

THROUGH ATTEND FORMAL OPENING OF NEW RUDDICK PARK ON FRIDAY EVENING

Band Gave Concert, the Main Address by Rev. M. C. Bishop of Post

The citizenship of Colorado met en masse Friday night and dedicated the new band shell and open-air stage in Ruddick Park, the same occasion marking the formal opening of this new city park, recently given Colorado by the Ruddick heirs, Mrs. H. G. Towle of Snyder, Mrs. J. H. Greene and Mrs. Jas. T. Johnson of Colorado.

Dr. P. C. Coleman, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided and paid a glowing tribute to organized union labor because of the fact that the work on the band shell was contributed by union labor, the Carpenters' Union doing construction work and the Painters' Union not only doing the painting but also furnishing the material.

The Colorado Municipal band, with Roy Hester directing, was presented in concert, with some visiting musicians from Sweetwater and Big Spring assisting. T. J. Coffee, mayor of the city, in his acceptance speech in behalf of the city council, pledged to maintain this park for the benefit of the citizens of Colorado. Some of the plans are to dam Lone Wolf creek and landscape the park, he said.

Rev. M. C. Bishop, now pastor of the First Baptist church at Post and former pastor here, made the main address. He said: "This is the greatest achievement of Colorado's citizenship since I first knew the city. When ground is once dedicated to a park and playground, it is never lost. Texas is leading all other states in parks. Parks are essential to the proper development of children, and are a very profitable place where grownups can go for relaxation. Somewhere Colorado was deficient of a citizen whose vision was so clear and far-sighted that, backed by a desire to put others ahead of self, it foresaw the blessing this park would be to Colorado."

SAYS SWEETWATER HAD NO AUTHORITY CLOSE THE BANKHEAD HIGHWAY

Engineer Gilchrist Says No Permission To Close Highway Given

Sweetwater bluffed her way over for the airport opening.

That city had no authority to close the highway and make those who refused to pay 50c per person detour. The State Highway department is definite on that point, and the boards blocking the highway both east and west of the Sweetwater airport with the wording: "Highway closed by order of the State Highway Commission to prevent traffic congestion" was evidently without authority, even if they did take a chance on blocking traffic if one paid 50 cents.

The Highway Department also says the practice was stopped as soon as it was called to attention of the department, but Sweetwater got away with the bluff until late Sunday afternoon after it was too late to fly. There is no excuse for the department allowing the practice to go on for two days. C. S. Dougherty, supervising engineer for this section, lives at Sweetwater and he most certainly knew of the closing of the highway. W. J. VanLondon, district engineer, has headquarters at Abilene, and he could have been informed of the violation of the law in ten minutes. It can hardly be said the highway department did the right thing in permitting this practice to go on for two days, Saturday and Sunday, and it is a shame that a growing, prosperous city like Sweetwater would attempt to get away with such hold-up methods.

A telegram sent to Gib Gilchrist, highway engineer, and the reply follows:

Colorado, Texas, Aug. 12, 1929. Hon. Gib Gilchrist, Engineer, Highway Department, Austin, Texas:

Please wire if Governor Moody, the Highway Commissioners or your office, directly or through employees, gave permission for Sweetwater to close Highway No. One Saturday and Sunday and charge toll of 50c per person and make those who refused to pay detour eight miles.

COLORADO RECORD.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 14, 1929. Colorado Record, Colorado, Texas:

In reply your wire this date on closing Highway One Saturday and Sunday and charging admission of fifty cents, was done by Monte Owen, Chamber Commerce, Sweetwater, without authority or permission from State Highway Commission. This was stopped as soon as matter was brought to attention of Department.

GIBB GILCHRIST, State Highway Engineer.

RESIDENT OF MITCHELL COUNTY FOR FORTY YEARS DIED WEDNESDAY AT IRA

J. H. Holley of Cuthbert Community Succumbed After Year's Illness

J. H. Holley, for about forty years a citizen of Mitchell county, the Cuthbert community, died Wednesday at Ira, where he had been making his home with his son, Lloyd Holley, for almost six months. His death followed an illness of about a year.

Mr. Holley was an old Confederate veteran, entering the army from Alabama. He was said to be the youngest man in his regiment. He served through the war and after it was over came to Texas and settled near Quitman, Wood county. After living there for a number of years, he came to Mitchell county and settled in the Cuthbert community.

