JOFFRE MAY TAKE SUPREME COMMAND.

London, Nov. 30. The visit of Field Marshal Sir John French to London yesterday for a conference with premier Asquith became known today and caused talk that General Joffre may be placed in supreme command of the allies in the west.

This has been denied officially. This is the first visit Marshal French has made to London since January.

Let's hope it has been a prosperous week for you and the same for the next, and the others to follow.

DOINGS IN KILKENNY.

Judge Blanton Challenges Judge Wagstaff to a Preferential Primary in Taylor County, The Loser to Withdraw From The Race.

The following open letter has been addressed by District Judge Thomas L. Blanton to Representative J. M. Wagstaff, both residents of Abilene and both candidates for Congressman from this district.

"Abilene, Tex., Nov. 24, 1915.
Hon. J. M. Wagstaff,
Abilene, Texas.

"Dear Sir:—
"Confidently believing that my platform rather than yours, pledges greater benefits to the people generally, and is more in accord with the wishes of the people of Taylor county, and the principles for which they stand, I propose to you that we leave our candidacies to a vote of Taylor county, in a primary to be held on the first Saturday in February, 1916, to be held by the same men who officiated at the last Democratic primary, and each citizen to vote, would be qualified to vote in the next Democratic primary.

It is to be understood that if you beat me I will withdraw, and that if I beat you, you will withdraw from the congressional race. This proposal is subject only to your public acceptance through the Abilene Reporter not later than December 1, 1915; for if accepted, I will have to so arrange my business at once, to enable me to make a campaign of Taylor county. The fairness of this proposal is apparent, as you have lived in Taylor county for the past thirty years and I have lived here less than seven years. Respectfully,

"THOMAS L. BLANTON,
Judge Wagstaff Readily Accepts.
Abilene, Tex., Nov. 26, 1915.

"Hon. Thomas L. Blanton,
Abilene, Texas.

"My Dear Sir:—
"On my return from a trip to New Mexico this morning my attention was called to your open letter of late November 24th, 1915, published in the Abilene Reporter of date November 25th, 1915.

"I accept the challenge which you make in your open letter to me and will abide by the details arranged by the Democratic County Executive Committee. Respectfully,

"J. M. WAGSTAFF."

WANTS TO BEGIN CAMPAIGN.

Judge Wagstaff Challenges Judge Blanton to Meet Him in Joint Discussion.

November 29th, 1915.

Hon. Thomas L. Blanton,
Abilene, Texas.

My Dear Sir:

In view of the fact that you in an open letter challenged me to submit our candidacies to preferential primary in Taylor county, Texas, and in view of the fact that you stated in your letter to me that your platform pledges greater benefit to the people than mine, I hereby suggest that we begin as early as practicable a discussion of our platforms before the people of Taylor county, Texas, in joint discussion.

We can arrange an equitable division of time to discuss the measures which we stand for before the people to the end that all people may thoroughly understand our positions. If you accept this proposition I will have Mr. T. P. Davidson to represent me in arranging the time and places for the discussions, and he will confer with you or any party representing you to this end. I hope that we can have a full fair and free discussion of the issues between us, free from any personality, and free from anything except the issues involved. I have today furnished the paper a copy of my platform and take it that you still stand for the platform which you put out two years ago, and as there are no new issues since that time I presume you have no additional issues to submit to the people other than those which you ran on two years ago. Yours very truly,

J. M. WAGSTAFF."

AVAIL INSINUATION.

In the November issue of the Commoner, William Jennings Bryan's publication, appears the following:

"Investigate the activities of the business group particularly interested in increased appropriations for army and navy, which has become so active in pushing its selfish demands. Congress ought to at once appoint a committee to investigate. It is more than a hobby. It is a concerted attempt to misinform the whole nation with a view to the securing of enormous profits at the expense of the tax-payers. Publicity is the surest weapon with which to meet an evil of this kind. Let the people once know the real motive back of this movement for preparedness and it can not succeed. Exposure will kill it. Turn on the light and let the country see the fraudulent character of the pretended patriotism which is now being paraded before the country by men who claim a superior attachment to the nation but are in fact nothing but leeches and parasites."

So vile an insinuation against the president merits only the contempt of the people for its author, who quit the cabinet when the country was sorely in need of his services. But this need not cause any surprise for the people are fast learning the caliber of the erstwhile secretary of state. President Wilson has told the country why preparedness is necessary and such utterance from such a source will not change one iota the faith of the people in their president's honesty and integrity nor the plans of the president for doing his utmost to prepare the country not for war but for defense.—El Paso Times.

HE WROTE THE EDITOR.

"Don't monkey with editors," says James T. Hickman, aged 70, of Springport, Ind., who tells the Indianapolis News of his experience in writing for publication as follows:

"In the early fifties very few magazines and papers were published compared with the present time. I thought a paper could be put in the office in my name would give me some prestige, so I wrote a subscription for the Broad-ave, a weekly paper published then at Richmond, Ind., I gave him 25 cents for a three months' subscription after ascertaining that the publication, is a very important function. The pleasanter the surroundings the surer one can be of the sanitary plumber, the sooner it will become a duty. Especially with boys. Do you know for how little you can have an ideal bath room? Ask us.

The Daily Bath

according to its representative, was 'neutral' in politics. I was a Democrat and did not wish a paper of the opposite political belief.

"I received a few numbers and was highly pleased. In a few weeks, however, there was a change somewhere, and the paper came out strong for Fremont and Dayton, who were then candidates. I was indignant and wrote the editor a scorching letter asking him to stop my paper and enclosing a three-cent piece for a reply.

