COLORADO CHAUTAUQUA BILL BRINGS BEST TALENT

LOCAL ASSOCIATION URGES
ALL PEOPLE PURCHASE FULL SEASON TICKETS

"The people of Colorado and Mitchell county will miss an opportunity long to be regretted if they fail to profit by the Premier Chautauqua bill to be shown in Colorado one week, beginning Tuesday of next week," Rev. J. E. Chase, president of the Colorado Chautauqua Association, declared Monday. "The Redpath-Horner Chautauqua, being brought to Colorado this year, is easily the largest and best in America and will bring to this city the nation's best entertainers."

"The amusement end of the chautauqua, while well provided for, is not by any means the only consideration Colorado should accord this premier bill," Chase continued. "The educational value of the lectures and other bills on the program, will be worth many weeks of work in the class room to every student of this county. The chautauqua here next week is of such high character and quality that no one can go wrong in giving the engagement their full confidence and support."

Chase is appealing to the people of Colorado to purchase season tickets. The war revenue of ten percent has been omitted, making the adult tickets sell at $2.50 and the child's tickets at $1.00 each. These tickets will entitle the holder to admission to every one of the twelve numbers on the week's engagement.

One of the headline attractions will open the big program. This is the famous Cathedral Choir, directed by Ellsworth Gilbert. It is one of the most magnificent singing aggregations before the American public. Herbert Leon Cope, nationally known humorist, will lecture Tuesday night. There are, no doubt, former service men in Mitchell who will recall this famed man. He followed them into France with his humor and soon became universally loved by the thousands of Yankee soldiers with whom he came in contact. He was dubbed "Kill the Blues Cope." He is the star of the platform. The funniest man since Bill Nye.

The second day will, like all others be a big one for chautauqua patrons. "Burns of the Mountains" is to appear in the afternoon program, and a three act farce comedy, "Give and Take," is on the evening bill.

The third day afternoon program will be a presentation of an aggregation of musical artists of national reputation. This company is headed by Clayton H. Staples of the Chicago Art Institute. That night Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska and democratic nominee for vice-President last year, will deliver.

CONTRACTOR BEGINS WORK ON TWO STORY BUILDING

J. E. Pond, contractor, began pouring concrete into the foundation forms for the 2-story brick of Dr. C. L. Root Monday. The building will go up on lots immediately north of the City National Bank building on Walnut street.

The first floor will be occupied by Col. C. M. Adams, local department store owner. Dr. Root will occupy the entire second floor as his office, library and x-ray laboratory. The one story brick at 104 Walnut street, built by Dr. Root, is being completed this week. This is one of the most attractive bricks in that part of the business district. The Pullman Cafe, now housed in the H. L. Hutchinson building on Second street, will remove to the Root building, where one of the leading cafes of this part of the state will be operated.

LAY LEADER PLEADS FOR SUPPORT UNION REVIVAL

Dr. T. J. Ratliff, chairman of the publicity of the Rayburn revival organization, visited the Lions Club Friday to deliver a personal appeal to members of the club to give the approaching religious campaign their sincere support.

"I have heard a great deal about this club," Dr. Ratliff stated. "In fact, I have been listening in with great interest on the noise you fellows have been making in your continued program of doing big things for Colorado. I know that every Lion in Colorado recognizes the importance of publicity. The fact that you are not at all backward in soundly approving of your home town establishments that fact."

"I want you bankers, merchants and professional men to help us advertise the Rayburn meeting. Take the time to discuss this meeting with your customers when they call at the store or office to see you on business matters."

Dr. Ratliff evidenced that he approved of the Lions Club by filling application for membership with the secretary.

PICTURE GOLD MEDAL BAND GIVEN CHAMBER COMMERCE

The Chamber of Commerce is indebted to members of the band and Jas. D. Sherwin for an enlarged photograph of Colorado's Gold Medal Band. The photograph was furnished by the band and Mr. Sherwin framed the picture. The picture has been hung on the wall in the Chamber of Commerce office and is prized most highly by the organization.

IMPROVEMENTS AT SEWER DISPOSAL PLANT BEGUN

Work on the sewer disposal plant addition, started recently, is progressing with entire satisfaction to the city, Manager L. A. Costin stated Tuesday. Costin stated that a crew of about twenty men, and several teams were employed on the project. The new plant will cost $17,000.

The new addition being built at the plant will eliminate any trouble in the future, Costin stated. Sewage will be taken into the new plant and disposed under the most scientific process, eliminating odor and other bad features which heretofore have been so prevalent.

F. F. DuBose, Colorado civil engineer, is in charge of the work, with H. E. McQuaid of Fort Worth construction foreman. McQuaid and DuBose had charge of construction work at the new waterworks plant.

$25,000 COLD STORAGE UNIT OF UTILITY CO. COMPLETED

The cold storage unit of the $100,000 plant of the West Texas Electric Company at Colorado has been completed at a cost of $25,000. The plant is one of the largest in this part of the State, having capacity for storing ten solid cars of produce.

The utilities corporation was induced to construct the large cold storage plant largely through efforts of the Chamber of Commerce as an adjunct to encouraging the poultry industry in this territory and further because of the need of such facilities by Colorado produce dealers.

E. FRANK KING NAMED MEMBER STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS

E. Frank King, superintendent of the Colorado schools, has received an appointment as member of the State board of examiners, which will hold its annual parley in Austin during the summer. The appointment was made by S. M. N. Marrs, State superintendent of public instruction.

Little Bobbie Burns who has been seriously sick for the past two weeks is much improved at this writing.

GRAND JURORS DISCHARGED AFTER RETURNING 15 BILLS

PETIT JURY PANEL IS ALSO
DISCHARGED MONDAY
BY LESLIE.

The Mitchell county grand jury, empaneled Monday, April 20, by Hon. W. P. Leslie, judge of the 32nd judicial district, was discharged for the term Monday afternoon after the body had reported to the court they had completed their deliberations. The jury reported return of two felony bills of indictment Monday, making a total of 15 bills voted for the term. One of the bills was based upon a misdemeanor charge and 14 on felony charges.

The court also discharged the petit jury panel for the term late Monday. But few cases pending trial at this time of court remained on the docket Thursday morning. J. Lee Jones, district clerk, stated. All causes to be heard by the court during remainder of the term are non-jury causes.

The case of Rufus Marshall, charged by indictment with assault with intent to murder, was called Friday morning. A compromise was effected between attorneys for the defense and state by which the defendant was permitted to enter a plea of guilty to a misdemeanor and was fined $250.00. The charges against Marshall grew out of a difficulty at Loraine several months ago in which he was alleged to have attacked Benton Templeton. Templeton was in the Colorado Sanitarium for some time recovering from knife wounds.

The Marshall case was the only one called for trial Friday when Judge Leslie convened court after a recess of one day. With disposition of this case, court was again recessed to Monday morning of this week.

Anastasio Ramirez, Mexican, under grand jury indictment for murder in connection with the stabbing to death of Marco Franco, another Mexican, here on the night of December 14, last year, was acquitted by the jury trying his case Monday. The body of the murdered Mexican was found by officers in a shack occupied by the defendant. The State built its case around a web of circumstantial evidence. The accused Mexican maintained his innocence from the start.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO HAVE PART IN BIG PARADE SAT.

Pupils of the Colorado schools are to have an important part in the big parade to be staged on the streets of Colorado Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock under direction of the Colorado Chautauqua Association. Miss Bonny Motley, advance agent of the chautauqua, who arrived in Colorado Monday night, stated Wednesday that she was meeting with splendid co-operation among the school children, club women and others in arranging details of the parade.

All children wishing to participate in the booster parade for chautauqua please be at Union Tabernacle by 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Six season tickets will be given for the prettiest, funniest and most original costumes, also for the best chautauqua advertisement and noisiest noise maker. Parade to start promptly at 2:30. Miss Motley stated that the parade here Saturday afternoon would be one of the longest she has ever arranged in connection with chautauqua. Club women are eagerly assisting her in plans for the parade and some of the federated clubs of the city are to enter special cars.

Senator Joe Burkett of Eastland, member of the State Highway Commission, was in Colorado late Wednesday on a tour of inspection of highways in West Texas. He spent Wednesday night in Sweetwater, leaving there Early Thursday.

SLOAN OIL COMPANY ADDS ANOTHER GOOD PRODUCER

FOUR NEW LOCATIONS MADE IN FIELD; OPERATORS
OPTIMISTIC.

Miller Four of the Sloan Oil Company, in Section 22, Block 28, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. survey, gave promise Thursday of developing into the largest producing well yet drilled in Mitchell county. 125 barrels of oil was being swabbed from the hole at 3030 feet, as the crew continued drilling deeper into the Morrison sand. George Reiner, drilling contractor at this well, was over optimistic in the belief that a new record would be made by this well for production. The well will be shot Saturday.

The Magnolia Company has rig materials at location for their test on the Foster lease in section 17, block 29. This will be the first well drilled by this company in the county in several months, but valuable acreage has been held by them here since the early days of the field.

Smart Six and Seven of the Sloan Oil Company, in Section 21, block 28, are down below 2,700 feet. Crews at these wells have completed landing six and five-eighths inch casing and rigging up to resume drilling.

Three new locations were announced during the week by the California Company on leases controlled by the corporation near Westbrook, in block 28, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. survey. Cellars are being dug, rig materials moved in and tools assembled for spudding each of these tests without delay.

One of the locations in section 23 on the Butler lease, another in section 33 on the Abrams lease and the third in section 11 on the Womack lease. The former two locations are on surveys on which producing wells were drilled in some time ago. The Womack test is located in the same survey as Adams No. 1 of Morrison & Thompson, drilled in last week for 150 barrels.

At Morrison 13 of the California Company the crew is drilling at 2635 feet. At Elder 1-1 the crew is rigging up to run tubing. At Elder 2-2 the crew is cleaning out. The latter two wells are recent completions by the California Company. Elder 2-3 is standing cemented at 2,716 feet.

Sloan, Owens & Stalker is straight reaming at below 1600 feet in their Scott No. 1 on the Scott lease near Hyman. A depth of more than 1800 feet has been reached in this test. The crew is straight reaming to shut out water.

Fred Carey has resumed drilling at Elwood No. 1, George Northrup test on the Spade Ranch, after landing 10 inch casing at 1125 feet. Good progress is being attained by the crew at this well.

The Northwest Company have pulled the eight inch casing from 2200 feet in Moore No. 1 near Ira and are cleaning out to 1800 feet, depth at which the shallow sand was penetrated. Moore No. 2, offsetting this well, is pumping 40 barrels of high grade petroleum from the 1800 foot level.

GOLDMAN WILL ACCOMPANY SHRINE BAND TO CONCALVE

M. S. Goldman, director of the Colorado Booster Band, will leave next week for Fort Worth where he will join the Shrine band to be taken to Los Angeles by Mosiah Temple, Fort Worth. The band will accompany the special train to be operated from Fort Worth to Los Angeles for the annual Shrine parley, to convene June 2nd.

The special will make a 15 minute stop in Colorado Friday afternoon of next week. Mrs. Goldman, convalescing from a recent surgical operation, plans to accompany her husband on the trip.

Mrs. H. G. Towle of Snyder is visiting relatives here.

150 PROPERTY OWNERS GET VALUATION RAISE

Approximately 150 property owners of Mitchell county are to be cited to appear before Commissioners Court when it convenes Monday, June 8, to show cause why their property valuations, as given to the tax assessor, should not be raised. County Judge Chas. C. Thompson stated Tuesday that no check of the number had been made by him but he felt confident that not less than 150 citizens were affected in the valuation increases demanded by the court.

There is an unusually large number of new names and new property listings on the tax rolls for this year, Judge Thompson stated. Colorado comes in for a large share of this new property but the county wealth increase is shown to be well distributed.

Commissioners' Court adjourned Friday after a busy session of five days. Practically all of their time was devoted to auditing reditons showing property listed for taxation.

WESTBROOK MAN ACQUITTED OF CLOTHING THEFT CHARGE

Sam Davidson of Westbrook was acquitted on an instructed verdict in county court here Tuesday afternoon after introduction of testimony in his case had been completed. Davidson was charged with theft of clothing belonging to Miss Opal Robertson of Westbrook, the theft alleged to have been perpetrated last January at the Westbrook school house while a game of basket ball was in progress.

COLORADO KEY RATE IS REDUCED TO 53 CENTS

L. A. Costin, city manager, announced Tuesday that an additional reduction in the Colorado key rate, affecting all insurance companies operating here, had been obtained by the city. The rate, formerly 64 cents on the $100 insured, was reduced 11 cents, making the rate now in effect 53 cents.

