BUSINESS OUTLOOK BETTER THAN FAIR

Reviewed by President Wheeler of National Chamber of Commerce.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 2.—There is every cause for a consoling optimism in the business world.

That was the general feeling of the business world for the year 1914, according to the report of the Authority for the National Chamber of Commerce, published in the Chamber's Bulletin, a bulletin of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry, published by the Union Trust Company.

"The business outlook for 1914 is better than fair," he asserted. "Merchandise stocks throughout the country are below rather than above normal and liquidation has proceeded during the last year to the extent of making the general business outlook much more normal than it was a year ago."

"We should remember, however, that the actual effect of the year 1913 will be felt in 1914 and the year 1914 will be felt in 1915. The year 1914 will be a year of transition, and the year 1915 will be a year of adjustment."

THE CAMPAIGN IS ON

Andrew Cooksey announced this week for Sheriff. Mr. Cooksey made such a close race last year that he has some claim to the office and asks for it again.

Preston Scott also comes to the front and asks for the office of Sheriff by announcing this week. Mr. Scott is at present deputy sheriff.

J. A. Costin announces for Sheriff this week and asks his friends to consider his claims. Mr. Costin says it is already a three-cornered sheriff race and more to follow.

A. J. Coe our present County Judge announces this week for reelection and says he is willing to stand on his record as County Judge for his claims for reelection.

Jesse H. Bullock is a new Richmond in the field and announces this week for county judge. His familiarity with County affairs and all things pertaining to County work is his claim to the public for this high honor, as he has been practically raised at the court house attending to county business.

W. R. Womack announces this week for County Tax Assessor. Mr. Womack thinks the people made a mistake last election and asks them to correct that mistake now by electing him as their Tax Assessor. Read the announcement.

Earl Calloway, our present Tax Assessor announces this week for reelection. Democratic usage has always given a man a second term, where an officer has done his duty and Mr. Calloway says no man can find fault with his past two years' work.

The friends of Edna Wadsworth announce this week for reelection to the office of County Commissioner. President N. J. Hill, President of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry, has written a letter of commendation to Edna Wadsworth.

EVERY SOUL ITS PRICE

Many men will throw up and want to get out of the business of the world. They will say, 'I will give up my soul for a few dollars more.' But the price is too high. The price is too high. The price is too high.

BETTER BABIES

The wide spread campaign for Better Babies is glowing. It has touched the hearts of the Colorado ladies and they have commenced work to get in touch with all the babies in Mitchell county. They have all brought together at a certain time examined by competent physicians and a sufficient number even to the most nearly perfect. Later all plans and requirements will be given and it is expected that every person interested in the bettering of humanity will be benefited.

The meeting was held at the Baptist Church, P. Worth, composed of representatives of the various clubs and societies of the county. After the work had been planned by Shipman, who had received literature from those who are giving their lives for better humanity, and Mrs. Bond, who attended the Southwestern Dairy Contest held at P. Worth.

Officers were elected for the organization here. Mrs. Shipman, president; Mrs. Gustine, 1st vice president; Mrs. Earnest, 2nd vice president; Mrs. J. H. Green, secretary; Mrs. Shively, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Annis, Treasurer; Mrs. M. K. Jackson, Press Reporter.

A committee was appointed consisting of the President and 1st vice president to see all the doctors and dentists in the county and get their cooperation. Also Mrs. Hart was appointed to distribute literature on the subject. If any one wants anything on the subject and will phone her she will be glad to furnish the information. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president.

William Webster, a New York dramatist, will be seen at the Colorado Opera House, on Friday night Jan. 3rd, with Miss Helene Gaudert in the leading role. It is a good play and should run six weeks and nights in New York and after that I sincerely hope that C. S. Primrose will present "The Thief" in every hamlet, village and city in the United States. It is a play with a purpose. It is a play husbands should take their wives to see, one that wives should take their husbands to see and one that every unmarried man and woman in the country should see.