"Our postoffice was three miles away and when Friday came I put a nail on my boot to urge my horse along so that I might reach the postoffice quickly, and get my paper and see my letter in print. My paper had come but it didn't contain my letter. In its stead was the following in a prominent place on the editorial page:

"James T. Hickman, Wenona, Ind. 'Notoriety, such as you desire, would be cheap, indeed, at 3 cents! Bid up, say 5 cents a line, and we'll give it, yea, and throw comments in. We've seen many a less ass than yourself with far longer ears.'
"Since that time I have said, 'Don't monkey with editors.'"

KINDLING.

Charlotte Walker, who makes her photodramatic debut in "Kindling," is recognized as one of the foremost emotional stars and one of the most beautiful women on the American stage.

"Kindling" tells the life story of a poor woman of the tenements who is about to bear a child but is afraid to confess this to her husband who believes it is a crime to bring children into the world under conditions of poverty and squalor. The wife, driven to desperation, tries to improve her condition by helping to steal from the rich woman who owns the wretched tenement in which she dwells.

The happy solution of this extraordinary play, with its immense and very human theme, is one of the big things in American drama.

"Kindling" is offered by the Lask Co. through an arrangement with E. J. Bowes. In addition to Miss Walker the company includes Thomas Meighan, Raymond Hatton, Mrs. Lewis McCord, Billy Elmer, William Langdon, Florence Dagmar and Tom Forman.

GERMANY OPENS WAY THROUGH SERVIA TO TURKEY.

Berlin, Nov. 28.—With the recapture of Rudnik, the capture of 2,700 prisoners and the flight of the "scouty remnants" of the Servian army into the Albanian mountains, Germany's operations against Servia have been brought to a close, says the official statement issued today at the headquarters of the general staff. The object of these operations—the opening of communication with Bulgaria and the Turkish empire—has been accomplished, it is asserted.

Tribute is paid not only to the bravery and the endurance of the Austro-German troops, but to the Serbs as well. The claim is made that more than 100,000 prisoners, nearly 50 per cent of the Servian effectives, have been captured. German losses are said to have been "extremely moderate" and there were no epidemics of disease. The text of the communication follows:

Balkan Theater: Southwest of Mitrovitz, Rudnik was occupied. We took more than 2,700 prisoners and much war material.

With the flight of the scout remnants of the Servian army into the Albanian mountains, our great operations against the same are brought to a close, our object of effecting communication with Bulgaria and the Turkish empire having been accomplished.

FOE IS BEATEN SAYS GALLIENI.

French Minister of War Declares That Germany is Trapped in a Vice.

Paris, France, Nov. 29.—Germany Austria, trapped in a vice, are already beaten. In the opinion of Gen. Joseph Gallieni, minister of war, in an interview given the Associated Press. When the conversation was held, Gen. Gallieni had already been at his desk since 5 o'clock in the morning.

What are the reasons for my unshakable confidence in victory? repeated the minister of war. "They are those of every Frenchman. Our enemies have been powerless to attain the essential object of every war—the destruction of the adversary's forces. In September 1914, when we arrested and repulsed the German offensive, the game was lost by the enemy."

"How do you deduce that the Teutonic empires failed from that moment?" asked the correspondent.

"Because that victory gave the allies the essential factor of time," replied Gen. Gallieni "that has enabled us to organize the effective operations of our resources—resources that are very superior in men and money, to those of the enemy, and nearly unlimited in material, thanks to our mastery of the seas."

Gen. Gallieni then outlined the positions of the Teutonic armies as he viewed it.

"Caught in a vice," he said, "the central powers are struggling desperately to free themselves from its grip. The attack upon our front along the Yser, the offensive against the Russians and the campaign in the Balkans have been the convulsions of a beast at bay."

Alluding to the character of the German efforts in these campaigns, Gen. Gallieni said:

"I realize all their energy and vigor, but their importance is secondary. Even their recent successes, made possible by the treason of Bulgaria, cannot modify the strategic situation which has been unalterable for many months. The French, British, Russian and Italian armies are intact. They are growing stronger each day and better armed to vanquish."

Referring to the effort upon German armies of the frequent transfer of troops from one front to another, the war minister declared:

"Transported to the west, retransported to the east, and then to the south, the enemy's armies are exhausting themselves and the quality of the German soldier is rapidly deteriorating. The opinions of all those who saw the prisoners taken during the battle of Champagne in September are well fixed upon that point.

"The issue is fatal for the central empires. Nothing but lack of tenacity on our part could save them. Shall we have the necessary energy to go on to the end? If you wish to fix your opinion as to that eventuality, travel about France everywhere. At the front as in Paris, in the towns as in the country, you will see in the eyes of everyone the unchangeable will to persevere to the very end, to a complete victory."

AN EARLY SOCIAL EXPERIMENT.

The disciples said: "Send them away."

Jesus said: "Give ye them to eat." What was the difference? Why did Jesus say one thing and the disciples another? Because Jesus was moved with compassion, while the disciples did not care.

Christ was creating an organization that should last through the centuries, and whose spirit should be one of radiant and persistent and efficient helpfulness. So he gave this inner circle an object lesson. "Don't send these folks away. Feed them. Give them what you have. I am sorry for them. They are hungry."—The Christian Herald.

Dried Fruit Saturday Special

We have now in our three stores 600 cases of California Dried Fruit that we want to sell for cash Saturday. We bought this fruit last spring at a time when dried fruit was from one to one and a half cents on the pound less than same can be bought on the present market. Our fruits are choice and will be an addition to any table. You can prepare delicious pies and puddings and old-time apple and peach rolls. There is nothing better than the above named floating in rich Jersey cream sauce, besides there is nothing so healthful as fruits. It is an established fact that people who subsist on a fruit diet seldom have to call in a doctor. Fruits not only contain a large per cent of nutriment for the body, but they help to keep the digestion well regulated. No other food is cheaper or can be made into more palatable dishes. It is necessary in a like manner as milk and butter. No meal is complete without both. There is nothing healthier for children than fruit and the same is true for the grown up. If you have peaches on hand you can have old-time half-moon fried pies and large fat peach rolls with rich cream and butter sauce and if you have pears make a pear stew, that is plenty good for me or you.

