SINCE first our sires stood beside the stream,
And fired the shot that echoed 'round the world,
Has come to pass the epoch of their dream
When to the April breeze their flag unfurled.

TODAY, where floats the Stars and Stripes, we deem
Each star defiance at the tyrant hurled;
Each stripe a bar 'gainst despots, too, would seem
To interpose for human rights imperiled.

TODAY, in foreign lands, the flag is flung
Against a crimson sky across the sea,
Where battle's bane from out the land has wrung
Its dreadful toll. It promises to free
Each nation, and to number each among
All peoples in a worldwide liberty.

Governor Wm. P. Hobby.

Gov. Hobby spoke on Monday in San Angelo to a crowd of 6000 people. Twelve counties were represented and an estimate given out that Hobby would get 5 to 1 of the vote of these twelve counties.

The Record has a letter from Hobby headquarters and they say a careful estimate over the state is about 5 to 1, and that it is even money that he will not lose a single county in the state.

$80,000 PLEDGED FOR WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Last Friday, June 28th was Pledge Day all over the United States.

Mitchell County, with her drouth and depopulated condition did her part most nobly, as she always does. The different country precincts did extremely well, raising about half of the $80,000 pledged.

At 2 p. m. the entire citizenship of Colorado assembled at the tabernacle and a program was rendered.

The Colorado Orchestra rendered some excellent music from time to time. Mayor Adams made an inspiring and excellent talk along the line of pledging all that we could to the support of the government and the winning of the war, proposing that we smother "Bill with scraps of paper." This was followed by L. W. Sandusky, who made an eloquent and patriotic appeal, and was followed by Dr. P. C. Coleman who took the pledges.

About twenty-five joined the honor roll or "limit club" pledging $1,000 each, as much as any one person could take. This was followed up with smaller pledges running down to $5, until about $40,000 was pledged.

The Record had hoped to publish the names of all who pledged, but find the list of names too large to handle this week.

While this count was not the quota set aside for the county, everyone feels that we did exceedingly well considering the conditions of the county at this time.

Great is Mitchell County!

FEDERAL CONTROL OF TELEGRAPH ASSURED.

Washington, June 30.—Announcement of the call for a strike of Western Union telegraph operators for July 8 brought to a head here tonight it was learned on high authority, plans for the government taking over the telegraph and telephone lines of the country which have been under consideration for some weeks. The postoffice department, it is known, has been pressing the President for a decision in favor of this and it was positively stated tonight that the favorable decision had been obtained.

While it can not be stated positively or information now in hand that officials of the administration knew in advance of the setting of July 8 as the date for the Western Union strike it was positively known that the strike was coming, and plans have been in preparation to meet the situation by government ownership.

Mrs. W. C. Calaway of Abilene is here visiting friends and is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Holt. She says her son Lieut. Earl Calaway left this week for New York, and is expected to go across in a few days.

North Carolina Led Colonies in Freedom's Fight

It is popularly supposed that the Independence of the United States began on a Fourth of July in Philadelphia, but down in the Old North State is a community that threw off the British yoke more than a year before the Tumult in the city.

In the quaint old Quaker town announced the first general step toward the freedom of the colonies.

In 1765 the British parliament passed the stamp act. When the first sloop of war arrived off Cape Fear from England carrying stamped paper the people terrorized the captain until he was afraid to land his stuff, and then they captured the stamp officer from the governor and made the officer take oath that he would not attempt to enforce the use of stamps. A year later the stamp act was repealed. But North Carolina had found that she had a power when the people arose, and the English crown was never again sure of its ground in the colony.

The people asserted the right of free assembly after that, and the assumption led to numerous clashes with the governor until in May, 1771, the governor, with soldiers, proceeded against a band of men calling themselves Regulators; and a few miles north of Southern Pines a battle was fought in which more than 100 casualties occurred on both sides, nearly two score being killed. This was the first bloodshed in the Revolution. The inaudicious governor, whose force was victorious, aroused further hatred on his part of the people by hanging a number of his prisoners. Herman Husband, the leader of the Regulators, escaped and went to Pittsburgh, where he settled, dying later at Philadelphia.

The feeling was fanned by the extreme acts of each side, until a state convention was held at Newbern in August, 1774. The meeting of the colonial legislature, which followed, practically endorsed the radical views of the convention, which was proclaimed by the governor to be anarchy. The result was that the legislature was dissolved and the governor took refuge on a ship of war in Cape Fear river.

In May, 1775, the people of Mecklenburg county had a convention, and they took occasion, nearly 14 months before the Declaration of Independence was issued at Philadelphia, to say that—

Ringed Declaration.
"We declare ourselves a free and independent people; and of right ought to be a sovereign and independent self-governing association, under no power than that of our God and the general government of congress.

To the maintenance of which independence we solemnly pledge to each other our mutual co-operation, our lives, our fortunes and our most sacred honor."

The convention that adopted such startling resolutions of independence underpook to lay the foundation for a government for North Carolina until a suitable and stable form could be provided by congress, and from that day the authority of the British crown was exhibited only during those few times when Cornwallis made his ventures with more or less varying success on the territory of the colony.

North Carolina was the first of the colonies to have an English settlement.

the first to shed blood in the war for independence, and the first to give utterance in explicit form to that independence. Nor was the declaration of the people of Mecklenburg the sole manifestation of the sentiment in the matter. At Fayetteville, on Cape Fear river below Southern Pines, another Declaration of Independence antedated that of Philadelphia. The people in Cumberland county, of which Fayetteville is the capital, issued their statement in June of 1775, insisting that resort to arms was justified, and pledging each other to sacrifice life and fortune to the freedom and safety of an oppressed people. In April, 1776, still before the Philadelphia Declaration of Independence, the provincial congress of North Carolina appointed a committee to prepare a civil constitution, and it was done so well that the document served some 60 years as the organic law of the state. And so it was that North Carolina opened the road that led up to the creation of the most progressive nation on the face of the earth, and the one whose influence has done most for the advancement of mankind.

Greene's Memory Worthy of Honor.

