STICK YOUR HEAD IN YOKE AND PULL FOR THE MASTER

BAPTIST PASTOR PLEADS FOR SELF DENIAL EVER YDAY OF REVIVAL

"Unless we are willing to stick our head in the yoke with Jesus and go to pulling with Him, we have no right to the claim of a Christian," Rev. M. C. Bishop, pastor of the First Baptist church, stated in a sermon delivered at the First Methodist church Sunday evening. The service was the seventh of a series of union services held by the five Protestant churches of Colorado cooperating in the Rayburn revival, which will open in Colorado Friday night of this week.

Rev. Mr. Bishop read as his text the 26th verse of Luke 14, quoting the Master in giving requirements to his followers to become disciples: "If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and sisters, and brethren, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple."

Bishop made a strong appeal to his congregation for self denial and team work during the revival. Interests of self must be forgotten and the cause of the lost become the paramount ideal in the hearts of all Christians, if Colorado is to be taken for the Master during the ensuing series of revival meetings, he outlined.

"The twelve disciples of Christ had no airplanes, no railroads and no automobiles in which to travel," Bishop stated. "The donkey was, perhaps the fastest mode of transportation in those days and for the most part people walked in journeying from place to place. In spite of this handicap, those twelve men accepted Christ's command to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature, and before the last one of those disciples had died, the gospel had been preached in every part of the then known world."

Rev. W. M. Elliott, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, presided at the services, Rev. J. E. Chase, pastor of the First Christian church, read the Scripture, Luke 14:25-35. The choir was directed by Chester Thomas, with Miss Coral Bishop pianist. Rev. Mr. Chase and Miss Motley, the latter a representative of the chautauqua, made announcements about the chautauqua bill here this week and urged the people to give the programs their moral and financial support.

BOY SCOUT PRESIDENT AT NEW YORK FOR CONVENTION

Rev. W. M. Elliott, president of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, left Monday for New York to attend the National Boy Scout workers convention, in session there Thursday and Friday of this week. He will return to Kansas City to attend graduation exercises at Park College, where a son, Marion Elliott, is to graduate June 2. Mrs. Elliott and their son will join him at Kansas City.

SHRINE SPECIAL DUE ARRIVE IN COLORADO 5:53 P. M. TODAY

Moslah Temple Shrine Special, carrying Texas Shriners to the National conclave at Los Angeles, is scheduled to arrive in Colorado Friday afternoon of this week at 5:53. The special will make a fifteen minute stop here and the party will depart for a parade and short personal visit. M. S. Goldman of the Colorado Booster Band, and Mrs. Goldman will accompany the special to Los Angeles. Mr. Goldman will play first cornet in the Shrine band.

LIONS CLUB URGE THAT HYMAN ROAD BE IMPROVED

The Lions Club renewed its interest in the Hyman road problem Friday when a committee was named to take the matter up with the Commissioners' Court and supplement the request of the citizens of that community that a bridge be erected across Hackberry Creek so that people there may have a good road into Colorado.

Annual Convention Band Teachers be Held Here

The annual convention, West Texas Band Teachers Association, will be held in Colorado next January. Colorado easily won this distinction over all competing West Texas cities at a conference of officials of the Association in Breckenridge Saturday. The meeting at Breckenridge was called by M. S. Goldman of Colorado, vice president of the state Association and in charge of the West Texas division. Selection of Colorado as the next convention city was practically unanimous on the first ballot, this city receiving 17 of the 19 voted polled by officials present.

"A telegram received from the Colorado Chamber of Commerce just before the balloting had much to do with our winning the convention," Goldman stated upon his return to Colorado Sunday morning. The telegram pledged full cooperation by the people of Colorado and suggested that owing to the fact the Gold Medal Band of West Texas was in this city, it was fitting that the convention be held here.

BRYAN DECLINES INVITATION TO ATTEND LUNCHEON HERE

Invitation of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce and Lions Club to Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska, to attend a luncheon to be given in his honor here Thursday of next week, was declined in a communication received here Friday from Mr. Bryan's private secretary. Governor Bryan is to lecture at the Chautauqua Thursday evening, May 28.

The distinguished statesman, however, stated that he would be delighted to meet as many Colorado people as he could in an informal way at his hotel.

Judge George D. Alden, of Mass., prominent jurist who is to appear on the Chautauqua bill Friday evening, May 29, will be invited to visit the Lions Club Friday of next week.

ESTIMATE FURNISHED ON PROPOSED BRIDGE AT HYMAN

W. B. Moore of Abilene, representing the Austin Bridge Company of Dallas spent Tuesday at Colorado and in the Hyman community in conference with Commissioner Jno. D. Lane as to the proposed bridge across Hackberry Creek near Hyman. Lane and the bridge contractor visited site of the proposed bridge Tuesday afternoon to obtain specifications from which to make an estimate of the cost.

It was not known here whether Commissioners' court would construct the bridge as requested by citizens of that community or not, but it was definitely promised that relief of some nature would be provided the public of Hyman. Officials of the Chamber of Commerce and the Lions club have urged that the bridge be erected without delay.

KING ELECTED PRINCIPAL OF AMARILLO HIGH SCHOOL

E. Frank King, superintendent of the Colorado schools for the past several years, received the information Friday that he had been elected principal of the Amarillo High school. King stated that he had accepted the appointment and will remove to Amarillo before opening of school there in September.

The Amarillo contract carries a material increase in salary and is regarded by friends of the former superintendent here as a material promotion for Mr. King. Under his direction the Colorado schools have made commendable progress.

PULLMAN CAFE MOVES INTO NEW WALLNUT ST. LOCATION

The Pullman Cafe, owned and managed by J. M. Terry, opened for business Tuesday morning in the C. L. Root building at 104 Walnut st. The Hutchinson building on Second street, formerly occupied by the cafe, is being rebuilt throughout by the owner, H. L. Hutchinson and is to become the future home of the H. L. Hutchinson & Company furniture and hardware store here.

NEW COMPLETIONS, NEW LOCATIONS MADE IN FIELD

MILLER FOUR BEST PRODUCER YET COMPLETED IN COUNTY

The California Company announces another new location this week, offsetting Adams one of Morrison & Thomson. The location, designated Missouri State Life No. 1, is in section 10, block 28 H. & T. C. Ry Co survey.

Elder 2-2 and Elder 2-3 of the California Company are drilling in at around 3,000 foot level. No. 2-2 was drilling at 2,935 feet Thursday and No. 2-3 at 2,980 feet. 1,800 feet of oil was standing in the latter well Thursday. At Morrison 13 the crew is drilling out cement at 2,717 feet.

Rigs are going up at two new locations on the California Company lease in the Westbrook field and materials are being moved to the third. These new locations, announced last week are Abrams, 9, Butler 2 and Womack 1.

Miller Four of the Sloan Oil Company, new completion in Section 22, Block 28, is the best well ever drilled in the field, according to D. J. Lewis, of Colorado, contractor who drilled the well. Lewis stated Wednesday that the well was making more than 300 barrels every 24 hours and expressed belief it would settle down for a consistent pumper of it at least 250 barrels.

The well was by odds the best natural producer ever drilled in this county. Natural production before the hole was given a nitro jar was 150 barrels, a new precedent in the field. The well was shot with 270 quarts Saturday afternoon at from 3,035 feet back to 2,875 feet. The crew expect to complete cleaning out, land tubing and connect the producer with pipe line early next week.

Marcus Snyder announced location Monday for a test in the Anna R. Keith survey, section 10, block 28, H. & T. C. Ry Co. survey. The location is near the Adams One in section 11 and recently completed for a production of 150 barrels.

S. P. Barnum and associates, independent operators of Amarillo, are the latest developers to enter the field. The concern has recently completed blocking acreage in the Hyman community and announced location for their first test, in the south east quarter of section 32, block 17, S. P. Survey. H. S. Hyman of that community was in Colorado Monday and announced that drilling at the location would be started without delay. Hyman stated that additional locations were expected to be made in that territory within the next few days.

Scott No. 1 of Sloan, Owens & Stalker, on the Scott lease at Hyman is drilling below 1,900 feet. During the past few days several representatives of oil companies operating out of Colorado have been in this section adding prestige to the claims of Hyman citizens that additional tests are soon to be drilled there.

The Northwest Company has completed cleaning out at their Moore No. 1 near Ira and the well is now on the pump. This well, drilled several months ago for deep production, was plugged back to the shallow sand at 1,800 feet. Petroleum of an unusually high gravity test being pumped from this well and Moore No. 2, nearby.

The crew at Ellwood No. 1 thirty miles south of Colorado on the Spade ranch, has resumed drilling after landing 10-inch casing at 1,125 feet. The test was down 1,200 feet Wednesday.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS AT SNYDER MADE BY J. E. CHASE

Rev. J. E. Chase of Colorado delivered the commencement address at the Snyder High School Thursday evening of last week. The occasion witnessed the close of the most successful school year in the history of Snyder. A large class received diplomas following delivery of the address by Rev. Mr. Chase.

Mrs. John Daniels and little daughter of Serria Blanca are visiting her father, Judge A. J. Coe and other relatives here.

COLORADO PUBLIC ELATED OVER CHAUTAUQUA TALENT

PREMIER BILL OPENED FRIDAY BEST EVER BROUGHT TO THIS CITY

The five programs rendered up to Thursday afternoon at Colorado by the Redpath-Horner Chautauquas have received the universal endorsement of the people of this community as the best ever brought to this city. So far the chautauqua management have easily sustained their promise to give to Colorado the nation's best talent throughout the weeks' engagement.

The bill was opened Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock by the Cathedral Choir, under the personal direction of Ellsworth Gilbert, an outstanding character in the American musical world. There are nine people in this party and every one of them demonstrated talent and training seldom found outside the larger cities. The choir gave a full concert at the afternoon bill and then again Tuesday evening came on for a short prelude before the lecture given by Leon Cope, the "Bill Nye of today."

