tax high enough to bring in sufficient money to meet the needs of government.

In fixing rates, the same rule applies. The commission after ascertaining what the railroads have to pay for operating expenses, taxes, personal injury, etc., fixes the rates high enough to pay all such expenses, and in addition thereto, a fair return on the value of the property used for the public. Therefore, the higher the operating expenses, taxes, and personal injury payments, the higher must be the rates the people have to pay.

It is the sincere desire of the managers of the Texas railroads to give the public good service, and at the least possible cost to you. And we respectfully and earnestly ask you, in your own interest, to assist us in doing so, and thereby protect yourselves against unjust and unnecessary burdens.

We desire to express our appreciation to the producers of Texas who have made a study of the question, and have taken intelligent action to protect themselves against the infliction of unjust and unnecessary burdens.

We respectfully ask you to study this so-called "Railroad Problem" closely. We welcome the most searching and minute inquiry. There is so much in common between the railroads and the producers, that a better understanding and closer co-operation is bound to benefit all concerned.

MISSIONARY SERVICE

Sunday night service at Methodist church was turned to the officers of the Mission Society. The delegates to Seymour, Lyons and Mrs. Merritt giving reports and Mrs. Annis and Mrs. Lyon telling of their work. After an appropriate service and a scripture lesson by Lyon, Mrs. Lyon most interestingly told of the pleasure she experienced returning to her first parish home in Texas, the pleasure of her former friends and the inspiration from the meeting. She told of her splendid Sunday school, then outlined the annual sermon preached by Rev. Putnam presiding over the Stamford District. The Lord gave the word, it was the company (of women) that established it. Sunday afternoon the brilliant little deaconess talked to the young people about the three basic calls: self development, self giving and self sacrifice. At night Bro. Putnam conducted by the deaconess as De Bardeleben and outlined her address upon Faith, Jonah and Hosea. She told of the reports from a district secretary, paid a flattering tribute to the Sweetwater District Secretary, Mrs. Merritt, who was a conference officer. Mrs. Davis then spoke of the social service work here in our own town. She told what her committee had done and the many things that could be done by co-operation and persistent effort. Mrs. Merritt then told of the reception accorded the delegates at Seymour, the delightful homes to which they were taken and the hospitality accorded. On the station and over the door of the church were the words "Welcome". The church was fragrant with cut flowers, gorgeous with ferns and oleanders. The welcome address was an outline of Methodism most interesting and inspiring. The response by Mrs. Bass of Abilene was "Why and How we came to Seymour" A most pleasing speech. The President, Mrs. Stephens gave a message filled with thought of uplift on the work, her subject was "Definiteness." Mrs. Merritt told of the reports of the officers especially the message of Mrs. Rollins from the Birmingham Council, and told of how she brought the meeting to Ft. Worth with the verse: "Come to the land of the vendorm and the sand, Where the wind blows just after it snows, And the horse is too small for his brand Where the prairie dog kneels on the back of his heels and forrenly prays for rain."

She told of the lovely auto drive over the country the reception and the fight for next years meeting and how it went to Plainview.

Mrs. Jackson closed the service with a very enthusiastic talk upon Mission Study and Stewardship. Giving an outline of the book now being studied "China's New Day" and explaining Stewardship so convincingly that every one felt that they would at once begin to give God his share of their time, talents and money. This service was much enjoyed by those attending. They said the women were pretty good preachers.

After a number of games the hostess gave prizes to the most skillful players. The Royal prize was a dainty bouclor cap of lavender and was won by Miss Lela Whipkey, the lone hand prize a dainty blue cap, was carried off by Olive Greenwood, and the guests prize was awarded to Mrs. Webster. The hostess was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. O. E. Avery and Miss Alice Shuford.

Fine Prospects.
From talking with a number of farmers this week, as well as with others who have gone over a good portion of the county investigating crop conditions, the conclusion is inevitable that at this stage of development and time of year, the cotton crop of Mitchell county was never so promising. It is estimated that fully 60,000 acres are planted to cotton in the county this year, and if conditions keep up as they are now for one month, fully 20,000 bales of cotton will be produced. Just at this time there is every reason to figure on one-third of a bale per acre, if the present favorable season continues. As for feed, there is already more than enough assured to run the farmers through next year, with ample time to plant more, if they desire. We have heard of but very few who complain of their feed burning, and in these few cases, it is where the land is tight and the feed planted too thickly.

It is getting just about the date for announcement of the first bale of cotton from Starr or some neighboring county in South Texas. The first bale will not likely come to this market as early as for the past 3 or 4 years. The early opening of the cotton is an accompaniment of a dry season, and as we have had much more rain this year than for several past, the first bale may be two weeks or more behind that of last year, which was August 9th.

Just at this season and during the prevalent hot weather, one can not be too careful of what is eaten and drunk. This is the season of typhoid fever and a little precaution may save sickness, doctor bills and even life itself. Water is perhaps, the greatest single carrier of the typhoid germ, and in this respect Colorado is particularly fortunate in its water; it being free from all organic matter is safe under all conditions without boiling. Cistern water however, may the roofs are thoroughly washed off with reason be always held under suspicion, particularly if caught before and before the cistern has been cleaned and washed out. An ounce of precaution in these matters is wiser than a simple-ton of cure.

