ANNUAL BANQUET OF COLORADO C. OF C.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce held Tuesday afternoon it was unanimously voted that the annual banquet of the chamber be held on Thursday night, September 8th, at which time the election of officers and other important business of the organization can be introduced.

The Record was unable to learn details of the banquet as a committee composed of Joe H. Smoot as chairman, T. W. Stonerod, R. P. Price and W. S. Cooper had not worked out a definite program when seen by a representative of the Record.

It was stated however, that every business and professional man in the city and others who are interested in the Chamber of Commerce and in making it possible that material progress be made here, whenever opportunity is afforded is to be invited to attend this banquet as a guest of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Record will publish details of the meeting in our issue of next week.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL HAS BEST LABORATORIES

The laboratories at the Colorado High school are among the best in the state according to Prof. Chas. Bishop, superintendent of the Roaring Springs schools and who is spending the summer vacation in Colorado with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Bishop.

In company with Prof. E. Frank King, Bishop recently made a visit to the laboratory here and freely expressed surprise in having found the equipment so complete and modern. "Why you have a better laboratory than the high school at Abilene," he stated, "and one of the best I have ever visited."

STATE SCHOOL APPORTIONMENT IS FIXED AT $13

AUSTIN, August 23.—At a meeting to day of the state school board of education today the State apportionment was fixed at $13.00 per capita. The total number of scholars in the State was reported by the State Superintendent as 1,298,282. The estimate of expenses for the purchase of free text books for the scholastic year of 1920-21 was given at $1,681,603. The balance in the text book fund on September 1 was estimated to be $300,000. The board set aside $1,381,603 as a text book fund, the board being required to include each year the balance in the textbook fund to meet the expenses for the ensuing year.

The product of the 15c tax for textbooks was estimated at $4,044,563. Deducting from this the amount set aside as the textbook fund it was found that from this 15c tax there would remain in the available school fund for this session of 1920-21, $2,662,959.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS YOURS; WHY NOT USE IT?

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce, with general offices at Stamford, is maintaining a bureau for the purpose of establishing a closer relation between the buyer and seller—the producer and consumer, and the Colorado Chamber of Commerce is affiliated with the West Texas organization. In addition to rendering special services for its members the West Texas Chamber is virtually interested in the development of West Texas and is spending thousands of dollars annually toward the consummation of that end.

For instance: We are advised through the Sabinal Chamber of Commerce, Sabinal, Texas, that Clarence C. Kelly, Sabinal, has 100 big mutton goats for sale. Should there be any citizen of Mitchell county who is interested in the purchase of such livestock, he should get in touch directly with Mr. Kelly.

Of course, it is not the purpose of the Chamber of Commerce to undertake to operate a general clearing house for the sale or exchange of every commodity that the producers of Mitchell county might have to offer, but if you have something of special merit, the Chamber would be pleased to assist you through its affiliation with the Stamford office.

Interested parties are invited to visit the Chamber of Commerce and discuss the matter, or to see the County Farm Agent, who is associated with the chamber, a representative of the Colorado organization stated Saturday.

Prof. G. D. Foster the high school principal came in this week from his home in Canyon city and is at work getting ready for school opening on Monday. Mr. Foster was accompanied here by his parents and younger brother. This is a most estimable family and seem to be enjoying their Colorado visit very much. Every body says "hello Judy" even to the girls.

GROUNDS COLORADO GOLF CLUB BEING IMPROVED

The grounds of the Colorado Golf Club, just east of the city are being improved this week. The course, which is to be a nine hole green, was laid off by George Sampson of Post. Work of improving the grounds are under the supervision of Will Warren and altogether seven men are employed.

W. W. Porter, secretary of the club, stated Tuesday afternoon that a call would be made this week upon all members to pay into the treasury the balance due on initial membership fee.

Missionary Will Speak

A returned missionary from Africa will speak at the Presbyterian church Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The lecture will be entirely free. He will tell of his experience and of the work and needs of that country.

Everybody cordially invited.

Just arrived, new fall and winter samples. A pleasure to show you. Al and Bob.

SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY

As was announced last week, the Colorado schools will open next Monday. In the following list will be found the names of the teachers who will teach in the schools next session.

E. Frank King, Superintendent. G. D. Foster, Principal, Science and Mathematics.

Miss Mabel Smith, Spanish and History.

Miss Thelma Baker, Latin.

Miss Maurine Thompson, English.

The assignment of the teachers in the grammar school is not yet complete.

Mrs. E. Fowler, Negro school.

At nine o'clock on next Monday morning, pupils will meet the teachers in the proper rooms and enrollment will be made between nine and ten. After time has been given for enrollment, the pupils of the word school will be permitted to return home to stay until afternoon.

All teachers and all pupils of the high school building will assemble in the auditorium together with, we hope a large number of patrons of the school for a short program. We very much desire to see a large number of parents at the school on opening day. This is Labor day and is a legal holiday, therefore, a number of business places will be closed and the people who work at such places will have opportunity to come to the school for this opening occasion. We hope the members of the school board, the Ministers of the town and all interested parties may come on this day to give encouragement and inspiration to the children who are entering upon a year's work. And, if you have something to say, be sure you say it.

