NINETEEN YEARS AGO.

Extracts From the Colorado Spokesman of December 15, 1897.

C. W. Simpson was editor and proprietor of the Colorado Spokesman at this time and during his regime the paper maintained a high standard of journalistic merit. The paper was afterwards bought by Don Biggers, afterwards by J. L. Dow and Mr. Dillard and when the local edition of the West Texas Stockman (called the Clipper for some time) was discontinued, Messrs. Dow and Dillard took over the name, list and goodwill of the old Colorado Clipper. Hec McEachern left Colorado in December 1903 to take charge of the Stock Reporter at Fort Worth. He wrote a very touching (?) goodbye to the people of Colorado, who had been "so good and indulgent hitherto."

Sometime, (like all our good deeds) the editor of the Record purposes writing a brief history of the newspaper business in Colorado and Mitchell county. We are now at work on the data, but much of the chronology and personnel of the business must be gathered by correspondence, owing to the lack of any complete files of the various papers published in the county. But when the record is complete, the name of our fellow townsman, C. W. Simpson, will stand high up on the list of achievement and clean journalism.

After turning down the Colorado Valley Railroad project in effect, if not sympathetically, the people of Colorado congratulated the town of Sweetwater on the bright prospect that town had of securing that road. The railroad commission had authorized the promoters to issue bonds on the first five miles of the road built to the tune of $16,000 per mile.

Editor Simpson and editor Shook of the Abilene Reporter, were agreed that "Texas must quit sending its cotton three to five thousand miles away, paying men to buy it, rebuy it, ship, manufacture, return and sell it to jobbers. Texas must have mills or go out of the cotton growing business." As a step toward the consummation of this beautiful state, the Spokesman prescribed the election of Jester at the next plebiscite.

The Spokesman takes a fall out of President McKinley for favoring the "impounding of greenbacks and the issuance of money by the national banks for which the government should be responsible. He (Mac) slobbers over the Hawaiian and Cuban questions and comes about as near expressing himself on nothing as a president can."

The voters of El Paso had just voted down a proposed $80,000 bond issue. The Masonic widows and orphans home had been given Fort Worth as a location.

The paper celebrated with ten lines, the installation of a "64-candle power electric light at Oak and Second streets. Cuban cattle buyers were visiting the town at that time, wanting to buy 10,000 head of steers and stockers monthly.

Judge R. H. Looney had brought suit to oust all new settlers from his pasture on Willow Creek. The lands on which these immigrants have located are not involved in the suit against block 97. The trouble seemed to be that those who had bought claims in this block had turned in too many cattle in proportion to their claims. One T. Z. Powell turned 400 head onto one section, while W. T. Riley tried to pasture 180 on 160 acres.

Among the local happenings we find this: "In a little scrap between Charley Sparks and Doug Shrinwin, the latter got his new overcoat cut three times, and that was all there was to it. Charley plead guilty, paid his fine, gave Doug another overcoat and they made friends again."

G. H. Colvin wanted to sell a "little farm of 1920 acres fine tillable land, good improvements and plenty of water, four miles south of stockyards."

J. F. McGill of the Union community had been critically ill of typhoid fever for four weeks. His recovery was dispirited of. But friend Mc is as lively today as any nimrod who ever stalked a dime.

C. M. Adams sold his restaurant, John Rix, manager, to W. R. Young.

Our quondam friend and occasional correspondent, Victor Dzoudzuch, was breaking into print at that time. This time with 18 hozs and a dix.

The Spokesman office was paying "the highest price for Mitchell county script. That evinced much prosperity.

John Carlisle lost most of his grass the week before.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Root had returned from Galveston and decided to locate in Colorado again.

The merchants were handling the Pecos Valley beet sugar here.

The Spokesman wonders "if about ten gamblers could not be arrested in Colorado every Sunday by a little watchfulness on the part of our officers."

The Sterling County News is quoted thus: "Lawyers Carter, Randall and Shepherd of Colorado, cast their brilliant intellects on our court this week."

Doc Colvin, Sam Arnett and J. T. Johnson were in Juarez, Mexico, to attend the bull fight, the Spokesman had been informed.

Druggist T. R. Cheatham had been so upset that week by the arrival of a baby girl in his home that he was offering his Christmas goods at a reduction that constituted a shame.

Wm. Caruthers asked the editor to state "if there was a church anywhere, of any denomination without a preacher, block 97 could supply the demand. He says on block 97 its a stand-off between preachers and fiddlers.

Born on last Friday morning to Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Dulaney, a fine girl baby. Doctor's friends claim there is a bright hope of his ultimate recovery.

To prove that the "types played tricks" with an editor's best intentions and English diction, a notice by Sheriff McMurry to tax payers appeared—"No ice to Tax payers." Another by a restaurant keeper asked his delinquent patrons to "Settle Your Bulls."

Sale of Mitchell county's four leagues of school land had been consummated at this time.

ELECTING A PRESIDENT 16

Roosevelt Decisively Defeated Parker in 1904.

ROOSEVELT.

THE Republicans pleased with the successor of McKinley, nominated Roosevelt in 1904. A split had occurred in the Democratic party over the question of free silver. William Jennings Bryan had a large following, but also had many bitter enemies. Alton B. Parker of New York was agreed on as a compromise candidate. He was supposed to have no decided views on the issue. However, before the convention adjourned he came out in favor of the gold standard.

Roosevelt was overwhelmingly elected, and Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana was chosen vice president, while Parker's running mate that year was Henry G. Davis of West Virginia.

(Watch for the election of Taft in 1908 in our next issue.)

ELECTING A PRESIDENT 17

Bryan Ran Again in 1908, but Taft Was Winner.

TAFT.

WILLIAM H. TAFT of Ohio, who was Roosevelt's secretary of war, went to the Chicago convention in 1908 with the colonel's support. He was quickly nominated, with James S. Sherman of New York as his running mate.

The Democrats nominated Bryan again, with John W. Kern of Indiana as the vice presidential candidate.

For the third time Bryan was defeated for the presidency. Taft receiving a popular vote of 7,678,908 to Bryan's 6,400,104. The vote in the electoral college was 221 to 162. The Republican party was united solidly that year, while the friction among the Democrats still existed.