Buy yourself some raisins and make a big pudding, the fat juicy kind you put all good things in. Buy some 70-80 prunes. Stewed till tender; eat a couple each day. John Wesley said that will keep the doctor away. Add raisins and figs to each order you buy and your children will praise you to the sky. But mother says she knows what is best: Get us some apricots and we will have apricot pies, and that will give us an appetite that we can eat all that daddy buys, and when you have eaten what you have up, we know you want some more; wife and children say to daddy. The best place on earth to buy is at Edmondson's stores, to prove this, daddy, you know they always have the goods and the quality and it is useless for you to look elsewhere, for they are always leaders in prices, which they name you below.

SAN ANGELO CITIZENS MAY COMPELL OWNER TO OPERATE CARS.

San Angelo, Nov. 26.—San Angelo citizens are in a turmoil tonight over the announced plans of J. D. Suggs, one of San Angelo's wealthiest citizens. Mr. Suggs today offered the entire street railway system to San Angelo, providing the city would pay 1915 taxes, maintain and operate cars during the life of the franchise and make extensions. The city commissioners refused to accept the property. Mr. Suggs ordered cars to cease operation tonight, and announced he would tear up the entire system within a week. Citizens without other means of travel are indignant and threats of taking the matter into the courts to restrain Mr. Suggs from doing this have been made by those the cars serve. There is every indication that an injunction seeking to restrain Mr. Suggs from ceasing operation of the cars and another restraining the city commissioners from interfering will be sought.

JUDGE JACKSON MAY RUN FOR CONGRESS.

Groomed by Members of El Paso City and County Democratic Club.

Electing E. B. McClintock, county clerk, a member and urging Judge Dan M. Jackson to enter this year's congressional race, were two of the main features of the Friday night meeting of the El Paso City and County Democratic Club.

Judge Jackson's talk about there being five men in the race in this district for congress as a means of emphasizing the necessity of the payment of poll taxes, was responsible for his virtual endorsement for the congressional toga. It has been hinted by friends of Judge Jackson for some years that congress was the place for him.

"I believe that this would be the time for Judge Jackson to make the race for congress," declared W. R. Ware, president of the club. "I believe that it would be an opportune time." Mr. Ware's suggestion was met by an outburst of applause.

When Judge Jackson was called on for a speech, Mr. Ware suggested that some member ask him why he was not a member of the club. Judge Jackson answered that by stating that his interests and those of the members had always been identical and the weather would never be too cold or too hot for him to respond to any call made by the members of the club.

In discussing the necessity of paying poll taxes, Judge Jackson stated, a man who did not want to pay that was not a fit man to be a member of this grand organization." Judge Jackson paid a high tribute to President Wilson and expressed the hope that every club member would pay his poll tax so that the club as a unit could vote for Wilson. Judge Jackson also stated that the uncertainty of the gubernatorial question was another

AN OCTOGENARIAN.

Mr. W. H. Snyder known to everyone as "Uncle Pete," attained the honor and ripeness of his 80th birthday last Monday. Though his health for the past two years has been far from vigorous, he retains his hopeful spirit and outlook upon life. He was born in Carbon county, Penn. November 29th, 1835 and came to what is now Scurry county about 1879. The town of Snyder was named in his honor. He removed to Mitchell county in the spring of 1881, and for many years was engaged in the mercantile business in the house now occupied by W. L. Edmondson & Co., the firm name being Robertson & Snyder. He was also interested in the Dunn, Snyder & Moorar addition to the town of Colorado.

The Record congratulates "Uncle Pete" on the attainment of this ripe age with a generous measure of strength of mind and body, and hopes he may spend many more birthdays in more robust health and greater activity.

Henry Ford, according to Mr. Doolley, is the greatest living timshmit. Tin—if you are not well up on your slang—is money—Auxiliary.

The latest issue of Die Zuckenit says the Germans must expect a war of exhaustion; that the enemy is far from defeated; that England is scarcely wounded, and that the collapse of Russia which was expected has not in any degree materialized.

The Record has been an ardent advocate of redistricting this state in its congressional representation, as the law plainly requires. But if redistricting by the next legislature would aid or abet the threat of Cyclone Davis to run for governor, the Record hereby registers its vote for the status quo.

Seven men have been beaten by thugs in Dallas in three weeks time and three policemen have been shot by burglars or highwaymen. River navigation has closed on account of the ice and the idle sailormen are supposed to be desperate on account of hunger.—Fort Worth Record.

Cyclone Davis, Congressman-at-large, just before leaving for Washington, gave out the statement that he would not be a candidate for Governor next year unless the State should be redistricted by the legislature, thus making the election of Congressmen-at-large unnecessary; failure to do which he would be a candidate for re-election to the Sixty-fifth Congress.

Humor has its special mission in the world and will do what the combined forces of faith, hope, and charity will not do. It is the weapon for dealing with prigs. Humor is about the only thing that will touch a crank; it succeeds where reason fails. True humor is never cynical; it is large hearted, tender, and forgiving. There it differs from wit. Humor is of the heart, while wit is of the mind. One is embracing, the other is cutting. A woman is more inclined to wit than to humor, and the former is a wonderful weapon in the hands of a clever woman, but its place in humor is but a small province. Southern nations develop wit, Northern nations incline to humor, and its true home is on the London Globe.

Young bedbugs feed nine times in twenty days under favorable conditions.—Farm and Fireside. Surely, the editor of Farm and Fireside has slept at home all his life. The young bed bug whose habitat is the average hotel and boarding house, can feed sixty-two times per minute and begins soon as it can crawl.

