DR. HAMBLIN TO CLOSE REVIVAL CAMPAIGN SUNDAY

REPENTANCE MUST COME OR WAY OF THE DOOMED SHALL BE MAN'S REWARD

M. E. Revival Speaker Takes Issue With 'Double Life' Members

True repentance must overcome the heart of man and he must place himself without reservation at the feet of the Master or else go the way of the doomed, Dr. Hamblin outlined in his sermon addressed at First Methodist revival Wednesday evening. He spoke from the text found in Luke, "Except ye repent ye shall likewise perish."

The man who is leading a double life—"and no doubt there are several in this town," he said, "is not going to get away with that thing. People have a way of finding out many of the sins believed by the doer to be hidden. There is not one of these men but who if he would set down and give God his thoughts for a short time would be brought into repentance. It will pay any man to give God a chance." Dr. Hamblin stated Wednesday night that the revival was successful in many respects. At that time a total of twenty seven conversions and recommitments had resulted. He expressed hope that many others might yet be brought under deep conviction through influences of the services.

He assailed that sort of passive Christianity that usually ends in the "convert" signing a card. Death bed conversions came in for question at hands of the speaker also. "I have seen too many people overcome with fright when they came face to face with death and later when they had recovered forgot all about God and the promises they had made while lingering near the passing."

One of the most impressive services of the week was held Wednesday morning when the aged people were called upon to take part in an old fashioned testimony meeting. Several men and women, some of whom have been active in the church for more than fifty years, spoke of their religious experiences.

Dr. Hamblin expects to speak from the subject "Sowing and Reaping" Thursday night. He has announced no other sermon subjects during remainder of the meeting.

PARTISAN POLITICS BACK OF ATTEMPT TO CRIPPLE TEXAS TECH, RIX CLAIMS

West Texas Institution May Be Curtailed Unless The People Act

That partisan politics are responsible for attempt to cripple Texas Technological College at Lubbock was charged here Monday by W. W. Rix of Lubbock who spent several hours in Colorado conferring with chamber of commerce officials as to plans that should be sponsored to save the institution.

"Every member of the legislature in West Texas is in favor of continuing State support to this great institution, but we are up against some hard competition when it comes to some of the others down at Austin," Rix declared. Mr. Rix stated that within a circle of 200 miles there was only two State supported institutions of higher education. One was the Lubbock school and the other the Teachers Normal School at Canyon.

"Within a circle of the same size surrounding A. & M. we find a total of twelve of these schools," he said. Figures were shown by Rix to show that West Texas pays in a larger percent of school taxes but receives in return from the State a small percentage of benefits. "If fact," he said, "we receive one fifth of this State fund and East Texas receives four fifths of the total."

The cost per student attending Tech is lower than the average of such schools in this and other States of America, Rix pointed out. Out of 62 schools of similar enrollment in America, there are only three having a lower per student cost. Enrollment in Tech has now exceeded that of A. & M. College, the Lubbock man charged, with the legislature and meddling politicians clamoring for budget appropriation of several times more to A. & M. than the Lubbock school.

'A LEADER SHOULD KNOW WHERE HE IS GOING,' DR. HAMBLIN TELLS TEACHERS

Sweetwater Pastor Speaks Before Sunday School Workers Meeting

The successful leader must know just where he is going, and certainly this fact applies with strong import to the Sunday school teacher, Dr. J. H. Hamblin, pastor of First Methodist church, Sweetwater, declared in an address delivered Sunday afternoon before meeting of Sunday school teachers in Colorado. Officials and teachers from practically every one of the ten Sunday schools in town were present.

The speaker quoted a text from David, as given in the 126th Psalm, "He that soweth in tears shall reap in joy." The functions of a Sunday school teacher are not altogether matters of methods, but they should know God," he said. "We need in our trained leadership today men and women who make the Bible their text book and a life of consecrated service their contribution to the task."

"No honest, good effort is ever lost. What ought to be done can be done. Declare the truth of God with a Holy zeal and a passion for souls. The man or woman who determines to do those things the church expects them to do will see results. When harvest time arrives they will come rejoicing, bringing with them sheaves of the harvest."

The meeting was presided over by W. W. Porter, president of the Mitchell County Sunday School association. The meeting was opened by a song, after which the invocation was offered by Rev. J. M. Shuford. An interesting feature of the meeting was singing by a group of negroes, representing one of Colorado colored church organizations. Dr. C. L. Root gave a vocal solo.

Four generations of Sunday school attendants were presented by Mr. Porter. Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Arnett, their daughter, Mrs. J. G. Merritt, their grandsons, sons of Mrs. Merritt, and their great granddaughter, Little Miss Dana Marie Merritt.

The First Baptist Church

Word comes to us here in Fort Worth that we had an increase in the Sunday school attendance of nearly a hundred over the Sunday before. This is very encouraging.

How heartening it is to a pastor to have folks who are just as loyal, or even more so, in his absence as when he is present. I want you to know that I very deeply appreciate this manifestation of your loyalty to the program of the church. We are having a very fine meeting and greatly enjoying the fellowship of Brother Reid and his church folks.

But we confess to a little homesickness and a growing desire to be back home. We are very grateful to you who have been so thoughtful and helpful while the boys have been sick in my absence. My wife writes me that you have been wonderful and we appreciate it and love you all the more. We assure you that it is not easy to stay away from home and preach to others when your own family are sick and needing you.

