FOUR TO FIVE INCHES OF RAIN FELL IN COLORADO SUNDAY AND MONDAY.

For the past two or three weeks the Record has been ordering rains to fall Thursday nights, and they came the past three weeks, regularly, but it seems that the farmers were not satisfied with the amounts, nor the day, so this past week the rain was deferred until Sunday evening. The clouds at first did not look very threatening, and most everybody thought it would be just a thunder shower. But when it once began, it came in torrents, sheets and rivers. Again on Monday afternoon another rain of more than an inch fell. On the Thursday night before a three-quarter inch rain fell covering most of the county, especially the north half. The register in Colorado was .65 of an inch.

But the rain of Sunday evening was a hum-dinger. About 5 o'clock a cloud gathered northeast of Colorado, and soon the flood-gates were opened and rain came down in a perfect flood, overflowing the street gutters, and in some instances running into the stores and basements. There was some hail and in the territory north of town, whole fields of crops were washed away, hailed out or covered up.

Many young broods of chickens were drowned and the whole face of the earth was covered with water from 6 to 12 inches deep. Creeks and branches overflowed, bridges were washed out and the roads badly damaged.

We regret to say that all that part of the county northwest, west, southwest and south, did not receive any of this fine rain. It was confined almost exclusively to the east half of the county. Monday evening another cloud formed Southwest of town, and a good inch of rain fell this time, being heavy at Cuthbert and Vincent. Parts of the county, Union, Spade Westbrook and Iatan yet remain dry. It is reported that the Wulfjen, Maddin and McKenzie ranches are yet dry.

Messrs. Hunter, Gist, Key, and all that community say they will have to plant every acre over.

Considerable wind accompanied the Sunday evening rain, but did no particular damage, unroofing a few sheds and outhouses on farms north of town. No damage to property in the city, except where the water ran into the Stockman's Club rooms and ruined some fine rugs.

The total rainfall including Monday, is fully five inches, and the wise ones say the rains are not over—in fact are just beginning. Many farmers we have talked to say it was the heaviest rain the had ever seen in this country.

The prospect for an abundant crop in Mitchell county was never more flattering. Early feed that has withstood the flood, will now make a fair crop with the present season, and with a little help in July a bumper crop is assured. The farmers are highly elated and are working overtime in their fields. Some are replanting, while others are working out the green and growing crops.

Mr. Gist said he had 170 acres of fine cotton up to a stand and would have to plant it all over.

Mr. Hunter said his whole section farm would have to be replanted.

Joe Sheppard reports crops badly damaged.

Jim Bodine and Sam Curry say their crops are all right, and are smiling all over their faces.

Jim Turner says he was badly damaged, while Mr. Lindsey says he is all right.

Lone Wolf mountain and the Lorraine country were specially lucky in receiving a big rain and but little damage.

It is now up to the people to make good with their crops, and old Mitchell county will again blossom as the rose.

QUITE COBBESQUE COBB--HIS METHODS

A Page From the Political History of Candidate Cobb

In 1905 and 1906, Zach Cobb was a candidate for Congress against Hon. W. R. Smith. Read Mr. Cobb's arrogant and flippant letter to Congressman Smith set out below, and Congressman Smith's dignified reply, and the extracts from Cobb's undignified, bitter and insulting rejoinder, and thereby get an insight into the methods of a modern professional politician and perpetual candidate and side-stepper. Mr. Cobb says in a recent double-page circular printed by the El Paso Herald, his Republican supporter at El Paso, that the statement that he has been a "wet" pro and a Republican, etc., is false. Read his circular and form your own conclusions, and ask him why he had to get on the bars of three or four El Paso saloons on the 11th day of April, 1905, and make speeches apologizing for having fought the Democratic ticket? (These letters are printed in the Herald for Nov. 20, 1905). We now quote from the El Paso Times:

ANSWERS HIS CHALLENGE FOR JOINT DEBATE SOME SPICY STATEMENTS CONTAINED IN THE LETTERS EXCHANGED, AND WHICH ARE MADE PUBLIC BY CONGRESSMAN FROM THIS DISTRICT.

The Times has received from Hon. W. R. Smith, Representative in Congress from this district, a copy of the letter written by Zach Lamar Cobb to Mr. Smith, as well as the latter's reply to the El Paso man. The letters, which follow, are self-explanatory:

El Paso, Texas, November 8, 1905.

Hon. W. R. Smith, M. C.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: It is reported that you have been claiming that the people of El Paso county are supporting you for re-election to Congress, thereby by implication representing that my home people are against me, and have repudiated my purpose to make this race. If this claim is true, I ought not to be a candidate. If it is not true, no matter how sincere you are in believing it, you should not make the claim. I am ready and willing to leave it to the people themselves, and be governed by their decision.

To settle the question, I hereby challenge you to meet me in joint debate in the city of El Paso during the Christmas holidays to discuss the issues before the country and existing between the national parties. If it then appears that the people of this county favor you instead of me, I hereby agree to withdraw from the race.

As you have already made speeches in other counties of this district, I do not believe you will refuse to address our people, especially when Congress will not be in session during the holidays, and you could come here without neglecting your public duties.

And after you had spoken to the people in other counties it does not seem that you were entirely fair to the good people of El Paso county when you deal so nearly exclusively with the politicians upon your visits here. In offering you this opportunity to meet the people themselves, I assure you of fair play, and agree that the Mayor of El Paso shall preside over the meeting, or if you prefer, that you may select the chairman.

Confidently expecting you to accept this challenge, which give you so simple an opportunity to dispose of my candidacy, if the claim made by you is really true, for I do not believe that you share the fear to meet me on the stump which is entertained by your El Paso supporters, I am withholding this letter from publication for a reasonable time.

Yours very truly, Z. L. COBB.

Washington, D. C., November 15, 1905.

Mr. Zach Lamar Cobb, El Paso, Texas.