Every teacher who has been employed for the coming year has had good training for her line of work, and all have had several years experience teaching the work they will be called upon to teach here. Therefore, there is every reason to hope and to believe that Colorado is to have during the coming year the best session of school of its history. There is no doubt but that this will be so if every one does his full duty. Be a booster of your school, because it is the best asset that Colorado has. If you can not boost for the school your boosting in other lines will not have its desired effect.

It is suggested to those who intend to send unders to school, that the parents come to the school Monday, but let the little fellow stay at home. The reason for this suggestion is, that we are not sure that unders can be received. If it is found that the school can take unders, and the parents will be at the auditorium at ten o'clock and hear the announcements, then the unders may be sent to school on Tuesday, which will be the first day of real school work, and the number to deal with on Monday morning will not be so large. If you come to the school be sure you stay until you hear the announcements if you are interested in whether unders can be taken in this year.

We hope that the parents who may be present on opening day will get acquainted with the teachers, especially the new ones, and welcome them to town, and at least meet the teacher who is to teach your child.

In the afternoon, the teachers will send to the book rooms their requisition for books and the books will be issued, and covered by the pupils. No recitation work will be attempted on Monday. Also, no books will be issued until afternoon. Pupils may buy their text books, but it is not necessary to buy any that the state furnishes. Some of the high school books are not furnished by the State and these must be purchased by the pupils from the dealer.

Examinations for pupils who wish to enter this school from other schools that are not of this class will be given during the week, just as soon as the teacher can get to each case.

Thanking the people of Colorado for their fine co-operation in the work of the school during the past four years, and earnestly requesting a still greater co-operation for the year we are just entering upon, I am, Yours truly, E. FRANK KING.

Civic League

The regular meeting of the Civic league will be held at the Baptist Sunday school rooms, Saturday, Sept. 3rd, at 4:30 p. m. All members are urged to attend.

CONTRACT PRINTING BONDS AWARDED BY CITY COUNCIL

Mayor Coe convened the City council in adjourned session Monday afternoon to consider bids on printing the $120,000 bonds voted by the city on August 2nd. This contract was awarded to the Whipkey Printing Co., their bid being the lowest offered.

The plant of the Whipkey Printing Co., is one of the best commercial printing houses in this section of the State, employ the best men to be obtained in the mechanical department, and are thus in position to handle any kind of printing contracts, be it small or large.

This company printed the bonds recently issued by the Colorado Independent School District, a specimen of which was submitted to the Attorney General in person by Prof. E. Frank King. Prof. King states that the high quality of this work was praised by the attorney general he stating that it was above the average coming under his notice.

T. & P. Shops Re-Employ 39 Men

Thirty-nine employees of the T. & P. Railway shops here, who were laid off several months ago were put back to work Thursday.

In the list were included six machinists, six helpers and two apprentices; six boiler makers, six helpers, and two apprentices; one blacksmith and two helpers; one coppersmith and one helper and one apprentice; four car men.

It is indeed pleasing to note the return of this number of men to their old positions and it is hoped that the entire number let out several months ago will be re-employed in the near future.—Big Spring Herald.

COLORADO PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO OPEN, MONDAY SEPT. 5th

With a strong faculty the Colorado Public Schools will enter upon the fall term Monday, September 5, with every prospect of achieving new records in its work of educating the children of this community.

Superintendent King is now busily engaged in getting everything in order and is receiving the co-operation of the principal G. D. Foster, who arrived in the city this week, ready for work, and when the gong sounds on the 5th it is expected that all attendance records on opening day will be broken, and that the teachers will all enter upon their year's work determined to do their utmost in fitting the children for work in life which they will be unable to assume unless their educational interests are cared for as they grow to maturity.

Superintendent King and Principal Foster are very enthusiastic over the splendid outlook for the schools this year and with one of the best faculties the school has ever had they feel confident that success will crown this year's work in a most satisfactory way. Both are putting in several hours each day studying and planning for the future, and if patrons will give them hearty co-operation we will have a successful term, otherwise not. The school will be just what the patrons allow it to be. If you send your children regularly and uphold the hands of the school board and the faculty in their efforts to maintain order and discipline, and your child has a mind that can be developed, then you will have a good school here, otherwise it will be a school in name only.

Everybody put their shoulders to the wheels and push. Let us make our schools second to none in Texas. With the aid of our citizenship it can be done, for we have the faculty and they are going to do their best. You must do yours.

DEPRESSION IS LIKELY TO LAST SIX MONTHS

Big Business Must Get on Profit Making Basis Before We Have Good Times, Bankers Say

Five Million Idle Represent Big Buying Power—Many Theories, About Livestock Industry

Kansas City.—Bankers are talking that business is good—that times have changed—that we have rounded the corner—but when it comes to backing up this talk with loans—well try to borrow some money to buy some of the stuff that you know is cheap and see what they say.

