The Oil Situation In Mitchell County

The Underwriters Announced as a Producer in 105 Feet of Rich Oil Sand--Will Be Shot.

Underwriters' Refining and Producing Company's Rig Number 1.

The Underwriters' Producing and Refining Co.'s T. & P. No. 1 well, ten miles west of Colorado, is still drilling in what is reputed to be the thickest oil sand stratum in the United States, and swabbing between 35 and 40 barrels of oil daily. The well is now 2451 feet deep, with 105 feet of pay sand, besides the shallow pay found at between 260 and 440 feet. It has been generally estimated by experienced oil operators who have visited the well in the last few days that, if shot, the well will be good for between 1000 and 2000 barrels of oil daily.

Will Probably Be Shot

In an interview with one of the officials, he declared that 700 quarts of nitroglycerine had been ordered from Cisco to shoot the well immediately that the drill had penetrated the pay sand.

However, we are unable to learn definitely just what is contemplated when the drill finds its way through the wonderful oil bearing sand. Some say that they will probably continue drilling to at least 3000 feet to see if there is a heavier production further down. In case nothing better is found, the hole will be plugged back and shot at about its present depth. Others say that the well will be shot and developed as soon as the pay sand is penetrated. In fact the drillers themselves seem undecided as to just what they will do, but will, no doubt, be largely governed by the formation underlying the sand. If it looks good they may continue drilling, but if it indicates that they are "through" then the well will be developed. One peculiar fact is, that the production seems to get better as they go down.

Thickest Bearing Sand in U. S.

Oil scouts and officials of the company admit that they are bewildered at the extreme thickness of the pay sand. This sand is unusually compact and difficult to drill into. This adamant character suggests the exceptionally splendid producers in the Ranger field during the summer of 1919, which were mediocre producers before being "jarred," but which responded with phenomenal production and became the longest lived wells of that famous territory.

Shallow Test.

Jack Birmingham, the contractor, is ready to skid his small Star rig from its present location just west of the Underwriters' well, to a point immediately contiguous and proceed with the development of the shallow sand. The skidding was made necessary by reason of the first hole being too small.

History of the Well.

The Underwriters' Producing and Refining Company, drilling the Texas and Pacific No. 1, now an actual producer of wonderful potentialities, has headquarters at Tulsa, Oklahoma, and New York. The company now contemplates opening a large suit of offices in Colorado, to attend to all of their Texas interests. It has 15,000 acres under lease about the T. & P. well, the latter being situated about one and a half miles from the east boundary of their holdings.

S. S. Owen is general manager and vice-president. He is well known in oil circles in Texas. Thompson & Lewis are the contractors. L. W. Sandusky of Colorado is local attorney.

The well was spudded in February 8, 1920, and progress has been rapid despite a number of fishing jobs. The celerity of drilling attests to the sincerity of intention of the company to get the production. The hole was started with 18 inch casing. The first oil showing was between 260 and 440 feet. This sand will be developed with the Star rig just 380 feet west of big well. There was enough gas at that depth to make water in the 15 inch bore flow for seven weeks.

A 55 foot water sand was found at 350 feet. The T. & P. well went through 1100 feet of gray and blue lime and into the present producing sand at 2345 feet. The drill is still in this sand and nobody knows how much thicker it will be.

During Tuesday morning the well was bailed, making 35 barrels. The present casing is 10 inches, and more gas was developing Wednesday, with a boiling of oil at the casing head.

The well was bailed again Wednesday and the drill proceeded in the afternoon in an attempt to get through the sand.

The oil is being pumped to oil tanks and used for firing the boiler, saving the company at least $60 a day for this one item.

People Coming In.

Already Colorado is feeling the forerunning of an oil development in the constantly arriving prospectors. Nearly all the big oil companies have scouts on the field, and those who will talk say it "looks good to them."

The inevitable and irrepressible lease hound is in full cry and on a hot trail. He is doing business on the curb in fifteen minutes after getting off the train.

Considerable trading among people is carried on every day. The excitement of a doubtful production has given way to a certainty, and local people now feel assured of an oil field of no mean proportions. Of course as to the extent of the field and amount of production nothing can be determined as yet.

New Railroad.