Cope and the company sending him on this concert will have no cause to offer apology to any of the thousands of chautauqua auditors throughout the South, if he delivers the goods everywhere as he did in Colorado. One minute the large crowd at Union Tabernacle would be rippling with laughter. The next, absolute silence prevailed and many were seen to raise their hand to brush away an unbidden tear as the famous speaker changed his vocal touch from merriment to that of sadness. Colorado will long remember the lesson brought to them by this man.

Wednesday afternoon James A. Burns, president of the Onedia Institute in Kentucky, delivered his famous address. This interesting and quaint speaker is known throughout America as "Burns of the Mountains." It was he who ended the famous "Clay County Feuds," and no living man, perhaps, knows more of the history of Tennessee and Kentucky than he. Wednesday night every one among the large crowd at the tabernacle had an experience long to be remembered. "Give and Take," a farce comedy in three acts. The crowd just laughed and laughed and laughed. This number was a headliner, as the others preceding it.

Another musical company came on for the first performance of the day Thursday. A company of musical artists under direction of Clayton H. Staples of the Chicago Art Institute. Those who missed this program missed one of the best on the week's calendar.

Thursday night was expected to be one of the biggest nights of the entire chautauqua. Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska and Democratic nominee for vice president last year, was to deliver his address "The Business of America." Judge L. W. Sandusky, Colorado Attorney introduced the distinguished visitor.

Thus ends just half of the chautauqua program here. Two programs are to be given Friday, Saturday and Monday the engagement ending Monday night with an aggregation of fun makers.

Rev. J. E. Chase, president of the Colorado Chautauqua Association, stated Thursday that he was elated over the programs being given and felt that efforts of the guarantors to give the Colorado public worthwhile entertainment was meeting the universal approval of all.

ROOT PURCHASES SITE FOR PROPOSED NEW SANITARIUM

Dr. C. L. Root, chief surgeon at the Colorado Sanitarium, has purchased an entire block in North Colorado as the site for a proposed new sanitarium. Tentative plans for the structure have not been completed yet.

The Colorado postoffice will be closed all day Saturday out of recognition of Memorial day, Joe Y. Fraser, assistant postmaster, stated Wednesday.

Unification Plan Voted Down at Roscoe Meeting

Methodists of the Sweetwater district in annual conference at Roscoe Tuesday and Wednesday of this week used "steam roller" tactics in applying overwhelming defeat to the plan to unite the Northern and Southern branches of the Methodist church. The vote against the plan was more than five to one, according to Rev. S. H. Young, pastor of the Stanton Methodist church, who stopped off to visit relatives in Colorado enroute home from the conference.

"The opposing lineup registered one of the most decisive victories I have ever witnessed in a convention," Rev. Mr. Young stated. "Every delegate elected at the conference to represent Methodism of the Sweetwater district at the annual conference is opposed to the proposed merger."

That the plan of the unificationist will be hopelessly lost is now conceded among a number of Colorado Methodists. The great majority of district conferences throughout the connection are giving expression of their opposition to the plan, some of them with much larger majorities than that voted at Roscoe.

RAINS MEANS MUCH TO BOTH FARMERS AND CATTLEMEN

A total of .48 inches of rain fell at Colorado within the twenty four hours ending Thursday morning, E. Keathley, local weather observer, reported. The rain was reported to have been general throughout the Colorado territory.

Farmers and cattlemen report that the rain is of much value to them and that crops and grass will grow off unusually well.

PARADE ANNOUNCES COMING OF COLORADO CHAUTAUQUA

An attractive parade which passed over Oak, Third, Chesnut and Second streets Saturday afternoon, heralded approach of chautauqua week at Colorado, which was opened at Union Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon. A number of decorated automobiles representing civic clubs of the city were entered. The parade was headed by the Ford Quartet and numerous other attractions followed in the line of march.

Prizes awarded contestants in the parade were announced as follows: Cleverest girl, Edna May Murphy; prettiest girl, Francis Lawlis; cutest boy, Tom Hughes, Jr.; noisiest noise maker, Lewis Cooper and Earl Porter; most original costume, Juanita Donnell.

Miss Bonny Motley, director of the Junior Chautauqua programs for the week had charge of the parade.

CHOIR

A rehearsal will be held at 7 sharp at First Methodist church Friday evening of all those who will sing in Choir at the Tabernacle during Rayburn Revival.

If you are sixteen years of age or over and can sing at all we want you there.

The rehearsal will close in time for all to attend the Chautauqua. All singers expected.

CIRCLE MEETINGS

The Baptist Women met in Circle meeting Monday. Circle No. 1 met with Mrs. J. C. Hall. The lesson was Winning to Christ. After the study visits were made to two shut-ins.

Circle No. 3 met with Mrs. A. L. Whipkey and each studied the ministry of women. The Y. W. Circle met with Mrs. Simon and completed stewardships and Missions. All circles adjourned until after the revival meeting.

Mrs. Hattie McKell of Mississippi and formerly of Colorado is here visiting old time friends and attending to business.

RAYBURN AGAIN ANNOUNCE CHANGE IN REVIVAL DATES

FIRST SERVICE CO-OPERATIVE CAMPAIGN WILL BE HELD SUNDAY MORNING

Further demonstrating his wish to avoid all possible conflict with any other attractions during the cooperative revival here, Dr. James Rayburn, evangelist, telegraphed his manager here Thursday morning to defer opening of the Colorado meeting to Sunday morning. Last week it was announced that the meeting had been postponed from Sunday to Friday of this week. Reason for the change of dates is because of the chautauqua which is not to close until Monday night.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Christian church Mrs. McKee will deliver her first address to women only. Every woman of the community is urged to attend this special service.

Sunday morning at 10:30 starts the greatest revival services ever held in Colorado. Mr. McKee of Chicago director of music and Mrs. McKee and Mr. N. M. Gogges of White Hall, Ill., will play the two large pianos secured for the great campaign. The music will be a great feature of the campaign. A choir of 200 voices will be on platform to render special selections during the meetings.

Mr. Rayburn will give one of his great addresses Sunday afternoon at 1:30 in the Tabernacle. His subject is "Big Business." This is for men only.

Every man should hear this address. Hear about the John Huyler the great Candy King of New York. It is a thriller.

Sunday night at 7:30 a great mass meeting for everyone. Come early for a good seat. All committees are working to make this campaign a success.

A nursery has been provided so that all mothers can attend the services and leave their small children in the care of a competent attendant.

SHURTLIFF BUILDING FIRED BY INCENDIARIAN, IS BELIEF

The John Shurtleff blacksmith shop, completely destroyed by fire Thursday morning, was fired by an incendiarian, in the opinion of Fire Chief E. M. Majors. Majors stated Thursday morning that the fire department had been called to the building the third time within the week.

The building was found to be on fire one night about a week ago. Shortly after midnight Thursday morning flames were noticed issuing from the front of the building. The fire department reached the scene in time to extinguish the building before much damage had been done. At four o'clock the second alarm from the Shurtleff building was received and the structure was almost burned to the ground when the fire department arrived. The flames originated in rear of the building the last time.

The shop was located on West Second street.

ALL SHRINERS REQUESTED TO MEET SPECIAL FRIDAY P. M.

S. A. Sloan requests that all local Shriners assemble at the Texas & Pacific passenger station Friday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock to welcome members of Moslah Temple, Fort Worth, who are scheduled to arrive by special train at 5:53 p. m. The visitors will spend fifteen minutes in Colorado. All local Shriners are requested to wear their fezes on this occasion.

TABERNACLE IN ORDER FOR RAYBURN REVIVAL MEETINGS

Union Tabernacle, where the Rayburn revival is to be held, is in condition and ready for the services. The local committee of which Dr. P. C. Coleman is chairman, has re-arranged the interior of the building moving the platform from the south side to the west end. A large sounding board has been constructed over the platform, making the acoustics much better.

STICK YOUR HEAD IN YOKE AND PULL FOR THE MASTER

BAPTIST PASTOR PLEADS FOR SELF DENIAL EVER YDAY OF REVIVAL

"Unless we are willing to stick our head in the yoke with Jesus and go to pulling with Him, we have no right to the claim of a Christian," Rev. M. C. Bishop, pastor of the First Baptist church, stated in a sermon delivered at the First Methodist church Sunday evening. The service was the seventh of a series of union services held by the five Protestant churches of Colorado cooperating in the Rayburn revival, which will open in Colorado Friday night of this week.

Rev. Mr. Bishop read as his text the 26th verse of Luke 14, quoting the Master in giving requirements to his followers to become disciples: "If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and sisters, and brethren, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple."

Bishop made a strong appeal to his congregation for self denial and team work during the revival. Interests of self must be forgotten and the cause of the lost become the paramount ideal in the hearts of all Christians, if Colorado is to be taken for the Master during the ensuing series of revival meetings, he outlined.

"The twelve disciples of Christ had no airplanes, no railways and no automobiles in which to travel," Bishop stated. "The donkey was, perhaps the fastest mode of transportation in those days and for the most part people walked in journeying from place to place. In spite of this handicap, those twelve men accepted Christ's command to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature, and before the last one of those disciples had died, the gospel had been preached in every part of the then known world."

Rev. W. M. Elliott, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, presided at the services, Rev. J. E. Chase, pastor of the First Christian church, read the Scripture, Luke 14:25-35. The choir was directed by Chester Thomas, with Miss Coral Bishop pianist. Rev. Mr. Chase and Miss Motley, the latter a representative of the chautauqua, made announcements about the chautauqua bill here this week and urged the people to give the programs their moral and financial support.

