KING OF SPAIN MAY BE NAMED AS ARBITRATOR

London, May 2.—A dispatch from Amsterdam today says:

Diplomatic circles in touch with Germany believe that the reply of the American note will be delivered to the king of Spain in the nature of a final reply. It is expected that the king will expect Germany to make counter proposals regarding the establishment of new rules of submarine warfare.

Embassador Gorard arrived in Berlin early this morning.

It is suggested in political circles that the king of Spain will be asked to arbitrate between the two countries the question of submarine warfare.

Gerard Receives Washington Dispatch Berlin, May 2.—Almost simultaneously with an announcement from German headquarters that James W. Gerard, the American ambassador, would leave headquarters tonight for Berlin, a lengthy dispatch was received at the American embassy here from Washington.

Gerard could hardly have received the text of it before the time set for his departure from headquarters.

von Buelow Favors Concessions to United States.

Paris, May 2.—A Havas dispatch from Berlin says that Prince von Buelow, former German chancellor, is using all his influence in favor of concession by Germany to the demands presented in the American note concerning submarine warfare.

The prince also is urging a collective protest by all neutral states against the tightening of the blockade by the entente allies, the dispatch says.

PERSONA NON GRATIA.

Austin, William G. Dollahite, quartermaster of the State Confederate Home and temporarily in charge of the home, said today that Congressman Cyclone Davis will not be permitted to open his campaign for reelection in a speech to the old soldiers at the home. The board of trustees of the home, Mr. Dollahite said, adopted a resolution in 1911 prohibiting political speeches being made at the home.

As to who invited Mr. Davis to open his campaign at the home, none of the officers of that institution, could say. General H. G. Askew, brigadier commander of the United Confederate Veterans, expressed surprise today at the announcement that Mr. Davis would speak at the Confederate Home. He said that such a speech would not only be impolitic, but might even be dangerous.

TRUTH, THE HAND- MAID OF JUSTICE.

A country whose courts are not respected is on the road to anarchy. Let us eliminate from these institutions everything that makes unrighteous judgment a possibility, or would submit them to public reproach. An honored judiciary stands at the summit of enlightened society. It is the refuge of the weak and guide to the strong. It is the fountain of justice of which it has been said, "Truth is its handmaiden, freedom its child, peace its companion, safety walks in its steps, victory follows in its train, it is the brightest emanation from the gospel; it is the attribute of God." Ben B. Cain.

Mrs. Waite says she will divorce the doctor, but if she isn't a hurry the electric chair will beat her to it.

SECOND MONDAY CALL.

Next Monday will be Second Monday Trades Day in May for Colorado. The merchants of the city will co-operate in the promotion of this occasion to a greater extent than they have ever done before. Special inducements and prices will be offered.

Come to town on that day, bring something you wish to sell or trade. Put off buying what you intend to buy until that time and swell the volume of business on Trades Day. Read the advertisements and ascertain the firms that care enough for your business to solicit through the columns of the paper. These merchants are your friends. They help bear the burdens of local taxation; they help you in time of trouble, distress and calamity. Give them the benefit of the money you spend instead of sending it off to the foreign mail order houses, whence it can never return to local circulation.

It will require but little co-operation on the part of the business men of the town to make the Second Monday Trades Day in each month a red letter day in the business of the town. It should be made a veritable Bargain Day—a day on which considerable concessions are made to the buying public. The response would be quick and appreciable.

To this end The Record not only points the way but will lead it. Every subscription turned in to this office on that day will get the benefit of a 25 per cent reduction. The subscription offer includes the clubbing rates with the Dallas Semi-Weekly News.

Now let's all make it a point to take an interest in next Monday. Meet the people who come to town and talk up the occasion. E. Paulson offers free water and parking room for teams on that day. He also will have an auctioneer on his premises to sell anything you may have to dispose of to the best advantage. Even if you have nothing to sell, buy swap or give away—come to town anyway. Come for the same reason the negro went to heaven—"Just come erlong 'cause them other fellows come."

DOUBLE HANGING TO BE POSTPONED.

Hightower and Montes Will Not Pay Penalty for Murder at Silver City Friday.

Silver City, N. M., May 2.—With the filing today by attorneys for Pedro Montes and Laciis C. Hightower, condemned to pay the extreme penalty on the gallows here Friday for murder, of applications for an appeal to the New Mexico supreme court, the scheduled double hanging is expected to be postponed pending a review by the higher tribunal of their cases.

Preparations for the hanging had been complete, the gallows being erected in the courthouse yard. The condemned men appeared resigned to the fate that awaited them, and were making final preparations for their death. The filing of application for the appeal of their cases has given them new hope. Governor William C. McDonald, while asking for transcripts of the evidence of their trials, as late as last night declared he had nothing before him at the time to justify interference with the sentences imposed by the court. Judge Colin Neblett is absent from the city, but is expected to return tomorrow, when he will consider the applications, the district court being in recess for this term.

The appeals will act as a stay of execution for 120 days during which time the attorneys for Hightower and Montes will be given opportunity to perfect the appeals preparatory to a final review of the cases by the supreme court.

"VETERANS FIRST" IS OFFICIAL SLOGAN CONFEDERATE REUNION IN BIRMINGHAM

View of a few Birmingham Skyscrapers, where the Confederate Veterans meet May 16, 17 and 18.

"Veterans first." This is the slogan that has been adopted by the entertainment committee of Birmingham, Alabama, for the forthcoming reunion of the Confederate Veterans to be held in Birmingham May 16-17-18. The veterans that bared their breasts to the cannons' merciless fire during the late unpleasantness will be cared for above all other considerations. Everything has been planned and all other preparations set aside in order that the Birmingham reunion, which may be the last ever held here, will go down in history as one wherein everyone exhibited the keenest interest and care of the heroes of 1860-65.

The committees in charge of the reunion have progressed admirably with their work. Only the barest details remain to be lined out to make the Birmingham gathering memorable in the history of Confederate reunions. The hospitality of 1908, when Birmingham welcomed the Confederate hosts, will be greatly excelled by the character of the hospitality and the warmth of greetings to be offered the veterans in May.

Through the kindness of the government of the United States the committee has secured the loan of over 6000 cots, which will be placed in the magnificent buildings at the state fair grounds for the veterans who will accept the care and complete hospitality of the City of Birmingham. The veterans will be provided with every convenience. A commissary in charge of experts in the several necessary departments will be maintained. The camp grounds are accessible by several car lines from the center of the city. It is contemplated that the official camp grounds will be the rendezvous for a majority of the veterans visiting Birmingham.

That every detail looking to their comfort and care will be exercised, was indicated by Morris W. Bush, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who announced that the cool, airy buildings will be arranged so as to be perfectly comfortable for the heroes that are expected. The food will be the best and every function exercised to provide every necessity.

Aside from the magnificent care which will be showered upon the veterans at the camp grounds extensive plans have been arranged for their entertainment. The parade will be composed of automobiles and automobile trucks so that every veteran that cares to may ride during the parade. This will relieve the veterans, many of them feeble, of the cruel necessity of walking during the long parade.

U. S. STEEL EARNINGS LARGEST EVER KNOWN.

New York—All previous records for earnings by the United States Steel Corporation were surpassed in the first quarter of the present year, according to the detailed statement for that period, issued recently. Total earnings amounted to $69,713,623, net income $51,218,559 and surplus for the quarter $32,854,172. These figures compare with the previous high record made in the quarter immediately preceding of $51,232,788 in earnings, $19,853,113 in net income and $23,200,692 in surplus.

The most remarkable feature of the statement was the steady rise in monthly earnings, with the progress of the quarterly period.

The balance for the quarter after liberal allowances for depreciation payments applicable to the sinking fund and other outstanding bonds amounted to $45,512,872, whereas a year ago there remained a balance of only $915,058.

Contrary to expectations in many quarters, the directors not only failed to order an extra disbursement on the common stock, but according to Chairman E. H. Gary, the subject was not even formally discussed. Taking the first quarter's exhibit as a basis the current month is expected to show earnings of $25,000,000, with a total of not less than $70,000,000 for the second quarter.

The United States Steel Corporation, it is understood, is almost fully booked for the balance of 1916 and has taken many large contracts for delivery in the coming year. Prices for the business of the first and succeeding quarters of the year are the highest averages of recent years and in some instances established new records.

The usual quarterly dividend of 1 1/4 per cent was declared on the common stock, and 1 3/4 per cent on preferred.

