COUNTY OFFICIALS MEET ON BOUNDARY QUESTION

County Judge J. T. Brooks, County Attorney R. C. Thomas and the members of the Howard County Commissioner Court were here Monday from Big Spring to meet with the Mitchell County Commissioners' Court for outlining plans for definitely establishing the boundary between the two counties.

The boundary line between Mitchell and Howard counties has never been definitely located, Judge Hall stated, and under the plans agreed to by the two counties here Monday a survey is soon to be made for the purpose of establishing the line.

The southwest and northwest corners of Mitchell county, as designated in field notes filed with the General Land Office at Austin will probably be accepted by the two counties as being correct, but the two surveys that have been made to describe a line as between these two corners conflict and neither of them is accepted.

The new survey will be made within the next few weeks, Judge Hall stated Tuesday morning. A surveyor residing in some county other than Mitchell or Howard is to be employed, the Judge stated, and the line described by his field notes are to be final.

"There is absolutely no controversy in this matter," Hall said. "All members of both the commissioners courts expressed the wish that the matter be settled amicably and I am sure that such will be done."

It is generally believed that the authentic boundary lies 600 or 700 yards west from where the county marker now stands at Iatan on the Texas & Pacific right of way. This would place the western Mitchell county boundary among the hills west of the wells of the Colorado-Texas Petroleum Company.

EIGHT PRISONERS HELD IN MITCHELL CO. JAIL

Sheriff W. J. Chesney stated Wednesday that eight prisoners were held in jail here. Five of these were white persons, one of whom was a woman arrested two weeks ago on charges of vagrancy. Four were negroes and one a Mexican.

This is above the average number of prisoners held here, Chesney stated, but during the past two weeks the county bastille has been practically full. At one time a few days ago eighteen prisoners were confined there. Several of those held are charged with felony offenses and are being held for an investigation by the grand jury.

In addition to these two prisoners, Chesney has one man in a jail outside Mitchell county.

SCHOOL RESPONDS TO CALL FOR ARMENIANS

Last week a call was made upon the pupils of the Colorado schools to raise what money they could for the relief of the starving Armenians. As they always do in such cases the children and teachers responded to the call in a whole-hearted way. Following is the amount contributed by the rooms:

Miss Baker's room	$ 6.45
Miss Thompson's room	6.95
Miss Smith's room	9.30
Mr. Foster's room	8.25
Miss Salting's room	4.55
Mrs. Schnable's room	7.50
Miss Terry's room	3.25
Miss Kreech's room	8.25
Miss Hawkin's room	3.00
Miss King's room	1.26
Mrs. Fulkerson's room	12.60
Miss McGill's room	3.00
Total	$74.36

This amount was turned over to Dr. P. C. Coleman.

JACK BARNES RELIEVED OF PISTOL AND BOOZE

Jack Barnes of Abilene was placed under arrest Monday night one or two miles east of Colorado by deputy sheriff Dale of Lorraine, on the charge of carrying a pistol and contraband liquor. When accosted by the officer, Barnes threw his pistol away, but it was later found imbedded in the sand by the roadway. He carried a quart bottle about one third filled with corn whiskey.

Barnes was brought back to Colorado and locked up and is being held for a probe by the grand jury which convenes Monday.

The pistol, a Colt's .38, and the corn juice were added to the sheriff's collection of these contrabands in a vault at the court house. Barnes was wearing a large diamond which he claimed to be worth one thousand dollars and cautioned the officers to be sure not to lose it.

Officers state that Barnes was considerably "lit up" when arrested and had been to Colorado presumably to attend a show playing here this week.

COLORADO PUBLIC SCHOOLS DOING SPLENDID WORK

The schools of the city are doing splendid work, E. Frank King, superintendent, stated Wednesday. And when such a record is being maintained in the face of obstacles necessarily having to be met in the way of crowded conditions in some of the class rooms and a shortage of finances, it is commendable to a prominent citizen of the city.

It was to relieve the crowded condition in some of the lower grades that matured one of the demands that bonds be voted with which to construct a new high school building.

SOCIAL MEETING

There will be a special Thanksgiving service at the prayer meeting at the Baptist Church next Wednesday evening, followed by a social meeting in the Sunday School rooms. Every Baptist and his family are urged to be present. Come.

MAYOR PROCLAIMS THURS. DAY OF THANKSGIVING

Judge A. J. Coe, mayor of Colorado, issued a proclamation Wednesday afternoon designating Thursday, November 24th, as a day of thanksgiving, divine meditation and prayer by the people of the city, urging that the people of Colorado should feel grateful for the material blessings accorded them during the past year at the hand of God. The proclamation follows:

In that the people of the city of Colorado may be further requested to comply with the provisions of proclamations issued to the American people by President Harding, and to the people of Texas by Governor Neff, calling upon them to observe Thursday, November 24th, as a day of thanksgiving, devotion and prayer, giving thanks for all that has been rendered unto them and pray for a continuation of the Divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon them, I, A. J. Coe, Mayor of the City of Colorado, Texas, do hereby proclaim that Thursday, November 24, 1921, be recognized as Thanksgiving and that the people of Colorado observe said day as one of devotion, prayer and thanksgiving.

The people of this city have received many material blessings during the year, and for these we should be thankful; throughout the contiguous territory to our city fairly good crops have been made this year and the prices received for these commodities have in most instances proven profitable to the producer, all of which have contributed toward making our county and city prosper.

Out of gratitude for all these and in keeping with the spirit of Thanksgiving, I call upon the people to observe the day.

Done at Colorado, Texas, this 16th day of November 1921.
A. J. COE.
By the Mayor, L. A. Costin, City Sec.

LOCAL INDUSTRY IS HIT BY RAIL RATES

The high freight rates exacted by the railway companies operating in West Texas is having its effect on a local asset to this city and under present conditions, this business, which could be made a most important one in the commercial life of Colorado, will retrograde to almost nothing. This business is that made possible by the unlimited supply of sand and gravel for building purposes.

One of the contractors shipping these materials from Colorado stated Monday that for shipping sand from Colorado to Westbrook, a distance of ten miles, the Texas & Pacific Railway company charged a rate of $1.05 per yard. For a haul to Roscoe, twenty miles away, a rate of $1.10 per yard is charged, he said. In carlot shipments from Colorado to Abilene, the rate is $1.43 per yard.

Contractors in various parts of West Texas who have used Colorado sand and gravel have pronounced these materials among the best in the State, and, under normal conditions would use them wherever practical. The high rates charged by the railroads, however, in moving these materials serves to make their use impractical in those cases where cheaper hauls from other and nearer pits may be made.

The city of Sweetwater has used a number of cars of sand and gravel from the Colorado pits during the past year, and George H. Sheppard, mayor, in a statement to the Chamber of Commerce Saturday, said these materials had proven to be of very excellent quality, for any purpose of construction in which sand and gravel is used.

Contractors at Abilene have spoken their preference for the Colorado material, but because of the fact that the haul from Ballinger, where large pits are located, is a few cents cheaper on the one hundred pounds, they are using these materials from there.

An effort will be made to secure a reduction in the present freight rates.

SHERIFF ARRESTS TWO MEN ON VAGRANCY CHARGES

Homer White and Marcus Whitehead were placed under arrest here this week by Sheriff W. J. Chesney on charges of vagrancy. White was locked up Tuesday and Whitehead Wednesday. White entered a plea of guilty and paid his fine, but Whitehead was still in the county jail Thursday morning.

Judge Hall stated last Wednesday that another prisoner, a white man, had been sent to the county gravel pit to join the gang being worked there under direction of the court, and reiterated the statement made earlier in the week that there is to be no more laying out fines in jail while the county is so sorely in need of road work.

