DRILLING TO BE RESUMED AT NAT SMITH NO. ONE.

Drilling at Nat Smith No. 1, five miles west of Colorado, temporarily suspended a few months ago, is to be resumed at an early date, L. W. Sandusky, attorney for the Underwriters Company, announced in an address before the Colorado Booster Club Tuesday night. The test will be completed by the McFann Oil Co., who have recently completed a well on the 24 Ranch in Kent County.

Dr. P. C. Coleman, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Arthur W. Palmer, lease broker, are cooperating with Mr. Sandusky in consummating a contract with the McFann Company and confirmed the statement of the attorney that the test would be completed.

This well was spudded with a rotary rig, but because of the solid rock formation encountered, drilling was temporarily suspended pending the changing of tools to a tandard rig. The financial stringency later developing retarded plans of the Underwriters Company and they have been unable to drill the well until now, Sandusky stated.

Both Mr. Sandusky and Dr. Coleman pleaded for support of the operators in this territory. Sandusky outlined that to date approximately $500,000 had been expended in the county by the several operators who have come into the field. Dr. Coleman spoke of the material worth the expenditure of this fund had been to the general public, stating that several people were enabled to pay land notes and other items of indebtedness solely through payments coming to them from the oil interests.

AT ATTACKING CHILDREN DID NOT HAVE RABIES.

The house cat that attacked children of E. Barber, Commissioner of Spade, did rabies, as was at first feared. Barber it was learned Sunday, which had been a pet barber home for some time, the children recently with infection, inflicting wounds claws and teeth.

WILL BE SOLD TODAY TO AID ORPHANS

National Poppy Day will be observed in Colorado Saturday, when particular flowers will be sold for the benefit of the children of France and for the soldiers and sailors of the United States Army and Navy. G. Merritt, president of the Auxiliary to the American post, is chairman, and will have a corps of assistants to sell the flowers on the

REQUISITION MADE FOR 7,281 TEXT BOOKS FOR SCHOOLS.

Formal requisition for a total of 7,281 approved text books for the schools of Mitchell County another year was filed this week by J. C. Hall, ex-officio county superintendent of public instruction, with the Department of Education at Austin. The books will be delivered at Colorado probably in August and will from here be parceled out to the two independent and twenty-eight common school districts for which the superintendent handles books.

This supply of text books is to supplement those already on hand in the office of the county superintendent or to be delivered to Colorado by the schools. The old text books used last year and to be used again in 1921-22 approximate several thousand volumes, Judge Hall stated.

This order for new text books does not include those to be used by the schools of Colorado. This district acts independently in filing requisition for the books and in delivering them to scholastics. The independent districts of Loraine and Westbrook, however, receive their text books through the office of the superintendent, the same as the several common school districts of the county.

FORTY DELEGATES ATTEND EPWORTH LEAGUE INSTITUTE

Forty delegates, representing the Epworth League of the M. E. Church South at Sweetwater, Snyder, Rotan and Roby, were in Colorado Saturday to attend the annual institute of the Sweetwater conference. Miss Jewel Watts of Snyder, district secretary, presided at the business session of the institute.

The institute was convened at the Methodist church auditorium Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and following the address of welcome by W. S. Cooper, responded to by Miss Watts, the delegates immediately went into business session. Following adjournment at noon for lunch the delegates were directed to private homes of the city by E. W. Cartwright, president of the local League chapter.

The afternoon session was convened at 3 o'clock, adjourning at 5 and at 6:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon the delegates, in company with a number of Colorado young people left in automobiles for Seven Wells for a picnic. Arriving at this beauty spot, the visitors were shown the scenic attractions of the famous old watering holes until dinner was served. Fifty two young people were registered at the wells on this trip.

Most of the delegates returned to their homes Saturday afternoon and night, but Miss Watts and a few others remained until the closing program Sunday night.

FOSTER STORAGE CAPACITY INCREASED TO 1700 BARRELS

A 500 barrel storage tank was delivered at Foster No. 1 at Iatan Sunday, increasing the total available storage capacity at this well to 1700 barrels. The tank was manufactured in Sweetwater and delivered to the well by truck.

The crew continues cleaning out at this well and the management will not place the well under the pump again until the hole is in excellent condition. It will be remembered that the Foster well was given two nitro shots since cleaned the last time.

Reports from this well continue to be most optimistic and indications of a good commercial find are becoming more evident as the days progress. Conservative oil men who visited the well this week estimate that a producer of at least 100 barrels has been brought in.

IMPROVEMENTS BEING MADE TO SOUTH COLORADO BRIDGE.

Repairs are being made to the South Colorado bridge this week, under supervision of commissioners court. Four new 26-inch runners are being laid and other needed improvements to the structure will be made, Judge Hall stated Tuesday morning.

OUT HOUSE BURNS AT HOME OF MRS. SMART

A chicken house in the rear of the home of Mrs. Sam Smart, in North Colorado, was burned Tuesday afternoon by fire of unknown origin. The loss was small.

In Memory

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead Short days ago
We lived, felt, saw, sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

FOUR PRISONERS DELIVERED TO PENITENTIARY AGENT.

Four prisoners convicted recently in district court at Colorado and sentenced to terms in the State Penitentiary were delivered Thursday night to Bud Russell of Huntsville, special agent for the penitentiary. Russell was en route from El Paso to Huntsville, taking up prisoners as he went. Mark Wheeler, escaped convict who passed through Colorado recently and was later apprehended at Van Horn, was among the number.

Those delivered to Russell Thursday were Willie Johnson, negro, given five years for burglary; Arthur Jones negro, two years for burglary; Jess Franklin, negro, five years for burglary; A. E. Henderson, two years for burglary.

Franklin was convicted on charges of burglarizing the store of Levy Brothers here last December and Henderson on charges of burglary in connection with his entering the store of F. M. Burns several months ago. Both were already serving out sentences in the penitentiary and were returned to Colorado from Huntsville by Sheriff Chesney for trial.

T. W. Perkins, convicted on charges of forgery, is the only prisoner now being held in the Mitchell County jail. Perkins was tried Friday and given two years.

CITY EQUALIZATION BOARD MEETS MONDAY AND TUESDAY.

The equalization Board, appointed recently by the city council to audit property reñitions filed with the city assessor, were convened Monday and Tuesday of this week. The board is composed of W. W. Porter, John Smith and O. B. Price. City Secretary L. A. Costin met with the board.

Mrs. A. B. Robertson of Abilene was up for the funeral of Mrs. Crockett.

BOOSTERS!

Of course it is merely an oversight, and we know you will "kick in" when you read this. Several of you forgot to provide reservations for the meeting Tuesday night, and we are employing the use of this space to request that you "reserve" now. The Booster Club is one of the biggest assets this city ever had and we are going to keep it so. by every Booster working with the crowd and doing his part well.

MITCHELL COUNTY FIFTH IN COTTON CAMPAIGN.

C. O. Moser of Dallas, secretary of the State Farm Bureau federation, writes E. M. Baldwin, secretary of the Mitchell County organization that this county is fifth in point of success obtained in the campaign now on in all organized counties of the State for securing signatures of farmers to the cotton commodity contracts.

"The county farm agent and myself certainly have been working strenuously at the job during the past two weeks," Baldwin stated on Monday. "Almost every night we are attending a community meeting at some point in the Colorado territory, making speeches and otherwise giving what information we can to encourage the cotton producers to line up with the bureau."

In a few of the communities visited the farmers have signed the contracts 100 per cent, Baldwin stated. The great majority of farmers not yet signing up are tenants and deferred definite action until they could confer with their landlords, he said.

Writing from Dallas under date of May 23, Mr. Moser says, among other things:

"With preliminary work fairly under way in more than 100 cotton counties, the signing of membership contracts in the million bale association is assuming big proportions in practically every county. It is announced at Farm Bureau offices here. At the outset of the sweeping sign-up drive, Ellis County, which has set the mark of 100,000 bales by July 1, ranked first with 16,345 bales. Other foremost counties ranked in the following order: Bell, McCulloch, Runnels, Nueces, Mitchell, Bowie and Hall."

HOLT TRACTOR RECEIVED AT COLORADO SUNDAY

The Holt 10-ton tractor, recently assigned to Mitchell County by the State Highway Department for use on the public roads of the county, was received in Colorado Sunday and unloaded Monday morning. The tractor is new and of the armored type used on the battle fields of Europe during the recent war.

County Judge Hall made a special trip to San Angelo last week to receive the tractor, expecting to drive it overland to Colorado, but since the generator and other electrical equipment was detached, the machine was shipped here by rail. It was in a car with tractors assigned to Coke and Howard counties.

JUDGE BURKETT TO SPEAK HERE THURSDAY NIGHT.

Judge Joe Burkett of Eastland, candidate for State Senator from the 28th district, will be in Colorado on Thursday night to deliver an address at 8 o'clock at night upon the issues of the campaign, according to a letter received from the Judge by Judge J. C. Hall.

GOVERNMENT FISH RECEIVED BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

A shipment of sun fish was received last week by the Colorado Chamber of Commerce from the government hatchery at San Marcos. The fish were taken in charge by W. A. Dulin, county farm agent, who placed them in streams near the city. Judge C. H. Earnest and R. P. Price also received shipments of fish from this hatchery at the same time.

INFANT BURIED FRIDAY

The three weeks old infant of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of the Reynolds ranch was buried Friday morning at Cuthbert, Rev. Hanks of Sylvester conducting the service. Several from Colorado attended the burial. The floral offerings were profuse.

Contemplation on Life

When I come in contact with people daily, something tells me to stop and study them. I must not be wrapped in myself too much to give attention to other people.

Some folks slide through the world just to get by. They do not analyze their own life, individually and exclusively. But they bear constantly in mind the opinion other people have of them.

The successful man or woman is the one who does not carry his troubles in public. Some people think they will make a deeper impression by so doing. They think it will arouse a loving sympathy for them.

But remember, people judge you by what comes out of your mouth or from your pen, and not what is in your head. Those are the only means that you have to prove what you really know.