(Watch for the election of Wilson in 1912 in our next issue.)

WHY NOT 20 CENT COTTON?

A million bales of cotton will be shipped from American ports to Europe this month. Already exports to Europe are 320,000 bales larger than to even date last year and it is likely that the increase over last year by the end of this month will be 600,000 bales. Exclusive of Canada and Mexico exports to Europe in 1915 were 6,040,000 including exports to Mexico and Canada, 6,263,000 bales, but foreign mills used 1,497,000 bales more than was imported last season, or a total of 7,760,000 bales.

Stocks abroad have been reduced to a minimum. European spinners will need 7,500,000 bales of American cotton this season. American mills will need 7,500,000 bales. This is a total of 15,000,000 bales.

Now why shouldn't cotton be selling for 20c a pound today? Europe and America need more than 15,000,000 bales. The crop of 1916 will not yield 12,000,000.

Farmers are rushing the fleecy staple to the market. Why shouldn't they be willing to take a chance and hold some of their cotton for higher prices?

Henry Wren of Marin sold 1,000 bales to a Dallas agency to be shipped to Japan. The price paid was 15 1-8c a pound. Japan is buying freely and the buyers of that country are found everywhere throughout the Southwest. They know a good thing when they see it. They are buying for the manufacturers of high explosives; they are buying for the spinners of their own country and they are buying to sell to spinners of Russia and other nations of Europe.

Japan is one of the allied nations for war purposes, but not for trade purposes. Japan sells to all comers. Japan buys from the people of all nations. Jap buyers were the first to purchase cotton in 1914. They were in on the ground floor in 1915 and they are very active in 1916.—Fort Worth Record.

COTTON FAMINE COMING.

South Carolina mills are offering 18c for cotton. And farmers of the Palmetto state are refusing to sell at that price. All New England mills are to advance the price of cotton goods 30 to 50 per cent. This is official. And the merchants of Texas have been given notice of the coming advances. Cotton is climbing rapidly. Unless all signs fall the price will reach 20c before the coming of Christmas holidays. Foreign and home spinners realize that the crop of 1916 will fall far below the demand. Those who bought early at 12c and 13c realized handsome profits. Among the early buyers were Japanese agents for the spinners of that nation. The little brown brother made a clean-up.—Fort Worth Record.

ODDS FAVORING WILSON.

New York, Oct. 23.—The betting odds against Wilson shortened today to 10 to 9 and one bet of $1000 was made at even money.

It was the most active day in election wagers that the curb has witnessed in this campaign. At its close the prediction was made that before election day arrived the odds would be in Wilson's favor.

Business opened in the morning with 10 to 8 still being offered on Hughes. A great rush of Wilson money, however, soon forced the short end of the betting up to 9. Something like $75,000 was wagered at the new figure.

Edward McQuade placed one Wilson bet of $9000 against $10,000. Most of the president's backers were from the west.

That Wilson would carry New York state by 30,000 was made the basis of a bet of $1000 against $3000, while $100 was laid against $2500 that Mr. Hughes would carry the state by 75,000.

WILL WOMEN ELECT THE NEXT PRESIDENT?

It is estimated that there are in twelve states of the Union, more than 4,000,000 women, who, if they can do so, may vote for president in November. One-third of these live in Illinois. California has more than 800,000, Washington more than 400,000, Kansas nearly half a million, Colorado a quarter of a million, Idaho, Montana and Utah about 100,000 each, and Oregon more than 200,000. Arizona has probably 45,000, Wyoming 35,000 and Nevada 25,000. True it may be that a considerable percentage of these women do not care to vote, but the great majority, after fighting for years to get the ballot, now exercise this privilege. Some of the most forceful suffrage leaders intend to make the vote of their sex count in this year's campaign. They realize that the women, if they act in unison, may decide the presidential election.—World's Work.

THE RULING PASSION.

The ruling passion is said to be strong in death. Europe is locked in the grim arms of war. The United States is gravely confronting issues of the greatest consequence. Even in the face of this, the European gambling instinct has asserted itself.

Just beyond the limits of the Panama Canal Zone, on a site bordering a lake that is said to reflect all the colors of the rainbow, with a mountain providing a picturesque shadow for the palms and other tropical foliage, there is to be built a superb garden, a hotel and a casino that will, if the plans are perfected, rival the beauties of Monte Carlo.

It may seem a mad venture to expend millions to establish a duplicate of Monaco in Panama.

But there is method in the madness of these European investors. The casino will not be upon American soil. In Panama there are no rigorous laws prohibiting gambling. The pithy point of the venture is that the site of the proposed arena of the green cloth is only 200 yards the other side of the American line of concession and on the direct line of the Panama railroad.

When the canal becomes practical and is duly operated tourists will enter the canal fatigued. They will want a change and will eagerly avail themselves of the railroad and the stop over privileges.

As a rule the tourist is prepared to spend money, and there will be no more alluring place or a more seductive opportunity to spend it than in this "Pearl of the Panama."

So long as this terrestrial sphere continues to revolve there will be gambling indulged in in some way by the sons and daughters of men.

Life, after all, is nothing more or less than a gamble. The instinct is born in all of us—latent in some, aggravated in others.

The Panama venture still rests on paper, but it is a gambling chance that within two years it will not only be a possibility but a probability.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

FRUIT TREES BLOOMING.

George Goodwin is responsible for the statement that all the fruit trees out in the hail district are out in full bloom like in the spring.

This looks odd to see trees blooming in October, but it is not so wonderful after all. It is simply an act of nature recovering from the injury of the hail. Trees stripped of leaves in the late summer before the sap has gone, will put out new leaves, and as fruit trees bloom before the leaves come, it is but natural that blooms should appear first. Should frost not kill them, the leaves will follow the blooms, just as in the spring. A couple of years ago the writers grape vines were in full bloom and tender leaf when killed by a heavy frost. The first thing that happened toward their recovery was new blooms, followed by the leaves.

We have seen great sections of forest stripped of leaves by hail and storm in the early summer; after which the elm and oak trees would put out new bloom, followed by leaf buds, just as they do in the spring.

We have no means of knowing whether this second bloom would produce fruit, or not, but we do not see why it should not, if not killed by cold.

