

HISTORY OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

JAMES M. COX NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENT. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT OF OHIO FOR VICE PRESIDENT

FORTY SIX BALLOTS TAKEN—PALMER'S VOTES WERE RELEASED TO COX WHICH BEAT M'ADOO.

San Francisco, July 4.—Indications this evening are that the Democratic Convention has at bottom resolved itself into a contest between the dry and the wet forces among the delegates.

Each side has a solidified balloting sufficient to prevent a nomination by the necessary two-thirds vote. Each side appears bent on exercising that that vote. Neither side has votes sufficient to effect a nomination. Hence the deadlock appears likely to continue until some man fortunate enough to have the confidence on which both sides is shoved into the convention area as a compromise candidate. Such a man is not in sight at present writing.

The Cox strength is really the wet strength of the convention. The dry also have at least 400 dependable votes. In the background is the contest between the administration forces and the antis. It is growing more bitter every hour.

JAMES M. COX

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT

San Francisco, July 4.—The old guard in the Democratic party fought a mighty battle Saturday with the newcomers—the Wilson forces. The same group that fought Woodrow Wilson at Baltimore, and advanced the candidacy of Champ Clark, ranged itself behind Governor Cox and against both Palmer and McAdoo, and made the choice of either seem impossible. Fearing a defeat for Wilsonism, the supporters of the President forced an adjournment till later in the evening in the hope that Palmer and McAdoo would come to an agreement on the son-in-law of the President or else go to a dark horse.

Talk of John W. Davis of West Virginia was everywhere heard on the convention floor, particularly after Tennessee had broken from Cox and McAdoo on the ballot just before adjournment, throwing its entire twenty-four votes to Davis.

The line-up seemed to be wets against dries for although the platform adopted omits the prohibition question the friendship of Governor Cox for the moist side of argument was counted splendid vote-getting device for the state tickets in New York, Indiana and Illinois. But the West held tightly to McAdoo, Kansas, Washington, Wyoming, Utah, Oregon, Arkansas, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri and California were pillars of strength in the McAdoo procession of votes. Practically the same states as helped Wilson defeat Hughes in 1916 stood by McAdoo against the onslaughts of Eastern Democracy, while the Southern states that helped Wilson in Baltimore in 1912—South Carolina, Texas, North Carolina held tightly for McAdoo.

Should Davis prove unacceptable to them, the choice of either Homer Cummings of Bainbridge Colby will be considered. Both men have wet leanings and would be acceptable to the forces which went to Cox on the early balloting.

Bryan attacked Cummings because the latter appeared at a dinner with Governor Edwards of New Jersey. And Colby is known to have decidedly wet inclinations and is thoroughly acceptable, not merely to Tammany, in his own state, but to Hearst, whose general counsel he once was, and to President Wilson whose Secretary of State he now is, and to the many progressives because he nominated Roosevelt in 1916, at the Bull Moose convention.

AUDITORIUM, San Francisco, July 4.—Deadlocked, the Democratic convention at 11:41 o'clock Saturday night adjourned until 10 a. m. Monday after taking 22 ballots without giving the two-thirds majority necessary to nominate. Twenty ballots were taken. When adjournment was taken, Cox was leading, with McAdoo second and Palmer third.

Cox reached his high water mark on the nineteenth ballot and thereafter showed losses. McAdoo made fluctuating gains, the principal one being when Georgia went over solidly to him on one ballot, but shifted back to Palmer on the next. Some of the keenest political skirmishing ever exhibited in a National convention was resorted to during the day's balloting. The rush of Governor Cox of Ohio in the early balloting Saturday resulted in the formation of a coalition between the Palmer and McAdoo forces to prevent Cox from carrying the nomination away on his shoulders. When the Cox offensive was at its height the obtained an agreement to recess until evening and utilized the time thus gained to make further plans for the night. A positive agreement was made to maintain the defensive alliance against Cox until late Saturday night and then force an adjournment until Monday. The coalition leaders believe that the backbone of the Ohio governors rush has been broken and that Monday will see a decline in his strength.

The night session was noisy and spectacular with demonstrations when the turn upward came for McAdoo, his supporters going crazy with frenzy, and threw the big auditorium into a turmoil of confusion. At another stage of the evening's doings practically every camp became obsessed with the demonstration idea at the same time with the result that the spectators were treated to one of the greatest spectacular shows staged in its national conventions in many years.

WOODROW WILSON

There was little difference between the seventeenth and eighteenth ballots. Tennessee, which threw twenty-four votes to Davis on previous ballots, gave him ten this time and distributed the rest, giving Cox eleven. Cox increased his total from 442 on the sixteenth ballot to 458 on the eighteenth. McAdoo's total was 330, as compared with 332 on the sixteenth, and Palmer had 174½, as compared with 176 two ballots previously.

Charles Murphy and Tom Taggart are understood to have told Edward Moore, Cox's manager, that they will not be able to stay with Cox much longer unless the Cox cohorts are able to put their candidate over on an earlier ballot. It was reported Taggart and Murphy would, however, stay with Cox at least one more ballot.

Texas Starts Melee

The first McAdoo picture, mounted on the Texas State standard, was rushed into the melee escorted by the "McAdoomen" with a blue banner bearing the slogan "we are loyal," meanwhile the Cox band, in red uniforms, paraded around the galleries, its music mingling discordantly with that of the official convention band, which was furiously playing "Yankee Doodle," it was one of the most turbulent scenes since the convention opened. The great pipe organ joined in. The din was deafening and the demonstration continued with unabated fervor.

AUDITORIUM, San Francisco, July 5.—On the thirteenth ballot McAdoo passed Cox, and once more took the lead.

When Indiana gave twenty-nine votes for McAdoo on the twenty-ninth ballot at 1:04 p. m., the convention went wild. Indiana had been going Cox nineteen, McAdoo eleven.

A parade around the aisles was started, led by Arizona. Following were New Mexico, Oregon, Texas, California, North Carolina, New Hampshire, Minnesota, Missouri, Idaho, Kansas, Wyoming, Indiana, Michigan, Montana, Delaware, Wisconsin, Vermont.

It was Miss Clara Yerborough of Columbia, S. C., who started the McAdoo rally by jumping up with a shrill cry and grabbing the state marker.

One of the New York delegates attempted to grab the standard of that State and enter the McAdoo parade. Thirty Tammanyites jumped to the rescue and the marker was not moved, but the sign was knocked off the pole.

