10 EXTRA EGGS Per Hen-- Per Month

Feed a laying mash with grain and get 10 extra eggs per month per hen. Experiment station figures show five eggs per hen on grain alone--or 15 eggs when laying mash is fed. That's 10 extra eggs.

Feed PURINA LAYING CHOWS and get those ten extra eggs. With straight grain a hen gets material for developing 15 yolks each month. But with each yolk she must have a white and shell. PURINA LAYING COWS build whites and shells.

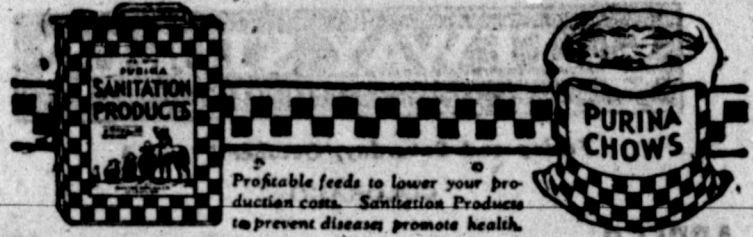

Put PURINA LAYING CHOWS in your feed hoppers. The hens then can build whole eggs. You'll get 15 or more eggs each month that's ten extra eggs. We've got bargain prices on those "EXTRA EGG" LAYING CHOWS. Come in and let us figure with you. Take advantage of these bargains. You'll be money ahead.

We are still soliciting your trade on a basis of "QUALITY AND SERVICE."

Projected North-South Rail Line Ended In 'Hot Air,' Record Story Explained

The alluring proposal to erect a north-south line of railway through Colorado connecting Sterling City with Fluvanna, went up in a "flame of hot air," when local bankers and business men made investigation of the promoter and his plans. The Record for Friday, October 6, 1911, related. For several weeks the paper had held out flattering promise to its readers that an unusual enterprise, yet to be publicly identified, was coming to town.

"We had built air castles and dreamed of streams of gold rivers of prosperity flowing through fields of peace and plenty, but alas, it was not to be," editor of the paper opined another grave disappointment to the home town.

A basket dinner and picnic at Lorraine on Wednesday of the following week was being advertised. Civic leaders there informed the public that a program of strong merit had been arranged for their entertainment.

Mrs. J. F. Clayton had died on Saturday night before at an Abilene hospital. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Rev. J. E. Lyons in charge.

"Circus Day" was only a few days in the future as that number of The Record went to press. Campbell Bros., "big consolidated railroad shows," were advertised to show in town on October 14.

Mrs. P. C. Coleman and daughter, Miss Eleanor Coleman, returned that week from an extensive tour of Europe. They visited France, Italy, Switzerland and Scotland.

Among ambitious youths of the community who had left during the week to take up their studies in institutions of higher learning were Ralph Beal, Carl and Bruce Phenix, Thos. R. Smith and Harvey Phillips.

Due to crowded conditions in the two public schools, a part of the classes were meeting for school work in the court house.

M'CAMNEY BADGERS AFTER VICTORY OVER WOLVES IN CONFERENCE GAME TODAY

Fan Delegation to Come With Enemy Gridsters on March To Cantrill Field

Backed by a strong fan delegation and an indomitable determination to fight through every stage of the contest, the McCamney Badgers Thursday afternoon had completed their plans for march against the Wolves in conference Class A opener Friday afternoon. Reports from the Southwest Texas oil town indicate that the Badgers are going to enter this grid fight with no other objective than to maintain their reputation as contenders for pennant in District 3.

The game, originally set for Saturday afternoon at Cantrill field, has been moved ahead twenty-four hours at request of Colorado school authorities and Wolf fans and will definitely be played Friday afternoon. The kick-off is set for 3:00 o'clock, thirty minutes earlier than schedule under which the Roby-Colorado melee was begun last Friday. The revised schedule will be more favorable to fans, especially business men and employees. They can witness the game and return to their stores and shops before time for closing for the day.

McCamney, he it remembered, drubbed Pecos last Friday 13-0, portraying in a definite manner the fact that the Badgers have something to offer Big Jim's pack in the conference opener. Spurred to enthusiasm by the pleasing influence of that victory, fans of the Badger hang-out announce they are coming to Colorado Friday backing their pigskin performers to the limit in the expectation that victory will be theirs. Cantrill officiated at the McCamney-Pecos game and brought back the news that the Badgers are a strong aggregation. But he has a fighting bunch of youngsters who will give them a real battle. Winner in this game should make considerable progress toward coveted district championship.

