SEFTON PICKENS, 13, BITTEN BY A MAD CAT

Examination of Head Shows Traces of Rabies; Serum Administered

Considerable excitement was caused Tuesday by a report from Austin that the cat's head sent there from this place Saturday showed traces of rabies.

Last Saturday afternoon Sefton Pickens, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pickens found a stray kitten in the yard. While playing with the kitten it bit him on the first finger of the right hand. Within a few minutes after biting the boy the kitten died. Becoming alarmed the parents cut off the head of the cat and sent it to Austin for examination.

A survey showed that other cats in the same neighborhood gave signs of being sick and a wholesale slaughter of cats followed. With the extremely hot weather which has prevailed the past few weeks the danger that dogs and cats will go mad is great, and every owner of a dog or a cat should confine the animal until danger is past.

HON. J. C. HALL HOME FROM SPECIAL SESSION

Has Made Envious Record; Boosted For Next Speaker Of The House

Hon. J. C. Hall member of the Texas legislature from this district returned to Colorado, Wednesday, following the adjournment of the Special Session. As a member of the Fortieth legislature, Representative Hall received appointment on two of the most important committees, viz. The appropriation committee and the educational committee. He rendered conspicuous service as a member of these committees, and led the fight for the appropriation and educational bills when they were before the House.

Judge Hall stated to the Record representative this morning that because of the heavy amount of work placed upon these committees he did not have time for participating in many of the floor discussions. How ever membership on these committees gave him an insight into the governmental affairs that he would have received in no other place. While it is decidedly unusual for a new member to receive recognition and appointment to such important committees, it was due to the personal influence of the man whom Hall succeeded, the late R. M. Chitwood, who took it upon himself to see that his successor and the district he represented was duly recognized.

As stated in the last week's issue, Judge Hall made the fight on the floor of the House for the appropriation for the Texas Tech, and was successful in getting the appropriation through, for which he received many congratulations from the friends of the institution throughout the state.

When interviewed Wednesday morning Judge Hall intimated that he had been importuned to make the race but had not done anything on his part to boost it. He was unwilling to make any definite statement saying it was too far away and one did not know what might arise. He did however feel highly complimented in even being suggested as a possible candidate, and was under many obligations to his friends who were pushing the matter. The press throughout the state is unusually cordial in the expressions and comments regarding his candidacy. One of the claims urged in the acknowledgment that West Texas is entitled to this honor, and having found a capable man merits the support.

The selection of Judge Hall to represent this district, succeeding the lamented Chitwood, proves the wisdom of sending our foremost citizens to the legislature if we want results. While it is a position without financial return, and the man accepting must do so at a personal sacrifice, the service rendered being wholly a patriotic one, yet there is some satisfaction for having served well.

Hall is eminently qualified for the position and should be elected will fill the chair with grace and dignity. Before going to the legislature, Hall was County Judge of Mitchell County, and it was under his administration that the present Court House was erected, the bridges across the Colorado river and Lone Wolf creek built and other important projects completed.

Civic League

The Civic League met Saturday in the library. The president, Mrs. A. L. Whippley presiding. Dues for four new members was turned in by Mrs. Jeff Dobbs. With the severe heat an outbreak of disease is to be fought by sanitation and only by everybody helping can the whole town be kept clean.

The League is rejoiced over the new map of Colorado and the prospect of having the streets marked at an early date by one of the men's organizations. This is one of the dreams of the president that is about to be realized.

It was suggested that the members of the Civic League throughout the summer write articles about the needs of the home town, or what "I like about my home town." It is hoped this be entered into by every member.

Two of the Negro League members were present. They thanked the women for getting a water main in their part of town and asked for something to work on during the summer. The president suggested that they see that every Negro child

There is every reason to feel optimistic. Crop conditions on the whole are good. The bottom season is all there, and it is almost sufficient to make a cotton crop. There is a great carry-over of feed-stuffs, and grain is turning out well.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR BEST VOICES

National Radio Audition Open to Young Singers in This Country.

America's future generation of vocal stars will be disclosed to the world this Fall as another of the wonders due to radio. Every young man or woman with the gift of song, whether from country, town or city, will have an equal chance.

A nationwide quest for the best young singers and the opening of the door of opportunity to them has been undertaken by the Atwater Kent Foundation, an institution established for scientific and educational purposes by A. Atwater Kent, the Philadelphia radio manufacturer and sponsor of the Sunday night grand opera hour, broadcast over a network of nineteen stations.

The Foundation has announced plans for a "National Radio Audition," to find by competition the best undiscovered voices in the United States. Prizes aggregating $17,500, with tuition for a musical education in certain cases, are offered as follows:

The two winners of first place in the National Audition—a man and a woman—will each receive a gold decoration, $5,000 in cash and two years' tuition in a leading conservatory.

A. Atwater Kent, President of Atwater Kent Foundation, which opens door of opportunity to undiscovered vocalists.

Winners of second prizes will each receive $2,000 in cash and one year's tuition.

Winners of third prizes will each receive $1,000 and one year's tuition.

Winners of fourth prizes will each receive $500.

Winners of fifth prizes will each receive $250.

Medical, civic and women's clubs in each community in each state will be invited to hold local contests to select the best young man and best young woman singers of their towns. These winners will then be certified to a state audition, which will be broadcast by a radio station in each state. A state-winner of each sex will be chosen and will receive a silver medal.

The next step is a district audition. The young men and women who have won state honors will be taken to a central broadcasting station in one of five districts, where an audition will be broadcast to select the two winners—a young man and a young woman—from that district.

The two winners in each district will receive gold medals and the ten finalists thus selected will be taken to New York for the final National Audition, to be broadcast over a national network of stations. All expenses of contestants in the district and final auditions, including railroad fare, hotel bills, entertainment, etc., will be paid by the Atwater Kent Foundation.

The spirit and purpose of the National Audition are indicated in a statement by A. Atwater Kent, president of the Foundation, who said:

"The discovery of one of those rare voices, of which each generation produces a very few, seems to me an event of profound national importance. Even such a voice does not give pleasure to only a few thousand people in a year it was a national treasure. Now that millions may enjoy it on the same evening through the medium of radio, such a voice has become priceless.

"The National Radio Audition, supported by the Atwater Kent Foundation, is an undertaking to search the entire country for beautiful voices and to offer these singers an opportunity for full development, recognition and reward."

The principal qualifications for contestants are as follows:

Must not be over 25 years old; must never have been associated with a professional theatrical or operatic company; must never have been a paid principal in any concert held outside their own states; must declare an intention to follow a musical career and must be free from theatrical or musical contracts.

This limitation permits choir singers to enter the auditions, even though they may have received financial compensation for singing in churches. Other groups from which entries are anticipated are students in musical schools and locally prominent singers in high schools and colleges. Musical organizations in each state are also afforded an opportunity to participate.

Pat Neff has resigned his position as head or chief vulcanizer for the Hicks Rubber Company and will soon open a vulcanizing business of his own. Neff has been succeeded at the Hicks Rubber Company by Mr. Ben Norwood, an expert from the big tire house at Winters.

TRUST COMPANIES RANK NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING HIGHEST

The outstanding trust institutions of the United States are those that were pioneers in using advertising as a means of selling their services, a speaker said at a conference of trust companies held in New York recently. He presented the results of a questionnaire sent out by the Trust Company Division, American Bankers Association, making an inquiry into the advertising practices of institutions doing a trust business. Three out of every four trust companies and banks engaged in extending trust services were found to be advertising. The opinion was expressed by the speaker that their growth would closely follow the amounts spent each year for advertising.