"The Thief" belongs in the category of problem plays. The problem is the question, "What would you have done under the circumstances?" The story is well known. It tells the tale of a colossal love, a love so great that a woman stoops to criminality in order that she might keep her husband. That is the story in a nut shell. The problem comes in the fact that the woman's husband forces her and in so doing the leading question is asked.

but something else can. Ambition has been the ruin of men since the days of Lucifer. Uncountable appetites for food and drink have ruined many more. Every passion to which the human heart is subject numbers its victims by the multitude. Nor does temptation stop at this level. When the devil had tempted Christ through his bodily hunger and appealed to his ambition in vain, he rose to the very plane on which the Master entrenched himself. He tempted him spiritually; dared him to put the test of the very faith he professed. "If that's so, prove it by testing it." It seemed on its face a fair proposition, and many a christian would have fallen into the snare. The very faculty that men often work themselves up to feel, prays in the end like "ease of Essau." There is no place in the Pilgrim's journey from the time he becomes obedient to the heavenly vision till he rests in God's Paradise, when his fall is not possible. He may reach that state in which he has no desire to sin; when sin has been reduced to such control that it is latent; but at no time does he attain that perfection of grace and strength of faith, when he can not men whom money can not corrupt.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging
Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave
Up in Despair. Husband
Came to Rescue.

Carroll, Mo.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years with womanly troubles, and during this time I could only sit up for a little while and could not walk anywhere at all. At times I would have severe pains in my joints.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its being me, and am doing all my work.

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him, he will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., 1200 North Third St., Chattanooga, Tenn. No. 10000. Cardui is sold in 50c and 1.00 bottles. Price 50c per bottle. See it in your paper.

LET'S GET TOGETHER

It would not be a bad idea for the people of this community, especially the business men of the town, to get together at the beginning of the new year and try to see just where the old year stands at. The prudent and careful business man takes stock of what he has on hand the first of every year, and should not a town do the same thing with profit to itself? There are many things that ought to be done, but it is good several other things that ought to be done for the town. There are many things that ought to be done, but it is good several other things that ought to be done for the town.

BETTY'S NEW YEAR'S PARTY

By MARJORIE HOPE
Copyright, 1914, by American Press Association.

BETTY was impatiently waiting for Jack to come home. He would love the bustle and be so sorry, too, and Jack's arms could make up for a good deal. They had not been married more than two years and she was thinking— But, oh, there he was.

"Jack, I can't get my dress."

"What, sweetheart?"

"They won't give me any more credit."

"I want lots of money. I want my dress so much. I begged them so hard to let me have it. I—I—think it's so beautiful. I'm taking it back to her so she'll turn it over to me."

Jack pulled her away sharply. "Sweetheart, I think you haven't any sense. But if you have none for your self, for heaven's sake have some for me."

"But aren't you sorry, Jack?" She looked wistfully into the angry face of her husband. She wanted to be loved.

"Of course I am sorry—sorry that you made such a fool of yourself. With which speech he left the house."

Late that night returning, he sought Betty, repentant and ashamed of himself. She was in their sitting room reading. Going up to her he knelt down and put his arms around her, but she sprang up, cold and angry.

"When you are ready to be my friend, but if you forget that when I wanted you."

"I don't want to get back to you before you are up. We are going to have our New Year's eve supper."

"I don't want to go to bed with my arms around you and my heart in my hand. I don't want to go to bed with my arms around you and my heart in my hand."

"I don't want to go to bed with my arms around you and my heart in my hand. I don't want to go to bed with my arms around you and my heart in my hand."

"I don't want to go to bed with my arms around you and my heart in my hand. I don't want to go to bed with my arms around you and my heart in my hand."

Her husband sprang up, flushing angrily. "I tell you you are not going out with Monroe tonight. Can I put it any clearer?"

"And suppose I won't stay home?"

"I'll make you stay."

"How, pray?"

"Oh, if necessary, I am strong."

"I understand. I suppose you could beat me into submission?"

"Oh, Betty, Betty!" he cried, covering his face in horror that she should so have misunderstood him. "Oh, girlie, how could you?"

At his cry all the long pent-up love in Betty was momentarily released, and running up to him, she pulled his hands down.

"Betty is sorry she said that Jack. She did not mean it. Please, please forgive her, will you?" But he did not kiss her, plead as her eyes did for the dress. This rebuff rather cooled her burst of affection, and she said: "But I am going, just the same."

Her husband laughed softly and, stooping picked her up in his arms and, walking back to his chair, sat down with his burden and resumed his reading, holding her the while just tight enough to prevent her escape.

"Here you will remain until after the hour for your meeting with Monroe. By the way, what time were you to meet him and where?"

"Eleven-thirty at the corner," she replied quietly. To tell the honest truth, Betty seemed to like this method of prevention. While she would not have given in to his commands, she did not object to being forced to do so.