The local squad is in the best shape possible. Wilson Gregory, who was kept out of the Roby game on account of a badly wrenched knee, is in good condition now, and is ready to take his place in the line. Captain Stagner says that the boys are going to give all they have to win this game Friday afternoon. The Wolves are entering their second year in Class A competition, and are determined to put up a strong fight for district honors.

It is hoped that all the backers of the Wolves will be able to see the game Friday afternoon. It is altogether possible that this will be the only conference game that will be played in Colorado. Only one other team is scheduled to play on the local grid, this team is San Angelo, who is scheduled to play here on the nineteenth of November.

Captain Stagner is playing his position at end in all-conference style; "Red" Church, who has been moved from end to tackle, looked like a district contender for tackle position in the game against Roby; Paul Kneiff showed up exceptionally well in the backfield in last Friday's game. He is going to be a backfield man to watch during the coming season. Bud Hall, the mighty atom from Westbrook, showed his old-time form in running over four of the five touchdowns made in the game against Roby. P. J. Burrows impressed the fans during the short time he was in the game, with that tight right of his of the 1930 season. Alexander really delivered the goods in the line. All of the team looked impressive in the win of last Friday. Fans were jubilant over the fact that Coach Cameron has a wealth of reserve material to be thrown into the game when he sees that his starting line is weakening.

The admission price for Friday's game will be 25c and 50c.

LORRAINE COMMUNITY FAIR TO OPEN FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, WITH VARIED EXHIBITS

Demonstration and 4-H Clubs To Have Important Part In Annual Show

"Lorraine community optimistically expects to sponsor the most pretentious fair this Fall we have ever known," was the statement given Saturday to a representative of The Record by Alonzo Phillips, who in addition to filling the office of mayor and postmaster of Lorraine, is directing program for the exposition.

Mayor Phillips stated that the fair would be held in the business district again this year, if suitable buildings in which to house the exhibits were to be had. It is probable, he said, the fair will be housed in vacant buildings on Depot street.

"We have called meeting of our fair directors for early next week to outline complete plans for the fair," Mayor Phillips continued. "Our dates are to be Friday and Saturday, October 28 and 29, just one week before the fair in Colorado. Both include October 27th, too, as we will make use of the day immediately preceding opening of the fair in getting everything in shape."

Business men, farmers and other citizens of Eastern Mitchell county are manifesting strong interest in the fair, according to Phillips. Exhibits depicting farm progress, culinary art, poultry, swine, livestock, education and many other features are to be exemplified in the exhibits. Diversification among farmers of that section will be depicted in a unique and convincing manner, he stated.

The Lorraine fair will also impress visitors with progress attained by members of the boys and girls 4-H clubs and women of the home demonstration club, with Miss Abbie Sevier, home demonstration agent, and W. S. Foster, farm agent, assisting in collecting and assembling the exhibits.

Lorraine vicinity has in the past produced first prize awards in more than one field crop product as well as develop a 4-H club member who outstripped all competition in district No. 3. Grain sorghums grown on the McCarley and other farms there have won sweepstakes at the State Fair at Dallas and Southwest Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth. Miss Hilda Ohlenbusch a few months ago was declared the outstanding 4-H club-girl in West Texas. Travis Hallmark and Fred Harrell, two of the five 4-H club boys to recently win trip to the State Fair at Dallas are Lorraine farm youths.

Radioed Wonders From New Ocean Depths

Dr. Wm. Bebee, noted American deep-sea explorer, went to new depths, 2,200 feet, almost a half mile down, in a new bathysphere off Bermuda island, from where he broadcast by radio to millions of Americans about the wonders of the phosphorescent creatures habitating at that depth. It is estimated that water pressure at that depth is about 5,000 tons. Photos show Dr. Bebee, just before descending and deck crew with Miss Gloria Hollister, secretary, who carried on the radio conversation with Dr. Bebee.

modeled to provide four class rooms. Heretofore the building contained three class rooms.