The reduction was effected through credits obtained by the city by addition of the LaFrance fire truck and the new waterworks plant. For the fire truck a credit of 7 cents was allowed and for the new water works 4 cents.

H. L. HUTCHINSON BLDG. TO BE EXTENDED AND REBUILT

The H. L. Hutchinson building, on Second street, is to be extended north to the property line and rebuilt throughout into one of the most modern and pretentious business structures in Colorado. Materials for the brick extension are being assembled on the ground this week. The extension will make the building 128 feet in length, with a street frontage of 40 feet.

The entire building is to be rebuilt including a new front of face brick and plate glass, new ceiling, new floor and addition of a number of modern department store conveniences. A commodious office, located near the center of the first floor, is included in the plans. The interior plans call for balcony and elevator service to this department and the second floor.

Hutchinson will remove his furniture and hardware business into the building as soon as the structure is completed. L. H. Gaskins, Colorado architect, is supervising construction work.

TOM'S CEMEDIANS PLAYING UNDER AUSPICES OF BAND

Tom's Comedians, a Harley Sadler organization, is playing a week's engagement at Colorado under auspices of the Colorado band. The company is showing nightly in their own large tent theatre, corner Oak and Third streets.

CONSTRUCTION IN YEAR OVER ONE-HALF MILLION

93 HOMES, VALUED AT MORE THAN QUARTER MILLION IS
RECORD ATTAINED

The year ending May 15 has been one of the most successful Colorado has ever known, as to construction of new properties in both the residence and business districts. A statement compiled Tuesday by L. A. Costin, City manager, and the secretary of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce, shows that during that period 93 new homes, at an estimated value of $279,000, and ten business structures, at an estimated cost of $263,500, were completed in the city. This places total new construction at $542,500.

The report did not include the approximate fifty homes built by Mexican residents in the Northwest Side addition, just outside the city limits, the $20,000 Catholic church building recently completed in that addition nor the Mexican houses built during the year near the refinery west of the Colorado river. Had these new properties been included, Colorado's building program for the year would have passed $600,000.00.

Many of the homes constructed during the year are a credit to the city costing from $5,000 to $10,000.00. In estimating the aggregate value of the 93 homes erected during the past twelve months period, an average of $3,000 each, considered conservative, was used.

The new business properties completed during the year includes the $115,000 Mitchell County court house; the $50,000 Herrington building, $30,000 Levy building, Palace Theatre, two bricks built by Judge C. H. Earnest, one building just completed by Dr. C. L. Root, addition to Price Bros. building, Burton-Lingo Company office, Williams & Miller Company gin and West Texas Electric Co. Building.

In compiling a list of new buildings erected during the year there was no count made of several small filling stations and suburban grocery buildings. Neither was the several new private garages and other out house buildings throughout the city figured in the total estimate.

These officials state in the report that eight residences are now under construction, five of which are of brick and stucco, and three of frame construction. With the new Presbyterian church building, two-story building being erected by Dr. Root, Farmers Gin Company plant and these new residences, it was estimated that construction now under way in the city will aggregate $102,000.

The figures do not include the new municipal water works plant, recently completed on the Northside, nor the $17,000.00 addition now being made to the sewer disposal plant by the city. Total new construction during the year, including municipal, corporation and private, together with construction yet to be completed, will approximate $650,000.00, which is a new record for Colorado. In 1923, figuring the street paving and court house, total new construction was placed at $612,000.00.

200,000 GALLONS OF WATER IN STORAGE AT RESERVOIR

Tuesday afternoon the large concrete reservoir at the Northside waterworks plant had 200,000 gallons of water in reserve, with the pump from one well throwing 80 gallons per minute into the container. Well No. 2, completed and put under pump a few days ago, was out of commission Tuesday owing to a broken pump. This well is affording 60 gallons per minute, capacity of the pump. City officials state it to be as strong as the other well and with a larger pump would produce 80 gallons per minute.

er his famous lecture, "The Government's Business." This distinguished statesman alone will bring an attraction to Colorado well worth the price of a season ticket. Governor Bryan is to be entertained at noon Thursday by members of the Chamber of Commerce and Lions Clubs at an informal luncheon to be given in his honor.

The National Marimba Band of Guatemala will render a concert on the afternoon of the fourth day. It is doubtful if any people of Colorado ever heard the native music of Guatemala. It is beautiful beyond description and intensely emotional. The marimba, instrument used by this band, is only produced in Guatemala and only played by the people of that country. Judge George D. Alden of Massachusetts, one of the outstanding jurists and orators of America will appear on the Friday evening program.

Thus runs the program for the entire week. Not a single number but that will rate with America's best included. Saturday evening that popular musical comedy, "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," will be presented chautauqua patrons.

Monday, the last day of chautauqua, has been christened "Father and Son's day." The big show of the afternoon will be furnished by Herbert A. Taylor, prince of magic, a clown, a juggler and a ventriloquist. At night the fun makers will give a prelude and then electricity and radio are to have their inning. From start to finish, it is the best week of entertainment and education ever brought to Colorado.

Season tickets should be purchased early. Demonstrate your appreciation of the 38 ministers, business and professional men of Colorado who have brought this wonderful organization to Colorado. No one is to make a dime profit out of the chautauqua. Buy season tickets and thus help protect guarantors. By buying individual admission tickets your money will go into the chautauqua coffers. The local committee obtain credit for season tickets only.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

"I returned, and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong," Eccl. 9:11. The introduction was that the wise man was troubled and thrown in great doubt because things were so unevenly matched in this world, some were so swift, others so strong, while many were so slow and others so weak. Some so bright and apt while others so dull, the conclusion is that things are not evened up and the spirit of unfairness and injustice is to be seen everywhere. But by looking on the actual happenings of men the writer was thoroughly convinced that the race was not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong.

This was illustrated by showing that prophets and priests, literary men, lawyers and statesmen and in fact men in all walks of life who in the beginning had very little chance to win in life's race or to conquer in life's battle but these same weaklings carried off the laurels in the race and were crowned with victory after the battle.

The same truth and test was applied to happiness and contentment and peace. The thought here was that, not those who always have things to make them happy are a happy people. Happiness is inward and not outward, and therefore does not depend so much on what one has as it does as to what one is. Happiness is not to be found by direct seeking but by living and moving toward the condition from which it flows. We, like the three faithful disciples, must climb the mountain if we would see the vision. A contrast was drawn between Jesus, who was poor and the Emperor Tiberius, who had all that heart could wish, or wealth could buy, and Jesus was shown to be the man who, departing this world, could bequeath unto all his followers a peace and joy which the world could not give nor the world take away. And in this the race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong.

The last illustration was in the sphere of spiritual life, that many times those who are seemingly nearest the kingdom are not the first to enter it, but some times never enter at all while the ones seemingly far away and those who have had but meager religious advantages readily enter in and beat the more fortunate to the crown.

Now there are some distinct advantages and values in these illustrated facts. It should keep us from becoming discouraged. It should cheer us when things go against us. After many failures and in our weakness we may still have a crown. The promise is not to the swift nor to the strong, nor to the clever nor to the remarkable. Then the undistinguished multitudes are included, even all who will try.

Again these truths should wean us of our false pride, and keep us watchful, and humble and dependent. Those who are swift do not always win. Those who are strong do not always conquer. The hare made sport of the turtle in the beginning of the race but wept in defeat at the close of it.

And last, the truth clears the ground for God and leaves space for us to recognize Him. If the swift should always win, if the strong always conquer, then there would be no place for the Divine. But there is a hand at work which shapes our ends, and this hand often crowns the slow and lifts up the weak.—Contributed.

NATIONAL MARIMBA BAND OF GUATEMALA

AT CHAUTAUQUA

An amazing musical sensation brought to this country by Redpath-Horner for Chautauqua.

GUATEMALAN BAND

Comes Direct to Chautauqua.

It is a generally accepted fact that a brass band comprises the ultimate in thrill for an American audience. And, until you have heard a company of native Guatemalans play their native Marimbaphone, you will probably vote in favor of the brass band. But after one concert on the Marimba you will change your mind.

The Marimbaphone in question is not the American product, nor can Americans play the Marimba as do the Guatemalans. So, even if you have heard one or two Americans play an American Marimbaphone you have no conception of what seven or eight Guatemalans can do playing a Guatemalan Marimbaphone.

The success of these various companies has led Mr. Horner, President of Redpath-Horner Chautauques, to negotiate with the National Marimba Band of Guatemala towards bringing them to America for a tour of the Premier Circuit.

Eventually Mr. Horner made a trip to Mexico City, where through the offices of Dr. Eduardo Aguirre Velazquez, Guatemalan Minister to Mexico, he closed a contract for the Premier Chautauqua tour of the National Marimba Band of Guatemala.

The expense of bringing such an organization to the United States is of course considerable. It is an evidence however of the thought and care, to say nothing of the expense that is given towards making the Premier Program the most distinctive attractive and generally satisfactory institution of its kind in America.

The cities on the Premier Circuit this year will have an opportunity of hearing a spectacular feature before it is secured by any of the other great amusement enterprises in this country, or could be presented in any of the great cities in the East or central West.

HEAR THE "MARY SONGS" AGAIN

Cohan's Greatest Success on Chautauqua.

George Cohan has written for the Liberty Magazine the story of his life. In writing this story Mr. Cohan told some intimate truths as to the way in which he attained his success and the circumstances under which many of his greatest musical comedies were dashed off.

Mr. Cohan has probably had a greater success as a play writer, producer and composer than has been the lot of any other American. He seems to have the knack of writing songs that catch the fancy of Americans.

This is evidently because Mr. Cohan understands that the appeal to the emotions of the average person is along the line of things they understand, and is better than striving for "high-brow" effect. So Mr. Cohan wrote such songs as "So Long Mary," "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway," and "Mary is a Grand Old Name."

Mr. Cohan, although all of his operas and plays have met with immediate success in New York, has always kept them clean. He has played more for the approbation of the average home, than he has pandered to the approval of those who like questionable situations in their amusement. This is why Cohan's plays and his musical comedies have swept America. The American people prefer this type.

In bringing "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway" to the Chautauqua, Mr. Horner is trying an experiment which is being watched with a great deal of interest by other Chautauqua men throughout the country. It is the most pretentious thing of this kind that has been produced on this great Circuit. Its success seems to be assured. It is an offering which will be appreciated both because of the worth of the production and because such an opportunity at present prices is too good a bargain to miss.

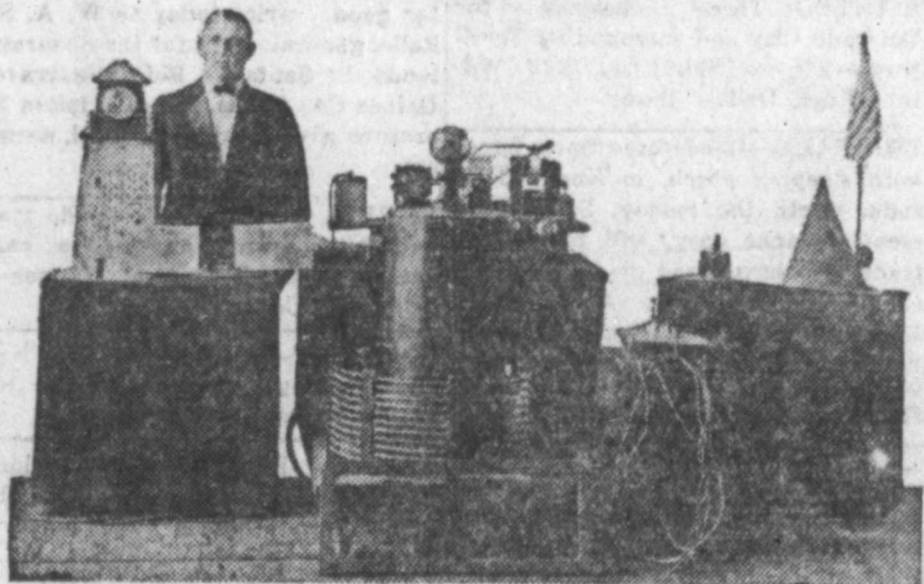

"BURNS OF THE MOUNTAINS," founder of Onelda Institute, the famous Kentuckian who ended the feud and who is solving a great problem by education. He tells the story at Chautauqua.

Herbert Leon Cope (Kilt the Blues), Cope, Humorist, Apostle of Fun and Happy Philosophy, appearing at Chautauqua.

The Factory Superintendent getting "canned" in his own canning factory. One of the screaming situations in the great farce comedy, "Give and Take," at Chautauqua.

