SEVENTEENTH YEAR—VOL. XVII

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1921

Business conditions in Colorado are better than the general average found in towns and cities of East, Central and South Texas, according to information gathered by the Chamber of Commerce from various parts of the state.

Despite the somewhat discouraging outlook, the business men and bankers of those sections of Texas where conditions are so bad are not given to pessimism, and look for a return to better times within the next year. All signs, however, point to a slow recovery and the public will not anticipate any sudden change in the present situation, it is believed.

Data compiled by the Chamber of Commerce shows that from Colorado to Sherman the best crops, of both cotton and feed stuffs, to be found are in Mitchell county. To the south conditions are even less favorable, especially so after passing Sterling City and San Angelo. Information received from as far south as Palacios were very unfavorable, the Chamber of Commerce correspondent there writing: "This county is blown up. There is no cotton at all and very little corn."

Correspondents in several localities between Colorado and Waco write of short crops. In some counties of the black land belt surrounding Waco the cotton is reported to have died, while the continued hot weather has served to shorten corn and small grain crops materially.

"While there is no use minimizing the fact that Texas like every other state in the Union, has been hard hit by the depression in all lines, we appear to be better off here than they are in many sections of Texas, a representative of the Chamber of Commerce stated Wednesday. "At least we are producing and while prices for agricultural products are not what they should be and transportation charges are further eating into the producers profits at least they are able to find markets for them.

"We have had a big feed crop, especially so in the instance of those farmers who planted their crops early. Cotton, it is true, will be reduced in yield by the protracted hot spell and drought, but that may help to boost the price and prove a not unmixed evil. Taking conditions as a whole throughout the State, Mitchell county is better off than the general average."

Merry Wives

Mrs. Lucian Maddin entertained the Merry Wives Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. E. Maddin. Her guests were Mesdames Emmett of Amarillo, Davidson of Greenville, Hunt of Waco, Ralph Beal, Pearl Shannon, Misses Winnie Vaughn, Ewell Gary, Bernice Terrell and Adams. She served chicken salad, sandwiches, pickles, iced tea, caramel pudding and cake.

The meeting next week will be with Mrs. Harry Landers, Jr.

COLORADO GOLF LINKS ON IDEAL LOCATION

The grounds of the Colorado Golf Club, just east of the city near the water works plant, is an ideal location for a golf course, according to George Sampson, of Post, who arrived in the city Tuesday to superintend laying off the course.

In company with Judge C. H. Earnest, president of the club, Sampson made an inspection of the grounds Wednesday morning and returned to the city much elated. The topography of the site makes it an ideal site and one to be improved at nominal cost, he stated.

Sampson, who for several years has headed the Post City Golf and Country Club, is recognized as one of the leading golfers of West Texas. He has figured prominently in a number of state tournaments.

Judge Earnest stated Wednesday morning that a nine hole green would be laid off at once and the work of improving the grounds be rushed to completion. Mr. Sampson has been employed by the club to superintend this work. Sampson has laid off several golf links in Texas in recent years, among them being the one at Eastland, said to be among the best in the state.

WEST TEXAS FAIR WILL BE AMONG THE BEST IN SOUTH

The West Texas Fair at Abilene September 26 to October 1 will be the biggest and best fair in West Texas, according to W. S. Cooper, of Colorado, who is a member of the board of directors. In connection with the fair, the automobile show will be one of the most complete displays of the latest type motor vehicles ever seen in the state. The West Texas Fair association has just completed on its grounds a $15,000 automobile building which is said to be one of the handsomest structures of its kind to be found in any of the Southern fair grounds. This new building, constructed of brick and concrete, is 116 feet in width and 176 feet long and will be filled with motor vehicles and equipment of all kinds from the foremost manufacturers in America.

In the Livestock department, entries in beef cattle, dairy cattle, horses, jacks, mules, hogs, sheep and goats are to be made. Exhibits of poultry, agriculture, art and textile goods, culinary and plants and flowers are also featured and in all these attractive prizes are to be offered.