BOY SCOUT PRESIDENT AT NEW YORK FOR CONVENTION

Rev. W. M. Elliott, president of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, left Monday for New York to attend the National Boy Scout workers convention, in session there Thursday and Friday of this week. He will return to Kansas City to attend graduation exercises at Park College, where a son, Marion Elliott, is to graduate June 2. Mrs. Elliott and their son will join him at Kansas City.

SHRINE SPECIAL DUE ARRIVE IN COLORADO 5:53 P. M. TODAY

Moslah Temple Shrine Special, carrying Texas Shriners to the National conclave at Los Angeles, is scheduled to arrive in Colorado Friday afternoon of this week at 5:53. The special will make a fifteen minute stop here and the party will detain for a parade and short personal visit. M. S. Goldman of the Colorado Booster Band, and Mrs. Goldman will accompany the special to Los Angeles. Mr. Goldman will play first cornet in the Shrine band.

LIONS CLUB URGE THAT HYMAN ROAD BE IMPROVED

The Lions Club renewed its interest in the Hyman road problem Friday when a committee was named to take the matter up with the Commissioners' Court and supplement the request of the citizens of that community that a bridge be erected across Hackberry Creek so that people there may have a good road into Colorado.

Annual Convention Band Teachers be Held Here

The annual convention, West Texas Band Teachers Association, will be held in Colorado next January. Colorado easily won this distinction over all competing West Texas cities at a conference of officials of the Association in Breckenridge Saturday. The meeting at Breckenridge was called by M. S. Goldman of Colorado, vice president of the state Association and in charge of the West Texas division. Selection of Colorado as the next convention city was practically unanimous on the first ballot, this city receiving 17 of the 19 voted polled by officials present.

"A telegram received from the Colorado Chamber of Commerce just before the balloting had much to do with our winning the convention," Goldman stated upon his return to Colorado Sunday morning. The telegram pledged full cooperation by the people of Colorado and suggested that owing to the fact the Gold Medal Band of West Texas was in this city, it was fitting that the convention be held here.

BRYAN DECLINES INVITATION TO ATTEND LUNCHEON HERE

Invitation of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce and Lions Club to Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska, to attend a luncheon to be given in his honor here Thursday of next week, was declined in a communication received here Friday from Mr. Bryan's private secretary. Governor Bryan is to lecture at the Chautauqua Thursday evening, May 28.

The distinguished statesman, however, stated that he would be delighted to meet as many Colorado people as he could in an informal way at his hotel.

Judge George D. Alden, of Mass., prominent jurist who is to appear on the Chautauqua bill Friday evening, May 29, will be invited to visit the Lions Club Friday of next week.

ESTIMATE FURNISHED ON PROPOSED BRIDGE AT HYMAN

W. B. Moore of Abilene, representing the Austin Bridge Company of Dallas spent Tuesday at Colorado and in the Hyman community in conference with Commissioner Jno. D. Lane as to the proposed bridge across Hackberry Creek near Hyman. Lane and the bridge contractor visited site of the proposed bridge Tuesday afternoon to obtain specifications from which to make an estimate of the cost.

It was not known here whether Commissioners' court would construct the bridge as requested by citizens of that community or not, but it was definitely promised that relief of some nature would be provided the public of Hyman. Officials of the Chamber of Commerce and the Lions club have urged that the bridge be erected without delay.

KING ELECTED PRINCIPAL OF AMARILLO HIGH SCHOOL

E. Frank King, superintendent of the Colorado schools for the past several years, received the information Friday that he had been elected principal of the Amarillo High school. King stated that he had accepted the appointment and will remove to Amarillo before opening of school there in September.

The Amarillo contract carries a material increase in salary and is regarded by friends of the former superintendent here as a material promotion for Mr. King. Under his direction the Colorado schools have made commendable progress.

PULLMAN CAFE MOVES INTO NEW WALLNUT ST. LOCATION

The Pullman Cafe, owned and managed by J. M. Terry, opened for business Tuesday morning in the C. L. Root building at 104 Walnut st. The Hutchinson building on Second street, formerly occupied by the cafe, is being rebuilt throughout by the owner, H. L. Hutchinson and is to become the future home of the H. L. Hutchinson & Company furniture and hardware store here.

NEW COMPLETIONS, NEW LOCATIONS MADE IN FIELD

MILLER FOUR BEST PRODUCER YET COMPLETED IN COUNTY

The California Company announces another new location this week, offsetting Adams one of Morrison & Thomson. The location, designated Missouri State Life No. 1, is in section 10, block 28 H. & T. C. Ry Co survey.

Elder 2-2 and Elder 2-3 of the California Company are drilling in at around 3,000 foot level. No. 2-2 was drilling at 2,935 feet Thursday and No 2-3 at 2,980 feet. 1,800 feet of oil was standing in the latter well Thursday. At Morrison 13 the crew is drilling out cement at 2,717 feet.

Rigs are going up at two new locations on the California Company lease in the Westbrook field and materials are being moved to the third. These new locations, announced last week are Abrams, 9, Butler 2 and Womack 1.

Miller Four of the Sloan Oil Company, new completion in Section 22, Block 28, is the best well ever drilled in the field, according to D. J. Lewis, of Colorado, contractor who drilled the well. Lewis stated Wednesday that the well was making more than 300 barrels every 24 hours and expressed belief it would settle down for a consistent pumper of it at least 250 barrels.

The well was by odds the best natural producer ever drilled in this county. Natural production before the hole was given a nitro jar was 150 barrels, a new precedent in the field. The well was shot with 270 quarts Saturday afternoon at from 3,035 feet back to 2,875 feet. The crew expect to complete cleaning out, land tubing and connect the producer with pipe line early next week.

Marcus Snyder announced location Monday for a test in the Anna R. Keith survey, section 10, block 28, H. & T. C. Ry Co. survey. The location is near the Adams One in section 11 and recently completed for a production of 150 barrels.

S. P. Barnum and associates, independent operators of Amarillo, are the latest developers to enter the field. The concern has recently completed blocking acreage in the Hyman community and announced location for their first test, in the south east quarter of section 32, block 17, S. P. Survey. H. S. Hyman of that community was in Colorado Monday and announced that drilling at this location would be started without delay. Hyman stated that additional locations were expected to be made in that territory within the next few days.

Scott No 1 of Sloan, Owens & Stalker, on the Scott lease at Hyman is drilling below 1,900 feet. During the past few days several representatives of oil companies operating out of Colorado have been in this section adding prestige to the claims of Hyman citizens that additional tests are soon to be drilled there.

The Northwest Company has completed cleaning out at their Moore No 1 near Ira and the well is now on the pump. This well, drilled several months ago for deep production, was plugged back to the shallow sand at 1,800 feet. Petroleum of an unusually high gravity test being pumped from this well and Moore No. 2, nearby.

The crew at Ellwood No. 1 thirty miles south of Colorado on the Spade ranch, has resumed drilling after landing 10-inch casing at 1,125 feet. The test was down 1,200 feet Wednesday.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS AT SNYDER MADE BY J. E. CHASE

Rev. J. E. Chase of Colorado delivered the commencement address at the Snyder High School Thursday evening of last week. The occasion witnessed the close of the most successful school year in the history of Snyder. A large class received diplomas following delivery of the address by Rev. Mr. Chase.

Mrs. John Daniels and little daughter of Serria Blanca are visiting her father, Judge A. J. Coe and other relatives here.

Rev. J. E. Chase, president of the Colorado Chautauqua Association, stated Thursday that he was elated over the programs being given and felt that efforts of the guarantors to give the Colorado public worthwhile entertainment was meeting the universal approval of all.

ROOT PURCHASES SITE FOR PROPOSED NEW SANITARIUM

Dr. C. L. Root, chief surgeon at the Colorado Sanitarium, has purchased an entire block in North Colorado as the site for a proposed new sanitarium. Tentative plans for the structure have not been completed yet.

The Colorado postoffice will be closed all day Saturday out of recognition of Memorial day, Joe Y. Fraser, assistant postmaster, stated Wednesday.

Unification Plan Voted Down at Roscoe Meeting

Methodists of the Sweetwater district in annual conference at Roscoe Tuesday and Wednesday of this week used "steam roller" tactics in applying overwhelming defeat to the plan to unite the Northern and Southern branches of the Methodist church. The vote against the plan was more than five to one, according to Rev. S. H. "The opposing lineup registered one of the most decisive victories I have ever witnessed in a convention," Rev. Mr. Young stated. "Every delegate elected at the conference to represent Methodism of the Sweetwater district at the annual conference is opposed to the proposed merger."

That the plan of the unificationist will be hopelessly lost is now conceded among a number of Colorado Methodists. The great majority of district conferences throughout the connection are giving expression of their opposition to the plan, some of them with much larger majorities than that voted at Roscoe.

RAINS MEANS MUCH TO BOTH FARMERS AND CATTLEMEN

A total of .48 inches of rain fell at Colorado within the twenty four hours ending Thursday morning, E. Keathley, local weather observer, reported. The rain was reported to have been general throughout the Colorado territory.

Farmers and cattlemen report that the rain is of much value to them and that crops and grass will grow off unusually well.

PARADE ANNOUNCES COMING OF COLORADO CHAUTAUQUA

An attractive parade which passed over Oak, Third, Chesnut and Second streets Saturday afternoon, heralded approach of chautauqua week at Colorado, which was opened at Union Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon. A number of decorated automobiles representing civic clubs of the city were entertained. The parade was headed by the Ford Quartet and numerous other attractions followed in the line of march.

Prizes awarded contestants in the parade were announced as follows: Cleverest girl, Edna May Murphy; prettiest girl, Francis Lawlis; cutest boy, Tom Hughes, Jr.; noisiest noise maker, Lewis Cooper and Earl Porter; most original costume, Juanita Donnell. Miss Bonny Motley, director of the Junior Chautauqua programs for the week had charge of the parade.

