MITCHELL GIN RECEIPTS APPROXIMATE 16,000 BALES

The five gins at Colorado had received a total of 8,498 bales of cotton from the 1922 crop Wednesday at noon. The cotton has been coming in very slowly all of this week on account of the unfavorable weather conditions for gathering. Rain, which began falling late Monday, extended to every section of the Colorado territory and in some communities more than one inch was registered. The rain, falling very slowly, left the fields muddy and the cotton wet and because of the fact that but little sunshine has been noted during the week the ground has remained muddy.

There are seven cotton gins in Mitchell County, outside of those at Colorado, and it was estimated Wednesday that these plants, including the four gins at Loraine, had received approximately one thousand bales less than the number received here. This would place receipts at the twelve gins in the county at sixteen thousand bales for the season. It is estimated that four thousand bales are yet to be picked and ginned in the county. This places the crop this year at 20,000 bales, 2,300 less than the crop of one year ago.

The cotton market, after registering an advance, was back around the prevailing quotations held throughout the fall, selling Wednesday at from twenty-one to twenty-two cents per pound. The price of the staple has varied by a few cents during the season, a few points within twenty cents having been the basic price paid by street buyers here.

Cotton seed, which one week ago were boosted to $35 a ton at the gin, continued to hold this price throughout this week. This is the highest price paid for seed during the season.

The Fifth Sunday meeting of the Big Spring Baptist Association will convene at Westbrook next Thursday evening, October 26th, at 7:30 o'clock. A good program is promised.

TELEPHONE OFFICIAL IS INTERESTED IN COLORADO

Fred Linnington of Fort Worth, plant superintendent for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, spent Friday of last week at Colorado on an inspection of the company properties here. From information received from the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, it is understood that Mr. Linnington, accompanied by an engineer, will return to Colorado either the last of this week or early next week on business in connection with suggested plans of improving the service at Colorado.

Just what the contemplated improvements may be could not be ascertained. It is remembered, however, that C. L. Stewart, of Abilene, district manager of the telephone company, was in Colorado a few weeks ago and met with the Lions Club, at which time the telephone official was requested to recommend the rebuilding of the Colorado exchange and among the improvements requested at that time was a common battery exchange. W. J. Stewart, local manager for the company, and the Chamber of Commerce representative, however, declined to state for publication just what the plans of Mr. Linnington may be.

Mr. Stewart stated Tuesday afternoon that he would visit Dunn within the next few days for the purpose of taking up with citizens of that community the matter of building a party line from Colorado to Dunn, "We can serve the people of Dunn just as easily as we are serving those of the Cuthbert section," Stewart said, "and I am sure, in so far as I know at this time, that the proposed Dunn line can be built."

MITCHELL RURAL SCHOOLS OPENING NEXT 30 DAYS

During the next thirty days many of the rural schools of Mitchell County will open for the 1922-23 school year. Initial enrollments are expected to be larger this year than heretofore, as many farmers are finishing the work of gathering their cotton, thus allowing their children to enter school. The rural population of Mitchell County is also claimed to have increased during the past year.

FULFILL YOUR PROMISE. IS REQUEST SERVICE MEN

Describing in a most interesting manner a mass meeting held at the First Christian church some five years ago, attended by citizens of Colorado and Mitchell County as the farewell to the first contingent of Mitchell County recruits who were leaving for Camp Travis to train for service in the World War, Thomas R. Smith, Colorado attorney, pled for the citizenship of this city to now fulfill the promise they on that, and scores of other occasions, made to the boys.

"There were several to speak before that mass meeting and they were all bubbling over with enthusiasm and expressions of patriotism," Smith stated, "declaring there was nothing too good they could do for the boys who were leaving home and friends to represent them on the battle fields of France. The opportunity for fulfilling that pledge is now presented. Former service men are asking your assistance in building a hut, as a memorial to those ten boys out yonder with little white head stones and the three hundred odd who came back, some of them not altogether. Remember the promise made five years ago, and come to the assistance of the boys who desire nothing more of you than a little hut they may call their own."

The club received the remarks of Mr. Smith with appreciation and voted unanimously to co-operate with the former service men in financing the proposed hut. The motion, introduced by Col. C. M. Adams, "The Booster Club endorses wholeheartedly the campaign to build a hut at Colorado, and requests that all members of the organization make a contribution to this fund when approached by solicitors," was enthusiastically adopted.

Several members of the Booster Club had already subscribed to the American Legion hut fund, through the Lions Club or to members of the hut committee. Others, however, are to be approached with the petition and requested to assist liberally in the undertaking.

Mr. Smith spoke of plans to close the drive for funds with a big celebration at Colorado on Armistice Day. "We desire to celebrate that eventful day in history in the spirit of knowing that the promise made five years ago has been fulfilled, and that funds with which to construct that memorial to our boys have been paid in full."

COMPLETE COPPER STILL IS CAPTURED BY OFFICIALS

What is claimed by Sheriff W. J. Chesney to be the most complete copper still equipment found by him in Mitchell County since the Volstead Act became operative, was found Sunday afternoon on Morgan Creek, about one mile south of the Texas & Pacific bridge, in the Coley Smith pasture. The still, of twenty-five gallons capacity, is on exhibit at the sheriff's office.

In addition to the still, the sheriff accompanied by Deputy H. C. Cook, captured a Ford automobile and scores of containers of varied capacity, ranging from half pint bottles to five gallon jugs. Some of the containers were found in and near the car, which was parked a half mile from the still, and the others were in the creek near the still.

Chesney stated Thursday that he had been hunting this still for several weeks, but never until a few days ago learned its approximate location. Sunday morning he and Cook drove out to the Smith pasture and found the illicit equipment within a short time. The car is being held by the officer at Colorado.

"The owner of that Ford may have his machine by calling at my office and properly identifying it," Chesney stated Thursday morning when asked what disposition he would make of the machine. "And I will make the same promise to the owners of the still," he concluded.

Two men were seen in the vicinity of the still Sunday morning by the officers and one of them was accosted. However, no arrests had been made in connection with the case up to noon Thursday. A small quantity of whiskey was found in the car, 200 gallons of mash secreted near the still, was destroyed by the officers.

COLORADO MAN ELECTED SECRETARY STATE ASSN.

J. C. Hall of Colorado, county judge of Mitchell County, was elected secretary of the Texas County Judges and Commissioners Associations of Texas at the closing session of the association at Dallas Friday afternoon. Arch C. Allen, county judge of Dallas County, was elected president, and Commissioner R. D. Sims of Port Lavaca elected vice president.

Commissioners U. D. Wulfjen and J. E. Lasseter and Commissioner-elect W. D. McAdams and F. F. DuBose, bridge engineer, were others to attend the convention from Mitchell County. The 1923 convention of the association will go to Wichita Falls.

COUNTY WORKING HIGHWAY IN VICINITY OF LORAIN

County Judge Hall stated Thursday morning that no work had been done on any of the public roads, including the Bankhead Highway, west of Colorado, since the rains the first of the week. The county road crew were dragging and otherwise improving the highway east of Colorado and in the Loraine vicinity, he stated.