Miss Bernice Ramsey of Westbrook, teacher at Buford during the past three years, resigned recently to enter McMurry College at Abilene, to complete her degree credits. Miss Fannie Mae Womack of Colorado has been employed to take her place. Mr. Glover, and Misses Jennie Fae O'Neal of Buford and Johnnie Chesney of Dorn's Chapel community are other members of the teaching staff.

NEW GRIDIRON RULES ARE DISCUSSED BY 'BIG JIM' CANTRILL AT LIONS CLUB

Wolf Mentor Details Changes Under Which Contests of Future Be Played

Garrulous hissing that has been prevalent along the sidelines when an official rules contrary to preference to some over enthused fan is due to become louder and more pronounced as the popular American sport of football is taken up this season. "Big Jim" Cantrill, Wolf Mentor, informed members of the Lions Club Friday.

Cantrill spoke before the club to explain in detail some of the major changes that have been written into rules under which this athletic game is to be staged. There are some half dozen of these new rules, all of which were adopted to make football a safer game, eliminating injury to the men in so far as may be possible.

The old practice of a runner scrambling to his feet after having been knocked down is taboo. This to imply on condition that any portion of the ball toter's body, excepting his hands and feet, touches ground. Back in the days of the past a runner could continue toward his goal line so long as he could shake tackles loose and get down across the field, it mattering not whether he ran, crawled, rolled or skidded. This play, Cantrill explained, has been the direct cause of numerous serious injury and even death to players. The new rules will prevent "piling on", a stunt that has taken heavy toll in broken bones and other body hurts heretofore.

The flying tackle, another of the popular plays during those days that have gone into history, too, has been made obsolete through legal stoppage. The new code will take much of the stunning force out of block tackles and limber up stiff arm and nose pummeling, a couple of offensive acts responsible for bloody noses and boiling tempers of the past.

The Chuck Wagon Serenaders, directed by Ed Jones, popular musical organization presented on the club entertainment program several times during the recent past, rendered a selection of old time barn dance numbers. The club pianist, Rev. Dick O'Brien, Dick Gray and Mr. Jones made up the musical group.

President Joe Pond announced that Col. C. M. Adams, Thos. R. Smith and Dick Gray would have charge of the club program during month of October.

J. A. Cook, deputy sheriff, was a visitor. Attendance was reported larger than for several weeks.

Hyman Happenings

By MRS. HYMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coles returned from Colorado last Monday with their little son, Roy Jr., whom they had taken in to see the doctor. We are glad to report he is all right again.

Messrs Hyman, Kirby and Dowdy went to Big Spring last Wednesday on business and were also there again on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woodard and Billy Woodard, formerly of Hyman, but now near Clegg and Annarose, Texas, came into Hyman last Monday morning to spend the Fall season and help with the cotton crop.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Smallwood entertained the young people Saturday night with a party, complimentary to their son and daughter, Johnny and Miss Myra Smallwood. They spent a pleasant evening returning home about midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyman made a business trip to Ross City Monday morning.

Mr. Cochran and his son are busy this week moving a home over in the Hayrick pasture to the location which they recently bought for a home. They came from Cochran county. When the house is completed the elder Mr. Cochran's wife and mother will come out.

The program given below is to be given next Sunday night by the singing class at the church, October 9th. Miss Roy Coles will play the accompaniments. Two songs, led by Loe Minor; scripture read by Mrs. I. Smallwood; two songs led by Mr. Joe Woodard; quartette, arranged by Mr. Herman Minor; two songs led by Mr. Ferrell Minor; solo by Mr. Porter Hammond; closing song by Mr. E. B. Van Winkle. Program for the next Sunday night by Mrs. Porter Hammond.

The singing class Sunday night was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed.

Relatives of Mr. Dowdy came in Saturday night to remain through the cotton picking season. They are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Dowdy.

A. H. Darden of near Paint Rock came in Sunday, accompanied by E. P. Peel and Mr. Anderson to see Mr. Hyman about buying farms. They were delighted with the land out here and each bought a farm out of one of our best tracts out here, section 28, buying the entire section, except one hundred acres, which they assured a relative would buy. the farms sold recently we would believe that the depression was over, and perhaps the near gathering of one of best best cotton and feed crops ever raised out here is a great inducement for people to move here.

