SMALL TOWNS NEED THEM

What the small town needs in times like these is a chamber of commerce with vision and grit to stick it out. In the main that will mean four or five business men with judgment to keep their own affairs solvent and courage enough to believe that now is the little town's chance.

You can say that farm land down to $10 and $15 an acre is a calamity—and so it is to the man who used to lend money on it at $40 and $50 an acre. But for the man who wants to get started as a land owner it is an opportunity of a lifetime.

To be sure, it is sheer foolshness to ask a small town these days to spend a lot of money trying to get United States Steel to move Pittsburgh to Village Center. But Village Center can be clean, it can be neat, it can have an attractive wayside place of refreshment to inveigle the traveler to stop a while and dine.

It can go partners with larger towns in seeking roads, railway rates and the like. It can help growers make special marketing arrangements with big city hotels, canning plants and so on. It can promote farm progress and home happiness in the lands that lie round about its door.

It can be the very making of a town personality so unmistakable, so individual and so attractive as to win admiration and respect from every beholder. Collective courage is what we need. Chambers of commerce supply it.—From The Dallas News.

Where Tornado Swoped Down on North East Texas

Here is all that is left of the residence of L. L. McKikel, seven miles south of Detroit, Texas, after a disastrous tornado swept through North East Texas. Although house, barns and outhouses were completely demolished, the McKikel family was unhurt. Thirty were injured in the 45-mile path of the twister, however, and two were killed. This photo was taken in the rain.

Dog Saves Him

MEDFORD, OKLA.—James Armstrong will forever be thankful to a dog for his life. Armstrong was talking recently and, in avoiding an approaching auto, stepped into an abandoned city well. He plunged down 16 feet into two feet of water where he was forced to stay the remainder of the day. It was rumored that D. J. Buroff passed with his dog. The dog's barking at the well opening caused Buroff to find and free Armstrong.

Confidence In Business Outlook Being Expressed By The Continental Oil Co.

PONCA CITY, OKLA., Jan. 24.—Accepted as an expression of confidence in the business outlook for 1933 was announcement here today by Continental Oil Company of the approval of the largest advertising budget in the company's history, coincident with the release of an advertising campaign announcing a $10,000 prize contest in connection with the introduction of Conoco's new bronze high test gasoline. "Not only will the 1933 advertising budget be the largest in the company's history," said President Dan Moran, "but the major portion of the appropriation will be devoted to the purchase of newspaper space." The $10,000 prize contest, which is being announced today in newspaper advertising throughout the country, offers $5,000 as a grand prize for the best name for Conoco's new bronze gasoline, and $5,000 in cash prizes for the best slogans describing the merits of the new high test gasoline. The contest, opening today, will close February 26.

Funeral Rites

(Continued From Page 1) her husband had gone to Dallas on a business mission. While visiting in a downtown office there Saturday morning she was attacked by a chill. Taken to the home of a friend a physician was called who ordered Mrs. Dixon removed to the hospital. She developed pneumonia and gradually sank until death came.

Her mother received information Wednesday of the serious illness of Mrs. Dixon and went to Dallas that night by train to be with her. Thursday a sister, Mrs. Ed Snowden, and Miss Virgie Powell and Mrs. Cug Wheeler, close friends, went to Dallas by motor car. These were present when Mrs. Dixon died Friday morning.

The body was received in Colorado Saturday morning at 6 o'clock by the Jones, Russell & Company, who directed funeral plans. The body lay in state at the McKenzie residence Saturday and Sunday.

Hazel McKenzie Dixon was the daughter of the late F. E. McKenzie, widely known pioneer cattleman of West Texas who died at the family residence in Colorado last year. The family had been residents of this section since the early days of Colorado. Mrs. Dixon was born and reared here.

A few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Dixon and their small son, Ross, Jr., moved to Dallas to make their home. A few months ago they returned and had established a home on the McKenzie ranch several miles southwest from Colorado. Mrs. Dixon operated the place and other theatres in Colorado for some time.

Mrs. Dixon received her education in the Colorado public schools, Our Lady of Victory, Fort Worth, and Simmons University, Abilene. She was married at the residence of her parents in Colorado June 1, 1918, by Rev. W. C. Garrett, pastor of First Baptist church. She was 37 years of age at time of her death. In addition to survivors already noted there is another sister, Mrs. Harvey Fox of Colorado.

Among relatives and close friends here for the funeral services were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fletcher of Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Jones of El Paso, Mrs. A. E. Sullivan and children of Austin, Don Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Briscoe of Saco, Misses Bennett and Senette of Sweetwater, Mrs. Oscar Gilbert of Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ingram of Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jamerson of Silver, Bessie May Bilbo of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Stubblefield and children of McKenzie community, Mrs. Gressett of Mineral Wells, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Jones and Mrs. Lucian Fabers of Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Compton, Maryneal, J. D. Wilkes, Rotan, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Webb, Abilene, John Saul and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Trumble of Robert Lee, Mrs. G. H. Adams, Cuthbert, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Maddox of the ranch and Roy Conner of Maryneal.

The McKenzie school student body attended the rites in a body and it is said that every other citizen of that community was here Sunday afternoon to pay respects to the daughter of a pioneer family that had done much for that section of West Texas.

Pall bearers were Joe Pond, W. W. Whipkey, Cap Slagel, Farris Lipps, Roddy Brooks Merritt and Don Wallace.

Whipkey Printing Company can furnish anything needed in way of office supplies.

RESEARCH CHEMIST DISCOVERS NEW FIELD IN COSMETICS

For the past four years, using Lubbock, Texas, as a base, a group of research chemists have been working to perfect a line of cosmetics especially adapted to the needs of women living in windy, arid regions of the Southwest.

The fruits of their labor have answered the demands of women living in West Texas for a complete line of scientifically prepared cosmetics particularly adapted to their special needs. This is a challenge to the old idea that cosmetics to be good must come from abroad or from New York City where the makers are thousands of miles from the climatic conditions that will affect the users of their products.

Leading merchants throughout West Texas and New Mexico are presenting this new line of cosmetics as quickly as its new West Texas plant can supply them.

The company is known as the Gilliam Chemical Company and has been located at Lubbock, Texas. Charme (pronounced char-may) is the name of this new facial-line and it is one of the most carefully compounded lines on the market.

This new line of cosmetics introduces many new features in facial care; every woman has her choice of three types of cleansing cream as Charme offers a special cleanser for the three predominating types of skin: dry, medium and oily. The Charme Face Powder is remarkable for its smoothness and clinging quality, and is free of orris root, an ingredient in many powders that aggravates and in some case causes Hay Fever. Every item that the Gilliam Chemical Company manufactures is of the best quality and is made from the highest and purest grades of materials obtainable.

Baptist Church Notes

The mens Bible class will meet Thursday night for the discussion of some plans. A short program will be rendered after which Rev. Dick O'Brien of the First church Colorado will speak. Everybody come. It was planned that both the adult classes would have a similar meeting. The men are asking everybody to be present both men, women, boys and girls.