Suddenly the book fell to the floor, and Jack's hand that had been holding it, pretty tilted Betty's face back, and he caught the tears and the tenderness. Biting his lips to keep back the sobs, he kissed her away the tears, he tightened his hold on her and with his head thrown back and away from her was soon in the Land of Nod, all forgetful of New Year's eve suppers and eleven-thirty at the corner.

About a quarter to 12 Betty stood in their pretty little dining room, putting the finishing touches to a dainty supper set for two. Quite satisfied that everything was in order, she turned to ward the sitting room, to encounter a pale face and frightened eyes.

Slowly taking in the sight before her and also the time, 11:45, his face flushed. "Forgive me, Betty," holding out his arms, into which she came. "I had a few tasty suppers when I was a child."

"I wanted to get back to you before you were up. We are going to have our New Year's eve supper."

"I don't want to go to bed with my arms around you and my heart in my hand. I don't want to go to bed with my arms around you and my heart in my hand."

For the New Year

As the year 1914 draws to a close, it is a good time to look back over the past year and see what has been accomplished. There are many things that ought to be done, but it is good several other things that ought to be done for the town.

CHRISTMAS TREES

All the Sunday schools in town had appropriate Christmas programs by the children Wednesday followed by beautifully decorated gift-laden trees much enjoyed by houses full of bright-eyed appreciative little folks. Colorado has always done nice things for their little folks and poor at the Christmas time but this year seemed to eclipse all others in the amount of time and love put into the joyous occasion. Everyone seemed anxious to have some part in making somebody else happy and for the day, at least to enable them to forget their sorrows and burdens. Mothers and teachers were teaching the little folks songs and hunting the lonely and needy that they might be supplied with gifts and good things to eat. If there was one home where good wishes and tokens of love were not left how sorry those who were diligently searching for those places will be to learn of it for by common consent Christmas were working to really give "peace on earth, good will toward men" Wednesday afternoon the beginners' and Primary department of the Baptist Sunday School began the festivities by a program of recitations and songs by the little folks and a tree with an appropriate gift for each little child which was appreciated as only innocent children can appreciate at this season of the year. Seeing those happy smiling faces more than repaid the teachers for their time and labor. Episcopal, Presbyterian, The Christian, Methodist and main Baptist schools had their trees on the evening with appropriate programs all well rendered followed by "Santa" himself to greet them. Not only were gifts received but an inspiration to spread the "Glad tidings of great joy" and to have a greater love for their teachers and school another year.

PIANO RECITAL

Monday and Tuesday evenings the pupils of Mrs. Virginia W. Marshall gave their mid-winter piano recital at the Christian church.

The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion with ferns and Chinese lilies and with the bright faced pupils of all sizes created a beautiful scene. The house was full both evenings with parents and friends who were enthusiastic over the work accomplished in the past three months. This program was given and each number was well rendered.

CHORAL CLUB.

Quite a number of the members of the families of the Choral Club were honored with an invitation to their practice Tuesday evening in honor of Rev. Mr. Standworth which they joyously accepted. While Mr. Dawes, the faithful instructor, assured the guests that it was only a practice they felt like it was rendered well enough to be called a recital. They are working on the beautiful cantata "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" and they all showed splendid training.

Mr. Dawes deserves the most liberal support for Colorado is blessed by having one so talented and one who is so willing to give of his talents on all occasions. After the musical feast other good things were in store for the guests and heartily enjoyed.

After the ever popular game of 42 tempting refreshments were partaken of, large screens were removed from one corner of the room and a table covered with snowy linen decorated with holly wreaths and lilies and laden with sandwiches, pickles and little cakes greeted the eye.

The host bade each take a plate and help themselves, which they were not long in doing.

Mesdames Whipkey and Webb served with this delicious hot coffee which made the feast perfect.

In the meanwhile the young lady members had made all kinds of candy on their chafing dishes which they served liberally.

The guests one and all thank Mr. Dawes and his loyal choral club for a delightful evening.

STAG PARTY.

Mr. Joe Smoot has a pleasant custom of assembling all his college boy friends once a year to a stag party and boys look forward each year with great anticipations for a great time. This year the "stag" was given in honor of Mr. Chester Johnson, football coach of Sherman College. A sumptuous six o'clock turkey dinner was spread for them at his mother's home last Saturday eve and partaken of in a manner in which College boys know how to do such things. Sherman College, of which Joe is a graduate may not be considered the best college by all the boys present, but he was voted a perfect host and already they look forward to the reunion next year.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

REQUEST OF CEMETERY ASSOCIATION

The Ladies of the Cemetery Association request persons going in the Cemetery to please be careful about leaving the gate open.

