Arrived San Diego Thursday Night On Eve Annual Highway Meeting

Forty-one Coloradans, including twenty-six members of the local band, official musical organization of the Broadway of America Association, joined the road booster motorcade here Monday morning, when the good-will trippers resumed journey to San Diego, California, for annual convention of the road organization.

There were thirty-two people in the motorcade when it arrived in Colorado Sunday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock. A delegation of local citizens met the trippers at Sweetwater and escorted them into Colorado. The motorcade arrived at San Diego late Thursday after four days driving from here. Start from New York City was made on May 3.

"If there were more communities along this route in which the people were as interested in popularizing the Broadway of America as your Colorado folk, it would not be long before this route would actually be crowded with tourists," F. O. Mackey of El Paso, president of the Broadway association, stated when seen at his hotel here Sunday evening. "Colorado is certainly doing the lion's share in promoting this, the nation's great artery of travel."

Automobiles were furnished for the trip to San Diego by Roy Hester, Jas. T. Johnson, W. C. Berry, Jim Green, Raymond Gary, W. L. Scott, Mrs. E. A. Dierdorff, and Dr. C. L. Root.

WALLACE RUSHING REPAIRS AT BELL WELL FOLLOWING FIRE DAMAGE TO DERRICK

A Natural Production of 35 Barrels Is Guaged By Crew Sunday

Completion of the R. J. Wallace A. M. Bell No. One, important oil test in Eastern Howard county, has been delayed ten days due to damage to the derrick and tools Sunday night by fire. The well was guaging 35 barrels under swabbing when a gas and oil flow, breaking through the oil control, was ignited.

Mr. Wallace stated that the accident happened at 10 o'clock Sunday night. When the control head gave away under heavy gas pressure, a spurt of oil was hurled through top of the derrick. Force of the oil spray burst a 220 watt electric lamp suspended in the rig and immediately the derrick was in flames. 100 barrels of crude oil stored in slush pit was burned. No member of the tower was injured.

The test was being swabbed preparatory to shooting. Repairs are being rushed and as soon as the rig and tool string are placed in condition the well will be completed. The steel derrick was only slightly damaged, with exception of being warped somewhat by effect of the intense heat.

Colorado oil men who have watched developments here pronounce this best well in the Denman-Dodge area along the Mitchell-Howard county line southwest from Iatan. It tested fifteen barrels daily from the upper part, 2,450-2,520 feet. The second part, 2,520-2,590 feet, brought 710 feet of oil into the hole within 12 hours. An increase in oil was found at 2,820-2,828 feet. Bottom of the hole is down 2,855 feet.

The well is on location 1,960 feet south and 2,320 feet from the east line of section 12, block 20, township One South, Texas & Pacific Railway Company surveys.

Property Damaged By Hail, Wind Storm In Colorado Area

Rain varying from .22 of an inch at Colorado to one and a half inches at other places covered this area early Saturday morning. Hail and windstorm damage in some localities were reported as being heavy.

Bronte suffered a property loss estimated at $10,000 when buildings were blown down or unroofed. The Gideon Gin Company and a new garage under construction by Smith Brothers at Bronte were reduced to debris. Several plate glass windows were blown out and outhouses upturned and unroofed.

Considerable hail is reported to have fallen in territory north from Loraine, with homes and outhouses taking the brunt of losses sustained. Some damage was done to early feed crops in wake of the hail storm.

The night before .73 of an inch fell here. The two precipitations added materially to prospects for both farmers and cattlemen during the ensuing months. The rain was general from here to Alpine. A. L. Whipkey, who with Mrs. Whipkey returned Sunday afternoon from a visit to the Davis Mountain city said.

RAIL AND MOTOR TRAFFIC TIED UP AFTER ROADBEDS ARE DAMAGED BY FLOODS

Crops and Buildings Sustain Heavy Losses West and South of Colorado

Torrential rains that visited most of West Texas Monday night exacted a heavy damage toll in buildings, crops, highways, rail lines and other properties. Hail pellets that wreaked havoc in vicinity of San Angelo were said to have been two inches in diameter and resembled "chunks of ice." Roofs and field crops in wake of the storm were ruined.

Considerable damage was done to highway No. One west from Colorado. One bridge went out near Coahoma and several hundred feet of pavement surfacing was carried away by the surging flood waters. Motor traffic, both east and west, was tied up during most of the day.

Several blocks in the industrial district at Big Spring were inundated. The flood waters tore out six hundred feet of track on the main line of the Texas & Pacific there, tying up traffic for several hours. Train No. 16 arriving here at 7:30 a. m., was delayed until 11:25. No. 6, another east bound passenger train operated by the Texas & Pacific and due to arrive at Colorado at 12:40, was delayed eight hours.

Through buses of the Southland Greyhound lines were tied up here and at Big Spring several hours. Motor traffic between here and Big Spring was resumed Tuesday afternoon after a detour route, leading south of Coahoma had been opened.

Rainfall at Colorado during the night totaled 2.5 inches. There was considerable electrical disturbances accompanying the downpour. Small property damage was reported here. Logan & Sons stock of feed was damaged by water blown into the building by the prevailing strong winds. North of Big Spring another devastating hail storm covered a wide area. Rabbits, poultry and even pigs, were slaughtered by the hail stones. Foliage is said to have been stripped from trees and field crops and gardens laid to waste.

Total rainfall at Colorado during the week ending Thursday morning was reported by the Chamber of Commerce at 3.61 inches, the largest of which fell during Monday night, when 2.05 inches were registered. Thursday night of last week .73 of an inch fell, .22 of an inch fell Saturday morning and .61 of an inch Sunday night.

Motorcade Arrives At Douglas, Ariz., On Schedule Time

(Special to The Record) DOUGLAS, ARIZ., MAY 11.—The Broadway of America motorcade arrived in this Rocky Mountain city late yesterday on schedule after an uneventful drive through southern New Mexico and Arizona.

Members of the official band, joining the trippers at Colorado, Texas, Monday morning, are enjoying the trip to the utmost.

The caravan was delayed forty-five minutes in arriving at El Paso Monday. Due to arrive at 5:15 p. m. (Mountain Time) the good-will boosters did not show up in the Gateway City until 6. Concert program played by the Colorado band in the Plaza at 7:30 was among the chief entertainment attractions in El Paso Monday night.

"Ask The Record to state that every member of the band is well and happy and enjoying the trip fully," Roy Hester, director of the official association band, requested just before the trip west was resumed here this morning.

As the motorcade is passing through Arizona additional cars are being added at almost every stop. Several cars were entered in the caravan Tuesday as the trippers passed through Southern New Mexico.

TRENCH SILOS SHOULD BE IN USE BY ALL DAIRYMEN, URGE OF STATE ENGINEER

Feed Kept Fresh For Eight Years, Bentley States Here Recently

The silo is among the best assets that any Mitchell county dairyman could possess and every dairy farm here should possess one of these, W. R. Bentley of College Station, State agriculture engineer, declared after inspection of several trench silos in the county last week. The engineer was accompanied on his inspection tour by the county farm agent and J. H. Curry, city sanitary inspector.

"Considering the cost involved in its construction, I believe the trench silo would be the most satisfactory for the average Mitchell county dairyman," Bentley said. He quoted statistics furnished by some of the larger dairy farms and experiment stations to sustain his claim that silage was most valuable in feeding for either milk production or conditioning livestock for market.