After one day of perfect sunshine, a norther swooped down on last night, but from the lay of the clouds today (Tuesday) we look for them to vanish and the sunshine to return and which we hope will last, so that many cotton fields now ready for picking can be gotten into. Many pickers are only waiting for the sunshine and the fields to dry.

Lois Burdine and Luima Joyce of Colorado City are two of the new members of the pep squad at Texas Woman's College, who will help inspire good cheer and pep both in college affairs and in community and civic activities of Fort Worth this fall.

Competition for membership in the pep squad is keen as the organization is limited to 31 girls, including the nine members who composed the drum corps. These girls are chosen from the entire student body for their posture, rhythm, size, and general good looks, and their appearance this fall will be enhanced by new blue uniforms with gold buttons and braiding, set off by snappy hats.

Miss Burdine is the daughter of Mrs. C. P. Gary, and Miss Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Joyce of Colorado. Both are freshmen in Texas Woman's College.

Editorial

The public is showing an unusual interest in amateur dramatics this year, which will be beneficial to the casts of the different plays to be produced soon.

One cannot over-emphasize the importance of the public interest, in these amateur plays, as each one of us knows that the leading Little Theatres of the cities of this State have developed from the home talent displayed by the amateur producers.

Back your school as a community should—show your interest, and then await the result.

Not only will you receive many splendid evenings of wholesome entertainment, but you will derive a keen sense of satisfaction in knowing your school, your future citizens, have lent a cooperative hand in the future talent of some little Texas theatre.

Wolves Outplay Lions

The Colorado Wolves played their first game of the season with the Roby Lions, September 30 at Cantrill field, Colorado. The Lions were defeated by a score of 33-0.

The first touchdown was made by Bud Hall, and he made three others during the game. Red Morrison also made a score.

The first five or ten minutes of the game was the tightest part. P. J. Burrows carried the ball to the goal line twice and Bud Hall carried it over the line.

In the second quarter Burrows also carried the ball to the goal line twice and Bud Hall carried it over the line.

In the second quarter Burrows also carried the ball to the goal line, and again it was carried over by Hall. Roby held strongly against the Wolves in the second quarter. The score was 27-0 at the end of the first half. The goals were kicked by Hall.

No scoring was made in the third quarter, although a good fight was displayed by each side.

In the fourth quarter two touchdowns were scored, one by Red Morrison and the other by Hall. This made a total of 33-0 in favor of the Wolves.

First Conference Tilt Friday

The Wolves will meet the McCamey Badgers in the first conference game of the season on Cantrill Field Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Badgers have a heavy team, one of the best in the history of the school according to McCamey official. They outwigh the Wolves and are very adept in a passing attack. The Colorado team will probably have its hands full, but after the way it functioned against Roby, local fans believe that the Wolves can give McCamey a real battle.

La Tertulia Initiation

La Tertulia, the high school Spanish club, held its initiation on Tuesday night. The nineteen members were victims of practical jokes and stunts. The hot tamales wagon was in evidence with James Lupton in command and Gladys Louise Jones calling the wares in serious tones. Rilla Payne, with an accordion, and Harold Hester, romantically strumming a ukelele, attracted many spectators by their melodious tones. Bill Hicks had the thrill of proposing to an unknown senorita.

Dora Frances Harvey displayed her keen salesmanship by having a house-to-house campaign in a futile attempt to sell well-known magazines and newspapers.

After a picnic lunch the members of the clan of 1931 disclosed the mysterious secrets of the organization to those who are to carry on for the coming year. The group was accompanied by Misses Evelyn Jennings and Mabel Smith.

Assembly News

Wednesday of last week Reverend Dick O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist church, favored the high school assembly with an interesting talk entitled, "Advantages."

Bro. O'Brien stated that each of us has his advantages, no matter what his personal beauty may lack. Clever, humorous jokes spices his excellent talk, which enumerated the miscellaneous advantages each student of Colorado high school has over the youth of past years.

"All A Mistake"

Rehearsals are under way, and the cast is progressing rapidly under the direction of the sponsor, Miss Whitmore.

The Students' Little Theatre will be ready to present "All a Mistake," a three-act comedy, on the evening of October 21, at Colorado high school auditorium.

Personals

Colorado high school has been avored with the enrollment of several additional pupils recently. Among them are Misses Polly Bellovy, Lois Smith and Charles Smith, brother of Lois.