It is, nevertheless, a beautiful as well as curious sight to see the beautiful fruit blooms in the latter part of October. This peculiar circumstance does not occur, however, unless the trees are stripped of foliage while the sap is in circulation.

YOU CAN'T BEAT THIS ONE.

"A man in your business can't get home very often?" asked the curious gentleman of the commercial traveler. "Home sir?" replied the salesman. "I should think not! Why I get home so seldom that half the time I can't remember where I live and have to write the firm for my address."

"You don't say so!"

"Yes," went on the traveler, warming up to his; "it's perfectly true. One time I was away so long that I actually forgot I was married and, taking a fancy to a girl I met in a strange town I eloped with her!"

"My goodness!" gasped the other.

"It might have been awkward for me," the traveler said thoughtfully; "but when we called on the firm during our honeymoon the boss told me I had eloped with my wife!"

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue. Mother! If coated, or your child is restless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat, or any other children's complaint, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Co." Adv

A PATRIOTIC APPEAL.

Woodrow Wilson.

"We are indeed at a critical juncture in the affairs of the world and the affairs of the world touch America very nearly. She does not stand apart. Her people are made up out of the peoples of the world. Her sympathies are as broad as the extended stock of national governments. There is nothing human that does not concern her. And in the midst of this situation we are about to determine whether we shall change the line of our national policy. Every line of that national policy has been questioned, but no diagrams have been drawn of any other; every one of the lines handsomely projected in the last three and a half years has been questioned and condemned.

"Fortunately the lines of this campaign have recently been becoming very clear indeed. The choice is a very definite one which does not require any subtle analysis for its determination. On the one hand there is a party which is united, made up of congenial elements and which has determined its direction by its performances and not by its promise. You know what the democratic party has accomplished. You know that it neither can turn back nor desires to turn back. You know that it is united as never united before, and you know that there is no conflict or counsel within its ranks. You have compact and therefore irresistible force to accomplish something in particular."

ROGERS ITEMS.

The fruit supper at Homer Green's Thursday night was enjoyed by all.

Sunday school is still well attended and we hope it may continue so.

Several attended the Fall of a Nation at the opera house in Colorado last Friday. It was a most thrilling picture and all were well pleased.

The fields look black since the frost last week, so the cotton will soon open up now, but it hurt some late feed, which was not matured.

Jim Waters, and F. L. Buckalew left Friday night for the fair at Dallas. Jim Waters is going on home to spend a few days with home folks, then return. His home is at Lindale, Texas.

Earl Pond and Ocie Green and family motored to the box supper at Plainview last Friday night. Everything was carried on in a good manner. Ice cream, chewing gum, oranges and apples were sold, while everybody enjoyed themselves as usual.

The stork visited Harry Pond's home on the 16th and left a fine 9-pound boy. Harry is the proudest man in the world.

Kate Williams of Fairview went to the fair with Messrs Buckalew and Waters.

John McGuire of the Fairview community is now recreating around. He was seen in Colorado last Saturday. He was operated on for appendicitis some few months back.

Carl Roney was peddling beef around Rogers again last Saturday.

The Rogers school will start pretty soon, under the teaching of Miss Minnie Lawless of Colorado.

A SPLENDID ACHIEVEMENT.

The city of Post, Garza County, Texas, has been established ten years. The town was laid out and many buildings erected when every bit of the material save stone, had to be transported by wagon 110 miles from the nearest railroad station. Last week the first decade of the town's existence was celebrated with a fall exhibit, and the Post City Post, in a special edition, printed on supercalendered paper, and replete with the finest halftone pictures, reflected the progress and spirit of that thriving community.

Never had any town, irrespective of size, a more effective or attractive advertisement than this issue of the Post. We have read every word of it, and unhesitatingly pronounce it the peer of any special edition of a West Texas newspaper we have ever seen. Editor W. O. Kent has done himself and his town proud, and the Record wishes him and his splendid paper many years of increasing success.

RALLY DAY AT WESTBROOK.

On Sunday last at 10 a. m. a rally was given by the Methodist Sunday school, in our little town of Westbrook which was largely attended.

Under the auspices of Miss Margaret Lasseter quite an interesting program was rendered, which was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Annie Laurie Robinson, the music and expression teacher of this place, most cheerfully took charge of the music and heartily gave her assistance in the arrangement of solos, quartets, readings, etc.

The church, under the management of a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Hamilton, Mrs. E. S. Hudson, and others, was beautifully and quite artistically decorated with cedar, white blossoms, tube roses and tinsel, and draped in black and gold bunting, representing class colors. Each member wore the badge of black and gold and the class flowers of tube roses.

Miss Lasseter is a lady of much culture and refinement, and of great service to our town. Besides her wide-awake interest, as our news correspondent to your paper, she is a most zealous worker in the M. E. church here, and through her wonderful ambition and ceaseless energy, with a heart full of patriotic zeal, she is always creating some new move in our town that is both inspiring and uplifting, and her christian influence is much appreciated by the people here.

After the completion of the program the congregation repaired to the Baptist church where they listened to a most excellent sermon delivered by the new pastor, Rev. King of Abilene. A FRIEND.

THE BISHOP-IVANS CASE.

The verdict of the jury at Anson finding W. T. Bishop guilty of the murder of J. C. Ivins and assessing the death penalty was not a surprise to those who kept up with the case. The crime by which Ivins lost his life was one of the most brutal ever perpetrated. The evidence pointing to the guilt of the defendant was so convincing that the jury could render no other verdict than the one which it did render. Yet there are many sad incidents connected with the case. If the higher court allows the decree of the District Court to stand and Governor Ferguson refuses to interfere, Bishop will be hanged at some time in the near future. Thus his family will be deprived of the support that they have a right to expect. Again, it is a sad thing to cut off human life, to take that which no man can give. Bishop seemed to be unbalanced and that makes the case the more pathetic, but it cannot be denied that the atrocity of the crime demanded the extreme penalty of the law. The jury believed that Bishop committed the murder, and hence could do nothing but render a verdict that will rid society of the man whom they held responsible. Sentiment must stand aside in such cases while the stern hand of the law operates. Innocent women and children must suffer, in consequence of the great wrong the man did. Terrible as it is to assess the death penalty Texas needs more of it in order that the hundreds of black crimes which are perpetrated all over the state almost daily shall be stopped. The juries of the country are the only hope of justice. Sworn as they are to discharge their duty they cannot fail to look at justice and not mercy in staying the hand that has been dipped in the blood of their fellows.—Abilene Reporter.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1916

Flour is selling at $9.35 per barrel, print paper at $160 per ton, and no space on either, makes a cloud on the horizon of the average editor's Christmas, somewhat more portentous than a man's hand.