Dear Sir: Your letter (unnecessarily registered), of the 8th inst. to hand, challenging me to meet you in joint debate in El Paso during the Christmas holidays, and I hasten to reply. The last time I talked with you upon the subject you had not declared your candidacy, and I really did not know you were a candidate until the receipt of your letter. Therefore it can not be charged that anything I have said with reference to the situation in El Paso county was intended as an injustice to you. I have said a great many of the most influential men of El Paso have assured me of their support, which is true. Whether or not I shall carry the county in the primaries next July I have no means of knowing, but I can not help feeling that El Paso has no just grounds to complain of my work in Congress. I have worked faithfully for her interests, and am doing now.

As to meeting you in joint debate: You do not say you expect to seek the Democratic nomination, so I assume you do not, as you were less than a year ago in open revolt against the regular Democratic organization of your city, making war upon its nominees and upon its platform. I am further justified in this assumption by the fact that you want to discuss with me the "issues existing between the national parties." Without knowing just what political party you are now affiliated with, I suppose I can at least take it for granted that you would expect to espouse the anti-Democratic side.

But if you really have repented and returned to the Democratic fold recently, which has not yet been made public, there should be no issue between us to discuss. On the other hand, if you are still playing the prodigal, there are plenty of good Democrats nearer home abundantly able to take care of your case.

In view of the above, while the proposition is tempting to have your candidacy disposed of by the unique method proposed by you, namely, by the relative amount of applause we could provoke at a mixed political gathering, in the midst of the coming Christmas festivities, I must decline to incur the expense, discomfort and time necessary to that end.

It is certainly gratifying that you do not believe that I share the fear to meet you on the stump which you say is entertained by my El Paso supporters. But if my El Paso supporters really do entertain such fear I must confess to a sense of deepest mortification that they place such an extremely low estimate upon my ability. At the same time I readily admit that my abilities as a debater and orator are much below the estimate you place upon yours.

As your letter is intended for publication, I have taken the liberty of handing a copy of the same to the press, together with my reply.

Very truly yours,

W. R. SMITH.

The El Paso Times of November 21, 1905, contains Cobb's letter in reply to Congressman Smith. It is too lengthy for us to set it out in full, but we quote therefrom:

Referring to Judge Smith's letter, he says: "In it you rise to the highest expectations of those who have followed your distinguished career, by endorsing the fear of your friends to have you meet me on the stump and by endeavoring to cover that fear with misrepresentations and insinuations;" refers to what he calls Congressman Smith's "swelled dignity;" speaks of him as an "unknown congressman" left to "spend the campaign singing to the tune of Home Sweet Home;" avows his loyalty to the party of Bryan, and then continues:

"Mr. Smith, were you ever proud of your record? Not your record in Washington, for I had to register a letter addressed to you there, to be sure that it would reach you, because in Washington it is hard to find a man who ever heard of Smith from Texas, although other members of the Texas delegation are well known. It is said that by your splendid speeches in Congress, which flash with the brilliance of your eloquence, that you have become distinguished—not as an orator or a man, but from the other Smiths by the title of William, the Silent;" tells Congressman Smith that his friends in El Paso see where he was wise in refusing to meet him in debate, and in referring to Congressman Smith's statement that he "must decline to incur the expense, discomfort and time necessary" to a debate, says, "Ye Gods, how congressmen can swell!" and then continues:

"But you shudder at the 'expense, discomfort and time necessary.' I will pay your expenses, I will give you a time to remember, and God being with me, I will contribute to your comfort."

The Times in its issue of November 21, 1905, on page 4, column 2, in an editorial, says concerning Mr. Cobb:

"Judgment and discretion come with age, and the friends of Mr. Cobb find consolation in the fact that he will grow older."

The El Paso Times, on Wednesday, November 29, 1905, page 44, column 2, publishes an editorial from the Sweetwater Sun, which is in part as follows:

"Z. L. Cobb, of El Paso, is sending out circulars entitled 'Who is Cobb?' We note that part of the circular is devoted to an attack on Congressman Smith because that gentleman refuses to leave his duties at Washington, and come to El Paso and exchange 'hot air' with said Z. L. Cobb. Congressman Smith is, as usual, right in his refusal to waste his time in useless debate. His work for El Paso county in securing the international dam will secure him in that county if he has done nothing more, but he has, and we think it is a waste of time for anyone to endeavor to destroy Congressman Smith's good record by any procedure whatever, nor is it at all necessary for Congressman Smith to neglect his duties to take the stump, and like a modern Don Quixote go around fighting political windmills."

THE SAME OLD COBB.

Age seems not yet to have ripened Cobb's judgment and discretion, nor to have weakened his windmill proclivities, for he still pursues the same old methods of abuse, insinuation and egotism that he pursued against Congressman Smith. He still performs the same old antics.

Senator Hudspeth has never yet made speeches presenting gifts from saloon men and gamblers. He has never yet made speeches from saloon bars, and has not yet had to apologize for having fought a Democratic ticket. What about Cobb? Let the record speak for itself.

16TH DISTRICT WANTS
 A MAN WHO DOES THINGS

AN OPEN LETTER.

April 25, 1918.
 Hon. Chas. Gibbs, District Judge,
 Midland, Texas.

My Dear Judge:—In response to yours of recent date, in which you ask me for my opinion as to the qualifications and fitness of El Paso's two candidates for congress and their relative chances for reelection, I beg to state:

I am supporting Hudspeth's candidacy ardently and sincerely, and will give you some of the reasons for "the faith that is within me."

Both men are citizens of El Paso and have been such for a number of years, but Mr. Cobb much longer than his opponent. Both are Southern gentlemen of the highest type, Mr. Cobb having been born in Georgia and Mr. Hudspeth in Western Texas. Both are in the prime of life and mental vigor, Mr. Cobb has had the advantages of an education, while Mr. Hudspeth only had the opportunity to attend a little log school house for about three months, having the duty early thrown on him by the death of his father, of supporting a widowed mother and her smaller children.