The local newspaper is the most highly regarded advertising medium, it was disclosed. In all, 829 companies answering the questionnaire used the local papers and 338 did not. The institutions buying space in local papers are evenly divided among all sections of the country. Comparing six media for selling personal trust services and considering their effectiveness from the standpoint of producing results, the speaker declared that the local newspapers should head the list. Folders and booklets can reach a limited audience, he observed, but the newspaper is the best medium for acquiring prestige and mass circulation. It should never be omitted, he urged.

The ELIZABETH ARDEN method— which keeps your skin healthy— will keep it lovely too

No CREAM transforms the skin. But scientific care, which encourages swift circulation through the tissues and keeps the skin cells vividly healthy, will make your skin clear, soft and firm. This is the foundation of the Elizabeth Arden method. Cleansing the skin— with Elizabeth Arden's Venetian Cleansing Cream— removes impurities which clog the pores and cause blackheads. Brisk patting— with Arden's Skin Tonic and Special Astringent— tones the skin and firms the contours. Nourishing— with Orange Skin Food or the delicate Velva Cream— fills out the skin cells and so corrects lines and wrinkles. Follow this same method in the care of your skin at home.

TEXACO MOTOR OIL F

For Ford Cars

A Ford car needs motor oil that will serve two purposes: (1) lubricate the engine properly; (2) keep the transmission linings pliable.

But it must be a highly refined oil that contains no hard-carbon-forming impurities. An oil that's full-bodied. An oil that's all oil.

That is Texaco Motor Oil F

WHY does Golden Texaco Motor Oil flow at zero?
Answer: Texaco is free from paraffin wax and cylinder stock. These substances cause unsuitable oils to thicken and "freeze" at lower temperatures.
Texaco is pure.

See the golden color as it pours

Many motorists do no more when buying oil than drive up and say "two quarts." Some go a step further and buy their oil by name. But the motorist who wants Texaco, and knows why he wants it, goes still further and proves that the oil he gets is the oil he pays for. He identifies it by the clean, clear, golden color of Texaco Motor Oil which is as distinctive and easily recognizable as the trade-mark on a sealed can.

See the golden color in the Texaco Comparoscope. Watch the golden stream as it pours. From then on—so long as you continue to buy golden Texaco—your engine will be free from carbon troubles and excessive wear. Consult the Texaco Lubrication Chart for the right grade to use.

Everything. The new and better Texaco Gasoline forms a Dry Gas. It burns completely. No "heavy ends" are left in the cylinders to dilute the oil film, break the seal, enter the crankcase and destroy the lubricating value of the oil.

Mrs. Lillian Gish at Palace Theatre June 15 and 16

(Advance Feature)

Lillian Gish, celebrated star of the screen has just fulfilled an ambition of some six years in playing the role of "Hester Prynne" in Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic romance, "The Scarlet Letter." For six years the actress has mentally rehearsed the role, hoping that some day she would be given an opportunity to play the dramatic heroine of one of the most famous romances in the world.

The fulfillment of her ambition will be seen at the Palace Theatre, when Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will present her in the role.

Mrs. Gish regards the role as a tribute to her ancestors, as she is directly descended from one of the original Puritan families. In fact, the family home at Deerfield, Mass., is being maintained by the Daughters of the Revolution as a museum where the ancient furnishings and possessions of the actress' ancestors are on public display. Miss Gish is herself a member of the D. A. R.

The new picture is the dramatic story of a Puritan woman who carried a badge of shame through life to shield the man she loved. It was staged on a lavish scale, with a huge cast of celebrities, nearly a thousand men, women and children in the larger scenes, and in elaborate settings. An entire replica of America's first Puritan village was constructed for the big production, her second Metro-

Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle, "La Boheme" being the first.

Victor Searstrom, famous as the director of "He Who Gets Slapped" and "The Tower of Lies" directed the production. Lars Hanson, famous Swedish star, makes his American debut as her leading man, and Henry B. Walthall, Karl Daner, Marcelle Corday, William H. Touss, Jules Cowles, Fred Hertzog and other notable players appear in supporting roles.

James T. Johnson and wife, Mrs. J. H. Greene and children, Nellie Harper and William, left Tuesday night for a ten weeks outing. They will visit Catalina Islands, Oregon, Washington, Canada and return by way of the Yellowstone National Park.

PEOPLE WILL TALK

Yes, people will talk,
The saying is true,
They talk about me
And they talk about you.

If we go to the opera
Some people will say,
We should go to church,
And learn how to pray.

If we go to Church,
And offer up prayers,
They say we are hypocrites
And putting on airs.

If we are rich
They call us a thief,
Scarf at our sorrows,
And laugh at our grief.

If we are poor
They say we shrink,
We are always lazy,
And never would work.

They talk of our prospects,
They talk of our past,
And if we are happy,
They say it can't last.

They talk of our loved ones
They talk of our foes
They talk of our follies
They talk of our woes.

They talk of our joys
They talk of our fears
They talk of our smiles
They talk of our tears.

They talk if we're single
They talk if we wed
They talk of us living,
And they talk of us dead.

Though we live like angels
And circumspect walk
Our efforts are useless,
People will talk.

25,000 POPULATION PREDICTED FOR CITY

An oil man from Amarillo here last week made the prediction that Big Spring would be a city of 25,000 population within the next few years. He gave as his reason oil development backed by agricultural activities. He said this city was going to make a steady and permanent growth because oil development was due to be carried forward in this territory for several years. Hotel facilities, office buildings and homes and apartments for those coming to Big Spring must be ample to take care of the needs if the growth be steady and sure.

On account of the excellent rail facilities here Big Springs has already been selected by the big oil companies and supply houses as a concentration point for warehouses and supplies. Plenty of good water, good roads and churches, a healthful climate are features which will prove a big boost for Big Spring.

It is only a question of time until eas for commercial and industrial purposes will be available and this will cause many small manufacturing plants to locate in Big Spring. A power line to supply up to 320,000 kilowatts of electric power; a pipeline to handle the oil produced in this territory are other big things which give Big Spring a great advantage in the race for leadership.

Another big point is that the citizenship are going to back up the officers in seeing that the laws are enforced. Hi-jackers, gamblers and crooks are not going to be permitted to take charge, as they set out to do in every city and town where oil development is in full swing.

Big Spring is a mighty good little city right now but the homefolks are unable to visualize its growing into a city of 25,000 within the next few years.

Just as soon as Big Spring's new hotel is finished you will begin to note the influx of many men of means looking for investments; and when oil development is resumed on a regular scale you will begin to note—not a boom—but a real and substantial growth.

Big Spring is fortunate and can't help but make a real city if the citizenship do their part.—Big Spring Herald.

Question:
How many miles without carbon?

Ans: It all depends on the oil you use. If you use "anywhere" and "just oil" you can leave carbon removed every month. But if you use golden Texaco Motor Oil you will drive thousands of miles with a "clean" engine.

Texaco Motor Oil is visibly and provably pure

DORN LOCALS

We are glad to report a nice rain which fell Sunday afternoon. The farmers in these parts are very busy plowing the cotton, chopping weeds or planting.

Mrs. B. B. McGuire returned home Wednesday after a week's visit with friends and relatives at Abilene and Clyde.

There was a nice crowd at prayer meeting last Wednesday night. There were 48 persons present. Charlie Pickens led the service.

Mrs. H. U. Salley and family of Spade attended prayer meeting here Wednesday night. Also Mrs. Burrow of Buford, and her mother, Mrs. Martin of New Mexico. We enjoy having these good people with us, and invite them to come again.

