VOTERS PETITION JUDGE LOONEY OFFER FOR MAYOR

Citizens of Colorado have presented Judge Looney a petition to offer his candidacy for Mayor to fill out the unexpired term of A. J. Coe, it was learned Thursday afternoon. The petition, which Thursday morning had been signed by eighty-one voters of the city, follows:

"We, the undersigned legally quali fied voters and citizens of the City of Colorado, realizing that the office of Mayor is one of importance and, expressing our sincere appreciation for the creditable record that it yours as a conservative and constructive business man, do, by these presents, petition that you permit use of your name as a candidate for Mayor of Colorado, in the special election to be held July 25th.

"We pledge you our vote and influence and, further, to co-operate with you for a sane and conservative business administration of the affairs of this city, should you consent to our wishes in this matter and be elected to the office."

Judge Looney stated Thursday afternoon that while he was not seeking the office, he would comply if elected serve the city as mayor.

COLORADO MEN RETURN FROM BROWNWOOD MEET

Dr. P. C. Coleman, vice president and W. S. Cooper, member of the executive board, West Texas Chamber of Commerce, returned Tuesday morning from Brownwood where they attended an executive session of the Chamber Monday. The meeting was presided over by A. B. Spencer of Crosbyton, president. Dr. Coleman presided at some of the business sessions.

They report one of the most interesting board meetings of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce held since the organization was perfected more than four years ago. Plans for renewing the fight for a West Texas A. & M. College and for a water conservation program in West Texas, to be financed by the government, were the two outstanding matters discussed.

After an illness of several days William, the little two and a half year old son of Mrs and Mrs. Pleas Watson died early Tuesday morning. The funeral services were conducted that evening at the family residence by Rev. Kimmel and Rev. C. L. Browning and the little body laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Condolence of their many friends is extended to the grief-stricken parents and relatives.

The funeral services were held in the Stell ing children and grand children were present with the exception of one or two of his grand children that were out of town. His well spent, pure, clean, life and his Christian influences will live on the future and after all he's given to posterity a most priceless heritage. May God rest his weary soul while the ages roll on and on and bless abundantly those that loved most. One quality onlythe standard for all Goodrich Tires

Size or price cannot modify the onequality Goodrich standard. You can buy any Goodrich Tire, Silvertown Cord or the popular 30 x 31/2 clincher fabric, and know beyond a doubt that you are getting the same quality always. It is this quality which has made Goodrich Tires unsurpassed for dependability and durability in service, mileage and value.

This principle has put the real meaning in the widely known Goodrich slogan of "best in the long run."

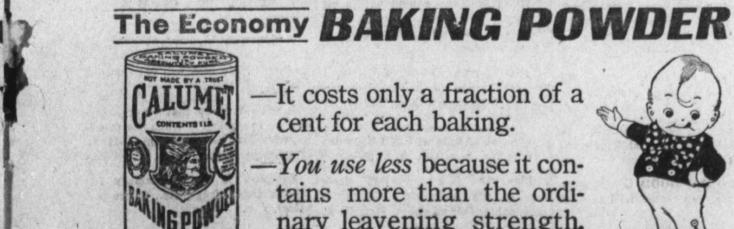

Look for this Goodrich Tire sign over your tire dealer's store. It means satisfaction in every transaction.