John Vaughan who has been quite sick the past ten days, has recovered so as to be able to be up again, and upon the advice of the attending physicians, left yesterday with Mrs. Vaughan and daughter Winnie.

There are three great elements that have formed in my life. First of all, I believe in God. I believe he is the ruler of mankind.

The second is, I believe in the lives of people. There is an upward tendency of the human race. It is like the gravity of the earth, for something pulls it on toward progress and civilization.

While in your development of young manhood and young womanhood, and while approaching maturity, have you not sometimes felt just a little bit afraid of your life? You are preparing yourself, developing your talent; but still there is a little bit of doubt in your mind as to your ability.

Progress does not come to the person who sits and waits for it to approach him without effort on his part to gain possession of it. It comes only to them who go to meet it.

membrane speak silently louder than words and as the sweet odors permeated the air of the sick room, acting as a bright oasis in the desert of life.

The printer set up a poster to advertise an address by a militant suffragette. Her subject was "Woman: Without her, Man Would be a Savage."

When the speaker called for the posters, the proof reader had to leave town immediately, for the flaming sheets read, "Woman, Without her Man, Would Be a Savage."

How Did He Do It?

A mule skinner in France was trying to drive a mule, with a wagon-load, through a hospital gate. The mule would do anything but pass through the gate.

"Want any help?" shouted one of the hospital orderlies. "No," replied the driver, "but I'd like ot know how Noah got two horses into the Ark?"

Mrs. W. B. Crockett Dead.

Last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at her late residence on Elm Street, Mrs. Penelope Crockett, widow of the late Judge W. B. Crockett, passed away to her eternal reward.

Mrs. Crockett was born near Holly Springs, Mississippi, September 14, 1860. There she was married to Judge W. B. Crockett in the year 1882. Together they moved to Texas in 1888 and settled in Colorado, Texas, where he practiced law—where he lived an honored citizen, where they built their home, and where he died in 1912.

Mrs. Crockett was more than an ordinary woman. To her husband she was a most devoted wife, making for him an ideal home, entering sympathetically into all his plans, a co-laborer with him in all his work, an important factor in all his accomplishments, a true helpmeet till the day of his death, wearing his name with honor till the end of her pilgrimage.

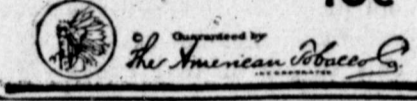

There, in the city of the dead, by the side of the sleeping dust of her husband, her tired body was laid to rest. The mound of earth was covered with wreaths of roses and lilies and vari-colored flowers woven by loving hands—emblems of a lifelong love and of a faith that believes in the resurrection of the dead.

"Have you anything to say before you leave the stand?" asked the judge, after pronouncing a death sentence upon a negro murderer. "Yes suh, Judge," replied the prisoner. "I wants to say right here dat dis is gonna be a lesson to me."

Mrs. Crockett, though childless herself, adopted two children—one an infant, and one a boy of four—the motherless children of Judge Crockett's brother—Winnie and W. B. To

The management of the Best Theatre announces that Douglas Fairbanks' admirers will have an opportunity to view this versatile actor's work from an entirely new angle when Doug's latest picture "The Nut" is shown Friday and Saturday.

It may be added that Fairbanks has made a very accurate study of people and situations the world over and realizes the importance of clean pictures and clearly emphasizes this fact and that of a new social regeneration in this his latest photo feature.

IRONIES OF LIFE

"TOMUELSON made a talk to the Commercial club, on 'Business Efficiency,' observed the retired merchant, "and the next day his store was closed by the sheriff."

"Life is full of such ironies, doggone it," said the hotel-keeper. "Low down jokes are being played on the best of us, almost every day, and I often wonder what sort of an evil genius is behind it all."

"I used to know a man who was a wonderful horse breaker. He used to give public exhibitions, taming man-killing brutes, and the way he could make them eat out of his hand, half an hour after being formally introduced to them, was a sight worth going miles to see. He always had immense crowds at his exhibitions, and it seemed that his future was assured. But one day he was loading around a livey stable, just because he liked the atmosphere of the place, and an old, weary hack horse reached out a long, crooked limb, handed him one with it, and broke his leg."

"He had to go to a hospital for a while, and when he came out, his occupation was gone. He was as good a horse breaker as ever, but people wouldn't pay their hard-earned money to see the exploits of a conquering hero who had been manhandled by an old hack horse. You must admit that there was some sardonic intelligence back of such a joke as that. If the man had been hooked by a cow, or run over by a traction engine, or chewed up by an honest watchdog, it wouldn't have hurt his renown and prestige. But, no! A blamed old relic of a horse had to put him out of business."

"A long time ago, a very important case was tried in an Irish court. The people were greatly wrought up over it, and the courtroom was crowded. When it was announced that the jury was ready with a verdict, the judge addressed the audience, saying he knew there was much feeling over the case, but the hall of justice was no place for a display of it, and if there was a least sign of disturbance when the verdict was made known, the guilty parties would be arrested."

"The jury brought in its verdict, and the people heard it in silence, but just then a whole doggone gallery, with about a thousand people in it, came crashing down, and the noise could have been heard forty miles out at sea. After the judge's solemn warning against a disturbance, the fall of that gallery has always seemed to me like a painful joke."

"A long time ago, I was called upon to address a crowd of voters on the living issues of the day, and I framed up a speech that would have been a credit to any orator. I swiped it from Roscoe Conkling, and I have always insisted that he was one of the greatest of American speakers. The house was full of refined and cultured people, and I was determined to make the hit of my life. I was just getting warmed up to my work, when the lights went out, and the hall was plunged in black darkness. There's nothing makes a man feel more idiotic than to have the lights shut off at such a time. The women in the audience were giggling, and the men haw-hawing. It seemed funny to everybody but me."

"I thought I knew where the little table was, that held the pitcher of ice water, and I moved toward it, and fell over a chair, and flattened my nose against the edge of a piece of scenery. When the lights were flashed on again, as suddenly as they went out, the audience beheld the silver tongued orator on his hands and knees, climbing slowly to his feet, and trying to mold his nose into its original shape."

"I never saw such a delirious crowd in my life. Some of the women laughed themselves into hysterics, and the fool men weren't much better. They never heard the balance of that oration, and the last part was the best."

Alliteration.

Alliteration occurs sometimes in the writings of the ancients, but not, it is supposed, designedly, as they regarded all echoing of sound as a rhetorical blemish. Cicero, in the "Offices," has this phrase: "Sensim sine pensis aetas senescent;" and Virgil in the "Aeneid," has many marked alliterations. —William Mathews.

Try, Try Again.

"Lottarox was telling me that he has been trying for six months without success to get a passage to see the battlefields of France."

"Evidently the wind has changed. He spent two years trying not to see them, with success."—The American Legion Weekly.

Greatest Revenue.

The internal revenue bureau, in the fiscal year ended June 30, made the greatest annual tax collection since its establishment in 1862.

SCHOOL BOARD EMPLOYEES TWO ADDITIONAL TEACHERS

Two additional teachers for the Colorado schools during the 1921-22 session were employed by the school board Monday night. They are Miss May Browning of Wellington, teacher of English in the High School, and Miss Coral Bishop, of Anson, who will teach one of the grades.

Each of these young ladies are daughters of local pastors. Miss Browning is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Browning, and Miss Bishop the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Bishop. Rev. Bishop recently accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist church and will move with his family from Anson to Colorado June 1st.

LORAIN MAN DIES

O. S. Martin, farmer, 46, died Friday morning of last week at the farm home of his brother seven miles northeast of Loraine and the remains were interred Saturday in the cemetery at Pyron. Funeral arrangements were conducted by J. H. Greene of Colorado.

Mr. Martin retired Thursday night in apparent good health but was awakened at 4 o'clock Friday morning from a pain in his left arm. He was dead within an hour. The attending physician diagnosed his case as neuralgia of the heart.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

Rev. Guy B. Duff, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached the Commencement sermon for the class of 1921, High School graduates, at the Methodist church Sunday evening. All the churches gave up their evening services for the occasion and the different pastors assisted in the services. The music for the evening was led by the High school boys and girls, under the direction of Mr. Dawes with Miss Allie Merrill at the piano. The house was attractive looking with the decorations of green and white, the class colors. The house was filled to overflowing and many were turned away. Mr. Duff was at his best and preached a practical yet inspirational sermon from the text "When I fall, I Shall Arise." He reminded the young people that there would be times of physical, mental, moral and spiritual falls, but there was also the hope that they should arise, only the disposition to refuse to rise was all that could keep them from doing so. There are fourteen in the class this year, six girls and eight boys, and Colorado is justly proud of them for finishing the course.

ARKANSAS FARMER IS NOW IN FINE SHAPE.

Bennett's Health Restored By Tanlac Two Years Ago, and He Continues Well and Strong.

"It was two years ago that Tanlac set me right and put me into shape where I gained thirty pounds in weight and I have been in the best of health and retained my weight to this good day," said Oliver P. Bennett, a well known farmer of Union Township, R. F. D. No. 4, Little Rock, Ark.

"I have been a farmer all my life," he continued, "but two years ago I got so I was not able to work and was beginning to think my farming days might be over. My stomach was out of order and my appetite was well nigh gone. My nerves broke down and I couldn't half sleep. My shoulders and chest hurt something awful, and I got so weak and all run down I was beginning to wonder where it was all going to end. I had been under treatment for two years, but in spite of it all I was growing worse and gradually losing in weight."

"Finally I took a notion that Tanlac might fit my case. Well, sir, I never will forget how I commenced to pick up. Why, I never saw the like. I took six bottles and actually gained thirty pounds, as I said, and felt so well and strong I could go out and work from sun up to sun down. Ever since then I have been feeling fine and I have this good old Tanlac to thank for it all."

Tanlac is sold in Colorado by W. R. Charters.

A VISIT TO BALLINGER AND A FISHING TRIP

I have just returned from Ballinger, where I visited with the family of my old friend and former partner, D. Reeder, and also Walter Page with whom I was associated in business for several years in McLennan county.

