A. & M. THANKSGIVING ADDRESS.

Thanksgiving for farmers at this time, in recognition of the goodness of God, the bounties of nature, and the wisdom of diversification, is suggested by the A. & M. College as the dominant note of Thanksgiving exercises in rural schools on Thanksgiving Day, November 25. It is suggested that the rural ministry, the country press, commercial organizations, rural teachers, and others interest themselves at once in having neighborhood gatherings on Thanksgiving Day for holding appropriate services of praise and resolution. In pursuance of this idea, the College submits the following Farmers' Thanksgiving Address to be read on such occasions, together with a suggestion for exercises in the school house or church. It is suggested that the occasion might be properly employed also for an exhibit of neighboring products, or for athletic contests by the pupils of the school, or by the pupils of adjoining schools meeting together for the given occasion.

Thanksgiving Address.

Under the providence of God, in the smiles of benign nature, with prudent thought, and by careful tillage and studious husbandry, the farmers of Texas this year have reaped the harvest of cotton, wheat, corn, hay, and other products. These have been the result of the goodness of God, the bounties of nature, and the wisdom of diversification. We thank thee, O God, for the goodness of thy nature, for the wisdom of thy providence, for the bounties of thy nature, and for the wisdom of thy providence. We thank thee, O God, for the goodness of thy nature, for the wisdom of thy providence, for the bounties of thy nature, and for the wisdom of thy providence.

ARNETT-BEAL.

Pretty Church Wedding of a Popular Couple, Both Reared in Colorado.

A simple but pretty church wedding occurred at the Baptist church Wednesday morning at 8:20 o'clock when Mr. John Hamilton Arnett and Miss Annie Beal were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Williamson. The church had been most tastefully decorated in green and white. The railing in front of the choir platform and the rostrum were a bank of ferns and palms, while over the clock, the doors and windows in front were draped with green. Also the piano and tables were loaded with green filled in artistically with vases of cut white flowers, making a lovely semicircle of green and white. Just before the appointed time Mrs. Brooks Bell, with Mrs. Floyd Beal, as accompanist, sang very sweetly, "God Make This Mine." Then as Mrs. Beal played the Lohengrin wedding march the bridal party approached. First came the ushers, Messrs. Carl Phenix and Floyd Beal, the bridesmaids, Misses Lois Evans and Nell Ruth Arnett, then the maid of honor, Miss Marguerite Beal, sister of the bride, and the best man, Weston J. Press, the matron of honor, also sister of the bride, Mrs. D. N. Snyder, Jr., and lastly the bride on the arm of the groom. At the front the bride wore a semi-circle and the groom wore a suit of gray and white. The pastor pronounced the words that unite the husband and wife. Then to the strains of the organ's wedding march the bride and groom were escorted to the altar in their respective new homes in Lubbock.

The bride is a lovely young woman, and the groom is a well-to-do young man. They were both reared in Colorado. The bride's father is a prominent farmer, and the groom's father is a well-known merchant. The wedding was a very popular one, and many guests were present. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride and groom were both very happy and contented. They are now residing in Lubbock, Texas.

PROGRESSIVE HALLOWEEN PARTY.

LOWE'EN PARTY.

The progressive Halloween party given by the ladies of the Methodist church Saturday night was a success in every particular. A large crowd of fun-loving folk, both young and old, visited each place and enjoyed them all. Each hostess and her assistants had prepared suitable features for the evening with appropriate decorations, every one being different and therefore the more enjoyable. The first hostess was Mrs. Crockett. Here the tickets for the round trip were sold and the fun started. Here the witches' den was set up and on entering the real fortune teller with nothing but good fortune presided. The fire under the clock was looked so real that numbers of the guests felt the heat and asked that the window be raised to cool the room. Apples, scrub and ginger cakes were served to the guests for their next stay. It was at Mrs. Cooksey's home that the party was held. Her home was a beautiful one and the party was a very successful one. The ladies of the church were very kind and the party was a very enjoyable one.

THE PEOPLE VERSUS THE SPECIAL INTERESTS.

(By William J. Bryan.)
Another fight is on between the people and the special interests, and the Democratic party is the only party in position to take the people's side. Ex-President Roosevelt is following for war. He wants this Nation to enter the present conflict, and his chief adviser, Geo. W. Perkins, is identified with the Steel Trust, which is ready to furnish the preparedness. Ex-President Taft, who has the support of all the trusts that are not supporting Mr. Roosevelt, wants to increase the army and navy appropriations one hundred and fifty millions (sixty per cent), so that as shall be able to join in future wars—that is the plan of his "League to ENFORCE Peace."

Both Roosevelt and Taft are protectionists—they believe in taxing the many for the benefit of the few, and preparedness gives an excuse for raising the tariff. The Democratic party took the side of the people against the tariff barons; it took the side of the people against the trust magnates, and it took the side of the people against Wall Street—the real money power back of both tariff barons and trust magnates.

Now, a new power has arisen in the land and demands control of the tax-

10 CENT "CASCARETS" BEST LAXATIVE FOR LIVER AND BOWELS.

Don't Stay Constipated, Headachy, Bilious, With Breath Bad Or Stomach Sour.

No odds how bad your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches, how miserable and uncomfortable you are from a cold, constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sluggish bowels—you always get relief with Cascarets.

Don't let your stomach, liver and bowels make you miserable. Take Cascarets tonight; put an end to the headache, biliousness, dizziness, nervousness, sick, sour, gassy stomach, bad cold, offensive breath and all other distress; cleanse your inside organs of all the bile, gases and constipated matter which is producing the misery.

A 10-cent box means health, happiness and a clear head for months. All druggists sell Cascarets. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a gentle cleansing, too.

ing power. It is preparedness—the battleship builders and the manufacturers of munitions. They have been making enormous profits supplying the belligerent nations with fighting material, but the European war must end some time—not as long as these human vultures can keep it going—but SOME TIME; and what will these concerns do for watermelon-like dividends then? There is only one way to insure their continued prosperity—they must lash their country into a state of chronic fear, and then coin the fear into dollars. They already have their subsidized organs setting up a false standard of National honor—the duellist's standard; they are glorifying brute force. They are transplanting upon American soil the European tree of hatred, which is bearing its bloody fruit across the Atlantic.

No time is to be lost; immediate action is necessary. Congress will soon meet, and when it meets this issue will confront it. Write to your Congressman—write to both your Senators. Tell them that this Nation does not need burglar's tools unless it intends to make burglary its business; it should not be a pistol-toting Nation unless it is going to adopt pistol-toters' ideas.

Don't let the jingoes confuse the issue. It is not a question of defense—this country will defend itself if it is ever attacked—and if that time ever comes the common people will furnish the soldiers—those who fight when the country needs fighters, and work when the country needs workers—the jingoes will be too busy making army contracts and negotiating usurious war loans to go to the front. The preparedness now demanded will provoke war, instead of preventing it. Peace among nations, as among individuals, rests upon friendship and good will; not upon force or fear. Try threats and ultimatums on your neighbors, and see how they work; and then you will understand the diplomacy that has reddened the pages of history and delayed the coming of universal brotherhood. Write—and write NOW.

A. J. Herrington spent 8 days in Dallas investigating the various makes of cars on exhibition and came home better pleased with the qualities and honest workmanship of his line—Mitchell and Ford—than ever. They are honestly built, with nothing covered up.

"BROTHER OFFICERS" SHOWN.

"Brother Officers," a story of British army and society life, is convincingly portrayed by a British company on the Opera House Theatre screen next week. The actors give to it touches that no American company would be likely to effect, although an American, it is noted, prepared the scenario.

The racetrack scenes at the start are full of life and color, the fight with Afghan tribesmen in India is vividly realistic, and the later quieter action in English barracks and English manor houses is even more dramatic. The "ranker's" determination to sacrifice himself a second time for the gentleman officer shows that he at last has become a real gentleman.

Nothing frightens a mother more than the loud hoarse cough of croup. Labored breathing, struggling, choking and gasping for breath demand instant action. Mrs. T. ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

SKIRMISHES PRECEDE AGUA PRIETA FIGHT, VILLA SEIZES NACO.