MAGIC BAIT WORKS TOO WELL, EDISON CAUGHT NO FISH

West Orange, N. J., April 27.—Thomas A. Edison is back from Florida mourning the success of his latest invention, a patent "magic" fish bait.

"The bait was too good," said Mr. Edison. "Its magic attracted every fish within a mile and in the struggle of these thousands of fish to get a piece of the bait they all missed it and I got no fish."

"NO WITHDRAWAL" IS ORDER TO SCOTT.

"Co-operate" Is Keynote of U. S. Position Regarding Bandit Campaign.

Washington, May 1.—Additional instructions sent to General Scott and General Funston today by Secretary Baker after conference with President Wilson and with Secretary Lansing, are understood to make plain that whatever is agreed upon at the conference with General Obregon, General Carranza's minister of war, must not be based on any immediate recall of General Pershing's forces.

The American officers had asked for amplification of instructions received last night from Secretary Baker. Officials here have described the conferences up to this time as being purely of a preliminary character and for the purpose of exchanging views. No demands have been presented by either side. It is understood, however, that General Obregon laid such stress upon the withdrawal of the American forces that General Scott felt unable to proceed until he had advised the administration officials.

Arrendondo Renews Withdrawal Request.

After a fifteen minute conference this afternoon with Secretary Lansing, Elesio Arrendondo, General Carranza's ambassador, said he had renewed the suggestion for withdrawal of the American expedition. He stated, however, he had not been especially instructed to present a more formal demand than has been made.

Arrendondo said he told Secretary Lansing that immediate withdrawal would be most desirable, as the Villa bandits were dispersed and Villa himself had not been heard from for several weeks.

Secretary Lansing stated that no reply to General Carranza's notes proposing withdrawal would be made until after the border conference.

Arrendondo said he had renewed his inquiry regarding the withdrawal under his general instructions and had received no information nor instructions regarding the border conferences.

Conference to End After Next Meeting

El Paso, May 1. Major General Frederick Funston announced shortly before noon today that only one more conference would be held with the Mexican representatives on military questions now existing between this country and Mexico. He said it would be a brief one. Generals Scott and Funston are awaiting a reply from Washington before setting a time for the conference.

Major Michle, speaking for the American military representatives, said that there had been no developments in the situation since Saturday and that Generals Scott and Funston were awaiting further advices from Washington. It was learned that the administration, after considering the first message sent by Generals Scott and Funston, made a reply which contained certain points which were not clear to the American representatives here and Washington was asked today for further instructions and amplifications.

When General Funston was informed by the newspaper men that several correspondents were returning from the front he replied that "they are making a mistake."

General Funston said that the lines of the American forces in Mexico had been contracted so that there were no more troops near Parral or Satevo.

General Obregon said today that he was waiting the pleasure of the American representatives for another conference. On the points that are under discussion between the American and Mexican conferees, General Obregon was non-committal. The Mexican minister of war said that he was in entire accord with the foreign minister at Mexico City in the present negotiations and again asserted that he had not delivered an ultimatum to the United States on the question of withdrawing the American troops as had been reported.

RUSSIA TO GET DARDANELLES.

RURAL CARRIER EXAMINATION.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the county of Mitchell, Texas, to be held at Colorado on May 27, 1916, to fill the position of rural carrier at Cuthbert and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

HOW MEXICAN BANDITS ARE MADE

"There are 14,000,000 men in Mexico," writes Harry H. Dunn in Cartoons Magazine, "whose cry is 'free money and free women,' and who never will make peace until the rope of a hangman breaks their necks or the bullets of a firing squad spatter their blood on an adobe wall."

Mr. Dunn, who was formerly editor of a Mexico City newspaper, continues: "The average wage for such labor as any man among the 14,000,000 can furnish is less than 50 cents, American currency, a day. But any man can steal a horse and a machete, and join one of more than 300 bandit gangs operating through Mexico. Out of his share of the loot of the first village or hacienda he will get a saddle, all the liquor he can drink, and the unfortunate daughter or wife of some countryman—for women are the cheapest commodity in Mexico. Possibly, he will get a rifle and ammunition, if not at the first raid, at least at the second, and he can keep out of the fighting until he has armed himself, yet share in the proceeds of his fellow bandits' looting. How much cheaper it is to get horses, arms, food, drink and clothing merely by shooting down their rightful owners than it is to work for them, at 50 cents a day!

"The new bandit notes that few of his companions are killed in proportion to the loot they get and the easy life they live, that many small garrisons of government troops, underpaid and poorly led, join the highwaymen rather than give them battle, and he begins to sing the Spanish equivalent to 'This is the life.'—El Paso Times.

ALL LEADERS SURRENDER TO THE MILITARY.

London, May 1.—An official announcement made here today says that all of the rebel leaders have surrendered.

Dublin, May 1.—The rebels of the rank and file followed the example of their leaders today and confessed that the cause of the Irish Republic has been lost.

The rebels lay down their arms at the foot of Parnell monument in Sackville street, and surrendered to the British troops.

About 450 of the men, who have fought since Monday of last week, marched out from their strongholds under the white flag and gave themselves up.

A few irreconcilable continued sniping but no further outbreak is feared as the government now has the situation well in hand and the cause is crushed definitely.

Most of those who surrendered today have been taken to prisons in Ireland or England.

A mandate has been sent out advising the rebels of the failure of the uprising.

The fate of the prisoners is now in the government's hands, which possesses wide power of under-martial law.

AGREE ON ARMY OF 180,000 MEN.

Washington, May 1.—A regular army of 180,000 men at peace strength has practically been agreed upon by senate and house conferees on the army bill. With the plans for expansion as provided in the bill which has passed the senate, this would produce an army of about 250,000 men in war strength. The bill as it passed the senate fixed the peace strength at 180,000.

The agreement on the size of the army is tentative and dependent upon settlement of other features of the bill still in dispute. It was urged by the conferees that there should at least be a tentative basis for the size of the army before they could make any progress on details.

WHAT THE DOCTOR KNOWS.

Kidneys Must Be Right To Insure Health.

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physician in nearly all cases of serious illness, makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly, the other organs cannot readily be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's Disease, which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, causes nearly ten thousand deaths in one year in the state of New York alone. Therefore, it is particularly necessary to pay more attention to the health of these important organs.

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation, in most cases, is soon realized, according to sworn statements and verified testimony of those who have used this remedy.

When your kidneys require attention get Swamp-Root at once from any pharmacy. It is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Colorado Weekly Record.

Impartial Discussion of Vital Subjects In World Crises.

Chautauqua Institution, the pioneer in summer assemblies, summer schools and home reading courses, maintains its leadership in popular education by a rare combination of intellectual training, stimulating platform events and healthful recreation.

dividual addresses by notable men are the series of one week each on current political, social, economic and religious problems. Topics for such discussion are the defense of the nation, the Americanization of our foreign inhabitants, the church in its task of remaking a war-cursed world, the elevation of American business to a profession, with professional breadth of training and professional loftiness of ethics; the messages of art and antiquity to modern practical life and taxation in the light of wisdom and justice.

The Chautauqua Summer Schools offer something over 200 courses in their catalog, just issued, and list over a hundred instructors, many of them prominently connected with great universities during the college months.

NEW IMPROVEMENTS AT CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., THE FAMOUS "MOTHER CHAUTAUQUA."

COTTON AVERAGE WILL EXCEED THAT OF 1915 IN MOST COUNTIES.

Dallas, Texas, April 30.—From reports received within the past week by the Texas Industrial congress from bankers, newspaper publishers, commercial secretaries and other business men in 150 of the agricultural counties of the state, based upon interviews with the best informed farmers in their respective localities, it appears that there are only a few counties in which the cotton acreage is not greater than that of last year.

The great majority of counties are planting an acreage equal to that of 1914, and some are breaking out new land. Owing to the scarcity and high price of seed, the planting is thinner than usual, but this may prove of little importance in the stand, the difference probably not being equal to the number of plants out in chop ping. If the season is favorable and there are no unusually heavy ravages of insect pests, Texas may export a crop of 4,500,000 bales or more, as in 1914, instead of the 3,000,000 bales of 1915. Texas business will do well to adjust itself accordingly.

A pearl, estimated to have been formed 5,000,000 years ago and said to be the oldest specimen of its kind in the world was found recently by Stanley C. Herold, a Stanford student.