The pastor Rev. C. A. Allen brought a short message Sunday on "Gideon." Sunday evening he used as his theme the three doors. You are missing a treat when you miss coming to the Baptist church. The pastor said Sunday morning we will turn you out at 12 regardless of when I take the pulpit.

Wednesday night we have Bible discussions, singing and prayer, all of which is essential to a consecrated life. Be a faithful one; not a fearful one. Be a fearless one, not a faulty one. Be a fighter not a freak. When you go through life without Spiritual development you become lopsided.

The great preacher Paul said "it's a fight" and he fought it well. We are enjoying Brother C. S. Lambert being back with us.

The workers meeting is coming to Westbrook Tuesday after the second Sunday in February. We are to furnish the drinks and bread as is the custom of our association.

We are looking forward to a good time and a large crowd. As soon as some of our plans are completed we are planning a service for the older people, also a service for young people. Then we'll have the special service for them all for everybody called overall service, when every man or boy will wear overalls and all the girls and women will wear gingham.

LOGAN & SONS

The Checkerboard Store Colorado, Texas, Jan. 18, 1933.

WHY WE ARE GOING TO USE COLTEX ANTELOPE GASOLINE

The Coltex Refinery, Colorado, Texas.

Logan and Sons will use Coltex Antelope Gasoline in all automobiles and trucks used by them for the following reasons:

Scientific tests positively show that Coltex Antelope Gasoline is one of the finest products made in America. It is highest test, has power, quick acceleration, and is beyond question as good as money can buy.

But aside from the above reason, we will always use Coltex Gasoline as long as available at local filling stations for the reason that we appreciate the Coltex Refinery and what it has meant to Colorado.

The employment afforded, the payroll disbursed and the taxes paid by this refinery have meant more to Colorado and Mitchell county than any other local industry. Had it not been for the refinery and its payroll and other expenditures here, Colorado and Mitchell county would have felt the "depression" much more keenly.

We take pride in this and all other local industries. We feel it our duty as well as the duty of every other Mitchell county citizen, to be loyal to our home industries. It is doubly a duty we owe the Coltex Refinery. Every citizen will realize that.

Then, if we can buy the finest product made from Petroleum products and at the same time support a local industry that has kept the life-blood of business flowing in this community, why not do it, and do it consistently. Logan and Sons propose to do that, very thing. All our gasoline will be purchased from Coltex stations.

We do not wish to tell the public what to buy or where to buy, but we do wish to draw your attention to the fact that Mitchell county citizens will be helping themselves when they buy Coltex Gasoline, which will cost no more and will equal them all. If every other citizen will join us in this move, Coltex Refinery will be humming with activity and will continue to be our largest and most useful industry.

Hoping every citizen will think this over, we are,

Sincerely, LOGAN AND SONS By JAMES H. LOGAN, Mgr.

Hospital Fees, Henceforth Demanded in Cash

In order to fortify the hospital against a certain financial failure and "CLOSE UP," henceforth the Hospital fees must be paid weekly in advance, before the patient enters. The amount of cash required to keep the hospital going is too much, and the loss when credit is allowed too great to maintain a hospital. Cash in advance for the hospital fees must be paid, else the hospital must close.

Arizona Broadcast Announced On The Continental Bill

Scenes and events dating back almost 400 years into American antiquity, as far back in fact as Coronado's march through Arizona in quest of the fabulous Seven Golden Cities of Cibola, will be presented in the regular weekly Continental Oil Company broadcast Wednesday night, February 1, over 23 N.B.C. stations.

Following a general description of the beauty and richness of present day Arizona, Carveth Wells, famous globetrotter, presents some interesting historical facts by means of a fake interview with the ghost of Coronado. The spectre of the Spanish explorer comes jingling into the scene astride his favorite mule. The ensuing dialogue is both realistic and illuminating.

The Conoco program may be heard by local listeners who tune in on station WFAA on Wednesday night at 9:30 o'clock.

THE TAX MENACE A GROWING CRISIS

By FRANCIS H. SISSON
President American Bankers Association

No danger, economic or social, more seriously menaces our life, happiness and prosperity than the rising tide of taxes which threaten to engulf us.

F. H. SISSON

This is not simply a problem of the depression. It has been developing for many years, growing more serious all the time. The depression merely brought it to a climax. Unless drastic steps are taken to reverse this trend the problem will not end with the depression. It will continue to weigh down and retard progress for an indefinite period.

In city, county, state and nation the orgy of spending has run on. It is estimated that in the United States the total cost of all government is nearly five times what it was before the World War. Many localities have been brought to the verge of bankruptcy by their expenditures, while many have saddled their citizens with a debt burden that will darken their lives and hamper their progress for years to come.

The total cost of Federal, state and local government in the United States is estimated at forty-six million dollars a day. Based on national income in 1930, this represents about one-fifth the total income of our people, or about $110 for every individual in the nation. Total taxes in 1931 are estimated to have taken more than 22 per cent of the national income. It is occasion for serious thought on the part of everyone when one day's income out of every four or five must be contributed to the maintenance of government machinery.

Reductions Possible
United States Government expenditures were reduced one hundred and forty million dollars during the first quarter of the current fiscal year. The recent action of bankers in calling a halt to unnecessary expenditures of New York City as prerequisite to loans will reduce the cost of government in the country's metropolis, which is second in its expenditures to only the Federal Government. No state in the Union, in fact, no other government on this hemisphere, spends half as much as this one city. These savings in Federal and municipal costs are only the beginning of a movement needed throughout the country, if we are to be led out of depression into prosperity.

Unless the people can be made to realize that money for governmental expenditure can come only from their own pockets as taxpayers, casting depressing effects on both individual effort and general business, there is an imminent threat that we may be forced to meet economic difficulties similar to those that have so seriously handicapped other countries. The question is not primarily one of merely paring government salaries or shaving budgets, but rather of curtailing government activities for which we cannot afford to pay.

The idea that money for these mounting extravagances can be raised by following the slogan "Soak the Rich" is utterly fallacious, for such a policy will simply exterminate "the rich" and eliminate sources of revenue. It is also important to realize that corporate business in this country is in no position to withstand the effects of indefinite advances in tax rates. Current earning reports reveal that fact beyond shadow of doubt. The tax base must be broadened, and it therefore seems likely that Congress will be called upon to reconsider the sales tax, at least as a temporary measure to help meet a critical condition in the nation's finance.

Deposit Guarantee Fails of Purpose

LOS ANGELES.—While the idea of the guarantee of bank deposits by some legally enforced plan seems to appeal to many people who give it casual thought, the fact is that it has not only failed in every instance in the eight states where the experiment was tried, but actually produced unsound banking and increased the number of failures. It was declared by the recent convention of the American Bankers Association held here.

"Guaranty of bank deposits carries an idea that naturally appeals to people in general on casual consideration," the declaration said. "However, in principle it is unsound and in practice it is unworkable. It has been tried in eight States and it has not only failed in every case, but it has resulted in increasing the number of bank failures. Taxing properly managed banks to make up losses of failed banks is not only unfair and unreasonable, but it weakens the whole banking structure. Again, guaranty of deposits places the incompetent and reckless banker on an equal footing with the able and conservative banker, which encourages bad banking at the expense of sound banking. We are therefore opposed to the passage of any law carrying a guaranty of bank deposits and believe that it is against the interest of the people of the United States to develop any such system."