Save a bale of your cotton for Santa Claus. It will bring a better price doubtless just before the holidays than it sold now and the money put in bank. You might be tempted to draw on it for something else before that time. Its a pious suggestion and Sally and the kids will second this motion.

The unprecedented attendance upon the Dallas fair should be a rebuke to the carpenters union that threatened to boycott the fair and called upon the allied unions to join them. Their boycott of the fair would have about as much effect upon the attendance as the saliva the old woman spat into the sea to help drown the whale.

The Record needs its country exchanges: Indeed we had much rather have every daily paper cut off our exchange list than the same number of country weeklies; but when it comes to paying "the reduced price of one dollar" just for the privilege of casting many of them into the waste basket or selling them to the tamale vender—please let us pass, Matilday.

As President Wilson pointed out in his speech at Shadowlawn, it would be a calamity upon the whole people to have a change in administrative policy at this critical juncture. It does seem that the people, regardless of political parties or persons, would shudder to change the order of our national government put into effect and operation another party with a different policy, at a time when the whole country from North to South was in the highest state of prosperity that it has had in 50 years, and not only so, at a time when we are at peace with all nations of the earth.

We can not see why it would not be better for the people of Texas to have one session of the legislature devoted to purging the statutes. And thereafter have the legislature devote a part of its time repurging them. Why not give ambitious lawmakers an opportunity to distinguish themselves by curing diseases instead of creating new ones? The great trouble with lawmaking is that it is assumed to be constructive rather than destructive. Some of our statutes were planned and passed as obstacles not only to justice, but to development, and the sooner they are purged from the books, the better for Texas. The average work of the lawmaker is to construct a bulwark of machinery which hinders rather than speeds the course of justice. As our laws and court procedure now stand, neither is usable by the average citizen who seeks redress of his rights by law.

Whether the legislature of Ohio is in earnest or not, we do not know, but the question of licensing editors of newspapers only after satisfactory examination of their fitness, appeals to us as an eminently timely and important one. And why not? Certain standards of qualification are required by law for a man to practice medicine, law, and to preach or teach. The editor of a newspaper wields an influence in the community second to none of the learned professions. He should be as well fitted for his work as any other professional. His moral character should be passed upon as well as his mental equipment, and he should be amenable to revocation of his license whenever he proves himself unworthy of the trust. Texas needs such a law as badly as Ohio possibly can.

Just let me live in a house by the side of the road
Where motor cars go by—
Cars that are good with drivers bad:
They must all burn gas, say I—
I would not be a bank cashier,
A king or one who rules;
Just let me live in a house by the side of the road
And hand out gas to the fools.

The who's world knows what Wilson DID, but not even Mr. Hughes himself can tell us what he would

PERMANENT PROSPERITY.

There is nothing that grows out of the ground or is found therein but commands a record breaking price, and yet our republican friends, the political enemy, are glooming over the supposition that all this prosperity is "but temporary." This criticism of the Wilson administration and its resultant prosperity, is on a par with the spirit of the fellow who found a twenty dollar gold piece in the road and would not pick it up because it was not forty dollars. He spent the balance of his life cursing his ill luck. No prosperity can be permanent outside of individual success. The man whatever his business, who sits around like Wilkins Macawber, waiting for a paternal government to take him by the hair of the head and jerk him into unearned and undeserved prosperity, is not only a socialist in deed, but an anarchist at heart.

Continuous prosperity and inflation would be the greatest calamity any country could suffer. Such condition would destroy the balance of nature and kill every incentive to get along. The seven fat years succeeded by seven lean ones of biblical record, contains a valuable lesson to those who will heed. Those who are harping on the depression of the European war, would be in better business to advise the people to husband the profits of their present prosperity for the inevitable period of depression that must follow. The danger lies, not so much in the depression itself, as in the habits of reckless extravagance now being formed. Particularly should the people of West Texas take this lesson to heart, where the years of abundant crops are followed by years of drouth in order that the fertility of the soil may be renewed. Prosperity is a comparative term, the value of which depends more upon the individual than upon national conditions. A man is rich, not by reason of the abundance of his possessions, but from the number of things he can do without contentedly.

It has been a scant two weeks since the first rain on the 12th, and yet the entire face of the earth has been changed in aspect. Grass is growing today where aser and yellow met the eye before; fruit trees denied their annual and natural harvest by the drouth, are seeking by bloom and miniature fruit to make good the lapse. Unless a heavy and killing frost occurs within the next month, the flowers of garden and field will bloom as in the spring. In the persistent balance of nature, all the fertility, vigor and chemical elements that were not conserved this year by reason of the lack of rain, will assert themselves in next year's crop, unless a repetition of conditions occur, which is most unreasonable to anticipate at this time. The soil will have two years' strength and storage of fertility to give the crops of 1917.

Whatever else Governor Ferguson may do, it is to be hoped he will keep his political hands off the great state University. The true inwardness of his recent demand to have half a dozen of the instructors removed, has never been made public. The people have a right to know what the charges were he brought against them. Whenever a state institution of learning is mixed up with politics of the brand Governor Ferguson practices, it has made a start toward the graveyard. The University is worth more to the State of Texas than ten thousand governors the calibre of Jim Ferguson.

THE BEST SPEECH MADE.

By far the best, shortest and most pertinent speech made at the big farming congress at El Paso, was by a little woman, and a Texas woman, at that. Mrs. W. A. Warner of Claude, Texas, told the delegates they knew more about raising hogs than they did about rearing children; that the government spent $40,000 to study diseases of children and $800,000 on diseases of hogs. Mrs. Warren declared, "the perpetuation of the human race had never cost a man a single physical pain or drop of blood. That is why men who make all the laws are so indifferent to the needs of women and children."