CHOIR

A rehearsal will be held at 7 sharp at First Methodist church Friday evening of all those who will sing in Choir at the Tabernacle during Rayburn Revival.

If you are sixteen years of age or over and can sing at all we want you there. The rehearsal will close in time for all to attend the Chautauqua. All singers expected.

CIRCLE MEETINGS

The Baptist Women met in Circle meeting Monday. Circle No. 1 met with Mrs. J. C. Hall. The lesson was Winning to Christ. After the study visits were made to two shut-ins.

Circle No. 3 met with Mrs. A. L. Whipkey and each studied the ministry of women. The Y. W. Circle met with Mrs. Simon and completed stewardships and Missions. All circles adjourned until after the revival meeting.

Mrs. Hattie McKell of Mississippi and formerly of Colorado is here visiting old time friends and attending to business.

RAYBURN AGAIN ANNOUNCE CHANGE IN REVIVAL DATES

FIRST SERVICE CO-OPERATIVE CAMPAIGN WILL BE HELD SUNDAY MORNING

Further demonstrating his wish to avoid all possible conflict with any other attractions during the cooperative revival here, Dr. James Rayburn, evangelist, telegraphed his manager here Thursday morning to defer opening of the Colorado meeting to Sunday morning. Last week it was announced that the meeting had been postponed from Sunday to Friday of this week. Reason for the change of dates is because of the chautauqua which is not to close until Monday night.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Christian church Mrs. McKee will deliver her first address to women only. Every woman of the community is urged to attend this special service.

Sunday morning at 10:30 starts the greatest revival services ever held in Colorado. Mr. McKee of Chicago director of music and Mrs. McKee and Mr. N. M. Gorges of White Hall, Ill., will play the two large pianos secured for the great campaign. The music will be a great feature of the campaign. A choir of 200 voices will be on platform to render special selections during the meetings.

Mr. Rayburn will give one of his great addresses Sunday afternoon at 1:30 in the Tabernacle. His subject is "Big Business." This is for men only.

Every man should hear this address. Hear about the John Hugler the great Candy King of New York. It is a thriller.

Sunday night at 7:30 a great mass meeting for everyone. Come early for a good seat. All committees are working to make this campaign a success.

A nursery has been provided so that all mothers can attend the services and leave their small children in the care of a competent attendant.

SHURTLEFF BUILDING FRIED BY INCENDIARIAN, IS BELIEF

The John Shurtleff blacksmith shop, completely destroyed by fire Thursday morning, was fired by an incendiarian, in the opinion of Fire Chief E. M. Majors. Majors stated Thursday morning that the fire department had been called to the building the third time within the week.

The building was found to be on fire one night about a week ago. Shortly after midnight Thursday morning flames were noticed issuing from the front of the building. The fire department reached the scene in time to extinguish the building before much damage had been done. At four o'clock the second alarm from the Shurtleff building was received and the structure was almost burned to the ground when the fire department arrived. The flames originated in rear of the building the last time.

The shop was located on West Second street.

ALL SHRINERS REQUESTED TO MEET SPECIAL FRIDAY P. M.

S. A. Sloan requests that all local Shriners assemble at the Texas & Pacific passenger station Friday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock to welcome members of Moslah Temple, Fort Worth, who are scheduled to arrive by special train at 5:53 p. m. The visitors will spend fifteen minutes in Colorado. All local Shriners are requested to wear their fezes on this occasion.

TABERNACLE IN ORDER FOR RAYBURN REVIVAL MEETINGS

Union Tabernacle, where the Rayburn revival is to be held, is in condition and ready for the services. The local committee of which Dr. P. C. Coleman is chairman, has rearranged the interior of the building moving the platform from the south side to the west end. A large sounding board has been constructed over the platform, making the acoustics much better.

DARROW WANTS IN "EVOLUTION" TRIAL

Clarence Darrow of Chicago and Dudley Field Malone of New York, today telegraphed Judge John Randolph Neale at Knoxville, Tenn., professing their services as defense counsel for Prof. Scopes who is to be tried for teaching evolution in violation of the Tennessee law. The action was prompted, Mr. Malone said by the order of William Jennings Bryan to aid the prosecution.

The telegram made public by Mr. Malone follows:

"We are certain you need no assistance in your defense of Prof. Scopes who is to be prosecuted for teaching evolution, but we have read the report that Mr. William J. Bryan has volunteered the prosecution."

"In view of the fact that scientists are so much interested in the pursuit of knowledge that they can not make the money that lecturers and Florida real estate agents command, in case you should need us, we are willing without fees or expense, to help the defence of Professor Scopes in any way you may suggest or direct."

New York, May 18.—(AP)—Clarence Darrow, Chicago lawyer, who is to oppose William Jennings Bryan in a Tennessee evolution trial, came out today with a few opinions about the Commoner. Nero and Bryan were linked by Darrow as men whose irrational opposition enhanced the spread of great doctrines.

Offers of Darrow and Dudley Field Malone of New York to assist in the defense of J. T. Scopes, Dayton, Tenn., public school teacher, charged with the violation of the law forbidding the teaching of evolution, have been accepted. Mr. Bryan is to assist in the prosecution. Dr. Darrow is in New York at present.

"Nero," he said "tried to kill Christianity with persecution and law. Bryan would block enlightenment with law. Nero failed as will Bryan. More persons are studying evolution in Tennessee now than before the law was passed just as Nero's acts made Christians.

"Man may be sure of his ideas, but if he is intelligent he knows there is room for doubt and debate and he welcomes both. Mr. Bryan would block both because of his views. He has brought up certain beliefs which he has never questioned, or about which he sought to be enlightened to the end that he might be wrong. That is lack of intelligence.

"Had Mr. Bryan's ideas of what a man may do toward free thinking existed throughout history, we would still be hanging and burning witches and punishing persons who thought the earth round."

Mr. Darrow said he and Mr. Malone were willing to pay all the expenses of the Tennessee trial, "in order that they may triumph over might."

"Any man of ordinary intelligence could topple Bryan in such a fight," the lawyer said. "Tennessee lawyers are good. They will not need help."

The above evolution trial will now become a national affair and the Record wishes to clear up the statement of facts.

There is a great to-do throughout the nation over the forth-coming trial of a Tennessee school statute against the teaching of evolution in the public free schools of that state.

The liberals see in this prosecution a vital blow at the principle of liberty, and denounce the law as last word in bigotry and intolerance.

On the face of it, the liberals appear to be right. It is repugnant to the principles of liberty to deny any man the right to learn or to teach any reasonable theory not in itself blasphemous or obscene.

But Tennessee is not trying to keep anybody from teaching or from learning the theory of evolution. It merely passed a law forbidding the teaching of evolution in its public schools.

It resolves itself into a question of policy. It is not a question of religious or scientific liberty.

Tennessee is the sole master of its public free school system. If it chooses to forbid the teaching of certain abstract theories in its schools, it has that right.

For instance, it has the right to forbid the teaching of Mohammedanism, or Buddhism, or Taoism, or the theory of relativity, or communism. It has the right to forbid and possibly does forbid, the teaching of the Holy Scriptures in its public schools. It has the right to forbid the teaching of anarchism or atheism or knoticism. It is, in a word, the sole judge of what shall be taught in the schools supported by its people through taxation.

The state has no right, inherent or moral, to prohibit any citizen from holding such opinions as he may have only any subject under the sun; but it has an unassailable right to regulate policies in the conduct of its state-supported institutions of learning. If it has not this right, what is the use of setting up state-supported schools and passing laws for their conduct and guidance?

The liberals might argue with some justification that Tennessee is unreasonable in attacking evolution by statute, but they can have no foundation for the argument that the state has not the right to prescribe the course of study in tax-supported schools.

It isn't a question of the rightness or wrongness of the theory of evolution; it is the far more important than that. It simmers down to the question of a state's right to control its public free school system.

Evolution as a theory has been held by philosophers for ages. It is still a theory, and an imperfect theory at that. If it has taught, merely as a theory, no great harm can be done; but it is being taught as a science when it is not an established science.

A BOUQUET.

Whipkey Printing Company.

I have completed my trip through the trade territory with the new samples and by way of announcement, I wish to advise that I am now in the office handling all matters pertaining to the "Out of Town" sales.

I want to express our appreciation for the nice volume of business given our Mr. Acton under date of May 20th.

During my trip through the trade territory, I heard a large number of compliments on your shop, and I feel sure you will be pleased to know that you are very well known throughout the West Texas country. I have spoken of you so often and talked of your shop and its equipment until I feel that we are quite old friends.

Thanking you for this business, and assuring you of our pleasure in serving you, I remain,

Yours very truly,

Perennial War Begins To Rout Mosquitoes and Other Pests

EXTERMINATING MOSQUITOES

"The time to fight mosquitoes and flies is when they are in the egg or larva stage, not after they have matured. An ounce of prevention will do the work of many fly traps and mosquito bars," declares Dr. J. Allen Patton, of Newark, N. J.

"Preventive work in the spring will wipe out the breeding places," says Dr. Patton, who is the medical director of the Prudential Insurance Company, "and will, to a large extent, eliminate these menaces to the public health." The house fly feeds and breeds on every kind of filth, and is a remarkably efficient carrier of disease. It specializes in typhoid, dysentery, Asiatic cholera and other diseases, including tuberculosis. Swatting the fly is an acceptable means of annihilating the full grown pest, but not so effective in the end as preventive measures. For it is much easier to clear away the potential breeding place for a million flies than it is to swat or catch that million after they have grown to a lively maturity. Filling in and draining are the two most effective means of eliminating mosquito hatching. Where these are not practicable the periodic use of coal oil to form a film on the surface of the water is advisable. Community effort is necessary in any campaign against the house-fly or mosquito. It is not sufficient that your own stable and garbage pail are not fly incubators, and that you have no stagnant water in your yard to hatch mosquitoes. Your neighbors also must see that their yards are in condition, else your own efforts will have been wasted and they will share with you their mosquitoes and flies.