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

John Howard Payne said years ago he it ever so humble there's no place like home. There is a longing in the heart of nearly every man and woman to own a piece of God's earth. I believe in a land of homesteaders. There are I know, thousands of renters who are mighty good folks but they would be happier, more contented, better neighbors and citizens if they were home owners.

During Woodrow Wilson's first term, the Democratic congress hatched a bill. This bill is now feathered out and has grown to be a mighty giant. He has been fondled and petted by the Republicans. This bill and a few of his double jointed side kicks have their claws fastened on nearly every home in the United States. His name is Federal Farm Loan Bank. The Democrats bragged about this measure. They said we did more to help the farmer than the Republicans did in forty years time. They certainly did. They help him to lose all the hard earned dollars he ever made.

We were told in glowing words how easy it would now be to buy a farm and pay for it. What happened when the Federal Land Bank began to function? Land values went sky rocketing. Wild, reckless and unsafe buying of land took place. It caused the man with his life savings of $1500 to $2000 to buy a farm. It caused the man with one farm to buy another instead of paying the first one out. Now he hasn't a home at all.

It helped the land speculator to sell out at an enormous profit. I carried the man of small means snipe hunting and left him holding an empty sack.

The buyer instead of paying 5% per cent paid from forty to fifty percent. Furthermore when the price of farm products began to tumble the Federal Land Bank refused to refinance or loan any more money on land. This resulted in further deflation of farm products prices and land values.

These mortgaged farms are now drifting back into the hands of the moneyed man and when they get them they will sell them back to the farmers at another big profit.

Millions of dollars were poured into these banks last year by the government. If any of it has trickled into the hands of the distressed farm owner I have never heard about it. The farmers have taken a whole of a loss. Has the Federal Land Bank taken any loss or has its officers reduced their fat juicy salaries?

The Federal Land Bank is so big hearted and so much in sympathy with the farmer it charges interest not at the rate of 5 1/2 percent but at 8 percent.

Instead of promoting home ownership the Federal Land Bank has turned to the greatest destroyer of home ownership the world has ever known.

No wonder crime is on a rampage and the people are losing confidence in our leaders and institutions.

How true is Goldsmith's famous couplet.
 It fares the land to hastening ill a prey
 Where wealth accumulates and men decay.
 H. L. HARRELL, Loraine, Texas.

FORT DAVIS MAN DISCOVERS WIND CAVE ON HIS RANCH

PECOS—Bennett McCutcheon of Fort Davis said the other day that there is a wind cave on his place, or a hole that blows out warm air. It is not so far from the house, up toward the high rimrock. He found it one cold day when there was snow. He saw a "smoke," concluded that someone was lost and had made a fire, and went over to see. But the vapor proved to be a warm air from underground showing like breath in the cold air.

The air was coming from a narrow slot in the rock too small to admit a man. Not far off was another hole, or soft cave, forty feet deep and big enough to get into. McCutcheon expressed the opinion that a thorough investigation would reveal underground caverns. Certainly that air had to come from some place. He has noticed it at other times since.

He told us of the many advantages of boys and girls of today as compared with yesterday. His talk was greatly appreciated by all. Beans baked the regulation army mess cook way along with all the requisites that go to make up a delectable menu for the former service man will be served in abundance at annual business meeting of Oran C. Hooker Post, American Legion, to be convened Friday night.

This is another of those get-together fetes to which every former service man of Mitchell county, regardless of whether or not he is a member of the post, is cordially invited, Rogers declared. "We pride in strides made by the American Legion at Colorado during the several years of its existence and wish to be understood as sponsoring a service organization including every ex-service man within its scope. Come to the meeting Friday night."

WEALTH AND PLAUDITS OF MEN NON-ESSENTIALS, BIG SPRING MINISTER STATES

Rev. R. E. Day Speaks Before Annual Meeting Amegos Class Thursday

Quoting the admonition of King Solomon, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches," and of the Apostle Paul that we should forget the things that are behind and press on to the things that are before, Rev. R. E. Day of Big Spring strongly urged fidelity to the church and service to others in address delivered Thursday evening before meeting of the Amegos Bible class of First Baptist church.

The occasion featured annual "chili feed" affair that some time ago became a fixed feature of the class' routine for the year. In addition to members of the class men representing the Presbyterian, Methodist, Christian and Church of Christ Sunday schools were present as honor guests. Joe H. Smoot, class president, and Rev. Dick O'Brien, host pastor and class teacher, took turns in directing the evening's program.

"How to Get Along," was subject announced by Rev. Mr. Day, after the guest speaker had been presented by Rev. Mr. O'Brien. He characterized greatness of life, not in the accumulation of wealth and material assets, but, rather in a well-rounded program of rendering service to others in the spirit and under the terms as enunciated by the Master.

"There are too many men spending their time in reflection into the past to recall what they might have done," the speaker stated. He stressed the fact that reverses cannot be amended through a temperament of brooding, and that such a program usually lends encouragement to building one's objective into the role of a quitter. "God has no place in His program for the quitter. There ever remains opportunity for service after that the material in this life has crumbled away into oblivion.

"Community unity, as suggested in brotherhood of the Sunday school class of which you are members, among the churches of this community and even the citizenship as a whole impress me that you have here a combination to ever promote the church and those principles for which the church stands. That sixty men came on Tuesday night to hear this pastor discuss the Sunday school lesson is evidence that you men are vitally concerned about the greater things of life."

Rev. Oren C. Reid of Fort Worth, a former pastor, spoke feelingly of his association with members of the class and the citizenship here in general. He touched on his recent sorrow, following accidental death of Mrs. Reid, who was drowned in waters of a lake at Glenrose, concluding the reference in statement that consideration given him by his friends in Colorado had done more than they would ever know to alleviate that great sorrow.

That the host pastor sustained references of Rev. Mr. Reid as to friendliness dominating men of the Sunday school class, along with other citizens of the community, was portrayed in an address by Rev. Mr. O'Brien. "I realize that you men do have a peculiar affection abiding in your hearts for Brother Reid and I am proud that such is true," he said. "To love a great man like he impresses me that I, too, may be able to win your affection."

Dr. C. C. Klingman, pastor of First Christian church, was another minister to address the meeting. Dr. Klingman spoke briefly his endorsement of such gatherings where in men were brought together in one fellowship. "I am going to try to organize the men of my church in just such a manner as you have here realizing that much good can be accomplished for God through such an effort," was his comment.

Representatives of the other churches made brief addresses. Music was furnished by the Chuck Wagon Serenaders. An amusing feature of the entertainment program, arranged and staged under direction of C. L. Gray and Chas. Seal, was delivery of a sermon in typical negro dialect by the small son of Bill Haynes, local negro. The boy was presented by Joe Smoot under the introduction of Rube Morgan, former teacher of this class.

The luncheon menu consisted of chili, crackers, pie, cake and coffee, with certain members of the class acting as waiters. An attendance of seventy five men was noted.