By the neighbors, among whom he lived so long, Mr. Holley was regarded as a man who always stood for the best, and his influence there will be felt far into the future, for he favored everything that was righteous and good for mankind. His old friend, Dr. P. C. Coleman, said of him: "He was a man of quiet manners, rather reserved, but no one ever doubted his honor, his loyalty to everything that was good for his community. He was a member of the Baptist church and in all things was an honor to his community, his church, and his God."

Funeral services were held in Ira Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. A. D. Leach, Rev. C. A. Jones, and Rev. J. W. McGaba in charge. Interment was in the Ira cemetery.

AUNT OF MAYOR COFFEE KILLED IN ACCIDENT NEAR BLACKWELL SUN.

Odessa Woman Killed When Car Overturns, and Husband Injured

Mrs. F. M. Coffee, 69, of Odessa, aunt of T. J. Coffee, mayor of Colorado, was instantly killed and her husband painfully injured Sunday about noon when the car in which she and her husband were driving overturned about seven miles out of Blackwell on the Sweetwater-Blackwell highway.

RECORD'S COTTON CROP PREDICTION

The Colorado Record each year about the 15th of August makes a prediction as to the cotton crop. In the past we have been fairly close on these guesses.

We are setting the figure of 30,000 bales as our guess for this year, with the proviso of 37,000 bales if a good general rain is secured in a week and a favorable late fall season is had. But with the present outlook of dry weather we predict a crop of at least 30,000 bales in Mitchell county.

In 1925 on the 15th of August the Record predicted 40,000 bales, and 39,874 bales were actually ginned.

In 1926 our guess in August was 42,000 bales and 41,788 bales were ginned.

In 1927 we predicted a crop of 30,000 bales and 30,010 bales were ginned.

In 1928 we guessed the crop at 30,000 bales and about 32,000 bales were ginned.

Of course, we realize this was merely a guess, while our estimate was made after a complete survey of the county. While we have been fairly successful in the past in estimating the crop, we may miss the crop this year more than a mile. We urge our readers to remember this prediction. Mitchell county will make at least 30,000 bales of cotton this year and there is a possibility the crop may run up to 37,000 bales or more.

MRS. HARRYMAN JUDGED WINNER IN COLORADO'S FIRST YARD CONTEST

Mrs. J. A. Buchanan and Mrs. D. H. Snyder Win Other Two Places

Closing Colorado's first yard beautification contest, the three winners of the contest were determined this week after the final scoring of the yards by a committee of out-of-town women.

The yard of Mrs. R. R. Harryman was awarded first place in the contest, that of Mrs. J. A. Buchanan second, and Mrs. D. H. Snyder's yard third.

Judge W. H. Garrett and Dewey Tidwell received favorable mention. Their score cards ran only four points below the third prize winner. Their yards were especially attractive among those not winning prizes.

Many yards ran these a close race. The yards were judged on a score card worked out by Miss Abbie M. Sevier according to landscaping rules, and some yards which appear extremely attractive and well-kept, according to the judges, did not win the prizes because they were not laid out so that they could be given a high scoring.

The following score card was used in judging the yards: Sanitation, 10; general appearance, 10; back yard, 10; foundation plan, 10; borders, 10; flowers, 10; permanence of beauty, 10.

The contest has excited quite a lot of interest in Colorado, and has been the incentive for improvement in many yards in the city. The Chamber of Commerce Luncheon club, which sponsored the contest, is well pleased with results obtained through the contest.

First prize in the contest is $25, second prize $15, and the third prize $10. These will be awarded to the winners soon.

The committee which judged the yards was made up of three Lorraine women, Mrs. Homer Derryberry, Mrs. Sam C. Harris, and Mrs. W. L. Hester.

Christian Church Barbecue
The members of the Christian church enjoyed a delightful outing Wednesday evening at Mr. Thomas Dawes' country place, south of town. A Delco-Light had been installed by Mr. Schley and the beautiful shady grove with its tables and nice little screened-in serving room provided the ideal spot.
Some of the gentlemen went early and had a game of golf with Mr. Dawes. The children jumped ropes and played games, while the younger ladies engaged in a tug-of-war with the men as their opponents.
Bro. Ewell thanked Mr. Dawes for allowing them to use the grounds, thanked Mr. Schley for the lights, and the committee—J. B. Pritchett, J. E. Pond and R. P. Price—who had prepared the barbecue and other good things for the feast.

After Mr. W. A. Crowder had asked the blessing, the company lined up under the direction of Mr. Porter and were served by the committee to the delicious barbecue, baked ham, cowboy stew, pickles, boiled eggs, onions, bread and coffee, with plenty of soda pop and cold lemonade conveniently located.
It was a very pleasant occasion, one much enjoyed by the church members and their friends who attended.

