NINETEENTH YEAR—NO. 4

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1922.

WHIPKEY PRINTING COMPANY

CONDITION BANKS HERE SHOW UNUSUAL STABILITY

The condition of the two National banks at Colorado show an unusual growth of the institutions during the past year, according to figures made public Wednesday by an official of one of the institutions. According to those figures the banks of this city are on a sounder basis today than for many years, individual deposits showing an increase of thirty-three and one-third per cent during the year.

The banker estimated that deposits carried by the two banks would total one and three-quarters million dollars, a record within its self establishing a precedent for many years past. Liquidation of loans during the fall has been above the average of former years and many new customers, some of them carrying substantial accounts, have been added to patrons of the banks.

The City National and Colorado National Banks of Colorado have for several years been recognized as among the strong financial institutions of West Texas. The City National owns a modern bank and office building and the new home of the Colorado National is under construction. Either of these buildings are a credit to Colorado.

TEXAS & PACIFIC NO. 2 CLEANS OUT WHEN SHOT

Texas and Pacific No. 2 of the Underwriters Producing & Refining Company was given a light nitro shot Saturday afternoon and cleaned out leaving the hole in excellent condition. The shot was placed in the lower sand, below three thousand feet. The well flowed for a time following the shot.

It was reported Tuesday that the well would be given another shot, to jar the pay higher up. Between 2900 and 3000 feet, the same level from which Morrison No. 2 is producing. This report, however, was not confirmed. The shot placed Saturday was light.

LIONS WILL OBSERVE LADIES NIGHT NOV. 29

Wednesday, November 29, was designated as ladies night by the Colorado den, Lions Club, at the weekly luncheon Wednesday noon. The occasion will be celebrated with an elaborate banquet at the Barcroft dining room at eight o'clock. Every member of the club has been directed to attend the banquet with "at least one lady escort." Those failing to do this will be subject to a heavy fine. A committee composed of Sam Goldman, Harry Ragan and Louis Elliott was appointed by the president, Col. C. M. Adams, to arrange entertainment program for the occasion. Ladies night is among the feature attractions of Lions Clubs everywhere and in many of the larger cities the event is observed once each month.

Ben Van Tuij and Rev. D. R. Hardison were introduced as guests of the club Wednesday, and each of these gentlemen delivered addresses. The proposed American Legion hut was discussed by L. B. Elliott, hut chairman. Elliott told of plans to celebrate Armistice day here with a program to be participated in by former service men of Colorado and Mitchell County. An attempt to have Alvin Owsley, newly elected National commander of the Legion, to visit the city will be made.

W. J. Stewart, local manager for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, was elected to membership in the club.

WESTBROOK BOX SUPPER NETS $126 FOR SCHOOL

The sum of $126.00 was obtained from the sale of boxes at the box supper at Westbrook school house Friday night of last week, according to Chas. Thompson of Colorado, who attended from Colorado and acted as auctioneer. An entertainment program was rendered in connection with the box sale, Thompson stated.

The money will be used for purchasing equipment for the school grounds at Westbrook. The major portion of this equipment will be basketball, base ball and other athletic playgrounds.

MITCHELL BUREAU MEN ENJOINED BY ASSOCIATION

A writ of temporary injunction against J. N. Caloway and R. L. Cathcart, members of the Mitchell County Cotton Association, was granted the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association by Hon. W. P. Leslie, Judge of the 32nd Judicial District, at Sweetwater Tuesday. The writ temporarily restrains the defendants from selling or otherwise disposing of their 1922 cotton to any other person, firm or corporation than the plaintiff association.

E. M. Baldwin, secretary-manager of the Mitchell County association, stated Wednesday morning that the bureau was represented in the hearing at Sweetwater by Thos. R. Smith, Colorado attorney who has been retained as legal representative for the organization in this county. Bond was set at $500.00 in each case, which Baldwin stated is being furnished, and the writs are returnable to the November term of district court of Mitchell County, at which time the association will seek to have the injunctions made permanent.

Baldwin stated that injunctions have recently been granted in a number of cases in other counties. In only one instance, he stated, was the injunction sought refused by the trial judge, and this case is now up on appeal. Suits for recovery of the penalty provided in the cotton contract and for damages for the breach will be sought against all members of the association who breach their contracts, Baldwin said.

MITCHELL CO. INSTITUTE WILL CONVENE NOV. 6TH

Announcement of the annual teachers institute to be held at Colorado during the week of November 6th, was made Friday by Judge J. C. Hall, ex-officio county superintendent of public instruction. The sessions will be held at the High school building in this city, with Judge Hall presiding.

The program for the week is claimed to be one of the most comprehensive ever attempted by the Mitchell County organization. Every phase of school work, as seen by both the High school and rural school teacher, is scheduled for discussion. Organization of the county Interscholastic League is scheduled as a part of the business for the opening day.

A new departure for the Mitchell County Teachers Institute will be the presentation of topics on social science and home economics by a representative of the extension department, A. & M. College. Miss Lacey, home demonstration agent, is scheduled to speak Thursday morning on those subjects.

680 SCHOLASTICS ARE ENROLLED IN SCHOOLS

E. F. King, superintendent of the Colorado schools, stated Tuesday that a total of 680 scholastics had been enrolled. This showed an increase of seventy-five since school opened October 2, with an enrollment of 605. King stated that efficient work was being done in every department of the schools of the city.

BIG BUSINESS REPORTED BY MERCHANTS HERE

Business conditions at Colorado have been excellent throughout the fall season, according to reports of local merchants, some of whom state that sales this fall will be considerably larger than one year ago. The country is considered in much better shape now than for several years, according to these business men, because but little credit trade has been carried during the present year. Debts of farmers at the stores are estimated to have been one hundred per cent less than one year ago.

The fall rush will be over within the next few weeks, which is another precedent for this county, especially during those years when even semi-normal crops were made. Many of the farmers have finished gathering their cotton and the others have only scattering remnants in their fields. The recent rains retarded picking throughout the Colorado territory.

WEEK NOVEMBER 8 TO 11 DESIGNATED FOR CLEAN-UP

Mayor R. H. Looney issued a proclamation Wednesday designating the week of November 8th to 11th, inclusive, as clean-up week at Colorado. The proclamation of the mayor was issued in conjunction with plans of the Colorado Civic League to foster a clean-up campaign during that week.

The city plans to have this campaign cover the entire corporate limits and shall expect property owners and tenants to co-operate in causing all trash, tin cans, weeds and refuse of all kinds removed to the dumping grounds or burned. The mayor was quoted Wednesday as issuing the statement that suitable ordinances would be enacted requiring occupants and owners of all properties in the city to clean up.

The clean-up campaign will receive active support of the several civic and fraternal organizations of the city. Ladies of these organizations have been especially interested in making of Colorado a cleaner city.

MURPHEY WELL BRIDGED FOLLOWING NITRO SHOT

Murphey No. 1 of Henry Riley was given a heavy nitro shot Thursday afternoon at a depth of 2200 feet and the well bridged near the top. The hole is now being cleaned out and indications are favorable for a producer of around one hundred barrels. A bit which was lost in the hole Monday, when a drilling cable collapsed, has been recovered.