Picked out your congressional primary entry? Going to be an interesting race.

INEFFICIENT MARKETING.

It is easily demonstrable that the cotton crop of the south, under the present methods of marketing, suffers an annual loss of from $10 to $25 a bale. It is a maxim of statesmanship that the state abhors waste. Wherefore the states make provision by penal acts and otherwise to prevent the loss of property by fire and flood. If the state abhors waste and is warranted in legislation to prevent loss by fire and flood, it is all the more warranted in measures of legislation to prevent loss and waste of substance to the producers of the wealth of Texas and to those who furnish us with all we eat and wear.—Clarence Ousley.

Another good maxim would be: Having put your hand to the punitive rifle, never look back until you get your man.

Germany says she will make peace on her terms and the allies say they will make it on theirs, and the result is they go on fighting.

Reports from over the state indicate that Dr. S. P. Brooks is gaining strength in every quarter. West Texas will without doubt give him a big vote.

Many democratic senators now express their belief that Judge Brandies will not be confirmed for a seat on the U. S. supreme bench. First and last, he is a victim of racial prejudice.

Monday did not look like the proverbial May Day; certainly it did not feel like it, with fires and overcoats in evidence, and darned if we believe one word about its being the glad May Day.

The friends of Hugh Nugent Fitzgerald, editor of the Fort Worth Record, are trying to persuade him to make the race for congress from the state-at-large. And he's entertaining the bee himself.

The answer of Berlin to the most recent note of the United States, is negligible compared with the importance of the stand this country makes against the arrogant demands of Obregon and the Greasers south of the Rio Grande. If the United States government makes the least concession to the Mexican demands, particularly if the troops now in Mexico are withdrawn, it will be taken by that country as an evidence of weakness and fear of them. As the American soldiers are now in Mexico and fully able to take care of themselves, it would be the most childish folly to withdraw them on demand of the de facto government of Mexico. It is to be earnestly hoped the Vera Cruz blunder will not be repeated at this juncture.

For the past week both houses of congress have been flooded with telegrams from all sections of the country urging them to vote for peace with Germany at any price. The "American Embargo Conference" with alleged headquarters at Chicago seems to be behind the pro-German propaganda. Bundles of the telegrams lacking only signatures are sent out over the country with instructions that all tolls and expenses will be paid. It is also stated in the letter that accompanies these blank telegrams: "This is our last effort unless we put this over." This effort to make congress believe the national sentiment is in favor of peace at any price in the present relations with Germany, shows the desperate lengths to which the Hypenates will go in order to create public sentiment and bolster up a waning cause. The hand of destiny has writ and moved on.

If Obregon doesn't flimflam Generals Scott and Funston by Mexican promises which he has no idea of performing, and if the United States doesn't come out of the conference second best, then we miss our first and last guess. Mexico has nothing to come promise or concede. It is a swaggering, blustering pauper flaunting its rage in the face of pity, which it mistakes for fear. Samuel Blythe in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post, lays bare the condition of Mexico in all its corruption and helplessness. He says that the healing of the conditions in Mexico has gone beyond the power and ability of the Mexicans themselves, and that unless the United States or some other strong nation takes hold with a firm and resolute hand, conditions will steadily grow worse, not only for Mexico itself, but for this country as well. He weighs well the cost of intervention in time, money, men and blood; but takes the position that the larger obligation of humanity outweighs all material and immediate obstacles.

There are many splendid country papers coming to this office. No section of this great nation can boast of better. There is one exchange in particular, that we esteem a top-notch. It is attractive mechanically and the presiding genius over its editorial columns is sui generis—comes one in a box. We know it's a good paper and that its editor is a man of rare acumen and discrimination. His last issue contained one and a half columns of editorials taken verbatim, literatim et errata from the Colorado Record of the 14th ultimo, with local coloring omitted and without even the condemnation of anonymity expressed by "—Ex." But don't think we are kicking. Brother. Not at all; not at all. We take it as a compliment and appreciate the fact of the omission of any credit as desire on your part to spare our feelings. You had rather shoulder the odium of supposed authorship than publicly lay it on us. You're all right, Kid. Announce for the legislature—darned if we don't support you. Or better still; give old Cy a heat for his whiskers.

The editor of the Record may be verging toward the age limit and physical exemption when it comes to military service, but he serves notice now that in case of a call for volunteers to go to the City of Mexico, he is an applicant for the job of Chaplain—to sit up with the dead, bury the sick and pray for the scared. He's not too old or decrepit for advisory service.

Sir Roger Casement is a prisoner in London Tower. Possibly he will now have time to reflect on what he has accomplished in fomenting sedition in Ireland. The recognition his country had in the past bestowed upon him has repaid with rank ingratitude, and in a single moment he has blackened a long and really useful career. He has sold his birthright, his honor, his name—for what? That his grave may be pointed to as the resting place of a traitor to his country. He did not even get the unsatisfying mess of postage.—Fort Worth Record.

The latest advices from Washington are to the effect that both President Wilson and Secretary of War, Baker, are seeing Obregon's bluff and going him one better. The very presence of the American troops in Mexico is the only thing that will convince the ignorant peons of that country, that the United States' troops have not been run out foot and dragon. The Mexican press has been filled with the most absurd stories of how Obregon has called the hand of this government and now has it on the run for home. The ignorant people know no better and believe the ragtag tetterdamalions called the Mexican army, can wipe up the earth with the American troops any time they feel like taking the exercise.

There is but one thing to do in this section of the country—the Great Pecos Valley of Texas—in regard to Congressman, and that is for everyone to get into line and support unhesitatingly, constantly and earnestly, the candidacy of our present congressman, the Hon W. R. Smith. Although a new man may be as well qualified for the office as Mr. Smith, we must take into consideration the fact that at present there are several propositions under way at the Nation's Capital, that affect very vitally, the life of this section. Mr. Smith has personally covered the situation, made himself familiar with our needs, and is peculiarly fitted to carry them to a successful termination. He has been untiring in his efforts for the upbuilding of the Southwest as a whole, and especially do we wish to mention his zeal in urging the government supervision of the waters of the Pecos river. This one item alone—well, we leave it to our readers, just what it will mean to this particular section.—Pecos Times.

Judge Henry Niles, of Mississippi, is federal judge for that state. He is a native Mississippian, son of Judge Jason Niles, who came south before the civil war and settled at Kosciusko, Mississippi. His wife was a sister of Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, and the Judge Henry Niles is almost a replica of his illustrious and strenuous uncle, both in mental equipment and physical aspect. In a recent decision involving the validity of the liquor shipping law, in the matter of a Kansas City liquor house vs. The American Express Company, Judge Niles denied the mandatory injunction and dismissed the bill, holding that under section 8 of the constitution, paragraph 3, congress has the power to regulate commerce among the states, and that under the Webb-Kenyon act the state has the right to make any regulation it may see fit as to the transportation of liquor, notwithstanding the same may constitute and impose a burden on interstate commerce.

There is a great deal of repair, remodeling and addition work to the various homes of Colorado, going forward just now. Verily, improvement seems the order of the day, which speaks well for the healthfulness of our standard of civic pride. The Record hopes the contagion may soon spread from individual to municipal and county affairs. A neat little city hall and fire station, not to mention what could be done on the courthouse park, would be of great benefit to the community. But the Record is bidding its time with patience touching the building of a new courthouse. The time's coming all right, when the very logic of circumstances, consorting with the bountiful crops and the high prices the good people will receive for them, will compel its erection. The demand for it will be spontaneous, and no candidate, however bucolic and reactionary, will dare try to create meretricious sentiment for an "eek-ernomerkle" administration by opposing the building of a new county courthouse. 'Twould be the same story of the billygoat butting the mogul off the track.

FATHER WHO SLEW FAMILY IS STILL ALIVE.

Temple, May 2.—John Wychopen of Holland, near here, who shot and killed the six members of his family and then attempted to take his own life late Saturday night, was still living today. Physicians, however, still believe he cannot survive.

He regained consciousness once last night and muttered two incomprehensible words.

The theory of murder and attempted suicide, as set forth by a coroner's jury following an inquest, still holds.

It became known today that jealousies between Wychopen and his wife, over his alleged relations with a step-daughter, were said to have precipitated the murders.

The funerals of the six victims were postponed yesterday on account of heavy rains, and will be held today.

TOM PAYNE.