Liberal purses and attractive terms are expected to draw the cream of the racing stables of Texas and Oklahoma for the meeting of this year's West Texas Fair. The five-eighths mile track newly surfaced and improved, will be the scene of many a thrilling finish for the grandstand crowds this year.

One feature of the night show in front of the grandstand will be a spectacular display of fireworks. The management is now negotiating for one of the greatest displays of this character ever seen in America.

A contract has been closed whereby the football teams of Texas Christian University and Simmons College will play on the closing day of the fair.

The Chamber of Commerce and the County Farm Agent will be pleased to furnish information to interested citizens of Mitchell county who have entries to make and to assist in every way possible in carrying exhibits from this county to the fair.

COLORADO BARGAIN HOUSE BEING REMODELED THROUGHOUT

The interior of the Colorado Bargain House on Second Street, is being remodeled throughout this week according to the manager, L. Landau. Mr. Landau states that he plans to make his store one of the most attractive in the city and is also adding additional fixtures for displaying goods.

"We have bought heavily in many lines carried by us," Mr. Landau stated, "and must re-arrange the interior of our store in order to provide room for these large stocks."

PRESIDING ELDER CLOSSES REVIVAL AT CUTHBERT

Rev. G. S. Hardy, of Sweetwater presiding elder of the Sweetwater district, closed a revival at Cuthbert Sunday night. The revival is reported as having been a most successful one.

MITCHELL CO. RED CROSS IN EXECUTIVE SESSION

The Red Cross Chapter, of Mitchell county met in executive session last Wednesday at the City National Bank. Besides the routine business a contract was signed for a Nutrition worker for this county for four months. It is hoped that she can be secured for the winter months so that all the schools over the county may have the benefit of her. More will be said along her line of work at a later time.

Mrs. Dawes reported the layettes for the Near East babies were still asked for and is anxious that more workers enlist in this work. This work is highly important as the babies must be kept warm as well as clothed if we expect to save lives. This chapter has always come up with its quota and let's not slacken in the good work now. Ask Mrs. Dawes to let you have a part in saving a little life by helping to keep it warm. The Red Cross furnishes the material and the garments are cut for making.

Plans are being made for the Red Cross roll call in November to reach the entire county. Plans will be announced when fully developed.

BAPTISTS CLOSE BUFORD REVIVAL SUNDAY NIGHT

A revival meeting extending over one week was closed Sunday night at Buford by Rev. A. D. Leach, pastor of the Baptist church here. The preaching was done by Rev. M. C. Bishop, pastor of the First Baptist church of Colorado except on Sundays, when he filled his pulpit in the city.

Mr. Hardy stated.

Some teachers of these counties have advocated that the institute be held at Sweetwater for these counties in that prominent speakers may be heard.

BAPTIST ENCAMPMENT WAS LARGEST IN TEXAS IN 1921

The Christoval Baptist encampment, which closed its eleventh annual session Wednesday of last week was the largest and most successful in its history and so far the largest encampment in Texas this year, according to Colorado Baptists, who attended. Fully 3,000 people were camped on the grounds and during the last Sunday of the encampment it is estimated that 6,000 people visited the grounds.

The large tabernacle was overflowing with people at each of the day and night services to hear Dr. Geo. W. Truitt of Dallas, preach. At one of the Sunday services the sum of $4,800 was raised with which to purchase additional grounds and make additions to the equipment.

Rev. E. F. Lyon, of San Angelo, was elected president of the encampment and Rev. M. C. Bishop, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Colorado was elected as one of the vice-presidents.

The West Texas Sunday School Convention was in session at the encampment and this meeting too, was reported as having been a successful one.

OFFICIAL LOGGING ROUTE BANKHEAD NATIONAL H'WAY

T. A. Dunn, official representative of the Bankhead Transcontinental Highway Association, passed through Colorado Wednesday morning on a logging trip from San Diego Cal., to Washington, D. C. Mr. Dunn left San Diego three weeks ago and stated that he found the road in good average condition. Many of the gaps in the highway are now being built, and it is but a short time until the route will pass over good roads the entire distance.

Mr. Dunn is traveling in a Paige touring car equipped with Savage Cord tires, and stated he had driven from San Diego without any trouble whatsoever. He had his family with him and they carried a complete camp equipment.