COLORADO BARGAIN HOUSE ADVERTISING BIG SALE

Abel Levy of Sweetwater, senior member of the firm of Levy Bros. owners of the Sweetwater Dry Goods Company and the Colorado Bargain House, spent a few days of this week in Colorado superintending arrangements for a big sale to commence at this store Saturday, (19th). The Record is carrying a two-page advertisement for the store in the issue today. Look up the advertisement and read for yourself what the management is offering the buying public in the way of dry goods, clothing, shoes, etc.

Otto Jones, manager of the Randerbrook ranch, has been a busy man this week. Owing to the scarcity of water and grass he shipped this week 500 head of white faces to the Plains ranch. Also 300 head of fat calves to Fort Worth and also shipped some to Sweetwater, where they already have 2000 head on feed. Mr. Jones is considered one of the best ranch managers and cow men in the West and is also a mighty good man.

DISTRICT COURT WILL CONVENE HERE MONDAY

The Mitchell County District Court will be convened Monday morning with Hon. W. P. Leslie on the bench.

W. S. Stoneham, district clerk, stated Wednesday that the court would open with light dockets.

$4,925.06 TAXES COLLECTED BY CHESNEY TO NOV. 3rd

The monthly report of W. J. Chesney, tax collector, filed with Commissioners Court Monday, showed that for the current year a total of $4,925.06 in state and county taxes had been collected up to and including November 3. Of this amount, $4,604.01 was collected during the month of October.

The monthly report of Ocie Green, county treasurer, was also audited and approved by the commissioners.

An order reducing allowance to the jailer for feeding prisoners from one dollar per day to seventy-five cents per day, per prisoner, was passed.

The commissioners adjourned late Tuesday pending further negotiations with the Commissioners Court of Howard County on the boundary question, and the court here will be convened in special session just as soon as preliminaries for having a survey can be completed.

GASOLINE ADVANCES 2 CENTS PER GALLON AT COLORADO

An advance of two cents per gallon on gasoline has been announced at filling stations in Colorado, placing the price now at 24 cents.

This is the second advance in gas to become effective since quotations on crude oil commenced to take an upward trend a few weeks ago.

Rev. M. C. Bishop attended a B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School convention in Abilene last Friday and Saturday. He reports a splendid meeting.

PART OF IMPROVISED STILL IS CAPTURED

A galvanized boiler and a carbonating tank, supposed to have been part of the equipment of a still, were captured last week by Sheriff W. J. Chesney and Deputy H. A. Cook in a house occupied by a negro family on the Will Ledbetter farm northeast of Colorado.

The boiler was found secluded in the ceiling of the house and the tank underneath a pile of corn which was stored in an adjoining side-room. No mash nor any coils to complete the distilling equipment were found. In a pasture nearby, however, the officers found where a quantity of mash had been poured out onto the ground.

BUYERS THROUGH COLORADO BARGAIN STORE SATURDAY

The management of the Colorado Bargain Store reports that the rush of customers became so great Saturday that they were forced to close the doors for a time in order to keep the people out. There was a jam in the aisles that the force of salespeople could only move about to sell customers with difficulty. This is another of the thousand and one convincing proofs of the value of newspaper advertising. The only information that the public had that there was to be a sale at this store was through the columns of the Record, and becoming interested in the offers made during the sale, they came from various sections of the Colorado territory.

The Colorado Record is rendering a service to its advertising patrons impossible for them to obtain otherwise.

A. E. Maddin shipped six cars of young steers to his ranch near Albany this week. Scarcity of water was the reason for the change from his ranch south of Colorado.

PULLMAN PORTER FACES LIQUOR CHARGE HERE

Green Garrett, negro Pullman porter, was placed under arrest at Colorado last week and his suit case, containing three full quarts of Tequila, was taken from the train.

Local officers became suspicious when they noticed Dotrich Moffett, local negro, enter the Pullman and emerge with a suit case. Apprehending Moffett, they found the contraband liquor and placed both under arrest.

Moffett made a cash bond, pending his appearance before the grand jury, but the other negro, in default of bond, is meditating in the county jail.

Sheriff Chesney stated Wednesday morning that his collection of Tequila, corn whiskey, pistols, still equipment and other contraband made prohibitive by the Eighteenth Amendment and the criminal laws of Texas, was growing to such proportions that very soon he would be compelled to requisition other and larger quarters than those afforded by the vault at his office. The collection is a varied one and has been gradually made during the past five or six months.

"TO THE ROCK PILE" TO BE AWARDED JAIL BIRDS

"We are going to find some other diversion than laying out fines in jail for those convicted in this court from now on," County Judge Hall stated Tuesday morning, in speaking of plans recently worked out whereby prisoners are to be worked on the public roads.

Three men, two negroes and one Mexican, are already "making hands", Hall stated, and are shoveling gravel onto wagons at the county pit. "And such others as may be remanded to jail in lieu of fine may expect to join them," he concluded.

BOX SPER TO FEATURE ENTERTAINMENT AT BUFORD

A community social is scheduled for Friday night at Buford school house, seven miles north of Colorado, according to H. B. Palmer. Ladies of that community are noted for their superior culinary art, Palmer stated, and every purchaser of a box is assured of obtaining a bargain, no matter what price he may pay. The invitation to attend is extended the general public. Funds derived from the sale of boxes are to be used in meeting the expense of added features to the school there.

Mrs. Smoot was called to Dallas last Friday on account of the sickness of her sister, Mrs. Meeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith and the children spent the week-end in Hamilton with Mrs. Smith's sister's family, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson.

Postmaster B. S. Van Tuyl was on the sick list this week.

M. B. Roddy came up from Corpus Christi this week on a short stay in Colorado.

Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. H. P. Slagel made a trip to Lorraine Monday in the interest of Red Cross work.

ARMISTICE DAY EVENT OBSERVED AT COLORADO

Armistice Day was observed in Colorado through the closing of the various stores and offices and services at 10 o'clock in the morning at the First Methodist church. Several formed parties for outings into the country to hunt or gather pecans or to spend the day visiting with relatives and friends elsewhere, while others remained in the city, spending the day in such diversion as they chose.

The services at the church were made very impressive. Rev. C. L. Browning, who presided, read as the Scripture lesson for the program parts of the second chapter of Isaiah and of the fourth chapter of Micah, in which the prophets foretold the coming of a time when there should be no more wars—"when wars shall cease and the people shall beat their swords into plow shares and their spears into pruning hooks."

Rev. D. R. Hardison, pastor of the First Christian church, delivered the principal address and commented at length upon what the fulfillment of those prophecies would mean to the world. He expressed the belief that people everywhere were more and more coming to appreciate the principles of God and that the day would come quite soon when wars would be no more.

"When that aggregation of men met in Europe to determine what the terms of the truce with Germany and her allies should be, some one suggested that before the deliberations be commenced some one read a chapter from the Bible and offer a prayer," Rev. Mr. Hardison said. "No," came the reply, "we do not have time for those formalities now," and thus the word of God found no place at that meeting.

"I am proud to know," he continued, "that a Bible has been provided for the disarmament conference meeting in Washington, the capitol of our own republic, today, and that this morning, even this very hour, as that conference is being opened, one will stand before those men and read from the Bible, using the same text that our brother has just read here, and that following this, a prayer will be offered for Divine guidance of those men during their deliberations."

Rev. M. C. Bishop, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was to have had a part on the program but was out of the city. Rev. Mr. Bishop was in Abilene attending a convention of the Southern Baptist Church.

Special prayers for the early dawn of universal peace, and that the spirit of Jesus Christ prevail at the world disarmament conference at Washington, were offered by Rev. C. L. Browning, E. Keathley and Mrs. C. H. Lasky. An impressive solo was rendered by Mrs. Royall Smith of El Paso, who was visiting in the city.