Fred B. Lynch, national committee-man from Minnesota, is said to be slated for chairman of the national democratic committee for the campaign this year. William F. McCombs, present chairman of the committee and manager of the president's pre-nomination campaign, has handed in his resignation, which will take effect after the St. Louis convention in June.

For the first time since he shucked off his coat and refused to let the money powers slap a crown of thorns on the brow of labor and crucify the poor but honest man on a cross made out of gold, the Peeries One has been shunted on a hog train siding on his way to the national democratic convention. And there may be stick till all but the shouting is over.

NOTICE TO LOCAL FARMERS' INSTITUTES.

Owing to the fact that organization was not perfected last Saturday of the County Farmers' Institute, a call is hereby made for a meeting of the locals at Colorado on Saturday, May 13th, at which time delegates will be selected to attend the meeting of the county institute on the following Saturday, May 20th, at Colorado.

A full attendance is urged, as it is important that the county and all local organizations perfect organization as early as possible that more cooperative work and better results may be obtained. Let's have a full attendance on both occasions.

J. H. BULLOCK, Secretary County Institute.

Cheaper gasoline may become an issue in the politics of the United States. It has now reached the stage of getting into the party platforms, Maine's progressives leading off with a demand that something be done to protect the consumer, and, if in no other way, by a prohibition on exports. That will be a last resort, in case other devices for gaining equity should fail. Moreover, the country will not wait until next autumn for a decision at the polls. It wants relief sooner than that, and, if relief is not obtained, it will insist on knowing why.

Keep Colorado Money in Colorado.

Wonder if Colonel Bryan, scared veteran of the Spanish-American war, would make application for the privilege of raising another regiment in case of a discussion with Mexico. Of course he might, if it were with some European nation several thousand miles in the offing.

ROGERS-WILLIAMS.

On last Saturday at Big Spring, Dr. A. C. Rogers, of Tolbert, and Miss Grace Williams, of Colorado, were united in marriage. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams of this place. She graduated at the high school here about four years ago and has been a successful teacher since. She is one of Colorado's fairest daughters and will be a jewel to any community. Dr. Rogers is a talented young physician of Tolbert just establishing himself in that community and is to be congratulated on winning so fair a bride.

The Record joins their many friends here in wishing them a life of prosperity and happiness.

We are in favor of household efficiency and believe that the laundry is one of the most neglected branches of the home. The work is so hard and uninviting that any old way is considered good enough. We believe we can solve all of your laundry troubles. Send us the clothes and let us return them ready to wear, or send them to us and let us do all the washing, ironing the flat pieces, this will leave you only a few starched pieces to iron. Either way will make of your laundry troubles a joke.—The Laundry.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the faithful friends and doctors who assisted us during the sickness and death of our loved one, we take this method of trying to extend to you our heartfelt thanks. May God bless you all. M. C. WILLIAMS.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK.

Have you ever rightly considered what the mere ability to read means? That it is the key which admits us to the whole world of thought and fancy and imagination? To the company of saint and sage, of the wisest and the wittiest at their wisest and wittiest moment? That it enables us to see with the keenest eyes, hear with the finest ears, and listen to the sweetest voices of all time? More than that, it annihilates time and space for us.—Lowell.

The habit of reading is the only enjoyment I know in which there is no alloy. It lasts when all other pleasures fade. It will be there to support you when all other resources are gone. It will be present to you when the energies of your body have fallen away from you. It will last you until your death. It will make your hours pleasant to you as long as you live.—Trollope.

Manse Smith, our leading sawed-off citizen of Senegambian hue, and occasionally functioning in the shine parlors of the local tenorial emporia between times of trouble and incarceration in the county bastille, now languishes in durance vile, the guest of the county and the tax payers thereof. His offense against the peace and dignity of the commonwealth of the State of Texas and contrary to the statute for such cases made and provided, seems to have been a disturbance of the peace and tranquility of his immediate neighborhood with bodily threats against the spouse of his bosom emphasized with an axe. The insinuation that old Jno. Barleycorn was particeps criminis, Manse repels with contempt.

President Doss of the Mitchell County Singing Convention which convenes at Colorado Saturday and Sunday next, requests that all classes bring their singing books with them Sunday. Don't forget this.

EYE, EAR, NASAL AND THROAT IMPEDIMENTS.

(Paper by Dr. T. J. Ratliff before Parent-Teacher Association.)

The foremost sign of the foremost age of the world's history is a new concept. Time was, in the past when men valued vital force and physical beauty as essential civic qualities, of which the national achievements of Greece and Persia are notable results. Time was, when society thought of the body as an enemy to be subdued. (The pestilence of the middle ages).

Today the idea of the physical body is based on the findings of experimental science, discoveries of living organisms in the hidden have revealed the unseen friends and foes which surround us, critical study of the human organs has brought knowledge of the relations of body and mind.

Bacteriology teaches the cause of many hitherto mysterious diseases, all these point the way to the economy of health and the waste of disease, certain diseases can be controlled, sickness is waste, health investments bring immediate tangible returns. A saving of waste is corresponding gain. In nothing is it more clearly illustrated than in the elimination of this element of preventable illness. Health is purchasable, not that any sanitarian believes that there can be entire immunity from disease but we are convinced that the application of the principles of sanitation and the examination of school children for defects and infections will give returns of fixed value in the form of longer lives and the greater efficiency of men and women which ultimately leads to more material wealth in the form of bank accounts and improved homes.

The points of attack in every community are the water supply and distribution, the disposal of waste and medical supervision of schools. 40 per cent of all typhoid in the United States is believed to come from and through the water supply and distribution, in many instances the water in itself is pure, the infection is carried from one to another through the "old oaken bucket."

It is not my effort to give you a dissertation on public health in general but to talk of the conditions in the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat of school children that in a great many cases can be remedied and to make myself clear and to preface my remarks with what I have just said.

There are a great many communicable diseases spread, which can be prevented; of the eye is Trachoma or granulated sore eyes, and Conjunctivitis or pink eye; of the throat is Tonsillitis, Diphtheria, etc. Then there are other conditions that can be palliated or cured that hinder the growth and development of the child. In early childhood there is in nearly every case a morbid growth in the upper part of the throat, the part that leads to the posterior part of the nose which we call Adenoids. When these growths appear, there begins trouble of all kinds, not only with those that have other imperfect conditions but with those that are otherwise well. Adenoids clog the nose so that a child will have to open its mouth to breathe thereby missing the straining of the air by the nose, drying the throat, allowing the refuse in the nose that collects from the eyes and sinuses of the face to ferment and produce congestion of its membrane, making in the nose a breeding ground for any and all kinds of disease germs; drying the crips of the tonsils so that they stand open and allow infections to enter and produce enlarged tonsils, which will give another place for the breeding of any all kinds of diseases. Pressure in the nose produces trouble in the eyes; makes them tired and weak, thereby causing a strain. Parents and teachers should take into consideration that such a child is tired, that his eyes are tired too, and when forced to use their eyes in that condition that a strain is apt to develop. When the eye, ear, nose or throat is affected the trouble affects the others in nearly every case. The mouth breathing of children with adenoids produce deformities in the shape of the face, the mouth and the chest, and a slow development of the entire body, even if the entire body is not stunted from its effect. In cases of long standing the child has a vacant expression, the mouth is held open, the breast is sunken on each side, and exaggerated in the center, showing what we call a pigeon breast, the shoulders droop and there is a general appearance of lassitude. The remedy is to have the adenoids removed. In the recent cases this will effect a cure of all the conditions that I have just enumerated; but if the child is let alone until a deformity exists, the removal of the adenoids will only arrest further deformity. In a great many cases of tonillar enlargement the removal of the adenoids will cause the tonsils to shrink to their natural size. Of course this has to be done before the tonsils have been enlarged long enough to have formed connective tissue and the crips infected till the only way to get the infection out is to take the tonsils out. My advice is to have the child examined by a physician before it ever enters school, then at any time thereafter that it shows any trouble in the throat have it looked after and before each school year have it examined. It is lots cheaper in money to have this done than it is to wait till the child gets sick or has these conditions long enough to produce an injury and then have to have a physician to bring it back to a normal condition. That reminds us of the old adage of a stitch in time.

When the throat is kept in good condition usually the nose does not need much attention, but after a congestion of long standing there is an enlargement of the turbinate bones that sometimes require surgical measures. But it is best not to wait until that time comes, but take into consideration that the nose is one of the most vital organs of the body. All the drainage from the sinuses of the face, the eyes, the throat and the lungs should come through it. Then it is a strainer and a heater for the air that goes into the lungs. When it is affected it can not perform any of its functions in the best way.