Sunday school was well attended Sunday afternoon. But we all had to hurry home because of the sand-storm coming up and then part of us were caught in it. The wind ripped the top party off of Mr. W. N. Fryer's car.

Winifred and Lynn Halbert left Monday for Alpine, where they will attend the Sul Ross State Teachers' College.

Misses Laura Wylie and Maybelle Ivey of Sweetwater visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Farnwall recently.

Lillian Gish At Palace Theatre June 15 and 16

(Advance Feature)

Lillian Gish, celebrated star of the screen has just fulfilled an ambition of some six years in playing the role of "Hester Prynne" in Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic romance, "The Scarlet Letter." For six years the actress has mentally rehearsed the role, hoping that some day she would be given an opportunity to play the dramatic heroine of one of the most famous romances in the world.

The fulfillment of her ambition will be seen at the Palace Theatre, when Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will present her in the role.

Mrs. Gish regards the role as a tribute to her ancestors, as she is directly descended from one of the original Puritan families. In fact, the family home at Deerfield, Mass., is being maintained by the Daughters of the Revolution as a museum where the ancient furnishings and possessions of the actress' ancestors are on public display. Miss Gish is herself a member of the D. A. R.

The new picture is the dramatic story of a Puritan woman who carried a badge of shame through life to shield the man she loved. It was staged on a lavish scale, with a huge cast of celebrities, nearly a thousand men, women and children in the larger scenes, and in elaborate settings. An entire replica of America's first Puritan village was constructed for the big production, her second Metro-

DESTRUCTIONISTS

There are three organizations functioning in this country whose sole reason for their existence is that they might destroy. They are, 1, The Association for the Promotion of Atheism, 2, The Association opposed to National Prohibition, and 3, Red Socialism.

The Association for the promotion of Atheism was recently chartered, after having been once denied a charter, in a state which had already so far, as it could nullify the National Constitution and whose governor is running upon the platform for President which designs to do for the nation what he has already done for the state.

Why should anyone want to rob the people of the knowledge of God. What is to be gained by it? Blot out the sun and tear the stars from their courses, render this old world uninhabitable but do not destroy within the heart of man the promise of immortality.

The eighteenth amendment balks every man who would make traffic of human souls and moral living. The reason for the opposition to its place in the organic law of this land is purely commercial. To the man who places the dollar above human life the inhibition of the eighteenth amendment is gall and wormwood.

Society and government can only exist when the governed are willing to yield complete obedience to constituted authority. We are free, free because we choose to impose restraints upon ourselves. Mad Russia is a fair sample of the conditions which obtain under socialism.

The chief stock in trade in each of these organizations is to hoist of what great gains it is making, what inroads on the public mind. Recently there was issued from the headquarters of the Atheistic Association the fatuous claim that there are in America 40,000,000 atheist.

Freeman Hopwood, Sinclair Lewis, H. L. Mencken and Rupert Hughes may believe that they have as many as forty million followers in the good old United States but our guess is the estimate is at least forty times too large. Anyways the Old Book will remain long after these great virtues of human virtue are forgotten.

VACATION TIME AND WHAT TO DO WITH IT

Each year the number increases of boys and girls who are going away to school, attending the higher institutions of learning, and at this season of the year return to their home for the "common people" of whom Mr. Lincoln once said, "God must have loved the common people, he made so many of them."

Does the community owe anything to its young people? Will the attitude of the community during vacation contribute in any manner to the ideals and sentiments which the young graduate shall possess when school days are over? Obviously, these young people, in school and out of school, live in a world which in thought and customs differs materially from the world in which we grew up.

Youth is always immoderate. There is the restless age. Young people are not at heart evil. They are lacking in experience, in judgment and they are intensely suspicious of whatever smacks of the dictatorship. While they are at home we must see to it that nothing is done that will cause them to lose the respect and regard for their parents and elders, that finer things which furnishes them an anchor post which during the coming school days will hold them within safe bounds, and linger in their memory when homesick feeling steals across the emotional hour.

AMERICAN PLUCK AND DARING DID IT

Again the vision of the whole world is focused upon America's conquest of the air. Chamberlin and Levine have just concluded the record breaking feat of not only flying the Atlantic but of flying the greatest non-stop distance in the history of aeronautics. Flying from New York to Cottbus Germany they lacked but 100 miles of reaching Berlin before being compelled to descend on account of fuel being exhausted.

Naturally one asks the question, why does America succeed? Others failed. For months the press has been filled with stories of the lack of interest in aviation. All the while these silent unobtrusive men have been quietly preparing for the attempts that have ended so gloriously for the nation they represent. The astounding facts that loom large in the minds of the whole world today is expressed in a single word, Daring. When a great demand is made, plain old fashioned pluck produces from among the nobility of the plain people of America just the type of manhood and womanhood that the need of the hour requires.

Let the pessimist howl that manhood, bravery and patriotism is perishing in America. The answer rings loud and clear in what has just been accomplished by men who lead clean lives and whose brain and heart and muscle is in perfect coordination and who know not the meaning of the word defeat.

GET READY BEFORE YOU START

"Be Sure You Are Right Then Go Ahead" Courage without discretion is recklessness. A daredevil is not necessarily a hero. Recklessness is the characteristic of a fool. Courage and recklessness are twin attributes of greatness.

Young men and women, boys and girls, you are getting ready to set out on a great adventure—the adventure of life, here and hereafter. Unless Lindbergh, the effort is not optional with you. He did not have to undertake the trip. You must. And as you conduct yourselves in this preliminary trip, so are your chances for a successful journey across the dark waters more terrible than those of the Atlantic. Select the right Pilot and fly with Him.

Lindbergh's success is not confined to his achievements as an aviator. His principal success is that of being a real man. The seductive baubles of empty honors, money made by exhibiting himself as "the man who flew from New York to Paris," failed to overcome his sense of honor and his standard of manliness.

Lindbergh is a hero. Arnold Winkelried was both hero and martyr. Lindbergh knew there was a chance for him to get out with his life. Winkelried knew there was no chance for his. Yet he did not hesitate, but plunged into certain death as he cried "Make way for liberty!" Under the same circumstances Lindbergh might do the same thing.

Don't crave being a hothouse plant. Why be even an orchid when you can be an oak. The success some men make, and with which they seem to be satisfied is failure, abject and utter. The most successful man is the most useful man. It matters not what else one may accomplish, unless he proves to be to the greatest measure he is capable a benefactor of his race he falls short of his proper goal.

There are greater and better things in us all than we know about. It takes the pressure of some great emergency to bring them out. And here we know is the God-like spark which distinguishes man from all other creatures. It is this voluntary self-sacrifice which serves to confirm the belief that there is something higher and better in man than he himself knows about.

IT RAINED

It rained. Disproving all the prognostications of all pseudo-weather prophets, and dispelling all the street talk about what a dry year we were destined to have, fully contradicting all the assertions of weather observers that spoke to the contrary, it rained. Not being satisfied with a mere attempt, it rained some more, and threw in some hail in different sections of the county for good measure.

Long, long ago, it was said, that seed time and harvest should never fail and except in local territory the seasons have continued uninterrupted from that time to this. As a rule men get seared and grow pessimistic at the least indication of change from the ordinary. It has been our observation that a few days dry weather can extend the face of our citizenry to an unwonted length, and a shower can wreath that same face in smiles that resemble the man in the moon in the shortest period of time imaginable.