In the death of Rev. Irl Hicks, who was termed the "long distance" weather prophet, the Record has a sense of personal loss. Although his predictions were made for more than one year in advance, they were verified oftener than those made by the government from observations and reports gathered the day before. Rev. Hicks based his predictions upon the influence of the position of the different heavenly bodies to every planet he ascribed an influence, qualified by the position of other planets.

by the verification of his prediction a year before hand, that the inaugural day for President Taft would find the entire Atlantic seaboard covered with an unprecedented fall of sleet—not snow or ice, but sleet; while the government official forecaster promised the nation a clear and balmy day for the inauguration. It fell just as Dr. Hicks said. Washington was cut off from the world by the heaviest storm of sleet ever known in this country. Communication and transportation lines were out of commission. Dr. Hicks was no longer a joke, but a seer to be respected. His sons will carry forward his work.

AN UP-TO-DATE ESTABLISHMENT.

Though not a pleasant subject, death and its appurtenances are among the most persistent and abiding experiences. The putting away of our dead has concerned the human race from the days of Abraham, who took such care to have his wife given the best sepulture in the field of Macbela. Since that tiff, our sentiment toward our dead has been largely evidenced in the care of funeral rites and beautification of their last resting places.

In harmony with this noble sentiment, our local undertaker, J. H. Greene, has been instant to adopt every method, device and accessory that will tend to mitigate the morbid, in laying away the dead. The tomb and preparation for it, have been robbed of much from which we formerly shrank. Mr. Greene has fitted up a suit of undertaking parlors on the west side of Elm street, where he not only carries a large line of caskets and accessories, but where the dead can be taken, prepared for burial, appropriate services conducted, and whence interment can be made. This means ridding the home of all the morbid associations with the dead.

Mr. Greene has fitted up a morgue in his establishment, where the dead can be kept in preservation, either for identification or deferred funeral rites. His embalming rooms are up to the efficiency of those of large cities, and when desired, Mr. Greene can take full charge of any funeral occasion and furnish everything to the floral offerings. His establishment is indeed a credit to the town.

GAIL BORDEN'S DESCENDANTS.

Gail Borden, a native of Connecticut, we believe, but a pioneer Texas settler, established the first newspaper in Texas, The Telegraph, and patented a process for condensing milk. Borden county and the town of Gail, are named in his honor. Not long ago, the milk trust paid Gail Borden's heirs the sum of $7,000,000 for the trade mark and eagle name of the condensed milk that bore his name and signature. That's all right; they ought to have had fourteen million dollars and then some more. The Texas training of old man Gail Borden, his brother and next of kin, taught them something, but not all of it. The hardships and handicaps against which the pioneer Texan had to contend, were great and manifold. Gail Borden, with a yankee's lust for profits and an inventive genius, saw that if milk and meat could be put into such form that they could be preserved indefinitely, the inventor would spell his name millionaire beginning with a capital letter. This old man Gail Borden proceeded to do.

His patent for mixing bread crumbs with amalgamated beef did not prove so great a boon to traveling frontiersmen as his process for condensing milk. However, the milk trust of today is the Gail Borden of 1836. Milk has become the one crying need of little children in New York and other big cities. Typhoid, infantile paralysis and a host of other diseases that sweep off thousands of little children every summer, are now assessed against the lack of pure milk. The milk trust dictates the price farmers must take for their milk, as well as it dictates the price poor mothers must pay for the milk to save their dying children. Six and a quarter cents the pint and 12 1/2 cents per quart is the price this octopus has put upon the milk it handles. The heirs of Gail Borden ought to be ashamed of themselves. Texas is ashamed for and of them. Their great granddaddy would be ashamed of them also. He gave his life to the service of his kind, and his descendants (mark the de) are doing all they can to collect the investment.

Whatever may be the reforms growing out of the present war in Europe, if the pale be abolished and the Jews given the same rights and accorded the same protection as other subjects of Russia and Germany, it will be a long step taken in the right direction. Recent dispatches say such a bill will be before the imperial duma at its meeting in November.

Over 100,000 women bakers are now employed in the United States.

GREATNESS IN LITTLE THINGS

One of the most remarkable features in all the teachings of the Great Master, was the importance of little things and the simplicity of greatness. He used the foolish things of life to confound the wise; the humble things to defeat the great and the weak things to rebuke the strong. And as a climax to the sublimity of His teachings, He placed a little child among the learned men and told them that unless they became as one of these, they could not see the kingdom of heaven. The childlike-ness of Christ was one of the infinitely sublime aspects of the human side of His nature.

No human being but desires and strives for a state of happiness. God created everything to be happy and successful. We read of this state, we yearn for it and strive by our varying standards and light to achieve it. All the while missing the vital point that it is not objective, but subjective. The Master told his disciples that the "kingdom of heaven is within you," as Paul told the Athenians as he stood by the altar erected to "The Unknown God."

Happiness can not be stalked; it cannot be trapped, and is never found by those who seek it in pre-conceived forms and by fixed standards. It is a state of nature—a stage of growth. We may learn from a child the secret in its power of "make-believe" in manufacturing sheer happiness from a sandpile, a few spoons or a cheap toy. Study the joy a puppy gets from a flung stick; the kitten from a dangled string.

Expensive means are not necessary to the achievement of happiness. The man or woman who can extract pleasure from watching a plant grow, a bird build its nest, in viewing the sun rise, or marking the wonderful adaptation of means-to-end that persists in all nature, has an inexhaustible fountain of pleasure, of which no misfortune can deprive them.

In our quest for the higher seats in life—for something worthy the skill of our hands or depth of our mind—we miss the value of the little things of our daily lives. We misplace the emphasis. The story of the priest who, climbed to the top of the steeple, only to realize that nearness to God was through his creatures on the ground below, is doubtless pure fiction, but it embodies the true secret of human happiness.

number of new and elegant buildings adapted to the needs of the institution and a credit to the spirit of the state for which it stands.

The new building will be known as the "Education Building" and will cost $250,000. The New York architect, who designed the building, has also completely planned the campus and indicated the location of all permanent buildings to be erected hereafter, which will conform to a definite plan already fixed upon.