OUR TIME TO MOVE

All the cards are on the table and it is Mitchell county's time to move. This statement, though somewhat tinged with slang, perhaps, peculiarly describes the aspect of this county as to the highway improvement dilemma. Information was received from Snyder Monday that the Commissioners' Court of Scurry County had ordered an election to vote on 60,000 road bond issue to supplement State aid for improving their part of Highway No. 101, extending from Snyder south to the Mitchell-Scurry county line. This important highway extends through Mitchell county to an intersection with Highway No. 9 at Sterling City, but was designated by the State Highway Commission on condition that the counties through which it passes improve it. Scurry County has taken steps to meet its part of the contract.

In the event this county does not do something definite toward improving this highway, the entire designation will be lost, in spite of a fact that Scurry county shall have voted bonds and improved the highway there.

As The Record sees it, this county has beat about the bush and passed the buck as to its highway improvement problems about long enough. There is an end of endurance in all things and one of these days the powers that be, will become tired of conditionally allotting State and Federal aid to Mitchell County. It is a cinch that if we do not improve the new highway the designation will be annulled. And we should evidence enough civic pride to throw off the discredit of being the only county in Texas wherein the people continue to refuse to meet the State and Federal governments on a mutual plan to improve the Bankhead highway.

STILL "COMING BACK."

Colorado's development program during the past year continues to reflect the distinction so often given the city as being done of the most conservative municipalities in West Texas. Conservative, because of the ever present advancement program, the same yesterday, today and promising of being the same tomorrow. There has never been a day during the past four years but that some new asset was being realized to the city. This recalls the statement made a few months ago by Max Bentley, member of the editorial staff on the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, in which he declared that "the comeback of Colorado was the most substantial of the comeback of any other West Texas city." Substantial, because the growth of Colorado has been for permanency and along lines of Simon pure business policies.

Colorado should be proud to maintain the distinction that never during its "comeback" has there developed a boom, either potential or actual. Such has never been invited by the men and women who are co-operating so commendably in the work of pushing the interests of the community they love ahead. From day to day and year to year, an exhibit of the development of Colorado is but a continued story, and there is no cause to believe this is to be changed. Within a few more years, sponsored by one of the most wonderful citizenry in the entire West, and supported by the best county in West Texas as its trade territory, Colorado will emerge from the town class into that place occupied only by the best forward looking cities of this part of Texas.

There is much to be done by Coloradoans, if they would profit by the opportunities coming their way. Additional industrial enterprises, with large pay rolls and big capital investments, should be brought here. No city in West Texas could offer more in the way of raw materials, labor conditions and all other factors considered than our own town.

HOMES—

The late President Harding made the suggestion which resulted in the formation of better Homes in America by Mrs. William Brown Melony. This was in 1922. Late in the following year the organization has so grown in size, influence and importance that better Homes in America was organized as a national basis, completely separated from all private connections. Since that date it has been supported entirely by public gifts. It is a purely educational movement—Colorado Record.

Abilene has just passed through a Own Your Home week, and it was a decided success. There are lots of folks here interested in owning their homes and those who already own one were as much interested in the display as those who didn't. Maybe it was just curiosity with lots of the folks who visited the hall where the exhibits were held, and, conversely, maybe it wasn't. But anyway lots of them took an interest in the exhibit.—Abilene Daily Reporter.

A GRASSHOPPER DISEASE CALLED "FUNK"

The Bureau of Entomology, United States Department of Agriculture, is being overwhelmed with requests for information regarding, and samples of, a grasshopper disease which correspondents, located mostly in Texas and Oklahoma, called "funk." These requests apparently had their origin in a letter published by a Dallas newspaper which stated in effect that many years ago the writer of the letter was supplied by the department with small quantity of this disease which was distributed in accordance with directions and resulted in the complete control of the grasshoppers. This statement is believed to relate to a fungous disease of grasshoppers with which the department was experimenting. The final results secured from these and subsequent experiments, however, were of so unsatisfactory a character as to lead to the entire abandonment of this method is a practical means of control.

It is now realized that fungus and other diseases of grasshoppers exist in nature practically everywhere that the insects become numerous, but that they are effective only under certain favorable climatic conditions which are not under human control. Reliance for the control of grasshoppers is now generally placed on the application of the poisoned baits with which agriculturists in those parts of the country where grasshoppers are troublesome are quite familiar. The department does not recommend or distribute "funk" or any other disease for the destruction of grasshoppers, but recommends the application of the standard poison bran bait which has given excellent satisfaction under most conditions. This bait may be prepared as follows:

Wheat bran 100 pounds
Crude arsenic 5 pounds
Amyl acetate, technical grade, 3 ounces
Molasses 2 gallons
Water 10 gallons
or more as required to make a wet but not sloppy mash.

The bran and arsenic should be thoroughly mixed while dry. This is important as upon the thoroughness of this operation depends the uniformity of results likely to be secured. The Amyl acetate may be added to the molasses after this has been diluted with the required amount of water and the complete mixture should then be poured over the poisoned bran and the whole mass thoroughly mixed until uniformly wet. The bait is then ready for distribution and this should occur by sowing it broadcast on the infested fields at the rate of about 10 pounds to the acre although as much as 15 pounds is used in some cases. A coarse flaked bran is best for this purpose but any kind of bran or even middlings may be used where necessary.

Sounding ^{THE} Challenge

God stands on the Threshold of the Greatest Religious Awakening Colorado has ever known. Your prayers, your Christian Zeal and your Determined effort throughout this campaign will mean a consummation of such a Reward.

All for Christ--Nothing for Self

Let this be the slogan of every Christian in Mitchell County every day and every hour of the revival.

Co-operative Evangelistic Campaign Opens at Colorado Friday, May 29th.

The Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Christian and Episcopal congregations of Colorado stand united for this revival. Pastors of these five co-operating churches are calling upon every professed Christian of Mitchell county to join heart and hand in every service of the meeting.

PRAY Let Every Christian PRAY PRAY

If you cannot lend your personal co-operation in this series of revivals you can make yourself a material factor in this revival by placing yourself upon the altar of God, whether you be in the privacy of your home, in the store, the office or upon the street. Pray and pray as God would have you pray for success of the revival.

God is Blessing the Rayburn Meetings

Dr. James Rayburn of Newton, Kansas, evangelist who will do the preaching during the four weeks campaign, is being wonderfully blessed in his meetings everywhere. And the results of his meetings are permanent. He has just closed a meeting at Lawton, Okla., with more than six hundred converts. At Sweetwater last year he was blessed with 600 converts, and the fruits of such a success is still evident in every church there. What God is doing for other communities, He will do for Colorado, if the people will come up with their part.

WITH THE CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH
 Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Mr. Dorn our superintendent, wants all the teachers and pupils present Sunday morning and let every one who has been a little late make a special effort to be there at the opening as he wants to tell you what we will have to do during the revival.
 Preaching at 11 a. m. Our subject will be "A Man in a Basket," or "How Paul's Friends Helped Him," when he needed help, and thereby helped the Church of Christ. We will relate this subject to our coming revival and our places in it. All are cordially invited to come worship with us. The union services Sunday evening at 8 p. m.

Baptist Notes
 We are glad of the opportunity to be able to speak to my folks again next Sunday. If you are interested in the question of evolution I very cordially ask you to be present next Sunday morning at the Baptist church and we will have some words to say about it as to the matter coming up in our recent convention in Memphis. Let everybody come. We invite visitors to be present.

 We had a fine trip to the convention. Our church was cordial enough to pay the bill which made us enjoy it more, of course. It is mighty fine to have a church that appreciates the pastor enough to provide convention expenses in its budget.
 The convention was the largest in numbers of any of recent years. It was centrally located. Then the Searchlight had advertised it well. Everybody wanted to go and see what was done. They were there and saw. Nothing out of the ordinary happened.
 The convention sermon was worth a trip to Memphis to hear. Len G. Broughton preached it and it was new and refreshing.
 Let all the members be present next Sunday as we have some announcement to make that the church will want to hear.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
 Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. J. M. Thomas, superintendent. Don't fail to be there Sunday.
 Preaching and worship at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock.

WHY I FAVOR THE RAYBURN MEETING.
 The town and community needs a genuine, old fashion religious awakening. With the combined efforts of all the churches in town, I believe we can put over a religious program in a good way. I feel that God is ready to answer the prayers of His people for a victory at this time. I am ready to give all my thought and effort to make this meeting a success.
M. C. BISHOP,
 Pastor First Baptist Church.

COLORADO'S OPPORTUNITY
 A really great revival is possible to any average community but once within a decade. Such an opportunity now confronts Colorado. With the Christian forces united as they are, coupled with the fact there has been no outstanding revival held here within the past few years the challenge comes to every true follower of Christ to give himself without stint to the coming campaign. Let there be no idlers in our Lord's Vineyard. Work and pray, pray and work.
J. E. CHASE,
 Pastor First Christian Church.
DIRECT CALL OF GOD.
 Why the Christian people should line up and get behind the coming Rayburn meeting is because:
 1st. I believe it is a direct call of God to combine their forces to fight sin which exists in both high and low places.
 2nd. Colorado needs just such a movement and we believe this is the time for it.
 3rd. We have promised God and Dr. Rayburn that we as a Christian people will support this movement.
W. M. ELLIOTT,
 Pastor First Presbyterian Church.

The car is being driven by dealer representatives. It will have had 350 different drivers when it completes its world tour in New York.

A Buick car, which departed unheralded from New York City last December to be driven from one Buick dealer to another in a trip around the world, is nearing the end of its long journey.
 The car, a Standard Six Touring model, is strictly "on its own," being unaccompanied by mechanics or special drivers. When it returns to New York City the machine will have been handled by approximately 350 different drivers.
 The last difficult leg of the trip has been completed, a long run over the questionable roads across the continent of Australia. The car is now enroute to New Zealand and Honolulu, from whence it will be shipped to San Francisco and driven across the United States through Detroit and Flint to New York.
 The trip around the world was conceived to demonstrate that a Buick will travel to the remote corners of the earth and that on such a journey it is always safeguarded by service facilities.
 The globe-encircling car has made its trip without faltering. Driven from dealer to dealer by dealers' representatives only, it has demonstrated Buick's ability to withstand the "man-handling" from hundreds of drivers of various nationalities and degrees of skill.

After coming from the regular assembly line in the factory at Flint, Mich., it was equipped with four spare tires and a shovel. Supplementary tanks on the running boards provide oil, gasoline and water for the long runs over deserts and other uninhabited regions.
 After being boxed and sent to New York City it was shipped across the Atlantic to Liverpool, where its land journey started on December 21, 1924. The car was passed from dealer to dealer enroute to London.
 It then was shipped from London to Amsterdam. With frequent changes of drivers it passed south through Europe, visiting Brussels and Paris and finally reaching the Mediterranean at Marseilles, France.
 On January 20, it was placed on a steamer bound for Port Said, Egypt. From there it was driven south to Cairo. Then the route swung "east of Suez," where the real test began. Through Palestine and the biblical country, the car proceeded to Beirut. On February 5, it left there for Damascus and Bagdad, accompanying one of the desert convoys of the Nairn Transport Company, which incidentally uses Buicks in its desert fleet.
 The Syrian desert was crossed without difficulty. The Buick distributor in Beirut, however, gives some idea of the country traversed in the following letter excerpt:

"The road was terrible in places, being nothing more than a cart track strewn with large boulders. In the run over the Lebanon Mountains the car climbed to a height of more than a mile. After spending the night at Damascus, the 540-mile run to Bagdad was made at an average speed of 35 miles an hour."
 The Mesopotamian distributors took the Buick at Bagdad and drove it to Basra on the Persian gulf, from whence it was sent to Bombay, India. From there it was driven over indifferent trail-roads across India to Agra, and finally Calcutta.
 It then went to Ceylon, where the Buick distributors drove it for three days before sending it to Perth, on the southwest coast of Australia, where it arrived April 1. The desert waste of southern Australia between Perth and Adelaide was regarded as the most difficult part of the trip. The distance is something more than halfway across the United States. This long stretch of bad going was negotiated successfully, as was the shorter journey from Adelaide to Melbourne, near the southeast end of the continent. The car since was driven to Albany and then to Sydney, from which point it was shipped to New Zealand.
 After completion of the globe journey it is planned to preserve the car as an object of historical interest.

Recommendations to City.
 The following recommendations will be submitted to city council for their consideration and action. With the exception of the second division, which deals chiefly with the school and parents jurisdiction, the original reads:
 "We, the committee appointed by the P. T. A. to find a possible solution to traffic problem near the schools; thereby lessening dangers arising from same, recommend the following:
 1. That the city be asked to limit the speed of automobiles to eight (8) miles an hour within three blocks of schools; (b) to erect signboards within designated area with limit thereon; (c) that a week be proclaimed as "Safety Week," this week to be within the school session this year; (d) that city marshal assist peace officer now at school in directing traffic at closing time; (e) that road east of high school block which has not been designated as a street, be closed, thereby lessening the dangers to student-pedestrians to and from new play ground block.