The demonstration subsided at 1:12. Harrison of Mississippi moved the rules of the convention be suspended and that the candidate receiving the lowest vote be dropped until there is a nomination.

Spellacy of Connecticut argued that delegates have a right to vote for their choice and protested against the Harrison motion.

The chair ruled that a two-thirds vote would be required to pass the Harrison motion.

Spellacy asked for a roll call. Francis Heney asked if the motion is good if only two candidates were left. The chair refused to interpret the rule but expressed the opinion that under the two-thirds rule it would not apply in the case of only two candidates.

Other candidates protested against the Harrison motion, claiming that the delegates have the right to vote as they please without dictation.

Ramsay of Montana moved that the motion be laid on the table. The chair overruled Ramsay's motion. The motion to suspend the rules was lost.

Owen Men Faithful

The Oklahoma delegation of 20, and the West Virginia delegation of 16, were expected to stand by Owen and Davis because of the "dark horse" possibilities of their favorite son.

William J. Bryan let it be known that Owen is his favorite as a compromise candidate.

"Dark horse" talk was again revived. The names of Ambassador John W. Davis, Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby, National Chairman Homer Cummings, Vice-President Marshall, Champ Clark, Senator Owen, and Senator Carter Glass figured prominently.

But all such conversation was secondary in the debate over the three leading candidates. Political leaders observed that Cox McAdoo and Palmer would have to be definitely eliminated before a dark horse could even be considered.

Bosses With Cox

The Cox people based their hopes on the fact their man led consistently from the twelfth ballot and that they had practically all the "bosses" on their side. E. H. Moore, Cox Manager, displayed his confidence by betting $500 to $1000 that his candidate would be nominated by the 25th ballot. Thomas J. C. Spellacy, Palmer supporter, took the long end.

McAdoo leaders spent yesterday and last night exhorting the "faithful" to stand by their guns and promising large accessions to their ranks from unrevealed and unexpected sources. Plans were made for spectacular demonstrations for McAdoo during today's session.

W. G. McADOO

San Francisco July 5.—A third party was predicted today by Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma, a candidate for the Democratic nomination. Unless the San Francisco convention can get together, he said, on a genuine progressive platform, its candidates' chances of winning next November would be materially lessened through a new party coming into the field and causing deflections, he said.

San Francisco, July 5.—The 36th ballot as officially announced as follows:

McAdoo 399, Cox 377, Palmer 241, Davis 28, Cummings 3, Owen 36, Glass 4, Clark 2.

The democratic national convention took fourteen ballots on its first session today and failing to find a nominee took a recess at 4:58 o'clock until 8:30 o'clock this evening.

San Francisco, July 5.—(Noon) —Before many ballots are taken Monday afternoon it should become apparent if William Gibbs McAdoo can receive the nomination for President. Senator Carter Glass has released his delegation, and it may be that Senator Robert L. Owen will release his. Tennessee and Georgia together with Iowa, are expected to break to McAdoo. Then Palmer is to receive a rush, giving him a final chance to win. After that the McAdoo tally will be told.

The chances for McAdoo improved during Sunday and Monday night, but he has not approached anything like the certainty stage. The chief hope of McAdoo lies in the fact that he has here a "battalion of death" and a bunch of "last ditchers" who won't talk compromise with anybody and who declare they will remain in San Francisco until November elections before they will give an inch.

Hold Veto Power

There is more than enough to veto anything that the anti-McAdoo men may start and they hope to eventually wear down the majority. It is a clear minority undertaking to enforce their will upon the majority of the convention—aminority actuated by what they consider a high sense of duty, and it is upon this that the McAdoo hope is probably founded.

The majority doesn't want McAdoo, but doesn't know what it wants; the minority knows that it wants McAdoo, and wants no one else.

The McAdoo delegates are mostly survivors of the Baltimore Convention and they were successful in these

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN OIL FIELD

Three Deep Tests in County, all Drilling. The Underwriters Increasing Production

The oil situation in Mitchell county has not changed much from our reports of last week.

The Underwriters' are still drilling but are going very slowly and carefully. Every foot is closely examined, and while the stratum has changed to some extent, the drill is still in the producing sand, and many claim the new formation is indicative of still greater flow of oil. They still continue to bail an abundance for fuel and if there is any material change in the production it is for the better.

The manager says they will keep going as long as they are in the oil, even should it lead them to China, and there is no telling how much further they will go before shooting the well.

It is confidently expected that next week will develop something exciting, either with a greater production or with the announcement that they have reached the bottom of the producing sand, after which it will be decided whether to go on for a deeper test or develop what they are now certain they have.

The shallow test near the mother well is drilling right along and is almost down to the point where the first showing appeared in the deep test. This shallow test is being drilled by Jack Birmingham with a Star and he is now on his second hole. The Iatan well (Consolidated Oil & Gas Co. No. 1.) is now going right along, having gotten over several difficulties, and claim to have fine indications of oil.

The Travellers, southwest of town (Landers Ranch) is now going steadily down under the management of Gen. Mgr. Alexander.

We understand that several rigs are enroute for the purpose of offsetting the Underwriters', and new locations will be made near their present well just as soon as the material can be gotten together.

Four new drilling contracts, all of them south and southeast of the Underwriters, have been made and material has been shipped. These derricks will go up and the wells spudded in, as quickly as possible to get the machinery on the ground. They are all to be of the "deep test" variety.

It is being generally talked among our business men and financiers, and in fact the preliminary steps taken, looking to the organization of a company to put in a pipeline and refinery at Colorado to take care of at least a part of Mitchell county's production.

Already several big institutions are promised for our town when "sho breaks just right."

Baptist Meeting

The Series of Meetings Conducted by Baptists Increase in Interest

The revival meeting now in progress conducted by the Baptists at the tabernacle, is increasing in interest at every service. Dr. Forest Smith of the Broadway Church of Fort Worth, is doing the preaching. Dr. Smith is a plain, earnest Gospel preacher, with a plain Gospel message. He has brought such messages as "And When They Had Prayed," telling of the marvelous things that the early Christians had accomplished through prayer.

On Tuesday evening he told of the evidences of true conversion. Wednesday morning he told of God's willingness to bless his people if they would meet his demands, using as a text, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will heal their land."

Every singer and worker is cordially invited to have a part in this meeting. One of the features of the meeting that has been stressed, is daily Bible reading. A report has been given of the last two days readings and it was found that 238 chapters had been read, 66 on the first day, and 172 on the second.