At this week's meeting of the board of regents, the report of the investigation of several members of the faculty will be laid before it. The report will contain the specific charges, and in case of approval, the report will be printed in pamphlet form and distributed in about two weeks.

A NEGLECTED VIRTUE.

Latin and Greek and trigonometry are taught in almost all public schools. Facts, figures and dates and numberless text-books more or less useful are crammed into the heads of the boy and girl in the public school. What school in the land offers a course in etiquette? Where is the public school whose teachers develop and cultivate in the mind of the pupil the fundamental ideas of politeness, courtesy, respect? Are not the fundamentals of right living and right actions, politeness, respect, refinement and courtesy—manners of a gentleman and lady—worth teaching to a child if dead languages, facts and figures are?

School teachers make the future citizens. They train the generation to succeed them. The school teacher makes or fails to make boy and girl and man or woman. The school teacher shapes the life, guides the destiny, helps decide the fate of every pupil. Bring a child up in the way he should go and he is not likely to be otherwise than the way he was trained. Think of the responsibility of the school teacher. Think of the opportunity the public school or the teacher has to make more gentle-men and gentle-women.

Those who are ignorant should be taught. Those who know better should do better, if they are doing less than their best. Those who are thoughtless should think and not forget to keep thinking. To them this is a gentle reminder. Remember, politeness costs nothing, it always pays big dividends.—Ft. Worth Record.

We have over 1000 good citizens of Mitchell county who owe us from one to three dollars each on the paper, and we ask all to come see us within the next thirty days. Cotton selling at 17c and seed at $40, surely the newspaper man ought to get a dollar. Print paper has more than doubled in price, and everything else in proportion, yet we have not advanced the price of your paper. Consider this as a personal request to you and come in to see us. The Democratic slogan is, "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party." The Record's slogan is, "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the paper."

THE IDEAL CONDITION.

When every farmer in the South shall eat bread from his own fields and meat from his own pastures, disturbed by no creditor and enslaved by no debt; shall sit among his teaming gardens, orchards, vineyards, daries and barnyards, pitching his crops in his wisdom and growing them in independence, making cotton his clean surplus and selling it in his own time and in his chosen market, and not at a master's bidding—getting his pay in cash and not in a receipted mortgage that discharges his debt, but does not restore his freedom—then shall BE BREAKING THE FULLNESS OF OUR DAY.—Henry W. Grady.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years. Matters in connection with the welfare of the schools will be discussed, and to be candid, we must say, that unless the patrons of the school take some action, a condition may arise which would close the school for an indefinite time. This obligation rests upon you. What will you do?

SPECIAL—TONIGHT.

Through the efforts of the postmaster the postoffice department has loaned a three reel film which will be shown at the opera house on Friday night and Saturday night.

The first reel shows what can be accomplished with a two cent postage stamp, which shows all the ramshack through which a stamp goes from the time it is placed upon the letter until the letter is delivered to the address.

The second reel shows how the United States mail are exchanged between ships on the great lakes. These ships never slacken speed to make the exchange.

The third reel is miscellaneous and shows all the latest improvements of a modern postoffice.

These reels are shown for the purpose of giving the public an idea of the workings of the greatest institution in the world; how it is carried on without ceasing, etc. It is hoped that as many as car will see these reels both nights. There will be no extra charge of admission on account of these pictures.

Worth Careful Thought

Do you read the label to know whether your baking powder is made from cream of tartar or, on the other hand, from alum or phosphate?

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes, and adds to the food only wholesome qualities.

Some baking powders contain alum or phosphate, both of mineral origin, and used as substitutes for cream of tartar because of their cheapness.

THE FALL OF A NATION

Mr. Taylor, manager of the Opera House presented this wonderful picture to the public last Friday and Saturday. To say that it was grand, does not fully express the sentiments of many who attended. In the Friday night exhibition the operator was unfortunate in getting the reels transposed, showing the fifth reel where the third should have been shown, but the operator was not wholly to blame for this error, as the reels came with the numbers transposed, and they did not have time to run them through before the show. However on Saturday night they were properly shown. The attendance Friday night was fairly good but on Saturday night the crowd was very small. Mr. Taylor says he lost money on the picture, but he had the nerve to put it on, for the purpose of finding out whether the people of this town and community would support a first class attraction.

Mr. Taylor has had booked for some time the Birth of a Nation, a companion picture to the Fall of a Nation, but a much larger and finer production. Asked if he was going to show it in face of his loss on his last venture, he said, "Yes, I have the nerve to try the people again on the biggest thing ever shown in West Texas, and if they will appreciate it sufficiently to pay the expense, I will give them from time to time the latest and biggest productions that are being turned out; but if I should lose money on this one, of course I shall have to cut out the big ones in the future."

In speaking about the big production—The Birth of a Nation, Mr. Taylor said: "You can tell the people, and truthfully, that this will be the biggest thing of the kind ever shown in the West, and that I am the only manager West of Fort Worth that had the nerve to book this play for this winter. You may also say that about twenty people will accompany this film. They have a magnificent 12-piece orchestra, with music written especially for this picture, and this part of the entertainment alone will be worth the price of admission. They also bring two of the latest projecting machines, with two operators, their own electrician, and their own screen. All this together will produce a show far superior to my last venture, as it will be produced by experts with the most modern equipment, and the best operatives."

The Record thinks Mr. Taylor deserves a great deal of credit for booking such plays as these, and the public in general should show their appreciation by a liberal attendance.

The Birth of a Nation is booked for Nov. 27 and 28th. Watch for further announcements.

T. & P. IMPROVEMENTS.

Preparatory to receiving more large locomotives which are to be used on the Eastern division, between Fort Worth and Texarkana, the T. & P. is relaying their roadbed over this entire division with eighty-five pound steel, new switches, new angle bars and spikes. They are also reinforcing all bridges, lengthening side tracks, etc. The new locomotives are expected to arrive about the first of the year, and are said to be as large, if not larger, than any in the south, having a capacity of drawing 2500 to 3000 tons over our East Texas hills, which represents about two or three trains of the present tonage. They are oil-burners, and are said to be strictly up to date in every particular.—Mineola Monitor.