They seem to think that we have gone through the worst, but they can't see much prosperity until someone get to making money. Practically every business concern in the United States they say, is not making money. Salaried people is the only class that is getting anywhere during the present crisis.

They say we can't have good times until big business gets on the profit making basis. Overhead is eating up profits because of small production. Until we get a world market, and a larger and better domestic market, the United States is not going to get over its business depression.

Some Sweat Yet

"We have a ling hot sweat ahead of us," is the way W. T. Kemper, chairman of the board of the Commerce Trust Company sizes up the situation. Mr. Kemper thinks the next six months will not see any great change in business conditions and he says, "there will be business funerals every day among those who can't stand longer the drain that their business has forced on them."

There are over 5 million idle men in the United States today. This means that at least 20 million people are without their regular means of support. Many of these people have no savings to fall back upon. These people represent a mighty buying power as well as one-fifth of the population of the United States.

With our foreign trade cut off by reason of the exchange, business enterprise penalized by surtaxes and excess profit taxes, money that could be used to develop our domestic business is being daily forced into non-taxable and hidden securities.

Retail Crisis is Over

The retail trade is on a much sounder basis than a year ago. While there may be numerous retail failures it will be among merchants who have failed to adapt themselves to the new conditions of the times, or among those who have managed to hold out this long, but who were sure to fail in prolonged business depression.

High priced stocks have been disposed of and merchandise this fall will be bought at a price that will satisfy the public as to price and at the same time give the merchant a small return. Business will come hard for the public has to be sold on everything it buys today, but there is every indication of a fair fall trade ahead

In the stockyards here there are almost as many theories as there are men, as to what the future of the live stock industry is going to be. Every little while the government gets out a statement regarding the cattle shortage. The packers get out a statement every few months showing how few cattle there are in this country and the world. The Texas Cattle Raisers' Association gets out statements every few months that prove the same thing and any live stock commission horse puts out the same line of dope to every one that will listen.

However last week there was a record run of cattle. There were few cows but every other grade and kind of cattle were here in enormous quantities. Where do they come from? Who is shipping them? Why are they being sent to market? What will happen if it keeps up? Anyone's guess seems to get about as much attention as the best posted live stock authority

Must Have Money First

E. W. Zea, vice president of the Commerce Trust Company and one of the largest cattle raisers in the Southwest doesn't think there will be much change in the cattle market until the money market gets better. He says the middlewest farmers can't get the money to buy cattle with. While the wheat money has helped the banks liquidate their debts and has enabled farmers of half a dozen Middlewest states to pay their grocery bill and get a new set of tires for their automobile, that is about as far as it went. The most of this money was already spent.

The country bankers has been sitting up nights for so long with his doubtful notes that he's not taking kindly to reloaning men money to buy cattle. He wants to get his reserve back to where he can sleep nights. He's going to do it too, before he takes on a new series of obligations

There is more feed in Kansas and Missouri than this section has had in years. Many farmers sowed clover in their wheat. Now since the wheat has been cut and the fine rains have come, there is hundreds of acres of the finest feed going to waste. Everything points to profit in buying Texas range cattle and feeding them here, but the farmer is not doing it, and it don't look like he was going to

CLARA HAMON WEDS MOTION PICTURE MAN

Notice to Farmers

—On account of the dry puffy condition of cotton we find six hundred pound bales very hard to press this year and if you could arrange to bring 1,400 to 1,500 Seed Cotton you will get a good bale of cotton and look more merchantable than the large bursted ones. Hope you will kindly assist us to avoid press trouble.

Geo. S. Anderson Editor of the Abilene Reporter is spending the summer in California. In writing to his paper he says: "Many who visit California in automobiles become convinced that the good roads of that state are the most practical thing for people of Texas and the one thing that we may have to put us in the class with the people out here. While there is no doubt about the desirability of good roads, we maintain that irrigation is the one thing that West Texas must have before it can develop as it should. Paved roads would be a mighty factor in development, but irrigation would put West Texas on a permanent financial basis that would take care of good roads and other things necessary for real prosperity.

Enough water goes to waste every twelve months in West Texas to produce big crops! The only problem is to find a way to keep it in this country and to make it possible to get it on some of our rich land. Twenty acres under the ditch is worth more than five hundred acres under present methods. A big dam on Clear Fork, another on Jim Ned and the raising of Lake Abilene to its maximum capacity would be the beginning of a new and better day in West Texas.

DICK WHEELER ARRESTED HERE ON MURDER CHARGE

Dick Wheeler, of Sulphur Springs was arrested here Thursday afternoon of last week by Sheriff W. J. Chesney on information received from the sheriff of Hopkins County that Wheeler was wanted there on a murder charge.

Information by Chesney indicated that Wheeler is alleged to have shot and killed a man said to have been selling illicit whiskey during a pistol battle with alleged hi-jackers and bootleggers near the Hopkins county line several months ago.

