BONDS NOT SUFFICIENT EL PASO ENGINEER SAYS

Harry O. Duerer, consulting engineer of El Paso, was in Colorado Tuesday and made a personal inspection of the proposed site of Lake Colorado and tentative estimate of the cost for building the type of dam across Lone Wolf contemplated by the city. The engineer met with the City Council Tuesday afternoon to discuss this project, together with the proposed water main extensions, pumping plant and sewer plant.

Duerer stated that in his opinion the proposed lake was not large enough to supply the needs of Colorado, even at the present population, and especially so if the city is expected to increase in population in the future. The proposed sewage disposal plant, he stated, was about large enough to serve 1,000 people.

In discussing the cost of the proposed dam, as estimated by himself, Duerer stated that it was his belief that the bonds voted for that purpose were too small. His estimate of this cost was considerably in excess of that furnished the Chamber of Commerce by Dallas engineers employed last year to survey the dam site and furnish the city with cost estimates, plans, etc.

It was the opinion of the engineer that by all means the city should build a filtration plant in connection with the proposed water extension before turning the lake water into the mains. He discussed at length the bacteria that would be carried into the lake from the water shed during rain storms and warned against using the water in case malignant bacteria, such as typhoid, should be possible through existence of contagious disease at points on the water shed.

In speaking of the present water supply, the engineer stated that he was assured that an ample water supply for the city could be obtained from additional wells and that this water could be purified at an estimated cost of ten cents per thousand gallons. Such a plan is being adopted at Pecos, he stated, and the water there is harder than the well water at Colorado.

Duerer represents a Denver bond broker, he stated, but at the suggestion from Mayor Coe declined to make the city a bid for the bonds. He gave as his reason for this the fact that the bonds should be approved by an accredited bonding attorney.

Some of those who heard the remarks of the El Paso engineer are firm in the belief that his figures as to the cost of the dam, and also the inadequacy of the water supply to be furnished are in the least debatable, since the engineers who did the preliminary work here last year are of international reputation and have been for some time in charge of important water projects under way by the city of Dallas.

The meeting of Mr. Duerer with the City Council was informal and no official action was authorized as to his recommendations.

Duerer returned to El Paso Wednesday morning. T. A. Read, representative of Duerer, who had been in the city since Sunday, left Wednesday afternoon for Sweetwater.

J. H. GREEN IDENTIFIED WITH LOCAL GULF AGENCY

J. H. Greene has acquired an equity in the Gulf Producing and Refining Company agency at Colorado, according to information given The Record Monday. This business was heretofore owned by J. A. Sadler and it was from him that Greene purchased an interest in the agency.

Sadler will continue as manager of the business under the new ownership. Terms of the deal were not made public.

JEROLD RIORDAN HEADS COLORADO GOLF CLUB

Jerold Riordan was elected president of the Colorado Golf Club at a meeting of the directors of the organization held Friday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce. Dr. T. J. Ratliff was elected vice president and Joe H. Smoot, secretary and treasurer.

The club was organized only a few months ago and now has one of the best improved links in this part of the state. Several hundred dollars have been expended in improving the nine hole green owned by the club.

BUFORD CITIZENS WOULD HELP TO BUILD ROAD

Citizens of the Buford community north of Colorado, are anxious to cooperate with Commissioners Court and the Chamber of Commerce in building a good, hard-surfaced road from the city limits into that community. H. B. Palmer, of four miles north of town, stated Wednesday afternoon.

Palmer stated that with the exception of the highway, more traffic came into Colorado over the Buford road than any other road entering the city. He stated that farmers of that territory were willing to cooperate in improving the road to the extent that they would furnish free of cost to the county use of their wagons and teams in moving gravel onto the road surface. provided the county would raise the road bed in places where needed and the expense of loading the gravel wagons be paid by either the county or the Chamber of Commerce.

This plan was suggested several months ago and at that time the Chamber of Commerce pledged cooperation with the Buford farmers in the work, and made an appropriation to meet the expense of employing labor to load the gravel wagons. The territory served by the road traversing the Buford community is one of the leading communities of the Colorado territory.

County Judge Hall and U. D. Wulfjen, Commissioner of the precinct through which this road traverses, stated Wednesday that they were reasonably sure Commissioners Court would take the matter up at an early date and ascertain to what extent the county could make improvements on the road.

M. E. PASTOR TAKES TILT AT SOCIALISTS AND K. K. S.

Preaching from the text, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's," Rev. C. L. Browning, pastor of the First Methodist church, stated Sunday morning that he was glad when they sent Eugene V. Debs to prison because the Socialist leader's denunciation of the government under which he lived. "I was also glad when they sent Emma Goldman back to the country from which she came, for the same reason," he continued. "The thing for those people to do who do not like our government is to move," he stated.

In speaking of the Klu Klux Klan, the pastor stated that he approved the announced ideas and ideals of the organization in support of law enforcement, "but they become criminals and murderers," he said, "according to the punishment they mete out when they take law enforcement into their own hands, disregarding the stipulated process of law enforcement of the land."

The pastor expressed the opinion that in the case of some of the tar and feather parties accredited to the Klu Klux Klan the wrong miscreant had been punished. Instead of the alleged law violator, perhaps it would have been more appropriate to have tarred and feathered officers who were not enforcing the law, he stated.

OFFICIALS UNDEWRITERS CO. VISIT COLORADO SATURDAY

M. J. Vaughan of New York, treasurer of the Underwriters Producing & Refining Company, accompanied by S. S. Owen of Tulsa, a representative of the company, spent Saturday in Colorado in conference with local representatives as to plans for the future in the Mitchell County territory.

Mr. Vaughan stated that drilling would be continued at all wells in the county not now completed by his company and stated that preliminary plans for additional tests were being worked out. The annual election of officers for the company is to be held in February, Vaughan stated, and after that date he believes the company will enlarge their activities in Mitchell County.

METHODIST REVIVAL TO COMMENCE SUNDAY, APR. 2

A series of revival meetings, conducted by Rev. E. F. Coale of Los Angeles, California, is to be commenced at the Methodist church Sunday, April 2, the pastor, Rev. C. L. Browning, announced Sunday.

AID AWARDED COUNTY FOR COLORADO BRIDGE

The application from Mitchell county for State aid in the sum of $11,000 and Federal aid in the sum of $22,000, making a total of $33,000, toward the expense of constructing a concrete viaduct across the Colorado river in the western city limits, has been approved by the State Highway Commission, according to a letter received Monday from Rollen J. Windrow of Austin, a member of the commission.