Joe Farr Demonstrates Racing Qualities In Sprint To Overtake Alleged Thieves

"Phew! That was about the fastest foot race I have ever staged and take it from me such track demonstrations certainly separate a fellow from his breath," gasped Joe Farr of the J. C. Penney Company Tuesday afternoon within a few minutes after two fleeing women had "outdistanced" him and took refuge in industrial yards of the Texas & Pacific railway.

A few minutes before two young women breezed into the Penney store and asked to be shown some dresses. After looking several garments over they departed without making a purchase. As they emerged through the front door, Farr detected that two of the most expensive garments in stock were missing, and the race was on.

As Farr veered around the corner of Elm and East Second, his quarry was just one block ahead—at First and Elm street. Seeing they were being made the objective of a chase, the women tossed the dresses aside and began to execute some real running, according to Farr. At Walnut and First one of the women continued West and the other turned north to the alley way and raced through that thoroughfare to vicinity of the Texas Electric Service Company offices. Here they were lost and Farr gave up the chase.

Mr. Farr later expressed belief women were transients. They were not known to salespeople with whom they talked in the store. The would-be thieves hid the garments under their coats while pretending to be looking through a display of dresses with intention of making purchases.

Swisher Sheriff Is Killed At Tulia In Battle With Bandits

Three bandits overpowered J. C. Mosley, 49, veteran Swisher county sheriff, in a hand to hand battle at Tulia Monday morning, shot the officer to death at close range and took one of his guns from his body before speeding out of town in a motor car.

They forced Jake Ward, filling station operator nearby, to service their car for escape. No trace of them had been found at noon. Description of two of the men resembled that of those who killed Malcolm Davis, Fort Worth deputy sheriff, at Dallas early in January.

Mosely was called from bed by F. O. Goen, his deputy, who had chased the trio from a filling station from Happy, Texas, where they had attempted a robbery. Mosely met them north of Tulia and chased them through the city and cornered them at Ward's filling station, after firing three shots to make them halt.

Powder burns on his face and hands indicated he was killed at close range. Two night watchmen raced to the scene but were held off by the gunmen while Ward was forced from bed, made to hand over $17 in cash and fill the automobile with gasoline. The trio escaped either west or north of Amarillo.

CORN DRINKERS CAUSE RUSH OF BUSINESS AT BIG SPRING SATURDAY

Monday was a big day for the Big Spring corporation court, the sequel to arrest of seventeen citizens on drunk charges. Fourteen of the corn sipping citizens were rounded up Saturday night and herded into jail.

So large was the guest list at city jail that a section of the fire department building was brought into use as a temporary bastille. Three prisoners were held under guard after capacity of the jail had been filled.

J. L. COLLINS, PIONEER COAHOMA DRUGGIST, IS DEAD; RITES TUESDAY

Funeral rites for J. L. Collins, 52, druggist at Coahoma during the past twenty years, were conducted at the Coahoma Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev. W. R. Derr of Abilene officiating. Burial was in the Coahoma cemetery. Collins had been in delicate health for several months. Recently when his condition grew worse he was taken to a Big Spring hospital, where he died. He is survived by his widow and six children.

Shelton led the locals in march to supremacy over the visitors, scoring a total of 12 points during the four periods. Reid of Big Spring accounted for 10 points.

This was the second defeat given Big Spring recently. Saturday night, Roby defeated the fouted Howard county cagers by the margin of two points.

Popular West Texas Players Feature 'Hot Air' For Thursday Night

Harley Sadler and his own company of forty people, popular West Texas theatrical organization, well known to the public of Colorado and Mitchell county, are to open an engagement at the high school auditorium Thursday evening of this week. The company is being brought to Colorado under auspices of the United Charities, which organization is to share in ticket sale revenue.

Among the features to be offered on bills for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings are a ten piece orchestra, Whitehouse Twins, singers and dancers; Gibbs and Delaire, entertainers supreme; Jimmy Parsons, the Rudy Valle of repertoire, and Evert and Barry, accordionists and dancers.

For the opening bill Mr. Sadler announces that one of his greatest dramas, "Hot Air," is to be given. Sadler, carrying the role of "Pop Harris," does himself proud in this cast. The play is supported by a strong cast of star performers organized under personal supervision of Mr. Sadler.

Hyman Happenings

By Mrs. Hyman

Mr. Otis Chalk of the Chalk community was a visitor in the Hyman home last Wednesday.

Misses Lorene and Helen Andrews daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews, who are attending school in Colorado came out Friday to spend the week-end with their parents and will return Monday morning. We are always glad to welcome back to Hyman these two popular girls.

Mrs. Emma Minor who has been confined to her bed for some weeks we are glad to report is much improved and able to be up again.

Rev. Ross, pastor of the M. E. Church of Hyman filed his regular appointment Sunday afternoon. He preached a fine sermon to a good congregation. He will return Friday and preach that night, Saturday night and Sunday, when it is hoped all the Hyman community will attend and enjoy the splendid sermon. He will be the guest while here of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. A. H. Darden, one of our new citizens was severely wounded by a milk cow Friday when the cow knocked her down and broke one rib and fractured another. No doubt the timely assistance of her son saved her life. A late report today (Sunday) states that she is better. She was taken to town and was treated by Dr. Lee.

Mr. A. P. Cochran and son Chester have just returned from a trip of about ten days from Bailey county.

SAFETY FIRST

THE PUBLIC should be prudent in seeking relief from pain. Take nothing which does not have the approval of the medical profession.

BAYER ASPIRIN will never do you any harm, and almost always brings the desired relief. But remember that the high medical endorsement given Bayer Aspirin does not apply to all tablets for relief of pain.

THE DOCTOR is careful to specify Bayer Aspirin for these important reasons:

It has no injurious ingredients. No coarse particles to irritate throat or stomach. Nothing to upset the system. Not even any disagreeable taste. The Bayer process insures a pure, uniform product.

INSIST on the tablet you know to be safe. And the one that has speed. Bayer tablets dissolve so quickly, you get immediate relief from your headache, neuralgia, or other pain.

The Hyman Gin Co. is making rapid progress in the gin being built here. The foundation is dug and lumber is on the ground. The location is just west of the school house and on the public road.

A recent and much needed improvement is a concrete crossing on the highway to Chalk over Red Hollow. This also leads to a fine graded road to Highway No. 1 near Coahoma and gives a good road to Big Spring.

Mr. Hood Parker, recently from Eola, has opened up a grocery store and a gasoline station here this past week, buying his stock of goods from Big Spring. He occupies the building that was built by the Baptists several years ago and is just north of the church.

Commissioner and Mrs. H. H. VanZandt are the proud possessors of a baby girl which came a week ago in Colorado at the home of Mrs. Ivy Lane Mrs. VanZandt's sister. Both are doing fine and are expected home this week.