 2. That drills on traffic regulations, both for drivers and pedestrian be held in each room at school during Safety Week; (b) that student pedestrians be made to take side-walks instead of middle of street; (c) that students living within reasonable distance from school be discouraged in brining cars to school; (d) that publicity be given through local paper by publicity committee of P. T. A. of this movement so that our entire city will benefit.
 Mrs. A. L. Whipkey,
 Mrs. W. P. Leslie,
 Mrs. Stewart Cooper, Com.
 The above was accepted in full by Mr. King and his principals of schools together with Mrs. J. C. Smith, president of P. T. A.

This is implement season. Anything you need in the Hardware line. A full line of refrigerators. See Price Brothers.

"Day by day, in every way," one of the screaming moments in the rollicking farce-comedy, "Give and Take," at Chautauqua.

IN SOCIETY AND AT THE CLUBS

Buffet Supper

Miss Laura Louise Pearson, feature editor of The Lone Wolf, High school annual, entertained the junior and senior members with a buffet supper at her home Monday night of last week. The menu was grape fruit, fried chicken, cream potatoes, English peas, bread and butter, sandwiches, cheese straws, whole tomato salad on lettuce leaves, pineapple whip and cream.

Entertains Class

Miss Clippie Bennett entertained the Senior class of the High school and members of the annual staff, Tuesday evening. The decorations were roses, and roses were given as favors. The form of entertainment was 42 and there were seven tables. A two course luncheon was served.

Auxiliary to Legion

The Auxiliary to the American Legion met at the hut last Saturday. Besides the regular business it was decided to work with the U. D. C. on a memorial exercise. Mrs. Beal resigned as treasurer and Mrs. Schroder was elected to fill the unexpired term.

Hesperian Club

The Hesperian club had its final meeting with Miss Sealy as hostess at Mrs. D. N. Arnett's last Friday. The lesson, led by president, Mrs. Lee Jones was a review of the outstanding events of the administrations of the different governors of Texas.

The roll call was famous ranch houses in West Texas. Mrs. Arnett told of some early experiences of the Rendonbrook ranch that was interesting to all. Mrs. Brooks of Sweetwater, Mrs. Chester Jones, Mrs. C. E. Pritchett and Mrs. C. J. Thompson were guests. The hostess served angel food and ice cream sandwiches with nut caramel sauce.

P. E. C.

The P. E. C. Club met at the school house last Thursday evening for the purpose of electing officers. The result was as follows: President, John Helton; Vice-President, Clyde Cook; Secretary, Frances Dulaney; Treasurer, Ruth Helton; Sergeant at arms, Beatrice Logan. The club presented Mrs. Dulaney a box of embossed monogrammed stationery.

Sunrise Breakfast

The women of the Baptist Missionary entertained the senior class of the Colorado High school with a sunrise breakfast on the A. L. Whipkey lawn Friday morning.

The class colors of purple and white were carried out. The table covers and napkins were purple and white and on the center of each table was a bowl of purple and white phlox. After the guests arrived, Lucile Nancy Price rang the bell for them to form a line when Mable Ratliff Majors and Maurine Morris in purple and white college caps passed baskets of "diplomas" tied with purple ribbon. On each one was the class flower, cape jasmine in water colors. On these was the table number and no time was lost by the dignified (?) seniors in finding their places. Mrs. C. R. Earnest, chairman of the Young ladies circle acted as toastmistress. Mrs. A. L. White, president of the Society greeted the guests. Supt. E. F. King responded. Miss Marcella told of the years gone by and Edwin Kirby looked into the future and gave a glimpse of the years to come. Each member related a funny experience in the high school travels. The party broke up with a most hearty yell for the Baptist Ladies and the class of '25. Piano music was furnished by Mrs. O. B. Price.

Christian Aid

The Christian Aid Society met with Mrs. J. E. Pond Monday. Mrs. Chase led the devotional exercises.

Besides the usual business the sum of thirty-five dollars was reported from the recent apron and bonnet sale.

The hostess served white and black cake and ice cream. The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. L. Root.

T. E. L. Class

The Baptist T. E. L. Class of which Mrs. James T. Johnson is teacher, held their social meeting on last Thursday from four to six in the home of Mrs. J. L. Bowen who was assisted by Mrs. Green Delaney. A puzzle greeted each guest at the door which proved to be "welcome." After a short business session the hostess gave a piano duet, "Boys Brigade." Then several contests were given which afforded a lot of fun for the lucky "13" members who were there. Nut ice cream with black and white cake was served.

Class Reporter.

Self Culture

The Self Culture Club met with Mrs. Bill Gordon Saturday with a program on nervous children. The topic was discussed by various members from the standpoint, environment and mental growth, social habits and symmetry to the mental life and how to read. Mrs. Lockhart sang a lullaby. Plans were discussed as to how to procure kindergarten for Colorado the coming year.

This club sponsors kindergarten work and hopes to have training provided for the children at an early date. All bills were paid and the club adjourned till September. The first meeting will be with Mrs. Merritt. The hostess served ice cream and cake. Mrs. Roy Dozier was a guest.

Study Course

The Study Course of the Methodist Missionary Society was held with Mrs. R. M. Gary Monday.

Mrs. R. L. McMurry conducted the Bible lesson from acts and Mrs. Gary led the lesson on World Brotherhood. The class adjourned until after the revival meeting.

Harmony Club.

The Harmony Club met with Mrs. Earnest Hamlett, Tuesday. Her guests were Mesdames Bandy, Pearl Shannon, Jim Johnson, Lucian Madden, O. B. Price and H. G. Towle of Snyder. The hostess served chicken salad, stuffed pimientos, saratoga flakes, olives, ice tea and strawberry shortcake with whipped cream. The club adjourned till July 7th.

Food Sale.

Mrs. Stonerod and Mrs. Blanks will have charge of the food sale at the Alceve May 23 and 30 given by the Methodist women. Get your Sunday dinners there.

Daughters of the King

The Daughters of the King met with Mrs. Q. D. Hall last Thursday. Mrs. J. G. Merritt conducted the devotional on social service. The theme was the unredeemed area. There was a good attendance. A good report was given from the girls home economics club sponsored by this class. Five dollars was given for church improvement. The committee appointed to visit the jail reported books and magazines given the inmates and articles of clothing given the members of the families. Contributions were promised for the food sale to be given Saturday. There were several visitors present. The hostess served ice cream and cake. Roses were given as favors.

At Home.

The beautiful spirit of loyalty and co-operation of the Colorado women was manifested Wednesday when more than one hundred and fifty ladies called at the home of Mrs. Sam Majors where the club women of the county were "at home" honoring Mrs. H. B. Broadbent, the newly elected president of the sixth district T. F. W. C. and Mrs. C. C. Thompson, secretary.

The receiving line was composed of the hostess, the honorees, Mrs. Gary, mother of Mrs. Thompson. The district chairman, Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. Johnson, representatives from nearly every club in the county, Mrs. Lee Jones, Hesperian; Mrs. Claud Hooks, the 1921; Mrs. Walter Whipkey, Home Makers; Mrs. Chester Hart, Pioneer; Miss Irma Sealy, county home demonstrator; Mrs. P. C. Coleman, Civic League; Mrs. U. D. Wulfjen, The 1923; Mrs. R. W. Hester, Lorraine P. T. A.; Mrs. Jack Smith, Colorado P. T. A.; Mrs. W. M. Elliott, Standard; Mrs. D. N. Arnett, Daughters of the King; Mrs. Jerold Riordan, The Shakespeare; Mrs. J. B. Dobbs, Delphian; Mrs. Douglas, Self Culture; Mrs. H. G. Towle, guest from Snyder; Miss Blume and the daughter of the house, Miss Elsie Lee Majors.

Mrs. E. H. Winn, Mrs. McCleary and Mrs. Ed Jones greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. W. P. Leslie and Mrs. Edgar Majors introduced them to the receiving line. Following the greetings to those in receiving line, Mrs. A. B. Blanks and Mrs. Wallace escorted the guests to the punch room where punch was served by Mrs. J. B. Morgan, Mrs. Key Hooks, Mrs. Pearl Shannon and Miss Ruby McGill. Mrs. C. L. Root led them to the dining room where Misses Loyse Price, Alice Blanks and Virginia Stonerod served brick ice cream and angel food. Favors of dainty sprigs of fern tied with white ribbon, the County Federation colors, were pinned on each guest by Miss Elizabeth Snyder and Nell Harper Greene. During the hours a program of music and readings was given, announced by Mrs. C. E. Pritchett, Mrs. Blanks, Mrs. McCleary, Miss Blume and little Miss Jimmie Lou Coughran, favored with readings. Mrs. Oscar Majors, Mrs. Ross Dixon, Mrs. Lois Prude Bennett and Mrs. Lockhart with vocal solos. Mrs. Taylor of Loraine and Mrs. Earl Powell with piano solos. Little Misses Gladys Louise Jones, Mabel Ratliff Majors and Martha Jane Majors.

Colorado and Mitchell county feels the honor of having the president and secretary and are not only willing to show their appreciation in a social way but also to encourage and work for the things that club women stand for, the sacredness of the home, uplift of mankind and true American citizenship.

Ninth Grade Picnic.

As a result of good work the 9th grade of the High school, was awarded a prize in the form of a picnic last Tuesday afternoon. When the P. T. A. put on a coffee sale it offered a picnic to the grade bringing in the most coupons and the ninth grade carried off the honors.

The officers of the P. T. A. solicited the lunch, secured the conveyance and chaperoned the jolly crowd to Seven Wells. Those escorting them were Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. E. H. Winn, Mrs. McCleary, Mrs. H. S. Beal and Judge and Mrs. Leslie. An unusually good time was had by all and the honorees felt well repaid for their efforts to make a financial plan a success.

Honoring Seniors.

The senior class of Colorado High school will not only have the red-letter day of receiving diplomas but will have many other pleasant memories of their last days together as classmates.

Tuesday evening they met at Miss Clippie Bennett's and enjoyed a picture show party at the Mission and following this they were refreshed with drinks and ice cream complimentary at the Colorado Drug store. Wednesday noon Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Bishop entertained at the Alceve. This was followed after school by a swimming party out at the White natatorium. Mrs. Lee Jones furnished this entertainment.

Kitchen Contest.

The annual State kitchen contest means much to Mitchell county. Last year one woman, Mrs. Joe Johnson won in the county, district and State. This year there were three in the county who entered last February. The contest closed in May and score showed Mrs. James Bodine of the Buford community first place, Mrs. LaFevre of the Pioneer club, second place and Mrs. M. C. Holt, third. It was a difficult task for the judges to make a decision as they would like to have been able to have given all first place but as only one could get that they felt the places belonged to Mrs. Bodine. The district judge from A. & M. has already visited the winning kitchen, but has not yet announced her decision as she has a greater territory to visit but the county committee feels that there will have to be some splendid and well equipped kitchens to beat those entering in Mitchell county. This splendid work is done by the Semi-Weekly aFrm News, the A. & M. extension work through the county home demonstrator and is one of the many things our home demonstrator is doing to make better homes.

CHAUTAUQUA OPENS WEEK WITH BI GHEADLINERS

Those who stay away from Chautauqua the opening day this year, believing the program to be unimportant, are in for a big disappointment.

As a matter of fact, some of the biggest features are on the first two days.

On this occasion the famous Cathedral Choir, composed of an extraordinary company of singers, will give a program of rare beauty.

This great organization made a continental tour last year, visiting some of the largest cities of America. At every place its concert was an enthusiastic success.

Its second program is largely popular and operatic in character. It is given on the first night, and followed by one of the humorous offerings of the program. This is in the nature of a lecture by Herbert Leon Cope, the greatest humorist, it is said since Bill Nye.

With Burns of the Mountains the second afternoon and a great farce-comedy, "GIVE AND TAKE," the second night, it must be seen very readily that the first two days are of great importance.

The only sensible way is to buy season tickets of the local committee. The cost of attending is less than half what it would amount to if you purchase single admission tickets. Admission runs all the way from fifty cents to one dollar for each entertainment. Besides, season tickets are transferable in the owners' family, and the Chautauqua Committee has a limited number for sale.

Be sure and buy season tickets. If you pay at the door the Chautauqua people get it. If you buy a season ticket the guarantors get it. Help the guarantors by buying a season ticket.

There is higher priced Auto Oil but none better than Supreme XX handled by all leading garages.