Naco, Ariz., Oct. 30.—Villistas occupied Naco, Sonora, today. A force of 700 cavalry, commanded by General Mandez, occupied the little Mexican town across the border here without opposition.

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 30.—Villa's main army was reported today by General Calles to be located at Corral de Pablos, on the San Bernardino river, about twenty-five miles southeast of here.

General Calles said he did not expect an attack until tomorrow or Monday.

Villa authorities sent word today to United States officials that fifteen Americans held by Villa troops at El Tigre and Cananea, Sonora, were safe and would not be harmed. The message said the Americans probably would reach the border tomorrow, traveling in wagons.

Villa's army resumed at daylight its march on Agua Prieta, Sonora, across the border from here, preceded by a cavalry advance guard which reached a point eighteen miles east of here.

Prisoners told General P. Elias, Carranza commander of Agua Prieta, that Villa's troops were hardly able to fight and that woman and children, composing the customary camp followers, were in a pitiable state.

Two troops of United States cavalry and a machine gun platoon were placed on guard at Slaughter's ranch today, across the border from Villa's cavalry advance guard.

Instant Relief! "Pape's Diapepsin" Ends Your Stomach Trouble Forever.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated

Large Dairy Farmers Use Texaco Roofing

THAT in itself is one of the strongest recommendations for this particularly valuable Texaco Product.

Dairy farming, with its necessarily large investment and its costly live stock, has become a valuable and efficient industry.

The experienced business man engaged in it uses Texaco Roofing to protect his cows from rain and damp.

Texaco Roofing is a paying proposition for him. Not only for the protection afforded, but for the low cost of upkeep and the ease with which it is applied. These features make it doubly valuable on your house, barn or factory.

Lay it yourself and make a perfect roof. Get in touch with the Texaco agent in your town. Let him explain Texaco Roofing to you. It is a worthy representative of the whole line of Texaco Quality Products.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

ONE MORE WEEK TO WIND UP THE CROP.

Up to Saturday night Abilene had received less than 7,000 bales of new-crop cotton, and it is evident that the crop is nearly all picked, ginned and most of it sold.

Public Weigher E. J. Ellison, who has weighed upwards of 5,200 bales of cotton this season, said Saturday that he had weighed many bales for farmers who announced that it was their last bale of the season. The gins have already handled many remnants. Everything points to the fact that this week will very nearly wind up the cotton season around Abilene. Ideal weather is hastening the end.

The past week only about 250 bales were shipped out, as against over 700 bales the week before. The bulk of the cotton is still in the local yards and warehouses, held mostly by buyers.

The farmers in the main are rushing their picking so as to get the stalks plowed under or burned, thus giving the boll weevil a premature grave.—Abilene Reporter.

A 'STITCH IN TIME.

Colorado People Should Not Neglect Their Kidneys.

No kidney ailment is unimportant. Don't overlook the slightest backache or urinary irregularity. Nature may be warning you of approaching dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Kidney disease is seldom fatal if treated in time, but neglect may pave the way. Don't neglect a lame or aching back another day. Don't ignore dizzy spells, irregular or discolored urine, headaches, weariness or depression. If you feel you need kidney help begin using the reliable, time-tried remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. For 50 years, Doan's have been found effective. Endorsed by grateful people.

B. F. Davis, Snyder, Texas, says: "I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me a world of good. Several years ago I had pains across the small of my back and in my sides. As Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended, I got a supply and used them as directed. Two boxes were all I needed for a cure. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from weak kidneys."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Davis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HALF MILLION RUSSIANS READY TO AID SERBIA.

London, Oct. 29.—From German sources it is reported that Rumania is about to throw in her lot with the entente allies and will allow the passage of a half million Russian troops through her territory to attack Bulgaria from the north.

The Germans with their Austrian and Bulgarian allies are still making an attempt to cut the main Serbian army, which is offering spirited resistance to the invaders.

While Field Marshal Von Mackensen's force advances slowly from the north the Austrians have crossed the western border of Serbia south of Visegrad and are moving eastward and the Bulgarians are marching westward on a wide front from Pirot, which lies southeast of Nish, to Zajecar to the northeast of Nish.

It is of course a long way across and the country is difficult to traverse, but the Serbians are bound to defend it as long as possible, as their great arsenal at Kraguyevatz is situated in this area, and they will doubtless hold on with the hope of making an eventual retirement in the mountains along the Montenegrin frontier and in that country.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD—NO QUININE.

"Pape's Cold Compound" End Bad Colds or Grippe in a Few Hours.

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippiness and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops, nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffing! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.

"HENPECKED HENRY."

Laughter is recommended by all physicians as good for what ails you. The man who can laugh and enjoy himself is ever welcome in any throng. Laughter is a better tonic than any concoction the apothecary can mix, because it drives dull care and the patient does not know he is taking medicine.

Many a business man with cares on his mind is transported into another land in a few moments when he gets a chance to laugh heartily. It is a stimulant both to the brain and the brawn. Some men make a business of establishing laugh factories, and then, with the aid of the public, maintaining them for the good of all.

If you are in need of the best tonic in the world get ready to see Halton Powell's "Henpecked Henry" when that man of a million troubles comes to the Opera House Thursday night, November 11th. "Henpecked Henry" is the best laugh factory ever put on the American stage, and principally so because his many predicaments are home-like productions. This famous cartoon musical farce has enjoyed most successful runs through the English speaking nations, and almost entirely so because it is a geyser of mirth.

As the show comes here, it is presented by an especially strong cast, and every one in it makes life happy for themselves and for their auditors by working the hilarity mill overtime. The coming of this show is in keeping with the efforts of the Opera House to make this season one memorable for the quality of the shows presented.

SHOPS CLOSED THIS WEEK.

The Texas & Pacific shops here closed Monday afternoon to remain closed until Monday, November 1st. Just what plan the railroad company has in view by making these shutdowns a day or so each week and from thee to six days at the close of each month is a puzzle to most everyone.

Had they no engines awaiting repairs and had they more engines than the traffic demanded there might be some reason for these shutdowns, but it is stated that many engines are in need of repairs and trains are often laid out for extended periods because of lack of power.

The plan, whatever it is, comes from the head officers of the system and we note no inclination on their part to do as one big railroad system did—dock the pay of the high officials to cut down the expenses of the road instead of cutting down the pay of the men who were doing the work.

Whether the plan adopted is to cause a sentiment in favor of an increase in freight rates is not known, but it is a known fact that a railroad system that would be unable to handle any additional business because of lack of power and continues to make no effort to get additional power in shape is following a mighty poor business method.—Big Springs Herald.

ALL CHILDREN LOVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS.

Give It When Feverish, Cross, Bilious, For Bad Breath or Sour Stomach.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomachache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

THIRD NOTICE.

Don't take chances in the matter of Christmas presents. You don't want yours, like so many others, to be received with indifference or worse, and ten days after Christmas to be cast aside and forgotten.

You take no such chance in giving The Youth's Companion for a year. Did you ever know of a home in which it came amiss, or of one in which it was not conspicuous on the library table or in some one's hands all through the year?

It is worth while to make a gift of that sort, and it is worth while to receive it, too, for The Companion illustrates the best traits in American life in its stories and sketches, upholds the best standards in its articles and other contributions, and combines the practical and informing with the entertaining and blood-stirring.

If you do not know The Companion as it is today, let us send you one or two current issues free, that you may thoroughly test the paper's quality. We will send also the Forecast for 1916.

Every new subscriber who sends $2.00 for the fifty-two weekly issues of 1916 will receive free all the issues for the rest of 1915 and The Companion Home Calendar for 1916. The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass.

New Subscriptions received at this office.

Herrington sells coupon books with which you can buy anything he handles and sells for the cash. The coupons will pay for gas, repairs, tires and anything sold at a garage. $5 books for $4.75; $10 books for $9.50; $20 books for $19.00. This system is best for both parties.

Old John Barleycorn was a business visitor to our town last Saturday. He accompanied one of his friends to the city cooler end shook hands with several others.

Senator Vardaman, of Mississippi, was a tie cutter for the nearest railroad—Fort Worth Record. Wasn't it a hunter or soldier, he was? When we first knew Jimmie he was a powerful shooter—of bones.