AMERICAN LEGION DRIVE

Dallas, Texas May 26—Next week every citizen of Texas will be asked to do his part toward the establishment of national $5,000,000 endowment fund for disabled veterans and war orphans, sponsored by the American Legion. An intensive campaign to raise Texas' share of the fund will be conducted throughout the state, June 1 to 6.

The week has been set aside as "American Legion Endowment week" in a proclamation by Governor M. A. Ferguson, Sunday May 31, was named as "Endowment Sunday" in the proclamation and ministers of the state were urged to point out the need of the fund to their congregations that day.

In every community where there is a Legion post, local endowment fund committees have been organized and are ready to begin active work at the "zero hour" Monday morning. They will continue the drive until the state's quota of $225,000 is fully subscribed, according to Mark McGee state Legion commander.

MAYOR LOONEY PROCLAIMS LEGION ENDOWMENT WEEK

Out of the recognition of the merits of the campaign being inaugurated by the American Legion to raise an endowment fund of $5,000,000.00 with which to rehabilitate orphaned children of former service men, Mayor R. H. Looney of Colorado issued a proclamation Friday calling upon the people of Colorado to observe the week of June 1 to 6 as American Legion Endowment Week and lend their full cooperation to the local post in putting over the drive here.

President Coolidge and Governor Ferguson had previously issued proclamations calling upon the people of the nation and state to observe the week. The proclamation of Mayor Looney follows:

Whereas, the president of the United States has endorsed the efforts of the American Legion to provide homes and education for the thousands of dependent children of war veterans, the care and protection of wives and widows now dependent upon charity, and the care of incompetent and disabled veterans of the world war; and, whereas, the governor of the State of Texas recognizing this great service to humanity, has called upon every educational, civic and religious agency of this commonwealth to aid the American Legion in this work of brotherly love and good citizenship, and has set aside the week of June 1st to June 6th to be devoted to the raising of funds for this program.

Therefore, I R. H. Looney, Mayor of the City of Colorado, State of Texas, hereby proclaim the week of June 1 to June 6 American Legion Endowment week and urgently recommend that all citizens and organizations of this city put forth effort in attaining this city's quota of the $5,000,000, needed to carry on successfully The American Legion's national child welfare and rehabilitation endeavors.

Given this 22 day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and twenty-five, under my hand and the seal of the city of Colorado, State of Texas.

R. H. LOONEY, Mayor.

WOULD INJURE COLORADO

It has been learned locally that the Interscholastic League is planning to pass a rule that will greatly injure Colorado High School as well as all other West Texas schools of the class of ours. This rule provides a one year residence requirement to make a boy eligible to take part in football. In other words, if a farmer, business man, preacher or salesman, should move into Colorado, he would have to remain here a full year before his son would be eligible to play football in the high school.

This rule has been urged by some of the larger high schools of the state who already have a heavy advantage in the matter of athletic material. The average large school can lose one or two athletes and not be vitally affected, but a school like Colorado High needs every man they have in order to get up a team. Supt. E. F. King of Colorado has sent a protest to the Interscholastic League against the passage of this rule and urged that it not be passed.

There are in Colorado and in the country in Colorado's territory a number of families who have athletic boys. These families have the right to the advantages of high school and high school athletics. Some of them came here the first of the year. Their boys have been in school all spring. Under this rule they cannot become eligible for football until year after next and by that time they may be somewhere else. There are Methodist preachers in Texas who are moved almost every year. Some of them have sons and under this rule their boys are practically barred from any chance to ever play on a high school team.

Colorado made a good record last year in football and prospects are good for a good team next fall unless some action is taken by those opposed to this rule which will go through and if it does Colorado and schools of the class of Colorado will lose all chance to ever be able to compete with the big schools. This rule is all right for the Southwestern Conference of Universities but it is wrong for high schools, says Prof. King.

THE CHURCH AND THE CIRCUS

You read about the Northern preacher who adopted movie tactics to get a crowd into church. He tried newspaper advertising, written in approved church style, without getting very good results. His deacons stopped advertising money, whereupon the minister went down in his own pockets to pay for ads in the local newspapers. He changed his style of ad-writing, adopting the tactics of the movies—playing up the sensational, making a direct appeal to the emotions.

Results were immediate. His empty pews filled up and overflowed. Today his church is crowded to the door at each service.

Fine, you say. To be sure. It is always nice to have a church full of people to preach to.

But it is the mission of the church to attract crowds bent on appeasing curiosity? Is it Christian to put on a monkey-show in the pulpit in order to attract a crowd? Should the preacher adopt circus sidshow methods to fill his pews? Is he justified in appealing to the baser human instincts in order to corral enough human beings to lecture to them on the higher human emotions? Doubtless every church in the land could be filled each Sunday if the church would compromise with the world. If the church would abolish every fundamental tenet and practice that does not appeal to every human being, we would soon hear no complaint about a falling off in church attendance. But we would also find ourselves without churches in the course of time. If it had been the practice of the church down through the ages to compromise with the devil in order to fight the devil, the church would have disappeared long ago. The fact that it has refused to compromise, that it has gone on fighting the battles of the world for centuries in the face of worldly indifference and opposition, is the outstanding reason for the church's power and influence today. It could have accepted a dumb meaningless outward show of mummery and mockery for religion, and prospered materially, but it would have lost its influence over and the respect of the world long ago.

When the church finds it necessary to employ worldly tactics to accomplish spiritual ends; when it reaches the point where it must appeal to man's natural thirst for material things in order to arouse his thirst for higher and nobler things; when it must descend to the practice of installing a ballyhoo artist at the main entrance and employing the paraphernalia of the sideshow in the pulpit to attract and hold a crowd, then the church will have to acknowledge that it is losing its grip and must get back to a closer connection with God before it can hope to prevail against the lusts of the flesh and the machinations of the devil.

If, in fine, the church finds itself unable to fill the spiritual needs of the people with spiritual things, then it is time for the church to get back to fundamentals.

The religion of Jesus Christ doesn't change. It is the same yesterday, today tomorrow. The fundamentals of faith are the same today as when first pronounced. The church follows, or is supposed to follow, a changeless Christ. Its mission is unchanging and unchangeable—to lead men to God. "I am the Way, the Truth and the Light," said the founder of faith. Nothing of that weak-kneed, futile "when you are in Rome do as Rome does" compromising. Not a gospel to fit the world, but a gospel to which the world must be fitted. The so-called intolerance of the church is its strongest armor against the assaults of the world.

"Mankind has changed, conditions have changed the church must change too in order to meet these changed conditions," the opportunists aver. "The church must meet the world half way; it must fight the devil with the devil's own weapons; it must get rid of outworn doctrines and practices and make its appeal to mankind as mankind exists, not as it existed two thousand years ago.

Is that the way Christ looked at it? Did he shape His sails to catch every gust of wind of belief and unbelief? Did He say, "Here is such and such a condition of society; here is such and such a belief and practice. If I succeed I must build the structure of my faith and practice to fit these conditions. Man will not listen to me if I will not in turn listen to man. I must compromise with him. I must appeal to his senses in order to reach his soul." Christ did not do that; Mohammed did. Which is the greatest? Christ upset ancient prejudices and purified the temple. He did not compromise with the world.

The building erected by Christ was perfect. It lacked nothing. I man shall add here a gable, there a spire, yonder a cornice, to please the modern ideas of perfectibility, what sort of structure would it be?

It is the spirit of compromise that the church must combat.

Of course these comments refer to fundamentals of faith. The physical equipment and machinery of the church must keep pace with modern times. The machinery by which the church carries on its work must be adequate; the physical plant must be in keeping with the demands of the times; but in the fundamentals of religion there is no need for change. That Perfect Plan was laid down two thousand years ago, and it is as good today as it was then.—(Editorial) in Abilene Reporter.

PHEBE K. WARNER

The Home Builders

For two weeks there has been a young couple frisking about our community seemingly looking for a location to build a new home. Every spring somebody from this same family comes to Claude looking for a location. The little pair that has come this year seem very happy. I peeped out the window the other day when I heard them chatting near the door and there they sat in the top of an old ash tree singing and swinging and just as cheery and happy as two little mocking birds could be. They looked at each other in such a sassy manner that I am sure they must be real lovers who have come to the Panhandle on their honeymoon.

After a short concert, in which they seemed to render snatches of every song in the feathered catalog, they took to the air in their little flying machine and away they flew for a few minutes, but soon circled back and landed again on the self same limb. And their conversation began again.

"How do you think you would like this tree for a home?" he seemed to ask.

"Well, I believe this is about the best location we've seen in this town I like this tree pretty well. It's tall and shady and I don't see many cats around. Nor dogs. Nor bad boys. Those locust trees are pretty, but they are too sticky. They're good to keep the cats down, but if one of the children should ever fall out the home nest trying to learn to fly it would sure kill it. And there seems to be plenty of weeds and strings and trash around here for building material. And do you see that water dripping drop by drop right down there close to us? And I saw plenty of crumbs and fish worms and the biggest red strawberries as we flew over the garden fence. And all those things are worth considering when you are looking for a place to raise a family of birds. And there is another reason I love this tree. I believe this is the very same tree I was born in last year. Looks like it."

Just here the little flapper wife took a rest and her mate flipped over to another part of the tree. And this is what he seemed to say:

"Oh, Maggie, come over here. Here's a house already built. Maybe we can fix up this old nest with less work and trouble. Maybe this is your old home where you were born. Wouldn't that be romantic for us to move in and raise our family in the same place where you were raised?" The little flapper mate hopped across the top of the old tree and gazed into that deserted nest. And this is what she seemed to say, as she tossed and twisted her little bobbed head.