WATER EXTENSION WILL COVER ALL PARTS CITY

Several additional extensions of the water mains have recently been definitely announced by the city and it was stated at the city hall Monday that the water extension project when completed will afford water and fire protection to every section of the city.

One of these extensions will be a four-inch main on West Ninth street, ending with a fire plug at the foot of Pond Hill. Three other extensions will be laid north into Tenth street and a fire plug will be placed on one of these, at corner of Elm and Tenth street. Other additional extensions in the system are to be made in South Colorado. Four inch mains will be laid to cover that section of the city. A total of three plugs will be placed in South Colorado, instead of only one, as was at first planned.

FIRST DEEP WATER WELL IS COMPLETED BY CITY

The first of three deep water wells to be drilled on the waterworks property east of Colorado has been completed and will be on the pump within the next few days, L. A. Costin, city secretary, reports. Another of these wells has been drilled to a depth of 160 feet. The completed well is 256 feet in depth.

The city believes the additional wells will furnish adequate water supply for domestic and commercial use in the city and also for the sewage disposal system, now being installed.

2600 BALES POOLED BY MITCHELL FARM BUREAU

Approximately 2,600 bales of cotton have been pooled to date by members of the Mitchell County Farm Bureau. E. M. Baldwin, secretary-manager of the organization, stated Monday. Baldwin stated that he had no definite figures at his office showing the exact number of bales shipped from Loraine, since cotton concentrated there was shipped to Sweetwater for pressing. The figures show an increase over the number of bales pooled at the same time last year.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR PLUMBING FOR SCHOOLS

Contracts for water toilets and laboratories in all three of the school buildings of Colorado have been awarded and these fixtures are expected to be installed in the Grammar and High school buildings within the next few weeks.

TEXAS-MEXIA SYNDICATE BUYS MORRISON ROYLT

A one-half interest in the Earl Morrison royalty in the Mitchell county field has been purchased by the Texas-Mexia Syndicate No. 2, according to information received from Dallas. This includes Morrison well No. 2, which has been producing several months. A press dispatch from Dallas, under date of October 23, announcing the sale, says in part:

"The half interest in the Morrison royalties in Mitchell county have been sold by Morrison for $15,000, this amount going for one-half of Earl Morrison's one-eighth share of the holdings retained by the owner of the land, making the purchase that of one-sixteenth of the total production of the field. Estimated at the above purchase price for the one-half of Mr. Morrison's one-eighth share of the Morrison royalties, the holdings can be easily estimated as worth near the quarter million mark."

STRUCTURAL CONCRETE ON BANK BUILDING FINISHED

J. M. Morgan, contractor erecting the new Colorado National Bank building, stated Tuesday that structural concrete forms for the building had with one or two exceptions been completed and that these would be poured as soon as conduits for steam pipe fixtures arrived and were set in place.

Morgan stated that the setting in place of the granite work for the lower story of the building would probably be commenced Thursday or Friday. Since the structural forms are in place the outside walls will now be going up rapidly, he stated.

In speaking of the progress on the new ward school building, Morgan stated that he was being delayed, pending arrival of brick, which were shipped to Colorado October 16th. The concrete foundation has been in place for several days.

FAIR ASSN. PRESIDENT CALLS FOR MASS MEETING

J. A. Sadler, president of the Mitchell County Fair Association, has called for a mass meeting of interested citizens to be held at the district court room on Monday evening, November 6th, for the purpose of discussing plans for the fair next year.

In addition to officials of the fair association, every citizen of the county who is interested in promoting the fair is urged to attend. Ladies will be especially welcomed at the meeting, Sadler has announced.

WATERBURY HEATERS FOR HI AND WARD BUILDINGS

The improved type of Waterman Waterbury heaters are to be used in the High school and ward school buildings at Colorado. These heaters have already been installed in the old Grammar school building and fires were built in them for the first time Thursday morning. The contractor commenced setting up the stoves in class rooms at the High school this week.

Waterman heaters will also be installed in the ten class rooms of the new ward building, now under construction. This heater was selected by the school board as being the most practical following an investigation in the merits of several approved types of stoves manufactured for school use.

SIX INCH CASING OUT OF SMITH NUMBER ONE

The crew at Smith No. 1 have pulled the last of the six-inch casing from the hole and are now straight reaming below the seat of the casing preparatory to land eight inch casing to near the bottom of the hole, where a string of tools is lost. Operations at this well have been tied up for some time because of the string of tools, but with the larger casing in the well, the crew expects to complete the fishing job with but little difficulty.

DAM FOR IMPOUNDING SALT WATER COMPLETED

The large dam for impounding water from Dadgett No. 1 of the Mitchell County Oil Corporation, was completed Thursday of last week by the contractor, I. C. Little.

WATER SCARCITY DELAYS OPERATIONS NEAR IATAN

Coleman well active since new water line has been laid and now drilling at about 2470 feet.

Clearing away debris at Dadgett and will mud off the flow of salt water which has diminished considerably during the last week. New derrick will be erected and the well will be completed as soon as possible.

Straight reaming at the Smith well is progressing satisfactorily and the 8-inch hole should reach the tools some time next week. The 6-inch casing has been successfully drawn from this well, and barring accidents this well should be reaching the first sand within the next two weeks.

The crews of the Kelsey-Dadgett and the Sloan wells are rigging up and should be ready to spud within a few days. Both of these locations are highly favored by the oil fraternity, and present indications seem to assure the completion of these two wells within record time.

After two light shots the T. & P. No. 2 is standing 1500 feet in oil and the tubing is now being run. The well does not seem to be making any water, and it is expected that it will pump 100 barrels or better.

LeSore No. 1 is showing better than 100 barrels on the pump. Several of the opinion that this well is improving in amount of production.

The S. A. Ryan interests have taken over the Zilpha Morrison well and it is understood that this well will be tested for deeper production. It has been producing steadily from the 2500 horizon, but the new owners believe that production will be increased by drilling deeper. Mr. J. F. Carey is moving tools to this well and will be in charge of the drilling. Carey and Dan Lewis are also directing the work at the Smith well and it is generally conceded that they will be able to successfully complete this hole if it is humanly possible.

The Jones well, owned by Maxwell & Johnston, is drilling again after having been shut down on account of scarcity of water.

The Murphy well, which is being drilled by Henry Riley is cleaning out after a shot and it is thought will make 150 barrels when put on the pump. Mr. Riley will probably drill other wells on his lease within the near future.

The wells in the Iatan district are shut down on account of lack of water for drilling.

The Magnolia well, three miles south of Iatan is setting 8-inch casing at about 2000 feet and the work at this well is progressing nicely. The formations in this hole are said to be running high.

BOY SCOUTS COLLECTING CLOTHING ARMENIAN RELIEF

Colorado boy scouts are collecting clothing this week to be forwarded to Dallas for shipment to refugees in Armenia. This work in Colorado is being directed by Rev. W. M. Elliott, scout master. Churches of the city are co-operating in the work.

Clothing of any description about the home will be accepted, and in this it has been stated that clothing for adults, both men and women, will be just as acceptable as that for children. Colorado citizens desiring to have a part in this work should communicate with Rev. Mr. Elliott.