To the man whose veins are channels of commercial prosperity and whose blood is made up of gold and silver corpuscles, who has neither faith in God or his fellowman, a continued dry spell or a protracted wet spell is calculated to produce hardening of the arteries and result in high blood pressure frequently resulting fatally.

But now that it has rained, let every body smile, forget the pessimism of the past few days and all work and pull together to reestablish our confidence and get business back to normalcy. It is not too late even now for the industrious farmer to plant and grow more crops than he will be able to gather.

A CASE WHERE YOU LOSE IF YOU WIN

By W. R. MOREHOUSE

Public Relations Commission, American Bankers Association

EVERY person who takes part in one of the many fake real estate raffles that are going on wins because there are no losers, regardless of the numbers they hold. The numbers, in fact, are only the bait to entice people into the scheme. The raffles are what might be termed "come-on" traps to catch investors. If you have ever tried your luck with a real estate raffle you doubtless felt like giving three cheers when advised that you had won, not knowing that in winning you had taken your first step toward being caught in the trap. You were momentarily overcome with joy over your success which looked to you like the "luck of a lifetime."

Puffed over your good fortune, you hastened out to inspect your newly acquired piece of property. A high-pressure salesman representing the syndicate that was "selling" you the lot walked by your side. After a tiresome trip through an undesirable district the salesman pointed out your new real estate holdings—a narrow, shallow lot, unimproved, uneven, and with no conveniences such as water, sewer, gas and electricity. Not even graded streets or sidewalks. Not worth its taxes!

Before you were fully awake to the fact that you had been tricked your attention was directed away from the unattractive landscape before you to another picture. You were shown another lot, ideal in its location with all modern conveniences soon to be installed and told that if the lot you drew in the raffle was not entirely satisfactory you would be allowed a credit of $250 for it on one of the more desirable lots being sold. To a few selected people as a special inducement and for a short time only, at the bedrock price of $350. You were urged to take advantage of your further good fortune at being thus selected and to seize the chance to buy one of these specially priced lots.

"I've won a building lot."

"Think of it!" exclaimed the high-pressure salesman. "It will take only $700 cash as we are willing to allow you a credit of $250!"

Where You Begin to Lose Perhaps, as you stood there, you began to suspect that other "winners" had come to view the same lot you had won. If you reached the conclusion that it was being repeatedly used as "bait" you were right. You realized that after all there is nothing free about so-called free things. But others, unfortunately less suspicious than you, would be impressed by the glowing statements of the high-pressure salesman. They would be delivered to them upon payment of certain expenses in connection with the transfer, which, however, would exceed the actual value of the prize lot.

There is nothing to be gained in participating in fake real estate raffles. There are plenty of legitimate sales raffles usually are only bait used to trap you. Of course, you win, but in winning you lose if you go through with it. Before drawing your money out of your savings account to go into a real estate scheme consult your banker or a Better Business Bureau to find out whether it is a bona fide plan. Spend time to save money!

When the pumpkins began to turn yellow, plans were laid for a great community exhibit. Besides the poultry display, farm produce exhibits from the surrounding country were entered. Altogether it made an impressive exhibit, bringing home the lesson to Point Marion people that there were great undeveloped opportunities within their own door yards which they had overlooked.

The annual exhibit will be continued in the future by the bank. A horse show is sponsored, better seed corn and seed potatoes are made available to the farmers for planting and the bank will continue to build agriculture in the community as a sound basis on which to work. "It will probably be some time before we shall see larger fruits of our endeavors," the banker says, "but we are looking ahead ten to fifteen years."

THE NEW MENACE Hitchhiking its way towards the nation's cornbelt, the European corn borer is threatening to destroy crops to the value of billions of dollars and chase skyward the cost of production. If it worms its way into the Wabash and Mississippi Valleys, it can readily float downstream, spread out and become more difficult to control. Proper cooperation of all concerned will, so doubt, enable us to continue to grow corn profitably.

Agricultural - Bulletin, American Bankers Association. A corn and apple show is to be an annual feature at a bank in Baltimore County, Maryland. Another bank has been able to get his county to "think" corn, over 500 farmers plant improved corn. Many other bankers in the state are giving more support and funds to this work.

Baptist Ministers Are Opposed To Sensationalism

One of the heartening signs of the times, is the action of the Baptist ministers in a gathering from all over Texas, in which they unsparringly condemn the use of lurid stories and obscene language by the professional evangelists.

Fort Worth, Texas, June 4.—Evangelists who use lurid stories and obscene language in the pulpit was castigated by several speakers Friday during a round table discussion on "Worldliness in Our Churches," which concluded the three-day meeting of Baptist ministers from over Texas at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

The true course of evangelism consists in preaching against specific sins and not in generalizing, and in using the approved hymns of the church, Dr. F. M. McConnell, Dallas, executive secretary of Baylor University, declared.

Dr. W. Marshall Craig, Dallas, was one of the chief speakers during the closing day of the conference. Other speakers were the Rev. J. B. Rowan, Terrell; the Rev. J. J. Cowfort, returned missionary from Brazil; the Rev. E. C. Abernathy of the seminary; Dr. Wallace Bassett, Dallas, and the Rev. W. W. Rivers, San Antonio.

LONGFELLOW SCHOOL CLOSED FRIDAY

M. M. Reese and wife who have been teaching Longfellow school the past term will attend Wesley College at Greenville during the summer. They are to teach near Lubbock next year. The closing exercises at Longfellow were held Friday night with a play as the principal attraction. A large crowd was present. Mr. Reese says the "Record" is the best all round weekly paper he has ever read. He orders it to be sent to him at Quitman.

LION'S CLUB LUNCHEON

One of the most enjoyable of the many good times the local Lion's Club sponsors was held last Friday. Geo. Mahon was persuaded to present the club with a box of fine cigars complimentary from his young daughter. Master James Wulfjen celebrated his fifth birthday by attending the luncheon and gave a choice reading, Milton Beavers, son of Rev. M. M. Beavers was a guest. Marian Elliott son of W. M. Elliott entertained by reading in the negro dialect to the delight of all. Geo. S. Hiland resident engineer explained matters relative to the construction of the Bankhead highway. Prof. A. W. Franklin, Vice President of the Vernon Lion's Club addressed the gathering after which J. E. Chase introduced Everett Kemp advertising manager for the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua who presented the facts and program for the coming Chautauqua. J. F. Morris conveyed a message from Lloyd Whisnant thanking the club for its help in enabling him to complete the school year. Rube Norman gave a parting message. Tom Stonerroad announced the election of officers, as the main item of business for the next meeting.

CLOSING EXERCISES AT PAYNE

The school term of the Payne school district came to a close Friday night. A most interesting program was rendered by the students which evidenced the good work they have done during the year. Miss Iona Andrews was the principal and Miss Arlene Tunnell her assistant. These young and capable teachers have proven to be real teachers and gave satisfaction to the patrons of the school. G. D. Foster presented the certificates and diplomas to those entitled to receive them. Each year the rural schools make marked advancement and are fast coming to the front in quality of work done.

COLORADO GIRL INJURED IN SWEETWATER CRASH

Buck Cargall aged three was painfully cut about the head and Miss Josephine Bowen, 17, of Colorado, Texas, received a lacerated throat and face and severe bruises as a result of an automobile crash in Sweetwater Monday when a car driven by Miss Bowen collided with a car driven by Mrs. Cargall in the downtown business section.