When questioned as to when this work would be commenced west of Colorado, Hall stated that plans were to begin dragging the highway west of the river Thursday afternoon. The Bankhead Highway west of Colorado and the road leading toward Cuthbert, both of which are taking very heavy traffic, are in a very poor state of repair.

APPEAL ARMENIAN RELIEF MADE BY SCOUT MASTER

Rev. W. M. Elliott, local scout master, issued an appeal Thursday to the general public of Mitchell County to co-operate with Boy Scouts of Colorado in collecting clothing to be furnished free to the Armenian refugees. The clothing, which is to be collected next week by the boy scouts, will be shipped to State headquarters of the Armenian relief association at Dallas and from there shipped abroad.

Dr. P. C. Coleman, chairman of the Armenian relief work for Mitchell County, stated Thursday morning that the appeal was a most pathetic one. Winter is approaching and hundreds of thousands of people in devastated Armenia practically without homes or clothing. Clothing of any nature, for either men, women or children, will be accepted. Those having garments to donate to this cause are requested to communicate with Rev. Mr. Elliott.

C. E. DISTRICT MEET TO BE HELD AT COLORADO

The next convention of the Christian Endeavor Society, Abilene district, will be held at Colorado, as the result of invitations extended delegates to the recent convention at Haskell by delegates from the local chapter and the Colorado Chamber of Commerce. Miss Eloise Pond attended the convention at Haskell last week and reports that this city was selected for the next convention with no opposition.

Jack Huppertz of Dallas, field secretary for the society, was in Colorado recently and while in the city received a personal invitation from the Chamber of Commerce to bring the next meeting here. This is the second important convention to be recently landed by Colorado. The El Paso Presbytery, during the closing of the session at Barstow a few days ago, voted to hold its annual convention here in 1923.

WORK ON SEWER SYSTEM IS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Excavations and the placing of mains for the sewage plant at Colorado are progressing entirely satisfactorily, according to engineers in charge of the work. Since leaving the alley way between First and Second streets, which in some places called for excavation 12 feet in depth, the machine has been covering good distances daily. This work up to Oak street was about finished Wednesday afternoon.

Local plumbers report a big boom in business since work on the sewer mains were commenced a few weeks ago. Most of this work, now however, is represented in contracts for placing connection joints in the mains, preparatory to connecting plumbing from the public and private buildings later, when the system is completed and turned over to the city.

H. F. WHEELER, COLORADO PIONEER, DIES AT TULIA

Just as we go to press Thursday word comes from Tulia of the death of H. F. Wheeler. Died there Wednesday and will be buried here Friday. Mr. Wheeler was a Colorado pioneer and was well known by all the older settlers. He was for a number of years Deacon in the Baptist church here and a prominent Mason. A more extended notice will be published next week.

SALT GUSHER DERRICK IS DOWN; TO DRILL DEEPER

The derrick at Badgett No. 1, sensational salt gusher of the Mitchell County Oil Corporation, creaned to the east Thursday night of last week and fell, demolishing the structure. Workmen are removing debris from about the well preparatory to erecting a new derrick and drilling will be resumed at the earliest possible date. The gas pressure, which during the past two weeks has been gradually receding, was estimated to be making about five million feet Thursday.

The large dam to impound salt water from the well and keep it from polluting the Colorado river, was about completed Thursday afternoon. The lake is standing several feet in water.

Henry Riley has completed plugging Murphy No. 1 back to 2,500 feet and according to an unconfirmed report received at Colorado Thursday afternoon, the well would be given a nitro shot. Murphy has about 200 feet of pay in this well and indications are excellent for a good producer. It was also reported that the Underwriters Company would give Texas & Pacific No. 2 a light squib either Thursday afternoon or today.

The California Company has completed fishing job at Richardson No. 1 and are reported to be drilling again. A depth of more than 1,200 feet has been reached in this test. At Smith No. 1 and Coleman No. 1 operations were being delayed Thursday on account of boiler trouble. A boiler maker left Colorado Thursday for the Smith well to make repairs. Operations were resumed at this well recently after a shut down of some months. The hole was cleaned out and much of the casing pulled preparatory to conditioning the hole, when boiler trouble again caused a delay.

The derrick is up for Badgett No. 2 test and the crew is rigging up to mud. This well should be drilling within the next ten days. The Magnolia Petroleum Company have landed 8 inch casing at 1900 feet at their Foster No. 1 and resumed drilling. The log of this well is showing most favorably, when compared with logs of wells drilled by the Colorado-Tex. Company at Iatan, nearby.

Foster No. 1 of the Colorado-Tex. Company is pumping and the well is reported in excellent condition. Foster No. 2 of the same company is shut down on account of water shortage. All other tests in the Iatan section of the field are being delayed because of the water problem and development there is moving forward slowly. The operators, however, are awaiting optimistically the time when rains sufficient to put out water will come, and they plan a number of tests, in addition to those already started.

The LeSure, T. & P. No. 1 and Morrison No. 2 are on the pump. The LeSure well was reported Thursday to be making 100 barrels, and the Morrison 150 barrels. Activities in lease trading continue in practically every section of the field. The buying is not as heavy now as was noted a few months ago, because that much of the available acreage has either been sold or removed from the market.

PIONEER COLORADO EDITOR IS DEAD AT WEATHERFORD

Hee. A. McEachin, pioneer newspaper man of West Texas and formerly editor of the West Texas Stockman, a daily paper published at Colorado many years ago, died suddenly Saturday at Weatherford, his home. After leaving Colorado, McEachin went to El Paso where he edited a paper. He has been living in Weatherford during recent years and was editor of the Weatherford Democrat.

McEachin had been in ill health for the past two years of heart affection. He was at work in his office Saturday when attacked with acute indigestion, from which he died in a short time.

Mrs. F. E. McKenzie and Mrs. Ross Dixon made a business trip to Fort Worth this week.

VISITING ETHOLOGIST IS GUEST AT LIONS LUNCHEON

Dr. George E. Goodwin, noted ethologist of Cuthbert, attended the Lions Club luncheon Wednesday noon and delivered an interesting address on the conditions and possibilities of the Rio Grande Valley country, as observed by the ethologist upon the occasion of a recent visit there. The visitor was introduced by Joe H. Smoot, Colorado banker, who referred to the visitor as being well informed on the "Salt Well and the Rio Grande."

According to reports brought to the Lions by the visitor, the Lower Rio Grande Valley is truly the oasis of the American continent, and will easily discount any section of Texas by odds in the production of crops of most any character, especially fruits and "corn." The Lions were held spell bound as Dr. Goodwin described the wonderful possibilities of that section, and as he spoke he was continuously interrupted by a battery of questions.

"Orchards in that territory, which have only been set out a few years are producing their owners hundreds of dollars per acre revenue," he said. "While there recently I visited one farm which had been set to orchard, and between each row of trees, three rows of corn had been planted. From this corn crop, the owner harvested sixty bushels per acre. Another farmer there realized more than $1900 per acre last year from his fruit crop."

When asked as to whether the corn referred to was in the ear, or in containers, Dr. Goodwin replied "on the ear." The finished product, however, he continued, is plentiful across the Rio Grande in the Old Country, and may be had in abundance for the going across the boundary. Dr. Goodwin did not explain whether the fruit products sold from the orchards mentioned were in their natural or fermented state. Some of the Lions apparently were very much interested in having this information.