The application was approved following a visit of the members of Commissioners Court to Austin last week to confer with the highway commission on the proposed project. The amounts granted represented three-fourths of the estimated cost of the viaduct and the remainder of $11,000 is to be paid by the county.

When Judge Hall and members of Commissioners Court were in Austin last week, the State Highway Commission agreed to accept application for the amounts desired but stated that it would probably be ninety days before final action could be taken, pending receipt of an appropriation from Washington. The appropriation however, was received last week.

Mr. Windrow stated that an engineer from the department would come to Colorado and make surveys and specifications for the proposed new structure. As soon as these are completed the Commissioners Court plan to advertise for bids and complete all preliminaries for commencing actual construction work on the viaduct.

CHARLES M. ADAMS WILL DISCONTINUE BUSINESS HERE

Charles M. Adams, proprietor of the largest dry goods store in Colorado, stated Tuesday that he had definitely decided to retire from business and would announce a close out sale, to open Saturday and continue until his $80,000 stock of dry goods, clothing, shoes, dress goods, etc., was sold out.

Mr. Adams stated that he did not know just what his plans for the future might be, and might possibly enter the retail business at Colorado later. For the present, however, he will retire from business. Mr. Adams has been in business at Colorado during the past 32 years and is regarded as one of the most successful retail merchants of the city.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND CITY COUNCIL MEET

A joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the City Council was held Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce offices for the purpose of discussing bids recently received by the city from bond brokers for the $120,000 water and sewer bonds.

None of the gentlemen present favored that the bonds be sold below par, while some expressed the belief the securities should be held for par and accrued interest. Interest on the bonds amounted to $2,400 February 1.

STREET IMPROVEMENT IS COMMENCED BY THE CITY

The Cletrac, recently purchased by the city, was given its first tryout on the streets last week following the rain and the machine is said to have performed in a manner entirely satisfactory. Practically all the principal streets of the city were dragged. In addition to the surface work being done on the streets with the drag, gravel is being hauled to fill in low places and the general condition of the streets has been much improved.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO PROVIDE TOURISTS CAMP

The offer of Judge C. H. Earnest to furnish without cost to the Chamber of Commerce use of a tract of land in East Colorado to be improved into an auto tourists camp was accepted by the chamber in executive session Friday night and a committee, of which Judge Earnest is chairman, appointed to investigate the feasibility of the proposed park and make recommendations accordingly. The site offered lies north of the D. H. Snyder home at the end of Second street.

PIONEER CITIZENS DIES SUDDENLY FRIDAY NOON

F. D. S. Pond, pioneer citizen of Mitchell County, died Friday at noon at the family residence in North Colorado and the remains were interred Saturday afternoon in I. O. O. F. cemetery, following funeral services from the residence conducted by Rev. M. C. Bishop, pastor of the First Baptist church, assisted by Rev. D. R. Hardison, pastor of the First Christian church. Funeral arrangements were directed by J. H. Greene.

During the few days prior to his death, Mr. Pond had been ill from heart trouble, but his condition was not considered as alarming. Friday morning the family physician was called and shortly after the doctor left the home, Mr. Pond arose from the chair in which he was sitting, took some medicine, removed his shoes and walking into another room lay down upon the bed. He was dead almost by the time he lay down.

The deceased was born March 3, 1848, and would have been 74 years of age on his next birthday. He and his widow who survives him were married January 13, 1870 and had lived together as companions fifty-two years. He came to Mitchell County thirty-two years ago from Falls County and settled near Lorraine and after a few years moved to a farm near Colorado, where he made his home for several years. During recent years Mr. Pond and family have lived in Colorado.

In addition to his widow, the deceased is survived by five children, J. E., S. T. and L. L. Pond of Colorado, Mrs. Will Shaw of Itasca, and Mrs. Rufus O'Keefe of Canyon, all of whom were here for the funeral services. Mrs. Pond and son L. L. were the only members of the immediate family present when the end came.

F. D. S. Pond was regarded as one of the leading citizens of the county. The large crowd of friends, many of whom had personally known him for a quarter of a century, who gathered at the home Saturday afternoon for the funeral services, and the floral offerings reflected the esteem in which "Uncle Scott," as he was affectionally called, was held among those who knew him.

SCHOLASTIC ENROLLMENT CONTINUES TO INCREASE

H. L. Hutchinson, president of the school board, stated Monday that the last monthly statistical report filed by E. F. King, superintendent of schools, showed that the scholastic enrollment continued to increase.

The crowded condition in some of the class rooms has become such as to handicap the usual progress of the students.

COLORADO BOY MAKING GOOD AT UNIVERSITY

WACO, Texas, February 2.—James D. Adams, a freshman in Baylor University in the fall term has made an enviable record. Few freshmen become known to the general student body until in their sophomore or junior years. Not so with Mr. Adams. He has made his presence felt in the student life of the University, and is now held in high esteem by his fellows. Recently, he got out some advertising matter for one of the large University Sunday School classes which was favorably commented on by advertising experts in the city of Waco. His advertising scheme put his class over a winner in a membership contest which was staged with a rival class of Waco.

James D. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Adams of Colorado, Texas. He did his preparatory school work in Colorado High school, an affiliated high school of the first rank. James D. is doing his major work in Mathematics under Dr. J. B. Johnson, a Yale graduate and an authority on higher mathematics. Mr. Adams won third highest honors in his junior and senior years in high school, and his work in Baylor has been such as to commend him to his University professors. He was a letter man on the Colorado High school basketball team and will go out for the Varsity team of Baylor next year.

Your pew will be vacant at church on Sunday. No one can fill it but you.

REVENUE COLLECTOR HERE TWO DAYS, FEB. 8 AND 9

W. S. Michael of Abilene, deputy collector for the internal revenue service, treasury department, will be in Colorado Wednesday and Thursday, February 8th and 9th, for the purpose of assisting citizens of Colorado and Mitchell County in filing the required information in making out income tax reports. Mr. Michael states that he can be in this city only for the two days named and suggests therefore that all persons interested see him then.

Michael is to be in Sweetwater February 6th and 7th, in Big Spring February 10th and 11th, and Midland February 13th and 14th.