"Silage has been known to keep in perfect condition for eight years," the engineer stated when questioned as to how long feed thus stored would remain fresh. "Silage at the King ranch a few years ago was kept for that length of time and the last taken out was just as good as the first."

In some of the silos inspected it was found that spoilage had been too high. Mr. Bentley suggested that this condition could be overcome by stacking the silage about four feet above the ground level, thus allowing for settling to a scale well within specifications.

Trench silos are owned in this county by Bray Cook, Formwalt Bros., J. L. Bowen, I. K. Gale, Stewart Cooper, Jim Bodine and E. B. Hale.

TWO MEN BLOWN TO BITS IN NITRO EXPLOSION NEAR WINK EARLY WEDNESDAY

Ill-Fated Truck Serviced At Colorado Station a Few Hours Before

Two men, whose identity was not immediately established definitely, were blown to bits in the explosion Wednesday morning of load of nitroglycerine at the Ward-Winkler county line on the Monahan-Wink highway.

W. J. Judy, about 46, of Tulsa, manager of the Osage Torpedo Company, and Bill Scofield, about 30, of Peshing, Oklahoma, were aboard the truck when it left Wichita Falls at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, and were believed to have been the victims.

Part of a man's hand was the largest portion of either of the bodies recovered that might lead to identification. A huge hole was blown in the paving. No other cars were reported near at the time and no witnesses to the explosion had been located.

The truck was enroute from the Osage Torpedo Company's plant at Pawhuska, Oklahoma to the Winkler county magazine of the Western Torpedo Company of San Angelo to deliver 500 quarts of nitroglycerine. Two hundred quarts were delivered to the Mendenhall Torpedo Company at Wichita Falls Tuesday afternoon.

Any one of several things might have caused the blast, the most likely conjecture being that it was due to the leaking of the explosive from one of the cans. A collision could have been responsible. The fact that the truck was traveling at a high speed at the time seemed to eliminate the likelihood that it struck a bump.

The ill-fated truck was serviced at a Colorado filling station a few hours before. One of the men made the statement while here that a leak had developed in the cans.

BIG SPRING TAXI DRIVER ABDUCTED AND TAKEN TO WICHITA TUESDAY NIGHT

W. C. Prescott, Big Spring taxi driver, was abducted by two men Tuesday night after answering call from a residence street there. The thugs, after getting into Prescott's machine, covered him with a pistol and forced him to drive east through Colorado and on to a point ten miles south from Wichita Falls. There they stopped and put the man out, after robbing him of what money he had.

Prescott stated that he walked ten miles into Wichita Falls early Wednesday morning. He telephoned relatives at Big Spring and was soon on his way back home, minus his motor car. The thieves informed him they would leave the car 18 miles cut from Wichita, but he did not know in which direction.

THE RED & WHITE STORES

The Saloon Must Go, Was Demand Of The Record In The Issue For May 12th, 1911

The Record was not influenced by moderation in its denunciation of the open saloon twenty-one years ago this week. In the edition for May 12, 1911, strong appeal was made to voters to go to the polls on 4th Saturday in the coming July and vote in favor of proposed constitutional amendment No. 20, offered to place Texas' death knell to the liquor traffic.

Complete text of the proposed amendment, as certified to by C. C. McDonald, secretary of State, was published. Abe Mulkey and his wife "Louisa," were in the midst of a great evangelistic campaign at the tabernacle and this well known preacher had prompted the newspaper editor to come out more definitely to express his views on the open saloon.

Coloradoans returning from visits gave alluring reports of the fighting between Mexican regulars and insurgents. General Madero and his victorious followers had just entered Jaurez after hard fighting in the Mexican city across the Rio Grande from El Paso. Stories of how Americans in El Paso streets were being shot by stray bullets were told.

with Elder A. R. Lawrence of Loraine officiating.

Contract for erection of five steel suspension bridges to span streams on public roads of the county was awarded during that week by commissioners' court, A. J. Coe, county judge had reported.

J. P. Majors, S. D. Vaughan, Y. D. McLaughly and J. T. Davis had been elected as members of the Colorado school board on the Saturday before.

Such youthful orators as Harry Ratliff, Cly Broadus, Lister Ratliff and Alva Hickman made the rafters to ring with eloquence of their addresses on Friday evening before, as they debated on program sponsored by the Knights of King Arthur.

The week before certificates of graduation had been conferred by the high school upon Harvey A. Phillips, Ethel Pritchett, Mabel Smith, Nora Blandford, Ollie Pritchett, Everett Lyon and Robert Smith.

Annual convention of the Mitchell county singing association, held at the tabernacle on Sunday before, like the annual festival recently, attracted a large number of people. At the business session, held on Saturday night W. L. Doss was elected president; G. E. Goodwin of Cuthbert, vice president; and Miss Pearl Norman of Loraine, secretary.

The evils of installment buying were in vogue then as now. Jim Greene, who then was operating a furniture store in Colorado, boasted considerably upon his ability to dispose of nineteen popular known kitchen cabinets during the week "at $1.00 down and $1.00 a week."

A. B. Coleman's construction foreman for the electric company, was seriously injured one day that week when a tall pole, atop of which he was at work, fell, crashing with him to the ground. Coleman, who lived in Sweetwater, was directing a crew of linemen in extensions made by Robt. M. Webb, manager of the utility corporation.

Hoppers Threaten To Depredate On Field Crops During 1932, Warns State Official

Strong possibility of a general infestation of grasshoppers equal in intensity to that of 1923 for all of Texas except the eastern portion is indicated in a letter received by The Record from R. R. Reppert, entomologist of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service. "Following the recent warm rains eggs are hatching and small grasshoppers appearing," he says, "and as soon as infested areas are located the immediate application of control measures may save later damage. Places to be watched are sloping pasture land and areas next to ditches, creeks, grassy fence rows, and along stone fences and lines of outcropping rock ledges."

Poison bran mash has been highly successful in fighting grasshoppers and this has become the standard control measure, the county agent states. The formula he gives consists of 25 pounds coarse wheat bran, 1 pound Paris green or white arsenic, 1 ounce high grade amyl acetate (avoid cheap grades of banana oil or bronzing liquids), 2 quarts cane or sorghum molasses, 1 pound common salt, and enough water to make a moist mash.

"Mix the bran and poison together thoroughly. Dilute the amyl acetate and molasses in about 2 gallons of water. Pour this liquid over the mixture of poison and bran until every particle is moist. Make further additions of water and mix thoroughly until a mash is obtained that is quite moist, yet will fall apart after being tightly squeezed. In this form it will broadcast easily."

"The Future of the American Farm—5 acres. A good practice is to mix at night and sow in the morning before nine o'clock. To kill hoppers in grass land sow over the entire acreage to be protected. Where they are migrating from fence rows or pastures into cultivated crops, sow the fence row or a fairly broad margin of pasture, and also a broad margin of the cultivated crop to be protected."

"If amyl acetate cannot be obtained substitute 6 lemons for 1 ounce of the former. Both juice and rind should be used, the rind being ground in a fine food chopper. The lemons should be diluted with water the same as with the amyl acetate. In sowing, mash should not be placed in piles."