Died

Mrs. J. M. Young died at her home near Westbrook, Saturday night and was laid to rest in the I.O.O.F. cemetery Sunday evening. Mrs. Young was formerly Miss Hazel Roney. She was married to Mr. J. M. Young a little over a year ago. She leaves a husband, father, mother, other relatives and a little month-old baby who will never know a mother's love.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Garrett of Big Spring, under the ministry Mrs. Young was converted, baptized and married. Hearts of friends and neighbors beat in sympathy for those who sorrow on account of the home-going of this devoted daughter and wife.

Outing at H. S. Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Doss and Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Gary took a party of young people for an outing at the H. S. Ranch Monday evening, honoring their guests, Miss Elsie Crech of Longview, Miss Jewell Furr of Breckenridge, and Mr. John Gray of Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. John Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones were also members of the party. A most enjoyable time was reported.

Birthday Party

Little Miss Bessie Phillips celebrated her tenth birthday, June the thirteenth, by having a group of her little friends come play with her. Besides games dear to the hearts of little folks, they had kodak pictures made of them. After admiring the birthday cake, with its ten lighted candles, it was served with ice cream.

Summer Complaint in Children

There is nothing like so many deaths from this disease now as before Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy came into such general use. When this remedy is given with castor oil as directed and proper care is taken as to diet, it is safe to say that fully ninety-nine out of every hundred cases recover. Mr. W. G. Campbell of Butler, Tenn., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for summer complaint in children. It is far ahead of anything I have ever used for this purpose."

A letter from E. G. Drake down on Lorraine Route A, says: "I enclose $1.50 for the Record. Last year I was rig building in the Burk Burnett field and now I am rig building in old Mitchell county. I built the Landers rig, and hope to see the rigs as thick here as they were at Burk Burnett. I am going to skid the Landers rig tomorrow. They have a bad hole."

Dodson Broyles, the stand-by printer on the Record force, spent the 4th of July with home folks at Paint Rock returning to Colorado on Wednesday. Dodson ate goat meat and drank Concho water, talked to the girls and otherwise had a good time.

Made for three things

Looks—Protection—Lastingness

You can't tell by looking into a can of paint, how it's going to look when the painting is done. Neither can you tell whether it will protect your building the way you want it protected. And surely you can't tell whether it will have lastingness. There is only one way to tell about any of the three: and that way is by a paint's reputation. Lowe Brothers have a reputation for making paints of the highest quality. They have enjoyed this reputation during the past half century. We recommend this paint because it lasts longer and costs less in the long run. Use it once, you'll use it always. Come in and ask for color card and booklet.

Bailey can't run for governor on account of running back and forth from Washington to Texas.

Not long since one could see in the hotels this sign, "Have You Left Anything?" Well, these signs have been changed and now read, "HAVE YOU ANYTHING LEFT?"

You can tell the world there are many fine crops in old Mitchell county. Prosperity has chased gloom out of West Texas. We have been and seen with our own eyes.

The farmer sets a splendid example to the world, according to the Abilene Reporter, which says: "The farmer has been told he is the salt of the earth so many times that he regards it as a species of harmless flattery, but anybody who doubts his right to that appellation could find assurance in a short journey through the country. He would see the farmer at work, early and late, about the business of feeding and clothing the world. Not only is the farmer himself hitting the ball, but every member of the family is likewise on the job. When the farmer quits work, then the rest of us might as well get ready to draw the mantle of our couches about us and lie down to eternal dreams.

Someone has said the Republican platform is like a French evening gown—it touches everything and covers nothing. We suggest it is more like a "mother Hubbard"—It covers everything and touches nothing.

Never in the history of this county were crop conditions as near perfect as at present. While crops are from two to three weeks late they are making rapid growth due to the ideal weather conditions that prevail, and the outlook for a big crop is fine. The fear of destructive hail storms is past; the appearance of boll worms is the only disturbing element at present. The inability to secure farm labor hampered the work of getting the crops cleared out and cultivated, but to make up for this the farmer worked overtime to catch up. The ideal conditions now maintaining for agricultural lines, also hold true as to stock-raising and the ranchmen state that pastures are in the finest possible shape and cattle fat. Prospective home-seekers visiting Mitchell county this year will surely fall in love with this section, and we expect many visitors this fall.

LOPPED OFF SOME

True to the instinct of the regulation legislator, the Texas body lopped off one million dollars from the amount asked and appropriated four million dollars for the relief of the teachers of the State. This amount will provide a fund which is to be used to increase the salaries of teachers employed and while it will not be enough to raise them twenty-five per cent (as was asked), it will be something and may help the school boards to hold the teachers they have and perhaps secure the additional force necessary to meet the demands of the growing number of scholars. Everybody knows that living costs have advanced more than 25 per cent but the legislature seems to think that teachers are such expert financiers that they are able to live on less than anyone else. Teachers and preachers have always been placed in a class by themselves in the public mind. They are required to expend more money and time in the preparation for their work than most other workers, must always appear well and possess characters above reproach, yet they have had to be content with the least compensation for their services and at the same time stand for all kinds of unjust and unreasonable fault-finding and criticism.

There are too many better paying jobs open to the young men and women of the country now, for the teachers to continue to teach unless there is a very material increase in salaries, and as it is a notorious fact that they have always been underpaid it looks like poor economy on the part of the legislature to cut down this appropriation.

Another difficulty that confronts the teacher, nowadays, is finding a boarding house. Few of them would care to live at a hotel even if their salaries would permit of such extravagance—which they decidedly do not—and private homes where boarders will be aken have almost arrived at the vanishing point. This is regrettable and housekeepers are very generally being censured for this attitude. However, they should not be blamed too severely. The help problem deters many since it is almost impossible to get competent servants and such high wages are demanded that many women feel that they cannot afford to pay them. Far that reason, the average home owner is almost universally building smaller homes which may be cared for without hiring outside labor and there is no room for lodgers.

Austin Texas, July 8, 1920—The honor list of the University for the Spring term has just been compiled. In computing the score of the students an A is counted as 12, a B as 9, a C as 6, a D as 3. The best one per cent of upper classmen made scores of 64 up; the best one percent of freshmen made scores of 63 up. The remaining groups made scores lower than these, but above 45 in the case of the freshmen, and 48 in the case of upper classmen.

Students from Colorado on the honor list for the Spring term is John Worrell.

Loss of Appetite
As a general rule there is nothing serious about a loss of appetite, and if you skip a meal or only eat two meals a day for a few days you will soon have a relish for your meals when meal time comes. Bear in mind that at least five hours should always elapse between meals so as to give the food ample time to digest and the stomach a period of rest before a second meal is taken. Then if you eat no more than you crave and take a reasonable amount of outdoor exercise every day you will not need to worry about your appetite. When the loss of appetite is caused by constipation, as is often the case, that should be corrected at once. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will do it.