Next to Washington, Nathaniel Greene was the most potent force in our struggle for national independence. He was born on May 27, 1742, in a little farmhouse in Rhode Island. His boyhood was spent like that of the other youth of the neighborhood. Probably it was a little less exciting, for his father was a strict Quaker and pastor of a church at East Greenwich. He was also a "captain of industry" at that period. With his five brothers, he owned a forge, a grist mill, a sawmill, as well as a store for the sale of general merchandise.

How Famous Declaration Was Adopted

INDEPENDENCE day this year witnesses the unique spectacle of the Stars and Stripes and the flag of Great Britain intertwined in a bond of friendship, the United States allied with her old mother country in fighting the world battles of democracy. In that memorable document which was proclaimed to the inhabitants of the original thirteen colonies 142 years ago is a sentence which seems fitting now as an indictment of the European monarch against whom America is at war. It is this:

Our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury.

And then follows this severe arraignment of George III, the last of the English kings who maintained the divine right of rule:

A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Prior to the Revolutionary struggle the sentiment in all the colonies for ten years and more from the time of the first Stamp Act troubles was strongly against a severance of relations with the parent country. Paul Revere's ride and the battles of Lexington and Concord in April, 1775, memorable as those events are as the forerunners of the great conflict, failed to arouse any widespread enthusiasm for independence. It is even significant to note that just a year before the Declaration of Independence was unanimously approved by all of the thirteen colonies the Continental congress that had appointed Washington commander in chief of the army, drew up, July 6, 1775, a declaration of the causes for taking up arms in which it was said:

We mean not to dissolve that union which has so long and so happily subsisted between us and which we sincerely wish to see restored.

Even Thomas Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence, two months after the battle of Bunker Hill wrote that he was "looking with fondness toward a reconciliation with Great Britain."

A few far-sighted leaders like Benjamin Franklin, Samuel and John Adams and Patrick Henry had felt at a comparatively early date that a break was inevitable.

The historic declaration of the citizens of Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, in May, 1775, was one of several local events indicating that public opinion was tending toward independence, but not until the appearance of Thomas Paine's stirring pamphlet, "Common Sense," early in January, 1776, was there any appreciable public sentiment in its favor. In the plain language of the day it presented the facts so simply that all could understand. This "pamphlet," as John Adams styled Paine, suddenly found himself transformed from obscurity to fame. The Pennsylvania legislature voted him $2,500, and a Southern legislator suggested that a statue of Paine in gold would not be too high an honor. Richard Henry Lee's Resolution.

Things moved rapidly in the colonies after that, and Richard Henry Lee of Virginia rose in the Continental congress at Philadelphia, June 7, 1776, and presented his famous resolutions which led to the Declaration of Independence. The resolutions, in Lee's handwriting, and now one of the treasured papers in the library of congress, were:

Resolved, That these United Colonies are and of right ought to be free and independent states; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is and ought to be totally dissolved;

That it is expedient forthwith to take the most effectual measures for forming foreign alliances;

That a plan of confederation be prepared and transmitted to the respective colonies for their consideration and approbation.

Here, in fact, was the Declaration of Independence in a nutshell, proposed by one of the most eminent men of the most influential colony at that time and promptly seconded by John Adams of Massachusetts. It was deemed worthy of the secretary to omit from the journal. The next day the committee of

A Declaration by the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in General Congress assembled

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for a people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's god entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness.

Draft of the First Words of the Declaration of Independence, in Thomas Jefferson's Handwriting, Which Established Democracy in America.

the whole to discuss the resolutions. The delegates from Pennsylvania, New York and one or two other colonies objected on the ground that the middle colonies were not yet ready for so radical a step, although personally expressing a friendly attitude.

Delegates Hesitated.

Unanimous action by all the colonies on so momentous a question was regarded by congress as of paramount importance. Some of the delegates had not been instructed to go so far as voting for independence. New York and New Jersey being among them. The majority had been authorized to take any action that might be deemed wise, Virginia having gone so far as actually to instruct her delegates to propose a declaration of independence to congress, and Richard Henry Lee was simply obeying the legislative voice of his colony when he presented his resolutions.

June 10 congress postponed final consideration for three weeks, and on the following day appointed a committee of five to draw up the declaration. Richard Henry Lee, as the proposer of the plan, would surely have been on the committee and, possibly, its chairman, had he not in the meantime been hurriedly summoned home by the illness of his wife. But for that Lee might have been the author of the declaration instead of his younger Virginia colleague, Thomas Jefferson, then but thirty-three years old.

Jefferson had brought to congress the reputation for wielding a facile pen, and in the balloting for the committee he received a majority of votes and became its chairman. The others were John Adams of Massachusetts, Benjamin Franklin of Pennsylvania, Roger Sherman of Connecticut and Robert R. Livingston of New York. Honor Given Jefferson.

How did Jefferson come to be selected to write the Declaration, "the one American state paper, as has been said, that has reached to supreme distinction in the world and that seems likely to last as long as American civilization lasts?"

The most interesting account is given by John Adams, who says that he and Thomas Jefferson were designated by the committee to prepare the rough minutes in a proper form. Mr. Jefferson first proposed that Adams prepare the draft of the Declaration. Adams declined, giving, as he says in his autobiography, the following reasons:

(1) That he was a Virginian and I a Massachusettsian. (2) That he was a Southern man and I a Northern one. (3) That I had been so obnoxious for my early and constant zeal in promoting the measure that every draft of mine would undergo a more severe scrutiny and criticism in congress than one of his composition. And justly, and that would be a reason enough if there were no other. I had a great opinion of the elegance of his pen and none at all of his work. I therefore trusted that no hesitation should be made on his part. He accordingly took the minutes and in a day or two produced to me his draft.

As Jefferson Wrote It.

Jefferson says that the entire committee urged him to make the draft. He showed it first to Franklin and Adams "because they were the two members of whose judgments and amendments I wished most to have the benefit." They made a few minor alterations in their handwriting. This original draft was given by Jefferson to Richard Henry Lee, the dean of the Virginia delegation, and in 1825 his grandson presented it to the American Philosophical society of Philadelphia.