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

"FIELD NOTES"

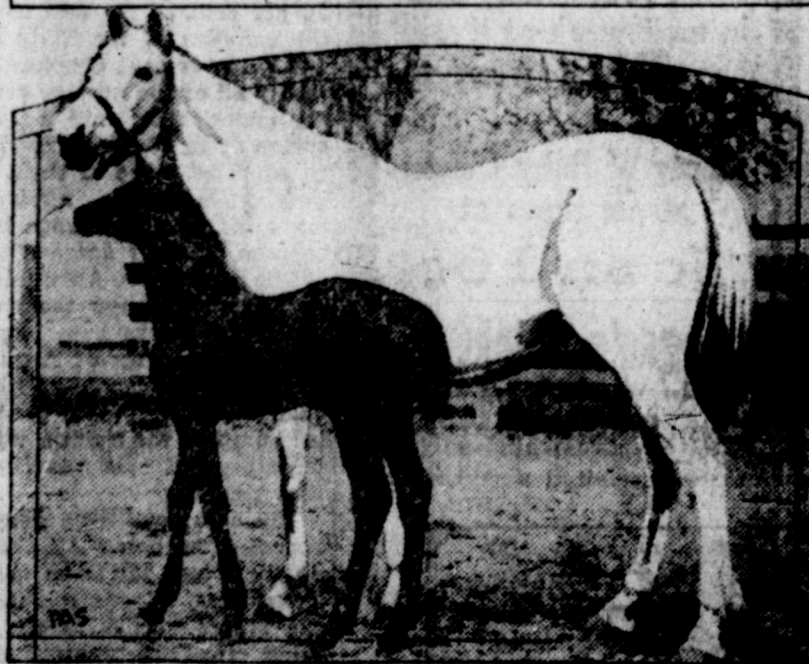

One of my friend-patrons came into the office this morning. He is a fine specimen of manhood, a good family and a reliable citizen. But, he came to me ten days ago with ACUTE ALCOHOLISM. . . . Some earnest advice—a medicine to take the place of the stuff that MUST be let alone—and he was on the road to recovery: rapidly becoming himself again. Very well. Almost ready to return home to his wife and grown-up daughters. . . .

Yesterday, he told me this morning, he met an acquaintance, a travelling salesman, a "half fellow well met." This fellow was equipped with a real arsenal—a quart of bootleg liquor, that he kept to treat his customers. My man "broke over," and today is entirely off the mineral water wagon. Not drunk, not at all maudlin, but just a little extra steam on. Of course he is sorry and repentant, but he musn't go home for another week to face that trusting wife and daughters.

I mention this for my readers, so that they may know how we physicians have to struggle with the "noble experiment" that we have, and which some hug to their breasts as bearing the sprouting seeds of the millennium, when they fondly expect a "DRY" world will emerge from its moonshine coils. It is all well enough to talk about, but its practical working is another thing, or it is so here.

There is not a minute of the day or night when the victim of dipsomania can't go out and help himself to liquor, if he has the price—not bonded liquor, but bootleg! Why don't I stop it? My dear sir, I'm not a federal officer; if I were, that travelling salesman is probably 200 miles out of town this morning, charging some other man's battery. No, folks, we shall have to devise some other way.

A Study in Black and White

The snow-white mare is Imp. Herodias, one of the best thoroughbreds in America. Her colt hasn't a name yet, but he's jet black and his father is the famous racer Blue Larkspur. They were photographed on W. R. Coe's stock farm in the Kentucky Blue Grass.

Enthusiasm for Rollator Refrigeration is breaking all sales records. 1931 showed Norge the favorite by almost a two to one margin against all other electric refrigerators combined.

You'll see why when you see the Norge. It is a fact that no other electric refrigerator offers you so many exclusive features of utility and convenience.

And performance! The Rollator mechanism is simple, sturdy, efficient and almost everlasting. It is extra powered to refrigerate and freeze ice at all times for a long time.

Only Norge has the Rollator. So by all means see the Norge before you buy an electric refrigerator.

NORGE SHATTERS ALL RECORDS WITH $1,500,000 SHIPMENT REFRIGERATORS

MUSKEGON, MICH., APRIL 29.—Norge Corporation, a division of Borg-Warner Corporation, today shipped five solid trainloads of Rollator Refrigerators to distributors throughout the country as a climax to their regular heavy April shipping schedule. In one line these trains occupied over a mile and a quarter of track, and their load was conservatively valued at $1,500,000.

This remarkable quantity shipment is reported to be the largest ever made in the refrigeration industry, and can well be construed as an index to the general upward business trend. While both the Detroit and Muskegon plants of Norge Corporation have been operating on a full time basis for months, the steady increase in demand has taxed their capacity and made necessary this remarkable shipment. The steady employment resulting from this activity has been a large factor in Muskegon's stability, and has made this community one of the country's bright spots on the business map.

CHEVROLET APRIL OUTPUT ANNOUNCED AT 55,432

Chevrolet built 55,432 cars and trucks in April, W. S. Knudson, president and general manager, announced today.

This compares with 38,890 built in March and is the highest month's output so far into 1932, Mr. Knudson said.

Total production of the new 1932 line of Chevrolet sixes since its introduction last winter is now in excess of 260,000 units, the Chevrolet head announces.

He stated that the April schedule was stepped up several times during the month, as commitments for cars were increased over the original estimates, and that Chevrolet dealers reported the sale at retail of 89.2 per cent more cars during the first 20 days of April than in the corresponding days of March.

BAPTISTS, METHODISTS IN INTERESTING MOUND FEST FRIDAY; TIE SCORE MADE

City League With Col. Adams Commissioner Organized Monday Night

The Business Men's classes of the Baptist and Methodist churches, to settle a long-standing dispute as to their ability to retain their youthful prowess, met Thursday afternoon in a poppy baseball game—that is, it was poppy immediately previous to the start of the game and until about the third inning, when, one by one, according to age and stamina, they began to fall by the way side and reserves were rushed to the front.

Tom Stonerod, teacher of the Methodist class and Joe Smoot, president of the Baptist aggregation, while partners in the banking business, were glaring at each other and recalling incidents of early rivalry, when Tom was a student of Texas U and Joe of A. & M. Those two boys haven't forgotten a thing they learned, even in this late day.

Walter Whipkey, another "has been" and former star twirler for A. & M. in the Dark Ages, was on the mound (for about 3 innings) for the Baptist boys, while Howard Rogers, a product of the shinnyer in near Cuthbert, went the route for the Methodists. The writer of this article noticed that both of the boys favored an underhand ball when tossing them in—a sure sign of age in a ball player.

Ed Majors, who is old enough to know better, starred in the field for the Baptists, while Ralph Lee was the shining (?) light for the Methodist boys; at least he caught one fly ball and chased three others over near the refinery, while the batsman was leisurely strolling around the four bases that go to make up the diamond.

To enumerate the individual players would be an impossible task, even if space permitted, but it is a fact the score at the end of the usual 9 innings was a bloodless tie, 10 and 10. To insure the peace and dignity of this national pastime, Sheriff Dick Gregory officiated as ump. Needless to say there were no squabbles or grumbling at one of the ump's decisions.

We understand the battle is to be continued this Thursday afternoon, at which time the question as first stated will be settled for good and all.

As an aftermath of the above mentioned game, baseball enthusiasts met Monday night at the City hall and formed a city league composed of four teams, one each from Methodist church, the Baptist church, the Masonic lodge and the Fire department.

Their schedule calls for games on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of each week, starting promptly at 5:30 o'clock, and lasting for only seven innings. The first game is scheduled to be played Monday of next week.