Wheeler was delivered to an officer from Sulphur Springs Sunday morning, who came to Colorado to receive the prisoner.

Grateful Letter

It is trying conditions like that related below by Mrs Geo. L. North of Naples N. Y. that proves the worth of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. "Two years ago last summer," she says, "our little boy had dysentery. At that time we were living in the country eight miles from a doctor. Our son was taken ill suddenly and was about the sickest child I ever saw. He was in terrible pain all the time and passed from one convulsion to another. I sent my husband for the doctor and after he was gone I thought of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the cupboard. I gave him some of that and he began to improve at once. By the time the doctor arrived he was out of danger."

Enders Company Lease the U-Ranch

A deal has just been closed in which Geo. H. McEntire has leased to H. H. Enders & Company of Boston, Mass., the oil and gas rights on the U-ranch consisting of about 20,000 acres. Under the terms of the contract the lessees pay the lessor the sum of $5,000 and agree to begin the actual drilling of an oil and gas prospect well within eight months from August 10, 1921, and agree to drill the same with due diligence to the depth of 3,500 feet, unless oil or gas in paying quantities are developed before that depth is reached.—Sterling City Record.

Oklahoma Business Man Says Tanlac Retored Him a Year Ago and He Still Feels Fine

"I endorse Tanlac from the bottom of my heart, for it set me right a year ago and I have enjoyed the best of health ever since," said Claude E. Andean, 200 Garfield St., Sand Springs, Okla. Mr. Andean is a member of the firm of Andean and Day and his standing and influence are too well-known to require further comment.

"I hadn't been in good health," he went on, "for some two years and was so run-down generally I could hardly take care of business. What little I ate did me more harm than good and I felt tired out from morning till night. I was nervous and restless and my whole system seemed to be out of order. I didn't know what it was to feel good, and I was worried over where it would all lead to.

"I saw Tanlac so highly recommended that I made up my mind to try it, and nothing ever surprised me more than the way I picked up. Three bottles simply put me to feeling like I had been wanting to feel, and to this day I have been in as good health as I ever was in my life. Tanlac certainly proved its worth in my case and there is no question about its being a great medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Colorado by W. R. Charters and all leading druggists.

Redistricting, Nit
 The senate finally knifed the redistricting bill, just as this newspaper predicted. The politicians in the state senate are not yet ready to give West Texas political justice, because they are afraid of their chances at re-election.

West Texas can like it or lump it; it really doesn't make a bit of difference to the peanut politicians who are running things to suit themselves.

The senate passed the redistricting bill, all right enough, but tacked on a clause which vitiates the act by making it ineffective until 1924, a little matter of three years.

And some people are amazed that West Texas should even think of a movement to divide the state. If West Texas can't get a half way decent deal out of the outfit down at Austin, then it is time for West Texas to start the ball rolling for a division of the state. The Reporter is far it, because it believes that West Texas will never get justice at the hands of this or any succeeding legislature. Re-districting has been put off and put off for twenty years, and West Texas has been made the political football as a result. It is fine and uplifting and enabling to speak of the Alamo and San Jacinto, but we are living in the year 1921, not 1836.—Abilene Reporter.

It looks now like West Texas is to get her regulation dose of disappointment in the matter of senatorial redistricting. Sure, West Texas must fare like the proverbial step child. Let the cream go to the elect while the crumbs are doled out to us.

Messrs. Mell Beck, Harry Lester, Kirk Ratliff, Roy Warren, Conrad Ausley, Brooks Bell, Pat Kelsey, McCall Merritt, C. L. Browning and Bradford Landers.

Other young folks went out at night for the dances.

August Progressive Picnic
 The most unique entertainment yet given by the Christian Endeavor Society was the "August Progressive Picnic." Guests and members of the Endeavor were told to be at the church at 8 o'clock and bring three dimes. No one, except the Social committee, knew anything of the plans. At the appointed hour there was a large and curious crowd gathered at the church. Cars were numbered 1, 2, 3, etc., then each person drew a number and road in the car which his number called for. Ed Jones, Jr., having drawn No. 1 led the other cars.

found out; each person was asked to place a dime on his plate. Car numbers were shuffled, passengers scrambled for cars and were off for another wild goose chase.

The second stop was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones. Here jokes were read and refreshments consisting of bananas and peanuts were served. Dimes were collected. Again there was a few minutes of confusion until passengers found their proper cars.

The guests were beginning to wonder if the remainder of the evening was to be spent in reckless driving when suddenly they were halted at Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Crowder's. Several exciting games of "42" were played before ice-cold watermelon was served. Again dimes were collected, thus ending the mystery of the "three dimes."

While at Mrs. Crowder's the president of the Endeavors said a few words welcoming the visitors and urging the members of the society to be more regular in attendance at the regular Sunday afternoon meetings.

Circle Organized
 A group of the Baptist Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. C. E. Franklin Monday afternoon and organized a circle. Before the organization, Mrs. Lee Jones and Mrs. Bishop gave a report of the Christoal encampment. Nearly all the Colorado folks who attended took special work and got seals or certificates and are already talking up a crowd for next year. Mrs. Lasky and Mrs. T. J. Ratliff favored with a duet.