Auxiliary of American Legion

checking hats at the Hut dances. She was given a rising vote of thanks for her work. The historian reported no material available for history.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Almond.

Daughters of King Have Picnic
Thursday was the regular day for the monthly meeting of the Daughters of the King Sunday school class, but instead of the meeting they enjoyed a picnic at Seven Wells.
The husbands and children of class members went out at 6 o'clock, some of the younger members going swimming, others enjoyed seeing the Scout pool, and talking of other days. At sundown a delicious picnic lunch was spread. There was fried chicken, salads of all kinds, cakes, pies, doughnuts, sandwiches, and almost every other dainty a hungry group could wish. After supper the return trip had to be made quickly, that Father Wulfjen and Father Arnett might milk their cows before it was too late.
The class will meet in September with Mrs. Q. D. Hall, whose sister, Mrs. Harper of El Paso, was the only out-of-town guest at the picnic.

Juniors Entertain Their Mothers
Thursday afternoon on Mrs. Garrett's beautiful lawn, the Methodist Juniors, who for six weeks have been having an intensive mission study class, closed their summer study with an open meeting, at which their mothers were guests.
For the first part of the program the whole group were dressed in Japanese kimonos. The family about whom the children have been studying in "Our Japanese Friends" entered first and bowed three times with their heads to the floor. The rest of the group came in and did the same thing. Mrs. Garrett asked them questions on Japan, its customs and religion. The world poster beautifully painted by Mrs. Costin was shown, while Hazel Grubbs gave a reading on Children Round the World. Margaret Jane Clark and Lou Merrill gave appropriate Bible readings; Willford Bond gave a poem on Japanese children; Shirley Kiker read "In Gay Japan." A pageant depicting life in a Mexican village was staged very effectively by Thelma King, Sue Bass, Elizabeth Pidgeon, Van King, Jr., Jimmie Booher, and Baby Oscar Bass, with the rest of the group as pupils of the mission school. The scrap books were judged by Mrs. Boyd Dozier and Mrs. Jeff Dobbs. The neatest and best arranged one was voted to Quita Richards, but because she had some writing on it the second one made by Margaret Jane Clark was the prize winner. The prize was a little picture of the Capitol at Washington. Punch and cake were served by the four leaders, Mesdames Garrett, Merritt, Lucien Madden and Grubbs, who have conducted the study, assisted by Mrs. Garrett.

Party for James Robt. Grantland
Observing his fourth birthday last Saturday, James Robert Grantland was honored with a birthday party by his mother, Mrs. H. E. Grantland, in the afternoon.
Fifteen of his little friends gathered at his home, and games were played. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Bridgette Breakfast
The Bridgettes met Thursday morning with Mrs. Dick Carter at 8:30 for breakfast. She had six tables all set and ready to serve the guests as soon as they arrived. Her meal was composed of cantaloupe, waffles, bacon, butter, jelly and coffee, the favors being pretty little baskets of candy flowers. During the game that followed punch was served. Mrs. Earl Powell was the only guest.
High score was won by Mrs. Randolph McEntire, who was given a box containing barrels of bath salts. Mrs. Bradford Landers had low score and she and Mrs. Powell were both given little nut baskets.
The meeting this week is to be with Mrs. Arlie Taylor on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Methodist Sunday School Teachers' Meeting
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ferguson entertained the Methodist Sunday school teachers' meeting on Tuesday evening. Superintendent A. A. Dorn presided. Bert Smith gave the scripture lesson, the Parable of the Talents. Rev. W. C. Hinds led in prayer.
The time was spent in a round-table discussion of Sunday school problems, a list of questions having been prepared by Mrs. Looney. At the close of the meeting refreshments of punch and cake were served. They meet next with Mrs. J. G. Merritt.

Party for Miss Ruth Dorn
Tuesday evening Mrs. A. A. Dorn very enjoyably entertained the Sunday school class of which her daughter, Miss Ruth, is a member with a "Visiting Party." The class teacher, Mrs. Buchanan, was out of town but every member who was in town was present except Mrs. Ferguson, who was hostess for the teachers' meeting that night.
The class presented Miss Ruth with a beautiful vanity and expressed their very great appreciation of her faithful work as a member and their regret at losing her.
Miss Ruth is leaving Friday for her new home in McAllen, where she and Phelan will manage their fruit and flower farm. Her sister, Mrs. Key Hooks, has been there almost a year, and Phelan has been there several months, and now Miss Ruth is going to take charge of her property. She is going to be greatly missed by her many friends—old as well as young—but all are wishing her great success in her new undertaking, that of a fruit and flower grower. Her friends of the class spent the evening in conversation, in listening to music by Phelan Dorn, and in enjoying the delicious homemade peach ice cream and black and white cake prepared by her mother.