It is a trifle early to forecast the biennial candidate crop, but from present stirrings of the soil we may reasonably expect a satisfactory yield of young men who are hankering for a chance and older ones with claims upon the state and county treasuries, not omitting that godly number of hangovers who seek to be endorsed by another term.

Can one marvel at the recent political and meteorological disturbances that have shocked the town of Corpus Christi when it is recorded that the first circus within sixty years visited that benighted hamlet last week. And in further evidence that the occurrence was in the nature of a cataclysm, a freight shed collapsed as the street parade luffed into the offing and killed two boys. The town might take cumulative doses of Bailey Bros' show and in time get used to the visitation of a real one.

The fellow who had the pipe dream, with plans and specification trimmings, of the undersea tunnel the Germans are excavating to invade England, should quickly hit the pipe again and undream it. Tunneling the English channel is an engineering problem coeval with the digging of the Panama canal, and estimated as secondary only to that great enterprise in time and labor. Only a few men could be engaged on making such a tunnel and at only one place, and after such a tunnel should have been finished, it would be as difficult for an effective German force to secure footing in England as it is now to do so by water invasion.

The fact that the town of Abilene has received something less than 7,000 bales of the 1915 cotton up to last Saturday, and the prediction that another week would virtually wind up the entire cotton crop of that contributing section, not only tells a sad tale of destruction by the boll weevil, but contains a warning to the farmers of Mitchell county. "Forewarned is forearmed." If the farmers of this county wait until the next cotton crop is planted and the weevils begin to manifest themselves in myriads, it will be too late to cry "wolf." The time to work against their presence most effectively, will be just after the present crop is clear of the fields. To this end the state and federal departments of agriculture are most active and anxious in the dissemination of information. Numerous bulletins are available containing valuable suggestions as to the best means of lessening the ravages of these pests. Begin in time to at least mitigate the calamity, if it can not be aborted.

KEEP IT STRAIGHT, NOT STRAIT.

The Snyder Signal last week stated that in recounting the 22 counties which Judge Thomas L. Blanton carried last year in his race for congress, the Abilene Reporter should have stated that he lost his judicial district by 44 votes. In this statement the Snyder Signal was in error. The 42nd judicial district over which Judge Blanton presides is composed of the counties of Taylor, Callahan, Stephens, Shackelford and Eastland. Judge Blanton got a majority of exactly 458 votes in said judicial district.—Abilene Reporter.

It is true that Judge Blanton attracted some notice in the uttermost parts of Samaria; it is likewise true that he brought home the bacon from Judea, but in Jerusalem—his own voting precinct—he was defeated by 44 votes. This, just to keep the record straight instead of strait.

A JOUCUND KICK.

The following communication explains itself: "Now that we have a county fairs demonstrator, I have kindly asked him to come to my place, but to date he never has. So, that the public might know just the kind of section of the country I live and work in. I send in a little stuff to advertise a section the demonstrator never visits.—Average Farmer."

Referring to the above, the Record desires to say that some of the finest specimens of cotton, maize, two varieties of turnips, sudan grass were brought to this office by Average Farmer last week we have ever seen—one stalk of cotton bearing 88 full grown bolls. Added to this exhibit was one of the biggest old-fashioned collard West Texas ever produced; it was as big in circumference as a $1.50 washtub, and we straightway condemned both it and the turnips to the boiling pot.

"Eat less," admonishes Henry Ford, who seems to have succeeded Andy Carnegie as adviser-general to the universe.—Boston Transcript.

Coming from a fellow that owns a corporation paying ten millions of dividends upon a two million dollar investment, the above admonition is worth much to the other fellow who is out of work and hungry, and who hasn't even the "less" to eat. It is about as pertinent and contains about as much sense and discretion as the supposedly humorous admonition of Marie Antoinette when the volcano of the Red Terror was seething with eruption: "If the people haven't bread, let them eat cake!"

Attention is directed to the program and address promulgated by the A. & M. College agricultural department, printed on another page of the Record and recommended to the rural schools of Texas for observance on Thanksgiving Day. It will prove both instructive and entertaining and stimulative of patriotism. The Record would be glad to know that every school in Mitchell county carried out fully this program. There is enough latitude allowed to make it adaptable to every school in the county.

NEXT CONGRESS A BUSY ONE.

Judge Smith Discusses Some Important Pending Legislation.

In the opinion of Congressman W. R. Smith the coming session of Congress which convenes on December 6th will be a busy one. He left for El Paso Monday on official business and will go from there direct to Washington. As is his usual custom he goes thus far in advance so that he may have time before the session begins to clear up the business of his constituents before the Departments, prepare the bills he expects to introduce, and get ready for the work of the session.

"Within the short space of two years," he declared, "this Democratic administration has put more wise and wholesome constructive legislation upon the statute books than had been enacted during the previous period of fifty years. In addition, it has met and solved with signal success an unusual number of the most dangerous and perplexing problems of an international character that have ever vexed and threatened the peace of the nation."

"With this record of successful achievement to our credit, the American people can look with confidence to the coming session of Congress for a wise solution of other important questions—questions which new events have recently thrust upon us as well as questions of long standing which the progressive spirit of our party regards as too long neglected."

"Right now the question of national defense seems paramount in the public mind. Above everything else America stands for peace—the right to occupy and enjoy its own home unmolested, and to have the freedom of the high seas according to its rights under international law. It covets nothing possessed by any other nation. It merely wants to be let alone. The hope of the American people is that some way may be found, that adequate processes may be established, through which permanent peace among the nations of the earth may be insured. But if I mistake not, they insist, and properly so, that in the meantime and until that way is found and those processes are established, means of adequate defense against the possible aggression of warlike nations shall be provided."

"While I do not believe that preparedness for war makes for peace, I do believe that preparedness for defense does, and is obedience to the first law of nature. There is no danger of this country being converted into a military camp. Our people have well manifested their devotion to peace and have thoroughly demonstrated their capacity for self-restraint. Some of the other nations have not shown such a peaceable nature nor such capacity for self-restraint. This is the lamentable fact which makes preparation for defense on our part necessary. Congress will no doubt give the most careful consideration to this question and with due regard for economy provide a reasonable plan of defense that will be satisfactory to a majority of the people."

"I also look to see provision made for a merchant marine along lines suggested in the speech of Secretary MeAdoo recently at Indianapolis. Permanent markets for our surplus products must be secured, and now is the opportunity. We have so revised our tariff laws as to relieve many of our industries of burdens which handicapped them in foreign trade, we have made provision by the establishment of branch banks in foreign countries and otherwise, to adequately finance our foreign commerce. But these necessary steps will avail us but little if we have not the means of transportation or if we have to depend upon our competitors to carry our goods. It is a wise proposal that we provide ships for commerce in time of peace but to be used as an auxiliary to our navy in case of war."

"We are also pledged for a system of farm credits, and if we fail to provide such a system at the coming session, we shall lay ourselves open to the charge of a breach of faith with the great agricultural interests of the country. Commercial banking is utterly inadequate to meet the needs of the farming class. What is needed is a system by which the investment capital of the country may be had by farmers on long time at a low rate of interest. Such a system exists in other countries and there is no reason why we should not provide one, and I believe this will be done."

"It is my opinion also that the coming session of Congress will pass a measure which will absolutely put an end to the practice indulged in by some national banks of charging usurious rates of interest. Recent disclosures upon this subject have been shocking in the extreme. National banks are chartered upon the assumption that their rates of interest will be fair and reasonable; that they will be an aid to production and com-

OPTIMISM GETS ALL IN SYSTEM.

Automobile Industry Can Now Compare Favorably on Scientific Side.

Detroit, Oct. 30.—Before his board of directors, the general manager of one of the leading automobile-building concerns of a few years ago, earnestly advised that in the season to come, the company build one thousand cars instead of the three hundred it had just finished.

The directors, aghast, termed the director a dreamer and declared there were not one thousand prospective automobile owners in the world. It is the executive who tells the story. He is one of the biggest men in the industry today. The directors and the company they directed vanished some time ago from the active list.

Scientific Production.