STREETS TO BE REPAIRED "AT END OF THE DROUGHT"

"The city plans extensive improvements to the streets when a rain falls," L. A. Costin, city secretary, stated Tuesday morning. Mr. Costin stated that an order directing that the streets of the city be repaired was passed by the council Monday night, but a provision that this work not be started until rain came was incorporated.

"This was because of the fact that it would be impracticable to do the work now while the surface of the streets are so dry and could not be made to bind satisfactorily unless moistened either by rain or sprinkling, Costin stated.

MASS MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT AT LORRAINE

A box supper entertainment is to feature a mass meeting of Lorraine citizens at the school building there tonight (Friday). Judge J. C. Hall stated Wednesday. Judge Hall will attend as the principal speaker to deliver an appeal for support of the Red Cross in the Fifth Annual Ball Call.

Willard Batteries

We Serve You

SERVICE!

We like to put it in capitals that way because we believe it is the most important thing in the battery business. Of course we can't make a new battery out of an old one, or a good battery out of a poor one, or a long-lived battery out of a short-lived one. There are limits even to battery service.

But we can make any battery last longer and serve better if you give us a chance. We can make the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery do both—and it already holds records for long life and reliability.

We can always do more with a battery if we get a chance right at the start, although we are ready to help anytime. Come in!

You'll say, too, that we give— SERVICE!

WITH THE CHURCHES

SUNDAY WITH THE BAPTISTS.

We were delighted last Sunday. Fine crowds at all the services. The night audience was the largest yet. The music is good. We enjoy the orchestra; it helps greatly. Everything seems to be encouraging. The people are turning back to the house of the Lord. We hope to be able to lead the Lord's hosts into new ways of service and into new ideals for Christ and His church. We cannot serve God and the devil. God would have a whole-hearted service or none.

...We invite you to be present Sunday morning and evening. We are writing these notes early in the week before we have selected a subject for either service but we will do our best to help any who may come. We are always glad to have the visitors. You are welcome in a great way.

M. C. BISHOP.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Our evening services have been changed to 7:00. Some still wait until 7:30. Come at 7:00. The Senior Endeavor at 6:00. Do not forget the hours of services.

Bible school attendance a little better Sunday over the Sunday before. We hope to see all present next Lord's day.

Visitors, friends and strangers in our city welcome to all the services.

D. R. HARDISON,

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.

Our Sunday school meets at 9:45. This school is for big, little, old and young. Could you not join this school and spend one hour a week in the study of God's word? Shall we look for you next Sunday?

Preaching both morning and evening by the pastor. We shall use both these services as Father and Son Day. We have Mother's Day each year. Why not have Father's Day?

The subject of the morning sermon will be: "The father who makes a glad son." The subject of the evening sermon will be: "The son who makes a glad father." Let the fathers and boys come to church Sunday and hear these talks. Let an effort be made by all to bring this class especially to the services. You will be interested if you come; you will do good if you bring some one.

RESOLUTIONS
 We, the members of the R. E. Lee Chapter of U. D. C. feel that in the death of Miss Jo Dry, we have lost one of our most talented and loyal Daughters, and one whose place can never be filled. Our hearts are filled with sorrow over her untimely going, and over the void it has left in our Chapter, and in our hearts. But realizing that our Heavenly Father doeth all things well, we bow in humble submission to His will, seeking to emulate her virtues by keeping aight the torch of love and duty to our Southland; serving and making happy the declining years of our Veterans, and giving unstintedly of our time to the Cause of the Confederacy.

We offer our deepest sympathy to the bereaved sister, but knowing that she is "superior to adversity and equal to prosperity," we expect her "to keep the faith and finish the course," as her dear departed one has done, being helped by the loving Savior, who is always nigh unto those who need Him.

Though we shall miss this charter member, let us not think of her as dead—but as transplanted into Paradise to adorn an immortal bower.

"She has but dropped her robe of clay

To put her sunshine raiment on, She has but wandered far away. She is not lost or gone,

And ever near us though unseen Her dear immortal spirit treads: For all the boundless universe is Life—

There are no dead."

NOTICE
 To the Members of the E. K. Insurance Association:

Snyder, Tex., Nov. 16, 1921.
 At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the E. K. Local Mutual Progressive Life and Accident Insurance Association of Snyder, Texas, the following order was unanimously passed and entered of record on the minutes of said Association, to-wit:

"Whereas, statistics show that the death rate in the E. K. Mutual Progressive Life and Accident Insurance Association of Snyder, Texas, for the year 1921, have exceeded the normal death rate as provided for under the constitution and by-laws of said Association; there having been two deaths in excess thereof;

And whereas, said constitution provides that in case of excessive death rate for any one year, the assessments to be paid the beneficiaries in excess of the normal amount may be paid out of the surplus fund;

Therefore Be it Ordered by the Board of Trustees of the E. K. Mutual Progressive Life and Accident Insurance Association of Snyder, Texas, that the sum of Twenty-one Hundred Dollars be paid out of the surplus fund to the beneficiaries on account of two deaths and one accident which have occurred since the passing of the normal stage of death and accident rate as provided for in said constitution.

It is further ordered that notification be given to the policy holders by publication, that such has been done, and that the policy holders are hereby relieved from paying additional assessments by reason of said two deaths and one accident aforesaid.

Done by order of the Board of Trustees, this the 16th day of November, 1921.

PEOPLE CALLED TO THANKSGIVING

President Harding has issued a proclamation designating November 24th, as a day of thanksgiving, devotion and prayer and urging the people to give thanks "for all that has been rendered unto them," and to pray "for a continuance of the divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation." The proclamation follows:

"That season has come when, alike in pursuance of a devout people's time-honored custom and in grateful recognition of favoring national fortunes, it is proper that the president should summon the nation to a day of devotion, of thanksgiving for the blessings bestowed and of prayer for guidance in modes of life that may deserve continuance of divine favor.

"Foremost among our blessings is the return of peace, and the approach to normal ways again. The year has brought us again into relations of amity with all nations after a long period of struggle and turbulence. In thankfulness, therefore, we may well unite in the hope that Providence will vouchsafe approval to the things we have done, the aims which have guided us, the aspirations which have inspired us.

"We shall be prospered as we shall deserve prosperity, seeking not alone for the material things but for those of the spirit as well; earnestly trying to help others, asking, before all else, the privilege of service. As we tender thanks anew for the exaltation which came to us, we may fittingly petition that moderation and wisdom shall be granted to rest upon all who are in authority in the tasks they must discharge. Their hands will be studied, their purposes strengthened, in answer to our prayers.

"Ours has been a favored nation in the bounty which God has bestowed upon it. The great trial of humanity, though indeed we bore our part as well as we were able, left us comparatively little scarred. It is for us to recognize that we have been thus favored and when we gather at our altars to offer up thanks we will do well to pledge, in humanity and all sincerity our purpose to prove deserving. We have been raised up and preserved in national power and consequence as part of a plan whose wisdom we cannot question. Thus believing, we can do no less than hold our nation the willing instrument of the Providence which has so wonderfully favored us. Opportunity for very great service awaits us if we shall prove equal to it. Let our prayers be raised for direction in the right paths. Under God, our responsibility is great; to our own first, to all men afterward, to all mankind in God's own justice.

Now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, president of the United States, hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November, to be observed by the people as a day of thanksgiving, devotion, and prayer; urging that at their hearts and their altars, they will give thanks for all that has been rendered unto them, and will pray for a continuance of the divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the United States of America.

"Done at the capitol of the United States this thirty-first day of October, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and forty-sixth.

"WARREN G. HARDING.
By the president:
Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State."