Ignorance as to Waste.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram attributes waste to lack of early training in conservation. The more you think of it the more likely you will be to agree with the Star-Telegram. Wastefulness is due largely to indifference about saving and not to a destructive spirit. Teach the child that it is as necessary to conserve as to make, and he will grow up to practice conservation. When I was a child I was allowed, in fact was encouraged, to eat all the food I wanted, but if I took more on my plate than I could eat, the plate of uneaten food was carefully put away for the next meal, and I had to eat that before getting anything else. To this day I never leave any food on my plate. Lessons like that have to be taught early, before wasteful habits are formed. The place for such teaching is in the home and in the school. The teaching should not only be against personal waste, but it should be extended to the protection of the property of other people and to the safeguarding of public property.

Courses in Conservation.

There is a tendency to make all education practical. Why not extend it to include, in the grade schools, courses in conservation? Children should be impressed that to waste even the food that the birds might eat is sinful; that water waste is wrong; that destruction of, or injury to, school property is an injustice to the public; that to break street lights is criminal; that saving is just as commendable as making; that loss to any individual or to the community is an injury to all. Such lessons well taught in every school in the land would result in the saving of millions of dollars annually.

Looking for a Big Texan.

The board of governors of the Texas Centennial at its last meeting appointed a committee to find the best man in Texas, measured by the requirements of the position, to be permanent president of the movement which will commemorate the history of the state, reflect its present greatness, and build for a future commensurate with the state's great resources. The board decided to go about this selection carefully and to find a man of the financial strength to be able to devote his time and his means to the accomplishment of the purposes of the exposition; of the influence to get the ear of congress and of the legislature and to secure the co-operation of Texas and other states and nations; of the ambition to make the Texas Centennial his great culminating life work; of the vigor to give untiring effort to the great work. In other words Texas is looking for a leader with qualifications commensurate with the great undertaking before it.

Exigencies Develop Leadership.

In studying the immensity of the work the Texas Centennial board was at first fearful that Texas has no man who can measure up to its requirements, but more careful consideration convinced the governors that Texas has citizens big enough to accomplish anything that people anywhere can do. The history of the world shows that there has never been an exigency, however great, that some person has not been discovered to meet it; and Texans may feel sure that in this case the best leadership will be found, leadership of which the state may be proud. The governors of the Centennial have gone about their selection in a way to insure that no mistake shall be made, which reminds me to say that the board has also shown much wisdom in planning a great educational campaign to "Texanize Texas" as a preliminary step. Get Texas thoroughly ex-hused, and the Centennial will be put over in a splendid way.

From Newsboy to Exchange President

In becoming president of the New York Cotton Exchange, Richard T. Harris, a former Fort Worth newsboy, has shown again that poverty and hard work in youth are not handicaps but helps to success. The poor boy has an equal chance with the rich youth in the fight for success if only he can be brought to think so. Harris would never have attained his present position if he had thought that newsboys could not hope to become financial leaders.

Criticizing the Newspapers.

Criticizing the press appears to be a fad. Even at the Parent-Teachers meeting recently held at Austin, the newspapers came in for some trouncing because some one thinks they are threatening to usurp the functions of the schools. Newspapers are not trying to take the place of the schools, but are endeavoring to help them, just as the Parent-Teachers are trying to help.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS LORRAINE BAND CONCERT

An audience of several hundred people attended the open air concert that was given Sunday afternoon at four o'clock on the street between the First State Bank and the W. L. Edmondson Store by the Lorraine Chamber of Commerce band.

In addition to the excellent music furnished by the band boys there was a short program carried out, there being speeches by several home town men and out of town visitors.

Mayor Riden made a short introductory speech followed by music and then presented Mr. W. S. Cooper of Colorado, who made a very interesting and complimentary speech, outlining the benefits that Colorado had received from the Colorado Booster Band and urging the citizens of Lorraine to support their band in every possible way, saying that they would be more than repaid for it.

More music followed and Mayor Riden then introduced Judge O. E. Stevenson who said that he had recently been elected spokesman for the band organization, but that he was not going to toot a horn or wear the uniform, but that he would do their talking for them. He also expressed himself as being in favor of a strong band in any small town and made especial mention of the excellent character of the young men who comprised our own organization.

After the next musical number of the program Mr. Sandusky, a lawyer of Colorado made a very interesting talk and showed where the band was a patriotic organization that was well worth supporting. He wound up his oration by a strong talk in favor of the adoption of the three mill tax law by the towns and cities of the country, giving a thorough explanation of the operation of that law and how it would be applied by the governments of the cities and towns that adopt it.

The band boys were all out in their new uniforms that they received the first of last week and made quite a showy appearance. The uniforms were of dark blue serge trimmed with wide black military braid, the caps being trimmed in silver braid.

A campaign has been started for the adoption of the three mill tax law in Lorraine for the support of a municipal band, and a petition was passed around the first of the week asking the city council to call a special election for the purpose of deciding whether or not Lorraine would adopt the law.—Lorraine News.

"UNITE FOR REVIVAL", IS PLEA GOLD MEDAL BAND IS PLEDGED SUPPORT

CITY WELCOMES RETURN WEST TEXAS' BEST BAND

2000 PEOPLE JOIN IN PUBLIC RECEPTION TENDERED AT UNION TABERNACLE

"Why should we not have won the Gold medal prize, when we had a 'Gold-man' for band director?" Col. C. M. Adams, one of the speakers addressing the enthusiastic throng at Union Tabernacle Thursday night welcoming return of the Colorado Booster Band home from Mineral Wells, where the musical organization won distinct honors, declared.

Not less than 2000 proud constituents of the band met at the tabernacle to add their presence to the galaxy of the occasion and to mingle their voices in sounding plaudits of approval because of the splendid manner in which the band had honored Colorado. Hundreds of school children mingled with their seniors and joined enthusiastically in the hurrahs for Colorado's Gold Medal Band.

The reception was arranged under the direction of the Lions Club, with several federated women's clubs of the city co-operating. Some 1,000 people were seated in the building, with from 500 to 1000 seated in automobiles which almost blocked traffic over two city blocks about the tabernacle. L. W. Sandusky, Colorado attorney, presided as master of ceremonies.

Led by its strikingly uniformed major, Grady Newmon, the band marched into the building and onto the platform amid cheering by the large assembly. Seated on the platform the band was introduced by Judge Sandusky, as the Gold Medal Band of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and an organization of which every citizen of Mitchell county should well be proud.

Dr. P. C. Coleman, president of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce, was the first speaker introduced. Dr. Coleman spoke briefly of the material value of a good band to Colorado, as seen by the Chamber of Commerce, and pledged that the organization would continue to support the band.

Dr. Coleman eagerly entered into the spirit of the meeting and suggested that everybody join heart and voice in welcoming return of the band to the hometown.

"It is fitting that the citizens of Colorado and Mitchell county turn themselves loose and rejoice," he stated. "I have heard some of the best bands of the country, including those of our larger cities composed almost exclusively of professional musicians, but none of them can boast a better band than we. Today there is not a better band in the state of Texas than Colorado's Gold Medal Band."

W. S. Cooper, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was the second speaker introduced. Cooper spoke briefly of the Mineral Wells convention and of the wonderful spirit shown by Loraine in cooperating with Colorado. Some members of the Loraine Chamber of Commerce Band are also members of the Colorado Booster Band, Cooper stated, and these men, in order to assist in bringing glory to Colorado, cancelled their own plans to attend the convention at Mineral Wells and went with Colorado to do their best for a neighbor city.

"I have never witnessed a more typical demonstration of true Western chivalry and hospitality than portrayed in this act upon the part of our neighbor city to the east," Cooper stated. The assembly sounded their appreciation of this demonstration of friendship by turning loose three cheers for Loraine and her splendid band.

Roy, Farmer, a familiar and always popular character wherever the Colorado Booster Band may be, was praised by Col. Adams for the initiative always taken in putting things over for the band.

"We did not have this band at the Plainview convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, because we had no uniforms for them to wear," Col. Adams stated. "But when Roy Farmer returned from that convention he went to work and dressed this band up in an attractive uniform and then carried them to the next convention, held at San Angelo two years ago."

Col. Adams placed emphasis upon the importance of Colorado giving the band its moral and financial support. "We must get in behind these boys and go with them to Dallas in October when they are to play against the Sherman band, winner of East Texas honors, for the state championship. Then, again, we must provide their every requirement and go with them to the convention in Amarillo next year."

Addresses were delivered by M. S. Goldman, director of the band, the first speaker introduced. Dr. J. Lee Jones, assistant director, and Coleman spoke briefly of the material value of a good band to Colorado, as seen by the Chamber of Commerce, and pledged that the organization would continue to support the band.

Goldman stated that it was the individual members of the band, and not himself to which credit for winning the honors at Mineral Wells was due. "These men neglected their business and their families in order to attend practice rehearsals three times a week for some time before we went to Mineral Wells, and they did this for you without pay. As to myself, I am on a salary and it was nothing more than my duty to do the best that I possibly could for Colorado."

Mr. Jones, who holds the distinction of having been a member of the old Stockmen's Band, at one time possessor of the title of champion of the State, stated that he had been a member of the Colorado band for many years and "will continue to do my best for Colorado in this capacity so long as I am able to get about."

In concluding the program, Judge Sandusky pledged the band that the people of Mitchell county were solidly behind them and would leave nothing undone to make their organization still better. He spoke of the appreciation of Colorado toward Loraine and the Loraine Chamber of Commerce Band, declaring that Colorado would stand by them and co-operate with them in whatsoever program they might project.

Concert music was furnished by the band throughout the evening. At conclusion of the program refreshments of ice cream and cake was served by the Lions Club and Colorado Club Women.

DIPLOMAS BE PRESENTED 24 MEMBERS SENIOR CLASS

29 ANNUAL SESSION COLORADO
SCHOOLS COMES TO CLOSE
FRIDAY EVENING

Commencement exercises of the Colorado High school will be concluded tonight at the school auditorium, with the impressive ceremonies honoring the 24 members of the senior class who are to receive diplomas. Prof. E. Frank King, who is directing plans for this program, stated Wednesday that he expected to see the auditorium and wings well filled with parents and friends of the young people who are to be graduated.

This morning at ten o'clock commencement exercises for the seventh grade class, graduating from Grammar school to High School, are to be held at the high school auditorium. This feature of commencement has become an important annual event in the Colorado school and is expected to be witnessed by several hundred patrons.

Pupils and teacher are to have their last class room meeting Friday afternoon at one o'clock when all pupils will gather in their rooms to receive promotion cards and final reports. This is to be the last time they will meet each other thus, and consequently there will be some degree of sadness mingled with the joys of a year's success.

Pupils entitled to perfect attendance certificates are to receive these awards Friday morning at the same time commencement exercises for the seventh grade are to be observed. There are a number of pupils in the schools who have won for themselves this merited distinction. To receive this certificate the pupil must have maintained a record of never being absent or tardy during the school year.

The baccalaureate sermon was delivered Sunday morning at the First Methodist church by Rev. J. F. Lawlis. A section in the main auditorium was reserved for members of the graduating class and another for their parents. The building was decorated with flowers and streamers which beautifully carried out the class colors. Prof. King presided at the rites.

The graduating class marched into the building and took up their places while Thos. Dawes gave an appropriate piano procession. The services were opened with congregational singing, using the hymn, "Crown Him Lord of All." Rev. W. M. Elliott gave the invocation, followed by the Scripture lesson by Rev. J. E. Chase. Rev. Mr. Chase read a few verses from the 9th chapter of Ecclesiastes.

Rev. Mr. Lawlis announced as his text Eccl. 9:11, "I returned and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong." He spoke directly to members of the senior class with an appeal to work hard, to demand only those things in life which are right and never become disappointed when the unexpected comes up to seemingly shatter our plans.

He made a vivid mental picture of the grandeur and wealth of the environs of Caesar, as compared with the privations and sufferings of Christ. The former died in misery and dejection, while the man of Galilee came out of his grave with shouts of victory, the echoes of which shall never die.

Mr. King expressed appreciation to all who had to do with the services. In speaking to the parents of the graduates he declared that in the midst of their rejoicing because of success of their son or daughter, there was sadness, owing to the fact they would never again be assembled as they were at that hour.

A large choir selected from the several church choirs of the city was directed by Mr. Dawes.

BETTER HOMES MEAN BETTER CITIZENSHIP

COLORADO CLUB WOMEN SPONSOR CAMPAIGN TO ENCOURAGE
HOME BUILDING

The "Better Homes Week" program came to a close here Friday evening with a rally at the First Methodist church at which addresses, patriotic songs and readings suggestive of better home life environs were given. The program was in charge of Mrs. J. G. Merritt who, in behalf of the local organization, expressed elation at success of the campaign to encourage the building and ownership of more homes in the community.