J. E. POND RECOVERING FOLLOWING OPERATION

J. E. Pond, local contractor, was taken seriously ill Friday afternoon at five o'clock while at the new cottage of F. E. McKenzie, in north Colorado, suffering from a severe pain in the stomach. He was carried to his home and his condition grew worse rapidly. Drs. C. L. Root, T. J. Ratliff and P. C. Coleman were called to the Pond home and following a consultation ordered him removed to the Colorado sanitarium where he was operated upon Friday night.

Reports from the sanitarium are that Mr. Pond has shown an improvement throughout the week. Dr. Root stated Tuesday that the patient was doing splendidly. He will, however, be in the institution several days as the operation performed was a very delicate one.

OUT BUFORD WAY

We, through necessity, sometimes leave off some of the pleasures of life. For it is a real pleasure to boast our community and herald the happenings, and we just "haint had time lately."

We trust every school boy and girl is eagerly looking forward to the opening of school Monday morning, Oct. 30. Parents as well because we need to all show more interest than our past actions have manifested. The same corps of very efficient teachers are to be in their place, each with another year's experience and better equipped and qualified to assist every child, that comes to Buford school to lay the foundation of a good education and to instill in their minds a real yearning for the essentials of good citizenship that their influence for good might be felt where ever they should cast their lot.

Friday night at 7:30, Oct. 28, tonight, everybody is cordially invited to attend a box supper at the school building and come smiling and in a very free hearted mood.

Mr. Hooks and the trustees inform us that there are some things needed in the building and on the grounds that no funds are set aside for, but that make for a better school, so lets everybody be on hand and do our part.

There's been some sickness in the community a few cases of Dengue fever and colds, but no one seriously ill.

Bro. Leach filled his regular appointment Saturday night and Sunday at eleven despite the threatening weather. Had a nice crowd each service. He was called back to Westbrook to conduct a funeral and because of the rain never returned.

Bro. Leach accepted the call for another year's work in this church, conditionally, and we are going to meet the conditions, because the entire community feels like we must have this good man to help us another year.

Our S. S. is holding its own, and we are looking forwards to better times.

Quarterly conference convenes at Dunn Saturday morning at 10 o'clock all are urged to attend as this winds up the year's work.

Don't miss the box supper, you are all welcome. You'll be glad you've come.

The City Market has been highly praised by the State Inspector for its cleanliness and sanitary conditions. Phone 179.

THE MARATHON FOLD

Completion work is now going on at the hole on the Brennand ranch in Sterling County and another two or three weeks should see this wildcat well ready for a thorough test. The most important thing about the hole is that it is really a producing well and that, as such, it opens up another great commercial oil area. Its size has not been determined but experienced oil men who have been at the well recently state that it is certainly not smaller than 200 barrels and that it may run as high as 600 to 800 barrels flush.

Production at this point demonstrates most clearly the fact that vast productive oil areas in West Texas still remain unexplored and that competent geological work is now being done throughout that big region. Very careful work was done in Sterling County by Floyd Dodson and the structure on which this strike was made is probably one of a number of similar traps in this same area. To all intents and purposes this Sterling County fold is very similar to the Read anticline in Mitchell County and both are found on the northwest flank of the Marathon Fold.

The Sterling County discovery lies some twenty miles south of Mitchell County production and between this latter field and the great Sheffield Terrace farther to the south in Crockett and Terrell Counties. With the exception of the well in Sterling this entire region is practically untested and contains some of the best undrilled wildcat acreage in the whole West Texas country. That it is prospective oil country has just been proven by the success in Sterling County and doubtless many new minor structural areas will get tests in the near future.

After the Mitchell County discovery many months ago it looked as if the activity of the field might shift to the north and northwest, but little drilling has been done in that direction at any great distance from the Morrison No. 2. Operators rather have seemed to like the play to the south of the Westbrook-Colorado field and, of course, this Sterling County well will serve as a magnet to all of the wildcaters of the region. The tendency will now be to go south through Sterling and Iron into Crockett and Terrell but naturally a great period of time must elapse before this entire country has had adequate tests.

Production has developed in an almost east and west line in Mitchell County and is just now beginning to spread out to the north and to the south. Standard of California, thru one of its subsidiaries, seems to think that the country south of Colorado and Westbrook will see a big extension to the production lines, and is now preparing for a big development campaign of this section. One or two wells were drilled in the past some distance south of Westbrook, but although these had shows of oil, neither was good for commercial production.

Development in Mitchell County has been held back to a great extent because the field lacked many of the sensational features common to other pools of greater flush production. Up to this time no huge gushers have been developed in Mitchell County, but it is significant that many of the most conservative operating companies in the Southwest have acquired large scattered holdings throughout the western part of the county. The field is growing steadily and the pay sand of the Morrison No. 2 has produced so steadily as to give the field apparently great longevity.

If the discovery well in Sterling County shows a flush of better than 500 barrels it will do better than did the discovery in Mitchell County, as far as its initial production is concerned. This Sterling County well is producing from close to 2,500 feet and this pay is probably very similar to that which has been showing such steady production in the Morrison No. 2. Up to this time this pay horizon has not been defined, but it is probably a sandy limestone like that which produces in Mitchell County.

Long before this Sterling County well came in it was apparent that the big companies were looking for something like a discovery as they had their men at the well almost continuously during the last month of drilling. When the hole was down 2,100 feet Magnolia Petroleum Company offered $25,000 for a half interest in the well and acreage, but the men behind the project had plenty of money for completion work and decided to see the thing through on their own account.

Two other structures have been identified by Dodson in Sterling County and wells have been started on each, but neither is being drilled with the dispatch which marked the well on the Brennand. The people who have the holes apparently started their filed work before they were properly financed and they are now raising the money to complete the work. The recent success on the Brennand undoubtedly should help them finance their wells and both holes may be going down within another month or two.—Frank E. Force in Texas Oil World.

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord

Did You Get the Bottom Price, After All?

The man who buys a "long discount" tire usually finds himself troubled by the above question.

Did he pay less for the tire than his neighbor might have paid, or actually did he pay more?

Did he get the bottom price, when all is said and done, or could he perhaps have driven a sharper bargain?

Was the net price really more than he might have had to pay for a tire of established reputation and value?

In the belief that the average motorist prefers a frank and open transaction, we built the new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord and discounted the "discount" in advance.

Instead of listing it at a high price, to enable the dealer to attract you with a so-called "long discount," we list it as low as we profitably can.

We build it of high-grade long-staple cotton, using the patented Goodyear method of group-ply construction, and sell it at a lower price than you are asked to pay for many "long discount" tires of unknown worth.

Compare these prices with NET prices you are asked to pay for "long discount" tires

FT. WORTH MILL SOUGHT BY WEST TEXAS CHAMBER

Judging from an article appearing in the Fort Worth Record Tuesday morning, under Stamford date line, headquarters of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the chairman of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce textile commission, Herbert Jones of Post, is enthused over the possibilities of obtaining a cotton mill at Fort Worth and that assistant-designated as chairman of the commission by Porter A. Whaley, general manager of the chamber.