SIX MONTHS' RAIN OVER NINE INCHES

Record For Half-Year, However, is 1.93 Inches Below That for Same Period in 1919

PROSPERITY NOW WIDE-SPREAD

With prosperity smiling upon West Texas as never before in a decade, at least, a review of the part which Jupiter Pluvius is playing is of much interest.

Official rain records kept by Mr. Keathley, local observer, show that during the first six months of 1920, or up through June, 15.46 inches of moisture were recorded in Colorado. With the single exception of 1919, this is the heaviest rainfall for the first six months in any year since 1905 when 13.89 inches of rain fell between January 1 and July 1. The next high mark for the first half of any year is found in 1914 when 14.47 inches fell.

Rainfall records during 1919 smashed all previous marks back to 1904. During the first half of 1919 17.39 inches of rain fell, followed by 18.89 inches during the next six months, making a grand total of 36.28 inches.

June 1919 Had 6.81 Inches
The precipitation for 1920 by months compared with the full period last year, follows:

	1920	1919
January	2.11	1.19
February	.49	.24
March	.16	4.48
April	.00	2.48
May	7.04	2.19
June	5.66	6.81
Total	15.46	17.39

Difference, 1.93 inches—Although not as much rain fell in West Texas during the first six months of the year as during the same period in 1919, West Texas has fared as well as it did twelve months ago. The reason for this is to be found in the fact that when 1920 opened, fifteen months of almost continual rains, amounting to 41.31 inches, had fallen, completely breaking the three years' drought and thoroughly soaking the soil. Only sufficient rains to maintain the splendid season were needed and these came at splendid intervals.

It is true that following 2.11 inches in January, this year, only .49 of an inch fell in February, only .16 of an inch in March and none in April. But the country did not suffer materially from this short drought. The planting of crops did begin at a time when little rain had fallen for over sixty days, but 7.04 inches of rain in May, followed by 5.66 inches in June caused the seeds to sprout rapidly and spring up.

BUMPER CROPS ASSURED

Farmers now look forward to bumper crops again in 1920, equal probably to those produced in 1919. Grass and weeds are plentiful, water-holes are filled to the brim and range conditions in general were never better at this time of the year, state veteran stockmen.

More rain fell during the latter half of 1919 than during the first six months and if this is repeated, unprecedented prosperity is assured. Here is the mark which the rain god must shoot at during the next six

When a Woman is Nervous—Worried

The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick. It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, back-aches, headaches and dizzy spells. Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty. Any woman will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-round tonic that braces the entire body, overcoming nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.—"For about three years I have been in a run-down condition. I would be so weak at times I could scarcely get around. I was extremely nervous, could not sleep and I was in a miserable state when I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I have not taken all of one bottle but am feeling better than I have for a long time. I am going to continue its use for I know it is helping me more than any medicine I have taken."

FOR SALE.

The Jake Maurer Home in West Colorado is on the Market.

This is one of the best and nicest and well improved homes in Colorado. Located about one block northwest of the court house. Lot 150x200, highly improved, with plenty of extra large shade trees and all kinds of shrubbery. In the center stands a modern well built home of four 16 ft. rooms, well arranged, with nice porch completely surrounding the house. A splendid well and windmill with two large tanks and water piped all over the place. A good, extra large underground cistern. Well appointed out-houses and all modern improvements making this one of the best little homes in Colorado. This place has an up-ground tank or swimming pool, five feet deep and 30 feet wide, well stocked with fish and shaded with large cottonwood trees—an ideal place. The trees and shrubbery and water is worth $2000 to the place. There is also a good barn, lots, and well arranged garden plot.

I have decided to sell, and any one wanting a place of this kind, it will pay to come and see it and get the price I am asking. Write, wire, phone or see me at the place any time. JAKE MAURER. Colorado, Texas

A straw vote on the special train carrying the Texas delegation to San Francisco showed 84 for Thomason, 32 for Neff, 23 for Looney and 4 for Bailey, for the office of governor. Is it proper to inquire how four Bailey men got mixed up with the Texas delegation, after what happened to Mr. Bailey in his recent attempt to scuttle the democratic administration at Washington?—Houston Post.

That is just what we have been telling you, dear Post, the politicians are for Thomason, from Governor Hobby up and down the line. The only reason for this is the four thousand state employees who are connected with the Hobby-Thomason administration feel that they may hold on to their jobs if Thomason is elected. They know if Pat Neff is elected governor one-half will be sent back to their old jobs at home, and the other half will have to earn their salary.

PROSPERITY PROMISED

That the Colorado country is promised a bountiful crop the present season is an evident fact. Men who have farmed here the longest say they have never seen things looking so good at this time of the year.

The promise of good prices is also another factor in the promised prosperity. We cannot see any chance for prices of products being very materially reduced within another year.

Are You Run Down?

PEPSINOL Will Make You Feel Strong and Healthy

You cannot afford to lose strength. Your muscular and nervous system must be kept in good order so you can do your daily work. That weary, "all tired out" feeling usually is due to digestive troubles. They are sending poisons throughout your system, overloading your kidneys, making your liver torpid. Pepsinol will overcome these troubles, for it is a splendid stomachic stimulant, a creator of pure, nourishing blood. Thus it repairs weakened nerve tissue and keeps you in perfect health.

THE COLORADO (TEXAS) WEEKLY RECORD

—when "delicious and refreshing" mean the most.
 THE COCA-COLA COMPANY
 ATLANTA, GA.