Editor Fore came over from Sweetwater Sunday and spent a few hours in Colorado. Mr. Fore at one time lived here and filled the office of city secretary. He is now business manager for the Terrell Publishing company at Sweetwater.

WORLD'S COTTON CONDITIONS GENERALLY LOOK PROMISING

Economic conditions in Europe, outside of Russia, are gradually improving, according to William R. Meadows and William L. Pryor, of the Bureau of Market and Crop Estimates, United States Department of Agriculture, recently returned from a four months' trip through Europe and Egypt studying general market conditions of cotton, especially as bearing on the prospective demand for the American product. The department's representatives report that the consumption of American cotton may be expected to show a considerable increase, perhaps 10 to 13 per cent over that of last year.

Visits were made to England, France, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Poland, the free city of Danzig, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Italy, and Egypt. In addition, Mr. Meadows also visited Palestine. At all the cotton marketing and manufacturing centers conferences were held with Government officials, cotton men, bankers and others, and much valuable information concerning conditions affecting American cotton were secured. The recent advance in the price of cotton, they say, has greatly relieved the cotton merchants, spinners and bankers of Europe as well as similar lines of industry in this country. According to the best information obtainable, the cotton manufacturing world begins the new season with a clean slate, there being no large stocks of cotton or cotton goods held by manufacturers in any European country. In the judgment of the department's representatives, Europe must of necessity follow a "hand-to-mouth" policy in purchasing its supplies of raw cotton, and American holders should adopt a gradual marketing policy to conform to Europe's requirements.

There are several members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Colorado and these should take note of the change, in that confusion be eliminated when corresponding with the traffic department.

WEST TEXAS C. OF C. BUREAU IS MOVED TO STAMFORD

The traffic bureau of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, located since the organization was established three years ago in the Chamber of Commerce Building, Fort Worth, has been moved to Stamford and all communications to the bureau should be addressed to the latter place.

There are several members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Colorado and these should take note of the change, in that confusion be eliminated when corresponding with the traffic department.

ROGERS SUNDAY SCHOOL ORGANIZED SUNDAY P. M.

A Sunday school was organized by citizens of the Rogers community Sunday afternoon following a meeting at the school house. C. E. Berry was elected superintendent and an enrollment of 62 charter members was made.

Funds with which to make the initial payment on a chapel organ were raised and the instrument has been ordered. Some of those taking the initiative in organizing the Sunday school suggested that they wire for the organ, rather than await a delay of ordering by mail. The instrument is to be shipped from a factory at Louisville, Kentucky.

GEORGE ADAMS WRITES OF HIS BROTHERS DEATH

The following communication from George Adams at Strawn has been received by the Record:

"John Adams was returning home to Strawn from the Iatan well, when coming through Colorado he accidentally fell from a truck on which he was riding. This occurred Wednesday morning and he died Monday morning between Eastland and Ranger on a Texas & Pacific passenger train.

"He leaves a wife and eight children, his father, four brothers and two sisters."

DIED.

Geo. Richardson, 74 years of age, died at his home north of Loraine Thursday, November 3, at 2:30 p. m. after a lingering illness of three years and three months, interment was made in the Loraine cemetery Friday, Rev. Green officiating. During the entire time he was an invalid and unable to walk. He was taken worse on Monday of last week and grew rapidly worse until death.

Mr. Richardson was well known here, having been a resident of this county a number of years. He was known as an honest Christian gentleman, a good citizen and a kind and loving husband and father. He was for many years member of the Church of Christ. He leaves a wife and nine children.—Loraine Leader

HUNTERS LOST IN WOODS OF BEAL'S CREEK BOTTOM

Thursday night of last week Ray Womack and Millard Smith, accompanied by G. W. Womack, went into the woods on Beal's Creek on a moon hunt.

Leaving Mr. Womack at the car, the boys plunged into the depths of the creek bottom in quest of the game. They had been gone several hours when Mr. Womack became suspicious they were lost and soon the distance he heard the report of a gun. Believing the shot to be a signal from Ray and Millard, Mr. Womack fired a shot in reply, which was soon answered and soon the hunters returned to the car.

"The joke is on them," Mr. Womack stated Monday, "but it was expensive to me, as I wasted all my buckshot shells in answering their signals. They were lost five hours and are not very enthusiastic over moon hunting now."

SWEETWATER AUTHORITIES FIND COLORADO GRAVEL BEST

Sand and gravel from the pits at Colorado are of unusually good quality for all kinds of construction, Mayor George H. Sheppard of Sweetwater, stated Saturday. Local contractors furnishing these materials have sold several cars at Sweetwater during the past year.

Mr. Sheppard stated that Sweetwater would soon improve the municipal bathing beach at the city lake and would use gravel from Colorado as a covering for the beach.

The Chamber of Commerce has at its office attractive printed matter concerning the Colorado sand and gravel, which will be furnished free of cost to local contractors and others interested, for distribution.

ABOUT THE M. K. & T. RAILROAD EXTENSION

The Chamber of Commerce is just in receipt of a communication from the Stamford Chamber where they are taking up the matter of the M. K. & T. extension with the company. Considerable interest is being aroused in the Stamford section with a view of putting this proposition thru. The Waco Chamber of Commerce is working on the proposition from that end of the line and it is generally believed that by spring some definite action will be under way on the project. Should such a thing occur the Snyder people will have to be alive as there are several projected routes through this territory and we could not afford to let the road miss us.—Snyder Signal.

W. W. Jeffress, operated upon two weeks ago for appendicitis at the Colorado Sanitarium, returned to his home in the city last week and is doing nicely.

COUNCIL ORDERS CHANGE IN BONDS

An ordinance changing the municipal water and sewer bonds, voted several weeks ago in the sum of $120,000 for water and sewer improvements, from forty's to serials was passed by the city council Monday night. This means that the bonds will have to be printed again, and bids for this work have been requested.

Such a change in the transcript was recommended by bond brokers who advised the city administration that the serials were more attractive on the market than the other issue, in some instances commanding a price of five points more. The change was approved by the attorney general and Thos. R. Smith, acting city attorney.

The first of the serials will mature October 1, 1922, and the subsequent bonds one each year on that date to and including October 1, 1962. Interest coupons are to mature semi-annually, on April 1 and October 1, respectively of each year during the life of the bonds after and including next year.

The new edition of the bonds will contain the ten year option clause, the same as incorporated in the former. The bonds are to bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum.

The council plans to have the new bonds printed and registered without unnecessary delay and to advertise them for sale at the earliest possible date, it was stated Tuesday. The program calls for everything completed ready to commence actual construction of the two projects next spring.

These bonds were voted several weeks ago for the purpose of damming Lone Wolf Creek near the city, impounding a lake of water sufficient for a city several times the population of Colorado, and for extending the water mains north and south from the present construction, and for laying a sewer throughout the principal part of the city, the latter extending as far north as Ninth street.

BEING A SUNBEAM

"WE HEAR and read a great deal about optimism," said the stranger, "and we go around telling our friends not to worry. The advice is good enough, but we don't pause to reflect that optimism is a mental attitude that can be reached only by study and training. What shall we study? I have here, madam, a little book entitled, 'How to Be a Sunbeam,' which answers the question fully and completely. It was written by—"

"I don't care who it was written by, or whether it is indorsed by all the statesmen and prelates in the country," exclaimed Mrs. Curfew. "I don't want to be a sunbeam, experience having taught me that I can get along better and have less trouble and tribulation, when I look as much like a meatrix as possible."

"Last evening before I went to bed I was reading a book called 'Sunshine Susan.' It was about a woman who just made up her mind to be happy no matter what happened. Then her husband was brought home with a broken leg, and the two children had a number of measles simultaneously, and the house burned down, and the bank in which she had deposited her savings closed its doors, and in spite of everything she went around singing and dancing."