The information that the commission was meeting with encouragement in interesting capital to locate a mill at Fort Worth and that assistance would probably be given West Texas in the location of mills, was contained in a telegram from Mr. Jones from Greenville, South Carolina. The message follows:

Our investigation is proving a later success than anticipated. We have secured much valuable information. We believe it is possible that considerable financial assistance can be secured in the East for a mill in Fort Worth. Other parts of West Texas may secure some assistance if they can do at least 50 per cent of financing themselves. We will decide shortly whether we shall go to New York before returning."

Accepting the invitation of Mr. Whaley that Colorado have a representative on the commission, the Colorado Chamber of Commerce sent J. H. Greene, as the representative from this city. Four West Texas towns, Colorado, Plainview, San Saba and Childress, were named in communications received from Mr. Whaley as having the endorsement of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as practical locations for proposed cotton mills for West Texas.

FIRE DESTROYES HOUSE.

Fire destroyed the house on the Fry farm north of town, occupied by J. P. Jennings and family, Monday afternoon. The family were all in the cotton patch when the fire was discovered and the house and contents were a complete loss.

Mr. Jennings and family had recently moved here from Llano county to pick cotton and the fire destroyed all their household goods and clothing. A subscription was made for the family, but we have not learned how much was obtained for their relief.

No insurance was carried on the house or contents.—Lorraine Leader.

MILLINERY SCHOOL HELD BY EXTENSION EXPERT

Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, clothing expert, Extension Department, A. & M. College, conducted millinery schools at Loraine and Colorado Thursday and Friday of last week, which were attended by several interested ladies of Mitchell County. The sessions at Loraine were held Thursday at the store of W. L. Edmondson & Company and Friday in the basement of the First Methodist church at Colorado.

Mrs. Barnes expressed keen interest in a report which she stated had recently reached the college concerning methods employed by W. A. Dulin, county agent, in finishing Mitchell County hogs for exhibit at the fair. "They tell me that because of the severe dry weather out here during the past several months, your hogs became light and dry, as there was but little water and mixed liquid foods for them," she said, "but that to overcome this condition, Mr. Dulin would concentrate his show hogs and soak them in water for several hours."

Such a method for placing hogs in the blue ribbon class had established a precedent, she stated. Mrs. Barnes said that Dulin would be requested to furnish the college with a complete formula outlining in detail the water processing he had developed through experiments extending over several months.

"It is the business of the extension department of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas to investigate the merits of new ideas for bettering conditions of the farm and in the home," the expert stated, "and in keeping with this policy we shall make a thorough investigation into the findings of Mr. Dulin."

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for colds, croup and whooping cough for almost half a century and has constantly grown in favor and popularity as its good qualities became better known. It is the standard and main reliance for these diseases in thousands of homes. The facts that it can always be depended upon and is safe and pleasant to take are greatly in its favor when it is wanted for children.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Colorado. No Colorado resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

J. H. Cooper, proprietor of blacksmith shop, Sixth and Oak streets, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several times in the past for trouble with my back. From the results I obtained, I think they are a good, reliable remedy. I purchased this medicine at Doss' Drug Store and I gladly recommend it to anyone suffering with their kidneys."

Over three years later Mr. Cooper said: "I can still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as I did when I endorsed them before. Doan's certainly benefitted me a great deal."

BAPTIST SCHOOLS SHOW GAIN IN NUMBER STUDENTS

DALLAS, Oct. 24.—Baptist of Texas are elated over the great gains shown in the opening of their schools. Everyone of them from Baylor University, with its several professional schools, down to little Rusk Junior College, there is a decided gain over last year.

Texas enjoys the distinction of having more Baptist educational institutions than any other state within the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention and has been enabled as a result of the 75 Million Campaign to make a large contribution to each of them. Under the method of distribution of Campaign funds the Southwestern interests of the denomination are cared for in the spring and the state institutions and interests during the fall, though each interest and institution gets its total quota from the Campaign fund within a year's time.

The Texas Baptist are now engaged in an effort to raise $1,500,000 in cash between now and December 1st and when this money comes in, a considerable sum of it will go to the various educational and benevolent institutions fostered by the denomination in this state. Up to May 1st, 1922, the Baptist schools of Texas had received the following amounts: Baylor College, Belton, $121,593.42; Baylor University, Waco, $173,400; Howard-Payne College, Brownwood, $52,012.00; Simmons College, Abilene, $81,700.00; Southwestern Baptist Seminary, Ft. Worth, $86,700; Burleson College, Greenville, Decatur College, Decatur; College of Marshall Marshall; Rusk College, Rusk; Wayland College, Plainview and San Marcos Academy, San Marcos, $17,240 each.

In addition to their interest in schools the Baptists of Texas are seeking to care for their extensive State Mission interests, their several hospitals and their orphanage in this Campaign. It is believed that when the Convention meets in Waco the middle of November this great sum will have been raised.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Mitchell.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County—Greeting.

You are hereby commanded to summon L. D. Burton, M. E. Eakin and Rotary Oil and Gas Company, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks, previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mitchell County Texas, to be holden at the Court house thereof in Colorado, Texas, on the 20th day of November, A. D. 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 9th day of October, A. D. 1922, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court, No. 1265, wherein Lay Powell is plaintiff, and L. D. Burton, M. E. Eakin and Rotary Oil and Gas Company are defendants, said petition alleging that heretofore to-wit: On or about the 18th day of September, A. D. 1920, plaintiff executed and delivered into defendants, L. D. Burton and M. E. Eakin, an oil and gas lease, covering the following described lands in the counties of Coke and Sterling, in the State of Texas: Sections 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 30, 31, and 64, all in block 2, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. survey; and sections 8, 9, 10, 11, 30 and 64, all in block 18, S. P. Ry. Co. survey; also the following preemptions: J. J. Westfall, W. C. Westfall and J. Westfall, containing 9000 acres, more or less. Also the following lands situated in Mitchell County, Texas: Sections 28 and 63, block 26, Texas & Pacific Railway Company Survey, and Sections 74, 81, 82, and North one-half (320 acres) of Section 86, and west 400 acres of section 87, block 27 of Texas & Pacific Ry. Co. survey; altogether in Mitchell County, 1500 acres, and making altogether in Sterling, Coke and Mitchell Counties, 11,000 acres.

Plaintiff alleges that said lease contract provided either for the drilling of a well on said lands, within one year, from date of lease, or all rights under said lease should cease and terminate, provided however that should have the right to continue lease in force from year to year, until a well should be drilled thereon, by paying an annual rental, the rentals to be deposited to the credit of plaintiff in the Colorado National Bank, Colorado, Texas. Plaintiff alleges that no well for oil or gas has been drilled on any of said lands, as under said contract, and no rental was paid under said contract, in lieu of drilling, within one year from 18th day of September, A. D. 1921, nor was said rental deposited to credit of plaintiff in the Colorado National Bank within the period of one year from the 18th day of September, 1921.

Defendant Rotary Oil and Gas Company is setting up some sort of claim to a portion of said lands, by assignment from defendants Burton and Eakin, but plaintiff says that this defendant, Rotary Oil and Gas Company, have likewise defaulted in complying with the terms of said oil and gas lease contract.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for judgment cancelling said lease contract as against all of said defendants and removing cloud from title to said lands.