J. D. Sugg, wealthiest man in the Concho country and owner of the street railway of San Angelo, refuses to make needed extensions of his system to meet the demands of the growing town, but offers to make the city a Christmas present of the street railway system if the city will pay the taxes and make the extensions. If there be any way—and there must be—to compel him to make the extensions and continue to operate the system, the people of San Angelo should see that he does both. It is undisputed history that Sugg arrived in that section with considerably less than nothing; that he came as nearly getting the most for the least as any soldier of fortune that ever trusted to the Fates. He sought a franchise to build and operate a street railway because he thought it a good thing. It is a good thing and he should be made to keep and operate it.

The hope that the police and detective forces of Dallas will ever run down the persons responsible for the death of Mrs. Perry, would be as futile as the efforts of a celluloid pup to catch an asbestos rabbit in hades. Their genius lies in not finding out things, and possibly the jobs of some of the gang depend on their ability in this line. The record justifies such assumption, at least.

The people of this section are devoutly grateful for the marvelously auspicious weather during which to gather the crops. But if old Prok would send us a gentle and refreshing shower to wash off the face of Nature and revive vegetation as well as refill the water tanks, he would have our deeper gratitude. However, Old Boy, don't overdo the blessing, when it comes our turn.

President Wilson shows himself just common folk in his reluctance to tear himself away from "the fair inamorata." He spent the day Sunday with her in New York, and nothing short of the importance of putting the finishing touches on his message to congress tore him from her.

The response to the invitation of Henry Ford to accompany him to Europe in an endeavor to bring about peace among the warring nations has been so great, it was announced at Mr. Ford's headquarters in New York, that additional accommodations have had to be obtained.

Thursday morning was among the most frigid this section has so far experienced. There was a tang of promised sausage in the air, and the Record personally makes affidavit as to its hankering for the same.

Owing to the demand for advertising space after the paper had been partly printed, much reading matter had to be omitted. A larger paper will be printed next week.

RECOMMENDED FOR CROUP.

W. C. Allen, Boseley, Mo., says: "I have raised a family of four children and used Foley's Honey and Tar with all of them. I find it the best cough and croup medicine I ever used. I used it for eight or ten years and can recommend it for croup." Same satisfactory results for coughs and colds. For sale by W. L. Doss.

SHADOWLAND ATTRACTIONS THE COMING WEEK.

The attractions at the Shadowland Theater for the coming week are of unusual merit. Tonight (Friday) "Doctor Rameau" will be presented, a Fox film of unusual interest and entertainment. On Monday night, Dec. 6th, the marvelous story of Madame Du Barry, the favorite of Louis XV of France, will be depicted. Everyone has heard or read of this famous court intriguer. Do not miss it.

On next Tuesday night, Dec. 7th, another Fox feature—"From the Valley of the Missing" will be presented. It is by the author of "Tess of the Storm Country" and equally as good. On next Thursday night "The Cub," a story of Kentucky feudists and a young newspaper reporter, Martha Hedman plays the star role. Don't fail to see these excellent features.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The basket ball game between the Colorado girls and the Snyder girls last Thursday ended with a score of 13 to 15 in favor of Snyder. At the end of the last half the score was 13, and then the tie was played off and Snyder won the two points necessary. After the game the basket ball girls entertained the boys delightfully with a six o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. J. W. Smith. Everyone had a delightful time, and the slight defeat of the afternoon was soon forgotten.

At a recent meeting of the Senior class the following officers were elected in connection with the Annual: C. D. Judd, Editor-in-Chief; Harry Radloff, Business Manager; Katie Buchanan, Society Editor; Pauline Root, Claudia Smith and others (to be appointed later). Advertising Committee. Other committees will be appointed at a later date.

NO PROTECTION AGAINST A LIAR.

Not long ago a man came into our office with a wonderful story to relate. It was highly interesting, it is true, but the editor doubted its truth. He investigated it in every way possible but found that there was no way to either substantiate or contradict it. He simply had to depend on the man's word. He could see no manner in which the man could benefit by his representing things—and he published the story. A few days later he heard that the man was boasting over the manner in which he had "put it over" the newspaper man—how he had caused to be printed an article which was untruthful in practically every detail. He thought it was great fun but he didn't realize a few things concerning the matter. The newspaper man had not been misled. He didn't really believe the story but he knew that were it true it richly deserved to be printed. He simply took the other's word for it. It is just such instances as this which makes the people say, "You can't believe what you see in the newspapers." It is not the fault of the newspapers, who endeavor in every way to substantiate any article that is presented for publication. Of course, the doubtful stories might be left out entirely—but what newspaper is going to turn down a yarn of which no denial can be found, which reflects on no one and which is very interesting? This is our message to the public: we are trying to give you facts and if you are misled by anything you read in these columns please remember that we are not to blame.

No business of the town reflects the general prosperity of the country more promptly than the eating houses. All one needs now is an old goods box, a frying pan and a few pounds of salt horse, to do a staving business. The familiar exhortation to "get-em-while-they're hot" refers not to the edible commodities the vender is dispensing, but to the harvesting of the suckers who give up their good money for first aid to the undertaker.

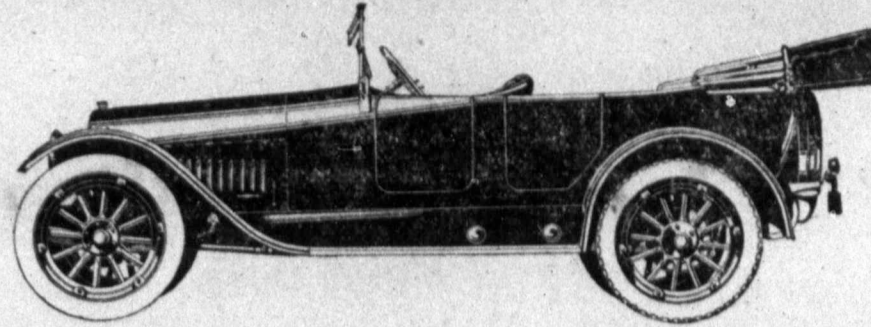

The open season for deer hunters begins well in Wisconsin. Five have been killed up to this date, the lowest record within 15 years.