The Chautauqua Program Biggest Ever In Colorado

"Joy Week Special" would be a most appropriate name for the Premier Circuit of the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua that is soon to come to our city according to Everett Kemp, Organizer for the circuit. Doubtless many of our people will remember Mr. Kemp for he himself is a well known entertainer and has toured this circuit many times as the "Man with the Million-Dollar Laugh."

In a conversation with him about this years program he stated, "The fun starts the first day for 'The Premier Male Quartet' open the program with their Scotch and Irish fun in songs and stories. These young men toured a greater portion of America and if we can take the word of the communities visited then we can assure you that you are to have a day of concentrated music and happiness. Chas. H. Plattenburg, for years a favorite and one of the most loved men on the American platform will add his jests and philosophy in the evening under the title of 'A Modern Tale of Two Cities.' Evelyn Gaston a talented reader will give a complete afternoon entertainment the second day with the 'Patsy' a most successful recent New York comedy at night. This play written by the author of 'Applesauce' is also a most delightful comedy. The lines are clever, and brimming over with real humor. With a splendid cast this will prove to be a most enjoyable entertainment. The pleasing artists of the third day with their vocal and instrumental numbers give a musical concert in the afternoon and at night. Mr. A. B. MacDonald, great feature writer for the 'Ladies Home Journal' and the 'Saturday Evening Post' and foremost authority on prohibition in the United States gives the facts as to the possibilities of beer coming back as well as a most intimate discussion of 'the whole liquor question. He will lecture both in the afternoon and at night."

Joy Johannes the talented happy-go-lucky girl and Irene Thien expert pianist and athlete extraordinary appear in the afternoon of the fourth day. The melodrama "Fine Feathers" featuring Patsy Gray will add a touch of human emotion at night.

George Vierra, Hawaiian who introduced his native music to America and graduate of an American University brings his company the fifth day. Dr. Chester M. Sanford, a recognized authority on vocational guidance gives his famous lecture, "You and Your Job" after a musical prelude, "An Evening in Hawaii", a beautiful spectacle produced by lighting effects of spouting volcanoes and island scenery with the exotic island music of Hawaii is given at night by the Vierra Company.

WEDDINGS AT ALL HOURS

Cupid has been exceptionally busy the past few days. Perhaps the drouth speeded matters up somewhat. At any rate Cupid has had no fixed hours for as evidenced by the record of marriages on Saturday, June 4th. At 9:00 p. m. at the home of Mr. Wallace, W. E. Dubois and Miss Wilhelme Howell were united in marriage. They will make their home in Westbrook. At the Methodist parsonage at 10:00 p. m., Mr. A. Natcher and Miss Vanola Watson, both from Breckenridge had the nuptial knot tied. At 12:30 a. m. Sunday Mr. A. E. True and Myrtle Alma Piper were married. They will reside at Big Springs. Rev. M. M. Beavers performed each of the above ceremonies.

POULTRY MEETING ON NEXT THURSDAY NIGHT

Comedy Sketch Will Take Place of Lecture at The Tabernacle

We are assured of the poultry meeting we have been expecting for some weeks, said James Logan this morning.

The meeting is to take place the 16th. The correspondence which Mr. Logan has had with Mr. Wood of St. Louis, informed him that in place of the contemplated lecture, there will be a play in four acts, entitled, "The Lay of a Men."

The purpose of the play is identical with that of a lecture, namely: to arouse an interest in better methods of poultry management among the farmers, and poultrymen. The facts are dressed into an interesting form with plenty of comedy to make it really an evening of entertainment, as well as information.

Mr. W. R. Luce will take the part of Phil R. Baskett, a successful poultryman. The other characters are:

Lett M. Russell Mrs. Russell Red E. Service

Lett M. Russell is the poultryman who does not believe in better poultry methods and is the chief comedian with his laughable comments each time Phil Baskett attempts to show him better methods.

Lubbock Officials Claim The Sale Of Malt Is Illegal

A case of more than passing interest to all Texas was filed by Lubbock officers Saturday against Mrs. Lilly Jones charging possessing liquor for the purpose of sale, and against Miles Frazier charged with violating section 687 of the penal code. The officers claim that under existing laws it is unlawful to sell any preparation which is to be used in the manufacture of liquor and merchants are warned to halt such practice. Section 687 points out that it is unlawful to sell any compound, tablet or preparation, or to possess formula or direction for the manufacture of intoxicating beverages.

A copy of the complaint filed against Miles Frazier is as follows: "In the name and by authority of the State of Texas, I Vernice Ford, do solemnly swear that I have good reasons to believe and do believe, that Miles Frazier, on or about the 31st day of May, A. D. 1927 and before the making and filing of this complaint in the county of Lubbock, State of Texas did then and there unlawfully and knowingly deliver to Lilly Jones two one pound cans of malt, a compound for the purpose of making intoxicating beverages against the peace and dignity of the State."

The out come of this case will be watched with interest, as it is the custom here and elsewhere for merchants and druggists to sell malt which is used freely in the manufacture of intoxicants. We would suggest that our business men suspend this class of business pending the outcome of this suit.

HIT THE BALL

Pick up any newspaper circulating in West Texas nowadays and you find only optimism.

In spite of the uneasiness caused by the weather, the cities and towns of West Texas are going ahead with their building programs. Almost every paper you pick up carries the picture of some new hotel or office building that would be a credit to any large city. Road building programs are being carried out; water projects are under way; issues for various public improvements are voted with regularity; and building permits continue at a steady pace.

Brownwood has a water project that is big enough to make the world sit up and take notice. Abilene's contract for a supplemental supply, involving altogether $600,000, has been signed.

Road building is just beginning, although it has been under way for two or three years. It is just now getting well started. Millions are involved.

SUPREME COURT RULING VOIDS SCHOOL LINES

Legislature Cannot Cut One Out Of Another Where Taxes Levied

A decision handed down by the Supreme Court of Texas, June 6th is of far reaching importance to all independent school districts. The decision holds that Legislature cannot by special act locate a new district out of territory partly embraced by an old district where the latter has bonded indebtedness. Many school districts will be invalidated by the Court's ruling.

AUSTIN, June 6.—Validity of certain independent school districts was struck down in a supreme court opinion made public today.

The court held that the legislature had no power, by special act, to locate a new school district out of territory partly embraced by an old district where the latter has bonded indebtedness and has been levying tax, thus placing on the new district obligations of the former without majority vote of persons affected.

The case was that in which Thomas Burns obtained injunction against the Dilly County line independent school district to prevent it from collecting school tax. The court held the statute unconstitutional.

The attorney general's department said various school districts over the State will be invalidated by the supreme court's decision.

SIMMONS UNIVERSITY FEATURES SCHOOL OF FINE ART

The Fine Arts are becoming more and more recognized as essential in the general education of our young people and it is the aim of Simmons University to make accessible the work of artists, the literature of Music and letters for a finer understanding and deeper appreciation.

Sight Singing and Conducting. These theoretical courses will be of great help to teachers, evangelistic singers and all who lead group singing.

Iri Allison, Head of the Piano Department is a talented pianist and teacher. He is a composer of note, a sympathetic teacher and a cultured artist. Mr. Allison will teach through the entire summer quarter and piano students will have a rare opportunity under his instruction.