Herein fall not, but have you before said court on said first day of next term thereof, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said court, this 9th day of October, A. D. 1922.

Judge Its Quality—Then Price

There's something stirring about the Studebaker Special-Six Sedan. You notice it when you pass one on the street. It grows on you as you examine the car's details. It becomes even more pronounced when you take the wheel and drive it.

No wonder the Special-Six Sedan carries such an appeal! Its beauty of line, finish and appointments fascinates you. The delightful harmony of color in the upholstery, the completeness of the appointments and the soft carpeting afford real elegance—and at a new low price.

The body is a striking example of the handcraft of Studebaker artisans. Built in Studebaker plants where the coachmaker's art has been handed down from father to son for more than two generations.

It is mounted on the same dependable Special-Six chassis that has added new fame to the name Studebaker wherever cars are known.

Compare its appearance, its endurance records, its comfort, its equipment and its recognized reliability with any car within hundreds of dollars of its price. Judge it on quality first—then price—because price alone is no indication of its intrinsic value.

You can have confidence in the quality of Studebaker cars—in the 70 years of business success and manufacturing integrity back of them—and in the sterling dollar-for-dollar value built into them.

The name Studebaker on your car insures satisfaction!

COUNTY ROAD CREW NOW WORKING WEST OF TOWN

Completing work on the river crossing at Fourth street Friday of last week, the county road crew has since been working on the highway and cardinal roads west of the river. This work is being done by one of the Holt caterpillars as motive power to draw two large grading machines. By this method one-half of the roadbed may be dragged at a time, greatly facilitating the work.

Judge Hall states that the road work will be rushed until all the principal roads of the county have been covered. Because of the continued dry weather heretofore, it would have been impractical to work the roads, he stated.

To Gain a Good Reputation.

The way to gain a good reputation is to endeavor to be what you appear. That is precisely the manner in which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained its reputation as a cure for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Every bottle that has ever been put out by the manufacturer has been fully up to the high standard of excellence claimed for it. People have found that it can be depended upon for the relief and cure of these ailments and that it is pleasant and safe to take.

UNION ITEMS.

As I see nothing in the Record here of late from our combination community—if that's the proper name for it—I call it that because it seems to be standing still on some lines and progressing on others. So I'll call it an average.

For the past few days we have been blessed with some light showers for which we feel thankful, but we still need stock water. The general health in our community is good. Most of the crop gathering is nearing a close. The cotton crop in this section has been good all things considered. Feed crops rather short for lack of not being enough planted to insure a full crop in case of drouth and such other disasters as common crops are subject to.

Generally speaking prices have been satisfactory especially to those who don't know any better. Here and now I want to give a shadow of my views concerning the Farm Bureau. The farmer or one who in part controls farms or farm products, and fails to patronize the Farm Bureau, I think is standing in his own light, and hindering the progress and welfare of the entire country. Our cotton crop in the South is our money crop and ought long ago to have been made a stabilized product and the Farm Bureau is a strong step in that direction as I see it the wrong element in the world represents the Lion side. It is just as easy to be a lion among dogs as it is to be a dog among lions.

Our school has not opened yet but is expected to at the right time.

If this scrap fails to find its way into the columns of your worthy paper I guess it will land into the waste basket.

Mrs. Dolman Entertains
Mrs. Dolman entertained the Merry Wives and several other friends Wednesday, honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bravis Coe of Amarillo and Mrs. Anthony Broning of Kansas City. The house was lighted with candles and the decorations were Halloween emblems. The same effect was carried out in the score cards. At the close of the games a tempting luncheon of pressed veal, crabapple balls, hot biscuits, date pudding and coffee was served.

VOICES OF LIVING AND DEAD AMERICANS
Abraham Lincoln ("Recollections of Abraham Lincoln,"—Lamon): "I am not a Know-Nothing, that is certain. When the Know-Nothings get in control it will read: 'All men are created equal, except negroes, foreigners, and Catholics.' When it comes to this, I should prefer emigrating to some country where they make no pretense of loving liberty; where despotism can be taken pure, and without the base alloy of hypocrisy."

Ex-President Woodrow Wilson be fore the Manhattan Club, N. Y., Nov. 4, 1915: "It does not become America that within her borders, where every man is free to follow the dictates of his conscience and worship God as he pleases, men should raise the cry of church against church. To do this is to strike at the very spirit and heart of America."

Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt: "Any political movement directed against any body of our fellow citizens because of their religious creed is a grave offense against American principles and American institutions."

Ex-President William H. Taft, December 20, 1914: "There is nothing so despicable as a secret society that is based upon religious prejudice and that will attempt in any way to defeat a man because of his religious beliefs. Such a society is like a cockroach—it thrives in the dark. So goes those who combine for such an end and work in secret and in the dark."

W. J. Bryan in the Commoner, August, 1915: "Those who have come into intimate acquaintance with representative Catholics did not need to be informed that they do not concede the church authorities the right to direct their course in political matters, but many protestants lacking this knowledge which comes with personal acquaintance, have been misled."

HALLOWE'EN.

Next Tuesday night is the time that grave yards yawn and ghosts stalk.

Hist. be still! 'tis Hallowe'en.

That night of nights when elves and wiches are abroad, when the tiny toots hold tight to daddy's hand...

Not so long ago Hallowe'en was the night when boys played mischievous pranks...

For many, many years it has been the custom over all the world to build bonfires...

But what was once a ceremony of belief, has now become a thing of sport...

So get out the old false faces, the noise-makers and join the merry throng...

Get into the spirit of the occasion yourself, and remember that the one unpardonable sin on Hallowe'en is to frighten a little child...

So, have your fun and frolic, but use good judgment.

"THOU SHALT NOT."

try practice is no worse than thousands of other cases going on every day in every section of the country.

They are not published to the world like this minister's sin. The Beacon in this connection comes to the defense of the ministers of this land and country and states that only a relative few men who preach and teach the virtues taught by our Savior are overtaken in adultery.

When a preacher is thus overtaken it is given undue publicity. It is no worse for a preacher to practice adultery than a lay member and in cases like the one above cited the ministry at large should not be reflected upon.

Sin is sin, whether practiced by preacher or layman, but of course the preacher carries greater influence than the individual laymen in upholding the standards of morals, and it is a sad reflection upon the church when a minister is overtaken in such sinful conduct as the case above stated.

But criticism should not be hurled at the ministry in general because one preacher falls by the wayside. Every man and woman since Adam's time will have to answer for his individual sins. If a minister falls he will have to answer, if you and I sin we will have to face these sins in Judgment unless we repent of them.

The one central thought in this comment is that we are living in an age when the proper regard is not given to moral living. Adultery has become quite common among a certain percent of the American people, and if it is not checked it promises to undermine our civilization.

Let men and women everywhere hear the thundering warnings that came down from Mount Sinai when Jehovah said: "Thou shalt not commit adultery."

"OPPOSITION."

Under the above caption, the Sweetwater Daily Reporter for Sunday morning, has the following to say about the recent action of the management of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in diverting publication of the official paper, West Texas Today, from West Texas to Sugar Land, a town far removed from the territory supposed to be represented by the Chamber:

"Judging from the tenor of editorials in the Abilene Reporter, Colorado Record and Lubbock Avalanche, the action of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in converting its official magazine 'West Texas Today' into a four page section of the Texas Commercial News does not meet with the undivided approval of a portion at least of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce membership.