COUNTY CHAPTER RED CROSS TO ELECT OFFICERS

The annual business meeting of the Mitchell County chapter, American Red Cross, will be held Tuesday evening at the First Methodist church at 7:30, J. H. Greene, president of the chapter, stated Thursday morning. At this meeting officers for the ensuing year will be elected and other important business affecting the organization is to be disposed of. The attendance of all interested persons is urged.

Package Tea.

The Young People's Missionary Society will have a package tea on March 2nd at Mrs. Lucien Madden's. Everybody interested is invited. There will be 200 packages to be sold at 50c each. A pretty surprise in each package. Don't forget the date, March 2nd.

CO. VOTING STRENGTH WILL REACH 2,100

There are approximately 2,100 qualified voters in Mitchell County for the year 1922. C. E. Franklin, office deputy for the tax collector, stated Thursday morning that poll tax and exemption certificates would total approximately 2,100. Up to that time 2,000 poll tax receipts and 80 certificates of exemption had been issued and there remained several yet to be issued in receipt of remittances received in the mail.

The voting strength of Mitchell County this year will be the largest in the history of the county. It will probably be the last of this week before the tax collector completes a tabulated report of poll taxes paid and exemptions issued by precincts, and this report will be published next week.

MAY ATTEND CONVENTION BANKHEAD HIGHWAY ASSN.

J. H. Greene will probably attend the sixth annual convention of the Bankhead National Highway Association, to be convened at Phoenix, Arizona, April 24-29, according to information given The Record last week. Mr. Greene was a delegate to the fourth annual convention of the association held two years ago at Mineral Wells and figured in the fight that resulted in the highway being permanently routed through Mitchell County.

J. A. Rountree of Birmingham, Ala., director general of the highway association, left Birmingham Tuesday for Phoenix to arrange for the coming convention.

THE MOST HEART-GRIPPING STORY OF HOME EVER WRITTEN

"THE OLD NEST"

By the One and Only
RUPERT HUGHES

Picture the mother whose children no longer seemed to want her—the very children she had raised dared to scorn her. The old house was empty and silent; there were no laughing children of the old days to keep the old-fashioned mother busy—they had forgotten her. She has followed each child thru its temptations and trials and her heart yearned to help them out in their troubles, but she had been forgotten in the mad rush of life.

The OLD NEST is a masterpiece of a new type—a presentation of life as it really is with its moments of great joy and its flashes of pain. You will see one of the most heart-grIPPING dramatic stories ever put upon the screen. The cast of players is one of the most notable ever assembled and the name of Reginald Baker represents the last word in direction of the cast, and the picture as a whole brings us to the conclusion that the age old saying—EAST OR WEST, HOME IS BEST, should never be forgotten.

ROGERS ITEMS.

Very few were present at Sunday school because of the threatening weather Sunday morning. However, the proverbial "faithful few" were present and spent an interesting as well as a profitable hour.

Rev. Dixon will preach next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

The Horns Chapel basket ball team played our boys here Friday afternoon. A large and enthusiastic crowd were present and after an interesting game the score ended 24 to 12 in favor of Rogers. The rural schools will have a separate division at the county meet in the Spring. Rogers will be represented in everything—debate, basket ball, spelling, declamation,—and with splendid material for work there will at least be a strong fight for the championship.

The Literary Society met Friday afternoon, Jan. 20, with quite a few visitors present. The program was not rendered on account of so many absentees, which were caused from sickness. New officers were elected as follows: Cecil Erwin, president; Ira Riggsfield, vice president; Wanda Berry, secretary; Ethel Erwin, assistant secretary; Esthna Chivers, reporter and Mr. Thompson, critic.

Directing officers were elected for the preparation for the county meet: Finley Rhodes, director of athletics; Miss Templeton, director of spelling, debate and declamation. The society adjourned to meet again Friday, Feb. 3, when a program will be rendered.

Ocy Green and family, Mrs. Pond and Mrs. Bert Smith all of Colorado, visited the former's father, W. M. Green, Sunday.

H. L. Rhodes and wife were in Sweetwater Sunday.

Mrs. A. B. Maxfield of Big Spring spent Saturday and Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. R. Moore.

Miss Pauline Smith spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Green.

C. C. Thompson and Miss Ruby Templeton spent Friday night and Saturday with home folks in Loraine.

Tom Powell and family were in Colorado Sunday with Mrs. Powell's father, Mr. George Adams, who has been very low for some time.

Earnest Ross, Miss Carey Moore of Big Spring were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore Sunday.

Ernest Rhodes and Lewis Wyatt were in Rogers Friday night.

PIONEER MERCHANT TO RETIRE FROM BUSINESS

It is with deep regret we announce the closing out sale of Colorado's leading merchant. Something over 32 years ago the firm of Adams and Hill was first started. Later Mr. Adams took over the entire business and since then has continually catered to the buying public, always carrying one of the best dry goods, shoe and clothing stocks that could be found in West Texas. He now offers for sale the entire stock and fixtures a complete close out sale. Sale starts Saturday, February 4th at 9 a. m.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to publicly express our sincere appreciation for the many acts of friendship and words of comfort the people of Colorado brought to us during the dark hours we passed through in the death of our husband and father. Those kindly, Christian ministrations, as expressed by word, your presence and the flowers helped to alleviate our sorrowing hearts.

JOE SHEPPARD FOR SHERIFF

Seventeen years ago when The Record came to this county Joe Sheppard was here and became our friend and today he announces for Sheriff of this county knowing himself to be well qualified to fill this office. He asks the voters to consider his claims. He has been a deputy sheriff for quite a number of years and has the experience and knowledge of what it takes to fill the place. Joe says this is his first time in life to ask for public office and does so now because he needs the office and feels confident that he can fill it with credit to himself and to the State and County. See the announcement column this week and read there the name of Joe Sheppard for Sheriff and Tax Collector.

MARRIED.

At the Christian parsonage Jan. 31st, Mr. A. D. Martin and Miss Mary E. Birkhead were united in marriage, Bro. Hardison performing the ceremony. Many good wishes follow this young couple in their new relation.

WONDERFUL WEATHER PREDICTIONS AMAZE MANY

For more than 25 years there has been published in St. Louis, Mo., the most remarkable book of its kind in the world. This book has attracted national notice year after year because of the accuracy of its weather predictions. Thousands of farmers, orchardists, dairymen and families generally have for years planned their work by the information given in this Almanac and it has saved them hundreds of thousands of dollars, because of the advance weather information they have secured from its pages. All the big storms, tornadoes, blizzards and unusual weather conditions have been predicted by it a year in advance and to the very day.