London Bridge
Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wallace very delightfully entertained the London Bridge club on their beautifully cool lawn Saturday evening. A three-course dinner was served before the game began. Each of the six tables were centered with pink rosebuds. The score cards were flowers. The delicious meal consisted of fruit cocktail, city chicken, baked potatoes, peach salad, peas and mushrooms, hot buttered rolls, tea and coffee, with a dessert of ice cream and cake. Bridge high score prize was awarded to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Foster, low to Mr. and Mrs. Will Doss, Jr. Both prizes were boudoir lamps shaped like dogs, one being green, the other red.
The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harris Toler and D. H. Snyder, Sr.

Home Department
The Home Department of Methodist Missionary society met Monday with Mrs. Van King's "family" at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Willbanks. The chairman, Mrs. Walter King, presided.
The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. D. N. Arnett. In the roll-call that followed, those present told interesting items of news of their summer vacation.

The treasurer reported $8.85 dues deposited in July, and $48 in bank. Mrs. Fred Dozier and Mrs. Garrett's families turned in small amounts for the church building fund. Mrs. Wallace reported that $10.50 was due on hospital. It was voted to take this out of the treasury. It was also voted to pay three dollars on the hospital bill of Miss Marie Crone, a missionary to Cuba who had to return to Texas to have her eyes treated.
The Style Show was discussed and Mrs. Van King reported that they had been put on successfully in Big Spring and Lamesa. Decided to write those towns for information.

After an explanation about elections by Mrs. Merritt, it was moved that we defer election of Home Department officers until December, when other officers of the Missionary society are elected. Rev. W. C. Hinds, the pastor, was present and gave an interesting report of his trip to Mt. Sequoyia, and of the various departments of study being carried on.

Mrs. W. L. Doss, Sr., took charge of the flower fund, which amounted to $100. Mrs. A. D. Priddy and Mrs. J. L. Hart joined the department. Mrs. Terry was a visitor. The meeting closed with a chain of prayer.
Mrs. J. G. Merritt's "family" will entertain in September. Mrs. J. L. Hart, Mrs. Hill Low, Mrs. Willbanks, and Mrs. Van King served black and white cake and Neapolitan ice cream.

Picnic for Visitor
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Doe Harrison and their families enjoyed a picnic supper and swim at Seven Wells with their cousin and guest, Miss Beck Estes of Monahans. The fried chicken supper was especially enjoyed.

Young Mothers Wesley Bible Class
The Young Mothers Wesley Bible class met Thursday with Mrs. J. K. McCloud, with nine members present. Mrs. Ralph Beal conducted the meeting. Mrs. McCloud read as a Scripture lesson the sixth chapter of Matt. Mrs. Winn led in prayer.
No reports were given as all the members had been taking vacations. The two market baskets being passed around by the members are to be located and started once more on their rounds.
It was urged that all be present at the September meeting and take up with renewed interest the class work. A lovely refreshment plate of orange ice and angel cake was served.

Excel Circle
The Excel Circle was the only one that met Monday, the others taking a vacation during August, but all planning to resume work early in the fall. There were fifteen present at the Excel Circle, which met with Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, three of these being visitors. A short business session was first held at which time splendid reports were given on visiting new members and sick also on enrollment. A very interesting lesson on "Wandering Jew in Brazil" was conducted by Mrs. Whipkey.

The Circle drew new Forget-Me-nots.
At the social hour Mrs. Pat Whitaker and Mrs. Dick Delaney, who were hostesses, served wafers and lemonade.
The Missionary program for Monday is as follows:
Theme, "The Frontier."

THE ECHO
Edited by
R. U. L. Dier
Takes No Stand on Any Question

"Ride 'em cowboy!" That's what Colorado told the blue-shirt, one-gat-lus mayor of Mineral Wells when he was here Saturday. The former Mitchell county "Irishman" who has announced for governor on a "common sense" platform and as a champion of the "common people," met many who told him to stay in there and pitch. The Echo editor is glad Brown can ride 'em. We always never did like to watch a rodeo when the rider got thrown off the first jump the Bull made after he came out of the straight jacket. If Charlton Brown can't ride 'em they can't be rid, and we will kick the boards and yell when he comes into the gubernatorial arena even though we do laugh if he gets his head soaked into the dirt as he skids off the back of the ballot box. We can say he gave 'em a race for their money. Charlton Brown will do it and we will yell, "Ride 'em cowboy."