We plan to return to Colorado on the day train Saturday and be in the services there Sunday. Let each department leader see to it that his department is worked for attendance at Sunday school and B. T. S. We are looking forward to a high day. The subject for the Sunday morning message will be, using a current newspaper phrase, "The New Deal." The public is invited to worship with us in all our services.

MOVIES

Not only is Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson's "Congorilla," coming to the Palace Theatre, Thursday and Friday, positively the first and only talking picture made entirely in the African Jungles, but not a single scene is staged; it is all actual and real. You will see and hear wild ferocious animals in deadly combat and you will see and hear pygmies and other natives of Africa actually as they are. It took two long, hard life-risking years to film this picture.

Owing to the historical value of the "Big Stampede", coming to the Palace Saturday and the glamour surrounding the colonization of New Mexico with its attendant lawlessness, the picture is expected to be received with more than usual interest by Saturday patrons. John Wayne takes the leading role and is supported by Noah Beery and Mae Madison. "Duke", Wayne's miracle horse, displays some startling tricks in the picture.

Oh, will Ely Culbertson's face be red when he sees this gorgeously funny satire on bridge and bridge experts! Paul Lukas, Loretta Young and Helen Vinson take the leading roles. Paul Lukas is a Russian waiter, and Loretta Young is the check girl. The fun begins when Helen Vinson—a society dame, has him sent to her home to play bridge according to his remarkable new system—and is his system of bridge playing new? Frank McHugh and Ferdinand Gottschalk are in the supporting cast. This picture comes to the Palace Theatre immediately upon its release, Saturday, March 18th at Midnight. As a special added attraction we are running with this picture "Dinah" featuring the four Mills Brothers.

One of the strangest and most fascinating romances ever told is the theme of "One Way Passage" coming to the Palace Theatre Sunday and Monday, March 19 and 20, co-starring William Powell and Kay Francis. Most of the action is laid on an ocean liner, where the two ill-fated lovers meet for the first time. William Powell portrays Dan Hardesty, a debonair criminal while Kay Francis portrays Joan Ames, ready to give up life itself for a month of perfect happiness, while the steamer pursues its way across the Pacific.

"War Correspondent" showing at the Palace Theatre on the regular Bargain Nights, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 21 and 22, contains plenty of action and a large portion of melodrama. The story centers around a war correspondent and his pal an American who is a he-man "Ace" in the Chinese army, and the Ace's sweetheart who falls in love with the war correspondent. Jack Holt, Ralph Graves, and Lila Lee take the leading roles.

He was a hit-and-run lover, a reckless man-sized attraction—women fought for him—but personally he preferred a cigarette to any dame! Such is Clark Gable's role in "No Man of Her Own" coming to the Palace, Thursday and Friday, March 23 and 24. You'll want to see Clark Gable as the hard, cold gambler, who has a warm spot in his heart for one type of woman. And you'll want to see Carole Lombard and Dorothy Mackall as the women who battle for his love.

Colorado, Sweetwater And Big Spring Bars Disagree As To Proposed Changes

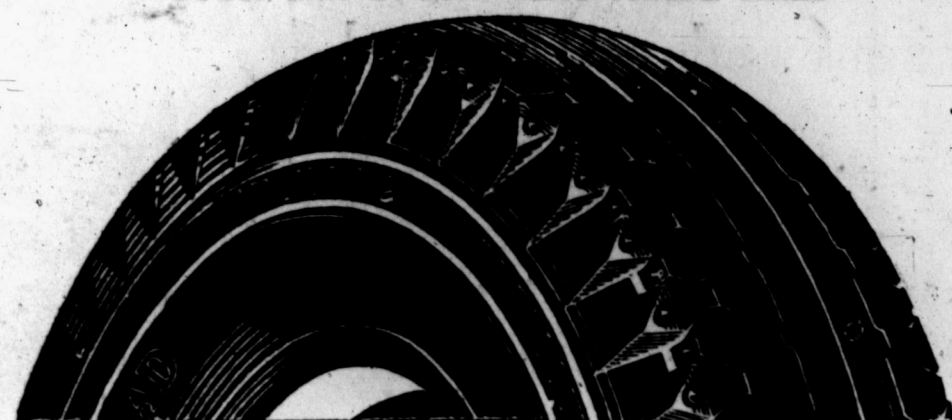

BIG SPRING—Three plans for realignment of time to counties in the thirty-second judicial district of Texas are incorporated in as many bills introduced in the legislature. The first plan introduced was by Clyde R. Thomas, local attorney. It called for adding Howard county to the 70th judicial district, and leaving it also in the 82nd district, thus allowing a total of 24 weeks court time annually. It also called for taking Andrews county from the 70th district and placing it in the 109th district.

MONDAY, MARCH 20TH—TRADES DAY

It is understood that the backing of the Sweetwater bar. It would take Howard completely out of the 82nd district, leaving it to be composed of Mitchell, Borden, Nolan and Scurry counties. This county would be made a part of the 70th district, and one county of that district placed in the 109th district. Howard would, by provision of the plan, have 22 weeks court time annually. Reports from Midland and Odessa are that attorneys usually oppose all these 32nd district boundary business that the district combined. alone has great importance that is by Judge Charles L. Hildred. A. S. Hildred is presiding judge of the 32nd district.