The trip through to Washington will be completed in three weeks, he stated, then a detailed log of the route will be published in book form.

CONSTRUCTION FREIGHT DEPOT TO COMMENCE THIS WEEK

Foundation work for the new T. & P. freight depot at Colorado is expected to be commenced the latter part of this week, according to information received Tuesday by the Chamber of Commerce from A. E. Pistole of Big Spring, divisional superintendent.

"I understand our purchasing agent has placed an order locally at Colorado for the sand and gravel to be used in the construction of this building," Pistole stated in a letter written at Big Spring Monday, "and if so, expect to have one of our penter gangs at Colorado the latter part of this week and will begin on the building."

SCHOOLS OF CITY TO OPEN SEPT. 5

Colorado's schools will open on Monday, September 5th, and the compulsory attendance period will begin with the opening of school. The law provides that where the beginning of the compulsory attendance period is not fixed by the local board that it shall begin when school begins. The State Superintendent of Schools insists that this law be better enforced this year than it has been enforced in some communities during the past few years. If each parent and guardian will do his duty and see to it that each child between the ages of seven and fourteen years is kept in school each day, unless sickness prevents, there will be no friction in carrying out this requirement of the law. To that end, let every one work, and start all children to school on the first day and keep them in school at least the required five months.

The law also provides that no child that comes within the limits set by the legislature, that is between seven and fourteen years, shall be employed by any person in any kind of work during school hours. It fixes a heavy penalty for violation of this phase of the law and makes it the duty of the school authorities to cause the enforcement of the law as it is written.

We hope that Colorado may have the best year's school of its history during 1921-22, and it certainly will if every one does his duty. We owe nothing less to the children of the community, therefore lets all do our full duty in the interest of the boys and girls of Colorado.

E. FRANK KING, Superintendent.

EAST COLORADO CROSSING IMPROVEMENT CONSIDERED

A. E. Pistole, divisional superintendent of the Texas & Pacific, has promised to do something toward improving the crossing in East Colorado that has for many years been considered a menace to the public. The street crosses the rail way here in a cut several feet deep and the banks on either side cut off practically all view of the right of way, both east and west, making it dangerous to cross.

"I have instructed my general roadmaster, together with the divisional engineer to look into this the first opportunity and determine definitely regarding the matter," Pistole has stated in a communication to the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Pistole was in Colorado last week and his attention was directed to this matter, together with the fact that a petition was recently filed with him asking that something be done. The banks apparently are of rock formation and if so it would require the use of dynamite to remove them.

Notice to Farmers

—On account of the dry puffy condition of cotton we find six hundred pound bales very hard to press this year and if you could arrange to bring 1,400 to 1,500 Seed Cotton you will get a good bale of cotton and look more merchantable than the large bursted ones. Hope you will kindly assist us to avoid press trouble.

W. M. GREEN AGAIN HEADS EX-RANGERS' ASSOCIATION

W. M. Green, of Colorado, was re-elected major and commanding officer of the Texas Ex-Rangers' Association which recently closed its second annual meet at Weatherford. Mr. Green was active in organization of the association one year ago and has co-operated extensively with Henry Sackett, of Coleman, secretary, since that time in getting new members into the association and otherwise for the best interests of the organization and his re-election thus came through merit and out of recognition for his valued services.

In reporting the session of the Ex-Rangers, the Weatherford Daily Herald says:

"Secretary Sackett read several communications from senators and representatives relative to the pensioning of ex-rangers but so far there is nothing before congress at this time that will likely help the old boys who defended the lives and property of the citizens of Texas. Mr. Sackett is hopeful, however, that it will not be long until men who were in the ranger service will be recognized.

"When it came to the selection of the next meeting place, the order passed at the last session leaving the selection to the executive committee was suspended and Weatherford and Comanche were placed in nomination and with three exceptions Weatherford received all the votes of the rangers. This was later made unanimous for Weatherford. The business of the convention being finished the convention adjourned, until 8 o'clock when the members met at the tabernacle for an "experience meeting."