A Georgia farmer comes to the surface with a story of forty-two bales from seventeen acres. The seventeen acres were planted in wheat in 1915 and after the wheat was cut it was planted in peas. Its owner put eighty pounds of nitrate of soda on it to the acre and that was all the fertilizer it had.

Peanuts are selling for $13 a ton in the unpicked state, while the picked nuts bring from 70 cents to $1 a bushel. Several hundred acres were planted in peanuts as an experiment. Many farmers are arranging to plant a larger acreage next year. Diversification has come to stay in Texas. Farmers have abandoned the one-crop fallacy. They are producing corn and oats, peanuts and garden truck; they are raising hogs and sheep and goats; they are going in for dairying and poultry raising; they are planting orchards and they are feeding themselves. A new Texas has been born.—Fort Worth Record.

"CASCARETS" BEST IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, SICK, CONSTIPATED.

Best For Liver and Bowels, Bad Breath, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach.

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Foisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist melts your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right, complexion rosy and your liver and bowels regular for months.

$1 down will place a Hoosier Cabinet in your home and $1 a week will pay for same.—H. L. Hutchinson & Company.

IS SOMETHING WRONG?

The following ad in the Big Spring Herald of last week attracted our attention and excited a natural curiosity as to why such competent people would seek employment in another county than Mitchell, when the very qualities urged are in constant demand at home. The ad follows:

"Location wanted by married couple. Have no children; nothing to sell but our labor power. Must have shelter and means of sustenance. Willing workers, automatic self starters; easily adjusted to any situation except abuse or oppression. Prefer farm or ranch work; experienced; reference from proper source. Address . . . . . Colorado, Texas."

This advertisement has a deeper meaning than its superficial statements. It means, if it means anything, and assuming that the people are just what they represent themselves to be, that there is something wrong with the development of Mitchell county. Either the landlords who have land to rent will not make living and working conditions attractive to the most dependable and industrious class of tenants, or that the farmers and ranchmen are not in need of help of the best class. People with such qualifications as the above, should be able to make, if not find, useful and profitable employment in a desert. So it seems to us. Anyone desiring to communicate with these people, can get their address at this office.

Take Chamberlain's Tablets and adopt a diet of vegetables and cereals. Take outdoor exercise daily and your complexion will be greatly improved within a few months. Try it. Obtainable everywhere. Adv10.28.

Every line of printed matter in a newspaper costs its publisher something an exchange observes. If it is to benefit some individual, that individual should pay something for it. One would not go into a grocery store to ask the proprietor to hand out ten pounds of sugar for nothing, even though the grocer may be a personal friend and even though the gift may not be a large one. If the beneficiary of advertising does not pay for it the proprietor must shoulder the cost. People do not seem to understand that a newspaper pays its expenses by renting space and that it is just as much entitled to collect rent for every day that space is occupied as a landlord is for the house he rents to a tenant. One reason why the big metropolitan newspapers pay so well is because they have got the cost of production to a scientific basis. The New York papers figure that each line of reading matter costs from seven to ten cents to produce. With this as a basis it is easy to work out the actual producing cost of any reading notice. The wear and tear of type, insurance, salaries, rent, interest, etc., are included in this estimated cost of seven to ten cents.—Fort Worth Stock Reporter.

THE MARRYING PARSON STILL DOING BUSINESS.

Mr. Earnest Smith and Miss Jewel Hamilton, were not to be deterred from their matrimonial intent merely by parental opposition and objection. Love not only laughs at locksmiths, but gives such obstacles as parental objection the grand high ball. These young people applied to Rev. H. F. Smith about midnight Saturday, presenting due credentials and license for the celebration, and the parson, a man of infinite sympathy and fellow-feeling, tied the conjugal knot that transmuted the twain into one.

On Monday morning in the county clerk's office, Rev. Smith united in marriage Mr. Lester Smith, brother of the above Mr. Smith, and Miss Vera Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miles, out on route 1. Mr. Smith lives in East Texas where he has a responsible position in a sawmill. The Record wishes for both these young couples a life of happiness and much prosperity.

AN APPRECIATED WORD.

In renewing his subscription to the Record and Dallas Semi-weekly News this week, one of our most valued subscribers, in passing over his money said: "That is the most profitable $1.75 I spend during the year. I regard the Semi-weekly News as the best farm paper a Texas man can read, and I think the Colorado Record is the very best weekly I ever saw in my life. My subscription to both is one of the first things I settle every fall. I have been taking it since the day it came under the present management and I believe it grows better with the passing of the years."

Of course, it takes money—real money—the current coin of the realm—to run a newspaper that pays its own debts, and no paper can subsist long on compliments; but we appreciate words of encouragement like the above far more than the paltry dollar paid to keep the Record going our friend's way. There is a satisfaction in knowing that what one creates either by his handicraft or with his brain, is approved by those who pay for it.

It has always seemed to us that the relation between a writer and what he writes is as intimate and sacred as that between a mother and her child. The thoughts of an honest and conscientious editor are as much the child of his brain as the progeny of a mother. But unless a writer is absolutely honest with himself and his readers, in giving them his own thoughts, in his own individual style, they are as veritable mental bastards as a child born out of wedlock, and usually share a like fate of ostracism and disgrace.

HOW CATARRH IS CONTRACTED

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucus membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere. Adv10.28

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hughes will occupy the D. N. Arnett, Jr. place in South Colorado and Mr. W. F. Hughes will make his home with them. F. E. McKenzie and family, who have been occupying this place, will move to the place on the north side now occupied and owned by Jack Smith and family. As for Jack—he may make half a dozen profitable trades before the paper is printed.

Elsewhere in this paper you will find my ad about tombstones. In the afternoon of the day it was carried to the printer, I sold a tombstone for $8.10. If you have an unmarked grave, I shall be pleased to mark it for you with a tombstone at a live and let live price.—E. Keathley.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

Edmondson & Company, will be conducted as heretofore the interest of W. F. Miles having been acquired by sale by Miss Ruby Seymour. ### EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL! HORRIBLE!

Calomel is Quicksilver and Acts Like Dynamite on the Liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

J. P. MAJORS

OPTICIAN

Last Friday morning brought a heavy frost to this section, while ice was reported in several places. Abilene had the earliest "freeze" in the history of the local weather bureau, covering a period of 31 years. Vegetation does not show that the frost was a killing one, though in many spots the potato and tomato vines show its effects. There was frost last year on November 14th, accompanied by a hard freeze which not only killed the cotton leaves but froze the bolls. This accounts for the big crop of bolls gathered afterward.