Reared upon the frontier, his childhood and early manhood was spent on the open ranges and on cattle and sheep ranches. Sixteen years ago Claude Hudspeth, then a raw cowboy, announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination of representative, his home being at Ozona, Texas. His friends, then as now always true, rallied to his support and he was elected and took up his duties at Austin as a legislator, where he served in the lower house four years. He then, after studying law in the office of W. W. Turney, and being admitted to the bar, announced his candidacy for the state senate, where he has served with great distinction for the past twelve years—having moved to El Paso and opened a law office. He has always been true to the Democracy of his district and never violated a primary obligation or scratched a Democratic nominee.

Although Hudspeth has always been, from principle, an anti-prohi-bitionist, yet such has been the respect in which he has been held by his senatorial associates, that four times he has been elected president pro tem. of the senate composed of a majority of prohibition members. He has been by far the strongest and most influential member of the Texas senate, and if every one who has been benefitted by the wise legislation which he has caused to be enacted should support his candidacy, his opponent would not get a single vote in this campaign. To El Paso, his home city, he has brought the 65th district court, the county court at law, the court of civil appeals and that great branch of the State University, the State School of Mines.

Always governed by the strictest integrity, he never learned to "trim his sails to catch the breeze." No one ever doubted what Hudspeth's position was on any question. Believing that there was small demand among the women of Texas for the ballot, and doubting that suffrage would prove a panacea for all the ills which afflicted the body politic, he was opposed to that measure. He offered to submit the question to a vote of the women of Texas, and to abide the judgment that might thereupon be given, and you and I know that there was practically no demand on the part of the women in Texas, for the ballot, and that it came because there was little opposition manifest.

His opponent is making the campaign on the prohibition question, and on the suffrage question, and on what he is pleased to term "100 per cent Americanism." Mr. Cobb has not so far told us what he proposes to do in the national congress about prohibition, and inasmuch as Texas has already got prohibition for keeps and has adopted the national amendment on the question, it is rather difficult to see how Mr. Cobb can help the matter along—what does he offer to the prohibitionists of the district? As to suffrage, it has been before almost every legislature in Texas for the last twenty years, and I have never heard that Mr. Cobb had done anything to further the cause. It is a sure thing that he never requested his state senator to vote for suffrage.

As you know, I have been a life-long prohibitionist, and have helped the cause along by speaking and otherwise through several campaigns of statewide import. In none of these campaigns, either for submission or on amendments to the constitution, have I been conscious of the assistance of the eloquent voice or great moral weight of my friend Mr. Cobb. He became a very ardent Pro. after it was apparent to everyone that prohibition was coming.

I find from the El Paso Herald, a Republican newspaper, that Zach made several speeches in El Paso on the night of April 11, 1905, and I gather that they were not prohibition speeches, as Zach was perched (as the Herald puts it) on top of various saloon bars, carried from one to another on the shoulders of his drunken associates. In this speech, or rather series of speeches, if we are to believe the Herald, the booze flowed free and Zach's voice was in all its pristine glory. It was in those speeches that Zach, after getting profoundly licked while supporting a city ticket in opposition to the regular Democratic ticket humbly apologized for voting against the Democratic nominee, and promised to be a good boy and do so no more, but alas, the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak, and this is not the last time Zach was to stab the party which he is now begging for its nomination.

In 1913, after the Democrats had nominated their city ticket, this same El Paso Herald, ever true to its Republican principles, brought out what was known as the "Citizens Ticket," and Zach fell for it hard, again stabbing and doing all he could to defeat the Democratic nominees.

It is not strange now, is it Judge, to find that out of four newspapers in El Paso, three of them supporting Hudspeth's candidacy, only the Republican press, the lonely Herald, espouses the cause of Mr. Cobb? Why is this? Is it because that paper, despairing of electing a Republican under his true name, wants the nearest thing to a Republican it can possibly get, and thus presumes to tell Democrats whom they should nominate? Its editors cannot even vote for Zach, for they will have to take a pledge to support the Democratic nominee from constable up, but having always argued that primary pledges should be disregarded, perhaps they will in this instance practice what they preach. Only a few months ago, before Zach had "heard the call," he signed a written endorsement of Hudspeth's candidacy, and it is significant that no candidate for any office in El Paso county dares espouse Mr. Cobb's cause, while openly advertising the fact that they are all for Hudspeth.

You, as a lawyer, will be interested to know that in El Paso, where both men live and practice law, there are one hundred and fifty lawyers and not thirty of them can be found supporting Cobb—is there a reason?

At Mr. Cobb's opening campaign speech at the opera house they were able, by the boosting of El Paso Herald and a brass band, to corral something less than four hundred people, while when Hudspeth had his opening night there were present something like two thousand voters, men and women. The woman vote is an unknown quantity; no one can say what effect it will have. I know many women who will support Mr. Cobb and many who will support Mr. Hudspeth, but in most instances husbands and wives will vote alike. Mr. Cobb is an orator and very emotional, is delicate and good looking, and if women like a ladies' man better than they do a man's man, Cobb has the best of the women's vote. However, knowing that the women of El Paso and this district possess common sense, we believe a large majority will vote for Hudspeth, for the reason that while Mr. Cobb has had a good deal to say about suffrage since women have been permitted to vote (and not before), Senator Hudspeth has worked for that humane legislation which patriotic women advocate, such as child labor laws, laws fixing the maximum hours of work for women, providing seats to be used for female employes when not busy, a minimum wage for women, better pay for school teachers, and the like. The women also are not pleased with Mr. Cobb's record of silence when the people of El Paso were engaged in their fight on gambling.

Again, Mr. Cobb has on exhibition for political purposes and otherwise, the fireiest brand of patriotism ever uncoiled in this part of the state. He boasts of being one hundred per cent American, as if that were a larger per cent than the man who blacks his shoes. His friends much fear that before the campaign closes he will reach the point where it will be impossible for Zach to keep out of the trenches, and if Mr. Cobb ever does reach that point of course it is all over but the shouting, for what Zach will do to that kaiser will be plenty. Again, consider this point—if, after Zach's election he is unable to keep away from recruiting offices and should succumb to his burning patriotism and join the heroes in the trenches, we should be without a congressman. Noble, self-sacrificing Cobb, he is even willing to serve his country for $7,500.00 per year.