"Promptly at 8 o'clock Commander Green called the house to order and after a few preliminary remarks introduced the following members of the association: Captain Gillet, Henry Sackett, F. M. Peveler and J. O. Allen. These men reviewed some of the engagements in which they participated during the early days when the red man was making the frontier a burden for the frontiersmen. There were times when it looked as if the white man would have to leave the frontier of Texas to the red men and the bands of thieves and cut throats who would raid the settlements and leave death and destruction in their wake, and had it not been for the loyal and brave rangers who gave their time and risked their lives for the freedom of the country it is probable the great West Texas country would have remained uninhabited and would not so soon become the garden spot of the great State of Texas that she is now. Their recitals of the many incidents some of which in and adjacent to Parker county, were indeed interesting. They were stirring and at times pathetic, and when the old men mentioned the death of some of their comrades and very dear friends, tear drops would trickle down their wrinkled cheeks while silence prevailed in the audience.

"The Ex-Rangers' Association of Texas which was organized in Weatherford on August 10, 1920, has experienced a remarkable growth, when we consider that only men who served in the Texas Ranger Service prior to 1881 were eligible. The organization was perfected by the enrolling of thirty-two members during the past year Secretary Sackett secured thirty-two additional members and at the convention just closed ten new names were enrolled. During the past year the last bugle call was heard by one member, L. I. Hensley of Temple, Okla. This leaves a present net membership of seventy-three.

"At the session Friday the laws were amended so as to admit wives of all living rangers to honorary membership. Widows of ex-rangers will also be admitted. The law was also amended so as to admit men who were in the service up to and including 1890, and it is anticipated that this will increase the membership.

A SCREAM IN THE NIGHT PRESENTED AT BEST THEATRE

The story is based on Darwin's theory that man is evolved from monkey. It leads us to believe that millions of years ago, from such a thing as an ape there developed man.

Prof. Silvio is a monster at science. At his instructions a girl named Darwa is raised in the jungles as his experiment. The girl having grown is taken to civilization and society accepts her as a woman. Darwa becomes engaged to a young man and would have married him had it not been for Silvio's intervention. Then follows a series of tense situations involving Darwa and the ape. The final spectacle is where the ape kills himself.

The Record man was at the Price Auto Filling Station this week and overheard the following conversation. A tourist drove up in a Cadillac, the driver asked, "How far is it to Abilene?" "Eighty miles," was the reply. "Give me 20 gallons of gas and two gallons of oil," said the driver. Next came a man in a Buick, "How far is it to Abilene," asked the driver. "Eighty miles" was the reply. "Give me twelve gallons of gas and a gallon of oil," said the driver. Next came a family in an Essex, "How far is it to Abilene," eighty miles was the reply, "Give me two gallons of water and a bottle of 3 in 1 oil and see how quick I can get out of sight." Campfire Girls Have Outing
The Campfire Girls accompanied by the guardian, Mrs. J. G. Merritt, spent a few days last week at the Grabel ranch, north-east of town. A most enjoyable time was had. Swimming, cooking and tramping over the ranch. Mrs. Grabel supplied the girls with watermelons and other good things.

League Party

The Senior League had a delightful social meeting one evening last week on the parsonage lawn. Every one came expecting to have a good time and they had it.

Various things were provided for entertainment. A living "alphabet" created much interest as did the "track meet" between S. M. U. and T. W. C. Mr. C. L. Browning and Miss Katie Richardson had charge of S. M. U. and Miss Alma Browning and Key Hooks of T. W. C. Several contests were enjoyed.

Mrs. Barcroft won in the 50-yard dash and T. W. Stoneroad in the 100 yard dash. Peanuts and chewing gum were given as prizes.

Ice cream and cake were served.

Outing on the Concho
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Moody and Robert Whipkey and Fred Reeves Hutchinson had a delightful week's outing on the Concho last week. They camped on the irrigated farm of D. A. Neal, under the spreading pecan trees, near the canteloupe patch and close to a delightful swimming hole.

Mr. Neal, formerly of Mitchell county has an irrigated farm near Water Valley and lives at home.