A prominent Santa Fe railroad official was in Colorado Wednesday looking over the situation. Of course he would not give out a word but it is well known that the dead end of the Santa Fe at Sterling City will be extended north.

This has been contemplated for several years, and now, that by passing through Colorado it will also enter the heart of West Texas oil production, as well as the best agricultural county in the West, we confidently look for this improvement at an early day.

New Contracts.

That there will be a great number of new contracts within the next thirty days there can be no doubt. We have already heard three or four that have been or will be, closed by the time this appears in print. It is said that U. D. Wilfjen has a contract to develop his big ranch with a strong company, as has also R. N. and C. P. Gary. Both these holdings are south of town. P. E. McKenzie has been on a trade to develop his big ranch down in the southeast of the County. While Dr. P. C. Coleman has a large tract in the Cuthbert neighborhood, which will, no doubt, soon be developed. Of course, the Underwriters will soon start several more holes as quickly as material can be gotten on the ground.

Texas as An Oil Field

There are more than six thousand companies and individual operators actively engaged in the search for oil in Texas alone. The big boom has just started. Billions of dollars will be spent in purchasing leases, exploitation and development. The world's greatest financial interests are getting together the largest money fund ever assembled for purchase and development of oil lands and leases. The Standard Oil Company just recently financed and issue of One Hundred Million Dollars for new and extensive development. The Sinclair Company Seventy-five Million Dollars. The Texas Co. Thirty-five Million Dollars. These vast sums together with the millions of dollars of smaller companies will go to drill every available acre for the liquid treasure. And just at this time it looks as if Mitchell County was going to be right in the middle of it.

What Other Papers Say of This Well

Dallas News, June 21:

S. S. Owen, manager for the Underwriters' Oil Company, announces that the company has a pay well out of No. 1 at Westbrook about twelve miles west of Colorado. This well is 3,405 feet deep and the drill has gone through sixty feet of pay sand. It bailed thirty barrels today, and the drillers are using the oil for fuel. M. Owen said that he feels sure the well is good for 200 to 2,000 barrels when shot. The material for shooting has been ordered. People are coming in from other points of the country to investigate this field.

Pecos Times, June 28:

"Mitchell county has a pay well. The Underwriters' Producing and Refining company's T. and P. No. 1, ten miles west of Colorado is drilling at 2440 feet and is 70 feet in the pay sand. The sand is very hard and highly saturated with oil. The well will require shooting unless the sand loosens up at a greater depth. Oil operators who have seen the well are very enthusiastic. Reliable operators estimate present production at 50 barrels and predict a big producer when the well is shot. The well is under the management of Steve S. Owen, prominent Oklahoma and Texas operator.

Roscoe Times June 28:

"Word comes to Roscoe, and the report is authentic, that means it is true that the oil well at Westbrook is good for 150 barrels per day. They are 69 feet in the sand and still drilling. This well is only about 22 or 23 miles from wells being drilled near Roscoe, and this makes the prospect very much better here. If oil is found in either of the wells being drilled near Roscoe, this country will be on easy street. The McDowell well near Big Spring also has a good showing of oil, making now 100 barrels. A test of the Westbrook well was made Monday, when 30 barrels of clean oil was bailed out for fuel purposes."

Lubbock Avalanche, June 28:

"S. S. Owen, manager for the Underwriters' Oil Company, announces that the company has a pay well out of No. 1 at Westbrook, about 12 miles west of Colorado. This well is 3,405 feet deep and the drill has gone through sixty feet of pay sand. It bailed thirty barrels today, and the drillers are using the oil for fuel. Mr. Owen said that he feels sure the well is good for 200 to 2,000 barrels when shot. The material for shooting has been ordered. People are coming in from other points of the country to investigate this field.

Snyder Signal:

"A sample of the oil from the Underwriters' well at Westbrook is being sent to Snyder. People are coming in from other points of the country to investigate this field.

Shower for Bride-Elect.

The Young Peoples Missionary Society of the M. E. Church entertained with a miscellaneous shower Thursday from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. A. Lane, for Miss Rowena Hester, who was formerly a Colorado girl and was visiting here enroute to Austin where she is to marry John Worrell, June 28th. Mr. Worrell did valiant over sea service, and was badly wounded, so much so that he was months in the hospital. He is now taking government vocational training. He lived in Colorado when he enlisted for service.