Notice the important title of "Uncle" or "Kunkle" placed before the name of Messrs Robert and Lerman King of late, all due to the fact that Lois and Charles have the sole right to place the aforesaid title before the King brothers' name.

Weldon Kellet is also another recent pupil enrolled in high school. And did you know Bud Loving and Robert King tried to jump inside the trophy case in high school last Monday? It is as Mr. Coffman says, they would make very cute and original decorations.

The school regrets the withdrawal of Beatrice Sparks, who was a student here for only a few weeks. Clyde and Oswell Hinds are new students here from Yoakum.

Assembly Program

The public speaking class, under the direction of Miss Whitmore, presented a series of pantomimes in assembly Tuesday, October 4. These pantomimes were original and showmen's unusual talent in this group of students. "The Amateur Driver" was enacted by Reachie Melton, Catherine Rose, Sidney Thomas and Marie Girvin. "The Fortune Teller" was given by Patsy Miller and Audrey Iglehart. The greatest action was displayed in "The Prize Fight," the chief characters of which were Bill Loving, Alvis Armstrong, Truman Shurtleff, Lindon Smith, and Carl Shelton. "The Cherry Tree," was given by J. B. Sorrells and Cecil Byrd.

Home Economics News

The Home Economics girls have canned and preserved a quantity of fruits. The preserves, marmalades, and jellies look very nice, and good enough to eat. They have also made cabbage relish and canned pickles.

We expect to have a better fair exhibit in Home Economics than we had last year. The girls are still planning to make the canned goods, clothing, projects and playground equipment come out as first place.

The Home Economics girls will start their club next week. They are going to do their best on everything they start. We plan to make clothing, materials furnished by the Red Cross association, for the needy people. We believe that the club this year will be more successful than last year.

Pep Squad News

Not only will red and black flash on the gridiron in the game Friday, but the pep squad are going to distinguish themselves by some new formations. They plan to start the year off with new yells and stunts.

They received their real initiation last Friday in their enthusiastic backing of the Wolves.

Vocational Agriculture News

The Vocational Agriculture students of Colorado high school are preparing both agricultural and educational exhibits for the County Fair, which will be held at Colorado the 3, 4, and 5th of November.

The vocational boys are showing an unusual amount of interest in the preparation of these exhibits and they are striving to have a better

First World Series Fan

Ralph Mann has used a "multiple hitch" for five horses in flat breaking and he says it is the best hitch he has ever used. "After I plow two rounds I can almost throw my lines away," he says. With this type of hitch only the lead team has lines; the other are "tied-in" and "bucked back." When one horse moves every trace tightens.

R. H. Bush, A. & M. Pasture Specialist, was in Mitchell county this week. He recommends Burr Clover and Italian rye grass to improve native pastures of this section. J. L. Bowen has splendid results with Italian rye grass he planted two years ago. It reseeds itself.

Wm. Cunningham, 28, former railroad fireman of Kansas City, bought the first general admission ticket to the Yankee-Cubs world series game at New York September 28. Cunningham sat himself down by the Yankee ticket window on September 25th, where he held vigil until tickets went on sale the day of the game.

MITCHELL COUNTY FARM NOTES

R. L. Solomon of Cuthbert says, "I didn't think there would be so much difference in skiprow and every row maize. Where I have it planted two row skip ones, two rows will head out more than four rows where every row is planted."

More home-made syrup has been made this year in Mitchell county than in any other year in the county's history according to folks who have been checking up on the number of syrup mill's running this year.

There are probably more sweet potato patches this year than ever before.

A. J. Hooks; S. O. Wulfjen and J. M. Doss are among those planning to furnish beeves for the beef killing and cutting demonstration by the State meat specialist next month. The demonstration will be held at the A. L. White farm. The beeves will be cut up in town.

The Commercial Department

Clifton Morrow won two typing pins, a pin for forty and one for fifty words a minute on the same test last week.

Inez Carter has been added to the ranks of assistants in the Commercial department; she is also taking vocational work. Other new students who have signed up for classes in Vocational Commercial work, are Arval Colson and Ara Bohannon.

Two members of the Commercial Department will publish a weekly paper beginning Thursday. It is the "Hooley", which will be ten cents for four and a half months; this will barely cover costs. It will be printed on one sheet of Mimeograph paper. The business manager is Porter Richardson, and the editor and staff is Tom Jay Goss. It will be entirely their project and only under their supervision.