Right now they have no man there and the shrubbery is likely to be greatly damaged and destroyed. Also be careful about leaving the hydrants on as it is likely to freeze at any time and freeze and burst pipes thus causing unnecessary expense. Please be mindful of these things and help the ladies in this their labor of love in keeping the Cemetery in good condition.

PYHTIAN SISTERS ENTERTAIN.

Tuesday evening the Pyhtian Sisters entertained their husbands at their hall with a "42" party.

COOKSEY FOR SHERIFF

A word as to my announcement. I did not want to break into the Newspaper columns this early in the game but as others were going in I wanted to be first now as well as after the election.

In my last race for the office of high sheriff I had quite a number of voters tell me that so soon as Coughran was out of the race they would vote for me, of course I will expect all these this time. In my last race I only lacked a difference of 61 votes of being elected and many voters then told me "I did not vote for you this time but if you run again you can count on me," of course I will expect all these, votes too.

I am in this race to win and am making this heart to heart talk because I mean it and want your vote. I want the office simply because I need it and for the salary attached. All the others in the race may be, and far as I know, are good men, but I am a good man too. There is no politics in this race, all are democrats, it is simply, who do you want for sheriff. I know I am competent and right now promise, if elected, to fill the office creditably and to the best of my ability in such a way as to reflect credit on my friends for the confidence reposed in me.

In making this announcement I again ask all my friends to stay with me. Vote for me and if you are not my friend now come in and see me and let us talk the matter over.

Respectfully yours,
ANDREW COCKSEY,
Candidate for Sheriff.

COLORADO, TEXAS, JANUARY 2, 1914.

Resolved, That I will so live the coming year that the world will be better because I am alive. I will think, talk and act more kindly and be kinder. I will aim to avoid vain regrets by righteous conduct. I will try to effect needed reforms in myself and will attempt to reform others only by the force of a good example. I will smile at misfortune and will not be unduly elated when fortune smiles on me. I will try to make nobody sorry that he has had dealings with me.

Can't we all subscribe to the above? Let's read it again and try to live up to the sentiments.

CAN YOU HELP US NOW!

The Record has not asked our subscribers for a long time to pay up. Now is the time of year that we need money the most and we ask all our friends who can possibly do so to come in and pay one dollar at least. We have over 1000 subscribers who owe from one to three dollars and if we had this altogether it would be a nice little sum. One dollar is not much to you but it means several thousand to us. Spare the dollar now if you possibly can do so and help us out. A great many of our readers are paid ahead and of course this does not apply to them, but to those who are behind we appeal for aid and know that all who can possibly spare a dollar will come to our relief.

- Pay your Poll Tax.
- Start the new year right.
- Plant trees—now is a splendid time to do it.
- This is the last month to pay your poll tax. No tax, no vote.
- The Record wishes all the County officials a prosperous new year.
- To all prospective candidates from Governor to Constable the Record extends greetings.
- Land owners in the county report no vacant land in the county. Every farm is rented and lots of new land is being put in cultivation.
- Not a vacant house in Colorado will soon be the cry. All the good houses in town are now occupied and there is a demand for more.
- During the holidays here the post office handled the rush without extra force, by working day and night. One train brought in 31 sacks of mail.
- The editor acknowledges the receipt this week of quite a lot of very nice cake sent by mother Buchanan in Hill county. There was pound cake Layer Cake, but the best of all was the old fashion sweet cake, same as mother baked in our boyhood days and which we boys would steal from the cupboard, it was old time Sweet Cake and reminded us of days long passed. Mr. J. A. Buchanan visited his mother in Hill County together with his brother, Dr. Buchanan from San Angelo and the kind old lady, now 77 years old sent us the cake of her own baking.

FROM DR. WESTON.

A letter from Dr. Weston says he is now comfortably located at the Baptist Sanitarium in Dallas. Upon examination it was found that he was in a much worse condition than feared. It is now certain that an operation will have to be performed and it may be that he will lose his leg. Dr. Weston is very hopeful of recovery and writes a very touching letter closing it in these words:
 "Thanking the people of Colorado for their kindness and interest in my affliction and praying upon them the very richest of God's blessings, I am, Gratefully yours,
 A. H. WESTON."

Later:
 Another letter received from Dr. Weston says in part, "I am glad to be able to give you better news of my condition. Dr. Hackles assures me that he never saw a similarly affected leg do better and promise more in so short a time, a cure however will require some time, a great load is thus lifted from my mind in the fear of being a cripple for life. Several Colorado friends have called on me since I have been here, which has put me in better spirits, etc."