Jefferson, having made another copy, with the changes suggested, presented it to the committee, which reported it unaltered to congress. July 1 Philadelphia was on the quiver of expectation, and contemporary accounts have left us a stirring picture of the eagerness with which the citizens awaited definite news of the most important act which the colonists had been called upon to decide in the long chain of disputes with the mother country. On the following day, when the formal vote of congress was taken, the resolutions were approved by twelve colonies—all except New York. The original colonies, therefore, became the United States of America on July 2, 1776. The next two days were spent in discussing the draft of the Declaration as drawn by Jefferson. The debate was animated, but when it was all over the draft was adopted with surprisingly few changes, a tribute to the ability with which the author had expressed to the world the causes which had made it necessary for "one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another."

Unanimously Adopted.

The Declaration of Independence was then unanimously adopted by the twelve colonies, whose delegates were instructed to vote in its favor, on July 4, which thenceforth became the recognized birthday of the new nation.

The old bell ringer of Philadelphia, who had been patiently waiting for the news in the steeple of the historic statehouse, was the first to peal out the message of American independence on the bell ever since honored as the Liberty Bell. No longer was there any doubt that public opinion was ready for the step, for, as the news spread, it was everywhere received with exultation.

Word came to George Washington July 9, at his headquarters in New York, that the Declaration was ratified, and it was at once read to the soldiers and citizens. On the same day the New York assembly, in session at White Plains, gave its formal vote for independence, and the thirteen colonies were then united in their common cause.

John Hancock, president of the congress, was the only member who signed the declaration on July 4. An engrossed copy on parchment was ordered for all the delegates to sign. This was completed August 2 and signed by 54 delegates. Two others signed later, Thomas McKean of Delaware, who was absent with his regiment in August, and Matthew Thornton of New Hampshire, who was not elected to congress until the fall, but was permitted to sign the document in November, making the total number of the famous "signers" 56.

The Two Most Famous Signers.

Of all the signers, Jefferson and Adams bear a deeper personal relation to the declaration than any others. Adams was its most vigorous supporter in congress and Jefferson bears testimony to his valuable aid. In after years both received the highest honors that the citizens could bestow. They were permitted to witness the growth of their country for half a century from the first Independence day. The day of their death, July 4, 1826, was the fiftieth anniversary of the memorable Fourth of July. It was the most remarkable coincidence ever recorded in American history. Jefferson was eighty-three years old and John Adams ninety-one years.

The 56 signers were distributed among the 13 states in the following proportion: Pennsylvania, 9; Virginia, 7; Massachusetts, 5; New Jersey, 5; Connecticut, 4; Maryland, 4; New York, 4; South Carolina, 4; New Hampshire, 3; Delaware, 3; Georgia, 3; North Carolina, 3; Rhode Island, 2. Jefferson's draft of the declaration presented to congress and the signed copy on parchment are in the department of state at Washington, the latter having been replaced for public exhibition several years ago by a facsimile.

French People Our True Friends.

The true and controlling reason why the government of Louis XVI intervened in our war of independence was the enthusiasm of the French people for the cause of liberty. Considerations of material advantage were entirely secondary. Public opinion forced the hand of an unwilling and hesitating government, and placed at our disposal the economic, military and naval resources of the country.

J. W. Day & Co., the great cotton commission merchants at New York send out the following report: Farmers, merchants and speculators read it and take it for what it is worth. Texas—Ten days early to ten days late. Cultivation and stands fair to good. Many correspondents say labor scarce and that which available demanding high wages. In some sections town people are coming to aid of planters. No general complaints of weevil or insect damage. Ample mules. Part of central and south-eastern counties need rain. Weather as a whole considered favorable. Prospects fair to good. General Resume.—Seasonable temperatures, an abundance of sunshine and timely showers where needed (with few exceptions) gives to the Cotton trade the most encouraging crop prospects that have been obtained at this time of the year since 1911. Correspondents dwell upon the present scarcity of labor, but state ideal weather during the past month has made the usual cultivation unnecessary. In many localities town people are aiding the planters, which in connection with expected assistance from high school students will be of help in overcoming the labor shortage especially at picking time. Weevil are reported throughout the infested areas, but weather conditions have thus far operated against their doing material damage. The acreage and percentage condition shown in this report indicates with normal weather henceforth a yield of approximately 14,625,000 bales (linters excluded). J. W. DAY & CO. R. B. LIKE AN ELECTRIC BUTTON ON TOES

Tells Why a Corn is so Painful and Says Cutting Makes Them Grow

Press an electric button and you form a contact with a live wire which rings the bell. When your shoes press against your corn it pushes its sharp roots down upon a sensitive nerve and you get a shock of pain. Instead of trimming your corns, which merely makes them grow, just step into any drug store and ask for a quarter of an ounce of freezezone. This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn stops the soreness instantly, and soon the corn shrivels up so it lifts right out, root and all, without pain. This drug freezezone is harmless and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. "It's a shame that a boy one thousand miles away from home and worrying about his mother and father cannot go and get a drink of liquor to drown his troubles."—Jim Ferguson in his speech at Paris, speaking of the soldier boys and the saloons. E. N. GARRETT IS HELD UNDER MANN ACT

Benjamin N. Garrett, president of the Houston Bank & Trust Company and president of the Pan-American Trading Company, was arraigned before United States Commissioner A. L. Jackson, Wednesday morning on a charge of violation of the Mann white slave act. His bond was fixed at $2,000 and his examining trial set for Saturday morning. It is charged that Garrett brought his former wife, Bessie Lee Garrett, from San Francisco to Houston, in violation of the Mann act. The three children of the union, it is stated, accompanied the couple. According to federal officials Garrett wired Houston friends that he had married his former wife in San Francisco. The couple, with the children, left San Francisco on May 31, they state, and arrived here June 3. On information contained in the telegram it was announced that Mr. and Mrs. Garrett had remarried. A few days later denial was made that the marriage had taken place, and on June 12, it is stated, Garrett was wedded to Miss Zerline Larkin, and the couple left for the East on their honeymoon. Mr. Garrett returned from the East Tuesday, and was arrested Wednesday morning.—Houston Chronicle.

Houston Post, June 30.—Bessie Lee Garrett, former wife of Benjamin N. Garrett, was the only person to testify at the examining trial of Mr. Garrett, who is charged with violating the Mann white slave act, before A. L. Jackson, United States commissioner, Saturday morning. The hearing came to an abrupt end shortly after noon, when Commissioner Jackson adjourned court, owing to sudden illness. The trial was continued until Tuesday, July 9.