There will be an exhibit by the Commercial Department at the Fair, managed by Miss Cooper, head of the department.

Mr. Coffman is taking shorthand—ask him how he makes his "Ts".

Sophomore News

Excited Freshman: "Hey, guy, here goes a wildcat into Mr. Wilkin's office."

Experienced Senior: "Don't worry, son, let him get out the best way he can."

George Kiler: (in study hall) "I can't swim."

Joe Cooper: "Well, why not?"

George: "Because I'm not in water."

Sophomore: "Has anything funny happened in your classes lately?"

Miss Smith: "Yes, a few of the students got their lessons."

Miss Whitmore: "Alvis, get some badges for your part in this play, to show that you are a general."

Alvis: (who collected some Fat Stock Show barges) "How about these?"

Miss Whitmore: "Why, those won't do at all, they can see the cows on some of them."

Alvis: "Oh, that all right! They'll think I fought in the battle of Bull Run."

Mystery Attends 'Ghost House' At School Auditorium

"Ghost House," the thrilling mystery drama, sponsored by the Fire Department, which is to be presented at the high school auditorium on October 6 and 7, contains many featured choruses.

One of the most outstanding choruses and the one featured above the others in the show is the "Detectives' Chorus," made up of twelve business men. The men are costumed as detectives and wear long black mustaches, and they run their act to the accompaniment of violent shooting. They put on an act that will long be remembered in Colorado.

Another chorus of outstanding merit is the "Sneak Dance Chorus." This chorus is made up of seven civil cleverly costumed, in a tap routine. Arment, Faster, Mertice, Foster, Marie Girvin, Lida Viles, Frances Price and Margaret Wade comprise this group.

One of the most unusual choruses is the "Ghost Dance" chorus. This chorus also has seven girls who dress as Ghosts and entertain with a phantasy of wierd and ghostly actions. In this chorus are Jane Majors, Doris Jensen, Lola Taylor, Minnie Anderson, Ruby Hargrove, Elizabeth Pidgeon and Eloise Cooper.

These choruses are in addition to the play proper which, according to various reports, is one of the most sensational dramas ever presented here.

What Has LIGHT To Do With Beauty?

Good light is absolutely essential to beauty. Reading, working or even resting in poor light tires the eyes, brings on physical fatigue and ruins natural beauty completely. No amount of beauty treatment can offset entirely the effect of the wan and worn look that comes from living in an atmosphere of improper lighting. Check your lighting fixtures and portable lamps today—you may need several globes right now. Remember—buy in cartons of six and save money.

"Big Jim" Cantrill and his revamped grid machine outwitted and outplayed the Roby Lions in every department in the season's opener at Cantrill Field Friday afternoon to upset a long established procedure having its origin from the first time these two clubs first engaged each other in football. Colorado won by 33-0, taking her first victory ever recorded from the visiting club under leadership of Jim Cantrill. Roby accounted for only 2 first downs to 15 by Colorado.

The game opened with Colorado defending the South goal. Roby kicked and Bud Hall received, returning the ball 15 yards. Play remained in center field until P. J. Burrus substituted Red Morrison at quarter. It was then that things began to click for the Wolves. In four plays Burrus carried the ball to Roby's 6 yard line and Bud Hall eluded a well directed Lion tackle and went across to the pay line.

During the second quarter Burrus worked the ball deep in the visitor's territory for the third consecutive time, each culminating in that elusive Hall galloping across the goal line to register a counter.

Cantrill started the second half by sending in his original line-up, Doss and Stagner, ends; Church and Bridgford, tackles; Alexander and Hagler, guards; Wiggly center, Morrison, quarter; Hall and Knief half-backs; and Vile, full-back. It was during this part of the game that fans were impressed with the fact that Knief can tote a ball. This chap made some spectacular end runs, one of which measured off 25 yards, but on this one he was called back on an offside penalty. Knief clipped off a 30 yard end run in the fourth.

Red Morrison got loose for some splendid gains on off tackle plays and after running the ball to Roby's 3 yard line plunged over for six points in the third period. Wiggly did a great job at center, missing few tackles and mulling up Roby's interference to the stage wherein it looked rugged plenty. Captain Stagner and Church outplayed their opponents in every department, zipping great holes in Roby's forward wall and handling the Lions at defense with ease.