He not only has registered hogs and dairy cows, but he has lots of other things for the market. He raises the biggest white Bermuda onions by the truck load which are now ready for the market; he has canteloupes, sweet potatoes and many other things, among which is a fine field of alfalfa and clover from which he has had three cuttings and will get another.

We are not saying much about the fishing except it is hard work—too hard to be indulged in much this kind of weather, especially when the sign is not just right, but we can't say enough about the shade, the swimming, the good eats, and the restfulness of the place. Only Mrs. Whipkey was much concerned about the screech owls, pole cats and the other "varmints." The others believe there were no such animals. Any how it was a nice trip. May the Neal's live long and prosper and the "Tribe of Abraham" save enough money to go again next year and take their friends.

Lasseter-Doggett

The following account of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Lasseter is from the Fort Worth Star Telegram. Miss Lasseter was reared in this city.

A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Dorothy Lasseter and Clarence Doggett which was solemnized Monday evening at 6:30 in the Dan Waggoner Hall at the Texas Woman's College. Miss Francis True, who was dressed in white organdie and wore a corsage of pink and carnations, accompanied Miss Mary Edda Cox, who sang "O Promise Me." She then played Mendelssohn's Wedding March to the strains of which the wedding party entered. First came Rev. P. E. Riley, who performed the ceremony at an improvised altar of ferns, palms and rose colored zinnias. He was followed by the groom with his best man. D. A. Baggett. From another door entered Misses Ina Watson and Lucille Moore, wearing orchid organdie, then the maid of honor, Miss Marie Vaughn, who wore peach colored organdie. All three had hats and shepherdess crooks to match their gowns.

The bride was preceded by the ring bearer, little Miss Nora Minta Doggett, a sister of the groom. She was dressed in white organdie with a pink ribbon sash and carried the ring in a pink rosebud. The bride entered on the arm of her father, L. E. Lasseter. She was gowned in a blue duvet de laine suit trimmed in gray lamb's wool with hat and accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. During the ceremony Miss Blanche Sables played "Reverje" by Straus. After the ceremony a large bride's cake was cut and punch served to the guests. The bride's gifts to her attendants were gold hat pins. Mr. and Mrs. Doggett left immediately for Galveston. They will be at home after September 1 at 3311 Ave. H.

Firestone first made the low price of $13.95 on the Standard Non-Skid, May 2. Now, the production of the Extra-Size 30x3½ tire has been transferred to Plant No. 2. This permits the price reduction on this tire from $16.65 to $13.95. No such value has ever before been offered tire users. If your dealer hasn't the Extra-Size in stock ask for our Standard Non-Skid type at the same price. THE PEOPLES' UNIVERSITY

(R. H. McCarty)