THE McDOWELL WELL
 The spudding of the McDowell well occurred August 1, 1919. It was a memorable date for the people of that community and they celebrated it in the true West Texas style. A crowd of perhaps 2,000 people in 600 automobiles journeyed from miles around to witness the event. When a person thinks of anything in connection with oil, he usually has impressions of poor water, a shortage or too much water, impassable roads and every other inconvenience that is possible. An absolute reversal of the usual oil field conditions exists in Glasscock and Howard Counties, near the McDowell well. Water of such excellent quality that it is good for drinking and in addition will not injure boilers is found in plentiful quantities at a depth of 60 feet.
 The roads are as good as can be found anywhere in a rural community of Texas. They are smooth and well graded. A crew of men and army trucks, graders and scrapers may be found continuously working on the highways. Several of the corners have been cut away and wide, well-banked curves take the place of old section line crossroads.
 The people of Howard county, with the aid of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce are making further efforts to better their roads and are seeking state and federal aid in addition to their own bond issues.
Donate Refinery Site
 As an appreciation of the welcoming of oil to their community, the citizens of Big Spring have donated 25 acres for a refinery site and have pledged $100,000 towards its construction. It is announced that this refinery will be erected as soon as the line connections are made with the McDowell well.
 The General Oil Company is drilling four additional wells on its immense block of acreage which is said to comprise 100,000 acres. Fifteen have been ordered and will commence operations as fast as they are moved to their locations. Besides the activity of the General Oil Company in the Big Spring region, much excitement has been aroused by the excellent showings reported from wells drilled in adjoining fields.
 Mitchell County, on the east of Howard County, is said to have a producing well in the Underwriters' Producing & Refining Co.'s T. & P. No. 1, which is drilling at 2420 feet. It is reported that 73 feet of pay sand has been penetrated and that a producer of 50 or 75 barrels exist now. The sand does not appear to loosen up and in order to obtain a flowing well shooting will in all probability be necessary. Whatever may be said regarding this portion of West Texas as an oil producer, prospects are very bright.—M. M. Lory, in Texas Oil Ledger.

WHAT ARE YOUR DOLLARS WORTH?
 What are your dollars worth to you? Are you getting one hundred cents back on every dollar you spend? Unless you are very careful you are not. Most of the dollars being spent today are going for things that could have been bought for about sixty cents before the war and which can be bought for sixty cents again within the next three or four years.
Saved Dollar vs. Spent Dollar
 Dollars that are spent now, if spent for things other than the essentials of life, like groceries, rent, etc., are not doing their full duty. They are only putting forth sixty cents of their strength when they should be hitting the line one hundred cents strong.
 But dollars that are saved today will be worth almost two dollars within a few short years—three or four years, perhaps. Ask your banker if that is not so. Every dollar than can be saved should be saved today—safely put away. Within a short time it will buy almost twice or three times as much as it will now.
A Good Way to Save
 One of the very best ways in which to save money and save it so that it will be absolutely safe is to put so much in War Savings Stamps every month. They can be gotten from the postoffice or bank and they yield their owners interest at the rate of four per cent, compounded every ninety days. They make the saved money stay saved, but they can always be cashed at the postoffice at purchase price plus accrued interest. Not only will dollars which have been invested in War Savings Stamps yield good interest but they will have a two-for-one buying power within a few years. Save now for real pleasures later.

Don't you hear that saw a-hummin'? That means plenty of wood blocks—Jones pays the freight.—S. D. WOOD Prescriptions accurately filled—W. R. Charters.

JOE BAILEY NOTES
 Joe Bailey is very much concerned about saving the government now.
 Where was Joe during the period that the people were saving the country from the clutches of kaiserism?
 Did little Joe offer his services to the country in any form? Nay, Nay Pauline; he said Liberty Bonds were a bad investment.
 He couldn't even advise the purchase of war securities of any kind.
 Joe has endurance though, and can take punishment like a little man.
 Whipped to a frazzle on the anti-Wilson issue and the booze question, he still clings to his passion for punishment.
 Joe invites the ants to a beer drinking, but alas, they find the refreshments are to be lemonade.
 Joe told the labor unions in former years that he loved them, and the eight hour day but he loved states rights better, and that was his sole reason for opposing legislation for the women and children of our land.
 On May 1, 1920, Joe found that labor would not fall for his bunk, and since that time he has come clean and admitted he was against organized labor unless he could dictate their policy.
 Joe says the republicans would not let him accomplish anything while in congress.
 Poor Joe, still up against the same game, only it is the people that keeps him from accomplishing his purpose at this time.
 The open shop movement will soon sleep under the daisies, the people of Texas know Joe Bailey was never right in his life.
 Have no fear, Joe, if you ever have to wear patched trousers, it will not be for the reason that Texas has fired the governorship on you.
 Are the trips from home to Washington included in the campaign expense account? Well, anyway, Joe has (Nickles) in Texas, but he must return to Washington to get the dollars.
 Joe works for the association opposed to prohibition, but that is not the cause of the sweat on his brow.
 Rumor has it that Joe may also run for governor of Kentucky as Kentucky sometimes goes republican, and he may have a chance there.
 You have got to hand it to him when it comes to taking chances; Steve Brodie has nothing on him.
 Can Joe be elected anything anywhere? Don't make us laugh; I have a cracked lip.
 Joe will soon realize that the people of Texas have a Neff and that old fellow counterman stuff positively will not stick.
 So long, Joe, take keer of yourself.

No Worms in a Healthy Child
 All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50c per bottle.

A FOOL AND HIS BOND SOON PART

—Modern Proverb.

A discontented scowl clouded Joe Peterson's brow as he crumpled up the afternoon paper. "Liberty Bonds are down again," he grumbled to Bill Coleman who sat beside him. "And they are the stuff the silver-tongued orators that sold 'em said were good as gold. I think I'll sell mine before they go lower."

"What right have you got to think," answered Coleman. "The way you talk is enough to show that, from the shoulders up you are mostly solid ivory."

"It don't take much thinking for me to know that I paid $100 for every one of my bonds and that now I can only get $85 or $90 for 'em. That don't look like they were as good as money, does it?"

"It's just what it looks like," continued Bill confidently. "The reason the price of Liberty Bonds is down is because a lot of people have been using them for money, like a $5 bill that was so hot they are afraid it'll take fire if they wait a minute to spend it. The bonds are as good as gold, all right, but they never were meant to buy chips in a Saturday night poker game or to spend for a bright blue suit of clothes with a red necktie, a green shirt, and yellow shoes, like I saw young Kiopsky wearin' last night. When the people who bought 'em sell 'em and spend 'em like they were something they found in an old vest, it's bound to knock the price down and keep it down till they quit spending that way."

"I don't see it," said Joe stubbornly. "They're Government obligations and the Government ought to keep them good at their face value."

"I told you you were as thick as a concrete engine bed," said Bill. "You loaned your money to the United States and the United States promised to pay you back in full with interest. The United States will pay you back 100 cents on the dollar but not until it is due. Remember though, you are getting a nice slice of interest on your bonds every six months. Suppose you come to me as a friend and say, 'Bill, I got $186.67 coming to me in the old pay envelope the 30th of next month, but I need a piece of coin now. Lend me $100.'"