Where Mr. Cobb has talked for his country and bought thrift stamps, Hudspeth has worked, delivered the goods and purchased Liberty bonds.

Among Hudspeth's strongest supporters in El Paso are included almost every one of the men who led the fight for local option here in January; such men as T. M. Wingo, chairman for the Pros., W. W. Turney, and hundreds of others. Volney M. Brown district chairman of Senator Hudspeth's campaign, has been a consistent and hard working prohibitionist since boyhood and the campaign of 1887.

To sum up the matter as I view it: Mr. Cobb is eloquent and entertaining but is not possessed of those stern virtues of stability which are a prime element entering into the makeup of a statesman; while Mr. Hudspeth, quiet and unassuming, has demonstrated by sixteen years of service his possession of those broad, statesman-like qualities, unimpeachable honesty, unswerving fidelity, and a sound, but not self-serving and blatant, patriotism.

Believing that the subject of the letter is of interest generally to the Democracy of the Sixteenth congressional district, you will pardon me for using the medium of the press in this communication.

Very truly yours,
 FRANK JUDKINS.

But, Mr. Editor, I hadn't counted on Henry doing as he has done, when I told him how I intended to vote for Cobb and Hobby, but what do you think, Henry just set up stiff as a ramrod and drew his mouth into a straightline and says, "vote for Hudspeath and Ferguson." Now, Mr. Editor, I was plum surprised, knowing Henry as I do, being his wedded wife for well nigh twenty

But I hadn't been at that meeting long before I see it wasn't a matter of whether I wanted to vote or Henry wanted me to, it was a matter of duty that had been shoved on me by our State, and there wasn't no way of crawling out without being a plum slacker. I see plain as day it was a war measure to send our boys over to them bloody battle fields fit to fight. I says to myself, "Mary Jane you've got to vote whether you want to or not, it is your bounden Christian duty to help clean up this State, especially now since the men are countin' on your help," soon as I year. I had expected he'd help me, give me back-bone for this business I's trying to do. Henry's mighty smart in politics, I've heard him expand many a time. There can't none beat him, but will you believe me he just completely missed the point in this here business, when I, that am such a hen for sense compared to my Henry, could see it at a glance. He insists on my voting his way, and it ain't no use telling him. You know we women folks didn't ask to vote, the men who make the laws of our State asked the women to vote, so you see we are up against our husbands. Must we vote agin 'em? Mr. Editor, what am I going to do? Henry has just got to help me win this thing and I am afraid he won't. I'm depending on Henry. Can't you help, Mr. Editor? Henry's the best man in the world, but maybe he is just a little stubborn, especially when he argues with me. So Mr. Editor, I want you should do something with my Henry.

WOMEN TORTURED. Suffer Terribly With Corns Because of High Heels, but Why Care Now. Women wear high heels which buckle up their toes and they suffer terribly from corns. Women then proceed to trim these pests, seeking relief, but they hardly realize the terrible danger from infection, says a Cincinnati authority.

Corns can easily be lifted out with the fingers if you will get from any drug store a quarter of an ounce of a drug called freezone. This is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. You simply apply a few drops directly upon the tender, aching corn or callus. The soreness is relieved at once and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts out without one particle of pain.

This freezone is a sticky substance which dries in a moment. It just shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Tell your wife about this. Adv. SCOUTS HIKE. Monday morning, bright and early "Capt." J. W. Person and his Scouts left for the Concho for a ten days encampment. They will camp on the McEntyre ranch, here they had such a pleasant time last year. The Big Spring Scouts are also there.

CUTHBERT CULLINGS

The farmers of this community have been very busy the past week planting their crops. A nice rain fell Thursday night which was very much appreciated. Miss Maggie Hammons is visiting home folks at Seven Wells. Mr. R. L. Womack and family have moved to the Hall place to make a crop this year. Mr. Roy Elkins and family have moved to Post which we regret their leaving very much. Mr. C. H. Caruthers and family have moved to the Snyder ranch near here. Sunday afternoon the Fairview Sunday school and a number of people from Colorado and other communities visited our Sunday School, and, afterward a nice program was rendered, which consisted of singing and some very interesting talks by different parties. Sunday was the day for our singing convention but owing to the war and death, we just celebrated the day by having singing in the afternoon. We were very glad to have these people with us and hope you will come again. Messrs D. T. Bozeman and John Brown made a business trip to Colorado Saturday. Misses May and Katie Williams from Valley View are visiting relatives here. Mr. C. H. Womack will make a crop on the P. C. Coleman farm near Cuthbert. Misses Viola and Alice Bozeman are spending the week with their sister Mrs. John Brown. The Cuthbert Red Cross Auxiliary meets on Thursday. All the members and those who are interested in this work are urged to come.

William Farnum in "The Conqueror a gripping drama picturing the career of General Sam Houston. Three hundred of the most famous American Indians, with their chiefs, Mexican soldiers, United States Cavalrymen, Texas Rangers, Trappers and Guides. A picture that will go down in the annals of filmdom. This great picture will be of intense interest to every Texas citizen, and it will be shown here on June 14th. Don't fail to see it. A letter from Charlie Franklin down at Orange says he is helping win the war by building ships, and incidentally making a living. Charlie says he has to pay only $75.00 per month for board.

A BIG DRIVE ON WAR SAVINGS STAMPS.

The government has asked the people to buy two billion dollars worth of War Savings Stamps during the year 1918.

The Liberty Loan and Red Cross interests, and the fact that the people had all the year in which to buy stamps, has had the effect of putting this off, until the stamp sales has fallen to a low ebb.

The department at Washington has decided to put on a War Savings Stamps drive this month, and close the matter up on the evening of June 28th.

The plan is this: Each county chairman will advertise and organize for the next three weeks, and some time during this month, every grown person in the United States will receive a summons (not a request but a summons) from the United States, to meet on June 28th at 3 p. m. in their several school houses or other places of meeting, and will be asked to sign a pledge card for the amount of stamps they will buy, and this will close up the sale of stamps.