The organization was not completed but will be at next meeting. Mrs. Franklin was selected chairman and Mrs. Hall DeGarmo, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Everett, teacher.

The different committees will be selected next meeting.

This circle will join the other circles in studying Stewardship and Missions.

The daughters of the house refreshed the ladies with ice cold punch.

Party for Visiting Girl
 Mrs. W. K. Wylie assisted her little daughters, Laura May and Elvera in entertaining quite a large party of friends Thursday afternoon in honor of their guest, Alla B. Cooper of Colorado, who once lived here and has spent several days as her guest.

All kinds of merry games were played on the lawn and contests added to the pleasure of the party.

Those winning in the apple contest were Doris Bradford, first prize, and Alton Sims went the second prize.

In the "Donkey Tail" contest, Miss Doris Bradford was again the lucky winner.

Virolta music was enjoyed throughout the party. Ice cold punch was refreshing and was served during the afternoon. The party was concluded with an ice cream and cake course.

The following neighbors and friends of the children on the West side enjoyed the games and meeting the honoree:

Doris, Giles, Louise and Lillian Bradford, Rash, Norma Edna and Catherine Dudgeon, Georgia Shepard, Mattie Beth and Rilla Payne, Alford Dennis and Virginia Roy, Charles and O. L. Cooper and Misses Beulah and Beatrice Wallace who assisted Mrs. Wylie and Laura May and Elvera entertain their guests.—Sweetwater Reporter.

Golf Course
 Golf grounds are being rapidly cleared and members are requested to visit the course and inspect the work. Some parts of the course are clear enough for good practice and some golfers have had several practice bouts. Secretary Porter is calling for the second assessment of $5.00 from each member in order that work now in progress may be paid for.

A party of Colorado Golfers will visit Post City on Labor Day to play several games on their grounds and get information not only as to the game but in regard to the golf course so that they will know how to complete and fix up their grounds here.

WITH THE CHURCHES
Campfire Girls Meet

The Campfire Girls met at the home of Mrs Jim Dobbs Monday to sew on the Red Cross layetts they have pledged to make this month. Mrs. Dobbs served them sandwiches tea and cake.

From there they went for a swim in the Little Blue.

Baptist Notes

Home again. We have finished our summers work and am home to take hold of the work in a renewed way. We have had a very fine summer from the stand point of professions. There have been at least 100 public professions of faith in Christ and about 85 additions to the Baptist churches where we have labored. We are glad to be home and co-operate with the brethren and sisters in a greater way than we have been able to do on account of being away so much this entire summer.

forces in such a way as to get the very best possible results in the various organizations of the entire church. We are planning to have one of the best working churches in all this association. We want the Sunday school attendance to be as much as the enrollment of the church which reaches beyond the 300 mark. It will take united effort. The prayer meeting should be made one of the main features of the work. We hope right soon to be able to do something for the young people in the church. They need special training. We trust the women may continue to grow in their work. They are making some plans which will help them in their work. Each woman in the church should as far as possible take some part in the woman's work. The men are hustling.

We want to make this special appeal, especially to the church going people of Colorado, not to neglect the Sunday evening services. We appeal to each member of this church that you put forth an earnest effort to be at church next Sunday night.

It is very discouraging to the pastor to have smaller audiences at night than he has at the morning services. Read Exodus 17:11. We make this appeal to you personally. We invite the entire public to worship with us in all our services. We are delighted to have the young people in large numbers.

Remember the Sunday school and don't forget to remain for preaching. M C. BISHOP, Pastor.

First Church of Christ

Next Sunday we meet at the church.

Bible School at the usual hour 10 o'clock. Services at 11 o'clock.

The evening hours are as follows: Junior Christian Endeavors at 6:00 Senior Endeavors at 7:00 and Preaching at 8:00.

We hope the dry hot weather is at an end, so come and worship with us at the church.

D. R. HARDISON, Pastor.

Joe Earnest is home from Austin where he has been in the University, regular session. He will go back this fall.

Westbrook Items

Rev. H. B. Terrell closed his revival at Rogers Sunday night. There were eight additions to the church. After the close of the meeting the people of that community gave the pastor a bounteous pounding which was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Buckelew of Shepherd was the guest of Mrs. J. M. Mitchell Sunday.

Mrs. A. D. Leach has been seriously ill for several days, she is some better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomson, of Colorado were visiting in Westbrook Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Oliver entertained the young people Saturday night. Music and games were indulged in until a late hour then refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

W. D. Byons left recently for Cooper, Texas, where he has employment at a gin. His family will follow him in a short time.

Miss Ruth Murphy and Miss Alexander of Fort Worth are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Pool and family.

Cotton is beginning to come in fast. Several bales have been ginned to date.

Geo. McMasters, of Sweetwater, was a business visitor here Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. A. D. Leach closed his meeting at Conoway Sunday. Seventeen were baptised Sunday afternoon.