There was quite a bit of excitement in China Grove last Wednesday night when the cotton yard at the Merket Gin caught fire. Bro. Lawrence Trott had been to Snyder and came in about 10:30. He saw the fire and came and turned in the alarm. Almost everyone was asleep and it took some time to get help but when the whistle began to blow cars came from every direction and it looked like for awhile the gin would burn but we are very happy to say it didn't. We certainly have some heroes here when it comes to fighting fire.

There was 27 bales of cotton lost and 50 patterns of bagging and most all of the big platform back of the gin. No one was hurt—serious several got slight burns and Jim Merket got a very badly mashed toe.

SEVEN WELLS NEWS NOTES

We have a different social problem in our community to any we have had in the several years. Numbers of young people do not attend church at all. The depression has made it impossible for many to attend church or anything else in town. It is too far to walk, and they have no place to go for any kind of recreation. The school building will be open to all who care to come on Sunday afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00. A chaperon will be here to see after the young folks and that doesn't mean a "wet blanket." All school patrons are urged to cooperate.

We hope to have religious services as soon as we can arrange for them. If you object, let us hear from you. If you approve, help us.

Brother Harrell delivered a wonderful message. Subject "Has the Church Failed?" Scripture lesson Matt. 16:6-28. "Jesus asked his disciples whom do men say that I the Son of man am."

Peter answering "Thou art the Christ the Son of the living God." Jesus answering said "Blessed are those and upon this rock I will build My church and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it."

We see in these few words the church never fails but we as individuals fail to do as God would have us do.

We as our brave boys did in the World War should ever be ready to hold our banner high and fight for right against wrong.

The Leaguers gladly accepted invitation to visit B. Y. P. U. Rev. Harrell's subject for evening hour was found in 4th and 5th chapters of James.

"Ye are a viper." This message was a wonderful message of life. Next Sunday night Rev. P. E. Yarbrough of Highland Heights M. E. church Sweetwater will be with us and give us a message on prohibition. Everyone has a special invitation to hear this message.

An Unusual Cargo Through Colorado Sunday on The TP

Among one of the unusual oddities noted in freight cargoes was in Colorado Sunday aboard a west bound Texas & Pacific freight train. It was a large steel mooring mast being shipped by the government to San Diego for anchoring the naval dirigible Macon, soon to leave for the Pacific Coast on her maiden flight.

According to information gathered from trainmen, the huge mass of steel was 180 feet in length and weighed 300 tons. It was being transported atop three heavy duty flat cars.

Due to length and weight of the mast, train carrying it progresses not over 20 miles an hour. Furthermore, it is being moved only on trains having daylight schedules.

MOVIES

"Six Hours To Live," which gives Warner Baxter the most dramatic role of his career on the screen, will be the film feature on the Palace Theatre's program, Thursday and Friday, January 26 and 27.

Sharing top-line honors with Baxter are John Boles and Miriam Jordan, the latter a beautiful young English actress, who makes her screen debut in this Fox Film production. George Marion, Irene Ware and Beryl Mercer are also in the cast. "Six Hours To Live" was adapted by Bradley King from the original story, "Auf Wiedersehen," by Gordon Morris and Morton Barbeau.

"Hidden Gold" coming to the Palace Theatre, Saturday, Jan. 28th, is one of Tom Mix's latest and best pictures. The Palace has booked this picture especially to please its Saturday patrons. The picture has a good plot and is full of thrills and exciting situations. Tom Mix is supported by Tony the wonder horse and by a good cast of experienced western actors. Can you guess who the heroine is this time?

"Doctor X" coming to the Palace Theatre screen Sunday and Monday, January 29 and 30 is an all Tech-nicolor picture. This picture has only been released a short time, yet possibly more has been said in its praise than any other picture of the year. It is recognized as one of the year's best and most entertaining.

Therefore little need be said here about it. Lionel Atwell and Fay Wray make a wonderful team with an exceptionally well-finished performance on the part of both.

Heart beats compete with hoof beats in "Fast Companions," which will bring a big thrill to the screen of the Palace Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 31 and February 1. The thrill is double-barrelled and so cleverly concocted that we will guarantee you won't know what hit you. But you'll like it.

You will also like a new personality in this picture. His name is Tom Brown, and he is Irish as they come. In fact, the whole cast of this picture is Irish—Maureen O'Sullivan, James Gleason, Mickey Rooney, Andy Devine. "Fast Companions" is all about a little crook reforming a big crook because the big crook thought the little crook would grow up to be like him. Sounds complicated but try and keep back the tears and the laughs.

"Fast Companions" is a story by Gerald Beaumont, and he knew how to write them. Don't miss it. Here is something dramatically new in the line of talking picture entertainment. It's the kind of distinctly American story that held the undivided interest of a large preview audience.

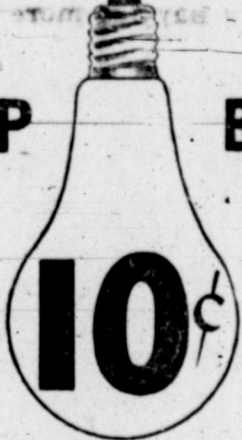

It is a combination of epoch-making historical events and the part that unrealizing men and women played in those fascinating incidents. It is expertly directed, superbly acted, with Edward G. Robinson giving what is undoubtedly the best performance in his career, and with Aline McMahon and Bebe Daniels contributing touches of human interest and glamour that should win the favor of everyone.

It is with highly dramatic and whimsical comic and through it all runs a thread of exciting suspense. Take a day when the cowboy was a poor gold in the Rockies, who later was St. Charles and before the great silver strike was made at Leadville, it pictures the spectacular creation of sudden fortunes, when poor miners became millionaires almost overnight.

There is plenty of entertainment of all kinds in this different story. It should stir the imaginations of the adults, particularly the elder generations who remember the exciting days it recalls. As a chapter of one of the most important periods of American history, it should appeal to those of your patrons to whom the thrilling story of western development is something more than the dry detailing of statistics. As a story of a man and his ambitions, it is packed with romance, drama and whimsical comedy. Also it is a picture that children will enjoy—one in which contacts with schools of all grades can and should be made. The way in which the romance between Robinson and Daniels is handled is particularly striking, and contrary to losing sympathy for both.

THE VACANT CHAIR

There will be a vacant chair at the banquet table when annual meetings of the chamber of commerce convenes Tuesday evening and a voice that during the past many years has ever been heard in support of lofty ideals and ambitious objectives will be stilled. Dr. Coleman will not be present.

Passing of this leader a few months ago swept from Colorado and West Texas one among their most highly respected citizens and resourceful leaders, whether it be in the realm of religion, education, commerce or others of the material casts that must be woven into the very life of the community that would attain success. Traditions of his life and leadership, however have not passed but are to be sustained as an exerting influence among executives of the chamber of commerce as they come to plan objectives and organize to carry them through to attainment.

Every citizen of this community entertaining the ambition to perpetuate the ideals of this great man and who, like he, would render an unselfish service to this city and nation, should attend the annual meeting and assume to take an active part in the deliberations. The future lies ahead and it is to the future we must build.

THE CITIZEN'S DUTY

Time in which the citizen may yet meet legal requirement for suffrage in the elections that are to follow during 1933 grows short. After Tuesday of next week those who have failed to comply with statutory stipulation that a poll tax receipt is necessary to vote are to find themselves non-franchised.