Mrs. A. L. Whipkey was the first speaker introduced. She told of the inception of the better home idea out of which the present organization, covering most of America, grew. The late President Harding is given credit for having started the movement. Briefly told, she stated that the organization has for its goal the building of better homes, and a deeper sense of cooperation among the people in lending assistance to those who would acquire a better home of their own.

J. M. Thomas spoke of home ownership as seen by the man who considers the importance of conservative investments, especially as to home ownership. Thomas urged that no one should attempt to finance erection or purchase of a home beyond his means. He gave the building-loan plan his approval to those who do not have sufficient capital to build homes outright.

"If not able to finance your home, start a savings account and continue to add to this account in a consistent manner until you have accumulated sufficient capital to build," he stated. Thomas warned against purchasing an old building in need of repairs. "It is cheaper, in the end, to build the home new."

Miss Blume, expression teacher in the Colorado High School, gave Edgar A. Guest's beautiful poem, "Home." The reading, in both sentiment expressed and presentation by the speaker, fitted nicely into the spirit of the meeting.

Mrs. Parrish, music teacher of Westbrook, read a most interesting paper on the value of music in the home. She suggested that every home, to be complete and give those who live therein the best environment should be a home of music. If the family is not financially able to supply the piano and other musical instruments.

"Even the smaller phonographs, if you will use discretion in the selection of the records used, may be made to fill this important place in the home and fill it most adequately she stated.

W. S. Cooper spoke from the subject, "The Boy in the Home." He urged that parents award more consideration to the boy problem and become a confidential pal of the boy in the home, allowing him to have his carpenter shop, dog and such other diversions as may become the boys' ideal.

"History would have given us a different story as to the discovery of electricity, had Ben Franklin been forbidden to follow the dictates of the ordinary red blooded American boy, which led him out in the open and taught him to love to make and fly a kite," Cooper stated.

"Had the mother of James Watt been persistent in forbidding her son to stumble around the kitchen in her way, as he amused himself with the boiling kettle on the family stove some other self-made genius would have given the world the steam engine. This story will run true as to hundreds of other boys, the world over. The discoverer of wireless telegraphy stumbled upon the idea which later developed into this 20th

252 "TRAIL HITTERS" IN ONE DAY OF RAYBURN CAMPAIGN

"I witnessed 223 strong men hit the trail in one service here today, among them was the district judge, fire chief and many prominent business and professional men of Lawton," Newton Bogges, pianist for Rayburn evangelistic party, writes in describing success for the Rayburn meeting at Lawton, Okla. The service described was held Friday morning. 29 more were converted at the Friday evening service, making a total of 252 for the day.

Mr. Rayburn is having unusually successful meetings wherever he goes and Colorado pastors and lay leaders cooperating with him in the revival to open here next week anticipate the greatest religious awakening Colorado and Mitchell county has ever known.

SPECIAL PRAYER IS OFFERED FOR SUCCESS OF MEETING

The men and boys' Prayer Union of Sweetwater, organized last year at close of Rayburn revival, held a special service Sunday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church in Sweetwater at which prayers for success of the revival in Colorado were offered. The services were conducted by Judge R. C. Crane. A communication from Dr. P. T. Quast, president of the Union, was read Sunday evening at the union services at the Methodist church, in which he stated that Sweetwater was interested in the revival soon to open here and citizens from there would attend the services in large numbers.

200 SINGERS DESIRED FOR CHOIR IN RAYBURN MEETING

Arthur W. McKee, choister with the Rayburn evangelistic party, wants 200 Mitchell county singers to enlist for service during the four weeks campaign to open here Friday of next week. McKee stated that a choir of such proportions would be needed in order to make song services of the revival come up to wishes of the evangelist.

CHURCHES OF COUNTY ARE INVITED TO COOPERATE

Invitations requesting their cooperation in the Rayburn revival were mailed to all churches of the county last week by the laymen's advertising committee, of which Dr. T. J. Ratliff is chairman. Ratliff stated Saturday that the cooperation of every church and individual Christian of Mitchell county would be sought throughout the four weeks campaign.

NAMES OF TWO ARE OMITTED FROM SENIOR CLASS LIST

In publishing the list of seniors last week The Record unintentionally omitted the names of Phelan Dorn and Miss Pauline Smith. Both of these are members of the Colorado High school graduating class, and their names should have been included in the class roster published last week.

century invention, while at play in a wood with other boys."

Miss Irma Sealy, home demonstration agent, gave one of the most forceful and interesting numbers on the program from the subject, "Training Girls for Homemakers." Miss Sealy described the steps of training and environment which should be followed in making of the potential home makers the type of true women the world of tomorrow should expect.

"I love my work because of the opportunity it affords me to assist girls to crystallize their thoughts into ideals of home making," she stated. Miss Sealy urged that the girl be trained in heart, head and hand, if she be fortified to compete with the complex problems of home life in store for her afterwards.

DATE REVIVAL OPENING IS CHANGED TO FRI., MAY 29

RAYBURN SETS DATE AHEAD
5 DAYS TO AVOID CONFLICT WITH CHAUTAUQUA

Dr. James Rayburn will not open his Colorado campaign Sunday morning, as originally planned, but has changed the time for starting his revival here to Friday, May 29, in that conflict with the Chautauqua, to open Tuesday of next week, be avoided. Information that a change had been determined upon was received in a communication last week from the evangelist who was then in a revival at Lawton, Okla.

Dr. Rayburn is anxious to have every possible conflict entirely removed before opening his meeting at Colorado. Learning that the Chautauqua management had announced that they could authorize no change in the Colorado date, the evangelist effected a change in his own schedule. The chautauqua program will close Monday night, June 1.

Dr. Rayburn will conduct the first few services of the revival at the First Methodist church in order to permit exclusive use of Union Tabernacle for the chautauqua programs. This arrangement was announced last week by ministers and laymen representing the five cooperating churches of Colorado.

The sixth of the series of union religious services conducted each Sunday evening by the Protestant churches of Colorado as a preparatory move to organize the people for work in the revival was held Sunday night. Rev. J. E. Chase, pastor of the First Christian church, delivered the sermon, quoting the question of Christ in addressing Peter when they met on the Sea of Tiberias, "Simon, son of Barjonah, lovest thou me more than these?"

The speaker charged those who heard him if they really loved the Master and would do His bidding, they would busy themselves in feeding the Masters' lambs. He urged personal sacrifice, if need be, and deep Christian pity among all Christian people of the community, if they would come up to their duty during the revival.

He charged that there was evident at the services a lack of interest in the approaching campaign. "Out of a white population of some 3,500 people in Colorado, there are less than 500 present here tonight, and this in view of the fact there are no other religious services in the city. The people who profess to be Christian must get away from the habit of making excuses and registering neglect to duty, especially when the challenge comes as it is to every Christian during the revival. And, be it said, the revival is already under way. These union meetings are a part of the campaign to cooperate with the evangelist and with God in winning the lost."

Union prayer services were held Wednesday night at the Methodist church, conducted by the pastor and members of the First Baptist church. This special cooperative service was called by the pastors of the city to unite their people in one great consecration service, where special prayer for success of the meeting was made.

CIVIC LEAGUE IS THANKED FOR ASSISTANCE TO CLUB

The Colorado Civic League was praised in a resolution passed by the Lions Club Friday for the splendid assistance given the club by ladies of the Civic League in furnishing and serving refreshments at the public reception Thursday night, given in honor of the band. Ladies of the league pledged to see that cakes were furnished and, according to the Lions Club committee, this delicacy on the menu was supplied in abundance.

One of the most successful school terms Loraine has ever had came to a close this week. The school composed of eleven grades divided as follows, primary, intermediate and high school departments, representing a year's work of thirty-six weeks under the instruction of Supt. H. E. Blythe and 10 assistants who have worked for nine months hard to raise Loraine high school to that point of efficiency required by the State department, with a board of trustees who made the advancement of the school their personal thought and interest with patrons and pupils interested alike can truthfully say they kept the faith and made a good fight. The school has secured classification of the first class and it has been the ambition of all to work out this year as many credits as the student body could accomplish. 16 high school credits were required for graduation and Loraine

A Ford car driven by Miss Olah Corbell was ditched and wrecked in the ditch on the pike near the Methodist church Tuesday evening. Miss Corbell who escaped with minor injuries, was the only occupant of the car and was on her way to the school building when the accident occurred.

Mr. C. W. Palmer reports this week, new potatoes, green beans, fresh onions and black berries for his Sunday dinner all grown from his home patch. On with more gardens, they pay well.

Mr. Wilbur Coffee and Miss Roberta Evans of Brownwood teachers in the Champion school, were married at Colorado, Wednesday, May 15th Judge C. C. Thompson, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Coffee will be at home to their friends on a farm near Loraine, after their return from Brownwood, where they are now visiting.

Mr. Drew Givens and Miss Mabel Pierce were married Saturday night 9:30 at the court house in Colorado by Judge Thompson. The bride who assisted in the school term just closing here and was re-elected by the board for next years term, tendered her resignation Monday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pierce of Hico. The groom a young farmer and well and favorably known has lived here for a number of years and is to be congratulated upon winning his choice for a life companion. Mr. and Mrs. Givens will reside on a farm south of town. This wedding was said to be "a surprise to all." We join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Richburg living one mile north of town had as their dinner guests Sunday Prof. H. E. Blythe and Misses Ollie May Martin, Willie Richburg, Effie and J. C. Richburg. The occasion being to celebrate the graduation from the grammar school of Miss Effie and J. C. Richburg, and three of Mr. and Mrs. Richburg's boys, Walter, Carmen and Cresto, it being an unusual thing for so many children of the same family finishing one course of study together. The young people spent one enjoyable time together listening to the player piano playing games and looking over photographs. Another unusual incident is that Mr. Richburg was taught by Mr. Blythe when he was a lad, and now his own sons have been under his instructions. Here's hoping that these five young people may attend school together for four more years and graduate with more honors and a larger and better celebration.

Miss Ethel Harkins who has been re-elected for next year's school term here, left Monday night for her home at Sweetwater.

Superintendent H. E. Blythe and Miss Cora Ott, English teacher were present at a three-course banquet given by the seniors to the juniors at the school auditorium Tuesday night, before leaving out on the night train for their respective homes at Athens and Thurbur, Texas. We very much regret that Miss Ott could not be persuaded to accept her position here next year. Mr. Blythe to the gratification of the board and patrons as a whole expects to return as Superintendent of our school next year, which we realize has made rapid progress under his instruction this year. It was announced at the banquet Tuesday night by Supt. Blythe that Miss Ott had been elected principal of the Loraine high school.

Miss Claudia Alford, history and Spanish teacher in the Loraine high school this year, and who will be with the faculty next year will leave first of next week for her home at Graham.

The junior class accompanied by Mrs. R. I. Lee and a few Sophomores motored to Pecan Grove Friday evening at four o'clock for a farewell picnic to the junior class of 1925. Many games were played after which everyone in turn were called upon for songs or readings, while two girls spread lunch. The eats were greatly enjoyed while sitting under the beautiful trees. The class was very glad to have their old classmate Etta Taylor, with them on this occasion.

"LAST MAN ON EARTH"

AT MISSION NEXT WEEK

There is enough genuine novelty about the "Last Man on Earth," to cause an unusual bit of enthusiasm among picture patrons, and those living in Colorado and vicinity will have their opportunity to see this most unusual production next Monday and Tuesday when it is shown at the Mission Theatre. It is said to be replete with the most surprising situations ever pictured. Peculiar to the imagination of the hundreds who have been wondering "what it is like" no doubt one of the most intimate touches and unexpected situations is the opening scenes of the picture, the setting for which is a beautiful prologue enacted by many children. There is a full reel of the prologue. Although there is considerable going on to attract the attention of the public, it is predicted that the Mission will play to packed houses during the run of this famous novelty film play.

ANAEMIA

A remarkable discovery has enabled thousands of worn-out, tired, nervous, anemic people to increase their strength and energy, often in two weeks' time, and to quickly change their leaden pallor and listless look to the pink skin, rosy lips and sparkling eyes of glowing health. Formerly they were given the old-fashioned tinctures and pills made from mineral iron, which many doctors now say are scarcely assimilated at all, and so give little benefit. But since the discovery of a new combination of organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which, being like the organic iron in our own blood, is promptly taken up by the blood, thousands have found that they can banish every trace of tiredness and listlessness, those peculiar pains and that nervousness incident to old age, in a few short weeks. Furthermore, Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth or disturb the stomach. It quickly helps build up rich, red blood that carries new strength, vitality and youth to your whole body. No matter how weak and ill you feel, or how many other medicines you have tried in vain, make this convincing test: Take Nuxated Iron for just two weeks, and if you do not notice a wonderful improvement in strength and energy and look years younger, the druggist will promptly refund your money. Nuxated Iron is sold under this absolute guarantee by all good druggists.