Men of the same type as this early optimist have been back of every automobile manufacturing success in Detroit and Michigan. Their early efforts in manufacturing were crude and hectic, but with time and experience they have developed their optimism into scientific lines and have organized plans of production and distribution so efficient as to bear creditable comparison to any industry of long standing.

The Maxwell Motor Company, incorporated, for instance, began its production of the present model in July with a definite schedule of production and delivery for every car of the 60,000 to be built. Each day's work of the mammoth plants here, and at Newcastle and at Dayton, was laid out in advance. Each car in this schedule was definitely assigned a certain Maxwell dealer. Its date of shipment formed part of the dealer's contract and the contracts covered the whole fiscal year. It was arranged to give each dealer his cars in carload lots. For long distances trainloads were dated, weeks and months ahead.

To stick to this schedule in every detail is a Maxwell principle, although to do so, the Maxwell sales department has, in the last two months, been forced to decline more than six million dollars worth of orders from dealers who fairly begged for more cars than their schedule numbered.

During August and September the Maxwell plants, pushed to their limits, built nearly 11,000 cars—1,000 above the schedule of their sales department. This surplus was divided conscientiously between the Maxwell dealers in greatest need, but relatively was only a drop in the bucket of demand. So careful was the division made, however, that even the retail branches of the company were held to their original allotments, the surplus going entirely to dealers.

The Maxwell is promising 6,000 cars a month, beginning in October. This production will enable Sales Manager Stebbins to retain enough of a margin to take care of a faction, at least, of the dealers whose first estimates fell so far below the demand which their respective localities have developed.

TILL THE PIPE WENT OUT.

Honor the cook; acclaim her prowess! Three cheers and a tiger for the crisp mornings soon here. Grin—hang you—grin and be glad as you think of the weather. Brother Irl Hicks has doped out for us betwixt this and Christmas—the weather that makes all rightly constructed and regularly constituted folks step lively, makes their ears tingle and noses red.

The day of flapjacks, brindle gravy and homespun sausage is just turning the corner! The kitchen, whose smells you might have abhorred during the hot summer months, will soon send forth such appetizing and seductive aromas that you can visualize dazzling hours functioning around an altar of roses still.

Sniff it; breathe it; enjoy it a thousand times before realizing it once—Flapjack and its twin brother, Sausage! Let out another—make it two—holes in your belt; gird your loins, fortify your stomach and thank the Good Lord for the ample room inside of you. Cast out grouch, gout and all manner of bellyache and hard thinking against your neighbors and assume that state of thankful grace befitting that memorable morning when you shall sit down at table with the honorable Flapjack and delectable Sausage.

Wake up, you blue-nosed pessimist! Come alive, man. List to the odoriferous sizzlings in the frying pan, and hark to the merry flap of the jack as the festive cook flops it on the plate and says, "Here's victuals what is—come arunning."

The migration of shows of first one kind and then another over a section, is a reliable indicator on the face of its prosperity. Where there is no prosperity there are few shows and far between. West Texas never had a greater plethora of tented and barnstorming attractions than during the current fall; and never was the sledding easier for the troubadour, the pianist or minstrel than now. Clean entertainment is as necessary a factor in the attainment of human happiness as the elements of bread and water.

The more prosperous a community the more time and enjoyment it gives to its entertainment. It is a natural craving and outlet. Men, women and children must have some kind of pleasure and diversion from the daily grind of bread-winning work, and if the clean and wholesome kind is not provided, they will seek and be influenced by the unsound and corrupting. If your kid is a natural one, he or she will fairly home to see every circus and wholesome show that comes to town. If you are a regulation parent, you will cheerfully provide the quid pro quo, if the kid hasn't it. If you will not give your kid the money to secure good and harmless entertainment, you would not give him money to uplift the heathen, feed a hungry person, buy a dog or anything else for his own pleasure—in short your name is Tite Wad. Don't make the occasion of his pleasure an excuse for your own meanness.

Talk about the shot that was heard around the world; what about the one that killed Miss Edith Cavell in Brussels? It not only went a long distance but its echoes will reverberate in German ears for many years.

Bay View.

Mrs. C. M. Adams was hostess for the Bay View last week with Mrs. M. Carter as leader. The lesson was: Roll Call—Quotations from Shakespeare.

Cymbeline, Act II, Scenes 1, 2, 3. Current Events.

Mill on the Floss, Chap. 3. An elegant two-course luncheon was served at the social hour. Miss Juanita Pond was a guest.

Standard.

The Standard met with Mrs. Sherwin last week. The program was: Roll Call—Art and Music of Australia.

Henry IV, Act V—Mrs. Coleman. Australian History, Chapters 9, 10—Mrs. Burns. Paper—Famous Australian Women—Mrs. Looney. Social hour, refreshments.

Tourist Club.

What was formerly known as the Young Ladies' Study Club was properly named and christened The Tourist Club at their regular meeting last Saturday which was held with Miss Ruby Campbell.

Miss Jessie Person was the leader and the lesson was on America, from the Bay View Magazine. They will make a tour of several countries through this magazine but will see America first.

Miss Jeannete Earnest and Mrs. Patton were guests. Ice cream and cake were served after the lesson.

Merry Wives.

Mrs. Leslie Crowder was hostess for the Merry Wives last week. After seven enjoyable games the honor of highest score fell to Mrs. Chaney. The guests were Mesdames Ed Jones, Sam Wulfjen and D. C. Byrne. A delicious salad course was served by the hostess. Mrs. Chaney is hostess this week.

Study Club.

The Study Club met with Mrs. Pierce with Mrs. Rafter as leader. After a rendition by each member of the Pope Poems. The other time was spent in studying "The Boy and The Angel."

The hostess had as guests Mesdames Brooks Bell, Duff, Judd, Floyd Beall, Jerold Borden, Misses Eleanor Coleman, Boren, Poe, McIntyre.

At the social hour all were invited in the dining room which was especially pretty with Hallowe'en and autumn decorations, where a delightful two-course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Hesperian.

The Hesperian met with Mrs. Edgar Majors last week with Mrs. Chaney as leader. After roll call with a word about Athens in the first century. The time was spent in the reading of "Cleon" and followed by questions on same. At the social hour light refreshments were served.

FOUNDING.

The Methodists gave their beloved pastor a most merciful pounding last Friday evening. All afternoon the good things for the larder were taken to Mr. Arnett's and in the evening they went in a body to see that they were properly delivered.

There was a generous supply of almost all necessary things for the pantry and many luxuries. A most pleasant evening was spent socially with the pastor and his good family.

CALL MEETING OF CIRCLE.

The Central Circle of the Methodist church met in called session at the church house Monday afternoon to complete their report of the year's work before their pastor left for conference. They turned over to him one hundred dollars of the conference collections besides work done in many other ways.

SUNBEAM TEA.

The first tea given by the Sunbeam Society in the Sunday school rooms on Tuesday was quite a success. The little folks were delighted to serve the guests who honored them with their presence, with salad, pickles, wafers and coffee. They also realized a neat little sum for their treasury. Mrs. Terrell and Mrs. A. L. Whipkey assisted them.

We are the only people in Colorado that carries a complete line of stoves and all stove accessories. H. L. Hutchinson & Company.

SENIOR ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Lula Mae Dulaney, one of the senior class of the high school, entertained most delightfully with a Hallowe'en party at their lovely new home Friday night, honoring the class of 1915 and 1916.

The house was appropriately and beautifully decorated with yellow and black drapery and black cats, pumpkins and other "hollowe'ny" things.

Mrs. Dulaney greeted the guests at the door. They were escorted up to the dressing rooms by Miss Lula Mae.

After many "stunts" in keeping with the occasion, partners were found by matching nursery rhymes for a picture show given in a spacious room upstairs. This was conducted by Harry Ratliff, who proved to be an artist in that line. Refreshments of fruit salad, wafers, coffee, pumpkin pie with whipped cream were served. Numerous diplomas, containing a wish from the hostess and tied with the class colors—red and white—were given as souvenirs.

Mrs. and Miss Dulaney were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. M. Carter and Misses Lela Whipkey and Natalie Smith. The good nights were said almost too late for "beauty sleep" but the pleasure derived from the evening will overbalance the effect.