"Look here, Mr. Mocking bird, do you think I am going to move into anybody's last year's bird nest? Not on your topnot. That may be the place where I was born, but that doesn't make any difference. I want a brand new clean home made by our selves. You've got just as much time and strength to build a home as my father had. And I'd hate to think I couldn't do as much for my family as my mother. No sir! We will not move into anybody's old dilapidated bird nest."

"I don't propose to be a renter in this land of the free and home of the brave. If you want to be a renter, then we may as well move into that apartment-bird-house over on the other side of the town, sitting on the top of that tall pole in the blistering sunshine. Not a leaf of shade or even a twig anywhere near for a playground for the children when they need to learn to hop and fly and sing. Just imagine trying to train the children in that old apartment house. I am going to locate right here where I can have this whole tree and be alone to raise the children. And now the thing for you to do is to fly down to earth and get busy rustling building material for our new home and some nice fresh fish worms for supper."

QUESTION FOR SCIENTIST

Two of our townsmen, T. A. Garslie and Henry Raney, became engaged in a heated discussion Monday as to where the frogs stayed during a drouth and how they could appear so quickly after a rain? Henry was of the opinion they hibernated like a bear in the winter time and sucked their paws (if they have paws) for a living, and only left their caves in wet weather. Tom did not take kindly to this theory, for he pointed out the fact that a frog's vocal organs were always in fine shape and, naturally, he had to do a lot of practice to keep those vocal organs functioning properly, and that a frog just naturally could not sing and perform this feat at the same time.

We pass this question up to our readers and perhaps someone can enlighten them upon this mystery.—Blackwell Times.

While we are not a scientist, yet, we have watched froggie so often, that we can answer the question. When dry weather comes, "Froggie" dig a hole in the ground, crawls in, pulls the hole in after him and goes to sleep. He sleeps until it rains and the water runs down on him and wakes him up. When this happens, he digs himself out and joins the frog orchestra. As long as it rains, he stays out; and when not engaged in rendering musical programs, he puts in his time snarling bugs, worms, flies and gnats to supply him for the next long sleep. When it gets dry again, he digs in and resumes his nap. Any boy who ever plowed with a yoke of steers knows that to be a fact, unless he was near sighted and could not see the sleepy frogs his plow turned out.—Bill Kellis.

Uncle Bob Gary and Sol Robinson both say either theory is wrong. They both hold that when it rains, frogs simply come down with the rain.

A COMMON LIAR

Mr. Jim Hays, an ex-Van Zandt, who has tried the Western country more than once, and who some few years ago moved from Canton to Slaton, has given some of his East Texas friends to understand that he has tried the "Golden West" for the last time, and he intimates that he will be back in East Texas right soon. Among other things Jim says: "Things are on the bum. Dry, dry, dry—no rain and no sign of any. People are awfully disheartened and many are leaving Old settlers say it will take 12 inches of rain for a season, as there has been no rain here since last August. Cattle are being shipped out of the country as grass is dead. Everything is sky-high in prices and everybody is living out of paper sacks and in tin cans. I can't describe how awful these sand storms are. Some school children have smothered or suffocated in them. Also some horses choked to death. There are at least 5,000 idle hands in and around Lubbock and Slaton and some are suffering."

Mr. Hays did not write the above for publication. He is not knocking on anybody's country. He admits, however, with seasonable years the Western country would be the "Promised Land." Things are lovely there at times, but people who are very well situated here in East Texas, should be very careful about moving away. The very best time for you who have a hankering to try the West would be to go now and spy out the country—and if you are dead set on going—get you a location while conditions are at their worst.

The above is reproduced from a little paper published at Edgewood in Van Zandt county and is so utterly false that it needs no satisfaction. Jim Hays is not one of those magnificent scroll mark liars whose improbable tales are told to amuse, but is one of those common ordinary everyday liars. Jim Hays is one of those shiftless fellows who could not make good anywhere in Heaven. He has been used to possums and simons, quinine and branch water so long that his transformation from the mesquite and malarial infected free state to the Glorious boulders and prosperous West has unbalanced his mental powers to even think straight.

ELECTION NOTICE

STATE OF TEXAS County of Mitchell City of Colorado

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Colorado deems it advisable to issue bonds of the said City for the purpose hereinafter mentioned:

Therefore, be it ordered by the City Council of the City of Colorado, Texas, that an election be held on the 16th day of June, 1925, at which election the following proposition shall be submitted:

"Shall the City Council of the City of Colorado, Texas, be authorized to issue the bonds of the City of Colorado in the sum of Thirty Thousand ($30,000) Dollars, payable not to exceed forty (40) years from the date thereof, bearing interest at the rate of five and one-half (5 1/2) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and to levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem them at maturity, for the purpose of constructing a City Hall and purchasing a site therefor within said City of Colorado, as authorized by Chapter I, Title 18, Revised Statutes of 1911, and Article 882, Revised Statutes of 1911 and the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas.

The said election shall be held at the City Hall in the City of Colorado, and the following named persons are hereby appointed Managers of the said election:

J. D. Harrell, Judge J. C. Pritchett, Judge H. E. Grantland, Clerk John T. Smith, Clerk.

The said election shall be held under the provisions of Chapter I, Title 18, Revised Statutes of 1911, and Article 882, of the Revised Statutes of 1911, and the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas, and only qualified voters, who are property taxpayers of said City shall be allowed to vote.

All voters who favor the proposition to issue the bonds shall have written or printed upon their ballots the words:

"For the Issuance of the Bonds." and those opposed shall have written or printed upon their ballots, the words:

"Against the issuance of the bonds." The manner of holding said election shall be governed by the laws of the State regulating general elections.

A copy of this order, signed by the Mayor of the City of Colorado, attested by the City Secretary of the said City, shall serve as a proper notice of said election.

The Mayor is authorized and directed to cause said notice of the election to be posted at the City Hall and at one public place in each of the voting places of the City of Colorado for at least thirty (30) full days prior to the date of said election.

The Mayor is further authorized to have said notice of election published in some newspaper of general circulation, published in said City and which notice shall be published once each week for four weeks, the date of the first publication being not less than thirty (30) full days prior to the date of the election. Has spent it in better streets, better civic improvements, better schools, better homes, better places of business—better everything than any previous generation ever enjoyed.

Summing it up—it presents the big difference between the home spent dollar and the dollar spent elsewhere

Life becomes more and more interwoven—interdependent—The dollar spent in Colorado today keeps on working in Colorado—eventually working its way back to you—in profits—in wages—in improvements—in any one of a hundred different ways. But how about the dollar you spent away from Colorado that purchases no more and usually less than it would at home—and it ceases forever as an active factor in your greater comfort and well being.

Every dollar spent in Colorado is a cooperative dollar. Every dollar spent out of Colorado is a disinterested dollar.

1004 Converts Pledge Faith In Rayburn Lawton Revival

With more than 1000 persons having pledged their faith to the cause of Christ, Evangelist Rayburn last night brought the four weeks revival campaign to a close, with a sermon to the large crowd of converts. At the close of the meeting church people were unanimous in agreeing that it was the greatest religious campaign in the history of Lawton. Exactly 1004 persons have responded to the invitation extended during the past two weeks of the revival. Although the revival was to have closed Monday night, the response was so great at that meeting that ministers of the city prevailed upon Rayburn to remain one day. And the ministers and Evangelist were well paid for their efforts. Down the aisles by the dozens came those who desired to pledge themselves to a Christian life. More than seventy went forward last night.

Even after Rayburn had extended his final invitation and was preparing to address the converts, the march toward the rostrum was begun anew when two young men arose from the rear of the huge tabernacle and hurried down the aisle. It was the signal that others had apparently been waiting for. By twos and threes they followed and within the next few minutes fifteen or twenty more had pushed forward to grasp the minister's hand. The response last night indicated that the momentum of the meeting will bear fruit in the next few weeks.

The huge crowd of converts filled the center section of the tabernacle and part of another. One of the noticeable features was the large number of heads of families that made the decision to join with the forces of the church. Many soldiers from Fort Sill were also among the converts.

Following a short sermon, Rayburn extended the invitation for the last time. It was more than an hour before the last of those who had decided had come forward.

Rayburn then addressed the newly converted ones, giving them printed slips with various Bible verses which he recommended that they read. He advised them not to go into the church to see how much they could get out of it, but to see how much they could put into it. If you are going to be a church member, be a god one, he advised.

The pastors of the various churches made announcements concerning the services for the week. Some of the new members will be received tonight at some of the churches and others not until Sunday.

Resolutions praising Evangelist Rayburn were adopted by the congregation. His methods as an evangelist were endorsed and appreciation expressed for his labors and leadership "the the greatest religious campaign in the history of Lawton." Every member of the evangelistic party has won a place in the hearts of the people, the resolutions read.

In concluding Rayburn stated he was glad of the opportunity to come to Lawton. He expressed appreciation for the cooperation of the various ones, including the ushers, the Burton Piano company, the press, Mrs. E. B. Dunlap for organizing the prayer meeting services, and various others.

Probably as large a crowd as has attended any of the meetings was present last night. The tabernacle was jammed to the doors. There is no doubt that the meeting has exceeded all expectations of the ministers of the city and the churches are to be congratulated upon having selected the type of evangelist to conduct the meetings that they did. Immeasurable good has been accomplished which will undoubtedly be reflected in the church life of the city.

Both Evangelist Rayburn and the members of his party, Mr. and Mrs. McKee and Mr. Boggess gained a popular place in the hearts of the church people of Lawton and all who have heard them during the campaign.