The decorations were red hearts and they were in evidence in every room and in all places in the rooms, also bowls of red flowers added to the decorations. During the afternoon music was furnished by Mrs. H. P. Slagel. The numerous gifts for the honoree were given in a baseball game played between Miss Hester and Cupid. Masters John Thomas Merritt and Marvin Majors acted as Cupids. The uniforms were red and white. Miss Marion Adams was at the bat. The balls were the gifts tied with red, and the honoree was to receive only those she caught. As she was a skillful basket ball player in her school days here, it is needless to say she caught them all. Toasts were given by Mrs. Soper, to the bride; Miss Omeira Terry to the groom; Mrs. W. L. Doss to the mothers; Mrs. Barcroft the Missionary Girls, and Mrs. Merritt the friends. Frozen fruit and cake were served. Miss Hester left that night for Austin where she is to be married at the home of her cousin there.

Choose a Car That Will Meet Unexpected Demands

"Few people realize the important part steel plays in modern automobile manufacturing," says Harrell & Maddin, local dealers in Chevrolet passenger and commercial cars.

"Steel forms the backbone of each automobile as well as the mainstay of its vital parts. It enters into the construction of the frame, axles, shafts, motor and other units which are subject to the severest strains.

"Upon the quality of the steel used in these parts, important things depend. It is responsible in great measure for strength and long wearing qualities. The safety and comfort of passengers depend upon it. The medium weight design that makes the up-to-date car so economical to operate is based on the strength of the highest grade of steel.

"Steel is made from wrought iron by the use of carbon. The amount of carbon used determines its toughness, brittleness and strength.

"Other substances such as manganese, chrome, nickel and tungsten give the steel special characteristics for different uses. When these are added their properties are developed by heat treatment.

"In modern automobile factories where quantity production warrants the use of the finest equipment, every faculty is employed to insure just the right quality in the steel used.

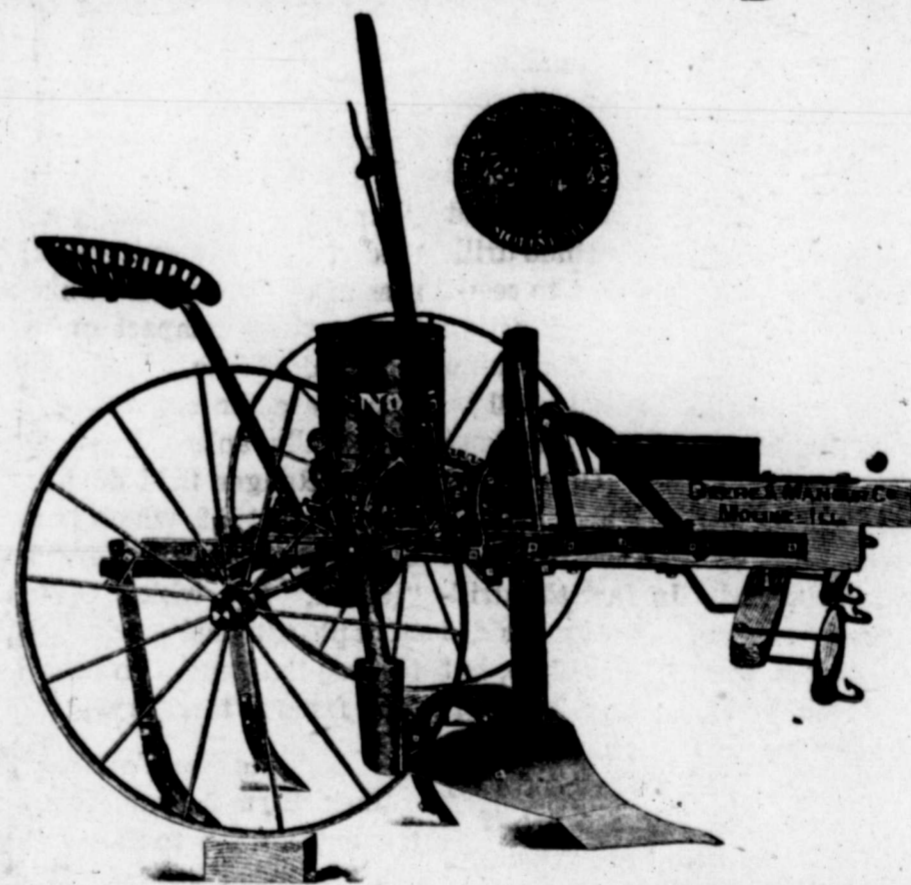

"Only the best steel obtainable is bought. Scientific ovens are used, and special laboratories are maintained where a complete staff of metallurgical and chemical experts keep constant watch over every phase of the steel's development."