SPECIAL METHODIST SERVICES.

Our Methodist brethren and sisters had a housewarming service in their new church last Sunday. The occasion was the completion of the conference year, and though the building is not yet clear of the carpenters' and decorators' hands, the special windows not being placed, it was deemed the fitting thing by pastor and people to conclude the business of the year and allow the preacher to go up to conference with clearance of all obligations and conscience void of all unfinished matters. Special music was rendered by contingents from the several choirs of the town and short addresses made by leading laymen. The sum of $300, the amount due on the remodeling of the building, etc., was easily and quickly raised by Judge W. P. Leslie.

All in all, the pastor and members of this congregation have done a great and commendable work the past year. They now have the most attractive and commodious church edifice in Colorado, while its completion has been an incentive to greater devotion and consecration on the part of both pastor and congregation.

CHRISTIAN AID.

The Christian Aid Society had their last regular meeting with Mrs. Jim Hale. Besides the regular business the Christmas Bazaar was much talked of and planned for. It will be held at some convenient place the first Friday and Saturday in December. They will have a good assortment of things suitable for Christmas presents and ask their friends to bear this in mind. They also decided to freshen up the parsonage right away both outside and in, to have it ready for their new pastor, Rev. Mr. Burkhardt, who has accepted this work and will move his family here soon. After work chicken salad, sandwiches and coffee were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Robt. Terrell sings the praises of the fireless cooker sold by E. Keathley.

The sixth grade had a program in their room last Friday afternoon and in the evening they went "spooking" and to the picture show en masse, accompanied by their teacher, Miss Ruth Oliver, Miss Morgan and Mrs. Terrell.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Miss Thelma Payne celebrated her eighth birthday Saturday afternoon by having a crowd of her little girl friends come play with her. All kinds of games were enjoyed and particularly those of Hallowe'en nature. Each little guest brought a gift as a souvenir of this red letter day. Refreshments were served by the little hostess and her mama.

SHOWER AT MRS. FOWLKES.

On last Thursday afternoon Miss Lois Prude and Mrs. Edwin Fowlkes entertained with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Fowlkes honoring Miss Annie Beal, one of Colorado's popular young ladies, who wedded this week.

The Hallowe'en spirit was carried out in the decorations—yellow and black predominating with jack 'o lanterns and black cats in conspicuous places while beautiful yellow chrysanthemums and nasturtiums were in vases on mantles and tables. The receiving line consisted of Mrs. Fowlkes, the bride-elect, Mrs. Beal, Mrs. Snyder, Miss Marguerite Beal, and Miss Prude, all wearing yellow. After the guests had all arrived they were led to the library where an ivy-covered well with its old oaken bucket was the source of an enjoyable program. Mrs. Bell, Miss Adams and Miss Hooper sang an original song to the air of The Old Oaken Bucket; then Mrs. Looney read a message from the Witch telling the young ladies they would find their fortunes in the well. When they pulled little yellow ribbon they found it in rhyme. Miss Prude was told she would be the old maid, while Miss Beal was told to look deeper and in doing so she found dainty treasures in the bucket, all for her new home from loving friends.

Mrs. Burns also showed them in the dining room where beauty and hospitality were in evidence. On the table rested a pumpkin filled with lovely yellow chrysanthemums and in vases were other beautiful flowers. Misses Marguerite Beal, Eleanor Van Tuyl and Eleanor Coleman served yellow ice with chocolate centers and individual cakes with miniature pumpkin decorations.

DINNER AT THE BARCROFT.

Mesdames D. N. Arnett, Jr., Floyd Beal, T. W. Stonerod, Jr., and Miss Nell Ruth Arnett were hostesses at a five-course six o'clock dinner given at The Barcroft Monday honoring the Arnett-Beal bridal party. Covers were laid for nineteen. The table was artistically decorated with white chrysanthemums, while dainty mint baskets with lilies of the valley decorations were caught with dainty ribbons from the center-piece. The place cards were decorated with orange blossoms. Mrs. Bell acted as toast-mistress. Mr. Wooton Jefferson gave a toast to the bride, Miss Prude one to the groom. Then Mrs. Snyder gave a toast to the hostesses.

VISITATION OF REBEKAHS.

The local lodge of Rebekahs was honored last Saturday night by a visitation of the Sweetwater degree team, which conferred the degree upon two candidates by request of the local lodge. There were twenty-six members of the visiting team and their work was most excellently done.

After the practice of the more immediate rites of the order, refreshments were served and after the discussion of which, talks for the good and uplift of the order were made by both visiting and home talent. The members of the home lodge report a most enjoyable occasion and quite an impetus given this branch of a noble order. This result is remarkable only by reason of the absence of Bro. W. L. Doss, whose unbroken presence at these festive meetings for a term of years, the length of which he would not care to have us mention, has been a perennial and never failing source of enlightenment bordering upon hilarity. But he was seeing the big fair at Dallas.

BALE OF COTTON FOR RED CROSS.

At the solicitation of Mrs. William R. Smith, wife of Congressman Smith, who is working in aid of the Red Cross societies in Europe, the local cotton buyers this week contributed a bale of cotton to be sent to the European hospitals after being prepared for surgical dressing. Mr. R. E. Dolman secured the various contributions to the bale.

"BROTHER OFFICERS" AT OPERA HOUSE.

The famous military play, "Brother Officers," will be the feature at the Opera House Movies Tuesday night, November 9th. It was presented with great success at the Empire several years ago by Margaret Anglin and William Faversham. Henry Ainley will be seen in the role of John Hinds, the part which Mr. Faversham originated.

Dance at Club Rooms.

Monday night the young men friends of the bride and groom entertained with a dance in their honor at the Colorado Club rooms. Sandwiches and coffee were served as refreshments and in the "wee sma' hours" all went home to dream of the coming event on Wednesday that deprives Colorado of another popular couple.

WHICH IS OF THE MOST VALUE TO OUR COUNTRY, THE PRESIDENT OR THE FARMER?

We take the side of the Farmer. In our way of thinking he should stand in the very foreground of life. We view him as the originator and producer of all the necessities of life. His products are called for by every home and speculator of all the world. His occupation is one of the most honorable and independent callings in life, but least appreciated and least spoken of in print or by the public, regardless of the fact that our greatest men were brought up on the farm. Yet with all the pleasure and planning of so many happy marriages of our honorable farmers they fail to publish to the world their engagements in a manner like to our President. They being equal in flesh and blood; the farmers should be considered more than horny-handed sons of toil.

If you will only stop and think of your present condition—in peace and in health and in a land of prosperity. The President, Woodrow Wilson, is one of the central figures in the world today. His position as a possible arbiter of peace between the warring nations is the most important ever held by any man in a high position. Largely to him alone has fallen the task of solving the many problems and disputes that have arisen between our country and the nations at war. We believe that he has discharged his duties honorably and well. His approaching marriage, his preparation of the White House to receive his bride has made him seem more human to us. We think of him not so much as a statesman guiding the destiny of nations, but a man with feeling and emotions common to us all. But have you thought that our farmers, the seldom spoken of, are of far greater importance than this great man? Our farmers are the "Hub" of the universe, around which everything revolves. There would be no great United States were it not for the farmers of our own and other lands. A man can live on the farm alone. During our civil war people lived entirely from the things they raised. Could you do that in any other business of life? "Civilization begins and ends with the plow." In the days of ancient Rome people were in dire distress. Their soldiers were almost conquered by an invading army. To whom did they turn for help? To Cincinnatus, a man they found at the plow. They brought him from the plow and put him at the head of the army and in only sixty days he led his army back home with their enemies made slaves. Then Cincinnatus went back to his plow. And it is to our farmers, the best blood and brains of our land, that our nation today would turn for help in case of an invading army.