During Dr. Weston's absence the Record will not have much to say editorially but will endeavor to make the paper as interesting as possible in a local way.

How could you improve your property more than by surrounding it with nice concrete sidewalks.—Ex. Why, add a few shade trees and flowering shrubbery. These will help and they are cheap.—Roscoe Times. Nothing improves a town or resident property more than plenty of shade trees. Colorado is one of the best treed towns in the west.

To all the teachers of the public schools in the County The Record wishes a Happy New Year.

The Record predicts that within five years we will have government ownership of the Telegraph and Telephone lines and we say speed the day. These public enterprises are no larger than the post office department and Uncle Sam seems to handle that creditably and well. It is already being agitated and the postmaster General favors it. The Panama Canal cost 900 million to put it through and these lines can be financed for less money. It may be a populist idea but the Record is that much of a populist.

THE RECORDS NEW YEAR.

The return of the New Year brings all good feeling folk the opportunity to exercise anew the good old fashioned qualities—friendship, kindness, sympathy, love, cheerfulness, courtesy, patience and liberality.

If the inhabitants of another world wished a photograph of ours, it were surely wise to have the picture taken New Years day for then as "folks" we are at our best.

"Everybody look pleasant please." Taking advantage, then, of the New Year when good will can be expressed without explanation or apology, we wish you a happy journey through the undiscovered country of 1914—a trip for which you doubtless are arranging at this time.

May every "Once More" that the new year brings you be met and utilized as you would wish when it has become a "no more"—when it has passed forever.

To grownups there is really little novel about the Holidays. Business people especially seem to need personal notice of their near approach. Fortunately, children, who are the real makers of Christmas, can give this in a way that seldom fails to take.

Regardless of how we learn it, the year is at its end and the new year here again with her smile. Happy the heart that sees in it no "must," but rather the door to many opportunities—the chance to give pleasure and show kindness once more.

The Record received many beautiful New Year greetings but among them, perhaps, the following are the most valued.

"Just to wish you the happiest new year of your life and the best of all that's good the whole year 'round. Mr. and Mrs. Homer D. Wade."

"A very merry Christmas and a very happy new year to you and yours wish you the happiest of Christmases. May it be a perfect day of this lovely holiday season when the near approach of the New Year brings new opportunities of joy to us all.—T. M. Bartley"

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Record acknowledges receipt this week of a pass to the National Corn Exhibition at Dallas Feb. 10th to 24th at the Dallas Fair Grounds.

The Government Exhibit will cover 12,000 square feet of floor space, the Silo Exhibit, Dairying Department, Farm Machinery Display, Domestic Strations, and Educational Exhibits from Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations will be given much space, and cover a variety of subjects.

A dozen State and National Conventions, including that of the Texas Industrial Congress, held at the same time as the Exposition, is assurance that no special interest in the Agricultural World will be overlooked or neglected.

Please remind native and loyal Texans, again and again, that at this National Exposition, they will not be in a county competition, one against the other, but that Texas products and resources are to be inspected by the world at large, and will be in keenest competition with thirty-seven of the best and oldest agricultural states in the Union, which are bringing their finest products to show in Texas. So please urge each individual Texas Exhibitor to select his choicest grain to show, and each county in the state to make the finest possible display of its special resources and products.

Let them know that $50,000 are offered in premiums for various classes of farm products, and that the business men of Dallas have raised $100,000 which puts the Exposition on an absolutely solid financial basis.

Grand Opera and eloquent lectures for the High-brow country dwellers, Band Music (with popular airs) and real dancing for the merry hearted, aero-planes, and all kinds of outdoor contests and games for those who like to see a fair fight, including large cash prizes to be offered for genuine rough riding feats, with high honors for the man who can stay on the meanest maverick in Texas.

When you hear a man sneering at the local papers, you can safely bet he doesn't spend his time making them better.—Stanton Reporter.

Probably has not paid it a nickel in three years. If he were ever a subscriber he had to be cut out to meet the postal requirements.—Snyder Signal.

In this as in town improvements it is the fellow who pays less that does the most kicking. We cut em off when they don't pay.

ENTERING INTO WET CYCLE.

Seven to Ten Years of Frequent Rains?

