Daughters of the King Meeting

The Daughters of the King Sunday school class met Thursday with Mrs. D. N. Arnett. The president, Mrs. Sam Smith, presided. Mrs. Arnett led in prayer.

The lesson on "Harvest Time" was conducted by Mrs. Costin and Mrs. Garrett, who brought some good thoughts on sowing and reaping spiritually. This was followed by a chain of prayer. The treasurer read the note of thanks for flowers sent sick. Special prayers were offered for Mrs. J. T. Davis, who is quite sick in Abilene and for Mr. McGill.

Mrs. Garrett reported that she had as many as forty pupils in McCall Mission during August. Great interest in the weeds had been cut around the church and a treat served the "weed cutters." Some of the teachers had given a picnic for their children. She expressed regret at losing Miss Geneva Melton, who is leaving for school, but said a splendid person had been secured to take her place, Mrs. Hinds. A rising vote of thanks was given Miss Melton for her splendid work.

It was voted to send Mrs. Davis a note of love and sympathy.

The Mission Study Institute to be held here Thursday was mentioned and contributions for the lunch promised to the chairman, Mrs. Costin. The Training school was also discussed and several signed up for the courses.

This was the day for the election of officers and all were re-elected. They are: president, Mrs. Sam Smith; vice president, Mrs. Costin; secretary, Mrs. Mitchell; treasurer, Mrs. Van King; teacher, Mrs. Arnett; assistant teacher, Mrs. Jeff Dobbs; superintendent of McCall Mission, Mrs. W. H. Garrett; assistant, Mrs. Costin.

At the social hour the hostess served two kinds of sandwiches, hot tea and cookies.

MA'S FOOT GOES OVER THE HURDLE FIRST

Honoring Bride-to-Be

Saturday morning Miss Alice Blanks entertained a few close friends of Miss Margaret Mann with a bridge breakfast. A breakfast composed of cantaloupe, bacon, eggs, toast and jelly with coffee was served from a table decorated with pink candles in silver holders, pink roses and pink crystals were being used. The place cards were dainty brides, announcing the wedding of Miss Margaret Mann and Mr. Had-tun.

After breakfast, four games of bridge were played. At the conclusion little Miss Harriett Ann Pritchett, dressed as a bride, entered with a pretty hat box, which she, in a little rhyme, presented to the honoree. This was filled to the brim with dainty underthings.

Miss Mann's wedding is scheduled for the last of this week.

Business and Professional Women

The Business and Professional Women met Thursday evening with Mrs. Ferguson. After the usual business each chairman was given announcements and instructions for their year's work.

IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

There is a shop in New York which maintains what is known as a perfume bar where scents are mixed to meet individual desire. Bottles of perfume are sold with the name of the owner on the label and a number. The contents are kept secret.

Some New York apartment house residents have windows looking out upon unpleasant surroundings. So they have pretty pictures painted on the windows.

In New York if you hunt long enough you can find a store which will sell you a pair of high stiletts and a suit of clothes to go with it. The combination is usually used for advertising purposes.

A New York department store serves afternoon tea free to its customers.

New York has a motion picture theatre which shows nothing but news reels. It is a very popular house.

There are more men and women in New York who make a living by writing than in any other city in the world.

When a certain New York radio star—a woman singer—appeared at a local vaudeville house for a week's appearance, she received $7,500 for seven days' work.

Lowell Thomas, author, world-traveler and radio lecturer, has a 15 room apartment in New York and 300-acre farm at Pawling, seventy miles from New York. Thomas is an expert badminton player, and built a gymnasium on his farm for that game exclusively.

When a certain advertising agency in New York wanted to equip a dining room in its skyscraper quarters, it bought a hundred-year old New England farm house and transported the dining room and kitchen to the city, fireplace and all.

There is an executive in New York who has a buzzer under his desk which he can reach with his foot and by touching it can make one of the telephones on his desk ring. The bell rings and he says: "It's important. I'll see him right away." The visitor leaves. That, of course, is the purpose of it all.

reported at Lubbock Monday by the State executive committee placed Mrs. Ferguson's lead over Governor Sterling at 3,333 votes. The Gaudaloupe county vote, giving the woman candidate a majority of 465 votes, was not counted in the totals, due to a clerical error in transposing the vote polled there for Mr. Sterling and Mrs. Ferguson. Confirmation of that vote would have placed the Ferguson majority at 3,708.