Had not seen Mr. Reeder for more than 18 years, and the visit was a very pleasant one. Mr. Reeder has prospered at Ballinger, and I was royally entertained in their beautiful home. While we are all older than when last together, and are both grandfathers, we enjoyed ourselves as in former days. Mrs. Reeder is still young and has all her former "pep" and beauty, while "Mother" Brazelton seems as young as ever, though her hair is white with the snows of many winters, and she has not forgotten how to make her friends feel at home and enjoy themselves. This family has always been known by their old time southern hospitality, and in this instance their reputation was fully justified.

Roy, the only son, had outgrown our memory, almost, but has turned out a typical son of his father, and is fast assuming the responsibilities of their flourishing dry goods business.

They drove me out to their splendid home in their new Hudson Six, and turned over the keys of the home and the car to me, and I was told to do just as I pleased—and I did.

Did I go fishing?—I'd say I did. My old friend, Walter Page, put himself and his car at my disposal and we fished to our heart's content. Our first try was at the Bay-Kirk Club, where we had all that fishermen could desire, and after gorging ourselves, we brought to our friends several good "strings" of cat, bass and gaspers. We afterwards fished on the river at the falls, on Elm Creek, and just before returning home went back to the scenic banks of the historic Concho where we had the pleasure landing a 12½ pound fish with rod and reel. This put the finishing touch to my fishing and we returned to town happy and contented. On this trip we brought enough fish in to supply six families.

The Ballinger people know how to welcome the stranger, and I met a number of mighty fine people. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bogle, not only helped eat the big fish, but assisted in showing me a good time, driving out several times, theatre parties, bridge parties, etc. Mrs. Bogle is pretty and entertaining, and while Mr. Bogle is not so pretty he is a good old scout with his friends.

The newspaper men treated me fine. A. W. Sledge, the editor, and C. P. Shepard, business manager, also county attorney, welcomed me as one of the fraternity, while Troy Simpson entertained me at several good ball games.

I met Mike Boyd, the famous fisherman, who has caught 'em from coast to coast, and he told some good (though very fishy) stories.

I am under obligations to Mr. and Mrs. Page, for their company, their car and the nice lunches prepared by her. I met their charming daughters, Misses Mary and Rachel, who are now successful teachers, but were little school girls when I last saw them.

I thank all these good people and should any of them ever come out Colorado way will do what we can to show them a good time—tho there is no fishing to be had here.

In returning home had to wait at Abilene several hours for my train and my friends Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Fryar took me for a nice drive in the country in their new car and entertained me at supper, which transformed a dreary wait into an evening of pleasure.

I promised Mr. Reeder to repeat my visit in August, and next time my wife will accompany me, to keep me out of mischief, and to enjoy again meeting this fine family and renewing the friendship of twenty-five years standing.—A. L. Whipkey.

JUDGE BARKER OF CISCO CANDIDATE STATE SENATE

Judge J. D. Barker of Cisco has announced his candidacy for State Senator from the 28th district in the special election to be held Saturday, June 4. Judge Barker was a citizen of Fisher County from 1899 until three years ago and was county judge there when the new Fisher county court house was built.

Among the proposals favored in the platform of Judge Barker are the following:

All measures designed to advance the rural free schools and of the entire public school system.

Immediate redistricting of the representative and senatorial districts of Texas.

A well equipped West Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, with all political appendages removed.

An amendment to the suspended sentence law, with the aim of restricting its use and preventing its abuse.

Protection of our citizenship from criminality by more rigorous enforcement of the present law, rather than by multiplying the number of laws, economy in state government by the elimination of unnecessary officials and by the consolidation of duplicating departments.

In view of the fact that West Texas practically donated the capitol building to the State and built the asylum for the blind, by contributing its fertile prairies, and that she has given thousands of acres to the railroads of the State, at the same time, she has borne an unequal share of the burden of taxation, "I therefore favor a more uniform tax law that will relieve West Texas from the present unequal burden."

Immediate and substantial relief for all soldiers wounded or otherwise incapacitated during the world war.

Hon. W. F. Kelley, of the law firm of Sheppard & Kelley of Cisco, in writing The Record of the candidacy of Judge Barker, among other things says:

"There are to be two candidates both from Eastland County, Hon. Joe Burkett, who is at present a member of the legislature, and Hon. J. D. Barker, a prominent attorney of Cisco. The two candidates have announced their platforms, and so far as they indicate, there is no serious issue between them.

"It is therefore necessary to look to recent acts and expressions of the candidates to determine what, if any, issues there exist.

"Naturally we are at once reminded of the bitter fight made by Judge Burkett on Governor Neff for sending rangers to Eastland County; that the rangers raided and put out of business a gambling institution in Ranger, arresting therein over 80 men who were fined; that certain parties charged with conducting this establishment were and are now clients of Judge Burkett, and that except for the interference of the rangers, this place might yet be in operation, to the disgrace of all Texas.

"Much publicity was given to Judge Burkett's statements on this matter in the local as well as the State papers, and it is impossible that his position can be misunderstood. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and as such can inaugurate and support any and all the reforms he is advocating. It would therefore seem that his object is to secure popular approval of his fight on the Governor rather than service to his constituents.

"Judge Barker openly approves of the Governor's efforts to enforce the law, and the results obtained. The issue, if any, as it now appears, the only issue, between the candidates is that of law enforcement, and we respectfully submit that the facts referred to lead to but one conclusion, and that is that voters approving the Governor's action in closing up the vice den at Ranger can not consistently support Judge Burkett for State Senator." —Adv.

About Digestion.

It is claimed that only half as much food is required when it is thoroughly masticated. Digestion begins in the mouth and a thorough mastication of the food is of the greatest importance. When needed take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the digestion and insure a regular movement of the bowels.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any constable of Mitchell County, Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon T. D. Zornes by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District, but if there be no newspaper published in said judicial district, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said 32nd Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the County Court of Mitchell County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Colorado, Texas, on the first Monday in July, A. D. 1921, the same being the 4th day of July, A. D. 1921, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1338 wherein W. D. McCarty and M. G. McCarty, partners in the firm doing business under the firm name of MCCARTY BROTHERS are plaintiffs and T. D. Zornes is defendant, and said petition alleging that on the 13th day of December, 1920 the defendant purchased from plaintiffs certain merchandise and in part payment therefor defendant made, executed and delivered to plaintiffs his promissory note for the sum of $175, said note being of date December 13th, 1920, and due and payable ninety days after date; that twenty-five dollars was paid on said note on April 2nd, 1921; that the amount now due on said note is One Hundred and Seventy-one and 76-100 dollars; that said note is now past due and unpaid, and defendant, though often requested, has hitherto failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay the same or any part thereof, to plaintiffs' damage in the sum of One Hundred and Seventy-five and 76-100 Dollars.

Said petition further alleges that on dates ranging from March 2nd, 1921, to April 2nd, 1921, at the special instance and request of defendant, said and delivered to defendant at the several times specified account attached to said petition and marked Exhibit "A", certain goods, wares and merchandise in said account mentioned, in consideration whereof the defendant then and there promised plaintiffs to pay the said several sums of money charged therefor in said account specified, amounting to the sum of Two Hundred and Forty-one and 50-100 Dollars. That said amount is due and unpaid, and defendant, though often requested, has hitherto failed and refused and still refuses to pay the same, or any part thereof, to plaintiffs' damage Two Hundred and Forty-one and 50-100 Dollars.

Wherefore plaintiffs pray the court that defendant be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that he have judgment for his debt, Four Hundred and Thirteen and 38-100 Dollars, interest and costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity, that he may be entitled to.

Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its next aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, W. S. Stoneham, clerk of the County Court of Mitchell County, Texas. Given under my hand and the seal of said court at office in Colorado, Texas this 6th day of May, A. D. 1921.

GRADUATION EXERCISES THE LEADING SOCIAL EVENTS.

The leading social events last week were the graduation exercises at the public school. On Thursday evening there were forty-four who passed from the grammar to the High School. A suitable program was rendered to a packed house. The honor pupils were Miss Edna Cook, who was the salutatorian, and Miss Jewel Collier who was the valedictorian. Miss Marcella Price gave a piano selection, and Miss Knowles and Raymond Jones a piano and clarinet number. The whole class was in the choruses. Friday evening the event was the graduating exercises of the class of fourteen, eight boys and six girls. It was a pretty picture they made on the platform under their colors, green and white. The young ladies in white in front of the eight boys in dark suits. The program was well rendered each one on it being entirely at ease and having thoroughly mastered the subject. There has been splendid work done in all the grades this year and perfect harmony with pupils, faculty, and trustees. Besides the literary work other things have been added to the school, library and laboratory supplies, a stereopticon and a grand piano of the best make.

The Hesperian Club gave a five dollar gold-piece which had been offered to the young lady whose dress was made at home and with the least outlay of money. There were three judges, one from the Club, Miss Kate Justice, one chosen by the class, Mrs. R. B. McDonald and one by the teachers, Mrs. R. L. McMurry. It was difficult for the judges to make the decision as each girl was simply and tastefully, yet expensively dressed. The honors fell to Miss Mary Terrell. The entire cost being $7.11. Miss Dry presented the gift and said it was the hope of the club to be able to do something for the boys next year.

The program for the evening was as follows:
Professional.
Anvil Chorus.
Salutatory—"Political and Industrial Opportunities for Women," Mary Terrell.
"Am I Prepared to Enter the University of Hard Knocks?" Annie Mary Lupton.

Valedictory—"A Plea for Higher Education," Dixon Wecter.
Chorus—Spring Song.
Class Address, Rev. C. L. Brown.
Presentation of Diplomas, Mr. H. L. Hutchinson.
Presentation of Scholarships, E. Frank King.
Chorus—High school Song.

Class Roll.
Dixon Wecter, Robert Brennand, Robert Nunn, Jack Helton, Brooks Bell, Jr., Conrad Ausley, Mell Beck, James Adams, Mary Terrell, Annie Mary Lupton, Mrs. Jessie Schroeder-Baker, Hazel Cook, Isla Dorn, Lillian Dorn.