The nights are not so noisy as for the past two weeks—the carnival, like all grass, has passed. The raucous blare of the merry-go-round, the megaphone bark of the outside spicler, the throaty invitation of the ring and ball throwing men, the allurments of giggling alley, the negro minstrel travesty, the inducements of the truthful palm-readers, say nothing of the fascinations of the "Strange Lady" whose mere look, drew the fangs of the most deadly reptiles, rendering their poison harmless as a sucking dove, made the ferocious Gila Monster eat from her hand in mere self-defense, and turned giants into stone—have folded their tents like Arabs, and snuck away.

Don't forget that now is the time to put out shade trees.

CONTENTMENT.

Why wish for things you can't possess?
Be satisfied with what is sent.
For what's the use of discontent?
Of happiness 'twill bring you less.

The people who are satisfied
'Tis they who get the best of life
Who never enter into strife
Whose earthly wants are well supplied
If things don't always come our way,
Just let them go, be satisfied;
If best, they would not be denied,
Don't mope, and spoil your day.

THE CLUBS.

Bay View.

Mrs. J. L. Doss was hostess for the Bay View last week, with Mrs. J. L. Shepherd as leader. The outline of the lesson was:

Roll Call—Quotations from Shakespeare.
Cymbeline, Act. 3, Scenes 6-7.
Current Events.

Mill on the Floss, first half of chapter 7.

Mrs. F. B. Whipkey was a guest. At the social hour a delicious repast of cream chicken in patty cases, hot buttered biscuits peach pickle, mince pie with whipped cream and coffee was served. Miss Fern McDonald assisted the hostess.

Standard.

The Standard had an especially pleasant meeting with Mrs. R. N. Gary. The Daughters of Standard Club were appreciated guests. The lesson was:

Roll Call—Quotations from Early American writers.
Henry IV, Part II, Act IV—Mrs. Prude.

At the social hour most delicious refreshments of the many good things grown in the country and which Mrs. Gary knows so well how to prepare, were served.

Hesperian.

A very interesting meeting of the Hesperian was held with Mrs. Merritt at Mrs. Floyd Beall's. At the business session it was decided to keep open house on New Year's Day, honoring the other clubs and the husbands, and also to push the sale of the Red Cross Christmas seals. All of the proceeds to go to the Tubercular Sanitarium which is located at Carlsbad. They are very pretty this year and it will be spreading the true cheer by buying these stamps. The lesson program was:

Roll Call—Romantic Drama and the New Stage.

Parliamentary Law—Demonstrated.
Pippa Passes—morning—was read by club and questions asked by Mrs. W. L. Doss.

Mrs. Dorsey, of Dayton, Oregon, Mrs. A. L. Whipkey and Miss Castle, of Anson, were guests. The sisters of the hostess, Mesdames Stonerod, Floyd Beall and Miss Arnett, served a tempting salad course, cake and coffee.

Merry Wives.

The Merry Wives had a pleasant meeting with Mrs. Abe Dolmen last week. The time was spent working on fancy work. Mesdames Coleman,

25 CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR.

Save Your Hair! Make It Thick,
Wavy and Beautiful—
Try This.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Duff, D. C. Byrne, Bravis Coe, Looney were guests. A delicious salad course was served by the hostess. The meeting this week is with Mrs. L. C. Duff.

Study Club.

Mrs. J. L. Allen was hostess for the Study Club with Mrs. D. N. Arnett, Jr., as leader. The outline of the lesson was:

Roll Call—Current Events.
Lesson—Morning—Pippa Passes.

Tourist Club.

The Tourists met with Miss Jessie Person, with Miss Ruby McGill as leader. The lesson was on Side Lights of Experience of Colonial Life.

Miss Jeannett Earnest was a guest. The hostess served ice cream, cheese and coffee.

DAWES-VAN TUYL.

Married at the First Presbyterian church, November 25th, by the Rev. Guy B. Duff, Mr. Thomas Dawes and Miss Eleanor Van Tuyl.

The marriage of this popular young couple came somewhat as a surprise to their many friends, but the token of good wishes manifested by hearty congratulations and many beautiful presents, attested the esteem in which they are held.

They entered the church as Mrs. C. M. Adams played the wedding march from Lohengrin and taking places at the altar were made husband and wife according to the impressive ceremony of the English church. The bride made an ideal picture in her gown of white satin and net, crowned by the veil and orange blossoms worn by her mother on her wedding day. The groom was handsome in conventional black suitable to the occasion.

Mr. Dawes had his residence in readiness for the reception of his bride and they are now "at home" to their friends, corner 5th and Locust streets.

The bride is the only and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben S. Van Tuyl. She is known and loved by not only the people of Colorado, but has many friends and acquaintances in New Jersey where she was educated. After finishing her education she spent a year or more in travel, so by both education and experience she will adorn any home her husband may acquire.

The groom is a musician of no little reputation, having finished his education in the Conservatory of London and by his genial manner has made many friends in Colorado. The Record joins their many friends in best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous life.

ENTERTAINS HER S. S. CLASS.

Miss Claudia Morgan, who is a very busy lounge lady but who is already in love with her Sunday school class, found time to give them a very pleasant time Monday afternoon. She invited them to meet her at the store and had her sister chaperone them to the picture show. From there they went to her room where she met them and entertained them awhile. Refreshments were served and each little one given a pretty souvenir of the occasion.

To insure a welcome, take your bank account along with you.

Chicago has 20,702 Y. M. C. A. members, and yet it took about forty years to screw down that Sunday lid.

Honoring the Bride.