"Tell us about the fishing in that country," one of the Lions, who is distinguished as a sportsman, asked. "Fishing?" came the reply in an interrogative expression, "is one of the leading attractions of that most wonderful country. While there a few weeks ago, a party of men I knew caught 100 pounds of fish in a common irrigation canal, using only an ordinary minnow net with which to land them. And it was claimed the day was very unfavorable for fishing, at that." The water is pumped with such force from the Rio Grande into the irrigation ditches, according to Dr. Goodwin, that unnumbered fish are taken from the river through the sluice gates and on into the diverting canals, there to be easily caught by the natives. Mr. Goodwin admitted that he had just returned from a trip to Old Mexico before witnessing the big catch with a minnow net.

"It is only nine miles from my place to the river separating Texas from Old Mexico," Mr. Goodwin stated, "and the roads are in excellent condition, making the trip across doubly attractive to the average tourist from Texas." He was interrupted here by an interested Lion who asked about the condition of the river crossing. "Fine," came the answer. "We cross on a ferry boat. We all went across to Old Mexico," Goodwin stated, "and several of the boys had a good time."

Dr. Goodwin stated that he planned to move to that country within the next few weeks, probably the 1st of December. The invitation to the Lions Club to visit him there was unanimously accepted.

Other guests introduced were H. L. Hutchinson, Rev. C. L. Browning and Mr. Galton of Dallas. Each of the visitors delivered interesting addresses.

An interesting feature of the entertainment program, with W. W. Whipkey as toastmaster, was the alternating introduction of each member by the Lion who sat next to him at the table. The introducing Lion was requested to introduce the man next to him by his given name and also give his classification. Failure to do either resulted in being penalized with a fine. Several of the members paid these fines.

The code of ethics of Lionism, and the preamble, "Who is a Lion?" were read, and these elicited considerable praise from some of the visitors because of the high ideals set by the Lions International. In speaking of this matter, the Rev. C. L. Browning, stated that he had often wondered just what the Lions stood for, believing, however, that their endeavors were confined to those of a business nature. "After hearing the code of ethics read, I find that you stand for everything that is good, even on a par with the church, and I shall strive myself to live up to your classification as to what a Lion should be," the minister stated.

"NEARLY 100 ATTENDED," SAYS SWEETWATER PAPER

According to the Sweetwater Daily Reporter, "nearly 100 Colorado people" attended the West Texas fair on Colorado Day, at Abilene recently. We do not have the exact figures, but we do know that 62 automobiles from Colorado were registered in Abilene on that day, and that fifty one Colorado people, including the band, made the trip to Abilene on the train.

If less than one hundred from Colorado attended the fair on that particular date, several of those cars there from Colorado must have been driven to Abilene in an unexplained manner. The Abilene Fair Association estimated that 300 Colorado people were there.

The Reporter notes that Wednesday, which had been designated as Colorado Day at the San Angelo fair, was also officially Sweetwater day.

DIED

After an illness of several weeks Mrs. Vinonie Clark died Saturday night at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Herrington. The funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. C. L. Browning. Mrs. Clark passed to meet her Savior almost in the morning of life, leaving a little girl three years old, a living husband, her parents, who are in Missouri, other relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

Card of Thanks.

To all our friends and neighbors who spoke words of sympathy and helped us in their tender ministrations in the sickness and death of our wife and relative, Mrs. Ed S. Clark, we wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation. May such comforts be yours in your hours of sorrow.

D. 1922, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 4373, wherein Minnie Long is plaintiff and W. W. Long is defendant. The nature of plaintiffs demand being as follows, to-wit:

That on the 4th day of December 1918, in El Paso County, Texas, plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married; that plaintiff's name before marriage was Minnie Hathcox; that they continued to live together as husband and wife until the sixth day of June, 1922, when by reason of the cruel and harsh treatment and improper conduct of defendant toward plaintiff she was forced and compelled to separate from defendant; that during the time they lived together plaintiff was kind and affectionate to defendant who unmindful of the duties and obligations of his marital vows began and continued a course of unkind, harsh, cruel, and tyrannical treatment of plaintiff which lasted until their final separation; that defendant often abused plaintiff and applied to her the vilest and most opprobrious epithets and called her a whore and other obscene names and finally abandoned plaintiff and his infant son in a strange city after slapping and roughly treating plaintiff and throwing his baby against the wall and otherwise abusing said child by hitting it with a screw-driver inflicting a serious and ugly wound; that defendant is not a suitable person to have the care and custody of said minor child but that plaintiff is. Plaintiff alleges that such marriage relations still exist and the defendants actions and conduct toward her generally are of such a nature as to render their further living together as husband and wife insupportable the premises considered.

Wherefore plaintiff prays the court that defendant be cited to appear and answer herein and for judgment dissolving such marriage relations, and for judgment giving plaintiff the care and custody of her minor child, William Howard Long, for costs of suit and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity, that she may be justly entitled to.

Herein fail not and have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, showing your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

"America Will Tremble at Rome's Voice," Prelate says

That the freedom guaranteed by the constitution of the United States allowing the liberty of worshiping God according to the dictates of ones conscience, and the ideals of Americanism, championing freedom to all peace loving peoples, are being undermined by hirelings of Rome, was stated here Sunday by Mrs. R. M. Barrett of Dallas, representative of the Baptist general board, who delivered two addresses at the First Baptist church.

Mrs. Barrett, herself reared a Catholic among nothing save the environs of Rome and its debased teachings, related a most interesting story of her life. Her father, of Austrian descent, and her mother, a native of France, formed the heads of one of the most prominent families of the French republic, in affairs of state, of the church and in society. The father, a noted French scientist, and four brothers, themselves prominent personages in the affairs of France, were lost in the World War.

Early in life Mrs. Barrett formed a correct opinion of the practices of the priesthood and the church of Rome. Seeing the priceless possessions of virtue torn from young girls and women, and freedom of all parishoners extending no further than allowed by the selfish whims of the Pope, a combination attacking every principal of the true Christian religion, she as a child, rebelled, and came to America.

The story of the sacrifice made by this beautiful French girl was pathetic. Brushing aside the opportunity of becoming one of the leading matrons of France and crushing as if had been a worthless parchment the distinct social relations which were hers, leaving a palatial home, wealth, friends and even mother, to pass out of her life, she fled the scene and came to America, seeking to become a champion of those principles to be revealed in emulation of the life and teachings of Jesus Christ. This, in a brief way, is her history.

"I could return to France now and yet become one of the leading women of that republic," she stated in her address Sunday evening. "I have a home there, one of the most palatial in France, and could enter at once upon one of the highest social planes to be desired. But there is no love in these. I came to America in quest of love and I found it here in my associations with Jesus Christ."