The honor pupils for the year are: Eleventh grade, Dixon Wecter, first, and Mary Terrell and Annie Mary Lupton tied for second. The tenth grade: Irene Bohanan first, and Gladys Dorn, second. Ninth grade, Richard Pearson, first, and Lois Warren second. Eighth grade, Jessie Still first, and Robert Whipkey second. Seventh grade, Jewel Collier first, and Edna Cook second. Sixth, Laura Louise Pearson first, and Maxine Root second. The fifth, Exa King first, and Loyce Price second. Fourth, Nell Harper Greene and Rosalie Leslie tied for first honors and Laura Bell Grantland got second. In the third, Virginia Webb led and Leonora Cook, Elizabeth Snyder, Mary Lee Weaver, Alice Cooper, Ruby Lee Bohanan and Fred Reeves Hutchinson all made the same grade.

Hettie Adele Hutchinson led in the second grade and Josephine Chesney was second. Wauince Green made highest in the first and Ethel May Murphy second. Many other of the pupils, made excellent grades. There were eighty pupils who received certificates for perfect attendance. Superintendent E. F. King and many of his teachers have accepted positions for next year and the Record feels that with the new school building and several other efficient teachers added that next session will be even better than this year.

BOOST THE BOOSTERS.

According to an agreement with the Underwriters Producing & Refining Company, the progressive element of citizenship of Colorado will enter the oil business in the drilling of the Nat Smith well located four miles west of town.

A fund of five thousand dollars is being raised to promote this drilling proposition, and only a small amount of this sum remains unpledged. The plan outlined by the committee in charge is without doubt the most liberal ever offered to any people, and this fact is demonstrated by the manner in which the prominent people have subscribed to this fund.

If the balance of the money is obtained this week, it is quite probable that the well will be started within the next ten days if the drilling company can get tools moved to the location in that time.

There is also a strong sentiment among the people who know, giving a most favorable prospect of another drilling well in case this plan on the Smith well is completed. However, it is not expected that the local people will take any interest in drilling the other wells contemplated.

The spirit of confidence displayed by the subscribers to this fund is notably one of unselfish and loyal support for Mitchell County, and clearly indicates the fact that no good enterprise shall fail with these staunch citizens as the brawn and sinew of movement. The following individuals and business firms have subscribed:

- P. C. Coleman, $200. J. M. Thomas, $150. E. H. Hurd, $250. F. M. Burns, $200. R. H. Looney, $200. Marcus Snyder, $200. Ben Plaster, $200. Crescent Filling tation, $200. C. T. Tom Hughes, $100. J. F. Morris, $100.

In addition to the above names, there are some twelve or fifteen citizens who indicated their intention to subscribe to this fund, but the sons before our paper went to press. The entire list will be printed in our next issue. Boost the Boosters!

Read the Sunday school ad this week, 613 present last Sunday and collections were $28.66. The Baptist and Presbyterians fell off in attendance last Sunday, while the Methodists and Christians gained. Next Sunday is to be a big rally day and we ought to be able to report at least 700 in Sunday school. There are 1200 in Colorado who should attend. It is your duty.

The Silent Man.

Did you ever notice the effect of cultivating a sarcastic or pessimistic disposition? Well, as you will easily see, it soon leads one into a habit that is not easy to break. If you form the habit of telling everyone you meet your ailments, it will not be long until that is the sum of your conversation. Now, reflect a moment, if you tell your near associates your ailments and troubles, what effect does it have on them? They invariably think that you are trying probably, unconsciously, to gain their sympathy. When of course you were, thru force of habit, relating to them the things that are paramount in your mind. If you tell your best friends your troubles through the habit thus formed, every one you meet is informed of your shortcomings, failures, and aches.

Do you not realize the impression that this line of conversation makes upon a newly made arguments, as well as friends of long standing?

You are looked down upon as a pessimist, and your association is shunned by everyone who has an ideal worth pursuit. For it is human nature to want to forget the worthless, bad, and sad, experiences that we encounter.

The Silent Man does not necessarily mean a dumb man. We mean one who is silent so far as the "pessimistic age" is concerned. One who has a smile and good word for everyone, whose very presence uplifts your spirits, and causes you to forget the petty troubles that appear as great peaks in sympathy to your brooding.

Think! What could have been, how much worse your little aches could have been, with a smile that dispels all disappointments. Look forward, not backward, and keep it to yourself.

The Silent Man is among us every day listening to our every grouch. We little suspect that the heart within his heaving chest, underneath that invigorating smile, has been caused to ache because of multitudes of darts cast at it. We never think of him as a sufferer from experiences that measured beside our own, are as mountains beside ant beds. Neither do we dream that the revelation of our troubles causes him to suffer great mental agonies beneath his never wavering smile.

Can we not cultivate this prerequisite to happiness, and by so doing, be with the silent man literally, as well as in sentiment? By the execution of this resolution, we bring upon ourselves more self confidence and respect. We allow the silent man to forget his otherwise often reminded dread, and cause our associates to recall the air:

"What's the use of worryin', It Never was worth while; So—pack up your troubles in your old kit bag, And smile, smile, smile."

What would you give if you could cut loose from everything and go back thirty years and start all over again? Would you be willing to abandon all of your experience and take the same chances of picking out a primrose way—do you think you could improve on the situation?

Have you ever had the opportunity of testing out this "come back" in just a little way? If you haven't don't attempt it, for the things that were are no more—you can't find them; the trail is lost.

There is always some Treasure Island where in fancy we have buried the joys of the past. We always feel that we can return to the very spot of our leave taking and dig them up for just a moment of joyous retrospection, but such dreams are empty mocking ones.

There's the old swimming hole proclaimed in all literature as the one spot on earth nearest a boy's heart. There's the big rock you used to dive from, the long shaded lane up which you drove the cows at sunset. The friendly dog which was just as much a part of your joyousness as the boy companions whose carefree meanderings led you into the mysteries and fullness of nature.

You can't find them back there, for they picked up and left the old place when you abandoned them for this great today which was only your tomorrow yesterday. They have followed you—the old gang is yet rallying to your call whenever you turn the stile of memory and get out on the open road of sweet dreams and summons them to you. They are somewhere on the great highway; they have carved their initials on the smoothest bark of the old trees which reach aloft through the clouds of fancy that you may follow them. Don't forget them; don't forget any of those joys which have given you this indelible picture of your yesterdays.

DON'T YOU FRET.

Takes a deal of grit and patience to go forward sometimes—yes! And we all have woes and troubles which afflict us more or less. Oft the winds are wild and fearful —there are storm clouds swirling near; But there's light above, the shadows soon the sunbeams will appear. We must ever keep a-going—see the good and not forget That the best is just before us—brighter days—why should we fret?

Tho your folks may all be ailing and the cost of living high, And there is no money waiting in the bank for you and by— Does not pay to growl or grumble, lots of folks are worse off yet. Help along some struggling neighbor and you'll be ashamed to fret! For if things were made easy along life's thorofare—

We would soon grow proud and careless, no ill at all to bear— Might get lazy in the sunshine and forget to think and pray. If we didn't have some shadows mixed along with ev'ry day! Cease your worry then, my brother, make you sick unless you do— God who cares for flow'r and sparrow will Himself take care of you. Open up the memory pictures, have anticipation sweet,

If you do your best and daily, ev'ry burden you can meet. Do the first thing that is waiting, be a man, and don't forget Much depends on how one meets things! Pray and hustle—do not fret! (Christian Herald.) —Joseph Henry Ayers.

The Record refused to publish this week a big ad from Sweetwater about the Sunday baseball game. This may not be a good financial policy, but we have the consolation of knowing that we are not selling our space for furthering or advancing harmful things.

The Reading Girl.

I meet a girl almost every day, While on my way from school. Why she is always reading, I can't say, But still she is no fool. She does not smile, nor yet look sad; Nor nothing does she say. But a book she has always had, When I passed her by-the-way.

It is not an idea of my own, But I must the reason find, Why she is always all alone And the other girls far behind.

There is one thing, which I ask, The reason I will not mention. But who will help complete the task: Give a simple way to attract her attention.

Why does an ill tempered man resemble a well-baked pie? Because both are crusty.

And the governor vetoed the West Texas A. & M. so they say. Well, we have a faint recollection of his vetoing the wolf scalp bounty bill, but he O. K.'d the appropriation of $1,350,000 to buy 132 acres of land for the university. All we've got to say is, that the governor is at least a friend of the University—even if he did veto the appropriation of $4,000,000 for the rural schools.

"Let George Do It."

The local Baseball Association appointed Bill Cartwright as official score keeper, also local reporter for The Record in which to write up the games. We depended wholly on him to do so, in which he failed. Hence no report of the games. Colorado played the Lubbock team on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in two very interesting games. These games were played to a very large crowd of enthusiastic but disappointed fans.

It is with pleasure that I endorse the candidacy of Judge Joe Burkett for State Senator from the 28th Senatorial district. Judge Burkett has been known to me for many years, and he is a man of known integrity and intellectual attainments as well as strong personality, and in every way especially qualified for such office.

He has, as district judge for Eastland and other counties, been for the enforcement of all laws, and has at all times advocated those policies of government which if carried out, will be to the best interest of every class of people alike, and result in economy in the administration of the affairs of our government.

If elected to that office I feel confident that he will be faithful to the trust imposed and true to his constituents, having uppermost in his mind their best interests, and I cheerfully recommend him as worthy and in every way qualified.

Very respectfully,
EARL CONNER, Attorney,
Eastland, Texas, May 23, 1921.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I have known Judge Joe Burkett something like two years, and practiced before him while he was district judge of the 42nd Judicial District of Texas. I was in a position to learn of his qualifications as a judge and found him to be one of the very best district judges in the State. He possesses a keen intellect for right principles, fairness and justice between his fellowmen.

In my judgment, he is well qualified and fitted for the position of State Senator from this district, and will ably represent the people of the district if elected.