Miss Gunter Offers Timely Suggestions On The Home Garden And Canning Foods

Miss Emma Gunter, Mitchell county demonstration agent, contributes the following timely suggestions on home gardens and canning demonstrations for information of readers of this newspaper:

Everyday, as per chance a person goes about they will see a man or a woman—yes sometimes the entire family—planting a garden. What does this signify? To some it means new hopes, new ambitions and aspirations. This form or work of recreation, be it large or small is well worth its cost in dollars and cents. For to the nerve worn housewife it means direct contact with nature that helps her to recuperate in the open air and sunshine. Not only this but it gives her plans for future.

Club women of the county are in tune with the season and with their plans at hand are planning another years food conservation program. In the adult clubs they are planning canning budgets and are working on menu files so as to be ready for their job when production begins. A canning budget is a working plan by which the housewife can check her canning as she goes along as to its adequacy for more efficient meals for the winter months. Not only are the club women working on this type of program but there are girls who are demonstrators in their individual clubs who are to help with this in their home also.

Just what vegetable seeds are we to entrust to the soil at this time? From our horticulturist in Extension Service at Texas A. & M. College comes this information:

| Plant | Varieties | Time |
|--|-----------|-------|
| Beans—Pinto and Refugee | March | 15-30 |
| Beets—Detroit Dark Red | 15 | |
| Lettuce—Iceberg | 15 | |
| Peas (English) Early Alaska | 15 | |
| Thomas Laxton | 15 | |
| Potatoes (Irish) Bliss Triumph | 15 | |
| Irish Cobbler | 15 | |
| Radish—Scarlet Globe | 15 | |
| Swiss Chard | 15 | |
| Mustard—Southern Curled | 15 | |
| New Zealand Spinach March & April | 15 | |
| Asparagus—Palmetto In March set out crowns or plant seeds. | Same | |
| Conover's Colossal | Same | |

If you have asparagus already in a bed be sure to cultivate liberally and fertilize well, for asparagus is a gross feeder and requires a loose rich soil for best development of its tender tips. In fact it should be cultivated throughout the entire growing season up until Fall or until the rains begin.

So plan now for your family garden to furnish you a complete supply of fresh vegetables as well as enough for canning.

All meat canning demonstration must be completed by March 30, due to ruling from the office of Extension Service. Exceptions have been given in the past but the following notice will show why the meat should be done during the cold months from October 1st through March 30th. This offers good enough opportunity for every part of the county to have some assistance along this line of canning. Our specialist at A. & M. College Extension Service have given some time and thought to the conditions regarding the canning of meat in the warm months and the following is quoted from them:

1. Sanitation: The canning of meat in hot weather is not like the canning of vegetables. The meat must lose the animal heat, before canning and it is this longer period of cooling which causes much danger from spoilage. During this interval the meat is often exposed to flies and dust. Both flies and dust hasten spoilage.

2. Heat: Lack of cold storage facilities increases danger of spoilage. Even the large refrigerator on the farms are not sufficiently cool to prevent some slight spoilage in a 24 hour period.

3. Cooling: Cooling of meats vegetables is more difficult in the warm weather. This is especially true of roast, sausage, ground meat (in solid packs), corn and greens. When water and outside temperature are high, several changes of very cool water are necessary to cool the can thoroughly. This prevents danger from spoilage and over cooking.

3. Cooling: Cooling meats and stored in a cool dry place. A temperature from 50-70 degrees is considered best. In some farm homes there is no available spot for storage which runs lower than 98 degrees in the daytime during the months of July, August and September. Cool and well ventilated cellars are best during these months for storage of meats and non acid vegetables. We must take every precaution to secure high quality, well flavored, nutritious products and to avoid loss of canned products.

DENISON DENIED BERTH ON HIGHWAY BOARD BY AUSTIN COURT DECREE

Farmer Jim has lost another round with the Texas senate.

District Judge J. D. Moore Monday ruled that Frank L. Denison was not a member of the State highway commission due to fact the Senate journal record stated that the Ferguson appointee was "not confirmed as a member" when his name came up for confirmation or rejection by that body.

Jimmie Allred, attorney general, presented the journal in court as evidence that Denison had no legal claim to membership on the commission. The man, a Temple banker and road building contractor, had been rejected for the second consecutive time by members of the senate.

NO QUARTER PROMISED LION NOT PLANNING TO ATTEND AMARILLO MEET

President Joe Pond of the Lions Club will consider no quarter for the member who may elect to not attend annual convention of District 2-T in Amarillo April 17-18. "We are going after the next district convention and propose to take every Colorado Lion to Amarillo to assist us in accomplishing that distinction for our club and city," is the program announced by the club president.

Some members of the local service club have advanced suggestion that a bus be chartered for the convention trip. In event this is done short "whoop-ee" programs may be given by the group enroute.

SEVEN WELLS NEWS NOTES

Rev. Klingman, pastor of the Christian church in Colorado, addressed us yesterday on Hindrances and Highways to Happiness.

We have transcribed to our note books the diagram he left us on the board, with the scriptural references he gave us.

We are studying Japan and the countries connected with her in our interests at this time, which makes doubly interesting the fact that Rev. Klingman is to visit school and address us on "Habits and Customs of the Japanese." We are looking forward eagerly to his visit. We appreciate the interest these ministers from Colorado are showing in us to come. We deem it a great privilege to hear them. Rev. Harvey will preach for us next Sunday.

As the guests arrived punch was served by Miss Julia Tartt, registration in the "Brides Book" was presided over by Mrs. L. L. Comer.