When our oil well comes in we are going to the mountains and stay all summer every year. This heat is getting almost unbearable to a fellow with tender skin and a disposition to preserve his health. Some say we are foolish for spending our time here but when you go to the mountains all you can do is spend time or money and we ain't got none of the latter, so it would be all the same anyway. The only thing about staying here we can tell the city council, the post master, the Alvee, the chamber of commerce, and various other poorly managed businesses how to run their place and at the same time draw our pay down here at this office. The boss here may not know it, but we are a necessary adjunct here. He couldn't open his office safe, make a price on a circular, nor conduct a conversation with the public without our assistance. Then every business has got to have a head—a sort of gray matter diplomat, and we are it. When it comes to gray matter we admit we are too heavily loaded.

The Echo and Record are becoming strong competitors. I advise all customers to come to the Echo first, last and all the time. If you want to know anything ask me. The Record is too dad-blamed big anyway. The Echo is nearer our size.
This bad business makes me think of the boys when we went down to Fort Worth last year to the chamber meeting. The Colorado band led by Sam Goldman was marching down the street in Ft. Worth and saw a plumbing shop where a woman was taking a bath in a show window. You could not see anything but her head, and the boys stopped in front of that show window and played "The Star Spangled Banner" for two hours trying to make her stand up.
Furthermore, if we don't get rain we ain't going to make nothing, and if we do get rain we ain't going to make nothing, because the worms will eat us up.

If you don't believe we are the big paid down at our office, just drop in, I am thinking of moving the Echo out and starting independent of the Record, then it will likely become a dis-cord. What I mean, is the Echo a good one, or ain't it. The public may be the judge, but we will be the jury anyway.
The Echo is going to start a Yard Contest, or pretty lawn contest, and make it free for all and see the judges inspect all yards whether the owners come to our office and register or not. Of course we want them to register at our office so they will know we are putting on the contest, but those who don't care about that can be in the contest also, so the Echo contest will take in every yard whether you like it or not. That may not be the proper way to do it, but The Echo always never did care about etiquette anyway.

I am compiling data on the water question. If the city council wants to know anything about the water situation they should ask me. What I can't tell them is mud. They don't want that, because they've got plenty. Just open a hydrant. Speaking of water, we think of Moses and Jim Greene. The reason we think of Moses when we see Jim Greene is because Jim opens his mouth and the "Bullrushes."

A local golf enthusiast who has had some winter clothes stored away during the summer, was unpacking and taking stock the other day and found one of his suits full of small holes. He counted the holes to discover what kind of bug did the work, and he gives it the name of "Golf Moth." He says the bug eat just 18 holes a day from the time he began work. But if the bug did not eat those 18 holes any faster than Bill C. plays 'em, he evidently worked overtime some days.

Fall of Meteors Witnessed Sunday Evening by Many

Meteor after meteor shot through the heavens Sunday night, and star gazers of Colorado who were out in the open shouted "Money, Money, Money," by the minute almost, for every few seconds a star fell.
On August 11 and November 14, according to astronomers, more meteors fall than during any other nights of the year. The heaviest fall was supposed to have been between midnight and 3 o'clock in the morning Sunday night, and some Coloradoans stayed up till this time and noticed no great increase in falling stars over the number falling in the early part of the evening.
At least two large meteors were seen during the early part of the evening. These appeared almost green, and left a tail visible for some time after they had disappeared.
The people of East Bay, on the California coast, were roused from their slumber Sunday night when a huge meteor crashed into the ocean near the shore. People who saw it say they never witnessed anything like it before, and some were under the impression the world was coming to an end. The whole countryside was lighted as bright as day, and the air was heated for miles around.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

To The Record:
Being one of the persons who were forced to get off the paved highway and detour about eight miles last Sunday while enroute to Sweetwater, I wish to file a protest against such actions by any city in future.

I had been reading articles in the newspapers for several weeks regarding the opening and dedication of Sweetwater's airport, and was led to believe after reading these articles that the people of Sweetwater desired to celebrate the opening of their airport by having everybody in West Texas as their guests for two days, even going so far as to say there would probably be free rides to most of the visitors. Imagine the surprise of thousands of people when upon arriving about a mile or two from the airport they were informed they would have to pay 50 cents each to even drive over the State and Federal highway in passing the airport, whether they cared to stop or not.