We Are In Sympathy With the Farmers

Why should we not be, for every one of us was brought up on the farm and we are justly proud of it, and each of us will heartily join with you hand in hand. As loyal American citizens we feel an honorable pride in the prestige and glory of our great country and its institutions, and with equal loyalty and devotion, we in our humble way, proclaim our allegiance to the chief executive and the noble woman, soon to become the first lady of the land. But let us turn to another picture. We believe that you will agree with us that we are all the time at war against high prices and the high cost of living. We also believe that you are ready to admit that we are the originators of low prices. We are in a position to know that now is the proper time for you to supply your wants in our entire line. We believe that you have heard and also realize that the cannon has been fired at the profits on our entire stock of merchandise and blown same into parts unknown. It is the general opinion of speculators that all merchandise now owned by each individual is far cheaper than they can ever replace it. The present condition is demanding a high price for cotton and cotton seed. The prospects are for all oils, lard, and bacon to be higher than ever before. We have a large and complete stock of Dry Goods, Flour, Sugar, Bacon and Lard on hand and to arrive that we will offer you at prices that we can't replace at same prices. We urge you to accept our pleading and rush to our stores and supply your wants from our immense stock that we now have on hand. Three fresh cars of flour just in. Also a car of Sugar on which we will name you prices far below the present market. Also prices on a few other staple lines that you are most likely to need in your home now. Come to our stores at once and supply your wants and don't forget to ask for your tickets which entitle you to a chance at the Automobile, Piano, Buggy and Harness, and Sewing Machine premiums.

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR, SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY.

25-Cent Bottle Destroys Dandruff And Doubles the Beauty of Your Hair.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

DISTRESS IN THE STOMACH.

There are many people who have a distress in the stomach after meals. It is due to indigestion and easily remedied by taking one of Chamberlain's Tablets after meals. Mrs. Henry Padghan, Victor, N. Y., writes: "For some time I was troubled with headache and distress in my stomach after eating, also with constipation. About six months ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. They regulated the action of my bowels and the headache and other annoyances ceased in a short time." Obtainable everywhere.

Old Horace batted .999 when he pulled that stuff about a liar needing a good memory. If you don't believe it, just try it. The truth ever justifies itself in the face of sophistry and error. The truth needs no support or corroboration; a child or fool can tell it and the most ingenious error in the world can not successfully assail it. But a lie must so fit in all its parts that it will not fall of its own weight. And when it does this, it ceases to be a lie. Truth shoots straight, but a lie will always back fire.

HOW TO PREVENT CROUP

It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Mrs. H. M. Johns, Elida, Ohio, relates her experience as follows: "My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I kept a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and when he began having that croupy cough I would give him one or two doses of it and it would break the attack. I like it better for children than any other cough medicine because children take it willingly, and it is safe and reliable." Obtainable everywhere.

WM. WIRT MILLS'

NEW YORK LETTER.

Certainly New York is profoundly stirred and profusely pleased with the Administration program for national defense. Even the most ardent pacifists are endorsing the idea of a big navy and of a strong army, while the voices of those who protest against "militarism" are mild and weak.

The adoption of the President's program has been accepted as a matter of course, and the chief discussion is as to the methods of financing the billion dollar job of making the army and navy fit the country that has so completely outgrown its present military equipment.

The feeling here seems to be that the situation requires a loan, and that it would be a good deal more American to finance our own business of making this country prepared for any emergency than to go on financing Great Britain's losing war.

In fact most bankers and capitalists who have money to invest would turn with positive relief from the unneutral backing of foreign powers, for many of those who were led into that undertaking by the overwhelming influence of the House of Morgan are heartily disgusted with the whole business, especially since the public has absolutely refused to support the syndicate. Indications are that only $150,000,000 of the $500,000,000 issue will be taken by the public, and the syndicate managers have withdrawn half the offering as unsaleable.

With the far west refusing to touch the Franco-British bonds, the middle west frigid toward the issue, and the South hostile, the eastern subscribers are hurrying to unload their purchases. The investor, besides the sentiment against the loan, cannot fail to recognize the probability of steadily declining quotations for the issue when it comes into the open market at the end of the sixty-day limit. Therefore it is no wonder that these bonds fail to lure investors and that bankers are unwilling to push such securities.

All of which makes it unlikely that the skillful financing commissioners of the Allies will be able to place the next loan of $250,000,000 which was to have followed closely upon the absorption of the present issue.

How much the Allies need loan upon loan is indicated not only by the fact that Great Britain has "heaped up a deficit of six millions in the past year, but also by the fact that the balance of trade is now close to $170,000,000 a month in favor of America. Evidently the $500,000,000 loan will not serve long to sustain sterling exchange.

The feeling against these loans has been aggravated by the fact that while it was announced that Russia was to have no part in it, it is now revealed that practically half of the half-billion goes to meet the obligations of the Czar.

It was possible in some quarters to arouse some sentiment for the loan on the ground that England and France are sustaining some ideals closely related to those for which America stands, but no such plea can be made for the barbarous Russian government.

A curious feature of the situation is the failure of the Republican and Progressive parties to take advantage of the undoubted public hostility to the British loan and make an issue out of it against the Administration. Certainly the lack of other issues must tempt the party managers to seize upon this one, but they are strangely silent. Is it the old-time relationship between the great financial interests and the party managers that causes this dense and palpable quiescence?

So far the Republican campaign has been entirely one of men, not of issues, and the man put forward here formally this week is Elihu Root, who is truly a giant in ability, the others looking like pygmies beside him, with the exception of Senator Burton of Ohio, who is any man's peer.

On the Democratic side there are evidences of a great straining after unity, as shown by the President's appointment as assistant appraiser of a Tammany district leader, Daniel E. Finn, son of a famous political character known as "Battery Dan."

The defeat of equal suffrage in the state across the Hudson has been explained in four words—"Mr. Nugent said 'No.'" He is the Democratic boss of New Jersey. But Mr. Nugent did not overwhelm the suffragists single-handed, for he was one of the three big factors, the other two being the brewing interests and the Public Service Corporation, which is a trolley, lighting and power trust.

Opinions differ as to the effect of this defeat upon the vote on the equal suffrage amendment in this state on November 2nd. The first impression was that it spelled defeat. But it may be that the disclosure of the methods by which the women were deprived of the vote in New Jersey may cause such a revulsion of feeling as to give them a triumph here.

Amidst all these things the trial of the New Haven railroad directors is not getting the attention that it deserves. The charges made by the prosecuting attorney have been most sensational. He has unfolded a tale of financial buccaneering that is startling. The plan, he charges, was to make all New England absolutely subject to a band of financial leaders and to bring tribute from the people who thought themselves the possessors and guardians of popular liberty.

But the public is much more ready to hear of the likes and fancies of the lady who is to preside in the White House. She really is a very difficult person for fashion to follow. When she picked out a dull green cloth for her traveling gown, the shade was named "Bolling Green," and the mills began working overtime to meet the demand for this color. But now that Mrs. Galt is decking herself in various orchid hues in her evening gowns, her imitators are in despair.

It takes all kinds of news to make up the day's allotment in this city. For example, here is a mounted policeman who rides his horse into the ocean to rescue a drowning woman, while a practical joker causes a train wreck and the injury of a score of people by pulling the emergency cord on a crowded electric train that is closely followed by another at high speed.

And in court comes out the tale of how a middle-aged woman induces a young municipal clerk to borrow money for her from all his friends till she gets $4,000 from him. In another court the question is seriously argued whether the crying of a baby is ground for the eviction of the family. The court after due pondering decides in favor of the baby.

Then in the next column is a story about a dog and pantelettes. Not approving of the style set by Col. Roosevelt's daughter, Mrs. Longworth, the dog chews up the garments that conceal shapeliness.

And as for fashion's latest novelty, it is the "quizzing glass" of the Georgian period—the dainty gold and jewel-set monocle through which mildly peers archly at you. Now it might be possible to make some observations more or less pertinent about going back to the period of the Georges for a fashion at this time when some people seem to think that the essence of neutrality is to arrogate the independence that our ancestors won from the Georgian monarchy in the days of the Revolution.

But there are others, the men of industry and commerce and the great majority of the people, who await eagerly the long promised note to England, hoping and believing that it will vigorously maintain the commercial rights of America.

But it is curious to see how at this juncture, when diplomatic relations with Germany are more friendly than for many months, an effort is being made to stir up antagonism by printing foolish tales of German efforts to colonize South America. It would seem that the idea is to divert attention from British aggressions by revamping the old fairy tale that Germany is seeking world power, with especial designs upon South America.