The large living room was soon crowded with Mamie's friends. A program was then rendered by the young folks. First on program was a reading by Miss Ruby Martin.

Song—Inez Mayes and Mrs. Woodrow Pratt. Reading by Richard Looby. Mrs. R. E. Bennett then toasted the bride in a very clever manner.

Lee Dorn gave a toast to the groom and Miss Julia Tartt a toast to the "girls left behind."

The girls of the Fidelis Sunday school class each had a little slip of paper in their hands bearing the whereabouts of various gifts for the bride hidden in Mrs. Coon's house.

Each read their little notes in search of the bride who at once started in search of the gifts. She had to be assisted in collecting them as it was too big a load for one. The gifts were admired by all and Mamie said to be "mighty lucky" in receiving on among as large showers as has ever been given in Loraine.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. May and daughter Lucile, Mrs. Lee Dorn and Mrs. Darrell Smith of Colorado.

Methodist Church Notes—

Due to sickness Sunday school attendance was a little off Sunday.

We hope everyone will soon be well and back in their usual place.

Morning and evening preaching services were well attended. Bro. Harrell's text for the morning hour was the 14th verse of the 2nd chapter of Titus.

The first verse of the chapter warns Titus to "speak the things which become sound doctrine" likewise being an example for us to follow.

Mr. L. L. Jarratt and T. M. Mahon added much with cornets to the music at the morning service.

Mr. J. M. Bruce and Miss Fanny Jarratt gave a special number enjoyed by all.

Romans 6th chapter and 23rd verse was the selected text for the evening hour. "For the wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Will we accept the wonderful gift God has for us or will we go on in sin listening to Satan's offerings, if we will do as he wishes.

League was well attended. Prayer meeting is held every Wednesday night at 7:30.

Gleaners S. S. Class—

The Gleaners S. S. Class met in the home of Mrs. Earnest Meadows with Mesdames John Mahon and Jim Manley as joint hostesses.

The class was opened with the class song "Bless be the tie that binds." Prayer by Mrs. Mathis. The devotional was led by Mrs. Bill Honea reading Proverbs 23:2-32 and Isaiah 28:1-4.

The class has been doing fine work this month. It reported 71 visits, 35 trays and 2 bouquets to the sick.

After all business was over we were dismissed in prayer led by Mrs. J. E. Harrell. It was then turned over to the hostesses. Several interesting games were played. Refreshments of cake, jello, whipped cream and iced lemonade were served to 20 members and 2 visitors.

Our next meeting will be April 10 at 3 o'clock with Mesdames Henry, Frank, Chester Beights and Earl Brown with Mrs. T. R. Bennett to lead the devotional. We extend a cordial welcome to all strangers who are in town that are not attending Sunday school at some other church to come and to all our members who have not been attending we urge you to come. Let's make our class at 100 percent class and school.

Elevians—

Last Sunday twelve of the Elevians were in Sunday school. The lesson was an interesting one concerning the children of Israel leaving the land of Egypt.

'Don't's' Issued By Texas Electric For Benefit Small Boys

With the approach of kite flying season, officials of the Texas Electric Service Company have issued several "don'ts" for kite flying youngsters and have asked parents to impress on their boys the danger that are present when kites are flown near electric wires.

Don't fly kites near electric wires. Don't climb poles or use long sticks to disentangle kites from wires. Call the company and a lineman will be sent out to remove the kite.

Don't fly kites with metal wire instead of string. This extremely dangerous if the wire string should fall across an electric power line.

Don't fly kites with metal frames, or with wood frames braced with wire.

Don't fly kites in the rain. Wet string is almost as dangerous as a metal string for conducting electricity.

Employees of the electric company will visit local schools within the next few days with a further explanation of the hazards of kite flying.

Valley View Visits

By the time this clause is discovered, Dare has only two days left to find a wife. His lawyer is a fixer, however, and at times to arrange things, but because of the dodging through the matrimonial bureau, things are made the more complicated.

The comical situations and continuous comedy of the two darbies would make a horse laugh.

Cast of Characters—Simon P. Chase—As black as his race—Earl Brown. James J. Dare—A wifeless heir—H. P. Powers.

Ruford B. Sawyer—A timid lawyer—Elmer Johnson. Emily Jane Pink—Blacker than ink—Mrs. Earl Brown.

Demonstrator's Named By Rural Women's Clubs To Lead In Annual Home Projects

Appointment of several club demonstrators have been made by rural club women working under direction of the home demonstration agent. These leaders will be looked to for accuracy of club records and later inform the public as to progress made by their respective clubs during the year.

Two bedroom demonstrators are listed in the appointments reported this week. They are Mrs. J. T. Vest of the Plainview club and Mrs. Carl Lowery of the Hyman club. Both of these women have already outlined program through which demonstration bedrooms are to be improved.

Mrs. Vest has a well appointed bedroom on second floor of their home. It has west, south and east exposure and is comfortably furnished. After scoring the room it charges for the entire program. The proceeds of this performance are to be applied to the school library.

Kinney of the Iatan Club will act as 4-H pantry demonstrator there. She possesses her own canner and sealer.

Beginning on April 1 the club wardrobe demonstrators are to begin their work. The following demonstrators have been chosen:

Mrs. Jones, class No. 1 and Meses Roy Davis Coles and T. P. Smallwood, class No. 2, of the Hyman club.

Mrs. Perry VanZandt of the Spade club and Mrs. Tom Daughtery of the Plainview club.