The 1922 edition of the St. Louis Weather Book, known for years as the Hicks Almanac, contains more than 165 pages, illustrated with storm charts and containing all the predictions for 1922 is now ready for distribution.

Thousands of these books are going out by mail every day. The present demand will soon exhaust the first edition of 100,000.

If you will send 45c to The Lincoln Press, 3401 Franklin Avenue, Saint Louis, Mo., they will send you a copy prepaid by mail and guarantee safe delivery.

If you will mention this paper and send 10c extra in stamps, they will send you in addition a copy of their 64 page book, The Scientific Weather Forecaster.

This Weather Book is needed in every home. Thousands say they can not get along without it.

They Appeal to Our Sympathies.

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. Many such, however, have been completely restored to health by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets strengthen the stomach, invigorate the liver and improve the digestion. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. When you have any trouble with your stomach, give them a trial.

DO YOU WANT TO SELL?

Gone But Not Forgotten.

On Wednesday evening, January 18th the spirit of our much beloved Mrs. R. C. Morgan took its flight back to God who gave it. Sister Morgan was born October 29 1859 in Pond Springs, Ga., where she spent 29 years of the early mornings of life.

On December 27, 1888 she was married to Mr. R. C. Morgan, to this union two sons were born, both of which are noble young Christian men. She professed faith in Christ at the age of 30 and united with the Baptist church at Lexington, Ark. On moving to Mitchell county about 12 years ago, she and husband united with the Missionary Baptist church at Colorado, spending ten years of devoted service to her Lord and Master with this good church. She then moved her membership to the Looney Baptist church where she for more than two years had stood at the front in fighting the battles of faith in the winning of the lost to Christ, for which she shall shine as one of God's brightest jewels for we read in God's word that they that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars for ever and ever. So we would say to the bereaved husband and sons as Jesus said to his followers just before he went away: "Let not your hearts be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me, for in My Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so I would have told you." So let us say as mother and companion have said by her life.

Forever God forever man, My Jesus shall endure And fixed on him my hope remain, Eternity secure.

TWO OPINIONS.

The engineer who was here Tuesday from El Paso to confer with the city council on the proposed lake project expressed the belief that the bonds voted with which to finance construction of the type of dam desired by the city were inadequate—that in all probability the project would cost from $10,000 to $20,000 in excess of the figures submitted by engineers last year. Because of the fact that the editor is not an engineer and is furthermore not very proficient at the studios task of figuring out the dimensions of roots, cubes and the like, we do not conclusively deny the authenticity of those figures. Taking all things as being equal, in the aspect of one reputable engineer as compared with another, the tentative figures announced by Mr. Duerer may be correct, at least in part.

To the contrary, however, the city has an estimate from one of the leading engineering concerns of the State, in which these men state the proposed project may be constructed at the figures accepted by the city council before the election was called for voting upon the bonds. The Dallas engineers who came to Colorado last year and did this preliminary work, came with the personal endorsement of the executive officers of the Texas & Pacific Railway Company and also officials of the city of Dallas as to their ability and integrity as consulting engineers.

After considering the matter from the two diverging angles, The Record finds that it must have additional proof before believing finally that we have not voted enough money to finance the project. Since the estimates of Myers & Noyse were submitted six months ago, labor and construction materials have reached a lower level in quotations, a fact which can only strengthen the belief that sufficient money was voted in the bond issue.

As to the recommendation that it might be the practical thing for Colorado to do in solving its water problem to enlarge the present system by drilling more wells, installing additional pumping equipment, eliminating the lake altogether, we object. It may be true that the hard water can be purified at a nominal cost to the city and be thus rendered as soft as any rain water ever impounded, but it appears to The Record that if such a process was available and if the transformation could be effected so cheaply, the plan would be employed by hundreds of municipalities the country over. The thing that The Record is most interested in just now is to witness the sale of the bonds and the beginning of construction work on the three projects—the dam, extension of the water mains and the sewer plant. Those people in South Colorado have waited patiently long enough for Colorado to do something for them in the way of fire protection, at least. They are paying taxes into the city treasury just the same as those of us who live in that section of the city north of the river.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade, says he has often heard druggists ask a customer who wished to buy a cough medicine, whether it was for a child or an adult and if for a child, they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it and for colds, croup and whooping cough it is unsurpassed.

Harmony Club.

The Harmony Club met Wednesday with Mrs. R. P. Price who had six tables of 42 players. The guests were Mesdames N. S. Shopshire, J. Riordan, Lee Jones, C. M. Adams, H. C. Doss, Coleman, Carter, Donnell and Soper. She served creamed oysters, pickles, sandwiches, coffee and industrial pies. The next meeting is with Mrs. Root.

FOR TAX ASSESSOR.

FRED B. ISON comes this week into our announcement column for the office of Tax Assessor, being the eighth man to announce but says he will be first in the race. Mr. Ison has been practically reared in Mitchell County and lived in Colorado for four years, is a young man believing himself fully qualified to fill the office. Surely out of eight candidates the voters can get a choice and Mr. Ison says he feels that choice will be himself. Read the announcement column.

CHURCH ADVERTISEMENT

Should the Colorado churches and Sunday schools advertise? The Record thinks they should, not because we would get a few dollars by it, but because if advertising is worth anything to any business it surely will help the churches.

Rev. Oliver Keene away out at Kearney, Nebraska has been pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church there four years.

In that time he's quadrupled his membership. Changed his church from an open one day in seven institution to a seven day a week one.

Established a church cafeteria and community center.

How did he do it? "By advertising," he'll tell you enthusiastically. "That makes a big business organization go, so why shouldn't it work with a church?"

Keene often inserts full page advertisements in newspapers there. He uses posters and signs at the church.

"Publicity," he says, "changes the automobile from an enemy to a friend of the church. When the people of the whole region know of your church and its work the car will carry them to the church instead of away from it."

"The expense of publicity may be met by increased collections—more people come and more is given. No church board need be afraid of the extra expense if the advertising is wisely placed and backed by the 'goods.'"

"What is the use of preaching to 40 people and a 100 empty pews when by publicity you can have a house full or nearly so?"

"Christ said to go out and compel them to come in. Compelling advertising is one modern way."