Mrs. Garrett, who occupied the stand several hours went into detail concerning her trip with Garrett from San Francisco to Houston with their children.

She said he made numerous promises to marry her while in San Francisco and that they were broken on one pretext or another. She testified that after their arrival in Houston he abruptly informed her of his refusal to marry her.

Mrs. Garrett testified that they were first married at Sterling City, Texas, March 23, 1908. They lived at Colorado City at that time, but later went to California. In September, 1915, they separated, she said. Three children had been born to them and by the divorce decree, the custody of the children rested with them jointly.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT! STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanser." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a bottle of Klowton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, for a few cents. Adv.

PLANS READY FOR BRINGING LABOR ACROSS

THE UNITED STATES EMPLOYMENT BUREAU ANNOUNCES THAT LABORERS FOR AGRICULTURAL PURPOSES MAY BE IMPORTED.

Brownsville, Tex. Complete instructions covering the admission of farm laborers from Mexico have been received by the immigration station and the local office of the United States Employment Service. The employment service will, under the new regulations, import laborers as fast as they can be obtained, for the need of them is pressing. Just now 1,500 cotton choppers are wanted in the Texas cotton fields, and an urgent call has been sent to all employment stations to secure them. When this need is supplied a heavy draft will be made for harvest hands.

The rules under which labor may be admitted have been carefully drawn and the interests of the laborers have been carefully guarded. The admissions are only temporary and are for a period not to exceed six months, unless the importer can show a need for the extension of this period and the alien shows a willingness that the period be extended.

Only such aliens may be imported who in all other respects would be admissible under the immigration law, with the exception of the literacy and contract labor features.

Aliens must be imported only for the purpose of accepting employment in agricultural pursuits with pre-arrangement for his employment. In other words, the person desiring such labor shall come to or send to the border employment stations to receive such aliens. Before he can secure the importation of such aliens the person desiring to import them must show to the immigration inspector in charge his plans for the employment of such alien, the wages, which shall be the current wages paid for this class of work; nature of work, and housing and sanitary conditions.

The employer of such labor shall keep the officer in charge of the port through which it is imported advised of any changes in his plans regarding the employment of the labor, of the leaving of his employ of such laborer, and will furnish all possible assistance to the officers in ascertaining their whereabouts and whether or not he has entered non-agricultural pursuits.

During the time such contract laborer is employed the employer shall withhold from his wages twenty per cent during the first two months, fifteen per cent during the second two months, and ten per cent during the third two months. These wages shall be deposited to the credit of the alien in a United States postal savings bank with the understanding that the sum will so remain on deposit until the alien is about to leave the United States, whereupon the postal savings certificates shall be converted into a postal money order payable to the alien, such money order to be transmitted by mail to the immigration officer at the port of entry, for redemption into money at the time of the alien's departure. If the alien is continued in the United States after the first six months the wages accumulated during the first six months shall be paid him by redemption of the postal savings certificates with accumulated interest; the arrangements for the withholding of percentages of his wages to be recommended. Aliens applying for admission under this act, or some one in his behalf shall furnish two unmounted photographs of the applicant and a complete personal description of such applicant shall be taken.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION HAS NO POWER TO REGULATE PRICES IN EATING PLACES

The Food Administration announced that it does not favor the general adoption of table d'hote meals in hotels and restaurants. Neither has the Food Administration attempted to regulate prices charged in hotel dining rooms or other public places—a power not conferred upon it by the Food Control Act. A recent announcement to the effect that the Food Administration would endeavor to curtail hotel menus was construed as meaning that the Food Administration was recommending the abolishment of a la carte meals, and the general establishment of table d'hote service. The Food Administration believes that table d'hote service encourages waste unless very carefully supervised. Its desire to have food to be obtained American saving could Get your crops ready for that big rain that is now about due.

Mitchell county needs rain badly; well it nearly always rains on the 4th of July.

The editor of the Record sat on the banks of the scenic Concho fishing and even the frogs sat on the logs and croaked 'where did you get it, Jim?'

Over $80,000 in War Savings Stamps is not bad for Mitchell county, considering the three years' drouth and the absence of nearly half her people.

The Record is printed this week on Wednesday, a day ahead of time. This is done so the force can close up shop like the rest of the business houses, and take a Fourth of July holiday. The 4th falling on Thursday, our regular printing day makes it necessary that we print on Wednesday. The paper may lack its usual vim and news matter, especially local news, but surely no one will begrudge the war garden editor and mechanical force one holiday in the year.

A BOUQUET.

Dallas, Texas, June 29, 1918.
Editor Colorado Record:

Dear Sir:—Some things are easily forgotten, but the splendid work which you have done in the Colorado Record in the interest of the War Savings Campaign is not in that classification. Thousands of people have done most effective service for the Government in the Pledge Drive, but I believe no State has had more co-operation than that given by the newspaper men of Texas.

I want to express to you my personal appreciation of the splendid way in which you have backed up the Government and helped to make a success of the biggest movement which has ever been inaugurated. I want you to know that the United States Treasury Department very fully and most sincerely appreciates your kind co-operation.

I trust I shall sometime have the pleasure of thanking you personally for the big way in which you have done big things in Mitchell county I am,
Yours most sincerely
LOUIS LIPSITZ.

State Director War Savings Com.
The Record is glad to know that its efforts are appreciated away from home at least, and makes quite appropriate the adage: "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country."

The Record has claimed (and we think proven) to be 100 per cent American, every since the beginning of the war. Every bond issue, every Red Cross drive, and the War Savings Stamp drive, have all had our most hearty support, not only thru the columns of our paper, but by contributions and purchases to our limit, and it seems sometimes even beyond. But the Record knows that we must win this war, and as good American citizens we propose to do all we can toward that end. We thank Mr. Lipsitz for his kind words.

ARE YOU ONE OF THEM?

There are a great many people who would be very much benefited by taking Chamberlain's Tablets for a weak or disordered stomach. Are you one of them? Mrs. M. R. Searl Baldwinville, N. Y., relates her experience in the use of these tablets: "I had a bad spell with my stomach about six months ago, and was troubled for two or three weeks with gas and severe pains in the pit of my stomach. Our druggist advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. I took a bottle home and the first dose relieved me wonderfully, and I kept on taking them until I was cured. These tablets do not relieve pain, but after the pain has been relieved, prevent its recurrence."