That Texas in general and West Texas in particular is entering into a seven or ten year cycle of wet weather is the belief of government forecasters in the Southwest. For some years the accumulated annual deficiency of precipitation has been approximately six inches. This loss came well within the defined "dry cycle" and has caused much decrease in crop yields followed by a depression of land values and consequently a disheartening of many farmers with a general listlessness in all business circles.

However the weather observers express the conclusion that we are entering a "wet cycle" which will continue for a period of from seven to ten years, during which time adequate rainfall will come and as in the days when Joseph ruled in the land of the Pharaohs we will have "fat" years, which, when the "wet" cycle has been passed will again be succeeded by a "dry cycle" with a "leanness" of crops and a shortage of moisture.

As is pretty generally known the entire state has suffered from want of rainfall the past 4 years. The rain fall throughout the state has on an average been seven inches less than the normal, owing it is said, to the dry cycle through which we have passed. With the wet cycle following it is predicted that West Texas will have frequent and abundant rains and consequently, excellent crop yields.

These theories are supported by the fact that the country was supposed to have entered the wet cycle on September 1st, and since that date it is certainly true that the rainfall has been all that could be desired.

The revolutions of Mexico during the past three years have cost the Mormon colonists more than $10,000,000. These people had made the country where they located bloom as a garden; no more prosperous conditions were to be found anywhere than among the various Mormon colonies of northern Mexico. Their towns and cities were razed to the ground; their crops burned and destroyed; their orchards cut down and their great systems of irrigation ditches ruined. Prophet Smith, the head of the church has advised his people not to think of going back to Mexico, but to begin anew and build where they are, new towns and new churches.

LIQUOR IS NOT BAGGAGE.

Travelers on Railroads Can Not Have Wet Goods Checked as Such.

Austin, Tex.—Intoxicating liquors cannot be carried from wet into dry territory as baggage, is a ruling made today by the attorney general's department, given in an opinion written by Assistant Attorney General Sweeten and rendered to District Attorney W. B. O'Quinn at Lufkin.

A railroad company had refused to deliver a trunk in which a passenger had stored an amount of liquor and which had been checked to a station in dry territory. The railroad's refusal is upheld by the attorney general. It is held that baggage consignment is not "personal carriage."

The Home and State is trying to eliminate Will H. Mayes from the governor's race on account of him being

In the way of its friend Cullin. According to that paper there is only one man in Texas that can properly fill this office. With Home & State it is Thomas or no one, just like it was four years ago when it was Cono Johnson and no compromise. That paper wants every pro to vote for its candidate and is pouring poison in the hope that it is putting out getting many voters to believe that Mayes is unfit, to be governor, because hundreds of the voters have not been put next, that paper is unfair—making statements and insinuations that have no foundation. Too selfish is that paper—it has the interest of some candidate to champion more than it has for prohibition. Will Mayes is the strongest pro now in the race and has a splendid chance of being elected, and the Home & State should deal with him in a more genteel manner. It might read Governor Mayes.—Clisco Round Up.

Much of the education of children and young people today is out of balance because it lacks religion. The moral training of a child cannot be complete without religion. Yet many parents are content to leave the training of the religious nature of their children in the hands of the Sunday school teacher, and perhaps the teacher of the public day school. In the case of the parent's confidence in the Church that this will be well done, the confidence is not often betrayed. But how is it with the case of parents who leave all the moral training of their children to the instruction that they receive in the public school? There is great need that parents today shall themselves impress upon their children the lessons of self-control, morality and loving service of God.

Ring out the old; ring in the new; Ring happy bells across the snow. The year is going. Let it go. Ring out the false; ring in the true. —Tennyson.

Even as You and I.

TEN good resolutions standing in a line. Our hero stepped upon a tack; then there were nine.

Nine good resolutions. Our hero stayed out late. "A poor, sick friend," was his excuse—then there were eight.

Eight good resolutions, with a little leaven. A poker party with the "boys"; then there were seven.

Seven good resolutions barely half alive. "Oh, what's the use?" our hero asked; then there were five.

Five good resolutions battered, bruised and sore. Our hero had to go to "lodge"; then there were four.

Four good resolutions as nervous as could be. Our hero lit a cigar; then there were three.

Three good resolutions wearing crape and rue. Our hero shook the "bones" for beers; then there were two.

Two good resolutions. When the play was done. A lobster supper served for two; then there was one.

One good resolution out for air and sun. The water wagon ran away; then there was none. —John Northern Hilliard in Judge.

REVERSING THE ORDER.

The old year dies and the new year dawns. But time plays on with the selfsame pawns.