On Monday evening the members of the Colorado Choral Club met in a body at Miss Lois Prude's and went from there to their place of meeting, which now has a fair bride to preside with grace and dignity, to surprise the happy couple and unitedly to give their best wishes and congratulations. The ladies marched in first, the men following, bearing a beautiful rocker as material expression of love.

After a few songs a feast was spread by the members, and a very merry evening was had by all. Toasts were given. Miss Byrd Adams gave one to the bride; Miss Eleanor Coleman one to the groom and Miss Shropshire, who was an appreciated guest, gave one to the club. The members always have pleasant evenings at the "English Embassy" but now they will be doubly so.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Master Homer L. Hutchinson, Jr. celebrated his ninth birthday Tuesday by having a few of his schoolmates play with him after school. Playing school and drop the handkerchief were the leading games. Then they were invited in the dining room to see the cake with its nine lighted candles, after which hot chocolate and cake were enjoyed. Each little guest brought a gift as a souvenir of the pleasant occasion.

We will pay you cash for your hens, fryers, and eggs.—Colorado Mercantile Co.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.

Thanksgiving services were appropriately observed by having union services at the Methodist church, led by the Presbyterian pastor, Rev. Guy B. Duff. His subject was: 'The things for which to be thankful: The Home and especially a Christian home, local prosperity, National peace and prosperity, a Savior, and the privilege of service. After each division of the talk the congregation were brought in a sacred nearness to Him, the giver of all peace and prosperity, as a special prayer of thanksgiving was offered for these blessings.

Special music was rendered and all those who braved the terrific sand storm are all the better prepared to enjoy these great blessings.

THE NEWEST REMEDY FOR Backache, Rheumatism and Dropsy.

KIDNEY, BLADDER and URIC ACID troubles bring misery to many. When the kidneys are weak or diseased, these natural filters do not cleanse the blood sufficiently, and the poisons are carried to all parts of the body. There follow depression, aches, and pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness and rheumatism. In some people there are sharp pains in the back and loins, distressing bladder disorders and sometimes obstinate dropsy. The uric acid sometimes forms into gravel or kidney stones. When the uric acid affects the muscles and joints, it causes lumbago, rheumatism, gout or sciatica. Write Dr. Pierce at once, Send 10c. for large trial pkg. "Anuria." During digestion uric acid is absorbed into the system from meat eaten, and even from some vegetables. The poor kidneys get tired and backache begins. This is a good time to take "Anuria," the new discovery of Dr. Pierce for kidney trouble and backache. 50c. at druggists.

TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED.

Best For Liver and Bowels, Bad Breath, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach.
Get a 10-cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.
Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing sickening headache.
Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.
A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

MURPHY'S COMEDIANS COME BACK.

Murphy's Comedians who played a week's engagement here in October, will be here again all of next week, with an entire change of nightly program. This is one of the few tent shows that can always come back and look its former patrons in the face with a feeling of having given satisfaction the first visit and a determination to do it again. As an evidence of this company's patronage on their first visit, the fact that they played to the tent's capacity nearly every night, clearing up more than $500, is conclusive. The Record predicts for them a repetition of their former success as entertainers. On Monday night all school children under fifteen years of age will be admitted free next Monday night only.

How does this strike you as defining a good citizen:

A man who wants to see the very best roads leading from the very best homes to the very best schools, churches and lodges, and who is willing to do his very level best to secure all of them for all the people who want to see the very best educational advantages given free to the poorest child and doesn't kick at paying his just part of the taxation necessary to obtain them; a man who is grateful for what the community has in years gone by done for him, or mayhap is doing now, and is willing to demonstrate that gratitude by doing all he can for the community in question.—Christoval Observer.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep you blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

$1,250,000 COTTON FIRE AT PINE BLUFF, ARK.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Nov. 28.—Fifteen thousand bales of cotton, valued at approximately $1,250,000, burned in a fire that destroyed four acres of warehousing sheds at the Dorris "B" compress of the Pine Bluff Compress Company late this afternoon.

A blanket insurance policy fully covers the loss on the cotton, much of which was long staple and worth more than $75 per bale, according to the manager of the plant.

Sparks from a locomotive passing on the tracks of a railroad twenty feet from the warehouse, are believed to have caused the fire, which was the most spectacular one in Pine Bluff's history.

The compress is a mile from the edge of the city, and firemen did little toward fighting the blaze when, after an attempt to run in hose lines, they found the pipes of the compress water system half an inch smaller than the city equipment.

SAYS ALLIES SHOULD BEGIN TO NAME TERMS OF PEACE.

London, Eng., Nov. 29.—Belief that the time has arrived for the allies to begin to define terms of peace is expressed by the Post in an editorial, on the ground that there then would be less chance of losing in negotiations what has been gained on the sea and on the field.

The Post contends that without "selling the skin before killing the bear" it may be assumed victory for the allies is assured if only because, without undue strain, Great Britain could maintain a naval blockade indefinitely, and history has shown that such pressure alone would in the end secure victory.

MAKING HOME GROUNDS BEAUTIFUL!

Perhaps no more form of development has made greater progress in the last few years than that of beautifying home grounds, parks and streets. Nothing adds more pleasure and beauty than trees, shrubs and evergreens, properly selected and planted.

We have made a special study for many years of the proper arrangement of trees and plants for best effect. We believe in the natural, informal, pleasing masses, groves, backgrounds, and borders; in planting reds and whites against green backgrounds, and in imitating Nature as nearly as possible.

FIGHT IN PROSPECT OVER "PORK BARREL."

Administration Expected to Oppose Many Public Building Appropriations.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The administration probably will lock horns with Congress over "pork barrel" appropriations, including those for public buildings and for rivers and harbors if stories current here may be relied upon. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo will deal with the public buildings situation in his annual report and may make a supplemental report to Congress on that subject. In this it is said the uselessness of costly public buildings in many places throughout the United States is to be pointed out.