FIFTH SUNDAY MEETING.

Sweetwater Baptist Association Held Successful and Entertaining 5th Sunday Meeting Here.

The Fifth Sunday Meeting of the Sweetwater Baptist Association met with the church here last week. The services began Thursday evening with a most helpful sermon preached by Rev. T. Y. Adams, pastor of the First Church of Sweetwater.

Pastor W. C. Garrett had done all in his power to make the program a success and to make the visitors feel welcome.

Owing to the exceedingly busy season, the extreme heat and the W. S. S. drive, there were not as many visitors present as were anticipated, but the program was carried out and every feature was one of helpful interest.

On Friday morning after the devotional exercises the work was in the nature of reports from the field and what was planned for the future. Mr. T. Y. Adams had a most inspirational message of the work that was expected of B. Y. P. U. workers in war times. The key note was greater and more efficient training for the young people, that they may be better prepared to bear the burdens that will rest on their shoulders.

At the 11 o'clock hour Rev. J. F. Wood, former missionary of Sweetwater Association, preached, using Ecclesiastes 12:13 as his text.

On Friday afternoon the meeting adjourned for the W. S. S. meeting at the tabernacle.

On Friday evening Rev. J. C. Burkett, pastor of the College Heights Church at Abilene, and who was pastor of this church more than a quarter of a century ago, preached one of his splendid sermons. His subject was "a life with a joyful close." Bro. Burkett is not only a splendid preacher, but a good all round man, and is loved for his own personality, as well as for his works.

On Saturday the work began with the discussion of Sunday School work after which "What reason have Baptists to give for their separate denominational existence?" was ably given by Revs. G. W. Butler of Roscoe and E. E. Dawson of Abilene.

This was followed by the splendid address given by E. E. Dawson, editor of the Western Evangel, on "The place of religious literature in the making of our homes, churches and the world what they ought to be." Not only did he stress religious literature but other than that which came into our homes should be of the best.

At the noon hour the women of the church served lunch in the Sunday School rooms, and many of the busy men dropped in for the occasion. The afternoon session was given over to the women, and not only was it the pleasure of the Colorado women to have the Associational officers with them, but also Mrs. J. W. Byers of Austin, who is State Superintendent of the Juvenile work, and also speaks in the interest of Buckner Orphans Home wherever she goes.

On this occasion she brought a most helpful message in regard to properly training the children that the foundation might be laid for a life of usefulness.

Mrs. Anthony of Abilene spoke most earnestly on the How and Why of Womens Work; speaking of the imperative need of women, not only doing their very best for the work of the hour, war work, but to do their utmost for the kingdom of God, putting first things first.

Mrs. J. C. Burkett spoke on the Girls Industrial Home in Abilene, and urged the women to do their part in this work in July, which is the month set aside for that work.

Mrs. Burnham, Associational Leader of the Y. W. A. work, spoke on Leakages and How to Prevent Them. While Mrs. Burnham is new in the work, yet she is already proving herself a most efficient worker, and her message will, if heeded, do untold good.

Mrs. G. L. Faxton, the much loved President of the Sweetwater Association, gave a practical talk on when and how to report; urging the women to respond to all departments of the work at the proper time, and in the true spirit of the Master.

At the discussion of whether the amount could be raised for the bible scholarship fund, in order that the young lady whom we have been sending to the Fort Worth Training school could return next term, Mrs. Lee Jones gladdened all hearts when she volunteered her services to the raising of this money. "Our Girl" only has one more year until she graduates and as Mrs. Jones had recently visited the school and heard of her faithful work, so felt inspired to encourage the women over the district to help in this grand work.

On Saturday evening Rev. Leach of Loraine preached from Acts 16:31. Mr. Leach said that while he had been preaching in this and adjoining counties for 33 years, this was the first time he had filled the pulpit of a Colorado church. He made a splendid talk, to a small but appreciative audience.

On Sunday morning after the regular Sunday School service, Rev. J. F. Wood again did the preaching. He talked on the second coming of Jesus.

Sunday afternoon the pastor of Lamar Street Church of Sweetwater, Rev. W. C. Clark, and thirty-eight of his members came up for a baptismal service at the river. Supper was served them by the B. Y. P. U., on the river bank, after which they came to the church, where the Sweetwater folks took charge of the services.

Under the leadership of Mr. Holder a splendid musical program was given. Six instruments were used in the orchestra, and this with the splendid singing was a treat. Mr. Clark preached on "Is Your Heart Right with God?"

And thus closed a series of meetings that will be of lasting benefit to all who in any way had part in them.

GIRLS! LEMON JUICE IS SKIN WHITENER

How to Make a Creamy Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

DEMONSTRATED RECIPES.

Miss Peek, lecturer and demonstrator of C. I. A., at Denton, spoke at the Methodist church Monday night on Simplified Dressing for High School girls. She had a number of simple but becoming dresses for the different seasons, which were worn by Colorado girls, during her talk. She illustrated with living models.

These and other articles of clothing were of simple and appropriate materials for high school girls clothing, and were all of the prevailing styles. She also talked on the appropriateness of footwear, and related some of her own suffering caused by ill fitting shoes. She complimented the girls of Colorado for the common sense shoes they wore.

On Tuesday morning at H. L. Hutchinson & Co. store, she lectured on war substitutes, and demonstrated her recipes.

All those who heard her feel they have gained quite valuable helps in Help-Win-the-War Cooking.

On Tuesday afternoon the Campfire Girls and their Counselor, Mrs. Merritt, honored Miss Peek with a picnic on the bluffs.

Regular services at the Episcopal church Sunday. Morning services at 11 o'clock, evening service at 8 o'clock. All are invited.

OBITUARY.

Walter Neil was born May 4, 1891 in Travis County, N. M., but was chiefly raised in Texas. Was married to Miss Allie Beard of Colorado, Tex. or December 25, 1913. Died the 20 day of June, 1918. Was 27 years old at the time of his death. He was living near Tascosa, Texas, on the G. S. ranch. He was taken away almost without warning. He got sick on Thursday night, was carried to the Amarillo sanitarium, was operated on at six o'clock and died the same day at 5:25.