When the nose and throat are kept in good condition the ear only needs washing, but a congestion in the throat will cause ear ache and some times an abscess in the outer ear. Then through an infected throat comes an infection of the middle ear that causes lots of pain, is dangerous to life, resulting in mastoid abscess and at least a partial deafness.

There are a great many conditions of the eye that need attention, but time forbids us to go into them now. At some other time I may be able to give you something definite on them.

At least we owe to our children good health, and that brings to our mind another old saying from our copybook: "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," which illustrates to us the importance of always looking after the wellbeing of the children if we expect to have healthy men and women.

The medical profession is devoting more time and money to the study of preventative medicine than any other branch of medicine. For some centuries medical men only studied to relieve disease, but in the past decade they have come to the conclusion that the best and only sure way to relieve diseases is to prevent them and to do that we must look after the children, keep them in the best condition possible so that their vitality will be the greater, thereby assisting any and all preventative measures we may adopt.

THEDA BARA SAYS FEW GIRLS HAVE PHOTOPLAY TALENT.

Vampire Woman Encourages Only Those Aspirants Who Are Sincere.

Miss Theda Bara, star of the William Fox production, "The Serpent," has issued a warning to all screen-struck girls. Miss Bara is deluged with queries as to the best way to get into photoplay, nor are the inquiries all from young people.

"If the average girl only knew the sacrifices necessary to attain success in motion pictures, she would carefully consider before electing screen-acting as 'her life's work,'" says Miss Bara. "The demands made on the time of the motion picture actress are greater than those made on the time of the women engaged in the pursuit of any other art."

"The average girl, according to my opinion, which is founded on the many letters I receive, believes that acting before the camera requires merely ability to reveal her own personality. It would seem to me that she has read about the triumph of some inexperienced girl who has achieved remarkable dramatic success in her first picture."

"Of course there is always the possibility that the embryonic photoplayer may acquire the greatest of laurels in her first photoplay appearance. There is that possibility, but it is a very small one, I myself find that success on the screen requires constant study. If one really feels that she has histrionic talent of a high order and she is willing to labor indefatigably, it may be well enough for her to enter photoplay."

"If, however, she aspires merely to reveal her own personality on the screen, it is best that she remain among her friends who probably will appreciate her more than the average motion picture audience."

We do not believe there is a town in West Texas with more pretty yards, lawns and shade trees than Colorado. The earnest campaign the Record has made the past five years, aided and abetted by its private shade tree nursery (at so much per tree) has begun to bear visible and comforting fruit. Shade trees were a more salable and profitable commodity the past season than garden seed and turnip greens. A vacant lot with pretty shade trees on it, not only will command a better price when sold, but has three chances of finding a buyer than a bare lot, however eligible and commanding its site.

Ben Morgan will take your subscription for any paper or periodical.

Godfrey Spruill left this week for Austin, where he will uphold the honors of this district in the state declamation contests. Godfrey easily carried off the honors of the local school, county and district contests, and the Record will have to read the results of the state contest before being convinced that this young Demosthenes will not bring the oratorical bacon from the capital.

Arrange to be a guest of Shadowland at the first episode of "The Strange Case of Mary Page."

J. L. Doss is having ornamental concrete corner and gate posts erected at his home place. He will also turn out his hedge and remove the fence, which will add much to the attractiveness of his already handsome home on Silk Stocking Hill.

Part of the Record force will make another foray upon the flimsy tribe circulating the waters of the North Concho, with the predatory purpose of remaining a week or two. We who remain will look for them the morning after the first cool night.

M. K. Jackson is having a concrete sidewalk laid on the south side of his home property.

Rev. R. A. Clements is still engaged in a protracted meeting at Post City. We have not learned how the meeting is progressing.

Rev. Guy B. Duff and family are now rejoicing under a figurative vine and metaphorical fig tree of their very own. They moved into their new home last week, which is a decided addition to the attractive homes of that particular locality.

BRING A BASKET.

It will be impossible for the committee to see everyone in town about bringing a basket to the singing convention next Sunday. It is due the visitors that ample provision be made for their entertainment on that occasion. To this end, therefore, we request that everyone bring a basket to the tabernacle on Sunday and leave same at the courthouse where provision will be made for its reception and use. J. H. BULLOCK, Chairman.

There are said to be 450,000 words in the English language, and when a woman's club meets they are all in use.

What The Farmers Did

The town of Loraine and our other two places of business at Colorado and Roscoe had the pleasure of receiving from the enterprising farmers poultry and produce such as butter, chickens and eggs which netted $651.00 in actual cash. We would like for every farmer in our trade territory at Loraine, Colorado and Roscoe to have seen these two immense loads of produce gathered together as above stated—68 cases of eggs, 50 pounds of butter, 2,100 pounds of chickens. Estimating that not more than the tenth farmer in each of our three farming and trade territories were interested in this and brought in their produce, figure to yourself how much ten times this amount would have totaled in cash and how much greater benefit would have accrued to all, had all been interested. It is our purpose and pleasure to show the benefits which each farmer would derive by giving this movement more consideration and closer attention. This being a very busy time of the year, and as the farmers cannot afford to lose any time,

HOW BILLIONAIRES ARE MADE. (By Henry Clews.) The effect of the war upon some industries is phenomenal, particularly upon those engaged in iron and steel production. For example, the United States Steel Corporation's net earnings during the last quarter were reported at about $60,000,000, or five times what they were a year ago. Similar results are being reported by other concerns in this industry, although it must be remembered that comparisons are made with a period of depression. Copper mining companies are making extraordinary profits, and their combined output for this year will considerably exceed 2,000,000,000 pounds, which at current average prices would approximate considerably over $500,000,000 in value of product, compared with $280,000,000 last year. Moreover, the entire output for 1916 is said to have been sold to the allies, who seem to have secured all the surplus copper in the country. When the war is over there will be a tremendous vacuum in Germany which this country will be called upon to fill. The oil companies are also securing their full share of present unprecedented activity. Since January 1st the Standard Oil companies have distributed about $30,000,000 in stock dividends and many of the companies have accumulated surpluses almost equal to their capital stock. A number of the chemical companies, especially those making elements for explosives, are having similar experiences, showing profits several times those of a year ago. Some of the textile concerns having war contracts are also enjoying unusual prosperity. As for the munition companies, their experiences are too familiar to call for reiteration, further than the fact that orders for munitions from the allies are still coming forward more freely than one time anticipated.

THE LAWS' DELAY. The simplification of court procedure is an object which has always been sought and desired to be obtained by law-respecting and abiding men, and will continue to be, until the result is reached that litigants may have their rights vindicated and their wrongs redressed without delay. There can be no controversy about what we want to do, but the question to decide is how to do it. Whenever the personnel of the trial judges of this State is so elevated that the men who occupy them will be above employing their positions for political preferment, yielding to the clamor of one faction or another in the community, or of doing anything else except to fearlessly administer justice, then and not 'till then will the well-founded complaints which exist against the laws' delays cease.—Senator Hanger. ROGERS NEWS NOTES.

The ice cream supper last Saturday night at Homer Green's was enjoyed by all and lots of people were there. They played several games. One of the most interesting games played was 42. The Rogers literary meets Friday night, the 5th, and we are expecting a good program and a large attendance. Harry Pond's daughter, Little Ruth, is suffering with sore throat this week. Sunday school continues in progress with Mr. Wingo as superintendent. The farmers around Rogers are very busy this week planting. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pond, of Colorado, visited their son, Harry, last Sunday and went by Westbrook on their way home to visit their daughter, Mrs. Green, a few minutes. Some of the Rogers young folks met at the school last Tuesday night preparing some dialogues for the close of the school, and are expecting a good time. Mr. West is about straight again after an attack of pneumonia. The Fair View school closed last Friday and gave a picnic on Saturday. Wilma Williams, of Fair View, visited her sister, Mrs. Harry Pond, last week. DOT AND DASH.

THE SAGE OF TEVILLE.