"Nothing can take the place of the gospel. Not movies, nor music, nor half-baked addresses on current topics. Advertising must be backed by a full orbbed gospel message from the 'pulpit.'"

Keene's success has been so spectacular that investigating committees have been sent there by eastern churches to find out how he did it.

OUT BUFORD WAY

We can shut our eyes, stick our head out the window, get a whiff of this fine mist or fog almost believe we are back in the "piney woods," but the only way you could get one of our good citizens "out this way" to go back to that mesquite raising, boll weevil, has been country is to give him a round trip ticket with a ten day limit on it. Some (?) country.

Of course some folks are getting a trifle uneasy and that would be the case if enough general rainfall to suit seven-eighths of the people the others would get uneasy afraid it would rain too much. Especially the folks that have held their cotton. We heard one rather prosperous farmer remark on the streets last Tuesday: "I don't know what in the devil to do" and we rather guessed that he expressed the sentiments of the whole bunch, cotton buyers included. Fellows you have our sympathy for we know the suspense is "sompnen awful Mable" you ought to have "jined" the Farm Bureau and let them and the bankers do the worrying.

One thing you can rest assured of Mr. Ed and that is you'll find the least amount grumbling and the longest grins and smiles on the farms out Buford way than in any community in the county.

And our S. S. is growing more interesting every week. We will start our graded contest next week. Our graded loose leaf ledger forms are being printed and every class will keep a permanent record of each pupil. Mr. Tims made a short talk taking issue with a few writers and public orators that "the worlds growing worse" referring to the scripture concerning the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah.

In a general discussion after the S. S. hour, the question was asked as what was Ahab's real character? Was his fear of Elijah, the prophets, and God, of a religious nature? Mr. James Bodine said "He's a coward!" Uncle Johnnie Neal said, "Make him tell us what he means by a coward!" Jim says, while a bit confused, "Why! why is a fellow that listens to his wife." The house had to be called to order and Mr. Bodine modified his statement a little.

Singing at the church was well attended Sunday night, and we really think if our community is to be represented at the singing convention, as should be the case, we should organize a class, elect officers, get an interest in that feature of worship meet every Sunday night at the church and do some real singing.

"Mr. Longfellow" we invite you, your class, new books and all to "come to our house and play" and we will try as hard as anybody to learn those new songs. Come over we'll treat you right and make you glad you came.

Now we've been threatening to cut loose on this good roads issue for several weeks, so we start the ball to rolling in the last part of our letter and give it to you folks in broken doses from time to time, but we warn you right now the war is on and we folks out "this way" are not going to let up till we get some action. The public road going north to Snyder by way of Dunn, connecting with the highway at the cemetery is conceded by every reasonable minded man in the county to be next in importance to the Highway east and west. First: Because it brings more trade to the merchants, ginners cotton and seed dealers, banks, hotels and other places at Colorado, in fact every business in town, than any road coming into town, with the exception of transient trade. Second: If Loraine keeps on the hustle, as she has the last five years Colorado cant expect much from that direction. If the western part of the county is developed into a commercial oil field, we needn't expect Westbrook andlatan to go to sleep. Oil towns grow right on the spot, with the ranch country mostly south of town, tell me where Colorado will head in if she don't cater to the trade territory clear over into Scurry county on the Colorado-Snyder road. 18 or 20 miles of solid farms and the best agricultural section in West Texas.

Now, folks, we've got just a piece of a road up this way. If every business in Colorado would give from $100 to $1000 to a movement like this, he would get his money back in less than five years and 20 per cent on his investment every year. We need a hard surfaced road from the cemetery north to the county line. What you going to do C. of C. Booster club, merchants, citizens? We'll tell you what the commissioners court and the farmers are willing to do later. "Bull" won't scatter the gravel out HERE.

THE LAYMEN'S RELATION TO MISSIONS

The Laymen's relation to missions is identical with his relation to the church in general. The church is nothing else than organized missionary effort. Incidentally, the church is a conservatory of spiritual life, but it is primarily the divine agency for the generation of that life. Then it becomes not only the conservator of that life and the director of its energies, but the cultivator of its resources and its herald of a higher and broader life. The strength of a church is measured not by the number of people it can count to the credit of its membership roll, but by the amount of its consecrated efforts for the enlargement of the Kingdom of God. The efficiency of the church is measured by the intelligence manifested in the direction of this consecrated effort.

A great mass of inert matter in the form of unemployed members bespeaks more of weakness than of strength. It is further true, if I may venture so far, that a church which is contented to count its efficiency by the dead weight of a large and inactive membership will in time, and that time is not likely to be long, degenerate into the vice of selfishness.

It does not need the vision of a seer to recognize the fact that a selfish church is out of harmony with the spirit of the Master, and that such a church has no ground for the expectation of spiritual growth.

The layman has been an "unseen asset" in the church too long already. He has been regarded too much in the light of one who must stand by the front and meet the battle. Standing by the staff, yes, and producing the staff, are elements that must not be overlooked. The greater part of the energy of the Layman must and will be expended in this way. The law of God has not demanded all the time of the laymen in specific work for the advancement of the Kingdom. Someone must keep up the source of material supply, and this is one of the chief duties of the layman.

Laymen constitute the great body of the church of God, and while the preachers are and will be the chief speakers in its work, there are vast fields for the laymen in the spiritual as well as the material realm of the Kingdom.

Was it not a layman, Phillip, through whom the first message of the gospel found its way into Africa by his teachings the Ethiopian church was not the first martyr to Christian faith a layman? Is it not probable that the man who instructed St. Paul more fully in the way of life was a layman?

This relation is of such vital importance that the work of evangelizing the world must go upon halting feet until the layman has fully appreciated his opportunities and responsibilities. Much of the effectiveness of the work of the preacher is tied up with the attitude of the layman. If the layman is favorably and intelligently disposed toward mission work, the preacher will find but little difficulty in bringing the church to its full duty in this matter, while if the layman is ignorant and indifferent, there can not be realized the full measure of the church's responsibility.

The layman must stand with his purse ready to finance the work, and with mind and heart ready to respond in counsel and enthusiasm. In the hands and heads and hearts of laymen rest the possibilities of the church in this field. As is the citizen to the welfare of the Nation, the State, the community, so is the layman to the well-doing of the church in her mission to the world.