Skelton and Lasseter have opened up a new filling station, not gasoline but something good to eat, in the Adams building on Main street. It is rumored that the wedding bells will ring in Westbrook soon.

Adjustment and oiling make your bearings last longer—proper inflation and careful driving make your tires last longer—cleaning makes your spark plugs serve longer and better. It is worth remembering that there are rules just as simple for making your battery last longer and serve more faithfully.

Here are three rules in ABC form: 1—Put in water regularly and keep up the charge. 2—Come in every two weeks for battery service. 3—And when your present battery wears out, buy a Willard Threaded Rubber Battery—the only battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation between the plates.

There is only one battery good enough for us to back by our unqualified recommendation—that's the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery. Come in—and we'll show you some records it has made right here.

COLORADO WATER BONDS APPROVED

Colorado, Texas, Aug. 26.—That the little city of Colorado has faith in her future is fully attested by her recent success in carrying by an overwhelming majority a $120,000 water and sewer bond election.

Thirty-five thousand dollars of this amount is to be used in installing a sewer system which will cover all the business district and a portion of the resident part of the city.

Eighty-five thousand is to be used in the construction of a dam across Lone Wolf Creek, one mile from the limits of the city, where water will be impounded in sufficient quantities to supply a city ten times Colorado's present size. With the abundance of water thus secured a reduction in the insurance rates will naturally follow and a more beautiful and prosperous town will be the ultimate outcome.

The Attorney General has already approved the transcript and the bonds are now ready for the printer. They are semi-annual bonds bearing 6 per cent interest. The present water supply is from deep wells and is by no means exhausted. Mayor Coe states that he expects to sell the bonds at par as no emergency exists which necessitates their sale at a sacrifice.—Abilene Reporter.

Union Happenings.

The weather is very dry in this section at present, but threatening rain. Crops badly damaged from the effect of the drouth and extremely hot weather, but the health is good, also the appetite.

Mrs. J. C. Carter. (Green's father) of Smith County came in last week, but brought no glad tidings, especially as to cotton crops.

Mrs. M. C. Nash from Denton county is visiting her brother E. M. McCreless and other relatives.

Ye humble scribe had the pleasure of attending a family re-union yesterday at the home of J. M. Dorn of the Union community. It was their golden anniversary occasion. He and his estimable companion was married just 50 years ago and have thirteen children, eleven living, eleven present; fifty-seven grandchildren, 54 living, 51 present; three great grandchildren, two present. All the children living are married and each one either had a husband or wife who was present, together with quite a number of other near relatives, three of which were present at their wedding occasion. The general spread was bountiful and running over with good things to eat, with barbecued beef in the lead. The old gentleman says all three of his grandchildren are boys and he may yet be elected President of the U. S.

COTTON CONTRACT BINDING PACT, BALDWIN DECLARES

"The cotton contract is binding on all signers who did not send in a written cancellation prior to August 1," E. M. Baldwin, secretary of the Mitchell County Farm Bureau Federation said recently in discussing the cotton marketing plans of this organization. Very strict penalties are provided in the law for violations according to the contract.

Forty thousand farmers in Texas are said to have signed the contract. Only 1,125 canceled their contracts prior to August 1. This means that more than 97 per cent of those who joined the organization will remain in the big pool which is the largest growers co-operative marketing association in the world.

New contracts are being received at the Dallas office every day and these more than balance the few that have been canceled. There are more growers in the pool after the first of August than there were at the conclusion of the membership drive. The successful completion of financial arrangements to secure nearly fifteen million dollars for advances to cotton growers is attracting new signers to the contract daily.

"SOME QUESTIONS THAT ARE BEING ASKED"

Under the above caption, a Colorado citizen writes The Record outlining a few questions that we believe materially effect the citizenship of the city. In fact, The Record is interested just about as much as the citizen as to a solution of some of these problems at least, and since we are not in position to make definite, plausible answers to them, give space for the article, in that the public may assist us in answering them. Here is the article:

"What is being done with our City Street and Alley Tax Collections? It is understood that the city is still collecting a street and alley tax, but what about our streets? Can you recall how long it has been since any street work has been done and more especially on Second Street, beyond a few shovels full of dirt in the worst of the chug holes? If this tax money has been diverted to other purposes, lets know about it, and to what purpose has it been diverted.

"Have our City and County officials had advices about the repeal of the law relating to muffler cut-outs on automobiles? They evidently think this law has been repealed for the reason that neither county nor city officials whose business it is to enforce this law, make or have made the slightest efforts to enforce this law. Upon inquiry we have ascertained that this is a state law and not a city ordinance, and therefore its enforcement is incumbent as well upon County as upon city officials. Why is it not enforced? We have taken occasion to ask this question before, and shall ask it again and again until some satisfactory answer is furnished."

"NOT TODAY, HONEY."