cational oligarchy, with headquarters at the State Capitol, and it always uncovers and shows its hand when the appropriation season comes around. And as years have come and gone, it has developed into a powerful political machine and the public official that dares to oppose it, he is marked for slaughter. Why do we say this? Why some three or four years ago, when there was a big row down there over appropriations for the State school, and the whole state of Texas was up in arms over the matter, one prominent state official announced to the galleries that in the next state election there would be one hundred and fifty ex-University men in the race for the office of representative. Now we do not know if this threat was carried out or not, but from this you can catch the political trend of things down there on the historic Colorado. One thing we do know, when a man gets on the stump for governor in this state, one of the main tests is: How do you stand on the State University? And another thing we do know, for the past ten or fifteen years, there has existed down there at Austin a strong educational lobby with its only object in view, larger appropriations, larger salaries, and it has gotten to be so strong that a man's political fortune is at stake when he dares to block the machine. Just now the pot is boiling down there, and this education aristocracy is up in arms; the legislators started a campaign for retrenchment, and accidentally or otherwise, they got their pruning hooks sharpened, and they have ventured to take a stroll in the University garden and do some pruning, hence, there is trouble in the camp of the gowned aristocracy, and threats to pitch college caps in the scrap heap. A twenty per cent cut in five thousand dollar salaries, and on down the line, was a bombshell that stirred up a row in the horns nest, and the dear woman and the ex-University students over the state are marshalling their forces to save the State University—the pay of the faculty—the dollar mark is the standard of value, and the evidence of the quality of service. The chief executive of this state lopped off the rural school appropriation and we country folks took our medicine like gentle lambs, but when you monkey with the college gowns the gods go on the war path. The inner circle seems to be mighty worried about the future of the State school, but it does not concern many people in this state, as few there be who enter its divine cloister. We believe in the proper maintenance of the State University and we believe that the faculty should be compensated for their services, but we want to put you on notice that we are opposed to princely salaries, a monied class and an educational aristocracy who wants to dictate terms to the commonalty and control the politics of learning, yet we have greater faith in the country school where they teach writing, reading and figuring, the root and trunk of this educational fabric, and these higher schools of the state are only th ebranches, the cupola or the bay windows in this vast structure. No, our great concern, and our sympathy go out to the man or the woman out there in the rural districts who has about forty or fifty red-blooded American boys and girls corraled in a shotgun shack, six or seven grades, all in one with the spirit of the range and the wild wood in the make-up, the scent of the new mown hay and corn tassels on their garments—A man's job did you say? Why great God folks, for generalship, diplomacy, wisdom and human ingenuity, why the chair of Latin, Greek and Trigonometry, and all that highfalutin stuff is a vacation job compared with the country school teacher. Oh, yes, out there in the sun shine and the rain, and traveling down muddy roads, he quarries the rough, crude human stone, and in the hell of mental toil, he polishes it, and bye and bye, it is sent down to the State University for the finishing touches, and those college professors sit there in the academic shades surrounded by all the comforts of life, dwell in a palace so to speak put on the extra fixings, carve a few flowers on the stone, and for which they draw a salary of five thousand per annum, and every once in a while, an annual vacation on full pay, while the country school teacher doing foundation work in the building of this human temple, for a mere pittance. We do wish that people would learn common sense, they are always raising the devil at the wrong end of the line, doctoring the wrong sore spot, water the roots, and the flower and the fruit will crop out in the branches. There is a great battle on down there and the State University bunch is in the galleries trying to hoot the law makers off the track, but as yet, they are still standing to their guns, shelling the trenches, and shearing the college vineyard of extravagant verbage, and it looks to us like the educational oligarchy is pretty well punctured, but as yet the Senate is an unknown quantity.

This is the time every man should buy himself a tract of land; every farmer expects some day to own his own farm, and cultivate it according to his own views; the lands in this part of Texas are gradually advancing in price, in five years from this date, these lands will be doubled in value and we will hardly realize it; with a limited amount of money no person would attempt to buy a home in the black land belt of Texas, and pay for it, from the income off the land; people can do this in Mitchell county, they have done so and are doing so right along; I have some lands well located, with reference to Public Roads, Gins and schools and will sell these lands in 80 and 160 acre tracts, will sell these lands at such price, and upon

CHAMPIONS FREE GRASS FIGHTING "LEASE LORDS."