"I know you're good for it and that you'll pay and you know you'll pay and so I lend you the hundred until the 30th of next month. But suppose I come around to you day after tomorrow and say, 'Joe, gimme the hundred bucks you owe me.' You tell me right away to go take a long jump in the lake but not to make no splash because it'll disturb the fish. You know you are going to pay me, but it ain't due."

"Then suppose I go around to Izzy Kaplan, the demon loan shark, and say, 'Izzy, Joe Peterson owes me a hundred bucks that he's goin' to pay the 30th of next month, but I want the coin now. I don't need it, but I want to wear out the pockets of my pants carryin' it around. You take the debt and gimme the money.' Izzy right away says, 'Me and my money ain't on earth for our health. I'll give you $85 for what Joe owes you.' And I take it."

"I'm a plain sucker, ain't I? I lose $15 I am sure to get just because I want to jingle something against my keys. And you'd think I was a fine kind of a friend actin' that way, wouldn't you? Well, this country's been a pretty good friend to Joe, Joe. You got no license actin' rough with this Government."

"I guess you're right," said Joe. "I never looked at it in that way. I don't need the money now, anyhow."

"Not now," answered Bill. "But in 1932 when the bonds fall due you or young Joe, who will be growing up then, may be mighty glad of a nice little nest egg tucked away. Moreover, if you not only hold what bonds you have but buy more, you let the other fellows be the suckers while you take a sure profit. Think that over and you'll realize you have something on your shoulders beside your suspenders. And in the meantime, take it from me, about the best thing you can do for yourself is to salt away a $5 or $10 bill in War Savings Stamps at the postoffice every pay day."

WHERE CHRIS MISSED IT

If War Savings Stamps, which can be gotten at all postoffices and banks now, had been on sale back in 1492 and Christopher Columbus had bought just $100 worth the day he discovered America, his heirs today would have a fortune of more than $2,000,000,000—more than the entire amount of the first Liberty Loan. That's what the little old compound interest earned by War Savings Stamps will do.

HAD TO MUFFLE THE TELEPHONE

Mrs Swanson's Nerves Were Upset From Years of Trouble Gains Twenty Pounds

For the benefit of thousands who are suffering from stomach trouble and a run-down condition, I want to tell of the wonderful results I have gotten from Tanlac," said Mrs. Lena Swanson, of 1720 North Madison St., Peoria, Ill.

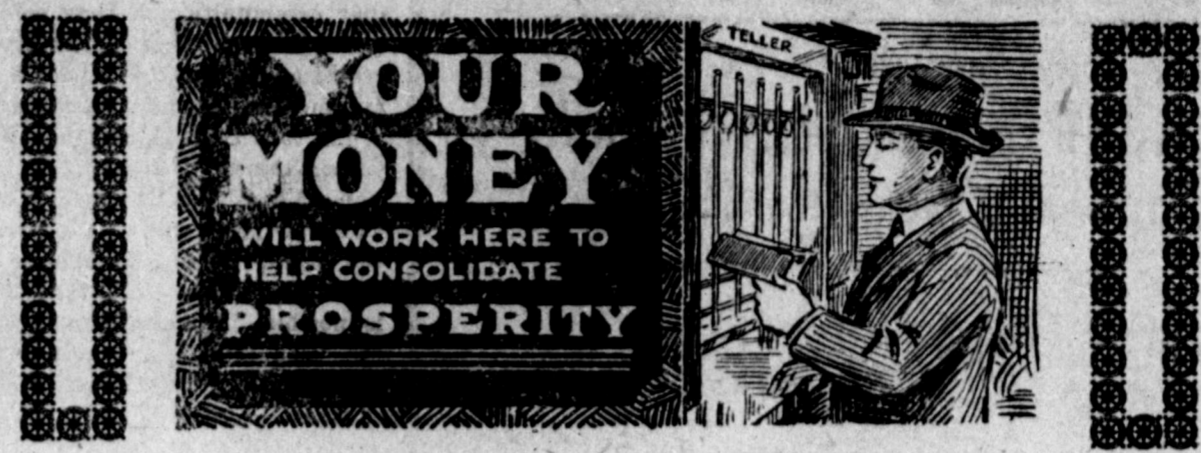

"It was eight years ago that my stomach got out of order and my health began to fail," she continued. "Finally I got to feeling so bad that I lost interest in everything and got no pleasure out of life. My food acted like poison to my system and I would bloat up with gas and suffer agonies. My heart would flutter until I was almost faint and at times I would get so dizzy the house would seem to be whirling round. I had to almost stop eating and became so weak it was all I could do to get about the house. My nerves were so shattered even the ringing of the telephone upset me and I had to muffle it. I slept very little and seldom woke up in the morning without a dull, nagging headache."

"My brother had gotten such fine results from taking Tanlac that he talked me into trying it and I improved remarkably with the very first bottle.....got so I could eat and sleep better. Now after taking five bottles my friends tell me I am the picture of health. I can eat anything, even boiled meats, cabbage and pickles without a bit of trouble with my stomach. My nerves are calm and I sleep like a child every night; I have gained twenty pounds in weight and I never grow tired of praising Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Colorado by W. R. Charters.

STORY OF THE CONVENTION

tactics there; they believe they can win with them here.

San Francisco, July 6—Governor James M. Cox of Ohio was nominated for the Presidency by the Democratic National Convention in the early hours of this morning, after breaking a deadlock which had held the convention through forty-four ballots.

The end came suddenly and dramatically at 1:40 a. m., at the close of a night session which had witnessed the withdrawal of Attorney-General A. Mitchell Palmer and the slow beating down of William G. McAdoo, president Wilson's son-in-law, by mere force of votes.

The nomination was finally accomplished by acclamation at the end of the forty-fourth ballot and Governor Cox will go into the official records as the unanimous choice of his party.

Mode by Acclamation

Actually, at the time of his nomination, the Ohio Governor had 712½ votes or 15½ less than required two-thirds of the convention votes. However, when the motion was made to make his nomination by acclamation there were half a dozen delegates clamoring for the recognition of Senator Joseph T. Robinson, the chairman, in order to register changes in their votes, which, if they had been recorded, would have given him a substantial majority over the required two-thirds.

Twenty-two ballots were taken during the day and it was not until midnight that any of them gave promise of developing a nominee.

Adjournment Sought

On the forty-third ballot, after Palmer had announced his withdrawal from the race and released his delegation it became apparent that Governor Cox would be the nominee. It became then only a question of time. Two motions were made from the floor by McAdoo supporters to adjourn the convention until noon today, but each of them was howled down by Cox adherents. Governor Cox polled 568 votes on the forty-third ballot. It was the first time that any of the candidates in the more than two days' nights of constant balloting had received a majority vote. Between the forty-third and forty-fourth ballots the Cox people staged a memorable demonstration, riotous procession, participated in by wearily delirious partisans, the scenes of which will live long in the memories of those who witnessed them.