The department will not presume to say what projects ought to be taken care of, unless it be in telling what projects ought to be eliminated. There is a firm disposition however, to draw the line very definitely to the advantage of those localities where the Government's business, both in postal operations and the other departments, is such as to demand early attention. The Government is now paying $2,500,000 in rentals for quarters in towns where there are public buildings adequate to accommodate its business, and, it would not be surprising if the department should recommend that this sum be saved as soon as possible.

Something of the same disposition exists as to rivers and harbors, and, if possible, the administration wants to eliminate a large number of the less worthy projects. It is known that the board of engineers has examined a

ACIDS IN STOMACH SOUR THE FOOD AND CAUSE INDIGESTION.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Fixes Sour, Gassy, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go and why it relieves sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach misery and indigestion in five minutes.

large number and one report is that about 15 per cent of those included in the last bill are to be adversely passed upon. The blanket act of the last Congress directed that specific projects be investigated, but the wording that followed was general enough to allow the board of engineers to re-examine every stream in the United States, and many of them have been so treated.

One of the projects marked for specific examination was the Brazos river in Texas. No report has been received indicating the disposition of the engineers. Lower Red river has been reported unfavorably, and it is being assumed that upper Red river will be similarly dealt with.

No report has been made on the Trinity, although there is a well-settled opinion in Washington that it has been, under re-examination, agreeable to the general language of the act. The story that it will be adversely reported can not be confirmed.

That a turbulent time probably awaits the river and harbor bill is indicated, in that some of the larger projects are proposing to go it alone by asking support in separate bills. One of them is the Mississippi River. A lead of this sort would mean that all projects, in place of being in a general bill, as has been the practice, would come independently, enabling the President to approve the meritorious ones. It is strongly indicated that such is to be the plan if it can be inaugurated.

Out of the $30,000,000 available for this year, the board of engineers of the War Department apportioned to the Texas projects $1,102,000 as against $1,475,000 for the year before. The Brazos got $110,000 and the Trinity $190,000, and the members from Texas served notice that the fight for all Texas projects will be renewed during this session. It would not be surprising, however, if the administration indicated what river and harbor projects would be acceptable and veto a bill that went beyond it.

COTTON BADLY DAMAGED.

Reports from numerous farmers indicate that in sections of the country contiguous to Roscoe, especially north of town, the freeze which we reported last week damaged the late cotton crop badly. In fact, there were large fields in which very little cotton was opened but which promised splendid yields that will now produce only a meagre crop. Cotton which promised one-half to three-quarters of a bale per acre will apparently not yield more than a fifth to a tenth of a bale per acre. As a result the total production in the Roscoe trade territory will be very materially reduced below the amount promised a few weeks ago. —Roscoe Times.

CORONER IN VERDICT SAYS MRS. PERRY WAS MURDERED.

The mystery is still unsolved, all clues which have been afforded the officers having been worked out but none of them containing a solution.

The body of Mrs. Perry was buried here today.

A MARRYING ADMINISTRATION.

This is a sympathetic plaint made by a member of congress that the "marrying administration" is keeping the houses broke buying wedding presents, says the Kansas City Star. Life is, indeed, just one salad fork after another. But why not take a cheerful chaffing dish view of the situation. Why not meet it in a silver candlestick spirit. Why not make a French clock time of it?

Are the tea balls expensive in Washington? Or soup ladies, Or table linen? Or coffee percolators? Or monogram stationery? Or prints of the horse fair, Westminster Abby, Sacred and Profane Love, Washington Crossing the Delaware, Mona Lisa, the Sistine Madonna and Fruit, Fish and Game chromos for the dining room?

Are there no plaster replicas of the Laocoon in the Pennsylvania avenue shops? Or the Dying Gaul? Or the Discus Thrower? And what has become of the nut cracker and set of silver nut picks that used to come in the mail? And the fruit knives? And the butter dish? And the cut glass punch bowl? And the toasting fork? And the open-work silver basket? And the carving set? And the finger bowls?

Surely, members of congress have been framing tariff schedules long enough and have recited from the stump often enough how cheap such articles would be under their bill to be able to employ both imagination and economy in meeting the problem of the "marrying administration." —Fort Worth Stock Reporter.

HAS NO UNEMPLOYED.

Chicago, Ill.—There is no "army of the unemployed" in Chicago this year. The first blast of winter, which sent the mercury down to 23 degrees was the test.

For years this has been the signal for a horde of vagrants to appear upon the streets begging or seeking employment and at night to crowd the cheap lodging houses and lockups. "It is different from last year" said the manager of one of the sheltering houses, "There is work for everybody it seems."

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well-known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Theodor's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Theodor's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

COTTON CROP PLACED AT 11,990,000 BALES.

New Orleans Times-Picayune Presents Report From Its Correspondents.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 28.—The Times-Picayune presents its correspondent's final report on the cotton crop of 1915. The consensus of opinion points to the following results, in bales:

Alabama, 1,100,000; Arkansas and Missouri, 825,000; Georgia and Florida, 2,200,000; Louisiana, 365,000; Mississippi, 1,000,000; North Carolina, 800,000; Oklahoma, 700,000; South Carolina, 1,200,000; Tennessee, 300,000; Texas and California, 3,500,000. Total 11,990,000.

These figures relate to actual growth in commercial bales, exclusive of linters, repacks and similar additions.

The crop has been picked and ginned with great rapidity, as a rule, in consequence of an abundance of labor and exceedingly favorable weather conditions. Farmers seem disposed to hold and can generally secure all the funds they need for that purpose.

MUCH ADLER-1-KA USED IN COLORADO.

It is reported by W. L. Doss, druggist, that much Adler-1-ka is sold in Colorado. People have found out that ONE SPOONFUL of this simple buckthorn bark and glycerine mixture relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. It is so powerful that it is used successfully in appendicitis. ONE MINUTE after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out. It is perfectly safe to use and cannot gripe.