What restless mortals we are! Mr. Editor:—Since I last wrote you, there has been a wonderful change. I call to memory the verse, "Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, but trust Him for His grace, Behind a frowning Providence, He hides a smiling face." The first day of April was an April Fool indeed. All day the low hung clouds dropped their garnered fullness down. All things are lovely now. Grass is a carpet of green, fruit trees are laden with promise, birds are mating, roses are blooming, and the first butterfly goes flitting by. How delightful the land grows. With renewed energy we go to our work in the morning and return at night to lie down in pleasant dreams. We are preparing the land and sowing the seed; may God give the increase. Mr. Editor we are very much alive at this time. We have quit cussing the country and have decided to "stay by the stuff." Box suppers and ice cream suppers are common in the land. Ice cream is ever in season but this cold weather is not. We eat the cream and afterwards sit by the fire. But we are not altogether content. We are fearful that we will have too much rain. If the wet weather continues long enough it will be too late to plant, and the crops we have will be ruined by the weeds and grass. And again the hail may come and destroy everything, fruit, crops, garden, chickens and calves. And Mr. Editor, the rats, the rats! What will we do? We may have to call on you for help again. Send us the Pied Piper if you can to take them away. If it were not for these everlasting fears we would be perfectly serene. Sorry to trouble you again, but until we hear from you we will rest upon Ps. 162-6. "He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing bringing his sheaves with him." G. W. HOOKS.

CAR CAPERS.

The farmers are glad that it keeps raining a little. A few of the young folks living around here were at the party at Mr. Henry Franklin's Friday night and report a fine time. The school will be out three weeks from the time of this writing, on the 19th of May. Mr. Elmer Reed was visiting relatives here Friday and Mr. G. Sweat took him home Sunday. Mr. George Sweat was in Colorado Saturday. Clint Myrick visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Rone preached here last Sunday. Mrs. C. Adams visited relatives here last week. Mr. Homer Smith has returned from Buford, where he has been teaching school, and it is reported that his school was a success. A number of young folks gathered at Mrs. Stuterville's Saturday night for a few hours' enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Daniels are vis-

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life. If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excitable; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions. It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength. Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

MAY.

May gets its name from Maia, who was one of the wives of Vulcan. She was a woman very much like Isadora Duncan, and the first maypole was put up by Jupiter in an effort to see over the crowd on the occasion of her appearance as Queen of the May. She seems to have occupied a middle ground in interpretative dancing between the extreme athleticism of Pavlova and the more subdued tone of Gertrude Hoffman. It is not clear whether she and Venus, who was also the wife of Vulcan, were the same woman, but it is unlikely. Vulcan, like Henry Ford, was one of those people who somehow get everything. It was always a great puzzle to other people. The explanation seems to have been that he had an absolutely true conception of values. Instead of going in for any of the heroic things of life, as almost everybody else did, he stuck to his blacksmith shop, increased its output from day to day, and made good vulcanizing available at a low price. Mars, who made war, laughed at this, as did Pan, who made music, and Mercury, who was an athlete. Some of the other members of the Olympian pantheon who were doing what they could for agriculture, fruit raising and other productive pursuits, took Vulcan seriously; but it was not until people were struck by the beauty of his wives, the immensity of his fortune and the plaudits by which he was everywhere greeted, that the whole truth of man's usefulness to man dawned upon them. The Greeks and Romans have said that there was in their mythology a guide to every course in life, and there probably was. It was Caesar who gave Maia a place in the calendar. He said something should be done to set the sort of dancing she did apart from that commonly seen in dance halls, and he therefore named for her the month of May.

There was, of course, a tremendous protest from those who admired other dancers more, and Caesar was finally assassinated by Brutus and Casca, who were conducting a tour of the empire at the time of the Russian Ballet.

The festive calf will show us how The Russians circled round to France, And bits of color will endow The somewhat commonplace expanse.

The father of the sweet June bride Will dig a trench around his bank, The happy motorist will ride About with water in his tank, The girls will playfully reverse Their hose-lined boots for summer wear.

The greedy plumbers will disperse And leave to get the mountain air, The people swatting flies will call For what the wary game may fetch, And Wilson, Roosevelt, et al, Will softly thunder down the stretch.

The fierce pacifist will pursue preparedness from hall to hall, and where the skies are more than blue the mating meadowlark will call. The hired man will pound his ear beneath the new and grateful shade, the soda fountain clerk will cheer the populace with lemonade, the farmer will survey his wheat and look at costly limousines, the dread mosquito will repeat its former drives upon the screens, the gardener will sell us beets at ten or fifteen cents apiece, the fashion show upon the streets will make us signal the police, the tourist will decide to see which way the country runs and where, the bullfrog will announce the key and start the music everywhere, the whippoorwill's shrill notes shall rise to greet the great and golden moon, and the cunning widow will devise her deadfall for the coming June.

Alas for kings and kingly scraps, how happy might we all become to see the winter quite collapse and bear the bees begin to hum. But fight as Europe madly will, her moods are merely for a day—the things that make the poet thrill and vocalize are here to stay. When emperors are quite forgot, and submarines are hauling freight, we still shall thank our mortal lot that spring is knocking at the gate. It little matters who shall rule, or whose battalions are the best, so long as Phoebus still shall tool in silent splendor in the West. It will not matter who was right, nor greatly matter who was wrong, so long as in the still of night the mockingbird shall sing its song. The things which war cannot destroy are most worth having anyway, so why resort to killing joy and drive a lot of people gray?

If kings could keep their royal shrines On long enough to think it out, They'll cease to do us such great hurts As chasing one's own kind about. They'd simply meet, as wise men must And say, "Now, what's the use to fight?"

We pound the planet into dust, And time repairs it in a night. We leave no more impress upon The things that finally prevail Than if we had not come and gone And scattered ruin on our trail. The self-same earth comes back as green

As ever grass grew in a glen, And lo, there wanders on the scene The very self-same kind of men."

May day was originally celebrated by ancient apartment house owners as the day on which they ceased to be responsible under their contracts for heating the building. They usually had a parade, and there were athletic contests for janitors. The idea that janitors might be athletic was typical of both Greek and Assyrian humor, which was very subtle. There will be a new arrangement of the planets during the month. Jupiter and Venus which are both very brilliant, will act together as morning stars and see if they can keep the Carranzistas in line, while Mercury, Mars and Saturn, oftentimes an effective combination, will be evening stars, having as their chief object the task of keeping Congress behind the President. No eclipses has been planned for the month, and it is not thought that any will be necessary. The moon will be full on the 17th, Villa will be at perihelion with our army on the 20th, when we will get within 200 miles of him.

Then June will come to gild the skies Where true love ever beckons, And people making war supplies Will give their daughters checks.

TWO WRONGS DON'T MAKE ONE RIGHT.

The killing of non-combatants at sea by submarines is an inexcusable crime. But so also would be a war over the matter. When unreasoning war passion shall have subsided, the memory of helpless innocents slaughtered on the sea will shame the German people, in spite of the specious pleas now urged in defense. No war on the part of the United States is needed to accomplish that result, while it would remove whatever restraining influence neutrality may confer. President Wilson took the proper course when, after the Lusitania slaughter, he said that there is such a thing as being "too proud to fight." His greatest blunder was abandonment of that position.—S. D.

EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL! HORRIBLE.

Calomel is Quicksilver and Acts Like Dynamite on Your Liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious; sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

HELEN KELLER HEARS CARUSO.

Atlanta, Ga., April 25.—Helen Keller, blind and deaf, placed her fingers on the lips and throat of Enrico Caruso and "heard" him sing the "Lament of Blinded Samson," in "Sampson and Delilah."

"Oh, wonderful, wonderful" breathed Miss Keller. "Though I cannot see your face, I can feel the pathos of your song." Caruso replied: "In your fingers I can feel your soul."

WAR COSTING OVER $90,000,000 DAILY.

New York.—War is now costing the nations of Europe more than $90,000,000 a day, according to estimates prepared in a booklet to be issued by the Mechanics and Metals National Bank of this city. Of this enormous total the principal burden falls on the entente allies. The bank estimates that the cost per hour to England, France and Russia is approximately $2,500,000, while to the Teutonic empires the cost is in excess of $1,000,000.

The total cost of the war if it still in progress August 1st, next, will have been $45,000,000,000. Of this sum Great Britain's share will have been $11,600,000,000, Germany's a trifle less and France's $9,250,000,000.

BEST THING FOR A BILIOUS ATTACK.

"On account of my confinement in the printing office I have for years been a chronic sufferer from indigestion and liver trouble. A few weeks ago I had an attack that was so severe that I was not able to go to the case for two days. Failing to get any relief from any other treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Tablets and the next day I felt like a new man," writes H. C. Bailey, Editor Carolina News, Chapin S. C. BRITISH AT KUT-EL-AMARA SURRENDER TO TURKS.