Col. C. M. Adams was elected president and commissioner of the City league and John R. Baze, secretary-treasurer. Admission to all these games will be free and the boys are anxious that all avail themselves of this opportunity to pass an hour of time in a pleasant manner. The games will be played in the park on the eastern edge of the city limits.

International Sunday School Lesson for May 15
JACOB AT BETHEL
Genesis 28:10-17
Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.

Those who think that the Bible is a dull book will do well to learn the action, intrigue, love-making and accomplishments in this portion of the life of Jacob. He had to leave home because he had gained the bitter hatred of his twin brother Esau by reason of the two infamous tricks that he played on him. The favoritism of both father and mother made the plot thicker. Then a real hike was entered upon as a 400 mile journey was undertaken that would lead to Mesopotamia where family relatives would be found.

A few nights out the tired young man camped at Bethel. During the night he was granted a wondrous vision in which he beheld the angels descending from heaven and returning by what looked like a great ladder. Jacob was mightily impressed and realized that Jehovah was speaking to him through this majestic scene. At once an altar was set up and dedicated with oil and prayer. Turn to the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee," and you find how the author gave a beautiful poetic setting to the events of that night. Such manifestations relate heaven and earth vitally. The spirit world is an actual world and man is in intimate relation thereto. The Bible is clear in its teaching of angelology and one of the finest descriptions of their work is found in Hebrews 1:14.

Note that this vision was accompanied with the same promise that had already been granted to Abraham and Isaac. Jacob could see that his descendants were to be a mighty race and have far reaching influence, and this is the glorious record of the Hebrews. Further, this promise was given before the twenty years away from home were entered upon. Jacob in turn was tricked a plenty by his uncle, but in the midst of all the trials he could think back to the promise of God at Bethel.

Creamed Salt Cod Fish on Toast

3/4 cupful of salt cod fish
1 cupful of milk
2 tablespoonfuls of flour
2 tablespoonfuls of butter or other fat
1 hard boiled egg
1 raw egg
seasoning

The codfish should be carefully picked over and allowed to soak in warm water for an hour.

An easy way to make cream sauce is to heat the milk until nearly boiling, then add flour which had been mixed with a little cold milk until smooth. This should be poured slowly, stirring all the time. When well blended, add the yolk of the egg beaten, and cook again until the sauce begins to thicken. Beat the white of the egg until fairly stiff, and add to the hot mixture. Beat this all thoroughly with a Dover egg beater. Cooking and beating takes about fifteen minutes. Add the well drained fish, and cook until thoroughly hot. Pour over toasted slices of bread. Spread the cut up pieces of the hard cooked egg whites over, then, press the yolks through a sieve over all, and serve at once.

Some housekeepers think that it is more economical to purchase large prunes. I have not found it so. A pound of 30s costs more than twice as much as 70s-80s, but by actual weight there is about 2 1/2 ounces of pits in the large prunes and only 3/4 ounce in the small ones. You can readily see that there is a saving which is worth trying for.

If it is necessary to store trunks in the cellar, try having a local carpenter make a slatted frame (if the handyman-about-the-house cannot make it) set upon pieces so that the trunks will be six or eight inches from the floor.

Casters on the legs of the kitchen table allow moving about. The table can be rolled to the sink to receive the washed and dried dishes, and rolled to the dish closet, or rolled near the stove when prepared food is needed for cooking, possibly a piece at a time, thus saving many steps.

against his own will. And at the very height of his romance he discovers that it is the wrong family of Smiths he has been caring for. It's a good picture and worth seeing.

For Saturday only, May 14, they have an unusual Western, starring Walter Huston, with guns, smoke and his halo—a sixshooter his harp—yet he was a man of peace—a "saint" of the sagebrush country. He had a heart of gold and a hand of steel; he brought law and order to an unruly city; he became an outcast to avenge a friend; you've never seen a picture just like it before.

For Sunday matinee and Monday, May 15 and 16, Robert Montgomery, Nora Gregor, Heather Thatcher, Edward Everett Horton and Nils Asther will be seen in "But the Flesh is Weak." In this picture the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star plays a debarnt young fortune hunter in London who tries to marry for money, but falls in love with the wrong girl—to plunge himself into a series of hilarious contrempts.

Today and Wednesday, May 17 and 18 Sally Eilers, Spencer Tracy, El Brendel, Dickie Moore, Ralph Bellamy and Allen Dinehart will be seen in "Disorderly Conduct," an intensely interesting police picture with a powerful and entertaining story, revealing the sinister influences of politics and graft in a police department. As usual, when he is present, El Brendel furnishes a few laughs. The leading roles are well handled and it is a picture well worth seeing.

For Thursday and Friday, May 19 and 20, "Tarzan" will be shown. This is the picture that has been eagerly awaited in Colorado, for the reason that local people appear in the cast. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Billingsley, residents of Colorado, made a special trip to California to take part in this thrilling drama.

Johnny Weissmuller plays the part of "Tarzan," the ape man and he is ably supported by Neil Hamilton, Maureen O'Sullivan, C. Aubrey Smith, Doris Lloyd, Forrester Harvey, Ivory Williams and others.

This picture has been aptly called the "Trader Horn" of 1932. Fights with lions, apes, bloodthirsty pygmies and wild animals; a spectacular charge of a herd of elephants through a native village; the imprisonment of an English safari and their escape from a man-eating gorilla pit play a prominent part in this story of jungle adventures.

As an added attraction, Mrs. McKenzie, has gained the consent of Mr. and Mrs. Billingsley to appear in person at the Palace during the showing of this picture. Mr. and Mrs. Burrie Billingsley will also be at the Palace during this time. Bur-