Every grown person will meet June 28th at 3 p. m., and sign a card for the minimum amount of stamps that you agree to buy. You will have the rest of the year to buy and pay for the stamps, but the pledge must be made June 28th.

If you sign this card and pledge $100, you have the balance of the year to pay it out.

Joe H. Smoot is county chairman, and Mrs. Marcus Snyder is county chairwoman, for this county, and they will organize each community and appoint precinct chairmen, and get the people to understand about this big drive, and about the meeting on June 28th.

There never was a better investment than War Savings Stamps. They pay 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly; they are cashable at any postoffice upon ten day's notice and they can be registered at any postoffice, making loss in any way impossible.

Rev. G. C. Rafter writes from Clarcond on business and in his letter says: "Glad to hear that the heavens have wept over Mitchell county people. We had a little weep here Monday night which all but swept away the town. The water was about two feet deep on the main street, and flooded the stores, and washed out all the culverts between here and Hedley, also about a mile of the Denver tracks."

CASUALTY SEARCHERS.

An unusual opportunity for war service has come to clergymen and to Christian laymen, according to the Rev. Clyde F. Armitage, of the Federal Council of the Churches. The American Red Cross has sent out a call for thirty-five men, who must be above draft age, American citizens of undoubted loyalty, and not born in any country with which we are at war. These volunteers will be known as "casualty searchers." They are to secure information that will supplement the manager details concerning wounded and missing men which are recorded by the War Department. These "casualty searchers" will visit the sick and wounded, gathering information concerning their condition, their service and the unfinished business at home, and conveying this information through the War Department's Bureau of Communication to the men's relatives in America.

When a man is missing the searcher does all that he can to find out from the soldier's comrades where he was last seen, what condition he was in, and what messages he left. "This is a most merciful and helpful work, and will mean in thousands of instances more than can ever be estimated to the wounded man and to his friends," said a representative of the Federal Council. "The value of this work has already been proved in the British army."

You are helping in this work when you subscribe to the Red Cross, an agency that is helping the distressed of earth all the while.

Get Your Smoked Glass.

Take a piece of ordinary window glass, hold it over an oil lamp until it is fairly well smoked, and have it ready for the sun's partial eclipse tomorrow (Saturday) evening at 6 p. m. provided it is not cloudy at that time.

Saturday afternoon, June 8, there will be an almost total eclipse of the sun visible in Colorado. This is the first total eclipse of the sun visible in the United States since 1900, and there will not be another one until 1923. The path of entire totality is a very narrow one, about seventy miles wide in the state of Washington and only forty miles wide in Florida. The period of totality will vary from about two hours on the Pacific coast to about three-quarters of a minute in Florida.

The nearest point of total eclipse will be at Eufaula Okla., where the sun will be hid for about a minute and a half. The eclipse will be visible here for a short period late in the afternoon Saturday, when all but a small crescent of the sun will be hid. A partial eclipse will be visible all over North America, varying in length of period as distance from the path of totality.

ROOSEVELT HEARD FROM.

We take the following from the Shreveport Journal:

"Since Chamberlain fell down in the senate, Roosevelt has said nothing since pan-Germanism fell down in Wisconsin, LaFollette has said nothing. And the war goes on."

To which the Record wishes to add. Whilst LaFollette seems to have subsided and "sits in his grand, gloomy silence," apparently conscious that he is secure to serve out his nearly five years unexpired term, because of Senatorial tradition, yet Roosevelt does have something to say, every day of his life. Although the vain-glorious Mr. Roosevelt succeeded in getting his body interned in a hospital a few days by order of his physicians, his mouth nor pen has never yet been interned nor silenced by love or respect for the National administration.

Witness his late articles in the Kansas City Star, and Washington Post. And not only so, on the 5th day of May, he announced a speaking program in New York and other eastern States. His subject is the Lusitania, and his first speech on this "new subject," he traveled far afield in his efforts to show the shortcomings of President Wilson, and the American government in conducting the war.

Oh! no. Roosevelt is not silent, nor will he be found in that quiescent state for which we devoutly pray, till the American people shall have administered to him a rebuke at the polls when he seeks his third term once again in 1920. Since Chamberlain's fall in the Senate, that it was the presence of Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay according to his own opinion, that had prevented the German fleet from bombarding the Atlantic coast.

Yes, indeed, T. R. is very much alive and now energetically engaged in resurrecting the ill fated Lusitania, from the ocean grave, in the bed of St. George's Channel, in order to hold up her martyred cargo, and bleaching bones of her dead as evidence of his alleged stupidity and cowardice of the American government.

We all regret the sad story of that 100 American dead who went to sea and returned no more. And the battle cry, "Remember the Lusitania," has nerved our sons to patriotic action. But as to whether we should have gone to war before this catastrophe, or on the next day after, is not an issue now. And Mr. Roosevelt's one desire to continue harking back to that, is merely to belittle the Wilson government, if possible, and magnify his own self importance.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE SUGGESTED.

The following is from a citizen of the Union Community:

Knowing that there is a contention that Texas will have to be divided before West Texas can get her just dues; on the same principle, as I see it, each and every community will have to have a county commissioner once in a while to get its just dues relative to the road problem, and inasmuch as we haven't had a commissioner on the South side of the T. & P. Railroad for nearly twenty years, I think our time has come.

Now, with due regard to Mr. Bird and his followers, I offer the name of J. W. Dorn for consideration. He is a live, energetic and successful farmer, and a good calculator along all lines. We expect him to announce in the near future, and then we expect the people over the precinct to help elect him.

DIXON-McKENZIE.

On last Saturday morning at 5:30 Miss Hazel McKenzie and Mr. Ross D. Dixon were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents...

While this was a quiet home wedding and at so early an hour in the morning, yet the house was filled with friends before the appointed time...

In keeping with the times, and honoring the groom, who is in military service, the principle decorations were flags and national colors...