It is true that this is one of those "off year" seasons in so far as politics generally are reckoned, but the citizen living within corporate limits of Colorado faces a responsibility that ought to be met. The municipal election in April out of which a mayor, city secretary and three members of the council are to be named should receive sincere participation upon the part of us all. It is nothing aside from the citizen's duty. Pay your poll tax before February 1.

COURTING WITH DANGER

Another menace that should be eliminated, either through parental mandate or municipal law, is the vogue certain small boys have of staging roller skate exhibitions in downtown Colorado. Saturday afternoon during an hour when traffic was heavy, a group of youngsters staged such a show along the sidewalk and street on Walnut between First and Second.

The practice goes beyond that of inviting serious injury to the boys. It is one that presents an element of danger to the pedestrian who might happen to be exercising his privilege of using the sidewalk. It may be your boy. And, under the hand of fate, it may be too late some day to save him from being ground to death under the wheels of a motor car, unless you act now.

And then there is the Colorado deacon who denies charge advanced by his banker that he uses thumb tacks for box supporters.

THE MAN OF COURAGE

That Franklin D. Roosevelt, president-elect, possesses sufficient courage to sustain his convictions, along with a broad conception of avenue through which Americans may be led to better conditions is seen by the Lubbock Avalanche. In the edition for Sunday morning this West Texas newspaper says:

One thing we like about Franklin Roosevelt is the courage of the man; the courage to go ahead in spite of his crippled condition; the courage to forget the past when he was up standing among men; the courage to face realities, which means intellectual as well as physical courage.

Mr. Roosevelt may be no extraordinary man but we have plenty of evidence that physical misfortune often inspires new vitalities and drives one ahead to unusual accomplishments.

The greatest composer in many respects of all was Beethoven. And he was deaf! The greatest composer of anthems—the blind Handel! John Milton—blind! Steinmetz the General Electric wizard—a broken hunchback! Alexander Pope—a cripple! These were men of courage. And Helen Keller—blind, deaf and speechless!

Mr. Roosevelt is very likely none of these but as we look at him, as we think of him advancing to meet his new duties, we believe somehow his physical misfortune will be a greater asset than liability.

Courage! There's the essence of it! What the world needs today is a rebirth of courage—courage with our intellects—to think courageously; courage with our hearts, our wills and our bodies to face every responsibility, even obligation, every handicap and have the nerve to stand, the strain.

So we approach the coming administration firm in the faith that another man of courage will sit in the White House ready and willing to carry on the fight. It is our prediction that we will all know, exactly where this gentleman stands on all questions when he takes office.

As the new year gets under way, business shows a determination to balance budgets and make both ends meet. New retrenchment is anticipated by a number of local business and professional leaders who have remained close observers of our economic fabric.

The district attorney refuses to accept that photographic reproduction of a certain daily newspaper Sunday morning gives him justice, in so far as beauty features are concerned.

Penney Managers Urge Use Papers In Building Trade

A strong argument for newspaper advertising and its results recently was mailed to managers of J. C. Penney Company stores throughout the country from the advertising department at Boston. Store news in the local newspaper is of much greater reader interest than circulars, the article stated. The message follows:

(1) Do you want to be certain of reader interest? Then use the newspapers. Many circulars receive only a glance, while the local newspaper with hundreds of general news items is read thoroughly from first to last page.

(2) Do you want representation in the same "shopping window" as the other merchants of your town use? Then use the local newspaper. Women, the purchasing agents of the home, read newspaper advertising daily, whereas many a circular is tossed into the waste basket without a glance.

(3) Do you want fast action? Then use the newspaper. The ad that you run today, if it contains real merchandise news, will bring immediate results tomorrow. You can receive and sell out a consignment of merchandise with newspaper advertising in less time than it takes to prepare a circular.

(4) Do you want to be recognized as a factor of importance in your community—a real home-town store? If you do, use the newspaper—it undoubtedly is a strong factor in the building of good will and acceptance by the whole town as a good place to trade.

TECHNOCRACY

Technocracy is a new word, not found in Webster's dictionary. We have not heard the last word on it nor will we for a long time. So far nobody knows where it came from or what it means. A wise guy here in town asked us to fill this column on Technocracy, saying he considered us "wise as an owl." Now owl's conversation is not prolix or finely drawn as to accents and emphasis.

It is our purpose to make all familiar with the word, for already its meaning, implications, effects, etc., from the center of a raging controversy. As verbiage it is tough meat and equally so as to theory and a subject for propaganda and economic reform. But writers, economists and politicians are showing a lively inclination to connect it up some way with some kind of machinery. At first we thought the creator of Technocracy was a poor financier. We could but compare his apparent ability as a creator of fiction with Jules Verne and wonder why he failed to capitalize on his creation. Verne capitalized on his story "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea" yet the creator of this new fiction "Technocracy" befuddles the minds of professors.

Technocracy is the mechanistic interpretation of our financial and economic woes. To make it clearer we are told that it is concerned with the theory of energy determinants and in explaining the theory of energy we should be careful to make the definitions no more obscure than the Einstein treatise on relativity. Technocracy paints a direful picture as to what awaits just around the corner. Better inoculate against it after you have read this episculatory trilogy.

Technocracy suggests the dream of an ostrich after a formal dinner in a scrap iron heap. It is a word of terrific mule-power covering a multitude of miscalculations. It does a scientific snake dance right under the hard-boiled brow of Nicholas Murray Butler. It is the great Columbia racket-rax. A flock of dithering young scientists wondered what this great word was all about and finished by giving the world the jitters. They poured into a sausage making machine some Mexican philosophy, Mussolini rantings, single taxidemy, beer by Christmas and it all came out baloney. These mechano-messiahs have equaled in their thinking the intellectual accomplishments of congress in the baloney days of Hoover prosperity. Their American robot age with an engineering Jehovah telling us as the Jehovah decides whether we will eat, drink, be merry or sleep. The scientists have struck a snag because they cannot estimate the horsepower used up in gumchewing, congressional speeches, marathon dances and research work.

Technocracy is both a theory and a proposed new economic political and social regime, a form of rule or government.

Democracy means rule by the people.

Aristocracy by the select.

Autocracy by a power to itself.

Technocracy implies a rule by technology.

The Technocrats claim their theory will revolutionize the world. If they were convertible into fact this would be a world populated by the terrestrial equivalents of the cherubim and seraphim, where our Edenic forefather was turned out of his ideal world he was told to go to work and not go in for theorizing. The kind of world into which Adam was shoved was the kind we have now. The Technocrats have simply applied a new name to an old horse. Bucephalus, the prancing nag, straddled by young Alexander, who was getting ready to be great, no doubt was a noble gelding but it soon learned to stop prancing and just jog along like a regular horse.