"If I had thought it over I might have realized that it was too good to be true. No human woman could be gay and happy in the midst of so many calamities. But I was in a sentimental mood, and when I turned out the light and went to bed I thought that I ought to be ashamed of myself for not being like Sunshine Susan, and I made up my mind I would turn over a new leaf first thing in the morning."

"So I came downstairs smiling, and I was singing all the time I was getting breakfast, and when Mr. Curfew came down he said it warmed up his whole being to see me in such a cheerful frame of mind. It reminded him of him of the time when I was sweet seventeen, and as pretty as a red wagon. Then he gradually drifted into a story to the effect that he had a great opportunity to make the finest horse trade of his career. All he needed was $7 in cash to close the transaction, and he would make at least $15 by it."

"He knew I had $7 put away in the clock to buy myself some clothes I need the worst way. I had saved that money, a nickel and a dime at a time, and was looking forward to the time when I would have enough to go shopping and buy myself an outfit good enough for the queen of Sheba."

Mr. Curfew had been trying to borrow my savings for a long time, offering to give me his note as security, and before I read that Sunshine Susan book I always refused him, and nearly snapped his head off doing it. But that morning I was anxious to make everybody happy, so I handed him the money, and he went and made his horse trade and brought home an old crowbait that has been sick ever since, and he spends all his time out at the barn, feeding it pills and powders, and I can't get him to do any of the chores around the place."

"The same morning Mrs. Turpentine heard me singing in the back yard, and she thought it would be a good time to borrow my patent electric washing machine, and came over for that purpose. She had asked for it a dozen times before, but I always told her to go to. Being full of sunshine on that occasion, however, I told her she could have it and welcome, and I've never been able to use it since. The man who sold it to me says it will cost $6 for repairs, so you see what Sunshine Susan did to me."

"No, mister, I don't want any recipe for being a sunbeam, and you can take your book along to Mrs. Turwilliger, in the yellow house across the street. She's the champion middle weight pessimist of this neighborhood."

Explained.

"Do you see the man yonder? Well, to my certain knowledge he is leading a double life."

"You don't say so!"

"Yes; he is a professional contortionist."

After American Stylemakers.

French creators of feminine gowns and hats have appealed for a law to prohibit the indiscriminate photographing of their models at the race tracks. They claim that American and other clothing designers are stealing fashion points from the pictures.

Close Call.

"It was a near thing, but I made it." "The operation, you mean?" "Yes. In another twenty-four hours the patient would have recovered without it and walked out on me."

THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH

This town and county have great cause for thanksgiving. We have been the recipients of more than the average gifts this year. Good crops, good prices, good health and ideal weather for gathering and caring for the fruits of the field. Shall we receive and not give thanks? Gratitude is one of the finest human qualities. Do you possess it, or will you continue to take and never say, "Thank you?"

At 10:00 a. m., at the Methodist Church, Thursday morning, November 24, is the time. All Christian people want to come and give thanks. It is a national holiday of thanksgiving. The president of the United States has issued the proclamation for the nation. The governor of the state for the state, and the mayor of our city for the city. These proclamations include everybody. You are included. Will you be there?

The program for the hour is as follows:

- 1 Song by the choir. Mr. Dawes directing.
- 2 Reading of the proclamations, Mayor Coe.
- 3 Scripture reading, Judge W. P. Leslie.
- 4 Music by the choir.
- 5 Prayer, Brother Bishop.
- 6 Special music by the choir.
- 7 Thanksgiving address, Brother Hardison.

8 America, sung by the congregation.

9 Benediction. Brother Browning will preside. There will be no collection. We are doing our charity work through the Red Cross. All business houses are cordially asked to close for this service, if possible for the day. Close and come out—church people and non-church people. We think it your duty and will do you good. If you go hunting, do so in the afternoon. Come to the service first.

Vogler-Hantsche (Delayed from last week)

The marriage of Henry Vogler of Winters, Texas, and Miss Emma Hantsche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hantsche of Roscoe, Texas, was solemnized at the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Loraine, Texas, Sunday afternoon, November 6, 1921, at 3 o'clock. The Rev. A. J. F. Meier, pastor of the church performed the ceremony, preceded by a short address on 1 Tim. 4, 4-5.

The church was nicely decorated with roses, carnations and chrysanthemums. Two large bouquets of ferns were placed on each side of the pulpit. To the strains of the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin", played by Mrs. A. J. F. Meier, the bridal party marched down the aisle to the altar. Miss Alma Onken, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor and was dressed in crepe de chine. The bride was becomingly attired in crepe de chine and wore a veil held in place by orange blossoms. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Walter Hantsche, brother of the bride, as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vogler will make their home at Winters, Texas.

ARMISTICE DAY.

Last Friday was Armistice Day, the third to pass since the tremendous sacrifice of our men and those of our allies, and the extraordinary efforts of the entire country was crowned with victory. On each recurring anniversary the day has been celebrated and it is now apparent that Armistice Day has become one of our most important and universally recognized holidays.

This year Armistice Day had an especial significance. It was marked in Washington, the capitol of our nation, by the meeting of the International Conference of that which is to make a sincere effort to compose the misunderstanding among the nations that threaten, been though remotely, to disturb the peace of the world in the Pacific, and then find a way to relieve the race of the costly burden of armament that it is now obliged to carry. At Arlington, Virginia, in the National Cemetery, the body of an unknown soldier, who responded to the call of America, leaving home behind, and followed the Stars and Stripes to the firing line, there to pay the supreme sacrifice, was buried with impressive ceremony, men and women from every walk in life and from remote parts of the United States, joining in paying fitting tribute. On this day this nation had as its honored guest, Marshal Foch, the generalissimo of the Allied armies. Far and wide, in city streets and in rural communities, the day was remembered with public exercises. In the million homes from which Young America went forth, some of whom were from homes in our own city and county, to play their part in the great struggle, the day was observed in the deepest emotion; here in proud, yet sorrowful memory of one who gave the last and greatest gift to his country; there in thanksgiving for a son or a husband, spared by the truce of the armistice, to return again to the family circle and the ways of peace.

In Colorado the services, though simple, were impressive, and the people here were glad to play their individual part in commemoration of the day. Business was suspended and employer and employee were left to seek such diversion as they chose, reinforcing the thought of the nation: "This is Armistice Day, the third anniversary of the day when the cause of justice and equity survived, and we desire a part in the program of paying tribute to the memory of those boys who, to sustain that cause, fell and passed the torch on to us."

In the words of Abraham Lincoln, in his address at Gettysburg: "We cannot fittingly hallow the memory of the dead, no matter how high our tribute may be." Something of the meaning of Armistice Day has become fixed in the hearts of the American people and from year to year, November 11 will be more fittingly observed.

IT CAN'T BE DONE.

Of course every man has a right to an opinion, but in some cases it looks like a crime for one person to insist on every other mortal accepting his viewpoint.

Especially is this true when we speak of theological matters. It goes without saying that a minister of the gospel has a perfect right to stand in the pulpit to which he has been called and pound his doctrine and creed into the ears of his auditors. That's his business, partly. But he soon would lose his popularity should he invade the church of another sect and try to bring them around to his way of thinking.

We know individuals who let slip no opportunity to collar a friend and quote various free-thinkers, atheists and infidels, and endeavor to destroy his abiding faith.

Recently we overheard a one-sided conversation of this sort. One man, noted for his radical beliefs and opinions, had buttonholed his neighbor a single-minded, trusting kind of a fellow, and was trying, with all his might to destroy the faith his sainted mother had spent the greater part of her life in building. The unbelieving one ridiculed every man of God, from Moses on down, and all the while the believer just stood there taking it all in. When the tirade was concluded, possibly for want of breath, he just smiled and said: "John, maybe you're right—I hope not—but even if you are, I wouldn't believe that way if I knew it was so."