FOLLOWING COLORADO BAND TO CALIFORNIA CONVENTION BY MEMBER RECORD STAFF

Party Enjoys Drive Colorado To El Paso Monday; Were Feted In Jaurez

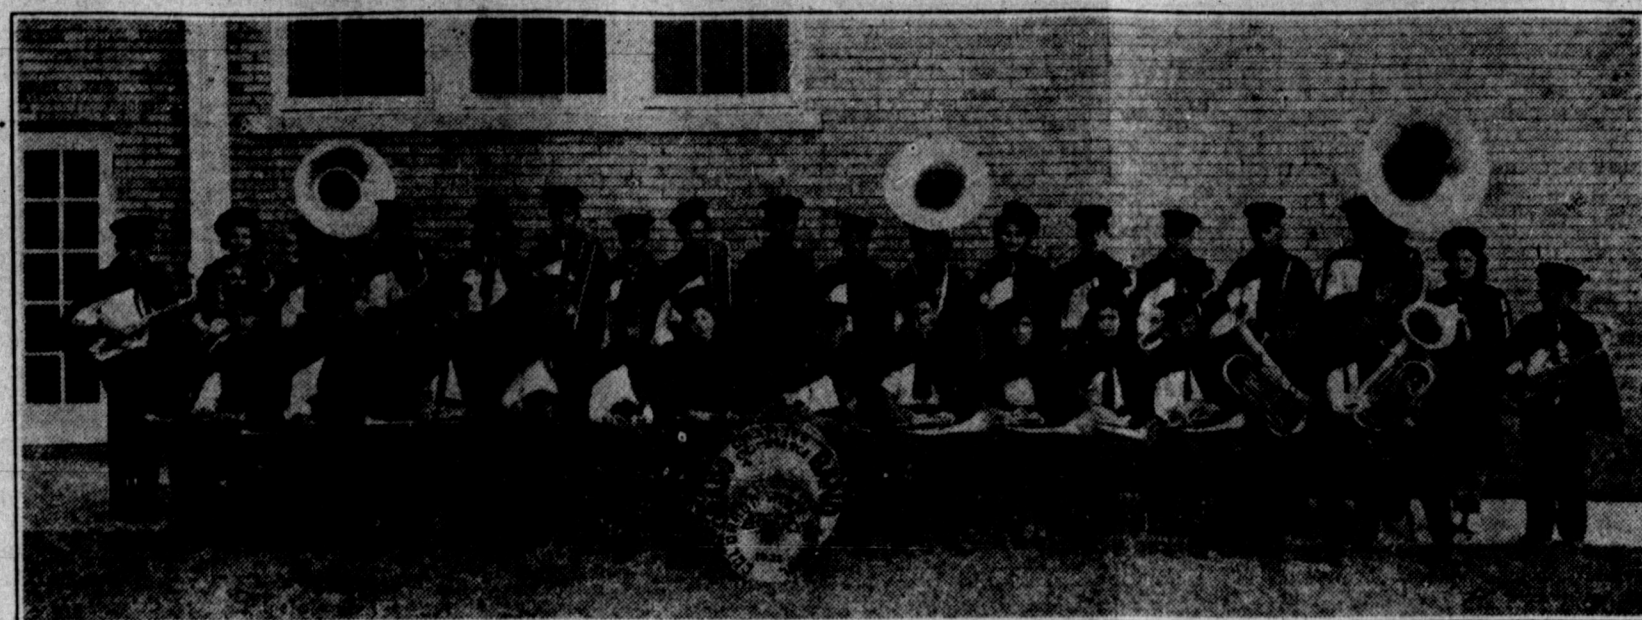

By I. C. EURFALTZ
(Not to be reprinted without special permission of the author.)
Hello, West Texans! This is the second weekly broadcast of events in connection with the Broadway of America Motorcade from New York to San Diego.

COLORADO, TEXAS, MAY 9.—7 a. m.—The "All Aboard" signal is given. Motors purr, friends wave goodbye and we have started. Now we cross the Colorado river and many of Col-Tex Refinery employes wave and shout "good luck." The hill is topped and a few miles of winding, smooth, paving brings us to Westbrook, known for its shallow oil production. Passing through Jatan with its Magnolia pump station, we gaze through the mist southward and believe we can see the famous Chalk field. Late rains have filled low-land basins resulting in small lakes of shallow water upon which flocks of ducks are enjoying the protection of closed season. Our escorts slow down the speed while going through Coahoma, and its citizens smilingly cheer us onward. Nearing Big Spring, we notice on our left a low mountain with flat upper surface at the east end. The formation rises directly upward on four sides, and appears to have been a strong fort of half a century ago. On our right are two oil refineries and a Texas Electric power station. Big Spring is enthusiastic in their greeting to the Motorcade. Red roses are received by the visitors. Evidently Big Spring has many pretty girls. Every man of the Motorcade expresses the wish of again returning through that city, just to see "the girl who gave me this rose." It's now 8:00 a. m. and we travel westward again, fully appreciating the beauty of the Big Spring residences.

Level grazing land stretches in each direction for miles and miles. We pass through Stanton, where happy West Texans smile and express words of cheer to the Broadway motorcade.

A few miles east of Midland our attention is called to oil storage tanks of the leading companies operating in West Texas. Wise old Solomon was known for his thousand wives; and truly, Midland should be known for its oil storage of several million barrels. Again, we stop for ten minutes, and here a Pennsylvania tourist car joins the Motorcade. Midland was so named on account of its location halfway between El Paso and Fort Worth. The time is 9:01 a. m., as we push forward again. The weather has been cloudy the past two hours, and now a heavy fog turns to mist, which becomes light rain in a few minutes. Odessa's pep squad gives the Motorcade a royal reception, and while rain falls slowly, short talks and musical entertainment are enjoyed by Odessa citizens.

Colorado School Band Attends San Diego Road Meeting

To the west, we travel once more, and for a few miles there is much evidence of oil activity. One field has its steel derricks so arranged that one Colorado municipal band member expresses himself, "Those derricks are lined up like a peach orchard. Maybe that's an oil orchard, but there ought to be branches sticking out so the little oils would have some place to grow." Uncultivated sand dunes, with short bushy vegetation, are enriched with the glory of wild flowers, white, red, yellow, and purple. No fences are seen paralleling the Broadway. However, we cross cattle-guards, now and then, indicating the fences separating vast stretches of ranch holdings.

Monahans is known for its earthen covered oil storage tank of one million barrel capacity, which is near the Broadway.

Pyote has small refineries and crude oil production as its chief industry.

At Pecos, some of our cars refill. The good Fire Chief is still going strong, but the next stop is Van Horn, more than two hours away. Pecos citizens show much interest in the Motorcade's program, which is broadcast through Mr. Scott Hamilton's loud-speaking apparatus in the silver car advertising Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Toyah's table lands soon change to small mountains or possibly large hill scenery. Rain has ceased, but heavy clouds cover the hill tops and form a fog so heavy as to resemble volcanoes in action.

New paving is under construction for a distance of forty miles east of Van Horn. When completed this strip of paving will add materially to the pleasure of touring over the Broadwa.

We arrive a few minutes late for lunch in Van Horn. This is indeed a thriving little city. It has the West Texas spirit, and will push forward in adding to its present civic assets.

Smooth, gravel and road-oil surfaced Broadway winds near the Davis Mountains as we advance westward. At Sierra Blanca, there is another stop, where a large gathering enjoys the B. A. M. entertainment. This little city derives its name from a massive mountain a few miles to the northwest. Its apparently smooth sides have no vegetation, and the rock formation appears light or white in color. On the east and south, near its summit, the mountain has wide ravines with gently sloping sides of reddish brown, wash soil presenting a gigantic picture of an autumn oak leaf which has floated in mid-air and landed right side up on a small boy's play-pile of white sand.

During the past two hundred miles drive we have seen practically no trees larger than mesquite bushes. About fifty miles east, an irrigation ditch begins the changing of sand dunes into productive farms of alfalfa and vegetables, on south side of Broadway. On the opposite side, nature's sand dunes remain unchanged due to lack of the magic touch of man's thoughtful and laborous activities. Small, medium-sized and large cottonwoods rise stately upward upon the bank of, or within the ditch itself. Now and then, the cottonwoods are found upon each side of the Broadway and their long branches extend over the road and their leaves intermingled forming a protection from the sun's warm rays. These trees were not placed in this order by nature. Man must do his share to afford others comfort. For this trait, West Texans are well known.

About six miles east of the El Paso business district, suburban homes are beautified with vines, foliage and artistically arranged roses of many colors.

Now we are in El Paso and receive a warm welcome. Hotels Hilton, Del Norte and Hussman extend hospitality, which we appreciate beyond words of expression.

The Colorado municipal band, with special escort, parades from Del Norte to Cleveland Square, where a large audience, with much applause, expressed their estimation of the official band of the Broadway of America. Following this, our beloved musicians broadcast a thirty minute program over the radio station in the ball room of the hotel Paso Del Norte.

Oh- Gee! Oh! Gosh! All of the Motorcade delegates have just been invited to a banquet in the Mint Cafe at Jaurez. We'll be seeing you.