Now, I—like many others—was enroute to Sweetwater on business and cared nothing about Sweetwater's arid-mindedness. I was told, however, that I would either detour or pay. I detoured the eight miles over some of the steepest and rockiest hills I ever saw in my life, and on nearly every hill were tourists and others, stalled and broken down, and most of them were almost overcome with heat from cursing Sweetwater and everybody in it who had anything to do with blocking the main highway. If people's ears really do burn when someone is talking about them, Sweetwater folks will have the carache the rest of their lives. One man, who had just made the detour into Sweetwater and with whom the writer was talking at a filling station, said: "They may call you Sweetwater, but to me and my family for the rest of our lives you will be known as 'Sourwater.' He wasn't just peeved; he was so mad he could not see straight.

Sweetwater, in my opinion, has perpetrated a shame, by closing the State highway for private gain which it will take years to recover, and I believe there are thousands of others who feel the same as I do about it. I have heard more than a hundred comments about this high-handed method of obtaining money, and not one single person has offered a word of sympathy or commendation, but if the Sweetwater officials could have heard what the people did say they would not be long in coming out with some kind of apology.

Sweetwater officials hurt themselves with their own people, but their greatest shame was in forcing thousands of tired, hot, dusty tourists to detour eight miles over an impassable road. If these officials were forced to pay the damage they caused to cars and automobile castings by forcing people to detour over those eight miles of rocks and ditches

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Farrar left on Wednesday for Mexia, New Mexico, to visit J. D. Farrar of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Cramer of Chalk, and Miss Cleo Farrar returned Saturday night from an eight-day trip. While gone they visited Carlsbad Cavern, went upon Pike's Peak in Colorado, and returned home by way of El Paso.

BUSINESS GIRLS' CLASS IN BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL
A Business Girls' class, composed entirely of girls and young women who are wage-earners in some capacity, was recently organized in the Baptist Sunday school, with the following officers:

Jewel Collier, president; Marguerite Stoneham, first vice president; Helen Hamer, second vice president; Edna Wilson, third vice president; Jo Key, secretary; Nita Mae Davis, treasurer; Laundry Smith, reporter.

At a business meeting held recently at the home of the president, the class song, motto, aim, scripture, and colors were determined. The class holds business meetings once a month with special representatives appointed each Sunday to attend the Wednesday evening meetings of the officers and teachers of the Baptist Sunday school and report for the class.

Mrs. A. L. White is teacher of the class, which meets each Sunday morning at 9:45 with the Young People's department on top floor of the Sunday school rooms. All girls and young women who earn wages, either at home or downtown, are cordially urged to join the class.

R. A. May, Buick dealer, was in Dallas Monday for new Buick cars, bringing back two 1930 models.

RULES FOR SAFE DRIVING
GIVEN BY FORD DEALER

As a contribution toward greater safety and more pleasant driving conditions on the highways of the country this summer, the Ford Motor Co. recently listed twelve rules as suggestions to motorists and distributed them during the past month to dealers.

C. D. Boyd of the Colorado Motor Co., Ford dealers, calls attention to these rules and urges observance of the suggestions, all of which are good.

The local Ford agency has a large display of these rules in their show room and the public is being urged to observe these rules, which are as follows:

1. Courtesy comes first. Consider the rights and privileges of others.
2. Keep your mind on your driving, and anticipate sudden emergencies.
3. Learn the 'feel' of having your car under control.
4. Obey all traffic and parking regulations.
5. Keep to the right, and comply with road markings and signs.
6. Signal for stops and turns. Watch the car ahead.
7. Slow down at crossings, schools and dangerous places.
8. Never pass cars on hills, curves, crossings.
9. Adapt your driving to road conditions—rain, ice, soft spots and ruts.
10. It doesn't pay to take the "right-of-way" too seriously.
11. When you drive, remember the times when you were a pedestrian.
12. Know the law. It was passed for your protection.

Facts speak louder than Claims

1928 was not only the greatest year in Goodyear sales—IT WAS THE THIRTEENTH SUCCESSIVE YEAR IN WHICH MORE PEOPLE RODE ON GOODYEAR TIRES THAN ON ANY OTHER KIND!

Sometimes you see a company come to the front for a year or so, but it doesn't hold its lead. So, when you see a company rise to leadership in the sales as Goodyear did in 1915—AND THEN HOLD AND INCREASE THAT LEADERSHIP EVERY YEAR THEREAFTER—You know that they're good!

Isn't that evidence enough to show you why we have picked Goodyear Tires and why you get the best buy of your life when you put them on?