"America will soon see the day when she will tremble at the voice of Rome," Mrs. Barrett stated an uncle of hers, who is a prominent cardinal in France, told her at one time, as she discussed with him the political question. "That is what all those representatives of Rome are advocating," she continued. "They pass with a slur any reference to the constitutional rights of Americans and of the religious freedom advocated and practiced by our protestant churches." In describing the confessional, Mrs. Barrett stated: "The confession box is the most horrible thing ever coming under my observation. I could tell you much of how they take advantage of innocent young girls if I would but open up and give to you some of my experiences and the things I know to be true."

It was in the early part of 1919 that Mrs. Barrett, after spending a vacation at Mineral Wells, went to Dallas, where she met Dr. George Truit, pastor of the First Baptist church of that city. She was happily converted and joined the church and baptized by Dr. Truit into the Baptist faith. During the past two years she has been traveling over Texas, carrying her message to the down-and-outs and peoples of foreign birth who are being held soul and body captive by the hirelings of Rome. A commendable feature of her work is in the fact that she is paying her salary. Free will offerings, however, are permitted to be made by her to be applied to her expense account, but when these offerings over pay this account, the surplus is diverted by her into a benevolent fund.

Mrs. Barrett is one of the most brilliant women ever visiting this city. Her literary attainments are par with those of her religious nature. She speaks fluently eight languages and is an authority of unusual merit on the history, peoples and customs of practically every country on the globe. The Baptist church was filled to capacity Sunday night when the last address was delivered.

Sunday morning the speaker devoted much of her time to a vivid description of the various phases of her life, making gripping contrasts between the environs of home and society ruled by Rome and that enjoying the liberties of the protestant religion. Much of her discussion was on the subject of patriotism and a plea for devotion to those principles for which the Stars and Stripes were the insignia.

Sunday evening, she gave an interesting illustrated talk on work of the Baptist general board in Texas. Many of the schools, hospitals, B. Y. P. U. centers, together with screen pictures of prominent Baptist leaders of Texas were shown. Among the latter pictures of Dr. Gambrell and Father Buckner, two of the most outstanding men in religious work in the southwest, were shown.

GREENE LEAVES FOR EAST ON COTTON MILL MISSION

J. H. Greene left Colorado Sunday night for Fort Worth where he was joined Monday morning by other members of a special West Texas commission to visit the cotton mill centers of the South and East. The commission, going as representative of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, will visit Greenville, S. C. and several cotton mill centers of the East, on the mission of seeking to interest capital to locate mills in West Texas.

Mr. Greene will be absent from Colorado two or three weeks. He was sent on the commission by the Colorado Chamber of Commerce.

RED CROSS PUTS UP $9,739,872

Year's Budget Stresses Relief and Services at Home and Overseas.

MILLIONS FOR VETERAN AID

Over $3,000,000 Allotted to the Disabled—Foreign Work Lessens.

Washington.—Expenditures totaling $9,739,872.47 for carrying through its program of services and relief during the fiscal year in the United States and overseas are authorized in the budget of the American Red Cross, effective July 1, 1922. This total is $2,785,975 less than the expenditures for the last fiscal year, when disbursements reached $12,475,847.69. It is announced at National Headquarters in a statement emphasizing the necessity of continued support of the organization by enrollment during the annual Roll Call, November 11-November 30 inclusive. This total for the budget is exclusive of the large financial operations of the 3,300 active Red Cross Chapters, which, it is estimated, will more than double the total.

War Veterans Have First Call

First call on Red Cross funds is for the disabled ex-service men, of whom 27,487 were receiving treatment from the Government on June 1 last. This work for veterans and their families in a wide variety of service that the Government is not authorized to render and for which it has neither funds nor facilities has the call on $3,000,000 during the current year, or about $300,000 more than was expended last year for soldier service. Adding the funds disbursed in this humanitarian work of physical reconstruction following the World War by the Chapters throughout the country will approximate a total for the current year approaching $10,000,000. This work, in the opinion of the Surgeon General's office, will not reach its peak before 1926.

Through its Chapters the American Red Cross is equipped to find in the individual ex-service man, help him in his problems and difficulties, provide immediately for his necessities, and open the way for him to the Government compensation and aid to which he is entitled. The extension of this work to the families of such men proves to them that the Red Cross has lost none of its sympathy nor will to service manifested in wartime. Similarly the service goes out to the men still in the Army and Navy, 11,087 of whom were under treatment in Government hospitals on June 1, 1922.

Greater Domestic Program

This year after five years of constructive effort during the war and after the armistice—drings with it a greater responsibility for domestic service to the American Red Cross. The budget for foreign operations, however, totals $3,404,000, but of this amount $1,834,000 is for medical relief and hospital supplies for Russia, which is a part of the gift made by the American Red Cross in 1921 to the Russian famine relief work of the American Relief Administration program. The child health service in Europe continues, moreover, and $654,000 is appropriated for this work undertaken in 1920. Other items in the stringently diminished foreign program include $200,000 to support the League of Red Cross Societies, $22,000 for nurses' training schools instituted by the Red Cross abroad, and $500,000 for liquidation of the general Red Cross foreign relief program.

Prepared for Emergencies

For disaster relief the Red Cross has set aside $750,000, and for emergencies in Chapter work $500,000 to be available for domestic, insular and foreign demands. This is more than $350,000 above last year's expenditures. For service and assistance to the 3,300 Chapters and their branches $1,235,000 is provided by the National organization.

Other budget items of importance in the domestic program include $200,000 for assistance to other organizations and education institutions for training Red Cross nurses and workers; $190,000 for Roll Call assistance furnished to Chapters; $100,000 for unforeseen contingencies.

Of the total budget less than $500,000 is allotted for management in the National organization. No cash estimate, of course, is possible to weigh the value of the service by volunteers in the Chapters.

LORAINNE NEWS

Local and Personal News About Loraine and Vicinity.

—MISS PEARL TEMPLETON—

Miss Templeton is also authorized to receive and receipt for all subscriptions for The Colorado Record and to transact all other business for the Whiskey Printing Company in Loraine and Vicinity. See her and take your County Paper.

The Parent-Teachers' Association met at the school building Friday afternoon. Mrs. W. F. Johnson, who had been elected president tendered her resignation and Mrs. T. J. Coffee was elected in her place. Dues for the year were placed at 25 cents. The first Friday in each month was decided upon as regular meeting day, all present pledging their support to the Association for the year's work. A talk by Miss Georgia Lacey, county demonstration agent, was much enjoyed. She urged the necessity of having at least one hot dish served in the school each day. She also talked enthusiastically of girls clubs and offered her assistance in the organization of them.

A prize is being offered for the school room who has the most parents present at the P. T. A. during this term of school. Miss Elton McDonald's room received the blue ribbon last Friday.

The Pioneer club met with Mrs. H. L. Harrell Thursday afternoon of last week. Mrs. S. D. Dunnahoo was elected president and Mrs. Harrell secretary of the club. Mesdames S. H. Hart, Chester Hart, and Joe Johnson were a committee appointed to make out the programs for the year's work. They met at Mrs. S. H. Hart's home Monday afternoon and made them out.

At the meeting at Mrs. Harrell's the ladies made a liberty dress form. The time of meeting has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday afternoon. The meetings being every two weeks. The club has planned a full year's work and hopes to accomplish much. These community clubs are very beneficial and the county should have more of them.