London, April 20.—Major General Charles Townsend, commander of the British forces which have been beleaguered at Kut-el-Amara, Mesopotamia, by the Turkish forces, since last December, has surrendered. This statement adds that General Townsend destroyed all guns and munitions before surrendering. He probably surrendered to avoid starvation of his forces. His army was unofficially estimated at 50,000 men, mostly Indian troops, and it is probable that his forces was much smaller than this, as he has suffered heavy losses in a number of severe battles with the Turks.

SHEPPARD ADVOCATES BUYING UP LAND FOR PEOPLE.

Washington, April 28.—Senator Morris Sheppard, democrat, of Texas, told in the senate today that the United States was menaced by a rapidly increasing aristocracy of landowners, and proposed a constitutional amendment to authorize congress to purchase land anywhere in the country, hold, improve, subdivide and sell it and make loans for the people, encouraging farm ownership. The amendment, he said, was similar to one adopted in Massachusetts and approved more than 3 to 2 by a popular vote.

MUTUAL GROUND.

It has been the burden of the song of the bards of the ages that the East and the West shall never meet until the judgment day. In the mysterious plan of creation the races are set apart by different impulses, different tenets and different creeds, born in the blood and bred in the bone.

The other day, 'way down upon the borderland which pulses and throbs with hatred of tradition, a white mother lost her babe. It was wrested from her arms by men with brown skins who had vented their hate upon the babe's father and all his kind which they might reach. The little bit of flossam of the alien race found a resting place upon the bosom of a brown woman.

Within that brown bosom glowed the same holy spark of motherhood as in the white bosom. One mother's aching heart called across the desert wastes to the other. The brown woman tottered, footsore and alone, across 50 miles of sun-baked sands that she might soothe the ache in the white woman's heart. The babe was restored unharmed to its mother's arms. The East and the West had met, if but for a fleeting moment, upon the neutral ground of motherhood.—Woman's Weekly.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

A. & M. GRADUATE WILL HAVE DIRECTION OF REBUILDING PARIS.

College Station, April 29.—W. W. Whipkey, of the class of 1911, at the Agricultural and Mechanical college, will have a share in the rebuilding of the city of Paris. Whipkey has been appointed city building inspector at Paris by Mayor McCulston, and will begin his new duties there Monday.

Whipkey specialized in architectural engineering at Agricultural and Mechanical. Soon after leaving school he was inspector on the main building and mess hall construction jobs at Agricultural and Mechanical. Later he went to Cuero, where he became a practicing architect. He remained there until last year, when he returned to the college as architect to the agricultural experimental station. Whipkey's home is at Colorado, Texas.

VERDUN IS DEFIANT.

Verdun remains unconquered and its defenders continue to hurl defiance at the German invaders. This last and most terrific drive ordered by the kaiser has been a failure. Military experts say that it was the greatest and bloodiest battle of history and the price paid in human life when the awful toll is taken will stagger humanity. The crown prince of Germany was in command. He directed the million men picked from the veteran soldiers of his empire. Verdun broke the drive and now thousands of Russian soldiers are filling the gaps of the allied forces in France and Flanders. Russia appears to be the hope of the allies.

Russia is on the back of Austria and Germany. Russia is driving the Turks to a last stand in Asia Minor. Russia has already seized territory that is an empire in itself from the sultan and his followers. Russia has won the place in the sun that Germany coveted.

Unless the handwriting on the wall is misleading Russia is destined to be the dominant power of Europe. The Germanic nations cannot fight the world and the failure of the Verdun drive is a blow to the hopes of the kaiser and the emperor.

Russia has a population of 170,000,000. She is able to place millions of recruits in the field and her allies are able to furnish the arms and the munitions of war.

Why shouldn't the nation with the greatest borrowing capacity win in the end?

All the belligerents are slowly committing suicide. With one or two exceptions all the belligerents are facing bankruptcy.

There is certain to be another upheaval after a treaty of peace has been signed. Then the wealth producers of these European countries may settle their scores with the kings and lordlings who are responsible for the present-day crucifixion of civilization.—Fort Worth Record.

C. O. D. LIQUOR LAW IS KNOCKED OUT BY COURT.

Act Passed in 1907 to Prohibit Shipments Into Prohibition Territory Declared Unconstitutional.

Washington, April 24.—The Texas statute of 1907 imposing a tax of $5,000 a year on each place handling liquor c. o. d. was held invalid today by the supreme court as an interference with interstate commerce. The decision so announced by the supreme court in delivering it arose before the passage of the Webb-Kenyon law and did not involve it in any way.

Washington, April 24.—The decision was announced in a suit brought by Abram Rosenberger, a Kansas City, Mo., wholesale liquor dealer, for damages against the Pacific Express company for failure to deliver at points in Texas, liquor shipped over the company's lines by Rosenberger from Kansas City. The company sought to return the liquor, but before its delivery the Texas statute went into effect, The Missouri supreme court decided the Texas statute was valid.

Intention of Act.

Austin, April 24.—The act held invalid was enacted to prevent c. o. d. express shipments into prohibition territory by placing a prohibitive tax upon express companies accepting them.

UNPARALLELED PAY FOR RAILROAD WORK.

Seward, Alaska.—When construction work on the United States railway is resumed by striking workmen, it will be on a wage basis said to be unparalleled for railroad work in this territory, or the United States. Details of the wage agreement between the Alaska Engineering commission and the Federal Labor Union at Anchorage which were received here today, show that the schedule contains material advances for all classes of work, ranging from 40 5-8 cents an hour for section to $180 a month for steam shovel engineers. Officials of the commission said the only thing they feared was that the high wages would cause more laborers to rush to Alaska than could be used and that hardships would be caused by men out of work.

Chairman J. A. Moffit of the arbitration board, which settled the strike, said that in arranging the schedule the board, which took testimony from Lieutenant Frederick Mears, of the Alaska Engineering Commission, and from workmen in all the construction camps, took into consideration the higher cost of living along the line of construction in Alaska compared with that in the United States.

Construction work will be resumed at once, all along the line north of Anchorage and efforts will be made to rush to completion the branch line to the Matanuska coal fields this summer. Additional forces also will be put to work on the Seward division.

TWELVE FINE HOGS PLACED.

Saturday was the date on which the pigs contracted for by the Chamber of Commerce with the boys of the various pig clubs of the county, were delivered. There were a dozen full blood registered pigs sold to as many boys in the county, for which their notes were taken by the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. The results of this plan of co-operation will be watched with much interest, and the Record dares predict that the boys of Mitchell county will make as good showing in their coming exhibit in the fall as those of any other locality in the state. Mitchell county has proven its great advantages as a hog raising section, and from this time forward the shipments of fat hogs to market will occur with increasing frequency.

All the pigs were Mitchell county products and registered stock. The Poland China pigs were gotten from Geo. Goodwin and J. N. Burk and the Durocs from J. L. Felker, of Westbrook. The following boys were furnished Poland China pigs: Valentine Kay, Roy Bright, Fred McPerson, Arthur Wiley, Roy McPerson and Leavelle Kay, all of Loraline. SOME BASEBALL STARS of 1916

The Farm and Small Town furnish Best Material for Big League Timber

Looking over the roster of the big league ball teams you will find name after name of men who only recently were boys on the farm or in the village or small town. On the other hand, surprisingly few hail from the big cities. And yet, this is not so surprising after all. Every player aside our knowledge of the big part that the so-called country boy has always played in the great affairs of business and the nation, the country is the place to lay the foundation necessary for athletes.

The photographs shown are familiar to all lovers of the great National game. It is rather interesting to note that in addition to their being representatives of their type in the baseball world all of these stalwart athletes are great endorsers of that beverage you know and like so well—Coca-Cola.

Short Histories of the Players.

There follows short life histories of the ball players whose pictures are shown, their achievements on the diamond and their present affiliations and positions.

JONES, Fielder Allison, Manager of St. Louis Browns. Born August 15, 1871, at Shingle House, Pa. Active playing member of the famous Brooklyn team of 1896 to 1900, inclusive, managed by Ned Hanlon.