Governor Sterling did not attend sessions of the convention. He remained closeted at his hotel suite with a group of close friends and advisors drafting plans for instituting legal battle in the courts to overthrow his bitter political enemy and have himself declared the party nominee. Sterling has contended since immediately following the runoff primary that Ferguson obtained a majority through the polling of fraudulent votes in many parts of the State.

The bitter fight for chief executive did not end with nomination of Mrs. Ferguson at Lubbock. Within a few hours after the convention had accepted everything that the Ferguson had to offer, Governor Sterling filed suit in the district court of Travis county, asking that "upwards of 20,000 illegal votes" be thrown out and that he be declared the party nominee.

The suit was filed by District Attorney Sam McCord of Mexia, who flew to Austin Tuesday from Fort Worth. Sterling has requested that an early hearing be ordered by Judge W. F. Robertson, in whose court the petition was filed.

Sensing that the State convention would give nomination to Mrs. Ferguson, Sterling several days ago issued an appeal to the people of Texas who championed "honesty in government" to send financial contributions of from one to fifty dollars to fight alleged corruption practiced in the recent contest for governor. It is understood that several friends of the governor in Mitchell county made payments to the fund.

Several Coloradans were in Lubbock Tuesday for the convention sessions. Officially, Mitchell democracy was represented by Mrs. J. G. Merritt and C. C. Thompson.

ted his connection with the crime and implicated the other three youths. Weeks was placed under arrest Tuesday and Shoemaker, Hastings and Lloyd were taken into custody Thursday.

After admitting that he and the three other boys had stolen the Manuel car, taken it to a point outside the city limits northwest from town and stripped it of wheels, battery generator, window glass and practically everything else that could be taken, Weeks informed the authorities they had hidden the loot in maize and weeds on the farm of L. R. Shoemaker, six miles southeast from Colorado. Officers found the property hidden there.

Weeks, in his written confession made before the county attorney Thursday afternoon of last week, stated that he and the other three men accused drove in his car to the R. T. Manuel home on East 15th street about midnight Monday. The

Stork Evidences Favoritism To Boys In Deliveries Made During Month Of August

The stork elected that the month of August should be a popular month for boys in Mitchell county. During the month this noble old bird left 17 baby boys in the county, in only 8 girls. The ratio was more than two to one. Misfortune, however, reduced this lead credited to the male sex. Durwood, Edward and Clarence May, triplet sons born to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. May on last day of month died within a short time.

There were eight deaths in Mitchell county during the month, report made public this week by W. S. Stoneham, registrar of vital statistics shows. Mr. Stoneham lists the following births for August: Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ivy I. Webb on August 3rd, a son. W. T. House on August 5th, a son.

BARBER SHOPS WILL PASS TO LEGAL CONTROL UNDER CITY'S SANITATION CODE

Ordinance Enacted Monday To Become Operative With Press Publication

Passage of an ordinance incorporating provisions of the State barbering sanitary laws by the city commissioner Monday night will, upon its becoming operative, place all such shops and those employed as barbers therein, within the corporate limits of Colorado under strict sanitary regulations.

The ordinance provides that all barbers and assistant barbers employed in Colorado shops, or who may be following the profession of barbering for hire within corporate limits of the city shall obtain license from the city secretary authorizing them to so operate. Penalty for each violation of the act will entail a fine of from $5 to $100 and revocation of license.

In addition to regulating the individual barbers, the ordinance gives specific attention to the barber shops as well. Certain sanitary codes are listed that must be complied with. All shops are open for inspection at any time during the hours open for work by officials of either the city health or sanitary department.

In addition to listing a set of sanitary requirements, the ordinance sets the hours at which all shops in the city may open and close. The opening hour is set at 7:30 A. M. Closing limit is fixed at 6 o'clock P. M., excepting Saturdays and eves before legal holidays. On the former days the shops may remain open until 10 o'clock P. M. Eight o'clock is the time set for closing on eves preceding holidays.