PLENTY CHEAP MONEY TO HANDLE COTTON.

Fort Worth, Texas, July 9.—I have just closed a canvass for cheap money to finance distress cotton this season and I want to publicly thank the many bankers for their liberal responses.

We now have in sight sufficient funds to finance interior points and we have provided for unlimited finances at Houston for cotton stored there. We have some 350 warehouses in the interior, and where local banks do not care for the business, application should be made through the local union to the headquarters at Fort Worth or the cotton can be sent down to Houston where E. P. Shropshire, our general sales agent will handle it on a six per cent basis. I estimate that it will require approximately $40,000,000 to finance distress cotton, and I consider we have approximately this amount available.

The volume of money required will be small as the farmer will immediately pay off his debts or spend the money he borrows in his home town and the most of it returns to the bank vault before night.

There is no reason why a farmer in Texas should dispose of a single bale of cotton at an unsatisfactory price for the purpose of meeting maturing obligations. The facilities are afforded for borrowing the money at six per cent and the producer can hold the cotton as long as he pleases on those terms.

Constructive Banking.
Many bankers in Texas have, for several years, been lending money to farmers without compensation, or at a very low rate of interest, to buy blooded livestock, build silos, etc., and no usurer whoever bowed at the shrine of a dollar received as large returns on the investment as those progressive bankers who made loans without interest to uplift productive industry. The spirit of the builder which actuated the bankers in these smaller transactions is now extended into the financing of the cotton crop on a mammoth scale and the returns will be correspondingly increased.

God Almighty's Noblemen.
The work has had its hardships and has met with such obstacles as all progressive movements invariably encounter. It will have to break the shackles of shiftless habits of many farmers, melt the adamant heart of many bankers, and it has become the target of ridicule and suspicion of the near-sighted. I want to here name a few of God Almighty's noblemen who have co-operated in working out the plans and who have given their time, influence and loaned their money under this arrangement to finance warehouses throughout the entire State: W. H. Eddleman, Ben O. Smith, Fort Worth; B. B. Cain, D. E. Waggoner, Dallas; Joe Hirsch, Corpus Christi; I. H. Kempner, Galveston; James Garity, Corsicana; Edwin Chamberlain, San Antonio; W. H. Fuqua, Amarillo; and hundreds of other bankers who are financing cotton in local warehouses. The parties whose names I have mentioned have loaned money on cotton throughout the entire state.

Its Effect Upon the Market.
It is the custom in Texas and other Southern States to market sixty-five per cent of the crop the first three months of harvest season which results in weakening and oftentimes glutting the market. At least two-thirds of the cotton farmers are tenants, and there is approximately an eighty million dollar mortgage against their crop each year due when the cotton is picked and the farmer is forced to sell to meet his obligations. The bankers will now advance him $35.00 per bale on his cotton at six per cent interest, payable at his option which will take the cotton out of distress and enable the farmer to hold it until the price is satisfactory and make a glut easily avoidable. The consumption of cotton is distributed evenly throughout the year and it should be marketed as the spinners demand it. There are so many factors that enter into fixing the price that no one influence can be satisfactory segregated and reduced to a cash basis, but in my estimation the slow marketing of cotton will increase the farm price at least from 2 1/2 to 3 cents per pound net over the price obtained under present methods, making a minimum net saving to the farmer of $50,000,000. It is now up to the farmer to take advantage of the facilities offered.

Fly Repellant.
Owing to the troublesome flies during milking, we have been requested to publish the following recipe, which has been found to keep off flies most effectually:

The Kansas experiment station has developed the following for use on cows only: Resin, one and one-half pounds; laundry soap, two cakes; fish oil, one half pint; enough water to make three gallons. Dissolve the resin in a solution of soap and water by heating, then add the fish oil and the rest of the water. Apply with a brush. If it is to be used as a spray, add one-half pint of kerosene. The cost of this mixture is only seven or eight cents a gallon, and a half pint is sufficient for one application for a cow. It is advised to give two or three applications per week until the hair becomes coated with the resin, afterwards retouching those parts where the resin is rubbed off.

The Texas & Pacific Railway Company will, on and after July 1, inaugurate a new system of handling their transportation departments and all movement of trains and rolling stock.

The system to be inaugurated is what is known as the Heine system, and is now in use on the Southern Pacific and the Missouri Pacific railways. Under the new system all engineers, firemen and roundhouse men will report to the division superintendents, instead of to the superintendent of motive power, as heretofore.

The roundhouse will be under the jurisdiction of Superintendent R. C. Andrews of the eastern division.

Many of the big highways of the country have adopted this system of having all running met. report to and be subject to the superintendent who has direct charge of transportation.

ECHOES FROM SNYDER
Snyder Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Snyder resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

J. J. Burnett, Snyder, Texas, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for the past five or six years, whenever I have had any symptoms of kidney trouble and I have always been benefited. I suffered every year from rheumatic twinges and weak kidneys. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I procured a box. They strengthened my kidneys and cured the rheumatism. Since then I have taken this remedy occasionally and it has kept my kidneys strong and well."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Fishing is reported good in the river since the big rise. This gave the fish a chance to come up from the lower and deeper waters of the stream.

The Bell county farmers are wearing their hats shoved back on their heads. They have harvested 2,000,000 bushels of oats this year.—Tyler Courier-Times.