And still, for all we may say or do, "New" is but "old" set the other end to.

The old year was "new" few moons ago, And new year as "old" we soon shall know.

For ever this ancient truth is found—The "new" is "old" turned the other way round.

The old year goes, with its aged grief; The new year comes with youthful eyed belief. But deep though we quaff illusion's cup, Still "new" is "old" turned the other side up. —Frederick Moxon.

Good Cheer.

HAVE you had a kindness shown? Pass it on. 'Twas not given for you alone. Pass it on.

Let it travel down the years, Let it wipe another's tears, 'Till in heaven the deed appears. Pass it on. —New York Tribune.

ly does one good to listen to a song nowadays, of which one need not be ashamed to take a copy home.

The lyric does not consist of mere words, but is a poem possessing real charm and merit. Each line expresses an idea, new and original, which touches the tender chords of one's heart. The closing of the chorus comes as a punch and genuine surprise.

The music, which pairs well with that term, inasmuch as its success does not depend upon vulgar suggestion, but simply upon clean wholesome sentiment. WEAK KIDNEYS OFTEN THE RESULT OF OVERWORK

On several occasions I have been unable to work and suffered severe pains in the back, due to my kidneys, I called on a doctor of Ripon, Wis., but received no relief.

I tried Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which gave me instant relief. I was then able to resume work. Swamp-Root is the only relief I can get from kidney disease which I am subject to in the spring of the year. I am writing this testimonial through my own free will that sufferers of kidney and bladder diseases will know of the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root. I recommended Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root whenever I can and always have a bottle of Swamp-Root in my house.

I purchased Swamp-Root of Mr. C. J. Burnside, Druggist, of 202 Main Street, Ripon, Wis.

Yours very truly,

THOMAS J. LYNCH, 525 Newbury Street, Ripon, Wis. I have read the above statement that Thomas J. Lynch bought Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root at my store and made oath the above statement is true in substance, and fact.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 cent Bottle of Danderine right Now—Also stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance and an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

LAST YEAR.

During the Christmas jollification in New York City alone, 500,000 bottles of champagne at an average cost of $3 per bottle were consumed at the restaurants. This represents $1,500,000. Compare this with the effects the American Bible Society have been making for two years to raise half a million dollars on Mrs. Russell Sage's promise to give a like amount. The work of this society effects the destiny and happiness of every race on the globe; yet it has taken two years to raise $500,000 from a nation that spends three times as much in the public eating places of only one of its cities during one week. The bacchanalian revels in the most profligate days of Rome under Nero and Caligula, couldn't beat that.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is pleasant and safe to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale by W. L. Doss.

Poor Blood is Responsible for much sickness and suffering because its quality determines our resistive power. With poor blood we are languid, susceptible to colds, lack natural energy and ambition, and the gradual decline of strength makes prompt and careful treatment necessary. Drugs or alcohol cannot make blood and must be avoided.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is nature's grandest blood-maker because of its wholesome medical nourishment, so carefully predigested that it assimilates without taxing digestion and quickly increases the red corpuscles of the blood, strengthens the organs and tissues and rebuilds the whole system.

Absolutely nothing compares with SCOTT'S EMULSION to purify and enrich the blood to overcome or avoid anaemia. It is totally free from alcohol or opiates and your health demands the purity of Scott's.

Are You One Of Those Who Habitually Catch Cold?

Investigation Shows That Certain Occupations and Professions Are Constantly Prolific Causes For Frequent Colds. What Can Be Done About It?

We read a lot of medical literature that only entertains, but does not instruct. In this strenuous period, when life is put to such a severe strain, we need light and facts how to prevent disease more than talk that entertains.

Do you know that the clerk and the shop girl, the merchant and the professional man, confined to sedentary work, are daily creating those conditions that conduce to colds?

Mental fatigue, worry, heavy strain, nervousness resulting from desk or store work are the easiest means for the development of colds. The average life of a clergyman is less than that of a farmer—cause, sedentary work.

Sedentary life, especially where it means the consumption of brain tissue, often leads to over-eating; there is no more common cause of colds than over-eating.

When the digestive organs are weighed down with an excess of food, the liver and kidneys and other important vital organs are overworked, vitality is lower and there is less resistance; slight exposure, which under ordinary conditions causes no harm, results in a bad cold.

To relieve a cold, a good expectorant or cough remedy such as PERUNA should be conveniently at hand to be taken at the very first attack of the cold. But what can be done to stop the frequency of colds to such people that are confined to sedentary work?