WELLS WILL TOUR HIAWATHA COUNTRY

Interesting word pictures of present day vacation settings, as well as historical scenes in Michigan and Wisconsin will be offered radio fans next Wednesday night, March 22, by Carveth Wells, well-known world traveler, in his regular broadcast for Continental Oil Company.

The names of old French-Canadian explorers, such as Pere Marquette and Louis Joliet find an important place in the descriptions. In fact, Wells conjures up a ghostly voice, said to resemble that of Joliet, to tell about the adventures of his exploring party in 1673.

The Conoco program may be heard by local listeners who tune in on Station WFAA, Wednesday night at 9:30 o'clock.

Maintain Stable Financial Standing Of The Schools, Is Urge Of County Board

At a meeting of the County Board Monday, the following recommendations were made to the Common School Districts of Mitchell County. Your County School Board wants to be understood at the outset that we do not assume the attitude of dictating to you as to how your school shall be operated. We come to you in an advisory capacity and offer our suggestions, after making a study of the financial affairs of the schools. We realize that the existing conditions are temporary, and we hope, of not long duration. Regardless of length of time required to re-establish our financial affairs we must not lose sight of the future.

mother, who has a child in Fairview school has a special invitation to these meetings. Visitors are always welcome.

Members of the P.T.A. have begun practice on their annual play to be presented sometime in April, proceeds to go to the P.T.A. Don't fail to see Doc Simpson in "Two Days to Marry." Watch this column for date.

From this time on the Fairview Singing Class will have a special program on each second Sunday night. This is an open date at all neighboring churches and we want your cooperation in making these special programs a success.

Each class will take their turn in preparing something for these singings. Last Sunday night a very interesting program was given by the young peoples class. There were several class songs and several readings. Miss Fae Reasor and Mrs. Carl Echols sang a couple of concert selections and Mr. J. C. Womack arranged a quartet that was enjoyed by all. We were very glad to have Mr. John Edwards of Cuthbert and several of his music pupils and enjoyed their instrumental selections. A short play entitled "Anybody's Family on Sunday Morning" was very humorous and entertaining and those who had the opportunity to see it might apply it to their own families, consequently we would have larger attendance at our Sunday school on Sunday afternoons.

of our system. In practically all cases where financial embarrassments are confronting the schools, delinquent taxes is at the source of trouble. These taxes will probably be paid some time in the future. When we deal with the future, however, we are dealing in pure speculation.

We must not lose sight of the fact that the legislature has power to remit delinquent taxes and such course is not at all impossible, some time in the future. We believe that to sacrifice now will no doubt react to our benefit in the future. The financial standing, solvency and ability to pay at we go is the chief requisite of any government or subdivision thereof. Your respective school stands alone in its dealing with the business world.

In view of the above statements we recommend the following:
1. That the interest and sinking funds or annual maturities be met first, to do so will maintain the credit of your school in the commercial world. Behind those bonds is the faith and credit of your community.
2. We further recommend that the issuance of script on future collections be curtailed to the minimum, each school acting in accordance with its financial affairs. Emergencies must be met. The president of the U. S. has caused all the banks in America to close to meet or rather avert a national crisis. You in your respective communities are at the wheel and the future of your school probably will depend upon the careful and thoughtful consideration given to its affairs now.
We must place the whole good of our government above self and look in a broad sense toward the future. Though it means sacrifice, inconvenience, and financial loss. This as said before is true of any and all divisions of our government.

Initial 'Third Monday' Trades Day Plans Complete

ATTRACTION HERE MONDAY EXPECTED TO BRING MANY RURAL CITIZENS TO TOWN

Swapping Arena Located On Vacant Lots South of The Court House

Monday will be a big day for citizens of the Colorado territory, especially for those having anything of any description or value they might be interested in trading for something else. The county's initial "Third Monday" trades day will be in full swing.

The event is being sponsored by the Trades Extension department of the chamber of commerce as the medium through which farmers, ranchers and other citizens may swap plows, automobiles, milk cows, mules, horses, grain, planting seed or any other commodity for something else. Several of these citizens have announced their intention of being present with "their trading clothes on."

The invitation to attend is extended to every citizen of this area, J. W. Randle, chairman of the department, announced Wednesday morning. Randle stated that the swapping arena would be located on vacant lots near the court house and that every visitor would be made to feel welcome to Colorado. Other members of the Trade Extension department are J. Ralph Lee and A. C. Connell.

Merchants are extending cooperation to the trades day program by joining with the chamber of commerce in strong urge that the public attend. Every store and shop in town will maintain "open house" throughout the day and extend every courtesy to visitors. The stores, incidentally, will be offering some attractive bargains and since it is generally accepted that prices on practically every commercial commodity is due for an advance, now would be a good time to purchase supplies.

S. O. Wulfjen, well known auctioneer, will be present through the day to offer his services in selling any commodity at auction. In the event you do not negotiate a satisfactory trade, you will have this opportunity for disposing of your trades day offering for cash. Water for stock and other needs will be provided on the grounds. Every other convenience looking to both livestock and the public will be provided.

MOST MEN ARE ONE JUMP AHEAD OF THE WOMEN

Even though we say it "as shouldn't"

HERE'S WHY. We don't know of a man who would spend hours of time and energy doing the family washing, growing old and worn out in the bargain.

Yes, there ARE women who do the family washing!

Now, we ask you, aren't the men one jump ahead of the women?