MITCHELL COUNTY FARM NOTES

The lath-tile, sub-irrigation system in Emmett Blasingame's garden works fine. M. R. Bentley, State Agricultural engineer inspected the system Thursday and says that he will almost guarantee that the system of tomatoes blooming but not setting fruit will be eliminated if this system is used and the sub-soil sewer allowed to get dry.

It would have taken 114 old roosters to have equalled the price H. H. Campbell of Motley county received for 13 capons last winter.

M. L. McCollum and J. M. Bruce, Jr., of Lorens are planning to do some caponizing within the next few weeks.

With the prospect of cheap fryers people are becoming more interested in caponizing. Even if there is no thought of selling them, the cockerels may be caponized and let run on the range and eaten as needed. They will pick up their living from the waste grain about the place, and with a small amount of skim milk will grow rapidly.

It is not too late to install a lath-tile irrigation system. It can be placed between the rows, even though the tomatoes or other crops are already planted.

L. J. Burrow of Dorn, who butchered hogs the A. & M. way last week says, "I took one of those honed shoulders home from the storage vault the other evening, but it was so good it was gone by morning."

Someone asked E. S. Miles recently how the meat prepared by A. & M. meat specialist was keeping. "That's the only trouble with it. It just won't keep. We eat it up too fast," he replied.

R. H. Gale reports that he is planning to kill two hogs the A. & M. way within a short time.

In cold storage curing of hogs it has been found best to leave the hogs in storage two nights before cutting them up in order that they will be thoroughly chilled.

Prominent Attorney Will Address State Meeting Next Week

Martin W. Littleton

MINERAL WELLS—Mr. Thos. R. Smith, prominent attorney of Colorado and a member of the attendance and publicity committee, Texas Bar association, stated today that from all indications it appeared that the annual meeting of the Texas Bar association, to convene in Mineral Wells May 19 for three days, would be the most interesting and best attended ever held by the association.

This is accounted for, Mr. Smith believes, by the most unusual program that has been planned for this year's meeting, and the unusual arrangements that have been made for entertainment of all visiting lawyers and their families.

The program committee has secured the attendance of two of the most outstanding lawyers of the United States, in the persons of the Hon. Martin W. Littleton of New York and the Hon. Guy A. Thompson, president of the American Bar association. Both Mr. Littleton and Mr. Thompson are to make addresses during the meeting.

D. 1932, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 5281, wherein W. W. Moeser is plaintiff and Ruth Moeser is defendant.

The nature of the plaintiff's demand being a follows, to-wit: Being a suit for divorce. That plaintiff and defendant were married on or about September 26th, 1926 in Scurry County, Texas and continued to live together as man and wife until about December 20th, 1926 at Colorado, Texas, when the defendant without any provocation on the part of the plaintiff left his bed and board and voluntarily abandoned him, with intention to finally separate and live apart from him and has continued so to do to the present time; plaintiff further alleges that he has lived in Texas for a period of twelve months and in Mitchell County for a period of six months next preceding the filing of this petition. That while married to this defendant he conducted himself with propriety, and has at all times treated this defendant with kindness and forbearance and that defendant's actions and conduct toward him generally are of such a nature as to render their living together as husband and wife insupportable.

News of the Baptist Church

The revival meeting is still going on. The Rev. C. A. Allen is preaching some very able sermons. Come out and hear him. All those who fail to come are missing a rare treat. There has been three conversions. We are having a good attendance at our prayer meetings before preaching. Come and be with us, we need you in these services.

The Mother's Day program was presented to a large audience Sunday morning and was enjoyed by all present.

Honoring Mrs. A. L. Young

The many friends of Mrs. A. L. Young honored her with a miscellaneous shower Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Burr Brown. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers. Several amusing and interesting contests were enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Witt Hines gave a very appropriate reading. Little Gypsy Ted McCollum and Billie Spikes of Lorens gave very clever readings, also, which was enjoyed very much. After which angel cake and fruit punch was served.

The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Howard Spikes, Mrs. Faye McCollum, Gypsy Ted McCollum and Billie Spikes of Lorens; Mrs. Witt Hines and Mrs. Horace McDonald of Conway; Mrs. S. M. Elhatten of Iatan; Mrs. James Harrington and Mrs. Frank Shannon of Butler camp.

PENNEY'S CONFIDENCE IN TEX. WARRANTS NEW STORE OPENING IN GALVESTON

The 93rd store of the J. C. Penney Company units located in Texas opened its doors in Galveston Thursday morning, according to E. R. Bibby, manager of the local house in this nation-wide organization covering every state in the the United States.

The Galveston unit is the 1468th to be opened and will be under the management of V. Mercer, who came to Galveston from Victoria, Texas.

The selection of Galveston for this new store unit is a part of the general plan to bring its store units into the key cities of all states where present day conditions warrant the investment and energy incident to the opening of a large department store, according to the statement of Mr. Bibby.

The first store of the J. C. Penney Company to open its door in Texas, was located at Abilene and since its inception, the growth of the company in this state has been rapid and substantial.

Major units are located in Fort Worth, San Antonio, El Paso, Wichita Falls, Amarillo, Beaumont and other leading cities.

The local store has been under the direct management of Earl Bibby for the past four years.

LORAININE NEWS

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS ABOUT LORAININE AND VICINITY

MRS. ZORA DEAN, Correspondent

Mrs. Dean is also authorized to receive and receipt for subscriptions for The Colorado Record and to transact other business for Whipkey Printing Company. See her and take your County paper—The Record

Primitive Baptist Services—

The Primitives will hold their regular monthly meeting at their church in East Colorado next Saturday 2:30 p. m. and Sunday at 11 o'clock. Elder T. A. Dunn is expected to do the preaching.

The Communion has been deferred until the June three-day meeting.

Senior Class Play—

The senior class play, "A Reed in the Wind," will be presented at the high school auditorium, Friday evening, May 13th at 8:30.

The play is a circus drama in three acts by Myrtle Giard Eisey, author of "Beads on a String," "One Minute of Twelve," "A Worthy Vagabond," etc.

This play portrays the character of a girl of the unusual type. The child, a reed in the wind, is buffeted about by life's big storm, but remains unbroken and firmly rooted in an everlasting hope. A little colored girl furnishes worlds of fun. The remaining nine characters will justly claim a due portion of your interest.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club met May 10th for the last time this year in a "train trip" from Loraine to Mexico City. In the Spanish room, which was Loraine, there were 18 Spanish pupils. Mr. Bennett and son and Mrs. Isom were served "Merienda" or sandwiches. There were two rows of seats on the train. From Loraine we traveled to Mrs. G. W. Hendrick's (San Antonio), where chili and crackers were served. There charades were given by different groups.

The train next started for Monterrey, which was at Mrs. H. A. Nelson's. Ice cream cones were served after several games had been played.

We then pulled out for Mexico City, the last stop. This was at Mrs. Isom's. Here suckers were served to all present, including Dallas, the dog, who performed for us and Mr. Isom. Some one hollered "All Out, Mexico City." So, the much enjoyed trip ended amid many expressions of having had a very good time.

Loraine Girl and Boy Receive Honors—

Junior Harris and Geneva McGehee, winners in the voice solo contest of the Grammar and Junior high divisions in the Sixth district meet at San Angelo three weeks ago, in company with their teacher, Mrs. W. R. Martin, returned on Sunday from Dallas, where both were awarded a Loving Cup at the National Federation of Musical Clubs. Master Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Harris, is a broadcast message greeted his mother from the Dallas station Saturday.