One of the most practical phases of Music Education will be given by Miss Lucile Patterson. The Piano Department is arranging a special course for children this summer. It is particularly inductive to pleasant and profitable study of music by youngsters who prefer to go forward rather than slip back in this field. The Dunning system will be used. In addition to the customary two private lessons each week students will receive one class lesson which will prove unusually beneficial and interesting. Miss Patterson is well trained to teach this work. She has had two years of study with eminent European teachers among whom were Potter-Frizzell, a pupil of Herman Scholtz and Leschetizky. In addition to this Miss Patterson holds a Teachers certificate in the Dunning System which she has used successfully with beginners for six years. Her chief claim to success as a teacher is that her childrens classes learn not only the necessary technicalities but the love of music. All of the work given in the Department is accredited toward a Bachelor of Music Degree.

The Art Courses for the Summer School will be given under the instruction of Miss A. M. Carpenter. Due to the demand from the State Board of Education, many teachers are required to teach Public School Art. Miss Carpenter has organized one of the best classified Public School courses in the state. A Bachelor of Arts Degree is granted with a major in Art. In addition to the Primary, Intermediate and High School courses, Miss Carpenter will teach Painting, Applied Arts and Crafts, Basketry and Leather Designs in purses, bags and billfolders. Miss Oliva Hobgood, Dean of the Fine Arts Department will also give instructions at Simmons during the Summer Term. The courses of study in Speech especially meet the needs of public school teachers, college students, and business men and women. The courses are as follows:

the voice in speaking. The fundamentals of speech technique. Play Production, including a study of the theatre, suggestions on pageantry and festivals; Reading from memory and manuscript of the different types of literature. A Bachelor of Arts Degree is granted with a major in Speech. Many inspirational, interesting and artistic programs are being planned for the entertainment of the Summer Students.

CONSERVATION AND TERRACING

Colorado Record, June 4, 1927 Colorado, Texas. Gentlemen: Enclose attached hereto you will find a letter from the Federal Land Bank of Houston, Texas which is self explanatory. I thought perhaps you would like to give this publicity in your paper. When you have finished the same please return to us for our files.

Yours Very respectfully, Colorado Chamber of Commerce. J. H. GREENE, Secretary. June 1, 1927.

Mr. J. H. Greene, Colorado, Texas. Dear Mr. Greene: The Federal Land Bank of Houston has recently created a Department of Conservation and Terracing. This Department will have for its primary object the protection of the collateral that has been given to secure Federal Farm Loans made by this Bank. You, as well as every other business man or organization, are interested in agriculture.

The first problem is that of adequate facilities for terracing the farms in each county. About 165 of the best agricultural counties in the State have county agents; yet when we consider the great number of farms that must eventually be terraced, we recognize that it would take three or four times the average life of man for one agent to terrace the farms of the average county in this State. Then from another angle, there is not sufficient terracing implements to properly do the work in the average county.

My idea would be that meetings be called in which the County Agents and Extension Service Farm Engineer hold terracing schools to train one or more individuals in each community. Then through business organizations, the Commissioner's Court, farmers' organizations and individuals, secure the necessary implements. Now is the time to put over this work. The Bank cannot afford to wait and eventually foreclose on a worthless farm. The individual farmer cannot afford to wait until he has gone to financial ruin. From a business standpoint, your organization cannot defer this constructive work until business decline forces you to it.

A similar letter has been sent to the Secretary-Treasurer of National Farm Loan Associations throughout the State, and we wish to cooperate with your organization in every possible way. May we not hear from you with any suggestions you care to make?

Yours very truly, A. K. SHORT, Conservation and Terracing Agent.

POULTRYMEN SHOULD CULL THEIR FLOCKS

Now is the time for farmers and poultrymen to start culling their hens as the poor layers will usually begin to loaf about this time of the year and in most instances go into a molt, and early molters are poor layers.

The best plan of culling is one that can do as well as anyone else. It consists of going over the flock every three months and banding with celluloid leg bands all hens that are laying, which is fairly easy to do as the laying hen has a large full abdomen and has a bright red comb while the molting hen's comb draws up and becomes dry and scaly. At this time about ten per cent of the birds will probably be found undesirable and can be culled out. Three months later examine the flock again and band with a different color leg band all hens that are laying. Hens that do not earn the first and second bands should be thrown out.

You will be safe in assuming that hens having three bands at the end of the year are good layers and those having four bands are very good and suitable for breeding stock. This system of culling is very simple and requires but very little work, but it is the most accurate system we have except trap nesting.

MITCHELL COUNTY CLUB BOY TO ATTEND A. & M. SHORT COURSE

According to Lloyd Jackson, president of the Lone Star Ham Raisers club the members of the club with their fathers will attend the A. & M. College short course, July 25-30. They plan to take several cars and a truck and will pitch their camp on the college campus. The short course is held each year at College Station and the boys and girls go to lectures and various kinds of contests such as: grain judging, terracing, poultry judging, biscuit making and live stock judging. Each evening some kind of entertainment is provided. The boys are looking forward to the trip with a great deal of pleasant anticipation.

CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS ON SALE NOW

Chautauqua tickets have been placed on sale in the drug stores and confectioneries, and in the hands of salesmen. The prices of the tickets this year is $2.75 for adult tickets, and $1.00 for school children. These tickets are good for the use of the members of one's own family, and entitle the holder to admission to each number of the program.

We earnestly desire to call the attention of the buyers to the fact that Redpath-Horner bureau gets seventy five per cent of the single admissions. Help the local committee by buying season tickets. Single admissions will cost you 50 and 75 cents and $1. Buy your season tickets early, and help the local committee pay the cost of bringing this program to Colorado. J. E. CHASE, Chairman, J. Y. FRASER, Secretary.

Methodist Church Notes

At the morning service Sunday the message was on the need of being equipped and prepared for efficient service in the work of the church. Special emphasis was placed on the need of trained teachers in the Sunday School. A good congregation was present and at the close of the service the names of Miss Opal Palmer, Mesdames Arlie Martin, Marvin Martin, Earnest Meadows, Dee Land, O. B. Annis, H. K. Sadler, Kirk Taylor and Virgil Walker were called and those of the list present came forward and at the chancel were presented with the certificates of credit for work they had done in the Teacher Training course as issued by the Sunday School Board at Nashville, Tenn. Mrs. Charlie Coffee was also called to the front and to her was expressed the deep appreciation of the class and the church as such for her untiring and efficient service in instructing the class in this great work.

At the beginning of the service Sunday morning the congregation witnessed a beautiful and impressive ceremony in the baptism of Vera Sue Curtis, the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Curtis of Amarillo, close friends of our pastor's family.

Dean, Boyd M. McKeom of McMurry College, Abilene was to have filled the pulpit Sunday night but the blustery weather disrupted the service.

Bro. Annis went to Valley View to fill his regular appointment Sunday afternoon. A very good congregation assembled but early in the hour the storm broke upon the situation and the service was dismissed.

A class of eight have recently taken the examination on one of the Teacher Training course for Sunday School work. Five others are to take the same examination this week. This is the second book of this course taken this Spring and Mrs. Coffee now has a large class working on a third book. Some are taking all three of the books, a number are taking two of them, while a few have only one.

Monday afternoon the local Circle met in the home of Mrs. W. L. Heiser, with Mrs. Clyde Smith as co-leader, with a good attendance. Interesting reports were heard and plans for the future were discussed. The Circle has been doing some fine work recently.

The Gleaners' class in the Sunday School is raising money to cancel the debt on the piano of the Junior Department. This class of busy women is doing much outside work of this type. In this task, as in others, they are meeting with success.

Mrs. J. W. Smiley was before her class again last Sunday for the first time since early December. The entire school is rejoiced to see her happy face again.

Next Sunday the eleven o'clock hour is to be given to the interest of these young people of our community who have been engaged in College work or in teaching. They are coming home and the church wishes to express its appreciation of their earnest endeavours in the educational line.