During the war between the American and National leagues, he went to Chicago during 1901, but did not play until 1902. Continued as player in 1903, and on June 8, 1904, he was appointed manager, winning pennant and world's championship in 1906. Was elected president of Northwestern League, December, 1911, and remained at head of league, 1912-13-14, resigning to take charge of St. Louis Federal League team, August 23, 1914. Last season he came within one-half game of winning Federal League pennant, finishing nearer the top than any team in major leagues since the Browns in 1899.

He says, Coca-Cola is his favorite beverage.

ALEXANDER, Grover Cleveland, Pitcher Philadelphia Nationals. Born in St. Paul, Nebraska, February 26, 1887, and lives on a farm there now. Alexander is one of the greatest pitchers in the game today, being practically responsible for the Philadelphia

TINKER, Joseph B., Shortstop and Manager of Chicago Cubs. The talk of the country for the past two years, as the first player of real merit to jump to the Federal League, and as manager of the Chicago club in that league, won the pennant for 1913, where he managed the Reds and played shortstop that year. Sold to Brooklyn for $25,000, but did not join team, jumping to the Federal League, which he aided to a great extent in organizing. Tinker is a brainy ball player and a clever manager—no wonder he likes Coca-Cola.

There is, by the way, a wonderful similarity between the origin of these ball players and that of the beverage which they endorse. Coca-Cola might be called an agricultural drink, both from the materials it is made of and because of its great popularity in the country as well as in the city. For Coca-Cola, if ever there was a natural, wholesome beverage, is such—it itself is a gift from Nature. Made from Nature's pure water, flavored with the juices of fine fruits and things that grow and sweetened with Nature's purest, finest sugar—and please particularly remember this last—Coca-Cola contains no artificial sweetening matter but just the best of pure cane sugar. It is this fine combination that gives Coca-Cola its deliciousness of flavor, its distinctively refreshing and thirst-quenching qualities and great wholesomeness. That's why ball players, athletes, fans—all classes and kinds of men and women drink and endorse Coca-Cola. Drink a glass or a bottle and you will be just as enthusiastic about it.

THE UNCERTAINTY OF JUSTICE

ADEQUATE BARRATRY LAW NEEDED.

Appointment of Judges Should Be Taken Out of Politics.

By Ben B. Cain.

The increasing criticism of our Courts ought to alarm and distress every patriotic citizen. There is something wrong with the Administration of Justice. What is it? A leading lawyer asserts the trouble to be our jury system. I think the miscarriage of Justice through ignorant or corrupt juries has done much to bring our judicial system into disrepute. But that is not the sole cause—juries are merely part of the judicial machinery. The bench and bar perform an equally important part. We should inspect the entire machinery to determine the trouble.

It is a common saying heard about the court house, "nobody can tell what a jury will do." Jury trials are regarded with distrust. Men freely predict the result without regard to the facts. It is notorious that lawyers call for juries when they have cases without merit, and strive to select men whom they believe have some bias in their favor or prejudice against the other side. In such instances the effort is not to attain justice, but the contrary. After a jury is thus selected the real contest begins. Both sides seek by every means to distort or destroy any proposition that tends to sustain the adverse contention. If truth is thus uncovered it is an accident. It must be remembered that the judge is not permitted to assist the jury in passing upon the case. He is positively prohibited from doing so. Under our system, the jury is exclusive judge of the weight of the evidence and credibility of the witness. The Court must be careful not to invade this province of the jury. He must not comment on the evidence nor intimate his opinion. If the jury returns a verdict contrary to the preponderance of evidence, he has the power to set the verdict aside, but generally our trial judges "side-step" this responsibility. It goes to the higher courts and these courts decline to review the action of the jury, but will review the ruling of the judge on questions of law.

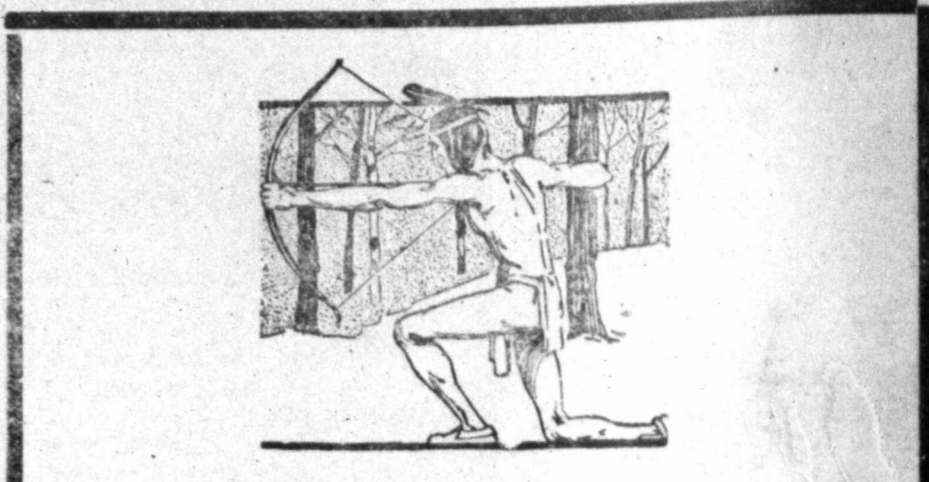

To an outsider it would look as though the system is so arranged as that the act of the unlearned and incompetent functionary is beyond review, while the act of the learned may be reviewed. Such a procedure is not far short of barbarism, and ought to be abolished. Jury trials ought to be confined to criminal cases. Rights of property should be decided by men learned in the law.

In addition to this, the selection of judges ought to be removed from the domain of politics. Our judges should either be appointed, or else elected for a long term of years, subject in either case to recall by the voters.

Lastly, the practice of law should be so regulated by statute as to make it impracticable, if not impossible, for attorneys to stir up litigation. The contingent fee and the lack of an adequate barratry law are responsible for much of the discredit brought on the courts, and much of the passion and prejudice so often manifest in the verdicts of juries. Lawyers should not be prohibited from taking contingent fees, but in certain litigation, notably personal injury cases, should be prohibited from fixing such fees. Whenever such a case is taken on contingent fee, the power to fix compensation should be left with the courts. In fixing such fees the court should be required to consider the character and amount of service performed, together with the amount recovered.

We should have an effective law defining and punishing barratry. The act of employing a person to solicit claims for unliquidated damages, or agreeing to pay the expenses or costs of collecting or enforcing such claims, by attorneys or others in their behalf, ought to be specifically prohibited. Our present law is a mere sham. Any person can instigate, maintain or encourage litigation in which he has no interest, provided it be done without the willful intent of distressing or harassing the defendant. The question of intent is one too difficult to establish before the ordinary jury, hence the law is practically of no effect.

There should be an effective law prohibiting the solicitation of personal injury claims by or for attorneys, and prohibiting agreements by which attorneys may directly or indirectly pay any part of the costs or expense of litigation except expenses actually incurred in the preparation or trial of a case. The growing discontent with the Administration of Justice admonishes that this most important part of governmental machinery is in a bad way. A country whose courts are not respected is on the road to anarchy. Let us eliminate from these institutions everything that makes unrighteous judgment a possibility, or would submit them to public reproach. An honored judiciary stands at the summit of enlightened society. It is the refuge of the weak, and guide to the strong. It is the fountain of Justice of which it has been said, "Truth is its handmaid, freedom its child; peace is its companion, safety walks in its steps, victory follows in its train; it is the brightest emanation from the gospel; it is the attribute of God."

SERVICE

Our interest in you does not cease when we deliver your car. It only begins there. From coast to coast Chalmers Service covers the United States like a blanket. Whether in Maine or Texas, entourage or at home, the Chalmers owner is protected by the great arm of Chalmers service.

Every manufacturer of motor cars realizes the existence of a certain responsibility to the consumer. It remained for the Chalmers Motor Company to analyze this responsibility and make it as tangible as the car itself.

Chalmers Service is bound in a leather book and included in the sale of every Chalmers car. One hundred half-hour coupons, good for fifty hours' free inspection and adjustment service, negotiable by any Chalmers dealer in the country, is the health insurance policy which protects the Chalmers car wherever it may be.

Service is intelligent co-operation between factory and consumer. Contrary to the popular belief it is not free repair work, but rather such inspection and adjustment as is necessary during the first few months of the life of a car to insure its perfect running.

The combination of Quality First manufacture and Universal Chalmers Service is embodied in the sale of every Chalmers Six-30.

Every Chalmers Owner is entitled to membership in the Chalmers Club and to receive the Chalmers Clubman free of charge.