John W. Lovelady, who until 20 years ago was a cattleman in Tom Green county, is in San Angelo the latter part of the week for the purpose of buying a flock of sheep. Mr. Lovelady now ranches in the Plains country, having moved there from Colorado City a number of years ago. He says range and crop conditions to the northwest are good and predicts a more prosperous year in 1920 than in 1919. SCHOOL CLOSED
On last Friday, the school at Horns Chapel, which had been successfully taught by Misses Ethel Dya and Bennie Adams, closed with a splendid program. There were songs, readings, and a talk by Judge J. C. Hall; and a play, "Southern Cinderella".

Moonlight Picnic
Miss Ewell Gary entertained with a moonlight picnic at Seven Wells Monday night, honoring her guest, Miss Jewell Furr, of Breckenridge. The party consisted of Misses Jewell Furr, Lucille Blume, Fort Worth; Ellwell Gary, and Messrs. Robert Shepherd, Cisco; Emmett Richardson and Clifford Reese, of Colorado, and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gary. The luncheon consisted of the many good things Mrs. Gary knows so well how to prepare.

Joseph W. Bailey has succeeded in getting his name on the Democratic primary ticket. A lot of trouble for nothing, we think. In fact, we never have seen any use in refusing to put his name on the ticket, the good year 1920 is as good a time as we will ever have to give J. W. B. a seat so far back that he will never have the nerve to try to reach the front again. "So mote it be."

When you hear of an oil man offering to bet $20,000 on a proposition in the oil field, put it down as a fake—no one in this town with any judgment would bet $20,000 on a sure thing.

J. C. Wells, Agricultural representative, and Hamilton Wright, Publicity man of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, spent several days in Colorado this week, getting data on oil fields, and a Dallas Fair exhibit for Mitchell County.

THE NEW OIL FIELDS AND SWEETWATER

The promised oil fields of Colorado, Mitchell County, and Big Spring, Howard County, place Sweetwater in the same relative position Wichita Falls is to the Burkburnett field.

If fate decrees that the two virgin fields shall take their places in the great oil producing areas of the State, then the same fate must accord to Sweetwater its rightful tributes, a refining center, a great distributing point for things needed in an oil field; this city must furnish food and shelter for the big oil operators, give them transportation to other points in the State, besides becoming the hub of the activity usually following the establishment of oil fields.

Without a doubt paying oil sand has been found both at Big Spring and Colorado. Every tumbler of the big drill brings Sweetwater nearer to fame and fortune, say the men who know; men who have followed the oil game from the hills of Pennsylvania, to the shores of the Pacific.

A prominent oil man stated yesterday that Sweetwater property should become the most valuable investment when the territory in Howard and Mitchell counties is proven out as paying.

This is good news. That there is oil in Nolan County is not doubted by experts, but fate has given to its neighbors the first discoveries. This means wealth and commercial supremacy indirectly, anyway. We should be satisfied.

Nothing is so ridiculous as self-conceit, whether it be in an individual or in a community. The megalomania of our sister city, Sweetwater, as evidenced by the editorial of her spokesman, the Sweetwater Reporter, in referring to the discovery of oil in Mitchell and Howard counties is an instance of what we have in mind.

The newspaper fraternity will register a unanimous vote of sympathy for Editor Fred B. Whipkey of the Colorado Record, in the loss of one of his eyes.—Snyder Signal.

The Beacon regrets to learn of the misfortune that befell our friend, Fred Whipkey, editor of the Colorado Record, in the loss of an eye. The Record states that Fred was working around his home, presumably driving nails, when a steel particle hit him in the eye, causing the loss of the member. Fred will make better headway in the newspaper with one eye than lots of us with two perfectly good eyes. We do not know whether he will be able to catch as many fish as he used to.—Lockney Beacon.