A hush fell upon the audience as Miss Oma Dell Payne sang "I love You Truly" as a pre-nuptial song.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McKenzie and had all the love and devotion that fond and loving parents can bestow.

The groom is from Chester, S. C. He joined the Home Guards two years ago, at the time of the Mexican trouble...

The going away dress of the bride was a champagne English serge coat suit, with artistic touches of midnight blue...

After the ceremony and congratulations and best wishes, the happy couple left on the early train for Fort Worth...

Refreshments of hot coffee and sandwiches were served to the many guests by Misses Mildred McKenzie, Lillian Smith, Jewell Mitchell, Lois Whipkey and Messrs. J. G. Keathley, Claude King, Kirk Ratliff and McCall Merritt.

Favors of white forget-me-nots, tied with red, white and blue, were pinned on the guests by Misses Oma Dell Payne and Lela Whipkey.

Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie were assisted in receiving and entertaining their guests by Mesdames J. H. Greene F. B. Whipkey and A. L. Whipkey.

The bride was a vision of loveliness in her white satin gown with veil fastened cap style, carrying an arm bouquet of brides roses and lilies as she leaned on the arm of the groom...

DEATH OF MRS. R. W. THOMAS.

On last Sunday, June 2, Mrs. R. W. Thomas was called from her earthly home to her heavenly home.

There was an executive meeting of the Mitchell County Red Cross Chapter at the M. E. Church, Wednesday morning.

The extension committee reported an Auxiliary organized among the negroes, and asked that others help to instruct them in the work.

Mr. King reported 86 articles made the past month by the Junior Red Cross; also that they had about $110 in their treasury from the play and sale of quilts.

Mrs. Broadus reported lunches, fruits and stamps given to nine soldier boys leaving, since last meeting; also that troop trains had been met to see if services were needed.

Mr. Prude, chairman of finance committee reported $1,039.65 as the per cent allowed for local work from the war fund drive; also that Mr. Newt Miller had given $5 dollars for local Red Cross work...

Good reports came in from the different departments of Woman's Work, but more workers are needed.

The refugee work is also progressing as from all parts of the country women are asking for garments to make.

Buford, Cuthbert, Westbrook Lorraine and McKenzie units are all doing their share.

An itemized report of the work will be given next week.

Mr. H. E. Grantland was elected to fill the office of Civilian Relief and Home Service, made vacant by the resignation of Dr. T. J. Ratliff.

Mrs. F. M. Burns, on account of bad health, resigned from the executive committee. A committee was appointed to secure some one to fill her place.

The hospital garments department asked for $75.00 for that work; the surgical dressings $100; knitting department $35, and refugee workers for $50, which were granted.

It is now sincerely hoped that every woman in Colorado and Mitchell county will take up some part of this work and help to make it as much a success as the financial part was at the recent drive.

EXECUTIVE MEETING.

There was an executive meeting of the Mitchell County Red Cross Chapter at the M. E. Church, Wednesday morning.

The extension committee reported an Auxiliary organized among the negroes, and asked that others help to instruct them in the work.

Mr. King reported 86 articles made the past month by the Junior Red Cross; also that they had about $110 in their treasury from the play and sale of quilts.

Mrs. Broadus reported lunches, fruits and stamps given to nine soldier boys leaving, since last meeting; also that troop trains had been met to see if services were needed.

Mr. Prude, chairman of finance committee reported $1,039.65 as the per cent allowed for local work from the war fund drive; also that Mr. Newt Miller had given $5 dollars for local Red Cross work...

Good reports came in from the different departments of Woman's Work, but more workers are needed.

The refugee work is also progressing as from all parts of the country women are asking for garments to make.

Buford, Cuthbert, Westbrook Lorraine and McKenzie units are all doing their share.

An itemized report of the work will be given next week.

Mr. H. E. Grantland was elected to fill the office of Civilian Relief and Home Service, made vacant by the resignation of Dr. T. J. Ratliff.

Mrs. F. M. Burns, on account of bad health, resigned from the executive committee. A committee was appointed to secure some one to fill her place.

The hospital garments department asked for $75.00 for that work; the surgical dressings $100; knitting department $35, and refugee workers for $50, which were granted.

It is now sincerely hoped that every woman in Colorado and Mitchell county will take up some part of this work and help to make it as much a success as the financial part was at the recent drive.

MISS DIETRICH SPEAKS TO COBB CLUB HERE.

Miss A. Louise Dietrich and Miss H. F. Moss, who are making a speaking tour of the 16th congressional district in the interest of Zach Janar Cobb, arrived in Colorado on Saturday last and addressed the voters of this county at the tabernacle on Saturday evening.

Miss Dietrich, who for years has been active in suffrage work in Texas, reports that so far as she has been able to observe, the women of west Texas will exercise the limited right of franchise granted them by the special session of the legislature, which met last winter, to a degree not looked for by the politicians who have been opposed to giving votes to women.

"Thus far I have had splendid success in inducing the women to organize and to pledge themselves to vote at the forthcoming primaries," said Miss Dietrich. "While I am working to interest the women of the district in the candidacy of Mr. Cobb, I am also working to induce as many of the women of the district as possible to take an interest in politics. For that reason I urge all women in the towns visited to attend my meetings and hear what I have to say in general terms regarding suffrage. I want to influence them to vote, even if they do not vote for the man I think best fitted to represent the district in congress."

Owing to the novelty of a woman political speaker, the tabernacle in which the meeting was held was fairly well filled with voters of both sexes. Miss Dietrich proved herself such a master of her subject and presented her arguments in such a forceful fashion and such eloquence that her auditors were aroused to a pitch of enthusiasm rarely witnessed in political meetings which have been held here in the past where the speakers were mere men.

Miss Dietrich appealed particularly to the women in her audience and told them that never before in the history of the nation was there such need in congress of men who were right upon the questions of abating the evils of the liquor traffic and woman suffrage. "This war is a woman's war, and for that reason the impending election is a woman's election," said Miss Dietrich. "I say the war is a woman's war because the women have borne the sons who are in the trenches fighting that we may not be made the slaves of a heartless autocracy, and the women, therefore, have an interest in the prosecution of the war such as men cannot have."