Of course this doesn't apply to the thousands of modern women who use our Laundry Service

WATER TURNED INTO BIG DITCHES ON MODEL FARM OWNED BY H. L. LOCKHART

Pump Lifting 5,000 Gallons Water Per Minute; 400 Acres In Project

After a test run last week the model irrigation plant on H. L. Lockhart farm twenty miles south-west from Colorado was placed in operation Tuesday of this week. The project is said to be one of the most elaborate and complete in detail to be found in this part of the State.

Water for the project is taken from lake formed along channel of Hackberry Creek. A large solid concrete dam backs water up the channel for more than a mile and affords adequate supply to irrigate the 400 acres included in the project.

Water is taken from the lake by a centrifugal pump capable of lifting 5,000 gallons per minute. The water is pumped into large concrete reservoir and from there turned into two 12 1/2 inch and one five inch main for distribution at various points about the farm. From the pipe lines water is conveyed in ditches where desired.

Mr. Lockhart returned here Saturday from his home at Dallas and during this week has been personally directing operations at the farm. He expresses himself as well pleased with the system in all respects.

Installation of an electrical generating plant, to be operated by turbine power is being considered by Mr. Lockhart. He stated the other day that water flowing over top of the dam would supply sufficient power to operate such a plant. Should this project be built, Lockhart will string electric lights about the farm as an adjunct to night irrigation and also for lighting farm buildings, operating refrigerators and small motors, etc.

"I have spent a considerable sum of money here, but have no regrets," Lockhart stated Sunday while showing a member of The Record's staff about the farm. "I do not see why such a project should not pay here. Irrigation has been proven successful in other parts of Texas and certainly it should be true as to this county."

Terracing Proves Material Asset To All Phases Of Farming, Land Owners Report

Terraced farm lands are actually improved in value from 25 to 40 percent in the way of greater crop production and at the same time insured against destructive soil erosion, forty six Mitchell county farmers have said in answer to questionnaires mailed them by the county farm agent. W. S. Foster, agent stated Monday that out of 48 terracing questionnaires sent out from his office a total of 46 had been returned.

Farm lands were increased in actual value to the amount of $534 an acre, comparison of these added values as given by fifteen of the land owners show. The computations were based on a period of five years.

One of the farmers said the difference realized over a period of ten years will represent enough saving to purchase another farm of the same acreage. Another stated that terracing will double value of the farm within five years. Some stated that terraces had added twenty five percent to value of the land others 33 1-3 percent and one farmer declared the amount would reach forty percent.

Thirty two of the forty six farmers answering the questionnaire stated that estimated yield increase was from five to thirty three percent. The average as estimated by the 32 men was given at 16.3 percent. Two reported an increase but made no estimate and another said that his terraced land was producing 125 pounds more seed cotton than under the old order of things.

Only twenty farmers answered the question as to whether they preferred level or fall terraces. Sixteen preferred the level terrace and four expressed preference for those having fall to carry flood water away.

Thirty five men reported that since terracing their land they had done less replanting than ever before. Four stated they experienced no less replanting and four stated they had observed no difference. Forty three of the number reporting stated ditches and washes in the field were gradually filling in since terraces had been constructed.

Among statements given by these land owners, the following are of strong interest:

R. P. Price, Colorado—600 acres terraced on water level. Terraces help prevent sand blowing and there is less replanting. In holding soil and water the terraces increase land value 33 1-3 percent.

H. L. Baker of Longfellow—Cannot state value of terraces unless had some land of same nature un-terraced. I would not have my terraces torn down at all.

J. W. Costin of Westbrook—Hay and other factors of the elements have damaged my crops since terracing and I do not know just how much value the terraces have been. But you may tell the world that I am going to finish terracing both my places as soon as possible.

L. J. Howell of Plainview—The only disadvantage of the terrace is short rows, but I had rather plow in short rows than have all my land washed away.

M. P. Chambers of Spade—I have had terraces six years and would not be without them. I value my land at $40 an acre. Within five years, without the terrace, my farm would be almost worthless due to washing.

J. W. Bird of Westbrook—I would be difficult for me to give an accurate figure as to what terraces are worth, but I would not be without them since I have observed the results.

Bob Northcutt of Spade—Value of terraces in holding soil and increasing crop yield will, on land subject to washing, amount to a sum sufficient to purchase a farm of same number of acres.

Curtis Rogers of Buford—Terraces are worth much and there is much satisfaction in farming my place since the terraces were built. I would not think of owning a farm without terracing.

J. V. Dickson of Bauman—This place does not have any terraces but the rows are contoured. Ever crooked rows are more advantageous than straight ones, because they aid in preserving moisture.

F. L. Andrews of Hyman—I harvested 33 bales of cotton from the same acreage that before terracing produced from 25 to 2 bales. My terraces are not as good as they should be but I do not intend to do away with them.

H. A. Beights of Loraine—Terraces increase the yield to a certain extent. Their value is the worth of the land.

S. E. Hallmark of Loraine—I think the big advantage is in keeping the land from washing away.

J. N. Burk of Looney—Have had terraces eight years. They increase the crop yield, but I do not have any records to show how much.

F. P. Roney of Looney—I have not had terraces long enough to give fair account of the difference, but there is no question the terrace is worth all it costs.

W. L. Hamilton of Valley View—Terraces aid in holding sand. My ditches are filling up. I prefer level terraces on level land and fall terraces on steep slopes. The short rows are bad but one soon becomes accustomed to them.