In an issue of the Colorado Daily Clipper, published October 7, 1884, almost thirty-seven years ago, "Squire Snobbs," from Panther Gap in the County of Nolan champions the fight of the pioneer frontiersman who, with his family and small possessions, had come to this country to contribute his part toward blazing the way for the great civilization now prevalent here. From the article we ascertain that the Daily Clipper was supporting the cause of these hardy settlers, as against the "lease lords." In this same issue, The Clipper says editorially, "If the poor man never had a friend in West Texas, who has contended for their rights against the combined capital of syndicates, The Clipper is that friend. The article contributed by Squire Snobbs follows: "I thought that I would write you a short letter to let you know that the brave and courageous fight that you are making for the poor men who have come to West Texas is highly appreciated by the poor men throughout this western country. The only inducement this dry country ever had to offer the emigrant was free range for the little herds and flocks until such a time as they would be able to purchase homes and improve them. Not only myself, but many others around me, who, if they had to lease the lands for their little stock to run on, could not stay in the country. The lands not sold under the old free grass policy of Gov. Roberts, is being rapidly fenced in by the lease lords and those not already secured homes, being driven from the country, and it is a fact that I have not seen an immigrant wagon nor settler come in this country since the lease law went in to force. The immigrant is now making his way into Mexico and the territories, where range is free and the country open for the hardy pioneer, the van guard of civilization and prosperity. If our poor brother of the east knew how we live here, what hardships we have to contend with in extending the lines of civilization they would march up in solid phalanx in November and vote for men who favor the repeal of the lease law, and give us an equal show with the foreign syndicates who are now trying to gobble up the great western districts of Texas. Unless the lease law, is repealed, we poor people had just as well make up our minds to leave the land we have fought for and the grass we have earned and paid for in taxes on the stock that eats it. Now Mr. Editor, who needs to be legislated for? Is it not the poor people of our land? Cannot the rich take care of themselves?—Trample not the poor underfoot but rather build up, that they may not make thieves and beggars." I say go on, fight the good fight and favor the election to our legislature of such men as will champion our rights. The sugar-coated democrats think you do not know what democracy is, I, who have lived a long and eventful life as a democrat, know that you are advocating the true democratic principles of our fathers. In Washington's and Jackson's noble day did not the foreign tyrant come and thought to bear the sway but our heroes rose with sword in hand and drove them from our native land. Now let me predict one thing; if this thing is let go on it will ere long plunge this country in the same channel with old Mexico. In 1850 I was with old Rip Ford at Laredo and have ever since been battling on the frontier of Texas and I have raised a large family on the frontier and during the time was blessed with free water and free grass. I read in the Meridian Blade, not long since, where it accused the leaders of free grass lying, that they did not believe what they advocated. Now such stuff as this coming from a man who knows nothing about the question is ridiculous. The Blade is opposing free grass, opposes the very thing that has fed, clothed and kept him from starving for these many years. Remember Mr. Blade that in opposing free grass, you are opposing the very ones who supported you ever since you have been in Bosque county. I am your old neighbor and know what I am talking about, so come down from the big side and pull with your people and live as you always lived with the poor settler. Your charges against free grass advocates are false and you ought to be ashamed of them. SQUIRE SNOBBS

CURIOS RELICS OF OLD MEXICO WILL BE SHOWN AT STATE FAIR OF TEXAS DURING COMING SEASON 1921

This route from Mongolia to Mexico is not beyond the bounds of possibility for a determined people on migration. Did a horde of Mongolians sweep down this pathway to Mexico, to leave their traces there?

RECENT DISCOVERIES TEND TO SHOW THAT THE MEXICO OF PAST AGES HAD INTERCOURSE WITH ASIA (SUPPOSED CRADLE OF HUMAN RACE) AND THAT CHINESE ACTUALLY SETTLED THERE.

In the dim ages that lie behind us comes evidences constantly of races that have passed on before—types of humanity which enjoyed a civilization peculiarly their own, yet interesting to all of us to a rare degree. These remnants or excavated discoveries picture in partial fashion the progress of the human race toward the higher civilizations, touching to the quick the lively, healthy curiosity we all bear toward our common origin. There are few areas on the two American continents richer in the relics of the past than the Republic of Mexico, and few countries have pursued the study of past civilization with a greater degree of success than Mexico and the Mexican scholars. It is this group that are now working avidly on the constantly developing theory that Mexico has had, at one time in the ages past, intercourse with Asia, and that Chinese explorers or settlers left a distinct impression on the civilization they found there. The age in which these Chinese came is not definitely known, but indications are first found about the time of the birth of Christ. Mongolian symbols and Mongolian character are also expressed in Aztec sculpture of a date not more than one thousand years ago. The accompanying picture clearly shows the resemblance of Mexican discoveries to the ancient Chinese and Mongolian eras—when the Chinese was the leading civilization of the world, and the Mongol the most hardy explorer and daring warrior in all Asia. There is a startlingly distinct resemblance to Asiatic customs in the head dress, in the designs, and in the writing. These things were found in the Toltec stratum (or depth of earth) in an exploration near the city of Mexico. The Toltecs were a hardy race, supposed to be the native people of that area. The Aztecs, a fierce and warlike race, came to Mexico on a mysterious migration when the Toltecs were at their best, and swiftly conquered the heart of Mexico. The Toltecs were swept from existence by this wave of hardy fighters, who built a wonderful empire, and held it until Cortez and his Spaniards came and wrested it from them. Who were these Aztecs? Perhaps the mysterious Chinese relics that were imbedded in the earth by a vanished race of Toltecs, were brought to them by Asiatic explorers, who made their way back to Asia and told of a great continent. Could these Aztecs have been a branch of the then mighty Mongolian race of North ern Asia? Did a great tribe of them boldly launch forth on a migration of 2,000 miles by land (round through Northern Asia by the Bering Straits, and across a few miles of water to this continent) which took them perhaps a half-century? Did they follow the wild coast of the Pacific and its mountain ranges straight into the heart of Mexico, where their fierce warriors soon carved out an empire? These are curious questions indeed, and the study of the past stirs in us all a desire for more knowledge. This can easily be obtained at the great Mexican National Exhibit at the State Fair of Texas, October 8 to 23. There the government of Mexico will place before us all a wonderful study of curios that have been collected painstakingly by scholarly men. These tell an eloquent story of the past. Everyone should see them, as it is one of the rare sights of the world, and a collection that seldom leaves Mexico City itself. The Mexican National Exhibit will be one of the features of the great State Fair of 1921. It will show the development of Mexico in an artistic and industrial way, and illustrate the great fund of raw resources that country has in store for the world's use. It is certain to be one of the principal attractions of this season's Fair, and well worth seeing in itself.