When the church has succeeded in investing the heart and the life of a layman in this work, the day of normal conditions will have come, and not before this will it come. Add to the work of the preachers the consecrated wisdom and experience of the laymen and there will be no power sufficient to stay the progress of the Kingdom of God.

If the Disarmament Conference at Washington fails, that is, if Japan and the United States can find no way of allaying the present mutual distrust and growing feeling of hatred, by far the better thing for us to do would be to find some ground for war and get it over with. If we keep building bigger navies and fomenting discord, as we have been doing in the past, war will be inevitable and the longer it is delayed, the more terrible it will be. But let us pray that the Conference may be successful in promoting a real spirit of Christian brotherhood between the nations.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

THE STATE OF TEXAS: To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County—Greeting: You are hereby commanded to summon David B. Wolven by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District, but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 32nd Judicial District, to appear the next regular term of the District court of Mitchell County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in the City of Colorado, on the Fourth Monday in April, A. D. 1922, the same being the 24th day of April, 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 2nd day of July, A. D. 1921 in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 3536 wherein Floyd C. Dodson is plaintiff, and David B. Wolven is defendant and said petition alleging that during the month of February, 1921, the plaintiff, Floyd C. Dodson and R. Pettyman were doing a partnership business under the firm name of Texas Consulting Company at Big Spring, Texas; that plaintiff and said R. Pettyman, under said firm name, conducted the business of examining and making geological reports on oil and mining properties and making sub-surface reports on such properties; that on February 2, 1921, the defendants, David B. Wolven, began negotiations with said Texas Consulting Company with respect to entering into a contract with said Texas Consulting Company whereby the said Texas Consulting Company should be employed to make a geological report on what is known as the Capps & Lucas Ranch, in 8000 acre tract of land lying partly in Howard and partly in Mitchell County, Texas, said report to show the exact location to drill; that shortly after said report was made, the plaintiff retired from said partnership, and plaintiff became the sole partner, owner and manager of said Texas Consulting Company, and continued to conduct said business under the name of Texas Consulting Company, and became the owner of all of the accounts and assets of said company; that thereafter, during the month of February and first part of March, plaintiff contracted with defendant with respect to said contract, and during said time the contract was entered into and agreed upon by and between plaintiff and defendant; that under the terms of said contract plaintiff agreed to make a geological report upon said 8000 acre tract of land known as the "Capps & Lucas Ranch" and show the exact location to drill, and defendant agreed that he would pay plaintiff for his services the sum of Three Hundred Dollars cash and would give the plaintiff in addition the customary "off-set" of from 10 to 40 acres, dependent upon the distance of the acreage agreed upon from the point fixed as the location to drill; on the 20th day of March, 1921, plaintiff forwarded to defendant a full report according to the terms of said contract, which said report showed the exact location to drill, in all things performing the obligations imposed upon him by the terms of said contract; that defendant has paid plaintiff a total of $20.00 of the cash consideration, which by the terms of said contract he agreed and became obligated to pay plaintiff, but still owes plaintiff the balance of $250.00 of said cash consideration; that plaintiff fixed the location to drill in the Northeastern part of the Southwest One-Fourth of the Northeast One-fourth of Survey 20, Block 29, Township 1 North, Texas & Pacific Ry. Co. Surveys, said section 20 being a part of the 8000 acre tract upon which the report was made; that defendant has conveyed and assigned all of his interest in and to all of said 8000 acre tract of land with the exception of the Southeast One-fourth of Survey Number 21, Block 29, Township 1 North, Texas & Pacific Ry. Co. Surveys, which said 100 acres lie in Mitchell County, Texas; that said S. E. 1/4 of Survey 21 is approximately one mile distant from the location fixed to drill, and the "off-set" which defendant agreed to give plaintiff, should, under the custom prevailing at the time the contract between plaintiff and defendant was made have been given nearer than a mile to the location fixed to drill, and that plaintiff is therefore justly entitled to all of the N. W. 1/4 of said S. E. 1/4 of said Survey 21, or, in the alternative, to an undivided one-fourth interest in and to all of said S. E. 1/4 of said Survey Number 21. Plaintiff prays the court that he have judgment for his debt, $250.00, for $20.00 attorney's fees, and that he have judgment that defendant specifically perform the said contract or covenant entered into with plaintiff as aforesaid, relative to assignment of a 10 to 40 acre "off-set" leasehold interest adjacent to said location to drill, and that he have judgment that defendant make a good and sufficient title to the N. W. 1/4 of said S. E. 1/4 of said Survey No. 21, or to such part of said S. E. 1/4 of said Survey No. 21 as the court is found to be due to plaintiff, and for the partition and division of said leasehold interest in said land, etc. Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Witness, W. S. Stoneham, clerk of the District Court of Mitchell County, Texas, this 28th day of January, A. D. 1922. W. S. STONEHAM, Clerk District Court, Mitchell County, Texas. 2-21c

J. H. COOPER & SON

IN SOCIETY AND AT THE CLUBS

Hesperian Club.

The Hesperians were guests of Mrs. A. E. Soper meeting at the home of Mrs. Jim Dobbs. A letter was read from Miss Cunningham, district president, urging cooperation. The new work projected by the federation. The committee to visit clubs adopted school. Sheppard was continued, as the bad weather kept them from making the trip last week. The second Canto of Mormian was studied with Mrs. Shopshire as leader. Mrs. Merritt told the story of Mormian and Mrs. Doss gave some of Scott's changed pronunciations. The Parliamentary law study was Motions, conducted by Mrs. Ratliff. At the social hour the club members were invited into the room with the 1921 Study members and an interesting contest enjoyed. This was a Shakespeare love story arranged in a booklet, handpainted in daisies by the hostess. She and Mrs. Dobbs served veal loaf, sandwiches, pickles potato chips, cheese balls, cake and coffee. The meeting next week is with Mrs. Ratliff.

Marriage Announcement.

Last week we received the following marriage announcement: "Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Smith announce the marriage of their sister Jessye Eva Smith to Will M. Burgess, B. S. M. D. on Wednesday, January eighteenth, one thousand nine hundred twenty-two, Fort Worth, Texas. At home after Jan. 24, 1922, 1901 Dalton Ave., Huntington, W. Va."

Miss Jessye, who for the past five years has made her home at Fort Worth, was reared in Colorado and her many friends here offer congratulations on her marriage. Dr. Burgess is a very prominent physician, who lived at Cleburne but now moves with his new wife to West Virginia.