D. R. Smith of Silver—Terraces are profitable on most lands except level fields where the water does not run much. Poorly kept terraces are a hindrance.

H. L. Harrell of Loraine—Last year on account of so much rain my yield would have been greater without terraces. However my soil losses without the terrace would have been very heavy. During other years since my land was terraced my cotton yield increased 100 pounds seed cotton and maize 200 pounds per acre. Sheet washing has practically been eliminated on my place by the terrace.

J. S. Franklin of Buford—Estimate the increased yield at 10 percent. Terraced land is some harder to work but they prevent soil from washing away.

J. A. Conaway of Conaway—In 1929 feed on terraced land made fairly good. On unterraced land I burned up.

J. N. Caloway of Westbrook—I am not bothered with sandblowing any more and do not have to replant much.

A. V. Blassingame of Shepherd—Terraces save horsepower, due to fact the team is walking on a level all the time.

E. B. Hale of Loraine—Cotton and maize yields increased an average of 200 pounds to the acre due to terraces.

S. E. Meadows of Bauman—Have had terraces seven years. They aid some in controlling sand and help in filling ditches.

D. P. Smith of Longfellow—Terrace your land, save your soil and grow better crops with less work and before ditches get started. Estimate terraces increase yield one third.

H. U. Salley of Spade—I do not like the short rows but there is no occasion in allowing your soil to wash away just because you do not prefer to put yourself to a little extra trouble.

O. H. Thompson of Westbrook—Estimate the yield increase at 14 percent. Help to stop sand and fill up washes.

W. T. Brooks of Westbrook—One of the biggest advantages of terracing is that it checks the sand. I have a 20-acre piece of sandy land that blew out every year for four years before I terraced. I have not lost a crop on this land since terracing.

R. D. Buchanan of Colorado—Have both fall and level terraces. Like the level terrace best. Ditches are partly filled. I have not completed my terracing but from observation estimate increase in yield at 20 percent.

Tracy Cook of Colorado—Have terraces five and seven years old. Have both fall and level terraces but prefer the latter. Prevents soil washing and keeps the sand down to a certain extent.

J. C. Cook of Colorado—Have had terraces seven years. Have both the fall and level terrace lines and prefer the fall terraces. There is a slight increase in yield from terraced land and my washes have filled up some.

Leonard Young of Carr—Terraces increase the yield about ten

Trade In Your Worn Tires for Safe Gripping Non-Skid Firestone Tires

LIBERAL trade-in allowance—now on all Firestone High Speed and Heavy Duty Tires!

Why take a chance on worn, smooth, uncertain tires when you can buy Firestone non-skid safe, proven tires at lowest prices.

Firestone Tires are designed to grip the road. The non-skid tread is thick, tough and gives 25% longer non-skid safety.

Glen Schultz only last month set a new world's record in climbing Pike's Peak, in 16 min. 47 sec. His top speed was 78 miles per hour—negotiating many hair-raising turns where a skid or a tire failure meant death.

It's that kind of stamina that makes Firestone Tires safe and economical for you.

That's why race drivers use Firestone Tires. They won't risk their lives on any other make.

No tire in the world has the Firestone endurance. That is because Gum-Dipping, the patented Firestone process, transforms the cotton cords into tough, sinewy units. It means that the liquid rubber penetrates every cord and coats every fiber, assuring protection against internal heat. Two Extra Gum-Dipped Cord Plies under the Tread, give 56% stronger bond between tread and cord body.

Don't buy cheap tires that are only made to sell. Don't risk your life on wet, slippery pavements these October days—Use the same precaution race drivers use. Trade in your old tires—We will give you a liberal allowance on Firestone Tires—the safest tires in the world.

Editorial—
 Where will this craze for the jig-saw puzzle end? Everywhere we go someone is breaking a back leaning over a table in order to add their ideas of fitting a piece into that unfinished puzzle.

Everyone says, "What is going to happen to this younger generation?" notice you will find grandmothers and great grandfathers as well as youngsters occupying themselves with the present day recreation, jig-saw puzzles.

However, there is an advantage to everything. In case someone is run over by a train, a jig-saw puzzle fiend would be a great help.

Senior News

The Senior Class is especially proud of the new scenery constructed by Mr. Coffman and Mr. Crosslin, with the help of several high school boys. This added a great deal to their play "Safety First," which was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. Various members of the audience expressed the opinion that it was one of the best plays ever presented by amateurs in this auditorium. All of which is a warning to the other classes in the class play tournament in April.

Tuesday morning the Seniors passed one more mile post along the road to graduation—that was the sign—ures to be engraved on the diplomas.

Home Economics News

The Home Economics II Girls are still working on Fireside Suppers. During the week, Maxine Conway, Maurine Whitaker, Juanita Rees and Fay Montes will serve their suppers.

The doll dresses made from the material bought from Kirschbaum Dry Goods Store will be on display at that store during this week.

Golf Team

The girls interested in golf are having a little difficulty in getting in time for practice. These March sandstorms give enough interference, but in addition most of the freshman have to spend most of their time making up algebra quizzes. Mrs. Cantrill commented that Elizabeth Grantland was showing up much better than last year, and Irene Powell started off well.

Junior News

The Junior Class is busy these days collecting cans of beans and tomatoes along with other edibles for the Junior-Senior banquet which is to be held March 24th at the Baptist church.

As about 15 guests are to be present at this banquet the Juniors are working at the job, so as to make this one of the outstanding banquets held by Colorado students.

