The tax rolls were completed Tuesday morning and were made up by L. B. Elliott and Mr. Holt.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS POSTPONE PLANS FOR ENTERTAINMENT

Plans for a picnic or entertainment to be given by the several Sunday schools of this city have been postponed according to information given the Record Monday. Because that school was in session and the business men of the city are very busy, it was decided to postpone these plans until Spring, when, under present plans, a big Sunday school picnic will be held.

But Capt, Snyder contributed to other enterprises. He was one of the pioneer promoters of the Southwestern University and gave liberally of his time and money for its establishment and maintenance. He was for many years an invaluable member of its board of trustees and so endeared himself to the cause of Methodism in Texas and its great pioneer educational institution that when, because of advancing age, he could no longer serve actively in their councils he was invited by the University governing board to sit with it in its annual ses-

In February 1864 Capt. Snyder was married to Miss Barry Oatts of Round Rock, who with nine children, three sons and six daughters survive him. The children are Mrs. Ollie Jones, Georgetown; Mrs. C. C. Kirkpatrick, San Angelo; Mrs. Warren W. Moore Austin; Mrs. W. H. Atwell and Mrs Ed J. Olive Dallas; D. H. Jr., and Marcus Snyder, Colorado; Fred Snyder, Lubbock; Mrs. C. M. Armstrong, Seminole, Texas, all of whom were here for the funeral. There were also four grandchildren ry Armstrong of Seminole. He is also survived by his brother Captain mas Snyder of Clayton, N. M., one half brother, Durham Wulfjen of Colorado and one half sister Mrs. Mamie McDonald of Dallas. Another brother Charlie Wulfjen died recently in Wyoming.

Captain Snyder was a man of action-a pioneer spirit who dared dangers as inconsequential incidents in human affairs. In his active days he moved at ease in realms of finance or stupendous business and though reverses came at different periods of his life he was resourceful and always equal to the emergencies which confronted him until failing sight retired him from business. For nearly eighteen years he lay within that shadow but that shadow was only physical; his heart remained singularly young, his spirit calm and tranquil, and even as a shut-in he enjoyed life and found pure joy in the companion ship of family and friends.

Go to Church

A prominent layman said Tuesday one-third of the young people between the ages of 15 and 25 in this city never attended church. He form- antee everything nice and clean and ed that opininon after considerable like home cooking. Try the Pullinvestigation and the fact that dawn- man Cafe. ed upon his mind precipitated not a little worry-worry because that so many people have no place in their lives for the chruch, and, apparently for those things for which the church

One of the barriers standing between these young people and their interest in the church is the automobile. There is never a Sunday but that a score of cars, filled with merry youth, traverse the city streets and country roads during the same hour that worship is being observed at the several churches of the city. This is the result of conditions that have served to cultivate in the habits of these young people a keener desire for the automobile ride than for the

This layman stated that on last Sunday 37 people were counted on the links of the Colorado Golf Club, the dawn of another attraction that appeals stronger than the call of the church. The Record fails to find any material difference betweetn the golf links and base bail park, and yet we would be up in the air should any one attempt to foster a ball game here on Sunday. "What is sauce for the goose should be sauce for the gander."

The Record is not censoring these roung people for taking automobile rides on the Sabbath. There is nothinb more to be desired in the way of recreation than a drive into the country and we only wish that we were able to afford a "Super-Twin Six, But we do not condole the practice of so much joy riding about the streets: and into the country at the same

"Remember the Sabbath day and trouble may be we supply the keep it holy" is an implicit command remedy that will remove it. So to us all, and those who encourage send your car here for treatment attractions that directly or indirectly diagnose the case quickly and conflict with religious services, be it when it needs attention. We'll the automobile ride, he golf links, or cure the trouble promptly. Our whatsoever else that has the tendency fees are always moderate. :: :: of calling the young people away from the church to other environments fail to keep that command.

If We Knew Merchandising

It is the business of the Record to give its hundreds of readers the best it has every issue. The business making a newspaper is somewhat different than that of merchandising, but it is the same from the fact that unless we give absolute satisfaction every issue some one is going to raise a holler that can be heard from here to the Cannibal Islands, and we sure don't like hollering when it is not in our favor.

If we knew merchandising as well as we knew the newspaper game; some of you might have some regular competition, but as it stands we want your co-operation and if you ever lose anything on us collect it. We are here for your good first-if there's a dividend after, we spend it for equipment

Christian Workers

The Christian Workers S. S. Class of the Methodist church met in their regular monthly business and social meeting on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Ed Womack. The business for the afternon consisted in the regular routine work, reports of visits to sick and strangers, payment of dues, etc. New business consisted of the election of officers for the new year.

Our class study "Woman's Ministry" will be resumed at our next monthly meeting.

We are anxious that more of our ladies become interested in this very interesting work. At the social hour the hostess served ice cream and delicious home made cake.