You may preach for a lifetime, there isn't a hell; you may prove that the Bible's a lie; you may have the dope—but it doesn't sound well—and I couldn't agree if I'd try. If it's true, as you say, when our eyes close in death, that we're done for, and that is the end, what on earth is the use of your wasting your breath? I guess I'm a stick—I won't bend.

DOING THINGS.

Plainview must be a town with a punch. At least, that beautiful city of the Plains, when it has a task to perform, goes about it with commendable vim.

Plainview is to entertain the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in annual convention next year. Does she plan to let the organization hold its meetings just any old where, whether in a small committee room or private office? She does not.

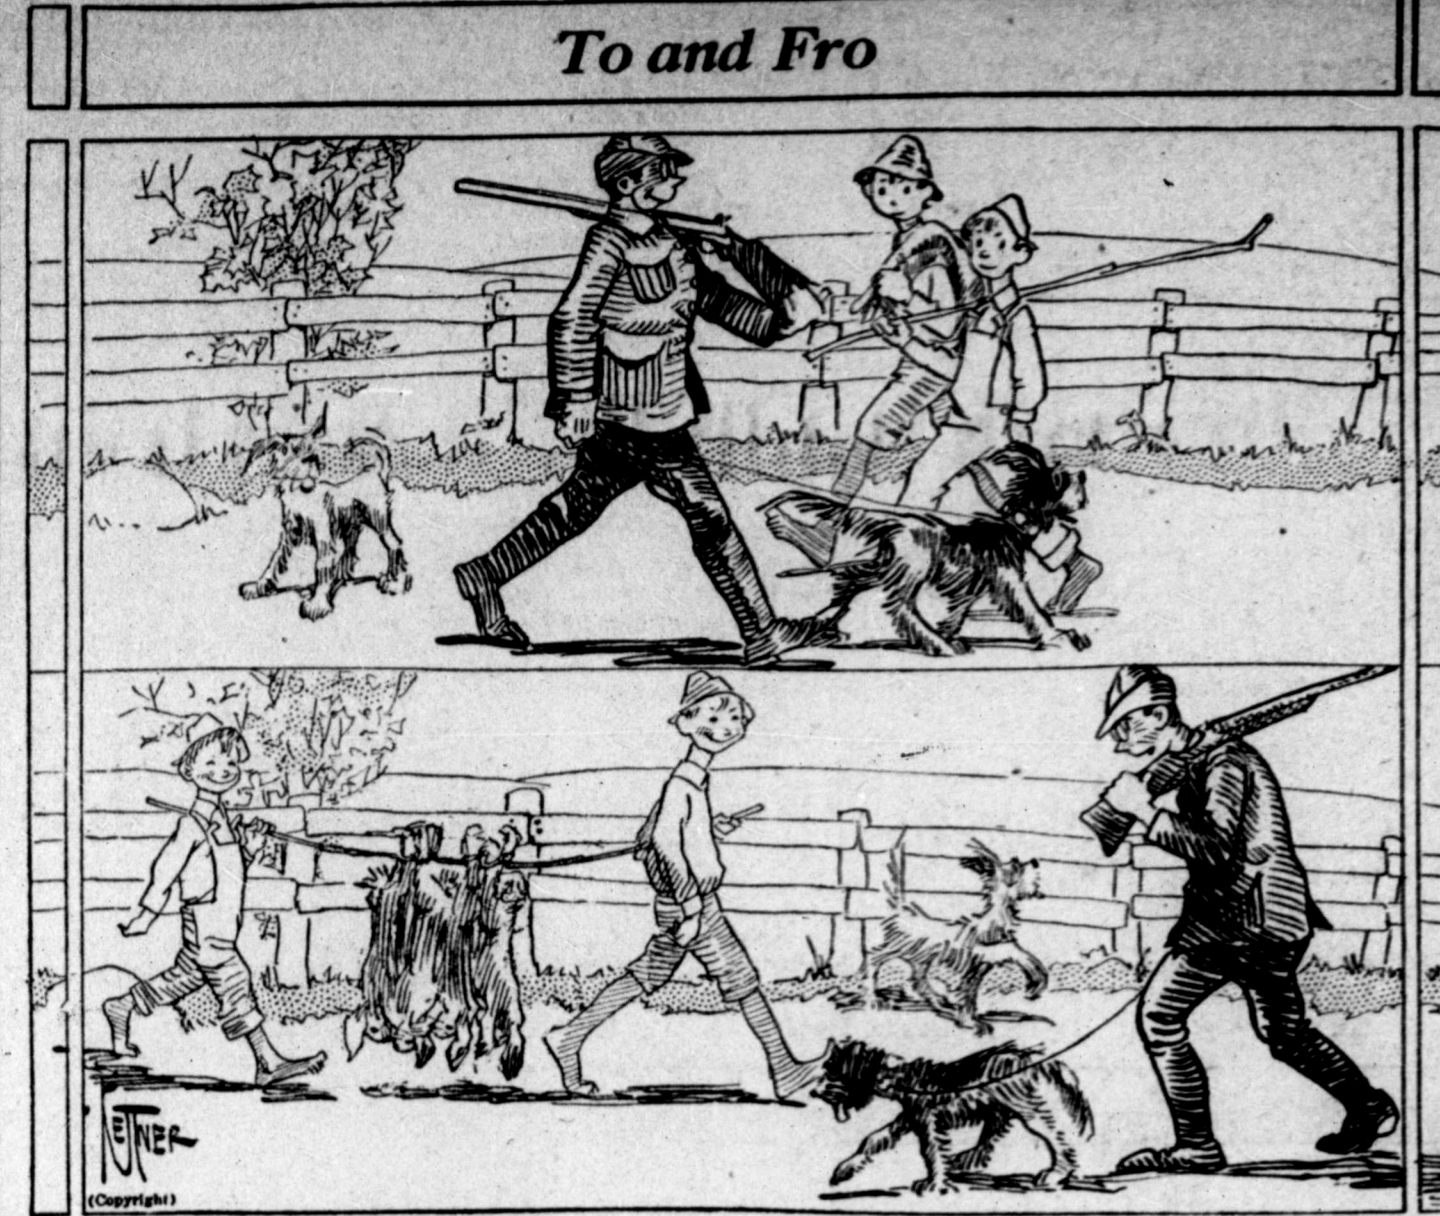

Plainview is going to build a city auditorium to cost $60,000. She promised the West Texas Chamber of Commerce that if the 1922 convention went to her, she would provide a suitable place for the meeting to be held in. And she is keeping her word.

Press dispatches assure us that Plainview has acquired six lots, 150x140 feet, and will erect thereon a municipal auditorium 120x140 feet, with a seating capacity of 1,400 persons on the main floor and 700 in the gallery. In addition, there will be a stage 39 feet deep and 71 feet wide, ample enough to accommodate a Ben Hur show, together with dressing rooms, wings, orchestra pit and all the other trimmings. The extra space will be used as a flower park to set off the building.

Plainview voted the bonds for this building recently and is losing no time in getting it ready for the convention—and for all other conventions which may come her way.

WILL COLORADO BE NEXT?

Under date of November 6, a news article was carried in several of the daily papers Monday as follows: "Gasoline filling stations and retail automobile stores in Dallas will close all day on Sundays under an agreement reached at a recent meeting of about thirty-five representatives of filling stations and larger oil companies. Several dealers declared they were losing money by remaining open Sundays.

There can be no more excuse for these retail places remaining open on Sunday than for the grocers and the dry goods merchants. If we were in the habit of waiting until Sunday morning to order the groceries for Sunday dinner and the new shirt, collar and tie we wore to Sunday school and church, we might soon come to actually believe that to close those places on Sunday would work a hardship on us. But we have learned to think differently. The same with the filling station. If we knew that the gas tank must be filled Saturday or there would be no joy rides on Sunday, all of us would quite soon form the habit of filling up before closing time Saturday.