We have received quite a number of letters of condolence and sympathy from friends over the State; Waco, Austin, West, Dallas and other points all of which we hereby acknowledge with thanks.

The bad eye is sightless, but is now healing slowly, and the other eye is gaining back former strength. Just as soon as we can see our cork, we'll be off to the Concho and stay with our friend Frank Van Horn at Christoval.

The Snyder Signal, quoting the El Paso Herald, tells of a carload of eggs bought in Plainview and sold in El Paso. The Signal says: "It traced the eggs from the Panhandle Produce Company in Plainview, who bought the eggs at 20c a dozen from the producers, sold them to Armour & Company for 25c a dozen, who shipped them to El Paso at a cost of 1 1-2c a dozen freight charges, and sold them to the retailers in that city at a fraction above 42c the retailers selling them to the consumers at 50c a dozen two and a half times more than the original cost. In a carload of 500 cases this would give the growers $2,400 for the 12,000 dozen eggs; the local produce house got $3,000, a profit of $600; Armour got $5,064, less freight of $260, a profit of $2,800, and the retailer got $6,000 a profit of $936—the consumer paying $6,000 for what the producer sold for $2,400.

The Record is reliably informed that a contract to sink two wells has been duly signed and closed. The contract calls for 4000 feet, and work is now in progress on one of the well.

The Record man overheard one of the bunch on the Bank corner as he sayin': "The gumment ain't run ter suit me; the young generation is plum worthless; times ain't what they wuz; high falutin' aires on every corner; prices outer sight—dog-gone it, the day has went when a able bodied man could lay up 'er cent—even the weather has done went to the bad.

THE EDITOR'S BAD EYE

Fred B. Whipkey, editor of the Colorado Record, had the misfortune of losing the sight of his right eye recently, by a sliver of steel entering it while working on a fence at his home. While the Record has a trying time to get help to keep up with its prosperous business, this misfortune will not deter its optimistic editor, with the assistance of his brother, Abe, from continuing to give its readers one of the newsiest and best papers in Texas.—Christoval Observer.

The newspaper fraternity will register a unanimous vote of sympathy for Editor Fred B. Whipkey of the Colorado Record, in the loss of one of his eyes.—Snyder Signal.

Messrs C. H. Ledger, W. O. Hill, Dan G. Wilson, Archie C. Price, all of Moody, Texas, and heavy land-owners near Westbrook, are here to see about their oil interests. Mr. Ledger, who lived at Desdemona, says the Underwriters' well is a better showing well than was Duke No. 1 at its first showing.

CARD OF THANKS

Words fail to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends and neighbors who so tenderly ministered unto us in the death of our beloved mother. On the whole, the crop prospects of West Texas this year are better than last year. Cotton was never prettier and feedstuff is all that could be desired. With half a chance from now until crops are gathered, the farmers will reap a rich harvest. There are plenty of idle men and boys to be seen in the towns, but on the farms everybody is busy. Women may be seen hoeing, operating cultivators and doing other farm work. The farmer needs their help to save the crop. There is no excuse for idleness now of all times.

The farmer feeds the World—Civilization begins and ends with the plow.

OIL SITUATION

ing shown here this week. It is estimated now at fifty barrels and the drillers think when it is shot it will make a strong producer."

Fort Worth Star Telegram: The Mitchell County test of the Underwriters' Producing and Refining Company has a well-defined oil sand at 2,420 feet, ten miles north of Colorado, and looks like a producer."

OTHER NEARBY WELLS

The McDowell well No. 1, of the General Oil Co., 25 miles south of Big Spring, is conservatively reported good for 200 barrels, though frequently set as high as 1000 barrels. A thorough test of the production will be made Thursday according to officials of the company. Casing was being set in the well Wednesday. These officials declared that contracts had been let for ten additional rigs within a half mile radius of the McDowell No. 1. The McDowell No. 1 will not be shot according to officials, but the oil will be used to fire the boilers of the ten new deep tests that the General Oil Company will put down.