Mrs. Barrett of the Baptist Seminary at Dallas, who is preparing to be a missionary to Russia, spoke to a good crowd at the Baptist church Monday evening. In her lecture, "From the Rosary to Christ," she related her own experiences which were very interesting and which made all who heard her, appreciate more fully the freedom of the Protestant religion. At the close of the services a collection of something over $18.00 was given her to help in the work she is doing. While visiting in the home of Mrs. R. E. Bennett Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Barrett became quite ill and not being able to leave her room had to cancel her engagement to speak at Roscoe Tuesday evening.

Miss Verdna Hudson spent Saturday and Sunday at her home at Hermleigh.

Mrs. T. J. Coffee was hostess to the Philomath club Thursday afternoon. Twelve members answered to roll call with "topics in brief," from the Literary Digest. The following program was rendered:

Radio—Mrs. Clarence Rowland.

There were fifty-three present to celebrate the occasion and wish for Mr. Allen many happy returns of the day.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Kimble of the Lone Star community enrolled in the Loraine school Monday. They will have rooms in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bennett, Jr.

The country tractor was run over Main street Tuesday after the light rain on Monday and Tuesday morning. The streets have been badly in need of working and attention should be called to the other streets of the town.

Ira and Wilbur Coffee while returning home from the Hale farm west of town Monday afternoon, had the misfortune to overturn the Chalmers car which they were driving. Neither of the boys were seriously hurt. Wilbur's face was skinned but otherwise they were unhurt. Considerable damage was done to the car, both front wheels, one of the rear wheels and the windshield were broken.

Willis Taylor returned the first of the week from Abilene where he has been repairing and getting ready a home for he and family into which they expect to move within the next few days. Mr. Taylor will enter Simmons College where he will prepare for the ministry.

LYING FOR BUSINESS

A lot of people who stand at awe at the thought of falsifying on any other occasion will sometimes do it for the sake of business. Which brings to mind a text in the bible that if people would take into consideration and apply to themselves might help them to overcome such things at times and that reads: "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul," and this coming in the face of the statement that no liar shall enter the kingdom of heaven, associates the two statements very closely in importance.

The following paragraph in one of the Lamesa papers brings this subject to our mind when it says:

"We are told that Snyder, Roscoe, Colorado and some other points east of us have been telling travelers there were no roads to Lamesa that were hardly passable. We don't mind seeing the ticky towns boost for their town but we do resent their knocking us. You guys hands off of us or we will print a story about your county."

We could never appreciate people very much who will willingly tell falsehoods about a competitor, or a neighboring town through jealousy, or for the sake of a little business, but this is often the case, especially in communities where there is a rivalry that has drifted into jealousy and the people have stood so low as to admit littleness to enter into their feelings toward each other. Cut it out folks, and give every fellow a fair deal, and you will grow and prosper and you will make better citizens, better men and your reward will be worth while in the end.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Have your tires been giving you trouble? Has your Ford been using so much gas? Then why don't you purchase a set of Star eFnder braces and do away with the rattle at least.—Womack Garage will put them on for you.

SMALL ATTENDANCE NOTED AT BANQUET THURSDAY

The smallest attendance in the history of the club was registered at the October meeting of the Colorado Booster Club, held Thursday evening of last week at the Bancroft Hotel dining room. This fact was deplored by members of the club in speaking of the wonderful success attained for Colorado and Mitchell County by the organization during months past.

The slump in attendance was considered of but a temporary nature, however, when it was shown that a number of the most active members were detained at their homes because of sickness, while others were out of the city. The expression was made that a representative attendance would register for the November banquet and business meeting, which will be held at the Bancroft on Thursday evening, November 2.

The proposed new Mitchell County court house was introduced by the president. The organization continued unanimous in supporting a bond issue campaign for that purpose. R. P. Price and A. B. Blanks were appointed as additional committees to work with the committee composed of Dr. P. C. Coleman, L. W. Sandusky and Rev. M. C. Bishop, appointed at the September meeting, to represent the club in fostering the issue for bonds. The committee was directed to confer with Judge J. C. Hall and members of Commissioners' Court as to the type of building to be proposed and the amount of bonds to be asked in petitions calling for an election. The club was unanimous in endorsing action of the Chamber of Commerce in sending J. H. Greene as the Colorado representative on a special commission of West Texas men who are visiting the cotton mill centers of the South and East in the effort to interest capital in locating mills in West Texas. The Lions Club had previously endorsed the plan.

In that interest be revived in meetings of the Booster Club and the banquet hall be filled to capacity for the November meeting, the president appointed a special committee to work with the secretary in interesting the general public of the city in the organization.

J. M. Morgan and P. K. Williams were recognized as new members of the club. Visitors announced were the Reys. M. C. Bishop and C. L. Browning, and members of the orchestra, directed by M. S. Goldman. The occasion was up to the usual booster standard, with the one exception noticed in the small attendance.

Mr. E. M. Putney of St. Louis arrived here recently and will be in Colorado for one week making a study of the feeding methods and cost of production.

He has had practical experience in feeding horses, cows, calves and hogs. The opportunity to observe the most successful methods in different parts of the country will enable him to render a valuable service to local feeders. Those wishing to get in touch with Mr. Putney can do so by phoning

LORAINE SCHOOLS WILL FOSTER DEMONSTRATIONS

Prof. S. C. Harris, superintendent of the Loraine schools, and other members of the school faculty there are very much interested in carrying demonstrations in economic sciences into the school, according to Miss Lecowell, who visited Loraine recently in the interest of her work as demonstration agent for Mitchell County.

Miss Lecowell states that, these school officials and other citizens of Loraine will co-operate fully in organization of a club among the girls of the Loraine High school, a fact considered by her as being well worth while. Many such clubs are to be organized in rural school districts of the county.

The first rural woman's club to be formed in Mitchell County was organized by ladies of the Lone Star community, a few miles north of Loraine. This club, known as the "Pioneer Club," had an extensive exhibit at the fair held at Colorado recently, and furnished much of the exhibit carried to Abilene for the West Texas fair.

RED CROSS WINNING IN FIGHT FOR HEALTH

Better, Stronger, Citizenry Now Emerging Out of Work in United States.

The American Red Cross as an evangelist of better health has foisted its problem square in the face. How it accepted the task revealed to it in the nation's physical condition as brought out during the World War, and conscientiously applied its activities to correction forms a vivid chapter in the forthcoming annual report. Historically and practically, nursing is a basic work for the Red Cross. In its public health nursing service, in instruction in home hygiene and care of the sick, nutrition classes, first aid and life saving courses and health centers, the American Red Cross is applying effectively the lessons learned during the war and making for a healthier, stronger and better-nourished citizenry.

The task of the Red Cross Public Health nurse in the 1,240 nursing services now operating throughout the country instructing their communities in health essentials and disease prevention is demonstrating the possibilities of human betterment and the great benefits of enlightenment.

During the last year 313 new public health nursing services were established by Red Cross Chapters, and several hundred services so convincingly proved their effectiveness that they were taken over by public authorities. In order to promote this work $30,000 was allotted to provide women to prepare themselves for public nursing. The home visits made by the 1,240 nurses aggregated nearly 1,500,000 visits to schools numbered 140,000, and in six months 1,250,000 school children were inspected by these nurses and where defects were found advised examination by physicians. In rural communities this service has made a very marked advance and has won thousands of converts to approved methods of disease prevention.