"The acquisition of four pages a week for a year in the Texas Commercial News, may be worth $5,000 to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as an advertising proposition. While we are unacquainted with the advertising rates of this publication $25 a page on a year's contract may not be an excessive sum provided the circulation of this medium is already large enough to justify it. On the other hand the publishers will proceed to capitalize this added circulation for all it is worth and undoubtedly will greatly enhance their advertising revenues on account of it.

"The regrettable thing about the whole proposition is first the fact that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce by this means loses its identity, becomes a secondary and very secondary part at that, of another entirely different organization, one whose interests and aims at most are but loosely identified with that of the West.

"And the second and by no means least feature is the fact that a split in the ranks of the organization is by no means impossible on account of these proceedings. The whole idea back of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce was an organization which would function for the benefit of West Texas and if its members feel that it is not so functioning a disruption of the old and the formation of a new Chamber more in line with western aims and ideals would be in order.

"An explanation from officials of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce concerning their action might be timely right now."

Tribute to Pioneer Editor.

Leonard Withington, editor of the Fort Worth Record, pays a beautiful tribute to Hec McEachin, veteran newspaper man of West Texas, who died last week at Weatherford. Mr. McEachin was at one time in the

A Newspaper's TWO Sources of Revenue

Subscriptions and Advertising Are the Only Sources of Revenue a Newspaper Has and Often the Subscriptions Do Not Pay for the Cost of White Paper

Advertising today, especially in newspapers, is the greatest business getter there is. This is acknowledged by men who know. People read advertisements in newspapers. They have been educated to do so. Every merchant in our town ought to advertise. You remember the story about John Wanamaker? The first day he was in business his receipts were $24.64. He kept the 64 cents and spent the $24 the next day in advertising. We all can't duplicate this feat, but according to the best statistics available three per cent of the gross sales should be put aside for advertising.

Possibly you will say, "I don't need to advertise. I've been in this town thirty years and everybody knows me."

Probably they do, but did you ever stop to think of the sales you lose because your fellow competitor advertises? He may advertise the same goods you have in your stock, but the people don't know you have them. The other fellow gets the sale because he advertises. And, then, how much more business you would do if you did advertise?

We know of one merchant who advertised a lot of goods at 19 cents a yard. They cost him 27 cents. He took a clean loss, but while the sale was going on he could buy new goods at 12 cents. He put them in with the other goods and the result was that he cleaned his shelves of the old goods and he broke even on the deal. Advertising and good buying liquidated his stock without a loss.

We can't all be John Wanamakers, but we all can advertise in proportion to our business. Results will be sure if you advertise honestly and give service. A newspaper can bring people to your store, but it can't make people buy your goods. Your clerks must do that, and it depends on the service you give as to how successful your business will be.

What is done in the big cities can be done right here in this town if you will show the pep, give the service and advertise. Make business good. You can do it through this newspaper.

newspaper business at Colorado. Withington's article follows:

Hec McEachin is dead. His thirty has been hung on the hook and his spirit has returned to God.

In the death of Hec McEachin Texas lost another of its pioneer editors, who in the early days blazed the trail for the man with the plow and hoe to follow the man with the lariat. He preached farming and the value of West Texas lands for agricultural purposes. He kept just ahead a little of the advance guard of home builders in the West. He knew his adopted state, Texas, and he knew Texans and the trail blazers. He knew the men and families who followed the wake of the railroad builders in laying out towns and counties. He saw West Texas develop into a great production area from that of a pasture in which the howling coyote played an accompaniment to the bellowing cattle for a lullaby for the tired head of the cowboy.

In his book of ranch poems, Larry Chittenden, the poet ranchman, mentions the pioneer editor who wrote about the winning of the West by the farmer and the Democratic party. Hec McEachin played a major part in the development of Texas, and in the face of opposition took a stand for the development of West Texas as a farming area, and at the same time preached the doctrine of better sires and pure-bred livestock.

The value of Hec McEachin's work in the upbuilding of Texas can not be measured in dollars and cents. He worked for his adopted state because he loved its hills and plains, its people, its broad-minded men, who make a state. His memory will linger through the centuries to come. He left the world better than he found it. He was a true citizen and a brilliant writer and editor. Peace be to his ashes.

THE CENSUS QUESTION.

In commenting on the editorial in The Record last week about the proposed revised census for Colorado, the Abilene Daily Reporter, says:

There are a great many places which were highly displeased with the Federal census, the chief assertion being of course that the enumerations were not complete and the place protesting was shown to be much smaller than it in fact was. Several places have succeeded in getting a recount, and now their neighbors are charging that they padded the census and the count shows a great many more people than they actually have. So it goes; the government bearing the brunt of the blame, when in fact it is the fault of the place itself when the count was shown to be small. Many towns and cities paid the census enumerators out of their own pockets. It seems however that Colorado ought to have a recount if any place should have one, for there is no one who doubts for a moment but that there are more than 1,780 people there. The oil boom there brought in almost that many in a week.

An appeal on behalf of the unfortunate sufferers from Turkish hatred and cruelty is made this week to the people of Colorado and Mitchell county by the boy scouts of Colorado. The story of suffering in Armenia should appeal to the heart strings of every true American citizen, for it presents a condition and tells of sufferings that makes those living in a civilized land wonder how man's inhumanity to man can be so atrocious. Sufferers in devastated Armenia are looking to America for some alleviation from the pangs of hunger and the bitter cold. The request extended people of this city is for old clothing—clothing that has served its end of usefulness to you and your family. Think of the hundreds of little children in Armenia, with nothing to cover their frail little bodies and shut out the cold as winter comes on, and do as your heart prompts you to do, telephone Rev. W. M. Elliott, scout master, the request that members of the boy scouts call at your home for a collection of old clothes to be forwarded to those children.

Armistice Day, November 11, will soon arrive and among the plans announced in celebration of this National holiday will be a celebration at Colorado by Oran C. Hooker Post, American Legion—provided the last of funds needed with which to erect the proposed hut at Colorado have been pledged. To celebrate the event with the hut in sight is the ambition of former service men of Colorado. Whether their ambition shall be realized remains to be seen and the only condition to be met is for the people of this city to make good on that promise. "There is nothing too good that we cannot do for you." Remember your pledge five years ago and follow out the ideals taught in the golden rule.

DORN BRIDGE COMPLETED AND ACCEPTED BY COURT

The steel suspension bridge across Morgan Creek in the Dorn community was completed Wednesday afternoon by the contractors, The Brown-Abbott Company, and officially accepted by Commissioners' Court.

This bridge was built to replace the former bridge there, which was washed out last April during the heavy rains. The new bridge is 110 feet in length and is the second of two new steel bridges to be completed by the county in recent weeks. The other spans Beal's Creek on the Sterling City road twenty miles southwest from Colorado.