The last ballot started by giving the Ohio Governor majorities from the very first. As State after State fell into line for Cox it became certain that nothing short of a miracle could stop his nomination either on that ballot or the next succeeding one. When Pennsylvania was reached in the roll, sixty-eight votes were thrown to the Ohio Governor and these with the smaller delegates following, put him over the 700 mark.

Amidon raised his hand for silence. Robinson was pounding madly with his gavel and the table was dancing under the force of his blows.

"I move," yelled the Kansan, as soon as he could make himself heard, "I move that the nomination of Governor James M. Cox be made unanimous."

For a bare instant there was a hush. Then the hall was thrown into an uproar again by the yells that came from the throats of the 10,000 delegates and visitors who crowded the place.

Auditorium, San Francisco July 6—When the name of Texas was called for the nomination of Vice Presidential candidates, Chairman Cone Johnson of the delegation announced that Texas forty votes would be cast for Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Auditorium, San Francisco, July 6.—Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was nominated by the Democratic National Convention at 3:15 o'clock this afternoon.

Seven other men had been put in nomination by their friends during the session, but all withdrew in favor of the New Yorker.

The great event came when David R. Francis of Missouri asked unanimous consent for suspension of the rules and nominated by acclamation.

Word had been floating around two hours previously that Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall, and other party chieftains had come to an agreement with E. S. Moore, the Cox manager that Roosevelt be named. Murphy worked like a beaver going from delegation to delegation in advocacy of Daniels' assistant.

It required forty-six ballots to nominate Woodrow Wilson at Baltimore. In 1852 Franklin Pierce was nominated on the 49th ballot. James A. Garfield carried off the Pluck on the 36th ballot and James Buchanan was chosen on the 17th. Clark received a majority of the votes cast at one time and led the Baltimore balloting for forty-one ballots, but the immortal forty from Texas stuck to the man from New Jersey and finally won the victory.

Huntington, L. I. July 6.—"I am really relieved and delighted that the call did not come to me," said William G. McAdoo to a group of friends and newspaper correspondents when he was informed today that Governor had been nominated.

"Will you say this for me: I am eternally grateful to my friends for their support," said McAdoo.

MITCHELL COUNTY WILL EXHIBIT AT DALLAS FAIR

Jno. C. Wells head of the Agricultural Exhibits of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and W. Hamilton Wright of the Publicity Department, were visitors here last week.

At a called meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce, they explained the object of their visit. Mr. Wright explained that it was the aim of his department to secure publicity for West Texas and each and every community was accorded the opportunity to put forth a description of its industries and resources, these articles to be sent to daily papers and big magazines without cost. The publicity department cooperates in every way and is glad to aid in placing this information before the people in other portions of Texas as well as to the people in the north and east. When anything big breaks, such as the finding of oil or other valuable minerals, a special representative can be called upon to prepare feature stories and there will be no charge for this service. He stated his present visit was for the purpose of investigating the finding of oil in Howard and Mitchell counties and he expected to return again when a test of the Underwriters' well had been completed. He requested that Colorado make further use of the publicity department and feel to call on him at any time. During his brief stay here he found much of interest concerning our city and we will secure much beneficial publicity for articles prepared under the direction of Mr. Wright and gladly accepted for newspapers and magazines.

Jno. C. Well, explained that he was still strong for the agricultural possibilities of West Texas and was advertising our resources by means of agricultural exhibits at a dozen of more State Fairs in the north and east, having a big West Texas exhibit at the Dallas Fair and the Waco Cotton Palace. He stated that he wanted Mitchell County to be one of the thirty counties to have agricultural exhibits and reap the benefits therefrom. He explained the only cost for exhibits at the out-of-state Fairs would be the cost of collecting, packing and expressing these exhibits to their destinations. The exhibit at the Dallas Fair would be arranged, as in former years and the best of these exhibits would be selected for a big West Texas exhibit at Waco.

Mr. Wells proposal met with the hearty approval of all present and a motion prevailed that Mr. Dulin be employed and instructed to get up a creditable exhibit and forward same to Mr. Wells at the proper time.

WESTBROOK ITEMS

Death of Mrs. Hazel Young
Sunday morning, July 4th, as the sun rose to spread its beautiful rays o'er another Sabbath day, the Death Angel descended from Heaven and entered the home of Mr. J. M. Young, and at 10 o'clock the Grim Reaper claimed for his own the young wife and mother of that home, Mrs. Hazle Young.

Hazle America Young was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Roney. She was born Dec 23, 1899, near Dublin, Texas, moving to Mitchell County with her parents in her early childhood, where she lived until she was married to Mr. J. M. Young in July of 1919. They left immediately after the ceremony for the eastern part of the State, where they resided until the winter of 1920, moving back to Westbrook where she spent the rest of her short life.

Hazle was a great favorite among the young people, always taking a leading part in every enterprise that was uplifting to the community in which she lived. She was a faithful member of the Baptist church; she was a talented musician and was organist, a duty which she performed willingly and faithfully; she was also a teacher in the Sunday School, in the primary department, and was dearly loved by her little pupils. The Church has sustained a great loss in the death of Mrs. Young.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, for their works do follow them, and they rest from their labors." As a part of her works that follow after her, may her mantle fall upon her dear little baby girl, that she may perpetuate the Christ life that she left her as a heritage.

There is a vacant chair in the family circle that can never be filled; she was a devoted loving companion and mother, a dutiful daughter and a dearly beloved sister, and we deeply sympathize with the sorrowing relatives in this dark hour and may God in his tender mercy sustain them in this, their great loss.

She leaves to mourn her departure a husband, J. M. Young, and one little baby girl; a mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Young, and four sisters, Misses Minnie, Gladys, Marvis and Kathryn Roney. Her only brother preceded her to her eternal home. Her body was tenderly laid away to rest in the I.O.O.F. cemetery at Colorado, beneath a mound of beautiful flowers to await the resurrection morning.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Garrett, of Big Spring, her former Pastor.

Mrs. J. M. Malone and daughter, Miss Leota, of Brownwood, are visiting their daughter and sister, Mr. B. H. Terrell.

Mrs. J. D. Perkins of Sulphur Springs, is the guest of Mrs. Annie Wright.