MERCHANTS TELLS OF A REMARKABLE CASE

Writing from Maxeys, Ga., A. J. Gillen, proprietor of a large department store at that place, says:

"I have a customer here who was in bed for three years and did not go to a meal at any time. She had five physicians and they gave her up. One bottle of Tanlac got her up, on the second bottle she commenced keeping house and on the third she did all the cooking and housework for a family of eight."

This sounds really incredible, but it comes unsolicited from a highly creditable source and is copied verbatim from the letter.

Tanlac is for sale in Colorado by all druggists.

Mrs. Linda Harrod Endorses Chamberlain's Tablets

"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and tried everything I heard of but the only relief I got was temporary until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them from our druggist. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness and pain in the stomach after eating. Since taking two bottles I can eat anything I want without distress" writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Ft. THIRD CUT IN PRICES FOR HUDSON AND ESSEX

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 17.—A third cut in prices was announced today by the producers of Hudson and Essex automobiles, put these well known models at lower prices than they have ever sold for. The Hudson Super-Six last year sold at $2,600. The new prices place it at $1,895.

The Essex price last year was $1,795. It now is $1,375. These prices refer to open touring models. Similar reductions have been made on all models.

Officials of the two companies stated that heavy sales during the summer have exhausted old inventories, reduced overhead costs and that they are now able to buy materials at new low costs.

Out Buford Way

Our first meeting is over and we are resting up some for the one to come. Bro. Bishop did some fine preaching and as the result of his labors with us, some fifteen or sixteen were reclaimed, or caused to begin the new life.

Miss Mollie Ruth Franklin was baptized Sunday evening.

Bro. Leach and the singer, Mr. Lewis went to Conway to begin a series of services there.

We thank the folks that came from town to help us with their presence and well wishes.

Mrs. J. P. Hunter and family have returned from their extended visit to friends and relatives in Collin County. Mrs. Hunter says Mitchell county looks good to her yet and says the warm nights, mosquitoes and red-bugs back in East Texas would make anybody love west Texas. They will move to Colorado at an early date in order to be nearer school.

We make note of the fact that our county commissioner, Mr. Wulfjen is having some good work done on our roads through the sandy stretch by Hooks, Cosper and Keys farms. Mr. Cosper has let the county get clay out in his pasture, while the road camp is over in Mr. Davis' pasture. When our next rain comes now and the road is dragged good then we will be ready to begin talking up a graveled highway from the McQuires to the cemetery, if not from Sulphur all the way to town.

Most of our crops are still holding up, despite the continued dry hot weather and we are still patiently awaiting a general rain that will be blessing to all.

Mrs. Still and the little boy and girls are visiting in the McQuire home.

A series of services began at the White church last Saturday night. The Rev. Mr. Alford is conducting the revival.