COLORADO LAUNDRY IN NEW BUILDING ON OAK AND FOURTH

Modern Structure Houses Model Laundry Plant For This City

The Colorado Laundry is now housing in its new, modern, fire-proof building at corner of Fourth and Oak streets, final removal of the plant having been accomplished this week.

The plant, now considered one of the most modern and most convenient in West Texas, is so housed in the new building that efficiency of operation and the best of workmanship can be secured.

Many new items of machinery and equipment were added to the already modern plant until now in the new quarters, the Colorado Laundry plant is a model of perfection. The new building is modern in every respect. Large windows open on the east and south, and the roof has a deck with ventilating windows the entire length of the structure, which is 90 feet long and 75 feet wide. It is built especially for the splendid light and ventilation. The boiler room is cut off from the other work room by a thick brick wall, reducing the heat in the main room. A front office is across the corner where a drive-in is arranged to accommodate the public.

The new structure affords ample room for the growing business of the laundry, and J. Ralph Lee, manager, says the plant will be ample to care for the business for several years. The building cost about $25,000. The machinery was placed by engineers from the American Laundry Machinery company's factory and everything is so designed to facilitate the handling of laundry and to produce the finest of work.

THROUGH ATTEND FORMAL OPENING OF NEW RUDDICK PARK ON FRIDAY EVENING

The Business and Professional Women's club, visualized the Ruddick Park of the future and paid tribute to the donors.

J. W. Randle, president of the Lions club, pledged the cooperation of that organization, stating that the Lions are proud of the opportunity given them to equip the park with playground apparatus.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the program purchased five hundred seats, which were placed on the ground for use of those attending the concert. Many more seats were needed.

The committees of the Chamber of Commerce and Lions club in charge of arrangements for the opening of the park and the construction of the band shell have written the following note of thanks:

"We desire to thank everyone who had any part in the building of the band shell on Ruddick Park. Especial attention is called to those who donated the labor. This is the exemplification of a wonderful spirit and one that should be rewarded by respect and consideration. The Carpenters' Union labored many hours, and we desire to thank them and express our satisfaction to them for the manner in which the work was done. Mr. H. H. Hill was in charge of the centers' work. The Painters' Union not only did the work, but donated the material with which the structure was painted. The Boy Scouts helped in several ways. The City Electric Shop did all the wiring for nothing. The drymen hauled all the material free.

"Now, we think the entire citizenship owes a debt of gratitude to these generous good people who made it possible for us to have this wonderful building in which to have our regular band concerts and open-air programs. Further, we desire to again thank all who contributed money. This shell is not quite paid for, and we sincerely hope our good people will come forward with other contributions, sufficient to finish paying. Do not get the idea that it is finished, but bear in mind that we have a gigantic task ahead to develop, beautify and maintain a park. There are many things we can do to assist. The city can do a great deal, and have already done a great thing, for which we express our gratitude; also we would be failing in our duty if we did not mention the fact that the electric line was built out there for us at our request, by the Texas Electric Company, at an expense of many hundred dollars which cost us absolutely nothing. We feel that we have struck a responsive chord, as all seem willing to help.

"Now, let's continue until we have playground equipment for the kiddoes, including wading pools, shade trees, grass, water, barbecue pits and all the things necessary to make a beautiful park. There will be much team work, also, if you wish to donate work of this kind see the secretary. COMMITTEE. C. C. and Lions Club.

The "Perfect Retention Shields" hold the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief and contract the opening in a remarkably short time.

The secret of their success is in their simplicity. An expertly adjusted device seals the opening without discomfort or detention from work. It is practically everlasting, sanitary, comfortable and actually holds ruptures which heretofore were considered uncontrollable.

NEPHEW OF SANDUSKYS IS RADIO EXPERT IN DALLAS

A nephew of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sandusky of Colorado is winning recognition in Dallas and at several points all over the world for the experiments he has made in transmitting and receiving over his radio set. He has received several messages from the Byrd party in the Antarctic, and talked with more than a few foreign stations.

This write-up of his work appeared recently in the Dallas Dispatch:

The old quip, "I wonder what the price of prunes in Australia is today?" is a practical question for Buck McKinney, Jr., 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. McKinney, 4926 Sw 1/2 avenue.

If anyone in Dallas wanted to know the price of prunes in Australia or in 50 or more other countries Buck could probably find out for them on short notice. Buck has friends in 10,000 points in the United States and in 60 foreign countries, all of whom are anxious to cooperate in finding out whatever he wants to know about anything at anytime. Buck, in turn, would do the same for them.