In home hygiene and care of the sick instruction, which fits the student in methods of proper care where illness is not so serious as to require professional service, the Red Cross conducted 3,884 classes during the last year, enrolled 2,356 instructors, 93,448 students and issued 42,856 certificates.

On June 30, 1922, nutrition service embraced 1,159 classes, with a total of 27,523 children and 2,589 enrolled dietitians. Seventy-eight food selection classes graduated 733 who received Red Cross certificates. In general health activities Red Cross Chapters maintained 377 health centers, serving as many communities, provided 38,751 health lectures for large audiences everywhere, while clinics numbered over 10,000.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon L. D. Burton, M. E. Kakin and Rotary Oil and Gas Company, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks, previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mitchell County Texas, to be holden at the Court House thereof in Colorado, Texas, on the 20th day of November, A. D. 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 9th day of October, A. D. 1922, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court, No. 4372, wherein Lay Powell is plaintiff, and L. D. Burton, M. E. Kakin and Rotary Oil and Gas Company are defendants, said petition alleging that heretofore to wit, on or about the 17th day of September, A. D. 1922, the plaintiff, made, executed and delivered unto defendants, L. D. Burton and M. E. Kakin, a certain oil and gas lease, covering the following described lands in the counties of Cole and Sterling, in the State of Texas, Sections 2, 7, 8, 9, 10, 20, 31, and 32, all in block 2, H. & T. Ry. Co. surveys, and sections 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, all in block 18, S. F. Ry. Co. surveys, also the following unassigned lands, to wit: Sections 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, and North one-half (329 acres) of Section 26, and west 400 acres of section 27, block 27 of Texas & Pacific Ry. Co. surveys, altogether in Mitchell County, 450 acres, and making altogether in Sterling, Cole and Mitchell Counties, 14,600 acres.

Plaintiff alleges that said lease contract provided either for the drilling of a well on said lands, within one year, from date of lease, or all rights under said lease should cease and terminate, provided however that should have the right to continue lease in force from year to year, until a well should be drilled thereon, by paying an annual rental, the rentals to be deposited to the credit of plaintiff in the Colorado National Bank, Colorado, Texas. Plaintiff alleges that no well or oil or gas has been drilled on any of said lands, as under said contract, and no rental was paid under said contract, in lieu of drilling, within one year from 18th day of September, A. D. 1921, nor was said rental deposited to credit of plaintiff in the Colorado National Bank within the period of one year from the 18th day of September, 1921.

Defendant Rotary Oil and Gas Company is setting up some sort of claim to a portion of said lands, by assignment from defendants Burton and Kakin, but plaintiff says that this defendant, Rotary Oil and Gas Company, have likewise defaulted in complying with the terms of said oil and gas lease contract.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for judgment cancelling said lease contract as against all of said defendants and removing cloud from title to said lands.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court on said first day of next term thereof, this writ with your returns thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said court, this 9th day of October, A. D. 1922.

W. S. STONEHAM,
Clerk District Court, Mitchell County, Texas.

BUYING IS HEAVY AS PLANTS ARE RUNNING TO CAPACITY

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—More people bought shoes in this country in the last week than at any time this year. That buying has been wise buying, according to experts in the industry, although in many cases slight advances over recent price levels were paid.

Advance Inevitable.

Salesmen now out with the new styles are quoting prices 4 to 5 per cent above those of last year. This does not begin to parallel the advance in leather, sole and upper leathers having jumped fully 20 per cent in recent weeks.

Low Level Passed.

Shoes apparently reached their low levels some weeks ago and from now on whatever the standing of the American citizen, the shoes he stands in will cost him more.

Remember we can save you at least a $1.50 per pair.

This is strictly a shoe ad and it will pay you to come in and talk it over and buy your shoe bill here.

Mr. Russell displayed here a specimen of spineless cactus perfected by himself at San Saba. The cactus, which resembles the native variety, with the exception of the absence of the spines, is said to be very valuable as a ration for cattle.

The Russell spineless cactus is claimed to be an improvement over the Burbank variety, as the latter will freeze during blizzard weather. The Russell cactus is said to not be affected by cold weather.

$1,441,486 A YEAR'S DISASTER RELIEF COST

Red Cross Aided 145,000 Victims in United States—Losses Total $30,000,000.

Seventy-two disasters, with hundreds reported killed and injured, and more than 145,000 either homeless or requiring assistance, called for emergency relief measures and the expenditure of $1,441,486.96 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, according to a statement based on the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross. The greatest toll of life was taken by hurricane and tornado, while the overflowing of rivers, the breaking of dams and torrential rains drove the greatest number of people from their homes. The property loss was estimated at more than $30,000,000.

The year's disasters reported included twenty-six floods, nineteen tornadoes, fifteen fires, four epidemics, two theatre collapses, two shipwrecks (one a ship), and a bridge collapse, mine explosion, railway collision, and a drought. Of the floods in the United States that at San Antonio, Texas, caused the greatest property loss, $6,000,000 and the high mark of fatalities, 100, while the flood in the vicinity of Vicksburg and Natchez, Miss., forced 31,000 persons from their homes.

A National Calamity
In the Red Cross disaster relief records there will probably remain for many years one calamity which touched nearly every state with a sense of horror and of loss. This was the distressing collapse of the roof of the Knickerbocker Theatre in Washington, D. C., resulting in ninety-six deaths and 125 persons injured. Situated in the center of the beautiful Northwest residential section, this motion picture theatre was patronized by many persons of prominence both in the official and civil life of the National Capital, whose family and personal connections radiated out over the entire country. The horror was intensified by a terrific snowstorm which, though it retarded, did not block Red Cross relief.

Airship Crash Finds Aid at Hand
The crash and destruction of the U. S. Army's large airship Roma in Virginia last February with the loss of 34 officers and men and 11 injured was the first disaster of its kind to call for Red Cross relief in this country. The suddenness of the accident tested the preparedness of the organization and of the Chapter at Hampton, Va., but the response was immediate and relief furnished the survivors, also funds for the expenses of relatives of the dead, who came from long distances to claim their own.

In the year's overseas record for aid rendered by the Red Cross are two fires in the Philippines, one in Manila, which destroyed 1,000 homes, with a loss of $1,500,000 and 5,000 persons made homeless, the other at Tono, which drove 3,000 from their dwellings. In medical relief that was quick and effective the smallpox epidemic in San Domingo, which had a total of 22,000 cases with 225 deaths in a single day, tested the readiness of the Red Cross for action, and the same can be said of the San Domingo hurricane, which killed 12 persons and reduced the homes of 182 persons to wreckage. A flood in San Salvador, with a death toll of 50 and 2,000 refugees, was also effectively handled by the local Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Relief Machinery Perfected
The year has seen the further perfection of disaster relief administrative measures in every field of American Red Cross activity, and that the work may be carried on to still greater accomplishments the American Red Cross is appealing for widespread renewal of membership during the annual Roll Call, to be conducted this year from Armistice Day (November 11) to and including Thanksgiving

A New Tread—a Lower Price Reliable Goodyear Quality

Here is a new Goodyear Cord Tire—a big, sturdy, long-wearing tire—that sells at a price lower than you are asked to pay for many "long discount" tires of unknown value.