Walter was a true christian, was converted and joined the Methodist church at San Angelo, Texas, August 1917; was elected steward of the church and did faithful service as long as he was there. He was a good boy; made friends wherever he lived; was always willing and ready to help his fellow man; he was a loving husband and father.

Death is hard and it grieves our hearts to give him up, but we feel that the separation won't be for long. He has gone on to welcome us when we lay down this life, and we are trying to say they will be done, not curs.

The funeral service was held Sunday at 11 o'clock, conducted by the pastor of the Burk Burnett, Texas, church, here his body was shipped for burial. He leaves a wife, little son three years old, mother, father, two brothers, four sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. But we feel that our loss is Heaven's gain, and that we will strive harder to gain heaven because Walter is there waiting for us. Asleep in Jesus—Oh, for me May such a blissful refuge be; Securely shall my ashes lie And wait the summons from on high.

Written by his brother and sister Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Harlow.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If work is tiring, if your nerves are excitable, if you feel languid, weary or depressed, Scott's Emulsion will prove a wonderful strengthener.

It possesses the very elements to invigorate the blood, nourish the nerves and build strength. Every mother ought to have Scott's. Try it.

APPRECIATION.

Through the kindness of Mr. G. B. Harness and the West Texas Electric Company, there are electric fans at the Red Cross hospital garments work rooms. When the thermometer is playing around 108 these fans help to make the rooms bearable for the workers and such thoughtfulness is much appreciated. At the surgical dressing rooms ice water is ever at hand through the thoughtfulness of Mr. Sol Robinson. Such things help to make the work easier, and points to the fact that the gentlemen have their hearts in this work, as well as the women of the town.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

PURCHASER OF PAPER CLAIMS DAMAGES

Dallas, Texas.—Claiming two cents actual damage and $199.98 exemplary damages, Wilford B. Smith, publisher of the Pitchfork, a monthly magazine published here, has filed suit against A. H. Belo & Co., publishers of the Evening Journal, alleging that as a purchaser of the paper, for which he paid two cents, he had a right to receive a report of news happenings of interest in Dallas, and that the defendants had not published any report or mention of the address of former Gov. James E. Ferguson, delivered in Dallas.

The petition alleges that plaintiff purchased a copy of the Evening Journal for two cents cash, expecting to get a report of the Ferguson speech, but on learning that the paper did not carry such report he asked for a return of his two cents, which was refused. Thereupon he was compelled to seek other news dealers and purchase a copy of another paper to get a report of the speech. He further alleges that A. H. Belo & Co., publishers of the Evening Journal, arbitrarily refused to print anything concerning the speech of Mr. Ferguson and thereby establishing a breach of contract between the publishers and purchasers of the newspaper.

James E. Ferguson, while governor was impeached and in passing sentence the senate decreed that the defendant should be disqualified from holding any office of trust, honor or profit in the state of Texas. Despite this sentence, Ferguson has announced his candidacy for governor, and is conducting a campaign. The management of the Evening Journal takes the position that he is not qualified to fill the office of governor, and therefore could not be seated if elected. On this ground they say he is in reality not running for governor and having no official standing in the race his speeches, therefore, should not be reported.

No Worms in a Healthy Child
All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50c per bottle.

HANDLING THE THRESHING PROGRAM IN STATE OF TEXAS

HOW LONE STAR STATE IS CONSERVING WHEAT AND OATS FORMERLY WASTED IN FIELDS.

Estimates place the loss of wheat in the United States in 1917 due to defective threshing methods at 20,000,000 bushels. The wheat crop of North Texas, now that the grain has been cut and threshing has begun, approximates 8,000,000 bushels. Optimists had expected a yield of 12,000,000 bushels. If there is to be any plus to the 8,000,000 bushels it will come alone through adopting the threshing program of the United States Food Administration.

The director of this department for the Federal Food Administration for Texas is R. H. Spencer, president of the South Texas Implement Company, who is a volunteer on the staff of Administrator Peden. Mr. Spencer began his work on May 10, and has organized threshing committees in 100 counties of Texas, particularly in those sections where wheat and oat crops are to be harvested.

The country units have committees of three made up of the Federal County Food Administrator, the county demonstration agent, and a thrasher man appointed by the County Council of Defense. The committees preside over all thrasher meetings, and are assisted by traveling experts furnished by the New York headquarters.

It is the duty of the field men to inspect and make reports upon threshers, and where unable to make repairs, to report at once to the manufacturer making the machine, and the manufacturer sends a special agent to put the machine into condition. A close survey of threshing problems shows that too much wheat is going out in the straw, much sifts through leaky bottoms in wagons, and much falls back into the fields to be eaten by chickens, hogs and birds, and not following Food Administration channels. Mr. Spencer gives half of his days to his special duties as a member of the State Food Administration. When he has completed his work of assisting the wheat and oats threshermen, he will turn his energy toward performing the same service for the rice farmers of the Texas coastal plains.

BY-PRODUCTS OF LIVE STOCK SUGGESTED AS REPLACEMENT FOR BEEF SHIPPED ABROAD.

The Federal Food Administration for Texas has received word from all sections of Texas that the hotel and restaurant men propose to cut down their meat service and strive to get their use of meats needed for shipment abroad within the voluntary meat ration of two pounds per person a week. The response to the suggestion by United States Administrator Hoover has been augmented by the following message to the hotel and restaurant men of Texas, which is being sent to all proprietors of public eating places by the Texas headquarters. (The message is from John McE. Bowman, director of the Division of Hotels and Restaurants):

"In view of the necessity of steady progress to much simplified hotel living, and with the growth of national demands for food conservation, labor and thrift generally, it seems to me that the time has arrived when the hotels and restaurants of the country can quite well simplify their entire cuisine by a reduction in numbers of items on menus.

"During the months of June, July and August we are a reduction of fous to secure extremely fresh beef consumption in order to maintain the allies' supply, and we must secure this without substitution of pork or poultry, of which, while we have enough for ordinary course of consumption, we are not in a position to provide for their additional use as substitutes for beef. We have supplies of by-products such as ox-tails, tongues, livers, kidneys, sweetbreads, tripe and brains, because only the meat cuts are being exported. The use of these could be employed, but more especially the use of sea food, vegetables and fruit. It would seem to me possible to eliminate on the menu steaks and roast beef, excepting two or three times weekly."