BLAZE DOES $30,000 DAMAGE AT SWEETWATER

Fire believed to have been caused from a water heater in the Boyd and Foy Barber shop, completely gutted that barber shop, the jewelry store of John R. Cox adjoining, ruined a stock of merchandise in the basement belonging to the Sweetwater Dry Goods Company and for a time threatened the entire block. The alarm was turned in at 8:30 o'clock and the fire was not under control until a few minutes after 10 o'clock.

The total loss will exceed $30,000 it is estimated.

D. H. Rudd, an employee of Bowen's Drug Store was overcome by smoke and Ed Patterson was cut on the foot by flying glass. Neither is expected to prove serious.

A. Levy of the Sweetwater Dry Goods Company estimated the damage to surplus stocks carried in the basement of his firm at $15,000 with $3,000 insurance. A stone wall prevented the fire from spreading to the main store of this firm and although the store was filled with smoke, it is not thought the very large stock contained therein was appreciably damaged.

John R. Cox estimates his loss at from $8,000 to $10,000, with an exact figure impossible until he can get to his big safe in which the more valuable jewelry was carried. This safe fell through the floor into the basement. Mr. Cox said he carried $2,500 insurance.

The Boyd and Foy Barber shop was completely gutted and fixtures ruined. This floor also fell through. Insurance to the amount of $1,500 was carried by them which will nearly cover their loss.

The building is owned by C. McFarland of Weatherford. T. O. Cowan, in charge of Mr. McFarland's interests in Sweetwater, was unable to give any estimate of the damage to the block by the fire, but stated that it was covered by insurance and the fire damage would be promptly repaired.

With one fire engine on the west corner of the block and another on the east corner, the firemen soon had four lines of hose on the blaze and shortly added a fifth. It was a most stubborn fire to fight. The reserve merchandise carried by the Sweetwater Dry Goods Company, consisting of bolts of cloth, trunks, coats, and other items smoldered and put out such a smoke that firemen were nearly unable to get to it. It was only by completely flooding the basement with water and literally drowning the fire out that any headway was made. Flames never did break out, however, very efficient work of the firemen preventing what had the elements of a bad fire indeed.—Sweetwater Reporter.

JURY STILL DIVIDED.

CORSICANA, Oct. 25.—After being out twenty-five hours, the jury which has been trying the Mayfield injunction case, was brought into the court room this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock on motion of Attorney W. The judge sent them back for further deliberation.

Red Cross Gains Strength in All Foreign Fields

In insular possessions of the United States and in foreign lands the American Red Cross scored heavy gains during the last year, passing the previous membership high mark of 1918 by 4,261 and advancing the figure to 156,408. The Philippines take the lead, gaining nearly 100 per cent, now having 115,917 members. In Europe the 1921 Roll Call enrolled 11,125, with the Constantinople Chapter reporting 665, a gain of 33 members. China was 1,782 members, a gain of 393; the Little Virgin Islands have 1,000, while the Dominican Republic with 2,927 advanced from its previous high mark by 1,123 new members. Haiti, organized in 1920, now has nearly 1,000 enrolled. Mexico reports 354, a gain of 327 in one year. The American Red Cross has spread its membership over some 70 foreign lands and its Junior membership outside of the United States is close to 500,000.

Red Cross Water First Aid Makes Life-Saving Gain

More than 325 Chapters engaged in life saving or water first aid last year with the result that the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps has set a new high mark for enrollment and the number of qualified life savers developed. The influence of "Learn to Swim Week" in many localities through instruction and the wider dissemination of resuscitation methods demonstrated by the Red Cross representatives. Excellent work has been done in teaching a large part of the American population how to take care of itself in the water. Growing appreciation for this Red Cross Life-Saving Service is shown by the compulsory instruction adopted in many cities for members of the police and fire departments in the prone pressure method of resuscitation.

Help to Help Others
You can't "give until it hurts"—for giving an American dollar to join the American Red Cross helps you to help others who are hurt and who need relief.

Red Cross Roll Call Heard World Around

The Annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross for registration of the membership for 1923 will begin on Armistice Day, November 11, and close on Thanksgiving Day, November 30. The ground work for this stupendous task of re-enrolling the membership throughout the world has been laid in a plan for the first complete and comprehensive system of registration of the Red Cross membership in all its 3,300 active Chapters at home and abroad.

An important feature of the round-the-world Roll Call campaign will be a universal effort to re-enlist the service of war-time Red Cross workers in the peace program by their participation in the Roll Call. In this way the vast army of volunteers will once more affiliate with the work of the Red Cross in its manifold phases. Co-operation also has been assured by Government and private maritime interests in a deep-sea Roll Call that is designed to reach every member or potential member in every part of the world who may be en voyage or temporarily in any port.

Thousands of Chapters will adopt the home canvass plan of enrollment which originated in Pittsburgh, where last year it resulted in a membership increase of 50 per cent. All records in this year's campaign will be kept on standard size cards to be filed by each Chapter for future use.

Spread Christmas Joy Abroad
More than 100,000 Christmas boxes for the children of Central Europe were packed by the Junior Red Cross last year. The spread of Christmas joy through these boxes will be largely increased this year because of the plans already under way.

ANOTHER STILL FOUND BY SHERIFF CHESNEY

Sheriff W. J. Chesney admitted Monday that with continued success in his hunt for stills in Mitchell County he would soon have sufficient equipment on hand with which to open a large distillery at the court house. Chesney found the second still within the week Sunday.

The still captured by the sheriff Sunday was found on Morgan Creek on the Cross Gary farm, four or five miles southwest from Colorado. No mash or manufactured products were taken in the raid, but evidences about the premises disclosed the fact that a run had been made only a short time before. Mash barrels found near the still showed to have only recently been emptied of their contents, he said.

Services at the First Baptist church Sunday morning promise to be of unusual interest, especially to those of the Baptist congregation. The pastor, Rev. M. C. Bishop, has announced that he will discuss some phases of the criticism being hurled at the Baptist General Board, and Baylor University by Frank Norris of the First Baptist church, Fort Worth. The pastor promises that those attending church Sunday will have the opportunity of seeing some of the "monkeys" which Norris would assert are teaching in Baylor, and that the books of the general board, which the Fort Worth pastor claims to be closed, will be opened. Judging from the tenor of the press, Rev. Mr. Norris is making a losing fight in his criticism of the Baptist denomination of Texas.

FOUR SHOTS FIRED IN FRACAS AT LUBBOCK

J. W. Davis of Ralls, but at one time a resident of Lubbock, was shot through the right foot in a fracas on a main street in Lubbock Friday evening, at about seven-thirty. F. A. Saunders, local man, surrendered to officers, turning over to them a small pistol which was used.

It is alleged that Davis went to the store where Saunders is employed Saturday week, and attempted to give Saunders a whipping, but his plans were interfered with, and the Friday evening affair was a direct outgrowth of the trouble. It is alleged that Saunders was followed from near the store by Davis, who caught him at Martin's Bakery, and the fight was started.

Saunders was hit twice and knocked down, then he started shooting to keep Davis away from him. Four shots were fired, with one entering the foot, doing slight damage.

Saunders made bond, awaiting the action of the grand jury. Cause of the trouble has not been made known—Lubbock Avalanche.