Loraine people are proud of the rapid achievement these two young people have attained and wish for them continued success in the chosen professional field.

News Celebrates Birthday—

The Mitchell County News celebrated its first anniversary last Friday night with a birthday party at the office of the publication. Business men of Loraine gathered to help celebrate, but on account of the threatening clouds, some of them had to leave, and still others did not come. Quite a number, however, remained for the entire program, including the refreshments.

The editor of the News opened the program with a few remarks, thanking the business men of Loraine for the splendid support the paper has received during the first year of its existence and expressing a desire for the paper to be of greater service to the community. Rev. J. E. Harrell told of the relation of a newspaper to the community and H. J. Askins told of the benefits of advertising.

Other parts of the program consisted of a reading by Iona Callahan and J. W. King, Jr. A talk by the business manager of the News and Roy Edwards praised the News and its publishers in a short talk which was almost drowned out by the roar of the rain an hail on the top of the building, but we appreciate his remarks.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake was served. The guests all departed wishing the News many happy birthdays.

Married Here—

Mr. Lucious Comer and Miss Velma Roberts were united in marriage at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon May 8th, at 6:30 o'clock. Rev. A. C. Hardin, performed the ceremony that made them man and wife. The only witnesses were Miss Edith Wilkerson, Oneta and Tom Roberts.

Mrs. Comer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts of Bauman. She graduated from Loraine high school with the class of 1928.

Mr. Comer's home is near Colorado, but he is well known in Loraine. He finished Colorado high school and has since attended John Tarlton Agricultural College at Stephenville. Their many friends, whom they number by the large circle of their acquaintance, wish for them a long and happy married life.

Kongential Karo Klub—

Last Monday afternoon the Klub was delightfully entertained from 4 to 7 o'clock by Miss Birdie Lee Robinson. When the guests were seated delicious refreshments of velvet sherbert, mountain angel cake and ice water was served. The room and tables were prettily decorated in the club colors, red and white.

Favors were red and white phlox. The tallies were very neatly made, bearing the name of the club and lovely boxes of mints were on each table.

Miss Annie Bess Wilkerson won high score and Miss Oza Gunn high cut. Misses Dorothy Hock and Ruth Britton will entertain at the latter's home Saturday night.

T. A. Meeting—

Parent-Teacher's association met in the high school auditorium on Thursday afternoon, May 5th. This meeting marked the close of a successful year's work, and the following new officers were elected for another year: President, Mrs. W. F. James; first vice president, Mrs. Roy Edwards; second vice president, Mrs. Clyde Bennett; secretary, Miss Inez Mayes; treasurer, Mrs. Roy Edwards; reporter, Miss Beth Wagoner.

We are very sorry that more of the parents were not present for this last very interesting meeting.

Interesting talks on "Child Welfare" and the progress and work of our school for the past year by Supt. Jennings, Mrs. Lawyer, Mrs. Isom, Miss Mayes and Mrs. Hooker. You missed much by being absent. We wish to heartily thank everyone who has in any way, by a kind word or deed contributed to the success of our organization. Your cooperation has been wonderful, which has rendered our task a very pleasant one. We have enjoyed serving you to the best of our ability, and as we retire our best wishes go to the new executive board and organization.

MRS. C. H. THOMAS, Retiring President.

Methodist W. M. S.—

The W. M. S. of the Methodist church met at the church Monday at 3 p. m., for their Bible study. The lesson was the subject of Jacob, with Mrs. Hester as leader. Fifteen members were present.

"Rock of Ages" was selected as the opening song. Closing prayer was led by Mrs. O. E. Stevenson.

The study of the first 20 chapters of Exodus will be the next lesson.

Bruce Bible Class—

In spite of the disagreeable weather attendance at Sunday school Sunday was good. The subject of the lesson was "Esau Sells His Birthright," which was well explained by Mr. Edwards, who taught the class.

Members of the class brought out interesting thoughts on temperance. Rev. J. E. Harrell visited our class Sunday. We were, indeed, glad to have him. Visitors are always welcome, so don't fail to visit our class when you are visiting in town.

The lesson subject for next Sunday is "Jacob at Bethel." Everyone be sure to come and hear this subject discussed; for we find that Jacob is beginning to get into trouble, which is usually the way with anyone who does not follow and obey God.

We still have plenty of room for new members. Everyone make an effort to bring some one with you next Sunday.

Baptist Circle—

The W. M. S. Circle No. 2 of the Baptist church met at the church on last Monday. The devotional was led by Mrs. McGehee, reading the 1st thirteen verses of the 21st chapter of Luke. Prayer was led by Mrs. C. B. Reeder. Mrs. Jarrett brought out very interesting thoughts on the lesson. The circle is studying the Old Testament, and will finish First Kings in next Monday's lesson. Closing prayer was led by Mrs. Jarrett.

Ball Game—

On last Thursday afternoon members of the Bruce Bible class and members of the Bennett Bible class met on the local ball diamond in an interesting ball game. Both sides showed great improvement in playing. The score was 7-8 in favor of the Bruce class. Another game is scheduled for this week.

Gleaners Meet—

The Gleaners Sunday school class met in regular monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. J. E. Harrell, with Mrs. Marvin Martin as joint hostess, on May 10th at 3 o'clock. Opening song "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Devotional service was led by Mrs. Harrell, reading the 1st Psalm.

During the social hour interesting games were played. Delicious ice cream and cake was served to 13 members. Red Verbenas were used as favors.

Friends Gather—

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Butler, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bennett, Harvey Mans, Mrs. Lillie Bennett, Mrs. Thos. J. Riden at Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hill were present at a gathering of old-time friends on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. T. R. Bennett, who entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hill, who spent Monday night here from Dallas.

Some interesting local news— C. H. Thomas and family were present at a Mother's Day dinner given in honor of Mrs. Thomas at the Hall Hooker home Sunday night.

Roy Allen, wife and baby of Nimrod; Henry Hardin, wife and baby of Cisco; Rev. A. C. Hardin and family; E. J. Hardin, wife and baby of Lookey, were guests in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hardon on Mother's Day.

R. B. Pratt and daughter, Mrs. T. M. Blakeley of Abilene, visited relatives in the J. L. Pratt home here Sunday.

Mrs. W. O. Kinnison and daughter, Miss Abie Kinnison of Ballinger, are visiting Miss Lois Kinnison of Dallas.

Lowell Baird was here Sunday from Big Spring visiting his parents. The Loraine section was not overlooked in receiving plenty of rain Friday and Monday nights. Everything seems fine for a bumper crop. The weather remains cool and cloudy with seed springing up most magically.

J. C. Hall and H. C. Spikes returned Saturday night from a business trip to Mertzon and Big Lake.

A number of men met at the Methodist church Monday and cleaned off the yard, which added much to the appearance.

O. L. Mustain and wife of Snyder were guests in the G. B. Tartt home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tartt accompanied them home.

Bruce Webb of Colorado, Preston Morrison and Misses Bess Wilkerson and Lurline Britton spent Sunday, visiting in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hill, who spent Monday night here from Dallas were guests in the Thomas J. Riden home. Mrs. Hill will be remembered as an old-timer, and who formerly was Myrtle Dyer.