WHEN YOU TAKE COLD.

With the average man a cold is a serious matter and should not be trifled with, as some of the most dangerous diseases start with a common cold. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of your cold as quickly as possible. You are not experimenting when you use this remedy as it has been in use for many years and has an established reputation. It contains no opium or other narcotic. Obtainable everywhere. Adv10.28

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

R. O. Hall of Loraine community was arrested last Saturday, charged with incest and statutory rape on the person of his own step-daughter, and remanded by Justice Watlington without bail to action of the next grand jury and brought to the county jail here pending action of that body, which will meet regularly the latter part of December. Hall is a man of family, apparently about fifty years of age, and his alleged crime produced much feeling in that community.

COLORADO PEOPLE GET INSTANT ACTION.

Those who have used it in Colorado are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-J-Ka. Because it acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL Adler-J-Ka relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble.—W. L. Doss. Adv2

While waiting for a wreck to be cleared at Van Horn on returning from El Paso, we stumbled right into the arms of our old friend, Jim Mills, the original and only simon-pure, actual settler of West Texas. He is holding down 'steen sections of land about 30 miles south of Van Horn, and is known from Royal to El Paso as one of the mudsills of the new county of Culberson. To say that Jim is doing well, were pure supererogation. He is of the tribe of Eljah, whom the ravens fed and who found hot cakes and coffee ready on the coals when he waked mornings.

Triangle programs at opera house Tuesday and Thursday—10c

A remittance from A. B. Robertson, Slaton, Texas, puts his figures two years ahead. He says he appreciates the Record and wants to run no risk of being cut off for "non-payment of dues." Suk is one of the Record's most valued subscribers.

Latest in millinery in styles and prices at Mrs. Mills.

The Opera House publishes this week one of the best programs they have ever shown.—It's for next week.

 The attention of our country readers is called to the page ad in this issue of what we call the circus page. On Tuesday, Nov. 7, the general election will be held, and it is also show day. Come in, vote for Wilson and visit the show.

The advertisers on this page ask and invite you to come and see them. From the bakery, where you get bread, cakes and candy, you can go to Ben Morgan's for hot drinks, coffee, pies and sandwiches. Every restaurant and cafe in town will prepare a special show day dinner. The Racket store has a word to say, and even the jeweler Mr. Majors, invites you to come to see his handsome display. Bring in your sick automobiles, your blacksmithing, etc., and all troubles will be attended to while you attend the show. Lasky asks you to make his place headquarters. They will make you look better at Dozier's barber shop; and the laundry will do your washing while you wait. The meat market of Pickens and Reeder will serve your wants in that line, and Coughran Bros. will be glad to take your measure for a suit. The movie shows will be in full blast with good programs. Come early and see the big street parade.

There is a woman in Germany who makes a business of funerals, where she takes photos of the mourners and other incidents of the occasion. These photographs she makes up into albums and then sells them to the family of the deceased. She makes as high as $35 a week from her enterprise.

CHIHUAHUA CITY
PANIC STRICKEN
 San Antonio, Oct. 24.—Confirmation of the report that Villista forces have reached the outskirts of Chihuahua city and of fighting in the suburbs between them and General Trevino's command, was contained in a dispatch received today by General Funston from General Bell, commanding at El Paso. General Bell's report is understood to be based on information transmitted by General Pershing, commander of American troops in Mexico. That the people of Chihuahua have become panic-stricken as a result of Villa's advance on the city, following his recent victory at Palomas over Carranza troops commanded by General Azuna, was stated in the dispatch. Information has reached army circles from several sources that General Trevino is short of ammunition. It was pointed out that this might account for his failure to take more aggressive action against the bandits.

TO CLUB MEMBERS OF MITCHELL COUNTY
 The club children's contest will be held in Colorado at the court house Monday, November 6th. Come bring your pigs and calves early Monday morning. Mr. C. C. French from the college will be here to do the judging, and you will be entertained by short talks by Mr. C. C. French, Judge Bullock, Dr. Coleman, Dr. Weston and W. W. Porter. I would be glad to have every club member present whether you bring an exhibit or not, be sure and bring your report blanks.

To the adult farmer and stockmen: Bring your fine horses and colts, fine cattle and chickens, we will have a competent judge to judge the chickens and ribbons will be awarded, and possibly cash prizes will be awarded to the first prize winners.

Let everybody turn out and see what the boys and girls of Mitchell county are doing in laying a foundation for the future of the county.
 W. A. DULIN, Co. Agt.

A woman's thimble is said to have been the means of suggesting the first gas burner.

Charity is a cloak that may cover a multitude of queer performances.

W. A. Dulin returned Sunday morning from El Paso, where he went as a delegate to the National Irrigation Congress, Dry Farming Congress, and to witness the dedication of the great Elephant Butte dam. He reports a very informing and pleasant time. We were with him part of the time, but our gait must have been too tame and terrapin-like for his swift desires; at any rate we lost him right at the crux of the game, and on his promise to produce an alibi for the presumptions we have against him we will tell no tales out of school. But want him to understand, we could if we would, work his undoing.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN.
 Mary Brundage, aged 75, is a high school student in Bakersfield, Cal. Over 3,000,000 women are engaged in agricultural pursuits in Italy. Clara Hayward is said to be the cleverest billiard player of her sex. Mrs. Albert T. Leatherbee is planning to rid the City of Boston of rats. Women are now working as engineers in some of the English munition factories. Dr. Eva Harding will run as an independent candidate for Congress in the First Kansas district. A German professor has proved by actual and delicate measurements that a woman can talk longer than a man. Mrs. Harold Dodge of West Woodbury, Vt., has a copper plate quilt which is 114 years old and still in good condition. The French Government is considering the advisability of organizing a bureau for the registration of couples eligible for marriage. Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the only woman who ever ran for president of the United States on a regularly nominated ticket, has declared herself for President Wilson. One munition factory in England where all the workers are women, with one or two male administrative heads is noted for the good looks of the personnel.