Respectfully,
JNO. D. McRAE, Attorney,
Eastland, Texas, May 23, 1921.

It's usually the busy man who does things on time.

Some who think they are in the running merely have wheels in their head.

Good luck seems to stumble right onto the hustler.

Envy is an indication of inferiority.

Majorities may not always be right, but they get the benefit of the doubt.

Don't burn your bridges ahead of you.

The man who refuses to trust anyone else has made everybody suspicious of him.

The man who is clean inside likes to be clean outside.

Beyond the Pale.

An aged negro preacher of Southern Georgia had the wonderful good luck to pick up a fine possum and was keeping it until it attained just the right degree of fatness; but the very night before the day set for the feast, the possum was stolen. Shortly after, during a revival, there came to the mourners bench a certain Jim, whose grief seemed more than human strength could possibly bear.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify that I strongly endorse the candidacy of Judge Joe Burkett of Eastland, Texas, for the Senatorship of the Twenty-Eighth Senatorial District of Texas.

As County Judge of Eastland county and District Judge of the old Forty-second Judicial District of Texas, Judge Burkett at all times stood in favor of a rigid enforcement of every law on the Statute books and especially concerning the laws against immorality and desecration of the Christian Sabbath.

I want to especially endorse his positive stand for aid for the Rural schools, for a West Texas A. & M. College, and that portion of the platform in which he favors laws to restrict, if not prevent the immigrant laborers from flocking to Texas and the United States, to compete in the labor market with the American born and American raised and American-educated citizens.

Should the people of the Twenty-eighth Senatorial District send him to the Senate, in my opinion, the District will be ably, honestly and efficiently represented.

Very truly,
CYRUS B. FROST,
Ex-County Attorney and Ex-County Judge, Eastland County,
Eastland, Texas, May 21, 1921.

Cheer up, mah brudder," the old preacher exhorted him: "no matter whut yo' sin, de good Lord gwine for-gib you."

"Ah's skeered he wont. Ah's a pow'ful sinner: been pow'ful mean," Jim lamented.

"Yo' stole some white man's chickens?" the old man questioned.

"Wussen dat,"

"Oh Lord, help this po lam; Is yo' use yo' razor?"

"Oh, wussen dat!"

"Lord, Lord, hab mercy. Yo aint killed nobody?"

"Oh, lots wussen dat."

Mrs. Allie M. Erwin Hostess To The Philmath Club.

The members of the Philmath Club never had a more delightful meeting than the one of Friday, when Mrs. Allie M. Erwin was hostess. At the regular hour 3:30, the guests assembled at her pretty home, the living room was effectively decorated in floral adornments of roses, Shasta daisies and other cut flowers. The lesson on "Railways During and After the War" was led by Mrs. C. C. Coffee. This proved very interesting, and created much argument. After this the social hour was spent and at refreshment time the guests were ushered into the dining room where the table was beautifully arranged. The centerpiece was a huge vase of lovely gladiolas, among them perched a blue bird.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Finis Wilson served a dainty luncheon of hot chicken patties, combination salad, ice tea, divinity fudge. The club guests were Mesdames J. W. Fairbairn, Finis Wilson, Miss Daisy Dees of Sweetwater was the out of town guest.

Mrs. W. L. Hester Entertains 42 Club

Mrs. W. L. Hester was hostess to the Forty-two Club ladies and their husbands and gentlemen friends on Tuesday evening at her pretty home. Five tables of merry players vied with each other for scores, which ran high. At the close refreshments were served by the hostess.

Friends of Miss Norolene Porter, daughter of F. B. Porter and wife, will learn with interest of her graduation at William Wood College at Fulton, Missouri June 1st. Miss Porter will return home about July 1st.

Mrs. Henthorne Better.

News comes from Mrs. W. H. Henthorne who is at Dallas in the Timber Lawn Sanitarium that she is now much improved during the last few days.

Baptist Revival.

The revival conducted by Rev. E. P. Miller of Abilene began Wednesday evening. Rev. Miller conducted a revival here last year which proved very successful and his many friends will be glad to attend and have the privilege of hearing him again.

Presbyterian Notes.

Rev. J. A. Bryant of Abilene filled his regular appointment Sunday. At the morning service his subject was "Why Join the Church?" which afforded much food for thought. The evening service was called off in order that all could attend the Baccalaureate service. Sunday school is growing in interest as well as numbers.

Mrs. F. C. Chekal visited in Colorado this week.

The New Legion Hall.

The Tim Garland Post of the American Legion has secured the room upstairs in the rear of the Martin Drug Store. The building has been furnished with chairs and table, a small library which has been furnished very largely by the Martin Drug Store. The boys who come to town may now spend their leisure hours in places of pleasant and instructive environment, not only will it be a place for reading and study but a place of amusement in various other ways. We feel proud of the little hall we have. Many of the larger towns have no hall at all. We feel that the officers and members of the Post are boosters and ready to push anything that will tend to enlighten and push upward their fellowman. Practically all the ex-service men are members of the Post. Those who have not yet come in, we extend solicitation for their membership and companionship. The men of the late war are proud and feel that a certain degree of brotherhood exists between them and we think it should be thus. The members of the Tim Garland Post are ready to help in any capacity possible. We could not but mention once again the brother soldier from whom the Post took its name. That there was a higher type of manhood dwelt within his soul, we are confident, and we with reverence say that he has gone over the top where there is no returning. We feel that he is a man of that glorious army over there. We are for making the Post at Loraine the best.

Charlie Thompson.

Baccalaureate.

Dr. W. D. Bond of Simmons College of Abilene, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon to the Seniors of Loraine High School on Sunday evening at the Methodist church, which was filled to its full capacity. His subject was "The Life That Counts" and in most impressive and beautiful words he made clear that the life that counts is a Christian life with all the other high attributes of character.

The invocation was given by Mr. J. R. Reeder. The choir gave a special selection, Mrs. W. R. Martin sang very sweetly "Beyond The Dawn," and we thought it quite appropriate that a former school girl should sing at the appointed time. Dr. Bond pronounced the benediction and all went away feeling that a rare treat had been enjoyed and with hopes that the Seniors will live a life that counts in the coming years.

George Foy and wife are entertaining another daughter, who arrived on the 16th.

Harris Toler and Miss Lanell Snell and Merlyn Toler were down from Sweetwater Sunday.

Methodist Notes.

Rev. Ben Hardy of Big Spring held services at the morning hour Sunday.

The W. M. S. Sr., met Monday afternoon at the church. Mrs. T. A. Martin led the lesson. Mrs. Will Rowland conducted the devotional services.

A Sunday school teachers training class has been organized with four teen members. They met last Thursday with Mrs. W. E. Dickenson this week at the church. Mrs. Jim Johnson is class leader.

"Fishin' "

S. A. Martin and A. C. Pratt with their families left Monday for a camping trip on the Concho. Suffice it to say that the feathery and finny tribe will suffer as a consequence of that trip. However, both men deserve the recreation from their business responsibilities.

Mrs. Roy Baird and baby, Miss Connie Baird went to Merkel to visit, the earlier part of the week.

Mrs. Kate Howell received a message Sunday stating the death of her father at his home in East Texas on Saturday. He had been sick for some time and his death was expected at any time. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Howell in the loss of her father.

Frank Johnson and wife, also Mrs. G. A. Hutchins attended the ball game at Colorado Tuesday.

Hiram Toler has returned from Brownwood where he visited his daughter, Mrs. W. L. Petty, while there he did some fishing and squirrel hunting.

Miss Pearl Tempelton is home from Brownwood where she visited friends.

Mrs. M. J. Martin has returned from a months visit to her sons in East Texas.

Miss Lula Munns was busy in Sweetwater a few hours Tuesday.

Mrs. W. L. Wimberly of Sweetwater spent the week end with old friends here.

Harry Hall and family, in company with his parents, left Sunday for Robert Lee, where they visited relatives.

Frank Johnson and wife Mrs. J. S. Jackson and children motored to Colorado Saturday.

Mrs. Holsted who with her husband is stationed at Iatan is the guest of the Cook families this week.

Miss Marie Coffee left this week for Waxahachie, where she will take a course in expression under Dr. Curry of Boston.

Miss Hattie Coffee left for Odessa Monday. Miss Coffee taught school here the past term and will be very greatly missed.

Miss Pearl Templeton is home from Ballinger and Brownwood.

News comes from J. S. Rudy that he is in St. Louis en route to his home in Canada.

W. D. McCarley, S. G. Hallman, W. C. Brown and wives attended the singing at Pyron Sunday.

EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN AT COLORADO LAUNCHED.

The Christian educational movement of the M. E. church was launched by the church at Colorado Monday night when Judge W. P. Leslie, director of the campaign here, announced individual assessments of members of the local Methodist church for raising their quota and gave final instructions to the thirty team captains for obtaining endorsement of the pledges.

The quota for the local church was $5300, extending over a period of five years. The quota for Texas is set at $5,000,000 and the State is to receive $6,000,000 of the funds to be raised through the campaign. Announcement of the success attained in raising the quota here will be announced Sunday and Judge Leslie and the pastor, Rev. C. L. Browning, are optimistic in the belief that the amount expected of Colorado will be oversubscribed.

ANOTHER SOCIALISTIC EXAM.

The world has had a most striking example of how Socialism and Communism works out by what has happened and is still happening in Russia, and now comes another example closer home, in the state of North Dakota. A bill is before congress appropriating $5,000,000 to buy seeds for the states of North Dakota and Montana, because of the drouth in those sections and partial crop failures. Congressman Johnson of South Dakota says his state can buy its own seed, as it is not suffering from Socialistic hallucinations like the sister state to the north.

The Socialistic Government experiments of North Dakota have left that state in a bad pickle, financially, in a banking way and by reason of suspicion and impaired credit elsewhere. A number of banks there have failed. It is always thus when the Socialistic theories are put into actual practice. They are very alluring, and ought to work out fine—the common good of all, but the abhorred and uncontrollable fact remains that they do not. On the contrary they soon bankrupt any country, state or community having anything to do with them. Government ownership of railroads sounds good also and ought to work out, but it didn't. It cost the American people hundreds of millions just to take them over and run them a couple of years. If we had operated them a few more years probably we would all have gone broke. All Socialistic theories are the worst kind of pipe dreams, as has now been amply demonstrated. They ought not to be, but they are, and the main reason is because human nature is what it is.