Buck and his friends are members of the American Radio Relay League and of the International Amateur Radio Union, a network of efficient and highly qualified licensed radio operators reaching into many corners of the earth.

Transmitting Set

In the rear of his home, Buck has a compact transmitting and receiving set on which he has carried on 2488 conversations in foreign countries during the last three years and many times this number in the United States.

It was Buck who relayed an important message to Russell Rogers, former S. M. U. student, when he was in Shanghai last year on the Floating University, and received confirmation that it had been received in less than 24 hours. The message was from young Rogers' mother who was visiting at the McKinney home at the time. It was relayed several times by fellow operators in foreign countries before reaching its final destination.

From Byrd

Last January Buck took 14 personal messages from the Byrd crew at the South Pole, transmitting them to relatives of the men in various parts of the country.

A message from the radio operator on the Hobbs University expedition in Greenland, rescuers of the fliers, Bert Hassell and Parker Cramer, was picked up by McKinney, transmitted to the operator's relatives in Washington, D. C., and an answer sent back to Greenland. This took less than 30 minutes.

An interesting feature of McKinney's set is being able to listen in on trans-Atlantic telephone conversations.

Get Conversation

Wednesday night a wealthy New York family was talking to relatives in London. The New York side of the conversation was as clear as a Dallas telephone connection from Oak Cliff to Oak Lawn. It went something like this:

"What boat are you coming home on, Charlie?"

"Forget all those cablegrams I sent you and continue your route just as you planned it?"

Then followed similar conversations between Charlie and a half dozen other relatives, who were thrilled at talking across the ocean.

All Use English

McKinney has received confirmations from the 60 foreign stations with which he has contact. English is the universal radio language and only once has McKinney found an operator who could not transmit and receive in it.

Turning the dial on his set, McKinney made contacts in rapid succession with France, Vancouver, Australia and Brooklyn.

The Dallas Dispatch reporter sent messages to friends in New York, McKinney transmitting them to an operator in Brooklyn, who in turn telephoned them to the parties to whom they were addressed.

McKinney's station call letters are W5ATF. He broadcasts on 20 and 40 meter wave lengths, using 50 watts of power from a 110 volt light circuit. His set is equipped with batteries and a high-powered generator and can be regulated to meet emergencies arising from long distance stations or weather conditions.

GRASS FIRE STARTS WHEN LIGHTNING STRIKES COW

A grass fire Tuesday afternoon on the old Green Williams ranch burned off a section for W. A. Davidson, and about one section each for Longshore and Ainsworth. The fire originated when lightning struck a cow, killing her and setting fire to the grass.

About two sections were burned off in the Hayrick pasture of the H. S. Ranch Sunday afternoon, the fire originating from lightning striking the ground.

Another fire on the Fowler McKinney ranch in Sterling county Tuesday burned about a section.

FARMERS URGED TO SAVE ALL BUNDLE FEED FOR GRINDING

Shortness of Feed Crop Makes Cutting Stalks Economic Move

Farmers of Mitchell county are being urged to bind and save all maize, kaffir, hegari and other sorghum grain stalks this year in order to avoid a feed shortage certain unless rain is secured in a few days and these stalks are saved.

Judge C. C. Thompson, president of the Colorado Feed Milling Co., says farmers who use forthright and cut and bind all maize, kaffir and higar stalks, can have these ground and mixed with molasses and a little other grain and make a crop next year easily on this feed.

U. G. Hardison, manager of the feed mill, has made a special study of grinding and mixing feeds from these stalks, having secured bulletins and instructions from A. & M. College and Texas Technological College, and he says the mill is going to be prepared to manufacture these stalks into mixed feeds in any quantity.

"These feeds are good feeds, too," Hardison said. "When they are properly ground and mixed with molasses they will carry any kind of stock through and fatten them."

FAMILY OF E. KEATHLEY TO MOVE TO ABILENE

J. J. Robertson and Miss Anna May Bell of Abilene visited their daughter and aunt, Mrs. Ernest Keathley, Monday and Tuesday. Arrangements were made whereby the Keathleys will move to Abilene soon and make their home with Mr. Robertson.

Mrs. Keathley's mother died in January, and she will care for her father.

Except from January 13 to June 17, 1908, when they ran the telephone exchange in Sweetwater for Robert M. Webb, the Keathleys have made their home in Colorado since July 5, 1901. They still have business interests here which Mr. Keathley will look after when he returns from the hospital at San Antonio.

Word comes from Mrs. J. T. Johnson and Mrs. Pearl Shannon that they will be home from Rochester, Minn., very soon.