Start with a cold water towel bath, walk to your place of business, or devote an hour of each day to outdoor life, take a dose of PERUNA before each meal to tone up your system, eat moderately, retire early and sleep in a room full of fresh air.

Mr. L. A. Richardson, a substantial druggist from Marine, Illinois, commenting on the merits of proprietary medicines, writes as follows:

"I have been engaged in the retail drug business here for the past forty years. During this time I have seen many patent medicines come into use, flourish for one or two years and then gradually disappear. There are very few of these remedies that possess enough real merit to insure their long life. Peruna has always been a good seller with us, with a marked increase from year to year. The change in the formula some years ago, by the addition of the slightly laxative properties, has made it a reliable remedy for constipation and for colds. I take pleasure in urging my brother druggists to recommend it for these two ailments."

Those who wish to begin the cold water towel bath should have a copy of the Ills of Life. Sent free by the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't Harm Tender Little Stomach, Liver, and Bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without gripping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

His Stomach Troubles Over. Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by W. L. Doss.

New Year's Wish and Telegrams

A very acceptable message to send with your card to a friend on New Year's morning is the following sentiment:

Now what is here? A word of cheer To herald in another year. May all its days be free of blame, A little nobler than your aim. May all its labors be contented A little better than your best And all the joys within its scope A little brighter than your hope. And may each year be found when past A little dearer than the last.

As a pastime distribute telegram blanks with the words "New Year's Day" in large letters at the top and tell each one to write a telegram beginning with the letters of the above in the order that they come. Of course these will be the merest nonsense, but loads of fun, as the following example shows: "Nora. Every woman yearns everlastingly after romantic situations. Delighted again yesterday."

STORE BURGLARIZED.

The only thing to mar the Christmas festivities so far as we have learned was the burglarizing of the grocery store of Y. D. McMurry on Christmas eve night. Entrance to the store was effected through the transome over the rear door, there was no glass in the transome and the parties cut the screen wire and crawled through. Mr. McMurry never turns on the combination to his safe. So all they had to do was to open the safe, which they done and pried the little iron cash drawer loose and took the drawer and contents with them. They got about $45 in money, some checks and other papers and a very nice watch belonging to D. A. Martin which he kept in the safe. Nothing else in the store was molested, not even the cash drawer in front. It is generally believed that the thief was familiar with the store or had come in that day and laid his plans etc. Of course payment of the checks was stopped and the loss will be confined to the actual cash and the watch.

Everybody, that is everybody who reads or thinks or hears theatrical things knows that "The Thief", which appears at the Colorado Opera House on Friday night Jan. 9th with Miss Helene Guilbert in the leading role, is a gripping, human story of intimate relations, the kind of happenings that everyone is likely to encounter. The relations are everyday ones, the loves are everyday ones. There are the relations of the four old friends who are married and understand each other. There are the husband and wife love and father and son love and the silly, futile little hopeless passion of the boy for woman and so on through out the list. It is a lesson for husbands; it is a lesson for wives and above all a lesson for maids and bachelors.

CENTRAL CIRCLE ENTERTAINS.

Wednesday evening the ladies of the Central Circle in the Methodist church entertained in honor of their husbands, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Smith. A program of music and readings was first enjoyed, given by Madams R. G. Smith, Annis, Bodine, Misses 'Coughran, Lorena Smith and Jones of Balenger, also a violin solo by Frank McLure. Then followed a guessing contest in which they were to guess what could be worn by the wives of the men in different occupations. After this refreshments of pie, sandwiches and coffee were served. It was an enjoyable evening for all, and they will start the New Year with greater zeal by having had the pleasant time. The husbands voted their wives charming entertainers.

Mr. Thompson the electric light manager returned home this week from the East and reports work progressing on the eastern end of this enterprise. He says a large force of men are at work erecting the big power plant at Sweetwater, putting in the water towers, dynamoes etc, nearly all the machinery is on the ground except the two big Diesel engines and these are on the road. The cable and poles are ordered and as soon as they arrive a force of 20 men will be put to work on the cable line and will get up about five miles per day. He says it is most certain now that the cable will reach Colorado by March 1st when the day current will be turned on. The cable will come into town near the cemetery thence by the W. W. Watson place thence west on eighth street to the John Haley place thence south to the plant. A polo yard has been leased at the East Salt works and all poles will be shipped and unloaded there and hauled by wagons along the line. A line will be extended up and down the river if the people want it.