PHONE DAY OR NIGHT

We had a conversation this week with a shrewd business man and among other things we asked him if a crop could yet be made this year in Mitchell County, and in reply he quoted to us Edgar A. Guest Poem.

IT CAN BE DONE
Somebody said that it couldn't be done
But he with a chuckle replied
That "maybe it couldn't," but he would be one
Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried.
So he buckled right in with a trace
Of a grin
On his face, if he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that;
At least no one ever has done it";
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,
And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.
With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,
Without any doubting or quidding,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,
There are thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you one by one,
The dangers that wait to assail you
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin
Just take off your coat and go to it
Just start to sing as you tackle the thing
That "cannot be done," and you'll do it.

SWEETWATER—Sweetwater will be the assembling point for the distinguished personnel which will make up the motorcycle party sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to the Davis Mountain section of West Texas and to the scenic wonderland of Eastern New Mexico. Cars will gather here July 2, and will proceed with Alpine, Texas and Cloudcroft, New Mexico, as objective points, at which places district West Texas Chamber of Commerce conventions are scheduled. Short stops are to be made at towns enroute, and three days will be spent in side trips to points in the Davis Mountains. One or two days will be spent in El Paso. An exploring party through the famed Carlsbad Caverns will climax and close the trip.

SLATON—Construction is in progress on between fifteen and twenty blocks of street paving in the residence section of the city. When completed, there will be 40 blocks of pavement in Slaton. It is all of brick laid on a concrete base.

McCAMERY—An emergency fire works system is under completion here giving McCamey fire protection which it has needed since the town was first built. Actual proceedings have been started toward building a road to the Yates oil field, thereby giving McCamey additional 25 miles of trade territory and giving the town connection with the greatest shallow oil field underway. All these projects are being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce which recently reorganized with the following new officers: Tryon Lewis, W. H. Chiles, J. W. Schooler, G. L. Hildebrand, E. L. Cole. Cole is secretary-manager of the commercial body.

Talking About The Ford

Detroit, May 25—Early production of a new Ford car superior in design and performance to any now available in the low-priced, light-car field, was announced by the Ford Motor Company.

Henry Ford, designer of the car, and Edsel Ford, president of the Company, both stated that within the next few weeks they will give a complete description of the new model. The famous Model T Ford, which still leads the automobile industry after twenty years of manufacture, will continue to be a substantial factor in Ford production, in view of the fact that about ten million cars of this model are still in use and will require replacement parts and service.

"The Model T Ford car was a pioneer," said Henry Ford today. "There was no conscious public need of motor cars when we first made it. There were few good roads. This car blazed the way for the motor industry and started the movement for good roads everywhere. It is still the pioneer car in many parts of the world which are just beginning to be motorized. But conditions in this country have so greatly changed that further refinement in motor car construction is now desirable and our new model is a recognition of this."

"Besides the Model T itself, another revolutionary element which the Ford Motor Company introduced twenty years ago was the idea of service. Some of the early manufacturers proceeded on the theory that once they had induced a man to buy a car they had him at their mercy; they charged him the highest possible price for the necessary replacement. Our company adopted the opposite theory. We believed that when a man bought one of our cars we should keep it running for him as long as we could and at the lowest upkeep cost. That was the origin of Ford service."

"The Model T was one of the largest factors in creating the conditions which now make the new model Ford possible. The world-wide influence of the Ford car in the building of good roads, and in teaching the people the use and value of mechanical power in conceded. Nowadays everybody runs some kind of motor power but twenty years ago only the adventurous few could be induced to try an automobile. It had a harder time winning the public confidence than the airplane has now. The Model T was a great educator in this respect. It had stamina and power. It was the car that ran before there were good roads to run on. It broke down the barriers of distance in rural sections, brought people of these sections closer together and placed education in the reach of everyone. We are still proud of the Model T Ford car. If we were not we could not have continued to manufacture it so long.

"With the new Ford we propose to continue in the light-car field which we created on the same basis of quantity production we have always worked, giving high quality, low price and constant service. We began work on this new model several years ago. In fact, the idea of the new car has been in my mind much longer than that. But the sale of the Model T continued at such a pace that there never seemed to be an opportunity to get the new car started. Even now the business is so brisk that we are up against the proposition of keeping the factory going on one model while we tool up for another. I am glad of this because it will not necessitate a total shut-down. Only a comparatively few men will be out at a time while their departments are being toolled up for the new product. At one time it looked as if 70,000 men might be laid off temporarily, but we have now scaled that down to less than 25,000 at a time. The lay-off will be brief, because we need the men and we have no time to waste."

"At present I can only say this about the new model—it has speed, style, flexibility and control in traffic. There is nothing quite like it in quality and price. The new car will cost more to manufacture, but will be more economical to operate."

BARRIER BROTHERS BUY BURNS & PIERCE Lubbock Firm Purchase Plainview's Oldest Dry Goods Store

The Plainview Mercantile' one of Plainview's pioneer firms, changed hands this week when Burns & Pierce the present owners, signed a contract transferring the merchandise and good will of the firm to Barrier Brothers of Lubbock.

The Mercantile has long been a firm of Plainview, having been established in the early nineties by the late Richard C. Ware who later entered into a partnership with J. N. Donohoo, and the hardware firm of Donohoo-Ware was separated from the mercantile.

F. M. Burns, senior member of the firm of Burns & Pierce, is a pioneer merchant of Colorado City and for forty years has been operating a dry goods store at that place. In 1918 he and his associates, C. A. Pierce and Douglas Burns of Tulsa, purchased the Plainview Mercantile and also operated a store at Tulsa, all operating under the firm name of Burns & Pierce.

The Farrier Brothers whom there are six, four in active management of the Lubbock store, were former Plainview merchants but sold their store in 1920 and moved to Lubbock. They are the originators of the Gold Bond trading stamps and Bob Barrier one of the brothers, maintaining a Dallas office, is conducting this business.

They have lately purchased the music department of the Rix Furniture company and will operate this department in connection with their Lubbock store and possibly at a later date add this department to the Plainview store.

Raymond Barrier will have the active management of this store, which upon completion of inventory, will open for business under the name of Barrier Brothers some time next week.

Mr. Pierce, who has been the manager of Burns & Pierce since their purchase of the store, also disposed of his interest in the Tulsa dry goods firm, having sold his interest in that store to Douglas Burns and purchased from him preceding his sale to Barrier Brothers his interest in the Plainview store.

Mr. Pierce has no announcement to make at this time, but it is his intention to continue his home in Plainview.—Plainview News.

Charlie Pierce was for a number of years a Colorado merchant and of course Mr. Burns is known here for the past 43 years. Mr. Burns spent all of last week in Plainview closing up the trade.

ONE OF THE THINGS COLORADO NEEDS

The one thing Colorado needs most it seems to me, the thing that would benefit the inhabitants most, give the most pleasure to travelers and add most to our Civic beauty is a Park. Now don't get the idea of going out on top of a hill, fencing a piece of cotton land and making a park of it, but rather go down and stand on Lone Wolf bridge look either up or down. Visualize the grassy banks of the creek south, cleared of debris, donkeys and bill boards. The last is going to be removed we are glad to say whether we have a park or not, and their going is due to the work of the Women's Legislative Council. It took years to get the law, but it was finally gotten by propaganda, just as we will finally get our park. See the creek bottom cleared of ugly trash, with vines and shrubs planted. The mesquites trimmed up, a rustic bridge or two across it. See the bank on the Negro side cleared of pig pens and toilets. The white side cleared of the same things, piles of bricks and old automobiles in other words just cleared up and it would be a beauty spot, adding hundreds of dollars to the town as a place in which to live.