Death Fred D. Campbell

Again we are called upon to chronicle the death of another one of our fellow citizens and friends, Fred D. Campbell, who passed away Saturday morning, October 21st, at 11:20 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. R. R. McCraney.

Fred Dantsler Campbell was born at Heidleburg, Miss., in the year of 1884, he came to Texas in 1920 and had made Westbrook his home for eight or ten months, however, he did not spend all of his time here during these months. Mr. Campbell has been in bad health for several months even though he was confined to his bed six weeks before the end came he was kind, considerate and patient unto the end, he never complained and was so thoughtful of those who administered unto him.

Everything was done for him that loving hands could do but God knew what was best and called him up higher to be with his Mother and Father, one brother and sister, who had passed on before. His life was beautiful, his devotion unexcelled, his reward is sure.

He leaves to mourn his departure two sisters and three brothers, Mrs. R. R. McCraney, Mrs. J. G. James, W. E. Campbell, B. E. Campbell, and R. L. Campbell all of Westbrook.

His remains were laid to rest in the W. O. W. cemetery at Westbrook Rev. A. D. Leach conducting the funeral services. To the grief stricken loved ones we extend our sincere sympathy.

Henry Riley, of the Henry Riley Oil Co., made a business trip to Breckenridge the last of the week.

The proceeds from the box supper Friday amounted to $133.50, which will go to fixing up the playgrounds etc. A large crowd was in attendance and all went away wishing that the entertainment would be repeated soon with a pie supper.

Quite a number are sick with colds severe cases of tonsillitis no serious cases reported so far.

WIFE OF FORMER M. E. PASTOR DIES AT VERNON

News of the death of Mrs. W. H. Garvin, wife of Rev. W. H. Garvin, former pastor of the First Methodist church of Colorado, was received here Sunday. Mrs. Garvin died at the family home at Vernon, following a lingering illness. The remains were buried at Vernon.

Rev. Mr. Garvin was pastor of the Colorado church during the conference years of 1918 and 1919, being transferred at the session of Northwest Texas conference in the fall of 1919 as presiding elder of the Vernon district, which place he has filled since.

Announcement of the death of Mrs. Garvin was made Sunday morning by Rev. C. L. Browning, pastor of the local church. He appointed a committee composed of Mesdames E. A. Barcroft, W. A. Dozier and J. G. Merritt to extend condolence to Rev. Mr. Garvin and the two daughters who survive. The committee contributed a beautiful floral offering for the funeral services, as a token from the local congregation.

REPORTS SHOW PROGRESS BY COLORADO METHODISTS

Reports made by the pastor and departmental superintendents at the fourth quarterly conference of the First Methodist church, held Sunday afternoon, disclosed one of the most successful years in the history of the church. After all expenses of the church had been paid in full, including educational and conference assessments, a surplus of approximately $1,500 was reported on hand by the treasurer.

The pastor reported 100 additions to the church during the year, placing the membership at the present approximately five hundred. The Sunday school, Epworth League and Woman's Missionary Society all reported progress during the year. Mrs. E. H. Winn, president of the latter organization, stated in her report that more than $900.00 had been collected and expended for various programs fostered by the society during the year. The budget for the ensuing year was placed at $6,500.00. Offerings Sunday were announced at $480.

The conference was presided over by Rev. C. L. Stewart of Sweetwater, presiding elder, for the Sweetwater district, and the reports made by the pastor and his assistants elicited praise from the elder for work done during the year which was closing. T. W. Stonerod, Jr., president of the board of stewards, announced Sunday afternoon that the Colorado church had established a precedent in the matter of finances in that the church had never before been able to report everything paid in full and a substantial surplus left in the treasury.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Board of Stewards, T. W. Stonerod, Jr., J. A. Buchanan, D. N. Arnett, A. B. Blanks, Mrs. E. A. Barcroft, Mrs. J. W. Shepperd, E. B. Smith, L. H. Gaskins, Ocie Green, H. E. Grantland, G. D. Foster and J. C. Pritchett. Mr. Pritchett was elected recording secretary.

Other officials elected were: T. W. Stonerod, Jr., district steward; Mrs. J. G. Merritt, lay leader; W. S. Cooper, Sunday school superintendent, and Miss Sallie Herrington, superintendent Junior and Intermediate departments.

The conference year will close Sunday and according to announcement made by the pastor, he expects to be transferred to the pastorate of a church on the coast or in the Rio Grande valley. The change will be made for the benefit of Rev. Mr. Browning's health.

Following announcement of Rev. Mr. Browning that he expected to leave Colorado after this year, a member of the conference spoke of the high esteem in which he is held by the Colorado church and assured the pastor that no matter where he might go he would carry with him the profound esteem of the people of Colorado.

The Northwest Texas Conference will be convened at Quanah Wednesday of next week. Rev. R. A. Clements, Mrs. E. A. Barcroft, Miss Sallie Herrington and probably other Methodists of Colorado plan to attend the conference, at least during a part of the sessions.

BAPTIST NOTES

There are some very interesting things taking place in the world's history just now. Prime Minister of England has resigned because of criticism. Texas politics are warming up in a great way. Baptist affairs in Texas are under fire. Why all this, anyway? We are in the midst of a great upheaval. We want to discuss something with you next Sunday that will settle the dust of confusion about certain things in Texas. We make the strongest appeal we are capable of making to each and all our members to be present Sunday morning. The pastor will speak. We are in a great crisis and we want you to know the facts about everything. Baptists have always stood for the free and open policy and whenever they are charged of doing otherwise there is something wrong somewhere. We want to tell you about this "something." You have a right to know the facts and we will give them to you Sunday morning if you will come. It is charged that monkeys are teaching in Baylor University. We will take a look at some of these monkeys. You have read that the books are closed. We want to open them Sunday morning and let you see for your self.

Texas Baptists have done the greatest years work in their history. They have preached to more people, baptized more converts, healed more afflicted, taught more young people, helped more old ministers, built more meeting houses, sent out more missionaries, enlisted more volunteers for the Master's service than any former year of our great history.

We have more young people in our schools than ever before. There are more young men preparing to preach the gospel than any former year. What shall our answer be to all these things? Shall we falter because some self designing man is seeking to destroy our organized work? I believe the Texas Baptists will rise up as never before and denounce the self designing scheme as a fraud and respond to our denominational calls with more money and more prayers than ever before.

THE MOTOR BUS.

Keep your mind centered upon the motor bus. It is the logical short distance transportation of the future. A few days ago Chicago was in the throes of the greatest street railway strike in its history, with not a wheel turning. But the motor buses were called into service, and the mayor imported buses from other cities, and automobiles and trucks got into the passenger carrying game and the strike rapidly assumed the proportions of a municipal lark. Everybody was "getting there" regardless of the strike.

That was too much for the traction officials—likewise for the strikers. They compromised in haste.

Motorbus transportation means an end to street railways, and traction officials, and motormen, and conductors, and fat corporations and dividends. The motorbus can go anywhere, on any street, or on any country road where other vehicles can travel. The street car runs only on steel rails and its route is never varied. If an obstruction impedes the passage of a street car it stands still, and the people get out and walk without getting their money back. The motorbus simply detours and takes its passengers on to their destinations. It is coming and to stay.