"The women have an opportunity this year to say whether they want to be represented in the congress of the United States by a man who believes in prohibition and in votes for women, and who is known to be a supporter of the president or by a man who is opposed to prohibition and to woman suffrage and who has fought the president at every opportunity."

Miss Dietrich was very gracefully introduced to the audience by Mrs. Dr. P. C. Coleman, president of the Mitchell County Cobb Club. She went from here to Lorraine where she spoke that night to a large crowd of interested voters.

ALL CHILDREN LOVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give it When Feverish, Cross, Bilious, For Bad Breath or Sour Stomach

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt. Adv6

ZACH LAMAR COBB IN WASHINGTON

A dispatch from Washington under date of May 29, of peculiar interest to the voters of the 16th congressional district follows: "Zach Lamar Cobb's visit to Washington in an effort to have the government retain control of the Orient railroad has attracted considerable attention from the Texas delegation in congress and Mr. Cobb has been most cordially received. Most members of the Texas delegation have been watching the race in the 16th district and realizing the trend of prohibition in Texas, and recognizing the influence women will have in the election this year the other members of the delegation cannot see how Mr. Cobb can be defeated.

Candidate Well Received "At the departments Mr. Cobb has been received with a cordiality seldom accorded a private citizen. In several instances the friends of the El Paso candidate in the departments addressed him as "Mr. Congressman" when he called.

Following the formal hearing held Monday before the railroad board the Texans in Washington in connection with the Orient hearing spent Tuesday in continued and hard work escorted and introduced by Mr. Cobb. A delegation including Mayor Rooney and Judge Williams of Fort Stockton; Mayor Bird, Mr. Mertz and Judge Garrett of San Angelo, Mr. Snell of Sweetwater; Mr. Kemper of Kansas City, Receiver of the Orient road, went from office to office of high officials whose interest and assistance were sought in behalf of the people along the line of the road

Orient Road Is Needed "In every office and by every official visited the delegation was given the most cordial treatment. When in the office of John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency and also a member of the railroad board Mr. Cobb, for the delegation said: "If for any reason the board should come to a conclusion against our contentions I ask that notice be given us to that effect and that we be accorded the privilege of returning to Washington to make further argument. These gentlemen and many others will also come. The Orient road is essential to the welfare of the people living in that territory and it must not be abandoned.

"If an adverse view is by any chance taken we could only feel that we had not presented the case in a sufficiently convincing manner. We are to stay here indefinitely or come back as often as necessary but the road must not be abandoned if human effort can prevent it." "Comptroller Williams was most cordial. He said the case had been splendidly presented and that a favorable impression had been made.

Cobb Is Given Credit. "The delegates remaining over are all giving Mr. Cobb unbounded credit for his good work. It is a common expression among them that Mr. Cobb's acquaintance in Washington is of the greatest value to the congressional district. Mr. Cobb himself has been very much pleased with the expressions on every hand in Washington wishing him victory in his race for congress. "Discussing his visit at this time when he should probably have remained in his district looking after his candidacy Mr. Cobb said to the correspondent: "I feel very happy over the results so far attained in the matter of the Orient road and feel confident that the government will retain control of the property. The many expressions of good will I have received from the delegates have been enough to make me feel happy. What I have done in this case simply indicates what I will do when elected to Congress.

His Acquaintance An Asset. "My long association with officials in Washington and their friendship for me give me a natural advantage by enabling me to work for the people of our district. Please say to the people at home, for me, that I have no idea except to be of the maximum service to them. I bear no malice toward those who have opposed me. I will represent them fairly and to the best of my ability and please say also for me that I know that nobody in El Paso bears malice toward me. I am going to win this race. I am coming back to Washington as a member of congress. I want to come in good spirit and with the good will of all so that I may render the maximum service without animosity toward those opposing me." (Political Adv.)

OIL DEVELOPMENTS IN SCURRY COUNTY.

The Oklahoma-Snyder Oil & Refining Company is now putting a material on the ground to sink a test well on the south part of the old Snyder ranch about three miles Northeast of Dunn on Little Sulphur creek. Mr. J. T. T. Harris, a well known geologist and president of the company has made the location.

In many of the water wells and in the bed of the creeks in this territory there are considerable showings of oil and gas with prominent asphalt outcroppings and for many years special attention has been called to this particular region in the permian area of West Texas on account of the white lime and blue shale croppings. The general structure of the country is well defined and unbroken.

Mr. Harris is connected with the I. & N., the Marion, the Goldenstate, and the Missouri, Oklahoma & Texas companies, operating principally in the Healdton, Walters, Cushing and Loco fields in Oklahoma. The Oklahoma-Snyder company holds leases in this county and near Brownwood, while some of the other companies are also interested in the Brownwood and Ranger fields in Texas. Mr. Harris has had splendid success in wild-cat test and has been the first man in several locations that have later proven very valuable producing territory.

During the Huerta regime in Old Mexico Mr. Harris was in the American Consular service and in the oil business in the Tampico field and cattle business in the Durango section. Other men identified with the development are Mr. Emery Powers, Mr. G. F. Pardue and Mr. P. W. McKay, well known business men and bankers of New Wilson, Oklahoma.

Leases are now selling in the section around Dunn at from $5.00 to $10.00 per acre and close in acreage at higher prices. Quite a number of Colorado people have stock in the above company.

CHARACTER OF HOUSTON.

Indicative of the character of Sam Houston, the masterful role played by William Farnum in "The Conqueror," was his voluntary resignation of a government position in 1817, when he was only 24 years old. Houston had been appointed sub-agent to manage the removal of Creek Indians from East Tennessee to Arkansas. He called on John C. Calhoun, then Secretary of War, in regard to the matter. Houston was wearing Indian apparel at the time, and Calhoun, an old Southern gentleman, rebuked him for so appearing before a Cabinet Secretary. Houston was so incensed at the rebuke that he immediately resigned his place. "The Conqueror," a Texas picture will be shown here on Friday June 14th.