Look up the creek from the bridge and there the possibilities of a real pleasure park where picnics and other entertainments could be held, grows upon one. An old timer has suggested that this be bought and beautified, calling it "Pioneer Park", at the same time calling on the pioneers for the necessary funds and furnishings for this. Good ideas don't you think, especially if you are not a pioneer.

We have yet to learn how to utilize what we have and, Lone Wolf Creek is one of our unused assets, it seems to me. Sitting in the beautiful Santa Fe Park in San Angelo, seeing how everything nature had done had been utilized, the beautiful pecan trees, the winding Concho and then how nature had been helped by growths of other trees, flowers and cozy nooks, it was once more impressed on me that something could be done with what we had, and that Colorado Pioneer Park, need not be a dream, but a reality when we got sufficiently interested to put it across.

The first of a series of Mrs. J. G. M.—Civic League articles on our town.

HERE IN THE CHAUTAUQUA

Irene Tihen is a true western girl. Her first years were spent in a small Kansas town, and to use her own words:

"Dad was a country doctor with his office in our home, so we were always surrounded by health questions. Many health habits so hard to instill in children were taught us so early and so thoroughly that they still remain. It was not so much that Dad taught us to resist temptation for harmful things, but rather, taught us to weigh the effect and not be tempted and to know one always pays in some coin for all evil doing."

So successful was this teaching Miss Tihen did not miss a day at school on account of health and at the age of fifteen years entered the University of Kansas, after having been the valedictorian of her high school class.

During her school days at Andale, she had played with the boys of the town, taking a part in all the games and, as she admits, received several black eyes over contested points.

Naturally, in the university she was attracted to the gymnasium. After reading one of her letters her father asked why she paid Mrs. F. K. room rent instead of the university. During the four years at Kansas University Miss Tihen was considered the best athlete in school. She played basket ball and engaged in all of the sports, winning the coveted "K" and many additional awards. She held many important school offices and was an honor student.

North Dakota called Miss Tihen to act as Director of Girl's Athletics. After two years at the latter institution, Miss Tihen was called to the post she now holds, Director of Physical Education at the University of Wichita.

Miss Tihen declares basket ball her favorite sport but adds:

"Basket ball has two serious drawbacks, it is too strenuous for some, and there is little opportunity to play after one leaves school. It is this realization that makes me interested in solving for others the problem I had to face—how to have pleasurable exercise that can be used in everyday life to regain or preserve health." You will be interested in her methods and demonstrations.

BOY USES TOE NAIL FOR BAIT AND GETS 16-POUND CAT FISH

BALLINGER, June 7.—Fish stories come and go but a 13-year-old boy is minus a toe-nail and in doing so gained a 16-pound catfish. He was seining for minnows when he stumped a big toe and tore the nail off, together with a little flesh. Just to see how it would work he put the decapitated nail on a hook, placed it in a hole of water on the river and waited several hours before he looked at the line to see if he had a fish. He did.

The fish weighed 16 pounds to the curve and made some very fine eating. All this occurred down the Colorado river a short distance from Ballinger.

Here's another. A farmer became disgusted with a small kitten after it had fallen in a bucket of milk, took it out and killed it.

He thought he would try his luck at baiting his fishing line with the kitty and so placed the feline on a large hook. He waited some time before going back to the line, but when he did there was a big carp on the hook. The carp was taken off and weighed. It tipped the scales at 32 pounds.

This was also on the Colorado river, only a few miles down the stream from Ballinger.

The boy does not advise anyone to purposely tear off a toe-nail and use it for bait, but the man says a good way to get rid of obstreperous kittens is to place them on a trout line.

McMURRAY'S ATHLETE KILLED

Ovid Davidson, whose home was at Tahoka, Texas, and ranked as McMurray College's crack athlete and was captain elect of the foot ball team, received a fatal injury last week while diving in a natatorium in Abilene. He dived into a shallow part of the pool and his neck was broken. An operation was resorted to in an effort to save his life but without avail. He died Friday from the result of the accident. The young man was twenty-one years of age.

OF INTEREST TO VACATIONIST WILL HAVE STRING OF HORSES AT FORT DAVIS THIS SUMMER

Johnnie Prude of Fort Davis, who was in Alpine last week, said that he would have a string of horses at Fort Davis this summer for the use of vacationists who desire to ride into the mountains on picnics, exploration parties, etc. Formerly Pete Crawford has had a string of horses at Davis throughout the summer but this year Pete will have his horses at the new resort on the Brown ranch below Alpine.

Prude said that he would also operate a service car this summer and has bought a new Chevrolet to be used for that purpose.

PRICES REDUCED! MILLION DOLLAR SUMMER SALES CAMPAIGN

VOLUME BUYING

Enormous buying must be followed by enormous selling. Volume production—Volume buying—Volume selling has enabled us to again LOWER OUR PRICES. A Million Dollar Sales Campaign in 66 days is a tremendous undertaking, we know that in order for it to be a success, we must give not only slightly better values than our competitors, but we must leave a wide margin—one that the public can plainly see.

You do not make a saving of only a few pennies, or a few nickels on each tire purchased—but your savings range from Two or more Dollars per tire on the smaller sizes—up to Fifteen Dollars on the larger sizes. On these enormous purchases we are effecting big economies. We are passing them on to the tire consumer. Your tires come direct from the Factory to you with only one small profit added,—one that might sound unreasonably low to you. A PROFIT that no concern could exist on if it were not for the great volume of sales that we enjoy throughout the State of Texas.

VOLUME SELLING

We resort to no schemes—no prizes. We offer no free road service. But—soundest values on Quality Merchandise is the keynote of our success. This policy is building for us a greater volume of sales each year.

The State Department of Education at Austin has notified the school board that Westbrook school received six units of credit in affliating in addition to being classified as a high school of four years. This is indeed a good beginning, as most schools receive only classifications the first year of affliation. We feel that with this good start the school is in position to soon become a first class high school.

During the session just closed the board, faculty and student body worked hard for our good and now to receive recognition from Austin, makes us proud of the year's work. It is the ambition of the school folks to be able to secure the full sixteen credits by the end of next year.

The school board has completed selection of the faculty for next session. The following teachers have been selected: N. A. Terrell, Supt. Mathematics; Mr. Chamberlain, Principal, English; Mr. Forester, Science, History; Misses Hamm and McNice, 6th, 6th, and 7th, grades; Miss Cook 2nd and 3rd, grades; Miss Lawrence, Primary. We believe that with this strong faculty the school will make great progress.

Baptist Church Notes

The Baptist meeting will continue through this week.

Bad Color (liver trouble)

"OCCASIONALLY I am troubled with spells of constipation and inactive liver," says Mrs. John L. Pence, Broadway, Va. "I always use Thedford's Black-Draught when I feel a spell of this kind coming on, for it saves me a bad headache. My color gets sallow at times. I get real yellow, showing that the trouble comes from the liver."

"I have found Black-Draught to be the finest kind of a remedy for this. I take Black-Draught and make a tea out of it, and take it, along in small doses for several days. I have never found anything that served me so well. "Since I have known about Black-Draught, I have not suffered nearly so much with headache, caused from indigestion. If I find my tongue is coated, and I wake up with a bad taste in my mouth, I know I have been eating indiscreetly, and I immediately resort to Black-Draught to straighten me out."