He was a tenant farmer. Did his best last year, but 12-cent cotton brought a tragedy to him and his family. The merchant who carried him last year failed to collect the greater part of the amount he had advanced the man and had made an arrangement to furnish him again this year but on a greatly decreased basis. The merchant knew that the man was honest, but the merchant must restrict the purchases of his customers if he would keep his doors open.

This man who rented land and fought boll weevils and low price of cotton did not complain at the small amount the merchant told him he must run on. He realized that the merchant must protect himself. He knew that in some mysterious way the world had gone wrong and he and his wife and children were helpless to pay the bill that would right things after awhile. It meant hard work, economy, few necessities and no luxuries. He knew that his wife would have to wear the same dress to church this year that she did last, he knew the boys' clothing would be patched and patched and that the girls—

There was where the heartstrings pulled a little strong. The two girls were 14 and 12 and worked every day with him in the field. The boys were younger.

The summer picnics were coming on and the girls wanted—

That was what bothered him. The patched breeches. Their mother would see that they were clean but the girls.

And so the other day he took the two girls with him to the store of the merchant. It rained that day so they couldn't work in the fields. And the man took the merchant to the back of the store and was for some time in earnest conversation. The man did most of the talking.

In the meantime his little girls were looking longingly at some bright colored bolts of dress goods on the shelf. They were pointing at this and that piece of lawn or calico and their eyes sparkled and smiles played around their little mouths.

As the interview between the man and the merchant ended the merchant was seen to shake his head.

Then the man came and took the girls by the hands and as cheerfully as he could said: "Well girls, let's be going home."

And one of them said: "Ain't we going to buy nothing, daddy?" And the man, speaking more cheerily said: "Not today honey; but there will be lots of purtier gingham for sale this fall than there is now. Real party gingham."

And then the three left the store and went on down the road towards home, down by the field in which they must work in torrid suns, down to the home where a man presided as the head of the house who is one of the men that makes us kin to God and who makes America great.

Just a tenant farmer!—Marshall Morning News.

SQUARE ACCOUNTS

WITH THE LORD

The pastor of the Church of Christ last Sunday at the close of his sermon in Lockney told his audience that he wanted the members of his church to bring next Sunday the same amount of money they spent at Brunk's show last week and pay it to the Lord and thereby square accounts with their Maker. If his advice is taken in the literal sense the contribution would be very large. The members of the Christian church and the members of the other two churches of Lockney should give to the Lord next Sunday as much money as they have spent for worldly amusement during the past week. It is a shame that church members will spend their substance for tent shows and other amusements and when they come to the Lord's house they will lay on the plate some measly sum! The average family spent last week during the Brunk's shows more money than they will give in twelve months time to the church of their affiliation. Do men and women think that they can throw off on the Lord in this manner and get by with it? The Lord will hold every church member responsible who spends his money for shows and fails to contribute liberally to the cause of Christianity and humanity. The writer went to Brunk's several nights himself. We saw the largest crowds ever assembled in Lockney. Hundreds of dollars were spent each night in the purchase of this entertainment. On Sunday we notice the absence of some members who attended nightly these shows. We saw men and women at the show each night with their children, some of them babies in arms, and wees ones by their sides. These same people are absent on Sunday and Sunday nights at church and they give as their reason that they have too many little ones to attend church in the day time and at night that the children go to sleep, etc. But they take them to a tent show night after night and take them home asleep or awake. Is this church loyalty? Is a tent show of more importance than the Church of Christ? Do you expect to stand judgement in these matters and receive words of commendation. Last week thousands of people attended Brunk's shows nightly. They came for 15 or 20 miles. The town all turned out it would seem. The people fairly "ate up the show." to use an expression. But Sunday morning they laid abed and did not attend the church of their choice. We could bring the biggest preacher to Lockney to be found in the United States and start a meeting, and there would be one-third of the attendance that attended the tent show. We would not deny our people wholesome amusement. The Brunk's were clean entertainers. But we do criticize people when they attend shows and fail and refuse to attend church. We do criticize them when they contribute more liberally to shows than they do to church, either in attendance or money giving. We criticize people who attend shows who can't pay their grocery bill. We do not know how many, if any, are in the class who cannot pay their grocery bills, but we would not be surprised if there were some in this fix. How much good from a moral or educational standpoint did the show do the people of Lockney. Did you learn anything that would be of future value to you? Did you learn of life, of death, and of judgement? Did you learn anything as to town and community building; of spiritual, educational of material advancement? The show took out four or five thousand dollars out of the town. This amount could have accomplished many things if used in other directions. If laid on the Lord's altar it would have carried on the work of the church in a progressive manner. If expended on our schools it would have raised the standard of learning in the community. You have purchased something that will not be of value to you in the future. This entertainment passed into one ear and out at the other and you are no better off in an education and spiritual way than before the show came. The Beacon offers these thoughts for reflection. Each church member bring to his church next Sunday the same amount he spent for these shows. Those who have been giving the excuse that they cannot attend church on account of the little ones will find it no more inconvenient to go to church with them than to the show. In a few weeks the Methodists will start their protracted meeting. How many folks who attended the show nightly will attend Bro. Watts' meeting? How many will contribute to this meeting as liberally as they did the tent show? The meeting will do you good, far more than the shows did. It will tell you of life, death and judgement. In this meeting you will be told how to face the issues of life, how to prepare for death, and of the future home of men and women. These subjects are of more importance to this community than that which was seen and heard at last weeks' tent shows. The things seen and heard at this meeting should not pass into one ear and out the other, but should find lodgement in good honest hearts. We have had a season of shows, now let us have a season of other things. Put the same time and money into these other things as you have into the tent shows. If you fail to do these things convicting yourselves of thinking more of worldly entertainment than you do of religious matters.—Lockney Beacon.