SCHOOL CLOSES

Largest class in history of school with boys in majority.

The leading events of last week was the graduation exercises of the public school and events honoring the graduating class.

On Thursday morning the commencement exercises of the seventh grade were well attended by pupils, parents and friends. The class consisted of 58 boys and girls.

The stage was decorated in the class colors, pink and green and each member carried the flower pink rose. These youngsters will never be any prouder of a high school diploma than they were to have completed the grammar school and receive these certificates and have a program of their own.

The following was the program: Incovention—Rev. J. F. Lawlis. Salutory—Alice Cooper. Reading—Your Missions,—Katheryn Gage. Talk on citizenship—Fred Hutchinson.

Song—Merry May—Class. Validictory—Ruby Lee Bohanan.

Presentation of Diplomas—Supt King

Following the program several medals were presented. Mr. King presented a ten dollar gold piece given by Mrs. Earl Morrison to the pupil making the best grade in arithmetic. This was presented by Woodrow Watson.

Mrs. C. C. Thomson presented a medal given by the U. D. C. for the best essay on the life of General Jackson. This was won by Ava B. King. Mrs. J. T. Pritchett in behalf of the 1921 Study Club presented a five dollar gold piece to the pupil writing the best imaginative story. J. T. Goss carried off this honor.

Mrs. Lois Warren in behalf of Mrs. Ed Duprees music class presented medals for the best written work in music during the year. Thelma Harrison won in the A division and Julia May Root and Elizabeth Hutchinson in the B division and both were given prizes.

On Friday evening the auditorium was packed before the hour for the exercises to begin. The stage was decorated with the class colors purple and white. The class of fifteen boys wearing white trousers and dark coat and the nine girls dressed in pastel colors, carry Colonial bouquets of cape jasamines, the class flower-made indeed a pretty picture. The program was simple and in keeping with the occasion. The Salutory was given by Mrs. Mattie Trienkin. Claude Cook had for his theme, "Should Industrial courses be included in our High School Curriculum." The Validictory address was given by Edwin Kirby.

The Standard Club, through Mrs. Y. D. McMurry presented a medal to the pupil in the high school making the highest average. This was won by a freshman, Rosa Lee Leslie. Mrs. H. B. Broadus presented the five dollar gold piece given by the Hesperian Club to the pupil in the graduating class making the highest average. Edna Kirby won this. Mrs. Jack Smith, president of the P. T. A. presented a gift from the executive board of the P. T. A. to Supt King as a token of appreciation for his faithful cooperation with this organization. In response Supt King P. T. A. for their loyal support in preparation for his faithful work the eight years he has been superintendent of the schools. In response Mr. King thanked the members of the pecially the president for the untiring efforts in all undertakings. Mr. King compared the school enrollment when he took charge of the school in times of drouth and to what it is now in times of prosperity and peace. He said it ranked is a first class school in Texas and asked for the same spirit of co-operation for the new faculty saying that no school could be a success without the co-operation of the parent, student and teacher. While Colorado has always stood by her school and always had a good school, yet the future prospect seems better than any. While the public appreciates the work of Mr. King and his faithful teachers and wish for them unbounded success wherever they may go. We must now reunite our efforts to make the coming year the best in the history of the school.

Those making the highest grades for the year in the High School are: 8th grade. Rosalia Leslie first and Nell Harper Greene second. 9th grade. Audry Ranburn first and Gladys Womack second. 10th grade Samuel Womack first and Edith Simpson second. 11th. Edwin Kirby first and Mattie Franklin second. both mentioned in the eleventh grade received scholarships to the colleges and universities with which this school is affiliated.

MARSHALL JOINS RANKS OF PROGRESSIVE CITIES

Marshall makes preparations for becoming a large milk distributing center thereby leading other cities of the state in this industry. Following the petitioning of the city council some six months ago by the dairymen of that city, to pass legislation to stabilize milk production, and protect the consuming public from milk of an inferior quality, the council adopted the standard milk ordinance recommended by the state board of health and the United States Public Health Service.

As a result of this action every dairy in territory adjacent to Marshall immediately went to work making arrangements for improvements along sanitary lines in order that where not already qualified, that they could produce and sell Grade A milk.

DEFINING THE BONE IN THE BEEFSTEAK

There is a phase of automobile building which will be talked of more this summer than almost any mechanical detail of the car.

Buyers of motor cars are being permitted to look farther and farther into the manufacture of the machine, as years go by, increasing their knowledge of car building and becoming, thereby, more and more competent buyers.

As a result, more than 560 makes of automobiles, each announced to the public in the beginning with a flourish and many adjectives, have been discarded by competent buyers and no longer are on the market.

The phase of building which is the next step in the education of the public in the real worth of motor cars, may be called "one-profit" manufacture. A year ago, that phase would have meant to a buyer. Next year, it will be a potent factor, as distinguished from "many-profit" building.

It means this: The "one profit" manufacture makes the entire car, complete. He does not buy the engine here, the body there, the springs frames, transmissions and whatnot elsewhere. Making them himself, only one profit is taken on the car.

On the contrary, in an assembled car, the maker of the engine takes his profit, the body builder does likewise, and so do all the parts makers.

On top of all these separate profits, the assembler adds his own profit, his own overhead business expense, his sales and other costs, further amplifying the excess.

Not one tagible thing is represented in the completed car by any of these separate profits, except in the price. Paying for them is like buying the air in a new tire, the hole in a doughnut, water in stock. It is, as Studebaker points out, the "bone in the beefsteak." One has to pay for the bone, but it represents no value when he comes to eat the steak.

A conservative completion of such extra cost on a sample assembled car selling under $1,500 was $369.00. That is a lot of money to pay for "bone" in a beefsteak.

The situation is elemental. The engine maker, the body maker, the springs, frame, transmission, wheel and other parts makers must have their profits, above their actual costs and over head expense, to keep in business.

But buyers are beginning to ask whether they should consider their own purses, in buying a car, or whether their interest is in maintaining separate parts establishments Over the graves of the host of "departed" assembled cars, this discussion will be kept this summer.

IRRIGATION IN WICHITA PROVING BIG SUCCESS

Northwest Texas and the Panhandle Plains section are entering the 1925 crop season in better condition than for many years.

"Through our section the farmers are well advanced with crops and planting is going steadily forward," "There is going to be a big acreage devoted to cotton and present prospects for a good yield could not be better. The soil is, in fine condition rains have been plentiful but not destructive. There have been but few excessive rains, which covered a limited territory. Ranch conditions are just as bright as along agricultural lines.

P. E. C. PICNIC

The P. E. C. Club closed the year work with a picnic at Pecan Grove last Wednesday afternoon. A good time was had by all and especially by Agnes Oliver and Narcia Riddle in snipe hunting. A bounteous picnic lunch was enjoyed by all. On Monday morning the Club chaperoned by the Sponsor, Mrs. Lula Mae Dulaney left for a weeks camping at Christoval.

DR. BUTTE NAMED ATTORNEY GENERAL FOR PORTO RICO

Washington, May 26.—Appointment of George C. Butte, dean of the law school of the University of Texas, as attorney general of Porto Rico, was announced today at the White House.

The appointment becomes effective at once. Mr. Butte, who has been at the University of Texas since 1922, served during the war as head of the foreign intelligence department of the general staff. He succeeds Herbert P. Coats, of New York who has resigned.

Dr. Butte, a recognized authority on constitutional and international law, was republican candidate for governor of Texas against Mrs. Miriam Ferguson last year and polled 300,000 votes for his party.

He has degrees from Texas University and several European colleges.

175,000 ACRES PLAINS LAND IS TO BE FARMED IN 1925

Lamesa, Texas, May 21.—Since the good rains over the South Plains the farmers have been very busy planting their crops.

The cotton acreage will be increased from 140,000 acres in 1924 to about 175,000 acres in 1925.

The acreage put to feed will also be increased. There is considerable agitation for more feed on each farm, at least a sufficient amount of acreage put to feed to insure enough grain and roughage to feed the work stock necessary to cultivate the farms.

LONGVIEW FARM OUTLOOK IS BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE

Longview, Texas, May 26.—The trade territory of Longview is in better condition than ever before.

Cotton is larger and in better shape and corn is almost made. Oats are ready to cut, early peaches are coming in and a bumper crop of that fruit is promised and many hundreds of acres are being planted in sweet potatoes and sugar cane. The truck gardens are finest ever seen this time of the year.

Merchants and bankers are smiling at the prospects of great prosperity.

TEXAS FARM CO-OPS MAKE BIG STRIDES

Fully 17 per cent of the farmers in Texas do business through cooperative organizations, more than 350 per cent gain in membership of farmers' business organization in the state since 1915.

Ten years ago the membership of the 134 farmer cooperative organizations then in existence in the state was 17,3000. Today the figure has jumped to the 78,000 mark, while the number of organizations has jumped to 175.

Fruit and vegetable cooperatives head the list of farmers' cooperative efforts in the state with 54 distinct organizations, according to the foundation. Cotton comes next with 43, and grain follows with 17. In addition there are more than fifty miscellaneous organizations embracing activities in dairy products, livestock, poultry, wool and other lines.

More than two thirds of the farmers' organizations in the state are incorporated, but less than half report paying stock dividends. Seventy-six per cent of the organizations limit membership to members-producers.

Cooperatives have become an important factor in American agriculture. Two and one-half million farmers out of the 6,500,000 in the United States now belong to more than 10,000 coproative bodies which do an annual business in excess of $2,500,000,000. This is an increase of nearly 200 per cent in the number of organizations since 1915 and an increase in membership in the same period of nearly 300 per cent.

Taxation Without Representation.

Operator of a fleet of airplanes in Kansas will contest that state's two-cent tax on gasoline, on the ground that the tax is used to improve roads, airplanes do not use the roads.