HE IS GOING TO IT.

The "agriculturist" who has had a lot to say in a facetious way, about the men who are trying to be helpful to the farmers, gave my recent short article on plowing in small grain in the fall, along with stalks and peavines, as an example of what he characterized by a most impolite term, adding: "why didn't he tell 'em to use grain drills?"

In the first place, they couldn't get the stalk-litter under with grain drills, and beside, in the sandy land sections to which the article was intended mainly to apply, there are probably not fifteen grain drills in fifty counties or parishes.

If he were advising the farmers of the sandy land sections, he would probably tell them to buy grain drills before planting cover crops. In which case, he would not get much small grain planted in a hurry.

In trying to be helpful to our farmer friends, it becomes necessary to take into consideration, not only the condition by which they are surrounded, but as well their financial situation, not asking them to attempt things beyond their ability to accomplish.

When the sandy land farmer plants corn and cotton in wide rows, with peas between the corn and goobers between the cotton rows, pasturing the stalks and vines and plowing under with small grain for winter cover and pasture he will not need anybody to advise him. And he is going to it, slowly but surely.

R. R. CLARIDGE, Agricultural Agent, T. & P. Ry. Co., Fort Worth, Texas.

WHY YOU SHOULD USE CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Because it has an established reputation won by its good works.

Because it is most esteemed by those who have used it for many years, as occasion required, and are best acquainted with its good qualities.

Because it loosens and relieves a cold and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.

Because it does not contain opium or any other narcotic.

Because it is within the reach of all. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

MORRIS WOULD BE GOVERNOR.

Greenville, Texas, Nov. 26.—The Hon. C. H. Morris, of Winnsboro, confirmed the report this afternoon by telephone to his son, Attorney Frank Morris of this city, that he would be a candidate for Governor against Governor Ferguson in the next primary. It has been rumored here for several days that the Winnsboro man would enter the race.

It is unofficially estimated today that the subscriptions to the new French war loan may reach four billion dollars, of which about half will be cash, the remainder representing the conversion of earlier issues of treasury notes into a new loan.

In making your arrangements for the winter have you secured a prompt reliable washer-woman? If you have not we want the job. Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't this sound good to you? Try us and we will make good.—The Laundry.

TIME-HONORED SLOGANS.

It is about this time of year that newspapers begin to advise their readers to "Shop Early" and "Pay That Poll Tax." The general public may think that editorials along this line are used purely to fill up white space but such is not the case. These two things need to be kept constantly before the people if they are to have a good effect.

Despite all the "Shop Early" campaigns, there will surely be a rush at Christmas. But just think how much greater the rush would be. Despite the "Pay Your Poll Tax" campaign, there will be hundreds who will forget to pay their poll tax. But think how much greater the number of "Chin-ese" there would be if the campaigns were not carried on.

So give the newspapers the credit they merit. They are working for the public good.—Fort Worth Stock Reporter.

BE MODEST IF YOU USE "LISLE BANK."

Chicago, Ill.—To depositors: If you use the Lisle bank don't forget the deposit when you prop your feet on a chair when you set down near a ground floor window with an interesting novel.

Miss Cohen fought hard and the capital, resources and surplus of the depository were saved. The men were arrested.

WARNING TO MITCHELL COUNTY FARMERS.

In view of the almost inevitable ravages of the boll weevil in this county next year, and the present fact that several agents are selling cotton seed to the farmers of the county, for next year's planting, I publish this warning. If you order seed from other sections be absolutely certain that you thoroughly disinfect them with bi-sulphide of carbon (high life) as soon as the seed are received. The danger of the presence of the boll weevil is great enough from its travels westward, without inviting and speeding its presence in imported cotton seed.

LOOK AT A CHILD'S TONGUE WHEN CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK.

Take No Chances! Move Poisons From Liver And Bowels At Once.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs" because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one— if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomachache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

CIRCLE C RANCH.

"Circle C Ranch" which will be seen at Opera House Saturday, Dec. 11, is far different from the ordinary type of western drama. Oscar Graham, the author and producer, has furnished a story, which for vivid portrayal and intense interest, will live long in the memory of theater patrons. In fashioning this play, he has considered well the separate and distinct talents of each of his players for he has had the same people with him for years. Miss Loretta Graham, he has especially fitted with a star role, and this little lady, who has the distinction of being one of the best enunciators on the American stage, is seen to even better advantage than last year when she played the leading part in "A Price of His Race." In "Circle C Ranch" she acts, sings and dances herself right into the hearts of her audience. Ed Paulus, the very funny "Tim" of last year, is funnier still. Fred Wascher, who was the gentlemanly villain last season, is a somewhat ruffianly individual this year. Needless to say Mr. Oscar Graham is seen to most excellent advantage as are the other members of the company. The play is lavishly equipped with scenery and electrical effects and nothing has been spared to make the production one of the finest on the road.

"THE CLUE" A DRAMA OF INTRIGUE.

More than any other photo-drama yet staged by the Lasky Feature Play Co., "The Clue," in which Blanche Sweet makes her fourth appearance under this management, may be described as a drama of intrigue.

Two Russians, Count Boris and his brother Alexis, have stolen plans of the Japanese coast defenses which they are planning to take to London and sell there to a representative of the German government. As they pass through America they seek to acquire wealth by attempting to marry rich American girls. The brother of the girl to whom Alexis is paying marked attentions has as his valet a Japanese, who is really a secret agent of his government and who, learning of the existence of the map, seeks to recover it. This causes him to murder Alexis. The complications of this event almost work a hopeless wrong for the American family before the identity of the real murderer is finally discovered by an expert detective.

"The Clue" is one of those fascinating dramas which must be followed with the most absolute attention from the very first moment in order to lose nothing of the story. The sharpest minds will be puzzled to unravel the mystery until the solution is finally presented on the screen.