E. Hamilton, after spending a week with relatives here, returned to his home in Dallas Monday. Little Miss Pauline Van Horn accompanied him home for a few weeks visit.

The third quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church on the Westbrook charge, will convene at Spade on Tuesday, July 13, all requested to attend.

Rev. Leach, a brother of Rev. A. D. Leach, will preach at the Baptist church Friday night. You are invited to attend.

J. W. Bird and son spent Sunday in Sweetwater with Mrs. J. W. Bird, who is there for treatment.

GENERAL OIL COMPANY TO OPERATE NORTH

Will Take Over Holt-Wolcott Proposition So Long Interesting

Both contracting parties have confirmed to the Chamber of Commerce, the report that a drilling contract has been let by our townsmen, Messrs O. B. Holt and G. W. Wolcott, to the General Oil Company, of Houston, through Joseph D. Dotson; which provides that two test wells are to be sunk on the ranches of these two gentlemen, north of Midland.

This will mean much to Midland, and the Chamber of Commerce is going to put forth every effort to cooperate with both parties, and to further their interests as far as possible in this venture.

The General Oil Company is well known to the citizens of Midland for the live work and the apparent results they have shown in Big Spring. They have demonstrated that they mean business, and there is strong probability that something worth while is going to be accomplished in these two tests. It is to the interest of every Midland citizen to lend a hand in any possible way to cooperate with this company.—Midland Paper.

The City Garage can recharge, repair or rebuild any kind of battery.

MITCHELL COUNTY OIL WELL

The Abilene Reporter Has This to Say About Our Oil Well

Colorado, Texas, July 5—The T. & P. No. 1, of the Underwriters' Producing and Refining Company, ten miles due west of Colorado, is swabbing 35 barrels of 41 gravity black oil daily from an oil sand at least 105 feet thick and may be good for 500 barrels after being jolted with a 700-quart shot of nitro. Such was the report made by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here today after its staff representative W. H. Wright had been out on an inspection of the field. The oil bailed out is being used to fire the boiler, saving the company $50 a day for this one item. The 105 foot sand is believed to be the thickest ever found in the Southwest. It is of adamantine character and hence will not fully develop its potential production until shot heavily. The 'juice' has been ordered from Cisco and will be administered immediately that the oil sand has been penetrated. The thickness of the sand is quite bewildering to the oil fraternity. The well was spudded in February 8, 1920, and despite a few fishing jobs, unusually fast progress has been made. Showings of oil were found at 260 and 440 feet. A gas pocket was so strong at the latter depth as to force water through the bore for a period of seven weeks. The drill then went through 1100 feet of grey and blue lime and suddenly went in to the oil producing sand. The well is now drilling at 2453 feet without having left the oil sand, and developing more gas and oil. The 10-inch casing has been set. The Underwriters' Company has offices in Tulsa and New York and will shortly establish offices in this city, according to L. W. Sandusky, field superintendent.

The hotels are doing a flush business and operators from as far west as California are coming in. They all pronounce it as bidding fair to be a splendid producer when shot. Hundreds of autos daily visit the well. No restrictions against persons visiting the well have at any time been enforced. The well's operations are open and above-board. At Westbrook, a small station on the Texas and Pacific, an oil exchange has already opened. Leases 2 1/2 miles from the well are reported to be selling for $40 an acre. The Chamber of Commerce is arranging to employ a publicity man to tell the world of Colorado's oil. However, the people are acting conservatively about their new find, not willing to put out dishonest and spurious publicity until the well has been proved up. Then the wires will begin to work. In an address here before the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, a representative of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce stated that he believed the well good for 35 barrels a day and confident that it would be a good producer when shot. He stated that in the Ranger field wells where very compact sand was found and produced little by natural flow, the sands gave up great quantities when shot, more than the soft sand wells. The puzzle here is the extreme depth of the sands, 105 feet, and more yet to be penetrated. If this compact sand when shot does as well as similar sand in Ranger field wells, a production of many thousands of barrels might be expected, but since the richness of the sand is unknown all operators are merely conjecturing on the final production figures.

"TRADES DAY"

Loraine's Trades day is growing bigger and better each time, and is attracting more people to our town; the crowd Saturday was estimated at three thousand and all day long they were here, not only enjoying the amusements, but trading at all business houses, which report big sales. The merchants are realizing the benefit of it. In the ball game between Sweetwater and Loraine, Sweetwater won by one score. In the Baby contest the baby of Mr. Alvin Brown won first prize, and the second prize was won by the baby of Rev. S. H. Young. Following are the winners of other contests:

- Best Broncho Riding—China Morgan.
- Steer Riding Contest—Lee May.
- Goat Roping (1st contest)—Tom Taylor, Sweetwater.
- Goat Roping (2nd contest)—Cray Smith, Colorado.
- Cigar Race—Howard Spikes.
- Horse Race (1st)—Haywood Allen.
- Horse Race (2nd)—Hunter Looney.
- Second Horse Race (1st)—Ira Coffee.
- Second Horse Race (2nd)—Coley Smith, Colorado.
- Best Oration—W. B. Meacham, Champion.
- Best High Kick—W. B. Meacham, Champion.
- Fiddlers' Contest—Lee Moore.
- Best Cake—Mrs. W. L. Edmondson.
- Pidgeon Shooting—J. L. Pratt.

You Do More Work,

You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood. The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

Entertained

Mrs. Allie M. Irwin and Miss Isophene Toler were the lucky guests of the two Griffith families on Monday. They with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Griffith and children, spent the day down on the ranch of Mr. J. L. Griffith, south of town, and while there enjoyed one of the very best dinners that the writer ever had the pleasure of eating, for both the Mrs. Griffiths are expert in the culinary art. The dinner was spread out near the house under huge oaks, which made it all the more enjoyable. After which we wended our way to the creek and tried our luck at fishing, and where one could feel the words of the poet, who said: "Come let us rest awhile Where tumbling lakes and tumbling streams Surpass by far the land of dreams, And nature wears a smile."

And thus we passed another celebration of the Fourth with nothing to mar the pleasure of the day except a slight motor accident which happened on our return.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE, Inc.

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak. I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught." Seventy years of successful use has made Thedford's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member, of every family, at times, need the help that Black-Draught can give in cleansing the system and relieving the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, lazy liver, etc. You cannot keep well unless your stomach, liver and bowels are in good working order. Keep them that way. Try Black-Draught. It acts promptly, gently and in a natural way. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c. a package—One cent a dose. All druggists. J. 69