1921 Study.

The 1921 Study club met Friday, January 27, with Mrs. Soper at Mrs. Jim Dobbs'. The lesson was on the Declaration of Independence, which proved most interesting. The roll call was Home Readings. Mrs. A. H. Dolman was the leader for the afternoon. After the lesson we were joined by the Hesperian Club, who had completed their lesson in an adjoining room. At this time the hostess had an interesting contest to be filled in with the names of Shakespeare's plays. At the close of the contest Mrs. Earnest and Miss Garey tied. After cutting the prize, which was a lovely book of Shakespeare's poems, went to Miss Gary. At the social hour the hostess served meat loaf, pickles, cheese balls, coffee and cake. Mrs. Lambeth, Miss Jeanette Earnest and Mrs. J. M. Green were guests. The next meeting is with Mrs. Tom Pritchett over at her mother's, Mrs. J. M. Terry.

Entertains Merry Wives.

On last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Price entertained the Merry Wives club and their husbands. A few friends and neighbors were guests. After several exciting games of 42 the hostess served chicken salad, pickles, wafers, cherry tarts, coffee and mints. The club meets this week with Mrs. Lambeth.

"I AM GOSSIP."

Original manuscript read by Mrs. Sam Majors at the Hesperian Club: My family is legion and inhabit all the places of the earth. I fear nothing but good. Indeed, good is my only enemy and though powerful as I am, where good is I can not stay.

I am one of the deadliest enemies of humanity, my tongue is as sharp as a two-edged sword, my words as poison as the bite of the serpent. I cause more sorrow, blast more hopes, break more hearts and ruin more lives than savage warfare and grim pestilence. I lie, carry tales from one family to another, slander, make fun, am deceitful, a traitor to friends I never sleep, never rest, work diligently without ceasing, am faithful to my charge and my harvest truly is plentiful. I am Gossip.

I belong to the devil and am much approved of him, in fact am one of his favorite henchmen, he always has much work for me to do, for I do my work well—I am Gossip.

Although I do all these vicious things I belong to the best socially, and to each am always welcome. Where two or three are gathered together there am I.

My best work is done among idle minds, for they are truly the devil's work shop. I can not abide conversation of culture and refinement, reading of good literature and the discussion thereof, good sound spiritual thinking is very distasteful to me for there I find very poor material for gossip. In fact in such elements I literally starve, for I am Gossip and good is my enemy. I am a parasite, for I live and gain my existence from the reputation, yes even the very souls of men—"Good name in man or woman is the immediate jewel of their souls." Again I am a thief, for I apply myself diligently to stealing men's good name. I am indeed dangerous, for I am Gossip.

One of my master's pastime is besmirching the character of the young and innocent—God's perfect gift to the world—that which holds much promise. It pleases me greatly to besmirch a young girl's character. She who is lovely and gentle is a tender morsel to me. I blow my foul breath of scandal upon her helpless head, and she withers and droops and loses her rightful heritage—happiness, her reputation ruined, she is mine, and great is my reward, for I am the devil's favorite henchman and I am dangerous, for I am Gossip.

I take great pains to cast suspicion often without cause, to suggest, to hint, to surmise, to sow just enough evil seed, even as the mustard seed, to thrive and grow till her young life is crowded, overshadowed, even choked out and ruined. When two or three are gathered together, there am I. This gives me much joy because I am Gossip.

It is my delight to attack promising young boys and men. To hint that they are dishonest, suggest that they are unreliable, to surmise that they are disreputable, etc., anything to hinder and discourage them to blight their lives, they must suffer for I must thrive, their good name is my daily life, for I am Gossip.

Many homes have I torn asunder, to this piece of work I spare no pains for it is such an achievement as well as a profitable accomplishment, for I am the devil's, he is a hard task master, and I strive to win his approval. I sow discord, sorrow, discontent and shake confidence in family life. Once started it is easy for me, for when two or three, yea, even one or two are gathered together there am I, and I am very busy for I am Gossip.

To men in public, in politics and in the pulpit I attach myself with great determination, for they are the leaders of the dear public, and much depends on their conduct for my reward, for I am the devil's and he must have public men.

My snares and nets are laid over the whole universe. I am a wrecker of lives, my work is perfect for my family is legion and I am Gossip.

Bayview Club.

Mrs. John Doss was hostess for the Bayview club, Mrs. Riordan leader for the Shakespeare and Bayview studies. The hostess had as her guests Mrs. Lupton and Mrs. Eteson of Big Spring. She served fried oysters, coffee and accessories.

Young People's Missionary.

The Young People's Missionary Society met on Tuesday with Mrs. Hope Herrington. Had a new program led by Mrs. Jessie Baker. At the business session collected $9.50 pledge and $1.00 dues. It was voted by the members present that would have a package tea on Thursday, March 2nd at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lucien Madden.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, February 14, with Mrs. Ed Jackson at the home of Miss Sallie Herrington. Will have Bible study led by Brother Browning, taking the 24th verse of the 18th chapter to the 20th chapter inclusive of the book of Acts. We are having good attendance and bright and interesting meetings. Light refreshments were served at the social. One dozen carnations were sent to Mrs. Claud Hooks, who is sick.

Mrs. S. A. Cox, Cypress St., Colorado, says: "A few years ago I suffered from kidney trouble, but after using two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I felt better. Continued use of Doan's relieved me of the terrible pains in my back and the cure has been permanent."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cox had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

WIRES CROSSED.

Last week we tried to announce E. O. Britton of the Loraine community for TAX ASSESSOR but by some means that can not be satisfactorily explained we got him for County Commissioner and even then we put him in Precinct No. 2 (Westbrook) when he lives in No. 4. We tried awful hard to lay the blame on the printer but the original copy showed it to be our mistake all the way through. Mr. Britton says he could make a good commissioner all right but certainly he would want to serve his own precinct, but says he can and will make a better TAX ASSESSOR. He has lived in this county more than fifteen years, is a substantial farmer and has made a reasonable success with his own affairs and is fully qualified to make a good Tax Assessor. It was not intended that The Record should say aye or nay about any candidate but we made such a mess of Mr. Britton's announcement last week we feel it due him this week to say that he is running for Tax Assessor and not for commissioner and again for fear the people might elect him commissioner and not Tax Assessor we have his name in the proper place this week in the announcement column.

WITH THE CHURCHES

BAPTIST NOTES.