Let's be fair in this matter. There should be no discrimination as between the ginnee, the butcher, the baker, the merchant, the banker and the filling station. If the one is to be protected in Sunday selling, why not protect them all? There can be no more harm in one enterprise running on Sunday than the other.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Last week the Record reprinted an article from the Rusk County News who claimed that the United States was plural when referred to as a whole. The Record's comment was this:

"The United States is" regardless of any court decision. The States form a union of political divisions, and union is a singular thing. States are plural when referred to as States but when the union of States is referred to as a Nation, a country, an entity, it properly takes the singular form. Editor Milner of the Rusk County News used to be president of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, but he did not regard that institution as plural, notwithstanding the conjunction "and" might signify that there were two of them, one agricultural and the other mechanical. The United States is singular, the various States are plural. To say the United States "are" a country would be like saying the human family "are" a freak. In brief, the United States is a collective noun because it implies a definite collection, therefore is to be treated singularly. But the various portions of the collection imply severally, therefore are to be treated plurally."

Now comes the Waco Times-Herald and says:

Where the owners of college degrees are disagreed, we hesitate to waltz into the controversy; it's the innocent bystander, you know, whom the policeman has been known to march off to the city judge. We would much prefer to keep out of the discussion, especially in the insipient stage, which some may regard as singular, but a lifelong devotion to the Constitution, possibly omitting two or three of the amendments, compels us to get beyond the place where brook and river meet. If our brother beloved will turn to the Constitution, he will there discover that the plural prevails; for example, "Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies." If the makers of the Constitution regarded the United States as plural, how shall we, brother beloved, go about making them singular without getting into deep and surging waters?—Waco Times-Herald.

The whole world is studying in the Sunday schools the life and wonderful works of Paul. Eleanor E. White in the Philadelphia Record says:

The only Christian apologetic is a regenerated man. "I was on the way to Damascus, a persecutor of the Church of Christ," said Paul, "but Jesus met me, the very Jesus whom I wanted dead and discredited—but whom I then beheld the risen Lord of Glory, and in a moment I was in the dust, crying, 'Lord, what wilt Thou have me do?'" Such was Paul's testimony. And such a message does not lose its potency because the times in which we live are less hazardous.

Paul's wonderful conversion is the outstanding feature in all his life record.

From its beginning in Moses, the religion of Israel took its seat in the inner life of man. Throughout the Psalms we find emphasis laid upon the necessity for moral renovation. The supreme worth of the prophets was to persuade the people to forsake sin and do the will of God. Jesus taught that one must be born again—born of the Spirit—and the Apostle Paul had just such an experience. Pauline terms are "a new creation," a change from slavery to sonship, from a life "in the flesh," or "under the law" to a life "in the Spirit," "led by the Spirit," and those who were dead through trespasses and sins have been "made alive." So runs the teachings of the Apostle Paul, based on his conversion on the way between Jerusalem and Damascus. To know God in the forgiveness of sins is what Christianity promises to every one who repents of his sins and exercises the proper faith. One learns to walk by faith; the things of time and sense leave their hold upon him, and, as in the case of Stephen, he is able to appropriate the glories of the other world while yet in the flesh. Verily, the only Christian apologetic—by which is meant to speak in defense of—is a regenerated man, one who has met the test given by Jesus of Nazareth, "Ye must be born again."

When the lives of all great characters in history are analyzed, it will be found that the outstanding virtues that have made their dreams a realization, are modesty, vision, faith, an insatiable desire for knowledge, and a capacity for great labor inspired by lofty ideals.

The great Lincoln, that shining mark of inspiration for all American manhood, dreamed his simple dreams of boyhood, even as you and I. Dreamed his dreams of manhood from the songs of forest and stream, from the plowed furrow, and from the simple teachings of a sainted mother. He was, all in all, the perfect type of humbleness exalted through the trials of adversity; with self-denial, knowledge, and modesty as his guiding stars.

There is not a man in your acquaintance who has not at his command greater opportunities for rising to any coveted goal than had this poor Rail Splitter. It would be impossible for you to walk ten blocks in any American city without having thrust upon you a thousand means of knowledge and opportunity that were denied your fathers. "The fault, dear Brutus, lies not in our stars, but in ourselves that we are underlings."

If every man would treat his mind with half the consideration he would give the motive power of his automobile, there would be no limit to his power.

If he could only have a little brain garage where he could get down under the machine and remove the carbon of indifference and imaginary impediments, if he could only touch up the spark plugs of his imagination—oh, what a difference! If he could only use one hour a day in his general overhauling, imagine the speed he could generate! Can you imagine any hill he wouldn't take "on high?"

Another negro was burned in Texas the other day. That he deserved the fate we can not doubt. Hell never cast anything out into the world where men and women must dwell any more diabolical than a black wretch who will defile a pure, sweet girl but eight years of age. We are not sorry for him; his guilt was established and he did not deserve the minute of life. But there is something repulsive about civilized Americans actually burning a human being and the question presents itself to us: Can one participate in such an event and be what a thorough-going, Christian citizen should be? If there were no one to consider but the offending wretch, we would never raise our voice against mob law under such circumstances. But civilization, society and the fair name of the state—these are all involved in the matter. We owe something to each better than a barbarous vengeance of that kind. It is true a person who does a nameless deed of that kind, for which this Texas negro died the other day, is not entitled to any consideration whatever. But it is also true that the government has arranged a plan for handling such offenders and that under no circumstances have the people a right to go around that plan.

One way to acquire popularity is to keep your troubles to yourself.

A man is of blamed little use when his wife is a widow.

One who has to die in order to be appreciated is not a good advertiser.

A star is a very little thing, but it can hold this great world in its arms.

Some people are so narrow-minded that there'll never be a halo in Heaven small enough to fit them.

Troubles are like rabbits—give them free range and they multiply rapidly.

The reason you are only 50 per cent efficient today is because you were 100 per cent efficient last night.

When you see some of the people the good Lord has blessed with money you can tell He did not think much of money.

Tired
"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

"I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

ROGERS ITEMS

Services by Rev. W. S. Cooper were well attended both Sunday morning and afternoon, and several visitors from adjoining communities helped to make up the crowd.

Sunday school was organized Sunday afternoon and from the enthusiasm shown in starting off bids fair to become a great success.

The old school house is being torn down this week and within a few days all rubbish will be removed. When this is done, the new two-room building that replaces the old one, will show up to equal any rural school in the country.

School is progressing nicely with an attendance of about forty.

Basket ball teams of both boys and girls have been organized and both teachers, as well as members of both teams are so confident in their ability that they are willing to tackle any rural school teams in the country.

Miss Ruby-Green visited home folks Sunday.

Little Leondis Moore has been sick for the past week, his legs being in such a condition that he was unable to walk. We are glad, however, to report that he is improving at present and hopes to be back in school soon.

Mrs. B. Duveall is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. T. R. Bennett and Thomas Hall of Loraine, with Barney Miller and Thomas Johns of Denver, Colorado, visited the school Tuesday afternoon.

A box supper will be given at Rogers on Friday evening, November 25th, for the purpose of paying for an organ for the Sunday school. A program will be rendered and a hearty welcome given to all. Bring your boxes, your money and good humor, and enjoy the night with us.

THRE MEN HELD FOR GRAND JURY PROBE

Two white men and a negro were ordered held pending an investigation of the grand jury, following a preliminary hearing before Judge J. C. Hall Monday morning. The three are alleged to have held up a negro Wednesday night of last week on the farm of Will Ledbetter, four miles northeast of Colorado, and relieved him of $5.03.