Now is the Time to Buy Land

This is the time every man should buy himself a tract of land; every farmer expects some day to own his own farm, and cultivate it according to his own views; the lands in this part of Texas are gradually advancing in price, in five years from this date, these lands will be doubled in value and we will hardly realize it; with a limited amount of money no person would attempt to buy a home in the black land belt of Texas, and pay for it, from the income off the land; people can do this in Mitchell county, they have done so and are doing so right along; I have some lands well located, with reference to Public Roads, Gins and schools and will sell these lands in 80 and 160 acre tracts, will sell these lands at such price and upon such terms that most men can buy and pay for same in a few years. Any of us can buy a Ford these days, and pay for the gas and oil for it for the year; yet it never occurs to us that we could make the first payment upon a tract of land with the price paid for the car and the up-keep it requires will make the yearly payments.

Will furnish price and terms on request.

POND-PRICE

One of the prettiest home weddings that has ever been solemnized in this little city was the marriage of Miss Pearl Price, daughter of T. D. Price to Mr. Henry Pond of Colorado, Texas, which occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Smith on Wednesday evening at seven-fifteen o'clock. The beautiful home had been lavishly decorated on the interior with evergreens and cut flowers, and an isle of sword ferns and palms from the inner part of the house made the way to the front porch, which was also decorated in palms and ferns and a circle of flowers suspended from the ceiling which made a beautiful scene for the happy event. The guests were welcomed by Miss Callie Price, a sister of the bride, who presided at the register book. After registering the guests were served refreshing punch by Miss Janice Wood, of Honey Grove, and Miss Page Price of McKinney, and were then shown the many beautiful gifts which were presided over by Miss Ruth Dowlen. Promptly at the appointed hour Mrs. J. A. Dowlen sang the love song, "Because," in sweetest tones, followed by the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Gladys Clark, which ushered in the wedding party, led by Master Leonard Wood and Miss Iva Jo Smith, unfurling white ribbons on either side. Next came the little flower maids, Misses Francis Price, of Colorado and Miss Virginia Wood of Honey Grove, followed by the bride and groom, who stood before the Rev. Ira C. Kiker, who, with most impressive and solemn words united the lives of these popular young people. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Pond left in their car for Colorado, where they will make their home, and carried with them the wishes of their host of friends for a long and happy life. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Price and daughter, and L. H. Gaskins, of Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Price and Children of McKinney, J. C. Anglin, of Paris and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Morris, of Ennis.—Honey Grove Signal.

Mrs. Pond lived here for several years but left a little over a year ago for Windam. She has been with the Mrs. B. F. Mills Millinery establishment the past two seasons. Mr. Pond has resided here for years and is a prosperous young business man. The Record joins their other friends in wishing them a long, happy and useful life.

Our manner of living makes us very susceptible to colds and a succession of colds causes chronic cattarrh a loathsome disease with it is estimated that ninety-five out of every one hundred of our adult population are afflicted. If you would avoid chronic cattarrh you must avoid colds or having contracted a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. Early Arrivals Forecast the Mode To be in Suits, Coats, Dresses, and Millinery

New apparel of all kinds is constantly arriving, and even now our collection of Women's Suits, Dresses and Coats show many new appealing variations of style. New lines, new colors, new fabrics in the fashions for Autumn lend a delightful variation that stamps the new garments as unique and different.

REVEALING NEW IDEAS

Many new ideas appear in this formal tailored frock for the coming fall and winter in which the vogue for embroidery and that for fringes have been so artfully and beautifully united. It takes the place of a formal tailored suit, and is perhaps even more adaptable to many occasions than its forerunner. The picture tells its story; but note the shape of the neck and sleeves, the narrow lace vestee and strap belt, the ingenious placing of embroidery—they are all important.

INGENIOUS AND MODISH

Among the new suits for fall and winter there are none in which the season's style features have been used to better advantage than in the model illustrated. Its coat is of medium length, with embroidered panel at the front and the much-admired bell sleeve. It is trimmed with a band and collar of fur.

The new colors, the new designs and the new materials are the outstanding changes in Fall Wraps. Some of the Coats have flare backs and belted fronts. Others are straight-line models, and still others are shown with circular skirts. There are belted models, self-trimmed or with fancy stitching and buttons.