You are our kind. You respond to an appeal. Folks are wonderful institutions anyway. Folks get a habit or rather a habit gets the folks and you have to break the spell of the habit before they really become normal again. Some folks lose their conscience concerning certain things and before you can do anything with them you must grow them another set of conscience. Some folks are doing wonderfully well in matters of religion considering the little conscience they have on the subject.
We all need encouragement. This is one of the missions of the church to encourage the discouraged. If you will get busy and come to church next Sunday we hope to be able to discuss two subjects which will help any person who is concerned at all in genuine religion. We will discuss some fundamentals. We enjoyed last Sunday very much. Glad to have the visitors. Don't let the weather control your religion.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The interest in Bible school lesson Sunday was very good. The lesson impressed us all that human nature in that far distant day was something like many people today. The lesson for next Sunday is another very interesting one. Come and study with us.

Services at 11 a. m. and 7:15 p.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.

Sunday school at 9:45. Let both teachers and pupils be on time.
It means much to the school.
Preaching and communion at 11.
Let all our members, if possible, be present. The communion of the Lord's Supper is the one service which all should strive to attend.

Beginning Sunday evening, the pastor will give the services of February—both morning and evening—to the discussion of subjects by request. If you would like to hear him on any religious subject, make your request at once. The subject Sunday evening is: "What Methodists Believe and Why." This discussion will be friendly and for the purpose of giving information to those seeking it sincerely and not for the sake of controversy.

Monday evening at 7:30 is the monthly meeting of the Stewards.
The chairman urges all to be present.
The meeting will be at the parsonage.

WESTBROOK ITEMS.

On the evening of the 18th Misses Hattie Coffee and Opal Jackson assisted by Mrs. W. E. Donolson, entertained honoring the birthday anniversary of Mr. Claud Elliott. Mr.
Elliott was invited down to sit a while after supper and he was surprised on his arrival to find a crowd ready to greet him a happy birthday. After a period of music and merry chat, pencils and paper were passed and each guest was asked to write all the slang words that she could think of. Miss Ida Petty having the greatest number of words was awarded a bar of soap to wash her mouth. Papers were then passed again and each guest asked to name the most prominent man that they could think of. Claud Elliott received the most votes, each was then ask to see how many words that they could make using the letters in his name. Miss Petty was again winner and received a box of everlasting perfume. Score cards were then passed for progressive 42.
Seven enthusiastic games were played. Refreshments of hot chocolate and cake were served. The dining table was artistically decorated with candles, in the center was a birthday cake, on top of the cake was a large question mark, surrounded by 23 candles. Before cutting the cake Mr.
Elliott was asked to answer the question. How many candies should there be? His answer: "You have missed it 45." The cake was then cut. Mr. A.
F. King got the dime, Miss Petty the needle. Albert Oglesby the ring.

Miss Jackson the thimble and Miss Petty the button. This was one of the most delightful events of the season. Those who attended this occasion were: Misses Hattie Coffee, Opal Jackson, Ida Petty, Margaret Lasseter, Mesdames A. F. King, J.
E. Boatler, W. E. Donolson, Messrs.
Claud Elliott, Albert Oglesby, A. F.
King and Messrs. Winstead and Munnis of Lorraine.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Ellis, on the 22nd, a fine boy.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Donol-son, on 22nd, a girl.

Saturday afternoon J. F. Airheart and Miss Ruby Grist motored over to Colorado and were married. Miss Ruby is the sister of Mrs. E. V.
Ellis and has spent much of her time the past two winters here and is popular among the younger set. Mr.
Airheart is the youngest son of Mr.
and Mrs. J. H. Airheart. He was reared here and has a wide circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Airheart will make their home near Colorado.

Miss Landry Smith of Colorado spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Berry.

Mrs. J. W. Trambell returned Sunday from San Angelo, where she has been visiting her sister for several weeks.

Miss Opal Jackson spent the week end with home folks at Lorraine.

Mrs. J. T. Smith and children of Colorado and Mrs. H. M. Berry and children spent the day Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield on the ranch.

R. P. McQuerry made a business trip to Colorado Saturday returning Monday.

The basket ball game Saturday between Westbrook and Coahoma was 14 to 20 in favor of Coahoma.

Miss Ida Petty spent the week end in Merkel.

Cemetery Association.

The monthly meeting of the cemetery association was held Wednesday with Mrs. George W. Smith. It was decided to keep the Mexican at work since a great improvement was shown in the condition of the ground from his month's work. Ten dollars was turned in by the collectors. It is urged that all collectors add to this before the month is out as more money will soon be needed.

Theodor's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Grocer for Troubles Resulting from Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.— The efficacy of Theodor's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver.

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr. Parsons describes —valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities.

Theodor's Black-Draught liver medicine is the original and only genuine.
Accept no imitations or substitutes.
Always ask for Theodor's. S. C.

Greater Power, More Mileage
Is assured from the use of SUNOCO MOTOR OILS

Sunoco is the new oil motorists are so enthusiastic about. It eliminates carbon troubles and gives the proper lubrication to your motor. You can tell the difference in the performance of your car if you will have your motor drained of the old oil and refilled with a grade of Sunoco motor oil that is scientifically adapted for your motor. Sunoco is not a compounded oil as are other oils. Sunoco is a wholly distilled oil and is not made by mixing a light oil with a heavy body oil called Cylinder Stock. We will gladly drain your crank case and refill with Sunoco motor oil and the only charge made will be for the new oil. You will appreciate our telling you about Sunoco motor oil once you try it.

RAIN PREDICTIONS FOR 1922.

By H. A. Halbert.

Explanation and Remarks—These predictions are not guess work, but are based on the grandest law of the Universe, always in existence from the foundation, but unknown to man until Sir Isaac Newton discovered it about two and a quarter centuries ago. I make my calculations on the basis of air tides, similar to ocean tides, caused by this "Law of Attraction of Gravity." Such predictions would be absolutely true were it not for the air currents which greatly interfere and often prevent rains from falling at any certain locality by blowing the clouds away brought in by the air tides.

FEBRUARY

Minor period of some chances for rain or very cloudy days from 5th to 8th.

Major period and best for the month and can be depended upon for rains from the 11th to 14th.

Minor period and little or no rain from 18th to 21st.

Major period with good chances for rains from an Antipodal tide from 26th to March 1st.

Buy your cow feed from Oliver & Bell. We deliver. Phone 181.