THE GOOD WE ALL MAY DO WHILE THE DAYS ARE GOING BY.

Certainly we may all do good if we will but forget self long enough to see the good that we can do for our neighbors with but little work. Selfishness is the worst evil that has ever befallen the human race, and we are more or less guilty of this great evil.

There are many ways that we may do good while the days are going by—a kind word, a loving smile, a glad handshake, or perhaps a little contribution to the needy, are all great attributes and cost nothing but a little forgetfulness of SELF, and every person, man or woman, has at some time or other been blessed by grasping the situation, and availing himself of one of these privileges, but the blessing is soon forgotten or hidden behind self, and we go on in the same old channel with all the world shut out, and we with self shut in lose untold blessings.—Household Guest.

Forty-H.P.
7-passenger
$885

40 Horse Power—

Without exception, this new 1916 Studebaker is the most powerful 4-cylinder car ever priced at less than $1,000. Its motor is larger than last year's—3 7/8 inches bore with a 5-inch stroke. Many important changes have been made in the design.

It develops 45 horse power—power in abundance for any hills or any roads or any speeds. Power for any performance you'll ever have occasion to ask. And power with marked economy of fuel.

Just on this one item of greatly increased power, this new Studebaker is a remarkable value at $885. But it's a better car in every way. It is bigger, roomier, handsomer. It carries 7 passengers when desired—and carries them in comfort without crowding. And it gives even higher quality than ever before in spite of the lower price.

Come in and see it today. It's the best value in 4-cylinder cars on the market—and we'll let it do its own talking.

There's salt enough in the common run of humanity to save the uncommon part of it. Evidences of its savour crop out ever and anon in unsuspected as well as unsuspected places. Two cases in point occurred this week among our own neighbors. A certain West Texas editor returning from the Dallas Fair, found a very fat and financial looking wallet in the aisle of the Pullman sleeper. He screamed for help and delivered it into the hands of proper custodians—and got his scare for his honesty. Will Chaney, journeying along the public road west of town one day recently, found a pocketbook containing the tidy sum of $150 real money. He met the owner soon afterward and restored that which was his'n. He received like compensation with the certain editor. Thus is wisdom justified of her children and virtue continues its own reward.

SHADE TREES.

Shade tree time is almost here. Remember I have a large lot of one- and two-year-old black locust and cottonwood trees from 6 to 10 feet high. Will sell for $2.00 per dozen. Trees home grown. Save your tree orders and buy at home. F. B. WHIPKEY.

The thought has frequently occurred to us in reading proof on ads, letter and bill heads of livestock raisers, that the most important and valuable product of the farm is always omitted. Where is the common-sense, forethinking farmer or other citizen, who will begin the reform by specializing on the children he raises? There are multitudes of them who boast of their blooded cattle, hogs, pups and poultry, but we have yet to see one who takes public pride in the blood of his most valuable product. It would be a long step in a scientific direction if some farmer should send out stationery something like this: "John Smith, Proprietor of High grade Farm, Raiser of Thoroughbred Cattle, Hogs and Children."

POSTED—Notice is given that I have posted according to law all lands owned and controlled by me; 557 acres in farm and pasture 10 miles south of Loraine. All trespassers, especially hunters and wood haulers, will be prosecuted.—M. C. Ratliff. 11-5-c

If the Wholesale Liquor Dealers Association and the manufacturers of wooden heads and limbs don't stop sending this office their weekly "limb-to-stomach" valentines, we are going to swear the law against them or be indicted for the crime of manus moliter impositus.

THE FILM FACE.

And how it's the film face!

Not so long ago a lot was heard about the motor car face, an affliction which spread over the country like wildfire and settled upon those who continually drove or dodged motor cars. It is a readily accepted fact that those of the population of the United States fortunate enough to drive motor cars are unfortunate enough to have to dodge them; so the vast import of an epidemic of this character is easy to understand. Ask any alien-ist who specializes on motor madness. Another epidemic, more malignant even, has seized the country in its grip. A new sculptor has come to work on the expression of our faces. This time it is a case of movie madness. The little jiggly god of the film threatens to develop new and startling styles in facial architecture. Few and far between are the faces that will not be influenced, for the person nowadays who does not go to the movies is as rare as a German sausage in a French restaurant.—Jane Dixon in New York Sun.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

NOVEMBER.

November gets its name from the Latin novem (nine), and was placed in the calendar by Numa Pompilius. Numa was a great lover of Indian Summer, and he inserted November into the calendar for the purpose of prolonging it. He said it was not good for the Romans, who were rapidly leaving the country and going into the city, to lose that homely relish for life which had always characterized them in the Fall. He said that if all men were like Lucullus, who dined with his friends every night upon broiled lobster and pati-de-foi-gras, it would not be long until the empire would not have any stomach and people like the Goths and Vandals would overcome it. He set everybody an example by supplying the royal table with everything that makes appetizing the Autumn. He had a royal smoke-house, and there was nothing finer in the evening than the perfume of hickory wood and sugar ham floating through the crevices of that institution. He kept pigs' feet in brine. He had a barrel of cider on his north porch. He prized chittlins, and could eat cracklings. His apple butter was imitated by all the big grocery stores. He was the inventor of the Roman beauty apple, and it was customary during affairs of state for him to dive into his mahogany desk and get out a big red apple for everybody. He could eat a hatful of persimmons, and it was one of the humors of Rome to watch for him on his tiled porch in the early morning turning his paw-paws. He was a man attuned to all the romance of Nature, and to see him stealing out at lunch for a piece of pumpkin pie was to assure all Rome of his profound democracy. A good many Romans thought it impossible to prolong Indian Summer; but Numa thought it could be done, and it generally can.

November was greatly loved by all the Romans. It was then the great generals like Caesar got in their deadly work upon the enemies of the empire. There was no mud to get stuck in. Soldiers were full of vim and vigor. Horses danced. Much the same spirit that possesses a football team animated the Roman army. The soldier could see his breath on the air. He had to jump around lively to keep his feet warm. He arose in the morning with a spring in his back and when he swung his shield on his left arm and took his sword in his right hand he was a bear. Rome was a conquering nation. She tried to maintain three or four fronts all the time and in the Fall she always made a big drive into the four cardinal points of the compass. If it were easy in Egypt, she shifted troops to Spain, where it was probably hard. Thus it was that with each year the Empire grew larger, and when the Romans sat down to their Thanksgiving dinner they had great things for which to be thankful for. That theory of life fell into decay after Rome fell, but it is coming back now. The Kaiser is making everybody in Europe believe in it pretty fast, and we are beginning to believe in it over here. It is a question whether it is the correct theory of life. No man can say. Caesar thought so, and in a debate

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL.

Starts Your Liver Without Making You Sick and Cant Not Salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tonic is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tonic is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tonic is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness, and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a pleasant tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience—all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

with the pacifists in the Roman Forum he beat them so badly that Brutus and two or three others assassinated him when he left the hall. Marc Anthony said this clinched the argument for Caesar, but he subsequently concluded that this was small satisfaction to Caesar and had his murderers executed.

The festive calf will sniff the breeze
And spring the hinges in his back,
And helping out the plumber's ease,
The plumbing will begin to crack.
The wild goose tooling down the sky
Will hit it up another speed,
The furnace will begin to sigh
Against the coal provider's need,
The lusty hired man will bawl
For thicker blankets on his bed,
The quail will sound his plaintiff call
Before the hunter shoots him dead,
The village loafer will bestir
Himself indoors with some regrets,
And the girls will show us bits of fur
Just peeping from their pantelettes.

It does beat all what styles become, and what the womenfolk will wear. It keeps the world from getting glum and yielding wholly to despair. A season they are coy and sweet, another season fierce and bold. They keep it up from head to feet as long as men provide the gold. A bit of fur is what they feel they ought to wear this year of grace, or whether flying from the heel, or maybe glued upon the face. One sees it waving in the breeze from bonnets, collars and from socks; it may be seal from Greenland's seas, or nothing more superb than fox. It may be cat, it may be dog, the ladies, bless them, do not care. They'd wear the bristles of a hog if fashion wore them everywhere. Thank God, the women are so sweet, it's hard to make them seem a fright, but seeing them upon the street, one's courage sometimes says, "Goodnight" A lovely miss with two fur bands around her dainty little limbs can make a man throw up his hands and say the words of seven hymns.