It has a different tread from the famous Goodyear All-Weather Tread Cord—a new tread with a deep, clean-cut, cog-like pattern—and it sells for substantially less.

It has in it the same high-grade long-staple cotton, the same Goodyear patented group-ply construction, the same liberally oversized dimensions.

When you buy the 4 1/2-inch size, for example, you get a tire whose actual measurement is nearly 5 inches.

Don't confuse this Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord with other popular-price cords which sell at the same price or for slightly more.

In many cases, these other cords are made of inferior materials, with short-staple cotton as a foundation.

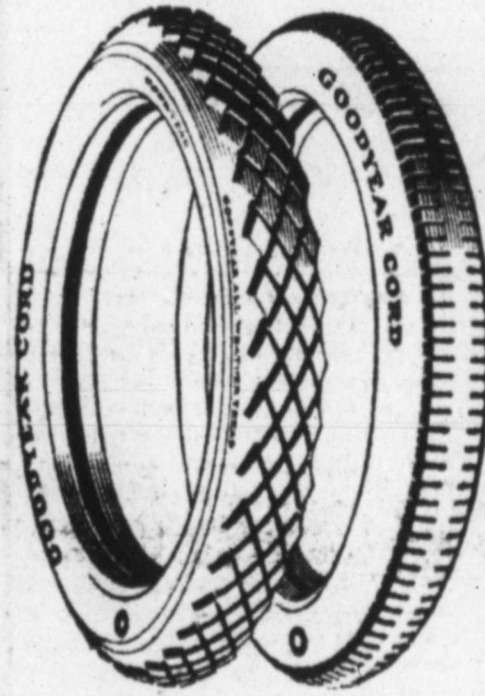

Get the tire that is good enough to carry the Goodyear name, that is built to safeguard the world-wide Goodyear reputation.

Compare these prices with NET prices you are asked to pay for "long discount" tires

AS SEEN BY A RIG BUILDER

Written by a rig builder at Burton Lingo Lumber Co., Colorado, Texas.
I am not a geologist, an astronomer, prophet or weather forecast, but a simple rig builder. See what becomes of this.

We have records for thousands of years (B. C.) that on the 16th day of December shows to be the largest snow in history in this section of the country.

There will be three snows between now and the first of the year. On December 28th, will be one of the coldest times experienced here. Also shows to be several very high winds in the early part of winter. Judging from the elements since August the 7th of this year. Since the earliest dawn of creation, the language of the Heavens has been the subject of interest in prose, poetry and mythology. The names of the constellations and the signs of the zodiac date back to the earliest times.

At the closing days of August you doubtless noticed a beautiful picture was presented in the evening sky, the new moon accompanied by the planets, Mars and Venus. The following lines were written with that beautiful picture as an inspiration:

The silent language of the heavens,
In crescent form the pale moon hung
And by her side two jewels swung.
The one was Mars the God of War,
Whose rosy lustre spread afar,
Venus the other Goddess pure,
Whose love forever shall endure;
Her sparkling beauty filled the dome
Of the wide celestial home.
Then in the stillness of the night
While all was hushed no fear in sight
The God of War in anger spake
These words, which caused the Heavens to quake.

Arise, Oh Earth, go forth and kill;
Mine alters with thy blood refill;
Arise! go forth ere break of day,
With sword and spear, go forth and slay.

For but one moment all was still,
When Venus rose to urge her will;
She spake upon that midnight clear,
These words of love and tender cheer:
"Twixt thee and Earth I ever stand
"With naught but love at my command.

"With no sword spear do I wield;
With love alone my foes must yield
Cast own thy alters steeped with gore.

In oblivion's waste for ever more;
Kindle a flame of love divine
And in thy glory ever shine."
And ere her words had died away,
As incense on some perfect day;
With renewed hope and vigor strong
Earth replied with joyous song:
Ere since the days of ruthless Cain,
You've warred in strife for greed and gain.

No more shall I thy alters fill,
Of blood of those I fight and kill,
My sword and spear I'll use for gain
To till the soil and garner grain."

The echo of these words scarce had died
When the celestial host replied,
All glory, laud and honor be
To Him who reigns eternally;
Peace be to Earth and mercy mild,
For God and man are reconciled.

STATEWIDE RESPONSE FOR SALVATION ARMY

FUNDS BEING RAISED THIS WEEK TO AFFORD RELIEF TO SUFFERING AND DISTRESSED HUMANITY.

MONEY NEEDED VERY BADLY

Humanitarian Effort Must Have Support to Carry Out Service Program.

The man who is down but who is never out is coming into his own in Texas and Louisiana this week. Throughout these states County Advisory Boards of the Salvation Army are conducting financial appeals which are to provide this great humanitarian organization with funds for another year's work.

Funds with which the Salvation Army will continue to bless the people, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, rescue the sister of the night, reclaim the prodigal, nurse and care for the neglected child, reach the unreached and save the lost.

Reports to divisional headquarters from many counties indicate that by their response to the appeal the citizens of both states are endorsing the work of the Salvation Army and voting their approval of its intention to carry on this great service along even broader lines than heretofore during the next twelve months period.

Never was the need for funds greater; never has the Salvation Army been called upon so frequently and with such varied demands; never has conditions been such that the necessity of having this organization function at high tension was more imperative; never has the Salvation Army, confident that the public will meet the needs of the less fortunate to whom the Army ministers, been in a better position to work for the alleviation of poverty, distress, suffering of body, mind and spirit, and scores of other ills and evils of the cities and the rural communities.

Judge W. F. Ramsey, chairman of the board of directors of the Federal Reserve bank at Dallas, and divisional finance chairman of the Salvation Army appeal, has received from district chairmen throughout the two states reports of splendid starts made in most counties toward obtaining the quotas with which to carry on the work for another year.

Although the success of the appeals has been virtually insured from the start, due to the leading business and professional men and women who are supporting it and giving freely of their time and efforts, funds cannot be obtained without the co-operation being given to the leaders, nor will sufficient amounts be raised unless all members of communities respond to the modest requests of the Salvation Army.

In every county the quotas have been placed at the minimum figure under which the Salvation Army can operate during the coming year. The budgets have been discussed and approved by members of the County Advisory Boards, members of which are the leaders in every community, and these boards guarantee the effective expenditure of the funds raised.

The Salvation Army has become famous for its ability to make a dollar go farther and do more work than any other service organization in the world. Penny for penny and dollar for dollar, the money which the citizens give in support of the Salvation Army's work is expended under a system which, while it affords immediate and absolute relief to those in need, admits of no waste or inefficiency.

It is the privilege of all to give to this cause during the present period. The dollar given to the Army will be used to minister to and save the lives of abandoned babies, of babies and their mothers in maternity homes, of jobless fathers, of despairing mothers, of wandering children, of the sick, of men and women behind prison bars, of would-be suicides, of men who are down but who are never out, and of the victims of disasters such as floods, fires, tornadoes and riots.