Lower First Cost and Upkeep

There is a double economy in the Ford Car that materially lowers the cost of motoring for the millions of Ford owners today.

First—a Ford Car is the lowest priced on the market—the least expensive car the automotive industry has ever produced. Second—it costs less to operate and maintain. Fuel consumption is low—you get high mileage from tires. Repairs and replacements are infrequent and charges, even for the labor involved, are small.

The Ford Weekly Purchase Plan makes it possible for anyone to buy a Ford on the easiest of terms. You may pay for your Ford out of your regular earnings. Ask any authorized Ford dealer about the details of this plan or write us direct, using this coupon.

HYMAN HAPPENINGS.

Cotton planting and lots of it, has been the order of the day at Hyman for the past week. The first planting, both of feed crops and cotton, is up to a beautiful stand, and the farmers here are greatly encouraged at the outlook. A few more showers now, during June and July, and the first real crop since Hyman became a real farming district will be ready for the gin and the crib.

Mrs. M. W. Locklear, accompanied by her married daughter, Mrs. Bill Houghtling of San Benito, and her younger daughters, Mildred, Lillian and Madge Locklear, left last week for a visit to San Benito. Letters received by friends at Hyman state that none of the country passed thru by them since leaving here looked as good to them as the country here. Incidentally, the country here looks much better now than when they left.

The bridge across Hackberry Creek is still not built, nor even yet quite assured, but we all have strong hopes that it will be in the very near future. A delegation from Hyman, about 25 or 30 strong, visited Colorado on Monday of last week, to discuss with the commissioners of the county the urgent necessity for this bridge. The commissioners readily admitted the need for the bridge, and have assured us that if it is in any way possible, they will build it for us. We are counting on them to find a way. Among those who visited the Court were Frank Andrews, Edgar Andrews, C. F. Black, J. M. Black, J. F. Black, Bud Boyd, Harrison Van Zandt, Frank Cotton, W. T. Taylor, Sam Nichols, Elias Nichols, V. G. Pierce, Fulton Reynolds, S. D. Vowell, Sam Lawson, Jim Dawson, Lee P. Adkins, I. Smallwood, George P. Gates, Dick Dillard, Joe Barnett, Harry Hyman, A. J. Roach and several others, all farmers and land owners of Hyman, and Mr. Jim McCullough, now of Spade, but who has bought land and will be a Hymanite after this year. Mr. Otho Woodard and Mr. Very Ragsdale also of Hyman were in the crowd.

Another oil test for Hyman is assured. Contracts are being signed for a test to be drilled in the west end of the ranch, Hayrick Pasture. The well will be drilled by Sam Sloan, Steve Owens and others, and the past operations of these gentlemen in this Mitchell county field are a guarantee of fast work. This is the third well for Hyman, directly on the ranch. The Barnum well will soon start in the SE part of the ranch. Scott No. 1 is down about 1840 feet, straight reaming to cut off water found at 1745. They are handling this well right, and taking no chances of having a hole full of salt water from this depth on. It looks like they must expect to find something that salt water would hurt. We are all for them.

Mrs. E. S. Britton and family, who have been visiting relatives in Gal., returned to their home at Hyman Monday night. We are glad to see them back, and they sure seem glad to get back.

So far as we have been able to learn, not a Hymanite has been able to find a grasshopper so far this season. Maybe we wont have to fight anything but the jackrabbits this year. They are getting plentiful, but there is lots of fine green grass for them, and maybe that will satisfy them and they will let the cotton alone. Last year we had to fight everything from an antelope to a louse.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Scott of San Antonio are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hyman of Hyman. They spent Monday of this week in San Angelo on business.

Geologists are getting pretty thick around Hyman. Several of them may be seen any day here now looking over the ground. These fellows out here though dont seem to think they are going to do much damage in the crop. We dont believe there is going to be much damage, as we think we are going to make a real honest to goodness crop. We want a bridge across Hackberry Creek to move it over.

Another new oil derrick is in sight from Hyman. It was built last week by the Magnolia Petroleum Company about five miles north from the settlement here. Another, on the C. C. Reynolds ranch, about four miles south, is assured. This well, with the three directly on the ranch, will make seven wells completely circling this settlement, none of them over five miles distant. Being geographically in the center of this circle, we hope, and naturally believe that we are structurally in the center also.

Mrs. G. A. Ridgell of Cisco, Texas is visiting Hyman at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cotton.

Not less than eight Fordson tractors are now running 24 hours a day in sight or hearing of the center of this settlement. They are working on land that up to two years ago had never been touched by a plow. When it is remembered that a double row planter hitched to one of these tractors will plant 40 acres of cotton in 24 hours, this is what we call farming for a new country. There is over 5300 acres of fields now on this ranch. Over 5000 acres of it is west of Hackberry Creek. Over 4000 acres of it will be planted to cotton. We have just started. We sure want a bridge across Hackberry Creek.

Coahoma and Big Spring are both west of Hackberry Creek. Big Spring is exactly the same distance from the center of this settlement that Colorado is. Coahoma and Westbrook are much nearer. They want the trade of this new and growing community. We are a bunch of Mitchell county men, and we want to trade with Mitchell county merchants. A bridge across Hackberry Creek will sure help.

Mrs. John Hammons of Seven Wells is visiting at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Van Zandt of Hyman.

Mrs. Henry Robertson of Hyman is visiting at Westbrook.

SEVEN WELLS NOTES.

The weather stays nice and cool just right to make us feel like working.

If the hail and grasshoppers will only stay away our community will soon look good again.

Grandmother Venus is on the sick list the last few days.

Mr. Will Brown's baby is well again.

Mrs. R. G. White has been real sick lately.

P. M. Bassham entertained quite a crowd last Wednesday evening with a birthday supper. A large crowd was present. The table was beautifully arranged and just loaded with good things to eat. Everybody had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wallace and family, also Mrs. C. C. Cross, went to Midland Sunday.

W. P. Bassham and wife and son Nelson were sporting a new Ford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Simpson and family from Colorado spent Sunday in L. L. Bassham's home.

Seven Wells still stands rank as a noted picnic ground, as there is some school class, Sunday school class or club meets there nearly every evening and spreads supper.

Our school will close Friday. We regret to see our teachers leave but we have hopes of getting them back again next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Tillie, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Towrey, also May and Sewilla Bassham were visitors in the R. H. Towrey home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Carden visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bassham also Miss Velma Cherry spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Wulfjen Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Beezley and Mr. J. N. Walker visited relatives at Midland Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Roach visited Mrs. Will Boyd Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Smith spent Saturday night with P. M. Bassham family.

If L. L. Bassham's Mexicans lets the mules run away many more times he will have to employ an extra hand in his shop.

Automobile Prices

The Price Auto Co, O. B. Price mgr., and local dealers here gives out the following.

Reports from correspondents indicate that the Hudson price cut 10 days ago has affected sales of competing companies.

Dealers handling other cars have in some cases been frank enough to admit that the cut has deterred prospective clients of theirs from completing purchases, on belief the price of their particular car was about to be reduced or shortly would be. Others as frankly admit the cut has cost them prospects who have turned to Hudson with its lower price. There is no manner in which total effect of this cut can be calculated, but from reports received it is apparent the effect has been considerable and has been adversely felt in practically all competing lines.

This situation bears out our belief expressed last week, that Hudson's bid for greater volume at lower levels is proving effective and that producers of cars in the same class will be obliged to follow. This is particularly true in the cases of smaller scale producers upon whom a price cut at this time imposes a greater hardship than it imposes on Hudson. Substantiating this belief in an impending general price cut is word from our correspondents in the various auto manufacturing centers that officials have held earnest discussion concerning Hudson's action.

An Unknown Historical Fact

DID you know that George Washington, the adopted Father of our Country, just before he got on the Ferry to cross the Delaware for the Photographing of that now famous Picture, Did you know that he smoked two sacks of 'Bull' Durham while he was waiting for the Ferry? (things were just as late in his War, as they were in our last one). Now I have never heard of this 'Bull' Durham episode before, neither have I ever heard it denied. So if it's never either been affirmed or denied, there is no reason to disbelieve that it's not true. 'Bull' Durham originated in Virginia, and Washington lived in Virginia, and he was a great man to patronize home industries. And as Washington was the best man of his day, and Durham the best tobacco of its day, there is no plausible reason to doubt that these two most excellent Institutions didn't readily recognize the good in each other and get together.

METHODIST CHURCH IS MADE INTO ATTRACTIVE BUILDING

The First Methodist church of Colorado, recently remodeled throughout, is now among the most attractive church buildings in this part of the state. The building was repaired and newly decorated at considerable expense, financed by members of the congregation by popular subscription.

The outside walls of the building was given two coats of cement plastering with pebble dash finish. The roof on north side of the building was replaced new and the entire roof and all exterior wood work was painted.

On the inside there is evident just as much improvement as one would observe from the outside of the building. The walls were newly decorated, all woodwork, including the floors painted and new, attractive lighting fixtures added.

The basement of the church also came in for its share of this improvement work. This floor was entirely gone over with paint brush and made more convenient and attractive for the children's department of the Sunday school. A new entrance, leading from the rear of the building into the basement, was added.

The old Colorado Centenary Methodist church was erected in 1884 soon after the congregation was organized here. In 1914, during the pastorate of Rev. R. A. Clements, now a building contractor of Colorado, the basement and south wing was added. The entire building is of brick construction. Clements also built the attractive brick cottage used as the pastor's home.

Simmons College Commencement

Abilene, Texas, May 20.—An old time West Texas barbecue will be one attraction during the thirty-fourth commencement of Simmons College, to be held May 29-June 4, which time Simmons College will begin its career as a university. The commencement program will begin on Friday evening, May 29 with a concert by the Fine Arts department. On Saturday evening the fine arts exhibit will be displayed at the art building. The commencement sermon will be preached Sunday morning the speaker being Rev. A. C. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist church, Cisco, an alumnus of the institution.

On Monday evening, June 1st, a religious pageant, "History of the Baptists" will be given on the campus. Several hundred people will be used in this pageant in which sight will be shown into early Christian customs, and the disadvantages under which early Christians in America worshipped God.

On Tuesday, June 4th the formal opening of the presidents' beautiful new home on the campus, will be held. The annual alumni banquet will be held on Wednesday evening.

The commencement address will be delivered Thursday morning at the First Baptist Church by Dr. Lincoln McConnell of Oklahoma City. Following this address about 100 students will have degrees conferred upon them. As a result of the filing of the new charter for Simmons at Austin a few days ago, which changes the name of the institution from Simmons College to Simmons University, the diplomas of the graduating class this year will have "Simmons University" on their diplomas.

Following the graduating exercises an old time West Texas barbecue will be spread on the university campus. The trustees are planning to make this one of the really big events of West Texas for the year. Thousands of friends of Simmons hundreds of former students are expected to be present on this occasion to celebrate the beginning of Simmons University.

Simmons University is a product of the indomitable spirit of the West. It had its beginning thirty-five years ago as a small academy. It has had a sturdy growth along with the development of the great Western section of Texas, until it now has an annual enrollment of over twelve hundred students.

Mary Broadus Honored

Mary Broadus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Broadus of Colorado was honored last week by students attending Texas Christian University at Fort Worth when she was chosen president of the Footlight club, one of the most popular fraternity student organizations of the university. Miss Broadus was elected because of her unusual ability as a public speaker and the interest she has shown in student club work at the university.—Colorado Record.

Miss Broadus' mother was recently elected president of the Sixth District of Texas Federation of Woman's clubs. Both mother and daughter have many friends in Sweetwater.—Sweetwater Daily Reporter.

MITCHELL CO., HOUSEWIFE HAS ATTRACTIVE KITCHEN

The kitchen of Mrs. James Bodine of the Buford community, is rated high as to arrangement, cleanliness and beauty, according to Miss Jennie Camp, expert of A. & M. College, who was here Friday to check up on this kitchen. Mrs. Bodine, winner of first prize in the recent county better kitchen contest, is competing for first state prize.

Mrs. Joe R. Johnson of north of Loraine, won first prize in the west-

Texas district on her kitchen last year. Miss Irma Sealy, home demonstration agent, under whose supervision the contest is being conducted in this county, is optimistic over the prospects of Mrs. Bodine winning first place in the State contest, soon to close.

T. W. Stonerod left Monday for Houston where he is attending the annual State Banker's association parley. Stonerod was scheduled to deliver an address before the convention.