The General Oil Company announces a barbecue and celebration for August 6 and 7th in Big Spring, and will feed 10,000 people. They will give an outing to all their employees at Houston, operating a special train from Houston. One of the special features will be the shooting of the McDowell No. 2. Hundreds of out-of-the-state oil operators and capitalists will be guests of the company. Their No. 2 is just over the Mitchell County line.

The Iatan well of the Consolidated Oil and Gas Company, of Colorado, is drilling at 800 feet on their second hole. The work is being pushed day and night and reports from the log show splendid indications. This Company confidently expects to strike even a better production than the Underwriters at Westbrook.

The well at Dunn, twelve miles north of Colorado, has shut down at 720 feet and is under-reaming to case off a flow of salt water. These people have had lots of difficulties but say their prospects are too good to be abandoned.

The Travellers' Oil Company, who are putting down a deep test about 15 miles southeast of town, are now drilling at 400 feet to 500 feet. Supt. R. W. Dyer, who has had charge of the work at this place, has resigned his position and General Manager W. B. Alexander, of Nevada now has charge and is making things hum. This company has a splendid standard rig and are prepared to go 4000 feet. They have been having some trouble, but are now running double shifts and are going down rapidly.

WHAT WE HAVE DONE

The above refers to our own E. K. Progressive Mutual Insurance, right here at home in Scurry County; Yes! in Snyder, Texas. We are well on our way towards 2 years old, started under difficulties, droughts and financial stress, yet we have weathered the storms, hard times, adverse conditions and knockings. For we have had them all, and do you know knockers and fault-finders are essentials in any business enterprise, for they make those interested more determined to press on to the goal.

So with all these things to combat, we have reached the number of 1200 members who are the best brain and brawn of the territory included in the 50 mile radius, and you who have let your policies lapse are doing yourselves and your dependants a greater injury than anyone else. While we regret to see anyone lapse, yet it is a fact that it is safe, sound and solid citizens that remain inside and go on to success.

Our policies are now worth $1000. Remember this, for presently we will refer to it again. What have we done that makes us proud of our Insurance? Let us see:

First Death Feb 16, 1920,
Chas. Howard—wife rec'd $ 600.00
Second Death, Mrs.
Boatman, husband rec'd 946.00
Third Death, C. B.
Walcott, wife rec'd 1000.00

Paid out for deaths $2546.00

There were four accidents as follows:

T. H. Bills Foch, Texas $ 60.00
Mrs. L. L. Vinson, Sweetwater, 70.00
R. L. Terry, Snyder 71.40

Total 201.60

Grand Total, 2747.60

You say this is not much. We answer you and say it has helped someone on the way, and you had no fellow ship in it, if you had these policies would have been greater. But we are growing and are not growing weary in well doing.

Our policies are $1000.00 and that insurance in eighteen months has cost me, three deaths $300; three accidents, 30c, total $3.30; Annual dues $2.00, making $5.00 for $1000.00 insurance for one year and a half, of 29 1-2c per month for $1000.00. Think of it! Who can compete with this? Echo says no one. Hurrah for us; let us push on to the 200 goal regardless of kickers, knockers, or whatnotters. We can do it, and we must. How? Each one bring one—that's the way.

One of the oldest members.

OBITUARY

Mrs. I. R. Wallis Dead

On Monday morning, June 21, 1920, the writer of this article received a long distance message calling him to Loraine to conduct the funeral service over the remains of Mrs. Annie (nee Mitchell) Wallis, whose immortal spirit had suddenly taken its leave of the tenement of clay on Sunday afternoon while she was visiting friends there.

Mr. Wallis was born in Tenn., Feb. 8, 1848, hence had lived to the ripe age of 72 years and 4 months, and was apparently in good health to the last hour. When a girl 11 years old, the family moved to Miss. On Oct. 6, 1876, Miss Annie Mitchell was married to Mr. I. R. Wallis, who preceded his good wife to the Beulah Land by several years. This family came to Texas in 1896 and settled in Mitchell County, making a farm home between Loraine and Roscoe. Five noble sons and an accomplished daughter, now Mrs. Hunt, survive their very worthy parents.

The service was held in the Loraine Methodist Church and was attended by many friends. The casket was beautifully adorned with lovely flowers expressive of sympathy and love, and at the same time fittingly symbolizing the beautiful character of the deceased.