SOCIAL INSURANCE SUPPLIED BY ARMY.

The principal elements of service, which have made it worth while for 40,000 Advisory Board members to consider seriously all phases of the Salvation Army Home Service Program, and help put the program into effective operation, are:

- First—Its amazing power to foster good citizenship.
- Second—Its simple remedy for misery and despair.
- Third—Its thorough provision to meet community problems no other organization meets.
- Fourth—Its great service to mankind in caring for those misfortunes which may befall any of you who read.
- Fifth—It is a form of insurance. It has the confidence of those it serves. Only a part of its functions may be of value to a given community at this time, or at any time, but the protection of their existence cannot be denied. There is no community and no individual immune from disaster.

Booster Club Raps Policy of Court in Road Maintenance

The policy of Commissioners' Court to call upon the Chamber of Commerce or the Booster Club of Colorado to finance, either in whole or in part, work and maintenance of the public road system of the county, was attacked by members of the Booster Club Thursday night in discussing the matter at the banquet at the Barcroft. It was shown that the Booster Club had been called upon to expend more than three hundred dollars for work on the crossing near the new bridge and, further, that the road leading around by way of the old salt works had not been improved by the county as had been promised.

That the latter road should be improved at once, was stated as an imperative duty of the county, because in case of a rise in the river the temporary crossing at Fourth street would become useless and traffic must then detour, coming into Colorado over the South bridge. To place these sections of the road in passable condition and maintain them was declared to be just as much the duty of Commissioners' Court as to work and maintain any other section of the public highways of the county.

"A comparison of the tax rolls of Mitchell County will disclose the fact that the city of Colorado is paying more than one-half the entire amount of road taxation assessed on all properties in the county," an attorney stated in speaking to this subject. In consideration of this fact, some of those present supported the demand that the court should give more consideration to the claims of Colorado in public road maintenance.

The new bridge will probably not be completed and turned over to traffic within ninety days, according to estimates furnished the club, and during the interim traffic must cross the river at Fourth street and this crossing in its present condition is bad enough. Scores of farmers hauling cotton to Colorado and drivers of other loaded vehicles become stalled on the river bank and are compelled to have assistance in pulling out, one of the Boosters claimed.

Answering the question why the county did not employ the use of water on the gravel banks of the crossing and then grade the road bed, a representative of the club stated that such had been requested of the county and summarily declined.

Discussing further the matter of road work in the Colorado territory, the speaker stated that he recently returned from Dunn and found a considerable number of farmers of that section who desired to haul their cotton to Colorado, do their banking and other business here, but were greatly handicapped because of the poor condition of the road leading from Colorado north. "Some of those farmers are so anxious to come to Colorado that they proposed to take their teams and donate work on this road," he said. "The people of Dunn are also demanding direct telephone connection with Colorado," the speaker continued, "and this is a matter which we have worked on for some time. The only telephone connection we have with these people now is by long distance." That this service should be provided was endorsed. Numbers of citizens of the Dunn section are doing their banking business at Colorado and under the present telephone handicap are placed at an inconvenience and extra expense whenever calling Colorado on business matters to be handled by their bankers, which during the cotton season is an important matter.

W. J. Stewart, local manager for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, was present at the banquet and promised to work out a plan whereby Dunn would have direct telephone connection with Colorado. That a party line from Colorado covering the Dunn community was practical, was admitted by Stewart.

BUFORD GIRLS' CLUB WORK PLANNED BY SUPT. HOOKS

C. W. Hooks, superintendent of the Buford school, was in Colorado Tuesday, spending a short time here on business. Mr. Hooks stated that the Buford school would open Monday, October 30, and that the outlook for another good school year in that community was most promising. Buford maintains one of the best rural schools in Mitchell County and usually the school there has one of the largest enrollments among these rural schools.

Hooks expressed himself as being very much interested in girls' club as proposed at Buford and several other rural schools of the county by Miss Laceywell. While in the city Tuesday Hooks stated that he expected to co-operate with the home demonstration agent to the end of perfecting one of the best girls' clubs at Buford to be found in the county.

Organization of these clubs will probably be not inaugurated until after most of the rural schools of the county have opened. This will be some four or five weeks from this date. The plan to organize these clubs in all of the several rural school districts, as was at first suggested, will probably be abandoned, at least for the present, according to Miss Laceywell, since an investigation has disclosed the fact that in some of the smaller districts there is not a sufficient number of girls eligible for membership as to guarantee a good working organization. The club work, however, will be so outlined as to reach every interested girl of the county.

To Gain a Good Reputation.

The way to gain a good reputation is to endeavor to be what you appear. That is precisely the manner in which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained its reputation as a cure for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Every bottle that has ever been put out by the manufacturers has been fully up to the high standard of excellence claimed for it. People have found that it can be depended upon for the relief and cure of these ailments and that it is pleasant and safe to take.

Hupmobile Engineers Command Large Manufacturing Facilities

It is fortunate for Hupmobile owners that our engineers have large manufacturing facilities at their exclusive command.

The wonderful Hupmobile dependability, its unique freedom from expense and adjustment and repair, is due to the Hupmobile way of building a motor car.

In the Hupmobile's own plants, its motor and transmission, clutch and axles and other essential parts are built to Hupmobile design and specifications for the exclusive use of Hupmobile.

No compromise of good designing or fine manufacturing is ever forced upon our engineers. They are entirely free from the limitations they might meet if they were dependent, for some vital parts on outside manufacturing sources.

This may explain Hupmobile performance and economy records that stands almost alone, among cars of higher and lower price alike; and such a length of life that it seems a Hupmobile has no wear-out point.

 The regular monthly meeting of the Daughters of the King met with Mrs. W. S. Stoneham in her new home. After the gifts were admired the regular study and business were attended to. Mrs. Arnett led the Sunday school lesson. SMITH-D'SPAIN.
 From Cisco Daily News:
 Saturday evening at 8:00 a very beautiful wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Cora Smith, 505 Ave. I, when her daughter, Lillian, became the bride of Glenn D'Spain. Rev. Lewis N. Stuckey read the impressive service which united these two popular young people.

The house was beautifully decorated in potted plants and golden chrysantheums.

The bride wore a most attractive street frock of navy blue Poiret Twill with hat and accessories to match. The bride's sister, Miss Lorena Smith acted as maid of honor, wearing an evening dress of peach blow taffeta. Both the bride and her maid carried arm clusters of pink roses. Mr. Lewis Sirrianni of Breckenridge acted as best man.

The nuptial music was rendered by Miss Venita Daniels. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Dora La Roque. Mesdames Pollock of Los Angeles, Taylor of Marshall, sisters of the bride, W. P. Lee and J. E. Brown of Cisco, assisted in the dining room, serving yellow and white brick ice cream and angel food cake.

Only the immediate families of the contracting parties and the Cressett Club were invited guests.

Both the bride and groom are very popular members of the younger social set and their hosts of friends unite in wishing them a life of happiness and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. D'Spain are at home in Breckenridge.

Miss Smith was born and reared in Colorado and has many friends who wish her a happy voyage over life's sea.