COLORADO WOMAN WRITES OF BAPTIST W. M. U. MEETING

Mrs. M. C. Bishop, who, with her husband, Rev. M. C. Bishop, pastor of the First Baptist church of Colorado attended the Southern Baptist annual convention in Memphis last week, contributes the following article on the Woman's Missionary Union of the church, as shown in reports made at the convention.

On May 12th we left Colorado to attend the convention at Memphis, Tenn. We arrived in Dallas that afternoon and joined many others from different parts of Texas. The South Texas Delegation had gone on the day before. Most of the Woman workers had also gone on previously. We arrived in Memphis early Wednesday morning. It seemed you could see folks from all parts of the compass as they were going toward the City Auditorium. The women held their meeting some distance from the men. But there were autos waiting to carry the women who wanted to attend the meeting.

Mrs. W. C. James had served the women for several years as president but at this meeting she declined to re-election as she felt other duties called for her time. So the women unanimously elected Mrs. W. J. Cox of Memphis, Tenn., who had served her state for sometime as its president. Miss Mallory was re-elected as Secretary. Mrs. Cox is not a strong woman physically, but seems to be a leader among women. She was presented to the Convention by Mrs. James and was given heavy applause by the men.

The women reported a wonderful years work done. They reported all their pledges paid to the $75,000,000 campaign. Wonderful work these women of the south are doing. They are enthusiastic about the work. It seems that the doctrine of evolution is not bothering the women in their work. They seem to think it is well enough to take man in his present condition and deal with him and help him become better by giving him the gospel of Christ.

Several of the leaders among the men addressed the women. Dr. Van Ness said the auto had done much for the rural Sunday school in helping the attendance.

A negro woman, doing settlement work in Memphis told the women of work in a telling manner.

The women could not decide whether they wanted to hold their meetings simultaneously with the men or at some other time. They referred the matter to a committee to report later.

Some mothers carried their babies to the convention. There was a nursery provided for the babies with two of the local W. M. U. workers as attendants. The babies as well as the mothers seemed to have enjoyed the nursery.

The women seemed to have the trouble as the men have in their work, in convention, that is, being heard from the platform. Some placards were exhibited with the word "louder" on it.

The women will meet next year in Houston, Texas at the same time the men meet in their convention.

Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Bishop returned Monday from Memphis, Tenn., where they attended the annual convention of the Southern Baptist Church.

Advertising Keeps Money at Home.

Is an address to the Austin Kiwanis Club, Thomas K. Kelly, editor of Kelly's Magazine, stated that "mail order houses get more orders from Texas than from any other state in the union, and if this continues there are going to be some new merchants in this state in the next few years, and many merchants now in business won't be selling goods to them." He called attention to the fact that the mail order houses spend 10 per cent of their gross sales every year in advertising, adding, "I will make a bond right here that if retail merchants will spend only 2 per cent of their gross sales in advertising each year, putting that advertising into their local papers regularly and backing up their advertising with good merchandise at reasonable prices, the business will show up satisfactorily every year."

That is a strong statement, but it is in line with the experience of every merchant who is making a success of his business. Why not try it? So many have succeeded that way that it is no longer an experiment.

Truthfulness and Salesmanship Necessary.

Newspaper space alone will not sell goods. The advertising must be given thought and must tell attractively what the merchant has for sale. Said Mr. Kelly: "Tell your message about the goods you have through the newspapers and tell that message truthfully and give the public the news value of that advertising and you will see your business grow at an astounding rate." There is more to business, though, than that. Clerks must know the business and the goods and be able to present their selling points to customers. They must show interest in pleasing customers. Advertising will draw the crowds to the store, but the clerks must sell the goods. To do this the goods must meet the expectations created by the advertising. The general volume of business throughout the country is growing every year, and the merchant whose business is not growing accordingly has only his own business methods or lack of methods to blame.

Emphasizing the Wrong Things.

There is something wrong in government when a state has to pay more to maintain its courts than it pays for its school system and when the penitentiaries and insane asylums have to be given priority over schools in legislative appropriations. Of course there must be courts to try criminals and to settle disputes and the public has to bear the expense. It is necessary to confine the criminal and the insane. But it does not seem to occur to those in authority that if the state would give the right attention to the education, the health, and the general welfare of the youth, there would be a few decades less need for asylums and penitentiaries. The system is wrong that gives maximum attention to punishment and mental treatment and minimum attention to prevention of crime and insanity.

The Railroads and the Busses.

Railroads are complaining at the competition of the bus lines in both freight and passenger business, and are endeavoring to create a sentiment for stricter regulation of the motor transportation business. Still the figures show that the roads are making more money than they have ever made despite this new competition at which they are complaining. It seems that the railroads would do well to recognize the fact that motor transportation would never have become popular unless the public had been made to feel the need of it; that it merely meets a demand that the railroads are not satisfactorily filling. The railroads have been too slow in delivering their shipments, especially the local shipments, and the trucks have profited by that slowness. Rates in some cases may have been too high for local shipments, and to these delivery charges have to be added. The railroads are themselves to blame if they have encouraged competition through their slowness, their overcharges, and their indifference to the public good.

The World Moves Rapidly.

Twenty years ago one would not have thought it possible for motor trucks and busses ever to become competitors of the railroads. The automobile was then regarded as rather an expensive fad for the rich. Today it is the most universal means of travel. In a few years the airplane may be just as popular. Already it is being used much for hurried trips, mail is being transmitted by plane, and airplanes express and freight shipments are being made. When we think of the automobile, the airplane, and radio, we wonder just what will be the next development in speed.

Bringing the World Together.

The best result obtained from international conferences like that of the advertising men in Houston is that people of many nations come to know each other and to have sympathetic feeling for the people of the whole world. Most of the misunderstanding in the world is due to ignorance of the problems confronting others. When people come together to discuss their affairs, differences are nearly always forgotten.

WAR TAX REMITTED ON SALE CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS HERE

The Internal Revenue Department has remitted war tax revenue on all season tickets to be sold on account of the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua, to play a week's engagement in Colorado beginning May 26, under auspices of the Colorado Chautauqua Association, Rev. J. E. Chase, president of the association, stated Saturday.

A tax of ten percent, totalling 25 cents on the adults and 10 cents of the child's season ticket had been assessed by the department. Owing to the fact, however, the Chautauqua is to be operated solely for educational and entertainment purposes, without profit to the local association, the government rescinded the tax assessment.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Rowland and children felt for Ohio last Thursday in response to a telegram that Mr. Rowland's father had died.

The ladies of the W. M. U. served chicken dinner in the Morrison building Saturday. We can surely testify to the fact that they are good cooks as we saw quite a few who were very much indisposed after having dined there owing to the quantity and not the quality however. Proceeds of dinner was near forty-five dollars.

Little Bobbie Burns who has been seriously sick for the past two weeks is much improved at this writing.

Mrs. Board who lives six miles south of town, was bitten by a rattlesnake on Thursday of last week. She was brought to town where Dr. Pirtle dressed the wound and so far she is getting along splendidly.

With but few exceptions, our people are enjoying good health.

Little Cora Bell Taylor daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Taylor was carried to Colorado Friday where Drs. Root and Pirtle operated for abscess of the lung. So far she is getting along nicely.

Miss Drexell Hall of Blackwell and Miss Jewell Spike and Mr. Currier of Lorraine were pleasant callers in the home of Mr. N. A. Terrell Saturday evening.

N. A. Terrell and family left on their vacation trip Wednesday. They expect to visit in San Antonio, Houston, Galveston, Texarkana, Bryans Mill and Dallas while away and will be gone from home till almost July 1st.

There is considerable talk of outside capital putting in a waterworks system in our town soon.

The B. Y. P. U. with a few of the Leaguers enjoyed a picnic on Morgan Creek Friday evening.

Some fifteen boys responded to the call of scout master, J. B. Parrish, and met him at the school building last Wednesday. The organization of the scout movement was completed and the boys were started on their course of training for tenderfoot and other degrees in scout craft. The boys are very enthusiastic over the work, and we have promise of a well trained organization soon, under the direction of our able scout master.

The W. M. S. entertained their husbands and families with a luncheon spread on Morgan Creek last Thursday evening at six o'clock. A very enjoyable affair it was. Some seventy-five people partook of the delicacies and enjoyed them very much. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the good ladies for so pleasant an occasion.

The Coahoma ball team came over and trimmed the Westbrook team to the tune of 14 to 9, Sunday afternoon.

The West Texas Electric Company has been busy for several days in installing meters and otherwise connecting the houses with the high line that passes through our town.

The telephone company is completing their office building preparatory to connecting up the telephone system. We are promised service in ten days.

A great deal of activity is going on in the oil field, three locations were made by the California Company lately and rigs will go up on them soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parrish attended the meeting of the county federation of clubs at Colorado Friday night.

Farming business is very brisk in our territory. The farmers are at it, early and late, getting seed into the ground. We are all highly elated over prospects of a bumper crop this year.

The road machines have been busy on the highways since the rains and have them in fairly good condition.

Our Sunday schools report attendance increasing as well as interest. The Methodist school had the largest attendance last Sunday that it has had in a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Shelburn of Stanton visited in the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cox, Sunday.

There will be a box supper at the Theatre building Thursday night for the benefit of the baseball club. The Choral club will furnish music. Everybody is invited to come and bring a box and buy one. This is a good cause and let's all help.

Local anglers report good luck in the Isaac Watters line lately. Several large strings of the finy tribe have been brought in as evidence.

At an election held May 18th, Westbrook Independent School district voted unanimously for a bond issue of $30,000 to build and equip a modern school building. This means that we will have a beautiful building for the next session of school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Griffith of Big Spring were visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Nixon last week.

ART MIX AT MISSION AGAIN THIS SATURDAY

The hundreds of Saturday picture patrons who admire the venerable Western film star, Art Mix, will be highly pleased to know that this favorite is appearing again Saturday at the Mission. "The Man from the Rio Grande," is the title of the thrilling action play in which Mr. Mix appears, and it is said to be one of the best of the season, in which Mix is starring. It is scheduled for a one day showing only and will no doubt be a rich treat for the hundreds of local admirers.

COLORADO CITIZENS TAKE INTEREST IN "BETTER HOMES"

The interest in Better Homes Week was much improved over the effort last year. More homes were opened for the visitors and more people went to see them. On Wednesday a stream of visitors called at Mrs. George Morgan's, Mrs. J. B. Morgan's, Mrs. Ray Richardson, Mrs. C. R. Earnest, Mrs. A. H. Dolman, Mrs. J. B. Dobbs, Mrs. C. P. Gary, Mrs. G. D. Foster, and Mrs. Landau.

On Tuesday Mrs. Bill Simpson, Mrs. W. W. Whipkey, Mrs. Tom Pritchett in town, and Mrs. James Bodine and Mrs. M. C. Holt in the country. At Mrs. Dobbs' and Mrs. Gary, delicious punch was served and at Mrs. Holt's home made ice cream and cake were served to the big crowd who were fortunate to get to make the drive.

It is not only a pleasure and comfort to those who own these splendid homes but it was a source of joy to their friends to see such remarkable improvement in homes both in town and country the last few years. Many rural homes now have lights, running water and many labor saving devices in the home. Well kept lawns, gardens, orchards and poultry pens also greet the eye and make one think West Texas is truly a progressive and prosperous section of the State. During the two days more than 200 ladies and gentlemen called to inspect the homes.

Besides the visiting of the homes a program of talks, music and readings was given at the Methodist church Friday evening. Also the grades in the public school studying art under Miss Woodward made posters on their idea of Better Homes. Many of them were very attractive. The committee is truly thankful for the splendid co-operation from the press, pulpit public and feels that much benefit has been and will be derived from this week's work having still better homes in Mitchell county.

Are You Fair to your home town Merchants

When money is slack; when crops fail; when credit is needed it is the home town merchant whom we seek for friendly service. He tides us over with credit; he charges no interest; he provides us with reliable, guaranteed merchandise fairly priced.

In short, he holds the bag for us. That is why he deserves all our patronage in times of plenty as well as in days of stress.

And isn't it a pity that there are many who use him only as a leaning post—to tide them over the slack days and use their cash to fill the coffers of the big town mail order houses who wouldn't trust them over night—with or without interest.

We all need that merchant—we need his confidence, his friendship. Our town needs his enterprise—the service he renders in handling only guaranteed, first-grade goods that he is here to stand back of day in and day out.

Let's give him our cash when we have it. Let's pay his bills promptly as we can. Let's earn and merit, the confidence he has placed in us and in our community. Let's support him—we need him and he needs us, our trade and our unselfish good will.