So it is with the people who compose the energy quantum of this world. They may in their minds evolve a bi-ased future for all the human family. They may devise in fancy an elysium unfretted by even an ill wind or an icy street. But they can't put it over. Despite all that science and invention and philosophy and poetry can do, the world never ceases to jog along, sometime limping, sometime stumbling, sometime slobbering and never perking up until it comes within nasal range of the feed trough. The only perfect world is that which the righteous will inherit after they quit this one. It is heaven and the reason it is heaven is on account of its unlikeliness to this earth. However for those who do not expect too much of it, this here world is a pretty good one.

Technocracy is the engineering's charting of slide-rule application of the energy resources and industrial production especially with regard to the powers and possibilities of the machine and what will happen when all wastage and lost motion are eliminated. Politicians are studying it earnestly with a view to its application to machine politics. When you learn just what is government by technology then you will know the meaning of technocracy and what it stands for.

Could there be a greater tragedy? To quaff the cup of prosperity, to touch the heights of success, to go over the goal line of life, and to lack—the essential thing, is the supreme tragedy of all.

Many are the postmortems these days over the corpse of prosperity, but after all is said and done we put our fingers on the festering sore when we admit a tragic loss of faith during that period when things were in the saddle.

It is the secret of the untroubled heart as we face the Pilgrimage of 1933.

A friend of ours complained that someone had taken money from his pocket and when we suggested perhaps it was his wife he said, "No, there was some money left."

Geraldine Baze was explaining to art class of small girls and said with a single stroke of a brush, the great artist could change a smiling face into a frowning one when one of the little girls spoke up and said "So can my Ma only she uses a hair-brush."

Texas is so big one man cannot be governor. It takes a man and his wife.

MILLIONS LEARN WONDERS CRAZY WATER CRYSTALS

During the past two years, millions of people have learned the wonders of Crazy Water Crystals by drinking Crazy Mineral Water in their own homes. The demand for Crazy Water Crystals is many times today what it was a year ago, and only the people of America are rapidly coming to realize the merit of Crazy Water Crystals.

For over half a century increasing numbers of people have been drinking Crazy Water for the wonderful benefits they receive. They have learned to drink their way to health. By modern methods the Crazy Water Company now distributes this water throughout the world. In new and up-to-date plants the mineral water is evaporated and the eleven body-building minerals are left. These minerals are known as Crazy Water Crystals. The standard size package of Crazy Water Crystals will reconstitute approximately fifteen gallons of water in your home. It costs only 10 cents per gallon when you use the Crystals to reconstitute the water and this economical price makes it possible for people everywhere to "Drink their way to Health."

60 cents* of every gas bill goes for TAXES

IN the course of a single year, MORE THAN TWO AND THREE-QUARTER MILLION gas bills are rendered to customers of the Lone Star Gas System. It requires 60c for each and every one of these bills to pay the numerous TAXES levied against the fuel service of this dependable System for the production, transportation and distribution of natural gas.

This money comes from the pockets of the gas consumers, and adds to the cost of gas service. The company acts as an agency for the collection of this tax money from its customers, and has no control over this item of expense which is a part of the rate you pay for natural gas.

*The figure computed from the amount of taxes paid compared to the average number of bills rendered in a year.

Old Fashioned Working Bee Is Revived; Seventeen Attend Function Near Hyman

The old fashioned "working bee," having to do with neighbors coming together in the community to mingle work with pleasure, is being revived. At any rate it is apparent that citizens of the Hyman community plan to bring that once popular vogue back into prominence.

Seventeen people attended one of these gatherings held Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews. But the women came not to sew nor the men to husk corn, as in days of yore. They met to attend demonstration showing approved methods for tinning beef.

W. S. Foster, county farm agent, and Miss Emma Gunter, home demonstration agent, were both there "with sleeves rolled up," as one citizen expressed it. Foster supervised cutting up of the carcass while Miss Gunter presided over that work having to do with processing the meat in steam pressure cookers. Each of the agents recommend that method as the most satisfactory and only positively safe method to use for canning meats or other no-acid foods.

Mrs. Andrews who last year was 4-H pantry demonstrator for her club, has her pantry filled to capacity with a variety of choice home grown foods. An account of her achievement was shown in report given Monday, as follows:

111 No. 2 cans filled with roast meats, chuck and rolled, steaks, chili mincemeat, loaf, tongue and heart and 34 cans of No. 3 roasts and steak. According to evaluation of these canned goods, Mrs. Andrews has realized $30 worth of delectable foods from her demonstration work. Deducting value of the animals on foot, cost of cans and other expenses involved, it was estimated that she realized a net profit of $20.

"But the monetary consideration is by no means the important one to be considered," Mrs. Andrews declared. "I have eight children in my home and my paramount consideration lies with them. They require a balanced and well prepared diet such as is provided through these home prepared foods. Cooked meat: save time in preparation as well as supply a more varied menu for the months to come."

"It is hoped this demonstration will be the beginning of such objectives in all communities of the county," Foster stated Tuesday morning. "Such a plan is certainly in keeping with the live at home movement as well as providing the farm home with equivalent of fresh meat the year round."

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lowery, Mrs. T. P. Smallwood, Mrs. Harry Hyman, Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Andrews, W. S. Foster, Miss Emma Gunter, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews and son, Hoyt Andrews.

SPADE FARMER LOSING PIGS THROUGH DISEASE

Losses similar to those reported by Northcutt have occurred near Buford, the county farm agent reported last week.

Fisher Body Borrows Idea From Hollywood to 'Shoot' New Ventilation System in Action

The special "rig" below was devised by Fisher Body Corporation to make possible a pictorial record of the New Fisher No Draft Ventilation System in action. Cameramen standing on the platform 10 feet from the side of the car took pictures with the car in motion at 30, 40, and 50 miles an hour. The stunt was especially valuable as showing the system's effectiveness in the removal of tobacco smoke, which has always been a source of annoyance to non-smokers in cars of conventional type.

how smoke is drawn from the car by the Fisher Ventilation System. How rapid the smoke removal is, may be judged by the fact that these three frames were actually adjacent to each other in the film. A large mouthful of cigar smoke snatched out of the car in a fraction of a second! Efforts to capture the same action with a still camera were less successful. Besides assuring comfort for smokers and non-smokers alike, the Fisher Ventilation System promotes safety for all occupants of the car, since it enables the driver to prevent the clouding of windows and windshield which in ordinary cars impairs driving vision in cold weather.