At any rate, the war of kings will keep our exports on the jump, and what with making guns and things, we'll keep our purses pretty plump. The pickle works will turn out shells, the cooper shop will take to caps, the stove works, turning to what sells, with fashion cannon for the Japs. The smoke will rise from smokeless fuses, the wheels of business will resume, the miller will contract for fuse, the old spaghetti works will boom, the tinner will make coats of mail, the cracker works will come to bat, the locomotive plant will hail an order for a bomb-proof hat, the shovel works will do their best, the powder mills run day and night, the smelting works around the West will all take orders with delight, the country editor will turn his type machines to making balls, and in the end of this great fight we'll all reside in marble halls.

But be it as it haply may.
The weather will be vary fine;
A tender haze will fill the day.
The air will be as rare as wine.
The robin will return to rest
A moment on the leaf-strewn lawn,
The wary duck will be our guest
A watchful moment getting on,
The cider will begin to work
And pop the stopper in the jug,
And the allies, working on the Turk,
Will join the now departed bug.

November will be a quiet month politically, the chief interest centering in two or three big drives to be made by the women suffragists. They are still fighting on the eastern battle front, but they are having sort of Russian luck. The moon will be full on the 21st, and the first twenty days of the month will be under the influence of Scorpio, the eighth sign of the zodiac. Scorpio people are very farseeing, and they knew that some widow would get the President. The last ten days of the month will be influenced by Sagittarius the Archer, the ninth sign. Sagittarians are cold-blooded, and they seldom care whether the janitor fires up or not. Jupiter and Venus will divide the responsibility of being the evening star, alliances being fashionable just at this time. Thanksgiving will come on the 25th, but until it becomes clear which side is winning in Europe it will not be possible for a neutral country like this to be quite sure what it is thankful for.

And then December will return.
With bitter cold and snow,
And Santa Claus will try to learn
How far we'd like to go.

A GOOD DAY'S WORK FOR A FLEA.

You would not think that a small boy, a dog and a flea could tie up traffic on a very busy city crossing. But they did. The flea lighted on a puppy that was crossing the avenue with a small newspaper boy, and selecting a particular succulent portion of the dog's anatomy, seemed to bite deep. The dog sat down on the car tracks and gave himself completely over to the serious business of scratching that particular flea. At this moment a taxi cab came bounding along. The driver, seeing the situation, did not pursue a straight course, but turned a little to avoid the irritated pup, and at the same time applied his emergency brakes. You will see that the result was safety for the dog but a stalled taxicab. Instantly all traffic behind the taxicab stopped, and in less than a minute there was congestion such as had not been seen for a long time. Cars from all directions added to the confusion. Presently the puppy won his point. The flea desisted and the taxicab motor resumed business. The tangle was all straightened out, but everybody who saw the scene said it was a good day's work for a flea.—Phil Farm Journal.

This has been eminently a sweet potato season in West Texas. Ten pound specimens are nothing unusual, while many report them ranging from 3 to 5 pounds without a lick of cultivation. The size of the tubers are commendable of course, but the inward virtue lies in the taste as the craythens.

Halton Powell's "Henpecked Henry," a jolly cartoon musical farce built solely for laughing purposes, will be seen at Opera House Thursday, November 11th, and word in advance guarantees the big fun event of the season. An array of comedians and comedienne, selected on account of their peculiar fitness for the parts, will make the evening one of delightful fooling; it is seldom that such excellent farceurs visit one night stand cities. The comedy situations of "Henpecked Henry" are screamingly funny though not inconsistent with what might be encountered where a home is ruled by a domineering wife.

TEXAN HERE GIVES CAMEO TO PRINCETON.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 28.—Gifts to Princeton University amounting to $463,928 were announced at a meeting of the trustees today. A unique cameo of former President Witherspoon, molded in England in 1783 by James Tassie, was presented to the university by Anthony Van Tuyl, of Colorado, Texas.

Anthony Van Tuyl is a nephew of Thomas Van Tuyl, 2230 Sixth avenue, this city. Van Tuyl was born and reared at Colorado, Texas, where he resided until about four years ago, when he went to New York. He was in Fort Worth Thursday making preparations to make his home here.—

Liv-er-lax Will Make You Feel Better.

That tired feeling, dull headache and lasting grouch are most probably due to a clogged-up liver. Now don't make yourself feel worse by taking nasty, disagreeable calomel, but clean out that bile and make yourself feel brighter and better generally by taking LIV-ER-LAX. It acts safely, surely and pleasantly, and is made entirely of harmless vegetable material.

LIV-ER-LAX is guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money will be returned without question. Insist on the original, bearing the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigsby. For sale here in the 50c and $1.00 sizes by W.

80 MAXWELLS IN PAST THIRTY DAYS.

Toler & Petty, Distributors For Maxwell Automobiles Set Sales Record.

Toler & Petty, distributors for the Maxwell automobile in this territory, have received and sold eighty cars during the past thirty days, from September 31 to October 30, setting a record for automobile dealers in this section.

This firm received two carloads of these cars Friday, containing six cars each, which brought their total for the past thirty days up to eighty cars.
The first shipment of this allotment was received on the 31st day of September, and the cars have been rolling in almost continuously since that date. The entire lot were of one model—five-passenger touring cars—which sell for $695 delivered.

This number of cars being sold in so short a period not only demonstrates the popularity of the 1916
Maxwell, but indicates the prosperous condition of this section of Texas.—

DON'T PITY ME, SAYS BRYAN, DISCUSSING FAILURE.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Discussing his "unsuccessful political career" at a mass meeting for prohibition Sunday, W. J. Bryan told his audience not to pity him.

"If I had lived two centuries ago and advocated what I do now, I should have been hanged," he said. "No one has accomplished any great reform without being abused and ostracised at first. But when a man believes he is in the right he must speak out."

DR. HILLIS DID WELL.

New York, N. Y.—The charge that the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, made "quick, fabulous profits" through selling British Columbia timber claims to ministers and other friends, was made in an affidavit filed by Frank L. Ferguson, former chairman of the board of trustees of the church and for five years manager of Dr. Hillis' business affairs.

"THE PLUNDERER."

"The Plunderer" affords for William Farnum a real "Farnum Part"—big Bill Matthews of the Croix d'Or mine, a doughty, splendid steel-knit fellow, with a big, warm heart and a punch in each hand. Bill and his partner are harassed by a secret enemy who imprisons them in a mine shaft, causes a strike of the workmen and blows up the reservoir upon which the power of the mine depends. These are only a few of the thrills that keep you breathless—hanging on to the arms of your seat. The final climax, where Big Bill and his partner discover their enemy, is the most stirring of all.

A pulse-stirring battle with bare fists in which Big Bill bests a score of drink-crazed miners in a fight, that for sheer thrills and heart-catching excitement has never been excelled on the stage or screen, is one of the big features of this super-picture.

Then, too, there is a splendid double love-story which leaves a happy glow in the spectator's mind. In fact, The Plunderer is as perfect a photoplay as has yet been achieved, and deals with clean, manly men, affecting sentiment, the lust for yellow gold and swift, dynamic drama.

Shadowland Theatre Tuesday night, November 9th.

IT IS WORTH READING

Physicians and Scientists tell us that the most important part of the human body is the stomach. Also, it is the most neglected by us. In justice to our future health we should take care of our stomachs.

- FIRST—We should be careful what we eat.
- SECOND—We should have it cooked in sanitary utensils.
- THIRD—We should eat properly—masticate it thoroughly.

For years we have been supplying the people of Colorado with the very best merchandise at the lowest prices possible. Now we have made arrangements to equip your kitchens with the only sanitary utensils known—PURE ALUMINUM.

Nothing is too good for our customers, and when we saw the opportunity of getting this ware and furnishing it to them on a profit sharing plan, we lost no time in taking advantage of it. We have a complete line of them and they are to be furnished to you at practically no expense whatever.

Suppose you call sometime and see them, and let us tell you of the plan in details.