Rev. Guy B. Duff of Colorado, read portions of the 15th chapter of 1st Corinthians and 1st Thes. 4: 13-18, and offered prayer. The sermon, in part, follows:

"My friends, we have assembled this afternoon to pay our tribute of respect to one of the finest christain characters I have ever known. I do not speak without personal knowledge of the manner of life as lived by the subject of this occasion. I have known the Wallis family intimately for many years. I have repeatedly enjoyed the hospitality of their home. We have discussed to gether the larger affairs of the church. We have worshipped to gether at the family altar and in the church. We have worked together in revival meetings. I have heard the testimonies; I have been moved and inspired by her prayers—always full of faith and most reverent. I have known the manner of life back of all this, furthermore, I have observed with much interest the conduct of the young people in that home. If anybody knows a mother the child knows her. It is enough to say here that six young people had the greatest confidence in, and the most profound respect for their mother. These children have truly been brought up "in the nature and admonition of the Lord," as their lives now attest.

"While sister Wallis was a real home-maker, a veritable queen of the home, she was also a most excellent neighbor. Her great heart went out in unalloyed friendship and love to all the neighbors. She seemed to love everybody, and everybody seemed to love her. Love begets love. As a christain and a church member she was one, yes, the most consistent, faithful and devout I ever knew. She united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Tenn. (the native state of that church) when about 8 years old. She entered school at the age of 5, with a church paper her first text book. She has been a reader of church papers ever since. It is rather a singular coincidence that she was reading her church paper at the hour the death angel called for her immortal spirit. Thus she had known the life work of her church for more than three score years. She has always been active in church work—a fine example for the rest of us. She was an important factor in the first S. S. organized in Loraine. As an example of her abiding interest in the cause of religion it should be stated that, as there is a revival meeting in progress in Sweetwater (her home town) she was praying daily, at a set time, for the success of that meeting. Truly, as aptly expressed by one who knew her well, 'she was the finest example of an active, consistent christian life I have ever known.' There are plenty of people who are ever ready to criticize the church, even the Bible. But here, my friends, is one who took the Bible as the man of her council and her way-bill through life.

"My sorrowing friends, your loss is, indeed, great; nevertheless you have a wonderful heritage. 'Being dead, yet she speaketh.' She has led many into the Kingdom of our blessed Lord and King. As every one is to be rewarded according to their works, it is certain that this woman's reward will be a very liberal one. You will follow this casket to the grave today, but remember friends, it only contains that which is mortal. The immortal spirit, the real person who, until yesterday, dwelt in this tenement of clay, is now in Paradise in the presence of the Father, the Son, the Angels and a mighty spiritual host of the redeemed of earth, worshipping perhaps, after the manner described in Rev. 19:6-8. This body, the house in which your mother lived 72 years, is of the earth; it is perishable. We have, however, the assurance, the most positive assurance of Resurrection of the body yet it will be divested of its present perishable nature. In 1st Cor. 15: '42-44; we read: 'So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and a spiritual body.' The 37th verse also reflects considerable light on this point: 'And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat or of some other grain. Then again (verses 50, 53, 55) 'Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.' For this corruption must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 'O death! where is thy sting? O grave! where is thy victory?'

"This resurrected body is to be fashioned like Christ's glorious (resurrected) body and be assigned her home, an eternal home, where life will be perpetual youth in perfection, enjoying purity, peace, service and boundless love in that spacious city, New Jerusalem, described in Rev. 21 to 22:4, 1500 miles in length, breadth and height—a perfect cube. Then, as if this were not enough, the Savior (in John 14:1-3) assures us that our home in this glorious city is being prepared. Not a cottage, but a mansion prepared by the supreme Architect of the Universe.

"My friends, with such a prospect we can well afford to bravely meet all the hardships and make whatever sacrifice the Lord would have us make during the few years we sojourn in this life."

News comes from Mrs. T. J. Newton that Miss Myrtle stood her operation nicely at Temple, and all her friends are hoping for her speedy recovery.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness. . . . and the doctor was very much puzzled. I told me I had a very interesting case, why not Cardui? . . . I did, and soon saw it was helping me. . . . After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health. Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.