It is generally accepted that Colorado barber shop operators are complying with requirements of the ordinance. There might be exceptions but the shops here as a rule are known to be maintained at a highly sanitary standard.

An inspector for the State department, who visited Colorado a few months ago, stated after having completed an inspection of all shops in the city that tonsorial emporiums in this town would rate with the best in Texas, as to both sanitary conditions and efficiency of barbers employed.

The ordinance was passed as an emergency measure and is to become effective with publication in the public press. City Secretary, J. Lee Jones, stated Tuesday.

INDIGNANT DISPLEASURE OR FRAME-UP CAUSE OF 'WALK-OUT' ON SPEAKER

Bill Cooper, who for several years has considered himself a compelling after dinner speaker, is worried. He is pondering the probability that his reputation as a "school opener" and orator extraordinary might have been over-capitalized. At any rate it was introduced at the Lions Club Friday as the speaker of the day. President Joe Pond most graciously informed the members of the club that a great oration was in store for those present.

With a self-assumed smile running from one side of his face to the other, Bill arose from his place at the table and with a gracious acknowledgement of the honor, proceeded with his address.

But something happened to cut the oration short. Hardly had Cooper started his declamation when members of the club began filing from the banquet room. Whether the Lions were giving expression to indignat displeasure or conforming to well schemed frame-up remains to be explained. Cooper, however, claims the latter was true.

WHO WILL REPRESENT COUNTY AT THE STATE FAIR? GIRLS PONDÉR

Who are going to be the lucky I-H club members winning complimentary trips to the State Fair at Dallas? That is the question now being pondered in minds of several score Mitchell county young women and girls who are members of those clubs.

The question is to be settled here September 24 when these girls are to compete in annual I-H club exhibit. The contest is to be held at offices of Miss Abbie Sevier, home demonstration agent.

Each girl competing for the trip will exhibit at least three varieties of canned pickled or preserved products, any clothing not exhibited at show here last June, a record and story of this year's productive demonstration and her quilt. Extra points will be given on all products exhibited other than the required exhibit.

These girls have done work in gardening, food preservation, clothing and and bed room improvement this year. The girls making the highest score for the year's work will go to the encampment October 17. Each girl in order to attend must have at least four exhibits ready to send to Dallas October 1.

S. L. Brown and sons of Cuthbert killed and cured a hog the A. & M. way Monday and Tuesday. Lloyd Brown says they found this method of dressing the hog much easier and faster.

N. T. Womack reports that Mrs. C. C. Berry and Mrs. W. E. Womack have been canning Irish potatoes for several years. "By canning them we retain the 'new potato' flavor. They just can't be beat," he says.

Jack Smith's black walnut tree that was budded with an English walnut three years ago, has about a dozen walnuts on it this year.

Ed Bell of Westbrook is starting a bunch of hogs on a self feeder.

The Texas Experiment station finds from their tests with self-fed hogs, that they save 3 pounds of milo, 4 1/2 pounds of kaffir and 6 pounds of wheat by grinding 100 pounds of these respective grains.

At present prices these figures show that it would not pay to grind threshed grain when it is self-fed. When hogs are fed twice a day they eat rapidly and the grain is not thoroughly chewed. So, it usually pays to grind the grain in this case.

Irving Jones who has recently moved to Colorado from the Dorn community is trying the A. & M. way in curing out a large hog that he killed last week.

Sebe Jones of New Hope says they find that it pays to can the large sized tomatoes. A bushel of large tomatoes produces almost twice as many cans as the smaller ones, he says.

Fowler McDaniel reports the sale of a 1,115 pound cow for 4.25 cents a pound. This one of the highest prices paid in the cow class for quite a while. He also sold three steers that averaged 908 pounds for six cents a pound.

J. S. Watmen, who lives north of Loraine, says his native pasture has recovered from the effects of the 1930 drought and now has a fine growth of grass on it.

Poc Burlison of Valley View says they terraced their land in 1926 and at the time there were a number of ditches five feet deep across the place. Now he says these ditches are filled up so they can cross, and not only that but they have a fine crop where the ditches were. He says the crops yields all over the place have been increased by terracing.