It's an argument the railroads can use with much better reasons. They are taxed for highways, yet highways are direct competitors of railroads.

If the world went on the theory that none of the direct beneficiaries should be taxed for specific purposes, the whole structure of taxation would collapse.—Abilene Reporter.

These years are the same old argument. The man who has no children to school, for example, would not have to pay any school tax. Yet it would be a rash man who would argue that taxes for school purposes are not beneficial to the man who has no children, as well as to the man who has.

Same with the airplane owner. He objects to paying taxes to build good roads. He is not benefited directly by good roads perhaps, but he is certainly an indirect beneficiary. What builds up the country builds up airplane fleets and railroads, and good roads are great community builders.

Every man on this list is very anxious to have a bridge over Hackberry Creek.

The decision as to whether Hackberry Creek shall have a bridge seems to rest entirely with the Commissioner from this precinct. Mr. Lane is Commissioner from this precinct.

Definite announcement has been made of the location for the second oil test on the HS. It is in the center of the SE corner of survey no. 32, S P Block 17, belonging to Bill Scott, of San Antonio. Surveyors are setting the stake and rig builders will be at work on the derick just as soon as material can be gotten to the ground. If Hackberry Creek don't get impassable this should be within the next few days.

Mrs. E. S. Britton and daughters, Louise and Ruby, have returned from a visit to Clem and Georgia and are again at home.

Miss Fronia Black has been quite sick for several days, but we are glad to be able to say she is improved.

After a troublesome and expensive job for straight reaming to shut off water at the Sloan, Owens & Stalker Scott No. 1, drilling was resumed

Monday at noon, at 1840 feet. The next few weeks should show something interesting at this well.

Planting is about finished here, and nearly everybody has a good stand of cotton and feed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott of San Antonio who have been visiting Mr. Scott's mother, Mrs. Harry Hyman, returned to their home. While here Mr. Scott made several oil leases, and also signed up for a new drilling contract.

Big Demand

The biggest month's production of six cylinder cars in the history of the industry was scored in April by the Hudson-Essex organization, according to officials, who announced that 24,000 Hudson and Essex cars were made and shipped.

Even this production, according to word received by The Price Auto Co. distributor for Hudson and Essex in this city, was far from sufficient to meet the enormous demand which has developed all over the country. Mr. O. B. Price said that he could use 50 per cent more cars than are coming to him, and that he is doing everything in his power to obtain cars for immediate delivery.

"Our business has been most active all spring," he said, "but it was still further increased when the price on Hudson Super-Six cars was reduced to the lowest point in the history of these cars. The public knows of the Hudson Super-Six as one of the world's finest cars; and this price reduction made it also a car with a most moderate price. The Super six coach now sells at less than half as much as the Hudson open cars of only a few years ago, and yet the present Hudson car is superior in every detail to the products of former years.

PUT TEXAS ON THE MAP

Fort Worth, Texas, May 26—Moslah Temple deluxe special train enroute to Los Angeles to attend the Imperial council session will make a short stop at Colorado Friday afternoon, May 29, arriving there about 6 p. m., when the uniformed bodies will stage a short program during the stop.

Several passengers will be taken aboard the train during the stop for the trip to Los Angeles, where the train will arrive, Sunday afternoon May 31.

Stops during the day will be made at Weatherford, Strawn, Ranger, Eastland, Cisco, Baird, Abilene, Merkel, Sweetwater, Colorado, Big Springs, Midland and Pecos. About a half day will be spent in El Paso and several hours at Tia Juana and San Diego enroute Saturday and Sunday.

At Abilene the Mesa drum corps will be picked up for the trip, they all being members of Moslah Temple and will further augment the drum and bugle corps from Fort Worth.

Over 250 Nobles and members of their families will be aboard the train, which consists of fifteen cars, among them being a Santa Fe parlor-observation car, ten Pullman, two baggage cars and two diners, which is the longest and largest special train to leave Texas this year for the meeting.

Several features will be staged in Los Angeles to advertise Texas, Fort Worth and Moslah Temple before the largest convention of its kind in North America, it being estimated there will be over 200,000 members of the uniformed bodies, members of their families and Shriners attending.

Captain F. B. Walker will in charge of Moslah patrol, while the and will be under R. Wright Armstrong, famous as the leader of the Old Grey Mare band. George Adams will be in charge of the drum corps and Sam S. Losh is leader and director of the Chanters, with Sam Goldman of Colorado assistant.

11. You shall call on the business people of your own vicinity for help and credit if you meet with hard luck of sickness. It's your money we want; we don't know you unless your orders are accompanied by cash.

THE PASSING DAY

WILL H. MAYES Department of Journalism University of Texas

Jess Adams is dead. That may not mean much to you, but if you had known him, your heart would be saddened at the announcement. He was a Texas country newspaper man, reared at Comanche and spending most of his manhood days at Coleman and Plainview, where he conducted successful newspapers. He died in France on a trip around the world, having started the trip to satisfy a lifelong desire to travel. In his life he did not accomplish any big things as the world counts great things, but he had a smile and a friendly greeting that thousands will long remember. That smile and greeting were indicative of the warm heart of the man, of his genuine love for his fellows, a feeling that found expression in his writings. He has passed with his day, but there is something in the lives of men like Jess Adams that lives on and on in the hearts of others.

Menace of the Dog Bite.

Seldom a day comes that the newspapers do not tell of numerous persons being bitten by mad dogs. At Dallas Sunday one pet poodle ran amuck and bit a woman and seven children and quite a number of dogs. These people are now menaced by the dreaded hydrophobia, a most fearful disease. Other dogs are roaming around, and when they go mad will bite still other women and children. No one can feel safe with the cities and country infested with dogs and cats. Helpless children are their most numerous victims. Yet men will fight rather than surrender the privilege of keeping dangerous dogs. It is because men like affection, and dogs are most faithful in their affections until they become mad. The dog loves submissively and will suffer much abuse rather than give up its love. Except as a lover, the dog is largely useless and few of them are worth the cost of caring for them.

The Craze for Colors.

Some one has said that the craze for many bright colors indicates that mankind is not far removed from the savage state and that people have primitive tastes. If this be true, we must be recidivating rapidly, for all about us is a regular riot of colors. The women especially are faddists in colors, and explain their fondness for the bright shades by saying that it pleases the men. Dresses outline the rainbow in their brilliance, numerous colors often being found in one costume. Dress colors are enhanced by brilliant scarfs and legs vie with each other to see which can be the brightest stockings. A recent writer described a wizard as "the man who knows all the colors of his wife's silk stockings." Even the American savage would be put to shame to see how much brighter the women paint their faces than he could ever do with his colored pigments.

Recklessness and Wrecks.

Nearly every newspaper now carries a statistical statement of the number of traffic accidents occurring in its locality every day. The table has somewhat the dignity and appearance of market reports. So many killed today, so many crippled for life, so many in the hospitals. With one of these tables it is possible for any one to figure just what his chances are for getting back home when he leaves. It is satisfying to know that the chances are still slightly in his favor, although it is disheartening to see that they are steadily growing less. Recklessness and wrecks are increasing with alarming rapidity, and in the same ratio.

Roads Good in Both Directions.

Good roads are teaching progressive merchants at least one lesson: the other kind are past teaching. That lesson is that the roads leading away from their stores are just as good as those leading to them. People do not mind driving thirty miles or more to another town, if the merchants of the nearest town do not show that they are anxious for business. That is why the mossback places are drying up and the progressive places are getting bigger and better. Roads are a blessing or an injury according to the use that is made of them. If you allow them to be used to take trade elsewhere, the fault is yours. Every town with good roads leading into it has equal opportunities with every other town to grow; every merchant has equal opportunities for increasing his trade, or losing it, as he will, where there are good roads.

Rapid Industrial Growth.

A Dallas citizen proposes that the city invest at least $1,000,000 in a permanent industrial exposition to show to the people of Texas what is being done in the industries in the state and to encourage further industrial development. It has not been a great many years since the combined industries of Texas would not have been much in excess of $1,000,000, and the fact that this proposition is given serious consideration shows the marvelous recent developments. It is difficult to conceive what the future industrial growth may be.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF MAIL ORDER HOUSES

- 1. You shall sell your farm produce for cash, where you can, for we buy nothing from you. 2. You shall believe in us, and best because we don't know you. 3. You shall send your money to us in advance, so we can buy the goods from the factory with your money; you have to wait a few weeks but that is our business method. 4. You shall get help from your nearest city or village to build good roads, so you may easily haul our goods from the depot, but do not ask us—de don't help to build good roads. 5. You may buy church bells and altar utensils from us, and send the money in advance—that's our rule. 6. You shall get all the help you can from the business men in your neighborhood; although we may have more profit from you than they have,

it is against our rules to give to your churches.

- 7. You shall convert your neighbors also to your faith in us, for we have room for more money. 8. You shall look at the pretty pictures in our catalogue as often as you can, so as to strengthen your desire for things you do not need, but which you may order with other goods to save freight. 9. Send us all your ready cash, so that you may not have any left to buy necessities from your home dealers. 10. You shall believe us rather than your home businessman, for we want your trade. We get to be millionaires on your support.

Fanatic

Note blood on gown and scars on forehead. Persian religious fanatics, who have been participating in the Moharram, a festival at which men shave their heads from the forehead, and then hack at the exposed parts with a sharp sword.

Already Fishermen

We invite your attention to one of the most complete lines of tackle ever shown in Colorado.

Look your requirement over and make sure that you are ready to "Lift em out" before you go fishing. Better play safety-first and replace that old rod, reel and line, with one of our new outfits because we know they will hold em.

Just received large shipment high grade lines, artificial bates, flies, hoops, leaders, etc.

Look them over before leaving town.