The game was fast, contrary to intermittent rain that several times sent fans to shelter, beside walls of the school building or underneath rain coats and parasols.

Roby played hard. The game was not nearly so one-sided as the score would indicate.

Practically every man on the Wolf team saw action at one time or another during the four periods. Cantrill substituted every position. This shifting gave Dick Shelton opportunity to show the boys his heels for a few nice gains. Bill Viles did the punting for the Wolves and turned in a fair record for himself.

Fans who had hoped a continuous array of penalties, due to operation under the newly revised code of rules, had another thought to entertain as the contest was waged thru to the final gun. There were less penalties meted by officials than can be said of the average football contest played here. It was evident that both clubs were doing their share to conform every individual play within the law.

It was to be noted that under the new regulations fans may expect scoring totals to run higher than heretofore. Elimination of the flying tackle and some of the other spectacular features of football of the past has made it easier for runners to advance into enemy territory.

The Wolves are to engage McCamey at Cantrill Field Friday afternoon in their first official Class A Conference game. McCamey is bringing a strong club to Colorado, and it may be said here that the scoring tabulations are going to be more evenly divided than was the case in melee with Roby.

Officials were Parks, McCamey, referee; Reed, Big Spring, umpire and Wallace, Oklahoma U., head linesman.

WELL KNOWN CAST TO BE STARRED IN DRAMA OPENING THURSDAY

"Ghost House," the thrilling home talent mystery drama, sponsored by the Fire Department for the benefit of that organization is to be produced at the High school auditorium tonight and tomorrow night, October 6 and 7.

The cast has been working hard for many days to present an outstanding drama to the people of Colorado. The part of Brooks, the hard-boiled detective is ably taken by Robert Coffman of the high school faculty, and the boys and girls know just how hard-boiled he can be.

Benton Templeton has been appointed administrator of the will of Augustus Brown, and plays the part of the family lawyer to perfection. Dr. Bridgford must have had some previous experience to know so well just how the English butler performs, and we all know Jimmy Logan too well to doubt his ability in the part of the near-do-well nephew with his man about town ways. Mr. Petrecek portrays the part of the dashing newspaper reporter very ably, and George Tate is learning just how not to be a henpecked husband.

Misses Nina Lee Rogers, Juliana Smith, Carlene Harding and Fayrel Plaster take the feminine roles and need no introduction to the people of Colorado.

Campaign To Name Her Majesty, The Queen, Is Opened By Fair Executives

Royalty in all its grandeur is to be exemplified at the 1932 "Live-at-Home" fair, opening at Colorado November 3 for three days. As during other annual fairs in this county, some Mitchell county young lady will be placed in the realm of authority, privileged to wield her sceptre over subjects at will.

The question is just who will be the queen? Several young women have already been placed in nomination for the honor and others are expected to be entered before another week. Selection of her majesty will be through the ballot box, with voting accepted at polling places designated by the queen contest committee.

The young women already nominated for the honor include Misses Helen Hester, Irene Powell, Nina Lee Rogers, Mamie Lou Bedford, Armenta Foster, Lida Mae Viles and Maxine Dorn of Colorado, Pauline Van Horn of Westbrook and Bessie Hendrix of Lorraine. Any young woman is eligible for participation in the contest and may be placed in nomination by any interested party.

The popular voting contest will be concluded on Saturday evening, October 29, with an auction sale in the business district. With the ballot boxes closed eager swains will be given additional opportunity to place the name of their own girl friend at head of the list. Sam Wulfiem, auction block-crier of considerable reputation, will officiate at the sale.

Coronation of her majesty, to be staged at high school auditorium and under supervision of the Colorado Music club, gives promise of being one of the truly impressive features of fair week. Mrs. Cecile Meskinen, president of the music club, stated Thursday that this program would be given every attention with the thought in mind of making it one long to be remembered in Colorado.

Each young lady placed in nomination is to be accepted as member of the royal family and as such enjoy all social privileges arranged for her majesty and attendants during the fair. Cotton gowns will be designated for the coronation ceremonies.

President T. W. Johnson has named Jim Greene, John Ellis Smith and Carey Prude as committee to direct the queen's contest.