All Looks Happy

And why shouldn't he grin, after winning a few blocks of delegates in the primaries in Massachusetts and elsewhere? Ex-Governor Smith may be his party's Presidential candidate again.

A Tribute to Texas

Bruce Barton, author of "The Man Nobody Knows," has written this tribute to Texas for the "Parade of the States" Monday-night programs of the General Motors Corporation, part of an educational plan to make the country as a whole better acquainted with the individual states—their history, scenic beauty, industries and people.

REMEMBER the Alamo! For twelve days, twelve nights, Travis, Bonham, Bowie, Davy Crockett, and their little group of loyal soldiers held Santa Anna's forces at bay. They went down fighting, one by one, but their valor roused a people to action, won for Texas her independence.

Texas, free Texas, the only state that was once a nation! Kings sent their courtiers to knock at her gates. And well may all the states be proud that she chose to cast her lot with the Union.

For Texas is the giant of America's children. She could tuck New England away in a corner, engulf all the land between New York and Chicago. Her busy, rich, and vast domain measures a quarter million square miles.

How can words paint its picture? Here cotton blankets more acres than many another state holds. Hero turkeys march to market in droves ten thousand strong. Here a single pecan orchard yields a half million dollar crop, a single cattle ranch boasts a million acres, a single farmer plants onions by the billion. And even the State University strikes oil.

"I am listening to the footsteps of the coming millions," said Robert E. Lee, on the Texas prairies eighty years ago. Today the millions have arrived. The plains are fenced and the trails are fading, and peaceful dairy cattle fatten where the restless Longhorn roared. Texas is our richest farm, our biggest oil well. Her helium gas keeps our dirigibles aloft. Her petroleum and sulphur and lignite, her potash and silver and carbon-black enrich the markets of the world.

Past Texas rolls the Rio Grande, dividing the Americas. Where once the Indian pitched his tepee, Dallas and Fort Worth, El Paso and San Antonio, Amarillo and Waco, and other cities rear their skyscrapers. Austin boasts America's most impressive capitol, that building for which the Texans paid a casual three million acres. Houston dug a canal for fifty miles to bring sea-going vessels to her inland port. Galveston and Port Arthur and other cities on the Gulf attract the commerce of the world.

And the rich state of Texas is doubly rich in sons and daughters. From the days of Sam Houston, with his vision of freedom, of Mirabeau Lamar, with his vision of education, the men of Texas have been quick to make today's dream tomorrow's truth.

O. Henry turned his days in Texas into colorful short stories. Dorothy Scarborough and Chester Crowell give us fiction of the Southwest today. Texas was one of the two first states to name a woman governor.

You will never completely know America until you taste the wonders of the Lone Star State. See the cowboys ride in Fort Worth's rodeo. Visit Fort Sam, Houston, our largest military encampment; Fort Bliss, our biggest army post; Brooks and Kelly Fields, where American seow won their wings. Travel by air, as the Texan does, to sense the breadth and the might of his state. Linger by sunny fields of Texas bluebonnets, hear the mocking birds whistle in the pecan groves, enjoy the color and charm of the southern playgrounds. The state's very name implies hospitality, and a warm hearted welcome awaits you.

Six flags are Texas known and served. To these emblems of her past, to Texas today, to the vigorous promise of her future, the flag of General Motors steps in salute. Hall, Texas!

FLOWERS

Flowers and music go together. Some one has said that flower gardeners are proverbial for their quietness, gentleness, and tenderness...

near the pond. The doubter usually is a croaker, and the croaker is usually a doubter. Byron said he stood on the tomb of Achilles and heard Troy doubted.

As we gaze upon the visible creation everywhere we see design. We inevitably conclude there must be a designer. Everywhere we see created things, therefore a Creator.

He who paints the rainbow across the heavens also puts the tints and colors in the flowers and the gold in the sunset.

He who puts the blush on the peach also puts the haze upon the mountain and the glory in the landscape.

He who made the flowers also piled up the mountains and hung the moon upon the dark cheer of night.

He who caused the dew to distill so softly also gave us the Falls of Niagara.

He who puts the perfume in the flowers also poured the deep waters into the bed of the seas.

He who makes the diamond scintillate also put the twinkling stars in the canopy of heaven.

Flowers wish happiness when lovers stand before the altar to be joined in marriage, they ornament pulpit and chancel and crown the blushing bride while she takes the vows making her the wife of him whom she loves.

Last of all when death plunges us into the depths of sorrow, condolence and comforting assurances of sympathy are conveyed through these silent, beautiful messengers.

Beautiful, fragrant, hope-inspiring flowers! Like Him who was the Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the Valley, they speak only the language of love.

The message of the flowers is not one of discouragement and despair, but one of encouragement, hopefulness, and loving kindness.

Flowers never quarrel, not even when Black-Eyed Susan found Batchelor Button in her bed.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

MR. EDITOR: The other night I read an article by an enthusiastic wet. He tried to show that prohibition was the cause of the now famous hard times.

Well, Mr. Editor, after reading that article I got to feeling so dog-gone happy I kissed the cat good night, put the kids out doors, went to bed and dreamed about mountain scenery, bathing beauty revues at Palm Beach, fine automobiles, flin-clothes and good things to eat.

The liquor business in the heyday of its existence never employed over 500,000 people. Now tell me how it would give employment to the 10,000,000 idle people today.

During Cleveland's last administration times were mighty hard. Saloons—we had them everywhere. If they are the road back to good times, why did we have hard times in those days? It will be a cold day in August when old John Barleycorn leads us back to prosperity.

THE OBITUARY PAGE

Once I was talking with Kent Cooper about what interests people in the newspapers. He said: "When a man gets to be about forty-five years old he discovers the obituary page."

I certainly am not a gloomy minded person, but I have always thought more or less about death. The attitude of a large portion of the human race toward it seems to me infantile and silly.

Of all the wonders that I yet have heard, It seems to me most strange that men should fear; Seeing that death, a necessary end, Will come when it will come."

All of which leads me to remark that there is a certain advantage in discovering the obituary page comparatively early in life. The tragedy is that some men never discover it.

I have seen a doddering old millionaire, with one foot in the grave, fighting with a taxi-man over a nickel, or trying to beat down the price of a neck-tie.

I once sought a contribution to charity from a millionaire who was well over sixty and notoriously tight. He told all the reasons why he couldn't give up a cent, and as he warmed up to the subject he began to act as if my call were an insult.

Finally I said: "Why are you so mean? Why do you deny yourself pleasures and squeeze every nickel? It isn't your money; it's your children's money, or will be in a few years. Why let them have all the pleasures? Why not have the fun of giving some of it away?"

This rude remark shocked him. I think it started a line of thought that made quite a change in his life. Moses prayed: "So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

I assume that to mean that, when we get along toward middle life and note by the papers that men of our own age, or a few years older, are dropping off, we ought to stop and take stock.

We ought to say: "As life goes I have maybe ten, fifteen or, at the most, thirty years. Therefore, I ought to quit thinking—How much money can I pile up? and begin thinking—How can I be sure to do all the things I want to do, see all the places I want to see, and leave behind me a reputation for having been a reasonably good and generous individual?"

It would help if the papers would print at the top of the obituary page every day this quotation from Rousseau: "The dead take to the grave, in their clutched fingers, only that which they have given away."

A Critical Time In Every Woman's Life.

"During a critical time in my life I took Cardui for several months. I had hot flashes, I would suddenly get dizzy and seem blind. I would get faint and have no strength."