The negro man, who is alleged to have been victimized by the three, is the principal State's witness. He states that he was accosted and as the three led him off to a secluded spot he knew what was coming and secretly dropped a roll of currency, containing $51. The money was recovered Thursday morning by the negro and Judge J. N. Viles, on whose farm he was employed.

The white men are Wm. Land and J. C. Briggs and the negro gave his name as James Johnson. The negro who claims to have been robbed is named Nelson. The men maintained their innocence and were released under bond in the sum of $500.00, pending their appearance before the grand jury, which will be empaneled Monday.

UNION ITEMS.

Another crop season has passed into history, with at least satisfactory results. The people in this immediate community, I think have made practically enough feed to run on for another year, with reasonable precaution along the saving line.

Our Sunday school was good last Sunday, and so it is when our live superintendent gets to thoroughly opening his school, and takes charge of his class and gets up a good case of enthusiasm, one has to be on his guard or he will wish he had eaten a lot of breakfast.

Since my last writing I have been on a trip to the Middle Coneho pecan hunting, and got a few pecans and a double share of experience. I saw many scenes that were very attractive on my travels from here to the Coneho. It is no wonder to me that we find in the bible the following language: "When God created the heavens and the earth it was without form, etc." Eli.

IMPROPER INSINUATIONS

"The fame of Arbuckle may delay the picking of a jury to try him on charges of murder in the Superior Court at San Francisco," reads a bold headline in a prominent metropolitan paper circulated here Tuesday. The first paragraph in the article puts this interrogation: "Will the popularity of Roscoe 'Fatty' Arbuckle on the screen prove a bar to obtaining an impartial jury to try him for manslaughter?"

Such conclusions as these are, in most cases, the pipe dream presumptions of "club reporters" desiring to make a "scoop," and do not reflect the true conditions. Of course there are men enjoying the liberties of the Democratic government of this republic who through selfishness and disregard of law would conclude a verdict to make of a criminal a martyr, in case that one charged with criminality happened to be in their popular favor. The silent rule of the great majority of American citizens, however, stands out dominantly for the distribution of justice to all alike be he statesman or hermit, millionaire or pauper.

The story of Governor Len Small of Illinois is another of how that some folks believe, because of wealth or prominence, they should not be placed in the class with the common herd when charged with infractions of the law of the land.

The Record does not charge that Arbuckle is guilty of the murder of Virginia Rappe, as this editorial is being written (Tuesday morning), none of the evidence in the case, either defense or state, has reached us, but we do know that there is not an honest American citizen who would go into the trial of this case and be influenced by the fact that "Fatty" was a favorite on the screen.

Chamberlain's Tablets Have Done Her a World of Good.

"Chamberlain's Tablets have done me a world of good," writes Mrs. Ella L. Button, Kirksville, N. Y. "I have recommended them to a number of my friends and all who have used them praise them highly." When troubled with indigestion or constipation, give them a trial and realize for yourself what an excellent medicine it is.

BUICK HOLDS ENVIABLE POSITION IN MOTOR WORLD

In the automobile world, Buick several years ago attained the enviable position of leadership, evidenced by the fact that it was awarded first choice of space at the National automobile shows, an honor conferred upon Buick by all other automobile manufacturers who are members of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, in recognition of the fact that Buick had done the greatest volume of business during the previous year.

As each year has since rolled around, Buick has been in the lead. Not only for a short period does it lead all others but year after year its business constantly increases, with the result that the Buick exhibit will be found this year occupying the same space at the shows it has occupied for the past few years.

It is significant to note that the figures on which the award for the 1922 shows were made comprised only the sales of six cylinder cars, proving Buick to be the largest builder of six cylinder cars in the world.

LOCAL HUNTERS BRING COYOTE INTO COLORADO

Monday afternoon Rube Hart, Ed Womack, Dee Donnell and "Slim" Neff formed a party for a wolf hunt in the Union community. They returned with a coyote, which they found in a pasture in that community.

Hart stated that coyotes were to be found in practically every part of the county, especially in the breaks in the vicinity of Iatan.

Out Buford Way.

(Delayed from last week.)
Mr. and Mrs. Hines took advantage of the good crop year, the early harvest, and a longing to see relatives and friends in the old home and left for an extended visit to Atlanta, Georgia, and have been gone some ten days or two weeks. On their return we'll expect them to give us a good story of their visit.

Sunday school was very interesting Sunday morning, and we enjoyed having the teachers of the day school with us. Of course, we expect them now all the time.

Now listen folks while I tell you about the "jubilee" we are going to have out Buford way Friday night of next week. The biggest community gathering we have ever had at Buford. A sure enough box supper! And we are going to invite and look for every person in the community and as many from town and the neighboring communities to come and make their presence known, and have a real good time.

The school trustees and teachers want to add some features to the play grounds at the school house in the way of basket ball courts, balls, swings etc. Something that is really needed and every body is interested in the success of the school and have decided $75.00 would buy what is necessary right now.

The S. S. has for some time, been thinking of having a box supper to raise funds to buy a piano for the use of the community to be left at the church so after discussing the matter with the trustees, and Mr. Hooks, it has been decided to have the affair all at once and divide the funds and every body have a good time. Friday night, the 18th will give us plenty of time to thoroughly advertise and prepare for the occasion in every way. It is thought best to have the supper in the big room or auditorium of the school building and now if you dont happen to already know what good cooks these girls and ladies are, this is your chance to find out, we expect all candidates and prospective candidates, lawyers, doctors and preachers and in fact every body to be there with bells on. There won't be any speeches, nor sermons about 2 hours long but folks we are going to have a good time. Make your plans to come.

We learn that Miss Fannie Redman is improving, and likes her surroundings at El Paso much better than she hoped for.

A meeting of all the men folks at the church Friday evening, today, to repair the church, put in window lights, put up the stove and fish putting on the hail wire. If you live in the community and are not there you'll be missed.

Preaching next Sunday at eleven a. m. and at night. Show your smiling countenance at both services.

Oh yes, our new song books will be here and we want to learn some of those new songs. The S. S. ordered 50 late books by Quartette Music Co.

We understand that Mr. Watkins and family are soon to move to the state of Colorado. We've just gotten acquainted with these good folks and hate to see them leave.

Don't forget the box supper!

Card of Thanks.

GIVE IT A TRIAL ADVISES BRANDON

Oklahoma City Man Believes Tanlac Will Help Anybody Suffering As He Did.

"Give Tanlac a trial. That's my advice to anybody who is bothered with stomach trouble," said Kit Brandon, 17 West Reno, Oklahoma City, warehouseman for the Ridenour-Raker Merc. Co.

"Tanlac has fixed me up in fine shape and I believe it will do the same thing for anybody else. I was in a bad fix and was bothered day in and day out with my stomach. I didn't have to give up my job, but I had reached the point where I could hardly do any work. Nearly everything I ate turned against me and I suffered terribly from gas and bloating and heartburn. My heart palpitated awfully and I had pains and cramps that were awful. My nerves were unstrung; in fact my general health was all broken up. I couldn't sleep to do any good and of mornings my legs felt cramped up and pained me terribly. I was run-down and felt weak and played out all day long.

"A good neighbor of mine told me about Tanlac, and he couldn't have done me a better turn. I commented to mend in just a few days and in a few weeks I was feeling just like I had been wanting to feel. That indigestion left me, as well as all my other troubles, and to this day I have been in the best of health. It has been many a day since I felt so fine. Tanlac is without an equal."

Tanlac is sold in Colorado by the Colorado Drug Co.

We have a complete line of coal and wood heaters and the price is right.—Colorado Mercantile Co.

A Timely Suggestion.

...This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.