Mr. Burlison is starting a bunch of pigs and meat hogs on a self-feeder and a balanced ration within the next few days.

A Mitchell county farmer tells this one about the "good old days" (?). "A farmer was coming back from town with an empty wagon, after having sold his bale of cotton. 'Well, John,' a neighbor asked, 'What did you get for your cotton?' 'By gosh, I got bacon last spring.'"

Among those present at the hog killing demonstration at W. T. Powell's last week were S. J. Robertson, J. W. Robertson, P. H. Harris, Alton and Charles Roberson, Victor Harris, H. W. Beights, W. T. Powell and George Powell.

Russian thistles proved an acceptable roughage for lambs in tests at the government field station at Akron, Colorado. The thistles when ground had a value of $4.58 a ton. Some of the thistles for this test were gathered along the fence rows. Grinding was not necessary when the thistles were cut green.

J. C. Shepherd says he built terraces on sixty acres four years ago using a ditcher and Fresno and he has never had one of these terraces to break. The Mitchell county group that visited the Spur station were told that they had all types of terracing machinery at the station, but they considered the Fresno best of all.

J. C. Franklin says he has used one of the "Big Horse Hitchers," otherwise known as "Multiple Hitchers" for six head for the last two or three years and says it can't be beat. There is no side draft and when one horse starts all the others have to start too. No matter how many horses are used only one set of lines are used. Horses hitched in this manner are more efficient, stay cooler and are more easily handled. Any wanting plans can get them from the county farm agent.

WOLVES ROUNDING INTO FINE CONDITION; BOYS SHOWING GOOD SPEED
By L. COOPER
Day by day the Wolves are looking better and better—even the back field looks better and stronger, with Woodrow Wilson shifted from guard to half back. That leaves

Hagler and Alexander a near cinch for the guard positions.
Paul Knieff is showing up very good, with his speed and drive he may have a good shot for all district. We won't predict until we see him in a game. P. J. Burrows at quarter is speedy, has ability and is very steady, nothing flashy. He knows what Coach Cantrill wants and does it. Bud Hall, diminutive half back, may get to try the quarter post, that is if Burrows has to be depended on to carry the ball too much.

Cantrill's biggest problem just now developing is a punter—Paul Knieff can get the ball off in a hurry, but he takes form and distance. Pots Doss is outpunting all the boys, if he has plenty of time.
It is very near certain that Bill

Viles will do the passing if something doesn't turn up.
Red Church and Captain Stagner are playing under Cantrill for the first time this fall, but are both two year men. They are the strongest players in the line just now. Much interest is being shown in the development of Wilson Gregory. Cantrill is very optimistic about this rookie—and he isn't by himself in being optimistic, for Gregory really looks good for his experience of two weeks.

The boys from Hyman, Lowry and Smallwood, have plenty to learn, but both are speedy and will play for Cantrill this fall.
This summary of the progression of the Wolves shows that Colorado will have a fast football team that we are to be proud of.

The first game is to be played here Friday, September 30th.
Be a Wolf fan—Follow the Wolves.

Westbrook Methodist Church—
Our Sunday school is showing an increase in attendance. There were over 100 reported last Sunday.

Preaching services were well attended, both morning and evening. The pastor brought the messages, which were a blessing to those who heard them.

Mrs. Lindsey led the program for the Missionary Society Monday afternoon. The program was taken from the "World Outlook" and was presented in a very interesting way.

We will have prayer meeting each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend all the church services.

Baptist Church Notes—

This announcement first—We want all the Baptists who can be sure and attend the mission rally at Snyder, Tuesday, September 20th, and from there Tuesday-afternoon Loraine to the Association Tuesday night and Wednesday.

"Rejoice, Oh Israel, again I say rejoice," was the cry that was heard through every department Sunday. Heaven came near as we read our report with a decided increase. All new teachers and officers were officially recognized and they expressed their appreciation for the cooperation of all officers, teachers and church the past year. Their talks were anything but pessimistic for the future.

The need of a revival was the pastor's theme Sunday night. The text was found in Hosea 10-12.