Editorially the Waco Times Herald says:

"Money may be tight with your local bank, but the twelve Federal Reserve banks have got money to burn, so to speak. They are putting up great buildings, magnificent structures, and also the re-discount rate. The same paper goes on to say: "Not only do we need a change in the policy of the Federal Reserve Board, fellow citizens, but also a change in the currency system, where by your local bank can lower the rate of interest without lessening its own earnings."

The saying is: "There are three days—yesterday, today and tomorrow. But the greatest of these is today."

France Holds American Graves Sacred

Only the slow chisel of time can carve the truth of history. That which we debate hotly and surround with words and eagerness and doubts and disappointments fades and is forgotten. Some simple fact, seldom upon our tongues and too obvious to be discussed, is left standing against the horizon.

The beginning of some such reevaluation made itself felt on Memorial day last year. In the commemoration of the day here and abroad there was a silent power that all who participated could not but feel. Tears were nearer the surface than any one suspected, memories more poignant. The very thought of our dead lying in the soil of France, their graves covered with flowers by the hands of French women and French children, the bugles of their French comrades blowing over them, stirs the depths of reverence and loyalty.

A scene in France, in one of the largest cemeteries in which American soldiers are buried, is thus beautifully described:

Scene Most Picturesque.

Beyond the wall masses of purple lilacs spread against the low red roofs of the houses. In the distance a few lazy clouds, in sky of blue, hung about the old cathedral spires. Bird calls and scent of flowers filled the air. At our feet low mounds and white crosses. Above our heads, at half mast, the Stars and Stripes.

Monsieur Gounelle, in black cassock, spoke in French and explained to his people the meaning of Memorial day. One felt, instinctively, their sympathy and love.

Then we laid on every grave a spray of flowers and breathed a prayer for the absent ones. Each girl felt personally responsible for each mound in the row she decorated. How clear the names on those crosses stood out even though a year had passed!

The French officers laid a wreath at the foot of the flag pole and one of them spoke with tenderness of the heroes who had gone on. Already there hung upon the pole lovely wreaths from the Ville de Chateauroux, from the French mothers association, and other local organizations.

The chaplain from the post at Montierchaume addressed us, and then three volleys rang out upon the air, the missiles winging their way over the white crosses and silencing for a moment the song of the birds. A young marling faced the flag, saluted, and placed a bugle to his lips. Upon the warm clear air of that May day there floated down the sweet and plaintive notes of "Taps." And—it was finished.

Girls Scatter Violets.

But wait. Who are these? Out of the watching throng came young French girls, to scatter violets upon our graves. And they told us, oh mothers of America, that they would

Typifies Heroic Dead

Perhaps the highest keynote of Memorial day, either in this country or abroad, was struck at Suresnes, the high hill under the guns of Mt. Valerien, overlooking the city of Paris, to which President Wilson went last Memorial day to pay his homage to the several thousand American dead buried there. The first American monument abroad authorized by the War department was set up at Suresnes, France, last year, and unveiled as a part of the Memorial day observance. The statue, then a plaster cast of heroic size, is the copy and conception of the typical American infantryman by Joe Davidson, the American sculptor. As finally done in granite it will be given by Mrs. Willard D. Straight "for sentinel duty at Suresnes."

Our photograph was taken during the Memorial day exercises engaged in by French and Americans last year.

take our place next year, and in all the years to come. There will be flowers upon these graves this year.

Gradually the cemetery became deserted except for a few who lingered. A group of marines stood about the grave of a comrade very dear. Its marker was of stone and bore these words: "A true soldier beloved of his comrades." At one side a lad stood weeping and told us that his brother fell beyond the German lines.

Madame Gounelle, Georges and his mother came and talked with us. Love and sympathy shone in their faces as they told us of the honor that was theirs in caring for these graves. I thought of Georges' letter and his offer of the friendship of "a little Frenchman." Deep in our hearts there will live forever a memory of this "little Frenchman."

It was just the loving kindness of a kindly people and was thus, no matter where we went. Pilgrimages to the cemeteries at Suresnes, Chalons, Fismes, Chatel-Guyon only served to deepen our gratitude to them.

Oh, Mothers of America, you need not fear. Again the mother hearts in France will leap the wide expanse of sea and utter a prayer for you as they drop their flowers upon our graves this year.

And above those glorious crosses, wherever they may be, ever floats Old Glory, as she whispers to the breeze: I called them and they followed, I guard them in their sleep.

STROVE FOR HUMAN LIBERTY

Armies Under the Stars and Stripes Had Always the Noblest Aims Man May Know.

For two decades the recurrent observance of Memorial day has been the regretful text for comment upon the dwindling line of "The Boys in Blue." The World war has given an added significance to the exercises of the day which in all the years to come will be dedicated also to "The Boys in Khaki." The young men of this generation who so nobly carried on the noble record established by the men of the early sixties. And in between room will be preserved for the veterans of the war with Spain in Cuba and the Philippines.

It is a proud tradition that in each of these wars the armies beneath the Stars and Stripes fought for human liberty, not for greed of territory or lust of power, but, in the immortal words of Lincoln, that government of the people should not perish. And the outcome in each has justified the faith that "conquer we must when our cause is just." A people that takes up the sword only in such circumstances and with such spirit finds in the solemn ceremonies of Memorial day a symbolism of patriotism, an avowal of faith that can never be quenched.

PEOPLE OF OUR TOWN

The Kid is a combination of pep, curiosity, devilment, goodness, fun, trouble and noise. Some days he brings his Father's gray hairs in sorrow back to the Grave, and other days he brings back Dad's lost youth. The Kid is hard to Get Along with sometimes, but still we can't get along without him.

Treatment of Common Colds.

"If all who catch could be persuaded to remain in bed for the first 24 hours of such an attack," says a well known physician, "there would be fewer cases dragging on with distressing symptoms for weeks and often ending in some more serious disease." To make sure of a prompt recovery you should also take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Whether sick or well the bowels should move each day.

MONUMENT TO THE HEROIC DEAD

Beautiful Arlington amphitheater was used for the first time since its dedication, in Washington's 1920 Memorial exercises. General John J. Pershing is shown making the principal address to an audience which overflowed the massive uncovered bowl. Veterans of the Civil war were given prominent places among the listeners.

Just across the historic Potomac overlooking the capital of the nation from a commanding bluff is the noblest of American cemeteries, and from the midst of its verdant green is reflected in the morning sunlight a wonderful edifice of snow-white marble. It is the new Memorial amphitheater, the most splendid monument to the heroic dead ever erected by any nation. In beautiful Arlington lie buried more than 26,000 men, Union soldiers and majors of the Civil war, from private and seaman to general and admiral, Confederate soldiers, soldiers of the Spanish war and soldiers and sailors of the regular army, navy and marines who have died in times of peace. It is the highest of honors to be eligible to burial in Arlington and while major generals and second lieutenants lie side by side near the men they commanded in battle, not one civilian, no matter what his influence, may find burial within its confines. Nor could one wish to lie down to final rest in more beautiful surroundings.

Over every foot of the slopes and vales of this magnificent reservation the national government provides for a most perfect care; the grass is kept green and cut and the bushes and shrubs cared for as in a royal park, while near the old Lee mansion the fragrant wisteria climbs over an extensive trellis where the Memorial day exercises have always been held, on all sides flowering shrubs contributing their living beauty and perfume to the impressive ceremonies on this day of the nation's remembrance. Every President of the United States since the Civil war, except one, has felt honored by an invitation to speak at Arlington on Memorial day.

Worthy of the Dead.

For many years, however, this wisteria-covered temple has been entirely inadequate for the rapidly growing throngs attending the services, and some thirteen years ago the Grand Army of the Republic appealed to congress for a building fitting the greatness of the nation's Valhalla. The white marble edifice, completed at a cost of $850,000, is the magnificent result. It is a great circular amphitheater with a seating capacity of 5,000. The marble is from the famous quarries at Danby, Vt., and is a dazzling snowy white. The location of the amphitheater is on the crest of the same high ridge occupied by the historic Lee mansion with its huge white pillars, but the former is located some distance apart, just outside of the heavily wooded portion of the cemetery which is filled with soldier graves. As years pass and the young trees surrounding the amphitheater grow the place will increase in beauty and majesty.

The first national cemetery was established at Gettysburg to make an honored resting place for those who on that great battlefield gave their lives that the nation might live, and then came the inspiration to make at Arlington a cemetery that would be national in its widest sense. To provide this final resting place for the nation's dead, the government paid to the heirs of Gen. Robert E. Lee's wife, $150,000 for property which had been assessed in 1860 at $35,000.

The Arlington National cemetery embraces 418 acres and since its establishment the government has spared no expense to make it the most beautiful and attractive city of the dead upon which the sun shines. Over $1,000,000 have been thus expended in landscape engineering to enhance the natural beauty of the spot.

World Holds Nothing Like It.

The amphitheater is a majestic addition which constitutes Arlington the most magnificent of cemeteries. There is nothing like it in the whole world. Other nations have erected monuments to successful generals, admirals and statesmen. They have provided famous places of sepulture, as Westminster abbey, Pere La Chaise, the Pantheon, and the Pyramids of Egypt. But Westminster abbey is reserved for men of the highest distinction in any walk of life — statesmanship, invention, science, letters, philanthropy, as well as war. It is the same with Pere La Chaise, while the Pyramids were tombs for kings and queens only. But not so with Arlington cemetery. Here equality of service and sacrifice dominates. Commanding general and humble private are on the same level; the simple rule of eligibility for burial is the same; yet it is iron-clad. Wealth, birth, social station and political eminence, without military service, try for admission in vain.