TEACHERS OF TEXAS SUMMER NORMALS TO HEAR FOOD MEN

Between 45 and 50 white and colored summer normals in Texas will be addressed during months of June and July by speakers from the Federal Food Administration for Texas. The preparation of the schedule of speakers is the task of H. L. Mills, associate director of education of the Texas Food Administration. Dr. P. W. Horn, superintendent of the Houston public schools, will address six normals in Northern Texas for the Food Administration, while Administrator Peden will speak before those normals being held the closest to Houston.

While a number of speakers will be recruited from the outside, the following members of Administrator Peden's staff will take days off from their desks to make the food talk before the State teachers: H. Wirt Steele, director of organization; Karl M. Roberts, county Food Administrator for Harris County; Judge Henry J. Dannenbaum and Judge Ireland Graves of the legal and enforcement division; Sam H. Dixon, director of agriculture and live stock; John H. Regan, director of education, and H. L. Mills, associate director of education.

Rev. E. J. Howard, chairman, and W. L. Davis, secretary of the executive board of the colored section of the Federal Food Administration for Texas, will speak before the colored normals.

The white teachers' normals are to be held this summer at Abilene, Arlington, Athens, Austin, Beaumont, Belton, Brenham, Brownwood, Brownsville, Canyon, Cisco, College Station, Comanche, Corpus Christi, Crockett, Dallas, Denton, El Paso, Georgetown, Gonzales, Greenville, Hondo, Houston, Huntsville, McKinney, Marshall, Meridian, Paris, San Antonio, San Marcos, Sherman, Stephenville, Tehuacana, Waco, Waxahachie, Weatherford and Woodville.

The colored teachers' normals will be held this summer at Austin, Beaumont, Caldwell, Crockett, Fort Worth, Houston, Kaufman, La Grange, McKinney, Marshall, Tyler, Victoria, Waco and Waelder.

BREAD MAKERS IN REMOTE CONSTRUCTION CAMPS HAVE SPECIAL BAKING PROGRAM.

In certain localities railroad companies and contractors, mining, oil, fishing and logging companies, and contracting firms operate camps to feed their employes. Those using three or more barrels of flour and meal per month in baking operations are subject to license and to the baking regulations. In most cases it is difficult for such camps to make out the baker's weekly report, or to conform to the service rules for public eating places (Rule A-7), as required by the baking regulations. In addition while waste must be prevented, it is the avowed policy of the Food Administration to see that men engaged in hard labor are allowed sufficient quantity of bread of various forms.

Administrator Peden, through his county administrators in Texas, offers these camps the option of adopting the following flour conservation plan in lieu of the present service plan (Rule A-7) and baker's weekly report system:

1. Wheat flour allowance to be six ounces per day per person. If a camp purchases its Victory Bread, deduct one-half the weight of the bread from the flour allowance, as two ounces of Victory Bread contains one ounce of wheat flour.
2. Supplies of wheat flour to be purchases of 50-50 basis.
3. All bakery products to be made in accordance with the baking regulations where practicable.
4. The observance of one entirely wheatless meal each day will assist in this conservation.
5. Stocks to be limited to thirty days' supply except where camps are distance from source of supply.
6. In order that he may check observance of this flour conservation plan, the Food Administrator will require such camps to make and deliver to local or State Administrator as directed, instead of the baker's weekly report, either weekly or monthly report of flour consumption and number of meals served as outlined in Baking 69, Reports.

NO NEW BAKERS TO SECURE LICENSES UNTIL AFTER AUGUST FIRST.

Until the end of the present critical shortage of wheat flour the Food Administration will discourage the opening of new commercial bakeries. Administrator Peden announces that those intending to enter the business of baking bread and rolls are requested not to apply for licenses until after August 1. Under the wheat distribution rules, bakers of products other than bread and rolls, who were not in business in 1917, are not permitted to purchase or use any wheat flour in the manufacture of such products until after August 1. Such bakers should not apply for license until after that date.

Jim Guitar spent the week in Abilene and other points east, looking after the interests of the company's various oil mills and gins. The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect. LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE, 30c.

PICTURE SHOW TO CLOSE.

I regret to announce to the public that next Saturday night will be the last show that I will put on—for some time at least.

Since taking over the movie business it has been my policy to give the people the best I could buy. My pictures have been clean, up-to-date, stuff, produced by the leading high-priced actors of the day, and put out by the best and well known film corporations. I have no apologies to make for any picture I have shown, knowing that they have been far above the average in towns of this size. Neither have I any apologies to make for closing the house. The only explanation necessary is to say that I have been losing money for some time, and as business does not seem to be improving, I am forced to close my doors.

I have no kick coming, for any reason. I do not blame the people for not coming. I feel sure that it was not the fault of my show or the class of pictures, but that the drouth, war and consequent scarcity of money was the sole cause.

In concluding I would not fail to thank most sincerely many of my patrons who have stood by me, through these hard times, and have been constant and liberal patrons of my place of business. I regret that I cannot continue for their sakes, but there is not enough of them to pay my expenses, and of course I cannot afford to run at a loss.

He may search for minerals or oil, but not gas—we have that. If a lady she must not wear glasses and must have good teeth. She is not to flirt with the boys. TEXAS SAVES AN ENORMOUS QUANTITY OF WHEAT FLOUR

SINCE APRIL 15, WHEN THE STATE WENT ON WHEAT-LESS BASIS, ENOUGH FLOUR SAVED TO FEED PERSHING'S ARMY IN FRANCE FOR ONE MONTH.

Since Texas went on a wheat-less basis on April 15 there has been actually saved to the government 14,895,000 pounds of flour, or sufficient to feed the entire American army of 700,000 men in France for one month, and sufficient to feed the Texas boys in the National Guard, the National army, the regular army, the navy and the marine corps for one year. The actual saving by Texas mills, and turned over to the government, amounts to 65,225 barrels, or 13,045,000 pounds. The quantity purchased from various small merchants who had small surpluses account of wheatless period aggregates 1,700,000 pounds. Flour from the mills and flour from the small merchants was diverted to Galveston and New Orleans and sent direct to the allied countries for their use and for the use of American soldiers. The 150,000 pounds of flour collected in Fort Bend County was delivered direct to Camp Logan, Houston, Texas, and used by that cantonment prior to the departure of the Illinois brigade for France.