It is our aim to be a friendly church. We like friends—We like to be friendly. "Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

Next Sunday the pastor's theme will be "Driftwood," for the morning service and for the evening service "Salvation and its Deliverance."

We appreciate the help and cooperation our county paper has given us and we felt we wanted to so state it here. A good, honest news sheet as this one you now read is a help to any county or home.

A large crowd gathered to witness the opening of the Westbrook school Monday morning. The program was opened with the singing of "America," led by C. S. Lambert; invocation by Rev. C. A. Albert; piano solo by Mrs. Lee Brown; talks were given by each member of the faculty; Mr. Lambert spoke in behalf of the board.

Following the opening exercises in the morning, the rest of the day was taken up in classification, enrollment and the issuing of books. 180 were enrolled, and we expect this year to be one of the most successful school years we have ever had.

CITY LEAGUE BILLBOARD

As Seen By The Record Sports Editor

The Masons and Fire Boys, contestants in the city league pennant series, were ready to march to West Side ball park Thursday afternoon with colors flying high, each exultantly heralding the advance information. "Our club is going to win this game and cop the championship belt." Team taking victory in that game will be given the coveted league trophy.

Sluggers representing the fire department won for first place in the first half, concluded with a thrilling diamond melee on July 4th. The fraternalists came under the wires a few laps in advance of the Fire Boys to win second half when last scheduled game for the four league teams was played two weeks ago.

The Masons ended the second half with a percentage of 600 points. The Fire Boys were credited with 535 points, the Methodists 465 points and the Baptists 400.

The fire department has one advantage over their Masonic opponents to win Thursday afternoon's game and take the glories of victory. During the pennant series opened Friday afternoon of last week each club has won two games and lost two. The fire department, however, has accounted for a total of 26 runs to only 15 credited to the Masons.

Fans Thursday were predicting that the final contest would feature the most determined diamond brawl and technique yet witnessed during the season. The finale, however, may develop into an exhibition fraught with errors as some of the most talked about games of the past have been.

In the first play-off game Friday afternoon both clubs "played some ball, believe me," to quote Col. C. M. Adams, commissioner of the league. The score was 2 to 0, with the Masons taking winning end of the score. Batteries were Leroy Gressett and Bob Thompson for the Masons and Truman Henderson and Kent Howell for the Fire Boys.

But the fire department turned things around quite a bit in the second tilt, played Monday afternoon. The score was 5 to 1 in their favor. This contest, like the pennant opener, was an interesting game with some extraordinary good brand of baseball exhibited. B. Gressett and Thomson were batteries for the Masons, with G. Howell and K. Howell taking this berth on the opposing club.

The tie was to be of short duration. Tuesday afternoon the Masonic crew came into action with fight and determination written all over their faces. The stubborn opposition known to be well entrenched in the enemy camp must be broken—and it was. The Masons took the game by a small margin of one run. The score was 6 to 5. Going in to the seventh and last inning at 5 all, Leroy Gressett caught one of Henderson's fast balls and drove it for one of the longest home runs of the season to rattle the issue. Again the batteries were for the Masons, Leroy Gressett and Thomson, and for the Fire Boys Truman Henderson and Kent Howell.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

The Commissioners' Court at the regular meeting September 12, 1932 passed the following resolution:

At our first regular meeting since his decease the undersigned are made painfully aware by his absence of the death of Commissioner Joe R. Sheppard, a member of this court, which occurred September 1st, A. D. 1932.

The undersigned as fellow members of the court serving with him for nearly two years wish to bear witness to the sound judgment, correct counsel and constant service of Commissioner Sheppard. His service we consider near perfect. Commissioner Sheppard was firm in his conclusions but friendly to the opinions of the other members. He was a great and constant support to this court during the times that exhausted our knowledge and patience.

In our judgment in every act of his as Commissioner he had the interest of the county and the people at heart. His insistence of the county's welfare never abated. The interest of friends and foes alike met the same close scrutiny. His business ability and capacity were exemplified daily to the benefit of his people. His success as a superintendent was far above reproach.

We missed him on the day of his death; we miss him now and will miss him as long as we live and serve. His character, life and work have won for him the reward of the faithful.