The Juniors have selected their play for the annual contest in April. It is called "Girl Shy" and promises excellent opportunity for the actors of the Junior class.

Junior-Senior Banquet

Part of the program for the Junior-Senior banquet has been completed. The class will be given by Harold Hester; the Class Program by August Armstrong, and the Class History by Gladys Louise Jones.

At a class meeting Tuesday morning the Senior girls voted to cooperate with the Juniors in the matter of wearing wash dresses to the banquet.

News Notes

Sherrad Smith, an ex-student of Colorado High School was at home last week-end from Tarleton. He was accompanied by his room mate.

Julia Mae and Charles E. Root were at home the majority of last week due to a change of terms at A. C. C.

Among the many students taking part in the annual stunt play at C. I. A. we find an ex-student of C. H. S., Frieda Merle Reid.

Deggs Traylor, a recent victim of the measles, has just returned to school this week.

At the present Brady Warren and Charlie Walker are absent from school due to that dreaded disease measles.

Book Review

"The Magnificent Obsession" by Lloyd C. Douglas is one of the outstanding novels of the past few years. It is unusual in that it has been on the best seller lists for two years and is reprinted in ever enlarging editions. The theme of the book is the strength derived from good deeds. Acts of charity and of kindness give the doer of these deeds a greater strength and skill in doing his own work and in this way are their own reward. This is brought out not by sermonizing but by a very interesting and well told story, which held the readers attention throughout.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Morgan are now eating home cured hams that were cured a year ago. They are unusually good and are just as sweet as ham cured this winter. They use a sugar cure and after the hams are taken from the cure they are coated with a molasses paste. The finished product is similar to "Virginia Ham" which is a sugar cured ham kept in a cool place for about a year. Mr. Morgan is now trying the new way of cutting up pork so that the pork chop cuts can be cured instead of being put into sausage.

Jeff Mixe of Valley View is extending his terraces into his pasture to conserve moisture for his native pasture.

Hens in demonstration flocks in Texas during 1932 averaged 150 eggs per hen and returned $1.04 per hen above feed cost.

Bring Anything You Have To Trades Day, Monday, March 20

Dunn Doings

An interesting program on Sunday school work followed by a general discussion of the various problems of this phase of work was rendered at the Methodist church Tuesday morning, March 7. Rev. C. W. Young of Hermleigh brought a very spiritual message from 11:30 until 12:00. At noon lunch was spread in the basement of the church to a large crowd. It Takes More Than Salts, Calomel, Mineral Waters, Oils, or Laxative Pills to Arouse a Sluggish Liver

They Give Only Temporary Relief From Constipation and Biliousness, Because They Have No Effect Whatever on the Liver or Its Production of Bile

Bile is nature's own laxative and your stomach and bowels require at least one quart of fresh bile every day to keep them clean, pure, free from fermentation, putrefaction, gas and disease germs.

When your liver becomes torpid or sluggish the bile stagnates and stops flowing freely. The contents of your bowels become the breeding place for germs and poisons; your food does not digest—it just ferments and decays in the bowels. The blood absorbs these poisons and you suffer from constipation, gas, sick headaches, biliousness, nervousness and sour stomach.

Sargon Soft Mass Pills will remove the cause of this condition and purify your entire system in nature's way. They are not like any other medicine you have ever taken. They are so gentle, thorough and natural in their action that there is nothing about them to remind you that you have ever taken a medicine, and most remarkable of all you gradually reduce the dose until you no longer require a laxative at all.

Five years ago it was generally believed that calomel and laxative drugs stimulated the liver, but modern science has proved that calomel, salts, mineral waters, oils and other laxatives have no effect whatever on the liver.

Sargon Soft Mass Pills act directly on the liver because they contain two amazing substances which highest medical authorities agree are the only effective stimulants to the bile-producing activity of the liver known to modern science. These substances stimulate and invigorate the liver to cleanse and purify itself through increasing its production of bile. This fresh bile immediately starts to work neutralizing acids and poisons, stopping fermentation and decay, cleansing and purifying the bowels and sweeping out accumulated poisons.

Unless you have tried Sargon Soft Mass Pills you can have no idea of the effects produced by this natural cleansing of your liver and bowels. It makes you feel younger, stronger, healthier and happier. It brings back life and color to faded eyes and cheeks, restores the appetite and sound digestion—gives you a new outlook on life itself.

Insist on genuine Sargon Soft Mass Pills. Don't be misled. There are only two known substances which will actually stimulate a torpid or sluggish liver to cleanse and purify itself by increasing its production of bile. Sargon Soft Mass Pills contain both of these substances and no other advertised medicine on the American market today does contain them.

Only 60c for a full 30-day treatment. At your druggist, or write G. F. Willis, Inc., Atlanta, Ga.

REMOVE THE CAUSE TO RELIEVE RHEUMATISM

If you are one of those who has been trying to find relief from rheumatism through drugs, you will be interested in a natural relief that thousands have found beneficial.

No permanent freedom from rheumatism can be gained until the cause is removed. Poisons of the digestive tract must be eliminated properly before you can expect relief.

Crazy Water—literally washes away these poisons that cause all the pain and suffering. Crazy Water, favorably received for over fifty years, is now evaporated for convenience to produce Crazy Water Crystals for use in your own home.

Crazy Water Crystals is not a drug or patent medicine. It is a natural mineral water—nothing added. It will produce thorough elimination without the slightest irritation.