At Arlington have gathered during the past generation the greatest of the nation's military heroes to listen to and to participate in eulogies and tributes to their silent comrades all encamped about, and here each year in ever-increasing number are laid to their final rest many of these same heroes of the wars. Every year sees a multitude of new graves in Arlington and every Memorial day witnesses the thinned ranks of the participants in the tremendous conflict of half a century ago which has contributed the great majority of the members of this Silent City.

On Honor's Roll

By Alice Williams Brotherton.
Weave the garlands, scatter the flowers.

Over these sacred mounds of ours,
Lily and rose and laurel spread
Over the graves of those long dead,
Dead on the Field of Honor.

By each headstone the old flag waves,
But know ye not these are empty graves?

Each man rose from the dust to fight
In the latest struggle of Right and Might,
To fight on the Field of Honor.

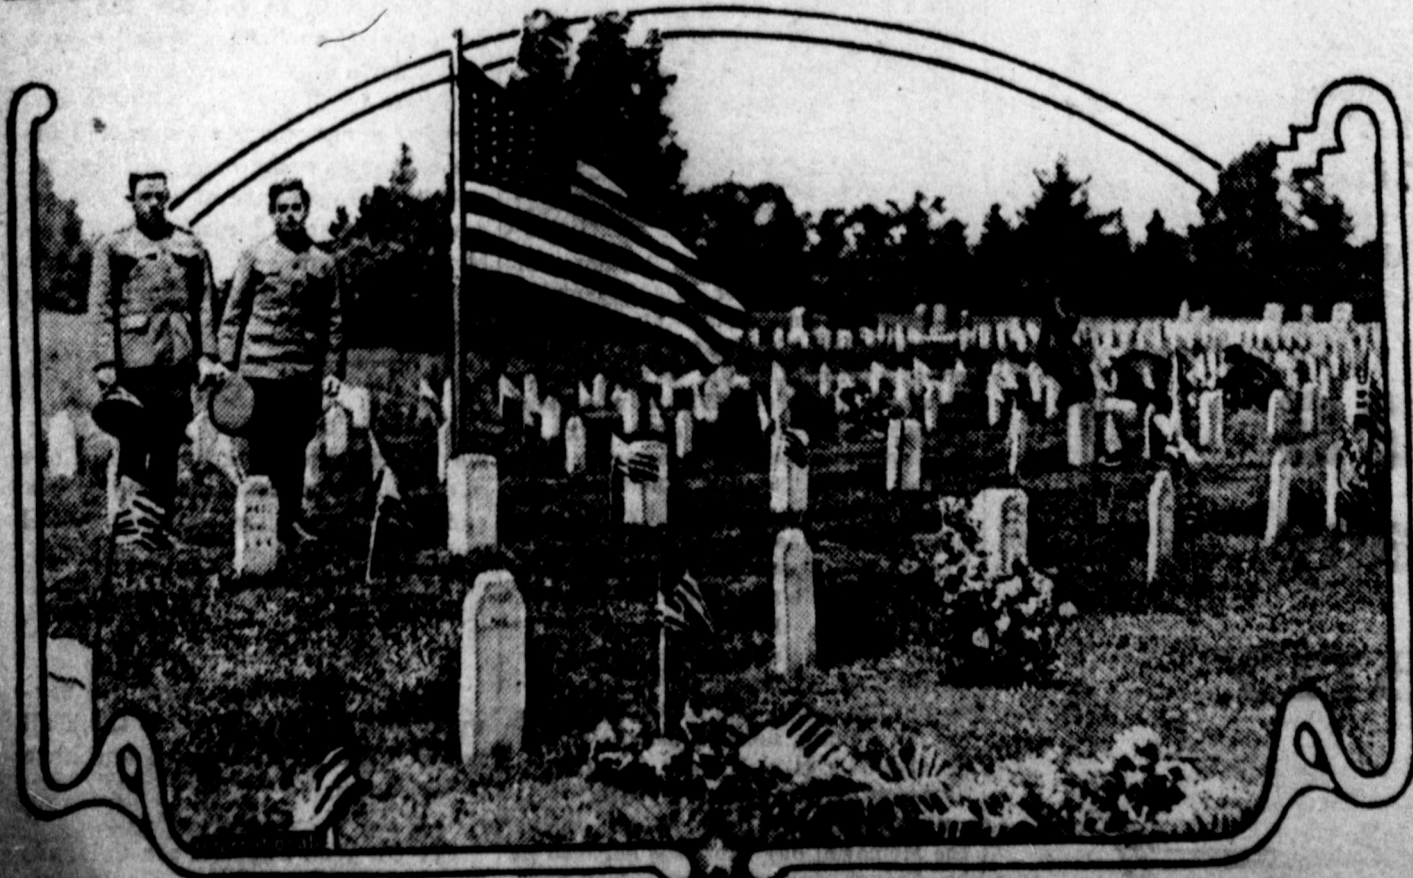

Forth in shadowy ranks they thronged
To answer the call of a people wronged,
Washington, Lincoln, Grant and Sherman,

Ay, and many a loyal German,
Rosecrans, Schurz and doughty Sigel
Who bore our Stars and Stripes and eagle;

"Stonewall" the stern, and chivalrous Lee;—
With our first troopship cross the seal
These are the great Reserves who stand
Today at the back of our fighting band.

Women of France, 'tis yours to spread
Flowers on the graves of our newly dead;

We, while we strew these empty graves,
Weep for our dead across the waves
On the red Field of Honor!

Heroes of Today Salute, Heroes of Yesterday Who Sleep in National Cemetery

TRIED AND TRUE RECIPES

Cocoanut Cake.

Two cups sugar; three-fourths cup butter creamed; three cups flour and two teaspoons of baking powder sifted three times together; four egg whites whipped; one cup of milk from the cocoanut, if necessary complete the measure with sweet milk. Bake in layers and put together with uncooked icing and the ggrated cocoanut.

Nut Cake.

One pound raisins and one cup of water. Cook raisins a few minutes. One tablespoon butter; one and one-half cups sugar; two eggs; one level teaspoon soda; one teaspoon cinnamon; one teaspoon cloves; one teaspoon allspice; three cups flour and heaping gteaspoon baking powder and one cup chopped nuts.

Chocolate Cake.

Whites of five eggs; two cups of flour; one cup of sugar; three teaspoons baking powder sifted with the flour; three-fourths cup of sweet milk. FILLING:—Two tablespoons chocolate; one cup of sweet milk boiled together; one tablespoon butter. Cook until thick and beat until cold.

Caramel Icing.

Two cups sugar; one-half cup sweet milk; one teaspoon vanilla extract; butter size of walnut. Boil one and one-half cups sugar until it begins to thread; melt and brown one-half cup sugar. Stir in with the boiled sugar; add butter; let boil a few minutes until it gets firm when dropped in cold water. Add flavoring after taken from fire.

Caramel Filling.

One cup sugar; one-half cup milk. Mix and let boil while you are melting one-half cup sugar to a delicate brown. Mix little of first mixture to the melted sugar; then pour it all into the first mixture, stirring constantly. Cook until it will form a soft ball in cold water; beat until creamy. Spread on cake with thin knife dipped in water.

Marshmallow Filling.

Two cups sugar; one-half cup water; one level teaspoon cream of tartar. Stir together and boil until syrup threads, then stir in one box marshmallows. Stir until marshmallows are entirely dissolved. When partially cooled stir in a cup of nuts and put between layers.

Sponge Cake.

Six egg yolks; one cup sugar; one teaspoon lemon juice; grated rind of one-half lemon; six egg whites; one-half teaspoon salt; one cup flour. Beat the yolks until thick and lemon colored; add sugar and continue beating; then add flavoring and any other liquid that the recipe calls for. Beat the mixture well; add salt to egg whites and beat until whites are stiff. Sift flour; add part of dry ingredients to the yolk mixture; add egg whites. Repeat until all ingredients have been added. Mix by lifting wire egg beater up and down through mixture. Turn at once into an ungreased pan. Bake in moderate oven for 50 to 60 minutes.

Strawberry Short Cake.

One quart strawberries; one-half cup butter; two tablespoons sugar; two cups flour; two teaspoons baking powder; one-half teaspoon salt; milk enough for soft dough. Mix flour, sugar salt and baking powder together; rub in butter; add milk; mix. Form into three equal sized cakes; bake in hot oven; take out just as soon as done; spread with butter while hot. Wash berries, mash slightly, add one cup sugar; dip out fruit and spread between short cakes; leave juice for the sauce. SAUCE:—One cup sugar, one cup hot water, one tablespoon lemon juice. Boil a few minutes and add juice left from berries.

Cranberry Sherbet.

One quart cranberries (stewed and rubbed through sieve) two lemons juiced; one quart sugar; one envelope of Knox's gelatine and enough water to make the amount. Serve with meat course. (Freeze). This will make three pints of sherbet

Banana Sherbet.

Boil one pint each of sugar and water ten minutes. Stir hot into them beaten whites of two eggs; add half a cup of lemon juice and mashed pulp of six bananas. Strain and freeze.

Charlotte Russe.

One pint of cream; one-half cup sour milk; one-fourth box of Knox's gelatine; whites of two eggs; one-half cup of pulverized sugar; pinch of salt; one teaspoonful vanilla. Soak the gelatine in one-half cup of milk twenty minutes. When dissolved set the cup in hot water. Whip the cream and to it add the salt, sugar, whites of eggs and vanilla. Strain the gelatin into mixture and stir till thick. Turn into mold or bowl lined with lady fingers. Let stand in cold place till ready to serve.

Apple Snow.

Take five or six large ripe apples and grate or scrape them and sprinkle very lightly with sugar; take a cup or half a cup of cream and whip until stiff and mix this with the apples very gently until it is all used. This is very good served with cake. This is very nourishing for sick with the white of egg beaten very stiff instead of the cream.