Texas has demonstrated that every State in the Union can without hardship completely supply all of its men who are under American arms, and Administrator Peden recommends to his fellow State Administrators the slogan: "Every State should actually save enough flour to feed its soldiers and sailors now with the government."

The saving of 14,895,000 pounds of flour is sufficient to make 19,558,500 loaves of bread without substitutes; and 26,078,000 loaves with the regulated amount of substitutes.

DOGS OR BABIES? WHICH SHALL IT BE?

It costs $3.00 a month to take care of a French orphan baby. It costs $3.00 a month to give a pet dog a 10-cent saucer of ice cream every day. Every French orphan supported by an American is an added inspiration to the sorely tried French soldier who has seen his comrades die by the hundreds of thousands, and who is risking his life today that American babies may not face a future of slavery.

Every saucer of ice cream, especially when fed to a pet dog in an automobile on the public streets, is an incentive to deeds of violence. People who are denying themselves sugar, wheat and fats do not like to see dogs served with ice cream. People who know that business men are daily seeing their businesses almost closed by the government in order that sugar may be saved, can not understand why pet dogs must have ice cream. People who know that thousands of babies in Belgium and Northern France have died, and that despite all that the allied nations can do, hundreds will die for lack of milk, find it hard to preserve the Christian virtues when pampered pet dogs are lapping up ice cream made of milk and sugar, two of the most important foods necessary to win the war.

People who do not think must be made to think. Owners of pet dogs must know that they can no longer ride them around in automobiles, have able-bodied men and women nursing them, and feed them on food that is fit for human consumption. If there are people who have the heart to continue such things, they may be able to get away with it by hiding in the privacy of their homes; but public sentiment is not going to allow them to flaunt their thoughtlessness in the face of people who are attempting to measure up to the duties and responsibilities of these trying hours.

JAM AND PRESERVE MANUFACTURERS URGED TO BUY 1918 PACK. All manufacturers of jams and preserves are urged by the Food Administration to take immediate steps to obtain their entire sugar requirements for 1918 pack. Preserves and jams are regarded by the Food Administration as essential foodstuffs, and canners are performing a valuable conservation function. In the event that it is necessary to reduce still further the shipping tonnage that now brings sugar to the United States, the Food Administration is endeavoring to guard against any possible loss of the fruits that could be saved by canning. This recommendation does not affect the other manufacturers requiring sugar.

LOOK AT A CHILD'S TONGUE WHEN CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Take no Chances! Move Poison From Liver and Bowels at Once.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered. When cross feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what a's your little one— if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Ladies should get busy and register

SPECIAL SESSION COMMISSIONERS' COURT

The Commissioners Court met last Saturday in special session to consider bids on the concrete work for the State Highway No. 1 in this county. It was also decided that they could buy a rock crusher and use crushed rock on parts of the road, cheaper than they could haul gravel such a great distance. Bids for this machinery were also to be considered. The concrete bids were discussed and deferred until July 2nd.

After receiving several bids on rock crushing machinery, it was decided to buy a J. I. Case crusher through local agent H. C. Doss, to be mounted and with bin and elevator. This was referred to County Engineer Leonard and Judge Bullock and Lay Powell, were authorized to purchase as per instructions of the Engineer. July 2nd the court met again to let the contract for the road concrete work. As the bids were somewhat complicated and indefinite, they were sent back for revision, and will be taken up again in a few days.

UNION HAPPENINGS

The people of this community held a very enthusiastic and well arranged meeting at the Dorn school house last Friday evening in response to a call by our President, and the sum of over $800 was pledged for the purpose of buying War Savings Stamps. The attendance in this district was almost 100 per cent. Mrs. B. B. McGuire was quite sick last week, and acting under her physicians advice went to the sanitarium at Abilene, last Sunday for an operation. Mr. M. McGuire of the Buford community is visiting his children and friends in this section this week. He is always a welcome visitor in this section. Ye scribe had the pleasure of attending Sunday school at Union Sunday. Not a large crowd but good interest manifested. Miss Eliza Pritchett of Waco, is visiting her many relatives in this country at the present time. Mr. Bowden Pickens who has recently returned from Arizona was visiting in the home of O. R. McCreless Monday. Let me tell you about a conversation between Aunt Sallie and her neighbor, Mrs. Malinda. Aunt Sallie says, "Look here, we women folks have a hard task ahead of us." "Why so," says Mrs. M. "Well they say we've got to vote, and you know that it is expected of the women to clean up everything; and now see what a fix our men folks have got politics in. Why they have even got Jim Ferguson running for governor, and him now serving a life sentence for violating the common laws of the country. Surely they do not expect us to vote for him." Mrs. M. said very emphatically, "If they expect me to vote for him they will be mistaken." ELI

LOST ONE VOTE.

A certain local candidate was out the other night speaking in a community school house and after some time he orated about the war, bringing down star-dust about the mother's sons in the trenches and became so enthusiastic he forgot his surroundings, and unthoughtfully laid his hand on a lady voter's head and ruffled her hair. So soon as the speaker realized what he had done, and the terrible mistake he had made, he apologized, but to no avail, as the lady was very indignant and declared she would not vote for him. Guess who the candidate was.

Last week the proper authorities were here and organized a Mitchell County Council of Defense. So soon as the papers and literature are received this committee will get to work.

For five years this Maxwell motor car has remained standard in practically its present form.

That's four years longer than some of its would-be rivals have stayed in business.

And it is longer than any other comparable model has endured.

Of course we have changed body lines and other external details from time to time, for the Maxwell clientele is fastidious as well as frugal.

Maxwell buyers demand style and finish, and all those other qualities that make all the difference to the owner who would be proud of the looks as well as pleased with the performance of his car.

But mechanically the changes in all those years have been in refinements of details only.

We have never had to apologize for a single detail—never found it necessary to change any unit—in the original Maxwell.

And you know, that had there been a single weak link—one detail that was faulty in the slightest—keen competition would have forced a change of such.

When, after looking them all over, you select a Maxwell motor car for yours, you have the satisfaction of knowing that more than a quarter of a million other careful buyers endorse your judgment and your good taste.

Better decide while the present price holds—there's no telling when it may have to advance again.