Other Loraine citizens refused to agree with Faulkenberry that the lintless cotton would be found in large ratio there. "We can find stalks of that kind of cotton every year," was rejoinder by a more optimistic planter.
"I have been through about 500 acres of cotton near town this morning and find there is a considerable amount of this type of cotton," he declared.
The cotton, said by the informer to have "just run out," had literally gone to seed. There was but little lint contained within the bolls, the black, sleek seed rattling inside the containers.

WESTBROOK CITIZENS TO SPONSOR SECOND ANNUAL FAIR ON OCTOBER 21-22

Field, Education, Art Along With Other Divisions Being Planned

Westbrook's second annual community fair is to be held on Friday and Saturday, October 21 and 22, members of the executive committee announced Saturday. This thriving community, embracing some of the best farm and ranch sections of the county and claiming the only commercial oil field in the county, found such universal satisfaction out of first fair held a year ago that the annual program is going to be recognized as permanent.

Persons residing in Western section of the county are extended an urgent invitation to lend full cooperation with officials in making the fair a success. Field crops, foods, vegetables, textiles, antiques, and any other products are desired for exhibition. Individual farm and community displays are to be featured. The oil industry, too, is expected to be reflected in exhibits shown for the two days.

Another interesting feature is expected in the educational department. Here the Westbrook and Itasca schools are to vie one against the other in competitive exhibits that should easily be accepted as among the interesting features at the fair.

Committees recently announced to direct program for the two days follow: Executive, C. S. Lambert, Mack Harper and F. H. Patterson; amusements, Ira D. Lauderdale and Vick Holder; agriculture, W. T. Brooks and J. N. Calloway; culinary and arts, Mrs. J. E. Skelton; textiles antiques and curios, Mrs. Foy Cottam; school exhibit, Miss Cora Ott.

LORAIN CITIZEN FINDS THAT LINTLESS COTTON ABOUNDS IN THAT AREA

There is considerable amount of lintless cotton to be found in fields of the Loraine territory, J. A. Faulkenberry, citizen of that town, informed a representative of The Record Saturday. Faulkenberry displayed a stalk of the freak crop just brought into town by him from a nearby farm.
"I have been through about 500 acres of cotton near town this morning and find there is a considerable amount of this type of cotton," he declared.
The cotton, said by the informer to have "just run out," had literally gone to seed. There was but little lint contained within the bolls, the black, sleek seed rattling inside the containers.

Sweetwater Cotton Man Is Crushed To Death In Car Crash

Funeral rites were said at the Episcopal church in Sweetwater Monday afternoon for Robert Wheatley, 25, fatally injured Saturday night when his automobile plunged to the bottom of a 30-foot ravine on Highway 70 south of Sweetwater.

Wheatley, an employee of the J. H. Doscher Cotton company, lay trapped beneath his machine from 11 o'clock Saturday night until 8:30 Sunday morning. He died an hour later in a Sweetwater hospital, after having related details of the accident.

Driving alone on highway 70, Wheatley, blinded by the light of an approaching automobile on Nine Mile Mountain drove through a guard rail. His car plunged to the bottom of the ravine, overturned and trapped him. He lay imprisoned all night, unable to attract attention. Early Sunday he was rescued by a truck driver.

The young man was born in Bremen, Germany, and had lived in the United States eight years, coming here directly from Germany to take employment with the Doscher firm. There are no immediate survivors, Wheatley having been an orphan.
Burial was in Sweetwater.

The Freshmen News—The Freshmen have had a very busy week since examinations are not very far off.
We had several starred themes this last week. The theme must be unusually good to be "starred." We are using the contract method in English and a starred theme counts ten points toward a grade of "B." Quality and quantity are considered in the total number of points which a student can make. We like this method fine. We have more class spirit than ever before. Gwan Strange is at the head of the class now. Arthur Barker is second. Six good themes, a book on which a report is made, a grade above the lower quartile on the diagnostic test, a satisfactory grade on the six-weeks test, and twenty-five additional points on poetry, extra themes or some other satisfactory work is required to a "C" grade. We are trying to surpass this requirement.
Ninth Grade News—Our English class is progressing nicely. We have enjoyed them week very much. Our English work has improved very much since we began using magazine covers for theme "starters." We are very proud of the new flag pole, which the trustees have erected on the school ground.