Two eggs; one cup lard or butter; one cup sugar; one cup black molasses; one cup sour milk with teaspoon of soda; three scant cups flour; one teaspoon cinnamon; one teaspoon allspice; one tablespoon ginger; add raisins and nuts if desired. Bake in slow oven.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Donaison, Miss Robbie Hudson, and Nawl Boatler left Wednesday night for Hamlin to attend commencement exercises of the Nazarine College. Carl and Homer Phenix, formerly of this place, graduated at that college this year.

LONE STAR.

Bro. Harding, the presiding elder, accompanied Bro. Young out here on last Sunday afternoon and delivered a very interesting sermon.

W. H. Harris, wife and sons, and Allie Hallmark, Exa Ware, and Linnie McGuire, were guests in the A. C. Taylor home Sunday.

Emice Long and Milton Hamilton were married Saturday evening. Bro. Young officiating.

School closed Friday. The program was given Thursday night in order to give people from other communities an opportunity to come, as there were several schools out Friday.

Miss Pearl Brown spent from Thursday to Sunday in the home of her sister, Mrs. Chester Anderson.

A. C. Taylor, wife and daughter, Nannie Lou, and Eldie and Lillie Richburg spent Monday in Colorado on business.

Sanford Fraser and family spent the week end at Buffalo Gap.

N. L. Henderson and wife entertained with a party Saturday night.

C. J. Martin and family and Marvin Martin and wife of Loraine, were the guests of Wm. Martin and wife Sunday.

Quite a few from here attended the school exercises at Loraine and Valley View Friday night.

UNION HAPPENINGS

Our people are about done planting except what they prefer to plant late. We still have reasonably good season in the ground. There has been some re-planting in this section, such as early planted feed stuff. Cotton is getting up to a good stand. Generally speaking the crops in this section are in very good condition.

Our school closed last Monday evening with an interesting program, well rendered, which shows the result of faithful work on the part of both teachers and pupils.

Our Sunday school was well attended and good interest manifested, and to the surprise of many Rev. J. M. Shuford was on the ground, seemingly at his best, and delivered one of his able, strong and practical sermons.

Next Sunday Rev. Terrell, our pastor will preach for us.

'Twas midnight on the ocean;
 Not a street car was in sight;
 The forest fires were burning;
 It rained all day and night.

'Twas a nice warm day in June,
 The snow was falling fast;
 A barefoot boy with shoes on,
 Stood sitting in the grass.

OUT BUFORD WAY.

Mr. Luch Merrill and family from Desdemona are visiting in the W. T. Martin home. He says that its dry down there. The early rains have kept the pastures up very well till the present time.

We learned from a man whose home is in the Corpus Christi country that the grass has dried up and blown away. He was in Mitchell County prospecting and expects to move West. Mighty fine country, Mister!

A recent letter from Mr. Tobe Lindly in the Mount Vernon truck and fruit district, saying the crop was reasonably good, but they were unable to sell it, because of the prevailing high freight rates.

Mrs. J. P. Hunter in a recent letter from Mrs. Jess Hunter, living near McKinney, says "I thought it hailed in West Texas, but you folks don't know anything about storms." She lives in about seven miles of Melissa, where the cyclone struck and killed so many folks and destroyed so much property.

After all, hadn't you rather live in good old Mitchell County and be thankful that "it's as well as what it is" with us.

We had some new faces at Sunday school Sunday, but only a few over 80 present. Four times that many folks in our community who should be helping out with their presence and a good lesson in the Sunday school.

Committees were appointed to get 70 yards of hail wire to go over the windows of the church, and take down the heavy shutters that have a tendency to slam the window panes out during high winds.

The Sunday school program committee for the second Sunday in June met at the church Tuesday evening for practice.

Grandfather McGuire, and Mrs. M. C. Holt, his daughter, left for McKinney to get treatment from a cancer specialist there. We pray that the great physician might restore him to his reasonable health; that the last days of his life be spent in blessing others, instead of intense suffering as has been the case for the past fortnight.

Mr. Grobles, boy, who is ten or twelve years old, had a rather sudden attack of appendicitis last week while in town. He was taken to the sanitarium for treatment.

Mr. Jack Clark, living in the Palmer home spent the week end with his brother, Claud, over at Hamlin. They had not seen one another for seven years. Both of them went through the world war without getting near enough to visit. Jack belonged to General Headquarters, and Claude spent 90 days in the front line trenches helping capture Dead Man's Hill. He said on his first trip to the trenches he was guarding the entrance of a trench to a listening post in No-man's land, the rain was just pouring down, and he was backed up to one wall of the trench stooping over, when a large rock slipped off the bank close above and struck him in the back. He thought at least three shells had hit him. It was a mighty pleasant sensation to find him self all together after feeling all over his body twice. He said the boy on each side of him "went West" and he says the guy that says he wasn't scared a bit is either a liar or crazy. Well, these instances call to mind the terrible suffering and fighting our soldier boys went through with, and I fear we are forgetting them too soon. Let's treat them like the brave boys that they were, and help them to forget the awful Hell they went through to make our own beloved land a safe place to live in. Cheer somebody, and scatter sunshine along the way!

Mrs. A. L. Madden.
 W. D. Crockett.

Card of Thanks.

H. B. Broadus and Son desire to thank and take this method of expressing their appreciation to all those customers who traded with them one month and quit. What they are most thankful for is that they did not make it two months under the same terms and conditions. We are the winners and we thank you.

The Unsuccessful Man.

I do as little as I can, and ask the highest pay; that's why I am also ran, now that I'm bent and gray. I fooled along, year after year, at every job I'd touch; I always had a deadly fear that I would do too much. I've heard of men who scive to give full value for their wage; such people live in story books, and tracts and sacred tales, and many years have passed, gadzooks, since I have seen such males. Like other independent wights who swell the toiling throng, I've always stood up for my rights, and whooped about my wrongs. I've pined around in no man's land, the right of those who paid my wage was no concern of mine. And now that I am gray and bent, I can not find a place; employers will not pay a cent—they do not like my face. They scorn me when in woe arrayed, with word I'd get in touch; they've heard I always was afraid that I would do too much.

The More the Merrier.

"The verra best music I effer herd whateffer was daga at Jamie MacLaughlin's," said the piper. "There was fifteen o' us pipers in the wee back parlour, all playin' different chunes. I thought I was floatin in Heaven."

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. "I saw after taking some Cardui ... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person."

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night. I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me. . . . My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered, as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere.

The accompanying map shows the progress that the Texas Farm Bureau has made in the last six months. The map was made on April 15 and it shows all organized counties in white.

Counties that are being planned for organization in gray and counties where no work has been done are shown in black. The organization at the present time has branches in 100 Texas counties and its membership is between 60,000 and 75,000. Membership teams are at work in 20 counties and there are 150 field workers in organization work.

WITH THE CHURCHES

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH
Sunday school at 9:45. Come and bring some one with you. Boost the Sunday school.

Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Sunday is Education Day—the beginning of the great drive in our church for $33,000,000 to be used to better equip our schools for the training of Methodist boys and girls for leadership in the church and the world. Come out Sunday morning and help do this most needed work in the church. It is the call of the church, the need of the world. Come help us "go over the top." Every member of the Methodist church in Colorado will if possible be seen by some member of the several team workers and asked for a contribution for Christian education in our church. If you are unable to give, be sorry; if unwilling to give, be courteous; if able and willing, give according to your ability—enthusiastically and gladly. Judge Leslie has charge of the local campaign. He will greatly appreciate any help and all courtesies. This is the greatest movement in the church. Be loyal to your church and do your duty.
C. L. BROWNING, Pastor.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Sunday, May 22nd, was a very good day with our young people. There was a fine attendance at each Endeavor Society and the work was above the average.

A good crowd at each morning and evening service.

Remember the Bible school begins at 10 a. m. Be on time. We had quite a number tardy. Let's get them. Morning worship at 11:00 a. m.; the evening hour, 8:00.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

We begin under the Union Tabernacle June 5th. Both Bible school and morning worship there.

We have the promise of visitors from our nearby towns who are coming. We hope to have the cooperation of all Christian workers who desire the salvation of their friends.

Modern Philosophy.

A woman who can love but once is badly struck on herself.

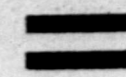

Before marriage a man swears to love, and after, he loves to swear.

A little fun is all right, but our life is too short and too serious to spend it all around the monkey cage.

Never steal a watch because a lawyer eventually gets the case, and you the works.

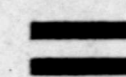

Love is like hash—you must have confidence, to enjoy it.

How to get your Money's Worth!!

You know the store that goes altogether on prices. You know the disappointments of depending upon the groceries from such places. Yet prices is an IMPORTANT part of the grocery business.

You've just got to have QUALITY mixed groceries with moderate prices to please grocery customers. The common run of people look at the orange before asking the price and its that way with other edibles. We have a high quality line of Groceries and Priced according to the conditions which justify them.

ENTHUSIASM.

Enthusiasm in a school room Works like yeast cake in the dough. Each depends upon the other, If you want to make things go.

Dough would always stay just heavy if you left it to itself, And the yeast cake, too, is useless When upon the pantry shelf.

When you mix the two together, Zip, the stuff begins to grow; Then it has life and zeal about it; Soon its work begins to show.

And the students may sit and sour Like a batch of heavy bread, With enthusiasm lacking, And the energy all dead.

Get elated over something; Get inspired with the work, Be on time, get there early, Make it a mile, you will not shirk.

Keep yourself from being lifeless If you want to grow, Mix it with enthusiasm; It will rise like dough.

Wealth and leisure are not needed, Workers are the ones who thrive, Talk things up; enthuse a little; Show that you are still alive.

Make believe that you are happy Make the crowd around you smile, They will grow enthusiastic If you only start the style.

It isn't the things we've won and possessed that fill the coffers of life to overflowing. It's the things we have lost, the things that make for sweet memories. That's the sum and substance of life that endures—memories and their lessons.

Two gentlemen riding on a train were both very much intoxicated.

First Gent—What time is it?

Second Gent—(after extracting a match-box from the pocket with much exertion and gazing at it intently) "Thursday."

First Gent—My God! I've got to get off here!

The only way to have a friend is to be one.