Greater security and convenience for you. In JANUARY, 1754, George Washington returned to Williamsburg, Va., after bearing a message to the French forts near Lake Erie. He twice faced death; when fired upon by a treacherous Indian guide and when thrown into the icy waters of a river from a raft. The round trip required 78 days. Today a message between these two points can be delivered in a few seconds. The telephone has performed an important service to all of us by speeding up communication. Reduced to simple terms, this means greater security, economy, convenience, leisure for each of us. The better your service, the more valuable it is to you. Eternal vigilance and constant effort are necessary to insure you good telephone service. That is the responsibility of 23,000 men and women of the Southwestern Company. For 1933 they will endeavor to give you telephone service that is courteous, efficient, quick. SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Editorial

Life is a drama composed of three main characters, love, laughter and tears. Whether the drama is to be a tragedy or a melodrama is to be decided by the principal director—character. The decision character will render in the selection of the type of play, tragedy or melodrama, depends upon the influence he allows conscience to have upon him. Now conscience is a good fellow, but if his influence is overlooked entirely, he feels neglected, and if his advice is sought later, his comrades, Pride and Sensibility, refuse to let him give any advice. This refusal of Conscience to part with his sound advice is harmful to the plot, and instead of the drama, Life, being a melodrama (a play with a happy ending), it becomes a tragedy. If the drama of Life is a tragedy, the scene is laid in the dirty back yard of Contempt, and the time is at midnight, with none of the heavy only lights to illumine the occasion. The play is finished at the End of Time with Everlasting Death as its unholy reward. If the drama of Life is a melodrama (and it can easily be if Character and Conscience work together) the scene is laid in the Garden of Happiness; the time is sunrise, with its rose and golden hues reflecting upon the scene in a picturesque manner. The Melodrama of Life ends at the Sunset of Life, and just over the horizon can be seen its reward Everlasting Peace.

The Melodrama of Life ends at the Sunset of Life, and just over the horizon can be seen its reward Everlasting Peace.

High School Band

The "Kid Band" is going to enter another contest in Abilene, next April. The required number for the contest is "Bohemian Girl" by Balfe. The band has been rehearsing every morning during the first period at school on the required number. The band has won the last and only two contests it has ever entered, and is going to do its best to win the next one too. The selected number is "Panorama," arranged by Boas-house. Every rehearsal the band tries to rehearse these two numbers. The "warm-up march has not been chosen yet, but is believed that it will be "Magnolia Blossom."

Since mid-term, the band has regained one of its old members. Clifton Blackard, known as Ax to the band members, has reentered school and also reentered the band. Clifton plays Eb alto and we are glad to have him back in the band.

Senior News

The work on the scrapbook is being continued. The book is modeled on an annual. Many of the cartoons are completed and every afternoon a group of seniors work on it.

A contest for the favorite girl and favorite boy is being carried on. It is not known yet who is leading, as the favorites are to be elected by popular vote and a fill of the seniors have not voted.

Colorado Under Quarantine as The Record For Friday, January 26, 1912, Was Issued

Colorado stood isolated from the outside world as edition of The Record for Friday, January 26, 1912, went to press. After conferences with city and county officials, Dr. T. C. Merrill, county health officer, has issued an order of quarantine against neighboring counties and towns as a means of protecting local citizens against spread of meningitis. Agents along the Texas & Pacific, east and west, were notified by wire to sell no more tickets to Colorado until the quarantine was lifted. Sessions of district court and a revival meeting at First Methodist church were closed following the dine. These boys have already started to fixing the equipment such as brooder houses, yards and brandes. These projects will start soon for both broiler and pullet production.

It Don't Mean a Thing

But the Man at the Keyhole is here again with a bit of twee and a little hi de hi de ho. And who was that good lookin' blonde you were with last night? You son and so! Wait until your wife hears about this! Er, but your wife won't hear about it, if you'll introduce her to the Man at the Keyhole. I don't have much chatter this week because one of my best transoms and keyhole men broke his bicycle last week. Sad, sad, but everything can't be perfect. But I've just about perfected my telephone with no wires for people who don't have telephones anyway.

And Fuzzy Reece says that she feeds her ducks Ivory Soap so they'll float. What do I hear about "ane Axtell and Regal Porter"? You guess. I should do all the talking. Mr. Harold Watson is one lad with no inferiority complex—you should hear the bet he made with a certain boy. Why does Marvin Jackson whisper "Bess" in his sleep?

Porter Richardson, Saturday night, gave the Harvey system a blow by going with Lela Ruth Traylor. Dora immediately bid four spade and made a grand slam by going with George Otis Witten. John Franklin Elliott went with Mable Cooper.

Let's play house—you be the door and I'll slam you. Lida Mae Viles, local heart throb, reminds me of Dixie Dugan.

Thursday night, Prof. Coffman took Lou Bedford to see "Love Me Tonight." Cha cha cha.

Tom J. Goss, fourth estater, has a quaint habit of letting his beard grow after the break-up of each romance. And shaving only when a "new big moment comes on the scene. It may be a romantic gesture but it looks terrible—you'd think Tarzan had escaped.

Basketball

Friday night there were four basketball games, the first being between the Jackrabbits and Spade and was won by the Jackrabbits.

The Colorado girls second team lost to the Spade girls and the first team girls lost to Loraine girls.

The Colorado Wolves again met Sterling City who believed they could beat Colorado but were defeated by the Wolves.

Tuesday night, January 24, the Wolves will play Big Spring again. The Steers just barely beat the Wolves for the final game at the tournament.

The Jackrabbits will play Junior High and the girls will play.

After this an Independent team from town will play the Cosden Oil Refinery team of Big Spring.

Black-Draught Clears Up Suggish Feeling

"I have used Theford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time," writes Mrs. Frank Chamblin, of Wynne, Ark. "If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

general quarantine. The public schools, too were effected by the order.

Reminiscences of the days when old hobbin held full sway are reflected in that issue of The Record twenty one years ago. The editor paid his respects to the fellow who would ride into town on a cold, bleak day and after trying his faithful mount to a post, leave the animal to shiver "all day in the biting wind without a bite to eat while the rider hunkers around a red hot stove telling how the country ought to be run."

Politicians seeking favor for precinct, county and district elective offices were busy that week. The bi-annual political contest had already gotten under way with a large quota of candidates active in the field. Solon Cowan, a member of the city council, had died during the recent past. Resolutions of respect to his memory were adopted by Mayor C. M. Adams and members of the council and some of the fraternal organizations of which he had been a member.

The new high school building had been completed and members of the board of trustees that week closed contract for the purchase of furniture for the building. This building is now known as the junior high school. T. A. (Dick) Robertson, a citizen of Colorado for many years died during that week at Midland. He was a cousin of Mrs. H. C. Landers.

COKE COUNTY RECEIVES RELIEF FUND TOTALING $2,000; PIONEER DIES

ROBERT LEE—Coke county relief committees received $2,000 through the West Texas Chamber of Commerce from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The Coke county singing convention met at Fort Chadbourne Saturday. Many singers and a great crowd was present. Everyone was expected to bring a well-filled basket for the dinner to be spread at noon.

John S. Ritchburg of the Edith community died of pneumonia at his home last week; funeral services being conducted at Edith by the Rev. J. W. Leggett of Robert Lee. Pallbearers were Robert Williams, Tom Coker, Sam Duncan, Artell Roberts, Leslie Walker and the Rev. D. K. Smith. The widow and a number of other relatives survive.

B. M. Gramling, superintendent of the Robert Lee high school, is expected home this week from the Shannon Memorial Hospital at San Angelo.

E. L. Sparks of this city was called to Midland last week because of the serious illness of his father, S. J. Sparks, with influenza and pneumonia.

The Rev. B. B. Edmiston, former pastor of the Methodist church here and now of Hutto, was a visitor here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oddie Collins of Big Spring and Mrs. Mamie Hall of Stanton were here over the week-end visiting friends and relatives.