SOUR STOMACH.

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion. Adv

Women, Prepare!

Thousands of women in Texas have overcome their sufferings, and have been cured of woman's ills by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This temperance medicine, though started nearly half a century ago, sells most widely today. It can now be had in tablet form (60c a package) as well as liquid, and every woman who suffers from backache, headache, nervousness, should take this "Prescription" of Dr. Pierce's. It is prepared from nature's roots and herbs and does not contain a particle of alcohol or any narcotic. It's not a secret prescription, for its ingredients are printed on wrapper. Send 10c for trial package tablets to Doctor V. M. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

DALLAS, TEXAS.—"I was run-down. I took two bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it worked wonders for me. I was enabled to do my own work, and I would recommend it to any lady who is suffering."—MRS. HANNAH ALICE NEWSOME, 2326 Louise Street.

KERENS, TEXAS.—"I am very glad to say I used Dr. Pierce's Remedies. Seventeen years ago I had woman's disease. I went to our family physician and he told me to get Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that it was as good as anything he could give me. A few bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicine cured me sound and well of woman's disease. I have also written to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel for advice which was always promptly given, without any charge."—Mrs. D. T. FAUGHN, Route 1, Box 93.

NONE SO GOOD.

Mr. J. H. Guitar came back to Colorado, Tuesday morning, from the Imperial Valley of California. Mrs. Guitar and the children are visiting her mother in Georgia, and will not arrive for several weeks yet.

Jim says that it is a wonderful country out there but it has its disadvantages the same as any other. He said he wanted to get away before the mercury climbed over the top and broke its neck. It was 120 in the shade when he left, and he thought he would leave before the warm weather set in. He told about a big rain they had there last winter, which was a most unusual occurrence, and that it ruined thousands of acres of crops, besides tons of alfalfa hay. One farmer had 600 acres in lettuce, just heading and ready for market, when the rain came and absolutely ruined the whole crop. They would much prefer that it do not rain out there, as everything depends on irrigation. The labor is done principally by Japanese, Mexicans and Negroes, as it keeps a white man busy all the time trying to keep cool. But he says they raise enormous crops of everything, even to olives and grapefruit. Alfalfa is cut about six times a year with an average of a ton to the acre at each cutting. Cotton makes from two to two and half bales to the acre, and other things in like proportion. After a visit to Abilene and other points Mr. Guitar will go to work getting the oil mill in first-class shape for the fall business, as he thinks this country is going to make a good crop this year.

NOTED LECTURER ON TEMPERANCE ENDORSES TANLAC.

Mrs. Martha Stone Was For Four Years Associated With Founder of W. C. T. U.

One of the features that distinguishes Tanlac from all other proprietary medicines is the large number of prominent people who everywhere are giving it their unqualified endorsement. Among the statements recently received at the Tanlac office is one in particular that is sure to arouse widespread interest throughout the country, having been made by Mrs. Martha R. Stone, of 7225 Third Ave., North West, Seattle, Wash. noted temperance lecturer who for many years was associated with the late Frances E. Willard, founder of the W. C. T. U. In relating her experience with Tanlac Mrs. Stone said: "I think it is the duty of everyone who has been relieved as I have, to do what they can to help others; their fore it gives much pleasure to tell of the benefits I have derived from the use of Tanlac."

"I was a great sufferer for many years with nervous trouble, which became so bad that I had to take to my bed, where I lay for six weeks entirely helpless and unable to move. The least little noise would upset me and I was not allowed to see anyone for fear it would excite me, and I was told that my entire nervous system had suffered a total collapse. You see, I had passed through the great San Francisco fire in which I lost everything I possessed, and the experience was a severe shock to my already overwrought nerves. When at last I was able to get out of bed I would have such awful dizz spells that everything in my room seemed to spin around as though I was in the center of a whirlpool. My stomach was so weak and my appetite so poor that I hardly ate a thing and what little I forced down soured and formed gas that pressed up into my throat and in my chest and made me so noarse that it was an effort for me to speak. I also suffered much pain in the lower part of my body from this same gas pressure. My liver, too, was all out of order and my kidneys gave me no end of trouble.

"When my son-in-law saw that the medicines I was taking were doing me no good, he induced me to try Tanlac, as he said it had done him so much good he believed it would help me too. To oblige him I got me a bottle and the first few doses soon convinced me that it was just what I needed, and my first bottle put me right on my feet. I am now on my second bottle and am in splendid shape for my nerves are practically in a normal state for the first time in all these years, which I consider a remarkable thing. I have a fine appetite and can eat most anything I want without suffering any unpleasantness afterwards. Tanlac is fast helping me to overcome my troubles, and I feel that I am getting on just fine ever since I began taking it."

Tanlac is sold in Colorado by W. L. Doss, in Lorraine by Garland and Elliott and in Westbrook by J. H. Board.

See A. J. Herrington's Motor Cultivator and Planter. It will work day and night.

Did you know this? That the only American doing his best is the American in uniform. You can buy bonds, thrift stamps, and give to the Red Cross, but that counts as little compared to what the boys are doing "over there." And by the way they are going to be "the fellows" when they come back. Remember another big thing will happen between Oct. and Jan.--The Huns will be on the run and our boys will be on their way to Berlin early in 1919. Old Glory will wave from the kaiser's flag pole, and President Wilson will dictate the terms of peace. How long it will take to square accounts is impossible to forecast, but it will take a long time. In the mean time business must go on; prosperity will roll thru America, and specially in Mitchell county, after the big rains we have had.

We want to call your attention to the fact that we are buying heavily all kinds of merchandise, and our prices, as you know, are the lowest, and always will be. But buy what you need from our present stock. Merchandise is getting much higher and very scarce. Buy only what you need and don't pay more than you have to pay--save all you can. When in need of any Dry Goods, Clothing, Ready-to-wear, Notions, Hats, Shoes--always look around and buy the best for the right price. Come to see our goods; whether you buy or look you are welcome.
